VFW Ladies Slate Comic Strip Party

Members of the VFW Auxiliary Monday night planned a costume dinner-dance — a comic strip party — set the date as June 17, and named committees to take charge.

Similar to the Sadie Hawkins party that was such a success recently, this affair will feature costumes of any favorite funny paper characters, rather than just those from Dogpatch.

The party will begin with dinner, Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catering, and will continue with a dance.

It will be a joint social for members of the Auxiliary and the VFW Post and their guests.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. David Trachta, Mrs. Walter Rawley, Mrs. L. J. Roberg and Mrs. John Huchton.

Buddy Poppy Sales Bring In $118 Here

Buddy Poppy sales here during the recent campaign brought in $118.76, according to committee reports at the VFW Auxiliary meeting Monday night. This amount is kept in a separate fund by the organization and is used exclusively to help needy persons in the community.

Other business at the meeting consisted of routine details and announcement of the program for the state convention in Amarillo. Mrs. Richard Grewing, president, presided. Members planned a costume dinner-dance for June 17 as a joint social with the VFW.

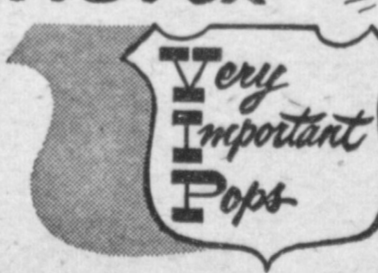

Mrs. L. J. Roberg, refreshment hostess, served delicious snacks, dips, and cold cuts after adjournment and Mrs. Richard Grewing won the attendance prize. Nineteen members were present.

Mrs. M. J. Endres returned Friday from a three-week visit in Columbus, Ohio, with her son, Leonard Endres and family. Special days during her stay there were Mothers Day and her birthday, both observed with "extras" in her honor. She also spent one day in Cleveland with friends.

Are YOU Too Much In a Hurry

You're speeding whenever you're driving faster than you ought to — for the condition of the road, your car, yourself and the weather. But some people never think of conditions when they drive. They operate in a kind of vacuum, obsessed with the thought of getting wherever they're going in the shortest possible time. It's part of the "in-a-hurry" complex that's characteristic of our age.

The person who is securely in the grip of this complex is unable to unwind or relax. He hurries through his meals... dashes from place to place... crams his life full of unimportant activity and lives in a constant state of nervous agitation. When he drives, he's impatient, jittery, over-anxious — one of the worst menaces on the highway.

The Texas Safety Association says there are varying degrees of the malady. And every driver should check his driving behavior to make sure he's not developing any of the symptoms.

Are you restless and impatient behind the wheel... likely to be discourteous to pedestrians and other drivers? Do you fuss and fume every time you must stop for a red light, a train, a pedestrian crossing or a traffic tie-up? Do you find yourself inclined to pass other drivers for no other reason than just the desire to get ahead of them? Are you overly time-conscious, always figuring how you can save a minute here and there in traffic? These are a few of the symptoms.

If you find it hard to get a straight answer from yourself on these questions, you might try observing your passengers for some hint as to your driver rating.

If they're tense and nervous... grab onto the seat or the door... press down with both feet to apply their own brakes... frequently offer advice or warning... it's a pretty safe bet that you're not exactly a calm, cool and collected driver.

Time For a Red China Plank

Since the majority of UN member nations is willing, the General Assembly of that body will not convene until after the Presidential election is safely out of the way. The original meeting date of September 18th was postponed to November 12th. News dispatches from that New York City No-Man's Land naively state that the United States favored the postponement.

It is just possible that the further fact that admission of Red China is item one on the Assembly agenda had something to do with the change of dates. But, whatever is back of this gentlemanly international concern for the serenity of our election campaign, it can not be denied that Americans face no graver issue than that of whether the ruthless Chou en-Lai and his murderous regime are to be whitewashed by the Assembly, and our ally, Nationalist China, thrown out to make room for these Asiatic Reds.

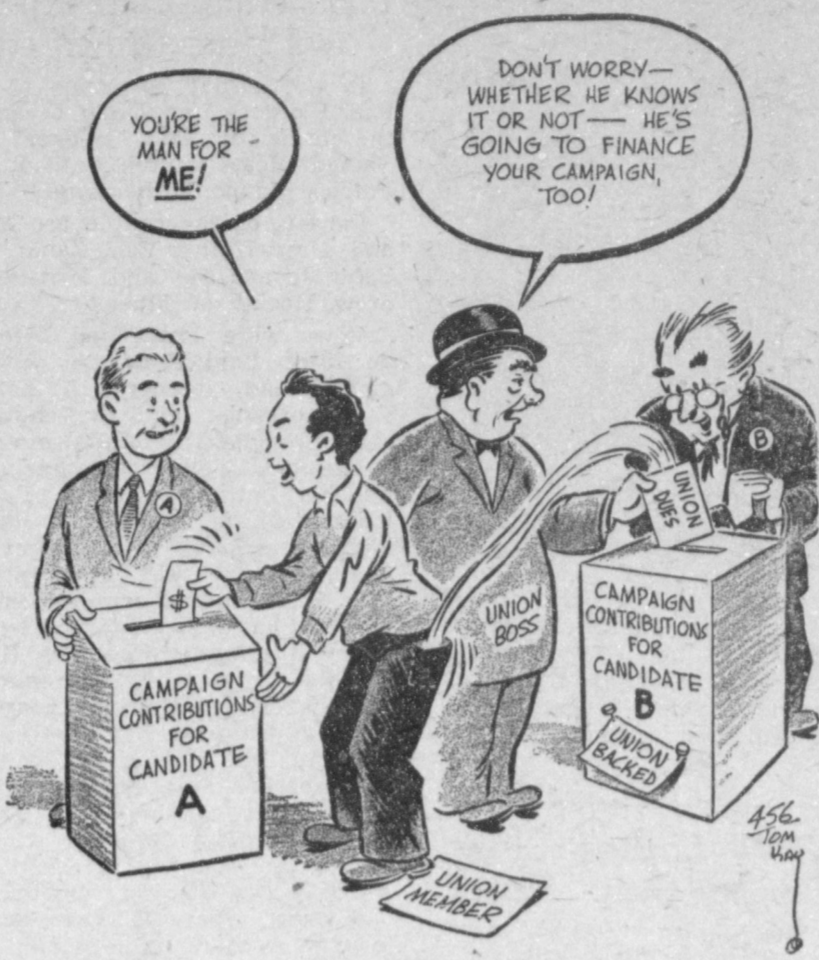

If the Administration is in any doubt as to the attitude of the American people on this momentous question, a mandate can be had before November 12th. The Republican convention needs only to include a Red China plank in its forthcoming platform. In fact, it is the duty of both parties to declare themselves clearly and unmistakably on this point before asking for public support.

To duck the question is to suggest that it is none of our business, or to admit uncertainty — or arouse the ugly suspicion that we have already been committed.

Have We Lost Something?

Back in the days when your scribe went to school, and teachers were more hard-boiled than presently, nobody ever HAD to get a goose egg in an exam. Even if he didn't answer any of the questions correctly, he'd get ten percent if his errors and lack of knowledge were neatly set forth.

Today, employers from one end of the country to another are tearing their hair over the high cost of sloppy handwriting. Illegible names and addresses, undecipherable orders and receipts; tally-sheets, check lists, memos and instructions that can't be decoded, added up to millions in annual business losses. So we wonder what ever happened to that "ten percent for neatness"?

Perhaps the Handwriting Foundation, the group that was set up to study the problem and try out ways and means of encouraging people to write more legibly, should consider this old-fashioned custom that was once popular with the Three R's trade. The Foundation might bring its influence to bear on today's educators to reinstitute this practice of rewarding the pains-taking. If a document is NEATLY written, it seems to us, it can hardly avoid being legible as well. And youngsters sufficiently

Bridey Murphy, A Big Disappointment

A Special Report on "The Search For Bridey Murphy"

THOSE SEARCHING FOR Bridey Murphy have the help of a best-selling book, a popular song and a forth-coming movie. But some are asking whether the search is worth the trouble.

Scientists question the experiments. Would a good scientist, they wonder, ask leading questions, the kind that tell you the answer? Author-hypnotist Bernstein did this often. Again, do good scientists publish their findings before all the facts are in? Bridey's story was on sale before the facts were checked in Ireland.

SERIOUS SCIENTISTS don't work this way. They don't believe everything they hear either. They wonder why Dr. Bernstein was so quick to believe and publicize the fantastic tale of Bridey? Dr. Bernstein, they feel, should have at least hesitated in the face of some unexplainable "facts." For example, Bridey "lived" in the 1850's. Yet she tells of being married in a church not built until 1911.

CHRISTIANS TOO wonder about Bridey. They note that Bridey's reincarnation theory makes a shambles of the world picture painted by Christ. And they would rather stake their faith on Christ than on one novel experiment.

In the Christian view, a man is born into the world for a reason. He is to live for a while before returning to God. He's on trial. At death he is judged by what he has done, the good accomplished, the evil committed. God regards the good man with a face to face vision of Himself. The evil man is punished by being deprived of the vision of God.

The Christian has a good reason for leading a decent life. It will earn him eternal life. But how about Bridey's world?

When Bridey died she was doomed to stand by a bedside, neither really in or out of the world. She didn't love; she felt nothing in fact. There was no God in Bridey's after life. One wonders why she was born at all.

THIS IS WHY the search for Bridey Murphy will have to go its well-publicized way without the help of good scientists or Christians. The trail may be interesting, they admit, but it doesn't lead anywhere.

Actually neither scientist nor Christian is angry. They are disappointed. Scientists are pleased in the popularity of a scientific question; Christians are encouraged by the interest in the future life. But both wish it was the "real thing" which was selling and not just a novelty.

The new Bel Air Convertible—one of 20 sassy-styled new Chevrolets.

Want to take the wheel of one of America's few great road cars?
Want to send pleasant little tingles up and down your spine? Want to drive the new car that politely murmurs "Move over, big boy" to the high-priced jobs? Then hustle on in and try out a new Chevrolet V8!

Now showing—the happiest "double feature" of the year! One part is bold, new Motoramic styling. The other is record-breaking V8 action.

Hollywood has a heap of words that describe it: colossal, stupendous, magnificent. We'll settle for just the name—Chevrolet.

Because once you've driven this sweet-handling showboat, the adjectives will take care of themselves. Once you've sampled Chevy's hair-trigger reflexes and nailed-down stability, you'll see why it's one of the few great road cars built today!

Horsepower that ranges up to 225 makes hills flatter and saves precious seconds for safer passing. And this new Chevrolet clings to curves like part of the pavement.

Stop in sometime soon and highway-test this record-breaking new Chevrolet.

SOIL CONSERVATION
DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Planting time for summer legumes is here. Many of the fields around Muenster are being plowed after the hay or grain has been harvested. These fields need to be protected and improved. Instead of lying idle and bare all summer the land can be covered and its fertility built up by growing soil improving legumes. The crop used mostly in this area for this purpose is Chinese

Red Peas. Another legume that shows promise for summer soil protection and improvement is Guar.

Chinese Red Peas and Guar, both being legumes, should be inoculated with nitrogen-fixing bacteria that take nitrogen from the air and fix it in the earth so that soil fertility is improved.

Both plants make the optimum green vegetative tonnage in 90 days for return to the soil for maximum conditioning and improving benefits of added organic matter. The amount of nitrogen added to the soil from a properly managed legume crop will vary from 50 to 75 pounds an acre. This is equal to an application of 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate an acre.

Cooperators of the Upper Elmer Red Soil Conservation district in the Muenster-Saint Jo area have witnessed the advantages of growing summer soil improving crops and are making preparations to plant a part of their cultivated land to these crops. The ASC offices in Cooke and Montague counties offer financial assistance to farmers who plant summer legume crops.

Some Coastal Bermuda grass planted this spring already has put out runners two to three feet long and most of the cooperators who planted it have good stands in spite of the dry spring.

Some vetch and clover that was managed for seed harvest is making a good seed set and should turn out a good seed crop. K. R. Bluestem grass is in the bloom stage but it's too early to tell about a mid-summer seed crop at this time.

New ponds for livestock water have been built on the Frank Haverkamp farm southeast of Myra and on the B. A. Talley farm at Bulcher. These tanks will furnish water so that pastures can be grazed in a rotation grazing program that will allow the grass a rest during a part of each growing season.

4-H Club Council
Elects Officers

The Cooke County 4-H Club council met Saturday morning to elect new officers, plan attendance at summer camp and discuss other summer activity.

Nelda Bayer of Sacred Heart club, chairman, conducted the business session.

New officers are Anthony Dresser of Gainesville, chairman; Gwen Friske of Downard-Fairplains and William Flusche of Muenster, vice co-chairmen; Janie Hott of Valley View, secretary-treasurer, Pat Knight of Era, reporter; Mary Jane Block and Dorothy Bengfort, both of Lindsay, recreational chairmen.

County 4-H camp at Trinidad will be held July 30-Aug. 1. Parents are invited to attend with their children. Registration fee for the three days is six dollars. District camp days, also at Trinidad, are June 5-8, and annual Roundup time at A&M will be June 11-14.

Attending the county meeting from here in addition to Nelda Bayer were Regi Bayer and Mrs. Paul Fisher, the girls' adult leader.

After business, cold drinks and cookies were served.

MRS. MELTON RAMSEY IS

After adjournment Mrs. Ramsey served refreshments to those present.

Farmer Refund on Federal Gas Tax
To Begin June 30

Farmers will soon be able to obtain a refund of the Federal excise tax on gasoline which is used on a farm for farming purposes under a new law. Present Federal tax rate is 2 cents a gallon. H. P. Moore of the Internal Revenue Service announced today that under the new law first refund payments will be made after June 30 on gasoline purchased and used during the first six months of 1956. Thereafter, refunds will be made for a one-year period from July 1 to June 30.

To get his refund, a farmer will have to file his claim after June 30 and before October 1. Claims are to be made on Form 2240 and are to be filed with the United States District Director of Internal Revenue for the farmer's district. Forms will be available after June 1 at Internal Revenue offices, county agricultural agents, and at some banks and post offices.

Refunds will be limited to the Federal tax on gasoline which is used by a farmer for farming purposes, in carrying on a trade or business, on a farm located in the United States. A farmer may also request a refund of the tax on any gasoline which is used on his farm by a custom operator or a neighbor in connection with cultivating the soil, or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity.

Farmer — "Well, you see some cows are born without horns and never have any, and other shed theirs, and some we dehorn, and some breeds ain't supposed to have horns at all. There are a lot of reasons why some cows ain't got horns but the reason that cow ain't is because she ain't a cow — she's a horse."

What's Watt's H.P.? One James Watt, in 1776, advertised his newly-invented steam engine in terms that miners would understand — horsepower. A horse walked 330 feet in one minute to hoist a 100-pound pail of coal, hence one horsepower equalled 33,000 foot pounds. Still does, too. The geographical center of the United States is in Smith County, Kansas.

Tell Wooten if You Find a Dove Nest

Want to help in the Texas Game and Fish Commission's current project of banding doves? If so, send a postal to Game Warden Lonnie Wooten if and when you find a dove nest.

The purpose of banding is to assist in a state wide study of doves, their age, migratory habits, etc. Game wardens attach bands to young doves while still in the nests and compile their data as bands are sent in by hunters or other persons during the next several years.

Wooten said he will appreciate the public's cooperation in helping him locate as many nests as possible. He also suggests that writers specify whether nests have eggs or young birds... so he will know what nests to visit immediately.

Postals should be addressed to Lonnie Wooten, Game Warden, Gainesville, Texas.

Ray Zimmerer and Mark Hermes are at home for the summer following the end of classes for the term at Subiaco Academy.

Rev. Conrad Herda left Tuesday by train from Gainesville for New York on the first lap of his trip to Germany. He will board ship this Friday. A farewell dinner honored him Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bezner Jr. entertained in their home. Father Mark of Fort Worth will arrive Friday to be pastor here while Father Conrad is away.

Paul Zimmerer, on leave from Navy duty at Norman, Okla., has gone to Ireland to join his wife and visit her family. They will return together. Mrs. Zimmerer went to Ireland early in May to be at the bedside of a sister, Sister Assumpta who was seriously ill and died two weeks ago. Paul made the trip by plane.

Hubert Bezner joined his wife and son Rickey here for a week-end visit and they returned to their home in New Orleans, Sunday. Mrs. Bezner and the baby spent two weeks here and at Valley View with family members while Hubert was in California for duty with the Naval Reserve. Saturday night the visitors were honored at a dinner in the Bruno Zimmerer home. Other guests were Mrs. Joe Bezner, the Joe Bezners Jr. and their family and Al Bezner and Jimmy Young of Dallas. Jimmy remained for a week's visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Neu, Mrs. Bill Neu and Margie Jo, were in San Antonio to attend Robert Wilson's ordination to the subdeaconate on May 26. Services were held in St. Mary's church. There were 18 other young men in the service and two were ordained to the priesthood. While in San Antonio the Neus also visited relatives.

Speeding along at 70 miles per, the young lady suddenly spotted a traffic cop in her rear view mirror. Determinedly, she maintained her lead on the policeman until she came to a gas station. Slowing down, she drove in, came to a stop and dashed into the ladies' room. Ten minutes later she emerged and walked over to the officer standing alongside her car. She smiled at him coyly. "I'll bet you thought I'd never make it!"

Women of the church prepared and served the meal. Table decorations stressed a theme of blue and silver, senior class colors.

Chiggers...

How to Treat 'Em And Their Bites

AUSTIN — Whether you call them red bugs or harvest mites or chiggers of just plain Eutrombicula alfreddugesi, you'll meet them this spring and summer. Forewarned is forearmed.

Texas, say State Health Department entomologists, has more than its fair share of the parasites, a statement with which anyone who has endured ceaseless spasms of itching misery from red bug bites will agree.

They — the chiggers — have a special affinity for low, damp places covered with vegetation. Bermuda grass lawns harbor them well, but for some unexplainable reason they are not usually found in carpet grass.

Just for the record, it's the larvae which do the damage, attaching themselves with their mouthparts and sucking blood until they become engorged and fall off. The severe itching is caused by an anti-coagulant material they inject into their host.

Although adult chiggers — large, red, and velvety — are entirely harmless to man, their wayward offspring can be serious as well as annoying. The entomologists say they do not spread any specific disease in this country, but their bites often produce secondary infections in the form of sores and boils.

A few people have an apparent immunity to chigger attacks, but the vast majority are fair game from about May until cold weather reduces chigger ranks. Favorite spots to attach themselves for blood meals seems to be hands, feet, and the stomach around the belt line.

They attack lizards, snakes, birds, and rodents with the same vigor and resourcefulness they display in attacking man. No distinction is drawn between humans and lesser animal species, which is hardly complimentary to us Homo sapiens.

Light applications of sulphur dust on lawns and low branches of shrubs have been used for years to successfully control chiggers. Nowadays, the newer organic insecticides such as chlordane and lindane gives better results. Just follow the directions on the label.

A word of caution: be sure to avoid unnecessary exposure to the insecticide. If you spill the concentrated material on your skin, wash it off immediately. And be sure to keep children and pets out of the yard until the spray dries.

If your favorite golf course or play ground has not been treated against chiggers, rub your legs and arms with a good commercial mosquito repellent. It will keep the chiggers at a distance.

To learn where chiggers are harboring, stand a piece of black cardboard on end where you suspect their presence. If after a few moments you see tiny yellowish or pinkish mites accumulating on the upper edge, it's time to check your supply of insecticide.

stead, and coaching to help them learn to do things on their own. All facilities are planned to encourage self reliance. Gadgets around the swimming pool, for instance, enable wheel chair guests to get into the water and out without help. Gentle inclines replace steps so that wheelchairs can go anywhere. As in the crafts shop, the emphasis is on giving children the satisfaction of doing things themselves.

Last summer the full quota of 120 children attended each of the six camp sessions. In all 720 handicapped children, including many very pitiful cases, were made happier, more skillful and more self reliant. This year the same full quota is expected for the season, and, as usual, it is expected that hundreds of applicants will be disappointed again. Next year, however, there will be room for more. Plans are already approved to expand facilities by about 50 per cent.

Support for this wonderful project comes from local Lions clubs all over the state. Each club has an opportunity to vote itself as a sponsoring unit, and very few of the state have passed up the opportunity. A sponsoring club's contribution is $3 per member each year.

Tony Lehnertz of Mitchell, S. D., is here since Monday for a visit with his brother Joe Lehnertz and family.

Andy Yosten of Fort Worth was here Sunday for a visit with homefolks and attended the annual Memorial services.
