VOLUME XXXVII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JANUARY 5, 1973

NUMBER 7

The recent illness and death of Former President Truman brought out the usual assortment of complimentary comment including references to the book "Harry S. Truman", written by his daughter Margaret.

An incident related in the book deserves to be widely known as a fine tribute to his frankness and courage. It concerns a brief meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov ten days after H.S.T. succeeded F.D.R. as president.

"Practically everything Molotov said was pure double-talk," Margaret said. "Not once throughout this labyrinth of evasion did Dad lose his temper. He reiterated that he desired the friendship of the Soviet government, but it could only be on the basis of mutual observation of agreements and not on the basis of a one-way street."

"Huffly Molotov said, 'I have never been talked to like that in my life.' 'Carry out your agreements and you won't get talked to like that,' Dad replied.

Passages like that earned Truman his reputation for laying it on the line. Nobody had to guess where he stood on an issue. Furthermore his position was definitely on the side of American principles and its best interests. There have been a number of times since then when his spirit and spunk might have served us well, especially in confrontations with the UN and with our enemy in Vietnam.

However, we can recall another confrontation of his that is remembered with less gratification. It was with General MacArthur concerning his request to blast the Red Chinese and Koreans across the Yalu River. MacArthur was the inevitable loser, but we imagine Truman has regretted that bit of personal success, which might be regarded as a turning point in world history.

At that time, we recall, Asian Communism was in its infancy. It could have been stopped cold, and Chinese Nationalists could have re-occupied the mainland, and the sad sequence of events that has led to today's predicament might have been prevented. That wasn't to be, however. HST, like so many others, had faith in the UN as a world peace organization. He cooperated with it, not realizing that it was stacked in favor of communism.

We like to think that Truman, had he known the situation, would have backed MacArthur, thereby helping to put world history back on the right track.

A good idea that will surely be ineffective in preventing the world wide rash of air piracy, was suggested lately by the National Rifle Association. It would impose capital punishment for conviction of the heinous crime of air piracy or attempted air piracy of a plane with passengers.

It's an established fact that severe punishment is the best deterrent to crime. Sky jacking would end over night if the criminals were given strong assurance that they are putting their lives on the line. Such a law would be even more effective if accompanied by a world wide policy of sending the criminals back to the country where they committed their crimes.

We have a sorry situation prevailing at this time. Nations which think they are entitled to world respect become accomplices in the air piracy crimes because of political implications. Even the UN, which claims to be dedicated to human welfare, declines to help bring the criminals to justice. And that's another good reason why our government ought to seriously consider getting US out of UN and UN out of US.

There has been talk about America taking on the job alone if other countries refuse to cooperate. If US planes refused to fly to non-cooperating countries and if planes of those countries were not allowed to land here attitudes would change soon.

People of the Sacred Heart Parish responded generously to last week's distress call for the homeless and destitute of Nicaragua's earthquake.

Members of the St. Anne Society received $800 at a collection taken at the church doors following Monday's masses. Mrs. Al Hess, president said that the money was forwarded Tuesday to a Nicaragua relief organization in Dallas and used to buy food at factory prices for air shipment directly to Managua.

MHS Teams Divide Pair of Basketball Games at Sanger

Muenster High basketball teams broke even Tuesday night in their pair of District 14-A games with Sanger High School. The girls won easily, 57-26 and the boys fell short in a late rally, losing 75-67.

That gives the girls a present loop standing of 3-2 and the boys a standing of 1-2.

In the opener MHS gals took an early lead and gained all the way for their eventual one-sided win. Doris Felderhoff accounted for 34 of the points. Becky Fields 12, Debbie Schneider 9 and Joyce Swirczynski 2.

The boys game was different with the host team getting the benefit of more free throws and also doing better on the field goal attempts. The Hornets got only 10 chances at the charity line and made 7. The Indians made 15 of 23. Also the Hornets made only 33 per cent of their field goal tries and Sanger made about 50 per cent.

The result was that the Indians moved ahead to a comfortable 42-26 half time lead. After that the Hornets improved gradually and trimmed the lead to 58-44 in the third quarter, then rallied in the fourth. They reduced Sanger's lead by 6 points, but that was not enough. Sanger won 75-67.

Tommy Otto led Muenster scoring with 21. Robert Johnson made 14, Lyle Klement 11, Mark Lippe 10, Joe Bright 4 and Ronnie Felderhoff 3.

The Muenster High teams have an open date Friday and will be back in action next Tuesday at Nocona.

Cost Sharing in Conservation Jobs Ended by USDA

Cooke County farmers who planned conservation work in cooperation with the Rural Environmental Assistance Program, (REAP), of 1973 were rudely shocked last week by a report that the program was cancelled.

Formerly known as the Agricultural Conservation Program, ACP, the program was intended to help landowners conserve their land and water. Cost of the improvement projects were shared by the government and the landowner on a 50-50 basis.

Local practices affected under the new directive are land improvement work such as pond and waterway construction, terracing, gully work and sodding. Assistance of SCS personnel is still available, but the government no longer shares in the cost.

The Washington announcement stated that all U.S. Department of Agriculture programs were carefully reviewed to determine which could be terminated without seriously affecting rural America. REAP reportedly was stopped to help reduce government spending and also retard the inflation trend.

In accordance with the directive, A. R. Robbins III, director of the county ASCS office, said that there will be no grass sign-up as previously announced, and that no applications can be accepted for cost-share assistance on any conservation program.

A related set back to farmers is a directive to the Farmers Home Administration to stop granting emergency loans for rural improvements.

Al Bezner, 59, Dies Suddenly Jan. 1 Of Heart Attack

Al Bezner of Wichita Falls, formerly of Lindsay, died suddenly on New Year's Day from a heart attack. He was 59.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in St. Peter's Church at Lindsay with Father Damian Wewers officiating at the Mass and graveside rites in St. Peter's Cemetery. Geo. J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Rosary was recited Wednesday night in the Carroll chapel. Bearers were Don Atkins, Claude Erwin, Jimmy Zimmerer, Steve Bezner, Joe Bezner Jr., and Joe Benenate.

Al Bezner was born in Lindsay, June 21, 1913, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bezner Sr. He was employed in Wichita Falls the past eleven years.

Surviving are his wife Maggie, one daughter Mrs. Don Atkins, four grandchildren, his mother, six sisters, Mmes. Ed Corcoran of Baldwin Park, Calif., Leo Cutaja, Bob Young and Frank Benenate, all of Dallas, Isabel Galvan of Irving and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer of Lindsay; and three brothers, Joe Bezner Jr. of Lindsay, Robert of Richardson and Hubert Bezner of Houston.

Oklahoma Youth Critically Injured In Rifle Accident

Keith Terry, 18, of Seminole, Okla., a student of Oklahoma University was critically injured about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning when a .22 rifle accidentally discharged in a pickup in which he was riding.

Up to Thursday morning, no report has been received here on his condition since undergoing surgery the previous afternoon in Arlington Hospital.

Terry, and a brother were holiday guests of their grandparents, the Gil Prathers of Saint Jo. The two youths and their grandfather were in a pickup Wednesday morning and took occasional shots at coyotes out of the vehicle. Terry changed his mind about one shot because the animal was out of range. As he set the rifle butt down on the pickup floor it discharged crashing a bullet into his temple.

He was rushed to Muenster Hospital where he received two hours of emergency treatment before being transferred to a neurosurgeon at Arlington Memorial Hospital. He was accompanied by Dr. Martin Kralicke and Jo Ann Walterscheid, who said later that Terry made the trip and entered the operating room in good condition.

Firemen Answer 34 Calls in 1972

Muenster Volunteer Firemen had a fairly easy job during the past year averaging less than one call to duty for every ten days. They answered 34 calls, twelve inside the city limits and 22 in the rural area.

However two of the fires were total losses. They were at the Adolph Walterscheid home south of town and a hay barn with more than 5000 bales of hay on the Buckner farm north of town. Both fires were far advanced before reported and beyond control when the fire department arrived.

A second house fire was at the Adam Wolf's new home while it was still under construction. It was reported early and damage was slight.

As usual, grass fires were the leading cause of fire alarms. There were 22 of them, seven inside the city and 15 in the rural areas. The worst was at the Campbell ranch four miles east of town. It required help from the Gainesville firemen and raged for about 4 hours before coming under control. Strong wind added to the firemen's work.

Other fires were small causing minor damage to cars, oil field equipment and an electric power line pole. Total time logged by the department was 31 hours.

The Fire Department ended the year with 21 active members, including one new member, Gilbert Boydston. Three members dropped out.

Fire Chief Herbert Knabe represented the Muenster fireman at the annual fire-fighters school held at A&M University during the summer.

Muenster Sweeps Three-Game Series With Saint Jo Hi

Three Muenster basketball teams made a clean sweep of their three games program here last Thursday night with the Saint Jo teams.

As a starter, the Muenster Boys B team trailed through the first two quarters by scores of 10-8 and 18-16 then moved ahead to 25-23 at the third quarter and a 41-32 win. Scorers were Bobby Endres 19, Danny Endres 10, Tim Felderhoff 6, Terry Walterscheid 3, Glenn Henschel 2 and Kenny Koelzer 1.

The next game was a one sided affair in which Muenster gained steadily all the way for their 61-36 win. Doris Felderhoff poured in 47 points, Becky Fields added 6, Debbie Schneider 4, Joyce and Janet Swirczynski each 2.

The Hornets rolled over the Panthers for a third quarter lead of 44-19 then saw their margin trimmed down as MHS reserves took over in the final period. The score was 54-35. Ronnie Felderhoff led the way with 18 points, Tommy Otto made 10, Robert Johnson 8, Mark Lippe, Joe Bright and Tom Hennigan each 6.

Bloodmobile Will Be Here Wednesday

This community's semi-annual deposit in its blood bank is scheduled for next week Wednesday when the bloodmobile from Red Cross blood bank center of Wichita Falls will be set up in the KC Hall basement. Collection hours will be from 3 to 6:15 p.m.

The local blood bank program, co-sponsored by the VFW Post and the KC Council, is a special accommodation to provide free blood for residents of the Muenster Hospital District and patients of the Muenster Hospital. J. W. Fisher is the local chairman and David Bright is custodian. They are making a special appeal for donors this week hoping to compensate for the last two collections when the community failed to reach its quota of 80 units.

The quota is determined by the number of pints used here and by eligible persons away from here in a half year. The sponsors urgently ask for a generous response as a matter of meeting the local requirement and also as a matter of community pride.

Hoping for at least 80 donors, they say that about 100 volunteers will be needed. The reason is that normally 20 per cent cannot be accepted because of their medical history or physical condition at the time. As a precaution for donors as well as prospective users, each volunteer is examined and questioned before blood is accepted.

Recommended ages for blood donors are from 18 through 65. Persons under that age need the permission of a parent or guardian. Over that age they are expected to have a doctor's approval.

The sponsors suggest that donors make appointments as a convenience to themselves as well as the bloodmobile staff. Doing so saves the donors' time in that it enables them to give without delay, and it helps bloodmobile personnel by tending to level slack and rush periods. The appointments can be made by calling the hospital, 759-2271, between 8 and 5 on week days.

The blood bank program offers a valuable service to residents of the hospital district and to hospital patients as well as the hospital itself. Persons who need blood can get it without cost because it is given without charge by local people. The only cost of a transfusion covers the related services of collection, handling, transportation, etc.

Normally the overall cost is about $30 less than for a transfusion from a commercial blood bank. Besides that the hospital saves the cost of a stocking fee, normally about $150 a month.

City Gets $8800 For Sales Tax in Third Quarter, '72

The third quarter of last year, ending on Sept. 30, was a dandy for local business, as indicated by the sales tax check received last week from the state treasurer. The amount was $8800.27, the biggest since the tax was started.

By coincidence, the check received last year at this time is the next high received here, possibly indicating that the third quarter is the big quarter in Muenster business activity. The amount of that check was $8616.62. Other checks of the past year have been $7945.87 for the last quarter of '71, which includes Christmas, $7366.17 for the first quarter of '72 and $8066.92 for the second quarter.

A statement with the treasurer's check explains that the gross amount collected was $9009.92 and the state's 2 per cent collection fee was $180.20. Also $439.83 was retained to cover possible discrepancy, and $410.38, the amount previously retained, was added.

In Romeo and Juliet

Miss Mary Lou Kralicke, freshman at NTSU, Denton, was chosen for the role of Lady Capulet in the college's Shakespearean tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet," to be presented in February. At home to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke and family, Mary Lou has her vacation cut short for rehearsals which begin on Jan. 11. Classes resume on Jan. 15. Mary Lou starred locally in "The Sound of Music" and "My Fair Lady," while a student at Sacred Heart High and won a number of trophies in speech and drama under Brother Thomas Mosler.

Alan Miller on Star Telegram's Class A All-State

For the second consecutive year Alan Miller has been named on the Fort Worth Star Telegram's Class A all state football team. Selected to an end position, he is the only player who was also listed on the 1971 dream team.

Two other players of the 14-A District were named on the team. They are Mike Fenoglio, a guard, and Ricky Copeland, a linebacker, both of Nocona.

Social Security Bite Gets Bigger

Effective this week Social Security is taking a bigger bite out of the taxpayers' earnings. The rate, formerly 5.2 per cent is upped to 5.85 per cent and the ceiling at which the SS tax stops has gone from 9,000 to 10,800. It means that the maximum SS tax for a wage earner has jumped from $468 to $631.80 — and the amount has to be matched by the employer. Together they may pay as much as $1263.60 a year.

Self employed people likewise will have to pay more. The Social Security maximum bite has grown from $675 in 1972 to $960 in 1973.

Weinzapfel Home Judged No. 1 in Christmas Contest

The J. M. Weinzapfel home was rated as Number 1 in the "Keeping Christ in Christmas" contest sponsored by the Muenster KC council during the Christmas season. Judged as Numbers 2 and 3 were the houses of Herbert Miller and Harold Flusche. All had Nativity scenes.

Ernest Jaska, contest chairman, said that the essential theme was religious, relating to the original Christmas, and judging was on the basis of ingenuity, creativity and general appearance. Best display in town, he added, was at Sacred Heart rectory, however it was not considered because it was a parish project rather than private.

Moisture Measure For 1972 Was 25.19

A dandy shower Tuesday night measuring 1.2 inch gave the local moisture a good start for 1973, especially in contrast with last year when the total for the first three months was only 1.18 inch.

According to Steve Mosler's official Weather Bureau records, last Friday's rain measured .34 inch and the total for the year was upped to 25.19, which is about 10 inches below normal for this area.

That ranks 1972 as fourth driest here since the rain record was started in 1946. The driest was 19.06 in 1956, then 21.32 in 1963 and 23.01 in 1952. Four other years on the record failed to reach 30 inches. They were 26.10 in 1954, 26.25 in 1948, 27.82 in 1967 and 28.94 in 1955.

Of the 27 years now recorded, 1956 is the only one with a total below 20. There are seven years in the 20s, 11 years in the 30s, seven in the 40s and one in the 50s. The wettest is 51.80 inches in 1957.

The following table shows the local measure for the past eleven years.

Delusions Persist Despite Evidence

While America's radical chic set continues to chirp away about Communism and capitalism meeting in the middle to form a humane world socialism, the Communists continue to grow less humane. Soviet secret police recently arrested Pyotr I. Yakir for urging Soviet workers to strike. Yakir called for demonstrations demanding better living conditions, similar to the Polish demonstrations of December, 1970.

For some time before his arrest, Yakir was saying that his criticisms were anti-Stalinist, not anti-Soviet. His father, Iona, was arrested during the 1930's on what were later shown to be false charges. Iona Yakir was tried in secret and executed. Pyotr Yakir and his mother were sent to slave labor camps for being members of a "traitorous family." They were not released until after Stalin's death in 1953.

Yakir applauded Khrushchev's anti-Stalinism, but felt that his successors were lapsing into it again. While American media men were praising Soviet liberalism, Yakir and his followers were being persecuted. Many of them were imprisoned or sent to mental institutions. It is difficult to imagine how U.S. news controllers will make this latest Stalinist move fit their "moving toward the center" myth.

Communist China, now using conventional diplomacy, is also supposed to be relaxing its domestic and international revolutionary crusade. Yet the number of Chinese refugees to Hong Kong is increasing.

People are fleeing Red China overland and by swimming the four-mile bay separating it from Hong Kong. Swimmers must survive Communist patrols, sharks and currents. Bodies are found daily in the bay.

If Red China is slackening its revolutionary fervor why do its people leave in such large numbers?

Rum Runners at the U.N.

Christopher H. Phillips, deputy U.S. representative at the United Nations, said that there have been "flagrant cases" of diplomats ordering huge amounts of tax-free liquor.

One diplomat, during a three month period, ordered 2500 bottles of liquor. The U.S. delegation, one of the largest, uses only about 600 bottles for an entire year.

Although there is no concrete evidence, it is suspected that some dishonest diplomats sell the tax-free booze for a profit. A case (12 bottles) of tax-free liquor costs about $22. When taxes are added, the cost jumps to almost $90.

Phillips called for more "self-policing and self-restraint" to reduce abuses by U.N. officials. Alcohol is only one complaint, Phillips continued. Tax-free tobacco privileges are likewise abused: In addition, New York City policemen say that U.N. cars are often parked illegally. On many occasions, they are blocking hydrants.

Merchants also have grievances against the U.N. The delegates are notorious for late payment of bills. One representative has yet to pay a phone bill of several thousand dollars he ran up in a single month. An unnamed country owes a furniture store some $20,000. Another has yet to pay a printing bill due several months ago.

Both the U.S. mission and New York City have counseling services available to aid U.N. members with visas, bill collectors, taxes, and so on, but they are being overwhelmed.

Unpaid bills, illegal parking and misuse of tax-free privileges must be curtailed, Phillips said. The British delegations promptly supported his position, while Soviet and Arab members were noncommittal.

Culture and The Common Man

Surely no one would deny that Washington, D.C., our nation's capital and show place, should have a center for arts and culture. That was the thought behind the magnificent Kennedy Culture Center. The marble structure rivals any in Europe. Patrons of the performing arts attend functions in elegant surroundings.

Almost a decade ago, a privately financed center was proposed. When private donations failed to yield enough money, the government took over. Reaction to the building's $50 million price tag was fairly mild. After all, we had to show off our civilization and make it available to the American public. But if the center continues present operations, hefty infusions of Federal funds will be necessary to prevent bankruptcy. And this was originally a voluntary project.

What have Americans gotten for their money? Well, the average working man can get a chateaubriand dinner for two at $20; a caviar, roast wild boar or silk-covered matchbooks. French hamburgers are also on the menu; American ones are so unfashionable, you know.

Clearly, the Kennedy Culture Center is not designed for the people who paid for it. The center has soaked the taxpayer for huge amounts and given him little in return. With spending policies, the center is soaking him more and giving him even less.

Indians Were Right

When the Indians characterized the government as the Great White Father, there were those who were amused by such pagan symbolism. As it has turned out, the Indians spoke perhaps with an intuitive wisdom. There's very little left in life in these United States that remains untouched by the hand of the federal government.

The usual measure of government activities is federal spending and the public debt. However, these barely scratch the surface. According to U.S. News & World Report, the financial commitments of the federal government over and above direct spending total some $1,336 billion. These things that the government must be obliged to pay for include obligations that are guaranteed or insured by the U.S. government — private debt on home mortgages, urban-renewal and public-housing projects, bank deposits, veterans' lives, etc.

The list of these liabilities grows longer as the image of the Great White Father, as the protector of every man and his possessions, becomes ever more firmly fixed in the minds of the shortsighted white brothers who thought Indians didn't understand.

Strike Aid Costly To U. S. Taxpayers

Governmental aid to strikers, such as welfare benefits and food stamps, is costly for the American taxpayer. Citizens pay higher taxes for the benefits, and higher prices caused from strikes that are prolonged by providing these benefits for strikers, states Dr. Armand J. Thieblot.

Dr. Thieblot, a professor of management at the University of Maryland, co-authored the book "Welfare and Strikers — The Use of Public Funds to Support Strikes."

On a radio program "What's the Issue?", Thieblot said welfare benefits for strikers will total $300 million in 1972.

He did not blame the unions or their members for utilizing these programs during strikes, but said the blame should be placed on state legislatures and administrators handling welfare rules. These rules are so lenient, Dr. Thieblot contended, that 25 per cent of the U.S. population could qualify for food stamps, whether on strike or working.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel had all their children visiting them during the Christmas holidays except their daughter Mary and family, the Bill Birdens, Billy, Andy and Jon of Lewisville and they were New Year Eve visitors enroute home after being in Florida visiting his father.

Dec. 23 guests were Dora and family the H. L. Jacksons of Fort Worth bringing gifts and greetings for parents and grandparents.

On Christmas Eve the Weinzapfels and the Henry Weinzapfel family joined at the David Bright home where Mrs. Bright had arranged a parlor musical in which each child performed on a favorite instrument. These include piano, French horn, trumpet and flute. Each musician announced his or her own numbers. Mrs. Bright had made and distributed clever programs to guests. There also was caroling, refreshments and a gift exchange around a decorated tree. The hosts' son David Jr. was with the group. He is on his first visit home since entering Virginia Military Institute at Lexington in September.

On Dec. 25 Msgr. Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas and Father Joseph Weinzapfel of Grand Prairie came to visit their parents and again the family dinner was at the Bright home. Father Joseph visited his parents until Tuesday night and Msgr. Weinzapfel left Thursday.

On Dec. 27 Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hellman came from Bristow, Okla., to spend the day with her parents. They were accompanied by their son Mike and his wife JoAnn, holiday guests from Schnectady, N. Y. All of the Hellman children had been home for Christmas including Judy and her husband, Coast Guard Lt. Richard Dien who soon will be transferred to Guam. This group also visited the Brights and Henry Weinzapfels.

On New Year's Day Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel took the Bright family and the Henry Weinzapfel family out to dinner.

The couple were married at 7 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church during nuptial Mass celebrated by Father Leonard Wangler who also heard the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Endres of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. James Bezner of Lindsay.

Poinsettias and lighted cedar trees adorned the altar and sanctuary. Singers Miss Patsy Spaeth and Jim Lawson were accompanied by Pat Hennigan Jr., all of Gainesville. The duo sang "Let It Be Me," "Oh, Holy Night," "Peace, Joy and Happiness," "Mother at Your Feet," and "The Wedding Song."

Mass servers were Chris and Dale Schilling and Steve Henschel, cousins of the bride.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of French nylon opalescent having the look of soft light velvet. Venise lace trimmed the empire bodice and cuffs of the long full sleeves. The slim A-line skirt with softly gathered back fullness swept into a court-length train edged with a ruffle of Venise lace.

Margaret Kralicke Kenneth Stormer Say Vows at Mass

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stormer are honeymooning at Montego Bay, Jamaica, following their wedding Saturday in Sacred Heart Church. When they return they will live in Muenster.

Father Placidus Eckart, pastor, celebrated the nuptial Mass and heard the double ring vows at 5 p.m.

The bride is the former Miss Margaret Kralicke, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin M. Kralicke. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, graduating in December with a B. A. degree in Speech Pathology.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Stormer, the groom is a graduate of Muenster High School, attended Colorado State University, and has completed two tours of duty with the Army in Vietnam. He is a rancher.

For her wedding the bride chose a formal gown of ivory satin organza. French cotton and Venise lace trim defined the beaded bodice featuring a high neck line and long tapered sleeves with ruffled cuffs. The demi-bell silhouette swept back into an attached train enhanced with a wide flounce, unfolding to chapel length. Her veil of English illusion fell in tiers from a camelot of pearled lace to chapel length. She wore an ivory cameo encircled with pearls on the lace-trimmed high-neck collar. This jewelry was a gift from the groom. She had a sixpence in her shoe and carried a colonial cluster of dubonnet cymbidium orchids, pink carnations, diamond frosted roses, stephanotis and holly. Her father gave her in marriage.

Wedding Attendants

Miss Mary Lou Kralicke was her sister's maid of honor. Misses Fran Fagan of Pasadena, Texas, Kris Stormer, sister of the groom, Laura Kralicke, sister of the bride, and Renee Cooper of Crowell were bridesmaids.

They wore identical floor-length gowns, the bodices of deep burgundy velvet enhanced with ruffled neckline and long tapered sleeves with ruffled cuffs, and the skirts of burgundy, pink and white taffeta. Their flowers were nosegays of red roses, pink carnations and holly tied with silver bells.

David Stormer attended his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Tom Hartman, groom's cousin, Stephen Kralicke, brother of the bride, from Decatur, Ga., Ray Partridge of Denver, Colo., brother-in-law of the groom, and Steve Ford of Jonesville, La.

Ushering guests were Joe Hartman of Austin and Roy and Don Hartman, cousins of the groom.

Sharon Henscheid was flower girl in a floor-length dress of burgundy velvet with plaid taffeta sash. She carried pink carnations and rosebuds. Brad Biffle was ring bearer.

The altar before which the couple pledged vows was banked with poinsettias and flanked by tall lighted cedars. Red hurricane lamps with fresh holly and red streamers marked the parents' pews. Mothers of the couple had white gardenia and stephanotis corsages.

Wedding music was by Anthony Luke, organist, and soloists Misses Linda Miller, Susan Endres, Carol Yosten, Beverly Walterscheid and Christy Koessler who also played guitars. They sang "If" before the wedding, "Theme from Elvira Madigan" at the entrance, "Love" at the offertory, "Wedding Song" at the communion and "Joy" at the recessional.

Wedding Reception

Following the ceremony, a reception with dinner and a dance was held at the Gainesville Knights of Columbus Hall for 300 guests. Misses Diane and Elizabeth Kralicke, bride's sisters, presided at the bride's book. The table held a portrait of the bride and a large red and pink memory candle. Guests were seated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schneider.

The bride's table held the four-tier wedding cake frosted in red and pink and ornamented with doves and silver bells. It was circled with a wreath of holly and flanked by silver candelabra. On either side were bell-shaped cakes.

The groom's table, decorated with red roses, pink carnations and candles, held a chocolate horseshoe shaped cake. The wedding cake was served by Miss Pat Fagan of Pasadena, Mrs. Ray Wimmer of Hurst, Miss Karen Reagan of Waco and Miss Cindy Jones of Vernon.

Rehearsal Dinner

Parents of the bridegroom were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in the Dutchman Dining Room at Lindsay for 32 guests.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies

Pre-nuptial parties and showers were given in Fort Worth and a kitchen shower was given in Muenster by Mrs. Rufus Henscheid and Mrs. Ed Schneider. On Dec. 29 a brunch was given at River Valley Country Club in Gainesville by Mmes. David Trachta, Urban Endres, Willie Walterscheid, Donald Endres and David Bright for the bride and her attendants and mothers of the couple. The hostess gift was serving pieces of her chosen silver.

Law Proposed for Recovering Vast Volume of Oil

Legislation proposed to increase unitization activities in Texas oilfields would support cooperative projects in Texas oil/gas fields to recover at least a portion of an estimated 98 billion barrels of oil left in the ground under current operations.

James E. Russell, an independent oil operator from Abilene, is chairman of the statewide Texas Conservation Committee for Unitization, and spokesman for the current legislative efforts.

"Texas is headed for economic problems unless steps are taken to expand its oil and gas production," Russell has told several regional gatherings of Texas lawmakers. "Without substantial new reserve additions, we will see a decline in the state's tax base, the state's job base and economy."

"This 98 billion barrels are known to be present. They are not regarded as recoverable without extensive application of methods which repressure the fields or which use injected fluids to squeeze more oil out of the producing formation," he said. "Such secondary recovery projects usually are not feasible unless the reservoir is managed as one unit."

Why is this important to Texas? And who would benefit? Russell says, "Essentially every citizen in the state."

"First of all, with the potential additional recovery of about nine billion barrels, and a state tax of 35 cents per barrel, Texas would receive approximately $3 billion in direct tax revenue."

"Too, it would insure continued high employment, help alleviate the energy shortage and give increased payments to royalty owners," Russell said, "plus continued payments to the Teacher Retirement fund and added support for the various school districts."

Russell cited these present contributions the petroleum industry makes to the Texas economy:

—Direct taxes from petroleum production total $650 million;

—Oil and gas provide 18 per cent of the state's taxes; nearly 60 per cent of all business taxes; 21.8 per cent of state cost of public education; 53.6 per cent of state cost of teacher retirement

"And, 28 oil producing states presently require unitization. Why should the nation's number one petroleum province trail in his 50-year-old method to increase recovery efficiency?" Russell asked.

Only one American farm in one thousand is operated by a "giant" corporation, according to 1969 data released by the Census Bureau.

Noah Webster, who published his first dictionary in 1806, was born in West Hartford, Conn. in a house which is now a National Historical Landmark.

More Generous
SS Regulations
Become Effective

Starting in 1973, people who are working while getting social security benefits can earn more but never lose more than $1 in benefits for each $2 earned, according to Gus Jones, social security district manager in Sherman.

"The more you earn, the higher your total income will be," Jones said. "Under the new social security law, social security payments will be reduced by $1 for every $2 earned over $2100 in a year."

Previously, monthly payments were reduced by $1 in benefits for every $2 earned between $1680 and $2880 in a year — and by $1 for every $1 earned over $2880.

"People 72 and over will continue to get their full social security benefits regardless of earnings," Jones said. Under the new law, people under 72 can earn as much as $2100 in a year and get their full social security benefits. Different rules apply to people getting social security disability benefits if they work.

In addition, starting in 1973, full benefits can be paid for any month in which an employee's wages are not more than $175 — or he didn't perform substantial services in self-employment. Previously, the monthly limit was $140.

"Also, starting in 1973, only your earnings in the months before you reached 72 will be used to figure what benefits are due you for those months," Jones said. "Before, earnings in the entire year you reached 72 were counted in figuring benefits due you for months before you were 72."

If you have any questions, just call, write or visit your Social Security Office. The office in Sherman is located at 810 N. Travis. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Monday through Friday. A representative may also be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 Noon. in the Federal Building.

Extensive Changes
In School Finance
Proposed for State

The State Board of Education passed along to the new 24-member Board a committee report proposing far-reaching alternations in public school finance.

The Board at a special meeting accepted the committee version of a comprehensive foundation school program but delayed formal approval. The largely-new Board takes over January 13.

Board Chairman Ben Howell of El Paso said the report seems to meet requirements of a 1971 federal district court ruling invalidating the present system of financing schools.

Under the committee plan, the new foundation school program would be financed completely from state revenue by 1978-79. The local share of program costs would be gradually reduced from 20 per cent in 1973-74 to zero by 1978-79. A variety of other proposals for altering finance formulas are included in the seven major committee recommendations.

Texas State Teachers Association has come up with its own plan to meet thrust of the federal court decision. The TSTA program would cost $2 billion for the next school year, as compared with $1.4 billion for the plan before the State Board. The latter represents an increase of $201 million over the 1972-73 minimum foundation program cost.

In this computerized age, it is well to remember the superiority of man's brain. According to Professor John Meier of Colorado College, there is little doubt that the human brain is by far "the most perfect computer." He says "It has several billion circuits; it can operate four hours on the energy of a single peanut; it is completely mobile; it occupies less than a cubic foot of space, and — probably best of all — it is produced by unskilled labor.

The Sensuous Termites: What Are They Up To?

"Night and Day, you are the one . . ." (From an old popular retrain)

Termites constitute one of man's most serious insect pest problems, and one reason is their tremendous reproductive rate. Or, you might say, their "love lives."

A single queen termite can — and often does — produce 360 eggs per hour, or 3,152,000 a year.

"This means," says Dr. David Watson, chief entomologist, Velsicol Chemical Corporation, Chicago, "she is constantly surrounded by adoring 'kings', or male reproductive termites who keep her fertilized and productive 24 hours a day, 365 days a year."

The queen emits a fragrant liquid from her pores, the smell of which affects male termites like expensive, sexy perfume. It turns their thoughts immediately to love.

Once fertilized, a queen grows to comparatively enormous size. She weighs up to 100 times as much as a worker or soldier termite, and can grow up to four inches long.

Offspring Do Damage

It's her offspring that are the big problem. "Worker" termites do the most damage to your ceiling beams, floor joists, books and other property with cellulose content. They attack seven out of 10 homes in the south; five of every 10 in the midwest and at least two of every 10 in northernmost states. According to Dr. Watson, termites do more than $800 million worth of damage to houses and other buildings in the U. S. alone each year.

Here's how you can tell whether or not you have termites:

You might see a cloud of insects descending on your home. However, they may not be termites, but flying carpenter ants — a problem in themselves, but not as hard to get rid of.

Examine one to tell the difference. If it has a slim, "Gibson Girl" waist, it's a carpenter ant; if the body is straight, like an A-line dress it's a termite. Also, the two sets of wings on a termite are the same length; the carpenter ant's two sets are different lengths.

Another sure sign of termites are mud tubes leading from the ground and up your foundation wall to the wood parts of your home; or, suspended in the air between the ground and floor joists in the case of a crawl space.

A queen termite is blessed with a steady supply of suitors, all of them successful. She can produce as many as 360 eggs an hour, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to achieve the staggering total of 3,152,000 eggs annually.

A third sign is a huge pile of tiny wings. When swarming termites come to rest, they drop their wings before going to work building a new home.

Need Pest Control Technician
When you suspect you have termites there is only one thing to do: call a reputable, qualified pest control technician at once. It takes special knowledge, skill and equipment to control termites.

The technician will treat the soil around and under your home, setting up a chemical barrier which lasts for years. The termites outside stay out, because they will not cross the barrier. The termites inside die, because they will not cross the barrier to get outside to their water supply in the ground.

Selection Criteria Important
For the homeowner, selection of the right professional help is important. Here are things to watch for in selecting a pest control technician:

He is a member of the National Pest Control Association and/or one of the 28 state or local chapters. He furnishes references from satisfied customers you can contact.

His place of business shows certificates of study programs at Purdue, Amherst or other NPCA study seminar courses, and Gold Crest symbols of industry quality-control programs.

He offers a post-treatment service contract with annual inspection and some form of guarantee: that termite-control application will be renewed if termites are again detected, and insurance covering replacement parts of the house damaged by termites after the original termite control treatment.

A termite's waist is fairly thick, unlike the "Gibson-Girl" shape of an ant's. Its two sets of wings are also the same length, whereas an ant's are irregular.

Bengfort Family Has Yule Reunion

Sister Elise Bengfort of Laredo spent the holidays with her mother Mrs. Joe Bengfort at Lindsay arriving December 21 and returning to her teaching duties on January 2.

An all-family Christmas reunion was held in the Bengfort home on Dec. 25. Another reunion was held on Jan. 1 when 25 family members gathered at the Tony Hess home in Muenster.

Only one missing at the second reunion was Mrs. Bengfort. She entered Muenster Hospital on Dec. 25 and is now much improved. Family members visit her daily.

A seedy bum approached a lady on the street and asked: "Ma'am, would you please give me 15 cents for a sandwich?"

To which the lady replied: "Let me see the sandwich."

The worst boss anyone can have is a bad habit.

You are more efficient when you deliberately forget what is unimportant, according to Hans Selye of the University of Montreal.

Suzanne Huchton Isaac Stevens Jr. Say Wedding Vows

Miss Suzanne Huchton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huchton of Muenster, became the bride of Isaac Stevens Jr. of Lubbock on Tuesday, Dec. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stevens of Spring Creek community.

Father Placidus Eckart celebrated the Nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony. Ceiling-high twin cedars adorned with a multitude of lights and icicles flanked the poinsettia decked altar.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white velvet and satin brocade with lantern sleeves and a tubular train. Lace and seed pearls trimmed the bodice and matching satin brocade Juliet cap and waist-length veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses, stephanotis, gardenias and holly with velvet streamers entwined with a crystal rosary.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Huchton, Lindsay, sister-in-law of the bride, with Misses Patty Felderhoff and Karolyn Schoech as bridesmaids. They wore floor-length empire dresses of velvet with long full belled sleeves lined with matching satin and trimmed with braid. The honor matron was in green and the bridesmaids in red. They wore matching Juliet caps and carried red carnations and holly with velvet streamers and silver bells.

Jerry Ford of Rosston was best man. Groomsmen were Royce Cain of Fort Worth, the groom's brother-in-law, and David Huchton of Lindsay, brother of the bride. Carl and Carrol Enderby, cousins of the groom, were ushers.

Pat Hennigan Jr. was organist and Mike Halliburton of Gainesville sang "Wedding Song," and "We've Only Just Begun," while accompanying himself on the guitar.

At the reception in the KC Hall, Mrs. Ray Reynolds of Bowie registered guests at a table covered with white tulle and satin, caught at the corners with red satin bows. The table held a white anniversary candle with red rosebuds around the base.

The bride's table, covered with white tulle over floor-length folds of lace, held at one end the four-tier white cake topped with two white love birds in a nest of red roses, and at the other end the crystal punch service. Centerpiece was an arrangement of red carnations, white mums and holly in a silver and crystal epergne. White tapers in crystal candelabra completed the setting.

Mrs. Jim Stogdill of Gainesville, bride's cousin, poured punch and Mrs. Royce Cain of Fort Worth and Miss Betty Stevens, the groom's sisters, served the cake.

The groom's table was covered with ivory lace and held a horseshoe shaped chocolate cake, an arrangement of red roses and silver coffee service.

Miss Janel Stoffels of Denton served the groom's cake and Miss Mary Ann Williams of Gainesville, bride's cousin, poured coffee.

Misses Gayle and Patti Williams, cousins of the bride, passed the rice bags.

Mrs. Huchton, mother of the bride, wore a mauve dress with matching sleeveless coat, black accessories and glamelia corsage. The groom's mother wore an off-white dress with a short lace jacket and off-white and brown accessories. She also had a white glamelia corsage.

When the newlyweds left for a week's honeymoon in Corpus Christi and Galveston she was wearing a purple plazzo pantsuit with black accessories.

Both have attended Cooke County Junior College and will continue their education at Texas Tech in Lubbock where he is a junior and she is a sophomore.

Lens-View

I wish it was all over; this remark was often heard prior to the holidays. Now they have their wish so what have they got. A second hand Christmas tree, decorations to take down and store, wrapping paper to burn, and a new tie to wear.

The fun we had New Years Eve, drowning our sorrow over the Cowboys loss to Washington, makes us wonder what would have happened had they won — or were my friends helping celebrate the Oklahoma victory. We were proud of the way Texas took care of Alabama, but the Rose Bowl and Orange Bowl games were rather dull.

The stock market, livestock prices, grains, produce and fibers all closed the year on the high side. Economists predict a good year for 1973 for practically all types of business. With no increase in taxes that should make everyone cheerful. There has been so much said about no tax increase, some even forecast a reduction, we wonder if social security is not considered a tax. Our next pay check will show the increase in this future benefit.
