ACTIVATION PROGRAM HELD AT CAMP HOWZE THURSDAY

A large number of local persons attended the activation ceremony of the 84th Infantry Division at Camp Howze Thursday. The ceremony began at 9 a.m. with the dedication of the colors and the blessing of the American flag by Chaplain R. A. Taylor, camp chaplain, after which Colonel John P. Wheeler, commander of Camp Howze, introduced the Howze sisters of Overton who were honor guests of the occasion and a twenty-one gun salute was given. Later a program was presented and army and civilian visitors were invited to inspect the camp and army equipment. Thousands of persons attended in spite of inclement weather.

Each "U" could shelter a plane from strafing attack.

7 XMAS SHOPPING DAYS FOR MEN IN FOREIGN SERVICE

There are only seven more Christmas shopping days—if a package to someone in foreign service is to reach its destination before December 25th.

It's Christmas shopping time for the men in service and its none too soon to get that package off. Parcels should not be over six pounds in weight or larger than a shoe box. They should be substantially wrapped, plainly addressed, and marked "Christmas Mail."

The Postoffice Department gives assurance that special efforts will be made to deliver in time for Christmas if these regulations are followed. But "Don't wait. Do it NOW" is the advice given.

Gasoline-Mileage Rationing Begins November 22nd

MUENSTER KNIGHTS HAD COLUMBUS DAY OBSERVANCE SUNDAY

Members of the Knights of Columbus observed their annual celebration of Columbus Day here Sunday with fitting religious services in the morning and a benefit picnic and bazaar in the afternoon and evening. Originally scheduled for last Sunday the date was postponed one week so as not to conflict with the first pontifical mass of Bishop Dangelmayr on the 11th.

Seventy five members of the order, including a group of soldiers from Camp Howze, attended the 9 o'clock mass, received communion in a body and enjoyed breakfast, following the service, in the K of C hall. The meal was prepared and served by the Catholic Daughters of America.

Rev. Father Richard gave the invocation and George P. Gleason of Gainesville and Herbert Meurer, state treasurer, were the principal speakers. Grand Knight J. W. Fisher was toastmaster.

In the afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock and continuing during the evening hours until 11:30 the Knights sponsored a community picnic and bazaar.

The hall was filled to capacity for the affair. The crowd of local persons was swelled by attendance of friends from neighboring cities and soldiers from Camp Howze. The usual games and refreshments were enjoyed.

BICYCLE PARADE TO BE FEATURED AT FALL FLOWER SHOW

A decorated bicycle parade is to be a feature of the annual Fall Flower Show it has been announced. Mrs. Nick Miller, chairman, advised this week that there will be two divisions one for tiny tots in which tricycles and kiddie cars may be entered and the other for bicycles in which there is no age limit.

An entry fee of five cents is to be charged and the owner of the most attractive vehicle in each group will be awarded a prize. Names of entrants must be submitted to Mrs. Miller or her assistants, Mesdames Herbert Meurer and Andy Hofbauer, on or before November 7 to qualify.

If the weather permits on the day of the show, November 11th, the decorated wheels will be shown off in a parade on Main Street. Judges will determine the winners. Decorations are to be left up to the ingenuity of the entrant. Either flowers or streamers or both may be used.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR P-TA CARNIVAL OCTOBER 31

Final arrangements for the P-TA Carnival to be held at the Public School on the evening of October 31 were completed during a special session of the organization Tuesday afternoon.

The party will be a costume affair but costumes are not necessary for admission. Various booths will be featured for entertainment with admission charges ranging from one to five cents. Hamburgers, pie, coffee, candy and cold drinks will be served and the public is invited to attend.

With gasoline-mileage rationing to start a month from now, interest of Southwestern motorists centers in plans for registration.

The office of Price Administration formally announced last week that motorists will be limited to five tires per car beginning next month, and at the same time disclosed that registration for gasoline ration books would start Nov. 9 in the 31 States where gasoline is now unrationed. Every car owner in these states will be entitled, as in the rationed East, to at least enough gas to drive 2880 miles per year—slightly less than four gallons per week. Supplemental rations will be provided for necessary purposes upon application to local boards. It had previously been disclosed that actual rationing in the 31 States would become effective November 22.

Nationwide gasoline rationing was recommended by the Baruch Rubber Committee to save the rubber on existing tires.

Henderson said the issuance of ration books would be contingent on these two provisions:

1—The car owner must swear he has no more than five tires.
2—He must agree to periodic inspection of his tires.

These provisions also will be extended to the East.

Starting about October 27, application blanks will be made available in filling stations and other public places.

Starting November 9, motorists will take the filled-in application blanks to local school houses where rationing officials will check to see that the blanks are filled out properly and at the same time issue "A," or minimum, ration books.

Persons needing more gasoline for essential purposes may apply immediately for supplemental rations after they receive the "A" book.

Persons showing a need for extra gasoline for work may get a "B" book, which, together with the "A" book, provides a maximum of 470 miles of occupational driving a month. (This means a little more than 31 gallons a month, since the OPA bases its figures on 15 miles to the gallon.) The "A" book contains enough gasoline to drive 240 miles per month, theoretically including 150 miles for occupational purposes and 90 miles for necessary family driving.

An extra "C" book may be obtained by a "preferred mileage class," which includes only a few groups of drivers performing duties held essential to the war effort and the public welfare. The "C" book ration varies according to need.

Commercial vehicles, including trucks and buses, would receive a "T" book whose contents is to be determined after official application to the board.

Mowing Pastures Helps Reach Goals in Milk, Mutton, Beef Production

"Pasture mowing will help farmers of Cooke County to reach their goals in milk, mutton and beef production," J. O. Aldridge, member of the Upper Elm-Soil Conservation District board of supervisors, said today.

Mr. Aldridge added that now is the time to mow pastures, especially if broom weeds, goat weeds are present, since these weeds are now blooming.

"Let us not neglect our pasture mowing, because good pasture is the cheapest feed in Cooke county," Mr. Aldridge said.

The first mowing in summer should clip weeds about 5 inches high, with the second mowing cutting them about 3 inches high according to Soil Conservation Service technicians.

Mowing will control the weeds and increase the growth of desirable plants, thereby making more nutritious and palatable pasture plants available for livestock. These better plants also will control erosion if they are not overgrazed.

of boxing matches. Since the boys had only a couple of rounds each, they lost no time sparring around. Just stepped in and started punching. A casual observer might have suspected grudge bouts. But that's not the case. There's little if any ill feeling in this outfit, certainly much less than a person would expect in a group this size. The spirit of the company and battalion is something we can all be proud of.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 14 — At Camp Young again. This has been a day of travel, seven hours of convoy ride. But, for once, it was fairly comfortable. mention, and military secrets. Also a bit of good news. For a few weeks at least this battalion will be more generous with its three-day passes. The guys are pepped up over it. And they're also wondering about the real significance behind this wonderful change of policy. Is it the lull before the storm?
