VOLUME XXXIX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 SEPTEMBER 5, 1975

NUMBER 41

Labor Day traditionally is an occasion to praise working people for their part in making our country the industrial leader of the world and our standard of living the highest in the world. All of which is most proper. Along with capital and management it is essential to our productive process and shares in the credit for our productive achievement.

But in recent years the word is used more with a capital L, indicating increasing reference to an organization and decreasing reference to the ingredient of production. Furthermore, membership is no longer confined to factory people and building trades. It includes farm workers, teachers, postal employees and government and hospital workers.

And now efforts are under way to organize members of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines into an armed services union. Imagine the possible consequence of such an organization, when a few union bosses would have the power to dictate policy to the leaders of the armed services. Senator Tower of the Senate Armed Services Committee says that of all the dangerous notions circulating in Washington, few have more serious implications for the security of this country than this plan which is quietly being discussed by satraps of the 300,000 member American Federation of Government Employees, one of the most militant unions in the AFL-CIO.

Tower thinks the scheme is horrifying. "Imagine an army in which enlisted soldiers refuse to carry out orders of superior officers until they have been cleared by a shop steward or agreed to at a union meeting.

"Imagine an army unprepared to perform its mission because the union blocked unpleasant working conditions such as night marches, weekend duty, and rugged physical fitness training. Imagine an army in which soldiers could go on strike in the middle of a war."

Recent problems in New York show what havoc can be caused by public employees disregarding the public interest. Striking garbage haulers or policemen or firemen or hospital workers can cause a serious predicament from which somehow the city can work its way out. But can the nation take chances of being fouled up by labor bosses when survival is at stake? Let's hope that we will never have to find out.

Expansion of Big Labor influence is one of the vital issues confronting our country, as indicated by formation of an organization named Americans Against Union Control in Government. Those people are concerned, and also convinced that employees in public service, on whom the general welfare depends, have no right to go on strike. That applies to municipal employees, hospital workers, teachers and postal employees, whose services are essential every day. Their responsibility is more important than their right to strike. And the city officials who employ them should not be subject to the meddling of union bosses.

This newly formed organization most likely is equally concerned with union control in the government's legislative process. Prior to last year's election the aim of union leaders was to elect a veto-proof congress that could override the president's veto. This means having two thirds of each house under the influence of union bosses, in effect the power behind those who run our government.

One objective of the unions in legislation is a law allowing unions to honor a secondary boycott. It could stop an entire project such as the Alaska pipeline if one group, such as truck maintenance men came up with a gripe. Or it could stop all employees of a store if one of them charged an unfair practice.

Another goal is to repeal the right to work law, which applies in 19 states. Union bosses want to establish nation wide compulsory unionism in which the worker has to belong and pay dues if he wants to hold his job. It is union dictatorship to the extent that a few men at the top run the show and average members are powerless to do anything

Council Okays Survey on Low Rent Housing Project

Possibility of a low rent housing project here was discussed and a survey was authorized at the City Council meeting Tuesday night.

Joe McElreath, along with Sid Ramsey and Max Reitmer of Colony Homes, Fort Worth, were here to propose a project similar to the one currently under construction in Whitesboro. The structures there are one-story buildings with four apartments each, some having one bedroom, some two. Cost of rent with utilities paid is to be $125 per month for the 1-bedroom unit and $152 per month for the 2-bedroom unit.

The project is to be financed by FHA, which requires a survey to determine need and feasibility. The council voted approval of the survey, to be conducted by Colony Homes.

Also approved by the council was a request for extension of water and sewer lines to an area south of the city park. Rufus Henscheid, Billy Jack Biffle and Bill Bedrick presented the request explaining that they intend to develop the property for residential construction.

A matter to be decided later was an objection by Mrs. Ray Christian of Bowie to the severity of a littering fine imposed by the city judge. She contested the $200 maximum on the charge of dumping contents of a litter barrel on the driveway of the city park. Councilmen heard the complaint and said their decision would be announced later.

Mrs. Zena Martin Of Saint Jo Dies

Mrs. Zena Martin, 76, long time Saint Jo resident, died last Thursday at 4:45 p.m. in Yes-Ter-Year Nursing Home after a 3 year illness. She was born in Marysville July 31, 1899. Her husband died in 1973.

Services were held Saturday at 10 a.m. in Scott Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. C. E. Cole officiating and burial was in Mountain Park Cemetery under direction of Scott Funeral Home. Pallbearers were grandsons: Roy Ritchey, Jerry Hardison, Billy Hardison, Kenneth Cain, Hollis Friher, James Wolf, Patrick Bowers and Tommy Martin.

She is survived by four sons, four daughters, two sisters, two brothers, 26 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren. Included are Bill Martin of Lindsay, a son, and Mrs. Ruth Cain of Garland, a daughter.

Junior Football Starts Thursday

The season begins today for the junior varsity boys of Sacred Heart as they take on the JVs of Era on the local field starting at 7:30.

And there will be lots of action next week Thursday when JVs of both schools along with seventh and eighth graders of the public school will have games. Sacred Heart will be at Era for a return game, starting again at 7:30. The public school will host Whitesboro, and kickoff time for the first game is 5 p.m.

MHS-Lindsay and SH-Era Meet in Season Openers

The regular season for both of Muenster's football teams will open with a bang Friday night as they take on a pair of old rivals rated as hot contenders for this year's 7-B leadership. The Hornets will do battle with Lindsay on the MHS field while the Tigers will tangle with Era. And both games rate as toss ups, judging from performances in the past two weeks of scrimmages.

Lindsay's Knights looked fine in their scuffles with Howe and S&S, while Muenster got single touchdown decisions over Jacksboro and Nocona. As seen by Coach Don Jones, the Knights rate a lot of respect. They are husky with a slight advantage in over all weight, and they also have a stout and speedy backfield. However Jones has high hopes that his fellows will cope with the weight as well as they did in the scrimmages. Physically the Hornets expect to be at full strength. A possible exception is Mark W. Sicking who had to leave last week's action with a pinched nerve, but has been back on duty this week.

Completes Howitzer Course

Ricky Swirczynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Swirczynski has completed a seven-week basic field artillery (cannonier) course at the Army's Field Artillery Training Center, Fort Sill, Okla. His instruction on the duties of a howitzer or gun section crewman included handling ammunition, setting fuses and preparing charges, communications and maintenance.

The Tigers will be less fortunate as they square off with Era. Not expected for the game are Bob Grewing with a sore back, Billy Felderhoff with an injured hand and Bob Schmitz with a bad arm. Besides Mark Hess and Jim Luke were nursing the flu early in the week and may not be up to par.

But assuming full strength, Coach Stock expects the Tigers to have a big job on their hands. He saw Era in its scrimmage with S&S and was impressed, particularly by its smoothly executed option plays. Also, Era will be lighter than Sacred Heart but it has quickness and coordination to compensate.

Both teams looked good in pre-season scrimmages. Sacred Heart edged Pottsboro and ran over Alvord. Era took Collinsville 3-0 and S&S 2-1.

Local Students on Young 4 Country

Students of both Muenster schools are scheduled to be on the air next Wednesday evening at 6:30 on the Young 4 Country program produced by Channel 4 TV.

The cameraman visited Muenster High and Sacred Heart Wednesday and indicated that his interviews will appear on the regular Wednesday program. However he added that other schools are also scheduled and possibly there will not be time to show all material. In that case someone, perhaps Muenster, will appear a week later.

MHS Slips Past Nocona in Final Pre-Season Event

The second pre-season activity of the MHS Hornets ended on a happy note Friday night as they eased past the Nocona Indians 12-6. Though played as a practice scrimmage it can be counted unofficially as a win, considering that it departed very slightly from the regulation game.

The difference was that coaching staffs were on the field with the boys and there were no kickoffs or run-backs of kickoffs or punts. The ball was put into play on the 30 and advanced the usual way. In case of a punting situation the team had an option of the fourth down try or a free kick which was put into play where it was caught or whistled dead. The kick return was eliminated.

By this system the teams went through the first half on fairly equal terms with the visitors leading 4 to 5 in the count of first downs and 91 to 77 in total yardage. On exchanges Muenster was ahead with two fumble recoveries whereas Nocona had one interception. Also Nocona led in Muenster had no completions out of 6 tries for 29 yards. Muenster had no completions and one interception out of its six tries.

Mark W. Sicking stood out as Muenster's leading rusher of the first half, but had to leave the game with an injury about a minute before half time. He was taken to the hospital where the injury was diagnosed as a flesh bruise and possible pinched nerve. He was dismissed after examination.

Returning to play after intermission the Hornets had to kick on their first series and recovered the Indians' fumble two plays later. Following that they made a first down but failed on the second series, losing possession on the 25.

Indians came back with a pair of first downs then fumbled again in midfield. From there the Hornets got a first down and lost possession by failing on the next series. However another fumble recovery on the next play put them in business with 42 yards to go. Bob Endres got the fumble, Tim Wolf and Mike Davidson the previous two.

In the second half Mark Mollenkopf succeeded Sicking as the Hornets' leading rusher. He accounted for most of the yardage in the 42 yard drive in 11 plays and Tim Wolf (Continued on Page 8)

Water Rate Hike Will Not Apply to Small Consumer

A change of water rate for the City of Muenster increases the charge slightly for large volume consumers using more than 30,000 gallons a month, but it does not affect consumers under 30,000.

The rate used to be $2.75 for the first 1000 gallons, 65 cents per M for the next 9,000, 60 cents per M for the next 10,000, 50 cents per M for the next 10,000 and 40 cents per M thereafter. Now it's the same through the first 30,000 and continues at 50 cents. The 40 cent rate no longer applies. The reason, as explained by Water Superintendent Joe Mosler, is that the cost of producing is 56 cents a thousand.

An ordinance setting the rate was adopted by the council and will apply to October billing.

Another ordinance was introduced concerning improvements on West Sixth, West Cross and South Maple Streets, and is subject to a hearing at the council meeting on October 6, when property owners along the proposed improvements can come and express themselves.

Other planned street improvement is resurfacing of a number of streets that are deteriorating. The contractor is engaged and the work is due to be done this year.

In other business the city renewed its contract with the county on fighting rural fires. The city continues to receive $75 for every call answered.

4-H Officers Have Training Workshop

Forty-one new officers from the community and school 4-H clubs of Cooke County came together August 25 for officer training workshop at St. Mary's School. The purpose of the workshop was to prepare 4-Hers for their role as club officers. This was done by outlining specific duties and responsibilities of each officer and by giving the 4-Hers program ideas and helpful hints.

The workshop was conducted by junior leaders Rudy Schumacher, Tammy Hickman, Denise Martin, Paul Reiter, Kathy Hobbs, Mary Ann Voth, Pat Davidson, Sharon Voth, and Sharon Rohmer.

The workshop began with a get-acquainted mixer followed by a speech on "What Is A Good Officer," by Kathy Hobbs, and a group discussion on duties of the officers. Then, in separate groups the specific responsibilities of each officer were outlined and written material was distributed.

Muenster Community 4-H was represented by Albert Zimmerer, Deryl Zimmerer and Mike Davidson, Sacred Heart 4-H by Bert Miller, Susie Felderhoff, Brenda Felderhoff, Toni Hoedebeck, Monica Hartman, Sandy Voth, Ramona Walterscheid, Mildred Grewing, Brenda Voth, Gary Rohmer, Billy Felderhoff, Rose Felderhoff, Karla Sicking and Mel Walterscheid.

C. of C. Meeting

The Muenster Chamber of Commerce will have its regular luncheon meeting next Tuesday at noon in the Center Lounge.

This wrecked car was one of two eye catchers calling attention of Labor Day Weekend traffic to a rest stop sponsored by the Muenster CB club, last Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The rest stop was located at the Muenster Electric building a mile east of town, this car and sign was a half mile west and the other was two miles east. CB members worked in four hour shifts serving coffee, cold drinks, donuts and cookies.

Home. Pallbearers were George Bayer, Martin Bayer, Albert Hess, Al Walter, Gus Lutkenhaus and Hugo Lutkenhaus.

Tigers Show Big Improvement in Test With Alvord

The season's prospect for Ed Stock's Sacred Heart Tigers looked great in their practice scrimmage with Alvord's Bulldogs here Thursday night. They appeared to have made lots of improvement since the week before when they edged Pottsboro in statistics on their first effort of the season.

This time they dominated every phase of the contest for a lead of 6 touchdowns to none. Along with that they were ahead 19 to 5 in first downs and 322 to 27 in total yardage. The Tigers made 204 in rushing whereas the Bulldogs made 27. Also they completed 6 of 7 passes for 118 yards and Alvord had no completions in 4 tries.

However the visitors had the satisfaction of leading in the junior varsity practice. The younger fellows were first on the field for a scrimmage of 20 offensive plays by each team.

Alvord with first possession moved down the field with authority and completed an 80 yard drive in 14 plays. On the next six plays Tiger defense did better and held the visitors to short yardage. In their turn with the ball Sacred Heart gained a net of 17 in 20 tries.

The main event departed from regulation just enough to be ruled out as a real game. There was no kicking. Instead of a kickoff the offensive team was given possession on the 20 and advanced the usual way. If it failed to make first (Continued on Page 8)

Please Don't Drink At Football Games

An appeal to refrain from bringing alcoholic drinks to Hornet football games was directed Monday to all MHS fans in a meeting of the Muenster Quarterback Club.

Recalling that a number of fans last year imbibed rather openly, the quarterback club called attention to the ULL regulation banning drinks, and also to the regulation that a school can be held responsible for the conduct of its supporters, especially with regard to abusive or profane language. So, the school can be in trouble if its fans get out of line.

Dallas News Story Says Medders Are Still Going Strong

Margaret and Ernest Medders, who became nationally famous for their royal living here on borrowed money, and survived a bankruptcy still retaining a sizeable portion of their former possessions, are still living it up, according to a front page story of the Dallas News.

The article with a current picture of her and a picture of her and Ernest from the good old days, quotes her as saying she's not through yet. She has high hopes of realizing another fortune out of coal and movies. She revealed that she is dealing in coal land leases in Kentucky and Alabama, and also said that someone in Hollywood is in the final stage of writing the screen play based on her latest book, "The Sweet Repeat." Likewise, she said, "The Medders Story" based on her experience here, is being considered for a movie.

The Medders are "comfortable" in Memphis, Tenn., where just a few weeks ago they moved from their four bedroom brick house to another in a new, more exclusive area. They have two Cad-

Beverly Walterscheid Exchanges Vows with Michael Fuhrmann

In a nuptial Mass with double ring vows in Sacred Heart Church during the late afternoon of Saturday, August 30, Miss Beverly Walterscheid became the bride of Michael Lee Fuhrmann.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Julian Walterscheid of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fuhrmann of Lindsay. Fr. Stephen Eckart celebrated the Mass and officiated for the wedding vows.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza over taffeta, designed with empire lines enhanced with pink satin ribbon and embroidered lace flowers. Three rows of wide ruffles defining the neckline extended over the shoulders to form sleeves. Pink lace and flowers adorned the ruffle circling the skirt which extended to an A line train. Her short veil fell from an embroidered lace cap. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of Bridal Pink roses, light pink asters, white stephanotis and gypsophyllia and a shower of pink and white ribbons with lovers knots. The bride carried the same lace handkerchief her mother carried at her own wedding.

They completed their attire with matching pink picture hats, and they carried long stemmed pink roses with baby's breath. The flower girl was similarly dressed and carried a pink floral offering which the bride placed on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Best man was Mark Fuhrmann of Muenster, brother of the groom and groomsmen were Steve Fuhrmann of Lindsay, brother of the groom, Darell Walterscheid, brother of the bride and Jimmy Fuhrmann, cousin of the groom. Wade and Elaine Walterscheid brother and sister of the bride gave the Readings for the Mass and Kenny and Pat Fuhrmann, groom's brothers presented Offertory gifts.

Mass servers were bride's brother Jesse Walterscheid and bride's cousins Danny Walterscheid, Phil and Teddy Walterscheid.

Wedding guests were seated by Willie Wimmer and Johnny Anderle of Muenster, both brothers-in-law of the groom. Presenting wedding music were Linda Miller, Lynda Klement, Gayle Miller, Mary Hess and Laura Kralicke. Selections were "Never My Love", "Love of the Loved", "Sunrise, Sunset", "Annie's Song", "The Wedding Song" and "One Hand, One Heart", with organ and guitar accompaniment.

The altar before which vows were exchanged was decorated with pink gladioli. Tall floor candelabra with hurricane lamps formed an entrance to the sanctuary. Garlands of gypsophyllia with two white doves adorned the candelabra and pink and white streamers tied with bows led to pews marking places for mothers of the couple.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walterscheid chose a light blue knit formal and Mrs. Fuhrmann, groom's mother wore an apricot formal with sheer long-sleeved jacket. Their corsages were of roses, asters and stephanotis. Grandmothers, Mrs. George Gehrig, Mrs. Mary Lueb and Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid wore corsages of pink asters and great-grandmother Mrs. Matt Muller also wore a pink aster corsage. The groom's baptismal sponsor, Mrs. Mike Schilling had a carnation corsage. Grandmother Mrs. George Gehrig was also the bride's godmother. Grandfathers and god fathers wore carnation boutonnieres.

Reception

Following the church service, a reception and dinner were held in Sacred Heart Community Center where guests were registered by cousins of the bride, Mrs. Denise Fuhrmann and Mrs. Debby Rice both of Gainesville. Guest tables held white vases of pink roses and English ivy, and pink candles stood in silver candle holders.

The bride's table, covered in white, held two silver candelabra entwined with ivy, pink roses and pink candles. A three tiered cake with bubbling fountain graced a round, separate table. The top layer held fresh pink flowers and pink icing roses decorated the cake, made and cut by Mrs. Carolyn Bayer and served by Elaine Walterscheid, bride's sister, Laurie Walterscheid, bride's cousin and Monica Gehrig, bride's aunt.

For traveling, the bride wore a yellow and white checked pants suit with white accessories. They will be at home in Gainesville.

The bride, a graduate of Sacred Heart High School, is a sophomore student in the School of Nursing at Cooke County College. The groom is a graduate of Lindsay High School, attended Cooke County College and is a student at Mountain View College in Dallas where he is studying to become a watchmaker. He is employed at Kinne's Jewelry in Gainesville.

All-Weather 78

Goodyear's "All-Weather 78" tire is built with polyester cord that's tempered in an exclusive process for optimum strength and resilience. The wide 78-series tread is "reverse molded"—a technique borrowed from race tire production. In reverse molding, the contour of the tread surface is slightly concave as it comes from the mold—so that when the tire is inflated, the tread makes full, flat contact with the road. The rib tread is well grooved, providing plenty of traction edges for decisive grip. In every detail, the "All-Weather 78" gives you honest quality, at a price that's in step with the time.

Mrs. Neu has 35 grandchildren, over 100 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. She remains in good health and enjoys visitors. Gifts, good wishes, birthday cards, reminiscing and family pictures-taking added to a memorable 104th birthday.

Progress Seen in Fibrosis Program

About 15 years ago, many children born with cystic fibrosis were doomed to early death. Most youngsters with this lung damaging disease did not reach school age.

Today, almost 50 per cent of those afflicted live past their 18th birthdays. They become productive young adults who are going to school and college, working and marrying.

Advances in treatment that brighten the futures of cystic fibrosis children are being developed by the care and research programs of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, which raises funds through the annual Breath of Life Campaign.

This year's drive for the funds in Muenster will be conducted on Tuesday, September 16, with Mrs. Ted Henschel as chairman. People are asked to make a note of the date and give generously.

Trio Sees Sights In Four States

Mrs. Margaret Sicking and her daughter, Miss Teresa Sicking of Gainesville, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Zimmerer of Lindsay have returned from a 3000 mile, twelve day vacation trip by car — an annual venture by the almost 95 year old Mrs. Sicking, who travels in her wheel chair.

Traveling through four states, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona, they began with a leisurely drive enjoying the almost unlimited views of croplands in West Texas and then into mountainous areas, through the Capulins, over Raton Pass into the scenic wonderland of northern New Mexico. Beyond the panoramic views of mesas, valleys and plant life above Raton, they began to see the Sangre De Cristo range whose mountain tops are snow-clad the year through.

The trio spent Sunday in Colorado Springs, attended Mass in beautiful St. Mary's Church, and went sightseeing to Seven Falls the "Pillars of Hercules", fed the chipmunks, saw authentic Indian dances, drove through the sun-drenched Garden of the Gods. Later they rode the scenic train through and around the edge of the Royal Gorge and drove their car over the world's highest suspension bridge, 1055 feet above the canyon floor, where the Arkansas river flows. During days of mountain driving they saw the Blue Mesa Dam, drove through the Black Mesa and Canyon and the Ute Indian Reservation, the San Juan, La Plata and Ute mountains. In Montrose, Colorado they drove on Highway 550, the Million Dollar Highway, and also drove the Switchback on Red Mountain. At elevations of 13,000-14,000 feet, there was snow on all mountain peaks.

In Arizona they enjoyed the scenic route through the Navajo Indian Reservation. Both Mrs. Sicking and her daughter are rock collectors and found good specimens all along their trip to add to an already sizeable collection. They drove through the area of Arizona where floods in 1963 changed the terrain and washed down mountain sides to make "pictures" and shapes of castles and people. The Sicking's passed through Kayentor, Arizona, home of the Baby Rocks, another example of nature's carving. They saw Sunset Monument Valley, the Painted Desert, and marveled at the colors of the landscape approaching the north rim of the Grand Canyon. They went to Marble Canyon, saw Lee's Ferry on the Colorado River, Jacob Lake, the Kaibab Plateau where wild flowers, pine and spruce made a spectacular display.

In Grand Canyon National Park, Mrs. Sicking stayed in the Lodge in her wheel chair to enjoy the scenery from the windows, while Theresa and Mrs. Zimmerer walked many paths, made photographs of Angel Point and other places of interest.

Later, continuing to Flagstaff, Arizona and with more mountain driving and vistas of wild flowers, towering trees and the greenest of green grass they passed through the Santa Catalina and Empire mountains and returned to New Mexico by another route. They were impressed by the White Sand Dunes of New Mexico and the oil fields near Lovington and Plains, N. M. Nearer home they drove through farming country where the cotton and maize crops are promising, and miles and miles of sunflowers are cultivated with harvest time fast approaching.

The three ladies began their vacation on August 7 and returned August 19. Mrs. Sicking, in her wheel chair, savored every moment, meeting people, making new friends, adding to her cup and saucer collection and rock hobbies. Miss Sicking and Mrs. Zimmerer took more than 150 pictures to add to Theresa's collection.

Joe Felderhoff, his daughters Christy, Jenny, Anne and Rose and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff spent Wednesday afternoon at Seven Seas. Later they drove to Dallas for a visit with the Charles Felderhoff family, while Mrs. Joe Felderhoff attended a teachers' meeting in Fort Worth.

Great Pyramid of Cheops was constructed with 2,300,000 stone blocks, each averaging 2½ tons.

The Merchants Say:

The following item, taken from a recent Ann Landers column, presents a situation that is well known to the business firms of this community. It is quoted here by the Muenster Chamber of Commerce in behalf of the Muenster merchants.

"Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to ask the American people a few questions. It's a matter of economic survival to me as well as millions of other "little people" who have small stores.

"Who do you ask to cash your checks? Who do you ask for credit when things are tight? Who do you ask to take ads for your organizations, yearbooks and programs? Who do you ask for contributions for your church suppers, raffles, etc? Who do you call after hours when you need a special item? Who do you ask to put up posters for special events?

"It's your local, hometown small businessman. After all, he's your friend, your neighbor.

But when you want to make a purchase, how often do you drive past his place of business and go to a giant store thinking you might save a few cents, without giving your local merchants a chance or even comparing his prices?

"We are competitive with the biggest stores price-wise and our services are often better. But we can't survive much longer. When we go, you'll miss us. — Too Many To Name

"Dear Too Many: Your letter reflects one of the major social and economic problems of our times. It's becoming more and more difficult for the small, independent businessman to survive. I wish I knew the answer."

Meetings Set for County 4-H Clubs

The regular monthly meetings of Community and School 4-H Clubs will resume in September marking the beginning of the new 4-H year. 4-Hers from throughout Cooke County were involved in a wide variety of events and activities during the summer, but monthly meetings of the clubs are not held during the summer months.

The 4-H program offers a wide variety of activities for youth between the ages of 9 and 19 and anyone interested in learning more about 4-H or in joining a 4-H club should make plans to attend one of the upcoming monthly meetings.

While 4-H meetings cover a variety of subjects and activities and are held once a month, project groups work on specific subject matter and last only as long as the project requires. Project subjects may include gardening, auto repair, raising and caring for an animal, clothing and many others.

Service groups work to help improve the community and special interest groups may meet to learn more about current issues and subjects such as drugs, ecology, dating, and family life. 4-H clubs of Cooke County are in communities of Muenster, Gainesville, Callisburg, Lindsay, Sivells Bend, Valley View, Era and Woodbine and also at Sacred Heart and St. Mary's schools. Sacred Heart meetings are on the first Tuesday each month, 12:30 p.m. in SH School. Muenster Community meetings are on the second Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. in the TP&L building.

'75 Texas Cotton Crop Estimated at 3.1 Million Bales

After interruptions in harvest operations due to mid-July rains, cotton harvest is underway in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and the Coastal Bend area.

Early predictions estimate upland cotton production in Texas in 1975 to be 3,100,000 bales, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. This compares with a harvest of only 2,462,000 bales in 1974.

Predicted yield of lint in 1975 is expected to be approximately 372 pounds per acre. This compares with an average yield of 269 pounds per acre last year, when drought caused low yields.

Cotton crop prospects all over the state look good, White reported.

Abandoned cotton acreage is estimated at 500,000 acres in 1975. Although this is somewhat higher than normal, it is still below the 800,000 acres abandoned last year.

Medders Story --

illars, a cook, a maid and a chauffeur, and the diamond she wears weighs almost 10 carats. On her visit to Muenster, Gainesville and Dallas she was traveling in a private plane.

The Dallas News article reviewed briefly the family's rags to riches story. At one time Margaret, as a widow, found it necessary to put her children in an orphanage and take a job there. After marrying Ernest she worked in a hospital and he as a mechanic's helper.

About then they got the report that they were heirs to a share in the old land grant that became the famous Spindletop discovery oil well. On the basis of their expected inheritance they were able to borrow from Subiaco Abbey and a convent in Indiana. That money, plus more and the credit it generated, financed purchase of some 1400 acres of land here, the Colonial Acres mansion, registered Appaloosa and Angus livestock, the fabulous barn used for stock shows as well as gala parties, diamonds, mink coats, Cadillacs and extensive travel. Included was a visit with LBJ at the White House and return to Texas in Air Force One.

Eventually relatives began to wonder why they were not sharing in the Spindletop goodies, and one filed a suit demanding an accounting. As the story unfolded creditors demand settlements and drove the couple into bankruptcy.

However they got a handsome assist from the state law which allows a person in bankruptcy to retain a home-stead and a carriage. In their case that was interpreted to mean Colonial Acres and a new Cadillac.

Hornets-Indians -

On Nocona's second play following that the Hornets took possession again as Nick Walterscheid recovered the fourth fumble since half time.

That happened on the 40, from where the next six plays gained 24 yards. At that point Tim Wolf got loose again around left end and scooted 16 yards to pay dirt.

Then it was Nocona's turn, as the Indians combined good plays and breaks for their only TD. The 70 yard drive used 13 plays including passes for 17 and 5 and penalties for 25. In the closing minute the Hornets made a first down and fumbled the ball away on their next series.

The statistics show Muenster ahead 13 to 11 in first downs and 189 to 108 in rushing, while Nocona was ahead in passing with 5 of 10 for 59. Muenster had only 2 of 10 for 6 yards. Exchanges favored the Hornets with 6 fumble recoveries as the Indians intercepted once and recovered once.

Things were different in the junior varsity tussle preceding the main event. In that the visitors dominated and took the decision by a count of two touchdowns to one. In first downs they led 10-8.

The teams see sawed through the first half and Nocona got on the scoreboard late in the third period on a 52 yard pass play. That was followed by Muenster's 70 yard drive in which Randy Reiter and Gary Hermes did most of the footwork and David Felderhoff completed two passes to Billy Phillips. Reiter scored from the 15.

Nocona broke the tie in a hurry, starting with a 34 yard gallop and shortly after that a 16 yard gain to the 13. Three plays from there was enough for the second touchdown.

Tigers Improve --

down distance in three tries it could gamble on fourth down or allow the ball to be moved 35 yards in lieu of a punt and given to the other team.

Sacred Heart had first offense and rolled down the field 69 yards before fumbling on the 11. The drive used 12 plays including a 16 yard pass to Bruce Fuhrmann and a 17 yard gain by Mark Hess which ended in the fumble. However another fumble on the next play gave the Tigers another chance from the 13. On third try Joe Bartush crashed over from the 2.

After that Alvord failed on first series and SH was given possession on its 44. Four plays were enough from there. A pass to Mark Hess for 31 was the big gainer and Bartush stormed in from the 10.

Again the visitors failed to gain and the Tigers started from Alvord's 45. A pass to Glenn Walterscheid gained 16 and 8 more tries finished the drive. Mark Hess made the last 6.

Just before half time the Tigers started from their 40 after Alvord failed to gain, then failed to make 10 on their turn. Alvord lost 9 on the next series and Sacred Heart ran out of time two plays after gaining possession.

After intermission the Tigers started with a fumble recovery on the 19 and scored in four plays, Bartush making the last yard.

Then, getting possession on their 42, they drove 58 yards in 11 plays. Mark Hess scored from the 3.

Finally after a fumble recovery on the 11 they used two plays to get over. Danny Walterscheid made 7 and Kenny Felderhoff scored.

In the closing minutes the Bulldogs put it together, for a while. Aided by 25 yards in penalties, they gained 64 to the 16 and lost possession on downs. The drive was good for five first downs, the only ones of the contest for the visitors.

The tragedy of it is that members are captive. They can't quit without losing their jobs. Nor can they do anything about the ways bosses use their dues money. Every election year this is the source of the millions of dollars poured into political campaigns supporting the bosses' favorites.

The number one evil in current organized labor is the provision allowing compulsory unionism. It gives the leaders excessive power which they could not have if individual members were not helpless, and it provides fabulous funds to finance the dictatorship.

This kind of unionism certainly is not the kind originally organized by Samuel Gompers. The intent then was to stick together in defense of rights, and those rights applied in the organization as well as on the job.

In it policies were decided by the rank and file, not handed down by the boss. It succeeded because it had to be good and do good to hold its membership. This kind of unionism is what people refer to nowadays when they say that good unions do not need compulsory unionism and bad unions do not deserve it.

A number of labor bosses were observing Labor Day in speeches assuring members that they will keep striving for higher wages. Many people were impressed, no doubt, but there must be some who realized that current troubles are caused to a great extent by high pay. This is why so many American products are priced out of the market, and why thousands of jobs have disappeared, why inflation is wiping out most of the benefit of high wages.

A better Labor Day speech was given in just a few words by Paul Harvey in his daily comment. It makes a lot more sense to get production going by ending the strikes and pay raise demands, and even working for less pay if necessary. After all, what is gained by high wages if constantly interrupted by work stoppage?

The best thought for this Labor Day is to trim down the powers of Big Labor and concentrate more on the welfare of the little guys doing the labor.

Hay is second only to corn as a U.S. crop in terms of acreage. Sixty-two million acres were devoted to hay production in 1973 with total production of 135 million tons having a value of over $5 billion.
