Mr. and Mrs. John Herr had as guests for the weekend and Labor Day their children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shephard and sons of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Q. D. Pettigrew and son of Kaufman, and Mrs. Herr's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vance of Hereford.

Sunday this group was joined by other family members for an outing at Lake Texoma where a picnic dinner, swimming, fishing, boating and surfboard riding provided a full day of fun.

Others in the party were Alfons and Miss Theresa Luke, the Ben Lukes, the Bill Lukes visiting here from Midland, the Dan Lukes here from Elk City, Okla., for the weekend, the Joe Lukes and their guests the Norman Lukes and children of Shreveport, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Endres, Messrs. and Mmes. Gilbert and Paul Endres and their families, Joannie Herr and Kathy Pagel.

Sunday night the Herr family stopped at Lindsay on their way home and were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bengfort.

Shirley Ann Bowen, I. J. Derichsweiler Say Vows Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Irvan J. Derichsweiler are making their home in Dallas following their marriage here Saturday morning in Sacred Heart church. Rev. Louis Deuster officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock.

The bride is the former Miss Shirley Ann Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bowen of Saint Jo. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Derichsweiler of Muenster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. It was ballerina length. The fitted, strapless bodice was covered with a long-sleeved lace bolero and the voluminous skirt was designed with six tiers of lace. A half hat of sequins held her finger-tip length veil of nylon net and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis on top of a white prayer-book.

She borrowed a crystal rosary from Dolores Derichsweiler, carried an antique lace handkerchief belonging to her mother and wore a penny in her shoe.

Miss Delphine Derichsweiler, sister of the groom, was maid of honor wearing a yellow net dress over taffeta. The bouffant skirt was ballerina length and the moulded bodice was topped with a fitted bolero. Her half hat matched her dress and her flowers were red roses in a colonial arrangement. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bride.

Harold Bindel, cousin of the groom, was best man.

After the service, the Derichsweiler home was the scene of a wedding breakfast and at noon the groom's parents were hosts for dinner. Immediate members of both families and the three local pastors were guests. Mmes. Gene Schmitz, Bill Crow and Bob Dunn served.

White and yellow, colors of the bride, were accented in decoration in the home and on the table. The board held a five-tiered decorated cake made by Mrs. Bill Crow of Archer City, sister of the groom.

Out of town family members at the wedding were the bride's parents and her brothers Elwood and Hugh of Saint Jo, Mrs. Bob Dunn and daughters Betty and Carol of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crow and children of Archer City.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip she was wearing a forest green two-piece suit with white accessories. She is a graduate of Saint Jo High school with the class of 1955. Her husband was graduated from Muenster High school in 1953.

Jeanette Walter to Marry William Karr Here on October 8

Mr. and Mrs. Al Walter have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jeanette, to William M. Karr, son of Mrs. Marion Karr and the late Mr. Karr of Canadian, Texas.

The couple has selected Saturday, October 8, as the wedding date. The ceremony will be solemnized here in Sacred Heart church during an afternoon nuptial mass at four o'clock.

Miss Walter has chosen her sister, Mrs. B. J. Swirczynski as matron of honor and Misses Margie Baumhardt of Waco and Loyce Edwards of Dallas as bridesmaids. Her sister, Sandra Kay Walter, will be flower girl.

Mr. Karr's attendants will be Bill Tolbert of Amarillo, best man, and Ted Castle of Dallas and Bob Dudek of Waco.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Muenster High school and of St. Paul's School of Nursing in Dallas. The prospective groom was graduated from Texas A&M College, served two years in the army, and is employed by the soil conservation service in Lubbock where the couple will make their home.

More Dairy Profit

Zero-grazing is another method of increasing dairy profits and efficiency. Zero-grazing is simply a matter of chopping forage and hauling it to the cattle instead of letting them graze.

G. A. Williams, Purdue University extension dairyman says that he believes the plan will maintain more uniform production. He thinks that it will also reduce the acreage per cow required for the grazing season, and lessen the amount of concentrates fed per 100 pounds of milk produced.

Williams points out the case of one dairyman who, by following the zero-grazing plan, produced an average of 11,515 pounds of milk per acre of forage. The feed supply was cut in the evening and replenished daily. The time required going to the field, operating the field chopper, returning to the feed-lots, and unloading the grass amounted to about an hour per day.

Tremendous Strides Made in Treatment Of Heart Diseases

AUSTIN. — There is hope on the horizon for the thousands of Texans who are suffering from heart disease, says Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health. Such tremendous advances have been made by medical science that some forms of heart disease, once incurable, can now be effectively remedied. Eventually a way will be found to prevent some forms of heart disease.

Heart disease is the leading cause of death in Texas. Last year 20,211 Texans died of diseases of the heart, 31 per cent of all deaths. There are 21 known types of heart trouble, but the three major types are rheumatic heart disease, high blood pressure and coronary heart disease.

Rheumatic heart disease is the damage done to the heart valves by rheumatic fever. Rheumatic fever is a disease of children and young adults, and often follows a "strep throat" or some other streptococcus infection. Medical science has given us new and better ways of treating these infections. As a result fewer hearts are being damaged and fewer persons are dying from rheumatic fever. With modern medicine, doctors can, if given a chance, prevent rheumatic fever by curing strep infections in the early stages.

Doctors do not know all the causes of high blood pressure, or hypertension as it is sometimes called. Sometimes it is caused by kidney disease, and sometimes by hardening of the arteries, nervousness, an overactive thyroid gland, or excessive weight. If a person with high blood pressure follows his doctor's advice, he may live happily and busily to old age. To hold down his blood pressure he must watch his weight, not work too hard or play too hard, and follow closely any special instructions of his physician, as to diet and other matters.

Many people think, mistakenly, that nothing can be done for coronary heart disease, the greatest heart killer from middle age onward. It is a disease of the arteries which supply blood to the heart muscle itself. These arteries may become hard and thick, allowing less blood to get to the heart muscle to nourish it. A much more serious condition, coronary thrombosis, develops when a clot forms in a thickened artery cutting off the blood flow. With proper treatment and rest, however, a person may recover completely.

According to Dr. Holle, work in the prevention of heart disease is moving ahead on many fronts. So far, medical science has been unable to prevent high blood pressure and coronary trouble, but has found ways of treating their aftereffects. But such treatment is allowing many persons to enjoy many years of added life.

Mages-Pelzel Rites Set for October 15

Miss Polly Mages of Muenster and Gene Pelzel of Pilot Point have planned a mid-October wedding to be solemnized in Sacred Heart church here. The announcement has been made by Joe Mages, father of the bride-elect. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pelzel of Pilot Point.

Miss Mages has chosen her sisters, Mrs. Nick Dieter and Miss Loretta Mages, as her attendants. Her colors are white and dusty rose.

Nick Dieter and Johnny Pelzel, brother of the groom, will be Mr. Pelzel's attendants.

Miss Mages is a graduate of Sacred Heart High school and is employed as receptionist at the Davenport Chiropractic Clinic in Gainesville. Her fiance, a graduate of Pilot Point High, is employed by Chance-Vought Aircraft Corporation in Grand Prairie.

Patsy Vogel, Four-H Club Girl, Achieves Envious Record

Miss Patsy Vogel, 4-H club girl and a sophomore at Sacred Heart High school, has achieved an enviable record in her six years of clubwork and her efforts paid off this year at the Cooke County Fair when she was declared sweepstakes winner in the girls' division.

Patsy entered 18 articles in the Fair's exhibits and counted 18 ribbons after the judging. Ten were blue ribbons designating first place awards, seven were red for second and one was white for third.

She won blue ribbons and cash awards on a tailored dress, an informal dress, a school dress, a waist apron, a bib apron and a tea apron, on a pint of canned beets, a quart of tomatoes, a quart of string beans and a quart of dill pickles.

Tagged with red ribbons were her party dress, dresser scarf, pillow cases, lazy daisy cake, butter cake, drop cookies and pint of corn. Her cup cakes won a white ribbon.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Vogel, Patsy inherits some of her love for sewing from her mother, who as a 4-H club girl also won honors. She took first place in Cooke county and second in the state contest at A&M in the dress review.

Gardening, cooking and canning "come naturally" for Patsy has five brothers and sisters and does her share of the home chores. In addition to her six years of 4-H club work she took Home Economics last year and a Singer course last summer.

With three more years of high school ahead of her Patsy is still undecided about a future career but entertains two ideas — first she'd like to be a nurse, second a beautician.

Christine Fleitman, eighth grader and member of the Sacred Heart 4-H club, won a blue ribbon and a cash award on her butter cake at the County Fair. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fleitman, she is a repeat winner on this recipe. This year's entry was her third and likewise her third time to take a prize. She's 13 years old.

Modest Request

On August 12th the Republic of South Korea formally requested the United Nations for the "dissolution" of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission and the immediate expulsion of the trouble-making Communist members of the Commission from Korean soil.

Ambassador Ben C. Limb, South Korea's permanent observer to the United Nations, made the official request in a memorandum handed to Dag Hammarskjold, UN General Secretary. He stated that the Czechoslovakian and Polish (Communist) members of the Commission during the two years that have elapsed since the signing of the armistice "have greatly aided the buildup of the Chinese and (North) Korean Communist military forces . . . have used their offices to do espionage work for the Communist aggressors . . . have employed every form of subterfuge to prevent the Swiss and Swedish members . . . to observe and supervise the truce conditions in northern Korea which the Communists have been flagrantly violating."

Col. Limb reminds the UN that it was originally understood that the NNSC was to function for no more than three months, and that it has "far too long outlived its allotted time." The national security, he says, is "gravely endangered," and declares: "No nation can endure such an open crime even for a few weeks, let alone for years." Further, says the Ambassador's memorandum, "during the invasion of the Republic of Korea by the Chinese and Korean Communist forces, 17,534 Korean civilians were kidnapped by them, and 2,263 ROK prisoners of war are still in their custody."

And the memorandum states flatly that unless Red China's military forces are removed from North Korea, "a free election in North Korea under United Nations supervision (as provided in the two-year-old armistice agreement) is impossible."

Certainly, if any endorsement of Ambassador Limb's demand were required, it should be forthcoming from the US, whose beleaguered troops have been standing off understandably infuriated Korean mobs in defense of the Czechoslovak and Polish saboteurs of the truce for which nearly 40,000 Americans died and 100,000 more shed their blood.

Firm, But Friendly

In his Philadelphia speech to the American Bar Association, President Eisenhower emphasized that the Geneva "summit" conference marked no capitulation to Communist blandishments nor any consideration of peace at any price.

"Eagerness to avoid war — if we think no deeper than this single desire — can produce outright or implicit agreement that injustices and wrongs of the present shall be perpetuated into the future," declared the President. "We must not participate in any such false agreement."

Such conduct, he said, would make us "partners" of the oppressors and "would assure future conflict."

"The division of Germany can not be supported," said the President, "by any argument based on boundaries or language or racial origin."

"The domination of captive

countries can not longer be justified by any claim that this is needed for purposes of security.

"An international political machine, operating within the borders of sovereign nations for their political and ideological subversion, can not be explained away as a cultural movement."

The President's revelation that America's "Spirit of Geneva" wore armor beneath her filmy draperies of peace, followed a meeting of the National Security Council which endorsed the viewpoint later expressed by the Chief Executive when he told the lawyers: "We must be firm but friendly."

Even as the President spoke, Livingston T. Merchant, Assistant Secretary of State for Europe, was preparing to carry the word to Paris, Bonn and London by way of tightening up Western attitudes and unity in advance of the October meeting of the foreign ministers in Geneva.

It was also observed in Washington that Mr. Merchant's sudden departure would give him time to undertake a couple of chores that are even more critical than the Geneva confab. He might express to France our concern over the ruckus in North Africa — where we have a number of bases — and might even convey some suggestions. And he might well buck up Germany's Chancellor Adenauer in advance of that leader's impending Kremlin conference with Premier Bulganin.

Thus, with our position in Europe beginning to jell, it would be nice, if it's not too much to ask, to see a similar stiffening toward Communism in Asia — Red China specifically.

Labor Day Honors Christ the Carpenter

By George Meany, President of the American Federation of Labor

CHRIST COULD HAVE been born into a family of rulers, of kings or princes. He could have been a professional man, a soldier, statesman, or philosopher. He could have decided to be an artist, poet, or musician of genius. He could have been wealthy beyond imagination.

But He chose instead to be a Worker—a Carpenter—the Son of an humble working man in the obscure and scorned town of Nazareth.

BY HIS DECISION, Christ sought to make men realize that their ancient scales of values were wrong. He tried to impress upon them the dignity of labor.

His choice has or should have an awesome effect upon us who are working men and women, or representatives of them. To think that Our Lord was one with us, one also who worked with His hands, and who deliberately chose to be so, is sobering. He has inspired us as craftsmen and encouraged us in our service.

IT IS FITTING therefore that more and more cities and towns throughout the United States mark Labor Day with religious observances. Here working men and women have the opportunity to call the blessings of Christ the Carpenter upon themselves, their families, and their work.

LABOR DAY has increased significance in America this year because of the pending merger of the A. F. L. and the C. I. O. Through this unity, working men and women will have added strength in seeking to maintain our high American standard of living, and in trying to help working men and women of other countries.

We seek this because we believe we have such a responsibility to our fellow workers and because we know no stronger bulwark can be built against godless Communist slavery than free democratic trade unionism. Through this unity, we shall also be able to carry on the fight for other objectives that benefit not only workers but all citizens. Our first efforts were naturally in eliminating child labor, oppressive employment of women, sweatshop working conditions, and excessive hours.

TODAY THE INTERESTS of working men and women go far beyond the shop and the community. In making our plans, we know that we can find sage and inspired guidance for many of our problems in the social encyclicals of the popes, knowing that the principles there set down are universal and basic.

Christ the Worker is especially close to us on this day set aside to help employee and employer review the past, take stock of the present, and plan for a future that we hope will be more and more within the spirit of Christ the Carpenter.

PORTABLE PASTURES

Beef cattle feeders who have long found it profitable to take their cattle to pasture for grazing now find it more profitable to bring the pasture to the cattle. It's a new practice made possible by the development of field choppers that cut forage crops and grass into bits and blow them into wagons for hauling to feed pens.

The feed saving idea that eliminates tromping of growing feed is another achievement by American agriculture to lower the cost of producing food.

The chief of a certain railroad's claim department found it hard to believe the report submitted by one of his men which stated that a farmer along the railroad had lost 2,025 pigs through the negligence of the company. He, therefore, went out to the country to interview the farmer in person.

"That's a lot of pigs," the head claim agent told the farmer. "Are you sure you lost that many?"
"Yeth," lisped the farmer.
"Thanks a lot," said the smart claim man, and changed the original report to read "two sows and 25 pigs."

Jena Rawley, 3, Has Party on Birthday

Jena Rawley who was three years old on Sept. 2 celebrated her birthday with a party. Her mother, Mrs. Walter Rawley, entertained at their home from 9:30 to 11:30 in the morning.

A circus theme was carried out for the party and balloons were favors. A play circus tent and other gifts were presented the honoree.

Birthday cake and pink lemonade were served to Jena and to Donna Marie Rohmer, Patty Tempel, Glenda Pagel, Marcie and Mike Hosea, Ross Felderhoff and Mac Rawley.

The cake delighted the children. It was a big pink affair ornamented with animal crackers, carrying out the circus theme. Three of the little animals held candles. Centered with a peppermint stick, the cake looked like a circus tent with ribbons from the center pole to the animals.

Nuclear Energy
Not in Sight for Texas Power Plants

Nuclear energy power plants will not be economically feasible for Texas at any time within the near future, according to Dr. H. S. Isbin, research scientist for the Atomic Energy Commission and currently visiting professor in nuclear engineering at the University of Texas.

Dr. Isbin discussed the role nuclear reactors would assume in Texas at a meeting of electric power company executives and engineers of the Dallas-Fort Worth area August 23 in the Dallas Power & Light auditorium.

Nuclear power, as we envision it during the next few years, Dr. Isbin said, simply cannot compete economically with the unusually favorable conditions for low capital investment in Texas. "For your companies to spend 30 to 50 million dollars on a nuclear power reactor just to help advance the art and technology might be a very noble act," he said, "but not one you could readily justify."

Referring to findings by the recent Geneva Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, Dr. Isbin pointed out that the capital cost per kilowatt of installed capacity of a nuclear energy power plant would be approximately five times that of the conventional electric generating station in the Southwest. In addition, the operating personnel required in the so-called atomic plant would be twice the number employed in a modern generating station. And, he added, this is exclusive of the initial phases and the training program.

Dr. Isbin described the four nuclear reactors, each using a different processing method, now under construction or proposed by four private industries. Which method will prove the most efficient, he said, no one knows. What will be the ultimate cost of each, no one knows. There is no precedent on which estimates can be based. "We need more experience in reactor technology to firm up our cost estimates." The nuclear energy program is much more extensive than just the operation of nuclear power stations, Dr. Isbin told the group. "Although nuclear power reactors are not competitive with your favorable construction and investment costs," he said, "I believe you have a need and a responsibility for undertaking and supporting well-conceived plans in the fields of nuclear engineering. The role of reactor developments in Texas will be considerably influenced by your actions."

NOT ENOUGH RICH PEOPLE

It used to be said that well-to-do and rich people could pay most of the taxes, so the rest of us needn't worry too much about the cost of government. But that situation is as dead as the Pharaohs.

The federal individual income tax starts at 20 per cent. Then, as income levels rise, surtaxes of from two to 71 per cent are added on, making the maximum tax a staggering 91 per cent. Despite this, some 84 per cent of our total individual income tax revenue comes from the base rate of 20 per cent—while only 16 per cent comes from the surtaxes. We just haven't enough rich people to soak!

Nothing to It

"Sculpture is very easy, isn't it?" remarked the sweet young thing.

"Very, very easy," answered the sculptor, "and very, very simple. You just take a block of marble and a chisel and knock off all the marble you don't want."

Raymond Metzler entered Veterans Hospital in McKinney Tuesday for treatment of his knee. He'll be there about three weeks and cards will reach him addressed to Ward 105 at the hospital.

Chief Commissary Steward and Mrs. Paul Zimmerer of Norman, Okla., spent the holiday weekend with his parents, the I. A. Zimmerers and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Metzler, Raymond and Annabell Metzler and Helen Corcoran visited recently at Copperas Cove with the Bill Metzlers. Bill is stationed at nearby Gray AFB.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zimmerer visited recently with their daughters, Sister Herman Mary and Sister Mary Rose at St. Joseph's Academy in Abilene. The latter, teaching at St. Henry's School in San Antonio, was in Abilene for a weekend visit. Another daughter who is also a nun, Sister Barbara James, is teaching in Pasadena, Texas, at St. Pius School. From Abilene the Zimmerers went to Hereford to visit their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Betznes and daughter Mariam and made the acquaintance of their new grandson, James Anthony, born Aug. 20. They also stopped in Amarillo to visit their son Bernard and his wife, and at Electra for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kempf.

Joe Hacker, 67, was found lying unconscious in the driveway of his farm home three miles south of Lindsay Sunday morning at about 10 o'clock. Two neighbors who had come to see him discovered him and he was taken to Gainesville Sanitarium in a George J. Carroll and Son ambulance. Several hours later his condition was pronounced satisfactory. It seems Hacker suffered an attack of illness as he prepared to get into his car and fell against the runningboard of the automobile striking his head. There was blood on his head and on the car.

Mrs. George Hartman and children Mariana, George F., and Joseph, left Tuesday to return to their home in Elmhurst, Ill., following a six day visit with her family, the Mike Fuhrmanns. Mrs. Fuhrmann is a patient in Gainesville Sanitarium where she underwent surgery on August 28. She is recovering satisfactorily. Cheering her with visits during the weekend were her daughters, Sister Michael Marie of Rowena and Sister Henry Ann of Abilene. Earlier in the week her son John Fuhrmann of New Braunfels spent several days here. Other children visiting her during the weekend were Father Aloys Fuhrmann and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis of Dallas, H.N. and Val Fuhrmann of Muenster and Mrs. Al Klement of Gainesville, making all members of the family present. Mrs. Fuhrmann will remain a hospital patient for some time.
