

As our country begins the bicentennial year and we recall with pride the heroic story of its struggle for independence and freedom, it is a good idea to understand that another vital ingredient of the American way deserves equal recognition. The free enterprise system, without which personal freedom cannot be complete, has not only enriched millions of lives but also has enabled the country to attain the highest standard of living in all history. Americans have demonstrated that in doing things which are profitable to themselves they are providing products and services to satisfy the needs of other people.

Considering this fact, it is ironic that some people at this bicentennial time are recommending the nationalization or extreme regulation of basic industries such as transportation, energy, health care, agriculture and large industries. In either case it would mean that individual initiative would be replaced by government bureaucracy. Personal satisfaction at having succeeded in a venture would be a thing of the past, and so would be the national abundance that resulted from combined efforts of many millions trying to make a profit.

We can see the result in the record of many countries where national production is in collective hands. Russia and China, for instance, as well as the other communist nations have not been able to feed themselves. While denouncing our free enterprise they had to come to us for grain. Cuba and Chile have nationalized the industries built by private initiative and brought on the failure of both the business and the nation.

Nor do we have to look beyond our borders to see the harm done by nationalization and regulation. Government took over the railroads in World War I and ran them deep into the red. It has always had charge of the postal service, and has failed miserably. Still there are seemingly intelligent people who want the systems which have done nothing but fail. And they want to throw out the most successful system of all history.

It seems hard to believe that they are making such absurd demands, until we realize that many of them have no idea what is going on. A few days ago Herbert Philbrick of the US Press Association referred to surveys by Opinion Research Corp. and Gallup Poll, which provide conclusive evidence that schools and colleges in America are turning out students whose ignorance in the field of economics is complete. Philbrick says that "when we consider that the riches of America come specifically from our fantastic system of free enterprise, which has been unique in all history, and which has enabled America to surpass all other nations in material wealth, it is difficult to understand why many Americans should know so little about it."

One might suspect that recent reports on the outrageous profits of some firms had a bearing on the misunderstanding. For instance, in the ORC poll the average guess of a manufacturer's profit after tax is 33 per cent, whereas the correct answer is about 5 per cent.

Likewise there's a big howl about fat profits in the oil business — probably the reason why the average guess of profit after tax was about 61 per cent. In this case the estimate was about eight times too high. And in the auto business the guess was 39 per cent and should have been about 2 per cent.

Here are tragic facts about our bicentennial observance. We proudly recall many glorious pages of history while passively allowing misinformation which threatens the very survival of the country.

One can understand why there's a demand to stop the profiteering when so many are deceived. But we can see no valid reason for allowing the false information to spread. It's high time for the media and the schools to set the record straight on this matter. If not we may bring on the sad situation of throwing away our blessings just because we don't know what we have.

TP&L Asks City Council for Increase in Election Rate

Bill Bedrick, Texas Power & Light Company manager, appeared before the Muenster City Council Monday night to discuss a proposed electric rate hike which will increase the Company's revenues from the sale of electric service an average of 11 per cent.

The increase would be reflected on electric bills rendered October 1, 1975. Even with this increase, the average residential cost per kilowatt-hour will be less than in 1955.

The increase is only the fourth general rate hike TP&L has sought in its 63-year history. Over the years, the Company has voluntarily reduced rates several times.

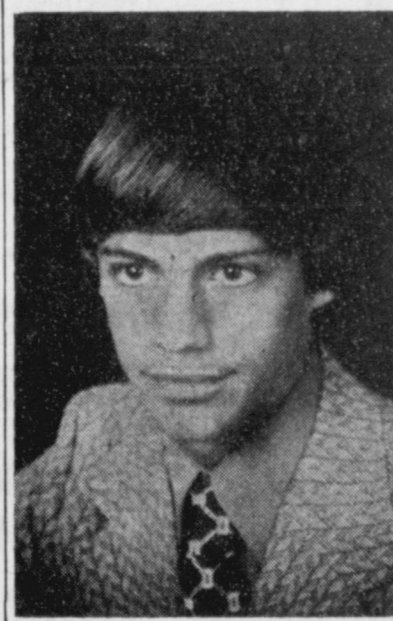

Higher construction costs, rising interest rates and general inflationary trends were some of the major reasons cited for the rate increase.

TP&L's last rate increase, which averaged about 10 per cent, occurred in March, 1974.

Bob Steele Quits SH Coaching Job Will Go to Graham

Robert Steele, coach at Sacred Heart High for the past three years, will not be back this year. He sent in his resignation in a letter received during the past weekend by Father Placidus, superintendent.

At this time Father Placidus has made no contacts in his search for the new coach. Steele's next assignment is at Graham. He will be offensive coach in football but has not revealed his other duties at the school.

Ramon Luke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Luke and a graduate of Muenster High School enrolled during the past weekend at the US Naval Academy in Annapolis.

A few days before he was notified of being selected to appear in this year's edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Selections are made from junior and senior high school students and based on their excellence and leadership in academics, athletics, extra-curricular activity and community service. Nationwide it includes less than four per cent of the students of eligible age.

"Nobody likes rising costs," Bedrick said. "But the increase we are requesting is the minimum amount necessary to adequately maintain one of the nation's most efficient and dependable electric systems."

Bedrick listed a number of factors which have a bearing on rocketing costs in generating electricity. He said the average fuel cost for a million BTU of current was 6.5 cents in 1954, 48.3 cents in 1974 and 81.7 cents in March this year.

He also pointed out that lignite is the most economical fuel, costing a tenth as much as fuel oil and a fifth as much as gas, but few plants are equipped to use it. For that reason TP&L is building more lignite plants. However the cost of such a plant is four times as much as a gas operated plant of the same size.

Still more increases apply to construction for distribution — the wire, poles, transformers, streets lights, etc. And requirements to satisfy EPA are about four times as high. Finally, interest rates have about doubled in ten years.

C of C Continues Plans on Event For Bicentennial

Chamber of Commerce members at their regular meeting Tuesday continued planning for a bicentennial celebration next summer featuring the community's German background. Officers of the organization have named Leonard Endres as general chairman of the program.

At Tuesday's meeting members approved a suggestion to seek ideas from highly successful festivals such as those at Fredericksburg and New Braunfels. They favored having a visitor or two at both of those celebrations, and possibly also to observe at other such occasions.

Members were also informed that work is started on signs at both sides of the city, a charter has been received, a bicentennial marker is ordered, and a committee to welcome community newcomers is organized. Its members are Bill Bedrick, Mrs. Earle Otto, Albert Lippe, Len Endres and Steve Mosler.

The program consisted of a film on TP&L's lignite fueled plant at Fairfield. It was shown by Bill Bedrick, TP&L local manager.

Its message is that the energy crisis has caused shortages of gas and oil, therefore lignite, which is abundant will be phased in as the principal fuel.

This will require more expensive plants but rewarding savings in operation, and an adequate supply of electricity.

The film showed that strip mining to produce the lignite is not an environmental problem. Rather, the land after strip mining is left more productive and more beautiful than before.

344 Enroll in Free Red Cross Swim Classes

With 344 persons enrolled, and the welcome mat out for any others who wish to come, the community's annual free Red Cross swimming class is going fine.

Total enrollment in this week's classes is 215, and next week's is 129. Included in the latter figure are 15 adults, for whom the 9 to 10 class all next week will be given exclusively. Adults who feel self-conscious about being in a class with children are reminded that they have this opportunity to be alone and they are encouraged to come.

The course is directed by Mrs. Jeannine Flusche who has more than 30 helpers, an ample staff to assure personal instruction. Dividing the week's enrollment into three daily class periods results in an average of one teacher for less than three students. The ratio will be more favorable next week when total enrollment is lower.

Mrs. Flusche said that all of the workers are volunteers and their only compensation is a free admission to the pool for each day of helping the program. In addition the volunteer baby sitters are receiving the money which was originally donated for baby sitting.

Mrs. Flusche also referred to the high rating of the instruction staff. Eight have the Red Cross WSI rating and twelve are rated as senior life saver.

The WSI teachers are Kathy Berres, Jane Taylor, Carol Henscheid, Nancie Lippe, Marilyn Smith, Kathy Luke, Dorma Flusche, Carolyn Bayer and Jeannine Flusche.

Aids are Carolyn Luke, Dea Swirczynski, Claudia Flusche, Joe Bartush, Julie Bayer, Lisa Reiter, Monica Hess, Kathy Glover and Christy Glover.

Recorders are Frances Bayer and Margie Wimmer. Baby sitters are Julie Bayer, Kathy Flusche, Claudia Flusche, Kathy, and Christy Glover.

On completion of the class Red Cross certificates and buttons will be awarded to beginners, advanced beginners intermediates and patches will be awarded to swimmers.

SA Truck Coming

The Salvation Army truck will make its regular monthly visit to Muenster next Thursday, the 17th, for pickup of repairable clothing and household articles. Persons who wish to donate may call 759-4124 before Thursday.

JC Chicken Fry, Aug. 3

The first call has been made for this year's big Jaycee cookout. It will be held Sunday, August 3, in the city park, and early arrivals will be in time to see the finals of the tennis tournament. On the menu is fried chicken with all the trimmings.

Deposits for Local Blood Bank Will Be Accepted Wednesday

Another semi-annual deposit in the Muenster blood bank is scheduled for next week Wednesday, July 16, when the Bloodmobile from the Red Cross blood center of Wichita Falls will make its regular visit here.

Facilities for collection will be set up in the K of C Hall from 2 to 7 p.m., and the Red Cross technicians will be assisted by local hospital and hospital auxiliary personnel.

The collection quota is 100 pints, which is determined by the average use during six months in the local program. Persons eligible to participate in the program are all patients of Muenster Hospital as well as residents of the district who receive transfusions in other hospitals. If local donations consistently fall below the demands of those eligible people the district is expected to make up for the shortage with an interim collection.

Working toward the 100 pint goal, the sponsoring organizations now are soliciting donors. Sign-up lists are up at the KC and VFW halls and many previous donors are being reminded personally.

In addition, people are encouraged to make the donation more convenient by making an appointment. This arrangement is helpful to both donor and technician because it tends to level off the rush and slack periods.

Several members can be called for the appointments. In Muenster it's the hospital, 759-2271. At Rosston it is Mrs. Tom Sangster, 768-2767, at Myra it is Mrs. Al Trubenchak, 736-2224, and at Hood it is Mrs. Ken Klement, 665-3656.

Bank's Deposits And Loans Gain In Past Quarter

After declining for the past three quarters, total deposits in Muenster State Bank are gaining again, but only slightly.

Responding to the state banking commissioner's request for a statement of condition as of June 30, the bank reports deposits of 7,691,090.88, a gain of $149,871.87 for the past quarter, but a drop of 243,509.45 for the past year.

The same applies to total loans, which are higher than three months ago but lower than a year ago. Loans reported were $3,151,352.26, a gain of $1,572.08 in three months and a drop of $87,601.38 in the past year.

Combined reports of the four Cooke County banks reveal gains in both deposits and loans for the past quarter and the year.

Total deposits of $62,758,761 reflect gains of $1,259,241 for the past three months and $1,560,013 for the year.

Total loans are $33,156,027, a gain of $416,798 for the quarter and a gain of $1,198,134 for the year.

persons is slightly premature because the areas in which they live will not be in the district on election day. However they are expected to vote themselves in only three days later. As suggested by David Bright, hospital administrator, they are urged to anticipate early actual membership by active membership.

In addition there are a number of others who hopefully will remember. Some are the old reliables who show up every time, plus several high school students who reported for the last two collections. Persons between 16 and 17 may give if they have parental permission. Persons over 17 do not need permission.

The local blood bank is regarded as a valuable community asset. The blood which is originally given by the donors is later given free to persons needing a transfusion. The only charge is for services such as collecting, packaging, storing, transporting, infusing, etc. As a result the cost per transfusion is about half as high as when the blood comes from a commercial blood bank. This saving is available to all patients in Muenster Hospital and also to all residents of the hospital district who receive a transfusion in some other hospital.

Muenster is one of 26 communities participating in the Red Cross blood bank program through the Wichita Falls center. Each is supplied by the center and each in its turn provides blood for the entire system. Collection quota for each is determined by the amount it uses between collections.

Council Discusses More and Better Facilities for City

The means of providing more and better space for city facilities was the subject of lengthy discussion at the city council's regular meeting Monday night, but no definite action was taken.

There are proposals for a single structure for city hall, library, fire station, service, maintenance, equipment storage etc., involving a new building and sale of the present facilities. Another suggestion is a separate building for fire station, maintenance, storage, etc., and remodel the present city hall to meet other needs.

Discussion ended in an agreement to study costs of both proposals, including location prices and salvage value of the old building, and continue discussion at a future meeting.

An encouraging report relative to sewer troubles came from a recent meeting with the Texas Water Quality Board — because local sewage treatment was not meeting the state standard. AMPI revealed that it is considering a complete treatment plant along with its new milk factory. In that case the city will be relieved of frequent problems from hard-to-treat industrial sewage.

The council also heard a request from TP&L Manager Bill Bedrick for authorization to increase electric rates. He supported his request with figures showing sharp increases in cost of fuel, construction, and interest rates.

A&M Club Awards Six Scholarships

Six scholarships in the amount of $250 each for use at Texas A&M University during the coming school year were awarded by the Cooke County A&M Club last week.

The club has remitted $1500 to the TAMU scholarship committee for credit to the accounts of Jerry Baugh, Daniel Fette, Barbara Davidson, Lyle Klement, Mitchell Greer and Joseph P. Hundt.

Baugh and Fette are seniors receiving final installments on their scholarships, Davidson and Klement are sophomores, Greer is a beginning freshman and Hundt has completed one semester of his freshman work.

Newly elected officers of the county A&M club are Van Knight, president; John Pipes, vice president; Rudy Paklik, secy-treas.; E. F. Carson, reporter; Frank Moore, finance chm.

Plans Announced For Another JC Tennis Tourney

Another tennis tournament, inspired by the very popular one three weeks ago, is in the making. Ronnie Hess revealed Tuesday that the Jaycees have decided to put on another tourney and have assigned him again as the chairman.

The big show will begin on Sunday, July 27, and end on Sunday, August 3, with, hopefully, many dozens of contests between. The more entries the better, says Hess. With four courts to play on and plenty of time, there will be room for big brackets.

Invitations are extended in five divisions: junior boys singles (16 and under) men's singles (over 16) men's doubles (over 16) and ladies' singles and doubles (any age). Men who wish can enter in both singles and doubles.

Entry fee will be $2.50 per person and the entry deadline is Wednesday, July 23, which should allow ample time for drawing up brackets. Ronnie Hess will accept fees and book the entries. His number is 759-4443.

Action will be on the two courts at the public school and two at the city park. And at the end trophies will be awarded in each division for champ, runner-up and consolation.

Debate Workshop Offered at CCC

The debate workshop offered at Cooke County College for high school students is scheduled for two weeks, July 21-Aug. 1. Sponsors wish to emphasize that only a few openings still remain.

Sixteen students from Muenster and two from Lindsay have registered. More information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Tom Sangster, 768-2767.

Money may not buy friends, but it will help you stay in contact with your children.

16 Teams Enter Slo-Pitch Tourney Starting Monday

Entries are complete for the season's second slo-pitch softball tournament at Muenster. Sponsored by the Schlitz team it will have a bracket of 16 for a double elimination program, in which a team has to lose twice before being eliminated.

The tourney starts with four games Monday night, and other games will be Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. After the finals trophies will be awarded for champ and for individuals of the champ team, also for runner-up, third, fourth, sportsmanship, and the tourney's most valuable players.

Teams to play the first night are Schlitz vs Muenster, 7 p.m.; Martindale vs Denton County, 8 p.m.; Weber vs Grady Jones, 9 p.m.; Dutchman vs Muenster Independents, 10 p.m. Others entered but not scheduled are Bowie, Denton Merchants, Mugg and Pitcher Westgate, Miller, Budweiser, First Realty and two more Denton teams.

Oops, We Goofed!
Sorry! Last week's notice about vacation time at the Enterprise was a week off schedule. Instead of closing shop after this issue of the paper, we will close after next week's issue. And we'll be off the job from July 18 to July 28. Persons who anticipate printing needs between those dates are asked to see us at once. Normal sized jobs can still be handled before we close.

Hospital Election Okay Is Vital to Entire Area

A development that is important to, all of the western third of the county awaits the outcome of the hospital district election on Saturday, July 19. The proposition is whether to unite the present district with an area that has asked to be annexed.

The merger has been described as a two way bargain, helpful to the people on both sides. Those joining the district would help it expand in progress and stability as well as size, resulting in an all round better district for both old and new members.

Likewise from the financial standpoint, the new members could become part of an established and successful project almost clear of debt. They would not be haunted with problems of starting from scratch. Similarly the old members could count on continued patronage from the new ones, plus a broader tax base to support future expansion or improvement.

Members of the hospital board have thoroughly considered those angles in relation to the annexation and have decided that rejection would be harmful to the district. They feel that people seeking admission are regarded as friends and supporters of the city and district; but if rejected many would be inclined to take their patronage elsewhere. The probable result of that would be a decline in the hospital's operation.

Friends of the merger are stressing these points on both sides of the proposition, hopefully inducing people to study it carefully and vote their conviction.

Another consideration also presents itself before the electorate. People of the area seeking admission are actually choosing between Muenster and Gainesville hospital districts. An act of the Legislature permits an election creating a Gainesville hospital district in all of the county not included in the Muenster district. It means that the Gainesville district boundary will be decided on July 19. If the merger is approved the four communities will be annexed to Muenster district. But if it is turned down the area will automatically be included in the proposed Gainesville district.

Folks of Myra, Hood, Rosston, Leo cannot reject both districts. Rather they are confronted with a choice between the two. And their choice is influenced by the fact that by choosing Muenster they will be nearer to their hospital, will take on a share in a small debt instead of a big one, and that most of them personally prefer Muenster.

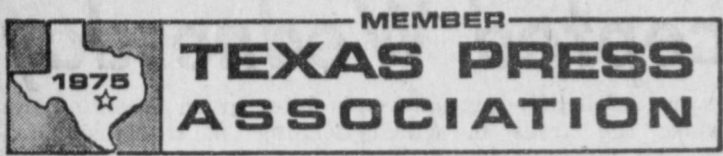

Proposed additions to the district are small in population and valuation but fairly large in size. If passed, the number of district residents would increase from 3,850 to 4,570 or from 16 to 19 per cent of county total. Valuation would increase from $8.3 million to $11, or from 11 to 15 per cent of the county total. And the area would gain from 22 to 33 per cent of the county total.

Ceremony and Reception Observe Richard Grewings' Silver Wedding

On Sunday, June 15, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grewing observed the 25th anniversary of their wedding with an anniversary Mass in Sacred Heart Church at 5:00 p.m., followed by a festive, formal reception, dinner and dance in the Community Center. Over 500 guests attended. The event included a reunion of the Grewings' Sacred Heart School classmates of 1945 and 1949. The religious observance began with the Mass celebrated by Father Placidus Eckart, who with the acolytes, all small nephews of the couple, and Brother Thomas Moster, Mrs. Grewing's brother, led the entrance procession. Following were the couple's attendants of 25 years ago, Mrs. Angie Grewing Barnhill, his sister and Joe Moster, her brother. The Grewings' eight children followed, each carrying a lighted candle. Janice, the first born (Mrs. David Bayer) led and Carol, (Mrs. Mike Frost) came next followed by Wayne, the third child and only son; Barbie was next, Mary Kay entered, followed by Sharon, Phyllis and Laura, the youngest.

They paused at the Communion rail to form an honor guard for their parents as Richard Grewing and Florence Moster Grewing approached the altar and entered the Sanctuary with their two attendants, to re-affirm their marriage vows, in the presence of their children, four grandchildren, their mothers, Mrs. Theresa Moster and Mrs. Hattie Grewing and a host of relatives and friends. The lighted candles were then placed on the altar and remained there during Mass. The four grandchildren are Ryan, Melanie and Deann Bayer and Jason Frost who are also the only great grandchildren on both sides of the family.

The regular Sunday Mass readings were given by Barbie, Mary Kay and Phyllis, and Offertory petitions, for his parents, were presented by Wayne, who included a mention of his late grandfathers, Leo Moster and John Grewing.

The Offertory procession was planned to honor the parents in a special way by their children and the oldest grandchild. With Janice offering softly subdued background music on the organ, Carol, wearing her mother's original wedding gown, brought the anniversary candle to the altar. Grandson Ryan Bayer presented the wedding rings of 1950. Laura carried an American Beauty rose bud in a silver vase because those flowers were used in the wedding 25 years ago. Wayne brought a lighted purple candle to the altar, in memory of infant Therese who died at birth in 1958. Symbolically the taper was extinguished before it was placed on the altar. And Barbie, Mary Kay, Sharon and Phyllis presented the sacramental offering of water and wine and the Paten and Ciborium.

After Offertory, Laura read "The Memorare" and after Communion Sharon read Psalm 128.

Organ selections by Janice were "Twelfth of Never" at Offertory, "One Hand, One Heart" during the Memorare, "Lara's Theme" during Communion and "More" after Communion and "Wedding March" as the recessional.

Sons-in-law David Bayer and Mike Frost were ushers. Peggy Hoedebeck was narrator for the Liturgy and Sr. Lenore helped in its preparation.

Altar flowers were urns of large white mums and rose pink carnations. All flowers used in church and during the reception were by Mrs. Dan Luke. The 25 year bride had a wrist corsage of an American Beauty rose and pink carnations. Mr. Grewing wore a red rose boutonniere. Their daughters and Miss Peggy Hoedebeck had wrist corsages of sweetheart roses and pink carnations. Mrs. Barnhill and mothers of the couple wore pink carnations and the son and sons-in-law wore boutonnieres of pink sweetheart roses. Wearing pink carnation corsages were Mrs. Henry Starke, Mrs. Harvey Schmitt and Mrs. Alvin Hartman and Mr. Hartman wore a pink carnation boutonniere.

Reception

The Grewings were hosts for a reception, dinner and dance at the Community Center following the church service. Mrs. Henry Starke and Mrs. Harvey Schmitt were at the guest book. On the registration table in the entry was the anniversary candle and an arrangement of American Beauty roses, pink carnations baby's breath and tiny silver bells in a silver container. Also displayed in a shadow box held on a lighted easel, were the Grewings' wedding picture and her bridal veil. On another table was the Senior Class picture of 1949, the April 1949 issue of Mosaics and a copy of Cordis, SHHS Yearbook — to mark the first class reunion since graduation. During the evening pictures were made of the classmates of 1945 and 1949.

Just inside the reception room were displayed baby pictures of the children.

During a cocktail hour, friends of the couple assisted at the champagne service and at the bar. Rohmers catered an elegant buffet dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman seated more than 500 guests. Nieces of the Grewings assisted in serving the anniversary cake.

The table for the silverweds and their family held two silver candelabra with pink tapers, entwined with red roses, pink carnations and silver leaf ivy garlands. Guest tables held pink tapers, silver foliage and arrangements of pink daisies.

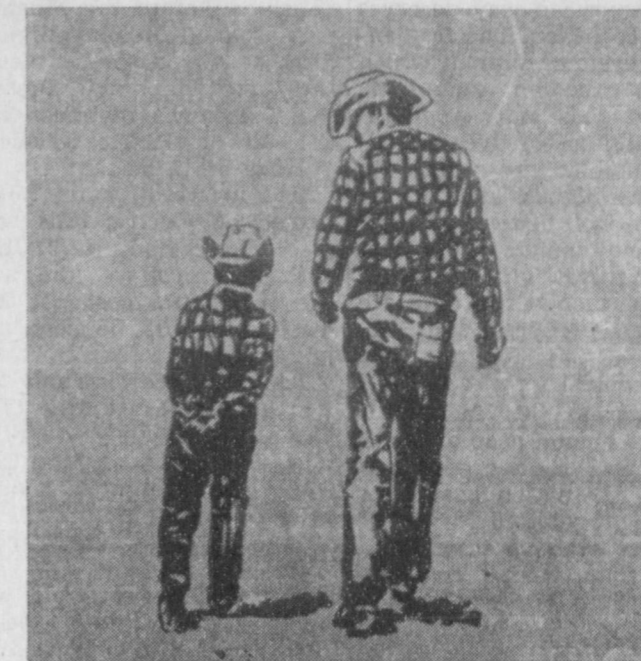

A round table covered with a full length white cloth held an unusual conversation-piece anniversary cake. It was baked and decorated by Mrs. Charles Bayer of eight individual layers, one for each of child. Four layers on the lower level supported four more on separate levels and were topped by another layer bearing the silver "25". The cake was decorated with pink rosebuds, garlands of pink sweet peas, accented with silver leaves and tiny silver bells and miniature dolls representing eight children and four grandchildren and a tiny angel doll for Therese. Assisting in serving the cake were Mildred Grewing, Anita Grewing, Susan Moster, Shelia Grewing and Brenda Barnhill.

Following dinner, Larry Reed and the Country Sax of Fort Worth played for dance-ing. For her anniversary party, Mrs. Grewing chose a Chantilly lace over pastel pink gown of floor length and the wrist corsage of American Beauty roses and pink carnations. Her "something old" was a gold watch — a gift from the groom 28 years ago. "Something borrowed" were pearl earrings belonging to

Dr. Gene Luke and Family of Arizona Visit Local Kin

Dr. and Mrs. Gene Luke and children Robert and Donna of Holbrook, Arizona are visiting his parents, the Ben Lukes, on a week's vacation from their jobs at Northland Pioneer College, where he is program specialist and chairman of the English Department and she is a part time teacher.

Northland Pioneer College is unique in its decentralized organization and function, serving a population of 58,000 in Navajo County. There are five major centers and seventeen minor centers spread throughout the county, because of the sparse, scattered population. The teachers commute in school vehicles to the various centers in order to teach the classes in three hour time blocks. All full time faculty members, including Dr. Luke, teach in each of four major centers — (Winslow, population 10,000, Holbrook, the county seat, population 5,000, Snowflake, population 2,000 and Show Low, in the White Mountains, population 2,000, and Oraibi, on the Hopi Indian Reservation) every week. Part time instructors usually teach in only one location.

Eighty per cent of the college enrollment is over age 23. There are 3,000 part time students and a total of 996 full time equivalency students as of the spring semester 1975. The Navajo County Community College District covers 9,910 square miles.

In addition to his full time faculty position, Dr. Luke is president of the faculty senate, Chairman of the salary committee, member of the college curriculum committee, member of the college advisory council and he represents Northland Pioneer College on two state boards, Arizona College Association and Arizona Community College Salary Committee and, since Northland has just completed its first full year of operation, Dr. Luke took a major part in planning and building the English Department.

He is also on the Boy Scout Council in Holbrook and will accompany his son's Scout troop on a 7 day hike in the wilderness area of Colorado near Silverton late in July.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Luke are board members of the Northland Fine Arts Association of Northland Symphony Orchestra and both are lecturers in their Church.

Rev. Bonaventure
Brazil Missionary
Visits Koelzers

While Fr. Bonaventure Koelzer, missionary from Brazil, was spending a vacation in Texas, he accompanied his sister, Mrs. Susie Noggler and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoening to Hereford to visit four days with another sister, Miss Teresa Koelzer and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Noggler. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Koelzer in Friona.

They were impressed by the wheat crop that averaged 80 bushels per acre in some places; however, where hail damaged several areas, the yield was reduced to 40 bushels per acre.

Family gatherings held here in his honor were a reunion — Sunday dinner at the Ben Voth Lake, a supper at the Pete Koelzers, a Home Mass observing the George Koelzers' Golden Wedding, followed by dinner and table games held in the Dick Dittfurth home, and a noon dinner in the home of Mrs. Margaret Moster in Lindsay.

Fr. Bonaventure remained in Hereford with relatives when the Muensterites came home. He will be at the abbey in Graymoor, N. Y., for a month before returning to Brazil.

Other guests were Mrs. Sherrill's mother, Mrs. Edward Benninger of Grand Prairie and Jeremy Johnson of Missouri. They spent the day at Moss Lake boating, fishing and swimming.

They were joined in the late afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Haverkamp and family and Glenn Hess who were teaching Fr. Isaias to water ski for the first time.

Governor Dolph Briscoe signs into law House Bill 1525 by Sullivant. This bill provides for evaluation of farm and ranch land for tax purposes according to its productive capacity. It will become effective provided Article VIII of the proposed new constitution is adopted by the people in November. Present at the signing ceremony were Rep. Sullivant, left and Mr. Carrol Chaloupka, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, right.

The bill was hailed by Mr. Chaloupka as a "far sighted measure of tremendous importance to our state and nation as we prepare to confront the world-wide food shortage which has developed. It will encourage the small farmer in particular to maintain his land in food and fiber production."

Bagworm Season Begins in County

Now is the time to control bag worms in Cooke County, according to the County Agricultural Agent, Neil Tibbets.

Bag worms, which normally infest cedar trees and shrubs, will attack also almost any type of foliage that grows. Trees that were infested last year and still contain the old bags will normally be infested this year. Examine these very closely for bags, which are about 1/4 to 1/2 inch long.

Bag worms may be controlled by spraying with Malathion, toxaphene, lead arsenate or Sevin.

Bag worm larvae are easy to control on plants that are thoroughly covered with insecticide since the larvae will not only crawl across the insecticide, but also will eat some of the foliage that has the insecticide on it.

For people who do not want to use insecticides, handpicking and destroying the larvae by mechanically mashing or putting them in a garbage can in an enclosed container is an effective control.

Use caution in handling all insecticides.

according to Dr. Alton Laird, college president. The fifty-eight week course will prepare men and women to participate, under supervision, in comprehensive health care. Upon successful completion of the program, the graduate will be able to take the Texas State Board licensing examination to become an LVN.

The addition of the vocational program also marks the adoption by the college nursing department of the National League for Nursing Philosophy of Open Curriculum. An open curriculum is one which incorporates an educational approach designed to accommodate the earning needs and career goals of students by providing flexible opportunities for entry into and exit from the educational program and by capitalizing on their previous relevant education and experience. Thus, the vocational graduates, with additional academic courses, will be able to continue his education and become an RN if he so desires, without needless repetition of course material.

This open curriculum will also enable present LVNs interested in becoming Associate Degree Nurses to challenge first year nursing courses by examination. The first challenging examination will be offered in August, 1975.

Burleson Tells Requirements for Service Academies

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Omar Burleson reminds young men who are interested in competing for nominations to the service academies, for the class entering July 1976, he uses a competitive method of selection so that all young men who meet the necessary requirements may be considered.

The service academies are the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; the Military Academy at West Point, New York, the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colorado; and the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York. These institutions offer a fine education and a great opportunity for service to their country by young men who wish to follow a military career.

In order for Congressman Burleson to consider applicants, a candidate must meet these requirements: (1) He must be a U. S. citizen; (2) He must be over 17 and a legal resident of the 17th Congressional District; (3) He must be under 22 years of age on July 1, 1976; (4) He must never have been married; (5) He must be physically fit, including excellent eyesight; (6) He must have a good high school record.

Burleson stresses that political influence is not a factor in his nominations to the Academies. The important thing is not who you know but what you are.

Interested young men who meet the above requirements should write Congressman Omar Burleson, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515, no later than July 16. Examinations will then be scheduled as a rating device to set up slates for nomination. The competition is keen but Congressman Burleson wants to assure that all young men who are interested in a military career may have an opportunity to compete for nomination.

Grewings' Silver Wedding - - -

Mrs. Ray Evans, and for sentiment she wore the blue garter from her trousseau, also her engagement ring, her mother's ring with nine stones, her class ring and had a lucky penny in her shoe.

Her husband wore a blue with beige plaid suit for the anniversary party and had a red rose boutonniere and a diamond and silver tie tac — a Father's Day gift from his wife.

Mrs. Raymond Barnhill wore a blue gown and the Grewings' daughters and Miss Peggy Hoedebeck wore pastel formals.

The Grewings were married by the late Fr. Anthony Schroeder in the old parish hall which at that time was used for Church services during construction of the new Sacred Heart Church.

She was born in Wichita Falls and has lived her adult life here. Her husband was born in Muenster. He served in World War II and in Japan. He has been a member of the City Council 18 years and belongs to the Chamber of Commerce and Saint Joseph's Society. He was a member of the first Hospital Board. He is a partner in Grewing Brothers Well Service and Tank Trucks for over 25 years and is also a real estate and independent oil man.

She is past president of Muenster Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and worked as a nurse's aid five years; she is past president of VFW Auxiliary and is a member of Saint Anne's Society, the Catholic Daughters of America and the VFW Auxiliary.

Miss Jo Ann Bezner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bezner, Jr., of Lindsay and Lynn Huchton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Huchton of Muenster, were married Saturday, June 21 in a late afternoon ceremony performed by Fr. Damian Wewers in St. Peter's Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar decorated with white gladioli and tall floor candelabra entwined with flowers. She was wearing a Chantilly lace gown with Elizabethan neckline bib ruffle and gathered lace edging the long tapered sleeves. Wide, matching lace finished the hem of the full skirt and chapel train and full length silk illusion veil which was attached to a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of white gardenias, pink roses, daisies and gypsophylla.

Attendants
Bridal attendants were Diane Metzler of Lindsay, maid of honor and bridesmatrons were her sisters, Mmes. Judy Morisak of Dallas, Barbara Taylor of Irving, Kathy Tubbs of Gainesville and his sister, Suzanne Stevens of Era. The maid of honor wore a pink chiffon crepe lace trimmed empire gown with butterfly sleeves and ruffle at the high neckline and a pink picture hat with matching lace trim. The bridesmatrons were identically gowned in orchid with orchid hats. They carried nosegays of daisies and carnations.

Groom's attendants were Gene Hess of Muenster, best man and Kenny Bezner bride's brother, David Huchton, groom's brother, Ike Stevens, groom's brother-in-law and Gary Walterscheid. Ushers were Mike and Chuck Bezner, bride's brothers and Stan Temple, groom's cousin.

Wedding music was provided by Donna Haverkamp, organist and singers Debbie Reynolds, Lisa Mollenkopf, Mary Lou Fleitman, Cheryl Hermes and Diane Yosten.

Reception
Parents of the bride hosted a reception and dinner at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville, where the bride's table was centered by the tiered wedding cake, two floral arrangements of carnations, daisies and baby's breath and silver candelabra with pink candles.

Guests tables were centered with pink ribbon runners, English ivy and pink candles. Glenna Hellman and Karen Hoberer of Lindsay registered 365 guests at a table covered with a pink cloth and holding the anniversary candle and bride's portrait. Mrs. Al Horn baked and cut the wedding cake.

For her daughter's wedding the mother of the bride wore an orchid gown and a corsage of gardenias and roses. The groom's mother wore a pink gown and similar corsage. When the couple left on a wedding trip, she was wearing a beige and black pantsuit with beige accessories. She is a 1975 graduate of Lindsay High and the bridegroom is a 1972 graduate of Muenster High and is employed by Jones and Laughlin. They are at home in Gainesville.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies
The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home on Sunday evening, June 15 for twenty four guests. The serving table was covered with pink lace and held an arrangement of pink and orchid mums.

A display tea was held Thursday at the Joe Bezner, Jr., home with the bridesmaids and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerman as hostesses. Sixty three guests attended. The serving table was covered with white lace and was centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations.

Still a good buy... all over the house.

Did you know that the price of electricity provided by Texas Power & Light Company to the average residential customer is actually less today than it was in 1955?

It's true, and it's also true that the average customer does pay more dollars for electric service now than twenty years ago. The price is down, but the cost is up.

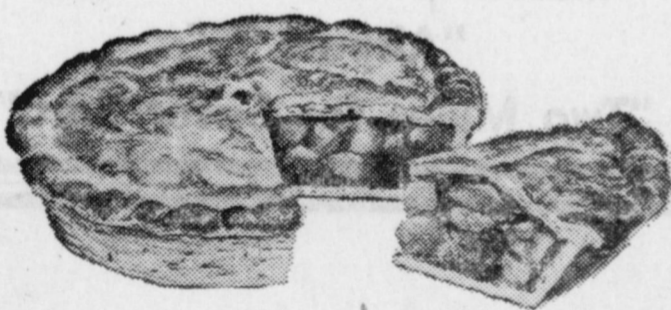

The reason? Well, in 1974 the average residential customer used more than six times the amount of electricity used in 1955.

How many ways have you increased your use of electricity in the past twenty years? Have you added one or more window-type air conditioning units or maybe a complete cooling and heating system? Are you enjoying the convenience of a range, dishwasher, clothes washer, dryer or other major electric appliances you didn't have in 1955?

Compare the cost of your electric service with the many comforts and conveniences it makes possible. Isn't it one of today's really good buys?

Mrs. Ted Henscheid Heads Drive for Cystic Fibrosis

Mrs. Ted Henscheid, president of Muenster Hospital Auxiliary, has been named chairman of the 1975 September Breath of Life Campaign...

As chairman, she will lead volunteers in raising funds to support research, care and education programs...

"There are millions of reasons why volunteers are involved in the Breath of Life Campaign, and they are the millions of children whose lives are threatened by lung-damaging diseases...

"For many of these children, breathing is a struggle," he pointed out. "Some don't even have the breath to blow out the candle on their birthday cake..."

Among the programs of the C/F Foundation is support for over 100 centers across the nation. "These centers provide diagnosis, treatment and referral to children who have lung-damaging diseases..."

The Foundation also funds research to find a cure and control for cystic fibrosis, the most serious of these lung-damaging diseases...

Cystic fibrosis, the number one genetic killer of children, affects one out of every 1,500 babies and occurs when a child inherits two genes for the disease...

Although incurable, cystic fibrosis can be treated, Mr. Henley pointed out. "Because of advances in treatment during the past 10 years, children with C/F have a brighter future..."
