For many years the Republicans have criticized Democratic administrations for their fiscal irresponsibility in budget making, and now the Democrats are returning the charge. The figures thrown out last week by President Nixon are staggering, and also frightening. The official estimate is that our country will spend $229.2 billion even though another official estimate says that total revenue will fall $11.6 billion short of breaking even.

We have another deficit budget. The indication is that the inflationary trend will continue and the people who will actually make up the deficit are those whose savings will depreciate accordingly. Apparently the modern finance crowd has reached the President's ear. This seems so much like whiz kid theory claiming that national debt is unimportant — just money the country owes itself. And it completely ignores the old fashioned belief that sound business means making ends meet — whether one refers to a person, a business or a nation.

After watching the national debt go up and up almost every year since the thirties, anyone has a right to be skeptical about the budget. Nevertheless he is inclined to wonder whether a good conservative Republican would stray off on a typically liberal Democratic tangent. Somehow it seems that the President really expects a more favorable end result, as if he's betting that a booming economy will bring in more than the budget anticipates.

The indication is that Nixon is really enthusiastic about the country's prospects. He looks for full employment and a record production year, lots of wages and lots of profits, creating the best business ever for the Treasury department. If he guessed right in that regard there will be no regrets when the fiscal year ends.

While it would be most gratifying to see such a development on the revenue side of the operation, it would be even more pleasing to see expenditure figures trimmed. Though the idea is practically unheard of in modern government, we average people refuse to admit that the appropriations must be completely used or exceeded. Rather we believe that an alert and conscientious administration can find hundreds or even thousands of occasions to save some of the appropriated funds.

Someone suggested in relation to our anti-drug effort to stop our give-away to every country that grows dope. Other countries who should get no help are those who deal with our enemies and those who gang-up against us in the UN. The UN too ought to be rationed drastically. It's absurd to think that we should pay 40 per cent of the upkeep of an outfit which is the tool of communism.

More trimming is possible in the welfare program, the biggest headache in the budget. We hear of cases by the dozens in which welfare people collect from several sources and come out with more income than working people. We hear of exorbitant salaries being paid to heads of local poverty programs. We hear of able bodied loafers living it up at taxpayers' expense because weak kneed administrators don't have the gumption to bump them off the gravy train.

Our guess is that alert and conscientious people can find many more ways to cut down on the country's spending. In many cases that can be accomplished by firing the drones who aren't worth their pay. And still better results can be achieved by getting rid of the guys who are most extravagant with our money, goofing it off on worthless projects or just creating jobs for political cronies.

While admitting that President Nixon's budget looks as bad as any for the past three decades, the column regards this one with a spirit of cautious optimism. It's hoping against the record of years past that Nixon's calculations included some reliance on old fashioned virtues like thrift and honesty.

Subiaco Honor Students

Roy Monday Buys Floor Cover Dept. At Hess Furniture

Along with remodeling changes which started last week, Hess Furniture Company has undergone a change of ownership and management. Roy Monday, associated with the store for the past three years, has bought the floor covering department and assumed the duties of owner and operator.

His wife joins him in running the business, which they have named Modern Floors. Its office is in the room at the east end of the store with its entrance facing First Street. The room will be converted into a show room after remodeling is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hess continue as owners and operators of the rest of the store.

The Mondays plan to offer a large selection of vinyl floor covers and carpets and to do their own installing. Along with his experience at Hess Furniture, Roy has had special training in installation schools and meetings. His brother John will assist him in installations.

Mrs. Monday will continue to assist with sales and bookkeeping at Hess Furniture while on duty at Modern Floors.

MHS Basketball Girls Cinch Tie for 12-A Title

In a thrilling, breath taking, contest that required a two minute overtime Muenster High's basketball girls won their big one at Frisco Tuesday night cinching a tie for top honor in the 12-A race.

They took the decision by successfully controlling the ball for a minute and 15 seconds after Doris Felderhoff's field goal and Joan Monday's free shot gave them a one point advantage. Just before that Muenster fans had a big let-down when a last second shot hit true but was judged too late. Had it been allowed Muenster would have won without the overtime.

As expected, MHS girls had their job cut out when they took on second place Frisco on its own court. The first period ended 17-15 favoring Frisco. Ending the next two Muenster led 27-25 and 37-36. At one time in the third they were 8 ahead but slipped slightly after Laurie Wimmer fouled out. Regular time ended 46-46. MHS scorers were Doris Felderhoff 29, Joan Monday 13

Group Attends Lecture in Dallas On Speech Defects

Three Sacred Heart teachers and four parents were in Dallas Monday night attending a lecture on children's speech problems by Dr. Sylvia Richardson of Cincinnati. They were guests of the Orton Society, which is devoted to the study and treatment of children with language disability. The program was held in the Hockaday school.

The lecture related to normal children who have classroom troubles because of dyslexia or specific language disability. It was sponsored in keeping of the Orton Society goal of spreading information on speech problems and developing a program to help understand and solve them.

A related program booked at Hockaday next month will present a Dr. Critchley of London, president of the International Neurological Society.

The seven attending from here were Sisters Alberta, Genevieve and Yvonne, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knauf and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rohmer.

Jerry Taylor Is Grad St. Louis U

Jerry Taylor has earned his degree at St. Louis University graduating at mid-term with a Bachelor of Science with a double major, in physics and math.

He telephoned his mother Mrs. Charles Taylor Saturday that he has moved to Memphis, Tenn., and is teaching there in city schools.

Feb. 12 Deadline Set for ASCS Help In Grass Planting

Special Bulletin to Farmers! At the eleventh hour the USDA's stabilization and conservation service advises that its Rural Environmental Assistance Program is available to farmers for planting grass — provided they will sign up by February 12.

According to Eual Davis of the Muenster SCS office, this means that farmers can get about 50 per cent assistance on grass planting programs. But they'll have to hurry to qualify.

He added that applications for building ponds will be accepted all year.

Did He See His Shadow?

Did the groundhog see his shadow? Maybe so at that tongue-twister town in Pennsylvania, but there's a doubt as to whether he saw it at Muenster.

A few people are saying that the sun peeked through the clouds only once and for a very short time Tuesday. If so, an alert groundhog could have managed to see his shadow for a few moments. But it's more likely that the little fellow had better sense than to get out on a dreary day like Tuesday. Whether he did or not, it's likely that winter will hang around a while longer.

Council Awaits Engineer Study to Decide Well Site

Planning into the future is a final step taken by the city before deciding where to locate its new water well. Members of the city council in regular meeting Monday night engaged Rady and Associates, consulting engineers of Fort Worth, to study the potential and project the city's growth for the next twenty years. That opinion is to be presented at the next council meeting as a basis for the city's selection of a site.

Two locations are available. One is beyond the southeast city limit, the other is several blocks inside the southeast city limit. Whichever is chosen, the city intends to start work after the next meeting so that the well will be ready for the summer's peak consumption.

Another major item on the agenda was approval of insurance premiums for the coming year, especially liability insurance to protect the city against possible suits for injuries. Cost of this insurance is about $1600 a year.

The city also approved an ordinance accepting the addition of property owned by Herbert Miller and John Dowd from Cherry Lane east to the present boundary and extending north to FM 373. The addition is in the northwest part of town.

Likewise approved was a city audit for the fiscal year ending September 30. The report is to be published in the near future.

Officers Elected 1970 Report Heard By Library Board

Muenster Public Library board elected directors and officers and heard the annual library report at their recent meeting. Retiring president of the board, Ernest Jaska, presided.

David Bright was elected to succeed him as president, Mrs. Alvin Hartman is the new vice president succeeding Dr. Larry Tisdale, Joe Felderhoff is the new treasurer, succeeding David Bright, and Mrs. Johnny Pagel is the new secretary succeeding Mrs. Kenneth Selby.

Mrs. Gerald Graham and Charles Bayer are new board members. Jaska continues on the board.

Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian, presented a detailed and itemized report of library activity during 1970. The volunteer staff logged 2,406 hours during the past year.

Books checked out totaled 9,916; periodicals, 733; pamphlets, 63, for a grand total of 10,712.

One hundred and twenty-three new members were registered and 19 names were withdrawn, leaving a total of 970, an increase of 104 patrons. The previous year's report showed 866 registered members on file.

The library added 417 new books, received three memory books and 173 other book donations and 13 free books. Total number of volumes on the shelves is 5,000, plus 300 books on loan from the State Library.

With Mrs. Luke on the library staff are Mrs. Lee Toothaker, Mrs. Steve Moser, Mrs. Albert Schilling, Mrs. Tony Gremminger, Miss Elizabeth Herr and Lee Toothaker. Assistants were Mrs. John Broome and Mrs. Clyde Walterscheid. Volunteers helping during the move to the new location in January 1970 were Mrs. Ed Schmitt, Mrs. Al Schmitt and Miss Joyce Schmitt.

Hours volunteered by students during the summer reading program were 379 by Karen Stoffels, Marge Hesse, LeAnn Belcher, Patti Luttmer, Kathy Luke, Barbie Hess and Shirley Becker.

Hours volunteered by the staff were as follows: Mrs. Luke, 602; Mrs. Schilling, 380; Mrs. Toothaker, 371; Miss Herr, 361; Mr. Toothaker, 331; Mrs. Broome, 172; Mrs. Moser, 140; Mrs. Gremminger, 112; Mrs. Walterscheid, 39.

Rattlesnake Hunt Booked by Jaycees February 27, 28

Muenster's first rattlesnake hunt will be held Saturday and Sunday, February 27 and 28 in the Valley Creek area adjoining Red River.

It will be sponsored by Muenster Jaycees who started planning for it at their regular meeting last week. Butch Fisher has taken on the job of chairman.

He said that headquarters for the hunt will be on the Charles Bartush farm, formerly owned and operated by Linzy Branch, and the club expects to get an okay for hunting on several other farms thereabouts.

Prizes will be awarded for the largest rattler, the smallest and for the largest number of snakes caught.

Fisher said it will be a standard rattlesnake hunt, the snakes to be taken alive with regulation snares. He emphasized that guns are regarded as a hazard. They will not be used and will not be allowed.

Refreshments will be available both days at the headquarters location. In case of bad weather the hunt dates will be changed to March 6 and 7.

150 Compete in Boxing Tourney

Muenster's first boxing tournament was a busy event as about 150 contestants from six boxing clubs slugged it out for three nights.

It was held Thursday through Saturday in Sacred Heart gym and in the end sixty nine of the boys walked off with trophies. Combined attendance at the three sessions was about 800.

The tournament was sanctioned by the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Amateur Boxing Association, was sponsored by the Muenster Boys Club, and directed by Tim Hellman. Mike Stoffels coached the local entries. Participating clubs were from Muenster, Ardmore, Comanche, Waurika and two clubs from Wichita Falls.

The boys competed in four classifications: novice, junior special, senior special and open, depending on experience, and each classification was further divided according to weights with a differential of five pounds each.

Muenster entries received 16 of the 69 trophies, five of those being for first place and the others for runner-up. The five winners were Henry Knabe, Billy Phillips, Billy Huchton, Kenny Hess and Dale Felderhoff. Runners-up were Darrell Swirczynski, Jeff Hess, Pat Walterscheid, Roger Haverkamp, Kim Walterscheid, Larry Grewing and David Stoffels — and also four out-of-towners who were listed with the Muenster team: Bill Hardesty and Dean Ingram of Gainesville, Mike and Bill Liddell of Marietta.

Referees and judges who kept the tournament moving were coaches from the participating teams along with Glenn Richardson, George Davis and Virgil Henschel. Other helpers were Willie Walterscheid as announcer and Earl Walterscheid as timekeeper.

Mike Stoffels said he intends to take his boxers to a tournament at Ardmore this weekend and to give them a rest the following weekend.

Funeral Thursday For Mattie Higgins Formerly of Myra

Mrs. Mattie Higgins, long time Myra resident, and in recent years a resident of Gainesville, died Tuesday in Denison Memorial Hospital. She was 85.

Funeral services for her were held at 2 p.m. Thursday in Vernie Keel Funeral Home Chapel and burial followed in Rest Haven Memorial Park.

She was born Sept. 27, 1885, in Pittsburg, and was a familiar figure throughout Cooke County for many years selling insurance. Her husband, A. J. Higgins, who preceded her in death, was an employee of the local Electric Co-op.

Survivors include one son, Andrew J. Higgins of Denison; three daughters, Mmes. Jewell Bell, Emma Burks and Odell Acker, all of Gainesville, nine grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, one brother and one sister.

Contract Awarded On Phone Project

A contract for installation of about 175 miles of telephone lines for Muenster Telephone Corporation was awarded Tuesday subject to approval of the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington.

Alvin Fuhrman, co-owner and manager, revealed that K & B Contractors of Tulsa had been selected for the job on a low bid of $432,908.59. Next low bidder was C & B Pole Line Contractor of Mineral Wells with a bid of $438,797.77. Both bids were for material and labor.

Fuhrman said the contract

City Will Elect Two Aldermen and Mayor on April 3

An election at which a mayor and two aldermen will be named to the city council was announced Monday night in the council's regular meeting. It's to be held in the city hall on April 3 with Clive Gobble as election judge and Lee Toothaker as clerk.

Positions open are those of Mayor and Aldermen No. 3 and 5, which are now held by Mike Sloan, Herber Miller and Gene Hoedebeck respectively. Persons who wish to be candidates in the election are expected to file their candidacy with the city secretary at least thirty days before the election. Names submitted after that date can not appear on the ballot.

SH Girls Nudged By Greenhill in TISC Title Race

Sacred Heart's basketball girls missed an opportunity to sew up their division of the TISC race at Greenhill last Friday night. They lost by a score of 36-31, and came away with a loop record of 4-1.

However they still are not out of the running. The win completed Greenhill's schedule with a 5-1 record, and the Tigerettes have a chance to tie it by beating Fort Worth Christian. If that happens they will probably have a play off with Greenhill for the top honor.

In their tussle at Greenhill the girls were upset 36-31 — after having won 40-28 in a previous game. Sacred Heart did OK in the first two quarters, leading 7-5 and 19-15. However the home team had a strong third for a 29-26 lead and improved the lead by two more points in the fourth. Tigerette scorers were Nancy Fuhrmann 21, Donna Endres 4, Peggy Sicking, Denise Walterscheid and Christy Koesler each 2.

The Tigers' game at Greenhill continued their losing streak by a count of 55-36. The hosts had no problems and gained in every period. Gary Endres had a good night hitting 20 for Sacred Heart. Melvin Luke added 6, Kevin Pels and Bill Bartush each 4 and Jeff Fette 2.

Playing Cistercian here Tuesday night the Tigers barely missed a chance to win. The score was 63-61. After a 17-17 first quarter tie the visitors jumped to a 40-27 half time lead. Sacred Heart gained 7 in the next period and 4 in the fourth, but that wasn't quite enough. Point makers were Kenny Hess 20, Gary Endres 14, Kevin Pels 12, Melvin Luke 8, David Krahl 5, Bill Bartush 2.

A preliminary to that game was a B contest in which Cistercian had little trouble running up its 39-24 win. Top Tiger scorers were Ricky Walterscheid 10 and Mark Hess 5.

Next on schedule for Sacred Heart are A and B boys games at Cistercian Friday and varsity and junior boys games with Dallas Christian here next Tuesday.

Make Dean's List

Two Muenster students at Grayson County College have made the dean's list with an A average. They are Miss Gretchen Koesler, daughter of the Norbert Koeslers and Miss Joyce Sicking, daughter of the Emmet Sicking. Both are graduates of Muenster High and are Nursing majors. They were among 38 making the dean's list out of a group of 235 honor students.

includes 171 route miles of buried cables ranging in sizes from 600 pairs of wire to a single pair and also 4.8 miles of aerial cable. All overhead cable will be located in the city in areas where the buried cable would be difficult or impossible to install. Underground conductor will be used in the rest of the city and all of the rural lines. The buried cable will be a minimum of 24 inches deep in the ground and 6 inches deep in solid rock to reduce the chances of damage by any kind of farm work.

Construction is due to start 90 days after REA approval and to be finished in 120 working days.

By that time Fuhrman expects improvements to be finished in the firm's exchanges, and also to be ready for direct distance dialing. That part of the program includes an exchange at Rosston and extensive modernizing of facilities in the exchanges at Muenster, Myra and Forestburg.

Final Rites for Rev. Cyril Lange at Snyder, Nazareth

Sacred Heart parishioners have learned of the death of a former assistant pastor, Father Cyril Lange, 59, last Tuesday, Jan. 26. He was in declining health for some time and failed to survive surgery at Spohn Hospital in Corpus Christi.

Requiem Mass was celebrated for him at Snyder Thursday, Jan. 28, and burial followed in his hometown, Nazareth, Texas. Concelebrants of the Mass included Bishop Leven, bishop of Amarillo diocese, and Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco Abbey, Ark.

Father Cyril was born in Nazareth on Jan. 31, 1911, made his profession at Subiaco Abbey in Sept. 1930, and was ordained in June 1936.

He was co-assistant with Father John Walbe to pastor Father Herman Laux from March to August 1949, and assisted at Lindsay before being named pastor of St. Mary's Church, Windthorst, where he remained for several years. He was pastor of St. Elizabeth's Church in Snyder at the time of his death.

Surviving are sisters and brothers including two nunsisters of Fort Smith, Ark.

Father Herman Laux, formerly of Lindsay, is presently at Snyder in charge of the parish since the first of the year when Father Cyril entered the hospital.

Mass, Banquet to Mark Scout Week Sunday, Monday

Two events are planned to observe National Boy Scout week in Muenster next week.

Observance begins with attendance at Mass in Sacred Heart Church at 9 a.m. Sunday for Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts in full uniform. Boys are asked to be at church ten minutes before 9 to line up for the entry procession.

Monday night will bring the annual Blue and Gold Banquet for Cub Scouts and their families. The covered dish event is set for 7 o'clock in the VFW Hall.

Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-13, this year marks the 60th anniversary of Scouting.

Auxiliary to VFW Completes Plans For District Meet

Members of Muenster VFW Auxiliary have completed plans for their participation in the District I VFW and Auxiliary Convention which the local organizations will host Feb. 20 and 21. That was the principal discussion at the group's meeting Monday night.

Committees were appointed for registrations, hospitality, other hostess duties and decorations.

In other business conducted by Mrs. Clarence Hudspeth members voted a donation to the Cancer Aid and Research Fund.

After adjournment refreshments hostesses Mrs. Andy Phillips and Mrs. Don Flusche served a buffet meal to 14 members and Mrs. Joe Hoening won the door prize.

The Patient Is Ailing

A grim barometer of what's happened to the cost of medical care in this country is the latest boost in Medicare premiums for nearly twenty million Americans.

Starting next July, elderly persons taking part in the doctor-care section of Medicare will pay premiums of $5.60 a month (matched by the government) instead of the current rate of $5.30.

That's a six per cent increase — which doesn't sound like much compared to the 32 per cent increase in July of 1970.

But the fact is that Medicare premiums have nearly doubled from the $3 level established when the program began five years ago. And there is no reason to think the rates won't rise again in July of 1972.

Meanwhile, in city after city, the cost of a hospital room is climbing to $70, $80, $90 and even $100 a day in some cases.

These are good indications of how desperately we need a new and more efficient health care system in the United States — one that keeps people well and solvent at the same time. — The Fort Worth Press

Farmer Hit Hard

Continued low farm prices, while costs of things farmers buy are rising, have put agricultural producers deeper in the hole. Latest U. S. Department of Agriculture figures show that the parity ratio — the relationship of farm prices to costs of purchases — is the lowest since December, 1933. That was near the bottom of the Depression of the 1930s.

Texas farm prices show what's happening. Last Dec. 15, chickens averaged 10 cents a pound, compared with the 1947-49 average of 25 cents. Cotton was 19.9 cents a pound; the 1947-49 average was 30.5 cents. Hogs sold for $14.80 a hundredweight, compared with $21.80. A dozen eggs brought 41 cents, instead of the 44.2 cents 1947-49 average.

Consumers have been the beneficiaries. Between August and November, the Dallas food price index declined to the lowest level since last February, the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reports. Meats showed an average drop of 5.5 percent, while fruits and vegetables declined 4.9 percent.

These figures clearly show that farmers aren't the culprit for current inflation — in truth they are among its hardest-hit victims. They also point up the need for realistic federal farm programs that enable producers to benefit from free markets. This, the Nixon administration contends, is the goal of the new 3-year farm program. Farmers fervently hope it will succeed, instead of failing as previous federal legislation has. — The Dallas News

Increase Expected In Cooking with Microwave Ovens

Consumers can now bake bread in ten minutes, cook a hamburger in sixty seconds or roast the family dinner in half an hour — if they use a microwave oven, announces Jimmie K. Ullom, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A & M University.

Use of these ovens may alter foods we eat and change the types of cooking vessels used, Miss Ullom says. Since the safety issue concerning microwave ovens has been clarified, their usage is expected to increase. Miss Ullom explains that microwave ovens involve radiation, which is energy emitted in particles or waves. The ovens do not produce X-rays but only microwaves, and so the hazards of radiation poisoning do not exist. The fact that the government supplies astronauts with microwave ovens for cooking in the isolation chamber after moon flights is an implication of their safety.

Airlines have been using microwave ovens for some time on an experimental basis to provide pre-cooked meals in less than a minute, the specialist explains. A growing number of other commercial operations are also using the ovens, making the total of microwave ovens in use in the U.S. close to 100,000.

The microwave method is unlike that of conventional ovens, in which heat slowly penetrates from the outside. No energy in the new ovens is wasted in heating the walls of the unit since heating begins immediately throughout the food.

The microwaves don't penetrate metal, so plastic or paper dishes and pans must be used. This characteristic, of course, could open a whole new field for nonmetal cooking vessels. One disadvantage of the microwave oven is that breads or pies do not form a brown crust. But the oven will cook potato chips light and right with no dark, unwanted color caused by caramelized sugar in the potato.

Military services are experimenting with portable microwave ovens that are easily transported by boat, truck or helicopter. In one hour using only one oven, the field crew can prepare enough food to serve 200 men.

Buy Oysters from Certified Source Says Health Dept.

Harvesting of oysters in the coastal waters of Texas is in full swing, and purchasers of the delicacy should have no qualms about eating them provided the oysters come from certified sources, says the Texas State Department of Health.

Although mercury pollution has caused a small portion of Lavaca Bay to be closed to oyster harvesting, other approved areas are providing the well-liked seafood. Even the oysters in the closed portion or Lavaca Bay appear to be cleansing themselves. Samples of oysters collected from this area are now showing a substantial reduction in mercury densities.

If the reductions should continue at the present rate, there is a possibility that at least a portion of the area now closed can be reopened by next oyster season.

D. J. Johnson, director of Marine Resources of the State Health Department, noted that oysters should be taken only from areas approved by the State Health Department. He advises all processors and harvesters to make certain that their oysters are taken from clean waters. State regulations also specify that all oysters be processed in clean, certified shucking plants.

Consumers can help protect themselves. When purchasing oysters, look for a state certification number on the can, jar or package. If it's there, it means the oysters have been processed in accordance with state laws. If it's not there, you may be dealing with oysters from polluted waters or processed under insanitary conditions, says Johnson.

The reason for concern over "bootleg" oysters is that they may have come from waters of questionable quality, have been opened under insanitary conditions and stored in unclean containers without adequate refrigeration. Contaminated oysters have been known to transmit all the water-borne diseases — including typhoid fever, gastroenteritis and infectious hepatitis.

The Shellfish Sanitation Law of 1965 makes it unlawful for any person to take, sell, offer or hold for sale any shellfish from an area declared by the Commissioner of Health to be polluted.

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What is infinity?

At some time you have probably wondered about space and how it stretches on and on, past stars and galaxies. It must surely come to an end somewhere, you think. Yet if it did, what would lie beyond? When you try to imagine the endlessness of space you can get some feeling of the idea of infinity.

There is a mathematical way of talking about infinity. Suppose that you started listing the whole numbers: 1, 2, 3, and so on. What is the largest number you would finally reach? The answer is that there is no largest number. However large a number you write, you can always add another number to it and get a still larger number. Also, between any two numbers you may choose there is an infinity of other numbers. You can always divide a number, no matter how small it is, into still smaller numbers.

Infinity is not a number. It does not tell you "how much." It tells you that something is endless. Mathematicians have a symbol for infinity. The symbol is ∞.

What is the "lead" in a lead pencil?

The lead in a lead pencil is not lead at all. It is graphite, a soft form of the element carbon. Graphite leaves a black streak on almost everything it touches. To keep the graphite from wearing away too fast, it is mixed with clay.

Why then is a lead pencil called a lead pencil? The answer is that long ago lead was used in pencils. Lead, being soft, makes a gray streak when it is rubbed on paper. Before graphite was discovered, lead was one of the best markers people had.

What is "sterling" silver?

The word "sterling" possibly has been used for high-quality silver ever since the 1200's. At that time merchants in northern Germany were making coins containing a high percentage of silver. The coins made in England contained very little silver. Since both types of coins were common in England, the English began to distinguish the better-quality German coins from their native coins by calling the German coins eastlings, because they came from the east. It is likely that common English speech gradually turned the word "eastling" to "sterling." The standard for English sterling was set in the 1500's by Queen Elizabeth I. It is now accepted all over the world.

Rose Hofbauer is Back from Hawaii

Mrs. Andy Hofbauer is back at home after a Hawaiian holiday that began on December 22 when she flew to Honolulu to visit her brother Alfred Walter. She spent almost six weeks with him. Together they did extensive sight-seeing throughout Oahu including Pearl Harbor, the shipyards and the Ship Arizona. Friends entertained them with luaus and nine course Chinese dinners. Waikiki Beach was always crowded with tourists, Mrs. Hofbauer said.

She returned to the mainland aboard a 747 jet, another interesting experience, was met at Dallas by her daughter and family the Don Glovers Friday. Mrs. Glover and daughters Cathy, Christi and Missy drove her home Saturday. They returned to Dallas Sunday.

Don Cooke Feted On 83rd Birthday

All of the Don C. Cooke family joined at the parents home Sunday to celebrate Mr. Cooke's birthday. He was 83. The couple's son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooke, their daughter and family, the Gene Alexanders, Dana and Nikki and their son and family, the Don M. Cookes and Dedie, Mark and Eric, all of Fort Worth, made four generations present. The Alexanders were accompanied by Betty Ann Henderson.

The visitors had dinner they brought with them waiting when Mr. and Mrs. Cooke returned from morning worship services at First Baptist Church and gathered around a beautifully appointed table for the meal.

A handsome birthday cake was the table centerpiece. It was cut and served with other refreshments in the afternoon. The great-grandchildren sang the happy birthday song and pictures — kodak and movie — were made of the honoree opening his gifts and of the family in other party scenes.

At church services the congregation had recognized Mr. Cooke in prayer and song. The visitors returned home in the late evening.

Rose Ann Sicking Nicky Cunningham Say Vows at Mass

Miss Rose Ann Sicking and Nicky Glynn Cunningham pledged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony during Nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Church Saturday at 5 p.m. Father Leonard Wangler officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Sicking of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cunningham of Whitesboro.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls covering the Empire bodice, and appliques of the lace ornamenting the high neckline, long cuffed sleeves and shirt. The lace and pearl applique motif also adorned the chapel-length train. The dress was designed and made by the bride and her mother. A peau de soie bow held her bouffant elbow-length veil and her flowers were an orchid and stephanotis.

Bride's attendants were a sister Miss Gayle Sicking, maid of honor and Misses Connie and Donna Cunningham and Janet Sicking, sisters of the couple, bridesmaids.

They wore orchid crepe formals, the Empire bodice covered with chiffon which also formed the long cuffed sleeves. Dark orchid velvet ribbon accented the waistline. They had Dior bow headpieces of velvet and carried nosegays of purple gladioli.

Karla Sicking, in an identical costume, was her sister's flower girl. Randy Cunningham of Sherman, cousin of the groom, was ringbearer.

Larry Wallace of Callisburg was best man. Groomsmen were Henry Sicking, brother of the bride, Alan Goldsmith of Callisburg and Jerry Cunningham of Sherman, cousin of the groom. Steven Sicking, bride's brother and J. D. Rumley ushered.

White and purple gladioli adorned the altar, and Sister Yvonne and her choral group from Sacred Heart School provided music. After Mass the bride presented the traditional floral offering on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Wedding reception catered by Rohmer's was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall for 125 guests.

Mrs. Henry Sicking presided at the punch bowl and the bride's aunts, Mmes. Tommy Hesse, Tommy Dankesreiter and Larry Dankesreiter served the wedding cake. Misses Carmen Wimmer, Becky McElreath and Kathy Sicking registered guests.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, not revealing their destination, she was wearing a white pants suit. They will make their home in Whitesboro.

He is a graduate of Callisburg High, attended Cooke County Junior College and is employed in Pilot Point. She is a graduate of Muenster High, attended Cooke County Junior College and had been employed at Jr. Elite Dress Manufacturing Co.

Zippers and Their 11 Girls Featured In Sunday Paper

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Zipper of Dallas who have made headlines before were featured in a story and pictures in Southwest Scene, The Dallas Morning News Sunday Magazine of Jan. 31. The story is titled "Eleven Darling Daughters."

It tells about the parents and life with 11 girls — housing, feeding, schooling, clothing, etc.

Zipper, a building contractor, and his wife Cecilia consider themselves fortunate. The size of the family and the sex doesn't make any difference, as long as you enjoy them, he commented. Eight of the girls still live at home.

Dorothy, 26, lives in Vancouver, Canada, where she is employed; Sandra, 23 is Mrs. Benny Linex of Richardson; Patricia, 21, is studying interior design at Texas Tech.

Judy, 18, is employed since graduation from Bishop Lynch High; with Tracy, 5, in kindergarten, the Zippers have seven attending St. Pius X School: Connie, 13, Cindy, 12, Shirley, 11, Peggy, 10, Debbie, 8, and Donna, 7.

To help with expenses Mrs. Zipper works part time with her husband in the office of Zipper Construction Co. She is able to work outside the home because the girls do their share of household duties. Not one of the Zipper girls would admit she would like to have a brother.

Mr. Zipper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zipper, former Muenster residents, now of Pilot Point. He serves as district deputy of KC District XVII which covers Dallas, Richardson and Farmers Branch.

The story concludes: Of course, as 11 daughters grow up a man can expect to have a few boys around the house to keep him company. And already, with grandchildren, there is evidence of a changing trend. Sandra's first child, born last summer, is a boy.

Tips from The Hatchery

Beautiful lawns do not come by easy or cheap. They are the result of intelligent care. They must be fed each fall and spring for best results. Now is the time to apply Weed & Feed fertilizer to get the weed and crab grass seed before they germinate. Ortho makes one especially for St. Augustine grass, another lawn food with bug killer. Now is a good time to get trees and shrubs pruned. Don't prune roses till freeze free date. Come see us or call. Clive.

Report Shows 1970 Progress in SCS Watershed Work

"The year of 1970 has been a good year in so far as watershed progress is concerned," says J. H. Bayer, Chairman of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors. "Our annual progress report shows 131 completed flood water retarding structures, 37 Critical Areas treated, and six miles of channel improvement work completed," Bayer adds.

There are ten active watersheds in the District with a total of 213 planned flood-water retarding structures, 100 Critical Areas to be treated and stabilized, and 53 miles of channel improvement work to be carried out.

The Elm Creek Watershed which runs across Cooke County is one of the oldest watershed programs in the District with about 85% of the planned work completed and functioning. The Choctaw Watershed in Grayson County is one of the newer programs and is only about 10% complete with the planned program. The Farmers Creek Watershed in Montague County is all planned and waiting for funds to start construction.

Other watersheds in the Upper Elm-Red S&WCD are Big Sandy, Denton, and Clear Creek in Montague County, and Little Elm, Sister Grove, Pilot Grove, and East Fork above Lavin in Grayson County. "In time when the individual watersheds are completed we will have one of the best flood prevention programs in operation in the state," concluded Bayer.

Bayer expressed appreciation to the many landowners and others who have given of their time, resources, and talents to develop and secure the land rights for this construction work to proceed on schedule. To date almost 99% of the landrights easements have been donated to the District by the individual landowners. There will be a need for approximately 1300 individual landrights easements to complete these ten watershed programs.

Bayer expressed appreciation to the three County Commissioners Courts, the Watershed Associations and the Watershed Authorities and their assistance in securing landright easements and for assistance in maintenance of the structures after they are built and on the land. Good cooperation from the landowners, the local sponsoring organizations, and the agricultural agencies assisting the District can help in keeping those works of improvement functioning and doing their job for many years to come.

Leaflet Available On Mulches from Local SCS Office

Garden mulches and how to use them is the subject of a new leaflet available from the USDA Soil Conservation Service.

Eual Davis, SCS district conservationist at Muenster, said the leaflet "Mulches For Your Garden" has the best and most concise explanation he has ever seen. of how to use mulches and compost in a garden.

"The leaflet explains how mulches cushion falling raindrops which reduces soil loss and soil compaction," Davis said. "Mulches keep soil cool in the summer, conserving moisture; they also furnish food for earthworms which are valuable for aerating the soil. Organic matter added by mulches helps keep soil crumbly and easy to work."

Davis said some mulches are more valuable if composted before using. The new publication shows how to build a simple compost bin out of wire or boards and is complete with drawings and pictures.

The leaflet lists the number of cupful of various kinds of fertilizer, wood ashes, or epsom salts to add to a bushel of compost to speed decomposition and to increase the compost's plant nutrient value. Details are also given on how to make compost for use with azaleas and rhododendrons.

"Proper handling of mulches is one of the most important but least understood soil and water conservation measures used in Texas," Davis said. "All good conservation farmers leave the stalks and stems from their crops on the land to reduce erosion and conserve moisture. Few conservation measures do more to reduce pollution from blowing dust or from sediment."

The district conservationist said gardeners could use the same principles in flower and vegetable gardens by utilizing mulches from grass clippings, tree leaves, straw, stems and stalks from harvested vegetables, and other material.

Well, What Do You Know?
fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What do you know about Trooping the Colour?

England's rulers have two birthdays—their own plus an official one. The official birthday is celebrated sometime in early June, not at a fixed date. The fine weather at that time allows for one of Britain's finest military spectacles, called Trooping the Colour. Band music fills the air while the Queen, on horseback, dressed in scarlet, reviews the uniformed troops as they present their flags. Crowds of people line the streets to cheer their ruler.

Do you know what a free port is?

Many nations have ports where ships from other countries can unload goods for trade, storage, processing, or transfer to another ship. Merchants who send their goods to the port of a foreign country usually pay a tariff, or tax, on their goods as soon as they are unloaded. However, some countries have free ports and others, like the United States, have foreign-trade zones. A free port may be an entire port city where merchants may unload their goods without paying a tax. In most instances it is a section of a port. As long as the goods remain in the free-port area, or foreign-trade zone, they cannot be taxed.

What is "raptures of the deep"?

"Raptures of the deep" is an illness related to caisson disease, or "the bends." It attacks people who breathe air under pressure, and it is a great danger to skin divers who go deep underwater, where the pressure is great.

One fifth of the air we breathe is oxygen. Most of the rest is nitrogen, which is normally exhaled. High pressure, however, forces some nitrogen to be dissolved in the bloodstream. When nitrogen affects the nervous system, it makes the diver very silly, as if he were drunk. He may play with the fishes, take chances, or even forget to come up again. Many have drowned because of "raptures of the deep."

Anarchists are shooting at policemen. The public — you, and you, and you, should remember that when any such animal attacks a policeman that animal as attacking your safety, your liberty, your freedom, your loved ones, and you! That policeman is on your side. The vermin which would shoot at an officer, and that would call him 'pig', is endangering one of your truest friends — and is as much your enemy as he is an enemy of the law. Treat him accordingly. If the officer isn't upheld and supported, there is no law.

First Shipment of Stamps Leaves
 More Are Needed

The first shipment of valuable stamps, amounting to three and one half pounds, left Sacred Heart School on January 20. Four and one half pounds of "Poor Jakes" were retained hopefully to be joined by other tens of pounds until 25 or more pounds have been collected and the stamps can be sent more economically by truck.

The stamps were sent to Mission Stamp Center, Geneva, Illinois. A NEWS LETTER was received at Sacred Heart a few days ago announcing that 850 schools have entered the contest. The NEWS LETTER gave the points of 76 of these schools. They rated from 3619 to 10 points. The schools representing these scores are: Knoxville, Catholic High, Knoxville, Tenn, and St. Mary, Millersville, Ohio. How the points are determined is not stated. Sacred Heart School like the many hundreds of other schools did not appear on this list simply because they had not yet shipped any stamps. The top ten are shown framed on the list. "From now on Sacred Heart must be among them, but we need a lot more stamps," says Sister Theresina.

"We wish to thank all the wonderful friends, old and new who are helping us to win. We are sure you understand that we cannot thank nor list individual donors," she added. "Those who have large quantities of stamps simply send the envelopes. You can send these through anybody to Sacred Heart School or to Mrs. John Felderhoff, 214 N. Hickory, Muenster.

"When you send stamps you do the following:

1. Help the poor and needy of the world.
2. Help Sacred Heart School win one of the 51 prizes.
3. Help the Seniors of Sacred Heart in their paper drive.
4. Help prevent air pollution, because the envelopes are not burned, but are sold to a paper mill.
5. Help save valuable forests. Seventeen trees are saved by one ton of paper.
6. Encourage young people who try to help mankind."

Sister Theresina continues, "Won't you please help us win, friends far and near. We need an immense amount of stamps to win. Sacred Heart has won in several stamp contests but never in such a grand one offering such valuable prizes.

"Have you any duck stamps? These are extremely valuable. They rank tops — as do also the Vatican stamps."

"Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski are helping Mrs. John Felderhoff in cutting stamps. Mrs. Alfons Koessler offered her services also — but more stamps are needed. The eighth grade students under the leadership of their teacher, Sister Georgia, also cut and help sort stamps. Sister Georgia is interested in winning a nice prize for Sacred Heart School. Freshmen students too are offering their services for cutting stamps. All that is lacking is ... stamps to be cut out."

A University of Wisconsin student, who was making a study of juvenile delinquency, telephoned 12 homes about 9 p.m. to ask parents if they knew where their children were. Five of the calls were answered by children who had no idea where their parents were.
