VOLUME XIX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS,

SEPTEMBER 16, 1955

NUMBER 43

As might be expected, in our recent "improved relations" with Russia, the Soviet schemers have come forth with an objective designed to make the arrangement serve their primary purpose a little better. Their gripe concerns this country's requirement of finger prints on applications for visas to the U. S.

The kremlin boys say they can't go along with that rule. It subjects their cultural and peace loving citizens to an indignity usually imposed on criminals. Since they are willing to approve permits for "tens of thousands" of their people to tour this country they feel we should cooperate by abandoning the humiliating requirement we now apply.

Secretary of State Dulles says he is willing to talk about finger prints at the coming foreign ministers' meeting in Geneva, also that he may recommend congressional action to change the law . . . if finger printing remains a travel barrier.

Judging from a few other signs of the Dulles attitude, we confidently interpret that statement as meaning that our country will do nothing about the Russian gripe. As a man who does not trust the red motive, he's likely to tell Geneva just why we favor finger printing and he's also likely to mention that the custom is not a barrier to the kind of visitors we welcome here.

Furthermore Dulles would have good reason to add that finger-printing is more desirable than ever before, if Russia is to turn her "tens of thousands" of citizens loose over here. The tourist exchange is too good an opportunity to send a good percentage of red agents, some of whom might wish to participate in subversive activity or even get lost over here under new identification. For such people there should be not only fingerprints but also a record of other physical characteristics aiding in positive identification. Russia must not be allowed any convenience in placing its subversives among us.

By the fact that they beef about this regulation the Soviets expose themselves to suspicion. They are like their stooges over here who complain that Congressional investigation is a violation of their freedom, like criminals who object to police questioning, like certain characters who object to security measures in government. These people raise a howl because they object to any provision which will reveal them for what they are.

People who have nothing to hide do not get indignant about security provisions. Millions of us were fingerprinted when we entered the armed services knowing all the while that the record might turn up a criminal or help to identify a deserter later on. But we did not object. We had neither memories nor plans that clashed with the regulation. Rather we were grateful, because fingerprints might help later in identifying remains if the more ghastly misfortune of war should overtake us.

Nothing could be more absurd than to drop our guard now that the Soviet face is wearing (Continued on Page 10)

Klement Honored at Sivells Bend Party For Pavement Job

John B. Klement, commissioner of Precinct 4, was among the several persons honored last Friday night when some 500 persons gathered at Sivells Bend for a barbecue celebrating completion of a paved road to the community.

Klement received a gift in appreciation for his help in obtaining the road project.

A highlight of the program was the presentation of a cash award and a certificate to the Sivells Bend Farm and Ranch Club for finishing second among Cooke County communities in a rural neighborhood progress contest. The cash was given by the Gainesville Register and the certificate by Farm and Ranch magazine in cooperation with the Dallas News and A&M Extension Service.

Ballard Watts was chairman for the program. Chicken for the barbecue was provided by the First State Bank.

1.22 Shower Falls Saturday as Storm Hits Here Briefly

This community's long wait for moisture ended Saturday as a dandy shower measuring 1.22 inches fell during a short siege of rough weather Saturday afternoon.

The rain was accompanied by an electrical storm which knocked out appliances in several homes, and a high wind which caused some alarm but did no damage.

It was the first bit of adequate moisture the community has had since July when a total of 1.36 inches was recorded. Rainfall in August was a mere .29 inch. Areas south and east were more fortunate however. The measure increased in that direction to a high of four inches south of Lindsay.

In spite of the recent scarcity of rain here the year's total to date is considerably better than last year. The present figure is 24.67 inches, almost 10 inches more than last year at this time.

Waggoners Move To Saint Jo, Set off Series of Changes

During the past few days Muenster lost one family, had two new families move to town, and saw four families make moves to different homes.

The series of house changing started when Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Waggoner and daughter Becky moved to Saint Jo Monday. The next day the George Letsons moved into that place and Wednesday the Marty Klements moved into the house the Letsons vacated. It's a temporary residence for the Klements, until their new home is finished.

Clarence Hudspeth recently bought the Klement house and it is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Barthold and son Bobby who moved here from Valley View. Mrs. Barthold is a daughter of the Hudspeths. Her husband is employed at the milk plant as a truck driver.

The other new family coming to town are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luttmner and two sons who moved here from Gainesville to occupy the place the Victor Koelzers vacated when they moved into their new home on North Hickory Street.

Another move is that of the Norbert Hoedebeck family from the two-story brick house on North Main to Frank Hoedebeck's house in the northeast part of town. The brick house, an early day landmark, is being torn down by its owner, J. C. Trachta, to be replaced by a modern house.

Hornets Look Good Despite 19-0 Loss To Stout Pointers

Considering the circumstances, Muenster's Hornets made a fine start in their 1955 football season last Friday night, even though the record shows a loss of 19-0 to Pilot Point.

They lost to a good team, one made up mostly of the outfit that won the District 10-A championship last year, but they gave that team a mighty close game. A tally of statistics reveals that they gained 143 yards rushing whereas the Bearcats gained 150. In first downs they bettered the Pilot Point fellows by 8 to 6. Muenster's chief trouble was in the aerial game, and it hurt in two ways. One Pointer pass for 43 set up the first TD and an interception set up the second. In all, three of Muenster's six pass attempts ended in interceptions, and only one pass was completed.

Except for the two scoring set-ups and one beautiful 40 yard gallop by hot-shot Vernon Cole, the game was about evenly matched. Early in the game Pilot Point marked up two consecutive first downs, but from there on the Hornets held them to short gains.

Likewise the Bearcats were grudging in allowing gains, except early in the second half when the Hornets completed 5 successive first downs on a 70 (Continued on Page 10)

Gerald York Quits County Agent Job For State 4-H Post

Gerald York resigned as county agent of Cooke county Monday to accept the job of assistant state 4-H club leader with headquarters at Texas A&M College. The resignation is effective October 15.

In his new post York will work in the state office with three other persons in coordinating all Texas 4-H club activity. At the same time he will study for his master's degree in sociology.

He came to Cooke county in December, 1952, succeeding B.T. Haws who went to Wichita Falls as agent for Wichita county. York has been recognized as one of the leading agricultural agents in the district. Under his leadership the county produced three state 4-H club winners.

The commissioners court, in accepting York's resignation, commended him for outstanding service during his time in Cooke county. At the present time no one has been named to replace him.

Mr. and Mrs. York and their two children will leave Gainesville on Oct. 15 to make their home at College Station.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

C. F. Gobble has been dismissed from the Veterans Hospital in McKinney where he was a patient for eight weeks.

Elaine Sicking, four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sicking was a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium last Wednesday. Her tear ducts didn't function properly and had to be dilated.

Mrs. Ray Sicking underwent surgery Saturday at Gainesville Sanitarium and is recovering satisfactorily.

Starling Lawson's left arm is back in a cast for several more weeks. When the cast was removed six weeks after the fracture, it was discovered that the bones hadn't knitted properly and another cast had to be put on.

Mrs. Clem Reiter was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Saturday following a check-up. Also dismissed, after medical care, were Ralph Esker and Mrs. T. S. Bridges.

Hornets Will Meet Whitesboro High Here Friday Night

The Hornets of Muenster High move a couple of steps out of their class Friday night as they take on the Whitesboro Bearcats on the local field at 8 o'clock. Muenster is a member of a Class B circuit whereas Whitesboro is in a 2-A loop.

Nevertheless Coach John Hosea is expecting his boys to give the visitors a good tussle, and perhaps sack up their first win of the season.

His opinion is based on the fact that the Bearcats, in action up to now, have not shown the power usually found in Class 2-A circles. They were clobbered last Friday by the Nocona Indians, and they showed up second best in a few scrimmage sessions with Pilot Point. Their practice with the Pointers, who downed the Hornets 19-0, indicates a fairly even match here Friday night.

Another factor is that Whitesboro will have about the same average weight as the Hornets. A possible advantage for the visitors, however, is experience, especially in the backfield. The standout there is Charlie Winchester, the elusive scatback who rated as an old reliable on the team last year. The starting lineup includes 5 seniors, 5 juniors and a sophomore. Muenster's backfield is composed of new hands who did a fine defensive job but showed the need of more offensive punch in their Pilot Point encounter.

Probable Muenster starters are: Ends, Harris and Dougherty; Tackles, Cain and Milner; Guards, Hallmark and Flusche; Center, Kaderli; Backs, Hellman, Wimmer, Biffle and Richey.

A&M Man Starts 5-Session Course For Local Firemen

A new deal for Muenster Volunteer Firemen, as well as for insurance policy holders of the city, appears to be in the making as the local firemen begin a five session course of special training under direction of A.L. Cartwright of the Firemen's Training School of A&M College.

The first class was conducted Wednesday night and the other four are dated for the next four Wednesday nights. Meetings are held in the city hall.

Fire Chief Joe Sicking said the training course is intended as a substitute for the annual volunteer firemen's course at College Station. Attendance and interest in a number of test cities of the state this year will determine whether it becomes standard procedure in the future.

Sicking said a number of towns besides Muenster have been seeking this kind of special training arrangement rather than the annual firemen's course at A&M. Most places have the same problem as Muenster. It is difficult to find a member who can spare a week from his regular work. Besides the member, when he returns, seldom knows the subject well enough to give adequate instruction to other firemen. The plan now is to bring the instructor to the town and give all members the benefit of attending his talks and demonstrations.

If the new system is adopted as a statewide policy replacing the A&M course participating towns will receive the same credits they formerly got for sending members to the meeting. The benefit is a reduction of fire insurance rates in the city. No credit is allowed for this year's test meetings.

The course will cover fire fighting, care of equipment, public relations and other related subjects

Tigers Start Grid Season With 25-0 Win Over Trojans

Father Christopher Palađino's Sacred Heart Tigers started their new football season with a bang Friday night with an easy 25-0 victory over the Trojans of Windthorst High.

The score might have been considerably higher had the Tigers not fizzled away several scoring opportunities on fumbles. Each team lost the ball six times on miscues.

On the other hand their butter fingered tendencies certainly did not apply to their aerial game. The Tigers completed 10 of their 16 pass attempts for 119 yards, the exact distance gained by their rushing plays, and snared three of the opponents passes besides. Quarterback Virgil Henscheid was the sharpshooter who tossed most of the Tiger passes.

The contest started as a comedy of errors. Windthorst received the opening kick and fumbled on the second scrimmage play, on the 20. Sacred Heart advanced to the 5 and fumbled. Then Windthorst lost (Continued on Page 10)

Attention Invited To Series of TV Talks on Religion

A resolution to invite public attention to a current series of religious TV programs was passed unanimously in a meeting last Sunday by the Muenster unit of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

The series, entitled "We Believe" presents Rev. James J. McQuade S.J., head of the religion department of John Carroll University, explaining Catholic belief on thirteen subjects. The filmed programs are sponsored by the diocesan organization of the National Council of Catholic Men.

The series started on KFDX-TV-3, Wichita Falls, on Sept. 4 and will show each Sunday until Nov. 27 at 3:15 p.m. The same series is scheduled to start Oct. 30 on KRLD-TV-4, Dallas. It will appear on that station at 8:30 a.m. each Sunday for the thirteen weeks.

What Killed Mages' Cattle, Lightning Or Electric Fence?

Misfortune for one Muenster farmer attended the fine rain which fell here last Saturday. Joe Mages, three miles east of town lost two cows and a bull as a result of it . . . or of the lightning which accompanied it.

During the dry weather Mages had connected his electric fence to the 110 volt current at his place. While the ground was dry that seemed to be the only way he could give his stock enough of a buzz to get their respect. The rain, however soaked the ground and provided a perfect hot circuit.

Mages' three animals died along that fence line Saturday afternoon. They were insured against lightning but not against electrocution by a fence. So officers of the Muenster Mutual have a decision to make. Was it lightning or Mages that killed the cattle?

Tigers Prime for Tussle Saturday With Big D Team

Going after their second victory in as many games, the Tigers of Sacred Heart High are priming this week for their annual tussle with Saint Mark's of Dallas. The game will be played on the Tiger field Saturday night. Kick off time is 8:30 o'clock.

What's in store for that contest is anybody's guess . . . because information on the visitors is practically non-existent here.

Father Christopher, the Tiger coach, says he recognizes seven names on the starting lineup as members of the 1954 team, which his boys defeated 19-6 at Dallas last year. He also observed that the visitors, with two 190 pounders in the line, will have a weight advantage. According to his best guess, St. Mark's will have about the same power as the '54 outfit.

If that is the case the Tigers will enter the fray with at least a 50-50 chance to repeat their performance of last year. The boys were sharp through most of their season opener with Windthorst last Friday. Walter, Mollenkopf and Wolf made nice runs. Henscheid was accurate with passes, and Herr and Fleitman did a good job at pass receiving. Likewise defense was good. The only weakness shown during the game was fumbleitis, which can be overcome as tension wears off during the next few games.

Probable starters for the Tigers are Ends, Herr and Fleitman; Tackles, Hess and Friske; Guards, Claude Walter and Otto; Center, Schoech; Backs, Rodney Walter, Federhoff, Mollenkopf and Henscheid.

Waterworks Group Meets in Muenster

The City of Muenster was host to 35 guests representing about 15 towns of North Texas Wednesday night at a meeting of the North Texas Waterworks and Sanitation Association.

The group, headed by Steve Mosler as current president, meets every month to discuss mutual problems in their water and sanitation departments.

Public Report on Community Clinic Set for Wednesday

A report on Muenster's recent community development clinic, in which some 80 persons expressed ideas as to what improvements are most needed here, will be presented to the public next Wednesday night, September 21, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Stan Shively of the Texas Power and Light Company community development department will be here to make the report as well as to suggest methods of achieving some of the desired objectives. He conducted the original clinic and will return next week at the request of the Lions Club, which sponsored the clinic and had set next Wednesday as the date to present it to the community.

The purpose of the clinic and report is to determine what is most wanted in order to make Muenster a better place in which to live and make a living, then to work out a system for getting what is wanted. It is based on the established fact that communities prosper when their people are happy with their conditions and facilities, hence a larger percentage of them will remain at home and others are more likely to join the community.

Everyone is invited and urged to hear the report whether or not he attended the clinic.

Wylie Lewis Heads Local FFA Chapter

Wylie Lewis was elected the 1955-56 president of the Muenster FFA chapter in the organization's first meeting of the year, held last Friday.

Other officers elected were Jimmy Biffle, vice president; Dickie Cain, secretary; Hubert Richey, treasurer; Jimmy Hellman, reporter; and Dee Kaderli, sentinel.

Biffle was also named as the chapter's candidate for area officer and Lewis was elected as voting delegate to the area meeting. The two will accompany their faculty adviser, Glenn Hellman, to the meeting at Denton next Tuesday to elect area officers.

Pee Wees Lose to Nocona; Will Play Gainesville Tonight

Weldon Holland's seventh and eighth graders at the Public School got off to a creditable start in their '55 football season last Thursday night even though the score shows them as 6-0 losers. Holding the Nocona kids to a one touchdown margin was quite an achievement, in the opinion of the Pee Wee coach.

The visitors had a definite advantage in size, as was to be expected from their much larger number of available players. Nocona's top elementary enrollment is much larger than Muenster's.

Both teams made mistakes galore and frequent penalties handicapped both, but the net result was neither was able to make much headway.

Nocona's score came in the second quarter after the Pee Wees had failed to make a first down near their 20. A steady push from there produced the six points.

The kids will make their next appearance here Thursday night with a Gainesville team as opponent.

Other opponents on schedule are Saint Jo, Alvord, Sacred Heart, Callisburg and Valley View.

Each affiliated organization is entitled to one voting delegate. Officers of the diocesan council will be elected at the last session on Oct. 18 and will be formally installed at the luncheon meeting.

CDA Hear Report on Austin Institute

At their regular meeting Friday night members of the local court Catholic Daughters of America heard reports from the Youth Leadership Institute held recently in Austin. Mrs. Herman Fette, grand regent, and Mrs. Paul Fisher, adult leader for the Muenster CYC, who attended the two-day meeting, told of convention proceedings.

Mrs. Fette was one of the Institute speakers. Her topic was "Marylike Fashions," and she distributed folders on the subject after her talk. She told the local group about this part of the program in Austin and about the "Aims and Purposes of a Planned Yearly Program," a panel on which she was a member.

Mrs. Fisher reported on an address by Sister Judith Therese, superior of St. Mary's Academy, Austin, whose topic was "Counseling Teenagers and Pre-Teens," and told about a talk given by Brother Elmo Bransby, president of St. Edward's University. His

100 New Families Make Big Changes In a Town's Budget

What happens when a hundred new families arrive in a medium-sized city? To begin with, it means about 450 new people, including 100 children, 67 in grammar school, 33 in high school. This calls for 2.2 new rooms in grade school and 1.65 new rooms in high school, which will cost about $120,000. Four new teachers will have to be hired. The 100 families will add about $30,000 a year to the school operating budget.

Besides teachers, the city will need four fifths of a new employee in the police department and two thirds of a new fireman, upping the police budget by $4,510 and the fire department budget by $2,820. All sort of extra jobs will have to be done from collecting taxes to collecting garbage. Add four new city employees at a total price of $12,000 to $15,000.

Auto Inspections Start September 15

AUSTIN, — Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced that the Public Safety Commission has set September 15, 1955, through April 15, 1956, as the new Motor Vehicle Inspection period for state motorists.

Garrison pointed out that this will give Texas car owners a full seven month to report to one of the more than 4,000 licensed inspection stations in the state for a safety check of their vehicles.

No Split in Economic Interests

Suppose you were in a roomful of people who were asked to split up into groups of producers, consumers, or investors. Into which group would you go? You could become a case for a psychologist, with a three-way personality split, if you seriously tried to decide. Because we're all producers of goods or services; we're all consumers, and all who have money in a savings account, pension fund or insurance policy are investors.

In our economic system, the producer, the consumer, and the investor are not three separate individuals, with conflicting interests. The roles are interdependent. High production, through new machines and equipment made possible by high investment, means a high level of consumption — a high standard of living. So beware of special-group spellbinders. The three parts of our economic selves prosper together or not at all.

The Difference

Teacher — Johnny, can you tell the class how much difference there is between the words "notorious and famous."

Johnny — Offhand, I'd say just as much as there is between the smell of limberger cheese and that of a rose.

Wilson Kaden Tells League, Garden Club About Landscaping

Talking on "Contemporary Landscaping," Wilson Kaden of Gainesville, as guest speaker for the Muenster Civic League and Garden Club's meeting Monday night presented an informative and entertaining discussion on the subject.

He explained that there are three principals to consider: utility, personality and beauty, then elaborated on each. He emphasized the proper preparation of beds and told how this is done. The last part of his talk was devoted to the culture and care of the Snowball, the club's horticultural project this year. He said November to March is the best time to plant for blooms and that this plant needs an acid soil.

This was the initial meeting for the group for the current season. The club had been disbanded during the summer months.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger, president, presided during the business session and committee chairmen gave reports. Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel accepted, chairmanship of a committee to encourage Christmas lighting and decorations in the residential and business districts of the city.

The new year books were distributed by Mrs. Edd McGannon, program and year book chairman, and an invitation was read welcoming members to attend the district workshop in Gainesville on Sept. 23.

Refreshments of frosted drinks and cookies were served to 18 members and two guests by hostesses for the evening, Mrs. John Mosman and Mrs. Tony Gremminger. The meeting was held in the City Hall.

New Year Books for League, Garden Club Presented Monday

Civic League and Garden Club year books for the 1955-56 season were distributed at the organization's meeting Monday night. The attractive booklets, hand made this year by Mrs. Edd McGannon, program and year book chairman, and her daughter, Miss Mary McGannon, have green covers with white printing, carrying out club colors.

The book gives the information that the club was organized in 1937 and federated in 1939. It lists the club motto "Let's Get Down to Earth," the club flower, violet, and the shrub, crepe myrtle. It also lists the organization's objectives: Home and Community Beautification, Protection of Native Trees, Plants and Birds.

This year's horticultural project is the Snowball.

Program for the year lists Wilson Kaden and Miss Bernice Puckett as guest speakers, a flower show and a pilgrimage, and talks, discussions and illustrated lectures on: Rose Culture, Table Settings, Christmas Decorations, Landscaping with Blooming Shrubs, The Indispensable Annual, Pollination of Plants, Color in Flower Arrangement, and Birds.

Present membership is 31. Officers are President Mrs. A. F. Gremminger, Vice President Mrs. F. J. Yosten, Secretary Mrs. Joe Luke and Treasurer Mrs. Steve Moster.

Standing committees and their chairmen are: Cemetery, Mrs. A. A. Otto; Conservation, Mrs. Lee Toothaker; Highway, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel; Park, Mrs. F. J. Yosten; Sanitation, Mrs. Joe Swirczynski; School Flower Beds, Mrs. H. H. Homsley; Flower Show and Pilgrimage, Mmes. Joe Luke and T. S. Myrick; Program and Year Book, Mrs. Edd McGannon.

GOOD INTENTIONS

Three Boy Scouts were at a Scout meeting and told the Scout Master they had done their "good deed that day."

"Well, boys, what did you do?" asked the master.

"We helped an old lady across the street a little while ago," chimed the boys in unison.

"And did it take all three of you to do that?" asked the master suspiciously.

"Yes, it did," again chimed the boys. Then the smallest one of the three added, "She didn't want to go."

Ladies Auxiliary Makes Plans for 3 Coming Events

Meeting Monday night members of the VFW Auxiliary planned a membership rally, decided to help the VFW Post with its benefit picnic, and discussed plans for a series of game parties to begin in October.

First on the program is the Post's benefit picnic next Sunday and members agreed to help the men take care of some of the concession stands, then voted in favor of putting up a stand of their own. It will be for the kiddies with balloons, home made ice cream, candy and pop corn balls. Mrs. Dick Trachta was named chairman.

The membership rally, to be held at the next regular meeting on Oct. 3, will feature a covered dish supper. Each member will try to bring a candidate for membership or a member for re-statement. At the same time any eligible woman or girl is invited to attend that night and become a candidate for membership. Those eligible need not wait for a personal invitation. They're welcome and are urged to be there.

The series of game parties is scheduled to begin October 9. Mmes. J. C. Trachta, Ray Evans and Dick Trachta volunteered as a committee of three to make arrangements. These socials will be for members and their husbands or boy friends and for members of the Post and their wives or girl friends.

The American Way

In the fifty-one year period from 1902 to 1953, the population of the United States doubled. To most Americans that is a source of great satisfaction, although I sometimes wonder why we strive so ardently to make our villages into towns, our towns into cities, our cities into huge metropolitan centers, and our country as a whole more densely populated. Increased population simply creates new problems and worsens old ones.

Nevertheless, all of us want to grow, so, in the final analysis, it is probably something to cheer about that two people now dwell in the U.S.A. for every person who lived here in 1902. But before we become too enthusiastic about this, let's take into account another fact — while we were only doubling our population, government expenditures increased 71 times. No, that's not a typographical error — in 1953 government expenditures were 71 times those of 1902, while during the same period our population merely doubled.

But, to return to the bright side of the picture, gross national product increased 15.5 times from 1902 to 1953. In other words, per capita production was almost 8 times as great as the rate of our population growth. That is really something about which to wax ecstatic. However, don't let your enthusiasm overcome you because during the same period the public debt increased 44 times. In 1902, each American owed $43 — in 1955, every man, woman and child in the U.S.A. owed $1900. Sort of disconcerting to know that the government debt per capita increased almost

Dead Cows Give No Milk

3 times as much as our gross national product!

From 1900 to 1953, the number of persons engaged in private employment increased 117 per cent. This would seem to be a most gratifying increase until one takes into account that during the same period the number of persons employed by government increased 760 per cent. Taking federal government alone, and excluding the military, in 1900 there were fewer than two federal workers per 1,000 of our population. Today, we have about six, or more than three times as many per 1,000 of population.

Undoubtedly the most alarming feature of the terrific increase in the cost of government is that such a great percentage of the increase has taken place at the Federal level. And this despite the fact that state and local taxes have increased beyond all reason. For instance, in 1932, federal expenditures were only 32.6 per cent of all government expenditures, while by 1950, federal government was expending 60.7 per cent. With Washington hogging the take, it is small wonder that state and local governments are experiencing so much difficulty in financing themselves.

Just where is it going to end? Administrations come and administrations go. We have the Democrats in control of Congress for a while, then the Republicans take over for a spell, only to relinquish control to the Democrats again. Just who is in the White House, or what party controls Congress, seems to make little or no difference. The spending binge continues at Washington. Each year federal expenditures increase, each year the national debt climbs a bit higher. The voices of the few statesmen in our legislative halls who preach the gospel of economy and living within our means, are drowned out by the clamor of the "spend and spend and spend" politicians.

Somehow the brakes on government spending must be applied else this beloved America of ours will come a cropper. From somewhere must come another Washington, or Jefferson, or Jackson, or Lincoln to pull America out of the morass of debt and too much government in which it now wallows. And he can't come too soon.

In the meantime, it would be just "duddy" if all of our spend-thrift congressmen were to develop a bit of indigestion culminating in bad dreams. That brilliant thought is inspired by a quip which the editor of the Hobart (Oklahoma) Kiowa County Star-Review carried in his newspaper recently. It went: "Then there was the Congressman who had a horrible nightmare. He dreamed all the money he was spending was his own."

SEED TRUST

Machines over the countryside are busy gathering seed for one of the biggest trusts in the country. It is the trust that farmers place in seed growers to provide them with the very best seed that can be grown. This faith prompts farmers to spend millions of dollars preparing seed beds and cultivating the crops with full confidence that from the seed they plant they will reap a bountiful harvest.

Without this trust, our farming industry would dwindle to the stage where no one would buy another's seed. Modern agriculture thrives on seed trust.

Modern business does not attempt to provide security for its cash. The local bank can do it more safely.

The Schools Are Your Concern

By Rev. James Keller, Director of the Christophers

EVERY YEAR at this time America's children go back to school. But how many of their parents ever think of going back to school with them, to see what their children learn and do five hours a day, five days a week?

A few years ago a Connecticut housewife did this. She decided that if we Americans can put "In God We Trust" on our coins, we could put this motto in our schools too. Thanks to her perseverance against strong opposition, all public schools in Stamford, Conn. today bear this recognition of God's protection. Here was a woman who recognized the importance of the schools and her part in them.

Keller

EVERY AMERICAN citizen has a stake in every American school. Too often Americans forget that they are part owners of the American school system. Actually they have few more important interests than in those halls of learning where their sons and daughters and all future citizens are trained and educated.

Regardless of your age or walk of life you can do something to make sure that your schools are staffed by Americans who are motivated by a love of God and country. Not that the vast ma-majority of our teachers are not loyal and virtuous Americans. God forbid! But those who would destroy our Christian way of life too often influence our young through the schools.

IN WISCONSIN a few years ago, the Communists made their prime objective the control of local parent-teacher groups and through them the schools and school boards. A mother in St. Louis told me that her teen-age son and his classmates had been assigned to read the books of a man disloyal to his country.

It is often too late when mothers and fathers discover the harm that one unprincipled instructor has done to their children, all because they took no active interest in their education.

EDUCATORS WANT parents to be interested in the schools. Almost everywhere intelligent cooperation is encouraged. Carping criticism or unwarranted interference will do more harm than good, of course. But through your local Parent-Teachers Associations and friendly contact with the teachers, you can continue to exercise your fundamental parental right: to educate your children.

A better community and a better America would result if more Americans follow the example of the woman from Connecticut in taking an interest in their schools, and more specifically in restoring God to His rightful place in American education.

Whose Wall Street?

These radicals who still rant against Wall Street, as if it were a satanic influence, are far behind the times. They fail to realize that Wall Street is only a trading post and that the handful of professional speculators still operating there is no longer the dominant influence. Wall Street prices are made by the great mass of stockholders who live on Main Street over all America. Shares in American corporations are held largely by middle-bracket persons who want to put their savings to work. The giant American Telephone and Telegraph Company has 1,300,000 stockholders. The steel industry now has already 770,000 stockholders, a figure larger than that of its employees. Nearly a hundred major companies, reports Fortune Magazine, now offer stock-buying to all their employees, usually at a discount or with some other special inducement. About 230 others have similar programs for executive and key personnel. Nearly 40 percent of General Electric's 210,000 employees are shareholders, and almost half the stockholders of Sun Oil are employees.

Folks of modest income are putting at least part of their savings into sound stocks because they want their personal fortunes to grow as American industry grows. —Dallas Morning News the ball on the same marker the next play.

From there the Tigers lost 5 on an offside penalty, and Mollenkopf rambled 10 for the first TD.

Another Trojan fumble on the next kickoff gave the Tigers the ball on the 23 but tight defense stopped them on the 16 and Windthorst kicked. On four tries Sacred Heart moved from the 36 to the 6, and again were stopped cold within reach of the goal line. Again the Trojans attempted to kick out of danger but their play went sour. The kicker fumbled and Kenny Otto pounced on the ball in the end zone for TD Number 2.

Two futile drives by the Tigers took up the balance of the half. After allowing one first down and intercepting a Trojan pass the Tigers drove from midfield to the 13 then fumbled the ball away on the 18. Windthorst kicked and again Sacred Heart gained about 30 yards before losing a fumble on the 21.

Following the second half kickoff Sacred Heart started from its 36 and ended another drive with a fumble on the visitors' 31. However they got a break as the Trojan kicker booted the ball into a team mate's back. Sacred Heart took over on the 34 and Mollenkopf gained 5 before passing to Herr for a gain to the 3. Henschel went over on a quarterback sneak, then passed to Fleitman for an extra point.

After an exchange of fumbles the Tigers launched their only long scoring drive of the game. Starting on their 18 they registered 6 first downs and completed five passes. Herr took Henschel's toss for the score.

With reserves in play for Sacred Heart, the visitors dominated the field in the closing minutes but, like the Tigers before, they failed to keep their drives going. Charlie Felderhoff spoiled their progress twice, on an interception and a fumble recovery.

Tiger standouts were Henschel, Herr and Fleitman as the passing combination, and Walter as the runner. Felderhoff was tops at defense.

Hornets Lose

The first quarter was a deadlock featured by strong defensive play on both sides, but the situation changed early in the next period following Pilot Point's recovery of a Hornet fumble. Three runs netted 15 then Dunn heaved a beautiful pass which Smotherman took at top speed and yard march before bogging down on the 10.

stretched into a 43 yard gain before being hauled down on the 4. Moore toted for 2 and Dunn went over for the 6 points.

The rest of the period consisted of more deadlock but the second half opened with a bang as Sturm stole Hellman's pass on the first scrimmage play and returned it 25 paces to the 10. Two power plays reached pay dirt and the try for extra point, like the one before, went wide.

The following kickoff seemed to add insult to injury as Pilot Point recovered a deliberate shortie on the Hornet 44. Stout defense however was followed by a kick into the end zone and the Hornets got the ball on their 20. At that point they started the best sustained push of the game. Richey and Biffle were the strong runners in a drive that made 65 yards on 9 plays. The drive fizzled however as the next series was good for only 5 and the Pointers took over on their 10.

The balance of the quarter and most of the next featured more strong defense on both sides until a freak play that was set-up for the big, versatile Cole. Pierce was toting and his attempted lateral as he was tackled was more of a fumble. Nevertheless Cole scooped it up just above the turf, juggled it a few times and struck out for pay dirt. With his speed and footwork the score was easy. Cole's pass to Smotherman was good for another point.

The game at a glance:

PEP RALLY OFFICIALLY OPENS FOOTBALL SEASON

A colorful pep rally last Thursday night officially opened the football season at Muenster public school.

The parade was led by Miss Pat Cain, drum major. She was followed by Majorettes Jean Weller, Carolyn Cain, Virginia Otto and Norman Klement. The band was next in line with Jim Harris directing, then the Pep Squad and students. Parents and friends followed in cars. Deanna and Wanda Richey, Marcy Klement and Queenie Homsley are Pep Squad leaders.

The march started at school, went down Main Street, and returned to the school. It preceded the game between the Muenster Pee Wees and Nocona Juniors.

Blessed Events

From Norwalk, Calif., comes news of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stelzer. The seven pound 14 ounce girl has been named Shirley Ann. She has a sister and a brother and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stelzer of Post. The Gerald Stelzers moved recently from Los Angeles to Norwalk where they have a new home.

Jerry Talley Joins Schad & Pulte Staff

Jerry Talley, former farm director and announcer for radio station KGAF, has moved back to Gainesville and has accepted a position as Sales Manager for Schad and Pulte. He and his family are now back in their new home on the old Denton road which had been completed only a few weeks before they moved to Wichita Falls in mid July.

Talley spent the past several weeks as Farm Director for a television station in Wichita Falls. The program was abandoned by the station shortly after it was organized.

In his new position with Schad and Pulte, Talley will work with the heads of the various departments to improve service to their customers. The goal is to provide better displays of up to date merchandise, to keep the public better informed of new items or new services and to increase volume, making it possible to give the customers more for their money.

the new look, especially since we have an abundance of evidence that the reds are still stirring up all the troubles they can in all parts of the world.

U.S. News and World Report, one of this country's comparatively few publications that recognizes communism for what it really is, points out this week that the red inspired treachery and intrigue still goes on at full speed all over the world. Reds have not changed their objective, only their attitude. That's the important thing to remember in all dealings with them.
