

The coming of another Thanksgiving reminds us again that we as individuals and as Americans have much to be grateful for. From a personal standpoint this applies especially to this paper, which with this issue reaches its thirty seventh birthday.

As usual, it's a happy birthday, marking another pleasant and successful year. And especially it's an occasion to give thanks for continued blessings. The Enterprise is grateful to everybody whose support keeps it going. It appreciates the business people for their advertising and printing business, which is the backbone of this operation. It appreciates the subscribers who welcome the paper into their homes, and also the many helpful people who tell us about the things that fill the news columns. Even more so, we thank our Heavenly Father for continued health and another year on the job. After all, it's because of His goodness that we are still around to enjoy the other blessings.

We give more thanks as members of this great nation. It is appropriate that Thanksgiving is an American feast because no other nation has so much to be thankful for. This refers not only to the material blessings enabling six per cent of the world's population to enjoy forty per cent of its wealth. Far more important, it refers to the freedom whereby men can do and go and speak and worship as they please. All of that provides a climate for the economic system that enables individuals to improve their own lot while making life better for others.

At the same time we need to remember that the country came close to failure because it did not adopt the system at the start. The Pilgrims of Plymouth Rock first decided to pull together in a communal life. They were all for one and one for all, combining labors to stock the community store-room and drawing from it to satisfy their individual needs. They did not have to go long to discover that human weakness was a bar to success. Lazy people started doing less than their share, secure in the knowledge that all would share equally anyway. Soon the others saw what was going on and started doing likewise rather than be imposed upon by the loafers. The result was that production declined and the colony was on the verge of starvation.

A wise Governor Bradford found a way out of the dilemma. He decreed that henceforth every person would keep the fruit of his labor. The result was soon apparent. When people saw that their welfare depended on their own effort they started working in earnest. The next harvest was abundant. It was then that they gathered for the first Thanksgiving feast, praising God for blessing their labor, and doubtless also thanking for the inspiration that led to their success.

More than a century and a half after the Pilgrims' feast George Washington proclaimed a national day of Thanks on Nov. 26, 1789. Lincoln revived the custom in 1863, and a joint resolution of Congress in 1941 designated the fourth Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day. It is interesting to note that America was in a crisis each time its leaders moved to rededicate the nation to thanking God. In 1621 the first settlers escaped their economic blunder. In 1789 the young nation was struggling for recovery from the Revolutionary War. In 1863 it was involved in the Civil War, and in 1941 it had World War II.

The lesson seems to be that when the going gets tough Americans remember their dependence on God and get down on their knees. And now we wonder whether our experience nowadays isn't some kind of crisis. There's the clamor for resignation or impeachment based on a massive effort to disgrace the president. There's the doubt whether we should trust public officials on the media or either. There's the energy crisis and runaway prices of foods and farm products, and also our involvement in the Arab-Israeli confrontation.

Possibilities of great troubles are inherent in any or all of those conditions. We're approaching the point again at which we ought to realize that it's high time to ask for God's help.

Parish Accepts $386,944 Bid on New Parish Hall

Construction of the new community center for Sacred Heart Parish came a step closer last week when the finance and building commissions accepted the bid of Jack Owens of Gainesville. His bid, in the amount of $386,944, was the lowest of the four received by the parish. The high bid was $447,280.

Acceptance of the Owens bid is subject to approval by Bishop Cassata before it becomes official. Father Placidus Eckart, pastor, expects the approval soon and possible start of construction before the end of the year. He and the commissions wish to avoid a delay that might bring on higher costs.

The building's fund at this time is near $90,000.

The Enterprise staff regrets that it was necessary to come out a day late with this issue of the paper. A breakdown of the Linotype is the reason.

Basketball Season At Sacred Heart Will Open Friday

The basketball season at Sacred Heart High begins Friday when Coach Bob Steele takes his varsity boys and girls teams and also the girls B team to Lindsay for a triple header. Both boys and girls have a busy schedule. Besides two dates a week until Christmas they will be in tournaments at Whitesboro, Saint Jo and Era, then a holiday tournament at Lindsay.

This season, again, the Sacred Heart teams will join Lindsay, Saint Jo, Valley View and Era in the District 30-B schedule, but will not be eligible to advance in playoffs if they should win the loop title. However the individuals are eligible for selection to the all-district team.

The 30-B season will consist of a double round robin in which each team meets each other team twice. For Sacred Heart it will open on December 20 with Era and will resume after the new year with Valley View on Jan. 4.

On the boys first team are Ricky Walterscheid, Kevin Pels, Roger Endres, Phil Endres, Pat Endres, John Bartush, Mark Hess and Kenny Hess. B team members are Guy Bindel, Jeff Fette, John Henscheid, George Luke, Bob Schmitz, Brent Hess and J. T. Pagel. The girls' A team includes Peggy Hoedebeck, Laura Kralicke, Mary Hess, Kathy Luke, Sharlene Pagel, Cindy Bartush, Linda Miller, Lynda Klement, Karla Yosten, Janet Bayer, Barbie Hess, Elizabeth Kralicke and Shirley Becker.

B team members are Beverly Pels, Mildred Grewing Janet Sicking, Janet Henscheid, Marlene Pagel, Gloria Hess, Julie Bayer, Mary Hoedebeck, Ramona Walterscheid, Sharon Rohmer, Karen Schilling, Diane Kralicke and Vickie Haverkamp.

Cubs and Era Are Co-Champs of 7-B

Tiger Cubs, the eighth graders of Sacred Heart, ended the 7-B junior football season in a tie with Era for the top honor. The loop race consisted of two games each with Saint Jo, Valley View, Era and Lindsay and they won all except one of the games with Era. Era did likewise, so the teams share the top honor with records of 7-1.

Scores of those games were 26-8 and 1-0 (forfeit) over Saint Jo, 40-6 and 30-0 over Valley View, 14-0 and 14-0 over Lindsay, 30-8 over Era and a 14-8 loss to Era.

In addition there were three non-conference wins and a non-conference loss. The Cubs beat Aubrey 14-6, Trinity Christian 18-16, Callisburg 20-8 and lost to Celina 24-0.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blanchard of Redondo Beach, Calif., flew in Wednesday to join in a family reunion at the home of her parents, the Felix Yostens on Thanksgiving.

Weekending with Mrs. Joe Luke was a grandniece, Miss LuNita Herr, a student at TWU in Denton. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Herr of Hereford.

Tigers End Season With Outstanding Record of 9-1-1

Sacred Heart's Tigers of 1973 failed to match their 1972 record of 9-1, but they came close. This time they had an 11 game season and ended with 9-1-1. It was another fine season including several wins over opponents that can be rated in Class A or AA.

Even before the season started, the Tigers came out ahead in scrimmages with Alvord and Pottsboro, then they won seven in a row as follows: 22-12 over Sadler-Southmayd, 48-12 over Gunter, 72-0 over Aubrey, 36-0 over Kingston, Okla., 39-6 over Trinity Christian, 40-6 over Callisburg and 22-10 over Lake Worth Junior Varsity. Then came both of the blemishes on their record, a 16-16 tie with Cistercian and a 20-12 loss to Dickson, Okla. Following that they closed out the season with wins of 32-8 over Bowie Junior Varsity and 16-8 over Southfield of Shreveport.

Tiger B had a short but successful season of 3-1-1. Their record is 28-0 over Aubrey, 8-0 over Lindsay and 54-0 over Kingston, Okla. The one loss was 20-0 to Celina and the tie was 0-0 with Lindsay.

Tigers End Season With 16-8 Win Over Southfield

The Sacred Heart Tigers closed out their football season with another big win Saturday night turning back the highly rated Southfield Eagles of Shreveport by the tune of 16-8.

On the basis of previous performance the visitors rated as the toughest competitors of the year, but the enthusiastic Tigers held the initiative all the way, and eventually also held the lead.

They scored late in the first, the Eagles scored early in the second, then until midway in the final period the score remained tied. Even then there was still a chance that it would be tied again. The game was not determined until the final play.

Dickie Moster, the Tigers' ace ball carrier, had another big night. He rushed for 117 yards in the game extending his season record to 1087.

After a long kickoff the visitors had to start back on their own 10, then had to kick on their first series, so the Tigers started with good field position on the Eagle 41. Promptly after that the method of Sacred Heart offense became apparent. Dickie Moster and Davey Krahl did most of the carrying while Kevin Pels and John Bartush crashed in for occasional nice gains. The first drive used nine plays to make 30 yards plus overcoming 10 in penalties. But it was stopped on the 11.

Southfield got back to the 25 in two plays before Mark Hess intercepted and put the Tigers back in business with 38 to go. Ten plays from there went the distance, the last one being a pass from Roger Endres to Kenny Hess over the middle for 10 yards. A pass to Bartush added two points.

The Eagles almost retaliated on the next play. Andy Lace received the kickoff drifted to the left sideline and stormed downfield. Dickie Moster took up the chase about midfield and overtook the runner at the 19. As it turned out, that did not stop the effort. Three plays reached the 9 and three plays later DesMarais tore through from the 1 on the first play of the second quarter. Reinhart's pass to Nolan for extra points tied the count at 8-8.

Following kickoff Sacred Heart had to start from its 1 yard line. Moster promptly picked up 15 and a holding penalty gave free yardage to the 31. Eight plays ripped off 43 yards to the 26 where Sacred Heart apparently was stopped by a holding penalty. Krahl made 5, Bartush snared a pass for 16 and Endres, on fourth down wiggled 7 to the 13. It couldn't keep going, however. After four more tries the Tigers had to give up the ball on the 4, a yard short of a first down.

The visitors went the other way, mostly on two passes, for 39 yards to the 43, then ran out of steam and had to kick.

On their 20 the Tigers started again, went to the Eagle 40 in two series then lost possession by inches on the next series. (Continued on Page 10)

The boys team has Lettermen Robert Johnson, Ronnie Felderhoff, Lyle Klement, Ray Luke, Randy Wolf, Tim Felderhoff, Glenn Henscheid, Terry Walterscheid, Mark Stoffels, Bobby Endres and Danny Endres also Curtis Klement, Dan Sicking, Terry Huchton, John Eckart, Kirk Johnson and Tim Wolf.

Lettermen of the girls team are Dolly Bayer, Barbie Davidson, Lisa Mollenkopf, Mary Lou Fleitman, Nancy Fisher, Kim Klement, Debbie Schneider, Becky Fields and Gina Felderhoff. Others are Janet Wimmer, Sandy Dittfurth, Charlotte Johnson, Tracey Klement and Pat Davidson.

Hornets Tie for Fourth in 14-A Season Standing

Muenster High's loss to Pilot Point last Friday night put it side by side with the Bearcats in a tie for fourth place in the 14-A season's final standing.

Heading the list is Frisco with a perfect 5-0 record. Sanger is next with 3-1-1, then Nocona with 2-2-1. Muenster and Pilot Point are 2-3 and Callisburg is last with 0-5.

As the district champs, Frisco will take on Aledo for bi-district honors and the right to advance in the elimination process leading to state championship. The game will be at Grapevine, Friday night at 8 p.m. The stadium is located on Highway 121 south of Grapevine.

The over-all season for the Hornets ended at 4 wins and 6 losses. In pre-district they beat Boyd 26-7 and Newcastle 18-0, also lost to Whitesboro 0-9, to Northwest 20-34 and to Lake Dallas 14-26. District results were wins of 27-21 over Nocona and 48-0 over Callisburg, also losses of 8-34 to Frisco, 0-26 to Sanger and 8-19 to Pilot Point.

Junior High did better, coming through its season with a 5-4 record. The wins were 22-0 over Boyd, 22-0 over Lake Dallas, 30-0 over Frisco, 8-0 over Callisburg and 20-0 over Pilot Point. Losses were 6-20 to Whitesboro, 0-28 to Northwest, 0-31 to Sanger and 8-12 to Nocona. The record in Junior 14-A action is 3-2.

Muenster High's best team record was the 6-1 turned in by the Hornet Junior Varsity. Its wins were 24-12 over Boyd, 16-6 over Whitesboro, 20-6 over Lake Dallas, 28-0 over Nocona, 14-8 over Frisco and 38-6 over Sanger. The only loss was to Northwest by the close count of 12-14.

Father John Williams, missionary from India who visited the J. M. Weinzapfels and left last week, telephoned from New York to let the Weinzapfels know he was spending four days there before flying to London where he planned to meet Weldon Vogel and be with him at his apartment during his visit there. After that it's Paris with a side trip to Lourdes, and finally Rome before returning to India.

Council Employs Another Policeman

A new policeman is on duty here assisting James McDonald, chief of police. Wayne Blankenship, 21, of Saint Jo was employed by the city council Monday night.

His job is to divide the patrol time with McDonald during normal conditions and to work with him at crowded occasions.

Blankenship is single, will move his mobile home to Muenster as soon as convenient.

Energy Conscious Council Saves on Christmas Lights

Members of the city council were conscious of the energy crisis at their Monday night meeting as they make plans for this year's Christmas lighting. All of the light are to be installed but their burning time will be shorter.

The council decided to install strings of lights across Main Street and the highway the same as last year. These are to be turned on about 5:30, when darkness arrives, until about 10 o'clock. The previous schedule was 5 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Noel display on the water tower will get more exposure because of its more prominent position and more distinctive appearance. It will burn until 1 o'clock.

Energy saving on the schedule for street display lights is estimated at 45 per cent. The over all saving including the Noel display will be about 33 per cent.

Turnovers Hurt As Hornets Lose 19-8 to Bearcats

Too many turnovers and too many Macks caused too much trouble for the Hornets Friday night as they went down 19-8 before a fired up team of Bearcats from Pilot Point.

They lost possession on three fumbles and one interception, and also had to contend with a trio of Macks who combined to account for three touchdowns and most of their team's yardage.

Nevertheless the game was a dandy until the last minute or so. Until then a touchdown could still win for the Hornets but their very crucial drive bogged down. Then with nothing left to do but run out the clock the Cats sprung Clyde Mack on runs of 10 and 10, and Ed Mack crashed over for an additional TD only seconds before the game ended.

The Hornets made a fine start, going 36 yards to the Bearcat 27 in six plays. But the drive sputtered there. They lost 5 on a penalty and gained 6, losing possession on the 26. From there the visitors showed how it's done. Clyde Mack accounted for 46 yards on four carries as the team went 71 in nine plays to the 3. A penalty there lost 5 and Ed Mack went over for the TD. Wardell Johnson's kick made it 7-0.

The Hornets started again. Six plays made 30 yards and two first downs to the visitors 39, and two more tries reached the 28 but the gain ended in a fumble.

Hornet defense stood pat and the Bearcats had to kick on the first series — and Muenster fumbled it back to them on the very next play.

That was on the Muenster 41. Seven plays reached a first and ten on the 2 and the Hornets put up a magnificent stand. After four tries they took possession on the 1.

From there Tom Bright made 5, Curtis Klement made 9, Tom Hennigan made 5 — and the next play was fumble Number 3, lost on the 23. Two plays later Tracy Beaty passed to Andrew Mack for the second Pilot Point TD.

The fourth turnover was an interception hardly a minute before the half ended. Randy Wolf passed to Dan Sicking in midfield. Andrew Mack wrestled the ball away and got back to the Hornet 17. Two passes there were incomplete, one play lost 5, then a pass reached the 7, where time ran out.

Second half started more of the same as the pointers gained 53 to the 25 in twelve plays before Hornet defense was able to stop them. After the next four tries Muenster took over on the 22. (Continued on Page 10)

TP&L Asks Council for 10 Per Cent Rate Hike

Bill Bedrick, Texas Power & Light Company manager, Monday night asked the City Council to grant TP&L a general rate increase, averaging about 10 per cent.

He said the increase was essential to help insure an adequate supply of electric power and would cost the average residential customer about seven cents more per day. It would become effective on March, 1974, electric bills.

The proposed rate hike is only the third in TP&L's 61-year history. In 1972, the Company was granted a six per cent general increase, its first in more than 21 years.

Bedrick cited rapidly rising construction, interest and fuel costs as the principal reasons for the proposed increase.

"In 1972, TP&L paid about 27 cents per million BTUs for

A&M Man to Talk On Energy Crisis At Open Meeting

An open meeting with a talk on the energy crisis will be held next Tuesday, Nov. 27, 7:30 p.m. in MHS Auditorium. Dr. W. D. Von Gonten, assistant professor of petroleum engineering, Texas A&M, will be speaker.

He is being brought to Muenster by physics and chemistry students of Muenster Public School, members of MHS Jets Club, and their advisor Mrs. John Mosman.

This timely and informative talk is open to the public with no admission charge.

Ordinance Passed By City Council On Garbage, Trash

The Muenster city council in its regular meeting Monday night approved an ordinance on garbage and trash disposal and indicated that the service will begin in a short time.

About the only things still to be done are publication of the ordinance and drawing up a rental agreement on the location to be used for the landfill. The disposal method will give priority to gullies in dumping the trash and garbage and covering with dirt. In this way marginal land can eventually be leveled, its erosion decreased and production increased.

The meeting also revealed that the city has two new employees, Wayne Tate and Werner Yosten, to collect the garbage and bury it. Also it has ordered paper bags for the service. The bags were favored over cans because they are cleaner and more efficient to handle, and paper over plastic because after covering it will disintegrate with its contents and not cause future problems.

Another detail of preparation: the garbage truck is getting a new paint job.

Paper Drive Saturday

SHH seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, Nov. 24, beginning at 9 a.m. Persons unable to get their paper out may call 759-2756. Persons with paper to give are asked to have it boxed or corded and out at the curb for quick pickup.

1.53 Inch Rain

Monday night's rainfall measured 1.53 inches according to Steve Moster's official record. Added to .13 earlier in the month, it brings the November moisture total to 1.66 inches and the year's total to 44.13.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Welcome Donations in Lieu of Christmas Cards

For the fifth consecutive year Muenster Hospital Auxiliary presents an opportunity for its members and friends of the Hospital and business people to divert Christmas card money to a charitable cause and also save the hours usually spent addressing the greetings.

The organization suggests donations to its present project, a recall system for the gas," he explained. "Today, new supplies are selling for 70c to 90c per million BTUs. And even at that price, natural gas is in short supply."

Because of the scarcity of natural gas, TP&L is now relying on other fuels to help meet its electric production requirements. Already, TP&L and two other electric companies have completed two 575,000-kilowatt lignite-fueled generating units at the Big Brown Steam Electric Station near Fairfield. Other lignite plants are being constructed or are on the drawing boards. Additionally, TP&L recently announced plans to participate in the construction of two 1,150,000-kilowatt nuclear-fueled generating units near Glen Rose.

"If we are to continue to provide our customers with adequate electric power, we must make the transition from natural gas to lignite and nuclear fuel," Bedrick explained. "And it's going to be expensive."

He noted that although lignite and nuclear fuel costs less than gas or oil, the investment necessary to build such plants is extremely high. He said lignite plants cost about two times as much to build as gas/oil plants, and that nuclear plants cost three to four times as much.

Bedrick said there are other new costs to consider for lignite or nuclear-fueled plants.

"At the Martin Lake plant now under construction near Tatum, governmental agencies expect us to spend an extra $100,000,000 on air-pollution equipment alone," he explained.

He said that TP&L's total expenditures for new construction during the next six or seven years will be at least 1 billion dollars.

"That's the same amount we spent on construction during our entire 61-year history," Bedrick declared.

He told the Council that more than 60 per cent of the money for new construction must be obtained by selling securities to investors. In order to market the securities, TP&L must have earnings sufficient to pay the interest and dividends on them.

"Nobody likes rising costs," Bedrick continued, "however, the 10 per cent rate adjustment we are requesting is the minimum amount necessary at this time to meet the rising costs we face and to maintain the earnings which our company must have to continue providing for the electric needs of our customers."

Jaycees Announce Membership Drive

A quackie drive for more members was launched this week by the Muenster Jaycees, according to a report this week by co-chairmen Claude Klement and Steve Hess. Their aim is to sign up all interested candidates before the regular meeting of December 6.

Eligibility for membership is limited to young men between ages of 18 and 35. The 18 year limit was adopted by the state Jaycee organization last year and has received gratifying response, particularly at Muenster.

As inducement Jaycees are telling the prospects that a full schedule awaits them in plans for enlarging the city park and for building a long planned pavilion.

Person interested in joining may contact any member or the co-chairmen. Klement can be phoned at 759-4416, Hess at 759-4245.

Mideast Winners

The latest round of fighting in the Middle East leaves the Soviet Union and the Arabs as the big winners, and the U.S. and Israel as the clear losers. True, the Arab attack failed in the strictly military sense. Israel now occupies more Arab land than before. But the post-war pressures on Israel to relinquish most, or all, of the Arab lands seized in the 1967 June War are now enormous. And the United States can hope to redeem the political economic losses it has suffered in the Arab world only if Israel withdraws from the conquered territories.

The Soviet Union defied the U.S. warning that detente was at risk if the U.S.S.R. massively resupplied the Arabs. The Kremlin correctly judged this to be a bluff and called it. It won. Detente is much too important to Messrs. Nixon and Kissinger to sacrifice because of Soviet support for their Arab clients. With all of its important economic and political benefits to the Russians, detente continues to live and flourish.

By resupplying the Arabs, the Soviets made it necessary for the U.S. to massively resupply Israel. This, in turn, flew directly in the face of the Arab warning that they would cut off U.S. oil. Until the last moment U.S. officials professed to believe that this was a bluff. They called this "bluff" and lost. The consequences will come home to the U.S. people this winter when their homes are cold and their gasoline consumption is limited.

The Arabs are effectively driving home to the world their point that Israel cannot have both Arab lands and peace. They fought well enough to establish the mili-

Economic Nitroglycerin

Mr. Alfred L. Malabre, Jr., editor of The Wall Street Journal weekly feature "Global Report," believes the time is appropriate for a look at what can lie at the end of a classic inflationary spiral. He writes of "The Awful Year Inflation Ran Wild" in Germany after World War I. "Even in today's economic environment," he reports, "the raw statistics of Germany's inflation make awesome reading. In August 1922, the country's money supply totaled 252 billion marks. In January 1923, it was 2 trillion. In September 1923, it stood at 28 quadrillion. And in November 1923, it reached 497 quintillion — that is, 497 followed by 18 zeroes. This runaway inflation of the money supply stopped, finally, when the currency became virtually worthless. . . . The old mark was replaced in 1924 by a new 'Reichsmark' whose value was set at 1 billion old marks. The marks were withdrawn from circulation and ceased to be legal tender. . . . In 1913, some 19 billion marks were on deposit in savings banks. In November 1924, that sum had the purchasing power of one quarter of an American penny. . . . The story was much the same in the insurance business. . . . the postage stamp on an envelope containing an insurance payment to a beneficiary often cost more than the sum written on the enclosed check." Theorists and dreamers who think that a "little inflation" is a good thing for the United States are playing with worse than fire. They are tampering with economic nitroglycerin. — Industrial News Review tary option as a valid one for the future. By refusing to make peace they can force upon Israel the high economic cost of a continued mobilization. The Soviet Union has re-established its previously waning influence in the Arab world at little cost to itself in terms of relations with the United States. America has lost, at least temporarily, its Arab oil. And Israel finds itself now truly beleaguered. It is faced with the agonizing choice of making a risky peace without the buffer of Arab lands, or of holding on to its conquests at the price of periodic wars. If the latter is to be Israel's choice, it must face the fact that its American ally may be much less willing to support such a policy in the future.

(SEAL) ANNA MAE SHORTER, Clerk, District Court Cooke County, Texas. By Priscilla Brown, Deputy. (51-52-1-2)

Stop Soviet Trade

Military experts declare that the Arab attack against Israel could not continue for ten days without the massive resupply of arms, ammunition, tanks and war planes provided by the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union, in return, can continue to manufacture the implements of war only so long as food and industrial supplies are sent into Russia by the United States and the free world.

It is for that reason that Congress, as well as many leading organizations and individuals, are taking a second look at the advisability of continued trade with the USSR. The East-coast Longshoreman's Union, for example, is threatening to stop loading ships destined for Soviet ports. Young Americans for Freedom, 58,000 members strong, has urged Congress to reject granting the Soviet Union any additional trade concessions unless the Communist leadership stops its oppressive campaign against internal dissidents, as well as outward aggression.

Declares Ron Docksai, 24, National Chairman of YAF: "We believe that trade with the Eastern Communist countries is dangerous, but to foster such trade in light of current Soviet policies is contemptible."

The Soviet Union has not been bashful about asking for all sorts of trade concessions, easy credit, below-cost prices and relaxation of American export restrictions. It is time for the rulers of Russia to give something in return.

Adam and his son were out strolling, and happened to pass by the Garden of Eden. The boy stared, then turned to his dad, "Say, that's a swell place; why don't we live there?" "We did," Adam replied sadly, "until your mother at us out of house and home."

TP&L Will Build Lignite Fueled Generating Plant

ATHENS, TEX. — Texas Power & Light Company today announced plans to build a lignite-fueled power plant and lake on Caney Creek about six miles northwest of Athens in Henderson County.

Construction plans are now being developed by TP&L. The Forest Grove plant will be wholly-owned by TP&L.

Lignite production at the new plant will begin in late 1977 and will reach an annual rate of about 3,000,000 tons per year by 1978.

Skelton said that the most modern environmental control devices will be installed in the plant and that a land reclamation program has been formulated to operate concurrently with the production of lignite.

In addition to the 750,000-kilowatt generating unit, TP&L will construct a 1,500-acre reservoir to hold cooling water. The lake will be open to the public for various recreational uses such as fishing and picnicking.

When completed for the peak season of 1979, the new plant will be capable of producing 750,000 kilowatts of electric power. Skelton said the plant will help assure continued reliable electric service to TP&L's 51-county service area.

Brown & Root, Inc., of Houston is general contractor for the project.

Grading and dam construction is scheduled to begin in late 1974, with actual plant construction expected to start in mid-1975.

To be called the Forest Grove Steam Electric Station, the proposed plant will utilize nearby lignite resources as fuel for its steam generators. The use of lignite, a form of soft coal, was necessitated by the current and expected future scarcity of natural gas, Skelton explained. TP&L, and two other electric utilities, are currently producing electricity from a lignite plant recently

Cler Featured in Story and Photo in Spokane Paper

Gary Cler, former Muenster young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cler, was featured in a story with a picture in a Seattle, Wash., newspaper recently.

Titled "They Get It Together," the story tells about Cler and his associates, his brother-in-law Michael Scully and a former in-service buddy Keith Etti whose business is putting together anything that enters the market in pieces.

The trio started in 1971 with motorcycles, then included 10-speed bicycles, branched out to home stereo equipment and now assemble anything.

Their business has expanded to necessitate moves two times to larger quarters.

Presently they are located at Tukwila, outside Seattle and have contracts with about 50 motorcycle dealers in the Seattle area to assemble their machines. Their shop can assemble 50 units a day.

In peak months they put together 2500 motorcycles and 1500 bicycles and employ 18 persons.

Carol Felderhoff
Robert Zimmerer
Marry at Lindsay

LINDSAY — Miss Carol Felderhoff became the bride of Robert Zimmerer in a double ring ceremony Saturday, Nov. 17, at 6 p.m. in St. Peter's Church with their uncles officiating.

Father Alcuin Kubis, bride's uncle of Little Rock, Ark., and Father Francis Zimmerer, groom's uncle of Edgar, Wisconsin, were concelebrants of the Mass. Father Alcuin presided for the exchange of vows. Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr of Muenster, grand-uncle of the bride, was present in the sanctuary, gave a special blessing to the bride and groom and blessed the assemblage.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Felderhoff.

Presented by her father, the bride wore the gown her mother wore at her wedding 22 years ago. Of white marquisette over taffeta, it featured a pearl-sprinkled Chantilly lace yoke that extended into points over the shoulders. Long fitted sleeves formed points over her hands. The full flared skirt was accented with panels of Chantilly lace that began at the waistline and extended around the cathedral length train.

The bride's veil of French illusion was enhanced with Chantilly lace flowers scattered with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a linen handkerchief made by her grandmother Mrs. Tony Felderhoff and a pearl rosary, blessed by the Pope, borrowed from her grandmother Mrs. Albert Kubis. She wore a blue garter, gift from Mrs. Bobby Price and a gold locket, a gift from the groom. She had a penny with her birthdate in her shoe. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid with stephanotis and greenery.

Bridal Attendants

Miss Patricia Arendt was maid of honor. Misses Cindy Felderhoff, sister of the bride, Donna Zimmerer sister of the groom, and Darlene Wolf, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They wore formal gowns of blue crepe with blue and white lace bodices and sleeves. Each carried a long-stemmed red carnation with baby's breath and green heather leaf.

Rudy Zimmerer was best man for his cousin, Anthony Felderhoff Jr., brother of the bride, Larry Zimmerer and Steve Zimmerer, cousins of the groom, were groomsmen. Steve Felderhoff and Jimmy Zimmerer, brothers of the couple, were ushers. Sammy Zimmerer and Jeff Felderhoff, also brothers of the couple, were Mass servers and another brother Ronnie Felderhoff was candle lighter.

Following the exchange of their vows, the newly married couple lighted their anniversary candle and placed it on the altar. The candle is a gift from the bride's Grandmother Felderhoff, who made it. She also made the vigil candles that burned on the communion rail.

Other decorations in church were gladioli and mums on the main altar which was flanked with baskets of red roses, white mums and greenery. Potted ferns marked the communion rail. Blue and white flowers and blue vigil candles adorned the Blessed Virgin's altar, red and white flowers and red vigil candles adorned St. Joseph's altar. Blue and white bows and ivy marked pews of the main aisle.

Vincent Zimmerer and Alvin Hartman, godfathers of the couple presented the gifts at the offertory.

Miss Patsy Spaeth, organist, presented as solos "Twelfth of Never," "A Time for Us," "Wedding March," "One Hand, One Heart," "If," and "The Wedding Song."

After the ceremony Miss Judie Felderhoff, bride's sister, handed her a rose to place on the Blessed Virgin's altar while Miss Spaeth sang "Let It Be Me."

On leaving the church the bride presented the groom's mother a red rose. She had given one to her mother on entering the church. And the groom presented his only godchild, Tonia Zimmerer, a baby rose from the bride's bouquet. The bride's mother wore a formal gown of blue chiffon over taffeta. The groom's mother wore a floor-length white pleated skirt with red top.

Wedding Reception

Wedding reception was held in Gainesville KC Hall where each table was adorned with pompon mums and ivy. Holding vantage spot were two arrangements of cattails and palm leaves, grown in Wisconsin and brought from there by Father Francis.

Misses Kathy and Mary Felderhoff presided at the guest book registering about 425 relatives and friends.

The bride's table held a four-tier cake topped by a gold cross. The cross, a gift from the bride's grand-aunt, Sister Florence Marie Kubis of San Antonio, is the Christian symbol of marriage. Also on the table was a large bouquet of red roses, a gift from Greg Start, a friend from Wisconsin.

THANKS

During my stay in the hospital I was favored with many remembrances expressed through prayers, cards, visits and other thoughtful deeds. All are appreciated. My family joins me in gratitude.
 — Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann

A note of thanks to everyone who remembered me while I was a patient at Muenster Hospital. The prayers, cards, visits, flowers and other favors meant so much. Special thanks to Dr. Kralicke, nurses and hospital staff and to the Reverend Fathers for their care and concern. My family is grateful too. — Ben Haverkamp.

Danny Hair of Saint Jo won the turkey given away by Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Kappa Theta Chapter of Muenster, in a drawing at Hofbauers Tuesday noon. Little Carrie Russell, daughter of the Robert Russells, drew the winning name from the box. The turkey was donated by Hofbauers as a benefit for the chapter, a charity sorority, presently concentrating efforts to help the Child Development Center at Gainesville.

Health Hints

FROM BLUE SHIELD

Winter Driving

During this winter's icy and slippery driving conditions, follow these safety precautions. If the car begins to skid, steer in the direction of the slide until the auto begins to straighten out. Then, straighten the front wheels to avoid a skid in the opposite direction. Never use brakes to control a skid. Avoid sudden starts or stops. Avoid heavy braking and over-steering. And, when going over the crest of a hill and starting down, reduce speed to a minimum, put the car in low gear and pump the brakes to keep speed down.

Dieting

The post-holiday season finds many people in a frustrated attempt to shed excess pounds. If you are among the one in five Americans who is overweight and trying to diet, make sure you eat foods containing plenty of proteins, vitamins and minerals. Obesity experts agree that the best dieting formula is simply to "eat less and exercise more." Check with your family physician before beginning any diet regimen to examine the nutritional value of your diet. Then, simply reduce the portions you take of the foods you normally eat. Don't go on a semi-starvation diet unless your doctor recommends it. Diets of 600 calories or less a day make it almost impossible to get all the proper nutrients and can leave you exhausted, irritable and more susceptible to illness. Finally, don't underestimate the importance of regular exercise. Even moderate amounts of daily exercise can help your waistline as much as a strict diet.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Vogel proudly announce a son, an eight pound four and a half ounce brother for Dale and Karl. The little lad arrived at Muenster Hospital Friday, Nov. 16, 3:37 a.m. He has two grandmothers Mrs. Joe Vogel of Muenster and Mrs. Katherine Kelley of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hess of Lindsay — she's the former Mary Katherine Flusche — are proud first-time parents announcing a daughter, Holly Marie, six pounds seven ounces on arrival at Wilson N. Jones Hospital Thursday, Nov. 8. She's a granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. William Flusche, Lindsay and Mrs. Arnie Hess, Muenster, and another great-grandchild for Ed Eberhart, Muenster, and Mrs. Anna Loerwald of Frontier Manor.

All too many of us wake up along about midday in our lives to a realization that it's one of those do-it-yourself deals.

A man rushed excitedly into a smoking car of a train. "A lady had just fainted in the next car," he cried. "Has anybody got any whiskey?" Immediately several flasks appeared. He seized one, tilted it back, took a drink and returned it saying, "Thanks. Always did make me feel sick to see a lady faint."

It's happening to us, too.

Everywhere you turn these days, the costs of just about everything are rising. It's happening to Texas Power & Light Company, too.

In 1963, pin-type insulators for electric distribution lines cost just 30¢ each. Today, the same insulator costs 77¢. The prices of hardware, materials and equipment of all kinds needed to produce and supply electric power have gone up drastically in the past ten years... and they're continuing to rise.

The costs of constructing generating plants... the interest rates on money borrowed to finance them...and the fuels required to operate them are much greater than just a few years ago.

You want adequate and reliable electric service and TP&L considers it has a responsibility to provide that service. However, to do this, rising costs must be passed on in the form of increased rates to users.

Final Contest for Cubs Is Scratched

The Tiger Cubs final game of the season, scheduled with Saint Jo, Tuesday night, was called off and an originally scheduled game has been declared a forfeit. That earlier game on Oct. 16 had been postponed by Saint Jo to Nov. 20 because of bad weather.

On Monday Coach Steele was told by the Saint Jo coach that UIL regulation does not allow a junior game after the regular varsity season, so this week's date had to be cancelled.

The doctor's dilemma — The proprietor of a back-issue magazine shop told about a visit he had from a curious young man who asked for a selection of magazines "at least five years old." The young man identified himself as a doctor.

When the proprietor asked if he wanted any particular magazines, the young doctor said that he wanted some suitable for his waiting room. "Look," the doctor said, "if you had just started to practice, would you want all your patients to know it?"

One hour of farm labor in 1972 produced over twice as much food as it did in 1957-59. During this same time, output per manhour in non-farm work has increased 78%.

Geological Wonderland

Rock City's 10 Acres Contain 240 Million Years of History

Rock City's famous 1,000-Ton Balanced Rock rests on this narrow pedestal.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, Georgia — Even in an age when man's ingenuity is performing scientific miracles, the imagination-staggering feat of carving a quarter-billion years of history into a ten-acre stone wonderland is something only nature would dare to attempt.

This is why Rock City Gardens, high atop Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga, Tenn., has outlasted even the most creative man-made attractions.

And this is why the more than half a million visitors who tour Rock City each year never cease to be fascinated by this geological wonder brought into being by millions of years of nature's artistry.

The paradoxical sight of imprints of seashells in the strange rock formations high on this mountain top provides the initial clue to how Rock City came to be.

A vast ocean once inundated the area which is now Lookout Mountain, covering most of the interior of the North American Continent. Estimated by scientists to have existed about 240 million years ago, the mass of water allowed mountains to emerge only on the east where Washington and Baltimore now stand.

The present Appalachian Mountains did not exist at all then, and it took more than 40 million years and a tremendous upheaval to toss the ocean bottom upward to form them. At first they were higher than the Rocky Mountains, or the Alps.

Wind and rain began their relentless process and almost succeeded in wearing the mountain away. Then, 20 million years ago, another great upheaval occurred, forming the mountains now known as the Cumberlands, of which Lookout Mountain is a part.

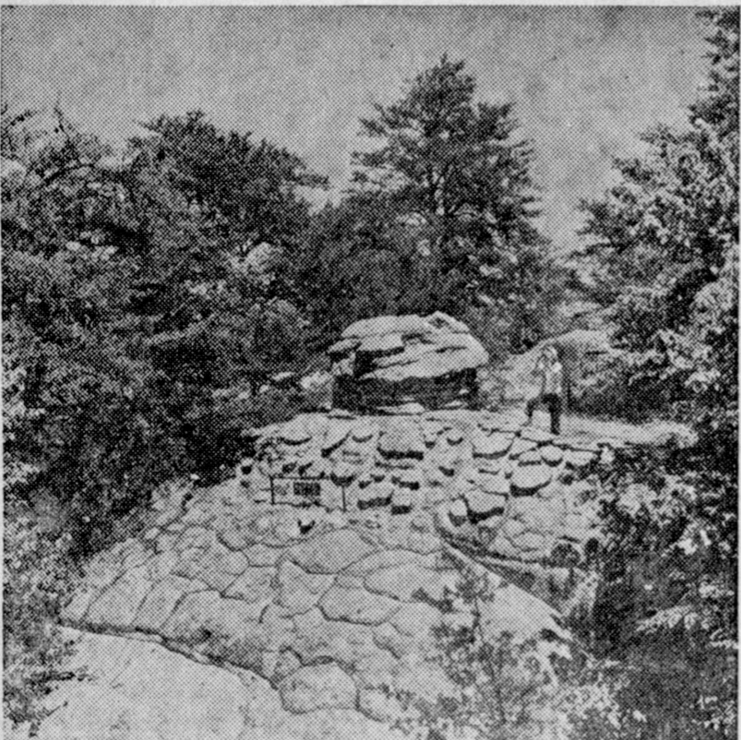

The final act in the story was the erosion of the Cumberlands which produced the fantastic shapes of rock atop Lookout Mountain.

Various folds, tilted formations and weird angles have been formed along many of Rock City's trails. To name a few: a 1,000-ton Balanced Rock, the Tortoise Shell Rock, Mushroom Rock and Fat Man's Squeeze.

Combining with the carefully planned trails and an abundance of this area's native trees, shrubs and wildflowers, Rock City's geological formations provide a breathtaking treat for young and old alike.

Complete information and color brochures may be obtained by writing to Rock City Gardens, P.O. Box 108, Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Many Many Specials

The Muenster Livestock Auction's Annual "thank you dinner" last Thursday was well attended and the food was delicious — thanks to Bill and Sam Hamer.

Muenster football teams finished the season last weekend. Both were exciting games and altho it was cold one night and cool and damp the other night, the fans had to stay 'til the end.

The deer hunters took to the woods Saturday and by Tuesday night the local plants had 46 deer to process. One group reported an average day spent with 16 hour of playing cards, 2 hours of eating and arguing.

3 hours of hunting and 3 hours of sleep. That explains why they come home so tired. When all return there should be a lot of venison in the deep freezers.

The Senior Citizens had a delicious Thanksgiving feed at the parish hall Tuesday noon. A nice crowd attended but many must have forgotten the date. No doubt some missed because they were afraid they would not get in their after dinner nap.

The Chamber of Commerce is promoting a parade and "day of specials" for Saturday, December 1st. This pre-Christmas promotion should bring in a lot of people from the surrounding area. Read every ad in the Enterprise next week — don't miss those specials.

the biblical story of Babel. People got so far from God that they lost their sense of purpose and direction. They drifted into confusion, making a mess of their great project. This era of civilization is headed the same way. People have been too smug about their success and brushed off God as if they do not need Him. The result is that they are losing Him as a reference point. They are losing their sense of purpose and direction, and making a mess of things.

The sophisticates, who, unfortunately, have the big influence nowadays, would be the last to admit that they are goofing. But the cause isn't hopeless if enough other people become aware of the score and ask for Divine help, and sincerely try to live according to His will.

This day we really need to do more than give thanks for our blessings. We need to pray for survival of the ideals that make the blessings possible.

Hornets - - -

And that's when Hornet offense started putting it together. Bright gained 9 to 11, Klement 10 and Hennigan 5 as the big gainers in the seven plays went 46 yards to the 32. Then Klement broke up the middle for the only Hornet TD. Wolf kept on an option play and went over for bonus points.

As the clock read 1:40 in the third quarter the Hornets were very much back in the game. The count was 13-8. And the prospects promptly looked bright. Defense forced Pilot Point to kick on first series after which the Hornets started moving. Runs of 12 and 13 by Klement were the big gainers in a drive that went 49 yards in six plays to the Bearcat 18. But tragedy struck on the next series and Muenster lost yardage back to the 27.

Pilot Point made a first down and got off a great kick on the second series setting the Hornets back to their 4. From there a penalty gave free yardage to the 19 and a pass to Dan Sicking reached the 33. But the next series lost 4 yards.

The Bearcats, with 29 to go, put on a final spurge and made it pay off. Four plays gained 26 and Ed Mack made the remaining 3 yards.

Tigers - - -

Likewise, the visitors moved again. Runs of 14, 6 and 16 plus a pass for 10 reached Sacred Heart's 24 as the half ended.

The third quarter was a continuation of the back and forth activity. The Tigers made three first downs, lost the ball once by interception and kicked twice. The Eagles made two first downs and kicked twice.

Following an Eagle punt on the second play of the last period Sacred Heart eventually put its drive together. It started from 67 yards away and used 17 plays, including three fourth down efforts. The TD was one of those fourth down tries. Rogers Endres could find no receiver and ran because there was nothing else to do, and zig-zagged eight big yards to pay dirt. Endres also made bonus points, keeping the ball on an option play.

With just over 6 minutes to go the Tigers almost scored again. Ricky Walterscheid recovered a fumble on the Eagles second series just 30 yards away. Three runs reached the 17 but the next four could not get past the 13.

Then, with only about two minutes left the visitors made another big effort. A penalty gave 15 yards free and two passes gained 10 and 32. And finally, on the last play, Mark Hess intercepted the Eagles' last chance pass attempt.
