NUMBER 47

The continued bickering of senators over confirmation of Judge Haynsworth's appointment to the Supreme Court leaves little doubt that the real issue is partisan politics rather than qualification. It is especially significant that men who complained loudly about the judge's conflict of interest gave strong support a few months ago to Abe Fortas when he was considered for Chief Justice.

That brings up an interesting question. After endorsing Fortas in spite of his record, how can people claim to reject Haynsworth on his record?

Furthermore, the critics were hardly fair in some of their charges. One senator stated that Haynsworth sat on a case involving a firm in which he had financial interest. Later inquiry revealed that the financial interest was possession of stock which had been sold four years before the case came to court, and for only 21 dollars. Implication of the charge was obvious and serious but the accuser had not bothered to check on its validity.

A labor leader listed 8 cases in which Haynsworth decisions in a lower court had been unfavorable to unions. But he neglected to name 22 other decisions, which were listed by Senator Byrd, in which the judge had favored the unions.

Well, it's comforting to note in the past few days that the appointee is gaining strength. It begins to appear that Supreme Court judgments of the future will be based on the Constitution rather than liberal political philosophy.

As this is being written the highly publicized nationwide moratorium against the Vietnam war is still a few days away and its effect is still a big question. But this is not too early to note that mass media promotion in behalf of the event has been a national disgrace. News coverage on preparations has been prolific and detailed. The people who are stirring up the discord received millions of dollars worth of free publicity. In effect, the reporting was a nation wide invitation to trouble makers, telling them when, where and how to join in the ugly display of disloyalty.

One wonders how the news media can conscientiously lend their support to such an affair, which is an obvious attempt to torpedo President Nixon's effort toward making an honorable withdrawal from the war.

Despite involvement of some members of Congress, this movement is at least questionable in origin and known to be endorsed by Hanoi. A definite motive is encouraging the enemy to continue holding out for a settlement that will be more favorable to Communists and less acceptable to us and the South Vietnamese. It is, moreover, a means of prolonging and increasing the discord that has already hurt this country for many years.

Common sense and patriotism dictate that publicity should have been on the other side of this affair. For the sake of national unity and the country's war interests, the news coverage should have discouraged and even condemned the disgraceful spectacle. Otherwise it should have been content to merely mention the thing but to withhold the promotional publicity.

Freedom of the press, like other freedoms, has its reasonable limits. We Americans are blessed in not having censors snooping through our news releases, but we should understand that freedom sometimes needs the restraint of self censorship. People who report the news should have the conscience not to give undue prominence to bad news, and certainly not to promote it. A famous publisher of a generation ago had a slogan "all the news that's fit to print." In previous wars newsmen followed a nationwide policy of withholding news which gave aid and comfort to the enemy. Unfortunately that policy has been discarded by too many.

Unfairness is another characteristic of the rabble rousing publicity. President Nixon is being denied some of the cooperation that his effort deserves. Though he in-

STAGE members of Gainesville and young music lovers of the Gainesville area have an opportunity next Thursday, October 23, to hear the contract musicians of the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra, an organization of professional musicians comprising the core of the regular orchestra.

The group will make three appearances in the Gainesville High School Auditorium. First one is a Kinder Concert for elementary children at 2 o'clock and the second is a Young People's Concert at 3:30 for junior high and senior high students. Admission price at each concert is $1.00 per person.

Both of these appearances are sponsored jointly by the Gainesville City Council and the Gainesville PTA. At each show the performance will be similar to that heard by more than 85,000 youngsters in Oklahoma last year.

The orchestra's third appearance is the opening show of the 1969-70 STAGE concert series, which is booked for 8:15 p.m. in the Gainesville Hi auditorium. Admission to the symphony is by STAGE membership card only.

Cubs Drop 32-6 Game to Era Kids

The Tiger Cubs of Sacred Heart Elementary ran into real troubles when they hosted the Era youngsters Tuesday. The visitors bossed the field all the way and went away with a lead of 32-6.

Sacred Heart's only bright spot came early in the second half on a couple of plays that produced the Cub TD. Dickie Moster gained 10 to midfield and David Krahl went the rest of the way on a swing around right end.

Almost as bright was Moster's kickoff return after the last Era score. He sprinted 66 yards to the 14 but the next four tries fell a yard short of first down. Otherwise they crossed midfield only once.

Era started fast, returning the kickoff to midfield and scoring on the first scrimmage play.

Next TD was a 46 yard drive in 12 plays. And then, following a Cub fumble on kickoff, it was 41 yards in 7 plays. Timmy Felderhoff's interception stopped another drive just before half time.

After the Cub score Era returned a kickoff to the 27 and scored in 5 more plays. And shortly before the end they scored in 5 plays from the 45.

Tigers to Tangle With Collinsville Here Friday Night

With the odds already stacked against them, the Sacred Heart Tigers will be further handicapped by injuries when they take on the Collinsville Pirates Friday night on the Tiger field. Starting time will be 8 o'clock.

Coach Tom Joy said this week that Ronnie Hess the spunky little wingback who was hurt last week, will not be ready for action.

In addition, Bill Bartush and Henry Knabe, who were slowed down by ankle injuries last week still are not up to par.

The absence of Hess also requires a shakeup of the lineup. Paul Bayer will be moved from guard to wingback, thereby creating a problem in the line. Shortage of material is definitely being felt by the Tigers.

Joy also revealed that Allen Hess, for his fine defensive work last week, has been selected as this week's appointed captain.

The Pirates are one of the stronger teams on this year's Tiger schedule, rated as more potent than last year's team which dumped the Tigers 27-2.

81 Boys Compete In PP&K Contest

Muenster kids had their best contest in local PP&K history last Saturday.

Urban Endres and Marty Klement of Endres Motor Company, sponsor of the local event, said that it had more entries and was better conducted than any in the past. They thank the kiddies for their interest and the Muenster Jaycees, along with Coaches Glenn Richardson and Tom Joy, for a very efficient job of running the show. There were 81 participants.

They also advise first place winners that the second stage of the nationwide contest is booked for Saturday at Denton. Action begins at 9 a.m. in Bronco Stadium, the Denton High field.

Boys advancing to this contest are reminded that transportation will be provided by Endres Motor Co. Cars will leave there at 7:30. Parents taking their boys, especially those who might have trouble finding the stadium, are invited to be there at that time and join the group.

Scoring in the contest was determined by adding the distances of a punt, a pass and a kick less deduction for the distances to right or left of a center line. Trophies were presented to the three highest scorers in each of the six age groups. First, second and third places and the scores were listed as follows by the sponsor.

Those attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Klement, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Klement, Mr and Mrs. Gene Klement and Mrs. Ed Schmitt accompanied by Mrs. Joe Pelzel Sr. of Pilot Point. Gene Klement was one of the pallbearers.

Visitors Sunday with Fred W. Herr, a patient at Muenster Hospital, were children and grandchildren including Mrs. Eddie Jakubec, son Charles and Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Jakubec, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Albers, all of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Albers, sons Robert and Doyle of Lewisville and Herbie Herr of Gainesville. Family members were back again Wednesday when Mr. Herr underwent surgery to pin a broken hip.

The man who rows the boat doesn't have time to rock it.

Mrs. B. Perryman Dies in Car Crash

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in Forestburg United Methodist Church for Mrs. Ben Perryman, 51, who was fatally injured in a two-car crash the preceding Thursday. Burial in Forestburg Cemetery was directed by George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home.

The accident that claimed Mrs. Perryman also took the life of Leon Morales Jr. 24, of Hood. They were drivers of the cars that collided four miles south of Myra at a farm-market road intersection about 9 p.m. Ben Perryman, 55, is a patient at Muenster Hospital. He was thrown from the car. Both vehicles were demolished.

Mrs. Perryman is survived by her husband; two sons, Gary Don and Wade, both of Forestburg; two sisters, one brother, her step-mother and grandmother.

Services for Morales were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville. The Rev. Robert Grant officiated at Requiem Mass and George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements in Fairview Cemetery.

Morales was an employee of Enderby Butane Gas Co. at Gainesville.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, his parents, four brothers and five sisters, all of Hood.

Hornets, Falcons Well Matched for Rugged Contest

The MHS Hornets have another big job ahead of them Friday night when they meet the Lake Dallas Falcons there at 8 o'clock.

According to Coach Glenn Richardson the Falcons are lots tougher than the outfit which was trimmed twice by the Hornets last year, in regular season and bi-district.

The team lost only three of last year's starters by graduation. In Richardson's opinion the year's gain in weight and development more than offsets the loss of the three players.

On the other hand Muenster has only three starters from last year, however it has a good average of size and talent, ranking about equal to last year's team. And it is physically up to par. Quarterback John Monday, hurt in the second game, had a tryout last week and is ready this week. So are all the others.

Team records to date also indicate a tight game. The Falcons won three before losing 14-0 to Windthorst last week, however they were jinxed by 6 interceptions and 4 fumbles. Muenster has a 2-1-1 record.

Rally Falls Short Tigers Lose 28-12

Fans of the Sacred Heart Tigers came away pleased from the game with Anna High last Friday even though Sacred Heart lost by a score of 28-12.

Their amazing fourth quarter comeback was not enough to win but it was plenty reason for pride. Trailing by four touchdowns they put on an inspired late rally that scored 12 points before the game was stopped with 58 seconds still showing on the scoreboard.

Reason for stopping was a sad note of the contest. Little Ronnie Hess was injured as he tackled the player who had just stolen a pass intended for him. The injury was feared to be serious and he was taken to the hospital. He recovered quickly, however and was dismissed from the hospital Sunday.

Starting the game the visiting Coyotes had everything their way. After forcing Sacred Heart to kick on the first series they made 7 yards in three plays before Harlow broke away for a 21 yard scoring sprint.

Next time they got the ball they needed only one play. Hendricks broke through the middle and found the way clear for a 79 yard romp. Harlow's run for extra points was good, making the score 14-0.

Neither team was able to move for the balance of the first period but Anna got go-

County Convention Of Farm Bureau Set Monday Night

Its purpose is to consider proposed resolutions for the state convention and decide how the county's delegates will vote on them. There will also be a progress report on the county membership drive which will end on October 31. The County FB received a trophy at last year's state convention for ten years of continuous growth.

Monday night's meeting will open with a roast beef supper starting at 7 p.m. Tickets for it can be obtained from the Farm Bureau office or from Martin Krahl.

Weekend Rain Measures 3.01 in.

The Muenster community is well supplied with moisture since the weekend when a total measure of 3.01 inches was scattered over most of two days. The reading was .55 Sunday morning on Steve Moster's Weather Bureau rain gauge, and it was 2.46 Monday morning.

Added to 1.06 earlier this month, this makes 4.07 inches to date for October and 35.42 so far for the year. Though still far below last year's total of 43.56, the present figure has topped the local average of 34.72 for the past ten years.

Along with the showers came the year's first cold wave. From balmy shirt-sleeve weather Sunday, the temperature took an overnight dive to the low forties, and daily low readings since then have remained in that area.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Ronnie Hess was dismissed from Muenster Hospital Monday following treatment since Friday night when he sustained a back injury in the SHH Tiger football game with Anna. He was back at classes Monday afternoon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess.

Her mother, Mrs. Leo Lawson of Gainesville, continues at her bedside. Cards are welcomed by Mrs. Brown. Address Mrs. Margaret Brown, c-o Lyster Army Hospital, Room 241, Fort Rucker, Ala. 36360.

Hornets Wallop S&S Rams 52-0

Muenster High's Hornets slipped and splashed to a 52-0 victory in their rain soaked game last Saturday night with the Sadler-Southmayd Rams.

The rain came before the game and it returned for several downpours while playing was under way. After a very short time the field was covered with water.

Despite a slippery ball the Hornets had remarkable success with their passing through the first half. They completed four out of six for 70 yards including one for a touchdown. But after intermission the passes were remarkably bad. Jim Endres and John Monday hit their targets regularly but receivers could not hold on. The result for the half was one completion for 5 yards out of 22 tries. The Rams did much better in that respect than the Hornets. They caught three of the Muenster passes.

It seemed as though the Hornets were trying to make yardage the hard way, just as they tried to score the hard way. Their running game was going strong all night nevertheless they made 8 attempts for field goals along with the persistent though unsuccessful passes.

Muenster's first score followed an interrupted drive. A fumble delayed it until the Hornets could hold their visitors for a series of downs. The rain made fumbling a big factor, the Rams losing possession ten times and the Hornets three times.

Ending the Rams' first series, Terry Miller blocked the attempted punt and the Hornets were 15 yards away. Three plays were enough, Jim Endres making the last foot on a quarterback sneak. John Monday's kick added a point.

The next counter came about 2 minutes later. Rams were stopped and Hornets started from 22 yards out. Henry Knabe made it in one plunge through the middle.

Next one was the same story. After holding S&S, Muenster had 45 yards to go. Passes to Dale Hellman and

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in Forestburg United Methodist Church for Mrs. Ben Perryman, 51, who was fatally injured in a two-car crash the preceding Thursday. Burial in Forestburg Cemetery was directed by George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home.

The accident that claimed Mrs. Perryman also took the life of Leon Morales Jr. 24, of Hood. They were drivers of the cars that collided four miles south of Myra at a farm-market road intersection about 9 p.m. Ben Perryman, 55, is a patient at Muenster Hospital. He was thrown from the car. Both vehicles were demolished.

Mrs. Perryman is survived by her husband; two sons, Gary Don and Wade, both of Forestburg; two sisters, one brother, her step-mother and grandmother.

Services for Morales were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville. The Rev. Robert Grant officiated at Requiem Mass and George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements in Fairview Cemetery.

Morales was an employee of Enderby Butane Gas Co. at Gainesville.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, his parents, four brothers and five sisters, all of Hood.

Hornets, Falcons Well Matched for Rugged Contest

The MHS Hornets have another big job ahead of them Friday night when they meet the Lake Dallas Falcons there at 8 o'clock.

According to Coach Glenn Richardson the Falcons are lots tougher than the outfit which was trimmed twice by the Hornets last year, in regular season and bi-district.

The team lost only three of last year's starters by graduation. In Richardson's opinion the year's gain in weight and development more than offsets the loss of the three players.

On the other hand Muenster has only three starters from last year, however it has a good average of size and talent, ranking about equal to last year's team. And it is physically up to par. Quarterback John Monday, hurt in the second game, had a tryout last week and is ready this week. So are all the others.

Team records to date also indicate a tight game. The Falcons won three before losing 14-0 to Windthorst last week, however they were jinxed by 6 interceptions and 4 fumbles. Muenster has a 2-1 record.

Rally Falls Short Tigers Lose 28-12

Fans of the Sacred Heart Tigers came away pleased from the game with Anna High last Friday even though Sacred Heart lost by a score of 28-12.

Their amazing fourth quarter comeback was not enough to win but it was plenty reason for pride. Trailing by four touchdowns they put on an inspired late rally that scored 12 points before the game was stopped with 58 seconds still showing on the scoreboard.

Reason for stopping was a sad note of the contest. Little Ronnie Hess was injured as he tackled the player who had just stolen a pass intended for him. The injury was feared to be serious and he was taken to the hospital. He recovered quickly, however and was dismissed from the hospital Sunday.

Starting the game the visiting Coyotes had everything their way. After forcing Sacred Heart to kick on the first series they made 7 yards in three plays before Harlow broke away for a 21 yard scoring sprint.

Next time they got the ball they needed only one play. Hendricks broke through the middle and found the way clear for a 79 yard romp. Harlow's run for extra points was good, making the score 14-0.

Neither team was able to move for the balance of the first period but Anna got go-

There will also be a progress report on the county membership drive which will end on October 31. The County FB received a trophy at last year's state convention for ten years of continuous growth.

Monday night's meeting will open with a roast beef supper starting at 7 p.m. Tickets for it can be obtained from the Farm Bureau office or from Martin Krahl.

Weekend Rain Measures 3.01 in.

The Muenster community is well supplied with moisture since the weekend when a total measure of 3.01 inches was scattered over most of two days. The reading was .55 Sunday morning on Steve Moster's Weather Bureau rain gauge, and it was 2.46 Monday morning.

Added to 1.06 earlier this month, this makes 4.07 inches to date for October and 35.42 so far for the year. Though still far below last year's total of 43.56, the present figure has topped the local average of 34.72 for the past ten years.

Along with the showers came the year's first cold wave. From balmy shirt-sleeve weather Sunday, the temperature took an overnight dive to the low forties, and daily low readings since then have remained in that area.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Ronnie Hess was dismissed from Muenster Hospital Monday following treatment since Friday night when he sustained a back injury in the SHH Tiger football game with Anna. He was back at classes Monday afternoon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess.

Her mother, Mrs. Leo Lawson of Gainesville, continues at her bedside. Cards are welcomed by Mrs. Brown. Address Mrs. Margaret Brown, c-o Lyster Army Hospital, Room 241, Fort Rucker, Ala. 36360.

Hornets Wallop S&S Rams 52-0

Muenster High's Hornets slipped and splashed to a 52-0 victory in their rain soaked game last Saturday night with the Sadler-Southmayd Rams.

The rain came before the game and it returned for several downpours while playing was under way. After a very short time the field was covered with water.

Despite a slippery ball the Hornets had remarkable success with their passing through the first half. They completed four out of six for 70 yards including one for a touchdown. But after intermission the passes were remarkably bad. Jim Endres and John Monday hit their targets regularly but receivers could not hold on. The result for the half was one completion for 5 yards out of 22 tries. The Rams did much better in that respect than the Hornets. They caught three of the Muenster passes.

It seemed as though the Hornets were trying to make yardage the hard way, just as they tried to score the hard way. Their running game was going strong all night nevertheless they made 8 attempts for field goals along with the persistent though unsuccessful passes.

Muenster's first score followed an interrupted drive. A fumble delayed it until the Hornets could hold their visitors for a series of downs. The rain made fumbling a big factor, the Rams losing possession ten times and the Hornets three times.

Ending the Rams' first series, Terry Miller blocked the attempted punt and the Hornets were 15 yards away. Three plays were enough, Jim Endres making the last foot on a quarterback sneak. John Monday's kick added a point.

The next counter came about 2 minutes later. Rams were stopped and Hornets started from 22 yards out. Henry Knabe made it in one plunge through the middle.

Next one was the same story. After holding S&S, Muenster had 45 yards to go. Passes to Dale Hellman and

"AND A BAR FOR ME"

A lot of television viewers probably were left suspicious of their own eyes and ears after a recent network newscast.

The story being unraveled was that of a family in a town in New Jersey where an experimental program is being carried out. The program, one of those federally funded things, is supposed to find out exactly what kind of effect it has upon poor people who get a helping hand from the government.

Does free money tend to spur most people on to work harder and make more money, or does it discourage them from working and make them content with handouts?

Would extra money actually be used by poor people to help lift themselves above poverty level, or would it just go into splurge buying?

The interviewer questioned one man who has been receiving checks. At first, said the subject, he had been suspicious of the money, which he received without knowing why. But then, he decided, it would be all right to take it since there were no strings attached.

What did he do then, the interviewer wanted to know.

Bought a television set for his wife, the man said. A color television set. And some other things his wife had been wanting.

Did he buy anything for himself?

Yes, the bar.

The reporter asked if that might be the bar at which he himself was sitting. It was.

The report closed with the same conclusion the program administrators have reached: that the free money receivers do not tend to go on spending binges. At least they don't have more than other people do.

Well, maybe color TV for the wife and a bar for the man of the house do have an effect on poverty. One minor complaint might be the effect

Furukawa Exhibition

A seven-story pagoda, a modern replica of an ancient Buddhist pagoda, standing 282 feet in height, will be the exhibition site for 32 Japanese companies at EXPO '70, Osaka, Japan. Their exhibition will be entitled the Furukawa exhibition.

The theme of the exhibition will be "Dreams of ancient and modern Japan: The Seven-Story Pagoda of the Todaiji Temple and Computopia."

The pagoda itself will be a reproduction of the one which once dominated the compound of the Todaiji Temple, noted for its Great Buddha, in Nara. It was originally built in the 8th century but later destroyed. Its modern replica hence symbolizes the dreams of antiquity.

Beneath it there will be an exhibition hall, the Computopia exhibition hall, where the most up-to-date electronic equipment will be displayed. In contrast to the dreams of antiquity, the Computopia exhibit will embody the dreams of modern Japan with its emphasis on the computer which has revolutionized modern society and opened new vistas.

The remote past and the ultra-modern, this theme will highlight the Furukawa exhibition of 32 Japanese companies.

Nature's "Black Magic"

Quite a bit gets said about the exotic materials trickling out of the space program into everyday life. Less known are the commonplace things which go the other way, from land use into spacecraft.

Take the recent Apollo 11 flight for example.

Among the items that traveled to the moon that you might find in the home are plastic bags, chewing gum, aluminum foil, some very familiar medicines and ordinary pens and pencils.

Another down-to-earth product which has been a vital part of the space program ever since Alan Shepard's first flight is so common that nearly everyone in the nation, perhaps unknowingly, depends upon it—in some form—every day. The product is activated charcoal.

A grainy, black substance with remarkable powers to absorb both liquids and gases like a magnet, activated charcoal has become a necessity in modern day life since the discovery, in 1918, that it would protect American doughboys from German poison gas attacks. Without it, there could not be exploration of outer space or the world beneath the seas, since it is used to purify air in submarines as well as in space suits and capsules.

It keeps the air clean in public buildings such as the Smithsonian Institution, Chicago's O'Hare Airport and Houston's Astrodome. It removes impurities from the water you drink and may soon be fed to cattle to purge harmful pesticides from milk and meat.

Activated charcoal is used to manufacture the miracle drugs, penicillin and streptomycin. A single pound can control the taste, odor and color of a thousand gallons of vodka, while a fraction of a teaspoonful removes certain gas phase components from cigarettes such as Tareyton.

It's black and it's powerful. It's estimated that one pound of this material will take up half of its weight in odor particles—as much as a human being will breathe in a lifetime.

In designing filtering units for the first manned spacecraft, engineers just couldn't find a better ingredient than activated charcoal. They still haven't. So the grainy black stuff that is an offshoot of the lumps you burn in your backyard barbecue continues to give Americans in space and on land a refreshing taste of tomorrow's pollution-free living today.

A cute little student nurse took a driver's license test recently. Accompanied by a state policeman for the exam, she drove through a red light without noticing. "Young lady, what does a red light mean to you?" the trooper inquired sarcastically. Quick as a flash, she answered, "A 'bed-pan!'" merely is to relieve somebody's poverty by adding to that of others who provide the free money.

LETTER FROM A GHOST

It is a fact of life these days that a citizen's attempt to get something straightened out with the Federal Government is difficult in direct proportion to the size of the bureaucracy. Take for example the poor soul who wrote his congressman, Rep. Burt L. Talcott (R-Calif.), trying to get some satisfaction from the government over a health care snafu. "On May 15, 1968, I filed a claim for Medicare payments. It was never paid. It took several months through the Social Security office to find out why. They finally told me I had passed away. All efforts to have this error corrected have failed. Your help would be appreciated to set the record straight." Oh, the wonders of modern government.

But it is frightening, for two reasons.

One is that the experimental program is designed to find out what to do about poverty on a national scale. That could involve a lot of color TVs and a lot of bars.

Another is that people who don't care whether the judgments match the facts are not exclusively in government; the news world seems to be growing a crop of them.

A Lesson From Alaska

While a great deal of energy is being expended by the nation's lawmakers on ways to exact more taxes from the petroleum industry, it is interesting to note events taking place across the continent on Alaska's North Slope. Up there, U.S. oil companies are engaged in a pioneer venture that may turn out to be an all-time classic in the realm of private initiative and rugged individualism. As the news stories filter out, however, it becomes clear that modern pioneering costs a lot of money. Oil companies are spending hundreds of millions of dollars developing Alaska's oil resources—money that incidentally might not have been available for exploration and development if some of the "tax reforms" proposed today had been in effect a few years ago.

The astronomical cost of producing and transporting oil out of Alaska is staggering. Freight moved by tractor train costs $160 per ton; freight moved by air costs $240 per ton, wages are 50 to 75 per cent higher than in the contiguous 48 states; well drilling costs are as high as $4.5 million per well. This compares with $70,000 to $30,000 for land based drilling in Texas and California. Even this is not the whole story. The oil must be transported from the frigid North to all-weather ports in the South. Interested oil companies are planning to construct a 49-inch pipeline -- the largest ever built in the world, spanning 800 miles of northern wilderness. This pipeline will cost nearly a billion dollars and will have an ultimate capacity of moving over 2 million barrels of petroleum a day.

The discovery and production of oil in great quantities by U.S. oil companies on the distant North Slopes of Alaska will play a large part in meeting this country's energy needs in the years to come. We can be thankful they have the financial resources to tackle the job. Whatever changes are made in the tax laws, failure to protect the financial ability of the petroleum industry to tackle the big exploratory jobs of the future could cost the nation dearly in terms of both security and progress.

Non-Tillage Farming

The plow, symbol of peace and the rise of man above an animalistic existence, may be retired someday to an honorable place in the museum. Non-tillage farming is the latest agricultural innovation. It has been introduced by one of the country's top chemical companies, whose laboratories have developed a compound that is applied at the same time unplowed ground is seeded. The compound, called Paraquat, is absorbed by weeds and other vegetation and kills them in one to three days, leaving a protective mulch for the soon-to-germinate crop plants. The chemical deactivates on contact with the soil, thereby eliminating danger to the growing crop and leaving no residue buildup in plants or soil.

The possibilities of non-tillage farming stagger the imagination. The multi-stepped tillage practices of agriculture today require moving 250 billion tons of soil each year in various tillage and cultivation operations. This is a major cost of farming which the non-tillage method can cut drastically. If it becomes standard practice, the resultant savings could mean another agricultural revolution with incalculable benefits to farmers and consumers alike. Non-tillage farming shows once again how an advancing

Faye Black, Bride Of Douglas Martin At Nuptial Mass

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Faye Black and Pfc. Douglas Martin Thursday, Oct. 9, at 5 p.m. when the couple exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony at Nuptial Mass.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. David Black of Myra and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin of Muenster.

Father Bede Mitchell was officiating minister. Father Harry Fisher of Fort Worth was present in the sanctuary.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with appliques of beaded lace on the empire bodice, long sleeves and chapel-length train. A heart-shaped crown of bridal jewels held her lace-edged veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. For something old and borrowed she wore a gold cross and chain that the bridegroom's mother wore at her wedding.

Bride's four attendants were identically gowned in floor-length blue crepe dresses with lace-covered empire bodices accented with blue velvet ribbon that formed streamers in the back. They wore matching ribbon and lace headpieces and each carried a nosegay of white mums.

of honor and Mrs. Wilbur Matthews of Richardson, a sister-in-law, was bridesmaid. Miss Terry Black and Miss Estelle Martin, sisters of the couple, were junior bridesmaids. Little Miss Shelley Boggs, bride's niece was flower girl in a dress identical to that of the other attendants. She presented the mum nosegay she carried to the bride after the service for the traditional floral offering on the Blessed Virgin's altar. Jerry Burrows of Gainesville, bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

Groom's attendants were Leon Knauf, a cousin, best man, Bill Black, bride's brother, groomsmen, and Wendell Black and Ernest Martin, brothers of the couple, junior groomsmen.

Bob Pels, groom's cousin, and Kenneth Boggs, bride's brother-in-law were ushers.

Anthony Luke, organist, and Mrs. James Holler of Thackerville, Okla., vocal soloist, provided wedding music.

Wedding reception was held in Myra school building where Mrs. Bill Black registered some 100 guests. Mrs. Jake Biffle Jr. and Mrs. Parker Fears presided at the refreshment table pouring punch and serving the wedding cake which was cut by Mrs. Charles Bayer after the bride and bridegroom cut the first slices. The board was covered with white linen and held a centerpiece of white and blue-tinted mums in a crystal container flanked by tapers.

After the reception the newlyweds were honored at a miscellaneous gift shower in Myra Baptist Church by women of the church who were hostesses and served refreshments.

The couple married while Pfc. Martin was on a five-day leave between transfer from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio. They honeymooned until Sunday when he left for his new assignment — a four-week class in medical supplies. He's a graduate of Sacred Heart High School. The bride is a senior at Era High School and will continue classes until she can join her soldier husband. He is a medical supply clerk.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Black wore a navy blue knit dress with black accessories and Mrs. Martin, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green knit two-piece costume with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Wedding guests in addition to those from Cooke County included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin of Fort Worth, Miss Irene Martin of Dallas and the Thackerville Troubadors, a group of five musicians with whom Ernest Martin plays.

Muenster Knights Have Dual Event For Columbus Day

Muenster Knights of Columbus observed the feast of their patron saint Sunday with a religious observance followed by a gala social event.

The celebration was also the occasion for making their annual good neighbor award to a person of another faith. Edgar Dyer, vocational agriculture instructor of Muenster High School received a wood plaque, hand carved by the Bavarian Woodcarvers, for his outstanding service and friendly relations in the community. He was honored last year as the outstanding conservation teacher in Zone 5 of Texas. Ernest Jaska introduced the honoree and made the award.

The event was held in the K of C Hall starting at 7 o'clock with a Mass at which Father Placidus Eckart, chaplain, was the celebrant. Sisters Maureen and Lenore led the group singing. Sir Knights J. W. Fisher and Gene Hoedbeck were honor guards, and Arthur Endres was master of ceremonies.

In a short sermon Father Placidus compared the voyage of Columbus with the moon landing as the great adventure and achievement of its time. He also stressed patriotism as one of the principal virtues of the order, urging members to stand up in loyal support of the country as critics and trouble makers and subversives are trying to wreck it.

Don Kemp of Dallas, program director of the K of C State Council, was guest speaker on the program. He called on the membership to live up to K of C principles as a way to attain both temporal and eternal happiness. He invited attention to worthy projects sponsored by the order and encouraged his brother knights to cooperate in those endeavors. The speaker was accompanied to Muenster by Tom Murphy, popularly known as Mr. KC of Dallas.

Next on the program was a cocktail hour in the clubroom while the upstairs was prepared for a buffet and dance. Decorations of the evening followed the theme of ancient Rome, featuring columns, flowers and grape clusters — along with a typically Roman abundance of foods. Corky and the Del Rays provided dance music.

Sweepstakes Winner

Auto Insurance Rates Will Go Up 9.9 per cent Nov. 1

Higher automobile insurance rates were adopted by the State Board of Insurance, but they are not as high as had been originally predicted.

Statewide, the increase in rates on Nov. 1 will be 9.9 per cent. Insurance Board's staff earlier had recommended an 11.4 per cent increase.

This smaller increase was accomplished by accepting the recommendation of Gov. Preston Smith's study committee that the percentage allowed insurance companies for acquisition costs be cut from 25 to 22.5 per cent of the premium.

Another recommendation of the study committee headed by former Gov. Price Daniel was that the Board should include investment income of insurance companies in setting the rates.

Board Chairman Ned Price said the Board would give careful consideration to inclusion of investment income from unearned premium and loss reserves as "profit and contingencies." He added that "we may have further comment on this at a later date."

However, Price also warned that it may not have as much effect on the price of insurance as had been thought. He said "The Board has consistently recognized and considered in its regulatory acts that the companies have other income than that from underwriting."

Price also said that the Board will begin, "as time and circumstances permit," a detailed study of automobile rate-making formulae. He said the study of the present formula used in setting rates would be made during the coming year. The formula, he said, "will be reviewed with the objective of determining if rates can be made more precisely by another formula."

Bluebird Groups Plan Attendance At Camp Saturday

Both Muenster Bluebird groups have made plans to attend camp at Lake Murray on Saturday, Oct. 18. Plans were made at separate meetings during the week.

Third Grade Bluebirds also made plans for a Halloween puppet show. Marlene Swirczynski dismissed with the magic wand after the meeting closed with the Bluebird Circle. The group's new sponsor Mrs. B. J. Swirczynski was a guest. Girls going to Lake Murray for the outing Saturday were instructed to take with them lunch, a "sit-upon," a dress for hiking and 10 cents for a drink.

met with their leaders Mrs. Tom Joy and Mrs. Joe Felderhoff, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Trubenbach, hostess.

The girls elected officers for the month: Kim Walterscheid, president; Linda Gail Endres, vice president; Bernadette Knabe, secretary, Christy Felderhoff, treasurer; Beverly Trubenbach, pledge leader.

This week the candle lighter was Nancy Luke.

The girls made Bluebird calendars showing meeting days for the year. The meeting closed with the Bluebird song in the Bluebird Circle. Wanda Schneider dismissed the group with the magic wand.

In this group's second meeting, members chose Happy Bluebirds as their name.

Earl Koelzer were good for 9 and 20. Koelzer ran for 13 and Tim Hennigan scored from the 3. Monday's kick made the count 20-0.

Three plays after the next kickoff Leon Klement recovered a fumble and Bruns scored on a pass from the 22. Score ending the first quarter was 26-0.

Early in the next period Koelzer went 44 to the 12 and Hennigan was inches short of first down yardage at the 2. On second down from there Monday made his only field goal out of 8 tries. The count was 29-0.

Leon Klement's interception gave Muenster possession at the 18, where a field goal was missed. Shortly later Endros intercepted and a field goal was missed from the 10. Ending the next series the Ram kicker was nailed behind the line by Henry Sicking making the count 31-0.

And just before the half ended Koelzer scored from the 11.

Second half started in a downpour starting a comedy of fumbles. Hornets lost the ball twice and the Rams three times before Monday sneaked from the 2 for a TD.

Fumbling and intercepting and occasional first downs and place kick misses continued until near the end when Koelzer scooted from the 29. And finally a Ram was caught behind the line for a safety as he tried to run back an interception.

Meanwhile a rugged defense threw the visitors for losses throughout the game. Tommy Henschel, Leon Klement, David Fette, Henry Sicking and Tim Harman combined efforts to hold Ram rushing to a net loss of 67 yards. The Rams' only first down resulted from a penalty.

Bees Look Fine in 26-14 Win over Whitesboro Team

Muenster High's Bees looked like first stringers last Thursday night as they came from behind and blasted the Whitesboro Kittens 26-14.

They played on even terms through the first period and grudgingly gave up a TD early in the second but took definite control after that. By the time intermission arrived they were ahead 14-8 in the score, 9-3 in first downs and 157-65 in total yardage.

The second half was more decisive as they added to their lead in both score and statistics. At the end Muenster led 20-4 in first downs, 121-67 in rushing and 242-18 in passing.

The first quarter was a seesaw with Muenster making two first downs and the visitors one. Whitesboro was 39 yards away as the next period started and put together three good plays reaching a first down on the 2. Three plays did the job and a pass added 2 points.

The Bees comeback was even stronger. Glenn Felderhoff passed to Ricky Schweitzer for 19, to John Schneider for 22 and to Schneider again for 29 and the score.

Ricky Huchton started the second drive by intercepting and 10 plays went 63 to a TD. Huchton and Hank Trachta hammered away for steady gains and a screen pass to Trachta was good for 29. Huchton scored from the 6. Gerry Cash caught a pass for bonus points.

The second half opened with a 57 yard drive in 11 plays. A pass to Roy Klement for 19 was the best gain and a pass to Cash for 6 was the scorer.

Just before the quarter ended a drive went for 82 yards. 49 of that was covered by a screen pass to Trachta, 23 on a pass to Cash, and the last 8 on Huchton's run.

Near the end the Bees were moving again following Alan Miller's interception on the 44. Eight plays and 15 free yards on two penalties reached the 8 where an attempted TD pass backfired. Whitesboro's defender grabbed it just inside the goal line and sailed 99 yards for a Kitten touchdown.

Lindsay Society Discusses Plans For Coming Events

Members of Lindsay St. Anne's Society, at their October meeting planned for coming events which include Lindsay's hosting the district meeting of the Catholic State League of Texas next Sunday, Oct. 19, the annual Thanksgiving picnic and bazaar sponsored by the organization on Nov. 9, and sending Christmas gifts to Lindsay boys in service overseas.

Mrs. Joe Paul Fuhrmann, president, conducted the business in the presence of 29 members and Father Damian Wewers who was welcomed as the new spiritual director of the society succeeding former pastor Father John Walbe.

Father Damian spoke on the need of prayer — especially family prayer.

A letter was read concerning O Sung Sam, an orphan in Pusan, Korea. The youngster is sponsored by the society and the orphanage reports regularly on his welfare.

Also read was an article about women covering their heads in church. The article pointed out that there has been no change in church rules and that heads should be covered in church.

Mrs. Nick Block reported on the state convention of the CSL in San Angelo in July. She was on vacation at the previous meeting of the organization.

After business there was a social hour with refreshments served by Mmes. George Moser, John Neu Jr., and Joe J. Neu. Mrs. Block won the door prize.

Members met in the school cafeteria after gathering in church for recitation of the rosary.

Herman Martin of Lindsay Assembles Yule Decor Early

Herman Martin, who annually draws hundreds of sight-seers to his home at Lindsay to view his Christmas display, has started early this year assembling the exhibit which includes a number of new characters he made recently and will show for the first time.

These include a snowman and three children, a large star flanked by Santa and a girl, and singers in a window.

The display will be lighted for the first time on Halloween, then every Friday, Saturday and Sunday during November, and from Dec. 1 through 25.

Most of the original figures set up the past two years and displayed again this year are hand made, cut or carved from plywood and wired electrically. Some are activated, others wink or blink.

The handmade figures are all the more interesting because Mr. Martin is one-armed. He lost his right arm when he was a young boy as the result of a snake bite.

The Nativity scene with the Holy Family, shepherds, three Wise Men, sheep and other animals, life size, are ready-made.

Mr. Martin invites everyone to drive by, especially if there are children in the family.

Tonia Zimmerer Has First Party

ing as the second quarter opened and gained 72 yards in ten plays. Harlow went over from the 15.

On the Tigers' first play after kickoff the Coyotes intercepted and started again with 27 yards to go. A penalty increased the yardage to 42, but five plays were enough. A pass to Hendricks went 17 for the TD and a run by Allison upped the count to 28-0.

As the half was ending the Tigers moved for the first time. They made three first downs going 34 yards and ran out of steam on the Coyote 37.

Intermission was followed by almost a full quarter of defensive tussle in which Anna got three first downs and Sacred Heart two. On their second, however, the Tigers were cranking up a drive which went 77 yards before it stalled on the 20.

Four plays later Anna kicked and the Tigers had 47 to go. Two dives added 6 before Melvin Schilling took a screen pass from Gary Endres and got to the 2, where he was bumped out of bounds. Schilling got one of those yards and Kevin Swirczynski the other.

An interception by Allen

Hess following the next kickoff gave the Tigers the inspiration and position for another score. Endres grabbed at the opportunity on the next play and fired a pass to Ronnie Hess for a TD. However, officials did not allow it and the Tigers were penalized 5 yards to the 30. Next try was better. Ronnie made a sensational catch and Sacred Heart had 12 points.

Slightly more than a minute was left in the game and Sacred Heart still had scoring notions. On first play they recovered a Coyote fumble. On the next one Endres heaved another one to Hess but big, lanky McFarland stepped in front and intercepted. Hess nailed him immediately and was at the bottom as the two crashed to the ground.

herited a mess that is not of his making, he is stuck with the job of ending it with honor to ourselves and justice to our Vietnamese allies. His effort is being sabotaged by the dissenters and by newsmen who encourage the dissent.

The great misfortune of this war is that it was permitted to reach its present sad dilemma. We fought as if all rules were laid down by the enemy, refraining from bombing prime targets in the war zone and at the source of supply, forcing our troops to fight a guerrilla type jungle war, allowing the enemy areas of sanctuary. It's been a hopeless no-win method, working under handicap to repel an aggressor but making no effort to defeat him.

This is the pitiful mess to which our president now is seeking an honorable solution. He deserves better cooperation than he's getting.
