MUENSTER, COOKE, COUNTY, TEXAS,

NOVEMBER 13, 1953

NO. 51

Last week when questioned about the possibility of being summoned before the Un-American Activities Committee for questioning, Former President Harry Truman made a very significant remark. He said "I am a former president of the United States."

His implication was clear. A man who has held the highest office of this country should not be subjected to the humiliation of answering embarrassing questions. He should have the comfort and satisfaction of spending the rest of his days in an atmosphere of prestige and honor.

In principle, the man is correct, and normally the American public would be immensely pleased to have it that way. But circumstances sometimes make a difference, and in this case there are reasons a plenty for a less favorable public attitude.

This thing gets back to basic ideas on privileges and responsibilities. A man who wishes to enjoy the privileges and immunities of an office should first make sure to live up to the high standards of that office. The more any individual lays claim to public respect the more he should strive to deserve that respect. In the case of a president most of us agree that he should be honored, but on the assumption that he is worthy to be president in the first place.

According to some of the information now being brought to light, Harry Truman and quite a few others who rated high in the past administration are going to be exposed for a mess of shabby incidents bordering on treason. Facts apparently prove that he knew in at least one case that he was appointing a communist spy to an important position. Circumstances suggest that in many other cases he appointed men whose loyalty he had reason to doubt. There were other cases in which he made himself ridiculous by vehement support of characters who were later proved to be subversive.

It appears more and more that the Fair Deal crowd, and New Dealers before them, were deliberately trifling with the nation's welfare for their own political gains. They attempted to use pinks and reds only to discover too late that they themselves were being used. To admit mistakes when they finally wised up would have been political suicide. So they cried "Red Herring", denied charges, hoarded incriminating files, and used every other means at their disposal to keep the American public from finding out. How else can anyone explain the absurdities of the past several years? No one can claim that Truman was a communist. Yet he protected ever Red and denounced every man who attempted to expose one of them.

Before investigations are over Harry Truman may become one of the most disgraced men of American history. It would be a jolt to our national pride, but if that's what is needed to smoke out the reds still carrying on their treachery and sabotage in the government, let it come. After all, national welfare is a lot more important than the prestige that might be preserved by white-washing the ambition-inspired boners and deceptions of a few persons.

As far as we are concerned only one thing counts. That's cleaning the scum out of our government, and let the chips fall where they may. If in the process any big shots or former big shots are exposed as cheap politicians jeopardizing the country for their own gain, they are getting only what they deserve. They had no right in the first place to gamble with the welfare of 160 million people.

Elections lately are causing the Republicans plenty of concern. And rightly so, because they indicate how many people are disappointed with the failure to clean up the shabby mess in Washington.

Is it too much to hope that these jolts will induce Ike and his cohorts to start doing things? Such as lowering the boom on reds, wiping out the socialistic schemes, trimming expenses, lowering taxes, and firing the mob

County Okays Road If Bridge is Built North of Muenster

A good road to a Red River bridge near the former Muenster Ferry location was assured by the Cooke County Commissioners Court Monday, provided a bridge now said to be available in Oklahoma is erected in that area.

Commissioner John B. Klement told the court that commissioners of Love and Carter Counties, Oklahoma, have a salvaged bridge at their disposal and have indicated an interest in using it to serve the area north of Muenster. Two Oklahoma delegations have inspected the ferry location lately as well as other proposed crossings west of there.

If the bridge and road are built, Klement pointed out both sides of the river could profit. It would open fine dairy possibilities in the rich area north of the river and also provide a short cut to the Fort Worth livestock market.

Commissioners were hopeful that their agreement would influence the Oklahoma group to favor the Cooke County site for their bridge. Several other cities, including Nocona, are trying to have the proposed bridge located farther west.

Tigers and Micks Will Tangle Friday In Annual Classic

There will be lots of football on the Tiger field Friday when the Laneri Micks of Fort Worth invade Muenster for their annual grid classic with Sacred Heart.

The body will be taken to Wichita Falls for services by Hampton-Vaughan-Merkle Funeral Home.

Estes received serious injuries in an oil field accident in June 1952 while he was working out of Muenster. He had been in hospitals since that time.

He was born Sept. 16, 1908, in Arkansas, served with the Army Air Force four years of World War II and worked in the oil fields.

Survivors include his wife, the former Miss Bobby Richter; his mother, Mrs. J. T. Estes of Olney; two brothers, Vic Estes of Gainesville, and Charles Estes of Galena Park, Tex.; one son, Charles Estes of Wichita Falls; and three sisters, Mrs. Mable Watson of Carlsbad, N.M., Mrs. Ike Deeley of Hobbs, N.M., and Mrs. George Quisenberry of Orth, Tex.

At the same time it is the Tigers' big game and Father Christopher has been emphatic in reminding them that they can take nothing for granted, regardless of what previous scores indicate.

Winning, for the Tigers, will mean the difference between sole claim to the district title or sharing it with two or three other teams. Up to now Laneri and Catholic High have one loss each. If both should win it would result in a three way tie. If Laneri wins and Catholic High loses it is a Tiger-Mick tie for first. Only the Tigers have a chance for undisputed claim on the trophy.

Tigers Spring 38-0 Upset at Texarkana To Take Loop Lead

The pre-game dope bucket took a terrific kicking around Sunday afternoon at Texarkana as the Sacred Heart Tigers humiliated the favored Catholic High Eagles by a count of 38-0.

With sour memories of a 34-0 walloping given to them at Texarkana two years before, Father Christopher's boys entered the fray determined to make their hosts put out plenty of effort for the victory that was due to glorify their homecoming. What they encountered was a team that started well but fell to pieces when it trailed by a couple of touchdowns. From then hard running Gil Knabe made a track meet of the affair and tricky Jerry Henscheid kept the Eagle defense thoroughly befuddled.

The triumph, besides giving the Tigers their seventh straight in a perfect season put them in undisputed first spot in the North Texas District race of the Southwest Academic League, with a cinch for at least a tie in the final standing after they meet Laneri this Friday night. Up to Sunday's game Sacred Heart and Catholic High were the only undefeated teams in league play.

For one quarter the tussle went scoreless as the Tigers threatened twice but lost one scoring chance on a fumble and another on an intercepted pass. The fumble occurred on the 15, the interception occurred on a play that originated at the 1.

With the opening play of the second quarter the situation changed, however, as Knabe heaved a pass to Herr for 40 yards and the first touchdown. Mollenkopf added the extra point.

Forced to kick in their first series of downs the Eagles promptly saw the Tigers going after their next marker. Four plays, including Henscheid's 28 yard jaunt covered the 42 yards to pay dirt. Mollenkopf scored from the 2.

For the rest of the period the Eagles did better but their gains were wasted by two fumbles recovered by Mollenkopf and

Queen Carrie Ann To Reign at Tiger Homecoming Game

Queen Carrie Ann of the house of Gehrig, attended by her princesses and duchesses, will reign over the annual homecoming celebrations at Sacred Heart High School Friday night, when the Tigers meet the Laneri Micks.

Her Royal Highness will be crowned on the Tiger football field before the game and will occupy a place of honor during the game.

Queen Carrie Ann is winner of contest which was under way for several weeks. Each of the high school classes selected a favorite as a candidate to compete for the queen's title. Results of the contest were announced Friday night at a dance for students and their guests at the VFW hall. Miss Gehrig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig, is a senior.

Other contestants in the race Theresa Mae Felderhoff, Caroline Hesse and Carol Ann Miller, will be princesses in the queen's court.

The principal event on the program is the coronation ceremony in which Tiger Co-captains Gilbert Knabe and James Mollenkopf will play leading roles and in which other members of the team and the pep squad will participate.

Ceremonies start at 7:30 and game time is 8 o'clock. After the game a homecoming dance will be held in the VFW hall.

Mrs. Hennigan will be in the hospital two or three more weeks. She was recovering satisfactorily when Pat and Mrs. Hope returned home Monday.

Hornets Favored in Season Finale with Lightweight Eagles

Odds will be comfortably stacked in favor of the Muenster Hornets here Thursday night when they close their 1953 grid season in a tussle with the featherweight Eagles of Valley View High.

The contest has little significance in the 10-B district race but it does serve as an opportunity to both teams to regain some of the prestige lost in their poor records to date.

The Eagles have lost all but one non-conference game whereas the Hornets have 6 losses, 2 wins and a tie. Their conference record stands at 2-2-1, for fifth place standing on the present loop scoreboard. Beating the Eagles could improve their percentage rating but it would not improve the standing unless one of present four leaders were bumped down by other district contests.

Callisburg, now sharing the lead with Era, faces two hard games and might possibly be tumbled into a lower bracket. Alford also could be dropped to a lower bracket standing and the same applies to Sanger. Era with one loss and a game to go is the only team with a cinch for the top bracket and a strong chance for the title.

Despite a decided weight advantage over the Eagles the Hornets are far from assured of an easy victory Thursday. Tommy Turner, the Valley View scabback who could rate as a star on any team of the district is always a threat to get loose on a scoring sprint. A few jaunts like that could offset the weight advantage which will favor the Hornets. On the other hand Noggler is quite a threat also. And other Hornet backs have made a good showing against stronger competition.

Hornets Reclaim Horseshoe in 13-0 Win Over Panthers

That roving Muenster-Saint Jo trophy, the golden horseshoe, came back to Muenster Friday night as a payoff for the Hornets' 13-0 victory over the Panthers in a tussle that was featured by two early touchdowns and a deadlock for the rest of the way.

In the opening minutes it seemed as though the host outfit was headed for a run-away as it converted a lucky break into the first score and shortly afterward launched a 60 yard scoring drive.

But that was all of the counting, though definitely not all of the action. Saint Jo gave the fans some tense moments as it hammered on the goal line twice and Muenster did likewise as it pushed 60 yards for another TD only to have it called back for an infraction of the rules. On an average the Hornets did the better offensive job but four of their drives fizzled out on fumbles recovered by the Panthers.

The break that set the Hornets up in business the first time was a bad pass from center on kick formation following the first series of downs. From scrimmage line on the 36 the ball sailed over Thurman's head. After racing back for it he tried to run but was swamped on the 15. The Hornets cashed in on five plays with Noggler diving over from the 3 for the score.

Next a Panther first down followed by a short kick out of bounds at midfield, a Hornet fumble, then the only Panther fumble of the game... and the Hornets were off on the 60 yard push for their second score. Of the 12 plays to the line the thriller was a 24 yard gain down the left sideline by Noggler after a pitchout from Richey. The next was the TD as Richey when blocked at the line flipped the ball to Noggler who raced around right end to the goal. Richey followed the same path for the extra point.

Moments later it seemed like more of the same after Noggler's 45 yard kick return but a fumble on the next series gave the visitors the ball on the 15. Led by high-stepping Thurman, the Panther stand out throughout the

Mike Koelzer, 73, Former Resident Dies at Hereford

Mike Koelzer, 73, former Muenster resident, died in Hereford Monday night at about 7 o'clock after suffering a heart attack a week earlier.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Anthony's church and burial followed in St. Anthony's cemetery.

Mr. Koelzer was born in Seneca, Kansas, on August 13, 1880, and moved to Muenster as a youth when his mother and the family came here to make their home. His father died earlier in Seneca.

He was married here on Oct. 24, 1905, to Miss Mathilda Luke and they made Muenster their home until they moved to Hereford in March 1926. They engaged in farming until about two and a half years ago when they retired from active work. Mrs. Koelzer died there last July.

A daughter, Mrs. Elbert Vance and her husband lived with Mr. Koelzer since his wife's death. He suffered his first serious heart attack about a month ago and recovered. The second attack on Nov. 2, caused his death a week later.

Survivors are eight children, Mrs. John Herr of Muenster, Sister Regina of Limerick, Maine, Miss Marcy Koelzer of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Lloyd Neil, Mrs. Elbert Vance, Meinrad and Werner Koelzer, all of Hereford, and Nick Koelzer of St. Louis, Mo., 11 grandchildren; four great grandchildren; and two brothers, Joe Koelzer of Seneca, and Ed Koelzer of Horton, Kansas.

Muenster relatives leaving Wednesday morning to attend the funeral were Messrs. and Mmes. John Herr, W. H. Endres, Gilbert Endres, Joe and Alphonse Hoenig, J. P. Flusche, Henry Henscheid, and Ben and Alphonse Luke and Mrs. Joe Luke.

Civic League and Garden Club Meets

The Muenster Civic League and Garden Club held its November meeting Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. M. J. Endres with Mrs. R. N. Fette as co-hostess. Mrs. Tony Gremminger, president, conducted the business session after members answered roll call with "My Favorite Garden Tool".

Members voted to replace three trees in Memorial Park and Mrs. Frank Yosten, chairman, scheduled a meeting with her committee to make arrangements for the work.

Mrs. Lee Toothaker, conservation chairman, reminded members of the 1953-55 project of District II—publicizing, propagating, and preserving the five wild flowers on the district conservation list: Texas Bluebonnet, Texas Bluebell, Mountain Pink, Texas Pink Star and Indian Paint Brush. She urged members to plant wild flowers in their gardens.

Mrs. M. J. Endres, chairman of the annual collection for the cemetery on Nov. 1, reported receipts totaled $295. She named and thanked those who assisted her with the work.

Mrs. T. S. Myrick reported that 200 Dutch Iris had been planted on the flower beds at the public school, and Mrs. Joe Luké reported on the Birthday Calendar which the club is sponsoring this year. The calendar is now ready for the printers.

Miss Olivia Stock, program and year book chairman, distributed the new year books.

A report of District II meeting held in McKinney on Oct. 15 was given by Mrs. Luke and Miss Stock who attended from Muenster.

During the program period members heard two interesting and informative talks. Mrs. Steve Moser spoke on "For Hemerocallis Lovers" and Mrs. T. S. Myrick discussed "Different Soils Suit Different Plants". She gave members mimeographed copies of a list of bulbs adaptable to this area with planting instructions for each.

Hemerocallis (Day Lilies) are this year's horticultural project and plants recently ordered were distributed.

After adjournment the hostesses served apple dumplings with whipped cream and coffee to 20 members. Two new members, Mrs. Edd McGannon and Mrs. R. R. Endres, were welcomed.

A large arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums adorned the mantel in the Endres home. The flowers were grown, arranged and brought to the meeting by Mrs. Ben Luke.

The club's next meeting will be held on December 14 with Mmes. Tony and Ted Gremminger as hostesses. Theme of the program will be "Holiday Glamour".

Hornets Win - - -

game, Saint Jo pushed back past midfield, before drawing a 15 yard penalty for a pass to an illegal receiver. The handicap forced a kick and neither team made any headway the rest of the half.

Starting the third quarter Muenster racked up two first downs before fumbling the ball away on the visitors' 42.

Then the Panthers got hot, registering four successive first downs in a determined drive which the Hornets finally halted a foot short of the line.

Richey kicked out of danger and the Panthers promptly started another push from the 34. That got smeared for a loss and the Hornets took over on their own 4.

A penalty for offensive holding, back to their 1 forced the Hornets to kick again but they got the ball on their own 40 four plays later as Saint Jo lost on a fourth down gamble.

Nine plays put the ball on the Panther 5 and Moon plowed over, but officials nullified the play and imposed a 15 yard penalty for use of hands on offense followed by a 5 yard penalty for backfield in motion. The handicap was too great as Noggler, on two tries, got back to the 8 where a pair of Panthers jarred him loose from the ball.

Educator Favors Teaching Religion In Public Schools

The chairman of the Board of Higher Education here has advocated the teaching of religious values on a non-dogmatic basis in the public school system.

Dr. Joseph B. Cavallaro, head of the board that controls the College of the City of New York and Brooklyn, Hunter and Queens Colleges, also urged the compulsory teaching of American history in all city schools and colleges supported by taxes.

Dr. Cavallaro declared that "the failure to inculcate in our youth a sense of spiritual values, to teach them what they are, their purpose, their place as individuals, the meaning of life and death, has brought a decline in ideals, loyalties. . . Religion is an inseparable part of our culture and of our American heritage. . ."

Aileen Koelzer and Arnold Knabe Say Vows Here Tuesday

Miss Aileen Koelzer became the bride of Arnold Knabe Tuesday morning during a nuptial high mass in Sacred Heart church at 8:30. Rev. Louis Deuster celebrated the mass and performed the double ring ceremony. Greenery, white mums and candles adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged their vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Koelzer and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a lovely waltz length wedding gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin. It was designed with a moulded lace bodice topped with a fitted bolero of lace featuring a Peter Pan collar and petal point sleeves. Deep V inserts of the lace accented the bouffant tulle skirt.

Her tiered veil of illusion was finger tip length attached to a sequin sprinkled lace head piece, and she carried her flowers, white roses and stephanotis on top of a white prayerbook. As a bit of sentiment she wore an antique gold chain and cross borrowed from her aunt, Mrs. Joe Streng.

Miss Veronica Koelzer was her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Miss Alice Koelzer, was bridesmaid. They wore identically designed frocks of gaudy blue with wide, tiered skirts of net over taffeta, velvet bodices and velvet jackets. Their corded head pieces and gauntlets matched their dresses and they carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

The groom's attendants were his twin brothers, Gilbert and Albert Knabe.

Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir presented the wedding music.

After the services, members of the bridal party, their parents and the officiating minister were guests for a breakfast in the home of the bride's parents where table decorations carried out the bride's chosen colors.

At three o'clock a reception began in the parish hall and a buffet supper was served at six. A dance in the VFW hall concluded the day's festivities. Dolores Koelzer, sister of the bride, and Lillie Mae Reiter, niece of the groom, presided at the bride's book registering more than 90 guests.

Autumn leaves and fall flowers adorned the reception hall and the bride's table held the four-tier decorated cake on a mirror reflector flanked by blue tapers in crystal holders. White mums, fern and miniature white wedding bells further adorned the board.

Mrs. Koelzer attended her daughter's wedding in a navy blue suit with light blue and black accessories. Mrs. Knabe wore a wine ensemble with gray accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

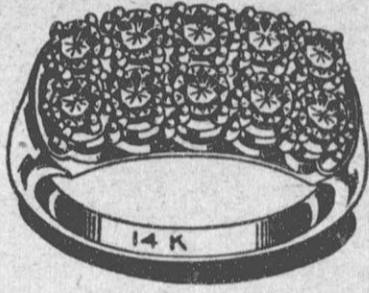

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip the bride was wearing an azure blue two-piece suit with navy and white accessories and a white rose corsage.

They will make their home in Muenster.

Both are natives of this community and attended Sacred Heart school. Mr. Knabe is employed with L. W. Powell Drilling company.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were the Adolph Knabes and sons and Leonard Knabe of Hereford, Herbert Fette of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Devers and family of Valley View.

COURAGEOUS CAVALLARO

By George Peck

On Sunday afternoon, October 18th, it was my great privilege to attend a testimonial luncheon at the Hotel Astor in New York City. What transpired at that luncheon must have sent cold shivers down the spines of the masters of the Kremlin. It was undoubtedly the greatest, most unified anti-Communist demonstration ever held in the New York area, possibly the greatest ever held anywhere in the nation. The luncheon was attended by 1,300 persons, of all religious faiths and races, and recruited from all walks of life. They had gathered to pay tribute to Dr. Joseph B. Cavallaro, Chairman of the Board of Higher Education, N. Y. City. (Incidentally, each had paid $5 for the privilege of being present to honor Dr. Cavallaro. It was not a free lunch.) And why did these 1,300 people assemble at the Astor? They had come together to applaud Dr. Cavallaro for the courageous battle he has waged and is waging to rid New York colleges of Communist teachers.

The luncheon was sponsored by the Joint Committee against Communism in New York, an association of patriotic organizations.

The Invocation was given by the Right Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Waterson, Secretary of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York; the Prayer by the Rev. James F. Martin of St. James Episcopal Church; and the Benediction by Rabbi Benjamin Schultz. The last named also did a masterful job as Toastmaster.

During the luncheon Dr. Cavallaro was awarded scrolls, medals and citations by the American Jewish League Against Communism; the Guardians of American Education; the Joint Committee Against Communism in New York; the New York State Catholic War Veterans; the New York County Veterans of Foreign Wars; and the Students for America. As a frosting for the cake, a scroll was presented to Dr. Cavallaro, a lifelong Democrat, by the Queens County Young Republican Association.

Robert Morris, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Committee, delivered the principal address. In a fighting speech, he called upon patriots and patriotic organizations for renewed zeal in their fight against world Communism.

In his address responding to the honors which had been conferred upon him, Dr. Cavallaro, who is a prominent Catholic layman, called for a return to the teaching of religion and for the compulsory study of American history in our schools.

"Our problem," he said, "is not merely a negative one of opposing Communism or secularism, but the positive responsibility of taking stock of our heritage, of capitalizing on our assets, of learning from the wisdom of the past, to the end that we may rediscover and reaffirm the spiritual ideals and values without which we cannot hope to remain a free people."

Dr. Cavallaro hastily added that the teaching of religion in our schools should not encompass tenets and dogmas—but simply to instill into the minds of our youth a knowledge of God as the Creator and the Giver of all good things—to provide our young people with a spiritual undergirding to prepare them to take on the battle of life, without which preparation, education falls far short of its goal.

In the first paragraph of this article, I stated that these doings at the Hotel Astor on Sunday, October 18th, must have sent cold shivers down the spines of the masters of the Kremlin. How they must have hated the idea of so many people of so many different stations of life, religions and races, getting together to do homage to a man who has had the audacity to publicly oppose

God's True Image Found In Christ

By Reverend John A. O'Brien

THE BEST PICTURE of God is that afforded by the person of Jesus Christ, the untarnished mirror of the Most High.

"No one has at any time seen God," St. John declares. "The only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has revealed him." John (1:18)

Uniting in Himself the nature of man and the nature of God, Christ gives us a better and a truer picture of God than can be found in the writings of all the philosophers, theologians, prophets, and mystics since time began.

GOD STANDS revealed to us in the character of Him who cleanses the lepers, heals the sick. Rev. J. O'Brien restores sight to the blind, forgives the woman taken in adultery, washes the feet of His disciples, and sheds His blood for the redemption of mankind.

See Him as He walks over the dusty roadsides of Judea and Galilee and says to His disciples: "Learn of me, for I am meek and humble of heart."

It was His ministry of mercy and love that inspired His disciple, St. John, to give the noblest definition of God ever uttered, when he said simply: "God is love."

GOD IS INFINITE Beauty, Truth, Goodness, Mercy, Love. It is this vision of God which has inspired the noblest enterprises of Christianity, built hospitals, orphanages, homes for the friendless, and has prompted man to find in the service of the poor and the lowly his title to nobility.

Rufus Jones tells of a little child who was being put to bed by his mother. After she turned out the light, she started for the door. Suddenly the little child realized the loneliness and the darkness which he would be enduring.

"Am I to be left all alone, and in the dark, too?" he asked anxiously.

"Yes, my dear," replied the mother, "but you know you have God with you all the time."

"Yes, I know God is here," said the child, "but I want someone with a face."

SUCH TOO IS the anxious, wistful cry of all humanity. We know in the abstract that God is near us, but we want a more vivid sense of His reality and His presence in our world. Above all, we want to see Him and to discover Him as a real Person with an actual life and character. It is in Him that the Face is seen and the personal character is revealed.

Communism!

The one and only chance of the Communists' ever succeeding in taking over America lies in their being able to drive and maintain wedges between all of us who loathe their Godless and inhumane ideology. They use every device, fair and foul, to keep us disunited. Divide and conquer is their motto.

This vast gathering at the Hotel Astor is proof positive that their nefarious schemes are not succeeding and that an aroused and alerted American people can unite to do battle against the greatest menace the world has ever known—Godless Communism.

God bless Dr. Joseph B. Cavallaro for having provided the rallying point for liberty-loving, patriotic Americans to declare themselves.

Martin Van Buren was the first President to be born a citizen of the United States.

Improved again!

No. 1 in Texas

by a wider margin than ever

A few weeks after the Japanese surrender in World War II, the Humble Company introduced a vastly improved Esso Extra gasoline to Texas motorists.

At that time, the Company promised a policy of continuous improvement: Humble told motorists that Esso Extra would never take second place in quality.

That promise has been kept. Improvement of Esso Extra has been continuous. Statewide, Esso Extra has consistently led other Texas gasolines in quality. Statewide, Esso Extra has been No. 1 in quality every year.

And now, because Texas motorists driving modern automobiles have learned that Esso Extra gives them extra performance, Esso Extra is also No. 1 in sales.

The improvement in the quality of Esso Extra announced by this advertisement is substantial—it is a major improvement. It places Esso Extra far ahead of other gasolines in the qualities that are reflected by performance in your car.

Today, Esso Extra gasoline is No. 1 in Texas by a wider margin than ever before.

Now the BEST gasoline in Texas is even BETTER!

Esso Extra gasoline, statewide, has consistently led all other Texas gasolines in quality; now, new improvements have widened the margin between Esso Extra and the rest: Humble Esso Extra has no equal throughout the state of Texas.

Tests prove Esso Extra's superior quality!

There are three qualities of a gasoline that are brought out in the performance of your car. In all these three qualities, Esso Extra leads.

Extensive and continuous laboratory testing of Esso Extra and other gasolines proves Esso Extra's superior qualities, and these laboratory tests have been confirmed by road testing in specially equipped automobiles.

Esso Extra leads in anti-knock performance: In today's automobile engines, with their high compression ratios, anti-knock performance is the most noticeable quality of a good gasoline. There is no substitute for this quality. Only a gasoline with a high octane rating—that is, high anti-knock performance—burns so evenly and completely that it transfers all the usable energy from the gasoline to the pistons. When your car's engine pings or knocks, you're losing power. Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas.

Esso Extra leads in power: High anti-knock performance assures more power. Since Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas, it gives you more power than any other Texas gasoline. This conclusion has been verified by special laboratory testing equipment which actually measures the power delivered by a gasoline burning in an automobile engine. Road tests by both Humble technicians and independent research facilities have confirmed the laboratory tests. Your car will develop extra power when you use Esso Extra.

Esso Extra leads in quick starting: In comparative tests with other gasolines, Esso Extra's quick starting characteristics were rated "Excellent," while those of other popular gasolines ranked from "poor" to merely "adequate." When you use Esso Extra your engine starts at almost the instant you press the starter button. But quick starting is more than a convenience. It saves gasoline, and it prevents gasoline dilution of the crankcase oil. If you use your car mostly for town driving, you will specially appreciate Esso Extra's quick starting qualities.

And for good measure, Esso Extra contains a patented solvent oil: This oil is not a lubricant. Its purpose is to dissolve the gummy substances that collect carbon on top of pistons and under valves, and thus help to prevent carbon deposits in the upper parts of the engine.

See for yourself—test Esso Extra in your own car

Esso Extra will give you the same results obtained by researchers when you test it in your car. Its quality is so superior that you will notice at once that Esso Extra gives you extra quick starting, extra anti-knock performance, extra power.

You'll discover that you enjoy your car more, that it runs better, that you're getting—at last—the performance you expect from a modern automobile. No other gasoline can duplicate Esso Extra's performance in your car, because no other gasoline matches Esso Extra's quality.

Fill up with improved Esso Extra gasoline at any Humble sign—it's the same extra performance gasoline at every Humble sign.

Sheriff's "Push" Pulls a Vote

Was talking with our newly elected Sheriff Williams the other day. He told me about a fellow who stopped by his place late one night just before election.

"Heard a knock at the door," he said. "Fellow I never saw before. Told me his car went dead down the road and would I give him a shove. My boy, Flip, and I went out to his car with him. We're all set to push when he steps on the starter and the motor turns over.

"Well, Flip and I just stood there when the fellow leans out the window and says, 'Just wanted to make sure you're the right man to vote for!'"

From where I sit, the fellow who's quick to lend a hand makes any community a better one. But you don't have to run for office to prove you're a good neighbor. One way I know is just to have a little regard for the other fellow. Whether your neighbor likes beer or buttermilk, don't try to push him to your choice. Just give him your "vote of confidence."

NTPA Distributes Dividend Checks to Member Dairymen

Dairy farmers of Cooke County who marketed Grade A milk on the North Texas market as members of the North Texas Producers Association during the period October 1, 1951 to June 1, 1952, are receiving dividend checks this week totalling $977.14, according to William Thompson, member of the NTPA Board of Directors, representing Cooke County.

For a number of local producers this will be the second time to have received a check from the Association. In July, 1952, Cooke County producer-members were paid a total of $890.07, representing repayment of voluntary loans made to the Association during its organizational period. Each individual member making a voluntary loan to the Association was repaid in full.

NTPA members living in more than 40 counties of Texas and Oklahoma will receive cash patron equity dividend payments totalling more than $22,000 during the month of November. With the payment of this dividend to members, more than $40,000 will have been paid to members of the association during the past 16 months, from unexpended funds of the Association's first fiscal year. For each dollar paid in dues, more than 56 cents will have been paid back to producers. Each member receives an amount in proportion to the sum he has paid in as dues, in addition to the full amount of any voluntary loan made. The amount of the dividend check being paid to members this month will represent a return of slightly more than 23 cents of each dollar the member paid in during the 8 month period, October 1, 1951 to June 1, 1952.

Julia Wolf Reigns As Queen at Annual M.H.S. Homecoming

The coronation of Miss Julia Wolf as 1953 football queen, a 13-0 victory of the Hornets over the Saint Jo Panthers, the return of the coveted golden horseshoe to Muenster and a dance in the school gym were high spots of a gala homecoming program attended by a record crowd of Muenster High ex students and Hornet fans on Friday night, Nov. 7.

The ceremonies started at 7 o'clock with the Muenster Band leading the royal procession from the south end of the field and the Saint Jo High school band entering the field from the north. After both bands played their school songs they joined in the National Anthem, then formed an honor guard for the crowning ceremony. Queen Julia and Hornet Sweetheart Rita Cain, both in white net formals, were escorted by Co-captains Eugene Walter and Joe Noggler. Princesses in the queen's court were Joyce Wiesman in yellow net and black velvet, escorted by Wallace Dougherty; Virginia Otto in pink net with a blue stole, escorted by Don Moon; and Mary Pick in pink net with a white stole, escorted by Hubert Richey.

Duchesses attending Queen Julia at the festivities were Rebecca Williams, Sandra Cain, Bobby Tuggle, Maurice Kaderli, Linda Dickerson, Dianna Richey, and Patsy Dennis.

Eugene Walter placed the crown on Queen Julia's head, and Joe Noggler presented a bouquet of red roses to Sweetheart Rita Cain. Meeting this group in the center of the field were Superintendents Weldon Cowan and N. L. Rushing, Panther Co-captains Larry Thurman and Bill Harris and Panther Queen Janet Hutson. Miss Hutson wore a navy blue suit with red and white accessories.

Superintendent Rushing gave the golden horseshoe to Panther Queen Janet to hold during the game, and she presented it to Queen Julia during after-game ceremonies on the 50 yard line when Muenster claimed the trophy for the coming year.

Achievement Show By 4-H Clubs Has Over 200 Entries

Attractive exhibits arranged in an autumn theme setting provided a community fair atmosphere in the parish lunch room Monday when members of the Sacred Heart 4-H clubs held their second annual Achievement Day program.

Scores of visitors viewed the various displays of sewing, baking, fancy work, crafts, livestock, grain, vegetables and hobbies from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 at night.

Centering the autumn theme on Thanksgiving the clubs aranged a huge cornucopia spilling fruits and vegetables as the point of interest in decorations and displayed their exhibits in an inviting fashion around this setting. Life-like hand made turkeys with fan tails of crepe paper held vantage spots and equally life-like squirrels adorned the walls.

Judges judged the exhibits before the show opened and tagged them with blue, red and white ribbons designating, first, second and third place. They also selected grand prize winners in different sections.

Jean Wieler won the grand prize in sewing. An eighth grader she entered a jumper dress and won a blouse pattern and material as an award.

Gerrie Trubenbach, fifth grade, and Christine Fleitman, sixth grade, tied for the championship award in the baking department on their chocolate and butter-scotch cakes, respectively, and divided the prize, a baking set consisting of mixing bowls, sifter, measuring cup and spoons.

Patsy Otto, seventh grader, took the top award in crocheting, on a doll, and received crocheted thread and patterns.

Margie Flusche, seventh grade, won the best embroidery award and received a pair of pillow cases.

A special award went to Claudia Endres, a future 4-H member, now a second grader, for her crocheted hat and belt. Her prize was a statuette of Our Lady of Fatima.

In the livestock division, Leonard Bayer showed the champion heifer, Herman Grewing the top broilers, Regi Bayer the best sheep and Clifford Endres the prize rabbits.

Visitors registered for door prizes, Mrs. Clarence Owen and T. Miller winning gifts of a pair of scissors and a water fountain for chicks.

We're sorry about the delay in arrival of this tractor. We expected it about Nov. 1, but there were not enough units to go around in the first shipment to the Dallas area.

PUZZLE:

Who got

the hundred million dollars?

He walked into our office seven years ago, sat down. We knew the customer. And a wonderful credit rating he had, too.

Said he wanted airplane engines. By that time blueprints were scattered all over the place.

He was taking no chances. Not one engine would he accept without testing first, stripping apart, building up again, and testing once more. Hmmm!

And more. Every engine he bought would be overhauled after 15 running hours.

He didn't say so, but he must have known we would have ideas, too. (Lights burn all night when engineers at our place see ways to improve things we make.)

The climax was last August. The customer announced that he would allow 1,200 hours flying time from these G-E engines before an overhaul.

In other words, 80 times as many hours without overhaul as seven years ago. And today only every tenth engine is tested twice before delivery because of what has been referred to as the "perfection rate" of G-E jet engines.

Oh, yes. The hundred million dollars. With General Electric engines now giving extended service, not so many are needed. Improvements have saved the customer that much in five years.

P. S. Who's the customer? The U. S. Air Force. And what was the engine? The J-47 jet engine.

And who got the hundred million dollar saving? Who profits from more Air Force per dollar? The taxpayer, everybody. This story is one more example of what happens where research men and engineers are at work. Products gain in efficiency, do more. New products emerge, and the public is always the gainer.

WHY NOT SUBSIDIZE EVERYBODY?

A merchant in a neighboring town told Sun editor the other day that his business is off about 25 percent over this time last year, and he is worried.

Got a circular through the mail the other day advertising an auction sale of all the equipment of an East Texas printer who had folded up because his expenses were greater than his income.

See in the papers every day where businesses and industries in every line have suspended because they couldn't make a profit.

All of which leads up to the thought that the cattlemen are not the only folks in financial straits.

So, why not just subsidize everybody at the taxpayers' expense, then everybody can be happy—except the taxpayer?

Soil Conservation Notes

Want to up yields on your land by one-third?

You can do just that by including a soil building legume in your rotation, technicians of the local SCS work unit office point out. Here's what legumes in the rotation did for Ben Davis who operates the Jack Howeth farm at Hood.

Last fall Ben planted oats on 33 acres. Ten of these acres had grown a crop of Austrian winter peas the winter before. The peas had received 200 pounds of phosphate fertilizer and had been turned under as green manure. The oats yield this summer was 82 bushels per acre on the land where peas had grown and only 54 bushels per acre on the untreated land—a 28 bushel per acre increase on the soil that had grown a legume crop.

With oats selling for 75 cents a bushel this increase in yield meant an additional income of $21 per acre. Which goes to show it pays to farm the conservation way.

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district at Muenster know from experience the value of legumes to improve and protect the soil and are using them more often in their rotations.

H. N. Fuhrmann has planted 10 acres of winter peas on his farm east of Muenster. J. W. Fleitman has also seeded 10 acres of the Kaiser farm to winter peas. Martin Bayer has planted five acres to winter peas and 13 acres to alfalfa on the Bayer farm south of Muenster.

J. H. Bayer has seeded 30 acres of his home place to alfalfa. He has also planted 18 acres of the Winstead farm to this kind of forages and 18 acres to vetch.

At Buleher Charlie Harris has seeded 60 acres of old field areas to vetch for soil building and to provide extra grazing. E. Newby is also sowing vetch on part of his cultivated fields.

At Freemound Roy Atteberry has vetch on 60 acres and alfalfa on 12 acres of his farmland.

HOW TO HANDLE YOUR HUSBAND

A group of cowgirls, appearing in New York in behalf of something or other (probably Texas), have gained considerable attention there, the Associated Press says, with a set of rules they have laid down for women on how to handle their husbands.

Naturally the cowgirls look on a husband the same as they look on a horse, and assume that the same ritual works for both. Don't ride your husband too hard, they say. Ease up on the curb now and then. Use spurs only when necessary. Give him enough rope. Feed him well and often. Turn him out to graze frequently. Keep a firm hand on the reins most of the time, give him his head once in a while, but keep a quirt handy but use it seldom. Don't fence him in. If he jumps the fence to graze in greener pastures, let him alone; it will just make him realize how much better the grazing is at home.

Wonder if any of these cowgirls ever were married?
—Shreveport (La.) Times.

A motorist, charged with speeding through a red light explained to the judge:

"I always hurry through inter-sections to get out of the way of the reckless drivers."

An anti-communist thriller, Man on a Tightrope, coming to the Relax Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 15-16-17, tells the story of a Czech circus company's escape from behind the Iron Curtain.

A gripping anti-red drama produced by 20th Century-Fox, it's Elia Kazan's first picture since he publicly renounced communistic philosophy. Realistically designed with high color in characterizations the story builds a choking suspense.

Striking performances include those of Fredric March as the circus master, Cameron Mitchell as an ex-GI circus hand, Gloria Grahame as the faithless wife and Terry Moore as a rebellious daughter. Freakish circus characters are cleverly portrayed as the story builds to a tremendous climax.

William H. Mooring, reviewer for Extension Magazine, rates it good, very good. For adults.

"Now, children," said the teacher to her kindergarten class, "I want you all to be very quiet—so quiet that you can hear a pin drop." For a moment, all was still. Then a little boy piped up, "All right! Let'er drop!"

SALT OF THE EARTH—Sea-water wells make a pleasing pattern on this salt "farm" near Okayama, Japan. Here, oriental workers obtain salt by the most primitive method, collecting sea-water in the wells and then, when the water has evaporated, scraping the light crust of salt off the earth. The process is dependent upon warm sun and light rainfall.

THE SPREAD BETWEEN BEEF PRICES

Something of a clamor has arisen concerning the spread between the price cattle sell for on the hoof and the price the housewife must pay for cuts of beef at the butcher shop. The Secretary of Agriculture has ordered an examination of the matter.

Spokesmen for the meat packers have announced that they welcome the Secretary's action. And they have good reason too—for once the facts are known, and the misinformation now current is exposed, all concerned will be better off.

An excellent explanation of the cause of the spread recently appeared in the New Ulm, Minnesota, Daily Journal, under the by-line of Bob Christianson. He wrote: "Because some cattle can be bought for 10 cents a pound from the farmer and some beef sells at a buck a pound to the consumer, politicians immediately try to make a big deal out of it. Sure some beef sells at a buck a pound and some beef prices are as low as 10 cents, but the two certainly aren't related.

"Only five percent, or 50 pounds of a 1,000 pound steer, is sirloin steak, which commands the higher prices. What the politicians are doing is comparing the price paid for every pound of a cull animal on the farm with the price the housewife pays for the choicest cut of choice animals. It just isn't good reasoning.

"It all boils down to this—part of a beef animal may sell above the 50 cents per pound mark, and part of it may be selling for as little as three cents a pound. Average it all out and you'll find about a 25 cent spread between the price paid on the farm and the average price paid in the butcher shop."

Elsewhere in his discussion, Mr. Christianson pointed out that "the average meat packer makes less than a one-cent profit on every buck's worth of meat he sells." There's hardly room for profiteering there!

KIND HEARTS AND GENTLE PEOPLE

Recently I stopped for coffee at a small restaurant operated by a blind veteran. I was amazed at the deft way in which he went about his business. When I went to pay him I handed him a dollar bill. He asked the denomination, then quickly gave me the correct change.

"Do you ever have trouble with people giving you ones and saying they are fives?" I asked.

"No sir," he replied, "the only trouble I have is with people who give me fives and tell me they're ones."

of Fair Deal hangers-on who succeed in obstructing the plans of their new bosses.

The plain hard fact is that pledged reforms will have to come soon or the Republican party will be out of luck and America will have lost its last opportunity to return to sane standards. Somebody's got to get busy and give this generation a taste of real, traditional Americanism, and it has to be in time to let people realize the difference between sound honest economy and the phony socialistic system they have had.

It's not enough of an excuse to say that the past administration has become too firmly entrenched. The job has to be done and Ike has to find a way to do it. If he doesn't it's curtains not only for the Republican party but also for the nation.

Agnes Zimmerer and Cpl. Robert Betzen Marry at Lindsay

Miss Agnes Zimmerer and Cpl. Robert G. Betzen exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony Tuesday morning in Saint Peter's church at Lindsay at 8:30. Rev. Conrad Herda performed the ceremony and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zimmerer and Cpl. Betzen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Betzen of Hereford.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a wedding gown of crystal white Chantilly lace and satin, fashioned with a fitted lace bodice designed with a Peter Pan collar and petal point sleeves. The full satin skirt, accented with panels of lace in front, fell into a cathedral length train. Her veil of illusion was caught to a Juliet cap of lace beaded with seed pearls.

She carried her flowers, an orchid and stephanotis on top of a white prayer book, and for something blue carried a rosary belonging to her sister, Miss Betty Rose Zimmerer, who attended her as maid of honor.

Miss Zimmerer's dress of moss green was fashioned with a bouffant net skirt over taffeta and velvet bodice. She wore a matching hat and gauntlets and carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums.

Joe Betzen attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Clarence Betzen and Herman Zimmerer Jr.

The church altars were decorated with white mums and greenery and Leslie Kuhn, Kenneth Zimmerer and Alcuin Paul Kubis served as acolytes.

Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, and the church choir, presented the wedding music.

After the mass, the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's altar where the bride placed a bouquet of white mums at the feet of the statue while the choir sang a hymn.

The bride's parents entertained with a wedding breakfast in their home and were hosts for dinner in the Lindsay Hall. Misses Marie Zimmerer and Cleta Betzen presided at the double ring wedding cake and Miss Ann Hermes registered the guests.

In the late afternoon Cpl. and Mrs. Betzen left on a wedding trip. Mrs. Betzen was wearing a brown suit with brown and beige accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

When they return they will make their home at Fort Smith, Ark., where he is stationed at Camp Chaffee since his re-assignment following 18 months in Korea. He is a graduate of Hereford High. Mrs. Betzen, a native of Lindsay, attended St. Peter's school.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Marie Zimmerer and Theresa Kempf of Amarillo, the William Betzens, the Joe and Clarence Betzens and Cleta Betzen, all of Hereford, and Gertrude Betzen of Kansas City, Mo.

Tigers Win ---

Bayer. The Tigers too lost some gains on an intercepted pass.

The stalemate continued into the third quarter until Mollenkopf crashed through the scrimmage line on the 44 and turned an attempted punt into tragedy. The booted ball hit his uplifted hands and bounded back to the 18, a loss of 26 yards on the kick. After Mollenkopf's 5 Knabe plowed through center for the third TD only a few plays before the end of the quarter.

From then on the Tigers turned the game into a race, and the Eagles, incidentally, crossed the mid-field stripe for their first and only time of the game. After the third touchdown the Eagles pushed and passed from their own 34 to the Tiger 35, but the drive ended as Herr intercepted and returned to the Tiger 47.

Two plays later, starting from the 50, Knabe got loose on another of his scoring sprints.

Again the Eagles got a first down but William Walterscheid's recovery of a fumble on the Eagle 42 started a brief see saw... Tigers lost the ball on downs and Eagles lost it on another fumble... after which the scoring machine started grinding again. Four plays, including Henscheid's 11, advanced from the Eagle 24 to the 8 and little Carl Walterscheid hit the line three times to get over.

The final score came on two plays after the Tigers held and took over on downs on the Eagle 27. Henscheid passed to Mollenkopf for 21 and to Knabe for the remaining 6. Mollenkopf added another point with a dive over the line.
