Lyle Klement Is Winner in Annual Land Judging Event

Future Farmers of America and 4-H teams from all over the district competed for honors during the annual Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District's Land Judging Contest Monday.

While Forestburg's FFA team won top honors in both the junior and senior divisions and a member of the team, Terry Brewer, was also top individual, Muenster's Lyle Klement, tied for first in individual scoring. Both ran up 223 points.

Judges had to re-check figures to break the tie, finally awarding the crown to Brewer on the basis of neatness.

The afternoon event was held at CCJC and was climaxed by a barbecue supper. J. H. Bayer, chairman of the board of the Upper Elm-Red District, presided during the supper and announced various winners in the contest.

In the junior team division Forestburg chalked up 624 points for first, Nocona was second with 590, Sherman third with 580, Callisburg fourth with 578 and Muenster fifth with 566.

City, School, Hospital Hold 1-Stop Election

Voting will be mostly routine in Muenster Saturday, April 3, with only one contest in its three local elections and one county election.

Officials to be elected are members of the city, the hospital district, the Muenster school board, and the county school board.

The only race in the four elections is on the city council ballot where Incumbent Herbert Miller is challenged by Earl Walterscheid. Otherwise there are ten candidates, mostly incumbents, for ten positions.

Four unopposed incumbents are seeking re-election on the two school ballots. Ray Wilde and Robert Bayer are on the local ticket. Doyle Selby and Al Felderhoff are Precinct 3 and 4 candidates for the county board.

All of the elections will be held at Muenster Public School. Clive Goble will have charge of the city election. Charles Cash will have charge of the other three.

H. J. Fuhrmans Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Memories spanning 50 years were recalled here Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Fuhrman celebrated their golden wedding.

Celebrating with them were their six children and families, including all 21 grandchildren, along with relatives and friends.

Observance began at a 5 p.m. Anniversary Mass celebrated by Father Placidus Eckert, pastor, in Sacred Heart Church. He also paid tribute to the couple in his sermon and directed the renewal of vows pledged a half century ago on March 29 in Lindsay.

A granddaughter Mrs. David Spaeth of Gainesville and Miss Patsy Spaeth of Gainesville played the organ and members of the men's choir sang German hymns. All attending joined voices in singing Gresser Gott after Mass.

Attendants at the wedding in 1921 were Mrs. Fuhrman's sister Clara Flusche, now Mrs. Carl Gimple of Gainesville, and Mr. Fuhrman's cousin, Henry S. Fuhrmann of Lindsay. They were attendants again.

Four grandsons Donald and Stephen Pulte of Gainesville, Robert Fuhrman of Fort Worth and Glenn Fuhrman of Houston were Mass servers. Four other grandchildren, Betty and Allen Bayer and Kent Fuhrman of Muenster and Elizabeth Fuhrman of Houston, presented the sacred vessels at the offertory.

The social observance was a catered dinner in the K of C Hall with group singing in German and English after the meal.

One hundred and two guests were registered by granddaughters Carolyn Bayer and Mrs. David Spaeth.

The registration table was covered with a hand crocheted cloth made by Mrs. Fuhrman's aunt Annie, the late Mrs. Paul Wiese of Lindsay, over gold linen and held arrangements of yellow roses and mums.

The tiered anniversary cake was a conversation piece. Topped with gold 50 numerals, it held six miniature figurines representing the honor couple's children, three girls and three boys.

Another conversation piece was the Fuhrman family tree, a framed piece of art work, that was displayed.

TEA Man Praises Technical Program At County College

James W. Haynie, Assistant Director of Post-secondary Division of Occupational Education and Technology, Texas Education Agency, stated that Cooke County Junior College has come a long way since the inception of its total technical-vocational program in 1966-67. At the conclusion Wednesday of a two-day visit to the campus of the local college, Haynie complimented the administrators of the school's occupational programs on their current attempts to offer new and improved programs relevant to the needs of the students and the community in general.

Haynie spent two days touring the technical-vocational facilities at the college, studying the curriculum of the occupational programs, visiting industries in the area, and discussing the institution of new programs. CCJC has taken part, he noted, in the tremendous overall growth of occupational programs in Texas in the last 10 years. Haynie cited the fact that there are now 60,000 students in 700 vocational-technical programs at 42 junior colleges across the state whereas in 1961 there were only 2,000 in 25 programs. In the same period, Haynie points to almost 29 million dollars in vocational-technical funds for construction of buildings, of which the CCJC vocational-technical building is one example.

It is the Director's office at the TEA that is responsible for the administration of all the Texas technical-vocational funds, the maintenance of proper educational standards, and the approval of instructors' credentials, both academic and in work experience.

A recent in-depth study of the educational needs of Texas revealed that this state is becoming so industrialized that 80% of its working force will need a vocational or technical skill and only 20% will need four or more years of higher education.

WELFARE REFORM

Faced with a fiscal deficit of almost $560 million, Governor Ronald Reagan of California wants total reform of the welfare system. He wants to split welfare recipients into two categories: Actual pensioners who need and deserve help, and the jobless who are employable. The aged and disabled are in truth pensioners — they should receive their checks through an automated process similar to Social Security, Regan said. The others would go into job training and job replacement services or into a public work force to make California a better place in which to live. What's wrong with a deal like that?

Preserving Civilization

National Library Week is to be observed April 18-24. Its purpose is, "To create a better-read, better-informed America by encouraging life-time reading habits and stimulating greater library use." Books have a singular importance unequalled by any other method of human expression. They are the storehouse of the knowledge and wisdom that perpetuates civilization from one generation to the next. An education is impossible of attainment without resort to the knowledge that is accessible nowhere but in the great books that have been produced over centuries. It is no coincidence that suppression of books is a first act of any despot who fears the wisdom of human experience as recorded in books that can be found in virtually any library. National Library Week serves to remind us that we are indeed a wealthy nation — wealthy because we possess two vital ingredients of liberty and freedom of the press — thousands of libraries where the world's knowledge is stored utilize that knowledge for the advancement of mankind.

A Public Need

The righteousness of legislators who jump on every consumer protection bandwagon that comes along is more than a little tiresome just as is their holier-than-thou concern with honesty. Some of the most notorious protectors are the most hypocritical. Even while they talk of protecting the consumer in one breath they will, in the next breath, advocate greater and greater public spending, greater deficits and more new and costly government programs to "help" the people. They say nothing of the confiscatory taxes that must inevitably follow in the wake of these spending sprees. Why say anything about it? Chances are the bill will come due after they have retired from office and long since quit preaching honesty and "consumer protection".

What the public needs right now is fewer crusades for laws to make private citizens honest and more action towards saving the substance of life from the legislative do-gooders and the tax collector.

Cereals Popular For Breakfast

Ever wonder about the breakfast habits of the folks next door, or the down street? Chances are they are having ready-to-eat cereal, says Miss Sally Springer, Extension food and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University. According to a recent survey by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, three-fourths of the nation's families do eat such breakfast cereals during the week.

Children were found to be the biggest users of the ready-to-eat breakfast cereals, Miss Springer reports. In fact, they ate at least twice as much per person as their parents. The survey also revealed that boys consumed more than girls, and that men ate more than women of the same age.

Breakfast cereals account for 1.3 percent of the food money spent by U.S. families, the specialist says.

Nutritionally, Miss Springer adds, chief contributions of the ready-to-eat foods are iron and the two B-vitamins, thiamine and niacin. They provide 4.1 percent of the iron, 7.0 percent of the thiamin, 3.4 percent of the niacin and 1.8 percent of the food energy in the daily family diet.

Miss Springer explains that the increased popularity of ready-to-eat cereals is due to the more flavorful, wider assortment available, advertising and consumer demands for convenience foods.

LABOR RESPONSIBILITY

Labor unions and guilds and other self-interest groups have now become strong and wealthy enough to shoulder some of the responsibility for our nation's economic condition. Why don't labor unions engage in thorough research prior to negotiating a new contract and find if increases in wages and benefits will actually help their members? The increased inflation such demands may cause could prove detrimental to the very members they're trying to help. If galloping inflation is detrimental to the rest of us, doesn't it stand to reason it is also harmful to labor union members? Without the benefit of research, all labor union negotiators seek are more money and more benefits. . . . It is time these self-interest groups display their stature and maturity by accepting a role of responsibility . . . a responsibility to all Americans as well as their own members.

World Health Day Stresses "Full Life Despite Diabetes"

The medical profession will focus attention on diabetes April 7 on World Health Day and it's a disease worthy of attention.

"A full life despite diabetes" is theme of World Health Day. This slogan is more than just words to the three million known diabetics in this country. On a nation-wide scale, about two percent of the population is estimated to have diabetes, reports the Texas Department of Health. But only about half of its victims know of the disease. It is hidden in the other half.

Although diabetes has been known to man since about 1500 B.C., there is no cure. However, the introduction of insulin therapy during the 1920's, followed by oral drugs in the 1950's, has been a lifesaver for millions of people.

Diabetes affects people of all ages. In the United States it is 10 times more prevalent after age 45. The chance of it occurring among children under age 15 is only one in 2,500. Diabetes, simply put, is too much sugar in the blood. Blood sugar — glucose — isn't broken down into body fuel as it should be because of a malfunction of the pancreas.

A person with diabetes may have these symptoms: excessive thirst, frequent urination, excessive hunger, weight loss, failing eyesight, intense itching, pain in fingers and toes, weakness, tiredness and drowsiness.

Dr. H. E. Smith, chief of the Preventive Medical Service Section of the State Health Department, says those most likely to have the disease are: persons more than 45 years of age; persons more than 45 who are close blood relatives of diabetics; obese persons 45 or older; and parents of large babies (nine pounds or more at birth) when the parents are 45 or older.

The State Health Department, through its local health departments and Texas Migrant Project, focuses its attention on these candidates. Through a blood screening program, blood samples are sent to the State Health Department Laboratories in Austin for testing. An AutoAnalyzer used to automatically test the samples checks an average of more than 100 blood samples each day for sugar. And the number is increasing.

Finding the diabetic is important. The earlier diabetes is detected, the easier it can be controlled and a person put on the proper diet and drugs. Death rate from diabetes is about 16 per 100,000 population. It is one of the top 10 killers, ranking about eighth, and contributes to other deaths, says Dr. Smith.

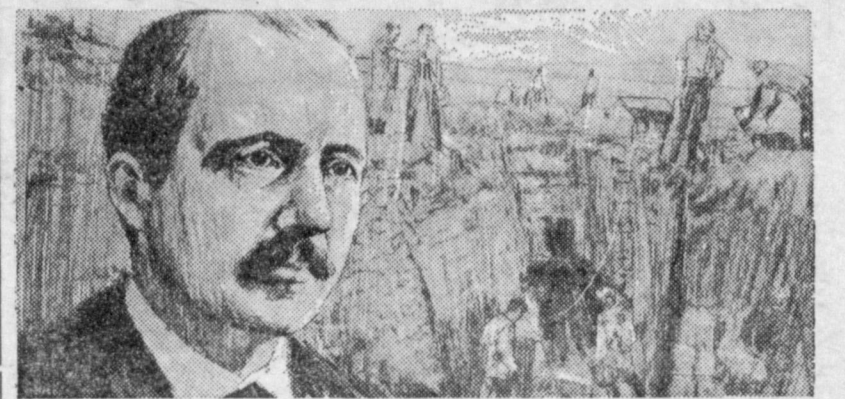

Since there is no cure, early diagnosis and treatment is vital. Treatment soon after onset, with good control of the condition, helps not only to prolong life but may prevent or delay the development of complications and lead to a "full life despite diabetes."

The United States is the third largest importer of agricultural products. The United Kingdom is first and West Germany is second.

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge
Do you know who Heinrich Schliemann was?

In 1870 he went to north-eastern Turkey. Basing his search on Homer's writings and on his own hunches, Schliemann and his workmen began digging in a mound near the Dardanelles. In a short time, they discovered the ruins of nine cities, one on top of another. Schliemann's discoveries had revealed Homer's Troy — even though later scholars found it had been the sixth, and not the second, from the bottom.

What do you know about counter-spies?

A counterspy is someone who works specifically to discover and hinder the activities of other spies. In counter-espionage, the enemy spy network is usually permitted to function while the counterspies learn its operations and the identities of its agents. In this way it may be possible to destroy the network.

What do you know about marble? Marble is a building stone of great value and beauty. It is actually limestone that has been changed by heat and pressure under the earth's crust. Because it is long-lasting and strong as well as beautiful, it is often used to decorate the inside and outside of public buildings.

What do you know about gladiators?

The word "gladiator" comes from the Latin gladius, meaning "sword." In ancient Rome gladiators were armed warriors—often slaves trained for just, this purpose—who engaged in fights for public entertainment. These spectacles usually took place in huge amphitheatres such as the Colosseum.

What do you know about sets?

A set is a collection of objects or ideas. You can think of many kinds of sets—dishes, chairs, or blocks. The members of your family and the numbers from 1 to 5 are also sets. So are the fingers of one hand.

ancient times. However, shorthand did not become an important occupational tool until 1873, when the typewriter was put into general use. The typewriter opened up careers for men and women as stenographers and secretaries.

What do you know about sets?

The idea of a set is the heart of mathematics. Think of a set of dishes that consists of a dinner plate, a salad plate, a bowl, a cup, and a saucer. What does it have in common with the fingers of one hand? When you answer that both sets have five members, you are at the beginning of arithmetic. Most branches of mathematics—whether they deal with numbers or with shapes—can be expressed in terms of sets.

Health Hints

FROM BLUE SHIELD

Hiccups

Hiccups happen to everyone sooner or later and seemingly occur at an inconvenient time. A spasm of the diaphragm, hiccups are most frequently caused by a stomach irritation, from overeating highly seasoned foods or drinking too much alcohol. Home remedies which normally work include: breathing into a paper bag, gulping (or sometimes sipping) cold water, extending the head backward and holding the breath as long as possible, or producing a sneeze.

Aerosols

Aerosols can provide a source of danger as well as a form of convenience. When used improperly, the aerosol can cause serious injury or death. Be sure to read all labels carefully and obey them. Never puncture the can, throw empties into a trash burner or incinerator, place an aerosol on a hot stove, near a furnace or radiator, or leave them in a closed car or trunk where they will be directly exposed to sunlight. Never smoke while using an aerosol and try to avoid breathing the vapors.

Strokes

If more people recognized the early warning signs of stroke, approximately 80,000 deaths a year could be prevented. Stroke warning symptoms include fainting, dizzy spells, headaches, muscular weakness, speech and visual disturbances, mental disturbances, and transient "pins and needles" sensations. Approximately 200,000 of the 750,000 people experiencing strokes annually die.

effort has been made in the area of traffic safety than during the past two years. The newspapers, television and radio stations, private citizens, the legislature, government agencies are all making an increasing effort to make an impact on the driving public.

"Right now, our legislature has before it measures designed to reduce this death toll drastically but it must be remembered Texas citizens must make themselves heard to get such legislation enacted."

"I can assure the citizens of Texas that, as Governor, I am going to continue to bring every influence within my authority to bear in reducing this plague to our state."

"I have asked Colonel Speir to redouble all efforts in apprehending violators and with this statement, I call upon every police chief and enforcement head in Texas to do the same."

"Our court judges throughout the state know what treatment is needed to curtail violations, particularly drunk driving, and I appeal to every judge to be as forceful and effective in treatment of violators as possible."

"This carnage involving men, women and children somehow has to be stopped," he added. "I sincerely hope that every Texan will heed this plea and 'Drive Friendly,'" he concluded.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

3560 Persons Died In State's 1970 Traffic Accidents

Governor Preston Smith today expressed deep concern and disappointment over the 1970 Texas traffic toll.

In reviewing Department of Public Safety statistics for the year, he noted: "There were 3560 fatalities in 1970 compared to 3551 in 1969, an increase of nine," the Governor said. Fatal accidents increased from 2913 to 2965 and the estimated economic loss soared past a billion dollars. The official death rate remains approximately at the 1969 level. "The only encouragement in this unbelievable toll of bloodshed and heartbreak is the fact that there were nearly 500,000 more drivers in Texas at the end of 1970 than there were in 1969 at the same period. In addition, there were at least a billion more miles of travel than the preceding year."

"I know of no time in Texas history when a more concerted

OPENS APRIL 3

TENTH ANNIVERSARY FOR SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS

Ten years ago a new concept in family entertainment—a blend of fun and history—was born as SIX FLAGS Over Texas made its debut on what had once been a stretch of Texas ranch land.

Since then SIX FLAGS—located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth—has grown in size and reputation. Today it is visited by some two million fun seekers each year.

SIX FLAGS Over Texas—has never had a "customer." Every visitor is a "guest." There are no "employees." Some 1,500 "hosts and hostesses," mostly college students, give the Park its special personality.

SIX FLAGS is an exciting mixture of rides, shows, landscaping, shops, exhibits and a rare brand of hospitality.

Since 1961, more than 16,000,000 persons from every state and most foreign countries have sampled the fun of SIX FLAGS.

Adding to the Park's appeal is its one-price ticket policy. Adults pay $5.75. Children under twelve can buy a ticket for $4.00, and those under three are admitted without charge. The ticket covers everything except food and souvenirs. Guests can ride all the rides and see all the shows and attractions as many times as they like during the day without extra charge.

The name "SIX FLAGS Over Texas" comes from the state's history. Since the first explorers came in the early 1500's the flags of Spain, France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States have flown over Texas soil.

From this rich background comes the Park's theme. The entertainment area is divided into six sections in which the architecture and atmosphere reflect the various periods... the tile and stucco of Mexico and Spain, the faded wood of the Texas frontier, the Old South charm of the Confederacy, a rugged log fort built by the French and the modern look of the U.S.A.

At SIX FLAGS there is excitement everywhere.

A thrilling ride designed and built by Swiss engineers—the Jet Racer—is a new addition to the lineup for 1971. Sleek cars travel along tubular tracks over other rides and through groves of trees at breathtaking speed. It is the fastest ride yet at SIX FLAGS.

Glass-doored elevators rise swiftly to the observation platforms atop the world's largest land-based oil derrick. From the top, 300 feet up, visitors can see the skylines of Dallas and Fort Worth. The Park is 15 miles from each city.

SIX FLAGS' most popular ride, the Log Flume, carried more than 3,800,000 persons last year, many of them riding several times because of the one-price ticket policy. Riders climb into hollow "logs" for a trip through torrents of water, ending with a plunge down a steep incline which sends a curtain of water high into the air.

On the Runaway Mine Train "ore cars" roar around unexpected curves and through dark "mine tunnels" at speeds up to 38-feet-per-second.

Guests can try to slip past the blazing cannon of a Spanish fort on LaSalle's Riverboat. Then there are such rides as the antique and modern cars, the Swiss Sky Ride, the quaint Fiesta Train and many others.

It is always showtime at SIX FLAGS. A cast of talented collegians presents the full-scale musical "Sing Out! America" in the Southern Palace Music Hall. Brilliant color slides and movies form the backdrop for the production which traces American history in song and dance.

New for 1971 is a lively Country and Western music show in the Western Pavilion. Guests can take part in the square dance sequences of the colorful show, "Six Flags Shindig."

Sid and Marty Kroff's popular TV and movie character H. R. Pufnstuf is the star of the new show in the Puppet Theatre.

Still another musical production is presented in the frontier atmosphere of the Crazy Horse Saloon, where the strongest "brew" served is a soft drink. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed at SIX FLAGS.

And, there are hourly performances by trained porpoises, in a special saltwater tank.

Despite all the activity, SIX FLAGS is kept immaculately clean. Every member of the staff (executives included) is a member of the "cleanup detail."

Completing the picture is the lavish landscaping for which SIX FLAGS has become famous... a blaze of floral color set against a background of lush greenery. And, throughout the Park, more than 1,200 tons of air conditioning keeps guests cool.

Smiles, shows, rides, beauty, hospitality... a few of the things that make SIX FLAGS Over Texas the state's most popular single tourist attraction.

long can the public conscience accept the mounting toll of human lives claimed in accidents caused by drunken drivers. Certainly, more than 25,000 lives annually is a tragic loss to chalk off to indifference. To virtually ignore drunken drivers is to condone them, and the depth of guilt becomes a common shame.

I believe the problem of the drinking driver should be handled firmly. He should know that detection, prosecution, and punishment will be swift and certain. Whenever the circumstances warrant, lengthy revocation of licenses, maximum fines, and substantial jail sentences should be imposed upon offenders.

The rights and safety of the motoring public should not be imperiled by selfish, irresponsible drivers who, while under the influence of alcohol, convert the automobile into a lethal weapon.

A successful government is one that costs only three times as much as the estimated ceiling and twice as much as anybody's wildest dream.

The question then is how rates — are becoming so commonplace that the American public is growing insensitive to these tragedies and the conditions which cause them? Are we unaffected by the sight of twisted steel, shattered glass, and bloody, lifeless crash victims? Is the drinking driver, careening along in a speeding vehicle, an accepted part of our daily lives? Regrettably, this is an instance where the right answer, a reluctant "yes," is the wrong answer.

Apparently, there is no persuasion, short of certain stern punishment, that will keep the drinking driver from behind the steering wheel, and bringing him to justice is no easy matter. Law enforcement officials and prosecutors agree that charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol are the toughest traffic cases to prosecute. Some jurors apparently consider the violation to be an indiscretion, not a crime — indeed, a dereliction in which they themselves may occasionally indulge. In short, the public is unwilling to impose self-restraint and legal restrictions to control this problem.

Could it be that traffic fatalities — like rising crime

Fuhrmans - - -

Miss Elsie Flusche, was born in Lindsay on Oct. 22, 1894, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Flusche. He was one of the original founders of the Lindsay community. Mr. Fuhrman was born in St. Jo, Iowa, on Jan. 28, 1886.

The two met while he was on a visit with Lindsay cousins but it was not until eight years later that their romance blossomed into marriage. In the meantime Henry had gone to Canada to work as a lumberjack.

After their marriage they settled on a farm in St. Jo, Iowa, but after the first year he contracted asthma which was so severe a change of climate was recommended and they moved to Lindsay. In time he was completely cured.

In 1942 when the air base took over their farm the couple moved to Muenster to continue farming. They retired in 1964, now occupy a home in the city.

Their children are Mrs. Gilbert Endres of Muenster, Bill Fuhrman of Fort Worth, Alvin Fuhrman of Muenster, twins Mrs. Robert Bayer of Muenster and Mrs. Robert Pulte of Gainesville and Jerry Fuhrman of Houston.

Mr. Fuhrman was one of 13 children. Three of them are living: Adolph Fuhrman of Muenster, Cal Fuhrman of Canada and Mrs. Matt Faber of Algona, Iowa.

Mrs. Fuhrman's sisters are Mrs. Gimple, and Sister Christina of San Antonio and there are three brothers, Robert Flusche of Terrell; Otto Flusche of Gainesville and Alex Flusche of Corpus Christi.

For the anniversary Mrs. Fuhrman wore a light blue three-piece knit costume with a yellow rose corsage. Mrs. Gimple wore a gold brocade jacket dress and a yellow rose corsage.

Among out of town guests in addition to those mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beizer of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Max Flusche Jr. of Austin, Miss Ruth Pulte of Dallas, Mike Pulte of Irving, and Mrs. Regina Kirsch of St. Joseph, Iowa. Also relatives and friends from Gainesville, Lindsay and Saint Jo.

Sunday the Fuhrman family had a reunion dinner at the Robert Bayer home where 40 guests were present. These included Mrs. Jerry Fuhrman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brinker who came from San Antonio to attend the anniversary observance.

Mrs. Ottilia Vogel of Philadelphia, Pa., is visiting in Muenster, houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff. She came Monday after a week's visit in Oklahoma City with friends.
