

With the traditional Labor Day opening of the presidential election campaign, it's a good idea to give thought on what we are voting for. Is it a choice of personalities, the rather colorful Georgia peanut farmer or the matter of fact current president of our country?

There is a tendency among many to decide on a popularity basis — to simply pick the man one likes better and depend on him to do a good job. But we prefer to think that the nation's choice will be the person who has identified himself with the better set of ideas, whose platform calls for sound government and stout security along with a reduction of expense, bureaucratic meddling and crime.

A few decades ago a campaign platform most likely would have featured planks like the following. First of all a belief in America... past, present and future.

A belief in strong local government, states rights, individual responsibility and opportunity rather than the growing tendency to have government take care of us.

A belief in man's unfettered right to work.

A belief that strong national defense is the best way to avoid war and promote peace.

A belief that helping people of other nations defend their freedom is a way to preserve and enhance American freedom; that when people anywhere lose their freedom our own becomes less secure.

Americans of former years generally believe that a president living up to those principles would do a good job for the country. And it might be added that, according to current thinking, those principles would be regarded as far more conservative than liberal... also that it is a lot closer to this year's Republican platform than the Democratic.

The GOP platform reflects the fact that Ronald Reagan was more conservative than Gerald Ford. His thinking influenced the platform writers and it also left a strong impression on a great number of people. Those factors combined with Reagan's promise that he will be around to help the president where possible and remind him when necessary would seem to nudge the president over a bit farther to the right than he was before.

An important statement that can be supported enthusiastically by all Republicans as well as lots of Democrats and Independents is the one pertaining to spending. "The Democrat platform proposes over 60 new or expanded programs and the creation or expansion of some 22 Washington agencies, offices or bureaus," charges the GOP... then adds that the cost would be about $200 billion a year, a 50 per cent increase of the present tax load.

In contrast the Republican platform points out that money spent by government has to be taken from taxpayers... that government should be obligated to spend wisely and leave more money in the taxpayers' pockets.

As regards foreign policy, it was pleasing that GOP went along with Reagan supporters in referring to Solzhenitsyn as a "great beacon of human courage and morality" for his compelling message that we must "face the world with no illusions about the nature of tyranny." The significant point is the slap at Kissinger who snubbed Solzhenitsyn and has been over-cooperative with the Soviets in their detente policy. It amounts to a firmer national policy than (Continued on Page 12)

An office for the coming drive has been opened in the Community Center Building of Gainesville with Dan Moore as director and Essie McWilliams and Betty Butolph as office workers. They are working at preparing materials for the drive which will be kicked off on September 28.

Organizations named to receive support from United Way are Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, 4-H and FFA, Gainesville Boys Club, Muenster Youth Program, Southwestern Diabetic foundation, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Texas Rehabilitation Hospital and Council on Alcoholism. The amount to be awarded to each will be determined later.

"The biggest trouble with political promises is that they go in one year and out the other."

Hornets are Set For Hot Contest With Valley View

The Hornets game will be different this week, and that's a promise from the players to Coach Don Jones. Humbled by a 7-0 loss to Bridgeport they have responded to this week's practice with inspiring enthusiasm.

Their aim is to work out the kinks that ended in a half dozen turnovers, in addition putting out the extra effort to make more yardage for themselves and allow less to the opponent.

In that the team has had two fine days. According to Coach Jones they look sharper than before. If operating that way they could have taken the previous game.

One thing's for sure. They will take nothing for granted even though the odds are leaning slightly in Muenster's favor. In their 6-6 tie with Prosper the Eagles have shown that they are entitled to respect. Besides history shows that Valley View traditionally is up for the Hornets. It has been tough in all of the many contests of the past.

Physically as well as mentally the Muenster fellows are ready. Coach Jones says there are no injuries from last week.

The contest is booked for 8 p.m. on the Valley View field.

Entries Invited for PP&K Contest

With only a week remaining until the day of competition, kids entering this year's Punt, Pass and Kick contest are urged to come and sign up as soon as possible.

The co-sponsors, Endres Motor Co and Muenster Jaycees, announce this week that the action is booked for Saturday, the 18th, which is about two weeks earlier than previous years.

Eligible ages are 8-13 and the contest will be held in six age groups. Each of those groups will have trophies for the first three places and winners will advance to the next level of competition, which can continue through local, zone, district, area and division to the national contest.

Contestants, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register at Endres Motor Co., and receive free PP&K tips books by pros telling how to prepare for PP&K.

Tigers Tamed 16-6 by Era

Mistakes beat the Sacred Heart Tigers in their season opening game Friday. The visiting Era Hornets were victors by a score of 16-6 mostly because of a blocked punt and a 4-1 advantage in the count of exchanges. Another factor was a big play for 53 yards which paid off as a touchdown four plays later.

Starting the game Era made a first down and had to kick on the second series, then SH made two first downs and kicked to end the next series.

On the next series the Hornets were stymied but sprung a surprise with a fake punt that gained 28, then got 15 free steps on a penalty. They were within 20 yards of a score but the next series included a five yard penalty plus a loss of 13 on a quarterback sack by Joe Sicking. Net loss of the series after the tough Tiger defense was 15.

From that point, the 35, Tiger offense made three first downs but could not keep going. Ending the fourth series they had to give up possession on Era's 27.

JCs Sponsor Clinic For PP&K Entries

Boys and girls entering the Punt, Pass and Kick contest have an opportunity to improve their skills Saturday morning in a special clinic sponsored by Muenster Jaycees. The instructions will start at 9 a.m. at the Public School.

All the youngsters are encouraged to come and get tips on touching up their technique with confidence that doing it right and avoiding mistakes will help their scores.

Council Agrees on Zoning Ordinance For Mobile Homes

A zoning ordinance relative to mobile homes was agreed to by the city council Tuesday night and now awaits preparation of the document and passage at a later meeting.

The new regulation will require consent of surrounding residents before a mobile home can be installed at a location. However the requirement is not retroactive. A home already situated will be allowed to remain, except expansion and replacements will not be allowed.

In other business the council discussed repair or replacement of the garbage truck. If replacement is decided the old truck will be kept for a standby. And because of that expense the council favors repairing rather than replacing the police car.

Also a new pump and motor was approved for the city's number 5 water well.

Formal recognition and congratulation was extended to Steve Moser for his 29 years of service as a local weather observer, reporter and recorder. He will receive a special award from National Weather Service at next week's Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Steelman Brings Senate Campaign To Muenster Area

U.S. Rep. Alan Steelman of Dallas, candidate for U.S. Senate brings his person-to-person campaign to town this week.

The 34-year-old GOP Congressman is waging a vigorous "sweat and shoe leather" campaign in his attempt to unseat incumbent Lloyd Bentsen who he feels has lost touch with the everyday Texan.

Steelman wants to meet the average Texas voter and is walking door-to-door in as many communities as possible before the November general election.

"I think it's time we put some old-time religion back into campaigning," Steelman said. "We've seen candidates spend too much time before TV cameras and not enough with the voters. People want to meet you, shake your hand and learn where you stand, on the issues."

"When Texans elected Lloyd Bentsen, they expected him to represent their interests in the Senate. Instead, they got a man, consumed by Presidential ambition, who spent much of his first term running for President."

"During the time Bentsen ran for President," continued Steelman, "he missed votes on forced busing, supported common situs picketing, public employee's right to strike and the bailout of New York City."

In his two terms in Congress, Steelman has been named "Watchdog of the Treasury" by the National Associated Businessmen for his votes to curb federal spending and has been named to the "Golden Age Hall of Fame" for votes to aid older Americans.

Texas Monthly magazine recently named Steelman "one of the six best" of the Texas delegation to Washington, pointing out that "he has won the respect and admiration of his colleagues in both parties and has 'shown a high degree of courage in his legislative work.'"

Time magazine as one of the "200 Faces for the Future."

A very welcome addition to the area's moisture was Wednesday night's soaker measuring 1.20 inch on Steve Moser's gauge.

Along with earlier rains it brings the month's present total to 2.84 inches and the year's total to 26.59 inches.

Improved Tigers Ready for Battle With Alvord High

Sacred Heart Tigers, painfully conscious of their 16-6 loss to Era last week, are determined to change the situation in their scuffle with Alvord here Friday night. This time they intend to put it together, especially to the extent of avoiding costly exchanges, like those on which they wasted four good scoring opportunities.

Coach Ed Stock and the boys have been working hard this week to overcome their problems and are also making a few changes to improve their offense. Bob Grewing, moved from the line to fullback, is intended to add running power, and Joe Sicking, with good speed and good hands, is intended as a strong asset at split end. In reorganizing the line Danny Stock and Bernie Fette are moved to left tackle and guard.

Otherwise the program has been to work on the mistakes and get more polish in the operation.

Physically the Tigers have two problems. Joe Hoedebeck will be out with an ankle injury and Tim Sicking will be present but handicapped. All the others are in good condition, mentally and physically.

Regarding the opposition Coach Stock expects this game to be about as tough as last week. The Bulldogs started their season with an 8-6 loss to Masonic Home, and they have good size, possibly larger than the Tigers.

The game will be on Sacred Heart field starting at 8 o'clock.

Swim Pool Income Reported at $3,119

Muenster swimming pool's operation this summer was uncomfortably close to operating in the red. A report from Park Manager Dan Hamric to the city council shows that it took in $3,119.43 and paid out $3,081.86 for a balance of $37.57.

Red ink was avoided only through the youth program sponsored by the Texoma Regional Planning Commission, which provided the pay for two of the pool's workers.

1.20 Inch Rain

A very welcome addition to the area's moisture was Wednesday night's soaker measuring 1.20 inch on Steve Moser's gauge.

Along with earlier rains it brings the month's present total to 2.84 inches and the year's total to 26.59 inches.

"Small talk means if there's nothing to be said it still gets said."

Work Authorized at Extension of FM 373

Good news relative to extension of pavement on FM 373 south to the Era-Rosston road is reported in a statement dated September 3 from the Wichita Falls office of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

It reveals that the department is planning to proceed with development of proposed highway improvements on FM 373, the project to begin at FM 922 and follow an existing road north for 5.2 miles and end at FM 1630.

Route and design of the proposed development has been approved by the department, and work will begin on the next phase of necessary engineering.

The proposed construction will consist of grading, structures, base and surfacing twenty feet (20') wide. The right of way required for the construction will be a minimum of 100 feet. In some cases, additional right of way may be required for drainage outfall channels. There will be no displacement of people as a result of these improvements.

Maps, drawings showing geometric design, environmental studies and other available data concerning the development of this project may be inspected and copied at the Office of Charlie Hildebrand, Resident Engineer, IH 35 North, Gainesville, Texas during weekday office hours.

Plans Begin for MHS Homecoming

Homecoming plans for Muenster High School are developing nicely, according to chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Endres. Coinciding with the Hornets football game with Chico on September 24, the event will honor 20 and 10 year graduates and homecoming Queens of 1956 and 1966. Will Matthews and the Visions will play for the Homecoming dance in the Community Center following the game.

His ship also visited several Eastern Pacific ports during the cruise.

After a 5-day visit at home, Luke has returned to Annapolis for further instruction leading toward his baccalaureate and commissioning as an officer in the U.S. Navy.

Hornets Gored 7-0 by Bulls

Visions of a great season were dimmed for the MHS Hornets Friday night in a 7-0 loss to the Bridgeport Bulls. The potential they had counted on just failed to pay off, and instead everything seemed to go wrong.

A big part of their problem was a scrappy team of opponents. Though smaller, the Bulls played big, giving the Hornets a hard time both offensively and defensively. On total gains the teams were about even with the Bulls leading 161 yards to 155, but the sad news was in turnovers. Muenster lost possession on three interceptions and three fumbles whereas Bridgeport lost one of each.

To begin, the Hornets seemed to do all right. After forcing a kick on the first series they went from midfield to the 25 on short gains and a penalty, and then fumbled. Following another good defensive series they got a break on Bridgeport's short kick and had a set up on the 28. An interference ruling advanced them to the 20, but the next four tries netted a loss of 6.

The next play Bridgeport took command, as Roberts, the big gainer of the night, stormed 39 yards before he was stopped. A few small gains, a penalty and a gain of 11 by Roberts gave the Bulls a first down on the 7.

Hornet defense was adequate. Four tries gained only 2 yards. However, MHS also bogged down and had to kick ending its first series. The kick was short and another misfortune was a Hornet tackle after a fair catch was signaled. So Bridgeport got 15 free yards, and another try from the 14.

First play was a pass to the 1, but nullified by an off-side penalty to the 19. Three more got to the 9 and the last chance effort was a pass with shoestring catch for the one and only touchdown. A kick for extra point was good.

Tidbits

When a man comes home late at night, his wife first asks him where he's been and then she tells him where to go. People go on vacation to forget things and when they open their bags they usually find out they've succeeded. And since statistics prove that every fifth child born these days is Chinese, the bride made her husband promise that they would only have four children.

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

Have about decided to do a bit more chattering about the weather for Dewey had about 9/10 of an inch from Aug. 24th thru the 27th. Not that it don't compare too well with the amounts that fell in the towns around us. Was beginning to think "Someone up there didn't like us!". But August 31st we got 1-2/10 inches. Could use more, but sure not complaining.

Mrs. Betty Lou Alt and daughter Eden of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. Joe Denham of Bowie toured Forestburg and visited with the Perryman Denhams, Saturday Aug. 21. Mrs. Alt is a long time friend of the Denham clan — being a chum of Perryman's sister Ina Mae. They were on their way to Pueblo, Colorado, and then Norfolk, Va., where her husband Bill is now stationed.

Mabel and Bobby Covington and son Robby returned home August 22 from a trip to Waynesville, North Carolina, where they visited with Mabel's parents, The John C. Nolands, Sr. They also visited in Hillsboro, Georgia, with her sister and husband, The Edward Devours. They had a most enjoyable trip.

The late J. C. and Fannie Harris family reunion was held August 22 at the Forestburg Community Center. Only 53 people were present for dinner and visiting. Only two of their children are alive — Dan of Saint Jo and Frank of Duncan, Okla.

Rev. Jim Richardson of Dallas fulfilled the pulpit Sunday for Rev. Rick Ricker in the Forestburg United Methodist Church. Later he had dinner with the Ted Jacksons.

The Bennett Reynolds had dinner August 22 at Rohmer's in Muenster with his brother Jerry and wife. Later Jerry and Pearl went to Okla. and Betty and Bennett went to see Bess Orrell at Hillcrest Manor.

Might add that after I started this column about the weather — we got from 3/4 inch to an inch of rain on Tuesday, August 24 at 2 a.m.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

There's considerable talk nowadays about a "checkless, cashless society," and there may be something to it. Electronic banking is a reality and dramatically will change the banking and savings habits of millions of Americans. Ultimately, it will revolutionize the concept of money itself, some bankers believe.

Magnetically encoded plastic cards, similar to BankAmericard and Master Charge, will be used — are being used — to make deposits, withdraw cash, transfer money from different accounts and borrow money without ever writing a check or stepping foot inside a bank office.

Some experts believe that by 1983, electronic banking will eliminate 7 billion of the checks that might otherwise be written, and by that time electronic terminals will be handling 11 billion transactions a year that otherwise would have been settled in cash.

A Sinking Thought
A congressional proposal to create a central federal energy bank is like "rearranging furniture on the deck of the Titanic," Federal Energy Administrator Frank Zarb told a recent Senate Interior Committee hearing. He said FEA data "tells us we are in deep trouble" and Congress and the Administration should be directing attention to meeting the problems rather than colating information.

Preparing meals with a pressure cooker cuts cooking time by about two-thirds and therefore cuts two-thirds of the fuel cost. Pressure cookers are ideal for pot roasts and other cuts of meat normally done in liquid.

Ed Clers Return From Vacation in Washington State

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cler have returned after almost a month vacationing with a son, Gary and family and sightseeing in Washington.

They left here on August 11 and returned on September 3, spending two weeks in the Seattle area. They also visited friends remembered from previous vacations there and with the Scullys, relatives of their daughter-in-law, Mary.

Highlights included hiking, mountain climbing, taking the Skaget Tour, sponsored by the Seattle Power Company and seeing their power plants and dams, including Diablo and Ross Dam and the spectacular rock gardens beyond the older dam.

They enjoyed picking wild blueberries in the mountains and saw the North-western Trek, an animal park in Tacoma, Washington, where only native animals are harbored. They watched logging operations and had the rather frightening experience of losing a rear pick-up wheel at night on a slightly traveled mountain road and having to walk 5 1/2 miles down the mountain knowing that bears were sighted near-by the week before. In that group were two men, three women and five children.

In Spokane, Washington, the Clers visited a day and two nights with the Lehnertz Brothers and enjoyed their wonderful hospitality. Enroute Mr. and Mrs. Cler went sightseeing in New Mexico and Arizona, where they saw the Meteor Crater, in Utah, stopped at Zion National Park and Bright's Canyon and saw the Ice Caves in Shoshone, Idaho.

Returning, they drove through Montana and Wyoming for more sightseeing and arrived home in time for the football game Friday night.

Two Way Help for Needy Provided By Donated Items

Every unwanted or damaged piece of furniture or out-of-style suit, dress or broken appliance offers an opportunity for a homeless or handicapped man to redirect his life.

These unused items that collect in your garage can supply training, food, lodging, medical care and counseling for needy men enrolled in the Salvation Army Men's Social Service Center serving this area.

Discards from individuals and businesses are the sole support of this worthwhile rehabilitation program.

"The men living and working at the center refurbish the items and often learn a useful trade in the process," explained Captain Don Watts, director of the center in Fort Worth.

"While preparing the goods for distribution to those who can't afford new clothing, furniture, toys and appliances, the men also prepare themselves for productive lives when they return to work in their communities," he said. The goods are sold at low prices through Salvation Army Thrift stores.

The goods that are contributed are tax deductible and donors are furnished with a receipt.

Donations in Muenster will be picked up by the Salvation Army truck on Thursday, Sept. 16. Call 759-4124 the day before the truck is to arrive.

In Spite of Cost Use of Electricity Continues Rising

Despite efforts by Texas Power & Light Company to promote energy conservation, TP&L customers — rather than suffer through a sweltering summer — are using more electricity than ever, said Bill Bedrick, manager.

With many potentially-hot days of summer remaining, TP&L customers have already required an all-time record 4,283,000 kilowatts. In 1975 TP&L customers' peak electric requirement was 4,121,000 kilowatts.

"Some of our customers may believe the only reason TP&L is investing huge sums of money in the construction of new power plants is to serve new customers which move into the Company's 51-county service area," he said. "But that's simply not the case."

If TP&L acquired no new customers at all, Bedrick said, "we would still have to build new lignite — or nuclear-fueled plants for two major reasons: To replace existing gas plants as ordered by the Texas Railroad Commission and also to provide adequate electric power for the increasing needs of our present customers."

Bedrick said future growth is one of the reasons TP&L must construct new and larger generating plants, "but it is not the only reason. The increased usage by the majority of our present customers — not our future ones — is a major factor behind TP&L's new power plant construction. It is our responsibility to provide these customers with enough electricity to meet their demands. And their demands are rising," Bedrick stressed. Because of the sharp rise in electric usage and the dramatic jump in electric rates necessitated by skyrocketing fuel and construction costs, "customer electric bills this summer have been higher — much higher, in some cases — than in years past," Bedrick explained.

TP&L is not ripping-off the public," Bedrick emphasized. "Every management decision of the Company is made with the interests of all its customers in mind. The past history of TP&L clearly shows that it has always kept electricity prices as low as possible, and the Company is still trying to do just that. The reason consumer electricity charges have risen — and will continue to go up in the foreseeable future — is because our costs to produce and furnish electricity have increased tremendously."

This year, for example, Bedrick said TP&L will spend a record $300 million for new construction, and during the next five years, the Company's construction expenditures will amount to $1.5 billion.

"That's almost as much total money as TP&L has spent since it was organized in 1912," Bedrick said.

Kindergarten

Curt Bayer's 6th birthday was observed on Wednesday, September 1 when his mother, Mrs. Charles Bayer brought refreshments of punch and cupcakes decorated with ballerinas for the little girls and helmets and footballs for the little boys. Treats were balloons and ratchets (candy filled noise makers). Group pictures were made and guests were Curt's grandmother Mrs. Ray Swirczynski and his friend Jeffrey Hellman, son of the Dolphy Joe Hellmans.

First Grade

MPS first graders have started a new science shelf this year. Jamie Walterscheid brought a tiny land turtle that she caught. Connie Kennedy brought a brown tree lizard and Darla Bindel brought a begonia to care for in the room. The class enjoyed learning about the animals and plants and helped to write a story about them.

Sixth Grade

In appreciation for the book covers supplied by the Cooke County Electric Co-op, the sixth graders wrote notes of thanks to Mike Sloan, Co-op manager, expressing gratitude for this service.

NOTE to 6th Grade Parents: If your child insists that he or she must watch television this coming week, please believe them. It will be a portion of their English assignment.

Safety Markers

New red, white and blue flags and ropes were donated to the student council by Hamric's for use in marking the playground area and closing off one block of the street during school hours.

Classroom Teachers Organization

Prue Selby, president of the Muenster Classroom Teachers Organization, conducted the August business meeting in the TP&L building when Earl Fisher spoke on the benefits of the Workmen's Compensation Program that becomes effective this year. A patio supper will be held for school board members. The committee appointed to complete plans includes Carol Dyer, Martha Koesler, Patsy Sloan and Barbara Robinson.

Wants and Demands

"Too often in recent years we've confused human need with human want. Human needs can be fulfilled — and government has a positive role in trying to meet them. But human wants are insatiable and any government, no matter how well intentioned, that tries to keep up with them — or promises to fulfill them — is doomed to failure and financial collapse. —Earl Butz

Muenster Native Featured in Story On Modern Barbers

Truman Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wolf was featured in last Sunday's Morning News as a successful barber rolling with the trend. With 15 years of experience, he recalled when a shave and haircut cost $1.25, barber shops were utilitarian, customers were male and conversation was about hunting, football and other "manly" things. Haircuts were all alike. But then came the fiat top, greasy kid stuff, long hair, hair spray, the razor cut and wash and wear hair. And barbers who did well are those who were willing to change. Wolf said he got to go through every change in the barber business there has been through the last 10 years, and he feels fortunate in that. Instead of the old standard haircut, barbers now are styling hair for men, women and children at prices starting about $4 and going as high as $15. Wolf thinks that entertainers and sports figures have been strong influences. The Beatles started long hair, and an article on baseball players with curly hair sent Dallas men to the barbers for permanents. Also the reason for so many hair styles is that people don't want to look the same every day, nor like each other. With more women coming to barber shops, Wolf believes that barber and beauty shops are drawing closer together, but a merger is not in sight soon. Bake Sale MHS

A Bake Sale, sponsored by the Speech and Drama Club of MHS, will be held on Saturday, September 6 at Fisher's Market beginning at 9 a.m. Proceeds will fund the literary events of UIL, especially the one-act play. Two Ring Ceremony Unites Laneta Reid, Ernest Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Joseph Martin have returned from a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast and are at home five miles south of Muenster.

The bride is the former Laneta Mae Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavonne Reid of North Highway 373. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin of East Highway 82.

They were married in a nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony on Saturday, August 21 at 5 p.m. officiated by Father Stephen Eckart in Sacred Heart Church. Setting for the vows was an archway of candles and altar bouquets of white gladioli.

For her wedding, the bride chose a lovely rose-point lace gown, designed with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline, sheer lace sleeves coming to a traditional point over the hand, accented by a bouffant multi-tiered rose-point lace skirt. The skirt rounded into a cathedral length-train. A lace cap embroidered with pearls held her two tiered, full length veil of illusion. The shoulder tier and lower edge were banded with matching rose-point lace.

She wore a pearl necklace, matching pearl earrings and a pearl bracelet. The bride had a traditional six-pence in her shoe and she wore her mother's original wedding band. "Something old and borrowed" were her mother's wedding ring; "something new" was her wedding gown; "something blue" was the blue garter.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of rainbow — colored French carnations with English ivy and baby's breath.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Attendants

Bridal attendants were maid of honor Alisha Mechal Reid, sister of the bride, of Muenster, wearing orchid, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Roxie Russell, bride's sister in blue, Estelle Martin groom's sister in green, Pat Sconce, bride's cousin of Thackerville, Okla., in yellow. The flower girl was Christie Sconce, bride's cousin of Thackerville in pink.

Their formal gowns were identically designed of lace over peau-de-soie, with a line skirt, empire bodice, boat neckline and tiny, self-covered buttons. They wore matching hats with self colored ribbons and each wore a pearl choker, a gift from the bride. Each carried three long-stemmed carnations tied with matching streamers.

The flower girl wore a dress of similar design of pink eyelet lace over pink knit with a pink ribbon in her hair. She wore a gold cross and chain, also a gift from the bride. Her flower was one long stemmed pink carnation and baby's breath tied with pink ribbon which she presented to the bride as a floral offering at the Blessed Virgin's altar when the soloist sang: "Mother, At Thy Feet We're Kneeling".

Douglas Yosten, a friend of the groom was best man and groomsmen were Milton Knauf, groom's cousin, Rusty Reid and Doug Martin, brothers of the couple. Russell Abbot of Myra, a family friend, was ring bearer. All men in the wedding party wore black pants, white tux and ruffled shirts and boutonnieres matching the attendant they escorted.

Ushers were Philip Russell, bride's brother-in-law and Kevin Pels, groom's cousin.

Wedding music was given by Anthony Luke, organist and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid and Wendell Black, soloists.

Organ music preceding Mass included: Theme from Romeo and Juliet and Theme from Love Story. As guests assembled, Wendell Black sang, Colour My World, If, Time In A Bottle, We've Only Just Begun, and The Twelfth of Never.

As the bridal party entered, the organ solo was Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring. Mrs. Walterscheid's songs were One Hand, One Heart, at Offertory, Let It Be Me at Communion and Mother At Thy Feet. The recessional was an organ solo - Trumpet Tune by Purcell.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a peach formal of knit gabardine with a full length flocked nylon coat with a corsage of peach carnations. The groom's mother wore an emerald green formal with a matching net and lace jacket and a corsage of pale green carnations. The dresses for the bride's mother, the maid of honor and two bridesmaids were created by Mrs. Werner Yosten. The flower girl's and other bridesmaid's dresses were created by Mrs. Thurman Reid.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Barney Reid of Denton had a cream carnation corsage and the groom's godmother, Ms. Irene Martin of Dallas had a blue carnation corsage. Flowers for all members of the wedding party were placed or pinned by Phyllis Abbot of Myra.

Reception

A reception followed in Sacred Heart Community Center attended by 180 guests. At the guest book were Leila Grant, Karla Vogel and Rose Sicking. The registration table held a floor length orchid cloth covered with a net tablecloth scattered with tiny orchid bows and made by Mrs. Joe Knauf. Also displayed on the guest registry were a picture of the couple and an oil portrait of the bride.

Guest tables were beautifully decorated with tissue flowers in shades of the bridesmaids' dresses, and matching candles.

The bride's table held the three-tiered wedding cake which stood over an orchid fountain and was decorated with orchid flowers, love birds, wedding bells and a bride and groom figurine. Tissue flowers tied with purple rope draped the table and English Ivy trailed along the center of the table to the cake. The tissue flowers decorating the reception rooms were all handmade by the bride's parents.

After dinner, guests danced to music by the groom's brother and friends, Doug Martin and the Rustlers. The groom also accompanied the band in two selections on his drums.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast the bride was wearing a soft blue voile over batiste casual dress with pearl accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Muenster High School and is employed at Tuggle Motor Company. The groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High, attended Cooke County College and is employed at National Building Center.

Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark of Gainesville, Calvin Clark of Greenville, Ms. Irene Martin of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin of Dallas, Mrs. Loys Fellers and Mrs. Danny Fellers of Lewisville, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Higgins of Dallas, Herman Martin of Lindsay and friends from Nebraska, Fort Worth, Dallas, Denton, Gainesville and Muenster.

The rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening at Rohmer's hosted by the groom's parents and attended by the bridal party, parents and Father Stephen. Gifts were presented to the attendants by the couple.

A bridal display shower on August 7, at 3 p.m., held in the TP&L Room in Muenster was hosted by Leila Grant, Rose Sicking, Estelle Martin, Roxie Russell, Karla Vogel, and Mechal Reid. Corsages were presented to the bride, mothers of the couple, grandmother of the bride and hostesses.

Five flavors of ice cream and two kinds of cake were enjoyed during visiting and watching the Cowboy football game.

A self-cleaning oven costs no more to operate, on the average, than a conventional oven which must be cleaned manually, according to General Electric. The cost of a self-cleaning cycle is about a dime, the company says, but this is offset by savings in normal use from the improved insulation.

Yes. It costs more to enjoy them today...

but from sun-up to sign-off (and all night, too), you get a lot for your electric dollar.

Even with today's higher electric rates... made necessary by the increasing costs of generating plants, fuel, equipment and other expenses... there are few things that give you as much for your money as electricity.

Hour after hour, day after day, electricity is at work in the home, on the farm, in businesses and industries and stores and schools, doing thousands of tasks and making your life easier, more comfortable and more enjoyable. Add up the ways you use and benefit from electricity. Compare them with your cost. Isn't electricity still one of the best buys in your family budget?

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 2, 1976

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 49)

Repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution, S.J.R. 49 amends Section 49-c of Article III of the Texas Constitution to provide for and authorize an additional $400 million in Texas water development bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature for such water development purposes as the Legislature may prescribe.

The amendment contains a specific prohibition against the use of state funds for the development of water resources from the Mississippi River and also requires that before any single water development project may be undertaken requiring the expenditure of more than $35 million in bond proceeds, it must be approved by resolution of the Legislature.

The amendment removes the constitutional requirement that certain revenues must be used to retire water development and water quality enhancement bonds and removes the constitutional interest rate limit on such bonds.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing an increase of $400 million in the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the legislature; amending and consolidating provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution; and repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 99)

H.J.R. 99 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to increase from $100 million to $200 million the aggregate principle amount of Texas water development bonds which may be issued and outstanding by the Texas Water Development Board to provide grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"A constitutional amendment to increase from $100 million to $200 million the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued for water quality enhancement purposes."

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

by Mary Moster

With school back in swing many adults may have more time to devote to reading. Of the over 600 new books shelved this summer there is surely one to interest you. True, the majority of adult books are non-fiction, but in this category are several National Geographic Society specials, such as: The Universe, John Muir's Wild America, The Majestic Rocky Mountains, The Incredible Incas, America's Beginnings, The Pacific Crest Trail, and Life in Rural America. Books about Texas include Rawhide Texas, The XIT Ranch of Texas, Old Forts of the Southwest, and Diamond's Account of the Great Hanging at Gainesville. Two University of Oklahoma Press western books are Cow Country by Edward Everett Dale, and Cow Dust and Saddle Leather by Ben W. Kemp. Whatever your interest — whether it be crafts, cookery, gardening, economics, science, technology, literature, history, etc., we have information on the subject. If you need or want more, it is available through the Interlibrary Loan agreement. In either case we'll do our best to furnish you what you want. Library hours continue the same: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8:30 to 5:00, Wednesday 3:00 to 6:00.

Tour Group Sees Sample of Orient

Mrs. Hilda Self was one of a 14 member group leaving D-FW on August 14 for a two week trip to the Orient via Seattle.

Their first stop, after 16 hours of flying was in Tokyo, where they stayed 3 days and 3 nights at the new Atomi Hotel famed for its beautiful surrounding gardens. They visited the Imperial Palace, Shrines, Temples and enjoyed the Schochibu all girl Review, "super" in the opinion of the tour group.

They also saw exotic scenes of typical Japanese countryside, thatched roof farm houses, rice paddy fields, spectacular mountains and many, many flowers along the roadsides with miles of hydrangeas. At Nikko National Park they saw the high board fences built to cut out highway noises — and miles of cryptomeria trees many hundreds of years old, lining the highways.

In Nikko they also visited the Toshogu Shrine with its 2-storied Yoniemon Gate built in 1638 by 15,000 people. A side trip to Hakone National Park was made by motor coach. Enroute a visit was made to the Daibutsu bronze image of the Great Buddha. The famous hot springs of Japan are in Hakone. In that city the tourists were served a tasty sukiyoki dinner where they were dressed in ceremonial Kimono and sandals. The meal was prepared at the table before the guests. The drive was on a warm sunny day through beautiful country.

Their trip to Kyoto was an hour ride by bullet train at 130 miles an hour. Each train seats 1600 people and trains run every 10 minutes. Kyoto is a city of 1 1/2 million people. In that city they saw a traditional art show with tea service, Koto music, a comic play, Kyoto style dances and a puppet play. Sightseeing in Kyoto included Castles, a Temple famed for its gold pavilion and the Old Imperial Palace.

Impressions of Tokyo included the following varied reminders: that baseball is the favorite sport, the stadium always at ground level, and swimming pools at a lower level underground and other games and miniature golf at a 3rd or 4th level underground, because real estate is very expensive.

The travel guide in Tokyo told the tour group to eat at restaurants where plastic models of food were displayed in the windows and "just point to your choice". Food was always good.

Japan, the size of California and 70% mountainous has 110 million people. The tour group met with enormous crowds everywhere.

They saw many rice farms of an average size of 2 1/2 acres. A large farm is 3 or 4 acres. They are called "Mom's farm" because pop has a regular job in town. The average man does not own a car, but rides a train to work. Commuter trains all have 10 cars each and run every 2 minutes and are always packed to capacity. The average man does not have his own bed or bedroom, but puts down a pallet and sleeps in the living room or dining room.

There are very few cattle, cattle are kept in sheds; there is no place to graze. Most of the beef comes from the USA and costs $1.00 for 1/5 of a pound. Soy beans are used instead, as a beef substitute in the diet.

Every village has its own shrine. People are very devout and pray frequently in the shrines, where there is neither preaching nor sermons. People offer gifts of food at the altar for the spirits of the deceased. The food is later given to the poor.

Lack of space necessitates very small cemeteries. In the past 100 years, almost 100% cremation is the practice.

In the two weeks the tour group saw only 1 dog in a man's yard. If dogs are out on the streets, they are caught and destroyed.

Land is extremely expensive — 4 times as high as in New York City — $100 per square foot. There were beautiful peaches in the market, for sale at $2 a piece, American money. The rate of exchange was 290 yen for $1.00 U.S. money.

The tour group noted that, besides rice and tea, oranges, apples, pears and spinach were also cultivated. They saw oyster beds and eel farms. They also drove through Nogoya where Noritake china is made. On one of their drives they saw a castle built in 1603, drove to within 6 miles of Mt. Fuji, saw a 180 ft. pagoda and the weeping cherry trees. Also a 1200 acre deer park where deer are so tame they are willing to eat out of the hand. Also the group saw where Expo '70 was held, and one evening they had a Kobe steak dinner — from beef cattle that had daily rub-downs, with beer and were given beer to drink.

The next part of their trip was to Taiwan and the third part to Hong Kong and details will be in next week's paper. The tour was planned by Dan Dipert Travel, Inc., of Arlington and Mrs. Nellie Dipert was tour guide.

before, with great appeal to people who are tired of doing favors to the country that is dedicated to our destruction.

Along with the platform plank endorsing a stronger national defense policy, this seems like a welcome indication of intent to do more for ourselves and quit trusting the reds. It contrasts sharply with the Democrat platform of reduced spending on national defense, which seems very much like gradual capitulation.

Every election for many years has been described as a crisis, and at least to some extent, the statement has always been true. But this time it seems more true than usual. With a world in turmoil, the red menace at its strongest ever, and fiscal problems the greatest ever, we urgently need to determine what vote is best for the country. This isn't as some say, just choosing between two nice men. It involves choosing the principles that seem most likely to assure our survival.

Tigers - - -

Heart claimed possession on the two. Then Era's defense got tough and forced the Tigers to kick after gaining only 5. Jack Bewley stormed through to block the punt for Era's first touchdown. A pass from Bewley to Michael Selby upped the score to 8-0.

After that the Tigers started moving again, and were stopped by a lost fumble on the second series. However it only delayed but did not stop the SH comeback. From mid-field Era had to kick on first series and Joe Sicking returned 20 yards to the 22. And that's where the comeback drive was cranked up. First play went to the 35 on an interference ruling, five more plays reached the Era's 46, and a pass there, Hartman to Hoedebeck reached the 1 before it was stopped. Sicking erashed through on the next play. A pass for extra points did not connect, so the visitors kept the lead by 2 points.

Then it was Era's turn again. First series after kick-off gained 10 and two short gains reached the 40. From there John Erwin took a pitchout and sailed around left end, heading for pay dirt. The run, plus free yardage for a personal foul gave Era a set up only 7 yards away. Tiger defense there was solid for three plays, but the last chance play, Bewley to Selby, paid off with 6 points. Bewley made bonus points on a keeper play. Era led 16-6.

During the remaining 8 minutes Sacred Heart got a pair of first downs and was stopped by Selby's interception on the third series. Next play Roger Haverkamp recovered Era's only fumble of the evening, and the rest was a defensive stand off with neither side being able to move.

On their return, the Mosmans stopped in Temple and visited her cousins, the Dan Forneys and Miss Frances Neises of Houston who was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Dan Forney in Temple.

Hornets - - -

Mark and Bryan Sicking gaining most of the yardage and Nick Walterscheid adding 11 on a pass from Tim Wolf. The drive gained 36 and suddenly ended with an interception just before the half.

After intermission MHS resumed the good work. Steady gains by Mark Sicking and Gary Tiermes plus 15 free on a penalty got to the 19 and the drive suddenly ended with a fumble.

Two runs by Roberts, a 15 yard penalty and a pass got the Bulls to Muenster's 42 where Hornet fortunes changed briefly. A quarterback sack, then Wolf's interception followed by 15 free yards for roughing. Muenster was on the Bulls 31.

Next play was good for 11 but also for a fumble that blasted another Muenster opportunity.

Bridgeport got back to the 37 before Neil Walterscheid's fumble recovery set up another opportunity. Small gains ground out yardage to the 24, then came another interception, caught on the 20 and returned 45 yards before Nick Walterscheid caught up at the 35.

From there the Bulls made a first down and were stopped on the second series at the 17. Then Muenster lost ground and had to kick on fourth down.

From the 44 Bridgeport made two first downs to the 20 then had penalties and foul-ups losing back to the 28 on the next series. A kick over the goal was put in play on the 20.

With 2:01 on the clock the Hornets made a final desperate effort. Mark Sicking gained 15 and 4. A pass to Nick Walterscheid gained 14, a penalty gave 15 and Sicking made 12 and 4 to the 16. And then the final blow. A bullet pass that bounced off a Hornet helmet and floated into a Bull's hands for an easy interception. That happened inside the 5 and the runback got to midfield. With almost a minute left, Bridgeport just ran out the clock.
