VOLUME XXXVII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 SEPTEMBER 21, 1973

NUMBER 44

An article originally appearing in the Grifton (N.C.) Times says that since there didn't seem to be much good news for the 1970s, the editor would go back in time to find some good news to report. So, back he went, to the 1870s, and here is what he found to report for the day's news.

On the crime front he noted that "the 1870s have a law and order program — with a crime rate about twice what it is today. People go around shooting each other and Indians are on a rampage. In the cities, traffic clogs the streets by day and you can hardly get around for the horses and wagons. Toughs and crooks take over the streets at night and it is not safe to go out.

"In New York City the Irish are rioting and demanding their rights. In Savannah the blacks are marching in the streets and in San Francisco the Chinese are giving the establishment a hard time.

"Taxpayers of New York found out that Boss Tweed had taken them for millions. Confidence in political leaders is at an all time low.

"Inside plumbing and sanitation are almost unknown and public health is nil. Pneumonia and tuberculosis strike down many. Scarlet fever and diphtheria combine with malaria and typhoid to make long life a slim gamble.

"No-good young people are racing around on fast bicycles scaring the daylight out of horses and older people. They are also taking to hard drink and many think the young generation will be a ruination of the country. The drug culture is serious. Poppies grow in Florida, New Mexico, Texas, Vermont and New Hampshire and can't supply enough opium for the market, so we import sizeable tonnage from China, England and Germany. (Opium import from China was not prohibited until 1881.)

The editor concluded that as far as he could see things have not gone so very far down-hill since the 1870s, except for one thing. In 1872 the total federal budget was only $278 million whereas the budget now gets over $250 billion.

The comments give us a short but interesting glance at the past and also tell us rather convincingly that this generation is not the only one that has had problems. In fact we doubt any person if given the choice would take the 100 year-old way of life in preference to ours.

Imagine us now with horse and buggy and dusty streets and country roads. Or imagine us without all the conveniences that have been invented and developed in the past century.

But from a moral standpoint we can't be so smug. While we were making all of our physical and economic progress we just did not have time to bother with ethics. We became permissive, allowing some very shabby attitudes in relation to murder, rape, arson, theft, graft, cheating, drug use, sex behavior etc. As implied above, the crime rate has always been a problem, but we seem to be more surrounded by it now because of more population and more extensive news coverage.

Nevertheless, as we think it over we must realize that ours is a marvelous country. If we'll take time to add up our good points, including the freedoms to go as we please, do as we please, speak as we please and worship as we please, along with the comforts and marvels in our standard of living, we'll find that no other country can offer as much as we already have. It just goes to show that our forefathers did a great job when they worked up the set of rules and guidelines for us to live by.

This is not to say that all is perfect with the USA. While praising our system as better than any other country has, we're also sadly aware that it could be a lot better.

Relative to our economic problems, a giant improvement could be made if our government lived within its means. Annual deficits cause the inflation which erodes the value of savings. It is time for people in Washington to take guidance from morality and common sense rather than political expediency. It's time also for some plain honesty in the ranks of labor and business. This could be an honest day's pay for an honest day's work — or vice versa — or a dollar's worth of quality for a dollar purchase.

Lease of Radar Expected to End Speeders' Picnic

The days are numbered when speeders of Muenster can escape being caught and fined. Hereafter they'll be on radar any time that Policeman James McDonald decides to check on them.

Members of the city council voted Monday night to get a radar on a lease-purchase deal. It leases for about $40 a month and costs about $900.

It will remove the big handicap in prosecuting fast drivers. Heretofore a speeder only needed to drop to the legal speed when McDonald followed, and no one could prove he had exceeded the limit. But now the officer will have the evidence before he starts his chase. And the important point is that radar reports are acceptable in court. The defendant can't argue with it.

The radar is a sophisticated gadget that can clock anything within viewing range regardless of the direction it is going. So, a change is inevitable in the local speeding game. The officer's disadvantage has been overcome and turned to an advantage. Smart speeders will know they can no longer play their cat and mouse game.

Curtis Klement Is Semifinalist in Scholarship Test

Principal Charles O. Cash of Muenster High School announces that Curtis Klement is a Semifinalist in the 1974 National Merit Scholarship Program and will compete for one of about 3,100 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the spring. In eighteen annual competitions completed to date 34,500 students have won Merit Scholarships valued at more than $95.5 million.

According to Edward C. Smith, president of National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), "The approximately 15,000 Semifinalists are representative of the nation's most academically talented young people, and they bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities."

The Semifinalists were the highest scorers in each state on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) administered last October to over one million students in about 17,000 schools nationwide. These students, who constitute about one-half of one percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States, will complete high school and enter college in 1974.

NMSC identifies the Semifinalists to all regionally accredited U.S. colleges and universities. Many Semifinalists find this recognition useful in seeking financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program and in the process of gaining admission to college.

Mrs. Arthur Endres, newly appointed Zone 3 co-ordinator and immediate past president of the Muenster Garden Club gave the welcoming address. Clubs represented were from Bowie, Nocona, Denton, Gainesville and Muenster.

Juniors of SHH have announced they will sponsor a car wash Saturday weather permitting as a class benefit. They'll be at the school grounds from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and are eager to work. Prices are listed at $1.50 for outside and $2.00 for a deluxe inside and outside job.

Hornets Look for Tough Contest at Whitesboro Friday

The Muenster Hornets have their work cut out for them Friday night when they take on Whitesboro's Bearcats. The game will be in Whitesboro starting at 8 o'clock.

Coach Richardson knows for sure that the boys will encounter far more opposition than last week when they outfoxed and out-hustled the oversize Boyd team for a 26-7 win. As usual the Hornets will be out-sized again matching their 146 pound average to Whitesboro's average of about 180, but this time the opponent will have considerable talent to go with the weight.

A fair indicator of Bearcat power is last week's loss of only 21-0 to Lake Dallas, which is rated as quite a powerhouse and the year's favorite in the district race. The Cats definitely have something if able to hold that kind of team to 3 touchdowns.

Another point to ponder, Whitesboro is adding important strength with the return this week of a tailback who was all-district last year.

In general, Muenster is confronted by a team that's only slightly smaller than last week's opponent but considerably better in quickness, speed and effort.

On the other hand the Hornets deserve a bigger rating than their size indicates. They've got quickness enthusiasm and togetherness, as revealed when they simply out-teamed Boyd's huskys. Glenn Richardson recalls with pride that the Yellowjackets made no first downs and practically no gains after their early touchdown. But the Hornets kept going and going on short consistent gains.

Physically, the boys are fine. As of Monday, no one was out with an injury.

Hornets Run Over Big Yellowjackets By Count of 22-7

The Hornets' first football game was not satisfying to Coaches Richardson, Moore and Klement. The decisive win of 26-7 matches well with the game's statistics showing that the hosting Boyd Yellowjackets were practically out of the game after the early minutes of play.

Richardson said that he's proud of both offense and defense. Besides scoring in every period and gaining more than 300 yards the Hornets stopped the big Jackets cold after the opening TD.

That score for Boyd came in the opening minutes while Boyd was clicking smoothly and the Hornets apparently had not got themselves organized. The Yellowjackets first drive accounted for most of their 84 yards and all of their three first downs in the game. A 40 yard run by Jerry Hataway added an extra point.

The drive was executed so early and so smoothly that it brought on worries for the Muenster fans. But as the game continued they were to learn that the Yellowjackets had fired all their ammunition in the opening minutes. On the other hand the Hornets hit their stride and kept going.

The first Hornet score came in the first quarter when Quarterback Randy Wolf completed the first drive by keeping the ball in an option play (Continued on Page 10)

Quarterback Club Meets
Members of the Muenster High Quarterback Club will meet next Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium.

Newland Sells 2 Departments of Furniture Store

After thirty years of service to North Texas, Newland Furniture Co. is selling out the furniture and floor covering departments of the store.

Cecil Newland, owner, said that the two departments are being taken over by Ray Barnes, of Ray's Furniture, between Sherman and Denison. He will continue operation in the same location.

Newland will keep the picture framing, drapery and steam carpet cleaning departments, of the business and continue to operate in the same building.

The deal is being preceded by a huge sell-out sale which offers large discounts on practically all items of the store.

Council Submits Engineer Report on Proposed Lake

The proposed reservoir for the city's future water supply got almost all attention at the council meeting Monday night.

Responding to the city's request, engineers were there with explanatory articles to be published in a campaign informing people as completely as possible on all details relating to the project.

The first article explaining the rapid drop of water level in the Trinity sand indicates that the need of a surface supply of city water is only a matter of time. Residents face it, whether they like it or not.

Following articles will tell the size of lake planned, the recreational and flood prevention features and their part in securing federal participation in the construction, also the cost and method of financing.

The articles will appear in the Enterprise, starting this week, after which the city will have a referendum in which citizens can adopt or reject.

Mrs. Tom Landry Here for Surgery

Muenster was buzzing Monday night about the presence of a celebrity in town. At Rohmer's Restaurant patrons and waitresses suddenly became un-glued when a patron coming in was recognized as Tom Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys.

Youngsters and oldsters gathered around to shake his hand and get his autograph as he calmly managed through the excitement to order his meal.

Landry explained that he was here to bring his wife to Muenster Hospital for elbow surgery by Dr. Marvin Knight, Cowboy doctor. He remained at the A-OK Motel overnight and at the hospital until his wife's surgery was finished.

The Cowboys' coach said the new law about TV blackouts does not make any difference at Dallas because the games are seldom sold out 72 hours in advance. So, the city's viewers aren't likely to see the live games on their TV sets. However he was aware that areas as far away as Muenster have found a solution. They tune in on stations like Wichita Falls or Denison, which apparently are far enough away to be allowed to carry the game.

Dennis Hess had a delightful long visit with Landry while in the hospital. They helped each other spend the time while one's wife was in surgery and the other's in the delivery room.

Tiger Cubs Blast Valley View 40-6

The Tiger Cubs roared to their second conference win Tuesday night, wiping out Valley View's Juniors by a count of 40-6. It was a case in which the Cubs were stronger and had a good evening besides. They operated beautifully.

They started on the opening kickoff when Joe Sicking got loose at the right side for a 90 yard touchdown run. Robert Hartman passed to Roger Haverkamp for extra points. Shortly later another TD was on the way and lost by a fumble on the 2. But the boys had some consolation from it. They scored 2 points on a safety four plays later when Glenn Walterscheid tackled a Valley View back in his own end zone.

Next possession went all the way in a hurry. On first series Roger Haverkamp rambled 67 yards to pay dirt then added extra points on a pass from Hartman.

After that, ending the Eagles' first series, Fred Koesler blocked a kick setting up the Cubs on the 31. Four plays were enough, Sicking scoring from the 19.

Then the hosts got on the board — a 70 yard punt return. Starting the second half the Cubs scored on first play of their first possession. Roger Haverkamp went for 38. Hartman added 2 on a quarterback option.

After one series by Valley View they moved again. Six plays made it from mid field, the big one being a pass play, Hartman to Danny Walterscheid, with a good block and footwork, for 23 yards.

Many people can tell you how to cook steak — but very few can give you any good hints on how to afford it.

Tigers Will Host Aubrey Chaparrals Friday Night at 8

Suddenly it seems that the time has arrived for serious football at Sacred Heart. Opposing the Tigers this week will be the Aubrey High Chaparrals who have shown themselves to be a lot tougher than the first two teams on the schedule.

This time there'll be fewer of the explosive gains resulting in scoring sprees. Instead there will be lots of plain hard football as both teams discover that they have big jobs on their hands.

The Chaps showed their muscle Friday night in marking up a 22-0 win over the junior varsity of Class AA Northwest High.

In general the teams seem to be fairly well matched. Aubrey's line, with a 195 pound tackle, averages about the same as Sacred Heart's and the backfield, sparked by two fellows weighing 165 and 142, runs hard and fast.

For several of the Tigers this might be considered a sort of grudge game. They were with the B team that was stomped 34-0 by the Aubrey regulars last year.

Coach Bob Steele goes into the fray with optimism and caution. He feels certain that his boys can win, but only by putting up a big fight and avoiding mistakes. Nothing can be taken for granted.

Physically all are fine except one, he said. John Hesse has a torn ligament that will keep him off the lineup for several weeks. In other respects too the report is good. The boys are improving and they have lots of enthusiasm.

SH Scoring Spree Produces 48-12 Win over Gunter

The Sacred Heart Tigers won the second one of their season Friday night annihilating a small but spunky Gunter team 48-12. They had the game going their way from the opening kickoff until near the end when Tiger reserves took over and allowed the visitors to get a pair of touchdowns.

Surprisingly, however the yardage and first downs were not proportional to the score. That's because almost all of the game was played in Gunter's end of the field. When Sacred Heart took possession it did not have far to go. Also Gunter gave up the ball more on turnovers than on kicks. Sacred Heart intercepted five times and recovered one fumble.

The first play on Sacred Heart's first possession went for 6 points. It was a pass from Roger Endres to Kenny Hess for 39 yards. Another pass to Barthush added two points.

On next possession Sacred Heart failed by inches to get its first down yardage but moved again on the third possession. Two short plays gained 4. Dickie Moster stepped off 18 and also scored from the 25. Endres passed to Davey Krahl for 2 more points.

A blocked kick by Karl Hess on the 9 put the Tigers in business again. Two tries gained 7 and Moster sailed around right end for the remaining 2. Another score was in the making as the second quarter (Continued on Page 10)

Boys Reminded to Sign Up for PP&K

Youngsters who have not signed up for this year's PP&K competition are reminded that time is running short. The contest is booked for Saturday, Sept. 29, barely more than a week away.

Ages eligible to get in the contest are 8 through 13, and there will be awards for the three top performers in each of the six age groups. In addition, the first place winner of each group will advance to higher competition which goes on and on to national finals at half time of the Super Bowl game.

The boy must be accompanied by a parent or guardian to register.

PP&K Clinic

A Punt, Pass and Kick Clinic will be held Saturday, Sept. 22, at 9 a.m. on Muenster High football field supervised by local football coaches.

This is a time for practice. All boys who are signed up, and others who plan to compete are urged to be there.

Funeral Wednesday For Mrs. M. Wimmer

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. for Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer, 90, who died suddenly at 12:30 p.m. Monday in Hillcrest Manor Nursing Home where she was a patient following dismissal from Muenster Hospital Sept. 1. She was a 60-year resident of Muenster.

Father Stephen Eckart celebrated the funeral Mass in Sacred Heart Church. Father Placidus Eckart delivered the sermon and conducted graveside rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

City Looking for Best Features in Garbage Program

When the garbage disposal ordinance is finally drawn up by the city council it ought to be a dandy. The subject came up again in the council meeting Monday night and revealed that men are still trying to shape up a program that will be acceptable to both the residents and the city.

Sanitation Commissioner Rody Klement and City Superintendent Steve Moster spent a day at Weatherford last week studying and observing its system. Apparently the council prefers it over others but it wants to scan other ordinances in search of more good ideas.

The intention is to shape up the best possible program and then allow people to vote. There are many questions to be answered. Will the city take on the collection job or let a contractor? What will be accepted? How often a week? Bagged or in garbage cans? The cost? And a number of other questions.

The council seems to have the attitude that garbage service is definitely on the way. However it is more concerned with working out a system that people can live with than rushing it into operation.

Whitesboro Bumps Muenster Juniors

Muenster's Monsters ran into trouble galore Tuesday night when they took on the Whitesboro juniors on the Hornet field. The sad fact, however, is that some of the trouble was of their own making. Mistakes cost them. And they were also outwitted and outhustled, so they ended at the short end of a 20-6 score.

Whitesboro's kids scored first. Starting about 75 yards away, they gained 25 yards in several short plays then pulled off a pass play that went all the way.

Following that Muenster fizzled on its first possession but got organized on the second. Their drive was made up of lots of short gains finally ending with a 4 yard crash by Nick Walterscheid. Total of the drive was about 60 yards.

Just before the half ended Whitesboro cranked up a quickie drive that broke the tie. It was made up of a 30 yard pass play, two runs, and a 10 yard scoring pass.

The jinx extended into the third quarter when recovery of a Monster fumble sparked the final score. It was a dandy pass for 30 yards. The count was 20-6 and a stubborn defense on each side kept it that way.

Services Held for Mrs. J. B. Sparkman

Mrs. John B. Sparkman, mother of Sam Sparkman of Marysville, died Tuesday at 8:45 a.m. in Manor Nursing Home at Sanger where she was a resident.

She was 87, a native of Era, the former Melissa Robertson. She was born Dec. 13, 1885, and was married to John Buck Sparkman who died June 2, 1947.

Services were conducted Thursday at 2 p.m. in Vernie Keel Chapel and burial followed in Era Cemetery. Grandsons were bearers.

Surviving are three sons, three daughters, two brothers, four sisters, 17 grandchildren, 43 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Rosary was recited in the Miller Chapel Tuesday at 4 and at 8 p.m.

Bearers were grandsons: David Mages, Kenneth Hromcik, Ronnie Wimmer, Jerome, Donald and Larry Hennigan.

The former Miss Mathilda Ostrowsky was born in Evansville, Ind., on May 1, 1883, moved to Windthorst when she was 13 years old, and married John N. Wimmer there on May 3, 1904. They moved to Muenster in 1912. He died March 11, 1948.

Mrs. Wimmer leaves 101 direct descendants. She was the mother of 12 children. Ten survive. They are two sons, Richard and Arnold Wimmer of Muenster and Mrs. John Streng and Fred Hennigan Sr. of Muenster, Jay Cooper and Eddie Mages of Dallas, Hugh Tarleton and Sammie Hromcik of Fort Worth, Albert Elpers of Strasburg, Colo., and Joe Newara of North East, Penna. And 35 grandchildren and 56 great-grandchildren.

Elm-Red Contest In Grass Judging Set for October 2

Directors of the Upper Elm Red Soil & Water Conservation District along with other agricultural workers in the district set Tuesday, October 2nd, as the date for the annual grass judging contest.

"This will be our 24th annual contest," said J. H. Bayer of Muenster, Chairman. "The Board started this contest back in 1950 and it has lasted down through the years and has proven to be one of our best contests for the youth of this district," Bayer added.

The contest will be held at Cooke County Junior College. Registration will start at 1:00 p.m. and judging at 2:00 p.m. This contest is open to all Agricultural Extension Service 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America Chapters in the three-county district. "We hope to have at least 90 students competing," Bayer stated.

This is a unique contest in that it is based on knowledge of fifty plants growing on the farms and ranches of this district. These plants are identified by giving the correct common name and classifying as to grazing value, wild-life value, annual or perennial, native or introduced, and as to whether cool season or warm season growing plant. It would be purely accidental to make a high score by guessing.

Preparing for the contest, students study and practice for a number of days to learn as many of the common plants growing about them as possible. With the help of their advisor they can become very proficient in learning the common plant characteristics. This type of information is helpful to them through life as many of them will own and operate farms.

Chairman Bayer stated that plans call for a meal to be served to all team members and their coaches after the contest. Awards will be presented to winning teams and high scoring individuals.

This contest will have a junior division for first-year agriculture students and a senior division for advanced students. A team will be composed of four students with the team score made up of the three highest scoring individuals. Each school or county 4-H club is requested to enter a team in each division of the contest.

Dear Editor
 In light of the increase in the number of annoyance calls being reported to the City Police and Muenster Telephone Corp., we think it would be well to remind readers of the laws of Texas in regard to these calls.
 You will find this warning on the inside front cover of the telephone directory "AN-

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Mrs. Levi Perryman received word Sunday afternoon, Sept. 9, that her brother, Ray P. Box of Amarillo, had passed away at 2 p.m. that day. Mrs. Perryman and Mrs. Vera Mae McGee attended the funeral in Amarillo Tuesday, Sept. 11. Mr. Box was well known in this area. Mrs. McGee is the late Mr. Box's aunt.

Mrs. Ida Wylie celebrated her birthday Sunday, Sept. 9. Her daughter, Thelma Jo, and Mrs. G. D. Wylie, Jr., a daughter-in-law honored Ida with a big dinner. Guests were the Joe Jacksons of Nocona, the Sam Landers of Bowie, the Doug Landers of Denton, the Bill Landers and Jim Landers of the Burg, Mrs. Pearl Knox of Ryan, Okla., Christine and Deann of Saint Jo, and G. D. Wylie, Jr. and Sheri. I asked Ida if she minded telling her age. She replied, "Goodness no, I'm 83 and feel it is a great accomplishment to reach that age and to be able to get around as well as I do." Ida still gets up early every morning during the week and helps her son clean up in his General Store for the days business!

Mrs. Eula Bell Boyd, Dewey, also celebrated her birthday Sept. 9. When Eula Bell was asked her age she laughingly replied, "I am 39." Well, Eula Bell is one lady that should not mind telling her age for she is one woman that definitely doesn't show her age. Her guests for the day were the James Barker family of Bowie, the Tony Vann family of Bowie, the Norris Boyd family of Gainesville, Ray Boyd and sons of the home and the Jim Barnetts.

Visiting in the J. J. Reynolds home Sunday Sept. 9 were the Austin Boyds and Mrs. Hazel McDaniel of Bowie. The Jim Barnetts also made it over — sound like these two were busy that day.

Roxie Dunn has been a patient in Bowie Hospital this past week. Meb tells me she is due to come home early this week. Therefore, by the time you read this Roxie should be back home in Meb's care.

Hal Hays, husband of one of our school teachers Mary Hays, is in General Hospital in Wichita Falls at this writing — previous to that he had been in the Bowie Hospital. Mary hopes to bring Hal home early this week. We wish Roxie and Hal a speedy recovery.

Folks, take a second and hard look at those big eyes peering out of the water of your stock tanks. If they look a little larger and wider apart than usual — they probably don't belong to a big bullfrog but to an alligator. Such was the case for Mrs. Homer Bell close to Montague. Seems a neighbor had put the "gator" in his tank to catch turtles. Well, the gator migrated. Do believe we have enough varmints in this country without us folks adding to them.

The Wylie Edwards, Dewey, had a mite of visiting taking place at their abode. The Troy Edwards of Bowie breezed over Friday night the 7th. On Sunday, Sept. 9, the Warren Marmadukes of Nocona and the C. W. Martins of Freemound were guests in the home. Then not to be outdone Wylie's parents the Clarence Edwards of Sunset made a call.

The L. D. Sirmans, of Dewey, not to be left out had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Dean Edwards the weekend of Sept. 8. Mrs. Edwards is Mrs. Sirmans' sister and resides in Denton while her husband is on military duty in Germany. Dean is home on a 30 day furlough.

Saw Roe Sledge taking a load of hogs to the sale late Thursday. Roe always waits as long as possible. He sure hates to part with his hogs as he gets so attached to them while feeding 'em out. He used to keep his hogs in his back yard until his neighbors began threatening his existence.

Bet Jerry Orrell will be more particular about what kind of mushrooms he eats in the future. One of Jerry's co-workers at National Supply brought some mushrooms to work one day last week — they both ate some. Well, Jerry ended up in Muenster Hospital for a couple of days and at this writing his friend is still in Gainesville Hospital. Yep, you guessed it — the mushrooms were of the poisonous variety.

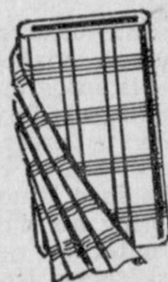

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Forrester motored out to Tullia, Texas. They spent the 13th and 14th of Sept. visiting with the Johnny Landers.

"To take a great weight off your mind try discarding your halo." The frightening fact about heredity and environment is that parents provide both. If you make your job important, it is quite likely to return the favor.

Forestburg News -

Visiting with Marge and Lisa Boyd, Dewey, on Tuesday night, Sept. 11, were the James Browns of Plainville, Michigan and the Jess Browns of Ben, Oregon. James and Jess Brown are Marge's brothers.

The Forestburg School P.T.O. had its first meeting of the new school year Monday Sept. 10. All future meetings will be held on the second Monday night of each month. The new officers for the year were elected: President, Mrs. o Nell Fenoglio; vice president, Mrs. Jewell Dill; secretary, Mrs. Helen Steadham; treasurer, Mrs. Jo Knox. Monday night's program explaining Plan A and the Resource Room was given by Mrs. Milligan of Slidell. Miss Nancy Dennis, Nocona, is the Resource Room teacher at our local school. Refreshments were served to 37 people by Mrs. Jewell Dill and Mrs. Jo Knox. The next meeting will be held October 8 and the program will be given by Mr. H. K. Iund and Mr. L. W. Boyd, Jr. They are to give a run-down on the operation of our school.

The tennis courts at our school grounds are almost completed. The welding of the fence posts, etc. was completed late Friday nite the 14th of September. All that needs to be done is put up the wire around the courts. The public will be allowed to use the courts after school hours, on weekends, and holidays. These tennis courts were the project of our school P.T.O. and were completely paid for by them. No tax money was involved.

One of the weekly social activities of this area is the 42 club. It was in full swing when us Denhams first moved up here twelve years ago from Fort Worth. It is still going strong and all taking part have a great time. They meet every Thursday nite in someone's home. If you like to play 42, bet you'd be welcome. We may be seeing the formation of another social group in the area but somewhat more exclusive. For the lack of a name we will dub it the "Fish fry club." They gathered at the home of the Clifford Hudspeths Wednesday night Sept. 12 for a fish fry. Those present were the Dave Roberts, the Ross Littells, the Howard Sockwells, the Bernel Brogdons, the Levi Perrymans, and special guest Bennett Reynolds. Think Marion Sockwell and Barney Brogdon are the fish catchers in this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Orrell of Monterrey, Mexico were overnight guests of Raymond's parents the Loyd Orrells Friday nite Sept. 14. They left early Saturday for Natchitoches, La. where their oldest son, Johnny, is enrolled at Louisiana State College.

Cobe Roach, down Pairie Point way, has had him a swimming pool dug in his back yard. Seems a little late in the year for swimming. Guess Cobe and his wife intend to get in some ice skating later on.

Mrs. Chloe Gresham, the Burg, Mrs. Amy Satterfield of Carrolton, and Mrs. Neva Nell Pool of Dallas, are on a weeks pleasure vacation in Honolulu, Hawaii. They left from Dallas on Saturday the 15th of September. Can't figure out why Chloe wouldn't take Jack with her!

For five years now my husband has been learning to hold his breath for long periods of time along his route while pasing dairy farms, hog farms, etc. Now he holds his breath while crossing that old bridge over Clear Creek down the Rosston Road. It is a long way above the water. I wonder — is somebody gonna have to get his efet wet before that bridge is replaced?

Here speaks one of us: "How much are your tomatoes today?" "Forty-nine cents a pound," replied the grocer. "Did you raise them yourself?" "Yes, they were 39 cents yesterday."

A frugal West Texan complains that his grandfather preserved the first dollar he earned in a 10-cent frame. Now, the frame's worth a dollar and the dollar's worth a dime.

HDC Members Fill In New Yearbooks

Members of Muenster Home Demonstration Club started a new year by filling in their yearbooks at the September meeting when Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus was hostess in her home.

Mrs. Paul Fisher, new president, conducted the business session, and members volunteered to be hostesses during the coming year.

Mrs. Rudy Hellman reported on the county council meeting. Mrs. Andy Schoech and Mrs. Ray Klement told about visiting senior citizens the past month, Mrs. Frank Schilling accompanying them, and Mrs. Al Walther volunteered for visits this month.

For the hostess' "show and tell" Mrs. Lutkenhaus displayed her crocheted afghans. The meeting opened with unison prayer and reading of the collect by Mrs. Alois Rohmer and concluded the refreshments of homemade lemon pie and coffee served by the hostess to 15 members and one guest Mrs. Oscar Detten.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

Library Solicits Volunteer Help

Muenster Public Library personnel is sounding a call for volunteers to help on Tuesdays and Thursdays for routine library work.

And a refrigerator is needed. Both needs were mentioned at a meeting of the library board last week.

Personnel and board members are hopeful that someone will donate a small used refrigerator. The library has no way of keeping drinking water and workers' lunches refrigerated. And during the summer reading programs children bring lunches which are sometimes tasteless from heat by lunch time.

A Study of Muenster's Proposed Water Reservoir

This is the first article in a series of three to inform the citizens of Muenster what their city council is doing to insure an adequate supply of water for the next fifty years. This first article explains why the city needs an alternate source of water.

ARTICLE ONE

Muenster presently receives its water supply from four Trinity sand water wells with a combined capacity of approximately 600,000 gallons a day. Production of the individual wells ranges from 100 to 140 gallons per minute.

Depth of wells ranges from 600 to 700 feet and static level ranges from 300 to 360 feet. When on continuous pumping the wells have a water level of approximately 450 feet with a remaining 130 to 150 feet of water left in the wells for future use.

The Trinity formation extends from an area slightly north of Muenster southward toward the coast. Well depths here average approximately 600 feet and the formation tilts down to the south and east. Trinity wells in north Tarrant County are approximately 1100 feet deep. In south Tarrant County they are approximately 1900 feet deep. The formation continues in a downward tilt to approximately 3000 feet in the Waco area.

Construction of new Trinity sand wells in the Dallas-Fort Worth area has been on the increase. High production yields for municipal use in that area continue to deplete the Trinity formation. While there is approximately 700 to 800 feet of water left in the Trinity formation in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, continuous production has lowered the water table approximately 100 feet in the last five years.

Continuous production of water from the Trinity formation indicates that the Muenster area can reasonably expect an annual drop of 5 to 10 feet of its water table. As new wells are drilled into the Trinity and production is maintained, Muenster can expect the water table in this area to be depleted within 10 to 20 years.

Although new wells can be constructed here and can be expected to yield like existing wells, those new wells would have the same deteriorating effect on the formation as existing wells do, also could be expected to decrease production of present wells in the area.

Along with many cities of North Texas, Muenster continues to pump from the same pool or source. The Trinity sand, which covers hundreds of square miles in North Texas, is a common pool of water. Each city using the Trinity formation has its pumps in this same pool. When a new well is drilled in any area of the formation it affects the whole area.

The Trinity sand formation took millions of years to develop and to be charged to a peak level. In the 1930s a well drilled into the Trinity was termed an artesian well and water would flow to the surface without benefit of pumping. Continuous pumping from this formation has lowered the water table substantially, indicating that more water is being taken out than is going into the formation. It is estimated that if all wells in the Trinity sand were eliminated, it would take several hundred years for the formation to fully recharge itself.

Other cities of North Texas face the same problem. One case is Springtown, approximately 40 miles southwest of Muenster. In 1968 the Trinity sand was depleted to the point that wells formerly yielding 100 gallons a minute dropped to about 45 a minute. The last well drilled there produced about 25 gallons a minute, and it was necessary to drill the well through the formation and construct a sump below the formation to extract water in this amount.

Lone Star Gas has a large processing plant in Springtown and has had to purchase water from the city when company wells no longer satisfied requirements. In 1968 the Springtown city council, aware that Trinity water was no longer available, voted to build a pipe line from Eagle Mountain Lake to the city. The line, now under construction, is about 11 miles long and will cost the city about $420,000. It is expected to be in use in 1974, should meet all the city's water needs until the year 2000.

Cities of the Dallas-Fort Worth area continue to drill into the Trinity formation. Pumps up to 750 gallons per minute are being installed and the water table is lowering approximately 10 feet per year. It is estimated that the Trinity sand will be depleted in this area in about 10 to 15 years.

The Dallas-Fort Worth area was previously served by the Paluxy formation which was about 500 feet more shallow than the Trinity. The Paluxy has been depleted to the extent that new municipal wells drilled into the formation are not considered practical. The Trinity formation is expected to follow the same fate as the Paluxy.

This water information was developed by an engineering study authorized by the city in November 1971. It is aimed at supplying the city's water needs for the remainder of this century and to determine alternate water sources, if necessary. And it indicates that, assuming the present vote of city growth, the present water source will become inadequate within ten to fifteen years.

4-H Club News

Twelve Adult Leaders from various Cooke County 4-H clubs attended an Organizational Leader Training held Sept. 11 in the Womens Gym at Cooke County Junior College in Gainesville. The training meeting was designed to give the Adult Leaders a better understanding of their roles and responsibilities as organizational Leaders in the 4-H clubs across the county.

Adult leaders from Denton and Grayson counties were also in attendance along with Extension agents from Cooke, Denton, and Grayson counties. Dan James, area 4-H and Youth Specialist, presented a program on the "Roles of Organizational Leaders in 4-H Clubs" and discussed ways of securing more volunteer leaders to help in the work of the 4-H programs.

Mrs. John Curry, an organizational leader from Denton County, presented a program on the ideas and experiences she has had as an adult leader of the Town and Country 4-H Club in Denton. The Leaders were then divided into groups of four and discussed what they felt their roles were as organizational leaders and their relationships to other people involved in the 4-H program. The attendance and participation was excellent and plans are being made for another meeting to be held in the very near future.

Attending from the Muenster area were Mrs. Charles Davidson, Mrs. Thomas Felderhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Reiter and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer.

Sicking Sisters Visit California
 Misses Delores and Ann Sicking returned Sunday from a flying trip to California where they visited the former Sheila Hennigan and her husband, the Jean Gebmans in Santa Monica.

Highlights included Disneyland, Catalina Island, attendance at a Johnny Carson show, sight-seeing and shopping. They were away nine days. Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sicking, the two live at Hurst and are employed in Fort Worth. They are former roommates of Mrs. Gebman.

Manual Prepared By Service Group
 The Member and Community Services Department of Cooke County Electric Cooperative Association, which is directed by Gene Davenport, has prepared a Leadership Manual for community leaders in the Cooke County Electric Co-op's service area.

The preface of this manual states, "The contents of this book we trust shall be a meaningful aid in community development. We have as our goal the development of a book that is flexible, yet precise enough that it may be used by clubs, organizations, and groups that are dedicated to making rural America a better place to live and make a living."

The manual contains a community status survey to be used by the leaders. It then discusses all types of organizations; what they do how they operate, and what the normal order of business consists of. A discussion on membership, officers, and committees and their responsibilities is dealt with in length. Several pages in the manual are directed to motivating committees, leadership techniques, and how one keeps active membership within his organization.

The leaders will attend a training session in which they will become familiar with the manual and how it can be of service to them. This effort shall be carried on during an extended period of time due to the scope of the manual and the effort it puts forth in answering the many leadership needs. The first training session will begin in the community of Ross Point of which Hollis Berry is president.

Juniors and Bees Win Games from Boyd Youngsters

The future Hornets did themselves proud Thursday night in games with a pair of teams from Boyd. In the curtain raiser the junior high kids rolled to a 22-0 win, then the Hornets B team was equally convincing in a 24-12 decision.

Little Monsters made an early start as Nick Walterscheid tore through and galloped 65 big yards to pay dirt, then went over again for the two bonus points.

On next possession they bogged down after a pair of first downs. However they were in business again following Boyd's kick. Nick gained 19 and passed to his brother Neal three plays later. It was good for 23 and the TD. A run was short leaving the count at 14-0.

The juniors started the second half with another drive, made 49 to the 12 in six plays, then lost ground on a penalty and a fumble. However, on next possession Nick passed to Gary Walterscheid for a 37 yard TD. A run upped the score to 22-0.

The game was Muenster's in every way. Along with their winning score they led 9-4 in first downs, 130-87 in rushing, and 78-0 in passing yardage.

Next game was different in that teams were about equal in weight. In the first one the Little Monsters had a big weight advantage.

The visitors got on the board in the second encounter after roaring down the field for 65 yards in 6 plays. The run for points fell short and the count was 6-0.

But the Bees took charge after that. Despite a limp inflicted early, Quarterback Tim Wolf along with scabbacks Mark Mollenkopf and Mark

Sicking started stepping off the yardage. They cranked up a sustained drive as the quarter ended and made 65 yards in 7 plays. Mollenkopf made the last 23, Wolf made the bonus points to take an 8-6 lead. The rest of the period was hotly contested, a pair of first downs for each team, two fumbles recovered by Sicking, one by a Boyd player.

Next score was a set up early in the third period. Boyd's pass for punt went overhead giving Muenster possession on the 4. Mollenkopf went in from there, Sicking added bonus points.

After that the visitors put on the power, marching 65 yards for a TD in seven plays. The scoring run went for 20 yards, a try for extra points failed. Then it was time for the Bees to show some muscle. Danny Endres was at quarterback relieving the limping Wolf and put on a 35 yard drive. Mollenkopf went over, Endres made bonus points. Along with their 24-12 lead in points, the Bees led 249-162 in yardage and 13-10 in first downs.

19 Teachers from SH School Attend Training Program

Nineteen teachers from Sacred Heart School attended an in-service training program Friday, at Nolan High School in Fort Worth. The program was open to all teachers in the Catholic school system of the diocese of Fort Worth.

Theme of the program was "A New Creation," with Father Alfred McBride, Director of Religious Education for the National Catholic Education Association, as guest speaker. His headquarters are in Washington, D.C.

Father McBride discussed the role of the church in education, reiterating that it was the church who laid the Foundation for the great educational institutions of the Western world. In keeping with the theme of the program, he stressed the importance of a Christlike teacher whose spirit of creativity will meet the multi-faceted needs of today's students.

Following Father McBride's address, teachers from each school assembled with their principal to discuss how to make their individual school a more Christian Educational Community.

Mass, with a special liturgy for the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, was held at noon. Scriptural readings and songs showing the triumph of the cross were used for the service, and communion was distributed under both species.

The afternoon program began with Father Philip Johnson's address: "Prayer, Liturgy, and Para-Liturgy in Our School." Following the talk, teachers again met with their principal for the second planning session of the day.

Father McBride concluded the day's program with an address on "Common Sense in Catechesis."

Teachers attending from Muenster were: Father Placidus, Sister Mary John, Sister Georgia, Sister Theresina, Sister Genevieve, Sister Lenore, Sister Yvonne, Sister Alberta, Sister Carmelita, Bro. Thomas Bob Steele, Jim Gehrig, Mrs. Joy Sanders, Mrs. Joy Testa, Mrs. Rebecca Harris, Miss Dorothy Bengfort, Miss Anna Hermes, Mrs. Josephine English, and Mrs. Monnie Jones.

On Saturday, a similar program was conducted at Saint Andrew's Church, Fort Worth, for Confraternity of Christian Doctrine teachers in the diocese.

Attending the Saturday session from Muenster were Sister Lenore, Mrs. Andy Wimmer, Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus, and Mrs. Jerry Walterscheid.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

GOOD CARE

An antique collector passing through a small village stopped to watch an old man chopping wood with an ancient ax. "That's a mighty old ax you have there," he remarked.

"Yup," said the villager, "it once belonged to Sir Walter Raleigh."

"Not really!" gasped the collector. "It has certainly stood up well."

"Of course," admitted the old man, "it's had three new handles and two new heads."

"Due to circumstances beyond our control..."

Texas Power & Light Company has a long, solid history of providing its customers with reliable electric power at the lowest price consistent with good service. The Company wants electricity to always be one of the biggest bargains in your budget.

However, there are circumstances beyond our control which indicate future electric rate increases are inevitable.

Higher Cost of Fuels The diminishing supply of natural gas and fuel oil has pushed the prices of these generating plant fuels to new highs and is significantly increasing the cost of producing electricity. TP&L's fuel bill was over $40 million last year, 30% higher than in 1971, and it's expected to be even higher in 1973.

Higher Cost of Construction Because of today's energy crisis, new generating plants must be built to operate with other fuels, such as lignite and nuclear materials. These plants are much more costly to build than gas-fueled ones, but to assure you an ample supply of electric power in the future, construction of new facilities is essential—and must be done even though TP&L faces additional rising costs for labor, materials and land.

Higher Cost of Financing The rising cost of money needed to finance new plants and other facilities has been increasing at a staggering rate.

All of these circumstances are beyond our control—and they make producing your electricity much costlier than ever before. However, TP&L will continue to use every practical method and every possible efficiency to keep the price of electricity low and still provide you with dependable electric service in the years ahead.

The John Fleitmans Are Honored on 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Fleitman who were married in 1933 celebrated their ruby wedding anniversary, Sept. 8, by attending an anniversary Mass in Sacred Heart Church and following with a reception and dinner hosted by their children Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fleitman of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fleitman and Mr. and Mrs. James Fleitman of Muenster in the KC Hall.

Mass, celebrated at 5:30 p.m. by Father Placidus Eckart, began with an entrance procession headed by the 40-year anniversary couple and their attendants.

Mrs. Henry Grewing Sr. (Mary Mages) was maid of honor in place of the 1933 honor maid, her sister Cecilia Mages, now deceased. Bruno Fleitman who was his brother's best man 40 years ago attended again and escorted Mrs. Grewing. New attendants for the anniversary were Mrs. Bruno Fleitman and Henry Grewing Sr.

The forty-year bride wore a formal pink gown and had a corsage of red roses enhanced with small simulated rubies. She wore an heirloom cross and chain formerly belonging to her Grandmother Rueshenberg of Iowa. Mrs. Bruno Fleitman wore a formal pink gown with blue trim and a corsage of white carnations tipped with blue. Mrs. Grewing wore a blue formal and had a white carnation corsage tipped with blue.

Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist accompanied by Anthony Luke, organist. She presented "Always" before the entrance procession.

At the offertory she sang "I Love You Truly" as the couple's three sons and three of their ten grandchildren presented the offertory gifts. James Fleitman carried the water and wine, Leon Fleitman the paten, and Alvin Fleitman the ciborium. Shannon Fleitman carried the Christ Candle, Scott Fleitman a red rose, and Ginger Fleitman an album containing the family history in story and pictures, an anniversary gift to the honorees from their children and grandchildren, compiled by Mrs. Leon Fleitman.

The communion song was "Ave Maria" and at the close of services "Mother At Your Feet."

The reception followed immediately. The registration table, holding the guest book, was decorated with the rose and album used at the Mass, a ruby red 40 surrounded by pink chenille daisies and a small gold cherub holding the pen. The album was opened to the couple's wedding picture of 40 years ago and told the story of their wedding day.

Tables were decorated with red 40s surrounded by pink chenille daisies. Candle holders in nests of the daisies held lighted pink candles.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was topped with the numerals 40. One side displayed entwined hearts containing the honorees' names. The second tier held four miniature statues representing their four sons. The other son, Frank Fleitman, is deceased. The other tier held ten miniature baby dolls, six marked with blue and four with pink representing the grandchildren. Mrs. Charles Bayer made and served the cake.

The buffet meal was catered by Kentucky Fried Chicken and was followed by dancing to recordings, and visiting.

Mrs. Fleitman is the former Anna Mages, formerly of Lindsay where their marriage was solemnized Sept. 12, 1933. They have lived in Muenster ever since. For a number of years he worked at the FMA cheese plant, then farmed southwest of town before retiring.

Out of town relatives at the celebration were Messrs. and Mmes. Leo Mages of Fort Worth, Eddie Mages of Dallas, Ewald Berend of Hereford, Leonard Grewing of Denton, Tommy Yosten of Fort Worth and those from Gainesville, Lindsay and Valley View.

Al Horns Visit Nine States and Canada on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Al Horn saw places and people in nine states and Canada on their vacation tour.

After traveling through New Mexico they saw Arizona highlights including the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest and Sequoia and King Canyon National Parks.

They crossed the Golden Gate Bridge into California and saw lush vineyards, loaded fruit trees and the Giant Redwood Forest. Driving the Pacific Coast line they visited in Salem, Oregon. That area's immense wheat and other grain fields were badly in need of moisture.

Spokane, Wash., was a highlight of the trip, visiting the Lehnertz Brothers and their Longhorn Barbecue place. Don Lehnertz was there, Quintin was at the Sandwich House, Dave and Gene Lehnertz had just returned from a catering trip. Quintin accompanied them to the State Fair where the Lehnertz boys had a barbecue concession stand. They met Joe Klement of Spokane at the Fair and he mentioned planning a trip to Texas in October. The Horns visited with Duke Fette and other Muenster boys connected with the Longhorn except Charles Klement. They also visited at the site where Claude Lehnertz is building a new home — a three-story colonial with a fireplace on each floor and to be furnished in antiques.

Next was Canada and Lake Louise. Then Glacier National Park in Montana, Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming, through Idaho and into Utah seeing the Great Salt Lake and Mormon Temple. They were away 11 days.

A distraught mother made the following announcement to a group of wild children at a birthday party: "There will be a special prize for the one who goes home first."

Some people had a big time and lots of fun last Thursday night. They damaged beyond repair that nice outdoor carpet in front of Modern Floors, dug up flowers and turned over a display rack at the Garden Center, let the air out of the big tires of a road maintainer and pulled a mail box with cement base out of the ground at the home of a widow. To those who are responsible, we hope the fairy turns you into a fire plug in an area with a big dog population.

Bobo Jaska visited Muenster on Tuesday. Naturally he stopped at the bank — remembering they have free coffee.

We miss you Bobo and hope you come back often.

W. B. Martin of Gainesville is a new resident at Hillcrest Manor. He joins his wife Zena who has been a resident for some time. A son James Ray Martin of Saint Jo and a son-in-law R. P. Cain of Farmers Branch brought him in and helped him get settled Sunday. Talking up a storm were Mr. Martin and Barney Barnett of Gainesville, also a resident. The two are long-time friends and domino players.

Cathy (Mrs. Homer) Hill of Forestburg has joined the staff as an aid. She put in her first time Sunday night.

Mrs. John O'Brien, a former LVN on the staff, drove over from Gainesville Saturday afternoon for a visit.

LVN Evelyn (Mrs. Alfred) Fielder has been telling about her vacation in Hawaii with her daughter and son-in-law the Jerry Johnsons and getting acquainted with a grandson, Jerry Lynn Johnson, born Aug. 30. She also enjoyed extensive sight-seeing. The family will be leaving Hawaii in November to be stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., where Sgt. Johnson will be a rifle instructor.

Father Stephen Eckart was in charge of Sunday afternoon services and gave the homily. Sister Yvonne and her group of Junior High Choir singers and guitarists provided music in the lobby where the ambulatory residents and their guests gathered and then went to rooms to sing and play bedside for other residents.

Observing their September birthdays together and exchanging gifts were Angela Laake and her brother Dr. Ernest W. Laake of Dallas who was a Sunday afternoon visitor with his sister and niece Rosa Driever who also was there.

Wednesday afternoon's bingo party was a big success with each winner receiving a gift. Auxiliary members M. M. e. Leonard Endres, Ervin Hamric, and Ted Voth were in charge of the games and also visited in the rooms for reading, letter writing and conversation.

Willie Fuhrmann joined his wife and son Billy Fuhrmann and family of Lindsay who came for him, to attend a christening party in the home of his daughter and family, the A. J. Huchtons, whose infant son Rex Henry was the center of attraction.

Dolly Thomas had as visitors a sister from Vallejo, Calif., who came with a daughter Mrs. Viola Miller of Saint Jo.

Mrs. W. C. Lyons of Saint Jo visited her brother Charles Newland one day.

Mrs. Charlie Berend of Hereford visited her mother Mrs. C. J. Wimmer Wednesday.

and diving for the line. His try for bonus points failed. In fact the Hornets fizzled on all four of their extra point opportunities.

Again in the second quarter the Hornets uncorked a long sustained march with Tom Bright, Tom Hennigan, Curtis Klement and Randy Wolf taking turns at grinding out the yardage. The payoff came on a three yard plunge by Tom Hennigan for the go-ahead touchdown.

The lead at intermission was only 12-7, still far from comfortable and anybody's game. As it turned out, however, the style of game did not change. Muenster continued to dominate offensively and defensively and got its third touchdown effort under way soon. Tom Hennigan completed the job with a 1 yard crash to pay dirt and the Hornets supporters were enthused.

But the comparative safety was not taken as an indication that the game was in the bag. The rugged defense kept putting on the pressure and eventually had the satisfaction of adding two defensive points to the score. Hennigan nailed a Jacket behind the line for a safety.

Following Boyd's free kick after safety the Hornets cranked up their final drive and ended it with Wolf's pass to Dan Sicking for 9 yards.

The outstanding fact about the game is that Muenster gained consistently up the middle in spite of a weight disadvantage of about 40 pounds per man. Three of the Yellowjackets weighed 235, 230 and 200 and others averaged 170 whereas Muenster's average is 146. Tom Bright was the leading ground gainer with 118 yards.

Douglas Edward Hennigan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hennigan, was baptized Sunday at 1 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church by Father Stephen Eckart. Mr. and Mrs. Felix Pelzel of Pilot Point attended as godparents for their nephew.

Baby Douglas wore the baptismal dress that his daddy and his two brothers wore before him.

Attending were the parents, Mark and James, and the Pelzel children Randy, Wayne, Tomothy, Sharon, Kevin and Mary Kay. The Pelzel family were dinner guests in the Hennigan home.

started. Six plays made it from the 20 and John Bartush made the last 4.

That was the end of the scoring before intermission. Nothing much happened for the rest of the quarter except that Gunter was held to two scattered first downs and Sacred Heart to one and Bartush intercepted twice.

But the third period opened with a bang as a Gunter kicker ending the first series was caught on the 7 yard line. Bartush sailed around left end for a TD on the next play.

Only two plays after the next kickoff Danny Voth intercepted and the Tigers were 28 yards away. Five tries were enough as Mark Hess plowed over from the 7 and Moster made bonus points.

As the last quarter opened Sacred Heart youngsters were in the process of joining in the scoring fun. They used 15 plays in going 64 yards and the pay-off was a crash for 6 by Leon Bayer.

Finally the visitors got their turn. They were 60 yards away following kickoff and two tries gained 6. Then the left end broke through and hoofed 53 big yards before he was brought down. Baggs scored two plays later from the 2.

But Gunter still was not ready to quit. Sacred Heart kicked on fourth down and pint size Kevin Harris broke through the middle and went all the way. It was an 85 yard punt return, a great consolation to the team which was both outclassed and outmanned.

Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting.

That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic—and all the 1974 Chevrolets. The ones shown here, plus Impala, Monte Carlo, Nova, Corvette, pickups, vans and all our new cars and trucks.

Building a better way to see the U.S.A.
