R. W. 'Dub' Trew, Philanthropist and Rancher, Passes

R. W. (Dub) Trew, 86, philanthropist and pioneer resident of the community died at his ranch home south of town at 10 o'clock Monday night after an illness of several years.

Trew is fondly remembered by the Buckner Orphan Home of Dallas as one of its outstanding benefactors. In addition to generous cash donations for many years Trew gave the institution both of his ranches. In 1946 he and his wife gave their former home place, the 1,130 acre ranch north of Muenster. In 1950 they gave the orphanage the 1,460 acre ranch on which they were living south of Muenster. With that gift the couple stipulated that they be permitted to remain on the place as long as they live. Buckner trustees estimate the combined value of the two ranches at about $560,000. The property north of Muenster has producing oil wells.

Funeral services for Mr. Trew were held at his home Tuesday at 2 p.m. with Rev. C. M. Thomas, pastor of Villott Baptist Church and Rev. D. S. Pettijohn of the Muenster Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery at Gainesville with Vernie Keel Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Bearers were P. L. Leazer, E. G. Gregory, C. L. Livingston, Dan Maples, D. R. Rosson, and W. F. Turner.

Trew was a resident of Cooke County for 83 years, spending most of the time on the farm north of Muenster. He was born in Tennessee on Sept. 10, 1869 and came to Texas with his family in 1870. They settled in Cooke County in 1872.

Survivors are his wife, the former Miss Mary Brown; two brothers, Robert and Horace of Gainesville, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Francis of Spur.

Era Wallops MHS 14-0 for Lead in 10-B District Race

District championship aspirations on the part of the Muenster Hornets took a fatal blow Friday night as the boys went down 14-0 before the vicious attack of Era's Hornets.

The decision practically sewed up the title for Era, which is highly favored to coast to easy wins over the lower bracket teams, Alvord and Sanger. At the same time it practically establishes Muenster as the district runner-up. It too is favored to take both Sanger and Alvord.

It was sheer power that won for the Era club in last week's crucial contest. After three quarters of hammering the big, rugged and high spirited Era fellows overcame Coach Hosea's lads with two scores in the final period.

Gilliland, the hefty, crashing fullback broke the deadlock a bare minute into the last period by plunging 11 yards through the left side of the line to pay dirt.

About half way through the same period Smith shook loose for a 30 yard scoring sprint. Both kicks for extra point went true.

The trend of the game became apparent early, but not until Richey had given the crowd a thrill with the most sensational gain of the contest. On the first scrimmage play he broke through for a 52 yard romp before being bumped out of bounds by Smith on the 13.

Era braced there and stopped the threat cold, recovering Muenster's fumble on the third play.

Then the home team's offense started grinding as Smith and Gilliland ripped off one gain after another, however the drive ended abruptly as Richey intercepted a lateral on the Muenster 35 and wrestled to mid field. The power packed Era line scrambled Muenster's first play of the series, covered a fumble, and launched another drive that Muenster finally stopped on the 10.

After a deadlock through four series of downs, Muenster kicking and Era failing by a little

Muenster-Sanger Game Will Feature MHS Homecoming

Though the Hornets are favored, the traditional rugged battle is expected here Friday night at 7:30 as the Muenster Hornets collide with the Sanger Indians in the feature attraction of this year's homecoming celebration.

As regards district standing the game looms before Coach Hosea's outfit as one of the obstacles that must be overcome in order to cap the loop's runner-up title. To Sanger it is an opportunity to improve its position in the lower bracket.

Up to now the Indians have only one win on their conference record. They toppled Alvord and lost to Saint Jo, Valley View and Callisburg by decisive scores.

The Hornets will be looking for revenge as well as striving to better their season record in Friday's fracas. They recall last year's encounter when the Indians edged them 13-12 for the conference title.

On paper there are two ways of figuring comparative strength of the two teams. Muenster has turned back three teams that walloped the Indians, however the Sanger-Alvord clash indicates that the Redskins have something when they start clicking.

That is the comparison on which the coming game should be figured. Traditionally the Indians are fired up for their contest with the Hornets.

Former Resident of Marysville Passes

Mrs. Beulah Holman, 78, a former Marysville resident, died Monday at her home in Panhandle where she had lived the past ten years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in Gainesville at the George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home chapel with Rev. John B. Stepp Jr., pastor of Grand Avenue Baptist church officiating. Burial was in Reed cemetery.

Bearers were Huse Doty, Rafe McElreath, Earl Robison, Jerry McElreath, Ernest Judy and Jessie Feaster.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. J. R. Lester of Gainesville, Miss Thelma Holman of Panhandle and Mrs. Grady Smith of Ranger; one son, Coy L. Holman of Canadian; a brother, C. B. Wright of California.

In "Exercise Sagebrush"
Cpl. Clyde Muller and a buddy, Cpl. Eldon Pickle, were among fans at the Tigers' homecoming game Friday night. The soldiers, stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., were enroute to Fort Polk, La., to participate in "Exercise Sagebrush." Their outfit was spending the night at Carswell AFB, Fort Worth, and Clyde and his friend got permission to come to Muenster for a quick visit with his parents, the Matt Mullers.

2 Muenster Youths Seriously Hurt in Crash Near Bowie

Thomas Jetzelsberger was critically injured and Charles Moser received painful burns and bruises in an automobile accident about 7:10 Sunday night when the car in which they were driving failed to make a curve just west of the Bowie city limit.

Also seriously hurt was Dorothy Duckworth, 14, of Gainesville. Her sister, Joyce Faye Duckworth, 19, driver of the car escaped with minor injuries.

According to reports from Moser's sister, Mrs. Richard Grewing, after her return from the Bowie hospital late Wednesday, Jetzelsberger still had not regained consciousness but Moser is recovering nicely and can probably return home in a few days.

Jetzelsberger has a broken collar bone and is believed to have also a skull fracture.

Moser has severe burns on his chest, abdomen and leg. Pains in his back and neck, which were believed to indicate possible fractures have eased considerably. Also, x-ray examinations show his back and neck as normal.

The younger Duckworth girl has a fracture in her back.

The elder of the sisters was driving Jetzelsberger's 1955 Ford when the accident occurred. The car is believed to have turned over several times before coming to rest on its wheels. The tumbling car threw Moser out then rolled over on him as he lay on the ground. He was found underneath, the hot muffler and tail pipe searing into his flesh. Jetzelsberger and the younger girl were also thrown out of the car.

Tigers Rally for 20-7 Decision Over Buckner Hornets

A determined comeback after trailing 7-6 at intermission enabled the Sacred Heart Tigers to end their 1955 Academic League competition with a 20-7 win over the Buckner Hornets on the parochial field Friday night.

The trend of the game reversed completely as the two teams returned to the field for the second half. Earlier the visitors from Big D had made 6 first downs and a total yardage of 162 while the Tigers had only one first down on 73 yards. In the second half Sacred Heart led 5-1 in first downs and 150-49 in total yardage.

As a result of their win the Tigers will either move out of the conference cellar or enjoy the company of one team. Final standing will be determined when Buckner plays Catholic High of Texarkana. A win in that tussle will give the Hornets a 1-2-0 standing, the same as the Tigers have. A loss will put them at the bottom with a 0-3-0 standing.

The Hornets started their game here Friday by recovering a fumbled kick after the first series of downs and going promptly for a touchdown. A 19 yard pass from Richey to Bang was the payoff ending the 48 yard push and a kick added an extra point.

The Tigers were even more sensational in scoring their first TD. Henscheid's pass to Mollenkopf on the third play was good for 50 to the 6 and Frank Fleitman took another Henscheid heave three plays later for the last 5 yards.

Kick exchanges took up the balance of the first quarter but the visitors started the second with another drive featuring a 39 yard pass and Newsom's runs for 11 and 14. Herr's interception broke up the threat and the rest of the period continued as a stalemate.

The third quarter saw the Tigers improving their control of the situation but still not able to put on a sustained drive. Early in the fourth Herbie Walterscheid cut loose for 17 steps to the 5 and Henscheid passed to Herr two plays later to put his team ahead. A pass to Fleitman.

Achievement Day Event Presents 4-H Display, Program

With attendance far above that in the past, and quality and variety of exhibits unequalled in previous events, plus a Talent and Honor Show, the Sacred Heart school's 4-H clubs' Achievement Day program has gone into the record books as a giant success.

"Come Ye to the Fair," was the theme in the exhibit hall where the young people had arranged their entries in outstanding displays. Sewing, canning, baking, crafts, fancy work, hobbies, field crops and horticultural exhibits lined the entire north side of the parish hall basement. On the south were concession stands featuring home made cake and candy and cold drinks. Every one of the more than 150 club members took part in the event to make it the biggest and best program staged by the youngsters. It was held Tuesday as the clubs' observance of National 4-H Week.

Displays were open to the public from 4 p.m. until 10 p.m. At 8 o'clock, on the stage upstairs, the club members presented Teddy Gremminger was elected president of the Sacred Heart Alumni during a meeting of the organization last Wednesday night.

Henry Yosten, retiring president, automatically became vice president and other new officers are Paul Luke, treasurer, Mrs. Julius Hermes Jr., secretary; Alvin Hartman, reporter.

Other business at the meeting was a discussion of a fund-raising party and the group decided to have a Gun Shoot next Sunday, Nov. 13, weather permitting, at the parish picnic grounds. Sandwiches, coffee and cold drinks will be available for those attending. Starting time is 2 p.m.

MHS Girls Meet Nocona Monday in Basketball Opener

Basketball girls at Muenster High will have their season's first sample of action here Monday night when they mix in a practice session with the A and B squads of Nocona High School. Starting time for the first game is 6:30.

Members of this year's squad, according to Coach Homsley are seven lettermen along with several girls who saw limited action last year and a group of freshmen. The experienced players are Colette Hellman, Gretchen Hellman, Juanita Wieler, Evelyn Haverkamp, Mary Pick, Norma Klement, Mary Trubench, Pat Cain, Queenie Homsley, Jean Wieler, Emma Fisher and Mary Lou Vogel.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Frank Klement, still a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium following delicate eye surgery on Oct. 27, is improving satisfactorily and was permitted to sit up for the first time Sunday. Since then he spends brief periods each day sitting up. He will be hospitalized for some time to come.

J. J. Haverkamp is a patient at Veterans Hospital in McKinney since Friday. He is undergoing treatment to build him up for surgery and will be hospitalized for some time. Cards will reach him if addressed to Ward 109 at the hospital.

James Michael Schmitz, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schmitz, was dismissed from M&S Hospital Saturday following surgery the previous Thursday.

Dale Bezner, 14-months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bezner, was admitted to M&S Hospital Tuesday for surgery.

Miss Joan Klement who underwent an appendectomy at Denton hospital last Thursday was dismissed from the hospital Saturday and spent until Monday here with her parents, the J. A. Klements. Tuesday she returned to NTSC where she is a junior student.

Gala Homecoming Program Awaits Muenster Hi Exes

A big evening awaits ex-students and former faculty members of the Muenster Public School Friday night in the school's first annual homecoming festivities.

Unlike homecomings of the past, which consisted only of a football game, this year's event features a meeting, eats, and a dance along with the ball game.

Arrangements for the evening are under the direction of Principal L. B. Bruns, who said that the opening event is the Muenster-Sanger football game beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

At half time the exes will see the crowning of their homecoming queen, elected by their votes from the four class candidates, Gretchen Hellman, Magdalen Noggler, Agnes Noggler, and Jeanie Aytes.

After the game, at about 9:30 the group will assemble in the auditorium to elect their officers for the coming year and also consider any business that is introduced. Then the group will go to the gym for registration and a party.

The latter event begins with a plate lunch after which guests are on their own to dance or visit. Music will be provided by Jimmy Harris' band and a record player. The charge per person will be 75 cents.

Along with his announcement Bruns pointed out that the homecoming invitation applies to every person who has been a student or a teacher at the school, not only to the graduates. He also said that invitations have been sent out to all persons whose names have been submitted, but reports reaching him indicate that quite a number of exes have been overlooked by either themselves or their friends. So, the arrangements committee is extending a general invitation for the benefit of former exes who did not receive a letter. All exes are urged to come.

Bruns also mentioned that it will not be an open party. People who did not teach or attend at the school do not rate as guests... except as husbands or wives in the company of ex-students.

Though not exes at this time, the Seniors of 1955 are regarded as members of the association, since they will qualify as active members before next year's meeting.

Tigers Journey to Sooner State for Next Grid Contest

The Sacred Heart Tigers are completely in the dark this week as they go through their practice sessions preparing for a clash Friday night with the Ryan, Okla., team on the latter's field.

Father Christopher, the Tiger skipper, says he has no definite idea what he will run into except that the Ryan high school has an enrollment of about 125 and its team competes in class A circles. However, he adds, as far as he knows, the Ryan fellows have the same disadvantage. Apparently no scouts have been here to look over the Tigers.

The Sacred Heart fellows are in fine condition and ready to go, except for Rodney Walter's ankle injury which will probably limit his activity to kicking.

One more game is on the schedule. After Ryan the Tigers go to Windthorst for their second encounter of the season with the Trojans.

SCHEDULE OF COMING EVENTS

FRIDAY, Nov. 11, Hornets vs Sanger, here, 7:30, followed by Homecoming program in high school.

FRIDAY, Nov. 11, Tigers vs Ryan, Okla., there.

SUNDAY, Nov. 13, Trap Shooting, parish picnic grounds, 2 p.m.

MONDAY, Nov. 14, Basketball, Muenster Hi girls vs Nocona, here, 6:30.

TUESDAY, Nov. 15, PTA meeting, 8 p.m.

As predicted by those who have not permitted the Soviet smile to distract their appraisal of red objectives and methods, the conference of ministers at Geneva is ending in a fizzle. Despite friendly pretenses the stinkers of Moscow have revealed again that the smile is all they intend to give toward the preservation of world peace.

The alarming situation is most clearly presented in this week's issue of U.S. News and World Report. Editor David Lawrence pulls no punches in pointing out that the present Russian course is headed directly toward another world war.

Incidentally, it is regrettable that too few people in the upper brackets of our government follow the line of thinking expressed by Lawrence and several more realistic editors and commentators. For years he has based his comments on the solid facts of Communism's dedication to world conquest as well as its complete lack of integrity and sincerity. He has repeatedly warned that every Christian country is at a disadvantage every time it tries to do business with the reds. It's about time for our policy makers to see the light and start shaping their opinions on the premises that long ago were shown to be crystal clear.

A present cause for concern is Russia's meddling in the Middle East. By its arms deal with Egypt it is provoking a small war that can spread around the world. One particularly annoying aspect of this situation is the fact, now discovered, that the Kremlin double crossers were engineering this bit of treachery at the very time they were flashing their famous smiles at Geneva. Yes, the Soviets were talking peace at the very moment that they were provoking war.

Another current tinder box is the German reunification issue. The reds insist on the kind of controlled elections which have been cinches for their stooges in other iron curtain countries. They will not allow East Germans to nominate candidates of their choice nor to vote without the threat of red rifles. Such a proposal is by no means an attempted solution to the problem. By its very absurdity it constitutes an insistence to keep the people of East Germany under armed guard as well as to keep a continued threat aimed at the Western world.

After all these years of Communism's persistent hostility and obvious dedication to world conquest, it is amazing that we still try to negotiate. By now we should be convinced that the only course left is to fight fire with fire.

So far however, there is no indication of any such development. We employ the niceties of diplomatic language to indicate that we do not approve of events in North Africa or the Middle East. Next we will draw the line, as we did in Formosa, and allow the reds to go right on with their conquest.

That Southeast Asia situation is developing into a really sad state of affairs. A year or so ago we had the opportunity of helping Freedom's last strong hold check the advance of communism. We drew the line at Formosa and have watched the reds ever since spread their influence all around the island. Recent reports tell us that Indonesia and Singapore are going red. What's left of Indo China is slipping. All over Asia the story is the same. People are getting on the communist band wagon because they have lost confidence in the West.

The thing for us Americans to get through our skulls is that, despite smiles and peace talks, we are at war now just as we have been for more than ten years. Red conquest goes on and on whether or not the shooting is in progress. And the conquest will continue as long as we continue our present policy.

If we can realize that, perhaps we can realize also that it's high time to give the reds a bit of their own treatment. If it isn't too late already we ought to help South Koreans, Nationalist Chinese, and any remaining champions of freedom begin their liberation of Asia. We on fourth try, the home towners launched another attack. It netted four first downs and 60 yards before it was halted on the 18.

Finally Muenster seemed to be on the way. Hellman, on a keeper, gained 38 on a beautiful broken field ramble and passed to Dougherty for 12 more, but an interception on the next try ended the push.

As the second half opened Hosea's boys were again very much in the game. They held on the first series and Kaderli broke through to block the kick on the hosts' 25. Era's defense was too stout, however, and the next series ended on the 17.

Again the home towners applied the power, going to the Muenster 13 on a drive that featured Smith's fine gallop for 46 yards before being nailed by Biffle. And again Muenster defense stood up against the odds as four tries from the 13 resulted in an 11 yard deficit.

After short yardage Muenster booted and Era finally launched its first successful drive from the Muenster 47.

The game reverted to its deadlock temporarily as Muenster lost the ball by inches on a fourth down gamble, regained it shortly afterward on Hellman's interception, and ended the next series with a bad kick that went out of bounds on the Muenster 30. At that point Smith iced the game away with a 30 yard dash.

Still trying Muenster bounced back with a passing attack that netted 36 yards before being halted. As the game ended Era was in possession, with Smith and Gilliland again hammering the line.

One especially outstanding feature of the game was the complete absence of penalties in spite of the rugged action by both teams. At one time officials ruled "backfield in motion" against Muenster but Era declined the penalty.

The game at a glance.

Word has reached here of the approaching marriage of Miss Therese Hennigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hennigan of Albuquerque, N. M., formerly of Muenster.

their program. Some 300 parents, friends and 4-H club boosters attended. After the show there was visiting downstairs and refreshments of cake and hot coffee.

The stage show opened with a welcome address by Nelda Bayer, president of the senior girls' club, who also cited aims and ideals of 4-H and referred to farming as an "honorable vocation."

Numbers that followed included songs by a group of 75 boys and girls, the 4-H choristers, who formed a background for other numbers presented during the show.

Theresa Fisher, president of the intermediate girls' club, conducted an impressive candle lighting ceremony in which Carolyn Swirczynski, Carol Lee Sicking, Jimmy Schumacher, Eunice Knauft, and Lloyd Klement represented the spirit, head, heart, hands and health personified in 4-H. Carol Ann Hess and Tim Hellman gave recitations, Betty Ann Dangelmayr played the accordion, Billy Dean Owen sang and played his own accompaniment on the guitar, and Carol Henscheid gave a piano solo. Two groups performed in folk dances, one doing the Hokey Pokey, the other a Schottische. A medley of patriotic songs concluding with the National Anthem by the choristers ended the entertainment part of the program.

On the honor list were some 50 adults and young people, who have helped, promoted or encouraged the 4-H movement at the school. Rev. Father Louis, in charge of this part of the program, read the names on the honor roll. Those present rose as their names were called.

Newspaper and radio people of the area, bankers, county agents and home demonstration club agents, adult leaders and outstanding club members were listed. As a surprise ending, Father Louis paid tribute to the Benedictine Sisters for their work with the 4-H clubbers and as a token of appreciation presented them a gift which club members brought to the stage: Outstanding club members, past and present, included Donald Bayer, a former county God

Star boy now attending A&M College on a 4-H scholarship; Paul and Thomas Hesse who had a display of more than 50 ribbons won in fairs and farm shows; Patsy and Helen Vogel with 34 ribbons to their credit; William Fisher with 25 ribbons and 2 pins; Regl Bayer with 16 poultry ribbons, Nelda Bayer for leadership and Theodore and Norma Jean Walterscheid as outstanding in the recreational field.

Mrs. Eddie Fette and her brother, Robert Gonzales, of Wink were weekend visitors with Eddie's mother, Mrs. Kate Reynolds and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke had as guests Sunday night and Monday her cousins Mr. and Mrs.

Herman Jungman of Munday.

Visiting the J. W. Fletchers Saturday overnight and Sunday were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Terrell and children Toni and Terry of Lubbock. They were enroute back home after visiting the Jack Fletchers at Mineral Wells, and Mrs. Terrell's parents in Clarksville.

Memorial Service at SH Cemetery Nov. 11 To Honor War Dead

The Auxiliary to the Muenster Veterans of Foreign Wars Post made plans for its November activity and discussed tentative plans for its December program at a regular meeting Monday night. Mrs. Richard Grewing, president, presided. First event on the calendar is the group's annual observance of Veteran's Day, Nov. 11, with a memorial service at Sacred Heart cemetery at the soldiers' graves. The short rites will begin at 10 a.m. and the public is invited to attend. Members voted to buy a five dollar TB bond in the coming campaign and decided to sell

Christmas candy again this year. Mrs. Ray Swirczynski volunteered to be in charge of the candy sales. As is customary with the Auxiliary, it will again remember every local serviceman overseas with a Christmas gift. This project will need the help of the boys' parents, or other relatives, in supplying their present addresses so that the gift parcels can be mailed by Nov. 15. Mrs. Richard Grewing requested that addresses be mailed to her at the earliest possible date. Mrs. Clarence Hellman accepted chairmanship of the committee in charge of the group's game socials held every other Sunday night. She replaces Mrs. J. C. Trachta who served her term as chairman. Members made tentative plans to enter a decorated float in the city's Christmas parade and to have the traditional Santa Claus party for their children. Names of three candidates for membership were presented and accepted. They are Mrs. Kate Reynolds, Mrs. John Knabe and Miss Theresa Mae Pels. Formal initiation ceremonies will receive them as members at the December meeting.

St. Anne's Society Aids Needy Mission

The shipment of hospital items to a Hereford Mission, the annual Thanksgiving clothing drive, and the parish Thanksgiving benefit dinner were the main topics of discussion at a regular business meeting of Saint Anne's Society Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, reported that 35 gowns made from men's shirts, five new hospital gowns, several pairs of pajamas and several robes had been donated in answer to a recent call from St. Joseph's Mission in Hereford where poor Latin Americans are treated. The articles were ready for shipment and the society voted to pay express charges from the treasury. Discussing the annual clothing drive, ordered each year by the Holy Father, the society pledged full support and cooperation in the parish campaign to be directed by the pastors and until complete details are announced and a collection depot designated the members are gathering up their garments to give and urge all other residents of the community to do likewise. After the drive closes the women will help pack the clothes for shipment. Mrs. John Kathman, chairman of the annual Thanksgiving Day dinner, announced plans, asked for volunteers to help and was assured of assistance. Other business before the group was in regard to the Mission Circle's need for cotton batts to finish three quilt tops on hand and the society voted to buy the cotton. Thirty-seven members were present and Mrs. John Grewing won the attendance award. It was announced that at the December meeting Mrs. Maxine Burlingham of the State School for Girls at Gainesville will be a guest speaker.

Joe Bergman, confined to bed at his home on account of illness, was cheered with visits Monday by his nephews, Frank, Tony and Sylvester Bergman, of Ardmore.

Queen Joaline Is Crowned, Reigns at SHH Homecoming

Miss Joaline Mollenkopf, football queen at the 1955 Homecoming at Sacred Heart High school, was crowned Friday night in a special homecoming ceremony preceding the Tigers' victorious encounter with the Buckner Hornets of Dallas.

Attendants for Queen Joaline were Princesses Jeanette Haverkamp, Edna Mae Hoenig and Georgia Ann Owen.

The coronation ceremony was the kick-off for the night's celebration that ended with a dance in the parish hall.

The program began at 7:40 when the school's pep squad, headed by Cheerleaders Caroline Hesse, La Verna Hess, Nella Bayer, Carol Miller and Patsy Bayer, marched up the football field, the vanguard for Her Majesty and her court. On the 50-yard line, Princess Jeanette carrying the game ball, met her escort Theodore Walterscheid; Princess Edna Mae carrying a bouquet of white mums for the queen, met her escort, Frank Fleitman; and Princess Georgia Ann carrying the queen's crown, met her escort, Rodney Walter. Then came the queen in a formal gown of white net over taffeta and the royal cape of brocaded white satin. Train bearers were Chryl Owen, Earline Otto, Ruby Shumaker and Barbara Schumacher. Meeting her were Tiger Co-captains Charles Felderhoff and Tommy Herr.

The traditional ceremony of ball and bouquet presentation was climaxed by the crowning. Co-captain Felderhoff placed the

MORALS FOR TEACHING

The old McGuffey's Readers, out of which most of the granddads of today were taught to read and spell and understand the English language, combined the two major methods of teaching reading — sound and sight, or phonics and words. The modern McGuffey Readers now being published as "The Golden Rule Series" by the American Book Company, New York - Cincinnati, also combine both methods of teaching.

Today's granddads not only learned to read, spell and parse a sentence with the McGuffey's Readers, they also were given great timeless moral lessons out of which human character is built. It has been said that the moral teachings of the McGuffey's Readers have been quoted more often than those of any other books in the arguments of attorneys before the United States Supreme Court. Undoubtedly they were the most widely used and influential textbooks ever written. The new McGuffey Readers carry forward the McGuffey's morals-in-education tradition. And this is educational news of highest significance.

Character-Centered Stories

"Since the major purpose of the series is to develop those traits of character and personality which have always been admired, the individual stories are character-centered instead of situation-centered," the publishers point out. "They are more concerned with what happens inside the hero than with what happens to him. The pupil's interest, while reading, is therefore more intense than is the interest he usually gives to a plot based solely on a contrived situation or a surprising turn of events. The pupil's reaction, after reading, is a thoughtful assimilation of the story's moral into his own way of thinking, feeling and behaving."

The moral and human-relations themes most emphasized in the new Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grade books, which were sent to me by a friend, are: co-operation, courage, fairness, friendliness, honesty, kindness, patriotism, perseverance, responsibility, reverence, and unselfishness.

With Teacher's Guides

Teacher's editions of the new McGuffey provide a suggested technique for insuring that the moral lessons which the stories contain are received into the understanding of the children. In the Teacher's editions each story is broken down and analyzed for its moral lessons, to spotlight the new reading words which it introduces, their meanings and spelling; and in other ways to assist the teacher to translate the full value of the lesson to her pupil.

Many of the stories in the old McGuffey's Readers are republished in the new series. The new Fourth grade reader carries the story of the father and his seven sons, "The Seven Sticks" which has been a classic for a century, thanks to its appearance in the old McGuffey's. It relates how the sons were asked by their father to "break these sticks." The seven sticks were tied into a bundle with thongs. Each son tried and failed. Then the old man took the bundle and withdrew the sticks one by one and broke them.

Bundle of Freedom

There are many lessons in "The Seven Sticks." I frequently have used the story to demonstrate that American freedoms all are in one bundle, and that they must all be retained together if the strength of freedom is to survive. One broken stick, or one broken freedom, weakens the bundle. The old father in the story used the sticks to admonish the sons to stand together in the face of a danger common to them all.

There are modern stories in the new McGuffey series, stories out of 20th Century America carrying great moral lessons. In the new Fourth grade reader is the story of the boy who built the first ball-bearing pushmobile and the hampering problems he had to solve in building it and winning the race. The boy's name was Eddie. The story features his competitive spirit, perseverance and leadership qualities. The boy's last name was Rickenbacker. He became a champion auto racer, the flying Ace of Aces in World War I, the president of Eastern Airlines, and one of America's truly great citizens.

A second floor tenant called the party below and shouted, "If you don't stop playing that blasted saxophone I'll go crazy." "I guess it's too late," came the reply. "I stopped an hour ago."

Student Melodrama Gets Cheers Sunday

"Bertha, the Beautiful Type-writer Girl," an old fashioned melodrama in four acts, drew cheers and applause from an audience that was thoroughly entertained by home talent Sunday night.

Directed by Sister M. Patricia, the play was presented by seniors of Sacred Heart High school as a class project. It was staged in the Muenster High auditorium at 8 o'clock.

For two full hours the cast, and the audience, lived through the hardships and struggles of the beautiful Bertha while the villain tried every conceivable means to first win her, then eliminate her. There was mystery and comedy and drama. And a happy ending in which good overcame evil and they lived blissfully ever after.

Cast in the role of Bertha, Georgia Ann Owen, handled the long role with confidence. Rodney Walter as the villain, was excellent in an extremely lengthy conversational role, and Basil Reiter as the handsome hero did full justice to his part. Theodore Walterscheid, disguised as a "tough" Irish lassie, drew a round of applause every time he made his appearance, and Caroline Hesse, the stenographer, was a natural. Other good performances were given by Melvin Schoech, Ervin Henscheid, Charles Felderhoff, Irma Starke and Donna Hofbauer. Miss Hofbauer, an adventuress, made the most of a role that left the audience without sympathy in her heart-break.

Between acts Carol Voth sang "Beautiful Dreamer," accompanied by Anthony Luke, pianist; and Carol, joined by Nelda Bayer, presented "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" as a duet. Beatrice Zimmerer accompanied them on the piano.

Grass Today — Milk Tomorrow

Over half of our land is used for grazing or hay. Where a lack of moisture does not limit its growth, most grassland would produce two to four times as much forage as it is now producing if improved according to the knowledge we now have. The plants would be more succulent and more palatable. There would be more protein in the grass.

With more grass, dairy farmers could produce more milk at less cost since grass is the cheapest feed. For a better tomorrow, let's grow more grass today.

Don't Burn Leaves. Fertilize With 'Em

COLLEGE STATION — Don't fret when the leaves begin to fall. If properly handled they can be a boost to next year's flower or vegetable garden, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

It may be easier to burn them but the extra time required to put them in a compost pile will return dividends, explains the specialist. The compost can be used next year to increase the organic matter in the soil or for mulching flowers, shrubs or vegetables. Mulches are valuable for controlling soil temperature and conserving moisture.

Making a compost pile is a simple operation. Scrap lumber or a few feet of net wire and four posts will take care of the enclosure, says Thornton. Start with a six inch layer of leaves and for a four foot square enclosure dissolve a cup of commercial fertilizer, either 5-10-5 or 8-8-8, in water and sprinkle the solution over the leaves. Keep adding these alternate layers until the pile reaches the desired height. Leave the top layer somewhat saucer shaped as an aid for holding water on the leaves. Cover the pile with a shallow layer of soil.

Turning the material occasionally will speed up the decomposition of the leaves and the addition of water, during dry weather, will also help speed up the composting process. In areas where soils are acid, Thornton suggests adding a cup of lime to the fertilizer.

The $64,000 Question

We're slowly getting the answer to the $64,000 question as the famous TV show goes on week after week. The answer is a lesson in fundamental economics — taxes can get so high they discourage risk capital.

When a person (assuming he is single and has no other taxable income) answers the $32,000 question, he can keep $17,540 — the government takes $14,460 in income taxes. If he tries for $64,000 and wins, he can keep $26,560 — the government takes $37,440.

When the contestant reaches the point of deciding whether to take the $32,000 or go for the $64,000, he really is only making a choice between keeping $17,540 or risking the loss of that sum on the chance of gaining $9,000 more. He is betting almost 2 to 1 he can answer the final question.

(And of course if the contestant has any other income, his "takehome" gains are diminished even more. For the higher the income the higher the tax percentage.)

Even though none of the contestants on the TV program has put up anything except his own skill, none so far has chosen to try for the $64,000 question.

He fell while checking freight cars.

After returning home their little daughter Becky became ill and Mrs. Swingler spent a few days there helping nurse her granddaughter.

SEES PLANE CRASH

Wayne Schmitt, in a letter to his parents, the Al Schmitts, tells them he was an eye-witness to the plane crash near Longmont, Colo. He is a relief operator for the Union Pacific Railroad at Fredrick, Colo., and was looking out of the depot window when the explosion occurred. At the time he didn't know what it was but moments later a train coming through dropped a note and told him to wire the chief dispatcher to let him know about it; one of the trainmen had seen the explosion too. The crash scene was just four miles from Fredrick where Wayne works from 4 p.m. until midnight.

CARD OF THANKS

CARD OF THANKS

My wife and family join me in this expression of thanks for the many kindnesses shown us since I am in the hospital. The prayers, visits, get-well wishes, the many thoughtful acts are all appreciated. We are humbly grateful for our friends. Thanks to each of you.

Soil Conservation Notes

Freezing weather last week killed all prospects of grass seed harvest in the Muenster-Saint Jo area. King Ranch Bluestem and the native grass seeds were caught by the freeze before they had a chance to fully develop. The small amount of seed that did mature ahead of the frost quickly shattered and fell to the ground. This seed will tend to thicken and improve most stands of grass so that next year's seed crop should be much better.

Most of the broad grass pasture strips planted for use as terrace outlets last spring in this area have made it through the summer and have good stands of grass. Many of the waterways will have enough cover so that terraces can be emptied on them by next summer.

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District whose King Ranch Bluestem waterways came through the dry summer in good shape are Alfons Koesler, Andy Fleitman, Jake Seibold, Ollie Trubenbach, and Opal Christian Berry. Some of those that made successful pasture plantings of this drought resistant grass are Dangelmayr Brothers, Bruno Fleitman, George Berry, Olin Merritt, Ollie Trubenbach, B. C. "Ted" Redman, Jake Seibold and Cecil Foster. These pasture plantings will be used to produce seed so that grass can be spread over more acres in years to come.

Successful plantings of Coastal Bermuda grass were made last spring by Paul Sicking and Eddie Fleitman on waterway areas. Roy Kingery of Saint Jo, Claude Cannon at Bulcher and Ike Fulton of Myra made pasture plantings of this improved Bermuda grass. Several cooperators put common Bermuda in their waterway areas. These include Leo Hesse, Tom Sicking, Martin Trubenbach, Andy Fleitman and Mrs. Will-Sicking. Nearly all the Bermuda grass waterways will be in condition to receive terrace water next summer.

The outstanding feature of the game was the passing attack by both sides, especially Sacred Heart's feat in out-shining the visitors at their own game. Buckner lived up to its reputation as a passing outfit, throwing a total of 23. However the Tigers gained more yardage on 17 passes.

Lindsay News

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Fette and children Monica, Milton, Debra and Rita Sue, arrived Saturday night from Douglas, Arizona, for a two-week vacation visit with his parents, the Henry Fettes, Muenster, and her parents, the Paul Arendts, at Lindsay. Their visit at this time permits them to see Mrs. Fette's brother and his wife, First Sgt. and Mrs. Ernest Arendt, who are just back from five years in Alaska where he was stationed at Fort Dixon. After a 30-day leave he will be assigned to duty at Fort Sill, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann and daughter LaVern have returned from a weekend trip that took them to Louisiana and Arkansas. Going to Shreveport first, they were joined there by their daughter, Sister Catherine Henry, and a companion, Sister Leonita, for the drive to Subiaco where they visited the Fuhrmann's son, Brother Louis, and made a sight-seeing trip into the mountains. It was the first time Sister Catherine Henry had visited her brother during the 11 years he is at Subiaco.

Theresa Mae Spaeth And Mark Kuta Wed Saturday at Lindsay

In Saint Peter's church at Lindsay on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Theresa Mae Spaeth became the bride of Mark Kuta of Crockett.

Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, officiated at the nuptial mass and performed the double ring ceremony before altar arrangements of white mums and fern. Mrs. William Schmitz presented organ music and accompanied Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer who sang "Ave Maria" at the offertory. Mrs. Ben Hermes joined Mrs. Zimmerer in hymns during the mass and they presented a post-nuptial duet while the couple placed a bouquet of yellow roses on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George Spaeth of Lindsay and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kuta of Montgomery, Texas.

Presented by her mother, the bride wore a floor length gown of frothy white tulle and imported French Chantilly lace over crisp taffeta. The closely moulded lace bodice formed a deep point at the front and back and the off-shoulder neckline was filled in with a double row of applied lace flowers embroidered with iridescent sequins. Long sleeves tapered to points over her hands. The billowing skirt, worn over hoops and tiered crinoline petticoats, was fashioned of multiple layers of tulle and lace. An over-layer of lace was applied to the skirt at the waist to give a peplum effect.

Her scalloped triple tiered veil of illusion falling to finger-tip length was adorned with a cluster of sequins in each scallop and was held in place by a princess crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on top of a prayer book, and a pearl rosary, a gift from her nephew, Gene Schoech of Subiaco Seminary.

Mrs. Walt Barry of LaCross, Wis., was her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Frances Spaeth of Dallas, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of taffeta and tulle in gold and rust, respectively, and carried chrysanthemums in matching colors.

Linda Mock and Sharon Swanke, nieces of the groom, both of Houston, were flower

Cubs Lose 27-19 Scoring Spree to Holy Trinity Kids

Father Patrick's Sacred Heart Cubs had a bigger job than they could handle Sunday afternoon as they entertained the seventh and eighth graders of Holy Trinity, Dallas, on the Tiger field.

The final count was 27-19, which amounted to a creditable showing for the Cubs in view of the visitors record of running over the parochial teams of Big D. The visiting kids frankly mentioned their disappointment in allowing the Cubs to get on the scoreboard. Up to Sunday they had blanketed every team they played.

Things started popping early in the game as the Holy Trinity kids drove for a touchdown promptly after receiving the opening kick off. However the Cubs kept it interesting by snapping back with their own drive which ended in Bayer's touchdown pass to Haverkamp.

The Big D kids made their point after TD and the Cubs missed, so the count at the end of the first quarter was 7-6. Holy Trinity made all extra point attempts but the last, Sacred Heart made only the last.

Early in the second quarter Father Pat's boys "enjoyed a temporary lead as Bobby Walterseid blazed over the double stripe. Then came the visitors' second setting the score at 14-12 at intermission.

The visitors cinched the game in the third and early fourth by two more touchdowns and Bayer's 6-point pass to Haverkamp ended the afternoon's scoring. Bayer went over for an extra point and the final tally of 27-19.

There can be no question about it. We are at war now. Not a full scale shooting war, but definitely a fight to the finish between tyranny and freedom. And we are losing. It's high time for a counter attack.

NEW RESIDENTS

Muenster's population increased by four this week when Miss Mary Klein and her brother's three children moved here from Westwood, New Jersey. The children, orphaned when both parents were killed in a car accident, have enrolled as students at Sacred Heart school. They are Carolyn, 15, and Kenneth and Nancy, nine-year-old twins. They are living in the Zipper house on North Main adjoining the Ed Endres residence. Sister Victorine of Lindsay is a sister of Miss Klein and she and the children moved here so they can be closer together. They are the only living members of their family.
