Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 This letter is written as a reply to the June 7 letter about short dresses and long hair.
 First of all, the dresses in this town are far better than in larger towns. There are some very short dresses but you seem to notice them more than I do and I'm a teenage boy. I personally have not seen any hines. True some dresses are too short but 90% of them aren't.
 It also seems that women aren't even supposed to wear dresses unless their legs are perfect (not too fat or skinny) Also this is summer time and ankle length dresses would be kinda hot.

 Now about long hair on boys. First off nine out of ten long haired boys keep their hair clean. Some of the boys are letting their hair grow long during the summer break. And again who are we to judge people by the length of their hair. If they want it that way let them have it — its not your tangle. Some peoples hair is going to be gummy and sticky whether it is short or long and some peoples values are the same.
 One last thing, this column should really be for suggestions and not so much for unbiased opinions.
 Thank you — a reader

Barbara Cullum Becomes Bride of Glenn I. Schoech

Since returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Glenn I. Schoech are at home on SMU campus at 3515 Normandy in Dallas. They were married May 24. She is the former Miss Barbara Cullum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cullum of Dallas. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schoech of Muenster.

Father Frowin Schoech of Subiaco, Ark., brother of the groom, celebrated the wedding Mass and performed the double ring ceremony in the Chapel of the Cross Methodist Church in Dallas.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight organza with an overlay of lace fashioning the high-rise bodice with high neckline and short puffed sleeves. The full organza skirt was finished with a wide ruffle of tucked lace that swept back into a train. A Juliet cap of lace and ribbon held her bouffant finger-tip veil and she carried a nosegay of gardenias, lilies of the valley and baby's breath. She wore a gold chain with an opal tear drop, a gift from the groom, and had a birth date penny in her shoe.

Mrs. Robert Zwick was her sister's only attendant wearing a pale green gown and carrying a nosegay of carnations. Dale Felderhoff, cousin of the groom, of Muenster was best man. Robert Zwick and James Fincher were ushers and candle lighters.

Wedding music was provided by Patty Geddie, pianist, and Butch Strawn, organist. Their numbers included One Hand, One Heart, and the Wedding Song.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception in the hall adjoining the chapel. The bride's table held the three-tier wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Charlin Cochran, close friend of the bride's mother, and the crystal punch service. The groom's table was centered with a chocolate cake, held finger foods, and the silver coffee service.

Laura Murray presided at the punch bowl and Julie Johnson and Karen Renfro served the wedding cake. Mrs. Peter Wall, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Richard Schoech, a sister-in-law, served the groom's cake.

Miss Karolyn Schoech, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book registering about 100 guests. These included the bride's 84-year-old grandmother Mrs. A. H. Murry of Dallas.

For traveling to Eureka Springs, Ark., and other points of interest in Arkansas and Missouri the bride wore a silk beige and red ensemble. Both are seniors at East Texas State University where they will continue their education when the fall term opens. He is a graduate of Sacred Heart and is majoring in drafting and construction. She was graduated from Carter High School in Dallas and is majoring in elementary education.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal party, a champagne dinner at the Ramada Inn in Dallas. W. G. Jander, 84, early day Muenster resident, was back to spend a week seeing relatives and friends. He was with his niece Mrs. Charles Davidson who entertained one day, joined there by his sister Mrs. O. B. Siegmund of Gainesville. He headquartered at A-OK Motel so he could take time visiting with old friends up and down Main Street catching up on news since his visit last year.

According to law, a minimum of three persons can create a riot.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Luke had as guests June 12 a nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olsen and infant son of Ardmore, Okla., and Mr. Olsen's mother Mrs. Louise Olsen of Tulsa. Baby Andrew Darin Olsen was baptized that day by Father Eugene Luke in Sacred Heart Church. Miss Kathy and Jimmy Luke attended as godparents. Others there were the parents, the Bill Lukes and daughters Nancy and Carolyn. They were all together for a christening dinner in the Bill Luke home.

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — The Headstart program got off to a start two weeks ago at our local school. It started June 3 with 12 students. Mrs. Karen Westbrook of Gainesville is the teacher — her assistant is Mrs. Alice Shults.

Several of our local girls attended the Junior Sew for Fun classes at the local school from June 3-7. Three of the ladies attending were Pamela and Veronica Edwards and Vatoni Dill.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Duck of Pampa spent the weekend of June 7-9 with Meb and Roxie Dunn. Mrs. Duck is the former Dorothy Brown. Dorothy and brother Leslie lived with the Loyd Penrods as children and attended school at Forestburg.

Mrs. Mary Frances Blocker and daughter of College Park, Georgia, and Johnnie Sue Alexander of Jayton were recent visitors of the Woodrow and L. D. Sirmans. Mrs. Blocker is a daughter of the Woodrow Sirmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brogdon attended dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Peer of Alvord June 8. The dinner was to honor Mrs. Patsy Howell who is retiring from the Alvord post office after 22 years of service. Mrs. Howell's husband is a rural mail carrier. Might add that Archie Peer is the Alvord postmaster and is married to one of Merle Hudspeth's sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Eldridge are home on a 30-day furlough visiting their parents, Mrs. June Eldridge and Mr. and Mrs. Wassie Reynolds. Upon completion of his leave Larry will report to duty on the Island of Guam. Was told his wife will remain here for the time being. On June 11 Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge and the Reynolds and their children took in Six Flags.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Orrell attended the Homecoming at Pleasant Ridge June 9. Pleasant Ridge is Bess' ole stomping grounds. If you are wondering how Loyd ever found Bess over there in that brush — well, it seems the late Charlie Poynor tolled Loyd over in there years ago — Charlie was dating Bess' sister at the time and got Loyd a date with Bess.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan McGee and daughter of Haltom City and the Gordon Hill family of Bowie were guests of Vera McGee June 12.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Weber and Mrs. Wynona Montgomery of Greenwood were guests of Mrs. Mae DeGraffenreid June 8.

Recent visitors of the Paul

Putnams of New Harp were Mr. and Mrs. John Porch of Oklahoma City. The Putnams were in Bridgeport one day last week to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Moseley and twins.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Holzbog and family of New Harp and his sister Wanda of Denton returned home June 12 after visiting with his parents in Birdseye, Indiana.

Miss Leona Smith of Eules visited her sister Lenora Moore and spent Wednesday night with her.

Mrs. Linda Foster and children of Fort Worth were Sunday guests of the Blake Freemans.

Visiting with Mae and Bill Landers have been Mrs. Lena Carroll of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stallworth of Amarillo. The three Mmes. are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Barnett of Duncan, Okla., visited June 12 with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reynolds and his brother, the B. L. Barnetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of the Mallard Community motored to the Dewey area to visit with the Allen Taylors June 9.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Medley of Bowie visited with Jim and Nema Barnett June 9. Mrs. Medley is Jim's sister.

Mrs. Helen Freeman and Darla of Alvord and the Gordon Stradleys of Decatur were Sunday guests of the Willard Freemans.

Karen Elzey of Lake Charles, La., was a visitor of her grandmother, Mrs. Decie Elzey, for the past two weeks. Another granddaughter, Stephanie Fairbanks also of Lake Charles, arrived to visit friends and relatives on June 10. They returned home June 14. Friday the Jerry Boetlers and daughters Judy and Phyllis, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGinnis of Arlington came for the weekend — also Mrs. Susie Nations and Shane of Roanoke were visitors. On June 15 another daughter of Decie's, Mrs. Caronel Wright and daughter came from Temple for a couple of days.

Wassie and Rosemary Reynolds were in Maybanks the nights of June 13, 14 and 15. Wassie was the announcer at the rodeo.

Myrtle McMillion's cousin, E. R. Cagle, Jr., of Joliet, Ill., visited with her June 14. He is a missionary and had been in Fort Worth attending the Southern Baptist Convention. He was on his way to Duncan, Okla., where his wife and children were visiting her parents. All the Cagles returned June 16 to visit with the A. B. McMillions and Myrtle. The next a.m. they were off to Six Flags — then home by way of Duncan and a stop-over in Arkansas.

Other guests of Myrtle's were Rachel Reynolds and Della Sigman of Bowie and Kenneth Reed of Sunset.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson attended the Installation Services of the Greenwood Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star June 14. They were the outgoing worthy matron and patron.

Gary and Arlene Brewer of Wichita Falls and Terry Brewer of Weatherford, Okla., spent the weekend as visitors of their parents, the Elmo Brewers.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Greenwood and Denna and Rodney of Pilot Point visited Truman's parents the V. G. Greenwoods and other relatives June 14. Denna and Rodney remained with their grandparents for about 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakie Scott and son of Lewisville spent the weekend with her parents, the A. B. McMillions.

Mrs. Mae Martin of Ardmore visited her niece and family the Wylie Edwards June 13.

Guess the tomato season is here. Saw Dorothy Huddleston at home busy wiping, culling and packing them. Guess Jack Carter will have Janice, Jeffery and Vesta busy too.

The mercy bench was very well occupied Friday. Lee Kuykendall, Robert Ensey, Ben Perryman, Tom English and Mark Landers were the sitters. Audie Knox, Jim Landers, Bill Forrester and Herschel Knox were standing around eyeing the bench. First time I've spied Tom English there.

Mrs. Dawna Vann of Montague entered a Dallas Hospital June 16 to undergo further surgery on her eye. Dawna was hit in the eye with a rusty nail thrown by a lawn mower. She had this second surgery June 17 and came through fine. If all goes well, she should be there five days.

Estelle Kelley, Prairie Point, attended the birthday dinner and party for her granddaughter Sunday. Miss Kelley has reached the age of one and resides in Gainesville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Kelley.

The Harold Prathers of Sunray started construction of their new home at Prairie Point. They purchased a one acre track of land from T. J. Amis. Mrs. Prather is the former Susie Sutton.

Some folks call this column Myrt's "Who is who" column. However, they say they like it because they learn how folks are related and why certain folks visit each other, etc. Being a "foreigner" myself to this area, it helps me to know how folks are "hooked up" and better know them.

Junior Baseball

Growing continues the lead in the minor league of the local baseball program, but it has no cinch for the trophy. Molly Wimmer and Louis Gieb Are Married at Mass

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gieb are at home in Lindsay since returning from their wedding trip. They were married in Sacred Heart Church Saturday, June 1. Mrs. Gieb is the former Miss Molly Wimmer.

Father Placidus Eckart celebrated the nuptial Mass and heard the vows in a double ring ceremony. Baskets of spring flowers decorated the altar space.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wimmer of Muenster, the bride is a graduate of Muenster High School and is attending Cooke County College as a nursing student. She is employed at Muenster Hospital.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gieb of Lindsay, the groom graduated from Lindsay High, served two years in the Army, is attending CCC, and is employed by L&M Oil Co.

Presented by her father for marriage, the bride wore a gown of white dacron polyester and Chantilly lace. The empire bodice was designed with a pinafore effect, sheer lace yoke, high lace neckline and sheer lace shepardess sleeves. A scalloped lace hemline ruffled flounce swept back into a semi-cathedral train. A Juliet cap of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies, pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Adding sentiment, she wore the pearls her mother had worn on her wedding day 27 years ago. And she had a birthdate penny in her shoe.

Miss Candie Wimmer was her sister's maid of honor. Misses Patsy Arendt and Monica Gieb sister of the groom were bridesmaids.

Their gowns of crystalline organza over peau de soie in apple green, hot pink and lemon yellow respectively had empire bodices with pinafore effect and long sleeves. They wore picture hats trimmed to match their dresses. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of white daisies, tinted carneations and baby's breath. Joe (Skipper) Bezner was best man. Groomsmen were Steve Zimmerer and Terry Wimmer, brother of the bride. David Wimmer, another brother, and Gene Gieb, uncle of the groom, were ushers. Greg Gieb, a cousin, was acolyte.

Barbie and Brenda Wimmer, twin sisters of the bride, and Margie and Jeanette Gieb, sisters of the groom, presented the offertory gifts. David Wimmer, bride's brother, was lector.

Anthony Luke, organist, accompanied Miss Bettye Dodds, vocalist. Her numbers included Peace, Joy and Happiness, A Time for Us; Our Father; and Let It Be. The latter when the bride presented a floral tribute at the Blessed Virgin's altar.

On entering the church, the bride handed a pink rose to her mother and on leaving handed a duplicate to her husband's mother.

Wedding reception was held in Muenster KC Hall where Brenda and Barbie Wimmer registered guests at a lace-covered table that held the memory candle, bride's portrait and a pink rose.

Guests helped themselves to finger food from a buffet table centered with a silver epergne holding pink carnations, daisy mums and greenery flanked by yellow tapers. Mrs. Jerry Walterscheid cut the wedding cake and Miss Gloria Stoffels and Mrs. Janell Escobedo, sister of the bride, served it. A dance followed.

Guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Wimmer and from a distance Robin Wimmer, the Byron Blacks, Chris Cagles, Paul Lukes and Barbara Pope, all of Dallas, Mrs. C. J. Hellman of Hurst, the Tom Berends and Sister Mary Helena of Wichita Falls, the Ben Tubbs and Andy Arendts Jr. of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eigenbrodt of Fon-du-lac, Wis. Others were from Denton, Saint Jo, Gainesville, Whitesboro, Callisburg, Lindsay and Muenster.

Sharing hostess duties were Mmes. Willie Fisher, Mike Kleiss, Donny Fisher, Jerry Hughes and Miss Lillian Fisher. They presented a baby swing as their hostess gift. The honoree displayed a shower of gifts from some 30 guests.

Pickup foods, decorated cake squares and punch were served.

The four left from DFW Airport on June 4 and were guests of Mrs. Becker's son and family, the Vincent Beckers. Together they went sight-seeing through the area, included the home and tomb of George Washington, and the national cemetery and military park at Gettysburg.

After one week the Misses Sicking flew home and Mmes. Becker and Hoening flew to Fort Wayne where they were guests of the Andy Mudracks and George Hartmans.

"Where does my 'Electric Bill Dollar' go?"

When you pay your Texas Power & Light electric service bill, we hope you think of the many comforts, conveniences and pleasures electricity helps make possible. But, we're frequently asked—and maybe you've been wondering—"Where does my 'electric bill dollar' go?" Let's take a look at the 1973 dollar. Out of every dollar received from every customer last year, 21¢ was used to pay for the fuels needed to generate electric power... natural gas, coal and oil. In 1973, the expenses of running generating plants, keeping plants, lines, trucks and other facilities and equipment in good operating condition, paying the salaries of employees, etc., required 20¢ of each "electric bill dollar". Another 20¢ of each dollar was needed for federal, state and local taxes. In many of the cities and towns it serves, TP&L is the largest single taxpayer. Funds to pay interest on the Company's indebtedness and for dividends on preferred and common stock accounted for an additional 22¢ of the 1973 "electric bill dollar". The remaining 17¢ of the dollar, representing funds set aside for depreciation costs and stockholder earnings not paid out in dividends, was used by the Company for construction of new generating plants, lines and other facilities. Just as you must budget your income and make adjustments because of rising costs and changing conditions, so must Texas Power & Light. We're tightening our belts... looking for ways to produce and supply electricity more efficiently and more economically, while continuing to provide the dependable service you expect for your "electric bill dollar".

Carla Schilling Allen Truebenbach Say Vows at Mass
 Miss Carla Schilling and Allen Truebenbach who were married June 8 and who honeymooned in San Antonio are back in Muenster to make their home.

Their nuptial Mass was celebrated in Sacred Heart Church, 5 p.m. by Father Stephen Eckart who also heard the vows in a double ring ceremony.
 Parents of the couple are Carl Schilling and the late Mrs. Schilling and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Truebenbach.
 Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon organza and lace, the empire bodice featuring a ruffled pinafore effect, high neckline and deep cuffed bishop sleeves. The skirt was finished with lace motifs and a sheer ruffle and swept back into a semi-cathedral train. A lace headpiece held her elbow-length veil and her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white daisies, wheat, yurro and baby's breath. She borrowed a gold cross and chain from her aunt and godmother Mrs. Ed Endres and had a birthdate penny in her shoe.
 Miss Ann Bartush was maid of honor. A cousin Mrs. Brian Bezner of Denton was bride's matron. Miss Janet Swirczynski and Miss Karen Schilling, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.
 They wore white floral nylon organza gowns, Misses Bartush and Swirczynski's over yellow taffeta, the other two over green taffeta. Designed with empire bodices, puffed sleeves and ruffled necklines, the gowns ended with a ruffled hemline flounce. They wore white picture hats with taffeta trim to match their dresses, and carried clusters of gold daisies and baby's breath.
 Groom's attendants were his brother Andy Truebenbach Jr., best man; Melvin Schilling, brother of the bride, Gene Voth and Herbie Fette Jr., groomsmen.
 Mass servers were Dale Schilling, brother of the bride, Bert Miller, Monte Endres and Kirk Mollenkopf, her cousin, and Giles Truebenbach, nephew of the groom.
 Miss Mary Lou Kralicke was organist and joined Mrs. Chris Cagle and Miss Yvonne Gehrig in vocal numbers. These included Wedding Song, Let It Be Me, Into Your Hands, and Peace, Joy and Happiness.
 The bride's grandmother Mrs. Albert Henscheid handed her a floral tribute of carnations to place on the Blessed Virgin's altar after Mass.
 Wedding reception for about 200 relatives and friends was held in the VFW Hall where Mrs. Sam Bezner of Gainesville and Miss Cheryl Mollenkopf registered guests.
 For their wedding trip the bride wore a three-piece pink and white checked ensemble. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is employed at Jr. Elite. The groom, also a graduate of Sacred Heart High, is employed at Twin Pine Farms.

 The rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents was held at The Center for 25 guests.

A new idea for raising money — build a grand stand in front of our dance halls, have a teen dance every Saturday night and sell tickets to spectators to watch the fight. People who think Muenster is a sleepy town should have been here last Saturday night. The seven police cars added to the excitement and as usual the law won. It did make a busy night for the Gainesville hospital where the visiting team received treatment.

The U. S. Consumer Products Safety Commission decided not to ban fireworks until after July 4th. They state the manufacturers and traders would have lost too much money because of their inventories, had the ban gone into effect before the 4th.

Burns, eye injury and fires were the reasons given to ban the fireworks but now its OK to get injured or start a fire through the 4th. Those same people make us fasten seat belts before we can start our cars.

In a hotel in Japan there is a solid gold bathtub which weighs 313 pounds and at today's price of gold is worth $827,640. It's not for sale because it's rented out at $2.00 per minute — bathing in it is believed to prolong life.

Why can't life's problems hit us when we're 18, and we know everything.

Senior Baseball

With only three more games to go, the Center holds a slim lead in the senior league of the local baseball loop. After winning the first four, it was dumped by Muenster Mill and tied by Endres.

The result is that Mill steps forward as a contender for the title. It now has a record of 4-2-0 whereas Center has 4-1-1. Co-op is in third spot with 3-3-0 and luckless Endres after breaking the losing streak still doesn't have a win, and its record is 0-5-1.

In games of the past two weeks the scores were Center 9, Co-op 2; Mill 9, Endres 1; Co-op 4, Endres 1; Mill 7, Center 5; Mill 8, Co-op 2; Center 7, Endres 7.

C of C Considers Brochure of City

Members of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce at their regular luncheon meeting Tuesday considered the publication of a brochure for the promotion of this town.

They heard the representative of a printing firm describe styles and sizes of brochures in single or multi-color, and the prices relative to each.

Outcome of the meeting was the appointment of a committee headed by Henry Weinzapfel to study all details relative to the proposal, particularly ways and means to finance it.

The brochure is regarded as the best way to present a concise and interesting story of Muenster to anyone who may be concerned.
