

On Labor Day it has long been customary for leaders of organized labor to orate on the benefits enjoyed by working people because of the efforts and influence of the unions. They refer correctly to the old days when workers, because of being disorganized, were at the mercy of unscrupulous industrialists. The situation was bad. People worked long hours for poor pay and were afraid to voice a complaint because they were afraid of being fired as trouble makers.

Thanks to the labor unions all of that has changed. The only trouble is that change has gone too far and the country now is having as much trouble from union bosses as it used to have from industrial bosses. While pay is better and days are shorter, many workers now are mistreated by labor bosses and the country's economy suffers from the strain placed on it by outrageous union demands, which must share responsibility with federal spending for such problems as inflation and unemployment.

When it became the policy to insist on as much pay as the traffic will bear, and to slow down production to insure more jobs, it became inevitable for production cost to go up, and prices to us consumers to go up accordingly. When wages and slow downs went too far they often forced their products out of competition with foreign products.

The presence of enormous quantities of foreign merchandise on the American market is a plain indication that millions of American workers have lost their jobs to the foreign workers. It makes a person wonder whether the union's service to its members has actually been as great as claimed.

This issue involves not only the higher pay for more people but also the gradual shrinkage of earnings as prices go up. So, the question is whether individuals and the economy would be better off if both wage and price were lower and fewer jobs had been lost because of foreign competition. In the consideration we should make sure to remember that buying power was stolen from savings by the increase of prices. For instance, think what has happened to the value of an insurance policy bought 30 years ago.

Of course, there's another consideration that seldom gets attention. At one time union membership was a list of the trade's elite. The union card was a sort of diploma certifying that the holder was an expert in his craft. Nowadays membership relates more to quantity than quality — to power of the union more than ability of its members.

All of these things are proper thoughts for Labor Day. If there are significant economic factors about the trend of wages, prices, inflation, unemployment, etc., they deserve a thought in our consideration, of things to come. It might be a good idea for the powers that be to put on pressure for reversal of the policies which obviously are not working for us now.

As regards the big subject of Labor Day... Unionism... Congressman Omar Burleson states very correctly that "Unions are here to stay, if only because they are a double convenience. Management of industry finds it easier to bargain with chosen labor representatives than to make thousands of individual deals. As for the worker, he doesn't have to be loaded down with trying to negotiate his own contract."

This in general is the attitude of all labor and industry, but there's a sharp and often violent difference of opinion on voluntary and compulsory membership. Unions take the stand that all workers of an industry get the benefits of their bargaining efforts, hence all should have to pay. Opponents insist that they should not have to pay tribute to a union boss for holding a job, furthermore that they should have the freedom to join or not join.

These Right to Work people also point out that their method is actually proving better in the 20 Right to Work states, in which a person can work without union membership. A significant fact along this line was brought out by a recent study of the US Labor Department showing that

Schools Enroll 690 Gain 7 over Last Year

In spite of earlier indications of continued decline in the community's scholastic population, the count this week following a report from Muenster Public School showed a gratifying increase of seven students. Figures were withheld last week to include some expected late enrollees.

The registration total is 690, as compared with 683 last year. Sacred Heart has 316 of the students and the public school has 374.

This represents a loss of 24 students at the parish school and a gain of 31 at the public school.

The enrollment figure includes a kindergarten count of 44 leaving a total of 646 in grades 1 through 12. That is a gain of only 2 over last year's 644. Also, considering that all kindergarten children are in the public school, the total there for the 12 grades is 330, as compared with 316 at Sacred Heart.

A review of past enrollments showed an increasing trend until the highest figure of 797 in 1963, which then did not include the kindergarten. On the basis of 12 grades the community has lost 151 scholastics during the past 10 years.

By departments Sacred Heart this year has lost 12 in the elementary and 12 in high school. The public school has gained 5 in kindergarten, 23 in elementary and 3 in high school.

Another comparison shows that the combined elementary and kindergarten of the two schools gained 16 whereas the combined high schools lost 9.

Enrollment by classes in Sacred Heart and Public School and the combined count of both are as follows:

Mass & Reception Observe Al Walters' 50th Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Al Walters celebrated 50 years together when they observed their golden wedding anniversary Saturday, September 2. With their six children and twenty three grandchildren, and many relatives and friends, they attended an anniversary Mass celebrated by Father Stephen Eckhart in Sacred Heart Church.

Fifty years ago they were married by Father Frowin Koerdt. Mrs. Walters is the former Marie Hartman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman and he is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Walters.

Their six children are John V. Walters of Dallas, Dolores, Mrs. B. J. Swirczynski of Mineral Wells; Jeanette, Mrs. Bill Karr of Houston; Claude Walters of Miami, Oklahoma; Eugene Walters of Richland, Washington; and Sandra, Mrs. Tom Corcoran of Gainesville. All attended with their spouses.

Also attending were Joe Walters who was the couple's best man 50 years ago, and Mrs. Betty Dangelmayr a sister of Mrs. Walters; the late Mrs. Angeline Endres was the original bridesmaid.

Also participating in the special liturgy as Mass servers were a nephew, Mark Miller and grandsons, Mike Corcoran and Kenneth Karr.

Grandchildren Rachel Walker, Chad Walter, David Karr, Brenda Swirczynski, Patrick Corcoran and Blake Walter each carried a Talisman rose to present at the altar, representing the six children.

Other grandchildren in the Offortory procession were Tommy Walter, Alan Walter, Shawn Walter, Steve Corcoran and Craig Walter. Ushers were Joe Swirczynski, Brian Walter and Doug Walter.

B. J. Swirczynski, a son-in-law was lector and Claude Walters, a son, presented a congratulatory message after Communion.

Music for the Mass was provided by Frank Luke, organist, who also sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" at Communion. Talisman roses were used on the main altar in two arrangements.

Mrs. Walters was gowned in a flowing chiffon, floor length light green dress. Mrs. Dangelmayr's gown was similarly designed in pink chiffon. The honored couple, their attendants and immediate family members wore corsages or boutonnieres of silk Sonja roses and baby's breath.

Progress Seen in Hornet Practice With Nocona Hi

Prospects continued to look good for the MHS Hornets last week in their practice scrimmage with Nocona's Indians. Besides leading in the TD count by 1 to 0 they were ahead 11-8 in first downs and 177 to 81 in rushing yardage.

To coach Jerry Stinson it was all very encouraging. He praised the defensive work of the entire line, especially Mark Klement and Carl Pangel, as well as the offensive performance of the backs and ends.

David Felderhoff did a good job in his first tussle as offensive starter, completing 7 passes for 80 yards, and three of them were completed by Mark Felderhoff. In the running department were Duane Knabe, Randy Serna, Craig Richey and Kevin Klement, all with nice gains to their credit.

The action consisted of two rounds of offensive plays by each team followed by a short period of regular play, then ten tries for each from the 10 yard line.

Tigers Show Big Improvement in Test with Chico

By a margin of 4 touchdowns to 1, and statistics that were considerably more one sided, the Tigers of Sacred Heart appeared to be in mid-season form in their scrimmage with Chico last week.

Coach Eddie Stock was full of praise for his boys, saying their defense was super in holding their hosts to a net gain of less than 20 yards. That applied especially to the line, including John Hartman, Greg Rohmer, Ted Walterscheid, Gary Henscheid, and Greg Gieb, who did their job so well that the secondary was hardly needed.

He was equally excited about the offense which operated under full strength as Joe Bartsch had to sit out with an injury. A big plus factor was Kenny Hartman's progress in directing the veer attack, and another was the hard running of Phil Walterscheid. Passing too gained lots of yardage, but the coach would like to see a better percentage of completions.

Statistically, the Tigers had almost everything. They led 25-2 in the count of first (Continued on Page 10)

County Hay Show Set September 18

The show will provide information on the hay's quality, such as protein content, color and texture. Judges are Joe Cole and Tommy White of the Extension Service.

Persons entering are asked to bring the hay to the home demonstration building at the fairgrounds, and notify Neil Tibbets, 665-4931, or Doug Robinson or Tommy Davidson, 669-7731, and also identify the bale with name, address and variety.

City Sets Hearing On 2 Way Traffic For Sixth Street

The matter of changing two blocks of Sixth Street from one-way to two-way traffic was partly resolved Tuesday night when the city council voted to draw up an ordinance for the change and submit it for a hearing at the next council meeting. If the proposal overcomes that hurdle it will be adopted as law.

This subject was approved in a council vote in August but vetoed by Mayor Endres on grounds that certain problems ought to be considered before the approval becomes final. This month the council voted to let the public have a voice in the decision and invited any interested persons to attend the hearing.

In other action the council made progress toward reaching an agreement with the county commissioners in the matter of compensation for answering rural fire calls. They accepted the county's offer to provide a water truck for the city's use on condition that it would also be available for needs of Precinct 4. Still to be settled, however, is clarification on whether the city or county is responsible for maintenance.

Three other items on the agenda were tabled until the next meeting. Charles Bayer's petition for a wet-dry election in recently annexed area was referred to Julian Smith, city attorney for a ruling on legal details.

Also referred to Smith was a request by Dan Luke to re-route West Second Street to make the area better suited to real estate development. And nominations to the park board were postponed for further consideration.

Hornets Take on Dragons of Chico In Season Opener

Muenster High Hornets and their coaches are looking forward eagerly to their season opener with Chico's Dragons Friday night on the local field, starting at 8 o'clock.

After a pair of good looking performances in scrimmage with Boyd and Nocona, Coach Jerry Stinson is confident that his boys have fine prospects for a good season. He was especially pleased following the tussle with the Indians, in which the Hornets had the definite advantage on both offense and defense.

David Felderhoff, taking over at quarterback to replace Phil Wolf, who was hurt the week before, did a good job of relieving anxiety. In spite of limited practice he performed like a regular.

More good signs were seen in the running of Duane Knabe, Randy Serna, Craig Richey and Kevin Klement. All got away for nice gains and were hard to stop.

On defense the outlook is equally good. Carl and Curtis Pangel along with Mark Klement Dave Ferber and Eddie Serna, have been solid in the line and the secondary has been fast and alert.

Chico will come here as the underdog after being smothered last week in a scrimmage with Sacred Heart. However, Coach Stinson cautions that they cannot be taken for granted. Offsetting their hard times with the Tigers they had good times in a meeting with Perrin a week before. And it can be assumed that the Dragons will come here with ideas of avenging their annihilation by the Hornets last year.

Rain Measures .64

Relief from the heat, if only slight, came here during the past week with a temperature drop to the nineties and one welcome reading of .66.

Meanwhile a total of .64 inch of rain in three readings was sufficient for vegetation to just hang on. Steve Mosier's measures were .29 on Sept. 2, .01 on Sept. 3; and .34 on Sept. 6. Rainfall for the year stands at 20.96 and for the month at .64 in.

Low-high readings from Mosier's record are: Aug. 31, 66 and 93; Sept. 1, 72 and 86; Sept. 2, 71 and 91; Sept. 3, 72 and 97; Sept. 4, 72 and 98; Sept. 5, 74 and 98, Sept. 6 72 and 96.

Tigers Are Ready For Opener with Fort Worth Team

The Tigers are raring to go for their opener of the '78 season with Trinity Valley on the SH field Friday night. Kick off time will be 8 o'clock.

Along with Coaches Stock and Hess, they are looking forward confidently to a good start in spite of the fact that the Fort Worth guys look great on paper and did well in their two scrimmages. According to the word reaching Stock, they were in control of the first scrimmage and lost to a powerhouse last week. Other data relates that the team has seven returning starters on offense and eight on defense... and there are 14 seniors. To Stock it means they have lots of experience and weight.

On the other hand, the Tigers have a number of plus factors which the coaches translate into a very good outlook. Performances in scrimmages at Era and Chico have been encouraging. Despite some rough spots where the veer offense needed better timing, they dominated the Era action, and a week later they were in complete charge at Chico. Also they worked without the services of Joe Bartsch, who is back this week in No. 1 condition.

All Tigers except one are in good spirits and good health for the big opener. Chris Hennigan, who was injured last week was rated as doubtful early in the week.

Operation Begins in Pipe Coupling Plant

A new factory related to the oil field industry, has just been created in Muenster. It is Best Steel Coupling, Inc., now in production at 520 North Mesquite.

The company, headed by Don Flusche as president, is owned by a number of persons from Muenster, Bowie, Wichita Falls, Odessa and Saint Louis, Mo. Their intention is to expand operation to manufacture of other items related to the oil field.

The plant presently has six employees with Kenneth Hermes manager. More will be employed when additional machines can be tooled and installed.

Jack Thompson of Wichita Falls and Don Flusche are originators of the company as well as originators of Poly Pipe Industries, Inc., which was started two years ago on Highway 82 west of Gainesville. Mr. Thompson is president of Thompson Pipe & Supply, a division of Pipe & Steel International. His knowledge of the manufacture of steel couplings dates back some 30 years when he started work for Valley Steel Products Co. in St. Louis. He has been associated with the oil field since then.

The process of making a coupling is relatively simple. A piece of heavy pipe is cut to length, then put into a machine to square each end and turn down the outside to the desired dimension. Next it is put into another machine where the inside is turned to the proper size and taper. Last step is to do the thread-

Council Continues Utility Sales Tax Ups Property Tax

The city council in session Tuesday night approved its tax roll for the new fiscal year and also voted to continue the 1 per cent city sales tax on local gas and electric bills.

The latter action is in response to notification that the decision must be revealed to Comptroller Bob Bullock by September 10.

Regarding ad valorem tax on property the council okayed the tax roll, which reveals that revenue of $34,390.12 is expected from assessed valuation of $5,439,012. This valuation is based on assessment at 50 per cent of actual value. The tax rate is $100 per $100, an increase over last year's 80 cents per hundred.

Route Outlined to Kennedale Stadium

Muenster High fans who intend to see the Hornets play at Kennedale on September 15 will probably find the following route the most convenient way, according to information received this week by Superintendent Bruns from Kennedale officials.

From I-35 some 5 miles north of Fort Worth turn east on Loop 820 and follow to Mansfield business exit, No. 237. Follow to first stop sign & turn right to 287 South and continue about 2 miles. Stadium is at the left.

An alternate way continues on I-35 through Fort Worth to Loop 820. Exit left there and follow to the Mansfield business exit. Turn right on 287 and go about 2 miles to the stadium.

For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother chose a beige, chiffon full length formal and the groom's mother wore a peach chiffon formal. Both had corsages of ivory orchids.

When the couple returns from a wedding trip to Lake Texoma Lodge, they will be at home in Irving.

Rehearsal Dinner
 The rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening at the Center Lounge for twenty six guests, and hosted by the groom's parents.

A shower, attended by thirty guests was held in Houston at the home of the bride's sister on August 20 and a display shower on August 30 was held in the home of Mrs. Ted Henscheid with three of the groom's sisters as hostesses, Mrs. Henscheid, Mrs. Mike Stoffels (Marilyn) and Mrs. Jerry Hennigan (Evelyn).

They arrived the evening before to attend the banquet, reception and graduation ball at the Officers Club.

Following the graduation ceremony, the family joined a tour of the Flight Training Section and saw the Helicopter Museum, one of the largest in the world.

Together they spent a weekend in Anniston, Alabama, with relatives. They also visited in Auburn, Georgia, with friends, to share pictures of a Caribbean cruise.

In Dearborn they also toured Greenfield Village, a 14 acre plot devoted to museums and displays.

The four spent a day at Opryland in Nashville, Tenn. and attended the Passion Play in Eureka Springs, Ark. From that area, they returned home.

Two Couples End 2 Weeks Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Klement and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartman vacationed together for two weeks, sightseeing and visiting relatives and returned home last week Thursday, August 31.

Leaving here on August 19, their first stop was in Tahlequah, Okla., to see an outdoor stage play "Trail of Tears," and later visiting briefly with the Claude Walter family Sunday morning.

Their route was through Missouri to Tuscola, Ill., and Pesotum, Ill., where the Hartman family originated and from where they departed to move to Texas generations ago. In Fort Wayne, Ind., they visited Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman and the Trabel family. In Milan, Michigan they were guests of the Risch families, in Lincoln Park with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Risch, and in Garden City, with Raymond Risch and to Dearborn, Mich., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartman.

Hogan Clan Holds Labor Day Reunion

The "Hogan Clan" descendants of Mrs. J. S. Hogan and the late Mr. Hogan, gathered Sunday at the K.C. Hall, for their annual reunion during the Labor Day weekend.

All family members except Jerry Hogan of Amarillo attended. He was detained by sickness in his family.

Included were Cloyce of Burleson, Jack and Frank of Saint Jo and their children and grandchildren, Naomi Smith of Lubbock and Bobbye Heffner of Amarillo, Leona Rhone of Bellvue and their children and grandchildren, and Eula Grace Cain and the Cain Gang. Wes Fuson of St. Richard's Villa was a special guest.

Mrs. Judy Hartman, a granddaughter, of Mrs. J. H. Hogan was mistress of ceremonies; she planned the program and arranged for the gift to the honoree — a tape recorder and tapes made by each family, recalling fond memories of past years spent with Grandfather and Grandmother Hogan. The tape player will aid Mrs. Hogan in keeping in touch since her eyesight is failing. She is 89 years of age and is a resident of St. Richard's Villa.

More tapes were made during the party and many family pictures were made. Family members expressed their appreciation to Judy Hartman who has arranged the program each year for the annual reunion and has been responsible for all communication and planning. They presented a yellow gold, diamond studded wrist watch to a very surprised granddaughter of Mrs. Hogan.

The Hogan family's own orchestra played during the evening for singing and dancing. The honoree highlighted the celebration by performing on her harmonica to guitar accompaniment by Naomi Smith. They were surrounded by a circle of great-grandchildren.

The "perfect attendance" record was won by the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogan of Burleson, including all family members, grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Golden Wedding

table, holding a vantage spot, stood a life size copy of the couple's original wedding portrait.

Flanking the main table, on the right, on a round table, was the three tiered anniversary cake decorated in white and gold, featuring a golden fountain surrounded by six white angel figurines, representing the six children. On the third tier was a treasured family keepsake, the ornament used atop the golden anniversary cake of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, parents request that the figurine is of Al Walter. It is at their being shared by all their children who observe a golden wedding.

Betty Rose Walterscheid was assisted in serving the cake by the Walter grandchildren Amy Walter, Laura Walter, Dawn Walter and Sheila Swirczynski.

At the reception, tables for the grandchildren were decorated with baskets of orange and yellow flowers and guest tables were decorated with English ivy, accented with individual flowers in the same shades.

A slide program, with commentary by Lou Ann and Mary Jane Swirczynski, was presented by John Walter, scenes relating events throughout their past 50 years, were shown.

Doug Martin's Rustlers played for dancing.

Out of town guests came from Abbotstown, Pennsylvania; Richland, Washington; Miami, Oklahoma; and Mineral Wells, Houston, Sugarland, Euless, Dallas, Grapevine, Lindsay, Myra, Gainesville, Austin Irving and Sanger.

Food Fads Series Available by Mail At County Office

Over $600 million is spent annually on some type of food fads. Consumers not only waste money by following food-fad practices, but they also support harmful poor nutrition when they follow fads.

A mail out series is currently available for interested consumers who want to learn the truth about food fads. It is a series of five lessons giving reliable information on foods and nutrition. It is free to anyone wishing to participate. To enroll call the County Extension Office at 665-4931. The series will begin in early September with one lesson being mailed each week for five weeks. Consumers participating can read the material at their leisure. It will contain information about:

- Food Fads and Fallacies
- Food Additives
- Vitamins and Minerals
- Organic Foods and
- Food Quackery

Studies show that consumers are becoming increasingly interested in nutrition. Most Americans want to buy the most healthful food they can. Yet, in a recently conducted nutritional survey, most Americans questioned showed a lack of sound information and nutritional values of foods. The survey also showed that many people are being misguided by advertising claims for various "health foods" and weight control programs.

Although our food supply is unsurpassed in quantity, variety and nutritional value, each year consumers spend millions of dollars in organic foods stores and on self-prescribed vitamins.

The health food fad is having tremendous economic impact on consumers because they are paying one third to two thirds more for organic foods than for conventional food items. In February 1976, a U.S.D.A. survey conducted in the Washington, D.C. area showed that a basket of 47 standard foods bought in a supermarket cost an average of $17.49 as compared to an average of $28 for the same items purchased in a national food store.

The Foods Fads Mail Out Series is being offered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. It, like all educational activities conducted by the Extension Service, is open to all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin. To learn more about the mail out series or to enroll call the County Extension Office.

Work-to-be-done fascinates some people. They can sit and look at it for hours.

As you freeze in the dark, remember that this energy crisis comes to you from the same people who: Delayed the Alaska pipeline for years;

Picketed nuclear power plants; Stopped clean hydro dams; Blocked offshore drilling in the Atlantic and Pacific; Banned building refineries and petroleum docks; Imposed unrealistic and arbitrary air quality regulations; Priced natural gas so low that people stopped exploring for it; Insisted on automobile emission devices which drastically slash gas mileage. (You may have trouble finding them to express your gratitude — they don't seem to be coming around much anymore.) The butterfly was originally called the flutterby.

Guidelines Given On Mailing Film

Postmaster Virgil Henscheid today issued a reminder to postal customers in Muenster that if the Postal Service's new packaging guidelines are followed they can virtually eliminate damage to their parcels. He said that checks at bulk mail plants show that more than 80 per cent of all articles damaged in the mails were improperly packaged.

While the regulations and guidelines adopted recently by the Postal Service are detailed, they boil down to several basic steps that can help assure safe delivery.

First, select a strong carton. Use a fiberboard box with the "burst-test" number printed on it.

If the box says, for instance, 125 lbs. it can be used for mailing many types of merchandise weighing up to 20 lbs.

When a person is shipping dense or heavy materials, such as books, stronger boxes are required. For 10 lbs. of books the Postal Service recommends a box with a 175-lb. burst test.

The Postal Service suggests that wrapping paper not be used on cartons. If a wrapper is torn or lost in transit, the mailing address can disappear. Further, the paper adds nothing to the package's strength.

The use of masking and cellophane tapes for closing or sealing is prohibited. In transit they tend to peel off, and they have little strength. String is not recommended. If twine loosens, it can readily catch on processing machinery.

Instead, parcel post customers are urged to use the pressure-sensitive, reinforced tapes. They are almost unbreakable.

When marking a package "Do Not Bend," it is required that the container have stiffeners which will protect it from being bent.

In using a second-hand box, it is important to mark out addresses that may have been printed on it along with extraneous numbers that could be confused with the ZIP Codes.

A final suggestion: Enclose a return address card in the package so that it can be returned if the mailing label is damaged or lost.

Postmaster Henscheid said customers should contact the Muenster Post Office for more information.

I REALLY PREFER RELAXING TO PAINTING

THAT'S WHY I LIKE SATINTONE ... the easy paints

First, they are easy. They brush or roll like a dream, dry in minutes, and the tools wash up in water. More important still, they really last, and I do enjoy the longer time between repaints.

If you'd rather take it easy than paint, next time by Satintone, the latex paint by Colony Paints. We have Satintone for all surfaces indoors or out.

... you'll like the difference!

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

With constantly rising costs, most of us are increasingly concerned about our family finances. Stretching the dwindling dollar to cover all increasing needs requires a record of what you spend, when you spend it, and what you spent it for. Since most of us are too absent-minded to jot down such notions at the time of each expenditure, the best record is a bank checking account. It's an almost foolproof method, since your returned checks become your permanent record of spending. And a cancelled check is an automatic and indisputable receipt for every purchase. And the printed form on the back of your monthly bank statement where you simply fill in the blanks, practically balances your book for you in only minutes.

If you have questions about how a checking account can help you with your personal or family finances, see any of our officers. When they advise you on financial matters . . . you can BANK on it!

As Mrs. Cain, administrator, prepared to conduct a routine staff meeting in the dining area, Wes Fuson, owner of St. Richard's thanked the staff for their cooperation, long hours of good work, and dedication to the one year old endeavor.

A beautifully decorated cake and two dozen red roses were presented to Mrs. Cain on behalf of her co-workers. The surprised honoree cut and served the cake, assisted by Mildred Grewing. Residents, staff and guests shared the cake and were also served

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

Library Adds 200 Books

During the last few weeks, staffers at Muenster Public Library have been preparing over 200 books for circulation. The majority of these are from Children's Press and are for primary to fourth grade readers. Ten are from the "I Want To Be" series explaining the work of tradesmen, businessmen, community helpers, as well as commercial and professional men.

Many are on The First Family, people in the news, superstars, stars of stage and screen, Rock 'n Pop stars, and super bowl champions. Also new are books on Going Places (dentist, hospital, zoo), on the metric system, on developing understanding, on awareness and on primary social studies. Of special interest to parents and teachers are a dozen Fun Time activities books. Topics covered are community projects; gifts for everybody; group games; indoor gardening; outdoor gardening; weird gardens; codes and mystery messages; doodling, drawing and creating; macrame, knitting and weaving; make-up and costumes; magnificent magic; and stages, scenery and props.

We have books to please everyone. Don't overlook the pleasure you can derive from reading. Library hours are Tuesday & Thursday — 8:30 to 5:00, Wednesday — 2:30 to 5:30. See you at the library!

Parents, Teachers In First Meeting

A meeting to introduce teachers at Sacred Heart Schools was held by the Home-School Society last week Tuesday, in the Community Center, to open the '78-'79 school year.

Sister Mary John Seyler presented high school teachers and Sister Georgia Felderhoff presented grade school teachers and staff and also gave parents copies of the new SHS Student Handbook.

Sister Georgia said the subject of Reading will receive special concentration during all of the school year. Perfect attendance awards will be given, possibly each month.

Angelo Nasche presided for the business meeting. He thanked mothers who helped cover books at school; fathers who sanded and varnished desks; Tom's Candies for donations of peanuts and crackers for the social hour; and the Muenster Garden Center for the flower arrangement centerpiece and door prize. After the meeting Mrs. J. D. Fleitman won the door prize.

Membership dues in the Home-School Society were raised to $5.00 a year. Members voted to try to schedule the carnival rides for next Germanfest.

Parents whose youngest child was entering the senior year and parents whose oldest child was entering first grade, were recognized.

Sister Christopher urged parents to cooperate in the drive to collect used aluminum cans.

Home School Society officers were presented by President Angelo Nasche, as follows: Jim Gehrig vice president, Mary K. Bayer secretary, Della Schmitt treasurer.

Father Denis led the opening and closing prayers and said he was encouraged by the interest shown by parents.

SAVING TIPS on electric ranges

1. When using top-of-range utensils, cover tightly and cook with minimum of water. Cooking's faster; less energy's used. Food looks and tastes better, too.

2. Use flat-bottomed utensils for best contact with heating surface. Use proper size utensils. A 6" pan on an 8" heating surface wastes energy.

3. Preheat oven only when needed and only to temperature stated. Normal preheat is 10 minutes; any longer wastes energy.

4. When broiling, do not preheat. Leave door ajar. . . air circulation insures proper broiling.

5. Use oven fully. Fill it with foods that cook at same temperature. Freeze extras for later use.

6. Center pans in from oven sides, staggered above each other (no overlap) for best heat distribution.

7. Keep oven shut. Opening door drops temperature 25° or more; wastes energy.

8. Thaw frozen meats before cooking.

9. Do not use oven or surface heating elements for home heating.

10. Turn range off immediately when finished.

downs and 200 to minus 6 in rushing, also 123-20 in passing yardage. Their completions were 3 of 23 and Chico's 1 of 5. Exchanges were about even as SH intercepted 2 and Chico 1, and each team lost two fumbles. However, the Tigers had a bad record of infractions. They were penalized 90 yards and the Dragons 20.

The practice was conducted like a game, except the kicking. In lieu of a punt 35 yards were stepped off, and there were no point attempts after TD.

The Tigers started with a nice drive of 53 yards featuring rouse by Mark Nasche and Phil Walterscheid and passes to Angelo Nasche and Mel Walterscheid. They fumbled the opportunity away on the 7 and Paul Bartush regained it for them two plays later on the 12. The play that followed went completely sour when a Dragon swiped Kenny Hartman's lateral and hot footed some 90 yards to pay dirt.

From then on, however, SH had no troubles. The next possession, starting on the 30, went the full 70 yards with Mark Nasche and Phil Walterscheid doing almost all of the leg work. Phil made the last 10 through the right side of the line.

After Chico's failure on first series SH was on its way again. But the drive included more wasted effort than actual gains. Kenny Hartman's fine 57 yard TD rump was called back because of holding. A 43 yard touchdown pass to Phil Walterscheid was nullified by an offside ruling. And a 21 yard pass to Angelo Nasche was also called back and penalized. The next three plays did the job, however. They were a 6 yard run by Kenny Hartman, a 21 yard pass to Mel Walterscheid and an 18 yard sprint to the goal by Phil Walterscheid.

The third period was mostly a deadlock, the Tigers getting 3 first downs and the Dragons 1, as the play gradually moved to the Chico end of the field.

The Hornets - - - ster advanced 26 yards in short gains before David Felderhoff's pass to Mark Felderhoff for 36 yards to the 8. Randy Serna gained 7 and Todd Richey scooted around left end for a score.

In their first turn the Indians gained 24 in two series and were stopped by Randy Serna's fumble recovery. After that they were halted on the second series from the 30, and then on the first.

On next possession the Hornets had lots of action with nice gains, but all the effort was wasted by a pair of fumbles. First series started with a 1 yard gain, a five yard loss by penalty, then a 17 yard gain by Randy Serna. Next a 31 yard pass to Mark Felderhoff reached the 26 when the effort ended abruptly with a fumble.

Again from the 30 they gobbled up the yardage. Following a 3 yard gain on the first play Serna added 7, Knabe 9 and Kevin Klement 42 to the 9 yard line. Richey followed with 8, but the boys blew their golden opportunity by fumbling on the 1 yard line. Two more starts from the 30 bogged down before the Hornets lost possession.

After that the Hornet defense put on its best show. It held on first series in each of four Indian starts from the 30 and then held on the second series.

In the short session of regular play the Hornets seemed to have another TD in sight as Serna raced 50 to the 10 but officials nullified it with a holding penalty. MHS regained 15 of the penalty but had to kick after which Nocona gained 18 before kicking. Then the Hornets gained 40 yards to Nocona's 30, including a 17 yard romp by Richey, and bogged down again. The Indians responded by a drive from the 100 to midfield and fouled up.

Finale of the scrimmage was 10 plays each from the 5. MHS used one play for a TD Mark Felderhoff, another for a TD run by Richey. The next four ended with a quarterback sneak by David Felderhoff and the final four failed to produce.

Nocona also netted three scores on the ten plays a 2 yard plunge, a 4 yard pass and a 7 yard pass.

The program started with junior varsity activity, which ended with a 1 to 1 tie in scoring and Muenster leading in stats. On first possession the little Indians bogged down once, were stopped once by Rusty Serna's interception and once by Tim Schneider's fumble recovery before getting off on a successful drive which consisted mostly of a 52 yard gallop to the 18. Four more tries finished the job.

The Hornet effort started on the second series and featured a 21 yard pass from Monte Wimmer to David Flusche, plus runs by Serna, Flusche and Wimmer for total gains of 47 to the 23. But the drive ended as the next four plays ended a yard short on the 14.

On second possession Nocona was stopped on first series as Vance Wells intercepted, then made two first downs and fizzled. After that the second try from the 30 gained 11 to the 41, where Serna stopped it with a fumble recovery.

Then Muenster made 3 starts from the 30 before two big plays that almost paid off. Serna gained 15 and Wimmer's 45 yard pass and run play to Benji Luke reached the 10. However four plays from there fell a yard short of a touchdown.

Nocona's last possession was unproductive and Muenster's was its best. Rusty Serna started it with a 70 yard touchdown gallop on the opening play. Then, after failing on their second start, the Hornets got going again and moved steadily to the Indian 33 before a pair of smeared plays lost 12 yards. Wimmer's pass to Gary Klement for 15 on the next play failed to keep the drive in motion.

The Right to Work states have gained a total of almost a million jobs in the last ten years while the 30 states which permit compulsory unionism have lost 1.2 million jobs. Percentage wise it means a gain of 21% for the 20 states and a loss of 8% for the others.

An important inducement claimed for voluntary unionism is that union leaders will have to be more responsive to the wishes of members and less inclined to dictatorship. Otherwise they are likely to find the workers quitting. As a result, policy should be determined more by the members than by the bosses.

A popular slogan of voluntary unionism states that good unions do not need compulsory membership and bad unions do not deserve it.

Realty College In Gainesville Set For Early Opening
A college for training real estate salesmen and brokers in Gainesville will be opened in mid-September, according to an announcement this week by Billy Ray Hill, president of the institution.

It is Republic Realty College, owned by Texas State Realty of Gainesville and Fort Worth. It has been approved and accredited by the Texas Real Estate Commission, and will be administered by Dr. James L. Latham of Dallas, academic vice president. Classes will be held in the Professional Building, 1103 E. California St., Gainesville.

Courses offered are Real Estate I, II, III and IV . . . 45 hours in each for a total of 180 hours. According to the Real Estate License Act passed by the state legislature several years ago, 180 hours of classroom instruction will be required by the state for real estate licensure in 1979. The present requirement is 90 hours. After '79 a broker's license will require 225 hours.

The college, to serve some seven counties of the area, will be the 17th such college established in the state. Its faculty includes some 20 professional instructors. The tuition for each of the four courses, including texts and materials, is set initially at $170.

A free seminar, with refreshments, conducted by Billy Ray Hill will be held at the Professional Center next Sunday, Sept. 10, 2-4 p.m. to explain the program.
