

Funeral Service Held Monday for Henry Pels Sr., 90

Funeral services were held Monday at 10 a.m. for Henry J. Pels Sr., 90, one of the few remaining early-day residents of Muenster who came to the new colony in 1890, a year after it was settled. He was a retired farmer.

Death came at 4 a.m. Saturday in Muenster Hospital after five weeks of hospitalization following a period of failing health.

Father Stephen Eckart and Father Bede Mitchel were celebrants of the funeral Mass. Father Placidus Eckart delivered the sermon and conducted graveside rites and Bishop A. Danglmayr gave the final absolution in church.

Burial in Sacred Heart Cemetery was directed by Nick Miller Funeral Home. Bearers were grandsons: Leon and Milton Knauf, Doug Martin, Jerry and Bob Pels and James Walterscheid. Rosary services were held in the Miller Chapel Sunday at 4 and at 8 p.m.

Granddaughters participated in the special Mass liturgy. Doreen and Janet Pels and Estelle Martin gave scripture readings and Beverly Pels read the prayers of the faithful. Other grandchildren, David and Sherri Muller and Rita Pels presented the gifts at the offertory.

Born Feb. 14, 1883, in Carroll County, Iowa, Henry Pels came to Muenster with his parents when he was seven years old and was a continuous resident with the exception of going to West Point, Neb., for his bride. He was married there on Feb. 21, 1911, to Miss Anna Lummel and they honeymooned to their farm in Muenster. Mrs. Pels died on Feb. 21, 1960, a year short of their golden wedding anniversary. A son, Ed Pels, died in 1967.

Surviving are one son, Henry J. Pels Jr. of Muenster; six daughters, Mmes. Paul Walterscheid, Joe Knauf, Lawrence Martin and Arnold Muller of Muenster, Mrs. Henry Weske of Phoenix, Arizona, and Sister Imelda Pels of Jonesboro, Ark.; 29 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Frances Walterscheid of Muenster, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelsea of California and Sister Eleanor Pels of San Antonio, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ed Pels of Muenster.

Out of town relatives and friends at the funeral included Sister Imelda and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weske, and Jerry Pels of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fuhrmann and children of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hudspeth and children of Dallas, Messrs. and Mmes. Alois Pels, Joe Pels, Jerry Pels and Brenda, Mrs. Christine Sturm and Mrs. Agnes Speed, all of Pilot Point, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hunebutt of Gainesville, Messrs. and Mmes. Red Eberhart and Tim Wimmer of Lindsay, Miss Irene Martin, Mrs. Frieda Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin of Fort Worth.

Congressman Omar Burleson tells us that the Federal Reserve reportedly is giving serious thought to bringing the $2 bill back into circulation and the Bureau of Printing and Engraving likes the idea as a way of reducing the need of so many $1 bills. Considering the many millions of Ones in circulation, it's conceivable that the saving would be worth while. And it might also be acceptable to the public because at current higher prices, people might find more use for it than before.

However, it's also possible that the public will care for it as little as before. Will the average person prefer to use the $2 bill when it's so simple to use two Ones? Or will folks continue a former reluctance based on association and superstition? They say that the $2 bill's unpopularity with some is based on its popularity at the race track. Also that Alexander Hamilton, pictured on the bill, was killed in a duel, so the bill has been tagged as unlucky.

Probably the best reason for the former phase out is the bother of another separation in wallets and cash registers. To mix with the Ones might lead to giving a Two instead of the One. And if so they will be unpopular again, if brought back. About the only thing that can be said for them is the savings in printing, but the treasury might decide that it doesn't really save by making a currency that people prefer not to use.

Whoever wonders why the crime rate is so high in this country can get at least a part of his answer from last week's decision by the Texas Criminal Court of Appeals declaring a mistrial in the case of two men who were convicted of killing a police officer, along with two others for whose murder they have been charged but not tried.

District Attorney Henry Wade, with admirable restraint, said the appeals court was "nit-picking" when it threw out the conviction on a minor technicality. The fault was referred to as an improper argument in which Wade stated "I'm concerned about the open season that is coming on police officers. I believe the same week these officers were killed, there were eleven killed in America."

The court said that reference to other officers was not based on evidence introduced at the trial and would have been inadmissible if it had been introduced.

However the court also stated it was not unmindful that the evidence reveals the senseless killing of three police officers. It referred to eyewitness testimony given by two surviving officers in the crime and to fingerprints taken at the scene indicating that sufficiency of evidence was not in question.

This is the baffling part of the court's decision. It stated that the evidence and testimony left no doubt about the guilt of the accused. Nevertheless it reversed the conviction and ordered a new trial because of an irrelevant remark by the prosecution. To which one has to ask how the remark could have any possible bearing on the pair's guilt, and therefore how can it be a cause for reversing the conviction?

This is the great fault with court procedure nowadays. Too often justice is cheated when a mistrial is declared because of some technicality when the

Wilfred Reiter Is New Scoutmaster

Wilfred Reiter has taken over the job of local scoutmaster — with the assistance of members of the executive scouting committee. He will attend meetings with the boys and supervise hikes and campouts, but will leave administrative duties to the committee. He will also depend on the committee to find assistants for the outings.

Committee man Henry Weinzapfel explained that Reiter does not have time to take over all of the job, so the division of duties was agreed upon as a solution to the local problem. The troop has been without a scoutmaster since last spring when Jack Davis was transferred from the Muenster SCS office.

Reiter was assistant scoutmaster at the time and has been with the troop on a number of outings.

Committee men of the troop are Henry Weinzapfel, David Bright, Charles Bartush, Joe Sicking, Andy Phillips, W. J. Luke and Dan Luke.

Hornets Slip Past Indians 27-21 in 4th Period Rally

The MHS Fighting Hornets were at their fighting' best Friday night in dumping the big Nocona Indians 27-21. To make the victory sweeter, they did it the hard way, overcoming a 21-7 deficit in barely more than the last quarter.

Despite a most gloomy outlook since early in the third period, the Hornets pulled themselves together and cashed in on a Nocona fumble only a minute before the end of the quarter. And that sparked a momentum that paid off in two more touchdowns.

After just a few minutes it looked like a long cold night for the Muenster fans. MHS received the kickoff and had to punt on its first series. And Nocona started with a bang. Bill Russell crashed through the left side of the line and picked up 33 yards before he was hauled down. Three more plays gained 20, then David Guiliams stormed the remaining 26 yards. A kick for extra

Voters Turn Down Increase of Pay For Legislators

Muenster voters emphatically turned down the proposed pay hike to state legislators in Tuesday's statewide election on nine proposed amendments to the Texas constitution. Consistent with their attitude of the past eight years they rejected the amendment by a count of 85 to 26.

The proposal, first on the ballot, was for an increase of legislators' pay from $4,800 to $15,000 a year plus increase in per diem allowance from $12 to $18, and increase of the time for the legislature to be in session.

Other voters of the county and the state also turned down the pay increase by big margins. Statewide voting agreed with Muenster on proposition 8, but it differed on three other proposals. Numbers 4 and 6, rejected here, were approved by the state, and number 9, approved here, was turned down by the state.

Only 115 voters out of the city's estimated strength of 500 braved the misty, chilly weather to have their say. And they also rejected three other propositions, though by smaller margins.

Number 4, regarding compliance with general district laws in creation of conservation and reclamation districts received 47 for and 57 against.

Number 6, for granting probate jurisdiction to district courts, and concerning ad adjustments and appeals in probate matters received 44 for and 62 against.

Number 8, on authorizing levy of ad valorem tax by cities, towns and villages to pay general obligations received 35 for and 74 against.

The other five on the ballot were approved locally as follows.

Number 2, extending homestead protection to single adults: 94 for and 18 against.

Number 3, extending the $3,000 ad valorem exemption to homesteads of unmarried adults: 85 for and 29 against.

Number 5, allowing Gulf coast counties to levy tax for construction of a sea wall: 69 for and 37 against.

Number 7, authorizing $100 million for the Veterans Land Fund: 62 for and 46 against.

Number 9, exempting water supply organizations from payment of ad valorem tax: 63 for and 44 against.

Hornets Are Long Favorites Friday At Callisburg

For the first time this year, the Hornets will be long odds favorites Friday night at Callisburg. According to the records to date the game is a cinch. Only a miracle could pull out a win for the Wildcats.

The season has been a calamity for Callisburg. It has a lightweight team, the only one of 14-A which is smaller than Muenster's. Also the boys, mostly freshmen and sophomores, have little experience. The result is that the team has been clobbered by every opponent this year. Even so, many coaches have been sending in their youngsters to avoid trampling the Wildcats.

That is what Coach Glenn Richardson plans to do this week. Since his junior varsity has no more games on schedule he has re-organized the squad into three teams and expects all of them to have a part of the action.

Also he'll have another game without the services of two regulars, Louis Koelzer and Tom Bright, who missed the Nocona game. Koelzer is out for the rest of the season with a dislocated shoulder. Bright has had flu- and virus. However all others are in good condition.

At this time Frisco and Sanger continue to lead the 14-A loop with records of 3-0. They will meet this week in the game to determine the district title. Next are Muenster, Nocona and Pilot Point with records of 1-2 each. Two of those, Nocona and Pilot Point, also will meet this week. And Callisburg has a 0-3 record.

Group Meets for Reorganization of Muenster C of C

A step toward revitalizing the Muenster Chamber of Commerce was taken last Wednesday when a group of local business people met in the TP&L Building.

Convinced that a local civic organization is essential to the community's growth and progress, they agreed to take up where their organization had faded out about three years ago. They also decided that all members formerly in good standing are still in good standing and eligible to vote in a re-organizing election to be held soon.

Toward that purpose Al Hess was elected vice president replacing Ernest Jaska who moved away from Muenster. Also Bertha Hamric and L. J. Endres were elected as temporary directors to serve until the next election.

Other directors, carried over from the previous organization, are President Ray Wilde, Secretary Herbert Miller and Urban Endres, Al Felderhoff, and J. M. Weinzapfel. All are included on a nominating committee which will submit a list of nominees to Ray Wilde for the coming election. From this slate two are to be elected to succeed Wilde and Weinzapfel, whose terms have expired. And later two directors will be appointed for the positions now temporarily held by Bertha Hamric and L. J. Endres.

Cheryl Bayer Is High Scorer in Scholastic Test

A letter of commendation honoring her for her high performance on the 1972 Preliminary Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test has been awarded to Cheryl Bayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bayer, it is announced by Sister Mary John Seyler, principal at Sacred Heart High.

National Merit Scholarship Corporation has named 38,000 Commended students throughout the United States. These students are among the upper two percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1974. Commended students rank high, just below the 15,000 semifinalists in September.

"The high standing of Commended students in the Merit Program competition shows they have great promise of continued success in college," said Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC.

Elm-Red Soil District Announces 14th Essay Contest on Conservation

The 14th annual essay contest on conservation, sponsored by the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District, was announced this week by J. H. Bayer, chairman of the board.

It is open to all boys and girls living in the Elm-Red District who are not more than 18 years old, whether or not attending school, but not a high school graduate. Deadline for sending in the entry is January 31, 1974.

The essay, of 300 or less, is to be entitled "Our Soil — Our Strength." Bayer suggests that contestants refrain from the technicalities on saving soil, water and plants, but rather concentrate on the relation of these resources to human survival. Originality and imagination are encouraged.

Incentive awards for first, second and third places will be $25, $15 and $10. In addition the first place winner will be entered in a state wide contest, sponsored by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Prizes in the state contest are $100 and a trophy to the winner plus trophies for 15 regional winners. None of the prizes will jeopardize a student's standing in Interscholastic League eligibility.

Bayer urges all vocational ag teachers and all English teachers in the three-county district to include this essay with their class assignments. Along with the award incentive, it serves as an exercise in composition and adds to a student's appreciation of the ever increasing need for soil, water and plant conservation.

Bayer said the directors are hoping for a record number of

City Council Nears Final OK on Trash Ordinance

An ordinance on trash and garbage disposal for Muenster was approved with a few minor revisions at the city council's regular meeting Monday night and will probably receive final approval in the next session.

The ordinance was drawn up in rough form after considering ordinances of several other cities of North Texas and then submitted to City Attorney Herbert Meurer to be re-written as a legal document. That paper was discussed Monday and a few changes were suggested before the ordinance comes up for final approval.

The ordinance will spell out the entire operation of trash and garbage disposal, including fee, frequency of collection, containers to be used, kind and quantity of material to be accepted, along with other details pertaining to the service, equipment and disposal area.

The council discussed a site for the sanitary land-fill, disclosing that an agreement is near but details relating to the location, price, method of land-fill, etc., will be withheld until the contract is complete.

Hiring of personnel to do the work is equally near. The council considered applications for the job and expect to make its selections in a few days.

All angles considered, the ordinance should be ready for publication after the council's next meeting and the service should begin shortly after that.

The council also considered hiring another police officer to alternate regular duty with James McDonald and to assist him at crowded occasions. They reviewed the applications received when McDonald was engaged and asked A. T. Tuggle to make contacts to see who is available now.

At the same time the council agreed that it hopes to continue receiving help from five volunteers who served as an auxiliary police force at Halloween. The council expressed its appreciation to them for helping keep order then and asked them to be available at future occasions of more than average activity. The auxiliaries were Gilbert Boydston, Willie Fisher, Henry Knabe, Herbert Knabe and Mike Stoffels.

Yvonne Gehrig Is Candidate for State FB Queen

Cooke County Farm Bureau queen, Yvonne Gehrig, will represent District 4 in the upcoming Texas Farm Bureau Queen Contest. Miss Gehrig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig of Muenster, will compete with 11 other district winners for the state crown in the Monday, December 3 event to be held at the Civic Center Auditorium in Abilene. Selection of the 1974 queen is a part of activities scheduled for Texas Farm Bureau's 40th annual convention.

The state winner will receive expenses for herself and a matron escort to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation convention to be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, during January.

A green-eyed blonde who stands 5'5", Miss Gehrig has ambitions for pursuing a career in nursing. She is presently a 19-year old sophomore at Grayson County College and is employed as a medical technician at Wilson N. Jones Hospital. Miss Gehrig is aiming at an R. N. degree with intentions to specialize in Coronary Care Unit work. She is a member of the Texas Student Nurses Association.

Miss Gehrig lists travel, scuba diving, skiing, and sewing as her hobbies and says she enjoys meeting new and interesting people. During her school years, the young beauty queen was active in 4-H, winning awards on the county, district and state levels. She received first place and honorable mention in the county art show and won high school art awards. She was also high school cheerleader and Homecoming Queen.

Parish Will Have 1 Week Mission Starting Saturday

Mission services conducted by Father Ernest Miller, C.S.S.R., of the Redemptionist Monastery at Liguori, Mo., will be held next week in Sacred Heart Church.

Father Placidus Eckart said the mission will start at the Saturday evening mass and continue through the following week with sermons at 8 o'clock and 9:35 morning masses and at special 7:30 evening masses.

Five years have passed since the last mission in Sacred Heart Parish. It was conducted by Father Ambrose Branz, C.S.B., of Corpus Christi Abbey.

Local FFA Teams First, Second in District Contest

Junior and senior skills teams of the Muenster chapter of Future Farmers of America placed first and second in a district contest held in Gainesville last week then placed fourth and sixth in the Area contest at East Texas State University.

The seniors, Chapter Farmer division, won first at Gainesville in a field of 8 and the juniors, Greenhand division won second in a field of 5.

As first and second, both qualified for advancement to area competition, which had eight teams in each division. Muenster Greenhands placed fourth and Chapter Farmers placed sixth.

Chapter Farmer team members are Kirk Johnson, Monty Reiter and Dean Sicking. Green hand members are Billy Huchton, Terry Lewis and Calvin Otto. Both teams are coached by Edgar Dyer, ag instructor at MHS.

Tigers' Unbeaten Record Ends 20-12 Friday at Dickson

The dreaded day for the Sacred Heart Tigers arrived last Friday at Dickson, Oklahoma. Their long unbeaten record came to an end as they bowed 20-12 to the Oklahoma. It was as if the tough luck which caught up with the Tigers in a tie with Cistercian a week before returned to take another swing at them. It was their first defeat in fifteen games, since bowing to Wilson, Okla., early in the 1972 season.

Ironically, it was the second time when the statistics favored them but the score did not, but more so. This time they had total gains of 405 whereas Dickson had 170. However turnovers made an enormous difference. Sacred Heart lost possession 7 times — five fumbles and two interceptions — and Dickson on only one fumble.

The boys were afflicted with a severe case of fumbleitis. Besides those they lost, there were eight that they recovered

Letters to the Editor

Mr. Editor:
 I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to our Police Officer, Mr. McDonald, for his outstanding performances, and ability in controlling property damage this past Halloween week.
 With the obstacles obstructing Mr. McDonald in the performances of his sworn duties, in up holding, and enforcing the law in the City of Muenster, I personally feel that he's doing an outstanding job.

 I further believe, the citizens of Muenster owe Mr. McDonald more cooperation than he's been receiving. I often wonder when the man sleeps, I have seen Mr. McDonald patrolling our City, day and night.

He must have a wonderful wife that puts up with his hours. I for one, hope and pray that Mr. McDonald and his family shall always remain in our City. I don't know what the City is paying him, but I'm sure it's not enough.
 Again, I say Thanks for his presence in our City.
 A Concerned Citizen

Dear Sir:
 Would it be possible for you to get the hospital admissions in your paper? We, out here in this part of Texas, never hear about our sick relatives and friends unless they are dismissed or die.
 Our town has a list of the patients that enter the hospital, then below they list those dismissed.
 Thank you so much.

St. Anne Society Hears Report on CSL Convention

Members of St. Anne's Society at their November meeting Sunday night heard a report on the district convention of the Catholic State League held in Windthorst.

Mrs. Wilfred Bindel, one of the local delegates at the Oct. 28 meeting, gave a detailed account of convention proceedings.

Attorney Cletus Schenk of Wichita Falls was guest speaker discussing rights and privileges of 18-year-olds.

State Presidents Mrs. Matt Lehman of San Antonio and Milton Schmidtinsky of Fredericksburg and Past President Johnny Gass of Honey Creek were among officers present.

In her address to convention women, Mrs. Lehman reminded them to make items for the missions, especially priest kits which include a quilt or blanket, two towels and wash cloths, two sheets and pillow cases and a pillow.

It was also told that in San Antonio a huge billboard protesting abortion is in the process of being erected. It is expected these billboards will be put up all over the state.

There were 102 registered for the convention with door prizes going to Mmes. Erwin Fuhrmann, Mildred Lindemann and Joe Veitenheimer. Clergy present included Father Cletus Post, host pastor, and Father Bede Mitchel of Lindsay.

District meeting in spring will be in Lindsay and the state convention is tentatively scheduled for San Antonio. Thirty members of St. Anne's Society heard the report during their meeting conducted by Mrs. Al Hess, president. Father Stephen Eckart led opening prayers and spoke briefly.

A free will offering was taken up for Hillcrest Manor Auxiliary to provide game prizes for the weekly parties at the nursing home and members voted a $25 donation from the treasury for the Child Development Center in Gainesville.

Mrs. Alois Haverkamp won the door prize.

Reasons for Oil Shortage

The suggestion that oil companies have somehow conspired to create a gas and oil shortage deserves the bluntest kind of response from energy authorities familiar with the facts. One such authority Mr. Frank N. Ikard, president of the American Petroleum Institute, has challenged a congressional committee to consider whether factors contributing "greatly to the energy supply problems" were brought about "by decisions or actions of the oil industry or by decisions or actions beyond the control of the oil industry."

He listed these decisions or actions categorically. "1. The prevention of the start of construction of the trans-Alaska pipeline. 2. The moratorium on drilling in the Santa Barbara Channel. 3. The infrequency and small size of petroleum lease sales in the Gulf of Mexico in recent years. 4. The delays of lease sales in the Gulf of Mexico and elsewhere. 5. The deterrents to construction of refineries in several East Coast states. 6. The institution and retention of regulations artificially controlling field prices of natural gas. 7. The delay in construction and operating permits for nuclear power plants, thereby placing an added burden on petroleum. 8. The adoption of restrictive sulfur emission regulations, which has had the effect of banning the use of coal in many areas and of heavy residual fuel oils in some areas. 9. The emission control standards on new model automobiles, which have increased gasoline consumption. 10. The sale of record-breaking numbers of new cars equipped with gasoline-consuming options. 11. The application of informal and, later, formal price controls on crude oil; and the administration of price controls on oil products in a way that discouraged product imports."

Any fair-minded person, on the strength of the foregoing, should be able to discern for himself the principal reasons for the oil and gas shortage — reasons that most assuredly lie far outside the province of oil company management.

THE OTHER FELLOW

"When the other fellow takes a long time, he's slow. But when I take a long time, I'm thorough. When the other fellow doesn't send in his reports, he's lazy. But when I don't do it, I'm too busy. When the other fellow does something without being told, he's overstepping his bounds. When I do, that's initiative!"

"When the other fellow sells with a hard-sell pitch, he's using high pressure. But when I do it, I'm being firm. When the other fellow pleases the boss, he's polishing the brass. But when I please the boss, that's cooperation. When the other fellow overlooks the rules of etiquette, he's rude. But when I skip a few rules, I'm original. When the other fellow gets ahead, he's getting breaks. But when I manage to get ahead, it's hard work."

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Clea and Jimmy Joe Reynolds departed from their surroundings for a few days here recently. They motored out to Crane, Texas, to visit J. J.'s brother and family, the Oscar Reynolds. These folks here love these hills, gullies and brush so much they can't stay away too long. Jim and Clea went to stay for a week but made it back after three days.

The Jack Greshams had a family meeting at their abode the weekend of Oct. 27. Could be they had a small Halloween Carnival of their own. Their guests were the R. C. MacElweas, the B. E. Pools, and son Harold, and Mrs. Amy Satterfield all of Dallas. Mrs. MacElwea and Mrs. Pool are daughters of the Greshams. If all the rest of these folks are all as full of fun and laughter as Jack, Chloe, and Amy — well, the Gresham home must have rocked with gaiety.

Henry Weinzapfel and son Robert visited with us Denhams Sunday, Oct. 28. Henry is figuring on getting in a little deer hunting over in these parts before long. Well, there are deer in this area — just have to flush them out of the heavy timber which surrounds us. Maybe we can locate one and have it tied up for Henry.

Sunday morning, Oct. 28, the youth class of the Forestburg United Methodist Church presented a candle lighter to the Church. This class is made up of Junior and Senior High School age youths. These young folks have also purchased (in the past) and given to their Church a cross, set of candle holders and candles and a complete Communion tray set and also two offering plates. We are all mighty proud of these young people and they're a very vital part of our Church. Mrs. Jack C. Dill is their teacher and has been for several years. She is doing and has done an outstanding job.

The local Baptist Church had as their guests Sunday night, Oct. 28, a youth choir group from the Alvarado Baptist Church. They presented a singing program. Bess Orrell told me it was a very fine program.

Am told the school Halloween Carnival was a big success Saturday night, Oct. 27. From the looks of the Burg Sunday morning the local business folks were having a big time — cleaning up the rubble and trash from in front of their establishments. Well, don't know if they did much grumbling — but if they didn't have a bunch of junk, trash, litter and the likes around everywhere perhaps they wouldn't have to clean up every year after Halloween. No doubt this junk will stay just where it is until next year — to be hauled out in the streets once more.

Talked to June Eldridge the other day. She had a mite of company the weekend of Oct. 27. Mrs. Ida Eldridge and Mrs. Carolyn Osteen and sons from Dallas were there. They all took in the Halloween Carnival. Little Connie (June's girl) was Queen for the 7th and 8th grade. June's other guests were the Loyd Bewelys and girls of Gainesville.

Glen Seay, Nocona, was involved in an accident Sunday Oct. 28, about 1:30 or 2 p.m. He was traveling on the road that runs in front of the Herschel Knox place. He was headed for the Solomon place pulling a flat-bed trailer with a tractor and feed on it. The whole rig turned over — tractor and trailer ended up on one side of the road and the pickup on the opposite side with all four wheels pointing to the sky. No one was hurt.

Merle and Clifford Huds-peth had them some kinfolk company the weekend of Oct. 27. The Raymond Wood family (a daughter) of Wichita Falls, and the Doyle Lynch family (a daughter) of the Burg area. Daughter Paula was also home accompanied by her friend Elliot. Elliot is a college student at Denton, teaches school in Muenster and he hails from the country of Lebanon.

The Gary Johnsons are now at home in their mobile home here in the Burg. Welcome back folks.

Another mobile home is being moved into the area. This one is down at New Harp on the Joe Hunt land. This home belongs to Joe's son-in-law by the last name of Matlock. Have not caught his first name yet. Buford Huddleston tells us his sister, Mrs. Jack Cox and husband, are moving back to Dewey. They will stay with William Huddleston for awhile. The Coxes are purchasing a mobile home and plan to move it in somewhere close to Buford and William.

Marion Sockwell made a "sashay" to Denton Monday, Oct. 29, to visit a life-long friend Mrs. Alice Turner. Marion picked up Howard's sister Mrs. Hill Marchbank and they spent the day with 83 year old Mrs. Turner. Now folks, Marion isn't 83 years old — not just yet. Anyway, Marion reported they all really had a wonderful day.

Ruth Smith, Rosston Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom English of Rosston drove to Commerce, Texas, Tuesday Oct. 30, to visit Mrs. H. D. Wheelles. Mrs. Wheelles is Ruth's aunt on her father's side of the family. Mrs. Wheelles' son Steve is county agent for Dallas County. Ruth's cousin Steve is filling in for Murray Cox on channel 8 on the early a.m. Farm Program.

Cleo Lanier had a small Halloween party in her home Wednesday night, Oct. 31. Her guests were Grace Scott, Lenora Moore, Roxie Dunn, Juanita Bailey, Decie Elzey and Woodrow Galmor. They enjoyed Bingo and just visited plus enjoyed refreshments.

Sure sorry we missed this party as Cleo always has good parties. However, we had a get-together here at our abode. Our guests were the Bennett Reynolds, T. W. Smiths, and the A. G. Barclays. We had us a good time playing Mexican Dominoes, visiting and eating.

Met up with Mrs. Jerry Orrell (Margie) in the Burg the other day. She told me that their Thanksgiving supper was gonna be sorta slim this year. Seems she and Jerry bought two turkey hens and a gobbler. They meant to eat one (Continued on Page 4) of the hens on "turkey-day" and raise young ones with the other hen. Well, your son, Katon, has made pets of all three and dearly loves 'em. Seems he has a great time feeding them and petting them. Now they don't have the heart to eat one of the hens so they are thinking of hamburger. Don't give up Margie — perhaps Willie and Elizabeth will come to your rescue.

This makes me think to remind everyone about the bazaar and dinner sponsored by the women of the Forestburg Methodist Church. This event will take place the 17th of Nov. at the Forestburg Community Center.

Also want to remind our readers about the P.T.O. meeting Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the school. Be sure to attend. Program is to be on narcotics.

A friend of long standing, Bula Mae Berry, called me some days back. Seems she had a wreck, of sorts, on Oct. 18, while driving to her job at Weber Aircraft at Gainesville. Just before she got to the Elm Creek Bridge on Hiway 82 a cow ran out in front of her and she hit it. No one claimed the critter, Hiway Patrol said there was nothing they could do about it and Bula Mae had to pay for all the damage done to the car. She thinks there should be a law that people keep their cattle off the highway and roads. Guess some folks just believe in open range and some don't care. We all know that cattle are prone to wander some — and they like that grass "over there" better. However they sure do cause wrecks — and both owner and car owner are hit where it hurts — in the pocketbook. The cattleman loses a cow and the car owner has to pay for damages done to his car — or he may even lose his life. So it really is somewhat of a problem all the way around and we should all do our best to keep our cows home.

Mrs. N. B. Gartrell has purchased and opened up the local cafe. We hear she really dishes out some mighty fine chow. She is nice folks so let's all give her our business whenever we can.

News from 20 odd years ago — accumulated from various sources:

(1) Wilb Reynolds says he hired Jim Bryant to build a fence and he worked up to a deep canyon and quit. Jim is like some more of us. He may be thinking of going up instead of down.

(2) Met Ross and Lucille with two calves in their pickup. She seemed to have a monkey-ward catalogue in her hand. They were headed east. Don't forget us all Christmas, Lucinda.

(3) Stoney Point don't need a farm to market road. All we need is something to market.

Callie Shears, 94 Birthday Honoree

FORESTBURG — Mrs. Callie Shears, life-long resident of the Forestburg area, celebrated her 94th birthday Sunday at a dinner party in the home of her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shears. She was born Nov. 6, 1879.

Helping her celebrate in addition to the hosts were her other son, Horace Shears and his wife of Forestburg and her daughter Mrs. Martellia Brewer who lives with her.

Also her only grandchild Eugene Shears, his wife and their three sons Randy, Russell and Rhett of Forestburg, her brother and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris of Duncan, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Huddlestone and Ben Ramsdale of Sunset.

Four generation pictures were taken along with pictures of birthday cake cutting, gift displaying and other party scenes.

Mrs. Shears is still up and around, alert and interested in her family and friends. Failing eyesight has forced her to quit her hobbies of piecing quilts and other handwork. Last Christmas she still made gifts for her children, their families and other relatives, for bazaars and for friends. Her husband, Dan Shears, died in 1956.

First Grade Blue Birds Keep Busy

First Grade Blue Birds have been keeping busy at their weekly meetings and Mrs. Johnny Eldred is assisting Mrs. Butch Fisher with leadership duties.

At one meeting the girls made growth charts with the date, age and height of each Blue Bird. Tonya Fisher served refreshments assisted by her mother.

At another meeting Jana Kay Hamilton assisted her mother Mrs. Charles Hamilton in serving refreshments after which the girls made sit-upons for day camp. They also chose a name for their group — Loving, Sharing Blue Birds.

During the next meeting the group made Jack-o-lantern name tags to wear to the Halloween party that Mrs. Roy Hartman's Campfire girls hosted for the Blue Birds. Jana Kay Hamilton and her mother again served refreshments after the friendship circle opening ceremony. Names were drawn for milk maids at Day Camp. Chosen were Glenda Richardson and Tammy Sue Grewing. The group attended camp on Oct. 27.

Fisher's Market is sponsor for this group of Blue Birds.

It pays to advertise with the Muester Enterprise.

Holiday Decor to Be Demonstrated For Club Nov. 12

Muester Garden Club's meeting next Monday, Nov. 12, will feature a program on holiday table arrangements with Mrs. Francis Leach of Gainesville guest speaker-demonstrator.

A national flower show judge, Mrs. Leach will demonstrate as she speaks and members are being reminded to take flowers and foliage from their own gardens to the meeting for Mrs. Leach to arrange.

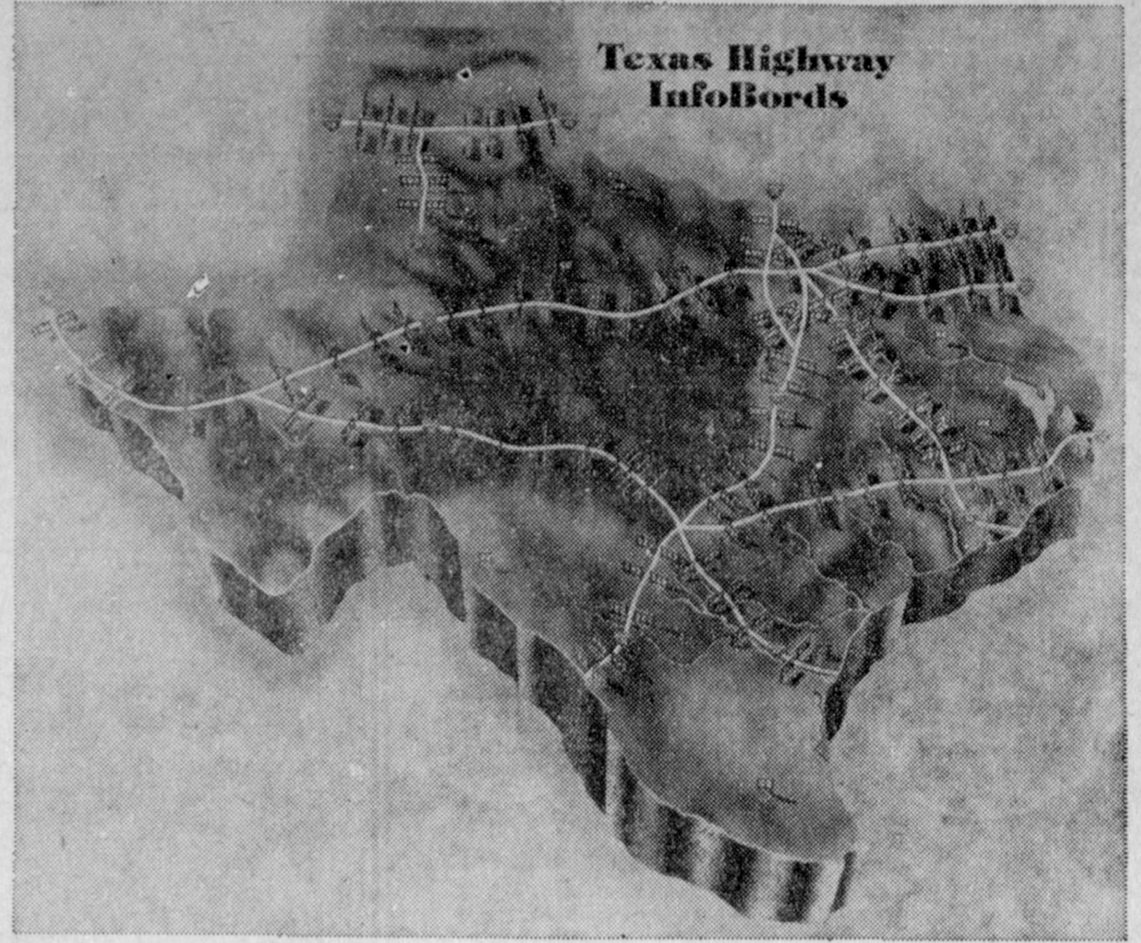

During the business session members will complete plans for their benefit bake sale Nov. 17 in the KC Hall, 9 to 3.

Mrs. Leonard Endres and Mrs. R. N. Fette will be co-hostesses for the meeting in the former's home.

Chief of Police Thanks For Halloween Help

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the men who helped as Special Policemen Halloween night. My personal thanks to these men for giving their time to help patrol the City. Their presence was a great help to the Police Department in keeping peace in the City.

Susan Yosten and David Bullion Are Married in Austin

Mr. and Mrs. David Bullion are at home in Austin following their recent marriage there. The bride is the former Miss Susan Yosten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yosten. The groom is the son of Mrs. H. P. Bullion of Austin and the late Mr. Bullion.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yosten and Diane, John Yosten and Mrs. Tony Koesler of Muenster. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. David Yosten of Plano, Mrs. H. P. Bullion and Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skipwith of Austin and Steven Homsley of San Antonio.

The bride is a graduate of Muenster High, attended North Texas State University in Denton and graduated from the University of Texas. The groom attended Houston University and the University of Texas.

Brother Michael At Home on Visit

LINDSAY — Brother Michael Fuhrmann and his cousin Brother Henry Fuhrmann of Subiaco Abbey, Ark., are spending this week with their parents and families.

It is Brother Michael's first return home since he went to the Benedictine Mission in British Honduras and his first visit since being seriously injured there in a tractor accident in September. He is continuing to recuperate while staying with his mother, Mrs. Joe Fuhrmann, after being hospitalized overseas, in New Orleans, La., and Little Rock, Ark. He also is visiting Muenster relatives.

Brother Henry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fuhrmann and is visiting them and the family in Lindsay and in Muenster.

MPS Classes Hear Father Williams

The Rev. Father A. J. Williams, a visiting Catholic priest from India, talked to the history classes of Muenster Public School last Wednesday.

Father Williams presented a beautiful and informative lecture concerning the cultures, people, religions, languages, and habits of the various ethnic groups living in India. His talk was well received and appreciated by the students.

While most Americans agree that taxes don't go in any direction but up, few of us are aware of some of the sillier ways in which government contributes to soaring levies. The March issue of Reader's Digest contributes this example: The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), an agency with which we are well acquainted, had a single 45-foot flagpole in front of its Washington headquarters. The neighboring Department of Transportation had a pair of 75-foot poles. Peeved, HUD officials had two 80-foot poles erected. Cost to taxpayers: $26,500.

4-H Club News

All 4-H members are encouraged to attend their monthly meetings this month. Jamai Pybas of Sivelis Bend and Barbie Davidson of Muenster will be presenting a special program at each 4-H club meeting on their trip this past summer on The National 4-H & Youth Heritage Tour, held in Washington D.C. The program these young ladies have prepared is certainly an informative and interesting one and we know everyone will get a lot from their presentation.

Over 1,600 delegates of 4-H are expected to attend the 52nd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29, 1973. The 4-H Winners from across the country and Puerto Rico, will be accompanied by some 250 4-H leaders and greeted by over 300 representatives of 4-H donor organizations and some 200 members of the press. Total Congress attendance is expected to top 2,400 persons.

A hearty thanks goes out to everyone for making our 1973 4-H Achievement Banquet the success it was. 126 4-Hers received county awards in 34 different award categories. 116 parents and 50 friends of 4-H attended the banquet making it the largest ever held in Cooke County. We certainly appreciate Cooke County Electric Cooperative for sponsoring our Achievement Banquet and appreciate their continued support of the 4-H program in Cooke County.

Laura Gage and Dwayne Dennis, Cooke County's Gold Star Girl and Boy, attended the District Gold Star Banquet in Dallas, November 8. Council Delegate, John Schumacher and Sandy Reiter also attended. This banquet, sponsored by Lone Star Gas; Texas Electric Service Co.; Texas Power and Light; and Community Public Service Co.; honors 1973 Gold Star Boys and Girls from all the counties in the district. John E. Hutchison, Director of Texas A & M Extension Service, addressed the banquet.

32 Food Groups have been formed and are beginning their meetings. These groups will meet 6 times and are working towards participation in the county food show to be held in January. The theme of this year's show will be "Lone Star Foods."

Saturday, November 17 is the date set for the County Poster Contest. The contest allows 4-Hers to express what 4-H is and does. The top ten posters from Cooke County will be eligible for state judging. The art work selected nationally will be used for the national 4-H poster, 4-H calendar, leaflets, exhibits, and displays.

Final Rites Held At Marysville for Thomas D. Griffin

Final rites were held Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 2 p.m. in Marysville Baptist Church for Thomas D. Griffin, 56, of Route 1, Muenster. The Rev. Aubrey L. Spiers, pastor, officiated and burial followed in Coker Cemetery under direction of Scott Funeral Home.

Griffin, an employee of Precinct 4, Cooke County, died the preceding Monday in Muenster Hospital after a 10-day illness.

He was born August 22, 1917, in Nixon, Texas, and came to Muenster from Angleton to work for Precinct 4, three years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Ada Lucille; three daughters, Mmes. Bessie Bradley of Pettigrew, Ark., Kathleen Dyches of Crockett and Ruth Gilmore of Hanna, La.; one son Delbert Griffin of Angleton; one sister Mrs. Elsie Swanson of Liverpool; one brother Kenneth Griffin of Corpus Christi and nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Bradley and children Michael and Darla Jean remained this week with their mother and grandmother. Mrs. Griffin will move her mobile home to Pettigrew. They plan to leave together Monday.

Poetry interpretation include: Chris Felderhoff, Chris Schilling, Frank Moster, Lynda Klement, Dianne Kralicke, Sandy Reiter, and Karen Schilling.

Entered in original oratory are George Luke and Craig Sangster who will also enter novice standard debate.

Marilyn Otto and Gayle Miller will enter dramatic interpretation.

Brother Thomas Moster, speech and drama instructor, will accompany the group.

The coldest place on the earth inhabited by man is Verkhoyansk, above the Arctic Circle, in Northwestern Siberia. The thermometer there drops to 90 degrees below zero in January, but sometimes rises to 86 in July, dropping to the freezing point on the warmest nights.

The hottest place in the world is Death Valley, California, where the thermometer has reached 150 degrees. The wettest place is Greytown, Nicaragua, where the mean annual rainfall is 260 inches. The place of least rain is Port Nolloth, South Africa, one inch a year.

Cemetery Fund Is Enriched by $713

Members of Sacred Heart Parish contributed $713.23 in the annual All Saints Day collection conducted by members of Muenster Garden Club who accepted donations at the church doors.

The November 1 collection is one of the two annual collections for cemetery maintenance, the Garden Club's major project. The other is on or near Memorial Day.

Anyone who missed contributing may still do so. Donations are being accepted by Mrs. Steve Moster of the cemetery committee and Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman, Garden Club treasurer, and the final total will be listed later.

Medical, Hospital Medicare Benefits Explained by HEW

"Based on recent telephone calls and visits to the office, we have found that there is a lot of confusion about the deductibles under the two parts of Medicare," Gus Jones, social security Sherman, stated today. "The two parts of Medicare are entirely separate. It is almost like having two separate insurance policies. Each part has a deductible which must be met before benefits from that part may be made. Under Part A, the hospital insurance portion of Medicare, there is a deductible of $72 for each benefit period. A person may have more than one benefit period during a calendar year, which means he may be required to pay the $72 deductible more than once during the year. A new benefit period usually begins when more than sixty days expire between stays in a hospital."

"Under Part B, the medical insurance portion of Medicare, there is now a deductible of $60 for each calendar year. Therefore, as soon as a Medicare beneficiary's medical expenses go over $60 for a calendar year this part of Medicare will pay 80 per cent of the allowed charges for doctors' and other covered services for the remainder of the year. Any part of this deductible that is met in the last three months of a year may be carried forward to the next year," Jones concluded.

A representative may be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the Federal Building.

Bridge Party Set Saturday, SH Gym

A bridge party, with door prizes and refreshments, will be held Saturday night from 7:30 to 11 in Sacred Heart gymnasium. It will be sponsored by the Kappa Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, a philanthropic organization.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, TO: Lillian Sue Graves, Defendant. Greeting: YOU (AND EACH OF YOU) ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the 235th Court of Cooke County at the Courthouse thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 24th day of December A.D. 1973, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court on the 6th day of November A.D. 1973, in this cause, numbered 73-183 on the docket of said court and styled Deldon E. Graves, Plaintiff, vs. Lillian Sue Graves, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Suit for Divorce.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Witness, Anna Mae Shorter, Clerk of the District Court of Cooke County, Texas. Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Gainesville, Texas, this 6th day of November A.D. 1973. (SEAL) ANNA MAE SHORTER, Clerk, District Court Cooke County, Texas. By Priscilla Brown, Deputy. (51-52-1-2)

Sales Tax Bonds To Be Required of Some Texas Firms

Businessmen delinquent in payment of sales taxes they collect from customers must post bonds ranging from $100 to $50,000 after January 1.

Failure to put up the required bond (based on volume of business) and pay delinquent taxes may result in court action to close a business.

Fred Russ, director of the State Comptroller's Tax Division, estimated $35 million in state and $7 million in local sales taxes are delinquent for the period which began in 1961. Much of this total is due to business failure.

Russ predicted $3 million to $4 million will be produced by the new bonding law from businessmen who are now delinquent.

Under the new law, a bond will be required of all new businesses for a two-year period. If there are no delinquencies, the requirement will be dropped. Discounts will be allowed for timely payments to the state of taxes collected and pre-payments.

THANKS

Our sincerest thanks for the many expressions of sympathy in our time of sorrow and for the Mass offerings, flowers, prayers, food, help and the beautiful service. We are especially grateful to Doctor Kralicke, the hospital staff and Fathers Placidus, Stephen and Bede for their care and concern of our loved one these past weeks. — The Family of Henry Pels Sr.

Our thanks for the many kind and thoughtful deeds during my illness. The prayers, cards, flowers and other favors during my hospital stay, the food brought to our home, and the help from our families and friends leave us with grateful hearts. Herbie Walterscheid and Family.

Many thanks for remembering me while I was a patient at Baylor Hospital. Cards, visits, gifts, and other kind and thoughtful deeds are much appreciated by my wife and me. Again, thanks. — Phil Mullins.

Local SCS Leader Urges Caution in Expanding Acres

Farmers in the Muenster area who bring additional land into crop production in 1974 are being urged to use sound conservation practices.

Arlin Naegeli, acting district conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service at Muenster, said conservation measures not only protect the soil from erosion but also increase production.

"Some people are predicting farmers will bring several thousand acres of former 'set-aside' acreage back into crop production in Texas in the next year," Naegeli said. "This is considered to be the best and quickest way to check food price increases."

"But it's also the quickest way to increase dust storms, sediment pollution, and other erosion problems unless sound conservation measures are installed," Naegeli pointed out.

"There is a lot of land in our Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District which can be used for cropland safety if managed properly," Naegeli said. "Yet there are other soils which are so susceptible to blowing or washing that they should never be used for crop production."

Naegeli said he hopes farmers will use soil survey information available from his office before putting new land in cultivation.

"Soil surveys have been made on all the land in Cooke and Montague counties," Naegeli said. "These surveys show which soils are best suited for crop production and which soils are most susceptible to erosion. They also show which soils are most productive."

SCS is giving top priority to helping farmers plan conservation measures on new land brought into cultivation. For information, contact the local SCS office at Muenster, telephone 759-2515.

Muenster Kids Nip Callisburg 8-0 in Defensive Tussle

The Little Monsters of Muenster Junior High were 8-0 winners over Callisburg in a dreary, misty defensive contest Tuesday night on the Hornet field.

To some extent at least they can credit their victory to a great big break, in that the visitors were guilty of a rules infraction on a scoring play. A 50 yard pass play to pay dirt was nullified by a backfield in motion ruling.

Another break came with the opening kickoff, which bounced past the intended receiver and was killed on the 3 yard line. As a result the visitors spent the first quarter with their backs to the goal.

They started with two first downs to the 26 and lost yardage on the next series. Muenster got possession on the 21, went to the 9 in two plays and fumbled the ball away. Two plays later they recovered Callisburg's fumble for a fresh start from the 18.

Seven plays later Neal Walterscheid scored on a quarterback sneak, then went over again for extra points.

Two plays after kickoff the Wildkittens made the touchdown that did not count and followed up with two first downs to the 14, then were stopped three plays later by an interception.

After intermission neither team was able to keep going. Muenster made two first downs on its second possession. Callisburg made one on an interference ruling.

Turnovers were slightly in Muenster's favor. It intercepted twice and recovered a fumble. Callisburg recovered two fumbles. First downs came out even, five for each side.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

liers, who will appear in a concert Thursday night, Nov. 8, at 8 p.m. in the Redbud Auditorium of Texas Woman's University.

Darlene Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess, has been elected treasurer of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national professional home economics fraternity at North Texas State University.

Visiting Tom Hamilton Sunday at Arlington Memorial Hospital were his daughters Mrs. Pat Hess and Mrs. Carl Walterscheid going with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Tuggle and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richardson, Mike, Mark and Glenda. Also there were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wylie of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Hamilton and a daughter, Mrs. Jerry Walker of Kendrick, Okla., stay with their husband and father.

Muenster's 12 Camp Fire girls enjoyed a weekend at Camp Letoli. With the group for the campout were Mmes. Roy Hartman, Joe Felderhoff and Joe Sicking.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schoech have moved from Arlington to Columbus, Indiana, where his work has transferred them.

Visiting the Paul Fishers Tuesday were her aunt Mrs. J. K. Stover and daughter Mrs. Malcolm Brown of Chickasha, Okla., and their son and brother Ernest Stover and his wife of Sacramento, Calif. Also Mrs. Fisher's cousins Messrs. and Mmes. Roy and Pat Ellis of Nocona. They all had dinner together and reviewed family happenings since 1941, the last time Ernest was with the group.

Christmas Gifts For Wichita State Hospital Sought

"Wichita Falls State Hospital's 1300 patients eagerly anticipate the coming of the Christmas season. They are no different from each of us," said Michael Uriniak Jr., volunteer service coordinator, and Tom Darling, chairman, volunteer services council.

"But one aspect of their celebration is a little different. Much of the beauty and joy of the season for them must come from caring individuals and concerned organizations from our area."

They added that efforts are made to provide at least two gifts for each patient and list some of the most wanted items: pajamas, stretch gloves, raincoats, underwear, house-shoes, billfolds, toilet articles, transistors radios and batteries, cigarettes and instant coffee; also blouses, dresses, pants, stretch panty hose and cosmetics for women, belts, caps, pants, shirts, socks and suspenders for men.

All gifts should be sent unwrapped but include wrapping paper and ribbon if possible. Label plainly "Christmas Gifts," make a list of gifts and their value and include sender's name and address. Send to Volunteer Service, Wichita Falls State Hospital, Box 300, Wichita Falls, Texas 76307.

Pennsylvania Visit

Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher returned Tuesday night from a ten-day vacation visit with their daughter and son-in-law the Mike Lardners in Landisville, Pa. Traveling with them were a son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fisher of Houston. Together the three couples did a lot of sight-seeing including Gettysburg and an Amish settlement. It was Indian summer all the time with fall foliage at its prime.

Money may not bring happiness but most folks like to have enough of it around so they can choose their own misery.

Tulu Hickerson at EWRT Conference

Mrs. Tulu Hickerson, home service advisor of Cooke County Electric Co-op, appeared on the program of the 21st national conference of the Electrical Women's Round Table, Inc., which was held in Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Theme of the conference was "Today's Action - Tomorrow's Results." It was attended by some 200 women from U.S. and Canada, along with representatives of many major appliance companies.

Mrs. Hickerson led a discussion on personal safety, also assisted Sunbeam Corp. in preparing breakfast for the members while demonstrating the firm's appliances.

The meeting's list of outstanding speakers included Murphy Martin of WFAA-TV, Mary Crowley of Home Interiors and Gifts, Marie Healy, past president of EWRT and consultant for Texas Education Agency, Mary Meighan of Whirlpool Corp., and Rex Struble of Anderson-Clayton Foods discussing forthcoming computerization at grocery check-out counters.

Mrs. Hickerson is finance chairman for the conference committee of EWRT and treasurer of its North Texas chapter.

Hillcrest Manor News

Hillcrest Auxiliary has added a new member, Mrs. Mildred Cantu, who attended her first party and helped with games and visiting last Wednesday. She accompanied Mrs. Leonard Endres, Mrs. Joe Hoenig and Mrs. Ervin Hamric. They served cookies and lemonade to conclude the afternoon.

Visiting daily with Jake Pagel last week were his daughters Mrs. Jack Janicki and Mrs. Hal Falck of San Antonio. Sunday Mr. Pagel spent the day with his son and daughter-in-law the Jerome Pagels. Other visitors there were their daughter and family the Charles Ivers of Fort Worth making four generations together for dinner.

Everyone welcomed back Aline Reed, nurses aide, last Friday. She was a shut-in at her home in Saint Jo for two weeks on account of illness. Mrs. Reed joined the staff six months ago.

Mrs. Pearl Rosson of Myra has been helping at the home where needed as nurses aide or cook the past few weeks.

Mary Lamkin, LVN, has been absent from her shift since undergoing surgery at Muenster Hospital. She has been dismissed from hospital care and is continuing to recuperate at home but will be unable to return to work for some time.

Monthly Mass was celebrated at the home Monday at 7 p.m. by Father Placidus. Relatives and friends of the residents attended with them.

Miss Elaine Sicking has joined the staff as a weekend aide. She's a nursing major at Grayson County College and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sicking. Also weekending as an aide is Pat Cantrell. She is a senior nursing major at CCJC.

While Abbot Alfred Hoenig was on a vacation visit with Muenster relatives he visited the home one afternoon to cheer and bless. With him were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig and Mrs. Ronnie Hoagland.

Mrs. Jenny Schilling was away one day visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Alfons Walterscheid.

Visiting the home for the first time last Friday was Mrs. H. C. Billingsley — the former Emma Wieler — of Ardmore, Okla. She is a sister of Mrs. Mary E. Felderhoff and also stopped in to see others she knows.

Mrs. Albena Dames had as guests Sunday her son and daughter-in-law from Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Cain of Garland were Sunday afternoon visitors with her parents. Other visitors were Mrs. Zena Martin's brother Charleston Warner and her sister Mrs. Ben Hill, both of Bowie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stelzer of Fort Worth visited her aunt Susie, Mrs. L. A. Bernauer, Thursday.

Father Bede Mitchel stops in almost every Monday and visits in almost every room. As chaplain of the home before moving to Lindsay he is well acquainted. One recent Monday he was accompanied by Matt Bezner, grandson of Mrs. Jenny Schilling.

No Yule Display At Martin Home

LINDSAY — For the first time in several years Herman Martin will not have his Christmas display up this Yule season, he has announced.

During the years, hundreds of people viewed the large lighted display with its animated characters, its crib scene and other decor spread over the Martin yard.

The display was unique in that most of it was hand made and wired by Mr. Martin himself.

Muenster to Host NCCW on Nov. 15

Muenster NCCW members will host the quarterly meeting of the North Texas Deanery National Council of Catholic Women on Nov. 15 in the KC Hall.

Registration for the Thursday meeting will begin at 9:30 and business will start at 10 o'clock. Muenster women will provide a noon luncheon. Vernon Frederick, Cooke County juvenile officer, will be guest speaker for the program.

Tiger Cubs and JV Win 2 at Lindsay

Sacred Heart's Junior High and Junior Varsity were the winners in a pair of games at Lindsay Thursday night. The Tiger Cubs started the good work with a 14-0 decision, thereby keeping abreast with Era in the junior 7-B race. Then the Tiger Junior Varsity triumphed by a count of 8-0.

The Cubs started rolling on their second possession. Joe Sicking and Danny Walterscheid shared the ball carrying on a 48 yard drive to the 5 and Bobby Hartman went in from there on a quarterback sneak. They used 11 plays on the march.

Lindsay lads rebounded with a 23 yard pass from Pete Fuhrmann to Roy Metzler and made two more first downs before they were stopped on the 14. Shortly after that the Cubs fumbled, and the Squires had another chance from the 17. They got to the 11 on an interference ruling and lost 10 two plays later as Bernie Fette decked the quarterback on the closing play of the half.

After intermission the Squires got a first down and were stopped by Danny Walterscheid's interception. Then Sicking and Walterscheid again alternated the ball carrying in a 49 yard drive to the 8. On the fourth and final chance after that Hartman sneaked over from the 2. Sicking carried for bonus points.

The Cubs dominated the action all of the way. They led 12-6 in first downs and 155 to 45 in total yardage.

Next game went about the same as the Junior Tigers rolled up 118 in total yardage and the young Knights got 18. First downs favored Sacred Heart 8-4.

The first quarter featured a vicious Tiger defense, especially by Craig Sangster, Melvin Hess and Jim Luke who figured in several losses and two blocked punts. The second one, blocked by Hess and recovered by John Henscheid put Sacred Heart on the 15. Bob Schmitz and Leon Bayer reached the 1 in four plays and Chris Sicking scored on a quarterback sneak. Sicking's pass to Carl Koesler made the count 8-0.

On next possession they gained again but fumbled, then, after Lindsay's kick, made 2 first downs and conked out.

The third quarter was mostly two lost fumbles by Sacred Heart and an interception by Lindsay, also a 29 yard drive by Sacred Heart ending on the 6 early in the fourth quarter.

For the rest of the game the Junior Knights had the momentum. Starting from their 17 they reached the 39 on a penalty and short gain then gained 20 on a pass from kick formation by Steve King to Guy Spencer, then 17 by Kasperek and 13 by King. But Tiger defense took hold there. The following four plays lost 11 to the 22.

Warning Issued on State's Shortage Of Natural Gas

The chairman of the State Railroad Commission has issued a grim new warning that natural gas shortages will hit Texans hard this winter.

In a speech to Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association at Dallas, Chairman Jim Langdon said:

"Propane already is in short supply due to stockpiling to offset the natural gas shortage."

"As much as 500,000 barrels daily of distillate fuel oil will be needed from November to March."

"If distillate use is as high as predicted in the state, three to five times above normal, shipments to out-of-state consumers may have to be cut 50 per cent. "Out-of-state commitments, mandatory federal allocations and other factors may require that Texans share proportionally in shortages."

"This means that Texas might not only be denied access to its total distillate needs, but that access to its normal requirements could be cut," said Langdon. "The gasoline supply-demand situation, as well as every other petroleum product, will experience shortages this winter. As in the case of natural gas, a shortage in any type of fuel which results in an unsatisfied demand will exert pressure on available supplies of other fuels, setting up a domino-like effect."

Langdon recommended early construction of offshore deep-water ports to accommodate super-tankers from foreign countries and stepped-up development of domestic reserves of oil and gas (including shale oil) and increased use of coal.

Those who dare to teach or lead must never cease to learn.

"I was married twice," explained the man, "and I'll never marry again. My first wife died after eating poisonous mushrooms, and my second died of a fractured skull." "That's a shame," said his friend. "How did it happen?" "She wouldn't eat her mushrooms."

TINY WONDERLAND

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS SHOWS MINIATURE CIRCUS

Arlington, Texas — Spangled performers and laughing clowns parade into the big top where thousands of spectators anxiously await the start of the show. Opposite the big top, a side show intrigues on-lookers with its freaks of nature.

The glittering hustle and bustle of the circus comes to life in the mind of the viewer as he visits the new, miniature Dragon Bros. Circus at SIX FLAGS Over Texas.

The circus was created by the late Paul K. Schmitter of Irving, Texas. Schmitter, a technical illustrator who passed away in July, 1972, built the elaborate model as a hobby.

More than 10,000 hours of work over a period of eleven years produced the circus as it now stands. Schmitter's work on the circus, however, was a form of relaxation for him.

The circus is composed of thousands of individual figures. The largest is an elephant four inches tall. There are more than 4,000 tiny performers and spectators and nearly 2,000 miniature animals included in the layout. The model is enclosed by glass and covers nearly 400 square feet.

Schmitter's imagination turned everyday articles into intricate decorations and ornaments. A viewer with a keen eye can detect such items as hat pins for horses' plumes, large beads as balloons and bottle caps for feeding cans.

He collected items from friends' toy boxes, shopped at toy and modeling stores and collected miscellaneous items around the house. His sons, while in the service overseas, sent various pieces back to their father. He had a special room set aside in which to work, and the model circus became a part of this daily routine.

The model includes not only the tents housing the side show, menagerie and the big show, but also the circus back lot. Schmitter provided such accommodations for the performers as mobile homes, equipment trucks and food tents, including tiny cook stoves. He concentrated on making his circus complete to the most minute detail.

Mrs. Schmitter said her husband had planned to construct a building in which to display his circus after he retired. He died before retirement and never saw his work completely assembled. Construction was continual and the circus was never displayed in any organized fashion.

After her husband's fatal heart attack in 1972, Mrs. Schmitter wrote a letter to SIX FLAGS asking for a small area in which to exhibit the circus in her husband's memory. Seeing how extensive the model was, SIX FLAGS officials were eager to display it as a new attraction. Arrangements were made, and the Dragon Bros. Circus is on public view for the first time.

Mrs. Schmitter once asked her husband why there was no empty seats in the grandstands. Schmitter replied that when his circus opened, it would open to a full house. In the coming years his dreams will come true as millions of guests view the circus at SIX FLAGS Over Texas.

Camp Fire Girls Treat Blue Birds

Muenster Camp Fire girls joined local Blue Birds at a Halloween party on Wednesday after school in the group's regular meeting room which the sixth grade girls had decorated for the first graders.

Blue Birds attended in Halloween costumes and received pumpkin favors from the older group.

All the girls, 13 that comprise the Camp Fire group and 12 of the Blue Bird group, along with their respective leaders, Mmes. Roy Hartman and Joe Felderhoff and Mmes. Butch Fisher, Johnny Eldred and Eddie Ramsey were present.

Entertainment included pinning a hat on the witch, pass around the package, musical chairs, a peanut relay race and a Halloween version of Farmer in the Dell.

Afterward they had refreshments of decorated cup cakes and cookies, punch and Halloween treat snacks.

Special Liturgy Is Memorial for Pastor's Father

Special liturgy in two Masses celebrated in Sacred Heart Church this week were memorial tributes to Joe Eckart, father of the Rev. Placidus Eckart, pastor.

Sacred Heart students participated at the 8 a.m. service Tuesday and CCD students participated at the 7:30 p.m. Mass Wednesday.

Concelebrants were Fathers Placidus, Stephen and Williams.

Students were lectors, gave scripture readings, presented petitions, joined for the offertory procession carrying gifts and sang hymns in unison. Sister Yvonne was organist. Art work on the altar was by Mrs. Joy Sanders and her art students.

Theme of the liturgy was "Be faithful unto death," says the Lord, "And I will give you the crown of life."

We want you to know...

Nationwide, there is concern about the energy crisis.

In many sections of the country, people are experiencing, firsthand, the effects of shortages of energy-producing fuels: gasoline, oil and natural gas.

Texas Power & Light Company produces electric energy with generating plants which use natural gas or coal as fuel, with some oil-burning capability.

TP&L has the generating plants, the transmission and distribution lines and all the other facilities necessary to produce and supply all the electric energy its customers need. And, just as we have done for more than 60 years, we're building the facilities necessary to meet anticipated future needs.

But, we must have the fuels to produce the electric energy.

As TP&L customers use more electric energy, TP&L generating plants must use more fuel to produce the energy. Thus, wasteful use of electric energy automatically means wasteful use of one or more of the basic sources of energy.

Conserve electricity and you help conserve fuel. Conserve fuel and you help assure that there will be enough to produce electricity for essential needs.

Here are some of the ways you can conserve electricity in your home... and, at the same time, reduce your electric bill:

HEATING

1. Have a qualified serviceman check your electric heating system annually.
2. If you have a forced-air heating system, replace or clean filters frequently.
3. Set thermostat at 70-75 degrees and leave at this setting. If you will be away for a day, a weekend or longer, set thermostat at 55-60 degrees.
4. Keep furniture and draperies clear of air outlets and returns.
5. Open outside doors as little as possible. Keep doors and windows properly weather-stripped.
6. If you have a fireplace, keep damper closed when not in use.

KITCHEN & LAUNDRY

1. Defrost refrigerator regularly and replace worn door gaskets.
2. Don't overload refrigerator.
3. When cooking on range, use flat-bottomed utensils which fit surface units. Cover utensils when possible.
4. Allow frozen meats to thaw before cooking. Cook meats and vegetables together, or in separate utensils at the same time in oven.
5. Operate dishwasher, clothes washer and dryer only when fully loaded.
6. Conserve hot water by washing clothes in cold water with cold-water detergents.

OTHER

1. Turn off any inside or outside lighting not actually needed.
2. Turn off television, radio, iron, etc. when you leave them.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT'S HELPING, TOO

When you pass a TP&L office, warehouse, generating plant or other facility, you'll see that we've turned off all non-essential lighting.

Lens-View

Notice the clean windows in the down town area. Halloween pranksters applied the soap and the business people furnished the water and scrubbing. Chief McDonald and his deputies did a grand job of keeping property from being destroyed yet let the youngsters do their wheelies and cutting up. The town looked orderly the next morning, however the following morning the bank had an outhouse and a few broken bales of hay at its front door. These buildings with the half moon cut in the door are getting scarce and before long they will have completely disappeared.

This is "City Clean Up Week." The weather has not cooperated and there are a lot of places still needing attention. The Garden Club hopes everyone will give this project their attention as soon as weather permits.

Only two speeding fines were paid this week so we did not publish the City Docket.

point failed. For the rest of the quarter the teams broke even with two first downs each, Muenster getting its gains on Randy Wolf's passes to Dan Sicking and Curtis Klement, while Williams was going strong for the visitors. He did the totting for 214 yards in his team's total of 315 yards of rushing.

Another player who had a big night was Dan Sicking. He caught seven of his team's ten pass completions for total gains of 114, including a touchdown pass for 22.

As the second quarter started the Hornets began a drive from their 13 and reached the Indian 35 before losing their punch. But three plays later Lyle Klement's fumble recovery on the 38 allowed MHS to continue where it left off.

Next play Wolf hit Sicking with a 16 yard pass. Then came three incomplete passes and finally a touchdown pass to Sicking. Johnny Eckart's kick was good. Muenster led 7-6 with 5:15 left in the first half.

Nocona would not allow that. Guilliams and company started a powerhouse drive promptly after the next kickoff. Eight plays were used in going 56 yards and Guilliams carried on six of those for 55 yards. Tim Hanson had the honor of making the last yard. A kick was good giving the Indians a 13-7 lead.

With a minute and a half left Muenster gained 15 on a pass to Sicking and 21 on an interference ruling. Then, from the 29 it failed to connect on four pass attempts. The half ended with Muenster trailing 13-7.

The third quarter started with another stout effort by the Indians. Starting from the 20, Guilliams gained 43 in 4 plays, a penalty cost 15 and Russell gained 10, then Guilliams got around the right corner and scooted 44 yards to a touchdown. A pass, Ward Russell, upped the score to 21-7 with 7:25 left in the quarter.

MHS came back with a 20 yard pass to Sicking but had to kick on the next series. Two plays later Terry Huchton's fumble recovery gave Muenster a nice opportunity on the 19. Three plays reached the 6 and four more plays ended with the ball just inches short of the line.

However, Nocona fumbled again and Danny Endres recovered for Muenster on the 5. Mark Sicking picked up 4 and Tom Hennigan, with a fine second effort, squirmed over. A pass for bonus points failed. The score was 21-13 with 1:04 left in the third period.

That was where the Hornets took the initiative away from the Indians. They held on the first series and Nocona boomed a long kick that was killed on the 4. The goal was 96 yards away as the Hornets set off a drive that was little less than fantastic, especially considering their weight disadvantage of over 40 pounds per man. They tore through as Guilliams had until then. Klement, Hennigan, Wolf and Mark Sicking used ten plays in going the distance. Hennigan made the last yard and Wolf went over for bonus points. With 7:16 left on the clock a new ball game was starting with the score 21-21.

Following kick off, defense held again forcing Nocona to kick on the first series. Muenster was 58 yards away, and again it went all the way. Ten plays were enough. A run by Klement for 14 and a pass to Sicking for 22 were the big gainers, and Klement scored from the 10 as Hornets and their fans all went delirious. The kick for extra points was blocked. MHS led 27-21 with 2:23 remaining.

From then on the Hornets defended against the big play and let the Indians have the short ones. Nocona made 43 yards reaching the 27 as time ran out.

evidence of guilt is conclusive. Why? Is the person any less guilty just because someone at the trial made a mistake? Does it make sense to give the accused another chance of escaping justice when the fact of his guilt is established?

Obviously the legal code does not incline that way, but plain horse sense tells us that a criminal should not be rewarded for the mistake of a prosecutor. Rather the person who made the boner should be reprimanded or fined or punished in some way. But surely we of society should not have a criminal dropped back into our laps because of it.

The principle applies in other ways as well. We hear of mistrials because of evidence that was obtained improperly. Again it's apparent that the accused is no less guilty but justice is cheated because of another's mistake. Again it's absurd to reward a criminal instead of punishing the one who was at fault.

As this column sees it, we have the wrong approach. We go to an extreme in being fair to the accused, to the extent of excusing his crime because of a mistake in applying the law. Why not do it the other way? Let's hold the accused accountable for the last bit of evidence but also hold society's representatives accountable for their mistakes or misdeeds. What we're doing now is based on the fallacy that two wrongs make a right.

Tigers - - -

themselves (yes, 13 fumbles in all). That meant eight busted plays that were lost opportunities to say the least.

As a result of all that it can reasonably be assumed that Sacred Heart deprived itself of at least a few scores and also handed over some very fat scoring opportunities to the opponents.

The Tigers were first on the scoreboard. Their drive started on their 30 and advanced to midfield on short gains before Dickie Moster broke loose and scampered 48 big yards to the end zone.

Shortly after that, still in the first quarter, the Tigers had a fine drive going but blew the opportunity with a fumble on the 6 yard line.

The same thing happened again in the second quarter. Sacred Heart made a good march only to see its efforts wasted on its second fumble, which was only eight yards short of the mark. And ending the half the Tigers were moving again but the period ended with them 12 yards away.

Opening the second, it seemed for moments that Sacred Heart was back to par. Davy Krahl received the opening kickoff and raced all the way for the second TD. That gave a 12-0 lead inspiring a feeling with both team and fans that all was well. The feeling was especially justified because Tigers dominated the action as well as the scoreboard. And surely the fumbleitis must be over.

However the jinx was destined to hang on. Shortly after their touchdown the Tigers fumbled again, but this time it presented a set-up to the foe rather than ending their

Scouts to Collect Goodwill Articles

Muenster's Boy Scout troop will participate Sunday and next Sunday in the work of the nationwide Goodwill Industries, which makes a career of employing handicapped people to repair various items and finances its programs through sale of those items.

Henry Weinzapfel, scout committeeman, said Wednesday that the boys will distribute bags to local homes Sunday, and people are asked to put in discarded clothing, toys, appliances, and any other items that are repairable or suitable for use without repair.

The following Sunday scouts will be back to pick up bags for delivery to the Goodwill store at Gainesville.

own drive. Dickson took advantage of the opportunity and moved in for its first TD.

Sacred Heart responded promptly with a drive that went to the Dickson 14, where calamity struck again. It was another Tiger drive wasted on a fumble.

After that, finally, the hosts started from midfield and picked up a first down. Tiger defense held on the second series until a desperation pass on fourth and 13 to go connected for a 42 yard touchdown play. A try for extra points was good giving the Sooners a 14-12 lead.

Following that the Tigers went all out in their catch-up attempt. The effort backfired as a long pass by Gary Endres was intercepted and carried back all the way for Dickson's final touchdown.
