

Senator Lloyd Bentsen in his column this week comments on the urgency of returning to a responsible spending policy in our national government. He says that we must reduce the federal deficit and get our budget back in balance if we are to hold the line on taxes and stop the spiral of inflation that has been eating away at our pay checks.

In this he does not agree with the congressional liberals of his own party who have been most critical of President Nixon for refusing to spend all of the appropriations provided by Congress. As Nixon sees it, the lawmakers have authorized him to spend specific amounts on specified programs, but he isn't obligated to spend as much as recommended. He has the right to spend less than provided if his judgment inclines that way.

All of which seems to indicate that Nixon and Bentsen at least agree in general. If they can manage to agree on what programs ought to be trimmed, and if they can get enough other lawmakers to agree with them, we can hope for a possible change in our reckless spending habits.

Bentsen points out the principal difficulty in budget trimming. Every cut has its impact on certain segments of our society or the nation at large. It means that Congress has to make hard decisions.

An example is the request for decreased spending for the Federal Aid Highway Act. As chairman for the Senate Subcommittee on Roads, he drafted the measure and is deeply interested in it. Nevertheless he thinks the program can be reduced in order to help the budget, so he asked for less than last year's appropriation. Likewise he thinks that a cut in funds for airport and airways development is justified as a means of relieving the financial strain.

The man's ideas have merit. Big appropriations and crash programs for this country's development really aren't as important as keeping on a sound economic level. The chief concern of practically all citizens nowadays is the high cost of living and the soaring debt. Average people will gladly have public projects delayed if it improves their feeling of security.

This column thinks our president and our senator have the support of lots of people in their economy ideas. The country is fed up with the wild squandering of the past few decades. Common sense says that we can't spend ourselves rich as the financial whiz guys used to tell us. People still believe in the fundamental fact that sound business demands a balanced budget, and that repeated deficits invite disaster.

A problem mentioned by Bentsen is the howl put up by various segments of society when a recommended saving cuts into their favorite projects. Congressmen are no different. Many of them think that their image before their constituents depends on how much federal money they divert into the home district. So, any reduction on the projects they wanted is most unpopular with them.

Doubtless this is true. Human nature is that way. We all dislike getting less than we wanted, particularly less than we were led to expect.

But that doesn't necessarily mean that people refuse to adjust themselves to less. Many of us can recall the spirit prevailing in World War 2, when the big majority eagerly tightened their belts to help see their country through. We are confident that the spirit still exists. Good citizens will help the nation through this economic snarl just as they helped it through a war.

While it's pleasing to observe praiseworthy attitudes in our president and our senator, we see little reason for optimism. So far their efforts are like a voice in the wilderness — unheeded by some and unheard by many more. What the country needs is not just individual economies here and there but a widespread new attitude urging nation wide cooperation in belt tightening. It may require us to change from selfishness to sacrifice but it's the surest way to get back on the right track.

The goal to strive for is people saying I'll do my part in — (Continued on Page 8)

Cash Resigns as Basketball Coach At Muenster High

Charles O. Cash, principal and basketball coach at Muenster High School, announced this week that he has ended his 21 year career as a basketball coach. His resignation became effective with the close of the 1973 season.

Cash, who has just received a three year extension of his contract as principal, says he expects to confine his future efforts to administrative work and let the younger fellows take over the coaching job. The successor, not yet named, is expected to be picked from the present MHS faculty.

In bowing out Cash leaves a remarkably fine record of 729 wins and 292 losses. That gives him an over all standing of .714 in his coaching career.

He coached girls basketball during all of the 21 years running up a record of 471 wins and 145 losses for a final standing of .764. His career in boys basketball was somewhat shorter covering 15 years. During that time he won 258 games and lost 147 for a career percentage of .637.

Also a part of the amazing record is 23 district championships out of a possible 36 plus a regional championship and 2 seconds a third and a fourth in regional tournaments. His girls won 16 district titles, one regional title, and two regional seconds one third and one fourth. His boys were district champs seven times and got one third and one fourth place in regional.

It all started at Mobeetie, Texas where his girls had a 55-5 record, won two district titles and reached regional both years. Meanwhile the boys had a 39-18 record, won district and advanced to regional. After that he coached at Pollett, Texas, and Keyes, Okla., before moving to Callisburg for nine years and now completing six years at Muenster.

Cash compiled his most impressive record as coach of the Callisburg girls. Their record for the nine years was 247-47 along with nine district titles and 6 advancements to regional. During four years with the boys there he had a 79-32 record, won 2 district championships and 2 co-championships.

During the six years at Muenster Cash has a 100-63 record plus 1 district championship in girls basketball, and a 76-63 record in boys basketball.

Teachers To Have In-Service Class

Two more In-Service sessions are on schedule this weekend for the faculty members of Muenster Public School. They will be on duty here from 3 to 5 Friday afternoon and they'll go to Lindsay Saturday for more instructions.

Students will be excused here at 2 p.m. rather than 3:30 to free teachers for the instruction. Superintendent L. B. Bruns noted that it happens to come at the end of the fourth six-weeks period of this school year.

All students of Sacred Heart High went to Fort Worth to see the Movie "Fidler on the Roof." This classic and cultural trip was sponsored by the English department.

Paper Drive Saturday
SHH seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, Feb. 17, beginning at 9 a.m. Persons with paper to give are asked to have it boxed or corded and out at the curb for quick pickup. Persons unable to get their paper out may call 759-2771.

Deadline for filing candidacy is 30 days before the election.

SH Parish Statistics

The annual parish statement for 1972, released Sunday by Sacred Heart Parish lists along with receipts and expenditures the following statistics: there were 46 baptisms, 38 infants and eight converts; 21 Catholic marriages and seven mixed marriages, 17 deaths, 55 first communicants, 66 confirmees, and daily Sunday Mass attendance about 1,775.

One thing about silence — it can't be repeated.

CCJC Accepts Resignations of Shasteen, Scott

Resignations of President A. E. Shasteen and Vice President of Student Affairs Norris Scott were accepted by the board of regents of Cooke County Junior College at its regular meeting Monday night. Both resignations became effective immediately.

In accepting, Board President Paul Campbell stated that he "regrets the circumstances which seem to make the action advisable."

That action developed from alleged irregularities in the classification of certain courses in the vocational-technical and academic departments as discovered recently by State Auditor George McNeil of Austin.

CCJC board members who conferred with McNeil were told that no criminal action was planned by the state, but it is up to the board to determine who is responsible and to resolve the matter. The irregularities will prevent payment of some $103,000 to the college this year but no funds have to be repaid to the state.

Because of their top administrative positions, Shasteen and Scott assumed responsibility for the irregularities. However they did not accept complete blame and Campbell said that investigation of all administrative personnel will continue.

Dr. Shasteen has been with the college for six years, three years as president, and Scott has been there fifteen years. Both were asked to keep themselves available as consultants for the remainder of the school year.

The board has consulted Dr. C. C. Colvert of Austin, an independent consultant on junior college affairs, to assist in finding a presidential replacement. Until then Whit Williams, vice president of instructional affairs, will be acting president.

Scouts Tough Out Chilly Campout

Twenty eight members of the Muenster Boy Scout troop, along with their scoutmaster and assistant, Eual Davis and Wilfred Reiter, toughed out a cold campout Saturday and Sunday on the Bartush Ranch adjoining Red River. Temperatures in the thirties along with a stout wind made for a rugged chill factor.

The boys slept in sleeping bags inside tents, prepared two meals individually and had another prepared by one patrol as a cooking project. Leisure time was spent mostly in building an outdoor altar for a field mass and exploring the area.

Father Leonard Wangler was celebrant for the field mass at 12:15 p.m. Sunday. Families joined the boys then and had picnic lunches after the mass.

Annual Banquet For Cub Scouts Set February 20

Muenster Cub Scouts' annual Blue and Gold Banquet will be held this year on Feb. 20, next Tuesday, in the KC Hall beginning at 7 p.m.

Cubmaster Robert Dale Walterscheid urges all members of the pack to attend and bring their parents and family with them. Cub mothers are reminded to provide fried chicken and other food for the dinner in accordance to the number of family members attending.

Others attending with their wives will include committee men Ted Henschel, Martin Klement and Jerry Walterscheid. Special guests will be Father Leonard Wangler and Scoutmaster and Mrs. Euel Davis.

Jaycees Win Trophy

Three Muenster Jaycees traveled to Eastland Sunday afternoon to attend a Regional 202 visitation and won the out-of-region travel trophy. The trio was Wayne Klement, Allan Reiter and Herbie Fisher. Special guests at the meeting were Fred Kendricks, national director, Bob Cass, national administrative director, and George Hart, past national director. They talked on the fundamentals of a good Jaycee club and importance of gaining membership. Muenster is included in Region 203.

Muenster Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary will host the District One Convention this weekend, Feb. 17 and 18. Final plans for the event were completed Monday night in meetings of the two organizations.

Highlight of the convention will come at noon Sunday when Charles Cannon of Grand Prairie, Department Commander, will be featured speaker.

Activity will get underway Saturday at 2 p.m. with registration until 5 o'clock with a hospitality hour from 4 to 5. A dance will begin at 9 p.m.

Sunday morning registrations will begin at 9 and conclude at 11. Breakfast for the men will be held at Rohmer's Restaurant at 9 and at the same hour the Auxiliary will have a coffee in the Post Home.

Among district officers present will be Melvin Kirby of Sherman, district commander, and Marge Tillman of Denton, district Auxiliary president. Local officers are Charles Knabe, commander, and Dorma Flusche, president.

Junior Hi Teams Win Two Trophies At S&S Tourney

Junior high teams of Muenster Public School returned with a pair of trophies from the basketball tournament at Sadler-Southmayd during the past weekend. Boys got the runner-up prize in the championship losing to Slidell by the slim margin of 29-27. And girls and boys shared the honor in receiving the sportsmanship trophy, for which both teams of the schools were considered.

Muenster's hottest game was the championship in which Coach Richardson's boys trailed 4-2 and 14-8 in the first periods and moved ahead 23-21 ending the third. But they cooled off in the fourth. Slidell tied it at 27 each late in the period and made the winning points with 3 seconds to go. Tim Wolf scored 13. Nick Walterscheid added 6 and Mark Mollenkopf 4.

Starting the tournament the boys had an easy 34-24 win over Colbert, Okla. They led 20-8 at the half and allowed all of the squad to get into the second half. Top scorers were Tim Wolf 18, Mike Richardson 6, Kevin Otto 2.

In the championship semifinal they met Howe's B team and got another easy win. After a 26-6 half time lead they played reserves again and coasted to the 38-25 final count. Mark Mollenkopf led the scoring with 10. Tim Wolf and Kevin Otto got 6 each.

Bill Moore's junior girls had their big game in the opener with Colbert, Okla. It was close all the way, Colbert leading 12-10 at the half and breaking even in the second half for the 29-27 win. Tracy Klement hit 25 points and Thelma Lewis the other 2.

Next one was the consolation semifinal in which Muenster won easily 25-14. Tracy Klement accounted for 11 points and Shirley Monday 6. Then came the championship ending in a one sided 46-24 loss to Callisburg. Tracy Klement made all of Muenster's points.

City to Create Water District

Looking forward to the day when Muenster's underground water will fail to meet requirements, the city council Monday night took its first step toward establishing a surface supply. It prepared an application asking the state legislature to authorize creation of the Muenster Water District.

The district, if organized, will construct the reservoir, with federal help through the Soil Conservation Service, and thereafter will sell water to the city or other possible customers. As pointed out by the city's engineers, financing is less expensive by the water district method.

Regarding the reservoir's size, councilmen are considering costs and specifications along with estimates of the demand in years to come. Accepted as a likely estimate, the city should need about 900,000 gallons daily in the year 2000.

Domino-42 Tourney Booked for Friday

Members of the Muenster PTA, headed by Kenneth Selby as chairman, are all set for a big domino and 42 tournament Friday night in the Muenster High gym.

It will be held in separate divisions for the 42 and domino players, and each will be a single elimination tourney with trophies to the two winners. Each match will be made up of three games.

Interested persons are urged to select their partners and get tickets from Edgar Dyer. Entry fee is $1.00 per person. Refreshments of coffee and cookies will be available.

Funeral Services Held Tuesday for Hugo J. Wilde, 53

Funeral services with Mass were held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville for Hugo John Wilde, 53, of 801 Commerce, formerly of Muenster. Father James Gillespie was celebrant and also conducted graveside rites in Fairview Cemetery. Geo. J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Rosary was recited in the Carroll Chapel Monday at 7 p.m.

Wilde died Sunday at 6:10 p.m. in Gainesville Hospital. He was born in Muenster, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert S. Wilde and was an Army veteran of World War II with overseas service in Iran.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Fox Henderson of Oklahoma City; his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Wilde of Gainesville; one brother Barney Wilde of Dallas, one sister Mrs. Carl Bentley of Duncan, Okla., and two grandsons.

Relatives at the funeral in addition to the above included Mrs. Joe Wilde, Mrs. Herb McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilde, Mrs. Richard Wilde, Sister Mary Beatrice Bergman of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus and Mr. and Mrs. Al Felderhoff. Lutkenhaus and Felderhoff were among pallbearers.

Volley Tournament Sunday in SH Gym

An all day volleyball tournament, sponsored by Sacred Heart High juniors, will be held next Sunday, February 18, in Sacred Heart gym.

Teams wishing to enter are asked to notify Beverly Walterscheid (759-4246) before 6 p.m. Saturday to allow time for drawing up a schedule. After that team captains will be notified of the time of their opening games.

Snacks and refreshments will be available all day at a concession stand.

Two New Teachers

Two names were added to Muenster Public School's faculty list during the past two weeks.

Mrs. Margaret Stormer is teaching speech therapy succeeding Mrs. Carol Haire who resigned and moved to Midland.

Mrs. Virginia Jaska is teaching remedial reading in a federal Title I program started at the school in the second semester.

and a lake of 3500 acre feet should provide that quantity. Its cost should be about $1,266,000, shared almost equally by the district and the Soil Conservation Service.

Participation by SCS is justified as a flood control provision. A specified reservoir size would hold an adequate volume for the city's use, but additional capacity is needed to catch heavy rainfall and release it under control. Still more capacity is needed to provide additional volume for recreation. SCS will help build for both recreation and flood control.

While the request for a district is under consideration in the legislature the city needs to estimate future earnings from water sales, in relation to the financing, and also to file for rights to impound water.

In other action the council heard cost quotations from Truck Equipment Corp., a nation wide system of trash and garbage disposal, on setting up a local service here or selling a special truck with which the city can handle its own disposal. More on that appears elsewhere in the Enterprise.

Also considered was the law enforcement problem. The present arrangement in which the city and the sheriff's department share in hiring one deputy, is unsatisfactory lately on both sides. Too often the deputy is unavailable at one place or the other. Councilmen think that almost $600, which they pay is too much for the service the city gets. They would like to pay more and have a full time lawman on the job.

Representatives of the Muenster Jaycees were at the council meeting to tell that they have $8000 on hand earmarked for a pavilion in the city park. Their report brought on the question of possible federal help on the project. The problem will be referred to the Texoma Regional Planning Commission. Jaycees and councilman have visions of a $25,000 to $30,000 structure with a variety of facilities for shelter, comfort and entertainment.

Charles Bayer, representing the Muenster Library Board told the council that the library's number of books is growing constantly and the present insurance coverage is inadequate.

Champ Petrolia Blasts MHS 106-46

Petrolia High's red hot basketball team demonstrated its championship form here Friday night by closing out the 14-A season with a lop sided 106-46 win over the Hornets.

They looked like strong prospects for the state's Class A title according to Coach Charles Cash. They are that much better than Muenster, he said, and the big margin can't be blamed on a bad night for the Hornets. They played one of their better games but Petrolia's defense was as good as its offense.

Muenster scorers were Robert Johnson 16, Lyle Klement 11, Randy Wolf 7, Mark Lippe 5, Joe Bright 4, Tom Hennigan 2.

The Hornets finished their complete season with a record of 14-11, however they were far down in 14-A standing with only a 3-9 record. Their only wins were two over Callisburg and one over Sanger. Muenster high girls are tied with Frisco for second place in the loop. They have an 8-4 standing, having lost two to Petrolia and one each to Frisco and Nocona.

The opening tussle of that twin bill with Petrolia was more pleasing to Muenster. Coach Cash's B team edged their visitors by a thrilling 50-46 count.

Petrolia took an early lead but Muenster soon got ahead and just barely kept ahead from then until the end. Scores ending the quarters were 12-11, 23-19, 35-32 and 50-46. Danny Endres led MHS scoring with 15, Bobby Endres and Tim Felderhoff hit 9 each, Terry Walterscheid and Kenny Koelzer 6 each, Mark Stoffels and Glenn Henschel 2 each and Tom Mullins 1.

Progress through Electricity

By Gene Davenport
 This is National Electrical Week — a week given to celebrating curiosity and to honoring the men whose curiosities have brought us as far as we have come.
 Thomas A. Edison, whose birthday is February 11th, was one of those men. Edison's curiosity led him to the invention of the electric light, the phonograph, the motion picture camera and over a thousand other things from electric sockets to electric railway trains. Edison had more curiosity than most.
 Strangely however, some people are saying these days that we have come far enough. That from here on in, following our curiosities will only get us into more trouble rather than out of it. That it's time to stop.

 How such notions can be supported in view of the things we haven't found out is difficult to understand. We don't yet know how to stop tooth decay or to arrest communicable diseases. We don't know how to avail ourselves of the untold resources of the sea. We don't know how to use space to relieve the pressures on earth. And if we follow the advice of the "stop here" people, we never will.
 It was man's curiosity and a sense of time and destiny that first separated man from the animals around him. It is his curiosity that will lead him to a fulfillment of that destiny. "It does not yet appear," said St. John in the New Testament, "what we shall be."
 Yet man's curiosity has led us to a shortage of certain fuels, most particularly natural gas and oil. Some experts predict that by the year 2000 we will have used up 90 percent of our natural gas resources, and that within 40 years after that we will have consumed 90 percent of the world's oil supply. The supply of coal, although it will last much longer, is also finite. Thus those who urge us not to waste energy are right — as far as they go.
 The thing is that the phasing out of the fossil fuel epoch is an historic inevitability, therefore, man's curiosity must turn to other options and they appear to be numerous; improved nuclear fusion, solar energy, geothermal energy, even energy from the winds and the tides. The fact is that the world's supply of energy is inexhaustible if we develop the technology to harness it.
 If we use what we've got wisely, and if at the same time we press the search for something beyond, we will have no insurmountable problems. Indeed we can look forward to the day — not too distant — when we can have an unlimited abundance of clean energy to do with whatever we wish.

How to Get More Tax Value

Continuing large federal deficits, particularly during periods of high economic activity, are a major cause of inflation which most of us encounter every day in rising prices. Therefore, it is only logical to attempt to control federal spending by cutting back or eliminating inefficient programs and those that have outlived their usefulness.

An individual citizen has a hard time judging which cuts should be made, but he should be applauding efforts by the Administration and many congressmen and senators to keep federal spending in line with federal revenue. Inevitably some programs he likes will be cut back.

He shouldn't be too upset if one of his favorite "federal aid" projects is reduced because such aid is often a bad bargain anyway. By the time the tax dollar makes a round trip to Washington and back home, it is substantially reduced by bureaucratic handling. We'd get a lot more for our tax money if we decided what governmental services we wanted locally and paid for them. And, of course, if we control inflation, such public spending, as well as our personal and business spending, would bring us better value for our dollars.

Squirrels Too Are Class Conscious

Squirrels, like men, struggle for dominance among their associates.
 In a recent field study, small groups of squirrels were confined in pens for long periods. "Conspicuous in each pen," said wildlife biologist Bill Wright, "was the rigorous peck-order relationship maintained by each group."
 "Extreme contesting for leadership followed initial penning but once this hierarchy became established, it was the way of life in the pen. The dominant squirrel and his favored associates rigidly controlled use of food, perches and nest boxes."
 "In some pens, individual squirrels were so completely rejected that they apparently died from the resulting frustrations. Autophagy of these revealed severe emaciation from lack of food and organ malfunction."

 Wright pointed out that this social relationship would be a factor in controlling out-in-the-wild squirrel population levels irrespective of habitat conditions.

While the peck-order process seems extremely cruel, it is nature's way of selecting the best mentally and physically equipped individuals to survive.

Poorly equipped individuals are eliminated to prevent their genes from weakening the population.

As If We Were In Edison's Will

Reprinted from PGE Service Lines
 Each year during February, the electric industry observes "National Electrical Week" to commemorate the birth of Thomas Alva Edison, who, from his alert mind and artful hands, contributed so many inventions and developments that within his 84 years, he completely changed men's lives the world over. City and countryside glow with his lights; voices and music sound everywhere through his start with the phonograph; the keen minds of science and engineering probe forward in the great organized research laboratories which are direct descendants of Edison's "invention factory" at Menlo Park. The employment opportunities and the worldwide wealth Edison created are beyond calculation.

As one admirer put it: "Every citizen is as much a beneficiary of Edison as if he had been mentioned in his will."

The symbol of the success of the "Father of Electricity" is the incandescent lamp which Edison developed in 1879 — 94 years ago. Today, we command electric power at the flick of a switch. And its low cost attests the truth that Edison foretold. At the time of the first public demonstration of the new light, he said: "After the electric light goes into general use, none but the extravagant will burn tallow candles."

The dim lamp Edison lighted marked the dawn of the electrical era. The small dynamos that were the marvels of their time have evolved into gigantic generators. As a result of the tiny glow from the first incandescent light bulb, with a carbonized thread for a filament, millions of new jobs, entire new industries and great advances in science and technology have been brought into being by magic of electricity for the benefit of mankind.

This February 11-17, the electric industry, as should everyone, salutes Edison — a great genius . . . a man who banished the night with light and added years to the productive and social lives of nearly every human being.

You don't stop to think about your electric service when you turn on a light or plug in the coffee pot. We work hard to keep it that way.

That's why our line crews spend a large part of their time checking our power lines and transformers to keep them in tip-top condition and at your service.

Of course, when emergencies do occur, our crews are out on the double making the necessary repairs to restore your electricity as quickly as possible.

But, day to day, you've come to depend on electricity, without having to give it a second thought. And that's just fine with us.

We like being taken for granted!

Sunday guests of Mrs. Joe Luke were cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Michels of Munday. In the afternoon the three visited other relatives, the Arnold Friskes at Gainesville and the Martin Friskes at Lindsay.

Zimmerers Report On Earthquake in Tecoman, Mexico

The Fritz Zimmerer family of Tecoman, Colima, Mexico, has written his mother Mrs. Katie Wilder of Muenster and his sister, Sister Benedict Zimmerer of Lindsay, about their terrifying experience of the Jan. 30 earthquake. Letters arrived last Wednesday. The relatives had earlier gotten through by phone to learn the family was OK. They have many friends in this area.

The letter details on the quake which happened about 3 p.m. and was a full fledged earthquake, 7.5 on the Richter scale.

As the Zimmerers felt the first tremor they grouped under a doorway in their home seconds before the quake hit. It is described as a freight train thundering through... everything moved... there was noise of a dozen artillery pieces going off at the same time... and the movement... the noise and violent shaking lasted about a minute. When it was over the house was still standing but had cracks in it. Together the Zimmerers ran outside. All the neighbors did the same.

Reviewing some of the ruins — a three-story reinforced concrete furniture store collapsed completely. The priest who baptized the Zimmerer children, Father Chavez, was killed instantly while eating at a restaurant on Real Beach when hit by a falling concrete beam. A lady in the restaurant also was killed by the beam.

Brick walls fell right and left all over Tecoman. Nearly all the deaths were caused by falling fence walls or house walls. Fortunately no walls fell at the Zimmerer house.

The earth did not open up except for a small crack on a dirt road near the Zimmerer farm, several miles from their home. Streets in Tecoman remained intact, water service continued. There was no electricity for 45 hours and long distance telephone service was interrupted. Schools were closed. The Sisters' school where three of the four Zimmerer children go was ruined. Stores suffered heavy damage as most shelved merchandise tumbled to the floor. Tecoman's Annual Agricultural Fair closed.

Most serious damage to the Zimmerer farm was the main irrigation canal which left them without irrigation water for about ten days while repairs were made.

Some people lost everything and truckloads of food and blankets arrived the next day. This aid came from the federal government.

There are times when a clear conscience is nothing more than a poor memory

According to the US Dept. of Agriculture, catfish has more protein, fewer calories and less fat than most meats.

Joanie Pels and Ronnie Huneycutt Say Vows at Mass

Miss Joanie Pels became the bride of Ronnie Huneycutt Saturday at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Bede Mitchel celebrating the Nuptial Mass and performing the double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Ed Pels and the late Mr. Pels, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huneycutt of Gainesville. The bride's brother Jerry Pels of Houston presented her for marriage. She wore a formal gown of white French nylon opalescent with the look of velvet and with accents of Venise lace. The high-rise bodice had a wedding band neckline and bishop sleeves. The belled skirt and attached chapel train were circled with a self ruffle. A lace cap held her finger-tip veil and her flowers were a cascade of pink sweetheart roses, white carnations and fuji mums and English ivy.

Adding wedding sentiment she carried a crystal rosary borrowed from her sister Mrs. Harvey Lamkin and had a penny from the year of her birth in her shoe.

Bride's attendants were Mrs. Danny Eberhart of Lindsay, a sister, matron of honor and Mrs. Bob Pels and Miss Beverly Pels, sister-in-law and sister, maids of honor.

They wore gowns of pink floral design with high waists, ruffled collars and long sleeves ruffled at the wrists. A deep ruffle edged the hemline of the gowns which were topped with pink boleros. They carried bouquets of star flowers, statice and baby's breath.

Groom's attendants were his brothers. Jimmy Huneycutt of Lubbock was best man. Randy and Kevin Huneycutt of Gainesville were groomsmen.

Anthony Luke was organist and Mrs. Clarence Zimmerer of Lindsay was vocal soloist. She sang "A Time for Us" and "Whither Thou Goest" before Mass, "O Perfect Love" at the offertory, "Peace, Joy and Happiness" at the communion and "Mother at Your Feet" after Mass when the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's Shrine where the bride placed the traditional floral offering on the altar.

Wedding reception and dinner were held in the VFW Hall where Misses Darlene and Denise Walterscheid registered guests.

After their wedding trip the couple will live in Gainesville. He is employed at Kerns Furniture there and is a junior at NTSU in Denton. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High and both are graduates of Cook County Junior College.

For traveling the bride wore a red and white pantsuit with black accessories.

Parents of the groom were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at Rohrer's Restaurant for about 20 guests.

Alvin Fuhrman of MT Corp. Is Named New TTA Director

Alvin M. Fuhrman, co-owner and president of Muenster Telephone Corp. is one of two new directors named to the Texas Telephone Association Board. A story and his picture appeared in the recent issue of Texas-Oklahoma Telephone Topics, official publication of the association.

Fuhrman who has spent most of his adult life in the telephone business was born in Lindsay, attended school there, and was graduated from Sacred Heart High School, then worked for Cooke County Electric Cooperative.

In 1949 a heavy ice storm laid Muenster Telephone Company's outside plant on the ground and its only repairman walked off the job. That's when Alvin's telephone career began.

Several weeks later another ice storm laid siege to the community, and that's when Alvin's telephone career almost ended. But he stuck it out and helped get the service going again before he received his call to military duty.

The TOTT story continues: Entering the U.S. Army, he served with the Second Armored Division in Germany for 18 months before being released in 1952.

Returning to Muenster, he rejoined the telephone company as local manager. During this period the company acquired the Forestburg exchange and bought the Myra exchange.

In May 1961 Muenster Telephone Corporation was organized and purchased Muenster Telephone Company making Alvin a co-owner of the new organization. Within two years, Muenster, Myra and Forestburg exchanges were all cut over to dial, and the corporation built its own modern office and head quarters building in Muenster with assistance of an REA loan.

In January 1968 Mr. Fuhrman became one of the state's first small-company owners of a CATV system, organizing it as Muenster Cable TV and produced the city's first live TV program on Local Channel 2. He still originates a live local program every Monday from his offices.

During the past year, Muenster Telephone updated its three exchanges to complete 1-party service, provided DDD and added a new exchange at Rosston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuhrman are both active in their business as well as in numerous activities of the community. He has been a member of the Men's Choir at Sacred Heart Church for 27 years, is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Knights of Columbus, German Day Council of Dallas, director of Golden Triangle Independent Telephone Pioneer Club, and has been a member of the Texas-Oklahoma Telephone Convention Committee for three years.

He was elected to the TTA Board to serve an unexpired three-year term and is now a member of TTA's 21-member Board which represents all segments of the Texas Telephone Industry. TTA membership includes 93 of the state's 102 telephone companies.

Fuhrman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman of Muenster. His wife Gracie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friske of Lindsay, former Muenster residents. They have two sons, Kent and Gene.

TP&L HAS AMPLE POWER FOR THE 1970'S

BUT WE WANT TO HELP YOU SAVE MONEY ELECTRICALLY

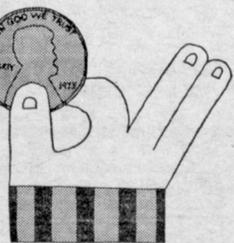

TP&L wants electricity to stay one of the biggest bargains in your budget. The Company has compiled these hints to help you keep your electric bills as low as possible while you enjoy all the comfort and convenience of electric living.

ELECTRIC CENTRAL HEATING AND COOLING SYSTEM

1. Have system checked annually by a qualified serviceman.
2. Replace or clean filters frequently.
3. Set thermostat at the lowest comfortable temperature during the winter and at the highest comfortable temperature during the summer.
4. Open outside doors as little as possible. Keep doors and windows properly weather-stripped.
5. Close all draperies and blinds at night and those in rooms where sunlight is not really necessary during the daytime.
6. Keep damper of fireplace closed when not in use.
7. Keep outdoor portion of the cooling system clear of plants, vines and other obstructions to the flow of air.

ELECTRIC KITCHEN AND LAUNDRY

1. Defrost refrigerator regularly and replace worn door gaskets.
2. Don't overcrowd refrigerator. This interferes with air circulation and overworks the compressor.

3. Don't put uncovered liquids in a frost-free refrigerator.
4. When cooking on the range, use flat-bottomed utensils which fit the surface units. Cover utensils when possible.
5. Never use surface units or oven for purposes other than cooking. Turn off surface units and oven when not in use.
6. Don't run partial loads in dishwasher, washer or dryer. Clean waste and lint traps before starting each load.
7. Save hot water when laundering. Use warm water for colored and lightly soiled garments. Use cold water with cold-water detergents.

WHEN YOU GO ON VACATION

1. Unplug small electric appliances.
2. During the winter, set heating system thermostat a few degrees lower than usual.
3. If refrigerator is left running, set the temperature up a few degrees. If refrigerator is turned off, prop the door open to prevent mildew.
4. Use clock timers or photo-electric cells to turn lights on and off automatically.

Tridium Set for Local Third Order

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis at their February meeting Sunday afternoon learned that their annual tridium will be held Feb. 27, 28, and March 1.

Verification of those dates came from the Rev. William D'Arcy, assistant provincial from Chicago who will conduct the visitation. Three days of special services and conferences will begin at 8 a.m. Mass on Feb. 28 and a complete schedule of services will be decided then.

Mrs. Leo Henscheid, prefect, conducted the meeting after leading the fraternity's prayers. Members also heard reports from Secretary Miss Lu Vogel and Treasurer Mrs. Joe Fisher, and a letter from the DeVasseys, the order's adopted family in India.

The annual report shows the local fraternity lost three members by death in 1972, and it was added that three have been lost by death in 1973.

Fourteen members were present for the meeting in Sacred Heart Church and closed with the peace prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Cain of Farmers Branch visited Sunday with her mother Mrs. W. B. Martin at Hillcrest Manor and with Mrs. Dick Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hess and children Deana, Darrel and Darren of Lewisville spent Sunday with parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess. Other guests for dinner were her father Bill Derischweiler and Johnny Knabe. The visitors also saw other local relatives before returning home.

Halls Converted To Highway as SH Stresses Safety

Halls are highways at Sacred Heart to stress importance of safe driving to high school students during February, chosen by the student council as Safety Month.

Hallways have been converted into two-lane highways with stop signals at the junction of the main and side halls. Other signs also remind students to practice safe driving habits.

In an assembly one morning Earl Fisher was guest speaker. He gave a short talk on insurance and explained various rates and how they vary with age of drivers. He also answered questions from students.

Joe: "It says here that last year California grew about 2,449,000 tons of grapes."
Moe: "Drink up, man, they're gaining on us!"

We have received numerous letters and phone calls regarding garbage pickup and all who have taken the time to write or call are in favor of fast action.

The city dump was visited last week to get first hand knowledge of the situation. The area at the dump was muddy and the traffic caused a slight delay. The area itself was in fair condition considering it is a dump, however both sides of the road from town to the dump were littered with trash, beer bottles and cans. It is easily understood why people object to having the dump in their direction from town because those farmers whose acreage border on that road and those who travel the road to and from Muenster constantly see the mess. This is not the fault of the city or of those careful people who haul their garbage and trash to the dump but it is caused by speedy driving with the car trunk lid up or in an open pickup or even by a few who would use the road as a dump.

One of these days some group or individuals interested in ecology will take a few hours time to pick up the litter and improve the environment, then we all hope everyone will be more considerate and careful in trash hauling.

A garbage hauling contractor visited our city this week and gave some ideas of the problems involved in picking

about the new motion picture
"time to run"

There is no doubt that today we see the family unit being attacked from every side, torn apart and fragmented. TIME TO RUN is a motion picture about a family, about listening, about the silences between people, the unspoken moments, and the moments of anger that don't really accomplish anything. TIME TO RUN openly offers the reality of Jesus Christ as an answer to the human dilemma.

I feel that thousands of people will see a part of themselves in the film. Hopefully, families seeing it will be brought closer together in real understanding and communication.

I urge you to take your children . . . or your parents . . . to see TIME TO RUN when it comes to your community. You may find it more of a mirror than a motion picture!

up, hauling and burying the refuse from our 435 homes and 85 commercial establishments. It must be realized that when such a service is made available, all will be required to pay their share, probably being billed along with the water and sewer charges. At that time it will be necessary to quit burning all types of refuse within the city limits. For that reason the haulers must be required to pick up all garbage, trash, tree limbs, grass clippings, boxes, papers etc., as there will be no other means of disposing of it. If plastic bags are to be used they will have to be treated with dog repellent or there will be garbage in the streets.

This important issue is receiving careful consideration by the city administration because of its need and the cost involved. The cost is estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000 annually and whether it be to the city's advantage to do the work or have it done by contract is a decision which will take a lot of study.

stead of howling when they expect to lose a bit of the hand-out benefits. That condition, we believe, is possible to attain if national opinion moulders would dedicate themselves to the job.

Imagine what it would be like if leaders and the media put a priority on returning to sound economic policies. We know it would be the most popular movement of four decades. We know also that it would restore lots of the old pride and patriotism that has eroded away.

Garden Club Hears Talk on Roses by Mrs. Steve Moster

A program on roses by Mrs. Steve Moster and a report on activities for the coming year by club president Mrs. Arthur Endres were highlights of the February meeting of Muenster Garden Club Monday night in the home of Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman with Mrs. Tony Gremminger as co-hostess.

Mrs. Moster described many varieties of roses and discussed planting requirements, care, disease control, and propagation, and stressed need for improvement of soil in the planting area. She showed posters of a number of old favorites, standard varieties, tea roses, floribundas, 1971 and 1972 All-American selections and a number of favorite climbers.

Routine business and reports from standing committees were led by Mrs. Endres who then listed coming events.

These included a valentine party for residents at Hillcrest Manor Nursing Home on Feb. 14, plant exchange at Leonard Park on April 13, a pilgrimage to Chandler Gardens in Weatherford on April 14, installation of newly elected officers with a buffet supper and guest day at Cooke County Electric Cooperative auditorium on May 14, an all-day workshop by Mrs. Ross Ferrier at the Co-op auditorium on June 6, and a flower show at the KC Hall on June 22.

Again this year the club will sponsor a speech and poster contest later in the spring.

Miss Sylvia Hofbauer introduced five guests, Mmes. Charles Bayer, Butch Fisher, Clinton Endres, Roy Hartman and Loyd Trubench. Among members present were Mrs. Wayne Richards and Mrs. Al Schmitt, recent new members.

After adjournment Mmes. Fuhrman and Gremminger served a salad course to 22 members and guests from a table centered by a valentine arrangement.

The March meeting will feature a program by Roger Taylor of Muenster Garden Center. Mrs. Oscar Detten and Miss Bettye Dodds will be co-hostesses in the former's home.

Nick Endres and two friends, Mike Spangler and Doug Fowler, all University of Oklahoma students, stopped here for a visit and dinner Sunday night enroute back to Norman from a short stay in Denton. They were guests of Nick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Endres.

Auxiliary to VFW Welcomes Two New Members at Meet

Muenster VFW Auxiliary welcomed two new members at the February meeting Monday night. They are Mrs. Charles Knabe and Mrs. Charles Hamilton.

Business conducted by Mrs. Don Flusche, president, consisted principally of final plans for the District One Convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary which the Muenster organizations will host this weekend.

Members fulfilled honor roll requirements in the participation program for January and February. This month it is a contribution to the Cancer Aid and Research Fund to which the organization donated one hundred dollars.

For January it was selection of names of three local veterans to be placed in the Memorial Chapel in Austin. This year's selections are Earl Hartz, Gerry Kuykendall and Raymond Laux.

It was announced that the March meeting has been moved forward to the first Monday, March 5, so as not to conflict with other activity on the third Monday.

After adjournment the women joined VFW members for a fried chicken supper.

Sister Mary Beatrice Bergman of Oklahoma City spent Monday overnight with her niece and husband, the Herb McDaniels and attended the funeral of Hugo Wilde. She arrived by bus and returned in company of the Fox Hendersons, stopping in Ardmore for a visit with her brother Sylvester Bergman.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.
