

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XIX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS,

NOVEMBER 18, 1955

NUMBER 52

With a great deal of pride and pleasure the column this week takes notice of the beautiful ceremony and delightful celebration marking the golden anniversary of two of Muenster's pioneer couples.

In 1905 the Henry Fettes and Gus Hellmans were two of the couples united in a triple ceremony in Sacred Heart Church. Last Sunday they had the happy privilege of renewing their original vows at the same place, in the new church which has replaced that of the original ceremony. The only sadness to cloud the occasion was the absence of the other original couple, the Bill Hellmans.

The celebration was a family affair but it also carries a great deal of community significance. Here are four people who made their start when the going was rough. Field work was done with horses. House work was done without benefit of the many comforts and labor saving devices which are taken for granted today. Trips to town were made in buggies or wagons over very poor roads.

From that rugged beginning the two couples toiled continually onward and upward, providing for their families, improving their surroundings and laying aside for security in their declining years, while doing their bit, and more, toward the progress of their community and parish.

Actually, their story is no different from that of many others in the community. But it is heroic just the same. And that is where community significance figures in. The tribute which they so richly deserve for their achievements of the past half century can be extended in equal measure to many others of the area.

Oldsters around Muenster are well aware of the contributions these two couples made to community welfare, how they helped to pioneer many of the things which have become the foundation of today's progress. They took part in organizing the FMA, the bank, the local telephone system and the electric cooperative. They served their church and their school. In days before the county maintained roads they took time from their busy days to keep dirt roads passable. They practiced the old neighborly spirit of rendering countless services to those who needed help.

They have lived full and useful lives in keeping with that wonderful old motto to leave the world a little better where they passed.

So, it is the column's purpose here to congratulate and thank these couples on the celebration of their golden jubilee. . . and to pay tribute also to the many others who have worked with them in developing the fine community we now enjoy.

Another purpose is to mention that the very finest tribute our generation could pay to these old timers is a fervent dedication to the progressive spirit which they applied in such generous measure. They have made a wonderful start but the real value of their service will become even more apparent as we continue to build on the foundations they have provided.

Parish to Conduct Annual Clothing Drive Next Week

Muenster's annual Thanksgiving clothing drive for the world's needy will be conducted the week of Nov. 20-27, the pastors announced in Sacred Heart church Sunday.

The drive, as in past years, will help replenish the Vatican store-room and will be distributed by the Holy Father himself to the world's most destitute people.

Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, local mission chairman, this week said that persons who have their clothing gathered up may leave it with her now, before the drive officially starts. She can begin storing and packing.

Collection depot for parish contributions will again be the Sacred Heart rectory garage, north side. There, after the drive closes, Mrs. Swirczynski and helpers from the parish societies will ready the articles for shipment. Clothing, bedding and shoes are on the want list.

Albert M. Bezner, 83, pioneer resident of Lindsay, died Thursday at 1:15 a.m. at the home of his son, Fred Bezner of Gainesville, where he had lived for the past few years.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home.

A native of Iowa, Mr. Bezner came to Lindsay with his parents when he was a child. On Feb. 20, 1900, he married Miss Marie Mollie Schmitt there and they farmed north of the community. Mrs. Schmitt died June 16, 1949.

Herman E. Schmitz, Former Resident, Claimed by Death

Herman E. Schmitz, formerly of Muenster, and a resident of Cooke county for 64 years, died Monday at 9:30 p.m. in a Dallas hospital where he had been a patient since Saturday. He had been in ill health for the past several months. Death came less than three hours before his 79th birthday.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's church in Gainesville with Rev. Michael Gormely and Rev. William Lane officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery was directed by Vernie Keel Funeral Home. Rosary was recited Tuesday night at the funeral home chapel.

Born Nov. 15, 1876, Schmitz came to Muenster with his parents when he was 13 years old. He married Miss Mary Franklin here on Sept. 27, 1904, and they lived here on a farm until about 1912 when they moved to Burns City. Mrs. Schmitz died in 1927. About four years ago he retired from farming and had been living in Gainesville at 221 Field Street.

Survivors are four daughters, Misses Annie, Agnes and Gertrude Schmitz and Mrs. William Haritage; a son, Martin Schmitz, all of Gainesville; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Bergman of Myra and Mrs. Frank Wilde of Amarillo; two brothers, John and Henry Schmitz of Muenster, and several nieces and nephews.

Miscues Hurt as Tigers Settle for 13-13 Tie at Ryan

The Sacred Heart Tigers definitely ruled the field at Ryan but had to settle for a 13-13 tie after seeing their stout efforts wasted away on a fumble and four interceptions. Another big factor in the outcome was a 65 yard touchdown romp by one of the Sooners on the opening kickoff.

If statistics could break the tie the Tigers could be declared as winners by a strong margin. They made 16 first and 267 yards while holding the opponents to 6 first downs and 131 yards.

On kick returns the two teams accounted for about equal yardage but the big difference is that the Oklahoma boys got most of their distance in the single play which gave them an immediate lead in the score.

After that both sides featured stubborn defensive action as the Tigers moved the chain twice

Inspired Indians Come From Behind Tie Hornets 27-27

The prestige of Muenster's Hornets suffered a thorough beating Friday night even though the official record shows a 27-27 tie.

Allowing the under-rated lower-division Sanger Indians to sweep them off their feet and salvage a draw out of the contest after a three touchdown deficit in the first quarter, amounted to the most humiliating loss the local fellows have suffered this season.

As the game started it seemed that the Hornets had a cinch. The visiting Indians appeared to be helpless as the red and white slipped over three easy touchdowns. But then the trend took a sudden change. Just before the end of the period the big Indians applied the pressure. By intermission time they had recovered almost all of their defeat. The count was 21-20.

It seemed as though the north goal, favored by a stout breeze, held a sort of charm for the

Barn and Contents Destroyed by Fire On Stormer's Farm

A fire of undetermined origin late Monday afternoon destroyed a barn and all its contents on the Tim Stormer farm about three miles north of town. The total loss is estimated at about $5,000.

Items destroyed were the 60x70 sheet metal building, a late model tractor, two trailers and 500 bales of hay. Calves in a feed lot beside the barn were released before the intense heat reached their side of the building and they apparently suffered no ill effects.

Members of the Muenster fire department rushed to the fire but found the building in full blaze when they arrived. The best they could do was to be on guard in case the fire should try to spread to other buildings.

The fire was discovered about 4 o'clock by Ernest McElreath, Herbert McDaniel and T. M. Hammer as they were working on a nearby oil lease. They notified Mrs. Stormer and the fire department. Mr. Stormer was not home at the time.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY FETTE

Married here during the horse and buggy days, Anda and Gus Hellman and Laura and Henry Fette have just observed their golden wedding anniversaries.

The occasion was marked Sunday by a solemn religious service and a reunion of family and friends who came from Texas and ten other states to help the jubiliarians celebrate. The two couples were married here in Sacred Heart church on Nov. 14, 1905, in a triple wedding ceremony. The other two principals, Katie Trachta and William Hellman, have since passed on.

Proudly the Hellmans and Fettes refer to the fact that they have spent their entire 50 years of married life — and more — in Muenster; and droughts, depressions and early day hardships never caused them to give up.

Renewal of Vows

The double celebration, the first of its kind in local history, began with a solemn high mass in Sacred Heart church at four o'clock. Rev. Joseph Weinzapfel of Dallas, godchild of the Hellmans, was celebrant and directed the renewal of the couples' wedding vows. He was assisted in the mass by his brother, Rev. Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas as deacon, and Rev. Maurice Dingman of Davenport, Iowa, as sub-deacon. Rev. Patrick Hannon was master of ceremonies and Rev. Louis Deuster delivered the jubilee sermon. Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir sang the mass. Preceding the services, Mrs. Ruth Dingman Corkery of Moline, Ill., presented "Ave Maria" as a vocal solo.

The altars were festive with gold mums and the sanctuary space held baskets of mums and decorations of autumn leaves.

The couples knelt on white and gold covered prie-dieu in the sanctuary where a half century earlier they had knelt in almost the same spot in the old Sacred Heart church to pledge their vows.

Attending Anda Fette and Gus Hellman at their wedding 50 years ago were C. J. Fette and Miss Anna Hellman. They were there Sunday as their attendants for the second time. Laura Endres and Henry Fette had as their attendants 50 years ago Miss Hattie Endres who later became Mrs. John Yosten, and Meinrad J. Endres. Both have passed on. In their places as attendants for the golden anniversary were the Fettes' only daughter, Mrs. Joe Voth, and their youngest son, Jerry Fette.

Mrs. Hellman wore a mauve wool cashmere dress with white angora trim and a matching hat. She carried a Talisman rose corsage on top of the prayer book she carried at the ceremony in 1905. Mrs. Fette wore a navy blue suit with a black velvet hat and a golden ranunculus shoulder corsage.

After the services, a reception for about 275 guests was held in

Warm Welcome Greets MHS Exes At Homecoming

Ex-students from here, joined by those from near and far, met here Friday night at the annual homecoming celebration of Muenster High school. Past and present generations shared the spotlight in a program that included a football game, an assembly with election of officers, and a dinner dance.

Superintendent H. H. Homsley addressing the assembly, outlined the purpose of the event when he urged ex-students to have a good time, to enjoy every bit of the festivities and to visit with each other.

Some 500 persons, including exes and present students and their families and friends joined in spirited cheering of the fighting Hornets in their grid battle with the Sanger Indians and applauded when Miss Gretchen Hellman was crowned homecoming queen.

Plan Shaping for Christmas Parade Here December 2

A pre-Christmas parade on Friday, December 2 will officially usher in the Yuletide season at Muenster this year.

Plans for the event, which is being sponsored by the Lions Club, were set in motion last Thursday night at a special meeting of civic and business people in the city hall.

The group invited practically every organization of the community to enter the parade. Included are the business firms and the civic, social and religious organizations. Also invited are the bands from several towns of North Texas and South Oklahoma. Every band entering will be invited to give a short concert after the parade.

Another attraction, especially for the kiddies, will be Santa Claus himself.

Committee assignments in preparing for the program are as follows: Howard Homsley will arrange for school and band participation; Dr. Myrick will invite horse and riding clubs, Marty Klement will arrange VFW representation and also invite Army and National Guard units; J. A. Fisher will see about the entry of business and club floats; Jimmy Lehnertz will serve as parade marshal; Ed Endres will have charge of municipal and five department entries; Urban Endres will invite industrial floats; George Letson will arrange for parade equipment and costumes; and Anthony Luke will have charge of favors and distributions. The committee is asked to secure parade entries by November 19.

The pre-Christmas parade was inspired by the city's decision to install strings of colored lights on Main and the highway for the season. Local Lions at their next meeting voted to sponsor some sort of program to carry on the good work started by the city.

According to present signs the city's Christmas lights may be installed late this week or early next week. All material is ready and awaiting a good opportunity to do the job.

City Manager Steve Moster said Wednesday that the opportunity seems to be near. Men working on the sewer extension have run out of pipe and are awaiting their next shipment. Unless it arrives in a few days they will be free to put up the lights. Otherwise they will work on the sewer a while longer before installing lights.

F. E. Schmitz Gets Minor Injuries in Airplane Accident

F. E. Schmitz has recovered sufficiently from injuries received in a plane crash Monday to leave the hospital but is remaining a few more days because of the cold wave which moved in Tuesday night.

His mother, Mrs. John Schmitz reported Wednesday that doctors of Parkland Hospital, Dallas, considered him well enough to make the trip home in fair weather, but advised waiting a few more days because of the possibility of chilling, which might cause pneumonia. Schmitz still has pain in his chest but seems to be in good condition otherwise.

His injury resulted when he crashed his small single-motor plane in landing at Love Field about 11:30 Monday morning. He was taken to Parkland Hospital for treatment of shock and minor injuries.

The plane's damage consisted of a crushed wing and a smashed motor.

Golden Wedding

the Muenster High school gymnasium and dinner was served in the lunch room. Here again decorations stressed the anniversary theme. Mrs. Agnes Lehnertz, a sister of Mrs. Gus Hellman and Henry Fette, did the catering. She and her husband Joe Lehnertz were married here on the same date 10 years later and were observing a 40th anniversary. Rather than celebrate, Mrs. Lehnertz chose to prepare and serve the banquet menu for the goldenweds.

A round of after-dinner talks featured those by Mrs. John Aytes of Wichita Falls, a granddaughter of the Hellmans, who gave a short history of the couples; Father Maurice Dingman of Davenport, Iowa, P. W. Hellman of Tulsa, Leonard Endres of Columbus, Ohio, and Claude Jones of Gainesville. Hellman told of old wedding customs in Iowa, which were observed in the wedding 50 years ago, Endres complimented the couples on the part they have played in making local history, and Jones said that what impressed him most was the renewal of vows by the couples in the same spot they were married. Father Dingman expressed congratulations and good wishes from old friends in Iowa.

The program for which Dr. Hugo Hellman was master of ceremonies included group singing of old, familiar ballads and ended with a dance. Jim Harris and his band played.

The two couples have spent a combined total of more than 220 years in Muenster. Gus Hellman and Mrs. Fette have each been here 61 years, Mrs. Hellman and her brother, Henry Fette, have lived here 51 years. All four came here from Iowa. Mr. Hellman is 74, his wife is three years younger. Both are natives of St. Paul, Iowa, where they were schoolmates and childhood sweethearts. They are the parents of five children, four sons: Rudy and Arthur of Muenster, Hugo of Milwaukee, Wis., and Paul of Tulsa; and one daughter, Mrs. Vincent Baker of Chicago. They have 22 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Active in Community
Always active in parish and community work besides taking care of their farm and livestock, the Hellmans are only semi-retired. They still live in their country home. He helped organize the old Farmers Marketing Association here and was its first president, an office he held for many years. He is at present vice president of the Muenster State Bank and chairman of the board of directors. He was one of the original stockholders of the bank and has been a member of the board continuously since the bank was established. When the local telephone system was home-owned he served as its president for many years after helping organize the company.

Mrs. Hellman served as Muenster's Red Cross chairman all during the world war II years and pushed every quota during that time over the top. She served as a nurses aid at Camp Howze, and has knitted up thousands of skeins of wool and other threads. Knitting is her hobby and she taught it to classes at the local schools. Both are avid football fans.

Henry Fette came to Muenster from St. Paul, Iowa, in 1904. He, too, loved the land, and farmed south of town until he retired about 10 years ago and built a home in Muenster. He is 75. Mrs. Fette observed her 68th birthday last month. She was born in Doon, Iowa.

Both have taken active interest in parish and community growth and progress. While still on the farm, Mr. Fette helped the local Rural Electric Cooperative organize, was a member of the first board of directors and served as first treasurer. He also assisted in the organization of the FMA and the Bank. Mrs. Fette, like her sister-in-law, enjoys knitting and has made many lovely pieces for her children and grandchildren.

They are the parents of eight children, six living. Joe, R. N., and Jerry Fette and Mrs. Joe Voht live in Muenster, Emmet Fette lives in Douglas, Arizona, Edgar Fette is in Kodiak Alaska, and Herbert Fette is at Livingston, Texas. They lost one son, Richard Fette, an ensign in the Navy Air Corps, during world war II and a son in infancy. They have 23 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Out of Town Guests
Among out of town guests attending the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fette and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hellman were Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Fette and children, Monica, Milton, Debra and Rita Sue, of Douglas, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fette and children, Herbie, Sandra Kay and Timothy, of Livingston, Texas; Dr. Hugo Hellman of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Vincent Baker of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. P.W. A SIGHT OF SILAGE

More farmers are learning the value of silage, and on the research side, more new knowledge is coming from the test tubes. They have learned that a good grass and legume silage is almost as high in feeding value as corn or grain sorghum silage. Some are stacking the silage on top of the ground — even without cutting it.

Still others are taking the short cut and skipping the silage route all together. They chop the grass or legume with a field harvester and haul it direct to the feeding pens. It all amounts to simplifying the job of feeding chopped forage to livestock.

Alice Koelzer and Joseph Hermes Say Nuptial Vows Here

Miss Alice Koelzer and Joseph Hermes exchanged marriage vows at 4 o'clock in Sacred Heart church here on Thursday, Nov. 10, during a nuptial high mass at which the bride's uncle Rev. Bonaventure Koelzer of Graymoor, N.Y., officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Pete Koelzer of Madill, Okla., until recently of Muenster, and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hermes of Lindsay.

The men's choir of Sacred Heart church sang the mass. Anthony Luke was organist.

Before the mass Misses Carol Voth and Angela Hermes presented two vocal duets, "Heart of Jesus" and "Ave Maria." After mass while the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine to recite an act of consecration and leave a bouquet of white glads on the altar, the young ladies sang, "Mother at Your Feet."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a waltz-length gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The moulded tulip bodice of tulle was strapless and was covered with a long-sleeved lace jacket designed with a Peter Pan collar and self-covered buttons down the front. The voluminous skirt of tulle was topped with two ruffles of lace and was worn over tiered crinoline petticoats. A sequin, sprinkled lace head-piece held her veil of illusion and she carried a nosegay of white rose buds on top of a prayer book.

Sisters of the couple were the bride's attendants. Miss Veronica Koelzer was maid of honor and Miss Bernice Hermes was bridesmaid. Their ballerina length frocks of shocking pink taffeta were identical. Fashioned with long-waisted torsos and wide skirts the dresses had draped necklines and cap sleeves. They wore white gloves and small white velvet hats with nose veils. Their flowers were white rose buds.

Clem Hermes Jr. of Lindsay was best man for his brother and Wilfred Koelzer, Muenster, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Clem Sandmann and Ivan Koelzer ushered.

Following the services, a reception and buffet supper honored the newlyweds in the parish hall. About 150 guests registered in the bride's book at which Misses Carol Voth and Stella Bengfort presided.

Floral decorations in the hall carried out the bride's chosen colors and were repeated on the bride's table where a handsome wedding cake was the centerpiece.

When Mr. and Mrs. Hermes left by car on a wedding trip she was wearing a beige two-piece suit with brown accessories. After they return they will make their home here at 409 North Pecan Street.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart High school with the class of 1954. Her husband was graduated from St. Peter's High at Lindsay in 1948 and is employed here at the North Texas Producers Association.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

Two pre-nuptial gift parties honored Miss Koelzer last week, one at Madill and one in Muenster.

The party here was held in the parish hall with Mrs. Arnold Knabe and Misses Veronica Koelzer and Bernice Hermes as hostesses. The gift table, covered with a white cloth held a doll bride and arrangements of pink flowers. A series of games was followed by refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch to 20 guests.

At Madill, Mrs. Clarence Loffer entertained in her home with a come and go shower.

The Jack Fletchers and daughters Patricia and Sara of Mineral Wells were here for a weekend visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ratliff of Lubbock were among those attending the MHS homecoming Friday night. They were guests of her parents, the John Fettes, for the weekend and Sunday helped the Henry Fettes and Gus Hellmans celebrate their wedding anniversary.

Mrs. H. H. Homsley Is Speaker Monday At Garden Meeting

Mrs. H. H. Homsley, as speaker for the Civic League and Garden Club's program Monday night, presented an interesting and informative discussion on "Table Settings." She told members about varied settings — conventional, traditional, formal and informal among others — and how to complement them with flower arrangements.

The group met for a regular meeting with Mrs. Walter Rawley and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer as co-hostesses in the Rawley home.

During the business session Mrs. Tony Gremminger presided and principal business concerned the organization's entry of a decorated float in the city's Christmas parade. Mrs. T. S. Myrick accepted chairmanship of a committee to take charge of the project.

Committee chairman gave reports on conservation, sanitation and park. Mrs. Lee Toothaker reported on soil and water conservation in the area. Mrs. Joe Swirczynski said a clean-up and trash haul is being planned before Thanksgiving, and the park committee announced that five liveoak trees which died during the summer will be replaced. The flower show committee announced postponement of the flower show until spring.

Mrs. Joe Luke read an article on fire-proofing Christmas trees and gave directions for making a simple, inexpensive solution at home to make evergreens and other shrubs non-flammable.

For roll call each member told something she had to be thankful for. After adjournment the hostesses served upside down cake with whipped cream, hot coffee and mints.

Fourteen members attended. Miss Betty Stewart was welcomed as a newcomer to the club.

A handsome, unusual floral arrangement was shown by Mrs. Joe Luke. It was a dried arrangement fashioned of Hawaiian foliage and wood roses gathered by Mrs. Luke on her trip in western states this fall.

The December meeting will present Mrs. Rawley as speaker — it'll be a demonstrated lecture — on Christmas decorations. Each member was reminded to bring her favorite cookie recipe, and samples, to the meeting for a recipe exchange, and refreshments.

By-Products and Your Meat Bill

The American Meat Institute recently issued a booklet filled with facts and figures about the meat industry. On one page a group of assorted objects is pictured — a pair of shoes, a cheese, a camera, a physician's handbag stocked with medicines, a can of oil, and others. The caption is a question: How do such things as these affect the price of meat?

The answer makes a fascinating little story. Only about 50 per cent of a meat animal is actual meat. The other half consists of non-edible by-products. If those by-products were simply thrown away, the full cost of the animal, plus the processing costs, would have to be recovered from the sale of the meat alone.

Happily, that is not the case. The meat packers — following their famous policy of "saving everything but the squeal" — sell the by-products to other industries that need them. Hides and skins go into leather goods; gelatin into photographic film; glands into medicines; fats into soap; wool into clothing; bone charcoal into ball bearings, and so on down the long list. The revenue thus earned cancels out many of the costs of processing the meat we buy.

How beneficial is that to the consumer? Believe it or not, money from the sale of by-products frequently makes it possible for the meat packer to sell beef from a steer for less than was paid for the animal on the hoof!

Hard To Convince

A Novelist Pictures Reality

By William E. Barrett, Author of THE LEFT HAND OF GOD
 MODERN WRITERS are often criticized for making men and women into creatures torn by fears, sexual desires and despair. These writers answer that modern Americans are that way. But their answer is not that of an artist; it is the argument of a man with a camera.

A man with a camera may take a picture of a drunk lying in a gutter with three small children staring down at him. This is a picture of reality; it is true.

BUT SUPPOSE that the photographer captions his photograph, "The Meaning of Man," or "Life in Our City." With these few words he has diverged from truth. For these pictures are only partial glimpses of what a man can do or become, or of life in that city.

A novelist may make the same mistake. He may show a man to be twisted and tortured by sex desire and paint a true picture. But he must also give that man a soul as well as a body, a spirit made for God as well as an animal existence.

TOO MANY WRITERS are spiritual illiterates who seldom look beyond the body. But life is not without meaning. The man who portrays life must show it as it is: spiritual as well as material, God-directed as well as God-ignoring.

A novelist must be more than a photographer; he must be an artist: bringing out the deeper reality behind the simple picture.

A NOVELIST might pass a golden wedding celebration without taking any interest. Yet the picture of a man and a woman who have shared the weather of fifty years together would be as real as any picture of a man in a gutter. But it would take an artist to bring out the strains of daylight and darkness, the grim and the gay in their lives. A novelist must portray true life—but the whole of life with sanctity and godness balancing evil.

Books aren't written in vacuums. A writer may profess, "Art for Art's sake." But always, even subconsciously, the knowledge of an audience exists. He writes for that audience.

THE CHRISTIAN WRITER believes, and must believe, that he is responsible to that audience. He knows he can sin grievously in leading another into sin. He knows that he cannot ignore the moral effect of his words. In this sense, he is his brothers' keeper.

Good fiction is three-dimensional. Beyond the boundaries of body and mind is the domain of the spirit, our relation to God. The novelist will depict true life only when his vision is deep enough to see this three-dimensional world.

Still Making History

At last the mystery of why Pilgrims landed on the forbidding, wintry New England coast — instead of farther south as they had planned — has been cleared up! We have it from the journal of one of the Mayflower's passengers that it was because the vessel ran short of victuals, "especially our beere" and "we could not take time for further search or consideration."

And the pity of it is (perhaps) that, had they but known, they need have sailed only as far south as Manhattan Island (which still belonged to the Indians) and found a brewery already in its eighth year of operation. Or, had they made their landfall in Central America, the natives might well have greeted them with foaming beakers. Columbus had reported 118 years before that the Indians of those parts enjoyed a brew "... of maize, resembling English beer."

But the legendary resourcefulness of the Pilgrims obviously overcame this difficulty, since an early report of the colony states that "beer was all but the universal beverage." That there was nothing transitory about the popularity of this "beverage of moderation" is best indicated by the fact that, today, it is served in two homes out of three across this vast nation. And it is especially gratifying to learn from the latest statistical study by the U.S. Brewers' Foundation that the trend toward beer-in-the-home has been steadily growing through the years. Today, 75 per cent of all beer brewed is packaged, in bottles or cans, chiefly for home use. In 1935, three-quarters of the total brew was sold in barrels!

Thomas Jefferson, who brought skilled brewers to America from Bohemia, once said: "I wish to see this beverage become common." If he were to drop in on us today, he would be happy, we think, (along with that famous Quaker, William Penn, who built the first brewery in Pennsylvania) to see how "common" beer has become in the American HOME. Both of these gentlemen knew well what we are only beginning to fully appreciate —

Seen Monk's "Better Half"?

Monk McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of Monk's auto repair shop on Maple.

Remember last year Monk cut two cars in half, and put their front ends together? You couldn't tell if the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention.

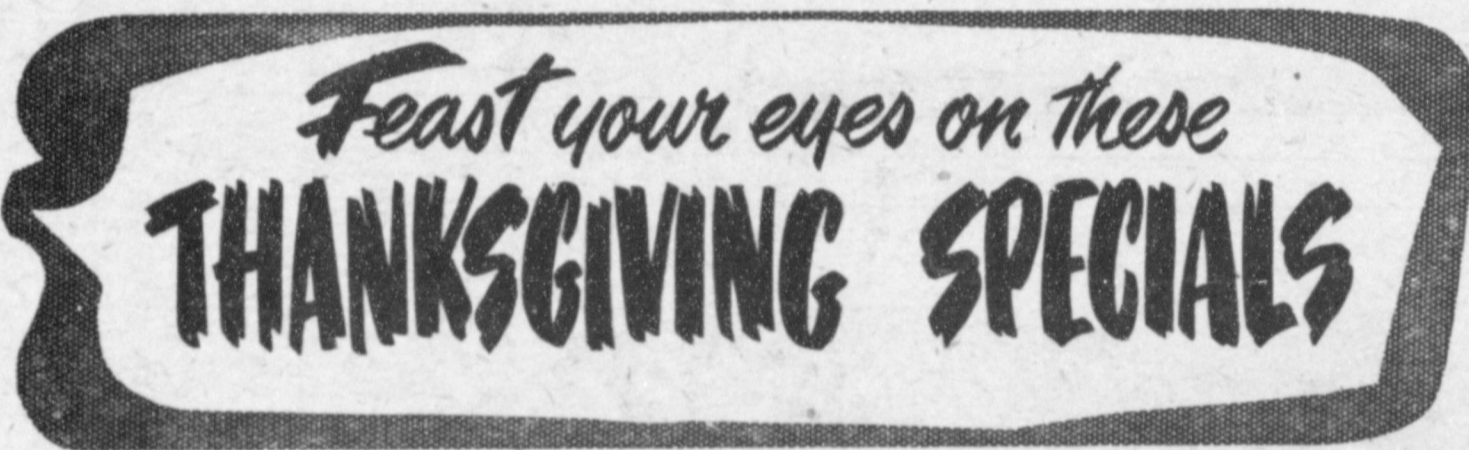

Now Monk's taken Tog Morgan's old sedan and completely restored one half of it. One side is as good as new, the other looks like — well, Tog's old car. "Sort of a before-and-after demonstration," Monk told me, "shows folks the kind of work I do."

From where I sit, some of Monk's ideas may look a little wild sometimes ... but I wouldn't want to tell him how to run his business any more than I'd like him to tell me what beverage to enjoy. He always keeps a hot pot of tea in his garage — I'd rather have a cold glass of beer — but respect for each other's opinion is "auto"-matic with us both.

Steel Cord Tires Now Being Tested

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — U. S. Steel Corporation says blowout-proof tires that will outlast the trucks and buses using them are being developed with a new-type thread-thin steel wire.

Several big trucking firms and bus lines have been testing the tires for at least a year. Big steel said results are all that could be expected — both in longer life and safer operation.

At least one leading tire manufacturer now is readying a national promotion crediting the steel-base tires with a road life of 300,000 miles. U. S. Steel says a 500,000 mile tire is in the making.

The wire — result of several years of research — is in commercial production on a very limited scale at U. S. Steel's American Steel and Wire Division plant at Cleveland. It was developed there.

The steel threads, with high tensile strength, are being tested as replacement for nylon, rayon and cotton cord now used in most tires.

The wire is made from high carbon steel and is coated with brass.

Using the steel cord reduces the number of plies — reinforcing layers — needed in the big tires. Nylon cord base bus and truck tires have from 14 to 20 plies. With the steel wire only four layers are needed.

Small panes of glass were used in the early days of our country because they were easier to make.

A surprise observance of their 45th wedding anniversary greeted Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Koesler Tuesday night at their home when their children, grandchildren and other family members gathered for an informal reunion and barbecue supper.

Visiting, card games and the opening of anniversary gifts furnished diversion during the evening. Thirty-five guests including the Tony Hermes family of Lindsay, the J. D. Caplingers and three sons of Sherman and A. C. Flusche of Denison, were present.

Mary Fuhrmann and Alfons Koesler were married in St. Peter's church at Lindsay on Nov. 15, 1910, and lived there until 16 years ago when they moved to Muenster. They are at home on a farm a mile north of the city.

That Trained Swimmer

The teacher read the story of the man who swam three times across the Tiber before breakfast. Willie, who was sitting in the front seat, began to snicker. The teacher asked, "You don't doubt that a trained swimmer could do that, do you?"

"Oh, no, teacher. I only wondered why he didn't make it four times and get back to where he left his clothes."

ty when they met Friday with Mrs. Lawton Moon for a regular business session. Mrs. Herman Richey will be hostess for the Yule social.

Mrs. John Richey presided and after the regular opening the group discussed the next meeting, Nov. 22, which will be held jointly with the Progress Club. Attorney William Carroll will give a talk on "How to Make a Will." The public is invited and members are reminded to bring food for a supper.

Big Changes Ahead In 5 or 10 Years

The world you live in today will be an exciting and wonderful one in just five or ten years, predict the editors of CHANGING TIMES, THE KIPLINGER MAGAZINE. Here are a few things that are within the realm of probability.

By 1965, the average family can expect $1,400 more income, in terms of 1955 dollars. Reasons for the trend are lower taxes and higher productivity.

In the 1960's, most young couples will be ready to buy a home even before they think of raising a family.

Expect fewer canned and frozen foods. Instead, many foods will be irradiated, will need no refrigeration and will last indefinitely.

Sometime in the 60's or 70's millions of workers will go to the factory or office four days a week and have three days of play.

Photographers will use magnetic tape film that will be used for either color or black-and-white pictures. No developing or printing will be necessary. You'll be able to re-use the tape and project pictures on your TV screen.

The turbocar will be sold within ten years. A jet-powered turbine will make the wheels go round. Only one-fifth the present number of moving parts will be needed and the car won't have a transmission or clutch.

Guided missiles for such peacetime uses as carrying freight and delivering transcontinental mail may be tried out within the next decade.

The atom will do everything from providing energy for power, to preserving food and purifying medicines.

Last, but not least, Long-term weather forecasting will be more reliable. On a Monday you'll be told what the weather will be like on Saturday and be able to count on it.

When a man's pet pound disappeared, he put the following ad in the local newspaper: "Lost or ran away, liver-colored bird dog named Bill. Will show signs of hydrophobia in about three days."

The dog came home the following morning.

AMON CARTER, JR., President

Stephen Foster, composer of "Way Down Upon the Swanee River" and many other lovely tunes, died at the age of thirty-eight with thirty-eight cents in his pocket.

An Australian sheep farmer, having drawn a huge wool check, bought a Rolls-Royce. When he brought it back for servicing the salesman asked if he was satisfied with it. "Oh, yes," said the farmer, "I specially like the glass partition between the front and back seat." "Why?" asked the salesman. "It stops the sheep from licking the back of my neck when I'm taking them to market."

715,192 Texans Get Free Chest X-Rays In 1 Year Period

AUSTIN, — A new record of public service was established between September 1954 and August 1955 when 715,192 Texans passed before the mobile chest x-ray units operated by the State Department of Health.

Of that number 18,192 showed evidence of chest "abnormalities," the Department reported. The tax-supported mass chest x-ray surveys, limited to persons 15 years of age and over, worked in 152 counties during the period covered by the report.

Among the abnormal findings were 9,887 cases of "suspicious, minimal, moderately advanced, or far advanced tuberculosis", 7,276 cases of heart involvement, 1,029 cases of other "nontuberculous" cases such as tumor shadows, diaphragmatic hernias, etc.

Past experience has shown that findings of chest abnormalities in children under 15 are so few that it is not economically feasible to include youngsters in the mass surveys. Also, health authorities hold that since the source of tuberculosis is in the adult population, finding a case in an adult presents sufficient opportunity to closely examine the children in that adult's family.

Although no age breakdown was available for the abnormal conditions discovered in last year's surveys, indications were that most of them occurred in persons over 55. Said Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle: "We are concentrating on this age bracket."

"Both tuberculosis and lung cancer are most easily curable in their early stages," the health official stressed. "But since both are almost symptomless in their early stages, early detection is virtually impossible without a chest x-ray."

Annual 4-H Awards Program Has Ikard As Guest Speaker

An address by Congressman Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls, presentation of awards to the Gold Star boy and girl for 1955, and the presentation of county and state awards highlighted the annual Cooke County 4-H Achievement Banquet Monday night.

Fourteen members of the Sacred Heart school 4-H clubs and Mrs. Paul Fisher, adult leader, were among the group honored.

To a Lindsay boy, Cyril Hermes and a Downard-Fairplains girl, Miss Margaret Elkins, went the coveted Gold Star awards. They were presented by Jerry Talley who lauded the achievements of the winners. Another Lindsay boy, Melvin Kuhn, received a state award on his soil and water conservation demonstration. Johnnie Wilson did the honors of presentation. Mrs. Paul Fisher received a certificate for her outstanding work as an adult leader. Harold Nortman of Lindsay was likewise recognized and presented a certificate for adult leadership. Muenster 4-H clubbers and their county winning projects are Nelda Bayer, recreation; Regi Bayer, poultry; Werner Becker Jr., field crops; Tim Fette, gardening; Betty Fisher, food preparation; Lillian Fisher, food preparation; William Fisher, poultry; Imogene Flusche, food preservation; William Flusche, dairying; Thomas Hesse, poultry; Dickie Pagel, gardening; Claude Walter, tractor maintenance; Norma and Sonny Walterscheid, recreation.

On the program and congratulating the young people were District Agents Ted Martin and Lida Cooper. The program was held in the J. M. Lindsay school following a turkey dinner. Edith Dougherty of Callisburg was toastmistress and Norma and Sonny Walterscheid presented vocal and accordion selections.

In his address Congressman Ikard praised the 4-H program for providing trained leadership for those who will enter the agricultural field in the future.

"In spite of present day surpluses in agricultural products, we must work at an ever increasing rate to conserve our greatest resource — the soil," Ikard said.

THEY'LL FARM SOUTH-AMERICAN STYLE—Six months of work on South American farms is ahead for these 4-H Club members, meeting at Pan American Union headquarters in Washington, D.C. Dr. Anibal Buitron, right, shows them examples of Aztec art. Chosen for their outstanding work in the national 4-H organization, they'll make the trip under the International Farm Youth Exchange program. From left, standing: Charles Dunham, Gooding, Ida.; Kenneth Morgan, Phillipsburg, Kan.; Billy Perkins, Howard, Kan.; Lawrence Fenske, Hankinson, N.D.; Gayle Gil-mour, Jefferson, Ore. Seated, from left: Donald Erickson, Centennial, Wyo.; Mary Ann Moon, Amiret, Minn.; Farrell Wankier, Jr., Levan, Utah; Mary Louise Ansberry, San Ardo, Calif.

He told the youngsters that as they come to maturity they will be more concerned with conservation of soil and water, that with the ever-increasing population of this country more food and other agricultural products will be needed. This is a challenge to agriculture to make use of every acre of land, he said.

He added that he knew of no greater influence on the youth of today to accomplish that objective than the 4-H movement.

Homemaking Hints

by Mrs. H. H. Homsley

A rapid way to determine the wrinkle-resistant properties of a garment or a piece of material is to squeeze the fabric in a clinched fist. A crease resistant fabric, when released, will spring out readily, with fewer wrinkles. Most of these fabrics are well-worth the price you pay, but watch out for those that appear too stiff in a plain weave, as they have been weakened by the treatment they have received and will tear easily.

Here is a good Thanksgiving bread — Pilgrims Cranberry — yields one loaf:

½ cup boiling water, 1 cup whole bran, 2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon baking soda, 1¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped nut meats, 1¼ cup raw cranberries (halved), ½ cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 2½ teaspoons grated orange rind, one egg.

Pour the boiling water over the bran, let stand. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, and salt. Blend in nut meats and cranberries. Cream shortening, sugar, and orange rind together thoroughly. Beat in egg until fluffy. Blend in bran mixture. Add dry ingredients and stir until just dampened. Poud into a greased and floured 9½" by 5¼" by 2¼" loaf pan. Bake in a 350 degree oven 60 to 70 minutes. Cool, wrap and let stand overnight before slicing for serving.

A moderate oven temperature is recommended for baking quick loaf bread. A 350 temperature allows a desirable increase in volume together with the formation of the desired thin, tender, evenly browned crust. High temperature and shorter baking time produces less volume, a thick, heavy crust, and possibly an underdone crumb.

The Haman Touch

A man afflicted with deafness and a serious impediment in his speech, but insisting on making his own living, became adept at making birdhouses. He would go into the woods and convert saplings into unique designs with his pocket-knife. He sent them to the market, but the public was little birdhouse-minded, and the man was able to eke only a mere existence.

One day a friend discovered the man at his work, discouraged and hungry. "What you need," said the friend, "is something to go with your birdhouses—something to attract attention to your fine product, to appeal to the imagination of the public." And this is what the friend wrote on a card—which the man cleverly lettered on each birdhouse: "To Let—For a Song."

Henceforth the woodcarver was unable to supply the demand, and he employed helpers to make birdhouses. The products were no better than before, except for the five little words.

Hornets and Tigers Will End Season at Alford, Windthorst

Both of the local high school teams will end their 1955 schedules Friday night with games away from home. The Tigers will go to Windthorst for their second encounter of the season with the Trojans, and the Hornets will be hosted by the Alford Bulldogs.

On paper both of the teams rate as favorites. Muenster High enjoys second place in district standing with a record of 3-1-1 whereas Alford is in the bottom spot. Sacred Heart was definitely stronger in its season opener with the Trojans, romping away to an easy 25-0 victory.

Being doped to win, however, is not likely to affect the Hornets' attitude this week, especially since their disappointing showing against Sanger. They had figured that game as in the bag and were lucky to come out with a tie after being pushed around by the determined Indians. This time, Coach Hosea said, they are taking the game seriously.

The Tigers likewise are set to bring back a win as the season's finale. They are ready physically and mentally.

evening. First the Hornets crossed it three times, then Sanger did the same. Again Muenster made a TD in the third quarter and Sanger caught up in the fourth.

As the game opened Sanger failed to advance and ended its first series with a short kick against the wind.

Starting from the Indian 44, Muenster advanced five yards on a penalty on the first play and cleared the way for Biffle's 39 yard scoring romp on the second. Harris kicked true for the first of his three extra points.

The visitors' next attempt also went sour and another short kick set the Hornets up on the 32. McCulley's 17, Hellman's 4 and McCulley's 8 put the Hornets on the 3 and a penalty added 2 more. Three tries cracked the stubborn Indian stand and Richey went over for the counter.

Another Hornet opportunity came promptly as Hellman covered an Indian fumble on the 29. Four plays, featuring McCulley's 17 and Richey's 10 yard scoring dash, did the job.

An attempted on-side kick marked the beginning of Sanger's come-back. The Indians started on the 50 and two passes gained 21. A penalty and two more plays gave them first down on the 17 as the quarter ended.

As the teams changed sides of the field Hosea called out his regulars for a sideline conference and the Indians, paced by hard running Amyx, kept hammering at the reserves. Three more plays made the first Sanger score and a pass added a point.

Muenster reserves followed with a first down and ended their second series with a high kick that got nowhere against the wind and bounced backward after hitting the ground. By the time it stopped Sanger was set up on the Hornet 26. Regulars went back then, but they too failed to check the Sanger momentum. On his fourth try Amyx plowed over from the 8. The try for point failed and the score stood at 21-13.

The third Indian drive started from the 35 after another short kick. Amyx on three plunges reached the 22 and a 15 yard penalty moved them back to the 37. On the next play Joiner took a long pass from Ramsey and stepped over the line. Amyx plunged for the extra point.

Headed for the north goal again, the Hornets did better in the third quarter. They made good on the first series, then lost a fourth down gamble on the second. Sanger also moved the chain once then kicked on the second series. From there on the Hornets went all the way for 49 yards and the TD. Eight plays did the job, with Richey scoring from the 1. After the TD Harris missed his kick for the point that could have made the difference.

A beautiful run by Amyx on Sanger's next offensive play threatened to produce another TD in a hurry... until Dougherty bounced him out of bounds on the 3. The romp was good for 59.

Then followed the Hornets' finest defensive stand of the game. After holding the big Indians for four power plays they claimed the ball on their 1.

Three offensive plays netted the Hornets 3 yards, and the quarter ended during the series, so Biffle had to kick against the wind. As usual the kick was short and Sanger was set up on the -23. Five attempts paid off, Stover scoring from the 1. Amyx plunged over for the point that tied the game.

A beautiful kick return by McCulley seemed to put the Hornets back in business. He carried for about 50 but a clipping penalty on the play set the team back to its 40. Biffle stepped off 11 but the next series ended with another short kick and Sanger in possession on its 40. Hornet fans enjoyed another brief hope as Richey returned an interception about 25 yards. However, he fumbled as a gang of Indians wrestled him down, and Sanger was on the offense again.

Amyx and company started driving again, but lost the ball and the Oakies once during the balance of the quarter.

However the Tigers started moving as the second quarter opened. Their 85 yard sustained drive ended with a 5 yard touchdown pass from Henscheid to Fleitman. Another completion by the same combination put Sacred Heart ahead by a 7-6 count.

Neither team made much headway for the rest of the period. The Sooners got one first down on a penalty and fizzled on their next series. The Tigers made 29 on Henscheid's pass to Herr but lost the ball on an interception the next play.

Again as the second half opened, Sacred Heart's progress was temporarily interrupted by another interception. However, they held on the first series, then got going on a 75 yard scoring drive. As on their previous drive Frank Fleitman was the big gainer with a couple of successive end-around gains adding to 35. Mollenkopf slipped over from the 1 for the score and an attempted pass for extra point failed to produce.

From then to midway in the fourth the teams battled it out on equal terms... until Ryan took inspiration from a recovered fumble in mid field. Gains of 9, 4 and 6 along with a donation of 15 on a penalty advanced to the 15. Two plays added 1 and a pass across the line was good for a TD. The extra point which followed knotted the count at 13-13.

The interception jinx continued to hound the Tigers in the fading minutes. Henscheid flipped to Mollenkopf for 15 and had his next aerial stolen by Ryan.

Nocona Girls Trim MHS in Practice

Girls basketball at Muenster High got off to a slow start Monday night as Coach Homsley's A and B squads got the short end of 36-28 and 14-10 scores in practice sessions with the girls of Nocona High. The first stringers turned in the larger score and the beginners the smaller.

The games indicated that girls of both schools will need practice in their shooting. Floor work and guarding were better but are also in need of improvement.

until officers were elected. He opened the meeting by extending welcome, then cited statistics of growth of the school system which has in recent years grown from a three and four teacher school to the present 13 teacher institution.

Glenn Hellman became the first president of the Ex-Students Association when those present unanimously approved the slate of officers as presented by J. W. Fisher, chairman of the nominating committee. At the same time Earl Fisher was elected secretary-treasurer and Rosa Driever was elected reporter.

Other business during the session consisted of naming the group the Muenster High School Ex-Students Association, plans to meet once a year, a resolution to include teachers and former teachers as members, and a vote to empower the president to select a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws, and a program committee to plan next year's celebration.

Four states were represented among former students. They came from Texas, Arizona, Oklahoma and Ohio. Oldest ex-student to register was Mrs. Alma Mitchell McCool of Nocona, 68. She was a student before Muenster had a school building in 1898 and continued classes through 1901. That summer, at 14, she took teachers' examinations, passed with a grade of 98 per cent, and returned in 1902 as a teacher, remaining until 1904.

Leonard Endres was registered from the farthest distance. He lives in Columbus, Ohio, and received a gift through courtesy of Hamric's men's store.

Jim Harris and his dance band furnished the music for dancing after the dinner. The gymnasium was transformed, divided with crepe paper streamers into a partitioned dining room and ball room and extensively decorated, stressing the school's colors of red and white.

The coronation of homecoming queen was held at game half time and Miss Hellman reigned over homecoming festivities. A senior student, she was elected by ex-students who indicated their choice on a ballot containing the names of four candidates, one from each of the high school classes. Identity of the winner was not revealed until the crowning ceremony started on the 50 yard line. Her attendants, runners up in the contest, were Misses Agnes and Magdalen Noggler and Jeanie Aytes.

Herbert Meurer crowned the queen and Glenn Hellman presented her a bouquet of red roses. She wore an orchid net formal over bouffant taffeta. Jerry Klement was her escort.

L. B. Bruns was general chairman in charge of the homecoming program, Herbert Meurer served as temporary president of the association and Glenn Hellman as secretary-treasurer for pre-program business. Mrs. H. H. Homsley was in charge of the dinner, senior students assisted with registrations and senior mothers helped prepare and serve the meal.
