VOLUME XXXV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 APRIL 23, 1971

The recent attack of Representative Boggs on FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover is as regrettable for him as for the rest of the nation. It places the Louisiana congressman and a number of other prominent figures in the awkward position of supporting revolutionaries and extremists of the radical left who have been mean mouthing the FBI for a long time. Before this hassle is decided the politicians as well as the FBI will have scars.

Their attack seems to supplement the so called peace demonstration which is planned to start this weekend in Washington and extend through the traditional big communist holiday on May 1 and the Kent State Riot anniversary on May 2. The demonstration was organized by a meeting of leftists at Ann Arbor, Mich., early in February. Publicity for it got under way a short time later and all government officials as well as the news media knew when it was coming and by whom it was sponsored. But strangely, and tragically, little is being said to reveal the treasonable and subversive motives behind it.

A TV program Sunday night showed early arrivals for the demonstration featuring a group of Vietnam veterans opposing the war. The program presented this group's gripes but failed to tell the nature of the organization behind the show. Nor did it mention that this fairly small crowd of unwashed and uncombed characters was being rather presumptuous in claiming to talk for two million GIs. The program conveyed opinions criticizing the Nixon administration but failed to reveal that the motive of the ringleaders is not to save American lives or funds but rather to leave Southeast Asia vulnerable to red conquest.

Some of the loud mouth revolutionaries have openly boasted their intention to seek the overthrow of our government. And other incriminating statements have been brought out by investigation of the FBI. Our government is well aware of the situation. It knows who are behind the demonstration and how they think. It also knows that this element of subversives and traitors is the most determined of all groups seeking to dismiss J. Edgar Hoover and to discredit the entire FBI.

In support of charges by Boggs, other congressmen have complained that FBI agents snoop at gatherings they had attended. But they seem to overlook the fact that well known radicals were also present at those meetings. FBI was not necessarily checking up on office holders, but they were doing a necessary security job in checking up on the characters who are known to be public enemies.

That is the job FBI will be carrying out again during the so called peace demonstration. This nation's security depends upon surveillance of all its enemies. We can understand why those enemies want to destroy the FBI but we cannot understand how responsible members of our government can fail to realize the harm they do when they assist in the attacks on Hoover and his organization.

This column's guess is that the vast majority of Americans (Continued on page 8)

Dr. Lucius Waites To Present Free Lecture April 28

Cooke Countians will have the rare privilege of hearing a program on dyslexia to be presented by Dr. Lucius Waites, Pediatric Neurologist Texas Scottish Rite Hospital, and two of his staff members, next Wednesday, April 28 at 3 p.m. in Gainesville High School Auditorium.

The ninety minute program will be sponsored by the Gainesville School System and schools will be dismissed so that teachers may attend. There is no admission charge.

Parents and all interested persons are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to learn first hand what can be done for people with dyslexia. As pointed out, it is quite possible that children termed as immature, not trying, lazy or disinterested in school work are suffering from developmental language disability, or dyslexia.

People with dyslexia are poor readers and spellers, their handwriting is often poor, they do not understand or remember verbal instructions and they frequently have trouble copying geometric patterns and words. Language disability is much more common in males than in females and seems to be hereditary. Cases vary in severity.

One of the internationally recognized centers for study and training is the Language Unit at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas under the direction of Dr. Waites.

Sister Alberta Krebs of Sacred Heart School is the only teacher in Cooke County who is presently qualified to offer the special training needed by children with dyslexia. She has had the training course at Scottish Rite under Dr. Waites and his staff.

Her hope in suggesting a meeting of this sort is that other teachers of the county will take the course of training offered.

She is teaching all the children she can accommodate and has to turn others away for lack of time.

Clock Changing Time Is Here

At 2 a.m. Sunday, April 25, Daylight Saving Time of 1971 will arrive, and people will be setting their clocks ahead one hour.

It's the beginning of the annual six-month period when official time in the United States is an hour ahead of sun time. People confused about the change can remember that in spring the hour hand springs ahead one hour and in the fall the hour hand falls back.

An important chore for Saturday night is set clocks ahead. It means losing an hour of sleep but it's the only way to be on schedule the next day, and get to Sunday church services at the regular time.

Cattlemen Look to May 8 for Meet at Twin Pines Farm

Cattlemen are looking forward to a joint meeting of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association and the Cooke County Beef Cattle Improvement Association on May 8 here in the show barn on Charles Bartush's Twin Pine Farms.

In addition to having Senator John Tower as keynote speaker, officers from the two associations will present information pertinent to the cattle industry.

Also planned is a "Dutch treat" lunch and a tour of Al Felderhoff's Renner Demonstration Farm which is located nearby.

This promised to be an outstanding meeting and one of considerable importance to individuals in the cattle business. Guests, and friends of agriculture are invited to attend with members.

No Cub Meet Monday

Cubmaster Charles Bartush announced Wednesday that the local cub pack will not meet next Monday, April 26. The boys are working on rockets as their current project and will display them at the May meeting.

Forrest Gregg to Head Program at Awards Banquet

Forrest Gregg, retired, a member of the world champion Green Bay Packers team, will be the master of ceremonies at Muenster High School's all awards banquet on Friday, April 30.

Gregg was a star of the SMU Mustangs in his college career and played offensive tackle for the Packers. He became acquainted here during the several years he owned and operated a sporting goods store in Gainesville and lived there between grid seasons. He now lives in Dallas and has a sporting goods store there.

The all awards banquet next week Friday is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association. Its purpose is to announce all of the year's awards, athletic and academic, except those which are reserved for the graduation program. Awards will also be presented at the banquet, except those which were given earlier, such as football jackets.

All Muenster High students will be guests of the PTA for the event, and the price to parents and friends is $2.50 per person. Tickets are available from Superintendent L. B. Bruns, Principal C. O. Cash, Mrs. Henry Felderhoff, Fisher's Market and Hamric's through next Monday. That deadline was set to allow ample time for notifying the caterer.

FHA Girls March April 27 for Funds in Cancer Crusade

"We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime." That is the theme of the American Cancer Society's April Crusade and Muenster FHA members will march for the cause.

Future Homemakers of America Chapter of Muenster High School will solicit contributions in a door to door campaign next Tuesday, April 27, from 6 to 9 p.m. They will be accompanied by their chapter adviser Mrs. Judy Flowers.

This proposal will be presented to the Muenster Public School board by Jerry Wimmer, committee chairman, at the board's meeting May 6.

Adequate response has been received in the recent survey to justify procedure with the project in the major categories mentioned.

Blessing In Disguise

The current slowdown in business may be a blessing in disguise. It might help teach respect for law — a first fundamental of self-government. It could also lead to a new realization that social goals are unattainable except through the strength of the business system.

The latest crop of college graduates, for example, are learning the hard way, in their search for employment, that profits, jobs, and prosperity sink or swim together. Perhaps this will lead to an awareness of other truths about the American business system. For example, in the first three quarters of 1970, 90.2 percent of the earnings of the average American company — after paying for materials, supplies, taxes, rent, heat, etc. — went to employees. Of the remaining 9.8 percent retained by the owners (stockholders) nearly half was needed to finance improvements for future growth.

From this, it should not be hard to see why it is idle to talk of social reform or progress of any kind unless it is accompanied by business growth and profits.

Let the Trial Be Held

Milo Nickel, publisher of the Crowley (Louisiana) Post Herald recently noted the interesting and significant legal maneuvering by the battery of lawyers associated with the "Kent Legal Defense Fund." The "Fund" has petitioned the U.S. District Court in Cleveland to quash the indictments against defendants for alleged complicity in the violent rioting at Kent State University in May, 1970, which ended in four deaths, many injured, and thousands of dollars destroyed and damaged property.

It is, of course, completely legitimate that defense attorneys in any case should seek to quash indictments against their clients, and to use all possible legal arguments toward that end. But the "Fund" attorneys went further, and in harsh and abusive language attacked "the little tyrants who do not believe in freedom or peaceful change . . . trying to change our university into a police state."

And who were the "little tyrants?" Why, the people in the Kent community, of course! Not the rioters! Thus, the community is cast in the role of villain; which prompted Publisher Milo Nickel to comment, with justifiable sarcasm:

"The community threw store windows against rocks held in the hands of peaceful students. The community burned down a ROTC building. The community sent National Guard troops in to kill students who were merely exercising their rights of free speech and assembly. The community has crippled and maimed Kent State."

"But a riot did take place, and only a trial can determine who was responsible for it."

Publisher Nickel concluded, "If . . . no one is brought to trial for what happened at Kent, this will be an injustice not only against the community, but against those students who believe that violence is not the way to change things."

Health Hints

FROM BLUE SHIELD

Eye Irritation

If a particle of dirt or other foreign substance enters the eye, lift the upper lid and pull down over the lower lid so that the watering of the eye will wash out the speck. If this proves unsuccessful, wash the irritated area with drops of lukewarm water. In instances when the speck still remains and damage may be done to the eye, avoid self-treatment and consult your physician.

Fatigue

Relieve fatigue from physical exertion with added rest and sleep. On the other hand, if you experience fatigue from a sedentary occupation and way of life, get some exercise. Brisk walks, jogging, cycling and sports, such as golf or bowling are helpful. Also, check your environment at work and home for causes of fatigue. Bad lighting, poor ventilation, excessive noise, and variations in temperature may be at fault. If fatigue becomes chronic, see your doctor.

Pesticides

The increasing use of pesticides to keep homes free of insects and protect plant life requires certain precautions on the part of the user. First, read the directions on the label of the container and note all cautions and warnings. Second, keep pesticides away from children or pets. Third, make certain the container is tightly sealed and never transfer the contents to another unlabeled container.

No Political Police

As columnist Richard Wilson wrote recently, the liberals' campaign to get J. Edgar Hoover is also aimed indirectly at the FBI itself.

The complaints about Hoover's age, the impassioned denunciations of the discipline and efficiency of his dedication, the gibes at the dedication of the FBI agents are flying thick and fast now. The critics' ideal FBI, it appears, would be a combination of a federal ACLU and an ADA with police powers. The critics seem particularly incensed about the supposedly unsatisfactory qualities of the FBI and its director when the agency is bringing leftist criminals to justice.

But oddly enough, when a political crime or act of terrorism is committed by those for whom the critics have no sympathy, the numerous objections to the FBI are suddenly muted. When the FBI is tracking down the killers of Martin Luther King and other civil-rights workers, when the FBI is rounding up the Nazi spy organization in 1941, very few of the liberal spokesmen urged that the job be turned over to another, less efficient organization.

When the task at hand is to track down criminals, even the opponents admit the FBI is tough, incorruptible and effective. Under Hoover's leadership, it has established a reputation as the nation's best and it has done so without becoming a national political police force.

Most Americans, we believe, want it to continue in that role: they do not want to see it either reduced to a cipher or turned into a partisan political weapon, used to serve the incumbent politicians' party.

The average Corn Belt yield per acre today is 90 to 100 bushels compared to about 38 bushels per acre prior to 1940.

The United States acre yield for wheat has doubled since 1930, from 14 to 28 bushels.

A Tough Proposition

A lot of appliances, gadgets and automobiles appear to have less durability built into them than they did a few years ago. But appearances can be deceiving. If automobiles performed as they did 30 or 40 years ago, today's freeways would be a nightmare of clogged traffic. There was a time when every auto carried three or four spare tires. A blow out was a normal occurrence just as was mechanical failure. Millions of autos now travel the expressways during rush hours, and rarely is the traffic flow slowed by a breakdown.

The chairman of the Council of Better Business Bureaus, Inc., Mr. Elisha Gray offers one reason why U. S. consumers are dissatisfied with business. "Simply stated," he says, "their expectations have been raised to unprecedented levels — which business often cannot fulfill." Mass production of foolproof, trouble-free, highly-complicated machines and appliances for mass use — at prices people can pay — is a mighty tough proposition. It is also one that U. S. enterprise has tackled with a remarkable degree of success.

"It happened again the other day. . . . A suspect, charged with a string of violent crimes and out on bail, is arrested on a similar charge. That makes six rapes the suspect is charged with, unless he is turned loose again to try for a seventh. . . . There is no justice in such sloppy proceedings, not to the public, the court, the police or even the suspect. But it happens frequently in the United States. Persons charged with serious crimes are turned loose on nominal bail, only to repeat the same crime or perhaps commit a worse one. The people . . . don't want to hear about the rights of repeat offenders. They are too preoccupied with defending themselves."

Poorest of All Solutions

The U. S. has adhered to the principle of private enterprise with spectacularly beneficial results. However, there have always been those who have sought to copy the socialistic failures of other nations — failures that have been covered up by taxes and subsidies.

For many years, railroads in the U. S. have been saddled with anachronistic regulation that has left them at a competitive disadvantage with other twentieth century forms of transportation. As everyone knows, the railroads are in financial difficulties, and the advocates of nationalization (socialism) have been quick to call for a government takeover of the rails. What this would mean to American taxpayers can never be stressed enough.

A major study of the U. S. rail industry shows that it would cost U. S. citizens as much as $60 billion to transfer ownership of the railroads to the government. This would only be the beginning. The industry's needs for capital improvements run into many more billions, and the $60 billion purchase figure does not allow anything for operating losses which are virtually a standard part of government operation of the railroad industry to say nothing of deteriorating service "once the discipline of private ownership is removed." Those with long memories can recall when the government operated U. S. railroads during World War I at a cost to taxpayers of $2 million a day. Such deficits are typical of government operations. The much vaunted national rail lines of Japan and Western Europe operate at an average annual deficit of 20 percent, which in terms of U. S. rail operations would mean more than $2 billion a year.

So, wholly aside from the principle of socialism, which contradicts every tenet of the philosophy behind the life and heritage of the U. S., nationalizing America's railroads would be the poorest of all solutions to rail transportation problems.

Menace to Life Quality

The quality of life for the average person deteriorates with the expansion of big government. By the same token, those on the inside of a vast and burgeoning bureaucracy enjoy a rising level of pre-rogatives and affluence. As reported in U. S. News & World Report, it now costs nearly $400 million a year to operate the legislative branch of government — an increase of more than $150 million since 1967. As costs have soared, efficiency has declined until it is said the House of Representatives is among the most inefficient legislative bodies in the world. Base pay for congressmen has risen to $42,500 a year. In addition, there is a wide range of benefits enjoyed by the legislators, including retirement pensions as high as $34,000 a year, rent-free offices, salary allowances for staff ranging into hundreds of thousands of dollars for each member of Congress. There are free mailing privileges, free trips home, free telephone calls, free telegrams and so on ad nauseum. Smoking chimneys and dirty water are not the only things that can ruin the quality of life in the United States. It can also be ruined by oppressive taxation and the arrogance of a central government bureaucracy.

Interest on the national debt cost American taxpayers $39,000 a minute, according to the House Appropriations Committee.

Knowledge in All Generations

Mr. John W. Gardner, former high government official and long a hardworking, idealistic leader in solving "some of the toughest, grimmest problems of our society" spoke to a mid-year graduating class of Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York. With remarkable conviction, he put across the message that youth is not eternal and that knowledge or superior wisdom is the property of no single generation.

Mr. Gardner made a point with telling significance when he asked the graduating class to which he was speaking: ". . . to . . . have a look at the people who are 20 to 30 years older than you. How many would you count as individuals who are still learning and growing? Or to reverse the question, how many seem to have lost their zest for life? Or their curiosity? Or their capacity to care? Or their willingness to learn new ways? How many are trapped in fixed attitudes and habits, like gnarled tree trunks hardened into set positions?"

Implicit in his words is the message that many of those who are inflexibly antagonistic to our country and everything about it have already ceased to learn and to grow.

Judo Techniques Amaze and Delight SH High Students

A program of special interest to students of Sacred Heart High School was presented Friday when Officer Jim Clifton of the Texas Department of Public Safety and Staff Sergeant Willy Simms of Perrin Air Force Base demonstrated some basic judo techniques.

Record Keeping Is 4-H Program Topic

Members of Muenster Community 4-H Club at their April meeting held a discussion and saw slides on how to make and keep 4-H Record Books. Miss Dona Brewster and Craig Rosenbaum, county extension agents, presented the program.

Mary Lou Fleitman gave a report on the county method demonstrations after reading minutes and calling roll. Lou Ann Swirczynski reported on the Dress Revue. She also presided for the meeting.

Lenora Fleitman reported nine members and five adults present.

After adjournment Debbie Reynolds and Mrs. Eddie Fleitman served refreshments.

Showers Bring 1.45 in. Moisture To Help Drought

One rain doesn't break a drought but the showers that dropped 1.45 inch of moisture on the Muenster area during the weekend were welcomed by everyone especially farmers and ranchers. Coming as it did, almost every drop soaked in.

Small grain crops have been damaged by drought and insects this year. Although the rain did not make a grain crop it will help if more rains come soon.

Crop damage due to the drought is hard to estimate at the present time and will depend on conditions during the next two months, according to local SCS technicians. They believe that grain booting out now could make a good crop. Grain that had booting out before the rain will probably produce very little.

Pasture conditions have been bad this year, SCS technicians report. Grass is short and hay is hard to find. Extra fertilization of improved pastures and planting of temporary pasture such as sudan could help this situation considerably should more rain come soon.

Native grass that has not been overgrazed is looking good and has not suffered much from the long dry spell. Growth on Bluestem is about normal for this time of year.

Ponds for livestock water are lower than they have been all year. However this is not a serious problem at this time. It could become a problem if there is not some runoff soon.

Muenster's rainfall as recorded on Steve Moster's official city gauge was as follows: April 17 reading, .70; April 18, .37; April 20, .34; April 21, .04 for a total of 1.45. Total for the year is 3.19 inches.

Biffle Gets City Well Contract; to Start in 30 Days

Muenster City Council, meeting Monday night, awarded contract for drilling the new city water well to Jimmy Jack Biffle on his bid of $3,985 with drilling to start in 30 days. Biffle's bid was the only one received.

The city will furnish the material which will bring the well's total price to a considerably higher figure. It will be located in the southeast part of town and will be drilled to the Trinity sand to provide soft water.

In other business presided over by Mayor Arthur Felderhoff in his first session since his election April 3, the council appropriated $1,000 for Muenster Public Library, the second payment for this year from city funds.

Council members named Dan Hamric as manager of the city swim pool and David Fette as assistant. They served in those capacities last year. No date for opening the pool has been set.

Also approved was extension of sewer lines to the Jetzelsberger residence. Other extensions are under consideration. Council also reviewed the water system survey as prepared by engineers.

Albert Herr, newly elected council member, attended his first meeting with the group.

CCJC Offers Free 3 Lesson Course On Safe Boating

Cooke County Junior College, as a part of its continuing education program, will offer a Three Lesson Safe Boating Course sponsored by the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. The lessons will be held on Thursday evenings, April 22, 29, and May 6, at 7:30 p.m., and each session will last two hours.

Persons interested in enrolling will need to purchase a textbook which will be available for 50 cents the night of the first lesson. There will be no tuition fee. The class will be held in Room 113 of the Student Union Building.

All who can be encouraged to participate in this course. Many needless boating accidents could be prevented if all boat owners would take advantage of this fine opportunity to learn proper rules and regulations for operating their boats.

Camp Sweeney for Diabetic Children Will Open May 30

Camp Sweeney diabetic training center for diabetic boys and girls will open its 22nd season May 30th with three 3-week sessions as follows: May 30 to June 19 — June 20 to July 10 — July 11 to July 31.

Camp Sweeney is located 9 miles east and 1 mile north of Gainesville, Texas, on 338 acres of beautiful rolling timbered hills with three dormitories for boys and three for girls, a non-denominational chapel; a modern hospital; a 30 acre lake for boating, fishing and water skiing; a sanitary swimming pool, tennis courts, recreational pavilion, target range and 20 gentle saddle horses.

Under the supervision of a specialized medical staff, dietitian and counselors, these children are taught their proper diet with regulated exercise, how to take their own urine tests and give their own insulin injections. Of major importance, through this group association with other young diabetics, they realize they are not alone with their problem and with proper knowledge and instruction, they can learn how to live with their lifelong, inherited affliction, diabetes!

Diabetes is hereditary, incurable and increasing yearly. It is the 7th killer of diseases and ranks 3rd as the cause of blindness. Medical authorities estimate one-fourth of the World's population carries the diabetic gene.

Camp Sweeney operated and maintained by Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Inc., is a member of Texas United Community Services and a state project of the Texas Jaycees. Anyone who knows of a diabetic child in need of help is asked to refer the parents to Southwest Diabetic Foundation, a United Fund Agency or a Jaycee Club.

The Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Inc., is a charitable, non-profit organization, 101 S. Culberson Street, Gainesville, Texas. Whoever wishes to help financially carry on this most humanitarian program may write direct to the Foundation office.

For application blanks, brochures, etc., write direct to James V. Campbell, Camp Sweeney Director or Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Inc., P. O. Drawer 918, Gainesville, Texas 76240.

Drouth Rated as State's Worst in Recent History

The severest drouth in recent history — and one that gives indications it may become a history maker — has everyone concerned, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White commented in reviewing conditions over the State for the five months of November, December, January, February and March.

Cattlemen have been culling their herds for weeks, he said, while hoping for rains to bring up spring grasses so that it would not be necessary to feed the cattle remaining in their herds. That hope has been in vain through the first three months of 1971.

Also, Texas farmers are apprehensive that not enough moisture will fall for planting crops or to bring up crops "dry planted." In some places, it is already too late.

Prior to April 12, over 60 counties had been recommended for designation as "disaster areas," which can bring federal relief; and all the 254 counties in Texas may qualify for that designation soon.

Figures compiled in the Texas Department of Agriculture under Commissioner White's direction show that no section of the State has received more than 41 percent of normal rainfall in the months of November, December, January, February, and March.

The extreme northern tier of counties in the Texas Panhandle had the 41 percent of average rainfall, while counties in the Southern High Plains nearby received only 11 percent of normal rainfall. Snow accounted for most of the moisture in the northern counties.

Extreme South Texas, where vegetable and citrus crops not irrigated have been endangered, has received about 20 percent or less of average rainfall, and in those counties, an average of less than an inch of rain has fallen during the first four months of 1971. In almost all sections of the state, rainfall for the past five months has been less than 25 percent of normal.

Commissioner White said the Texas Department of Agriculture is working closely with other state agencies to assure appropriate drouth relief. Designation of a "disaster area" makes farmers and ranchers eligible for low-interest federal loans and possibly for emergency livestock feeds.

County FB Urges Letter Campaign on Proposed Truck Driver Regulations

Farmers and ranchers are being urged by E. V. Fox of Gainesville, president of the Cooke County Farm Bureau, to let the federal government know how proposed farm truck driver regulations would affect their operations. Letters should be addressed to John A. Volpe, Secretary, U. S. Dept. of Transportation, Washington, D. C., 20414, Mr. Fox said.

Proposed U. S. Dept. of Transportation regulations pertaining to farm truck driver qualifications will become effective on July 1 unless farmers and ranchers can convince the government that they should not be put into effect. The regulations were scheduled for last Jan. 1, but were postponed to permit Farm Bureau and other organizations to study the regulations and file statements.

The regulations would affect drivers of all farm trucks — including pickup trucks, Mr. Fox said. Although the new regulations would be applicable to interstate commerce, recent court decisions indicate that the interstate commerce clause applies to anything and everything which might at some time enter interstate commerce, Mr. Fox said.

Proposed regulations would include the following requirements for drivers of farm trucks:

- (1) Be at least 21 years of age.
- (2) Carry a certificate, executed by a physician during the preceding 24 months, evidencing fitness to drive a truck.
- (3) Pass a road test in truck operation.
- (4) Take and pass an examination on the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Regulations.

HAMRIC'S
The place to go for brands you know.

TEXAS EXCITEMENT—Three of the most popular rides at SIX FLAGS Over Texas are shown in action. At top is the Runaway Mine Train which annually carries more than 2 1/2 million riders. At center an authentic 1898 steam engine carries passengers over a narrow gauge track which encircles the huge theme park. And, in the foreground is the SIX FLAGS Mini Mine Train, designed for the younger set.

(5) If a driver is employee of farmer, he must supply the farmer with evidence of compliance with the four preceding requirements, plus an application for employment which shall disclose traffic violations and disposition thereof, plus an annual supplementary statement relating to traffic violations.

(6) A farmer who employs a driver would be required to "verify" the driver's driving record — and to maintain for each driver a file containing items 1 to 5 above, plus a record of the employer's verification of the employee's driving record.

Mr. Fox said letters to Secretary Volpe should include the farmer's personal appraisal of how his farm or ranch operation would be affected if the regulations are adopted. The local farm leader urged each farmer in the county to request that present exemptions for farm truck drivers be retained.

Also, he said, Congressman Graham Purcell and the two Texas Senators should be contacted and requested to intervene with Secretary Volpe in the matter of retaining present exemptions, or at least in modifying proposed regulations so that they will not be so damaging to agriculture.

Farm Bureau is requesting that present exemptions be retained, he said. In the event that this is impossible, the Farm Bureau is asking that the following recommendations be included in any regulations which are issued:

- (1) An exemption for small farm trucks under 10,000 lbs. gross weight. This would include pickups.
- (2) An exemption for local farm hauling.
- (3) Postponement of effective date for six months more.
- (4) A comprehensive educational campaign in news media to let farmers and ranchers know what is about to happen to them.
- (5) General distribution of a summary of the regulations.
- (6) A procedure for development of permanent regulations based on common sense, actual need and good judgement.

The local farm leader said that farm truck drivers have an excellent safety record. In Texas, for example, the amount of bodily injury claims paid per farm truck policy is only one-tenth of the amount of bodily injury claims paid per policy for all non-fleet commercial trucks, he said.

3rd Order Ritual Adds 4 Members to Local Fraternity

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart Parish, held formal reception ceremonies Friday for four new members who made their profession. They are Mmes. Tony Otto, Bill Kathman, Jake Wolf and Alois Haverkamp.

Father Placidus Eckart conducted the ritual, presented each novice a crucifix of profession, and delivered a short sermon. He also celebrated the 3 p.m. Mass. Thirty members attended.

At the fraternity's regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon the new members were welcomed. Mrs. Leo Henscheid, prefect, led the prayers and Miss Lu Vogel, secretary, reviewed highlights of the recent tridium conducted by Father Elias Koppert, provincial from Chicago.

Mrs. Henscheid reported on the lay Franciscan family the local group has adopted in India, advising that five dollars a month for four months had been sent by international money order.

Since then she has heard from Franciscan headquarters in New York that monthly contributions may be sent there for forwarding. Forty-two other fraternities have adopted families in India and donations are sent from there to a missionary in India.

Members also made up a spiritual bouquet, a gift for Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman on their golden wedding anniversary.

It was announced that there will not be a meeting in May because that Sunday is Mother's Day.

will resent the smear campaign against Hoover and the FBI. They are mindful of four and a half decades of dedicated and loyal service to our government. They appreciate the FBI's outstanding record of efficiency in tracking down and arresting criminals. They are grateful for the training local officers receive from the FBI and for the technical help local police all over the country receive every day in solving their criminal cases. They are proud that their country's national police system has won world wide renown for its record of fairness and efficiency.

Of course there is no mystery about the attempts of radicals to smear the FBI. They would like very much to detract from the effectiveness of bulging files of incriminating evidence against them. In fact, they must dread the day when law enforcement agencies take their jobs as seriously as the investigative agency does. Many will be nabbed in a hurry and kept out of circulation for years when our courts awaken to the importance of evidence already compiled by the FBI.

Yes, we can understand why the revolutionaries are trying for Mr. Hoover's scalp, but we fail to understand how responsible public figures can give their help to a smear campaign that attacks the nation's outstanding defender while giving aid and comfort to its outstanding public enemies.

Superstitions are opinions of others.
