Big Selection and Bright Appearance Feature New Store

While the two political hopefuls, Stevenson and Kefauver continued their barnstorming tour in search of support for the Democratic presidential nomination, Lyndon Johnson put them both in the shade with his nation wide talk on the farm bill Monday night.

We hear lots of guesses nowadays on what will develop at the Democratic national convention, after the gentlemen from Illinois and Tennessee come to a deadlock and the party settles down to deciding who will actually head the ticket for the big race. Harriman of New York has visions of taking over. So does Former President Truman.

Now it begins to seem that all of them, along with any other aspirants, can look for stout competition from the gentleman from Texas. So far Johnson rates only as his state's favorite son, however his prestige in other areas is growing steadily and it is likely to grow a great deal more as Democrats consider the mouthings and antics along with the backgrounds and qualifications of others in the field.

A significant point about Johnson's speech Monday night was his direct attack on President Eisenhower. He did not mention the Secretary of Agriculture or any other member of the administrative family but pointed to Ike himself as the cause of all troubles in the farm price problem. His was a full fledged campaign talk, the kind that might be expected during the heat of the presidential campaign. And it was a good sample for Democrats to consider when they decide who will be their principal spokesman after the convention.

To our way of thinking this is one of the most fortunate developments to date in the current political hassle. Our country's welfare demands that we have the best possible candidates heading the two major tickets. It is equivalent to an assurance that the country will be in good hands whoever comes out ahead in November. So, though the game is still young, it is comforting to see a man like Johnson coming to the front. There are other good men, too, notably Lausche of Ohio, who are head and shoulders above the superficial ADA chore boys who are making the big effort for the job.

While doing fine as a champion of the Democratic farm policy Johnson fell somewhat short of offering a workable solution in his Monday night speech. He was more like a doctor who ignores the cause of illness and gives his patient repeated sedatives to help him endure the pain.

There is no doubt that high support prices would be effective in relieving the present distress of farmers. They are desperately in need of more income. However this kind of help would only tend to ease the pain while prolonging the illness. The real cause behind the agricultural illness is overproduction and surplus, and any remedy which fails to consider them is superficial.

Fundamentally President Eisenhower and Secretary Benson are on the right track when they offer both sedative and cure in their treatment. A lift in the level of support price will give the farmer some of the help he needs in his financial strain. The compensation he receives for cooperating in the soil bank plan will give him additional help. Meanwhile acreage that is taken out of production will gradually reduce the surplus, which is the root of farm evils.

The principle applies on the national as well as the individual level. Official figures tell us we are paying over a million dollars a day to store surpluses. As that figure reduces it will bring welcome relief to the national budget. At the same time it will bring even more welcome relief to depressed markets.

Even more important in the long run are the conservation benefits deriving from the soil bank plan. Saving and improving land will pay off at a later date when the demand of increased population requires drawing on resources that are not needed now. The big difference is that one method pays a farmer for depleting the soil, the other pays him for saving it.

In his speech Johnson went slightly off tangent in referring to the soil bank program. He advanced the Democratic theory that additional appropriation is Muenster's bright new super market has been in operation since Wednesday morning. Andy Hofbauer stuck with his original schedule and started serving customers then even though all concerned were temporarily handicapped by installation work which apparently was due to continue for a few more days.

Also effective Wednesday was a change in the firm's name. The former Farmers Store will be known hereafter as Hofbauer's Food and Locker Service.

The transfer to the new building was completed Tuesday afternoon and night following preliminary work of more than a week. Workers had been stocking the new shelves with staples while business continued as usual in the old location. Then the store closed at noon Tuesday to finish the moving job.

Departments not open for business Wednesday were those which handle the refrigerated items. Installations were not completed on units for meats, vegetables, frozen foods, dairy products etc. At the same time the transfer of customers' lockers from the old vault to the new was just getting started. Hofbauer expects to have all the equipment in order for his week-

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

A heart attack Tuesday sent Rev. Henry Felderhoff of Denison to Madonna Hospital where he is in an oxygen tent. His brothers Tony and Hubert went to see him Wednesday and doctors told them he was responding favorably to treatment. He is not permitted to have visitors but get-well messages will reach him in care of the hospital.

Dale Wilde is ill with a strep throat infection since Saturday and is confined to the home of his parents, the Richard Wildes.

Walter Lutkenhaus, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Lutkenhaus, is recovering from virus pneumonia that sent him to Gainesville Sanitarium for treatment Sunday.

Mrs. Johnny Streng has been dismissed from M&S Hospital and is convalescing at her home from surgery performed last week.

A. T. Dickerson entered Gainesville Sanitarium Sunday following an accident at Lake Texoma. He received lacerations and bruises on his right arm and hand when he fell from a boat and couldn't escape the propeller. Dickerson and Sam Nason were together on the lake. A sudden jarring of the boat caused the fall. He was dismissed from the hospital Wednesday night.

Johnny Biffle of Myra is a patient at Baylor Hospital in Dallas.

Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman received medical care at Gainesville Sanitarium this week.

Mrs. Johnny Rohmer entered M&S Hospital as a medical patient Monday.

Gussie Fleitman, 10, was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Saturday and is recovering from major surgery performed on April 10. He's up and around at the home of his parents, the Ben Fleitmans, and expects to return to school next Monday. He says thanks to everyone who remembered him with cards, flowers and other kindnesses.

J. J. Haverkamp was dismissed from the VA Hospital in McKinney Friday after five days of observation and treatment. His doctors say he is "doing fine." Mrs. Haverkamp and their daughter Mrs. Ray Kupper drove to McKinney to bring him home.

Sister Eymard is convalescing at the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark., since her dismissal from St. Anthony's Hospital in Oklahoma City where she underwent major surgery on April 4, and is reported to be regaining her strength satisfactorily. Rev. Mother Philippa and Sister Geraldine went to Oklahoma City to accompany her to Jonesboro.

Band Will Appear In Concert Monday

Members of the Muenster High School band under direction of Jimmy Harris will appear in their annual Spring Concert in the auditorium Monday night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Most numbers on the program are marches, overtures and novelty selections by the entire band. Other presentations are instrumental solos and several numbers of popular music by the Rhythmaires dance band.

82 Kids are Ready, Await Formation Of Pee Wee League

As far as the kids are concerned Muenster will have a Pee Wee softball league this summer. Plenty youngsters are ready to play but the problems of financing and organizing remain to be decided.

Father Christopher found a spontaneous response when he posted sheets in each school and asked the interested youngsters to sign up. Within a few days he had 82 signatures, more than enough to fill out the four team league he was hoping for.

Next Father Christopher started inquiring about the possibilities of local sponsorship. Again the response was encouraging, but that's about as far as he has proceeded on the project so far. Next moves are to determine how much money will be needed for suits and equipment, also to line up coaches and managers. If and when those details are under control fellows will start on collections.

One fact pointed out is that a league started in this manner can be continued at considerably less expense in years to come. Uniforms and equipment would be held over from season to season and would require comparatively little in additions.

Eligibility for playing in the league will be restricted to children of 13 years and younger.

If efforts for a local league fall through a team from here may possibly be entered in the Gainesville Kids' League. Muenster has been invited to furnish a team, however the invitation lost some of its attraction when the large number of youngsters signed up. Considerations are providing recreation for four teams of boys instead of only one, providing more home games for local fans, and eliminating transportation problems.

Micks Humiliate Tigers in Opener; Play Again Friday

Father Christopher's Sacred Heart Tigers will be straining to even the count Friday afternoon when they take on the Laneri High Micks of Fort Worth in the second game of their 1956 baseball series.

The first game, in Cowtown last Friday, ended in a humiliating 13-2 defeat for the Sacred Heart boys . . . at the end of only four and a half innings. It was called at that time in accordance with a rule which concedes the win when a team leads by 10 points or more at 5 innings. Laneri did not need its fifth turn at the plate.

Pitching troubles combined with a few errors to put the Muenster boys in a cramp. Rodney Walter and Howard Mollenkopf, both normally steady on the mound, donated 11 free passes to first base and allowed 9 hits. The Micks scored 3, 0, 4 and 6 respectively in the four innings.

The Tigers hit four times in their five innings and scored in the first and second.

The third game in the Tiger-Micks series will be played at Fort Worth Sunday afternoon.

County Teachers Elect H. H. Homsley

Administration of the Cooke County Teachers Association will move to Muenster for the next school year with Superintendent H. H. Homsley as president and Miss Betty Stewart as secretary-treasurer. Both were elected at the association's regular meeting in Callisburg Tuesday night.

About twenty five teachers and parents of the Muenster school attended the meeting, which was featured by a talk outlining the merits of a proposed constitutional amendment on teachers retirement benefits.

RONALD HALLMARK is at home on his first leave following completion of training at Camp Barry, Waukegan, Ill. He arrived Wednesday night and has 14 days to spend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hallmark. His next assignment will be at Baron AFB, Foley, Ala.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Settled Overseas

The Joe Hoenigs have a letter from their son Jerry telling them he arrived safely at his new station on Okinawa. The trip took 13 days from the west coast and the troop ship landed on Friday, the thirteenth. Jerry said he is assigned to desk work with Headquarters of the Third Marine Division, that he likes his work, and that everything's fine, except the weather which is too hot for comfort.

In "Operation Mauka"

"Operation Mauka" first full-scale assault by Marines of the First Provisional Marine Air-Ground Task Force, was marked with landings on the island of Barking Sands, Kauai, Hawaii, from sea and air shortly after dawn on April 7. Participating in the exercise was Cpl. Pat Stelzer of Muenster. Some 8000 Marines, 20 ships and 5000 personnel of the Navy's Amphibious Squadron 1, and Marine Aircraft Group 13, participated in the exercise.

Enjoys Visit In Japan

Henry Weinzapfel writes his folks that he recently enjoyed a ten-day leave in Japan and is back on duty in Korea — until May 14 when he is sailing for the states again, with his enlistment in the army over. He had an especially fine time in Tokyo, seeing all the sights with personal friends of his brother, Rev. Thomas Weinzapfel. The friends, a Doctor Iijima and his wife who made a tour of the United States some time ago met Father Weinzapfel in Dallas and he took them around there. So when Henry visited in their country they wanted to repay the favor and they treated him royally he said.

Lack of Interest Stops Organization Of Softball Team

Muenster will not have a team in the Cooke County Softball League this year. The few men who were interested in playing came to that decision in a pow wow following their practice session Wednesday night.

Lack of sufficient interest was the reason for dropping out. In their three work outs and one practice game to date the team had four different groups of players, and was short handed besides. They were clobbered 10-0 in their game with Lindsay.

Only a few of last year's team were back in uniform. Of the others a few have quit, at least one has moved away and some are college boys who will not be home until June. Too few new players are interested in filling those vacancies.

Jack Gray in Race For District Judge

Jack Gray, county judge of Denton County this week authorized the Enterprise to announce his candidacy for district judge of the 16th Judicial District, which includes Cooke and Denton Counties.

Judge Gray's formal statement to voters of the district will appear in The Enterprise at a later date.

Deanery NCCM to Meet at Gainesville

Members of the Sherman Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Men will gather at the K of C hall in Gainesville next Sunday at 2 p.m. for their regular quarterly general meeting.

The principal purpose of the event is to continue, and if possible to complete, the project of organizing NCCM parish units and establishing parish committees, which originated at the deanery council's last quarterly meeting in Muenster.

Bob Romach of Denton, president of Sherman Deanery NCCM unit, urgently requests a strong representation from each parish to help in shaping an interesting and active program.

Next 3 Mondays Are Designated as Immunization Days

Muenster's regular annual immunization days are scheduled for the next three Mondays, April 30, May 7 and May 14, Dr. T. S. Myrick announced this week.

The shots and vaccinations are given in connection with the program conducted by Dr. Myrick for the past 21 years to immunize against smallpox, typhoid, diphtheria and whooping cough.

The program is spread over three weeks to allow time for the full series of typhoid shots, also to allow time for Schick tests to determine if diphtheria shots are needed.

Persons wanting the three typhoid shots should report the first day. Those wanting Schick tests should report the first or second Monday so they can get the diphtheria shot, if needed, during the program.

Those wanting a typhoid booster or smallpox vaccinations can report on any of the three Mondays.

Dr. Myrick emphasized that this is the only time that the shots and vaccinations will be available in the program this year and reminds parents with children who will start school in September to take advantage of the opportunity.

Muenster Entries Judged Champions At 4-H and FFA Show

Jimmy Jack Biffle, Muenster FFA, showed the grand champion lamb, a Southdown, and Imogene Flusche, Sacred Heart 4-H, exhibited the reserve champion pig, a Duroc, at the annual Cooke County 4-H Club and FFA Livestock Show Tuesday in Gainesville. In addition, local young people gathered up 16 ribbons and prize money on their animals in a show where competition was keen in all divisions.

Jimmy Myrick, FFA, won a blue ribbon in the beef cattle division. In the same class, Jerry Wimmer, FFA, won two red ribbons and Billy Otto, FFA, one. White ribbons went to Mark Hellman, 4-H, and James Wolf, FFA.

Blue ribbon winners in the swine division included Imogene Flusche, and her brother William Flusche, 4-H.

Lamb ribbon winners included Jimmy Jack Biffle and James Wolf, FFA, and Truman Wolf, 4-H, blue; Jim Myrick, Jimmy Jack and Sammy Biffle, red; and Butch Hudspeth and Billy Otto, all FFA, white.

Services Tuesday Will Observe May Day in SH Parish

Solemn services next Tuesday will observe May Day in Sacred Heart parish and 500 school children will march in a candlelight procession before the crowning ceremony that will proclaim Mary as Queen of the May.

The rites will begin at 7:30 p.m. with procession from Sacred Heart High school to Sacred Heart church. Hymns by the students and special selections by the boys' choir will precede the crowning at which Carol Ann Voth, sodality prefect, will do the honors. May devotions and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will follow.

Joe Bergman Dies Monday Following 18 Months Illness

Joe Bergman, 71, died at his home near Myra Monday morning at about 3 o'clock following an illness that confined him to bed for the past 18 months.

Funeral services with requiem high mass were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Saint Mary's church at Gainesville and burial was in Fairview cemetery there. Rev. William Lane officiated and George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home directed arrangements.

Bearers were F. E. Schmitz, Alphonse Schmitz, Charles Fisher, Joe Wimmer, Frank and Tony Bergman.

Rosary was recited Monday night at the Carrol chapel.

Mr. Bergman was born March 16, 1885, at Bow Valley, Neb., and came to Cooke county with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergman in December 1893. The family settled on the farm that Joe later took over and with the exception of one year he lived there continuously.

He was married to Miss Mary Schmitz here on May 12, 1913, and for one year they lived in the Freemound community, then returned to the home place. He was a farmer and cattle raiser until failing health caused him to give up his work.

Survivors are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. W. A. Showers and Mrs. Henry Smith, both of San Antonio; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Kathman of Muenster, and Mrs. G. E. W. Adams of San Antonio; and four grandchildren.

Among relatives and friends at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Showers and daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith and children, and Mrs. G. E. W. Adams; Frank and Tony Bergman of Springer, (Continued on Page 10)

F. E. Schmitz Quits Theatre Operation

The Relax Theatre is closed again. Operation was suspended after Sunday night's show on orders of the owner, F. E. Schmitz.

Action came as a follow-up of a decision announced by Schmitz several weeks ago, shortly after the show was turned back to him by George Letson. At the time he said he did not intend to continue in the show business and would either sell the theatre or lock it. Since the sale has not developed up to now he has taken the other alternative.

Prices quoted by Schmitz then were $20,000 for the building and $7,500 for the equipment.

Harris Sets New Record for Mile At Regional Meet

Jimmy Harris set a new record and added another blue ribbon to his collection of track trophies Saturday by winning the mile run at the Interscholastic IIBB regional meet in Denton.

He crossed the finish line with a time of 4:46 clipping 1.4 seconds off the time set by Threadgill of Glenn Rose in the 1954 regional.

The win qualifies Harris to enter the Interscholastic League state track meet in Austin during the first weekend of May.

Other Muenster High entries in the regional meet failed to make a showing. They were Richey, Hamric, Kaderli, Milner and Wolf, participating in the 220, 440, 880, high jump, shot put and the mile relay.

One other athlete representing Cooke County and the 40-B district qualified to enter the state meet. He was Owen Christian of Valley View, second in the regional 880 run.

Films and Flowers On Club Program

Marysville Progress club's regular meeting Tuesday night featured a social hour with colored movies. The films were shown by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schmidt of Sanger and included scenes of their recent travels and some made in northern Cooke county near Red River.

Another highlight of the program was a wild flower display by Mrs. E. C. Mead of Gainesville. She identified the flowers and told how they got their names.

Joe Wyatt, club chairman, opened the meeting and W. F. Davidson offered the opening prayer. Just before the films Mr. Schmidt displayed the Stars and Stripes and everyone rose and gave a salute to the flag. After adjournment a fried chicken supper was served to about 60 persons.

Several visitors were introduced. These included Mrs. Mead, Mrs. W. T. Davis and Mrs. Queenie Bone of Gainesville.

Endres Motor Co. Gets Safety Award

Endres Motor Company has been presented a Highway Safety Award for contributing to traffic safety by the Texas Automotive Dealers Association, the State organization of factory authorized new car dealers. The award is in recognition of the company's lending an automobile for high school driver training during the current school year to Muenster Independent School and St. Jo Independent School of St. Jo.

Frank M. Gillespie, San Antonio, President of the State Association, who has announced greater traffic safety as one of the top goals of his administration, calls the driver training program one of the most commendable civic undertakings in which a dealer can participate.

Nearly 300 members of the Texas dealers association loaned cars to schools in their community, where "behind the wheel" instruction is given in high school driver training. Many of these cars are equipped with dual controls so the instructor can take control of the car at any time it becomes necessary.

Hofbauer's Store -- end business.

The new store, combining new ideas of structure, arrangement, lighting and color, provides convenient and attractive displays for about three times the volume of merchandise carried in the former store. The floor space has been doubled and considerably more space was gained by improved design in the racks.

Most of the additional space is being occupied by larger stocks of items. In addition the store has added to its variety, especially an assortment of dietary foods. Another addition is a line of light hardware.

The entire interior emphasizes the modern trend to color and brightness. Four double rows of fluorescent tubes extend the length of the building. Walls have separate colors of pink, light green, gray, yellow and white. The asphalt tile floor is colored green and buff. A combined heating and cooling system provides year-round comfort.

Design for convenience and ample space also features the meat and food locker departments. An enlarged locker vault is accessible from the grocery department. The meat cutting and packaging area is flanked by a meat counter at the front, a storage vault at one side and a quick freeze vault at the other.

Even grocery carts have been changed. They too are larger than those in the old store.

Visitor — "Ever see any bad crop failures around here?" Old Timer — "Yep, I've seen a few in my day. Back in '98 the corn crop was purt' nigh nothin'. Pa ate 14 acres of corn at one meal."

A new sound detector reveals the hiding places of termites. It's a highly sensitive electronic device designed for use by a trained operator. When the operator taps on the floor or a beam with a screwdriver, the termites respond by banging their heads against each other or the wood. The detector picks up the sound of the banging, and the exterminator gets down to business.

Visitors Laud Fair At Parish School

They came in droves to see the Book Fair at the parochial school and they went away marveling.

Students and teachers of Sacred Heart grades, sponsors of the five day event, arranged the displays, decorated the assembly hall in true fair fashion, thought up ideas for the more than 20 exhibits — and made it all by hand. Arts and crafts from miniatures to almost life size described book titles or told the stories of volumes displayed.

Purpose of the Fair, a literature project, was to interest children, especially pre-school ages, and their parents in approved reading and to acquaint them with the contents of the books.

Along the "midway," travel and building books were featured in a scene entitled "America, Yesterday and Today" where homes, farm machinery and modes of travel of yesteryear and the present time were arranged in a modern setting, and in one of the log cabin days.

Kate Seredy works were surrounded by Seredy Art Projects of the seventh grade. It was one of the outstanding exhibits. Lives of the Saints were described in another display with statuettes and figurines of moulding clay and paper cut-outs. Walt Disney characters greeted visitors, along with Cinderella, and other nursery rhyme characters in another exhibit, and a medieval castle with horses and knights in armour depicted "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

A mirrored pond with water animals, fish and birds described a series of nature books; a western books display featured characters from Indians to dude ranchers; and miniature circus attractions included a merry-go-round and ferris wheel in motion. Even the hall windows carried out the Fair theme with handmade awnings, hand painted slogans and flower boxes.

Visitors selected books of their choice to be taken home when the Fair was over, or gave special orders for books to be delivered in about two weeks. And they all went away inspired and delighted; youngsters starry-eyed over newly discovered story book friends; oldsters catching their enthusiasm; some commenting "If they'd only had things like this when I was a kid!"

CDA Court to Have Candidates at Fort Worth Initiation

Plans for the reception of new members, a report on the recent state convention, committee reports and other business provided a full night's program for Catholic Daughters of America at their meeting Friday night.

Two candidates are awaiting reception. They are Mrs. Dan Luke and Mrs. George Swirczynski. They will be formally admitted into the court in a district initiation to be held next Sunday in Fort Worth. Local officers and other members will attend the ceremonies which begin at 2 p.m. in the K of C Hall, 904 Collier Street, and end with a banquet at 5:30. Men are invited to join their wives for the social event.

Mission Report

Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, gave her report. Recent shipments of clothing include 100 pounds to an Indian mission, two large boxes to St. Joseph's Mission in Hereford, and some 200 pounds to St. Vincent's Store and St. Theresa's Home for Girls in Fort Worth.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzappel reported on activity of the court in connection with the religious program conducted by Father Christopher Paladino at the State School for Girls in Gainesville. Every Sunday afternoon two members, or a member and another woman, attend the services and render help as it is needed. Women interested in making these trips — they need not be CDA members — may call Mrs. Weinzappel and volunteer their assistance.

Mrs. Herman Fette, grand regent, conducted the meeting and gave a report on the state convention she attended in San Antonio earlier this month.

Discussing coming events, members unanimously favored participation in National CDA Communion Sunday, May 6, and attendance at mass in a body on Saturday, May 12, Mary's Day, the day preceding Mother's Day. They will receive corporate Communion during the six o'clock mass and will visibly wear the Miraculous Medal all day in honor of the Blessed Mother. Twenty-five members attended the meeting.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP ADDS TEN TO MAKE TOTAL 40

Muenster's newly formed Girl Scout troop added ten members at last Thursday's meeting making a total of 40 in the organization.

Mrs. Al Horn, leader, conducted the meeting which consisted principally of getting the troop familiarized with rules and by-laws preparatory to starting a program of scouting. Five mothers attended the session.

The troop now consists of four patrols and needs more adult leaders. Mrs. Horn said that eight additional adult women are required to carry on prescribed activity successfully and easily. She's anxious to explain duties to anyone interested. A phone call to her at her home will provide necessary information.

SUBJECTS FOR "BRAIN WASHING"

The scientific methods used by the Communists to "brain wash" American prisoners of war, with astonishingly successful results, are explained in detail by Major William E. Mayer, U. S. Army psychiatrist. He has made an exhaustive study of what happened to the 4,000 American soldiers held in North Korean prison camps by the Chinese Reds. The results of his study together with his analysis has been published in the U. S. News and World Report.

One out of every three American prisoners were "taken in" to some extent by the clever Communist "brain washing." — The work began on prisoners immediately after their capture. Well-educated English-speaking Chinese Reds, many of them educated in American universities in recent years, lived among the prisoners. They were called "instructors." They conducted daily "educational" lectures in the camps and followed these up with subtle personal persuasion on each prisoner.

Our Weakness

Major Mayer said that the Communists had made an intensive study and analysis of the attitude and character of American soldiers. On the Communist evaluation sheets, the Americans generally were considered: (1) to have weak loyalties — to family, to community and country, to God, and to one another; (2) to have a hazy concept of right and wrong; (3) to have little knowledge or understanding — "even among university graduates" — of American political history and philosophy and of how the American system works. On this premise, the Red "instructors" set about to undermine the soldiers' faith in their country and its system.

"Brain washing," Major Mayer said, "is a calculated attempt to distort men's convictions and their principles. 'Brain washing' did not turn a soldier into a Communist. But it often did weaken him as a loyal American. It extracted from him astounding amounts of military information, and a great deal of useful, believable propaganda material. It achieved widespread collaboration. It created substantial loss of confidence, among prisoners, in the American system, raising doubts and confusion in the prisoners' minds about themselves and their country, and it turned the American prisoners into the most docile uninformed men we have ever seen."

Faith Shaken

Major Mayer was asked: "Did you get the impression (from his interviews with hundreds of returned prisoners and his studies of reports given by 4,000 prisoners) that these Americans' faith in their own country and its principles was so weak that it could be shaken by these Red Chinese in prison cell interrogations?"

"Absolutely," replied the Major. "Not so much by the interrogations but by the formal education program in which everyone participated to a certain extent. This was done not by Chinese ranting and raving about the evils of America; they don't attack directly in this way, just as they don't attack religion directly. They merely purport to show you the side of it that you don't know, and they do this not with Communist literature; it is possible to do this with perfectly good American authors . . ."

Over-Emphasizing Faults

"You mean by picking out the bad side about America?" he was asked. "Certainly," he replied. By over-emphasizing the bad and ignoring the good in the American system, the Communist instructors distorted the true picture. "Almost to a man," said Major Mayer, "the returnees lamented their lack of actual information, knowledge, about our democratic system. Many of them, being relatively young men, had never . . . been made aware of the protections and guarantees this Government affords its people and the fact that these are so advanced over anything in Communist countries."

The Major also mentioned lack of patriotism. "A great many people," he said, "feel that references to patriotism and love of country are somewhat embarrassing, unsophisticated, or foolish flag-waving . . . the Communists use this idea to weaken their enemies' patriotic convictions and thus weaken their enemies' resistance."

Major Mayer feels that parents, schools, colleges and the armed services all should endeavor to create in the minds and hearts

Why They Shake Fists At God

By Frank Sheed, author of "Theology and Sanity" and other books

KARL MARX, the founder of Communism, decided in 1869 that religion would have to be wiped out. He wrote to his friend Engels and told him they had to fight the religious leaders if Communism were to succeed.

We get a further indication of Marx's attitude toward religion in his famous remark, "Religion is the opium of the people." And not to be outdone, Lenin the founder of Communism in Russia, called religion "a crude sort of spiritual vodka."

WE MUST realize that Marx and Lenin were not talking about false religion. They rejected lock, stock and barrel any idea of a Being higher than man and a life after death.

The Communist attack upon religion was never meant to be direct. Lenin discredited wars on religion, which he said were the best means of reviving it. But by ridiculing religious belief and religious leaders he knew he could do damage to the cause of religion.

MARX DETESTED all religion because he denied the existence of God. Of course he could offer no proof to back his denial. Marx never asked why the human race had always believed in a Supreme Being and some kind of life after death. He merely dismissed God with a snap of his fingers.

Following the example of their founder, the modern Communists likewise dismiss God from the world, nowadays shaking their clenched fists instead of just snapping their fingers. "Christians believe man is dependent on God," they say, "Let's remove God and then man will be supreme."

THE COMMUNISTS forget that in a universe without God no one is supreme because no one has any value—God gives meaning to everything. True enough, the Communists make all men equal: equal to nothing; everything is worthless in their world because their world is meaningless.

But the Communists can't just ignore God and religion. They must seek to stamp religion out, because religion is Communism's greatest enemy and the Communists know it. Even where they pretend to support religion, they must secretly be undermining it.

WHY CAN'T the Communists co-exist with God? Communism would make the world a giant pastureland where the animal "man" would have all he needed to eat and drink and recreate—and nothing more. But God, and religion, tells man he needs more.

Religion tells man he is made for a life after death. It tells him he will never be perfectly happy on this earth. Religion tells man he is free, for only free men can obey God. Religion then is the Communists' greatest enemy. Karl Marx saw this almost a hundred years ago, and the Communists' persecuting religion today are just as sure: the universe isn't big enough for them and God.

Early Detection, Prompt Treatment Can Check Cancer

AUSTIN — Cancer, the second leading cause of death, took the lives of 3,379 Texans last year. This means that a little over one person out of every 1000 of our population died from this disease during that period.

According to Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, one-third of these deaths could have been prevented by earlier detection and prompt treatment. On this basis 3,126 Texans needlessly died of cancer in 1955, because proper treatment was begun too late.

There are some encouraging aspects in the fight against cancer. Deaths from that disease among women in the United States have declined more than ten per cent in the past ten years.

Many thousands could be saved if men and women would have a complete physical examination once a year. Women over 35 should have a mid-year check-up for signs of uterine and breast cancer and men should secure an X-ray for signs of lung cancer.

Dr. Holle says that at least 50 per cent of all cancers are accessible to examination by a physician through sight or touch.

Of all Americans who die of cancer today the deaths of one-third could be avoided if proper treatment were begun before the cancers spread. The profession of surgery is proof of this, as the latest figures show that cancer

Seniors of Muenster High school will go to Colorado Springs, Colo., for their end-of-school trip, May 9 to May 13. Plans are to make the same tour that last year's graduates took, going by train and seeing all the high spots of interest to tourists.

deaths among surgeons are only 66 per cent of the general rate. Evidently surgeons not only have the proper knowledge of the facts about cancer, but act promptly on the basis of that knowledge.

Today cancer is being attacked by research within nearly every branch of science. Also, studies are being made of large numbers of people to discover if living conditions are in any way responsible for cancer.

TV and Faith At the Crossroads

For a reassuring commentary on our times — when so many Americans are groping for something to believe in — we give you the Friday night television production "Crossroads."

In its first half-year on the air, this series of incidents out of the lives of real flesh-and-blood clergymen — parsons, priests and rabbis — has established for American youth a new type of hero that is fast replacing the gangster with the man of principle who lives and dies for what he believes in.

Since Crossroads went on the air last fall, more and more TV dramas for young and old have dropped the tawdry and sensational for more elevating and thought-provoking themes. And certainly, if television is growing up, this series, sponsored by the Chevrolet dealers of America, can take much of the credit.

As a token of appreciation and gratitude, New York University's Institute of Human Relations awarded bronze plaques the other day to eight clergymen — Protestant, Catholic and Jewish — whose adventures in faith have been portrayed on Crossroads. A ninth award was made posthumously to the late Chaplain Emil J. Kapaun who spent his last breath rallying his men to face the goddess, hopeless misery of a Red Chinese prison camp in Korea.

These awards, presented by Prof. H. Harry Giles, head of the Institute and director of the Center for Human Relations studies at NYU, were in recognition of "ministry of service to God and his fellow-men" and involved saving lives from the executioner as well as saving souls and earthly reputations.

Letters from viewers have flooded the network stations presenting Crossroads. For the most part, they have related further instances in which a man of the cloth went far beyond the call of duty as a shepherd of the Lord. Collectively, these fresh incidents could keep this inspirational production on the air for years — and we hope they will.

Seldom, if ever, in the history of television has the public had better reason to applaud a sponsor.

TB Loses Rating As One of Ten Top Killers in Texas

AUSTIN — Last year for the first time since the Texas State Department of Health began keeping records of the cause of death, tuberculosis did not appear in the list giving the ten leading causes of death. Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health reports that tuberculosis dropped from tenth place to eleventh and diabetes, a newcomer in the first ten, was in ninth place.

Fifty years ago tuberculosis was first as a cause of death in Texas. It was sometimes called "Captain of the Men of Death" and the "Great White Plague." A concerted program for the elimination of this disease has been carried out over the years by official and non-official agencies with the help of the medical profession. Since 1940, the drop in deaths from this disease has been most rapid.

Dr. Holle warns the public not to become complacent about the situation, as 816 Texans died of this disease last year. The State Health Department carries on an extensive mass X-ray survey program to detect the disease in its early curable stage. These mass surveys not only discover tuberculosis but certain heart conditions, cancer and other abnormalities in the chest area. Advancement in methods of treatment, surgery and antibiotics all have contributed to lowering the death rate and returning the victims of tuberculosis to useful occupations.

Diabetes claimed 896 lives. This is a disease for which there is no known cure. When it is discovered early and kept under close medical supervision, diabetes need not interfere with its victims regular way of life. The disease can be kept under control by diet, insulin injections or a combination of these as decided by the doctor.

The ten leading causes of death account for 80 per cent of the deaths in Texas. In the order of their importance they are: heart disease, malignant neoplasms, apoplexy, accident, certain diseases of early infancy, pneumonia, congenital malformations, general arteriosclerosis, diabetes and gastro enteritis.

Angela Hermes and Frank A. Haverkamp Marry at Lindsay

Angela Hermes and Frank A. Haverkamp of Lindsay exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony Thursday, April 19, in Saint Peter's church with Rev. Conrad Herda as officiant at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hermes Jr. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haverkamp.

Saint Cecilia's choir sang the Mass of the Blessed Virgin with Mrs. William Schmitz as organist. Gladioli, fern and candles adorned the altar. Gilbert Hermes, Richard Haverkamp and Anthony Hermes were acolytes.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white imported Chantilly lace designed with a figurine bodice, portrait heart-shaped neckline and brief lace sleeves which were complemented with matching lace mitts. The bouffant lace skirt composed of tiered ruffles of lace edged with pleated tulle swept into a formal court train. An imported French silk illusion veil drifted to fingertip length from a headpiece of lace edged with pleated tulle and dainty pearl tear drops over the forehead. Her flowers were a crescent shaped bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Bernice Hermes and Clara Mae Haverkamp, sisters of the couple, were the bride's attendants wearing aqua taffeta and tulle dresses with matching picture hats. They carried cascading bouquets of pink daisies.

shocking pink dresses of net and taffeta and carried nosegays of pink daisies.

Ray Haverkamp and Clem Hermes, brothers of the couple, were the groom's attendants. Alfred Neu and Joe Hermes ushered.

After mass, the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the Blessed Virgin's altar while Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer and Mrs. Ben Hermes sang "Mother at Your Feet." Mrs. Schmitz played the accompaniment.

A reception and buffet supper followed in the Lindsay hall. Peggy Hermes and Stella Bengfort registered about 300 guests. The bride's parents were hosts. A dance ended wedding day celebrations.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip she was wearing an aqua linen suit with black accessories. They will live in Lindsay in their recently completed new home.

Both are graduates of Lindsay High school. He was recently separated from the army after serving two years and is employed by Otto Brothers of Muenster. She is a bookkeeper at the First State Bank in Gainesville.
