WASHINGTON, D.C. — We have a tendency in this country to wail and moan over the problem of political apathy — the lack of enthusiastic involvement by individuals in all phases of the electoral and legislative process.

On the other hand, we then tend to view some methods of encouraging such involvement by large numbers of individuals as somehow threatening. Political Action Committees (PACs) for instance, are often seen as ominous "big frogs" in the political pool, when in reality they are a chorus of individuals making their voices heard collectively. Every PAC dollar given to a candidate comes from a voluntary, individual contributor. These political organizations have encouraged many people who may never before have contributed to a candidate to get involved in the process in which decisions are made that affect their future.

Such involvement is an inherent American political tradition and a basic freedom that should not be tampered with by Congress. There have been, however, successful moves recently in the House to do just that.

I opposed one such proposal — the Obey-Railsback bill — which unfortunately passed in the House. This bill restricts involvement by PACs by setting a limit on contributions to each candidate for of-

At first glance, such a limitation might appear to have some general appeal, but the evidence clearly indicates that the primary beneficiaries of this legislation would be those of us already in office; incumbents who are already in a more advantageous position to be returned to office than an outside challenger. This is a fact that not too many Congressmen care to discuss, but nevertheless, the truth is that potential candidates of moderate incomes may not be able to raise sufficient revenues to finance a campaign due to limitations imposed by Obey-Railsback.

To those who charge that a lack of limitations allows candidates for office "to be bought," I would point out that during the election last fall, I was outspent by three-to-one and yet was elected to Congress. I credit that election to the intense involvement of individuals in my campaign — many who were spurred into action by their initial involvement in PACs.

As we become more and more of a polarized society, a society afflicted to some degree with tunnel-vision, a "me, first" society, we must encourage the voice of each individual to be heard. Apathy cannot be legislated into nonexistence, but legislation which discourages the participation of the individual in the political process should be protested by a single voice in this country.

The passage of the Obey-Railsback bill by the House of Representatives is a step backward in campaign improvements and did nothing to encourage the movement of politics back to the people.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The U.S. Department of Justice has joined Texas Attorney General Mark White in filing legal claims against SEDCO, Inc. of Dallas, the oil drilling firm founded by Gov. Bill Clements.

Last Tuesday the Justice Department filed a multi-million dollar damage suit against the company, claiming that the off-shore rig used to drill Ixtoc I (site of the largest oil well blowout in world history) was unseaworthy and that its crew including SEDCO employees was "incompetent and negligent."

The federal government still has not made a decision whether to file similar claims against other parties connected with the oil spill.

In the Texas suit filed two weeks ago, Mark White included Pemargo, the Mexican drilling firm which had leased SEDCO's rig, as a negligent party.

Gov. Clements had blasted White's actions as "politically motivated" and he repeated the theme when he learned of the federal government's lawsuit.

"I'm glad to get another bird in the tree. Jimmy Carter has now joined Billy Goldberg (state Democratic chairman), Attorney General Mark White and Harry Hubbard (president of Texas AFL-CIO). They're all three twirling the same song," Clements said.

Clements' son, Gill Clements (SEDCO's president) said the federal government's suit was a "lot more responsible claim" than previous filings related to the oil blowout because damages were based on $6 million cleanup costs estimated by the U.S. Coast Guard.

About 50 individuals, corporations and governmental entities registered claims Tuesday against SEDCO which totaled more than $50 million.

Bullock Blasts Mayors
 State Comptroller Bob Bullock, reportedly resting well at home following hospitalization two weeks ago for a mild heart attack, was on the attack himself last week blasting a group of mayors who suggested raising the sales tax.

The suggestion came from

Gov. Clements' Mayors Advisory Committee to allow cities to increase their local option sales tax from one percent to three percent.

Saying the mayors should have their heads examined, Bullock said the proposed hike "is nothing short of greed" and will lead the state down the road to an income tax.

Blacks Join Clements
 Clements put together another advisory group last week, this one composed of more than 100 black businessmen who had to ante up $125 apiece for the privilege.

Clements called the group "the cream of the crop."

Most of the money will go to retire Clements' gubernatorial campaign debt, estimated at more than $2 million.

The idea of paying to be a member of an advisory group brought a rebuke from black legislator Rep. Paul Ragsdale of Dallas. Calling it "ridiculous," Ragsdale said "I guess that is the governor's business connection. You pay to be in his administration. You pay to be his supporter."

Banker Sues Senator
 A Galveston banker filed a grievance with the State Bar of Texas last week, charging State Sen. A.R. "Babe" Schwartz of Galveston with misconduct.

The grievance filed by Shearn Moody, Jr. stems from lawsuits filed by Schwartz and Moody. Schwartz is suing Moody for $245,000 in unpaid legal claims and Moody is counter-suing Schwartz for over $202,000 in unpaid loans.

Federal and legislative officials are looking into a grievance of another nature.

this one alleging sexual abuse of a woman employee within the Texas Health Department.

State Rep. Wilhelmina Delco of Austin, who initiated the probe, said the woman complained to her of sexual harassment by a superior. Several other women employees have come forth with similar complaints against the man, Delco said.

Krueger New Envoy
 The U.S. Senate confirmed former Texas congressman Bob Krueger as ambassador-at-large and coordinator of Mexican affairs, a newly-created post.

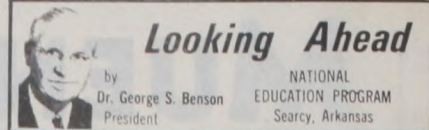

Texas Senator Lloyd Bentsen voted for Krueger while Sen. John Tower voted against the confirmation. Krueger lost a hotly contested race in 1978 for Tower's senate seat.

AG Briefs
 Atty. Gen. White in a legal opinion ruled an independent school district may provide for salary increases for teachers and employees for a current school year if it receives additional consideration. It may also adopt a policy to provide additional salary increases for subsequent years; however, the obligation arises only when the contracts are executed.

The request for the opinion came from Education Commissioner M.L. Brockett.

ALEXIS de TOCQUEVILLE ON RELIGION IN AMERICA

The United States had lived about forty-two years under its Constitution when Alexis de Tocqueville, a French scholar, arrived here in 1831 to study our form of government. Out of this study came his famous book, Democracy in America. In this book he endeavored to evaluate the influence of religion and morality on this Republic and the values on which it was based. Tocqueville saw that our religion was influencing our view of society and government.

"I may asserted," he said, "that in the United States no religious doctrine displays the slightest hostility to democratic and republican institutions. All are in favor of civil freedom; but they do not support any particular political system. Each sect adores the Deity in its own peculiar manner, but all the sects preach the same moral law in the name of God, and Christian morality is everywhere the same."

Tocqueville was convinced "there is no country in the whole world in which the Christian religion retains a greater influence over the souls of men than in America; and there can be no greater proof of its utility, and of its conformity to human nature, than that its influence is most powerfully felt over the most enlightened and free nation of the earth."

Christianity, he said, "reigns without any obstacle, by universal consent; the consequence is that every principle of the moral world is fixed and determinate, although the political world is abandoned to the debates and experiments of men."

In other words, Tocqueville said that the moral principles inculcated by religion in America, set standards and even men who were not particularly religious felt compelled to observe these standards. This religious and moral restraint is essential, for if there are no moral boundaries there is nothing which is wrong for man to do and there is no right which he is obligated to observe.

Although religion did not direct the government of the United States, religion and morality governed the lives of a sufficient number of its people that the moral foundations of society were kept strong.

He further said: "There are those who look forward to the republican form of government as a tranquil and lasting state, towards which modern society is daily impelled by the ideas and manners of the time, and who sincerely desire to prepare men to be free."

These are wise words. It takes preparation to make men free. Our republic, or any republican form of government, has roots in certain beliefs about God, man, and morality. The background of the people in the United States prepared them to be free men. If men do not accept certain values they are not willing to shoulder the responsibilities of freedom although they may want to enjoy its fruits.

Tocqueville well said that those who wanted freedom were working against their own objective when they tried to undermine Christianity and morality. He rightly said: "Despotism may govern without faith, but liberty cannot. In order for men to dwell together in peace and harmony there must be some restraints. Those who believe they are accountable to God, and that they have duties to others as well as having rights, will develop the inner restraints which are essential to a free society."

If men are not to be totally governed by government, they must have inner restraints which govern their relationship to other human beings and to society as a whole. If people are to be their own masters, they must also be in submission to moral law. If they recognize no master above themselves, they will view themselves as governed solely by their own whims or passions. And when such a spirit prevails, freedom dies.

This year of 1979 is fast slipping away into the past. Reckon we can put it down in our books as the year of the grasshopper, spiders and grass-spurs. There has been an over abundance of all three and of the three only the spiders have been of any help or benefit.

In the past columns I failed to tell about several members of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship of Saint Jo. Forestburg United Methodist Churches and two mothers attended the Southern Methodist University — Baylor Football game in Texas Stadium Sat. Oct. 13th. Youths attending were: Pam, Veronica, and Doug Edwards, Vatori Dill, Willie Sandusky, David Price and Jeff Carter. Mothers were: Mmes. Jewell Dill and Gayle Edwards.

Visiting with Ruth Smith recently were her aunt Mrs. Beth Freeman of Bonham and Mrs. Freemans daughter Martha. Miss Martha Freeman is a retired Washington, D.C. Secretary and resides in Virginia. She was at one time a secretary to Sam Rayburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bewley of Pampa and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bewley of Fort Worth were recent visitors of their mother Mrs. Bertha Bewley in Saint Richards Villa in Muenster.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry have returned from a visit with their son and family — Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry Jr. of Dangerfield.

Wish to take this opportunity to correct an error that appeared in last weeks Forestburg News — Mrs. Ouida McCandless of Floydada is not the daughter of the Ray Dills as the column read — she is the daughter of the Ray Jacksons.

A Forestburg student has made the "Who's Who" Book. She is Dinita Sewell, freshman at Forestburg High School, and has been named in the 1978-79 publication of "Who's Who of American High School Students."

Miss Sewell received the honor for her junior High School grade point average and her involvement in school and extra curricular activities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilliland have returned from Amarillo where they visited for several days with their son Billy and family. They also visited Mrs. Gilliland's sister — Mr. and Mrs. W.J.

Helms and on Oct. 18th Mrs. Gilliland was honored with a birthday party and then dinner at the Red Barn in Amarillo. The Gillilands returned home in a new Chevi.

On Tuesday October 16th Mmes. Pat Zimmerer and Donna Shad, Lindsay gave a craft demonstration on Dry Brush Ceramic Painting for the Ross Point Extension Homemakers Club. The meeting was at the community center there — twelve ladies were present.

Mrs. Juanita Bailey of the Burg and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bailey of Denton returned recently from a vacation in Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. Gladys Balthrop visited in Texarkana recently with her daughter and family — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith. While in the area they toured in Arkansas. One point of interest was Eureka Springs where they attended the Passion Play. Mrs. Smith brought her mother home and visited in the Rosston area for a few days. Mrs. Balthrop's daughter Mrs. Garland Lemon of Iowa Park visited with her mother and her sister for a few days while Mrs. Smith was visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dale, recently of Phoenix, Ariz. and now of Rosston, returned recently from a trip that took them to Seagrave, Texas where they visited Mrs. Dales father — Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cook, on to Albuquerque, N.M. where they visited friends of thirty years standing — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Payton, on to Glendale, Arizona where they visited their daughters and family — Mr. and Mrs. Ron Gilbert. While in Arizona they went on a four day camping trip and Quail Hunt. Then on to Chula Vista, Calif. where they visited with another daughter and family — Mr. and Mrs. David Nims and Kristina. The Dales also visited in Long Beach, Calif. with Mr. Dales mother, Mrs. Lillian Dale and son Bob.

Norris Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Boyd of Rosston, was injured in a football game Friday night October 19th. He was taken to Westgate Hospital where he underwent knee surgery. He returned home Tuesday October 23rd. Young Norris is the grandson of Mrs. Eula Belle Boyd of Dewey.

Attending the all day seminar on Energy Conservation at Cooke County REA on Tuesday October 23rd were: Mmes. Cleo Lanier, Imogene Evans, Velma Freeman and Betty Jo Cook of Forestburg and Mmes. It's Time to Plant Bulbs for Spring

For an array of landscape color next spring, plant flowering bulbs such as crocus, snowdrops and winter aconite the next few weeks, says landscape horticulturist.

Plant all spring flowering bulbs except tulips in October and November so they have ample time to develop a good root system, explains Everett Janne with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. In Central and South Texas, refrigerate tulip bulbs at 35 to 40 degrees F. until mid-December for longer stems and good flower development.

For best results, plant bulbs in clusters around tree trunks and shrubs in a natural woodland setting or rock garden, Janne points out. The variety of flower color and size within each type of bulb is limitless.

Group bulbs of the same color in mass plantings for an effective display color.

The general rule is to plant outdoor bulbs so the top is below the surface at about twice the diameter of the bulb, explains the landscape horticulturist. Plant bulbs in well-drained soil of average fertility to achieve blooming over a period of years. Bulbs prefer a sandy loam soil in a sunny area.

A few choice bulbs can be set aside for indoor forcing, adds Janne. Crocus, grape hyacinths, daffodils, tulips and hyacinths are good for indoor use.

To force bulbs indoors, pot them as soon as they are available in equal parts of soil, peat and sand on top of one inch of gravel. Let the tips of large bulbs show above the surface, and barely cover small bulbs with soil.

Store newly potted bulbs at 40 to 50 degrees F. for six to ten weeks, then place them in a cool semi-lighted location. Gradually move them to a sunny location for good growth and color.

Janne says most bulbs will be flowering in January, and pre-cooled or pre-treated bulbs may bloom by Christmas.

Value Added Tax is Sneakiest Blow Since Pearl Harbor

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Tuesday said the adoption of a 10 percent, federal value-added tax would be the sneakiest blow to the American public since Pearl Harbor.

"It's the income tax wolf in sales tax sheep's clothing," Bullock said, saying, "it has the complexities of the income tax system and the regressiveness of high sales tax."

Bullock said the proposal by U.S. Representative Al Ullman, House Ways and Means Committee, Chairman, borders on tinkering and financial experimentation that could result in a tax Frankenstein.

The tax would be 10 percent of the value each manufacturer or distributor adds to a product or service in each stage before it reaches the marketplace.

The tax would finally be included in the sales price and as a result consumers would never know what part of the price covers the tax.

"Consumers will absorb the tax and it will fall hardest on lower and middle income groups. Business will absorb a new set of federal tax filings and paperwork. And the economy will absorb a little more disruption."

"The only winner," he said, "seems to be the federal treasury which will be raking in 10 cents on the dollar for every product and service in the country."

Bullock said he did not think the offset measures — tax cut for businesses — would be a good trade-off for a national sales tax.

"If Congress wants to cut taxes, they don't need to link it to a value-added tax," he said.

"Let's face it, they want a new tax to pay off the billions of dollars we now owe as the result of deficit spending," Bullock said.

He said the cost of products sold in Texas would be dependent on the "value-added" by out-of-state manufacturers and distributors.

Everything is going to cost a heck of a lot more if this new federal tax passes, he said.

district who receive transfusions elsewhere. The collection was taken by the Red Cross Blood Center of Wichita Falls which services 41 communities of North Texas and Southern Oklahoma and calls upon them in turn to accept their donations to the system.

The bloodmobile was set up in the K of C hall as usual, between the hours of 2 and 7. But resemblance ended there. A major change of equipment included lounges rather than cots for the donors and more efficient equipment, all mounted on rollers.

Included with the donors were eleven gallon club members whose total donations to date reached a gallon or multiples of a gallon. They are Julie Bayer, Wilfred Bindel, Edgar Dyer, Sharon Wolf, John Fisher, Betty Jean Bindel, Henry Weinzapfel, David Wimmer, Ronnie Huneycutt, Rosalie Bayer and Janette Marie Yosten.

Bloodmobile personnel were assisted by the following registered nurses and technicians of Muenster Memorial Hospital: Judy Flusche, Joan Haverkamp, Barbara Bezner, Pat Wimmer, Peggy Gobble, Karen Endres, Gwen Carrol and Brenda Boesecker.

Other helpers were the following members of the hospital auxiliary: Dorothy Hartman, Loretta Wimmer, Betty Jean Bindel, Frances Bayer, Mary Lee Hennigan, Kathy Berres, Cecilia Wimmer, Julie Bayer, Betty Miller and Monica Hess.

Convection Ovens Can Save Money

Convection ovens can save energy, they cook faster, and they cook at lower temperatures — but shop around before buying one, a home economist says.

Price, performance, capacity and other features vary considerably among models on the market, so consumers should compare models and consider their own needs in shopping for a range, Lillian Chenoweth advises.

Mrs. Chenoweth is a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Unlike the microwave oven, the convection oven is not a new way of cooking.

However, it's now more readily available to non-professionals. Bakers and chefs have long used convection ovens due to evenness of browning.

Convection ovens — portable or full-size — use a fan to provide forced circulation of air inside the oven as it is being heated.

Just as a cold winter wind makes one feel colder (the wind-chill factor), the same principle works in the oven as the fan moves hot air.

Hot moving air enables the cook to prepare foods faster — and at lower temperatures than conventional ovens.

Most preparation times are 20-30 percent less for convection ovens than with conventional ovens.

Also, full-size convection ovens generally cook with temperatures 40 degrees lower than conventional ovens.

Manufacturers claim that convection ovens save up to 50 percent energy — compared with conventional ovens, although the portable convection models may not save as much.

See Fall Foliage For Ideas in Home Landscape

Improve your home landscape with trees that offer spectacular fall foliage colors, says Everett Janne.

"By properly selecting plant materials capable of producing fall color, mixed with few evergreen plants, you can enjoy a spectacular foliage display in your own backyard," contends Janne, a horticulturist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Get an idea for your fall landscape by traveling around Texas and looking at the display of foliage colors," suggests the horticulturist.

The two most spectacular areas for fall color in Texas are usually the Hill Country area, with a preponderance of Texas oak, and the Piney Woods of East Texas, which feature sugar maple, black gum, Shumard oak, flowering dogwood and American sweetgum.

These selections as well as others can bring fall color to home landscapes, says Janne.

"One of the best introduced varieties for home landscape color is the Callery pear, especially the Aristocrat and Bradford selections," contends Janne. "The Chinese pistachio is also well known for its fall color."

A tree which frequently has better fall color than most is the Chinese tallow, adds the horticulturist. However, it has become a problem tree in some coastal areas as it is taking over many fertile river bottom soils.

"The color intensity of fall foliage depends a great deal upon climatic and environmental conditions existing as plants finish out the growing season," explains Janne.

He cites several reasons why fall foliage colors may be poor in a given year.

Plants growing under shaded conditions usually do not produce as much color as those growing in full sunlight.

—Plants growing under shaded conditions usually do not produce as much color as those growing in full sunlight.

—Weather may not be favorable. Night temperatures must drop below 45 degrees for good color, but cold daytime temperatures can severely reduce the amount of fall color. Cloudy or rainy days will also reduce color intensity.

—Soils with low levels of nutrients will generally produce plants with poor foliage color. However, excessive amounts of nitrogen can have the same effect.

—Genetic make-up or seedling variation can contribute to poor foliage color.

The baptism of Trisha Ann Endres was held on Sunday, September 30. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Endres. Father Stephen Eckart officiated and the baptismal sponsors were an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Fette.

Attending the church service and the family gathering in the Endres home were Trisha's sister and brother, Angela and Karri Jo, and Jason; and Mr. and Mrs. Hank Walterscheid and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Riggs and Eric and Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Fette and Amy and Becky.

It was a double celebration, observing also Karri Jo's second birthday. There were gifts for both honorees; and a decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream.

Caribbean Cruise Memories Savored

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walterscheid are enjoying great memories of a Caribbean Cruise with new friends, spectacular scenery and a seemingly endless array of beautiful foods aboard the Cunard Princess, a British ship carrying 950 passengers and 320 crew members.

Their week-long vacation and island tour was through courtesy of Whirlpool Corporation, with about 115 other Texans.

The group flew from DFW to Miami and embarked from Port Everglades, Fla. on Saturday evening. After sailing through Sunday night, their first stop on Monday morning was at Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic, where they saw Sosua Beach, one of the ten most beautiful beaches in the world.

On Tuesday morning their stop was in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to go sight-seeing and visit the El Moro Castle.

The third stop, on Wednesday morning was on St. Maarten Island in the West Indies. Half the island is Dutch, the other half French. There is no sharp boundary between the two, merely a marker.

Principal sailing was always done at night. Their fourth stop was at Antigua. There they toured Nelson's Dock Yard and the English Harbor, and saw Clarence House, built in the 15th century for members of the British Royal Family when they visit. It is also the Governor's residence. Tourists are given tours when no one is "in residence," and the Whirlpool group was fortunate to be on time for a tour.

On St. Thomas they saw Coral World on Saturday. They took a Kontiki Tour to Water Island, a completely uninhabited island. An orchestra accompanied the group of 115 to provide entertainment.

The sixth and last day was spent on St. Croix, where they saw hurricane damage and wrecked beaches, in contrast to the incomparably beautiful white, clean sand beaches and sparkling clear, blue water in many places. They also spent the day in other beautiful sightseeing.

Their return was directly to DFW. The Walterscheids say they can describe the tour with only one word "FANTASTIC."

Mrs. Bobby Hibbit and children Danny and Robynn of Mesquite visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ray Owen Friday and Saturday and Cheryl took part in the Homecoming activities at MHS Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kuhn of Chesterfield, Mo. have sent beautiful cards from several of the Hawaiian Islands and San Francisco, where they vacationed recently. They plan to spend Thanksgiving with relatives here and their parents Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kuhn of Lindsay and Mrs. Ben Luke of Muenster.

Trio Returns from European Tour

Lois Sicking daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Sicking, Frances Hess daughter of Mrs. Arnold Hess and a friend Connie Colisi, all of Dallas have returned from a fabulous European tour that included a visit with Lois' sister Mrs. Hank Arendt, the former Virginia Sicking, in London.

The three left from DFW and flew to London, where they were met at Gatwick Airport by Mrs. Arendt and were guests of the Hank Arendts for the London visit. Together they saw a play, visited the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, Picadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, etc.

On Sunday the three flew from Southend Airport to Ostend Belgium to join a tour group that included travelers from South Africa, New Zealand, Australia and the U.S.

Two days and nights were spent in Amsterdam, seeing Dutch windmills, the Riko Museum with Rembrandt's paintings, a diamond factory, having a canal ride, seeing Anne Frank's home, still well preserved with many items intact since she lived there.

They traveled by bus to Boppard, Germany, with marvelous scenery and mountains covered with vineyards. They enjoyed visiting with very open, friendly and warm Germans; took a boat trip on the Rhine, saw the famous Lorelei Rock, ancient castles and toured a brandy factory that included "tasting." In Munich they saw the Olympic area and in Cologne they visited the famous Cologne Cathedral and in Innsbruck, Austria they were impressed by the beautiful, clean, scenic mountain areas, the peaks covered with snow, and evening entertainment with local Tyrolean folk dancing, with blowing of the long elk horns.

In Florence, Italy they enjoyed a tour of the city and a museum, seeing Michaelangelo's famous statue of "David."

On October 5 they arrived in Lucerne, Switzerland, took a cable car to the 10,000 ft. top of Mt. Titulus, and threw snowballs. They particularly enjoyed the beautiful, clean city, the excellent shops, and an evening at a local show marked by native costumes and the serving of native foods.

In Paris they took the regular tourists' tour of the city, seeing the Eiffel Tower (and climbing to the top) toured the Louvre, saw the famous painting of Mona Lisa and the statue of Venus de Milo, saw the Champs Elysees, famous dressmaker shops and cloth markets and ate a very expensive $10 hamburger.

They returned to London on October 11 and Frances Hess flew to Dallas the next day to be met by her mother, and her brother, Steve Hess. Lois Sicking remained to visit her sister in London until October 14, and was met at DFW by another sister, Mrs. Joan Lutkenhaus and daughter Jessica.

Tips Offered on Good Mail Service For the Holidays

Sectional Center Manager Jack D. Watson of Fort Worth is reminding customers that for the best service this Christmas season they should use ZIP Codes, place their return address in the upper left corner of the envelope and use proper postage.

"By following these suggestions," Sectional Center Manager Watson says, "Customers will be assured good mail service this holiday season."

It is important that families "double check" envelopes and cards to be certain that proper postage is affixed. Envelopes without postage will be returned to senders, if possible, or delayed by postage-due procedures.

When the return address is placed on envelopes bearing holiday greetings, it also helps remind friends of one's current address.

And, if the family to whom a holiday message is sent moved more than a year ago, it cannot be forwarded. With a return address, Sectional Center Manager Watson, says, such letters are returned to the sender with a notation that the following "order" has expired.

21% of 4-H members live on farms, 40% in towns of under 10,000 population and open country, 16% in towns and cities of 10,000-50,000, and 23% in suburbs of cities, or in central cities, of over 50,000.

Grass Judging...

of fifty plants growing on the farms and ranches of this district. These plants are identified by giving their correct common names and then classified as to grazing value, wildlife value, annual or perennial, native or introduced, and as to whether cool season or warm season growing plant.

This contest will have a Junior division for the first year agriculture students and a senior division for advanced students. A team will be composed of four students and the team score will be made up of the three highest scoring individuals. Each school or county 4-H club is requested to enter a team in each division of the contest.

Chairman Bayer said that awards will be presented to winning teams and high scoring individuals at 4:30 p.m. Over 2400 students have participated in this contest since its beginning.

Forestburg News by Myrt Denham

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hays and Leann and Allen Spears visited Mrs. Hays' parents Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Baker of Ardmore, Okla. on Sunday October 21st.

The monthly meeting of the Forestburg Extension Homemakers Club was held Monday night - October 22nd, at the Forestburg Community Center. Present were: Mmes. Veda Brogdon, Cleo Lanier, Marion Sockwell, Betty Scott and Jennifer, Betty and Clea Reynolds, Mary Hays and Velma Freeman. Mrs. Freeman won the door prize - a beautiful pillow made and donated by Mrs. Juanita Bailey.

thru the burg. All sorts of trash and junk was drug out, piled in the streets, some of the junk along with hay was burned. Sunday morning as people went to church the fire were still smoldering. This setting things on fire is very, very dangerous - one spark could ignite the whole burg and burn it down. Especially as dry as things are around here this year. The shame of it all is that it will be repeated each Wednesday night October 31st.

I recently visited in the Muenster Enterprise and was handed a "Fan Letter" that was sent to me there by Mrs. J.D. Hunter of Elmwood Park, New Jersey. I wish to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Hunter for her kind words. Might add that Mrs. Hunter's husband is the brother of Mrs. Laura Belle Jackson of the burg.

Johnny Lanier, of Eules, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lanier the weekend of October 27th.

Gehrig home, led by den mother, Mrs. Cindy Gehrig. Phillip Reiter was appointed denner and Shawn Vogel assistant denner for October.

The ninth birthday of Phillip Reiter was celebrated with a decorated birthday cake, candles and Cokes, furnished by his mother, Mrs. Gerald Reiter.

The second meeting of the month was held on Oct. 17. Cubs made jack-o-lanterns. These will be displayed at the Oct. 22 pack meeting. The cubs also practiced the opening ceremony and skit they will perform at the pack meeting.

Boy Scout Leroy Voth was welcomed as den chief; he assisted at the meeting and taught the cubs the game of British Bulldog. Refreshments of homemade bar cookies and Kool-Aid were furnished by Mrs. Gerald Reiter.

Den 3

Den 3 Cub Scouts accompanied Peggy and Chris Walter to Dallas Sunday for all day sightseeing, a picnic, educational tours and fun time. The event helped prepare them for advancement to the Bear rank.

Making the trip were Cubs Michael Walter, Pat Hellman, Russell Simmons and Scott Taylor, and their den chief, Boy Scout Michael Fette.

Enroute they had a picnic lunch about noon at a roadside park. In Dallas they toured the John F. Kennedy Museum, saw items of interest and a film and the JFK Memorial. They also saw the first log cabin built in Texas

'Redneck rock' may be on the way out

STEPHENVILLE — A year after a Tarleton State University folklorist predicted "redneck rock" was on the way out, it turns out she could be right.

Dr. Sue McGinity, a music-as-folklore researcher on this 3,400-student North Central Texas campus, said the progressive country music movement would probably die as a result of its own acceptance because the popular style of Willie Nelson, Waylon Jennings, Jerry Jeff Walker and Asleep at the Wheel would be copied.

An informal study of C&W radio these days seems to support her prediction.

March of Dimes... children Michael, age 7 and Candise, age 3. Mrs. Abney attends Cooke County College and is also co-leader of the 2nd grade Bluejays.

The March of Dimes leads the fight for prevention of birth defects, the most serious child health problem. It strives to reduce death and damage caused by congenital defects through programs of research, medical service and public and professional health education.

Many people have been led to believe that the March of Dimes supports abortion. "We DO NOT support abortion" states the 1979 chairman, continuing... "The Right to Life Organization, which opposes abortion, has shown support for the March of Dimes because of our stand on Amniocentesis.

"Amniocentesis is a process by which a small amount of amniotic fluid, which surrounds the baby in the uterus, is removed. From this fluid, tests can be made to show any defects and determine whether the child is a boy or girl...

"This year the March of Dimes seriously needs help...to continue efforts to wipe out birth defects in our life time...Contributions toward this worthy undertaking will be greatly appreciated. Our marchers will be out in this area from Saturday November 10 through Sunday, November 18...Those who wish to give a little time to help 'March for the March of Dimes' may phone Joyce Abney at 759-4200...Maybe someday soon, there will be no need for the March of Dimes. Let's pray for this."

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

While the theory and purpose of banking has remained the same over the years, the banking industry has continued to change and grow to better serve its customers. An early American writer defined banking as: The business of banking, in its widest sense, is to collect in banks the capital of a community, that which is either money or can readily be turned into money, and upon the capital so collected to build up, by proper management and machinery, a credit which will extend and enlarge its usefulness to the community. This definition of banking is still true today. Some of the ways we implement this definition include: Accepting funds for safekeeping; providing the public with a mechanism for making payments; and, putting depositors' money to work by lending or investing it. Over the years banks have extended that definition by the development of new and more ways of lending and investing money to better serve their communities.

Crusaders got stubborn again. Four plays later the Tigers gave up the ball, again on the 18.

But then they got a most welcome break. A tackle by John Hartman jarred the ball loose and Paul Bartush recovered for Sacred Heart on the 6.

From there Nasche hit the line twice, first time for 5, next time for the touchdown. A kick for extra point failed. The Tigers had the lead 6-3 at 8:51 in the second period.

After kickoff Teddy Walterscheid's fumble recovery on first series gave SH fine position on the Tyler 37. But it had to kick on first series. Tyler likewise kicked on the first series after which Sacred Heart made a first down and stalled on the second series losing the ball at the Crusader 25.

From there, with slightly more than three minutes left, Gorman settled down to tough playing. It ground out 70 yards in 12 plays and was eventually stopped by Craig Walterscheid's interception on the 5 yard line.

The Crusaders came out like lions after the intermission. Second play after kickoff Maloney passed to Prud'homme for 45 yards to the Tiger 22. Two more plays reached the 12, and a sweep around left end by Marinez reached the goal. The try for extra point failed. Gorman was back in the lead, 9-6 at 10:14 in the third.

Following the next kickoff SH kicked on first series and so did Gorman, after which the Tigers had to start from their 6 yard line. Free yardage on pass interference and a personal foul moved them to the 35, after which they made the 65 yard drive in 10 plays plus another major penalty. Big gains were passes to Monte Endres for 20 and to Mel Walterscheid for 11, also 9 yards on Hartman's keeper.

Nasche scored from the 3 at 1:01. The try for bonus point was blocked and Sacred Heart was back in the lead 12-9.

Gorman on next possession had to punt on second down after which the Tigers lost a fourth down gamble by inches on their 34.

Crusaders gained 16 yards in three plays then fumbled the ball away, Hesse recovering for SH.

Then the Tigers went the other way for 41 yards and fumbled on a busted play losing ground back to the Crusader 45, which became the starting place for the next scoring drive. The distance was made mostly in the air on gains of 19 and 9 and finally the 26 yard pass from Maloney to Prud'homme for a TD. Teague's kick added a point. The score was 16-12 favoring Tyler at 4:22 in the fourth.

Sacred Heart snapped back with a big effort that gained 49 yards to the 10 on three passes: to Nasche for 18 and two to Mel Walterscheid for 21 and 10. But then the drive suddenly soured and lost 26 yards on the next series.

Crusaders got 15 yards free and went backward on the next series before making the punt on which Mike Hesse scooted 69 yards for the 18 to 16 story book ending.

In the remaining 15 seconds Gorman threw the bomb in a final effort to snatch the victory and Craig Walterscheid intercepted on the 20.

A swarm of Hornets stopped this run for no gain in Muenster's 14-0 homecoming loss to the Pottsboro Cardinals. The defenders are Curtis Pagel 50, Dale Swirczynski 33, Roland Serna 23, and Floyd Felderhoff 80. —Janie Hartman Photo

Hornets...

From there Gaines gained 3 and Flanagan stormed the remaining 7 yards to the goal. Fortune smiled briefly on the Hornets there as the TD was nullified by a holding penalty. However Pottsboro made good on the next play with a 22 yard pass, Gaines to Smith in the end zone. Hightower added the bonus point and the Cards led 14-0 as the first quarter ended.

For the remainder of the game the Hornets stopped the Cardinals cold and likewise succeeded in stopping themselves. Early in the second quarter they appeared to be going when five plays gained 32, but then they fumbled. And just before the quarter they lost possession twice by interception.

Again at the opening of the second half Muenster made three starts and failed to keep going. First there was a gain of 31 on Phil Wolf's run for 10 and his pass to Richey for 21, then an interception.

Pottsboro kicked on first series and MHS had to start over. Nice runs by Kevin Klement plus passes to Hermes for 9 and Floyd Felderhoff for 20 made three first downs followed by loss of possession on a fourth down gamble.

Again the Cardinals kicked and Muenster had another turn at the midfield grind. Steady gains again added to three first downs where a 15 yard holding penalty put a sudden stop to their progress. A short gain and two incomplete passes forced them to punt.

The rest of the game was a stalemate featuring five punts. However it also included two separate first down by the visitors, two more Muenster turnovers... a fumble and an interception... and Pottsboro's only turnover... a fumble recovered by Curtis Pagel.

Tigers Confident But Not Cocky for Tussle with Era

Sacred Heart's enthusiastic Tigers, still relishing the big triumph of their highly successful season need to be on guard this week when they meet their old neighbors and rivals of Era. That's the warning they are receiving from their coaches, Father Stephen Eckart and Virgil Henschel.

According to the signs this one is easy to take for granted. The Tigers, with a definite advantage in size and experience, have a 7-1 record, including five shutouts, whereas the Hornets have had their poorest season of recent years. The odds definitely are stacked in favor of SH.

However, as seen by Henschel, Era is making progress as its youngsters are absorbing benefits from the season's experience. They were especially impressive last week in holding Valley View, an area powerhouse, to a 14-2 score. The team is rapidly developing into the old time Era caliber. The Tigers should win, but they'll have to earn it, in Henschel's opinion. "The Hornets will play tough, we can depend on it."

As regards Tiger readiness, they are in fine physical condition except a few who now rate as doubtful. Phil Walterscheid and Brian Bednorz should be recovered from the ailment which benched them last week. And Kirk Mollenkopf should be over the ankle sprain received last week. And, of course, their spirits are sky high.

To date in TCIL only two games have been played and Sacred Heart won both of them. The rest of the season will be cleared away in the coming three Fridays. Standings now are Sacred Heart 2-0, Tyler Gorman 0-1, Christ the King 0-1, Notre Dame 0-0. The Tigers will be idle next week and play their last game with Notre Dame here on Nov. 17.

More than 5.2 million young people 9-19 participate in 4-H through organized clubs, special interest groups, nutrition education programs, television series, short-term activities and camping.

Happiness shows on the faces of these Sacred Heart Tigers as they receive congratulations from their coach, Father Stephen Eckart, after their thrilling last minute victory over Gorman High of Tyler.

Muenster, Sanger Clash Friday for Escape of Cellar

With the 1979 season rapidly drawing to a close, the Hornets' only remaining hope is to escape from the cellar position. At this time they are sharing that spot with three other teams. Lindsay, Sanger and Aubrey, all with standings of 1-4, and will take on two of them in their final games.

First opponent is Sanger, at Sanger Friday night, in what is beginning to look like a rugged struggle for survival. As seen by Coach Stinson, the Indians have been the sleeping giants until their sudden awakening last week in a 20-7 victory over Aubrey. Finally they seem to have discovered their potential, and Muenster can expect them to be at their season's best in this eleventh hour effort by both sides to salvage a bit of prestige from the disappointing season. Momentum and home field advantage will favor Sanger.

On the basis of potential, Muenster rates about equal. The Hornets have played lots of good football, especially on defense, but have had the misfortune to let the opposition come with big plays that made the difference. Meanwhile they did a fair job on offense but wasted too much of the effort on turnovers and penalties. If those problems can be eliminated and MHS can measure up to its potential, it has a fine chance to break the losing streak. An encouraging factor for them is good physical condition and still a good attitude of the team.

Last week's results were Pottsboro 14, Muenster 0; Callisburg 29, Lindsay 8; Pilot Point 20, Celina 0; Sanger 20, Aubrey 7.

Standings after the fifth week are Pilot Point 5-0; Celina 4-1; Pottsboro 4-1; Callisburg 3-2; Muenster 1-4; Lindsay 1-4; Sanger 1-4; Aubrey 1-4.

Muenster Juniors Lose 2 Contests

Misfortune continued for the Muenster Junior teams in their double header at Pottsboro. In the Junior High contest the Little Monsters as usual were decisively outsize and outnumbered and did well to keep the score down to 30-0. About their only satisfaction of the long season is in getting lots of experience.

The Junior Varsity game was more of a contest ending in a more competitive score of 21-12.

Muenster kids made an encouraging start with a good drive following kickoff. It used seven minutes of the 8 minute first quarter and reached the 20 yard line, then ran out of steam.

Pottsboro took possession there and used only two plays in going 80 yards for the first touchdown. One run gained 20 and the next one gained 60. A kick for extra point was good and the Cardinals led 7-0.

Muenster's comeback started with returning the kickoff to midfield and driving all the way. The payoff was a 5 yard crash at the line by Gary Klement. However failing in the try for 2 points left them trailing 7-6.

Pottsboro likewise made a good drive of some 60 yards topped by a 20 yard romp. The try for extra points was good. The score at half time was 15-6.

Starting the third quarter the Hornets moved again. Jerry Serna and Matt Sicking made most of the gains in a 40 yard drive until Kevin Felderhoff's pass to David Flusche for 25 yards reached the goal line. MHS still trailed 15-12.

imposed on businesses and individuals, but can't be held accountable like elected representatives. Civil Service makes them practically immune to discharge. But now it seems Congress is wising up to the situation and making more effort to assure that the bureaucrats do not go overboard in enforcing the laws. An instance is passage by the House a few days ago, by a 347-14 vote, of a bill to continue existing prohibitions on IRS from issuing regulations to tax fringe benefits. This prohibition was to expire on Dec. 31, 1979, and now has been extended through May 31, 1981. While wondering why the prohibition was not made permanent, we can at least be grateful for some 18 months of restraint on the autocratic IRS.
