MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JUNE 8, 1973

NUMBER 29

The high cost of meat and the related recent meat boycott may be blessings in disguise, according to a statement by Dr. Antonio Gotto, professor at the Baylor College of Medicine. Because of those troubles, he said, thousands of consumers learned that attractive, well-balanced and inexpensive meals can be prepared using meat substitutes.

And the increased use of those substitutes — fish, poultry, eggs and cheese — may mean more than just a lower food bill. For many people it also means a healthier diet by reducing consumption of saturated or animal fats.

Population studies he said, have revealed a correlation between intake of animal fats and incidence of death from arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) and coronary heart disease. Beef, pork and lamb tend to be higher in the saturated fats than poultry and fish.

Dr. Gotto pointed out that arteriosclerosis is a progressive disease starting early and developing over a number of years as fatty substances, primarily cholesterol, build up within the walls of the arteries. Research has shown that diet affects cholesterol level, hence arteriosclerosis can be reduced by limiting intake of the saturated fats. Also suggested to reduce cholesterol build-up are cooking with vegetable oils and reduce consumption of dairy products, which are high in saturated fat.

The relationship between diet and heart disease is still being studied, so positive recommendations are still premature. However, American Heart Association favors reduction in the consumption of the saturated fats. That advice has more appeal nowadays, with meat prices up where they are.

Likewise the energy crisis may turn out in the long run to be a blessing for the country. The fuels have been so plentiful before that we were encouraged to use them lavishly, but necessity now tells us to do things that common sense should have prompted long ago.

Government, the principal offender in our predicament, is learning the hard way that too much control has a tendency to foul up the economy. Holding down prices on gas and oil, when other commodities were going up, had the inevitable effect of discouraging production and exploration. Marginal wells that might have helped the cause were abandoned as unprofitable, and at the same time exploration was curtailed because the prospective return did not justify the risk.

Still another boner was the delay in approving the Alaska pipeline over the absurd objections of ecology cranks. Suddenly we discovered that those mistakes occurring together brought on the present shortage. And it's gratifying to think that we'll have a more sensible and more secure outlook after the official boners are corrected.

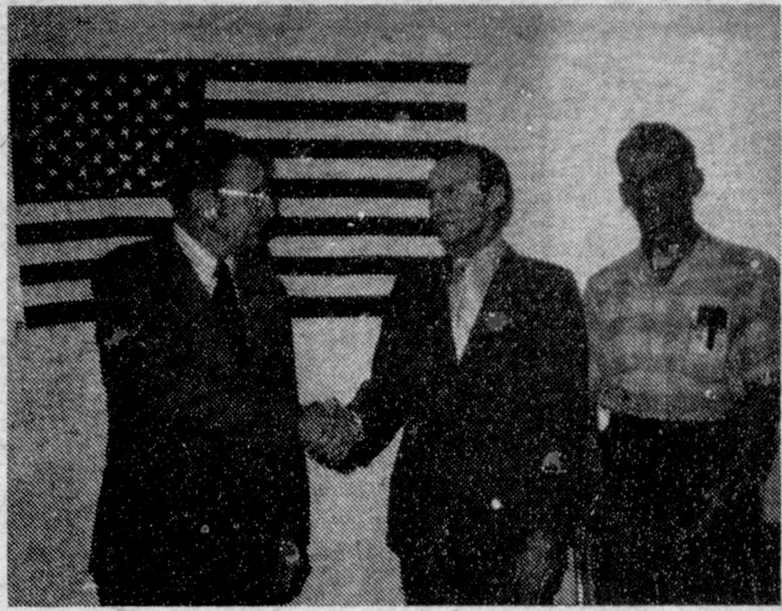

One aspect especially about the fuel shortage is frightening. A very substantial portion of our supply comes from the Middle East, from the Arabs who have received military and other aid from Russia for several years. Obviously the shipments would have ended abruptly if the Soviets had demanded it.

This puts us in the position of being dependent on a sworn enemy who has often stated his intention to take us over in the process of dominating the world. One is inclined to wonder whether the oil would have kept coming if the Soviets had not been even more critically short in their supply of grain.

At any rate it's depressing to think that Russia is in a position to blackmail our country — and even more so in case of a war. Imagine our oil needs for the military suddenly rocketed by war. That taken away from our supply would practically paralyze our traffic, industry and agriculture.

As we envision that terrifying possibility we remember how wastefully we have been using fuel these several years. We burned it lavishly roaring down the roads at high speeds in cars that were built for performance regardless of how much gasoline they burned. Even now we have the

New Law Allows Right Turn on Red Traffic Signal

A welcome improvement in driving regulations now applies in Texas as a result of a law recently passed in the state legislature. It permits a right turn at a red traffic light following a stop.

The Muenster city council discussed the law at its meeting Monday night, pointing out that, according to the law the right turn is allowed unless a sign at the light specifies "No right turn on red light."

For drivers in Muenster that means right turn on red is allowed at both of the local signal lights — because the council will not erect the sign prohibiting it.

The council emphasized that the stop before the turn definitely should not be overlooked. Purpose of that regulation is to avoid interfering with cross traffic, which has the right of way on the green light.

Council Approves Purchase of Car For City Officer

Principal activity at a short city council meeting Monday night was the introduction of the newly appointed city policeman, James L. McDonald to the council members and discussing specifications for the police car he will use.

The council also approved the purchase of a new automobile from one of the three local car dealers. City Manager Steve Mosier was instructed to list the specifications ordered by the council and submit it to the local dealers along with a request for bids, which are to be considered at the next meeting.

Until the new police car arrives McDonald will continue using his personal car and receiving compensation on a mileage basis.

The council also approved purchase of a flashing light for the top of the car and a siren. Those items are expected soon and will be used on McDonald's car until the police car arrives.

There are times when a clear conscience is nothing more than a poor memory.

State FB to Open New Building at Waco on June 13

WACO — Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz will be in Waco on June 13 to help the Texas Farm Bureau celebrate the opening of its new $2.7 million building here, according to an announcement by TFB President J. T. (Red) Woodson.

Butz will speak at a barbecue dinner that evening climaxing dedication day activities.

Other notables who will participate earlier that day in dedication ceremonies include Congressman W. R. (Bob) Poage of Waco, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee; Governor Dolph Briscoe; and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White.

Governor Briscoe has signed a proclamation designating the week of June 10-16 as "Farm Bureau Week" in Texas. Several major events are to take place during the week which will be highlighted by the dedication services and barbecue dinner June 13.

The dedication ceremony will get under way at 1:30 that day in front of the new building at 7420 Fish Pond Road. Governor Briscoe will deliver the dedication address, and he will be introduced by Commissioner White. Congressman Poage will welcome the assemblage to Central Texas.

The ceremony will also include the planting of a symbolic pecan tree, using soil from counties all over Texas, and the burial of a time capsule containing historic items.

Open house for Farm Bureau members and the general public to tour the building will be from 2:15 until 6 p.m. The barbecue dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Waco Convention Center.

Several thousand Farm Bureau members and guests from throughout Texas are expected to be on hand for the dedication ceremony and dinner.

Other highlights of the week will include a conference of county Farm Bureau presidents on the afternoon of June 12 and morning of June 13, a banquet for Farm Bureau agents on the evening of June 12, and a meeting of Safe-mark servicing agents (Safe-mark is the brand name for tires and batteries distributed by Farm Bureau) on Thursday, June 14.

Beware of Bogus Automobile Titles

The Texas Highway Department today warned car dealers, banks, finance companies and the public to be aware of stolen negotiable automobile titles that probably will be used on stolen or converted vehicles.

One hundred thirty-four "original" blank negotiable titles with inventory numbers 16461082 through 16461215 printed on the back, were taken May 21 in an armed robbery from the Motor Vehicle Division district office in Houston.

In addition, 24 "duplicate original" blank non-negotiable titles with inventory numbers 6192990 through 6193013 printed on the front were taken in the same robbery.

Anyone spotting one of these titles should notify the local police and the Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department immediately.

Garden Club Has Workshop on Flower Arranging

Forty two flower gardeners, twenty four from out of town, met Wednesday in Cooke County Electric Co-op Building for a day-long workshop taught by Mrs. Ross Ferrier of Fort Worth, nationally known show judge, teacher and flower arranger.

Mrs. Ferrier demonstrated and explained principles of design during the morning session and in the afternoon directed practice arranging by her audience and offered hints for improvement.

Mrs. Sarah Garrett of Gainesville, who accompanied the guest speaker, also assisted in the afternoon. When a drawing was held for the door prize, a crescent arrangement by Mrs. Ferrier, Mrs. Aulton Powers of Gainesville was the winner.

A short business meeting for members of the Muenster Garden Club followed the workshop. Mrs. John Mosman, newly elected president, presided. Mrs. Steve Mosier reported on the annual Memorial Day Cemetery Fund collection last Sunday amounting to $466.61. She reminds that persons out of town Sunday or those who forgot their donation that day may hand or mail it to Mrs. Steve Mosier, cemetery chairman or Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman, Garden Club treasurer or leave it at the Muenster Bank.

Mrs. Harold Flusche reported on a new club project, plans for a mini-park and playground for small children and Miss Sylvia Hofbauer led a discussion on the annual pilgrimage, tentatively set for June 30. Those interested are asked to call Miss Hofbauer.

Final plans for the flower show on Saturday, June 23 are nearing completion. It will be held at the KC Hall from 2 to 5. Entries will be accepted starting at 8 a.m. with judging from 10:30 to 12:00.

Muenster Firemen Win Two Contests

Muenster Fire Department teams won first and second places in equipment handling contests held last Sunday in connection with the West Texas Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association convention held at Archer City. They were first in water polo and second in a 2-man hose hook-up. Competitors were teams from eight member towns.

Also, Muenster was voted as the host city for next convention, to be held in the spring of 1974. And the Muenster delegation won a pair of the attendance prizes — a $5 bill to Dink Hudspeth and a Pepsi six-pack to Ricky Stewart.

The meeting featured an address by Maybell Conger, an instructor of the University of Oklahoma. Her subject was "Happiness and what it means to us."

The business session concerned the annual firemen's school held at Wichita Falls in April under sponsorship of A&M University, which also conducts a week-long statewide firemen's school in the summer. Another school was booked for Wichita Falls next April. Classes there are conducted at night so that the volunteer firemen can attend after their regular jobs.

The Archer City meeting was attended by 240 persons. Representatives of Muenster were Herbert Knabe, Ricky Stewart, Dink Hudspeth, Henry Knabe, Robert Vogel and a guest, Emmet Walterscheid.

Eddie Fleitman Re-elected Head Of Muenster KCs

Muenster Knights of Columbus in their regular meeting Wednesday night re-elected Eddie Fleitman to his second term as grand knight of the council.

Also re-elected to continue in office were Dan Hamric, deputy grand knight; Paul Caplinger, advocate; Dolphy Joe Hellman, recorder; Joe Horn, treasurer; and Joe Hoening, warden.

Newly elected officers are Rudy Koesler, chancellor, succeeding Werner Becker Jr.; Ben Fleitman Jr., inside guard, succeeding Ricky Stewart; Tim Endres, outside guard, succeeding Leon Knaut; and Al Walter, trustee, succeeding Joe Sicking. Other trustees, whose terms have not expired, are Marty Klement and Dan Luke.

In other business the council voted to sponsor the girls softball program again this summer and heard a brief report by Grand Knight Eddie Fleitman on the recent state convention, which he and the past grand knight, Dan Luke, attended as delegates. The complete report was posted on the council's bulletin board.

Before the meeting the council had a wake service honoring the memory of Father Edward Devers, who died lately. It also heard a request from David Bright, hospital administrator that the council secure pledges of forty donors for the bloodmobile visit here on July 12.

District 23 Poll Strongly Supports Death Penalty

People of Legislative District No. 23, which is represented at Austin by Gainesville's Bill Sullivan, are strongly in favor of reinstating the death penalty and of retaining the state right to work law.

These opinions and several others were revealed this week in Sullivan's report on replies to a questionnaire mailed to every tenth person on the voter registration list in the district. He said that about 20 per cent responded.

Of those responding, 91 per cent want to reinstate the death penalty and 89 per cent want to retain the state's right to work law. 73 per cent favor an increase in the state minimum wage, and only 35 per cent want an increase in maximum unemployment benefits.

Also, a big majority of 92 per cent want competitive rates in auto insurance; 72 per cent favor garnishment of a person's salary to collect delinquent payments for child support; 59 per cent want to continue Sunday closing laws; and only 39 per cent want to reduce first time penalties for possession of marijuana. A bare majority of 51 per cent want to continue daylight saving time and the same percentage wants to grant adult status to 18 year olds.

Good Grain Harvest Delayed by Weather

It's the eleventh hour but all is still well on the local harvest scene. That is, it's high time to get the combines going and a bumper grain crop is still in sight; provided, of course, that the weather will cooperate.

According to scattered opinion, the yield, except where wiped out by a hailstorm, is the best this community has had for many years. Furthermore it has not been harmed by a week of wet weather. On

J. E. Schmidtkofer Killed in Crash

James E. Schmidtkofer, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidtkofer, Gainesville, was fatally injured in a crash of his motorcycle with a pickup truck at 8 a.m. Thursday. The accident happened at the intersection of Highway 82 and the Walnut Bend road.

Further details were not available at press time and funeral arrangements had not been made.

He was a grandson of Joe Mages of Muenster.

36 Boys Report For Vacation Track Program

Response was fine in the younger groups but disappointing in the older groups at last Friday night's sign-up for a local summer track club. Coach Glenn Richardson said that 36 boys reported, two of them being in the open class and three in the senior high group and seven in the junior high group. The others are 13 or under.

The boys are scheduled for workouts each Tuesday and Thursday at 7 p.m. and track meets on most if not all of the weekends. Their first meet will be in Gainesville Saturday, with about ten clubs expected to participate. Meets on other Saturdays will be hosted by a number of other clubs in North Texas.

A problem to be resolved, Richardson said, is transportation to and from the meets. Four or five volunteers with cars will be needed to help the coach carry the boys.

The purpose of the program is to provide summer recreation for the boys as well as to give training and experience for future track competition. A bonus benefit for many is keeping physically fit for football in the fall.

The participants are as follows. Open group, for those past high school eligibility: John Schneider and Mark Lippe. Senior group, for age 16 through high school eligibility: Davy Krahl, Tom Bright and Louis Koelzer.

Intermediates, ages 14 and 15: Randy Sawyer, Billy Krahl, Kirk Johnson, Mark Sicking, Dale Stapling, Danny Endres and Kim Hole.

Junior group, ages 12 and 13: Dwayne Knabe, David Felderhoff, Nick and Neal Walterscheid, Pat Walterscheid, Roy Britain, Mike Richardson, Carl Pagel, Matt Jaska Calvin Otto and Bert Walterscheid.

Midget group, ages 10 and 11: Curtis Pagel, Robert Weinzapfel, Mark Richardson, Chris Jaska, Bobby Hamric and Kevin Klement.

Bantam group, age 9 and under: David Jaska, James Bright, Monte Wimmer, Jimmy Biffle and Tim Schneider.

JCs Start Work On July 8 Picnic

With a full month to go Muenster Jaycees have started work on an Independence Day picnic to be held in the city park Sunday, July 8.

Roger Taylor, president, says it's going to be something different in that other community organizations are invited to participate by putting up their own concessions. So, it will be a multiple benefit affair, each organization to apply its earnings to its own projects.

Interested organizations may contact Harold Flusche or John Pagel.

the contrary, it has matured perfectly. It's in prime condition for cutting. However it is not in condition to withstand more rain or wind. Stalks are fragile, needing quiet dry weather while waiting for the combines.

An added problem regarding oats is loss of grain by shattering. Wind or rain, or the combine, could shake off many of the grains. Some farmers tried to avoid that trouble by windrowing at an earlier stage of maturity. However the grain has been down for a week and continued rain would make it difficult to pick up off the ground. Some other farmers did their oats harvest with a hay baler. Weather was in their favor and their yields were exceptionally good.

Almost a week of rain brought the total for June to 3.10 inches, which already exceeds the average for the full month. Added to the total of 5.27 for May it has the area thoroughly saturated. While creating a touchy situation for grain harvesting, that is ideal for growing vegetation such as corn, sorghum, alfalfa and pasture.

The rainy spell started on June 1 for a reading of .72 the next morning. And readings for the next four mornings, as recorded by Steve Mosier, were 1.60, .40, .18, and .20. The total for the month to date is 3.10 inches and the total for the year stands at 22.04 inches, which already tops the half year total in all but three years of the past decade. Also the total for the first six days of June is considerably ahead of the full month's ten year average.

Twister at Stireng's Friday evening's short rainstorm was accompanied by a tornado when it arrived at the Bill Stireng farm about six miles southwest of town. The twister lifted a 3-sided metal shed and placed it gently on a barn, causing very little damage to the barn.

Apparently that was the only place the storm touched down in the area. Neither the tornado nor damage was reported by anyone else. Possibly the same storm was a tornado reported as sighted near Saint Jo that evening.

Flag Day

Flag Day, June 14, is a time for us to fly "The Stars and Stripes" and prove that the spirit of liberty under representative government is still alive and that the sacrifices millions have made over the years were not in vain. Most Americans don't realize how good they have it. Few know the hopelessness of real, grinding poverty — even our poor live more comfortably than those of most other nations. Americans have never lived through the hell of air raids and bombings in their own country which gut entire cities and tear families asunder. True, we have our problems, but thanks to the strength of the American system we, the people, can tackle them head-on and decide our own fate through our representative form of government. The good things in life may all be traced back to this one basic foundation stone, the American system.

So if you feel something tug at your heart at the sight of "The Stars and Stripes" fluttering majestically in the crisp morning breeze, don't apologize. It is that kind of love of country and its freedoms that will one day turn this world into the peaceful home for mankind that it was meant to be.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
 There seems to be an ever increasing discussion about the proposed lake area north and west of Muenster. Those that are in favor of this project have many reasons why it should be constructed, and that it should be started as soon as possible.

I don't think most people have given it much thought one way or another. I do believe the majority in favor of it have in mind recreation rather than needed water to supply the city of Muenster.

I understand the Federal Government would finance it to a certain point as flood control. Some people have the mistaken idea that if the Federal Government is providing the money for a project, it will not affect them financially. This is one reason an ever increasing percentage of our income is taken by taxes. But still, the city would be burdened with a very heavy debt by taxation. I believe the majority would agree that more tax levied on their property for an unpredictable length of time would be unwise, as the cost to produce lake water is much more expensive than the system we now have.

Something else to consider is the quality of water. Surface water is hardly comparable to well water in many ways, the most noticeable, its taste. We have all noticed the difference when spending some time in cities that use surface water.

It seems to be a natural reaction to find fault with the present system when a different arrangement is suggested or contemplated instead of improving the one in use. It is very possible that in the future Muenster will need a larger water supply. Should the need ever arise, perhaps wells could be drilled at points away from the city. This would maintain an adequate high quality water system without burdening the city with higher taxes.

Another thing to consider is the large amount of land being taken out of production at ever increasing rates by highways, expanding cities, and in many other ways. And in this case lakes cover the most productive land. At any rate, let's be sure that there is no other way before going any further with plans for a lake.

Al Schmitt

Dear Sir:

Referring to the letter to the Editor dated June 1, 1973: I cannot blame the person who wrote this letter for not signing it. If he, or she is the type of person that the letter indicates he would probably be the first one arrested. This could also be a reason for talking against hiring a policeman.

The letter stated that the "Council members" and "Big Wheels" are responsible for not being able to keep a deputy here. Well the big wheels are gone so that leaves only us council members. We have tried for some time to find a solution to this problem and since you obviously have solved it for us I would like to invite you to come to some of our council meetings. With the information that you seem to have there would be no limit to what the council could do.

I have been on the City Council now for approximately five years and have never known of any deputy quitting for the reasons stated in your letter. I do, however, know why most have gone and would like to advise you that you are completely on the wrong trail. If you could only spare a few minutes to check the records at City Hall you might see things a little differently. I am not proud of the fact, but you will find City Councilmembers on record and that their fines have been equal to all others.

I have heard similar remarks to yours made in the past and would like to think only three kinds of people would feel as you do, (1) someone who is completely misinformed and does not bother to try to get the facts for themselves. (2) someone who would rather write something to stir up people than to write the truth, and (3) just a habitual griper.

You stated that in order to "clean up the government you have to first clean up your own home." I ask "Is your house in order." If so, maybe with your help we might get this City straightened out.

I do appreciate hearing your opinion of us even if you did have to stand behind the door. It would have been better, however, if you had based your letter on fact, then you could have signed it.

Sincerely,
 Aubry T. Tuggle

Why Make It Easier?

Congress is now in the process of considering ways to make it easier for everyone to cast their ballot at election time. One proposal includes a plan to register by postcard which would eliminate the problem of having to make a special effort to register as an eligible voter. It is fine to encourage people to vote, up to a point. But, considering the complexities of the issues on local, state and national ballots today, it is more important than ever before that whoever votes also be informed.

Dragooning disinterested and uninformed people, whether they be 18 years of age or 98, into the polling places to mark their ballots simply to get the percentages up is a pretty sure way to have a lot of incompetent candidates elected and unworkable legislation passed. We have enough problems with this already. Maybe we should make it tougher to vote, rather than easier. After all, shaping the policies of government is a serious business.

One civil right we can practice is courtesy to the other person.

If God meant us to have a have given us 10 suggestions permissive society, He would instead of 10 Commandments.

16 Girls Compete For Crowns in FB

Sixteen girls have signed up for competition in this year's Queen contest sponsored by Cooke County Farm Bureau and have had a get-acquainted session in the F.B. building in Gainesville.

Planning committee arranging the program for the contest is headed by Mrs. J. T. Cole, chairman, Mrs. Raymond Davidson and Mrs. Lloyd Young.

Girls in the Princess Division are Brenda Voth, Gloria Hess, Laurie Walterscheid, Karla Schilling, Monica Gehrig, Tammera Hickman, Nancy Cole, Wilma Hoenig and Robin Young. This is the 12-15 year age group.

Trying for the queen's crown are Yvonne Gehrig, Vicky Haverkamp, Janet Sicking, Sharon Rohmer, Carla Schilling, Nancy Hickman and Peggy Schumacher. This is the 16-22 age group.

The contest is held to give recognition to farm and ranch girls, single, daughter or sister of a Farm Bureau member. Each contestant will receive an appropriate gift and county winners advance to district competition. District winners receive an all-expense paid trip to the state convention.

Contest date for Cooke County is still to be announced.

At the get-acquainted party it was pointed out that contestants are judged on appearance, poise and personality and they went through a routine of walking and sitting gracefully and related activity.

Mmes. Young and Cole served refreshments of chips, dips, fancy cookies and nuts from a table carrying out a green and yellow color scheme — Farm Bureau colors. Other adults present were Mmes. George Gehrig and Burney Alman and J. T. Cole and Raymond Davidson.

Hawaii Vacation Filled with Fun For Val Fuhrmanns

Mr. and Mrs. Val Fuhrmann, Nanci and Bruce, returned Sunday from a week's vacation in Hawaii where they were guests of their daughter and sister Margie and her husband Rob, the Buehrigs. It was a fun-filled Hawaiian holiday. Wishing them bon voyage as they departed Love Field May 27 were a son Fred Fuhrmann and Miss Denise Walterscheid joined at the airport by another son and his wife, the Jim Fuhrmanns and daughter Valerie.

On arrival at Honolulu International Airport they were met by the Buehrigs who decked them with leis.

The six made a tour of Oahu Island, driving leisurely, stopping for swimming and a picnic. Windward side of Oahu is quite a contrast to the hustle and bustle of Honolulu, they said. Views are spectacular. These included Diamond Head, Polynesian Cultural Center, sugar cane and pineapple fields, the huge cross on a mountain near Schofield Barracks, this commemorating the attack on Pearl Harbor. Through this pass the Japanese flew to launch their attack.

A few of many highlights included also Iolani Palace, the state capitol, wax museum, zoo, Robert Louis Stephenson's hut, Hula show, Fisherman's Wharf, the Falls of Clyde, an old sailing vessel being restored, Buddhist Temple, Botanical gardens.

They toured the campus of the University of Hawaii where Rob attends classes and the Kapioloni Hospital where Margie is employed as a nurse.

At Pearl Harbor they took a Navy boat cruise to the Arizona Memorial. At the Punch Bowl, following Memorial Day, they noted each grave in the huge cemetery decorated with a lei. They found Robert Weinzapfel's name inscribed on one section of the memorial.

When not traveling and sight-seeing they enjoyed leisure at Waikiki Beach and the young people went surfing. They shopped at King's Alley, International Market, and Ola Moana Center, one of the largest in the world.

They visited Alfred Walter and he accompanied them to dinner at the Japanese Kobe Steak House, and on the Chinese ship, the Oceania. The Buehrigs saw the Muenster quartet off at the airport late Saturday night.

Back at Love Field to welcome them home Sunday were Fred and Denise joined by the Tom Fuhrmanns, Jennifer and Brandi of Euless.

The foundation, composed of TP&L and nine other investor-owned electric utility companies in Texas, is interested in nuclear fusion as a possible source of energy for producing electricity.

Foundation support of fusion research at the university began in 1963. The research is being carried out in the physics and engineering departments. The election of officers was held in Austin.

TP&L Confident Of Avoiding 1973 Power Shortage

Texas Power & Light Company said today it expects to meet all summer electric demands by customers in the company's 51-county service area.

"We have enough plant capability and are reasonably sure of obtaining the necessary amounts of oil, lignite and natural gas to avoid any electric power shortages this summer," Carlos Love, TP&L Vice-President in charge of generation, said.

"Of course, there is always the possibility that our fuel supply could be cut drastically by suppliers," Love added. "But, at this point, we don't think that is very likely."

Currently, TP&L's gas deliveries are being curtailed 25 percent by Lone Star Gas Company and 50 percent by Coastal States Producing Company. Love said that on severally hot days gas deliveries to TP&L could be curtailed to a greater degree. These curtailments, however, are not expected to result in any electric power shortages for TP&L customers, Love explained.

Gas curtailments have forced TP&L to use oil to fuel its power plants, which normally rely on natural gas. Love said that if this summer is unusually hot, he expects TP&L to burn a maximum of 800,000 barrels of oil, an amount which the company now has either on hand or under contract.

In addition to existing oil storage facilities at some of its plants, TP&L is constructing new oil storage tanks with a capacity of 350,000 barrels.

TP&L's oil supplies come from Oklahoma, West Texas, Houston, Corpus Christi, Victoria and Tyler. Fuel oil is about four times more expensive than natural gas.

Current electric capacity at all of TP&L's plants, including the Big Brown lignite-fired plant which is owned jointly by TP&L, Dallas Power & Light Company, and Texas Electric Service Company, is 4,688,384 kilowatts. In 1972, the peak electric demand in the company's service area was 3,352,000 kilowatts. This year, Love anticipates a peak demand of more than 3,770,000. To meet this burgeoning demand for electric power, TP&L is now constructing a 775,000-kilowatt oil/gas fueled generating unit at the Decordova Steam Electric Station near Grandbury.

Additionally, TP&L is participating with DP&L and TESCO in constructing two 575,000-kilowatt generating units at the Monticello Steam Electric Station near Mount Pleasant and two 750,000-kilowatt units at the Martin Lake Steam Electric Station near Tatum. Both plants will use lignite, a form of soft coal.

Last year, TP&L, DP&L and TESCO announced plans to build two 1,150,000-kilowatt nuclear generating units near Glen Rose. The first unit is scheduled for completion in 1980 and the second in 1982.

In an emergency, TP&L can receive supplemental electric power from DP&L, TESCO, Houston Lighting and Power Company and Central Power & Light Company.

Miss Ruth Smith has finished a real estate course at CCJC and is back at home after spending ten days at Valley View in the office of Lynn Vowell with whom she is associated in the real estate business.

Nocona Boot Co. Buys Boot Plant At Moulton, Texas

The Nocona Boot Company, Inc. has purchased the production facilities of the Tex Tan Boot Company in Moulton, Texas. The agreement was reached with the Tandy Corporation, former owners of Tex Tan.

Nocona Vice President and General Manager Mel Chapman said the purchase of the Tex Tan factory is intended to result in increased production for Nocona of up to 300 pairs daily within a relatively short time. Nocona is presently producing approximately 1,100 pairs of boots daily in its Nocona, Texas plant.

Rather than perform all construction functions of the Nocona Boot, the newly acquired facility will handle all finishing processes of certain styles.

Nocona Boot Co. was founded in 1925 by Miss Enid Justin, who continues to serve as president. The company operates a 90,000-square-foot factory in Nocona employing approximately 300 persons.

How to Correct Billing Errors on Credit Accounts

COLLEGE STATION — With so many people using credit today the possibility of billing errors increases greatly.

"When an error occurs, a consumer may have difficulty locating the cause of error and the right person to correct it," says Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Should an error occur, the specialist offered the following steps to correct it.

1. Notify the store immediately, informing them of the error.

2. Obtain the name of the person contacted, making a note of it and date contacted. This information is helpful in case of necessary future contacts.

3. If contact is made in writing, don't send it with the bill — and don't write on the bill itself. Keep a copy of any letters sent for future reference.

4. Send a registered letter to the credit manager or company president if you experience difficulty obtaining adjustments on legitimate complaints.

In the letter, explain complaint in complete detail and give facts in a courteous manner. Also request that the post office furnish the signature of the person receiving the letter.

5. If still unable to settle a complaint, write the local Credit Bureau and Better Business Bureau. Provide details and copies of bills, receipts, cancelled checks or other evidence that prove your point. Also send a carbon copy of this contact to the merchant involved.

"Usually with accurate records and a business-like manner, consumers can correct billing errors," the specialist continued.

"Legitimate businesses are anxious to retain the consumer's good will — and keep him as a customer."

Mrs. Myers also listed several things consumers can do to help prevent billing errors in the first place.

—Use a credit card when charging merchandise.

—Examine sales slips to insure all spaces are correctly filled in and no unnecessary marks included.

—Before signing a bill, make sure the total is correct and in the right place.

—Save duplicate sales slips and check bills against them.

—Know when billing dates are and make or mail payments in time to arrive before deadlines.

—Return the correct portion of a bill with remittance.

—Check bills for errors as soon as they're received.

Mike Richardson has a summer job at Walterscheid Arco Station.

Mrs. Ewald Berend, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Berend and children Roddy and Dana started back to their homes in Hereford and Friona Tuesday after being weekend houseguests of the Johnny Fleitmans and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hess, respectively. They attended the Mages reunion Sunday and visited Lindsay and Gainesville relatives Monday.

Medicare Benefits Now Available to Disabled Widows

Widows who have been getting survivors payments from social security but who have been severely disabled for the last 2 years may be eligible for Medicare starting July 1. . . . "but they must file a disability claim," according to Gus Jones, social security district manager in Sherman.
 Medicare has been available only to people 65 and over. Starting in July, the government health care insurance will be extended automatically to all disabled people under 65 if they've received monthly social security disability payments for 2 years or more.
 But some severely disabled widows 50 and over have never applied for disability payment, Jones said. Generally they've been getting social security survivors benefits because they're 60 or over or they've been getting benefits as widowed mothers who have young or disabled children in their care.
 To get Medicare, these widows must file a claim for disability payments, Jones said. As soon as possible, they should call, write, or visit any social security office. If a widow is unable to make the contact, a friend or relative may help. If necessary, arrangements can be made for a social security representative to visit her.
 The Sherman social security office is at 810 N. Travis. The phone number is 893-4301.
 A representative may be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the Federal Building.

Big Crowd Lauds Charlotte's Pupils In Dance Recital
 A full house applauded young dancers in their annual recital staged by their instructor Miss Charlotte Wolf Saturday night in Gainesville High School auditorium.
 Themed "All the World's a Stage," the show was carried out in tradition, fantasy, dancing dolls, Europe and the old world, the Middle East, the Orient, small world, love and peace, mad, marvelous, mod world, with an exciting grand finale.
 Muenster students in the recital were Jenny Hellman, Jo Ell Hellman, Amber Grewing, and Jeanne Pagel who received perfect attendance awards, and Dolle Pagel, Peni Hess, Charla Bayer, Renee Wimmer, and Dea Swirczynski.
 Other dancers participating were from Gainesville, Sanger, Valley View, and Saint Jo.
 Highlighting scenery was a large foil globe of the world encircled by lights which was designed by Mr. Elie Bou Kheir. The revue was carried out in authentic costumes and dances.
 A special award was presented to Miss Jeannie Timmis on having completed her sixteenth year of dancing and she also was presented a going away present from the students.
 Miss Wolf and her mother Mrs. Lou Wolf received gifts from the students after the presentation of awards.

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — The T. W. Smiths — Wesley and Gladys — of New Braunfels and "part-time" residents of the Burg breezed in May 30 for a few weeks stay at their lovely place here. Mrs. Smith and this writer are childhood friends, growing up in New Braunfels and attending school there. Smith, a retired U. S. Air Force man, at one time lived in the Denver Community west of Forestburg.

Mr. and Mrs. K. J. (Wassie) Reynolds and children Mary Jo and Wesley returned May 30 from a few days vacation trip to San Antonio and the Texas Coast. In the Alamo City they visited Mrs. Reynolds' brother Leon Knabe and family at Kelly Air Force Base and Larry Eldeide who is in basic training at Lackland AFB.

The Gerald Laniers are another vacationing family. They left Friday, May 24, and returned home Thursday, May 31. They took in the horse races at Raton, N. M., visited Pike's Peak and the Royal Gorge in Colorado, then onto the Four Corners Area, from there to White Sands, N. M., El Paso and Juarez. They came home by way of the Big Bend Country. Upon asking Oleta if their three boys went along she replied, "They fought and screamed nearly all the way. Gerald told them they better enjoy the trip as it was the last one he was taking them on."

Another one of our fulltime ranchers has succumbed to the lure of a regular pay-check. Ross Littell, Stoney Point, has gone to work as a hand for the county, Precinct 1. Wife Lucille has taken over the ranch operation.

Forestburg's 1973 seniors returned home late Friday, June 1, from their trip to Florida and New Orleans. Mrs. Barney Brogdon who accompanied them told me she had a better time than the seniors. Haven't checked with Lester W. Boyd Jr. yet. However these trips must be old-hat to him as he goes on senior trips every year. Seems they always head for Florida and New Orleans.

The Dewey Homecoming Sunday, June 3, was almost rained out. However 63 people were there to enjoy a wonderful dinner, visiting and swapping old time stories and tales. We are certain many more folks would have come had the weather not been so bad the early part of the morning. Do hope next year the weather won't interfere so make plans to meet at Dewey the first Sunday in June 1974.

Bette Reynolds made it back home to Dewey on May 30. She had been visiting her mother and other relatives in California. Seems husband Bennett cut her visit a little short since he went to work at the local shoe factory. He said he needed Bette home to take over the management of their "hide-away" and tend to their livestock — three dogs and three cats.

The Howard Sockwells took to the air Friday, June 1, for Fresno, Calif., to visit their daughter Mrs. Frank Schitoskey and family. Knowing Howard, they will be back home by the time you read this. Howard is one man that isn't happy unless he is at home and working.

Sunday evening the Ray Jacksons, the Dill family, Sheree Iund and Beth White attended baccalaureate services at Decatur High School, and Tuesday evening the Jacksons, Dills, Sheree, Beth, Mrs. W. R. Terrell and son, Mrs. Don McCandless and son, and the John McCandless family attended Decatur commencement exercises. Afterward there was a party in the home of the Billy Ray Jacksons honoring their son Elvin Ray, one of the graduates.

The Ray (Ted) Jacksons were mighty busy folks the weekend of May 26. There was a birthday party in their home Saturday honoring Mrs. Jackson and her sister Mrs. L. C. Griffin of Arlington. Enjoying the get-together with the honorees were their husbands and the Jack Woods and children of San Antonio, the Joel Campbells and children of Dallas, the John McCandless and Todd and the W. R. Terrells and Jim, of Matador, Mrs. John Brogdon and daughter of Pampa and the Jack C. Dill family, Beth White and Mrs. Ada Jackson all of Forestburg and Mr. and Mrs. Home Noe of Forestburg.

Saturday evening, June 2, members of the United Methodist Church honored Miss Becky Brogdon, bride-elect of Larry Scott, with a miscellaneous shower in the church annex. Refreshments were served to many relatives and friends and Becky received a big variety of pretty and useful gifts.

Sunday, May 27, Mrs. J. J. Reynolds, Mrs. Jim Barnett and Mrs. Jack Carter of Dewey took an active part in a singing at Yes-Ter-Year Nursing Home at Saint Jo. We are told there is some type of program every Sunday for the home's residents. Know that most of them enjoy these programs and the contact with other folks. This is all some of them have to look forward to.

Things have been rather peaceful in the Burg except for the weather. Many of us have kept busy watching the dark clouds come and go — some heading for their storm cellars. We have had our share of winds, and rain accompanied by "denner und blitzen."

The age of discretion is when you learn that nothing is as important as you once thought it was.

The lovely stenographer explained the new office machine in this fashion: "It will do the work of three men or one girl."

Judging by the loud hollering along the Potomac, most Congressmen literally believe in Artemus Ward's famous quip: "Let us all be happy and live within our means, even if we have to borrow money to do it with."

— Turlock, Calif., Journal

"Due to circumstances beyond our control..."

Texas Power & Light Company has a long, solid history of providing its customers with reliable electric power at the lowest price consistent with good service. The Company wants electricity to always be one of the biggest bargains in your budget.

However, there are circumstances beyond our control which indicate future electric rate increases are inevitable.

Higher Cost of Fuels The diminishing supply of natural gas and fuel oil has pushed the prices of these generating plant fuels to new highs and is significantly increasing the cost of producing electricity. TP&L's fuel bill was over $40 million last year, 30% higher than in 1971, and it's expected to be even higher in 1973.

Higher Cost of Construction Because of today's energy crisis, new generating plants must be built to operate with other fuels, such as lignite and nuclear materials. These plants are much more costly to build than gas-fueled ones, but to assure you an ample supply of electric power in the future, construction of new facilities is essential—and must be done even though TP&L faces additional rising costs for labor, materials and land.

Higher Cost of Financing The rising cost of money needed to finance new plants and other facilities has been increasing at a staggering rate.

All of these circumstances are beyond our control—and they make producing your electricity much costlier than ever before. However, TP&L will continue to use every practical method and every possible efficiency to keep the price of electricity low and still provide you with dependable electric service in the years ahead.

Dr. Alton Laird Is New Prexy at CCJC

A formal announcement this week by the Board of Trustees of Cooke County Junior College reveals that Dr. Alton Laird of Baytown is the new president of the institution. He succeeds Dr. A. E. Shasteen, who resigned earlier this year.

Dr. Laird, 47, had been on the faculty of Lee Junior College of Baytown since 1950, his most recent position being dean of student personnel services. He attended schools in Baytown, receiving an associate of arts degree from Lee Junior College. He received bachelor, master and doctor degrees from the University of Houston.

Lens-View

The latest reports on fuel shortage show such a scarcity in western Texas that farmers are in trouble getting their grain harvested. It does seem odd that some parts of the state have an unlimited supply while other parts have a shortage.

Getting grain harvested is a must for the farmer and for the country as grain will be in short supply with so much of the world having need for food.

No doubt all of us can curtail our use of gas if it is necessary. We would all be in better health if we walked more and rode less. Then for faster transportation the bicycle would do in a city of our size.

The U. S. Dept. of Commerce gives the increased cost the past year to wholesalers of a number of basic items. Plywood 42%, lumber 34%, waste paper 14%, cotton products 11%, wool products 40%, hides and skins 43%, petroleum products 20%, grains 36%, livestock 38%, manufactured animal feeds 54% and meat - poultry and fish 32%. Most metals, wood items and coal are up 10% to 15%.

With this increased cost to the wholesaler who must pass it on to the retailer who sells it to the consumer - one can easily see why practically everything we buy costs more. There is one bright side when they state the costs are leveling off. Prices of most commodities do not stay stable, they are either working up or down. If they have quit advancing they could soon start a down trend. Again that would only please some people - the buyers. Naturally the seller would like to get the higher price.

City of Muenster Docket

Three fines were paid this week. Two for minors in possession of alcoholic beverage and one for driving unsafe. Total fines collected amounted to $82.50.

Highway Adopts New Paint Scheme

Inside line pavement markings on divided highways will take on a new color soon, the Texas Highway Department has announced.

Soon the inside edge line will be yellow to conform to changes in the Manual of Uniform Traffic Control Devices issued by the U. S. Department of Transportation.

Previously both the inside and outside edge lines were painted white. Painting the inside edgeline yellow will correspond with the solid yellow center line on undivided highways, which denotes a restriction against passing. Thus, the yellow edgeline will serve as a reminder to avoid crossing the median into opposing lanes of traffic.

Target date for changing the markings in Texas and elsewhere in the United States is December 31, 1974.

4-H Club News

Election of officers and a surprise party were highlights of the 4-H county council meeting last Wednesday in the Home Demonstration Building.

Kim Reiter led the group in reciting the motto and pledge and Marlea Thompson, assistant county home demonstration agent, told about summer activities.

Following business a surprise farewell party honored Craig Rosenbaum, assistant county agent, who has been assigned to Dallas County. Punch and cake were served.

Eleven members, three adult leaders and the two assistant agents attended.

Gorillas are not Ferocious

The gorilla has long been described by explorers as a deadly beast, always beating its breast, roaring and killing men who dared to come near. Carl Akeley, in his book, "In Brightest Africa," says these animals are really indifferent to the presence of man, and are sometimes inquisitive enough to come quite close. He says accounts of the ferocity of gorillas have been written from imagination, in order to provide the necessary element of "danger" to explorations.

absurd situation of sacrificing efficient fuel consumption for the sake of performance and sacrificing more efficiency to remove pollution from the exhaust.

As the signs show now, necessity may force us to do what common sense dictated long ago. The high cost of gasoline along with its scarcity could induce government to take the restraints off exploration, production and transportation of oil. It could induce the industry to produce more efficient engines that get more good out of the fuel and do not need the anti pollution devices. Finally it could induce us drivers to cut out the high gas-gobbling, speeds and also to eliminate the unnecessary driving.

If fuel shortage can accomplish those things it is well worth the headaches we're due to have. We'd like to think that necessity will lead us into an era when government, Detroit and the public cooperate in getting the most possible good out of our fuel and extend its availability over many more years.
