and sewer exp.

Forty two eager youngsters through their drills this week in preparation for their first test Friday night. They'll be taking on the Alvord Bulldogs in scrimmage on the Tiger field at 7:30.

Coach Bob Steele faces the practice confident that his boys will come out at the long end. The Tigers have experience, speed, size and depth. The squad list this year is a welcome switch from previous years when it averaged less than two for each position. Furthermore the starting lineup is made up mostly of experienced juniors and seniors. Finishes Course The line, though not heavy, is tough and rangy and the

Remarkably Silent

The agri-business system of agriculture in this country is a combination of technology, mechanization and scientific themselves in predator control understand these big sewer management. The food and problems of the West, has rats in the cities are direct fiber production miracle it has wrought has produced an abundance of food and fiber for our own growing population as well as a surplus that has staved off starvation in other lands.

When Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz went to Moscow last Spring, one of his objectives was working out longterm agreements by which the USSR will purchase sizable quantities of U.S, grain in the years ahead. It appears the Soviets are interested in importing certain grains because, as one Soviet official expressed it, "climatic conditions in our country are not favorable for soybeans and corn." No doubt this is true. But, aside from weather, the climate in Socialist countries is rarely conducive to productivity. Capitalistic American agriculture has no equal as a food producer. Critics of capitalism are remarkably silent on this point.

- Industrial News Review Litter Threatens Wildlife

Litter is not only unsightly, but some of it is also a threat to wildlife, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials. For examples, fishermen with backlashes in their mo-nofilament may think that because the line is practically invisible, it is all right to discard it along the shore. But to ducks, monofilament looks tasty, and when they eat it, the line gets stuck in their throat. This leads to starvation for the unfortunate duck.

Equally bad is the surplus paper from the quick-developing cameras. The chemical on the paper is toxic and has been fatal to many species.

Cans and food containers are dangerous to wildlife. Small animals after leftover bits of food sometimes get their heads stuck and then starve to death. Broken glass is a hazard to both humans and animals.

The advertisement pointed to the obvious when it said: "Every door left open means an increase in the cost of running your air conditioner." It also suggested that an air conditioner thermostat be set on 78 degrees since each degree below that uses about five percent more electricity. Moreover, "Good house in-sulation will help stop air leaks, too. Be sure to have filters cleaned often, and have regular checkups for air-conditioning units." The advice of this company to its customers is to: "Use electricity for whatever you feel is important. Just use it wisely. Electricity's too good to waste." - Industrial News Review

We see where some U. S. banks are entertaining the thought of loaning Russia money to buy equipment. The interest rate that has been mentioned for such a loan would be 6 percent. It seems strange that thousands of Americans will pay 8 percent and more interest on money borrowed from banks, while an enemy country can borrow money for slightly above prime interest rate. And when you consider the money that the USSR owes the United Nations you could hardly consider them a good security

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Schmitt will make their home in Commerce when they return from their wedding trip to New Mexico.

The bride is the former Miss Donna Kay Endres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Endres. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High and beauty college in Denton.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmitt, and is a senior at East Texas State University in Commerce. He graduated from Sacred Heart and attended CCJC.

Father Placidus Eckart celebrated the Nuptial Mass and heard the double ring vows in Sacred Heart Church at 7 p.m. Friday, Aug. 18.

Given by her father, the bride wore an empire style gown of peau de soie with organza covering the bodice. Embroidered lace and seed pearls ornamented the highrise neckline. Petal point cuffs complemented the lantern sleeves. The full skirt swept back into a chapel-length train scalloped with lace and pearls. A pearled lace cap held her veil. The bride's mother made the gown.

The bridal bouquet was a colonial cluster of yellow daisies, sweetheart roses and philia. stephanotis centered with a yellow-throated orchid. For something old and sentimental she wore a cross and chain that the groom's grandmother, the late Mrs. J. W. Hess, wore at her wedding and the engagement ring of her grandmother Mrs. Al Walterscheid. A 1953 penny, the bride's birth year, was slipped into her shoe.

Miss Nancy Endres, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Miss Barbara Schmitt of Austin and Miss Phyllis Schmitt of Grandview, Calif., sisters of the groom. Staci Walterscheid, godchild of the bride, was flower girl. Bride's attendants wore seavestee bodice. The doublelayer butterfly sleeves were edged in white, and they completed their costumes with white lace hats trimmed with Three daisies were presented to the bride by the flower girl for presentation on the Virgin's altar.

Mark Schmitt, brother of groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Jim and Bobby Endres, bride's brothers, and a cousin Don Schneider of Dallas. Darren Walterscheid, another cousin, was ring bearer. Tim Endres and Terry Walterscheid, cousins, were ushers. Offertory gifts were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Edsister-in-law of the groom. They came from Coaticook, Quebec, Canada. Music was played by Misses Mary Lou and Laura Kralicke. Mary Lou sang "A Time for Us" before the service, "For foam green crepe empire All We Know" at the offergowns with a white laced-up tory, "Peace, Joy and Happithe bride placed flowers on the

Wedding reception was held

Mrs. Alois Trubenbach and Miss Helen Hess served the groom's cake. Mrs. Willie Walterscheid presided at the punch service. Guests were registered by Misses Mary and Susan Schmidlkofer of Gainesville, cousins of the groom.

Wedding Guests Wedding guests included the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. R. R. Endres and Mrs. Al Walterscheid, and from a distance Dr. and Mrs. Gene LaGesse, Danny and Ann of Austin, Messrs. and Mmes. H. H. Homsley and Bill Blythe Misses Mary Glade, Margie Endres and Dianne Endres, all of Fort Worth. Also Rachael Endres, John Schneider and Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Fitch and Dean McMahan, all of Dallas, Ronnie McCorkle of Irving, James Whitt and Joe Bayer of Denten, Tom Joy of Henrietta, Bill Hess of Lawton, Okla., Ray Wimmer of Hurst and David Endres of Garland and Sister Joan Hess of Jonesboro, Ark.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in their home for the bridal party, parents and grandmo-

17 SH Seniors Get Class Rings

Seniors of Sacred Heart High received their class rings Wednesday at a mass and special ceremony planned by the class and conducted by Father Placidus. A banner with the message "Carry on into the newness of tomorrow" presented the theme for the occasion. Father Placidus said that a ring symbolizes eternity, a circle with no beginning and no end, and that a senior ring is a symbol of love and loyalty to one's school.

Unites Sue Smith Pat Hennigan Jr. Miss Sue Ellen Smith of

Gainesville became the bride of Pat Hennigan Jr. in Sacred Heart Church Saturday in a 2 p.m. double ring ceremony performed by Father Placidus Eckart.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hennigan Sr. of Muenster.

The bride wore a white Cluny lace street-length dress designed with empire bodice and long fitted sleeves. Pink ribbon drawn through lace accented the waistline. Her headpiece was a Dior bow and her illusion veil was shoulder length. She carried a nosegay centered with a purplethroated white orchid.

Miss Liticia Slagle of Gainesville was the bride's attendant wearing a white crepe dress with pink embroidered flowers scattered over the bodice. She carried a ong-stemmed pink rose.

Jerry Kneupper of Gainesville, cousin of the groom, was best man.

A reception followed in the home of the groom's parents. Immediate members of both families attended. They were registered by Miss Janie Smith, bride's sister.

Mrs. Jean Gebman of Santa Monica, Calif., sister of the groom served the tiered wedding cake and Miss Patsy Smith sister of the bride, presided at the punch service.

The refreshment table was covered with white linen and the bride's bouquet.

After their honeymoon in Eureka Springs, Ark., the newlyweds will be at home in Gainesville. For traveling the bride wore a red and white knit pantsuit. She is a graduate of Gainesville High School.

A&M Takes Over Renner Facility For Ag. Research

Texas A&M University will acquire approximately 380 acres of land and buildings from the Texas Research Foundation at Renner on September 1, according to action taken by the Foundation's Board of Trustees Tuesday (August 15).

land and facilities to be transferred by the Foundation to Texas A&M is on the west side of Foundation property in Dallas and Collin Counties.

Texas A&M will establish a new research and extension center on the property, A&M President Jack K. Williams has announced. The new Dallas Center will basically follow much the same pattern of TAMU Agricultural Centers already operating at Overton, Lubbock, Beaumont, Weslaco and San Angelo, Williams added.

The transfer to Texas A&M University of the land, buildings and staff of Texas Research Foundation will mark not only a continuance of activities, but the start of expanded services to home owners, farmers and ranchers of the Dallas area, and North Miller, Ph. 759-4422, Muenster. Texas, the A&M president emphasized.

"We are depending on the Foundation staff — assembled over the years by Dr. C. L. Lundell - to continue its excellent endeavors without interruption," said Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of the Texas A&M College of Agriculture and director, Texas Agricul-34-tf tural Experiment Station.

"Scientific research in progress on various crops, forages and land management systems will continue at the site,' Kunkel noted.

As staff is added, agricultural research will be expanded to meet needs of a changing agriculture in the region, the dean said.

The TAMU Center at Dallas will be initially established cooperatively by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Agricultural Extension Service, Engineering Experiment Station, and Engineering Extension Service, explained Clyde Wells of Granbury, president of the Texas A&M University System Board of Directors. As the professional staff is expanded, the TAMU Research and Extension Center at Dallas will become the most unique of all such centers in its ability to serve both urban and rural Texans, said Dean

Most of the present Foundation personnel will be employed in their present or comparable positions by TAMU.

Quality, Quantity Of TV Signal Is Better on the Cable

As you notice by our ad today, our special offer on Cable Television service will expire Thursday, August 31st. Why Should You Connect? Automobiles, household appliances, electric power lines and the earth itself creates electrical noise in the air. You must receive a television signal stronger than the noise for good television. Once the two are mixed together, there is no way to amplify one without the other. Muenster is located about 80 miles from most TV stations and the signals have faded till they are easily contaminated with noise.

The antennas on the cable system are located high above the earth where there is a stronger TV signal and less noise. This clearer signal can be delivered to your set Located near Dallas, the the same quality as received on these antennas. Muenster's Cable TV System has something on all 12 channels on your dial. Chanel "Fr. Bede's Program" on Monday evenings features interviews with both local and visiting guests of Muenster. This is mixed with other programs, some carried live and some pre-recorded. The Channel 2 camera is directed continually on local weather dials - that is, barometric pressure - temperature - wind velocity - wind direction - rain guage time that is correct to the second (set by signals received from the National Bureau of Standards) It also shows continually a local events calender. KGAF FM is featured on the sound of Channel 2. You can listen to "Rambling With Rosie" on this channel. Other Channels are: KFDA Wichita Falls KDFW Dallas CBS WBAP Fort Worth NBC KAUZ Wichita Falls CBS WBAP Music for your listening pleasure (no picture) WFAA Dallas ABC 9 KDTV UHF 39 IND 10 KBFI UHF 33 IND 11 KTVT Dallas-F Worth IND 12 KXII Ardmore - Sherman -

Effective this year is a new ruling from the Interstate Commerce Commission. If you suspect the mover's billing weight is too high, you may request it to be reweighed. If the reweight is more than 120 pounds below the billed weight, you will not have to pay for reweighing. This also applied if the billed weight exceeds the estimate net weight by 25% or more. However you still have to pay for reweighing if the reweight does not fit the 120 pounds or 25% limits.

"The Summary of Information for Shippers of Household Goods," states: "If the total actual charges do not exceed the estimate plus 10 percent, you must pay the actual charges prior to unloading your goods. However, when the total actual charges exceed the estimate by more than 10 percent, the mover is required, on your request, to deliver your goods upon payment of the estimated charges plus an additional 10 percent, and you have 15 days to pay the balance."

Health Department Puts Its Approval On Nuclear Power

Nuclear power plants will be lighting up Texas within eight years and by the year 2000 will furnish a major part of the state's massive and rapidly expanding electricity demand.

State health authorities, who will assist the Atomic Energy Commission in supervising development of the plants and monitoring of their operations, say they expect six nuclear generating plants to be in operation in Texas in the 1980's, with another nearby plant in Louisiana also furnishing part of the state's electrical needs.

"Failure to consider nuclear power as a necessary alternative source of electricity from the fossil fuel plants now in operation in Texas would be to ignore a pressing need and follow a road that would lead to a vast energy problem," said Dr. J. R. Maxfield, Jr., chairman of the Texas Radiation Advisory Board to the Texas State Department of Health.

The facets of that problem include potential power blackouts, brownouts, curtailed use of electricity by the public, possible higher prices, continued pollution from fossil fuel plants, and a vulnerability to the demands of oil-producing nations of the world. "Texas will face the probability of electrical brownouts in the major metropolitan areas in the 1980's if we don't develop an alternative power source to fossil fuel," said Dr. Maxwell. "We will find ourselves in the predicament the east coast of the U. S. now faces, with brownouts and blackouts a fact of

"Texas is reasonably wellsupplied with fossil fuel at the 10 years we will be facing a crisis. If we don't move now to develop nuclear power as a generating source for electricity, the day will come when we will have to have a curtailment of power to industry and for the home. Limitations will have to be placed on the use of air conditioning or refrigeration. Industry will have to be rationed in the number of hours its plants can run

Second World Conference

World Park People Gather At Yellowstone

Delegates from about 90 countries are expected to attend the Second World Conference on National Parks scheduled for Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks, September 18-27, 1972.

One of the highlights of the National Parks Centennial year, the Conference is sponsored by the Department of the Interior, National Park Service, the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources, and the National Parks Centennial Commission. Co-sponsors of the event are UNESCO, Food and Agriculture Organization, and the Natural Resources Council of America.

The first World Conference on National Parks was held in Seattle, 1962, at which time a resolution was passed that another World Conference be scheduled to honor the creation of Yellowstone as the world's first national park. This second Conference is expected to provide an opportunity for representatives of other park systems to meet with their counterparts in America's national and state parks to share and exchange information which will be of lasting benefit to all peoples of the world.

Secretary of the Interior Rogers C. B. Morton has stated in his letter of invitation to representatives of park systems in other countries, "We hope also to explore ways in which national parks can be effective tools by which gov-ernments can help solve social and environmental problems."

Because of limited accommodation and meeting facilities. participation in the Conference will be by invitation only. Delegates will tour the Yellowstone area on September 18, participate in a rededication of the world's national parks at Yellowstone on September 19, and technical sessions will begin September 22 at Jackson Lake Lodge, Grand Teton National Park.

These sessions will feature wide ranging panel discussions on national park problems and development. A series of papers by park management experts from many nations will have been sent to the delegates before the conference.

The discussions based on these papers will cover such fields as tropical, polar, marine and mountain park management, wildlife and resource management, visitor services, staff training and environmental interpretation.

"The Second World Conference on National Parks provides a unique opportunity for nations to meet and share knowledge on a world heritage of national parks and equivalent reserves," Secretary Morton said.

Garden Club Plans Flower Show and Coming Programs

Seven members of the executive committee Muenster Garden Club met Wednesday, Aug. 16, with Mrs. Arthur Endres, president, to make plans for a fall flower show. The date is set for Saturday, November 4. It will be titled "A Stroll through a French Market." Committee chairmen have been named.

The group heard a report from the yearbook committee which was the only active committee during the summer months when garden club meetings are discontinued until September.

Mrs. H. H. Houtchens is chairman of the yearbook and program committee. Serving Steve Fette Set with her are Miss Sylvia Hofbauer and Mrs. Arthur En-

When the club resumes monthly meetings on Sept. 11 Mrs. Paul Endres will be hostess in her home with Miss Hofbauer as co-hostess. Mrs. David R. Smith of Gainesville will speak on "Holding a Flower Show."

In October on regular meeting night a flower show workshop will be held in the TP&L community room. Members will participate by providing materials for flower arrangement or by displaying an arrangement already completed. Mrs. Pat Stelzer and Mrs. Albert Stoffels will be co-hostesses. Looking forward to the flower show in November, member activity and study is directed toward that event.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman and her parents, the Tony Felderhoffs, who attended the golden wedding celebration of the Carl Lukes in Hereford Sunday, spent Saturday overnight in Amarillo after attending the pageant Texas at Palo Duro Canyon. dependable electricity is at work from here

The egg arrives in a laying-house with electrically-controlled environment and the chick is hatched and raised in similar surroundings. Electricity helps the processor do his part with cleanliness and efficiency. Electric refrigeration keeps the chicken fresh in the supermarket and in the home until it's ready to be transformed into a favorite family dinner with an electric range.

TP&L realizes the dependability of its service is essential to many people in many ways...in homes, businesses, industries and agriculture. The Company must be able to deliver all the electric power needed at any given moment. TP&L is doing that even now when air conditioners hum night and day.

And there will continue to be plenty of electricity in the years to come because of the Company's plan-and-build-ahead programs. These programs make certain the facilities, necessary to produce and supply ample power, are ready a step ahead of the ever-increasing demands for electricity.

IT'S A FACT: TP&L is investing millions of dollars each year (more than $100 million in 1971) in new and improved generating plants, transmission and distribution lines and other equipment. Costs of materials, construction and other expenses are rising rapidly, but you can be confident that the Company will continue its efforts to provide dependable service at the lowest possible price.

Another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Kupper of Valley View and their daughter and family, the Jerry Walterscheids, Johnny, Doug and Ronnie, visited her Sunday afternoon, taking gifts and a decorated doll cake made by Mrs. Walterscheid. They all had supper together.

Mrs. Neu was feeling fine, enjoyed her visitors, and her mailed birthday cards which she displayed. She was thanking everyone who remembered her.

Other relatives and friends visited her Monday taking gifts and greetings. And a son, Mike Neu, telephoned from California. Elizabeth Reinart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Reinart, moved to Lindsay in 1898 with her husband. They were married in Iowa in 1893.
