VOLUME XXX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 NOVEMBER 4, 1966

NUMBER 50

As the general election enters the home stretch much of the attention that should be its due seems to be crowded out by two other news developments. One is President Johnson's Asian trip, the other is women's picketing at supermarkets.

When one would expect the issues to be big news it seems that the current big news is being created to keep minds off the issues. LBJ dramatizes his peacemaking efforts, thereby monopolizing a big portion of news time and space. Meanwhile the ladies give the administration a big assist by hounding in for a part of the limited time and space left.

One might think that these developments were planned as parts of the campaign, not only as users of valuable politicking time and space but as smoke screens in front of issues that deserve attention. The peace feeler diverts attention from a bungled war effort. The picketing points a finger at food stores instead of the government's inflationary policies. The plain fact is that food prices, like other prices, are up only because the value of our money is down.

The diversions may be deliberate, maybe not. Nevertheless it's a fact that minds are drawn away from the vital subjects while time is running out on the election clock. Minds urgently need to get back to the main subjects before it's too late.

The one big comprehensive issue in the coming election is that our nation is in a big mess. We are on the verge of moral and economic breakdown. Our crime rate continues going up, especially among young people, and new regulations of prosecution meanwhile make it harder than ever to deal with criminals. The situation is further aggravated by the "civil disobedience" theory — that it's all right to ignore laws one does not approve.

We have rioting, looting, arson and murder as methods by which civil rights fanatics seek to impress the national legislature. We have hatred in a degree that was unheard of a decade ago.

We have an absurd welfare system by which moral scum make careers of loafing and having illegitimate children. We have a poverty program that reeks with waste and corruption and extravagant salaries to political favorites.

We have a war that drags along on terms of the enemy. We still have not cut off supplies to the enemy. We still have not stopped our own trade with some countries that supply the enemy. We still talk of easy terms instead of unconditional surrender. We talk about stopping red aggressors while assuring them they will not have to pay for their greed. And all the while we continue tolerating the reds just ninety miles off our shore.

Our economic system is in trouble too. Irresponsible spending year after year has brought inflation that steals from everyone's savings and imposes a still heavier burden on people of fixed income. And now we are told that tax must go up to control the inflation. All this is the Great Society.

All of this is the issue in the present election. President Johnson said as much in a campaign speech a few days before leaving for Asia. He asked for a landslide election of Democrats, giving his party a strong majority to carry on the program he has started.

Well, does the country want that program? Do people want a continuation of socialistic schemes, wild spending, softness to criminals and communists, no-win warfare with useless sacrifice of American young men, and all those other conditions that violate the traditions of our country? America has the opportunity to vote yes or no in next week's election.

The choice is clear for people of this area. Carr and Purcell are members of LBJ's party and he has endorsed both of them. He expects their support in the program he has started. The other candidates, Tower and Norwood, are members of the opposition party. LBJ doesn't want them in Washington because their policies do not harmonize with his. Our choice in the election is simply whether we will support (Continued on page 10)

Western Week Plans Continue

Plans continue moving forward for Western Week in Muenster during which the community expects the biggest gathering of visitors in its 77 year history.

The occasion is the national finals of this year's cutting horse contest to be held November 16 through 19 in the show barn of Colonial Acres Farm. Anticipated attendance is up to 10,000 persons.

This is the first time for the event to come to Texas, also the first time in a small community. The past three years it was in Reno, Las Vegas and San Francisco.

Western Week here begins the day before the contest opening, as the visitors arrive. In preparation for it people are urged to give their town its neatest and most festive look ever and themselves their most western look ever.

Action begins with a parade at 4:30, to which entries of riding clubs, floats and bands are invited from a number of towns in North Texas and South Oklahoma. Special features are a band and drill team from Sheppard Air Force Base.

After the parade Jaycees will have a barbecue in downtown Muenster. It's a scholarship benefit event for which Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders have given the beef.

An old fiddlers contest in Muenster High Auditorium will begin at 7 p.m. It will be in two divisions, over 60 and under 60, with three prizes in each.

The day's finale is a dance in the VFW Hall.

Myra - Gainesville Free Phone Calls Being Considered

Toll-free telephone service between Myra and Gainesville appears to be on the way.

The proposal was presented last week Thursday to the Myra Improvement Club by Alvin Fuhrman of Muenster Telephone Corporation, and all present indicated they wish to have the service.

Next step is to get an expression from each customer on the Myra system. A card will be included with the next monthly statement. Customers are asked to indicate their choice on it and return it before November 21.

The change, which has been adopted as a project by the Myra Improvement Club, would connect the 67 phones of the Myra system with some 7000 of the Gainesville system in addition to its present toll free connection with Muenster and Forestburg. It would eliminate about 40 percent of the toll calls now made to and from Myra and reduce long distance charges accordingly.

However, as Fuhrman explained, the change would involve special costs and rates would be increased accordingly. Also anticipated is elimination of 8-party rural lines and 4-party lines in town setting up 4-party rural lines and 2-party lines in town.

Proposed rate increases are as follows. 1-party business, $10.50 to $12.50 per month, 2-party business, $9.00 to $10.75. 1-party residence, $5.00 to $7.00. 2-party residence, $4.50 to $6.00. Rural phones on 8-party lines are charged $4.25. After the change they will be on 4-party lines and charged $7.00 per month.

Principal equipment addition required by the changes is a six-line cable from Myra to Gainesville, the cost shared by the two systems. Changes at the exchange would be needed to allow direct dialing.

Firemen Will Help Burn Vacant Lots

Muenster people have the opportunity to burn off their vacant lots under firemen's supervision. An announcement this week says the fire department will be ready at 5:30 next Monday to stand by for those who want to burn lots. Persons interested are asked to notify Alvin Hartman.

The fire department also announces a change to the winning schedule for meetings and drills. Until further notice meetings are at 7 p.m. each second Thursday and drills are at 5:30 each fourth Thursday.

The next four days feature eliminations and finals of the contest plus a dance with Jan Garber's orchestra Wednesday night, a dance with Spanish music Thursday night and an awards program Saturday night. The dances will be in a large tent on the portable floor from the show barn.

Local organizations and a committee from the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce are getting set for services and concessions to accommodate the crowd and a catering firm will serve noon and evening meals.

Food in US Still A Bargain, Says F B President

WACO —The president of the state's largest farm organization said any housewives who might be contemplating a boycott of food stores should, instead, thank their lucky stars they live in a country where food takes less than one-fifth of the average family's income.

C. H. DeVaney, head of the Texas Farm Bureau, pointed out that while American housewives spend less than 19 percent of the family's income for food, her British counterpart spends some 29 percent and the Russian housewife spends over 50 percent for a vastly inferior food selection.

He reminded the nation's housewives that the government-inflated economy and not the farmer is the cause of the rising food prices. "As a matter of fact," he pointed out, "farm prices in the first half of 1966 were one percent below the 1947-49 average. This is despite an overall consumer price index increase of some 35 percent over that period. Thus, farmers' prices have had a stabilizing effect on food prices and the cost of living."

The state farm leader said that higher marketing costs account for the major part of the increase in food expenditures. "Last year consumers spent $77.6 billion for food products that originated on U. S. farms," he said. "Of this total, farmers got $25.5 billion — the remaining $52.1 billion went for marketing services."

He added that of the $17 billion increase in farm food expenditures since 1957-59, $4.5 billion, or about one-fourth, went to farmers. Of the $34 billion rise over 1947-49, $6.5 billion or less than one-fifth, went to farmers, he said.

Survey Reports Brags and Gripes

Muenster's most likeable feature is its friendly attitude, and its biggest gripe is speeding and excessive noise along with lenient and inconsistent law enforcement.

That was the consensus of a survey on community attitude conducted by the Muenster Jaycees and revealed Tuesday by the survey chairman, Dr. Larry Tisdale. The answers represented a response of about 60 per cent. 114 blanks were sent out and 67 of them were completed and returned.

The survey also showed that hospital service and fire protection have the community's best efficiency rating. Grades of good and average were 76 and 21 percent respectively for the hospital and 75 and 18 percent respectively for the fire department.

Regarding the complaint about speeding, noise and unsatisfactory law enforcement, Tisdale noted that some allowance can be made for the fact that Muenster had no resident officer at the time of the survey and for some time before.

The next two most prevalent community gripes are the appearance of some commercial buildings and the need of more street repair along with stop and yield signs.

Ranking second and third, after friendly attitude, as the community's likeable features are its progressive spirit and medical facilities.

Winter Arrives, Mercury Hits 22

Now all of Muenster has had its first freeze. Thermometers got as low as 22 Wednesday morning and frost definitely reached all areas of the community.

The season's first frost was reported on October 15. A number of people said garden plants and Johnson grass had been nipped, however others found no damage. This one was different. It ended fall gardening.

The community's moisture measure for October is a dry .67 inch and brings the year's total through the month to 35.41 inches. Since then November starts with a reading of .01 and the year's measure is upped to 35.42.

Another Up-Hill Struggle Faces Battered Hornets

Coach Glenn Richardson's Muenster Hornets will be the definite under dogs Thursday night when they meet the other Hornets of District 7-B.

Era, in spite of last week's 7-6 loss to Valley View is still a strong contender for the loop title whereas Muenster's best hope is to get out of the cellar position. Loop standings at this time are 2-1 for Era and 0-3 for Muenster.

The situation is worsened by the loss of two starters from the MHS team. Wayne Klement and Ken Swirczynski are out of the lineup with fractures.

Richardson has been working for the past two weeks getting the team re-shaped and feels that he has it fairly well organized. But he's also uncomfortably aware that the odds are stacked against him a little higher than before.

The game will be on Muenster High field starting at 7:30.

Old-Age Benefit a Poor Investment

By the time the 21-year-old who goes to work today (1966) retires at 65 in 2010, the value of the old-age taxes he will have paid during his working life (including interest lost) will exceed by more than $12,000 the benefits he will draw in retirement, says Tax Foundation's new study: Economic Aspects of the Social Security Tax. If such a man had saved a sum equal to his tax, and got 3 1/2% interest, he would accumulate more than $32,000 by retirement date. On the same day the value of the social security payments he would get (assuming normal life expectancy) would amount to about $19,000.

Terrific Tigers Trim Whitesboro By Count of 12-7

The Sacred Heart Tigers never played bigger than in their game with Whitesboro's Bearcats last Friday night. They were terrific in shading their big Class A opponents by a 12-7 score.

All the Tigers played a heads up game and gave it every ounce of their energy. That applied especially toward the end as Whitesboro put on the pressure. In the fury that ensued Sacred Heart stopped the visitors three times with two recovered fumbles and one interception.

The game had an exciting start. Tommy Hess intercepted on the second scrimmage play and the next one he was over the line receiving a 21 yard pass from Leon Endres. But illegal procedure nullified the play and Sacred Heart got a 5 yard penalty instead. On the next play Cole intercepted a Tiger pass.

The next three series of downs ended with kicks then Sacred Heart got started from the 48. Two runs by Larry Hess and a penalty got to the 35. Three plays later Leon Endres tossed a short one to Larry Hess who used a few good blocks and extra good footwork on his run to the goal. A kick for point was wide. The score just before the quarter ended was 6-0.

The Bearcats came back strong. From their 25 they gained 12 in two plays, then Cole was loose for a while after a short pass. Leon Endres, last defender between him and the goal, made the stop on Sacred Heart's 34 after a gain of 23. Two more plays reached the 24 but penalties and loss on the next series went back to the 45 before Whitesboro kicked.

Then Sacred Heart started its second scoring drive with Hess, Klement and Sicking slashing through consistently for net gains of 95 on thirteen plays. Leon Endres scored from the 5 on a keeper play.

2 Races Dominate November 8 Election

Next Tuesday, November 8, is election day, the day of decision for one of the nation's most active off-year election campaigns in recent history.

Texas and this district share in the national excitement with senatorial and congressional races, but otherwise the election here is routine. Democrats are unopposed at the local level and have a cinch at the state level.

Parent-Teacher Conferences Set At Sacred Heart

Friday is the day for the first parent teacher conferences at Sacred Heart School for the present school year, and a holiday for pupils of Grades 1 through 6.

The teachers have their meetings scheduled to start early so they can be finished that day.

The purpose of the conferences is to report on the progress of children and to discuss how parents can help in to improve their work. Report cards for the first quarter of the year will be given to parents at the conferences.

4-H Horse Club Will Meet Nov. 8

Cooke County 4-H Horse Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Home Demonstration building at Gainesville with Dr. Gordon Yeargan, veterinarian, giving the program on structural anatomy and common unsoundness found in horses.

The program will include information on the importance of knowing the parts of a horse, common faults and unsoundness. This program will help members of the horse project group to learn better methods of selecting their project animal.

The meeting will be open to anyone in the county interested in horses.

Ceremony and Reunion Observe C. J. Wimmer Sixtieth Anniversary

Sixty years of memories of a happy married life were recalled by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wimmer Sunday.

To mark the anniversary they attended a Mass of thanksgiving in Sacred Heart Church at 7:30 a.m. In the afternoon Mrs. Wimmer's sister, Mrs. A. T. Schroeder and her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Zeilman of Windthorst came for a visit, and in the evening the family was together for a covered dish supper in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Haverkamp.

All ten of their children — six sons and four daughters — and their spouses attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer will remember their wedding day on Oct. 30, 1906, in Tours, Miss. Annie Seith, dressed in a floor-length changeable blue taffeta gown with a white lace collar — an outfit she made herself — and with a full-length white veil and wreath, drove with the youthful bridegroom in a buggy to St. Martin's Church for the nuptial service.

The celebration was in the tradition of the community with an all-day celebration and a dance at night. The next day the newlyweds were out in the field gathering corn because the crop had to be harvested.

They set up housekeeping on a farm near Tours, lived there about seven years, then moved to Durant, Okla., where they farmed five years before moving to Muenster in 1918 and have made it home ever since. They retired from active farm work in the summer of 1947 and moved to town in a new home they built.

The couple grew up in Tours where both were born in 1887. Her birthdate is January 7, his is December 23. Parents of 11 children, they lost their oldest son when he was eight years old. Two of the boys served overseas in World War II at the same time. They have 44 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Like all early Muenster settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer assisted with projects to better their parish and community. He helped organize the Farmers Union and was its second president. Elected in 1934, he held the office ten years. For many years he served as a member of the city tax equalization board. Both are members of the Third Order of St. Francis. He belongs to the parish St. Joseph's Society and she is a member of the parish St. Anne's Society. Both are still active and interested in city and parish events.

Their children are, Joe, Tony, Charlie, Lawrence, Johnny and Andy, all of Muenster, Mrs. Leo J. Haverkamp, Mrs. Ray Otto, both of Muenster, Mrs. Charlie Berend of Hereford and Mrs. Paul Luke of Dallas.

Also attending the anniversary observance were grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peotzold and two sons of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reiter and two sons of Dallas.

There's more to the ballot than that, however. Much more. The sheet is about the size of an average newspaper page. And a considerable part of it is occupied by 16 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

At Muenster the election will be different in one important respect. The location is changed for both voting boxes.

For North Muenster it will be in the basement of the K of C Hall. And for South Muenster it will be at Stockmen's Feed Store.

Otherwise it will be like other local elections. Joe Luke will preside at the north box and Paul Fisher at the south box. Election hours at both places are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Future Hornets Slip Past Alford B Stringers 12-0

Prospects for future football at Muenster High looked good last Thursday night as the Future Hornets blanked Alford's B string by a count of 12-0.

The game was a contest of brawn verses speed and aerial attack. The visitors were husky, so the Bees went around and over. Likewise on defense the Bees swarmed on them before they could get started.

The passing performance was worthy of a bigger game. John Monday hit his targets well and the receivers, especially Bobby Bruns and Robin Wimmer, did a fine job of catching. They completed nine out of fifteen.

The Future Hornets made a discouraging start, a net gain of only one on the first series followed by a blocked punt. That gave Alford a nice position on the 28 but the next four plays gained only 4 yards.

Muenster started moving from there and went 56 in seven plays, then bogged down and lost possession on the 16.

The rest of the half was all defensive. Muenster made a lone first down in the second quarter, Alford made none. After intermission it was different. Alford had to kick ending the first series and Muenster was in business 41 yards out. Six plays made it and the big ones were a run for 13 by Bruns and two passes to Wimmer. The scoring catch was a dandy, at his shoe laces.

The next Muenster drive got started early in the fourth quarter on the Alford 24. A gain three big plays made almost of the distance. Wimmer caught two and Bruns made a sensational one handed catch on the scoring play.

After that, in about five minutes, the visitors made three first downs and about half of their net yardage but could not keep going.

TEXAS IS ON THE MOVE!

In virtually every field of endeavor, our state has made dramatic progress the past four years under the strong leadership of Governor John Connally. His administration's bold, yet sensible programs have helped provide new opportunity and a better way of life for all our people.

IMPROVED EDUCATION — Since 1963, state investment in higher education has doubled, and faculty salaries have increased 40%. State support of local public schools have increased 44% in four years, including a $100 million teacher pay raise enacted in 1965. Technical and vocational training programs have been vastly increased; junior college enrollment doubled during the current bi-ennium. Special literacy programs for migrant workers and their children have been expanded. A college student loan fund of $85 million has been established. And a special Governor's Committee on Public Education currently is studying all facets of elementary and secondary education.

WATER RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT — Long range planning and development have been given top priority. $100 million in bonds have been issued for development of needed storage facilities; authorization has been granted to expand this program to $200 million for the next two years.

CONCERN FOR THE AGED AND NEEDY — Since 1963, assistance to our elderly has been increased 27%. The Governor's Committee on Aging is continually working for the benefit of our senior citizens.

OUTDOOR RECREATION — More than $2 million has been invested in improving ten of our most attractive state parks during the past two years to provide additional recreational facilities.

INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION — A record 855 new industrial plants have been established the past three years, moving Texas into second place in the nation in industrial expansion.

Last year, more than 23,000 new jobs were created in manufacturing alone — the best year ever for the Texas labor force.

INCREASED TOURISM — More than 12 million tourists visited Texas last year, adding more than $900 million to the state's economy, and creating 140,000 new jobs. The state's tourist advertising program has been sharply expanded.

MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION — New emphasis on prevention of mental illness and mental retardation has been achieved through establishment of new community centers, replacing the former practice of "warehousing" patients. Investment for research into causes of mental disorders has doubled the past four years.

BETTER HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION — Texas has more farm-to-market roads than any other state — more than 35,134 miles. We lead the nation in construction of interstate highways, at a cost 40% below the nation's average.

COMBAT AIR AND WATER POLLUTION — New legislation for public health, "The Clear Air Act of Texas," provides state action to combat air pollution. Similar vigorous action has been initiated to control pollution of Texas streams, bays and estuaries.

NEW CULTURAL GROWTH — The Fine Arts Commission was established in 1965 to nurture the cultural enrichment of Texans. The state's cultural heritage will be preserved and portrayed in the state's pavilion at HemisFair '68 in San Antonio.

BUSINESSLIKE ADMINISTRATION — With unprecedented teamwork, our state government has operated responsibly and efficiently. The Legislature has finished its work on time in each session. Following a pay-as-you-go policy, we have maintained a healthy surplus in the general revenue fund without curtailing essential services.

HEALTHY, GROWING ECONOMY — Business activity rose 11% last year, as Texas continues one of the brightest growth areas. Employment and income are at an all-time high, unemployment at an all-time low. Despite increased responsibilities, our state government costs only $168.78 a year per citizen, fourth lowest in the nation. No broad-based tax has been enacted the past four years. Texas still has no personal income or payroll tax, no corporate income tax, and is one of few remaining states with a limited sales tax of 2%.

'67 CHEVROLET

Impala Super Sport Coupe—a clean new sweep in roof lines.

Now that you've seen all the daring new things our stylists did, get in and sample some of the safest, soundest ideas on the road!

What you feel is as new as what you see—thanks to all the fresh thinking that's gone into the way it rides, steers, stops and looks after your safety.

It's got a remarkable new road feel—beginning with a ride so hushed and gentle you'll feel like calling this the '67 Shhhevrolet. The steering is as much as 10% easier. And you'll find the stopping smoother, too.

We put safety features on top of safety features. For example, an energy-absorbing steering wheel atop the new GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column. A dual master cylinder brake system with warning light. And seat belts front and rear with pushbutton buckles. All standard, to be sure.

And there's a new SS 427 performance package—complete with 385-hp Turbo-Jet V8 and flat-cornering suspension. You can order it for either the Impala Super Sport Coupe or Convertible.

Of course, there are all sorts of new custom features you can add, too, such as tape or FM stereo. But if you find so much that's new a bit too much to remember—drop down to your dealer's and take a drive. It'll all become unforgettable.

Everything new that could happen...happened! Now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Flusche of Robstown who also visited other Cooke County and Dallas and Denton relatives and called on the Dutch Metzlers at Pottsboro. Also visitors with the Fuhrmans one day were another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Max Flusche of Denton.

Irma Vogel, Bride Of Ivan Koelzer In Nuptial Mass

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Koelzer are honeymooning at an un-revealed destination since their marriage Saturday, Oct. 29. The bride is the former Miss Irma Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vogel. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George Koelzer. Father Benedict Buegler celebrated the Nuptial High Mass at 4 p.m. and performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist before Mass and again after the service when the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine and the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the altar. Anthony Luke was organist and the men's choir sang the Mass.

The bride was radiant in an original creation of French imported Chantilly lace over taffeta moulded to a tiny basque bodice and long sleeves, the bouffant skirt a float of ruffles with an overlay of lace in redingote effect and a brush train. A crown of pearlized petals and orange blossoms held her elbow-length veil and she carried a white orchid and feathered carnations on her prayerbook. Her father gave

For something old she wore the gold wedding band that her great-grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Kleiss, wore on her wedding day 92 years ago.

Bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Shirley Vogel, and the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Debbie Schilling of Dallas.

They wore royal blue satin floor length dresses with belled skirts and matching veiled headpieces. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of white gladioli.

Attending the bridegroom were his cousin, Wilfred Koelzer, and the bride's brother, Spec. 4 David Vogel of Homestead AFB, Florida. Another brother, Larry Vogel, and Victor Koelzer, a cousin, ushered.

Wedding reception and buffet were held in the Parish Hall where Misses Shirley Dittfurth and Beverly Koelzer, nieces of the bridegroom, registered some 300 guests. The wedding dance was in the VFW Hall.

When the couple left on their wedding trip she was wearing a red knit three-piece suit with black accessories. They will be at home in Muenster when they return.

Both are graduates of Sacred Heart High School. He has completed a tour of duty in the Navy, serving aboard the USS Enterprise, and is employed here by Bayer Brothers. She is employed at the Ben Franklin Store.

Weekending with the Ervin Hamrics were their sons and families, the Dan Hamrics and Bobby of Anthony, N. M., and the Burt Hamrics and Mike of Fort Worth. When the Dan Hamrics left Sunday to return to their home, Mrs. Burt Hamric and son accompanied them as far as Portalls, N. M., for a visit with relatives including her mother.

Ghosts, Goblins Plentiful at SH Halloween Festival

Ghosts and goblins, witches, batmen, clowns, princesses, monsters and a variety of other characters gathered at the Parish Hall for the annual Halloween carnival Monday. It was a fun thing for the youngsters and eight o'clock was costume time.

Parading on the stage to compete for prizes in the costume contest were two groups — Halloween costumed kiddies from pre-schoolers through third grade, and favorite TV characters from fourth through eighth grades.

Stealing the hearts of the judges in the tiny tot group was Susie Felderhoff who will be three this month. She was charming as the littlest hobo and won first prize. Bobby Endres, as an owl was second, and Tina Wilde as a straw man was third.

In the older group's contest Randy Wolf was first for his impression of Granny of the Beverly Hillbillies, Margie Hesse was second as Phyllis Diller, and Shirley Swirczynski was third as Clem of the Red Skelton Show.

Judges Jimmy Lehnertz of Gainesville and Mrs. Kent Bellah and Mrs. A. B. Williams of Saint Jo admitted "never having such a hard time" as selecting from the parade of 50 pretty, cute and cleverly dressed youngsters.

The Halloween carnival, an annual benefit sponsored by the Home-School Society, had mothers and dads busy for days before and on Monday from 4 o'clock to about 11 p.m.

Afternoon and evening attractions included fish pond, toy booths, cake walk, candy booth, white elephant sale, the fairy tree, fortune telling, games and food.

A lively crowd was present throughout the afternoon and night.

Todd Richey, 5, Is Birthday Honoree

Todd Richey, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Richey of Gainesville, was the honoree at a birthday party Sunday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cain.

Uncles, aunts and cousins, along with Todd's brother Craig and his sisters Robyn Ann and Stephanie were guests for games, a wiener roast, birthday cake and ice cream on the patio.

Special guests later in the evening were Sister Carmelita, a former teacher at Sacred Heart School now of Jonesboro, Ark., and Sister Henrietta, local first grade teacher. They also visited Golden Years Rest Home.

Other guests helping Todd celebrate included Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartman and children Jeanna, Pam and Doug of Denton and Mrs. Bill McCollum and daughters Kelly Linn and Tracy of Dallas.

Sister Carmelita was in Dallas at the Thresian National Conference and accompanied local Benedictine Sisters home after the close of the three-day meeting Sunday. She was a visitor in the McCollum home while in Dallas and spent Sunday night at the convent here.

Mrs. McCollum and daughters took her back to Dallas Monday morning and saw her off by plane for her return to Arkansas.

At New Station
Ronnie Cunningham, US Navy, ended a 15-day leave with his parents, the Herb Cunninghams, and left Monday for Long Beach, Calif., for a new assignment. He had been in Viet Nam serving aboard a mine sweeper. His sister Carolyn Cunningham of Dallas was home for the weekend and he accompanied her back to Dallas for an overnight visit. She saw him off by jet Monday.

NCCW Institute Set November 16 At Gainesville

Members of St. Mary's Parish, Gainesville, will host the biennial Sherman Deanery Institute for the National Council of Catholic Women on Wednesday, Nov. 16, it was announced this week by Mrs. Jack Barton, NCCW deanery president.

The day will begin at 9:45 a.m. with Mass in St. Mary's Church and will continue until 2:30 p.m. with the program in the Farm Bureau building. A covered dish luncheon will be held at noon.

Program speakers include Dr. Mary Hoffman on "Youth — Guiding Them to a Brighter Future," followed by a question and answer session conducted by Mrs. Jean Wietzel, diocesan chairman on cooperating with Catholic Youth organizations.

In the afternoon, speakers will be Mrs. Nona Brown of Dallas on "Catholic Charities in the Diocese," Mrs. Helen Rolfe of Sherman, diocesan chairman of social and charitable welfare and Mrs. Jack Barton on "The New Pentecost."

The national convention to be held in Miami, Florida, will be discussed. Theme of the convention will be "Implementing Vatican II in NCCW and Applying It to Local Organizations."

All Catholic women of the Sherman Deanery are invited to attend the institute.

Cotton calico, chintz, gingham, madras, and muslin all came from India originally.

Spook Night Kids Flush City Streets

Between 35,000 and 45,000 gallons of city water were wasted by Halloween pranksters Monday night. That, according to Steve Mosier's estimate is what gushed out of several fire hydrants opened in various parts of town.

Mosier said that both of the city's booster pumps were turned on by the sudden heavy loss and they ran for 35 minutes at a rate of about 1,000 gallons a minute before the heavy loss was stopped and the pumps cut off. Another record shows that water consumption that day was 43,000 gallons more than the day before.

Mrs. Horn Hostess For Club Meeting

Mrs. Joe Horn entertained members of the Idle Eight Club for their monthly session of progressive 42 and served pie a la mode and coffee after the games.

When tallies were counted Mrs. Joe Luke was high scorer and Mrs. Joe Hoenig was runner-up. Miss Lena Herr, a guest, was consolation winner. Another guest was Mrs. Ben Seyler.

Mrs. Lena Bernauer and Mrs. George Lutkenhaus of Gainesville were here Tuesday to attend the All Saint's Day services and procession to the cemetery.

Texas to his wife: "I think the kids are old enough to know the facts of life. 'Let's tell them about Alaska.'"

Muenster Juniors Win 6-2 at Era

The little fellows at Muenster Public School marked up their second district win at Era Tuesday night by a score of 6-2. That gives them a loop standing of 2-1-0 with two games still to be played.

Their touchdown came in the third quarter completing a drive from mid field. Henry Knabe made it on a play off tackle with nice blocking and a super effort of his own. It was a case of team work and determination working together, Coach Glenn Richardson said.

The Pee Wee boss was proud of his youngsters, said they are improving lately. They took charge in the second half after playing the Era Kids about even in the first.

Era's two pointer came the first time Muenster had the ball. A pitchout play went sour and the runner got caught behind the line.

At another time the Muenster kids had a big disappointment as a drive fell just inches short of the touchdown. However Era's luck was no better. It had the misfortune being offside on its only touchdown play.

Greetings came this week from Messrs. and Mmes J. M. Weinzappel and Hubert Felderhoff postmarked Honolulu, Hawaii, and noting they were leaving there Oct. 29 for Tokyo. The two couples are on a trip around the world.

How Long Is A Dime?
The driver who thinks he can stop on a dime and that the car behind him can do the same should reflect that three steps are required in stopping a car.

First is perception of the situation ahead a recognition of a hazard. Second is reaction. The third factor is braking. The car doing 60 may travel 300 feet more — the length of a football field — to come to a stop.

The weekly cottage prayer meeting was held Saturday at the Rafe McElreath home.

again but an interception in the second series stopped them. On the next play Saye exploded through the line and was loose on a scoring sprint. A kick for extra point was good and the score was 12-7.

For the rest of the quarter and into the fourth the teams had a defensive contest. Tigers kicked on their second series, so did the Bearcats and the Tigers again.

Next Robert Klement recovered a Whitesboro fumble on the 26 and gained to the 15 on the following play. Whitesboro defense helped by a 15 yard penalty was too much there. The Tigers were stopped on the 10.

From then on vicious scrapping plus three big breaks enabled the Tigers to hold a fired up Whitesboro outfit. After two first downs the Cats fumbled and Ted Endres recovered for Sacred Heart.

The Tigers missed their next series by inches and Whitesboro was back on its 17.

Then, another Bearcat fumble recovered by Kenny Schmitz on the 15.

Again four tries fell short for the Tigers. They gave up the ball on the 6.

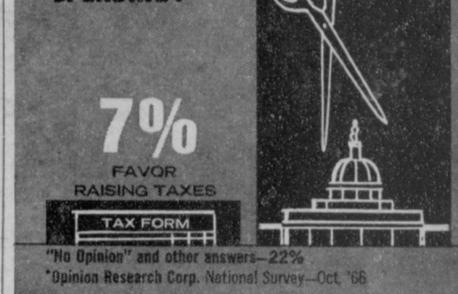

From there Whitesboro made two first downs to the 28 before Leon Endres intercepted to stop the drive. The Tigers were in possession as the game ended.

to halt inflation

"WOULD YOU FAVOR RAISING TAXES, OR CUTTING DOWN FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SPENDING?"

Research Shows 71% of Americans Want Less Government Spending

Seven out of ten Americans want to reduce federal government spending to control inflation.

Eight out of ten express concern about inflation. Two out of three say they have been hurt by it.

One-third feel they are worse off financially than a year ago.

These are some of the results released today from a major national opinion survey taken in early October by the Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, New Jersey. The study commissioned by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Given a choice between the two, 71% of the respondents favored a cut in federal spending rather than increased taxes (7%).

Compared with earlier surveys, the latest ORC poll also shows that there is growing concern about inflation with its consequent rising prices and reduced purchasing power of the dollar.

Almost half (48%) of the respondents report they are "greatly concerned" and this concern is evident in all segments of the population, regardless of age, occupation, educational level, or where they live.

Six in ten say they are fighting their own private war against inflation by changing shopping habits... cutting down, buying cheaper foods, substituting, designating heretofore "necessities" as "luxuries."

"I walk around the store a long time before I buy anything today." (Woman, over 40, Midwest).

"I look for some things to take place of other things... some things are just too high." (Woman, over 40, West).

The survey also demonstrates that the effects of inflation are being felt more seriously by the elderly and those with lesser education.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Planning ahead is an important part in almost everyone's life. The outcome of many things is determined by forethought. Few people would build a home on a moment's notice. First they would want to make some preparations.

The same thing applies to conservation practices such as pasture planting.

In order to do the best job of establishing grass, plans should be made in advance.

The most important thing to be considered is the exact location of the planned pasture planting.

When the location is selected well enough in advance, time is given to develop a good seedbed in the fall.

A seedbed prepared in the fall allows winter moisture to enter the soil. This additional moisture will help in getting a stand of grass.

Often grass plantings are failures because they are planted on land where a proper seedbed had not been prepared.

Farmers and ranchers thinking of planting grass this year are urged to decide now where they will plant and get a seedbed ready.

Technical assistance on pasture planting is available through the local SCS.

Jeanna Hartman, 3 Has Queen for Day Party on Birthday

Third birthday of little Miss Jeanna Hartman was celebrated at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartman in Denton with a theme of "Queen for a Day" for the party, complete with a throne for the honoree and a cake that was shaped and decorated like a castle.

Queen Jeanna and her court of ten small princes and princesses, including her sister Pam and brother Doug, all wore jeweled crowns.

A highlight of the afternoon was a surprise visit from "Bobo" the clown who gave a performance and handed out party favors which were made by the honoree's mother.

The dining room carried out the circus theme was balloons floating from the ceiling, and bright colored letters on the wall proclaiming "Jeanna's 3rd," and "Bobo's Circus," along with animal cut-outs. A miniature circus train was a centerpiece for the serving table. The main table held the castle cake and was laid with the queen's personal china.

Special guests were the honoree's grandmothers, Mrs. Vic-

Knights Wallop Quinlan Hi 48-12

Lindsay Knights went on a scoring spree Saturday night and annihilated the Quinlan Panthers 48-12.

The score likely would have been much larger if the reserves had not taken the field in the second half. The count at intermission was 40-12.

Both sides made it a passing game. Lindsay completed 18 of 29 tries for 287 yards and Quinlan completed 12 of 29 for 137 yards. Lindsay made only 22 on rushing yardage and Quinlan 25.

Lindsay started early as Mike Hundt connected with David Arendt for 19 and Mike Fuhrmann for 30, then stepped over for the touchdown and again for extra points.

Next TD was a 29 yard heave to Louis Gieb, and David Eberhart ran for 2 more points. The third was an 8 yard pass to Arnold Zimmerer after being set up by passes of 21 and 11. Hundt ran again for the bonus points.

Quinlan's fumble set up the fourth only 17 yards away. A pass to Eberhart scored on the next play and Hundt tossed to Arendt for extra points.

Just before the half ended on a 45 yard heave to Gieb. Hundt scored the bonus points again.

Last TD before the half came Quinlan made two quickie TDs, on passes of 37 and 35 yards.

Lindsay's final score came in the third period. Hundt intercepted and returned 39 yards to the 6 and Eberhart crashed over from there.

From California comes word of Lindsay relatives having operations. Mary Green, daughter of the Charles Greens, and Ellen Corcoran, daughter of the Ed Corcorans, both had appendicitis operations and the Corcorans' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ronnie Corcoran underwent surgery. All three are reported doing fine. The Green family lives at La Mirada and the Corcorans live at Baldwin Park. Another relative, Don Neu, son of Herman Neu of Downey Calif., is back at work after being laid up with a hand injury ... a severely mashed finger.

Janet Arendt Is Queen at Lindsay Hi Homecoming

Miss Janet Arendt won the crown and the title of Football Queen for 1966 in formalities at Lindsay High Homecoming celebration Saturday.

Royal ceremonies were conducted on the football field before the Knights' game with Quinlan. Their 48-12 win over the visiting Panthers made it an enchanted evening. Festivities ended with a homecoming dance.

Participating in the coronation ceremonies were last year's queen, Miss Linda Hoelker who was escorted by co-captains Mike Hundt and David Arendt, and three other contenders for this year's crown, Miss Joanie Zimmerer, escorted by Louis Gieb; Miss Linda Corcoran, escorted by Rudy Zimmerer; and Miss Margie Fuhrmann, escorted by Bobby Zimmerer. The pep squad formed a V on the field as a background.

When Miss Hoelker took off her crown she handed it to Mike Hundt who crowned the new queen, David Arendt presented Queen Janet with a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Arendt is a senior, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arendt Jr.

port or oppose the Johnson program.

What is said here is not intended as a personal reflection on any of the candidates. Carr has served well as a State Senator and as Attorney General. He is more conservative than LBJ and most other members of the party in Washington, especially the other Texas senator. But he's running against the wrong man. He should have waited to challenge Yarborough. He's not offering his state a real service when he runs against a man who has done a good job, the man whose courage and hard work has helped to defeat some very unwise legislation. Tower deserves to stay on the job. Besides Texas and the nation needs a man who can be depended upon to fight for conservatism in government.

The contest for representative is different in that the incumbent is LBJ's man. Purcell has supported the liberal program with only a few exceptions. Norwood, a business man of conservative convictions, is much less inclined to the liberal program. Both are above reproach in personal qualification but their political views are very different. Again the voter's choice is whether he likes or dislikes the trend of the administration.

Suggested reading before election day is a two page article entitled "The Era of Anarchy" by David Lawrence in the November issue of Reader's Digest. It takes only a few minutes, and it merits a few minutes more for re-reading. It's vital. It makes the election more meaningful.
