

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME VI

MUENSTER, TEXAS, COOKE COUNTY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1942

NUMBER 44

SUNDAY-TUESDAY, SEPT. 13-15, if the rest of the week is as devoid of interest as this first three days, I pity the column. Nothing but plain old army life day after day. East, sleep and work, and occasionally amble over to the show.

Lately I've been wondering whether my recent change in duty may not be a handicap to my career as a columnist. From my present viewpoint at company headquarters everything looks about the same, an assignment and then an entry for the records. Back with the gang all that had a more specific meaning, such as the fine points about certain machines or maneuvers.

Not all of it escapes us, however. For instance, an officer came in today with a queer looking shell for a 37 mm gun. It had a tiny hole drilled through it, a .22 caliber hole that actually was a rifle barrel. Instead of the usual boisterous roar, this thing gives out only a feeble crack. No recoil either. However, it has its advantages. Firing drill can be more realistic than with dummies, and there's a chance to check on marksmanship—if the target isn't too far away. Economy is another angle. This gadget can be fired several hundred times for the cost of a regular shell. If the army were as practical about everything else our war cost would be a lot lower.

Camouflage was another item of interest. After the boys draped a special net over a jeep it couldn't be distinguished from an ordinary sand pile—that is, at a hundred yards or more. Camouflage suits are quite a trick, too. They're mottled in dull colors. A few of the boys put them on and blended with the sagebrush. It took sharp eyes to spot them only a short distance away.

For yours truly this day deserves marking as a red-letter day. It brought a new stripe for the chevrons. The new title is Corporal Con.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16—About the most welcome news of the day is the report that, temporarily at least, the battalion will be somewhat more generous with its passes. Not only has the percentage of men permitted on leave been boosted, but three-day passes are possible. It's an opportunity many of us have been waiting for. Not enough time for a visit home, of course, but OK for a nice miniature furlough in this corner of the country. If all goes well I'll be one of the absentees. Otherwise I'll be angling for a few days next week.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17—Just a day.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 18—When training is monotonous we can at least depend on bull sessions to keep up interest. One we had today, inspired by one of the President's newsreel messages, brought out some idea of how soldiers feel about civilians who fail to do their bit in the war effort.

The president warned about some steps that might be necessary to prevent economic chaos. Most discouraging is the fact that drastic measures should be necessary. It's hard to understand how some people can maintain their old self-centered viewpoints when, obviously, team-work is so sorely needed. For instance, how can one group continue grabbing for enormous profits, another demand outrageous wages, and so many more continue to waste as though our abundance were limitless?

The inequality of it all is what hurts. The men in service, the ones who have to take the toughest rap physically, also have to make the greatest financial sacrifices. While soldiers and sailors are struggling along, others are filling their pockets. But when it's all over and the day of reckoning comes, the veterans will have to share the burden with the others. That's not a pleasant prospect for soldiers to face.

Is it too much to hope that the drastic action will correct this fault? Why can't profits and wages be cut down so that this tremendous debt can be slowed down? We are all equally concerned in

Local Infant Owes Life To Medical Skill

Leonard Haverkamp Is Recovering Following Removal of Open Safety-Pin From Windpipe

Leonard Haverkamp, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Haverkamp, owes his life to modern medical skill. The infant was taken to Baylor Hospital on Sept. 15 with an open safety pin in the right branch of the windpipe leading to the lung. He was very ill for the pin was swallowed on September 12, and double pneumonia followed. The baby was placed in an oxygen tent and physicians were not able to remove the pin until last Friday Sunday he was on the road to recovery, thanks to the wonder of a gadget called a bronchoscope, a tube with a small light carrier which allows surgeons to perform remote-control recoveries, and Monday he was dismissed from the hospital. At home this week, he is doing fine.

With a local anesthetic, the baby was placed on an operating table and a small bronchoscope was introduced through the mouth into the windpipe. A suction tube was then dropped through the bronchoscope and mucus aspirated. The pin was located, pointed up, in the right windpipe. A forceps was introduced through the bronchoscope and the point of the pin was grasped and pulled into the tube of the bronchoscope, so that it would not stick, and allowed the keeper to trail, which would do no harm.

The specialist who performed the operation issued this advice to mothers: Close safety pins and never leave them lying around where baby will pick them up off the floor. Do not stick them in the dress or in the lap when baby is being bathed. Women also have a habit of placing pins in their mouths. Babies are imitators and follow suit.

Several times during the child's illness of pneumonia the doctors in charge gave up hope for his recovery, but he rallied because of his otherwise strong constitution. "One in a thousand recovers from such cases," the doctors said.

USO OPENS CLUB ROOM IN MASONIC BUILDING MONDAY

Official opening of a USO club, under the auspices of the National Catholic Community Service, was held Monday evening at Gainesville in the Masonic building which has been secured for such activity. Tables, chairs, materials for letter writing, a radio, record player and a piano are at the disposal of soldiers of Camp Howze for entertainment during their off hours and a cold drink dispenser has been provided.

A large number of service men and civilians visited the club on opening night.

George P. Gleason is director of the unit and Miss Muriel Hensler is in charge of all women's activities. Miss Margaret Gruber of Lindsay has been employed as secretary to work at the club.

The Masonic club room will be used until the USO either secures or builds its own club, it was announced.

If You Want A Soldier Sunday, Call Committee Chairman Friday By Noon

Mrs. T. S. Myrick, chairman of the Hospitality Committee of the USO, asked Wednesday that families desiring to invite soldiers from Camp Howze to their home for Sunday get in touch with her not later than Friday noon.

She has had a number of calls this week from persons "ordering" boys for the day and several others have expressed their desire to do so but have not called again confirming the invitation.

It is suggested that two soldiers be asked by those desiring to have boys for dinner as the men are rather shy the first time and like to bring a buddy along.

Unless otherwise specified the boys will furnish their own transportation to this city and the hosts can call for them at Jimmy's Station, the place they have agreed on to wait. In giving the information to the USO Mrs. Myrick will specify eleven o'clock as the time for arrival here. Please call your invitation to Mrs. Myrick before noon Friday.

NUTRITION CLASS HAS FIRST LESSON TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The first meeting of a nutrition class, organized here recently, was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the K of C hall. The course is being taught by Miss Nette Shultz, county home demonstration agent, and is being sponsored by the local court of Catholic Daughters of America. Classes will be held each Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock. The course will consist of ten lessons of two hours each. Nineteen members were enrolled at the initial meeting and several more ladies have expressed their intention to attend. Mrs. Ben Hellman was appointed to serve as secretary.

The subject of the first lesson was "Are Americans Well Fed?" Miss Shultz stated that 45 million people in America today are not getting the food they need. One-third of our army men are turned down because they have not received the proper food. Nutrition classes are being held in order to acquaint women with every-day diets that will insure good nutrition and good health.

Those present Tuesday were: Mesdames John F. Herr, Tony Gremminger, H. E. McElreath, Ben Hellman, Andy Hofbauer, Jud Boyles, Joe Streng, Joe Horn, Jack Roberts, Leo Appel, Joe Kathman, Frank Kaiser, Henry Pick, John Ezell, Jake Horn, Jr., and Al Walterscheid, and Misses Anna Hellman, Katie Hacker and Olivia Stock.

MUENSTER SHIVERS AS FIRST COLD WAVE HITS COMMUNITY

Muenster citizens did a quick change from summer garments to woolen clothing and jackets Saturday when a premature cold wave caused temperatures to drop. Aggravating the condition was a drizzling rain that began Friday evening and continued through the night to reach a good soaker stage Saturday morning. Coats, jackets and winter clothing were the apparel of the day Saturday and Sunday at church.

In this locality the mercury hovered around the 50 mark, but by Monday, aided by sunshine, the thermometer climbed to 80 and on Tuesday afternoon registered 85 degrees.

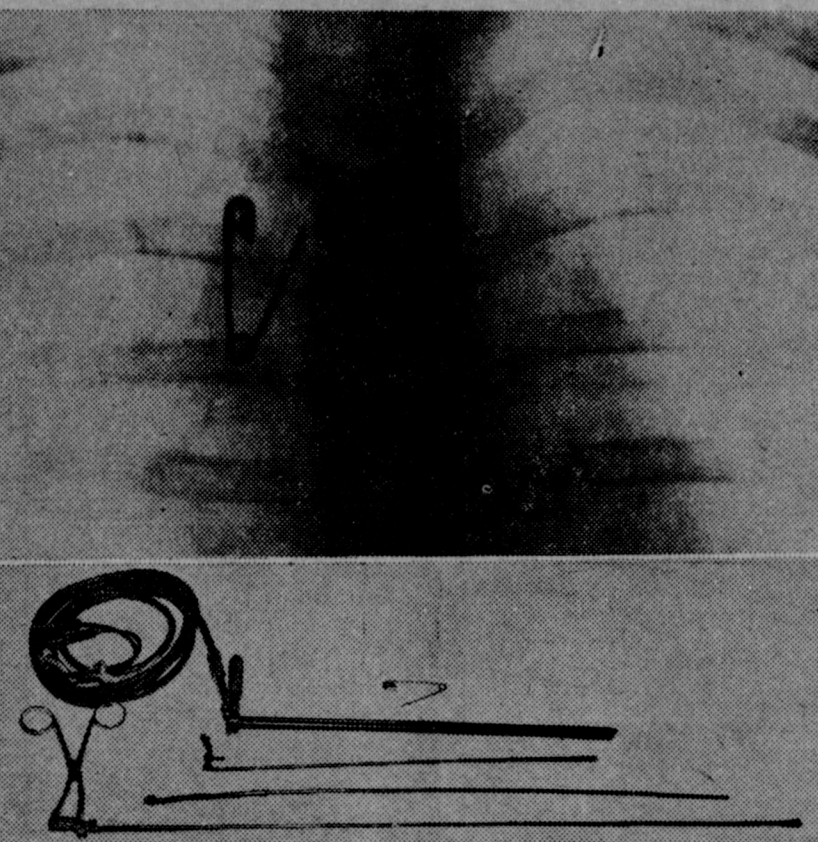

Cotton picking was stopped late Friday but fields were dry enough to permit activity again around 9 a.m. Monday.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY GIVES TEN DOLLARS TO USO CLUB ROOM

Members of the Holy Name Society voted to give a ten dollar donation toward the furnishing of a USO club room at Camp Howze during their regular meeting Monday evening. President Urban Endres presided and Rev. Richard Eved, spiritual director, was in attendance. A special guest was Rev. Father Thomas, who gave a short encouraging talk.

It was announced that Communion Sunday for the society will be on the second Sunday of the month in the future and the youths discussed the reception of new members. All boys out of grade school are eligible, it was stated.

At least 8,000,000 working days can be saved this year if war workers keep fit. That means 14,000 more bombers, 10 dreadnaughts, 33,000 tanks to help us win the war.

Also shown in the picture is the pin as it appeared in an x-ray made before removal, and the bronchoscope, just below the pin; the light head, which has a tiny lamp at end; the suction tube, and the forceps.

PLANS TO FURNISH 95 DAY ROOMS AT CAMP ARE UNDERWAY NEIGHBORING TOWNS ASKED TO ASSIST; MUENSTER'S QUOTA IF FOUR ROOMS

Ray Winder, president of the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce was authorized last week at a meeting of some 30 representatives of civic clubs, women's organizations and church societies to appoint a central committee to have charge of a campaign to furnish 95 day rooms at Camp Howze. These buildings are provided for recreational activities of the soldiers but no funds are available to furnish them.

Gainesville has asked seven neighboring cities and towns to contribute money or equipment to furnish day rooms at the camp. The approximate cost per room is $100.

Muenster's quota has been set at 4 rooms, and other quotas are: St. Jo 3, Denton 5, Valley View 2, Marietta 2, Whitesboro 3 and Sang-er 3, Total 22.

Gainesville will take charge of the responsibility of furnishing the other 73 rooms it was announced.

Chamber of Commerce officials this week wrote the Civic League and Garden Club, addressing the letter to Mrs. Joe Luke, president, explaining the program, and asking the League to take charge of details and collections for one room at this time.

Day room needs are as follows: one pingpong table with equipment, two checker tables, two card tables, two writing tables, twenty-four chairs, two sets checkers, two sets dominoes, four packs playing cards, two cribbage boards and 18 pairs of curtains, (uniform).

It was explained that military regulations require all buildings to be uniform and for that reason the same material and design must be used for the window curtains of all the buildings.

The Muenster club began immediately on the campaign and is appealing to the various parish and community societies for donations. The first contribution received was a ten dollar donation from the Holy Name Society.

Individual contributions are also solicited. Postmaster Arthur Endres has volunteered his services and will take these contributions at the postoffice.

FATHER FROWIN SENDS GREETINGS

In a letter from Rev. Father Frowin to the Enterprise this week, he advised that he is permitted to be up and is allowed by his physicians to do a little letter-writing, but is warned against straining his eye. He has recently been receiving letters from Muenster people and asks that this newspaper convey his most sincere thanks for them.

Since he cannot answer each individually he takes this means of again thanking each one for their kindness, prayers and well wishes, and says he is asking God to reward and bless all.

He mentions that his thoughts and his heart are still in Muenster and he is looking forward to a visit with all the good people in the near future. His improvement is slow, but there is definite improvement.

He is now at Saint Bernard's Hospital, Jonesboro, Ark., where he is getting the best of care, he adds.

The nation's first newspaper plant using the common southern yellow pine is now operating at Lufkin, Texas.

Frank Yosten, Navy, Missing In Action

Report Reaches Father Here Tuesday; Was In Service Since March

Frank Yosten, 29, seaman second class, of the United States Navy, a son of John Yosten of this city, is reported missing in action.

Mr. Yosten received the following message from Rear Admiral Randall Jacobs, chief of naval personnel, Tuesday evening:

"The Navy Department deeply regrets to inform you that your son, Frank Oliver Yosten, seaman second class, USNR, is missing in the performance of his duty and in the service of his country. The department appreciates your great anxiety but details not now available and delay in the receipt thereof must necessarily be expected to prevent possible aid to our enemies. Please do not divulge the name of his ship or station."

Frank enlisted in the service in March and trained on the West coast before being assigned to sea duty. Apparently he was somewhere in the Pacific area.

He is a native of this community and received his education at Sacred Heart School. For several years prior to his entry in the armed service he was engaged as an oil field worker in East Texas fields.

Mr. Yosten had not received word from his son during the past two months.

Besides the son that enlisted in the navy Mr. Yosten has four sons and five daughters. Pvt. Andrew Yosten of Camp Berkeley; Joe Yosten, Healdton, Okla.; Walter and Richard, Muenster; Mrs. Joe Horn, Mrs. Bernard Sicking, Mrs. Ed Pels and Miss Bonnie Yosten, Muenster, and Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck of Shawnee, Okla.

The family and friends, in fact the entire community, is anxiously awaiting further news regarding this incident.

GORDON SHAY BAND TO PLAY AT DANCE ON COLUMBUS DAY

Gordon Shay and his band of Wichita Falls, an old favorite orchestra of Muenster dance crowds, has been engaged to play at the Columbus Day dance on Monday, October 12, the committee in charge announced this week.

The dance is being planned as a grand finale to an elaborate Columbus Day program that promises to surpass all previous attempts of the council at entertainment for both young and old.

Preparations are now in progress by special committees to secure unusually attractive tango prizes and to have a select choice of foods, iced drinks, confections and also a number of entertainment features. The picnic will begin on Sunday afternoon, October 11, but closing time Sunday night will not see its finish. Activity will be resumed again Monday at about 9 p.m. and continue through the dance. The affair will take place in the K of C hall.

Mindful, also, of the religious significance of the day, the local council Knights of Columbus will attend mass Sunday morning, at 9 a.m., receive the Eucharist in a body and then have a communion breakfast.

P-TA HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR THURSDAY EVENING

The Muenster Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting of the current year Thursday evening at the Public school with thirty two members present.

The president's message brought by Mrs. E. O. Teague listed the aims and objects of the organization, stressed closer relationship between parents, teachers and children, cooperation of school and home and the organization's willingness to assist whenever and wherever needed.

Mrs. John Ezell distributed the yearbooks, attractive booklets just off the press.

Various business and plans were discussed, a benefit 42 tournament arranged, and it was decided to sell war saving stamps at the school each Monday with Mrs. Ezell in charge.

At the close of business, Mrs. Ezell, program chairman, introduced the teachers and Mr. Virgil Lee Welch, principal, gave an outline plan for the school.

Later a social hour with piano and vocal selections by Mrs. Jack Roberts, Miss Elfreda Luke and the assemblage was enjoyed. The serving of coffee and cake concluded the evening's program.

Your Health

BY GEO. W. COX, M. D.
Texas State Health Officer

Austin, Texas, Sept. 15—A child by the time he is two and a half or three years of age should become acquainted with the atmosphere of a dental office and the ministrations of a dentist is the advice given by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is of prime importance, according to Doctor Cox, that children look upon the family dentist as a friendly guardian of their health.

In stressing the importance of early dental care, Doctor Cox quoted the following from a bulletin of the American Dental Association:

"Parents should teach the child that the dentist is his friend. They should not allow him to receive the impression that a visit to the dentist means unpleasantness and pain. Such impressions are usually created in a child's mind before he ever sees the dentist.

"Parents can prevent fear in the child by taking him to the dentist before the teeth are decayed. Thus, the first visit will consist of an examination only. Subsequent visits will consist of a simple cleaning or, at most, the painless filling of small cavities. It is a grave mistake to so neglect a child's teeth that his first visit to the dentist must be associated with pain."

Doctor Cox said that the importance of good dental health had been called to national attention by recent selective service examinations and added that a great percentage of physical rejections for military service could have been avoided by dental care in the first few years of life.

One-sixth of the nation's boys and girls—about four million—now ride to school, chiefly in buses. About 93,000 school buses are in daily service.

MEAT RATIONING IS NOT FAR OFF; MAKE MEAT GO FARTHER

Secretary Wickard's announcement that this country will experience meat rationing within a few months will mean fair sharing of the nation's supply and should not bring hardships to anyone.

"We'll be on shorter meat rations than we have been recently, but we have enough meat and other protein foods to keep American families well nourished," says Louise Bryant, specialist in home management for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

To make meat go farther, she suggests that homemakers use more of foods which are plentiful and less beef and pork. Fortunately, there's an abundant supply of protein foods. Supplies of cheese are at an all time high, and there are more chickens than ever before. Although beans are not an exact substitute for meat, they make a good nourishing dish, the specialist says. Beans, too, are plentiful.

"If every American family has a cheese dish instead of pork chops more often than usual, or chicken instead of steak, the pressure on beef and pork supplies will not be so great," Miss Bryant suggests.

Other ways of making meat go farther include serving more stews and hashes. It is a good idea, too, to save all trimmings both of fat and well-flavored lean tidbits. Meat bones may be saved for making soup. Here are other helps: Always keep meat clean and cold; so none will go to waste from spoilage or poor flavor. Cook meat according to cut and fatness, and with moderate heat. And, finally, use different seasonings in meat dishes for variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan G. Johnson and son, Ross, are new residents in this city. They are occupying the small cottage at the August Friske home. Mr. Johnson is employed at the air base and the family moved here from Texarkana.

Lt. and Mrs. Charles Taylor are having a wonderful time on their honeymoon, according to greeting cards received by relatives and friends. Still not revealing their whereabouts, the cards were mailed at a depot. Mrs. Taylor is the former Miss Lorena Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Teague and daughter spent Sunday in Nocena where a family reunion of her relatives was held to honor her brother, Cpl. Marcus Webb of Fort Devens, Mass. Cpl. Webb, home on furlough, also visited in this city with his sister during the week.

Misses Harriette Schoech and Lucille Cler, who left last week to attend defense school in Waco, write that everything is running smoothly. They have been assigned to the radio division and are on the night shift, working from 11 p.m. to 7:30 a.m. They mention that it's a lot like the army. They have K.P. duty to do, underwent a physical exam and are receiving all the necessary "shots."

DINNER PARTY HONORS CADET GILES LEHNERTZ
Cadet Giles Lehnertz, who spent the weekend here following completion of preliminary training at Gainesville and who left Monday for Camp Wolters preparatory to going to Roswell, N. M., was honored with a dinner party Sunday at noon when his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hellman entertained in their home.

Other guests were the honoree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz, and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hellman and daughter, Judy, of Fort Worth.

MISSION CIRCLE IS ACTIVE; MAKES QUILTS
Members of the Mission Sewing Circle spent several afternoons of the past week quilting, during which time they completed four quilts. These quilts were made for individuals and the money derived from the work has been placed in the club's treasury to carry on its work.

Mrs. John Eberhart was in charge and others assisting were Mesdames M. J. and W. H. Endres, John Klement, Katie Roberg, John Felderhoff, John Fette, Justin Hess, Joe Wilde, John Walter, I. A. Schoech, Wm. Kathman, Al Walterscheid, Wm. and Joe Walterscheid, Clarence Wilson, Annie Trachta, Anna Wiedemann, Roy Endres, Ben Seyler, John Wieler, Louisa Hofbauer, Leo Henschel, Joe Swindler, and Al Swirczynski and Misses Lena Streng, Katie Hacker, Mary and Anna Becker, Lena Kleiss and Anna Hellman.

Mrs. Eberhart announced that several quilts are now for sale. All are made of the finest fade-proof materials and cotton batting and the prices are very reasonable. Money derived for the sale of the quilts is placed in the club treasury. Persons interested are asked to see them at her home.

Little Mary Ann Luke was honored with a party in observance of her ninth birthday Sunday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Ben Luke, entertained for thirty little girls at the family home.

The guests remembered the honoree with gifts, and favors, games, birthday cake and ice cream made the party a gay affair.

SCHOOLS DISMISS THIS WEEK TO PICK COTTON

Both Muenster schools dismissed classes for the week so that students could assist in the cotton picking program. A census was taken at the schools and more than 60 percent of the children signed up to pick. Classes will be resumed again next Monday, when it is estimated, most fields will have been picked over the first time.

Cotton was coming in to the gin fairly well this week. The season's ginnings up to Wednesday noon were 56 bales.

out any ill effects and goes right on doing her own housework. She lives alone. The fracture is reported knitting normally.

Calls From Honolulu
Pvt. Albert Hoelker talked to his brother, Ewald Hoelker, here by telephone from Honolulu Friday evening. The two brothers enjoyed a several-minute chat and reception was very good. Before the parties were connected an operator from Honolulu gave instructions regarding conversation and listed among things to be avoided any mention of war or of the weather. There was no break in the connection during the talk and Albert disclosed that he was fit and well and asked that his best regards be conveyed to his many friends.

RIO THEATRE TO ENROLL YOUNGSTERS IN CLUB SATURDAY

The Rio Theatre will have a matinee for children next Saturday morning at 9:30, at which time the youngsters attending will be enrolled in the "All American Club for National Defense." The admission price of 9-cents for all children under twelve years of age entitles the youngsters to a certificate of membership and an album. Each Saturday following, a picture of a plane, ship, etc., will be presented free to members of the club, and these are to be placed in the album. In addition, next Saturday's admission price also entitles each child to a free bar of candy through the courtesy of the Curtis Candy Company.

As long as the war lasts, Americans will have to keep on salvaging metals to keep the wheels of war industry turning.

The Army and Navy are calling for 3,000 graduate nurses a month for the next twelve months. Many of these will be taken from civilian institutions. During the year ending June 30th, about 45,000 new students were admitted to schools of nursing.

GERMANS ADVANCE INTO RUSSIA-AS PRISONERS

Confetti---

America's survival. Then why can't we divide the burden more equally? It would be possible for men in overalls to live on the pay of a man in uniform, considering allowances for married men and all that. This isn't just a personal opinion. A lot of soldiers resent seeing others get the easy money which is being charged against their own share of the national debt.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 19—I envy a fellow Texan. He's on his way with a 15 day furlough. Since it was given specifically to let him go home and take care of a herd of cattle I suppose it rates as an emergency furlough. Uncle Sam never gets too busy to let his boys off when an urgent call comes from home.

This guy had so little trouble getting away that he himself was surprised. Said he wanted to convert his beef into war bonds. Furthermore that if he did not do it soon his dad might sell 'em and start squandering, or that cattle rustlers might get 'em, leaving him and Pop and Uncle Sam all holding the sack. That was all he needed to explain.

AT FORT ORD

—Cpl. Alfred Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, volunteered for service in the army in October, 1938, and trained for three years with the 30th Infantry in San Francisco. In December, 1941, he transferred to the medical unit, was made a corporal and assigned to Wm. Beaumont General Hospital at Fort Bliss; three months later he was sent to Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, to spend several months and is now at Fort Ord, Calif.

Ray Voth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Voth, has enlisted in the Marines and left Thursday of this week for San Diego, Calif., where he will receive his basic training. He is Muenster's first youth in this branch of the service.

Pvt. Frank Hoedebeck feels right at home in the army. Greetings sent from Camp Livingston, La., where he is stationed, mention that he is connected with the 252 M.P. company. Frank says to tell everybody hello from him. He expects to be in training at Camp Livingston for about ten weeks.

Pfc. Pat Stelzer of Camp Wolters is here, spending a 15-day furlough with relatives and friends. He has been a cook since his induction in February but has recently secured recommendations and references preparatory to transferring to the air corps. He disclosed that he is now eligible to train as a cadet and as soon as a class is opened he will be a member. Until that time he will be at Camp Wolters.

A Muenster man in the armed service who has been overlooked by this column so far, but who is certainly worthy of more than a mere mention is Lieut. Colonel Walter Linn, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Linn and a nephew of Mrs. Jeff Linn, south of the city. Lt. Colonel Linn is camp mess officer and head of officers' mess at Camp Wolters. He is a good friend of Pfc. Pat Stelzer, who volunteered the information this week. Linn was born in Muenster and prior to his entry in the army served as chief dietician at the Masonic Home in Fort Worth.

T. Sgt. Frank Felderhoff continues OK in Scotland. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff, had a cable from him Thursday in which he says he is fit and well and was happy to hear from them. They sent him a cable sometime ago.

Pvt. Elmer Fette is now in Hawaii according to word received here this week. Leo Sicking had a letter from his brother, Pvt. Joe Sicking, in which he writes "Imagine our surprise when Elmer and I met out here today."

Warrant Officer Gilbert Endres is reported ill at Portsmouth, Va.

Pvt. Joe Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hess, has begun basic training at Camp Wolters as an infantryman in the army and has been assigned to duty with the battalion stressing anti-tank training.

Pvt. Maurice Pagel qualified as a marksman recently when shooting for the record took place at Camp Rucker, Ark., where he is stationed. He informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pagel, this week.

Bill Branham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Branham, is here on furlough this week. Bill is with the Navy and returned to the states a few months ago after being in the Hawaiian Islands. He was at Pearl Harbor on December 7 and witnessed the Jap attack.

Warrant Officer Christopher Fette writes his wife that he is back at Fort Knox, Ky., following completion of maneuvers at Ft. Bragg, but his dreams are still haunted with mosquitoes, big ones and little ones.

Cadet Giles (Bunny) Lehnertz and Wilmer Luke have finished their preliminary training at Gainesville and spent the weekend here with members of their families.

U.S.S.R.—A long line of Nazi soldiers, now prisoners of war, march into captivity under guard of armed Soviet soldiers. These are some of the many prisoners of war taken by the Soviet soldiers in bitter fighting on the southern front in and around Stalingrad.

Monday they reported at Camp Wolters. Mineral Wells, and went from there to Roswell, N. M., for advance training. They are with the army air corps.

Pvt. Hugo Wilde is now attending electrical mechanics school at Camp Lee, Va. His wife and his sister, Miss Bernadine Wilde, are visiting him.

Pvt. Bob Mac Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooke, is in training at Camp Wolters and has been assigned to duty with the anti-tank battalion.

Lt. Francis J. Mooney of Fort Sam Houston visited in this city last Wednesday with the Fisher families and other friends. He is well known to Muenster citizens for his former connections with the Knights of Columbus while he resided in Denison. Since his entry in the army he is with the signal corps.
