Good news for Reagan supporters is this week's poll report showing that he has moved back into the lead after trailing the president only a week ago. As might be expected, the change has newsmen wondering whether this is a reaction to the mean campaigning that Carter has done lately, or whether it's a previous failure to read all of the available signs.

Democrats who gloated early in the race about Reagan sticking his foot in his mouth in the Taiwan and evolution statements got a big shock a few weeks later when Carter called his opponent a "racist" and purveyor of "hatred." Next they heard him say that the election is a choice between peace and war, adding that history shows him to be the peace candidate.

This kind of personal attack has no appeal whatever to calm citizens and actually antagonizes many, which can be important to persons who still have to decide. Understandably party leaders were disturbed by the mean mouthing. Possibly it is reflecting in the polls.

Also possibly reflected in the polls is a slippage of the president's support among people who backed him in the 1976 election. A number of metropolitan papers sampled precincts and compared their findings with the previous voting records, finding that Carter did better in 1976.

The Carter strategy, apparently is to goad Reagan into making unwise statements of his own which the campaign machine can exploit in presenting him as irresponsible and incompetent. Meanwhile Carter makes his principal appeal to sectors of society which are impressed by what he promises to do for them. He hopes to acquire a fat total of votes from a flock of minorities like blacks and browns, welfare beneficiaries, no-nuke advocates, gays, left wingers and what not. His big problem, though, is getting their full support. For instance he can't be certain that all blacks and browns will go along with their leaders, or that union members will vote as union bosses say, or that teachers will take their advice from the Department of Education.

While American politics is officially divided into Democratic and Republican, the American public is dividing more and more into conservative and liberal. The trend has been especially evident this year as millions of citizens are swinging over to the conservatism of the Republican party. After four years of the Carter administration they have had a belly full, and they want a change.

Specific complaints can be named by the dozens in which Carter and associates promised to improve all segments of the economic system... "you can depend on that"... but taxes and spending and interest rates and the national debt are all higher.

He said he would strengthen national defense so as to command world respect but scrapped vital weapons like the neutron bomb, the MX mobile missile, the B-1 bomber and a badly needed shipbuilding program. Meanwhile he cooperated in detente and the SALT programs which support the Soviet military and handicap ours. In many cases the Carter policy has appeared to be more Soviet than American.

The same attitude applies to foreign policy, which is Continued on Page 14

Knights of Columbus Observe Columbus Day October 5

Group attendance at Mass followed by a communion breakfast will be the first event in this year's observance of Columbus Day by members of the Muenster Knights of Columbus.

The dual observance, celebrating the feast of the KC's patron begins at the 9 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church, where members are asked to gather in an area that has been reserved for them. Widows of deceased members are invited to attend as special guests. A feature of the service will be the council's annual presentation of its Good Neighbor Award, which is given in the spirit of ecumenical good will to someone of another faith.

The church service will be followed by communion breakfast in the KC Hall with the Good Neighbor as honored guest and Past State Deputy Don Sauermaann as the speaker. Sauermaann is also known to many local people for his weekly TV commercials for Haverty's and Wine of the Week. Wayne Klement will be master of ceremonies for the breakfast.

The second part of the Columbus Day observance is the council's social gala of the year, a dance in the KC Hall Saturday night, Oct. 11. Everyone is welcome. Following a happy hour at 7, the dance starts at 8 with music by Ed Landry's orchestra, which is recommended by people who attended the Jaycee installation dance. Reservations can be obtained by calling the KC Club or Grand Knight Harold Flusche.

Drought and Heat Wave Busted

The backed-up quota of months of moisture was poured on Muenster during the past weekend. As if measuring the shortage since the first of June, the bountiful clouds delivered 7.90 inches in three days of soakers.

Readings on Steve Moster's gauge were 2.28 inches on September 27, 3.52 on the 28th, 2.06 on the 29th, and .04 on the 30th. Combined with 1.04 earlier in the month it makes 8.94 inches for September, the third high total for the month on the local record. The wettest were Sept. '62, 11.11 and Sept. '64, 11.12.

However there are other records. The 7.90 is the biggest for any three successive days since the record was started in 1946. September '72 was close with 7.86 for 3 days and July 73 received 7.33. Also October '59 had 6.90 in 3 days.

Other big figures discovered in the search for 3-day records were a few single day whoppers. The record holder is 6.65 on August 14, 1971, including a 6 inch deluge in 2 hours. Other big 1-day rains were 6.15 inches on Oct. 31, '74; 4.5 on Oct. 4, '59; 4.45 on May 17, '64; 4.57 on July 29, '73.

The wettest months on record were April '57 with 12.43; May '70, 11.61 and September of '62 and '64 with 11.11 and 11.12 respectively.

As regards the drought just past, the readings were 1.61 in June, .26 in July and .12 in August a total of 1.99 inches in 3 months. At this time, the year's total moisture is 18.69, far behind normal for this time of the year. Actually, this total for nine months is about half of a year's normal.

Still more records have been set by the temperature. The heat wave brought a total of 80 days over 100 during the summer, including 42 consecutive days.

Delightfully mild temperatures of the past week were recorded as follows by Steve Moster. Sept. 25, 71 and 85; Sept. 26, 68 and 77; Sept. 27, 55 and 55; Sept. 28, 53 and 60; Sept. 29, 57 and 68; Sept. 30, 62 and 75; Oct. 1, 60 and 82.

After months, a welcome sight.

United Way Kicks Off Oct. 14

Planning for the Muenster's 1980-81 United Way Campaign got started this week with the appointment of Monica Hess as community chairman, and Johnny Pagel and Henry Weinzapfel as co-chairmen. They have chosen October 14 for their kickoff date, and until then will be busy recruiting workers and preparing the packets for prospective donors.

The kickoff will be held at the regular Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting with a film preceding the distribution of packets. All workers, whether or not they are chamber members, will be encouraged to attend.

Muenster's activity follows the county United Way drive which had its kickoff meeting last Monday, Sept. 29 at K-Bob's Steak House with Tom Parsons as the 1980-81 president and Johnny Leftwich as campaign chairman. The adopted goal is $112,804, which is described as a major challenge for the people of Cooke County, but the committee is confident "this record breaking goal will be reached or exceeded."

As pointed out by Parsons, "When you give through United Way, you don't feel like you're helping some people at the expense of others, because your one gift helps support services that cover practically the entire range of human needs. And volunteers... local people like yourself... spend long hours going over budgets and needs in order to decide where the money can best be used. So you don't need to choose when you just want to help as much as you can."

Cooke County United Way supports thirteen agencies as follows. American Red Cross, $13,500; Boy Scouts of America, $8,700; Camp Fire Girls, $20,000; Council on Alcoholism, $1,330; Cooke County 4-H and FFA, $3,500;

Gainesville Boys Club, $37,200; Muenster Youth Council, $2,500; Salvation Army, $8,000; Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, $7,500; United Service Organization (USO) $650; North Texas Radio Reading Service, $144; Mini-Bus Service, $1,250; Texas United Way, $330.

Western Store Opens

A new store for Muenster is R&J's Western Wear, operating in the gift department of the former Gehrig Hardware location since last week. The initials stand for Rex Simmons and Jim Gehrig.

Operators of the store are Rex and Donna Simmons, Donna on a full time schedule and Rex part time. Jim and Cindy Gehrig will continue at Gehrig Hardware.

At this time the store is operating with a partial stock, expecting to receive its supply of jeans and western shirts along with other items early in November. The stock of cowboy boots and work boots formerly at the hardware store, has been moved to the western store, and at the same time other shipments of merchandise have arrived.

Principal items now in stock are cowboy boots, work boots, felt and straw cowboy hats, belts, buckles, feather hat bands and western dress shirts. Featured brands are Nocona and Texas cowboy boots, Santa Rosa work boots, Justin belts and buckles, Royce felt hats, Fairfield straws, Woodland and Bordertown shirts. Jeans and shirts on order are Wrangler and Loren.

A service to be added soon is dry cleaning. Acme Cleaners of Gainesville will pick up and deliver at the store twice a week.

County is Eligible For Drought Aid

The Small Business Administration has designated Cooke County eligible for disaster relief due to drought, Congressman Charles W. Stenholm announced today.

Farmers in the county can apply to their Regional Small Business Administration office to recover losses caused by drought from April 1, 1980 through August 21, 1980, Stenholm said.

Applications for physical damage should be filed before February 12, 1981 and for economic losses before May 12, 1981.

Adjacent counties are also eligible for assistance.

Owners of R&J's Western Wear are currently stocking Muenster's newest business in the location formerly occupied by the gift department of Gehrig Hardware. Shown with the antique cash register used by the late Wm. Gehrig, third generation ancestor, are Rex and Donna Simmons and Cindy and Jim Gehrig. Staff Photo

Hoedown Gets Rain Instead of Crowd

Saturday's Harvest Hoedown turned out to be somewhat less than expected, but nobody is downhearted. The absence of crowds was more than offset by the presence of a good, soaking million dollar rain. It was what the community has been waiting and praying for ... for months.

Even so, downtown activity wasn't a complete washout, according to Dennis Hess, the Hoedown chairman. Store traffic was better than normal. And the drawing for free tickets to the Cowboy game was held on schedule, the winners being Dorothy Hartman and Bernard Hesse. Each got a group of four tickets, the opportunity to host a game party as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Ronnie Knabe Dies of Lukemia

Little Ronnie Knabe's long struggle with leukemia came to an end last Sunday at 12:05 p.m. in the Cook Children's hospital of Fort Worth. He had been a patient there for 10 weeks receiving daily transfusions from relatives and friends of Muenster and Dallas. His illness began 10 months ago.

Rosary services for him were held Tuesday at 4 and 8 p.m. in the chapel of Nick Miller Funeral Home, and the funeral was held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Sacred Heart Church with five priests con-celebrating in the Mass of Christian Burial. They were Father Paul Hoedebeck, Father Dan Williams, Father Placidus Eckart, Father Stephen Eckart and Father Denis Soerries.

Burial was in the parish cemetery directed by Nick Miller with Charles Knabe, David Reiter, Leonard Reiter and David Vogel as pallbearers.

Ronnie was born in Fort Worth on February 16, 1970 a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Knabe. He was a fifth grader in Muenster Public School.

Survivors are his parents; a sister, Mary; two brothers, Brian and Cory, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hoedebeck and his paternal grandfather, Joe Knabe.

IDEAS HAVE CONSEQUENCES
 It appears to be very difficult for Americans to realize the relationship between ideas and consequences. For example, the ideas which resulted in granting inordinate power to organized labor through biased legislation have finally brought forth the inevitable consequences.

The news stories of the day carry a report of unemployed auto workers pitching tents across from their idle factories in Michigan. They are attempting to demonstrate that they may lose their homes if they don't get their jobs back soon.

These are workers who have been laid off by a Ford Motor Company plant which produces Lincoln Continental and Continental Mark V luxury automobiles.

The message lies in their statements blaming the Japanese for the loss of their jobs. We can understand and sympathize with their plight and their reaction as unreal as it may be. People who buy luxury cars are not primarily interested in mileage; they are interested in luxury, comfort and prestige. Japanese imports do not provide these prerequisites.

The sales of luxury vehicles are down for the very same reason the sales of all U.S.-produced cars are down: the prices are too high. The luxury cars now being produced by the Michigan demonstrators are priced in the $15,000 to $20,000 range. Even mid-sized autos designed for the average wage-earner are in the $8,000 to $11,000 range.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — In a surprise move that voters would probably like to see more of in state government, the State Board of Insurance Commissioners last week voted against a hike in auto insurance rates.

The insurance industry had requested a rate hike that would raise consumer premiums by close to $80 million in Texas. And since the state board staff had recommended a $257 million increase, almost 19 percent, most observers thought the industry would come away with some gains.

But board chairman William P. Daves said the industry has enjoyed steady income increases from investments, and proposed to deny the rate increase. He was joined in the vote by Lyndon Olson Jr. and Durwood Manford.

Daves' denial was shock enough for the industry representatives attending the hearing, but chairman Daves, the former president of a bank and insurance company, had more to say.

Using his own calculations, he argued companies have benefited from a steady increase in income from their investments, and that because of drastic inflationary changes, a thorough review should be made of the approach to the methods of insurance rate-making.

Daves recommended creation of an advisory committee to study the subject of increased insurance company investment income.

Reduction Blocked

If consumers stand to gain on that front, they stand to lose on another one.

In the same week, a state district judge blocked a 14 percent reduction in credit life insurance rates granted by the board last March.

Officials put the potential drop in rates to consumers at between $20 and $40 million in Texas.

But Judge Jim Dear ruled the insurance board violated the Administrative Procedure Act last spring by not conducting the hearings as a "contested case." He also said the board lacked the authority to regulate credit insurance commissions.

Plutonium Leak?

State Sen. A. R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, asked the State Health Department to look into reports of a plutonium leak at Todd Shipyards in Galveston.

The shipyard is the storage site for controversial low level nuclear waste that has been building up in Texas for the past two years.

Schwartz has consistently spurred the shipyard to transfer its waste, but the removal has been slow. He called the plutonium report "the last straw" in a series of inept waste handling.

Gasoline Tax

One of the toughest issues before the next Legislature will be reduction of local property taxes and finding other ways to raise revenue.

Governor Clements and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby have considered raising the five cents-per-gallon fuel tax, currently the lowest tax in the nation, but last week Hobby rejected a tax hike on motor fuels.

He said he doesn't believe it will be needed because of unforeseen revenue increases in the sales tax and oil and gas severance taxes.

Hobby may be reading the mood of taxpayers at the same time he is reading tax reports. Motor fuels are always subject to price increases, especially at times of crises in the Mideast, and consumers are already angry enough at the rising cost. If the state were to add the burden of increased taxes, more than one political head would fall to outraged voters.

Clements has yet to back off the idea, but some observers expect him to follow Hobby's example.

Controversial Poll

A poll released last week showing President Jimmy Carter eight points ahead of Ronald Reagan in Texas has been praised, booed, respected and scoffed by many.

Clements says Reagan's own poll shows him leading Carter. The Carter folks say Reagan is dropping and the President is rising in the polls.

Both candidates will visit Texas again before November, surely causing more chaotic polling results.

Texas Atty. General Mark White, in legal opinions issued last week, ruled:

—For purposes of Section 21.301 (a) of the Texas Education Code, "current term" means the period beginning with the first day of scheduled in-service training and ending with the first day of scheduled in-service training the following year.

—Public school teachers may not be required to pay for substitutes necessitated by their absence while engaged in military training or duty.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower

U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS

142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510
 One of the most encouraging signs for our nation's future I've seen this year is the surge of concern about the state of our nation's defenses.

People are demanding answers to tough questions about our nation's ability to defend its interests in the world. The very fact that you are asking the questions has led to a change in attitude in Washington. Defense has moved off the back burner as an issue and a priority.

Unfortunately, the answers to questions about our readiness are discouraging. We are short of everything from bullets to manpower. We are being out-spent by the Soviet Union in almost every area of national defense. Our fleet is sorely in need of more and more modern ships. Our ability to transport men and equipment to trouble spots throughout the world is alarmingly inadequate. We have been reduced to a foreign policy of bluff and rhetoric in too many areas.

We still have an awesome military machine. But we must act now if we are to stop the deterioration of our relative strength and begin the slow and expensive process of rebuilding.

I am optimistic that we can do that, because the people of this great nation are leading their leaders to the conclusion that we must take the necessary steps to accomplish that goal.

What, specifically, must we do? Congress has already taken the first step by adding some $6 billion to the President's requested defense budget for the fiscal year beginning in October. We also added another $1.6 billion for military pay and benefits. With sufficient public pressure and interest, I believe that we can get the necessary money to carry through with the authorized program.

But we still fall short of our needs. Remedying this situation requires action in a number of areas. Some, such as development of new weapons systems, will take a great deal of time. But other steps can pay off immediately.

We need more ships, and ships take months if not years to build. But we also need to provide enough money for the ones we have to operate instead of limiting their steaming time by not providing enough fuel.

The same situation exists with our planes. It is critical that we have a new bomber ready for action as quickly as possible. That can't happen in the next year. But we could increase our operating and maintenance budgets enough to make sure that all of the planes we do have are ready to fly — and that there is enough fuel to keep them in the air. The services do not have enough money now to do either.

Our new commitments in the Indian Ocean-Persian Gulf area require still other steps in expanding our conventional forces. If we are to have a permanent naval presence in the Indian Ocean, and I am convinced we must, we must also have at least one additional carrier-battle group. Otherwise, we are left with our existing problem of robbing other areas of what were already barely adequate numbers of ships to meet long-standing commitments.

We must increase our ability to move troops quickly. With our present equipment, we could move one Marine division to a world hot spot if we had to. But it would require pulling resources together from all over the world to do it. That isn't satisfactory.

The list goes on. The needs I've outlined here are among the most critical initiatives. They are the minimum you should expect from your leaders immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wolf spent three days of last week visiting children and grandchildren out of town. From Wednesday through Friday they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kupper and family of Rockwall, and of a son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wolf and family of Dallas. A grandson, Scotty Wolf was hospitalized the day before in Richardson Hospital for treatment of his broken left leg, suffered in a football game.

Hospital Sponsors Diabetes Clinic

A diabetic clinic sponsored by Muenster Memorial Hospital in its conference room on September 26 was a rewarding experience to personnel of the hospital and about a dozen visitors from Muenster, Saint Jo, Montague, Nocona and Caps Corner.

The program featured a talk by Dr. Elan Leevy of Dallas, consulting dietitian for Muenster Hospital, plus films, and literature relating to diabetics and special diets for them. In addition Joan Walterscheid demonstrated for dextrometer, a new piece of equipment used at the hospital for doing a blood sugar determination on a patient in 1 minute.

A question and answer period followed, as well as an exchange of diabetic recipes and discussion of problems related to diabetics.

Diabetes Update '80

Joan Walterscheid, head nurse of Muenster Memorial Hospital, represented the hospital last Saturday at Diabetes Update, 1980, sponsored by North Texas Affiliate of the American Diabetes Association at Camp Sweeney. The full day program was a detailed presentation on diabetes, its current methods of treatment and research progress for primary health care in professional and clinical establishments.

Library Receives 8 Museum Books

Muenster Public Library is one of over 300 public and school libraries in the state chosen to receive a gift of eight books from the Amon Carter Museum in Fort Worth.

The gifts were made possible by a grant from a private Dallas foundation. The Museum undertook a similar program in the mid-70s under a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

Officials for the Museum said that they were pleased to be able to share the programs of the Museum, as represented by the books, with such a large number of libraries.

The books cover a wide range of American art, history, and photography.

All chronicle exhibitions that appeared at the Museum and other institutions throughout the country. The Amon Carter Museum opened in 1961 and is devoted to the "Western" of America. It has published over 70 books in its twenty-year history.

The books given to the library are: The Bison in Art by Larry Barsness, Cities on Stone by John Reys, Dorothea Lange Looks at the American Country Woman, The Track Going Back, The Democratic Art by Peter Marzio, American Art from the Worcester Art Museum, American Impressionist and Realist Paintings from the William Marshall Fuller Collection, and Todd Webb Photographs.

John Pagel Heads City Park Board

John Pagel was elected president of the Muenster Park Board at its regular meeting Tuesday night in the City Hall. Others elected were Jack Flusche, vice-president, and Edgar Dyer, secretary. Also on the board are Claude Klement and J.W. Fisher.

In other business the board approved a request from Muenster Jaycees to drill a shallow water well in the park for watering vegetation... to relieve demand on the city's regular water system in case of another drought.

Also, the park board, as custodian of the Muenster Youth Program's finances, approved a request for $360 by the local cub scouts.

Carol Grewing Marries Jim Koelzer

Carol Lee Grewing became the bride of Jim Koelzer in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, September 27. Father Stephen Eckart officiated at 5 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grewing, Jr. of Rt. 4, Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Koelzer, Sr. of Muenster. The bride is a graduate of Era High School, attends Cooke County College and is employed by W.J. Luke Company. The groom is a graduate of Muenster High School and is employed by Felderhoff Bros. Drilling Co.

Their vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with arrangements of gladioli, carnations, gypsophila and Fuji mums, with lighted candles in tall holders. A pair of tall floor candelabra each held an ascending spiral of lighted candles, entwined with greenery and gladioli and mums.

The bride was presented at the altar by her father. She wore a formal white wedding gown of silk organza. The bodice, with scalloped sweetheart neckline, was overlaid with Venise lace. Long full sheer sleeves were gathered to matching lace cuffs. The skirt, attached to the high waistline, was designed of elegant crystal pleating and extended to a chapel train.

Her picture hat was of matching lace, with a three-quarter length veil attached in back. Her all-white bridal bouquet was of cascading roses and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid. A crystal and silver rosary - a graduation gift from her god-mother, Mrs. Frank Beyer, was entwined in the flowers. In keeping with tradition, she carried a lace handkerchief given by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Albert Reiter, and borrowed an opal ring from her sister, Kathy Barton, and had a penny in her shoe.

For sentiment, she presented a red rose to her mother, to the groom's mother and placed a similar rose in tribute on the Blessed Virgin's altar during the ceremony. Following the recitation of their vows, the couple lit their Unity candle on the altar.

Attendants

Mrs. Kathy Barton of Gainesville was her sister's matron of honor; Mrs. Terry Gilbreath of Denton, another sister was bridesmatron; Robin Walterscheid, bride's cousin of Muenster was bridesmaid; Molly Koelzer of Muenster, groom's sister was junior bridesmaid and Kay Grewing of Gainesville, bride's sister was flower girl. The honor attendants wore identical dresses of dusty rose Quiana, designed with draped bodice, empire waistline, and crystal pleated skirt, and matching fingertip length shoulder capes of chiffon. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and yellow daisies.

The flower girl and junior bridesmaid wore dresses of rose and gray floral Batiste, with puffed sleeves and pink satin ribbon tie at the empire

Reception

A reception, dinner and dance followed in the Sacred Heart Community Center, hosted by parents of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Beverly Yosten of Dallas, sister of the groom presented Scripture readings; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beyer of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin "Red" Loerwald of Gainesville, god-parents of the bride and groom, presented Offertory gifts.

The bride's table held a centerpiece of two doves surrounded by flowers and white wedding bells with flower streamers. Guest tables were decorated with dusty rose ribbon and fans in pink, burgundy and grey.

The three tiered white wedding cake, trimmed in pink, stood over a lighted fountain and the groom's chocolate cake were placed on a separate table, on a lace cloth. The table held two arrangements of pink, burgundy and white carnations. A wall banner of crocheted lace was lettered in rose.

When the couple returns from a trip to New Orleans, they will be at home in Muenster.

The rehearsal dinner was held at The Center, hosted by the groom's parents on Thursday evening, for the wedding party and their guests.

A&M archaeologists identify British ship

COLLEGE STATION — Texas A&M nautical archaeologists have discovered that a jumbled mass of scorched timber and metal was a British flagship from the Revolutionary War Battle of Yorktown.

Archaeologist Richard Steffy, who is ship reconstructor for the Institute of Nautical Archaeology headquartered at Texas A&M, led nine graduate students in a project which confirmed a shipwreck in Virginia's York River was HMS Charon, flagship of Lord Charles Cornwallis.

Researchers from INA and Texas A&M became involved because the institute is the world leader in training underwater archaeologists and landlocked Texas A&M is the only American university offering a master's degree in anthropology with a speciality in nautical archaeology.

Importance of Soil Testing Increases

By Neil Tibbets

Getting your soil tested has always been important, but now this proven practice is more important than ever, emphasizes Neil Tibbets, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Fertilizer is getting more and more expensive, so it's crucial for producers to get the most from their fertilizer dollar. And getting a profitable return from fertilizer depends on the level of available nutrients in the soil before fertilization. That calls for a soil test.

A soil test will determine which nutrients are deficient in the soil for a particular crop so that a producer can fertilize to supplement those nutrients. It's not profitable to supply nutrients already available in the soil in sufficient quantities for a particular crop or to supply added nutrients that the crop does not need or cannot use.

Now is an excellent time to take soil samples and have soil tested for fall crops as well as those for the 1981 season. Soil test results can be obtained more quickly this time of year due to a smaller volume than in the spring. And, once producers have their test results they can order the fertilizer they need for the coming season.

So to get the most from your fertilizer dollar, get your soil tested now and then stock up on needed fertilizer to beat the late winter and early spring rush.

MHS Volley Team In Howe Tourney

Muenster High's volleyball team is on the verge of a big Saturday, competing in a tournament at Howe. Other entries will be from Bonham, Callisburg, Howe, Frisco, Sanger, Whitesboro, Royse City, Allen and Bells.

Their first match is the preliminary with Bells, which will decide whether they go into the champ or consolation bracket. Final play begins at 6:30 (third place); then 7:30 (consolation) and 8:30 (championship).

The Hornets were winners in two matches with Callisburg Tuesday. Junior varsity started the good work by scores of 15-8 and 15-4 with Mary Winn and Renee Wimmer the high scorers.

The varsity also took two in a row, 15-7 and 16-14, the latter a great team effort and a definite improvement over last week's performance.

SH Junior Teams Change Schedules

Cancellation of junior varsity schedules by a number of area schools because of a shortage of players for both varsity and junior varsity teams, has left Sacred Heart with open dates on its junior schedule. Accordingly, Jon LeBrasseur, athletic director, has revised the SH schedule.

He suggests that the previous schedule be replaced by this one.

Thurs., Oct. 2, here, Alvord vs junior high, 6 p.m.; S&S vs junior varsity, 7:30.

Sat., Oct. 11, at FW Country Day, junior high at 1 p.m. preceding varsity game.

Thurs., Oct. 16, at S&S, junior varsity, 7 p.m.

Mon., Oct. 20, here, junior varsity vs FW Country Day, 5 p.m., junior high vs Cisterian, 6:30.

Thurs., Oct. 30, here, Valley View vs junior high and junior varsity 6:00 and 7:30.

Thurs., Nov. 6, here, junior high vs St. Luke of Irving, 6:00; junior varsity vs Boyd, 7:30.

Thurs., Nov. 13, Both junior games with Notre Dame cancelled.

Hornets Bow to Valley View Eagles 27-7

Muenster Hornets had ideas last week that by giving a super effort and getting a few breaks they could play with the mighty Valley View Eagles. And that's how the game went until about midway into the second quarter, but after that the Eagles took over and held the Hornets to a few scattered first downs while adding three touchdowns to their score.

The final count was 27 to 7, whereas it was 7 to 7 in the second period. Led by the elusive quarterback Alan Kassen and hard running Paul Nehib, with the help of a stalwart line, the Eagles broke several big plays which made the big difference. Kassen was the game's standout with big gains of 39 and 36 yards and consistent short gains, plus 2 touchdowns and 2 interceptions.

For about half of the first period the action was all defense with one first down by each team breaking the monotony of five punts. Then Jerry Serna seemed to start something by recovering an Eagle fumble on the 50, but a pass interception by Kassen a few plays later sparked the first Eagle drive. It went 47 yards in six plays the big gains being 10 and 16 by Nehib. The 16 yard run was good for the TD. Nehib's kick added a point. The score was 7-0 at 9:35 in the period.

Muenster's response was its best performance of the game. After a kick off return to its own 35, Dale Swirczynski passed to David Flusche for 14 yards. Three more plays left them short of first down distance by inches, at the 41 of Valley View. They decided on a fourth down gamble on which Swirczynski's fine second effort kept the drive alive. However a quarterback sack and penalty for delay spoiled the next series forcing a punt. That's when fortune stepped in to give the Hornets a helping hand. The punt was fumbled by a receiving Eagle and Flusche was there to recover on the Eagle 15. Gary Klement slipped through the line and down to the 2 and scored on the next try. Swirczynski's kick added a point. The score was 7-7 as the clock read 6:08 in the second quarter.

The kickoff that followed seemed to continue the Hornets' good luck. Fumbled just in front of the goal line, it tumbled into the end zone and the receiver did a good job getting back to the 3, where the Eagles still had their backs to the goal line. But the situation changed explosively as Kassen broke through and made a broken field run of 39 yards to the Eagle 43.

They made the remaining 57 yards in 9 plays. Big gains along the way were Nehib's 22 and Kassen's pass to Wells for 22. Nehib scored

Tigers Take FW Cardinals 27-14

The Tigers of Sacred Heart and the Cardinals of Fort Worth Christian slogged out most of two quarters on fairly even terms in last Friday's constant drizzle on the SH field. But before the half ended the Tigers moved ahead by a TD and sweetened their lead later. The final count was 27-14, giving Sacred Heart a 2-2 record for the season to date.

The Cards started with a first down on the SH 46 and spoiled their next series by a pair of penalties. However following their kick the Tigers had to kick when they failed to advance... and promptly got a break. Fort Worth fumbled the kick. Darrell Herr recovered it on the Cardinal 35.

A pass, Mike Nash to Brain Bednorz reached the 15 and four plays later Nash circled right and for a 10 yard touchdown. Nash's kick added a point. SH led 7-0 at 5:51.

The Cowtown visitors lost no time in matching the TD. First play after kickoff Kevin Walters got around left end and raced 70 yards to pay dirt. The kick for PAT failed. FW trailed 7-6 at 5:32.

On the next SH possession two short gains plus Kirk Mollenkopf's 16 got to the Christian 19, but a fumble ended the drive suddenly. Taylor recovered for the Cards, and four plays later Bednorz intercepted giving SH another opportunity on the 19. The next series was a dud, losing yardage back to the 21 as well as possession.

Then, suddenly, another turnover. Herr recovered a fumble on the 24 and the Tigers finally cashed in. Four tries gained to the 11 and Nash scored via the left end. A run for bonus points failed. SH led 13-6 at 11:22 in the second.

The Christians came back with a fine drive of 35 yards to the 29 and Scott went in from the 25 three plays later. But the score was wiped out for holding and the ball set back to the 40, where Taylor booted a perfect punt. It went out of bounds on the 1. Tigers had their backs to the goal, where they fumbled the ball away on the third play. Stone recovered. Alexander scored on the next play, and Scott followed over for a 2 point bonus. The Cards were ahead 14-12, their first lead of the game.

However the lead was destined to be short. Following kickoff the Tigers had to kick on second series and got back in business when Curtis Henscheid intercepted three plays later. With 70 yards to go they promptly made a pair of first downs, after which a fine pass, Nash to John Hartman gained 36 to the 5. Next play was a pitchout, Nash to Mollenkopf, for a scoring sprint. The run for extra points failed. SH led 19-14 seconds before half time.

Back after intermission, the Tigers started moving on first possession. From their 26 they gained in two series and stalled in the third and had to punt. However Hartman's fumble recovery gave them another start at the Cardinal 29. Six plays from there produced the TD on a pass from Nash to Bednorz for 19 yards. A try for bonus points failed. SH led 25-14 at 4:06.

The Cardinal comeback was short, gaining 29 yards before the third series had to end in a punt. Likewise SH responded with gains of 64 yards, including a major penalty and a 43 yard pass, Nash to Bednorz, and then fumbled, Scott recovering for the Christians on the 25.

At that point a major penalty moved them back half way to the goal and an attempted kick was fouled by a high snap from center. It resulted in a safety, upping the score to 27-14.

With 8 minutes remaining, there still was lots of action if not a score. Rick Hennigan returned the free kick 29 yards to the Card 34.

Tigers kicked on the next series and Cards promptly made 33 on a pass plus another first down and fumbled on the third series. Hal Mollenkopf recovered. Just before the end a nice 18 yard pass gain was followed by Teddy Walterscheid's interception.

JV Tigers Win 6-0 Over Valley View

Junior Varsity teams of Valley View and Sacred Heart bumped heads in a defensive standoff through most of the first half before the Tigers were able to put their game together. Between kick exchanges the teams had one first down each when the visitors uncorked a 34 yard gain to the Tigers 21, and on the next play Greg Walterscheid inspired his teammates with an interception.

He ran it back to the Tiger 35, a long 65 yards from the end zone, and the Tigers made the distance in 13 tries. The scoring play was an 18 yard sweep around end by Neil Hesse. A run for bonus points failed ending the game scoring at 6-0.

However Sacred Heart was extra busy through the second half defending the 6 point lead. Early in the third period they fumbled a punt giving the Eagles a set-up on the 19. However Valley View fumbled a short time later and SH was in possession on the 10. Four plays later the Tigers had a punt blocked and the Eagles were knocking again at the 19. So Valley View fumbled again and Craig Bayer recovered for SH. But the Tigers still were not out of trouble. Eagles intercepted and had four more tries from the 11. The four tries

Punt, Pass, & Kick

Punt, Pass and Kick time has arrived for youngsters of the community. Their contest will be held Saturday, Oct. 4, at 1 p.m. at Muenster High School with the Jaycees sponsoring. Claude Klement and Jim Endres are co-chairmen.

This is the first time under Jaycee sponsorship. For many years the program has been sponsored nationally by Ford Motor Co. and the National Football League and locally by the Ford dealer. This year both the national and local sponsors have quit and the Jaycees took over.

They are following the same rules and regulations as before. Six age groups, 8 to 13 inclusive, are eligible and the age as of December 31 determines eligibility. For instance, a boy or girl entering the 8 years age group must reach the eighth birthday any date this calendar year and may actually be 7 years old on the contest date.

Scoring is done as before. Distance of a punt, pass and kick, less distance of deviation from a center line, are measured separately and added for the total score.

The prizes are trophies to the first second and third place winners of each age group.

Jaycee chapters of North Texas are also considering a regional contest of winners in this week's local contest. It is tentatively set for Muenster on October 11.

Tournament Postponed

The tournament scheduled Sunday by the Muenster Golf Association has been postponed to Sunday, Oct. 12. The problem involves current repairs to the course after the heavy rain.

Hornets to Meet Tough S&S Rams on Friday

The odds are still stacked against the MHS Hornets as they approach an encounter with Sadler-Southmayd's Rams in the final game of their pre-district schedule. As revealed to Coach Jerry Stinson, the S&S boys are big and physical, especially a power-running 210 pound fullback who is double hard to stop. In Stinson's opinion the Rams probably cannot match Valley View in speed and finesse but they will have lots of raw power.

The Rams look equally good on paper with a record of 3-0-1. They defeated Era 36-0, Tom Bean 48-6 and Saint Jo 12-0. Their other score was a 14-14 tie with Pottsboro, rated as one of the stronger teams of District 14-AA.

By comparison, Muenster has a win over Nocona, a tie with Lindsay and losses of 13-12 to Callisburg and 27-7 Valley View.

Another factor is the Hornet injury record. Of the four starters who have been sidelined, John Walterscheid, Larry Fleitman and Ricky Winn are regarded as barely possible returnees...more probably not ready. Also Bob Hamric is still out with the fracture received at Lindsay, the report of which was botched in the Enterprise last week. Bob got it in the first scrimmage play, not in the sideline excitement before the game. Also the injury was to a foot bone, not the leg. And it was minor, probably keeping him out of only 2 or 3 games. Otherwise all players are well and ready.

Despite the handicaps, the Hornets and their coach are still enthusiastic and confident. Stinson is extra proud of their good defense and their over all hustle against last week's talented foe. They're ready for the Rams and itching for an upset.

Tigers Travel to Alvord Saturday

With the usual comparisons indicating an even game, the Tigers are due to have an uphill struggle when they meet Alvord Saturday night. The difference is the home field advantage, and even more so when the Bulldogs are expected to be specially fired up for homecoming.

Otherwise the teams ought to be about even, according to Virgil Henscheid, the Tiger assistant coach. Alvord has a 3-0 standing, the loss being to Class AA Coppell, which rates Alvord as a fast and scrappy outfit. Sacred Heart's record is 2-2.

Other information on the teams shows that they are about even in size with Alvord probably having the advantage in speed, particularly one fleet footed halfback who like to get outside. Henscheid said his boys' first assignment will be to prevent the end runs. As regards Tiger offense, he and Coach Father Stephen are optimistic. The boys moved consistently against Fort Worth Christian, and probably would have done better in better conditions. The rain caused trouble in passing, making the ball harder to throw and to catch. At the same time defense did fine. Over all, they seem to be all set for this week's tussle. The coaches are also pleased to report that the team will be at full strength... still no injuries.

As an accommodation to local fans attending the game, regular Saturday night service in Sacred Heart Church will be held at 5 p.m. instead of 7:30.

months or longer," notes Cawley.

So he recommends exposing layers to a constant daylength by using electric lights. Investing in a time clock, wiring and bulbs will more than pay off in increased production of fall and winter eggs when prices are highest. Use one clear 60 watt bulb set 7 to 8 feet above the litter for every 200 square feet of floor space.

For maximum benefits from lighting, confine layers to poultry houses overnight, adds the specialist. Also, clean all light bulbs and replace those which are burned out before Oct. 1.

Cooling systems need special mixture for hot weather care

COLLEGE STATION — An automobile can withstand hot summer temperatures if the owner provides common sense care, says a research engineer for the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University.

"The single biggest neglect is the cooling system and Sun Belt drivers are the worst offenders," said Rick Tonda. "Water is not the only coolant. The recommended mixture is glycol and water."

He said the mixture matters most when temperatures are very cold or very hot.

"In the latter instance, the right proportion of glycol to water raises the boiling point of the water, on the average to 230 degrees in a pressurized system. That adds 20 to 30 degrees to the operating range," the engineer said. "The owner's manual gives the best proportion for the car."

Energy Facts

Did you know that...

One barrel of oil contains 42 gallons. Forty six percent of a barrel of crude goes for motor gasoline; 26 percent for light fuel for home heating and diesel oil; six percent for aviation jet fuel; 10 percent for residual fuel for utilities, industry, large apartment buildings, and office buildings; two percent for propane, and 10 percent for all other petroleum products.

Forty states already have enacted their own legislation providing property, sales, or income tax breaks for homeowners installing solar equipment.

Alaska's pipeline is now providing the U.S. with 1.4 million barrels of oil a day. The contribution from the pipeline could rise to about two million barrels a day.

Each day, the average American uses the energy from 16 pounds of coal, 3.6 gallons of oil, 240 cubic feet of natural gas, 3.8 kilowatt hours of hydroelectric power, and 3.5 kilowatt hours of nuclear power.

The U.S. Department of Energy reports that Americans are using five percent less gasoline than at this time last year, and we're importing 13.3 percent less oil. The average price of unleaded gasoline (regular) has risen 86 percent during the same period, from 65 cents a gallon to $1.22.

highlighted by the infamous Panama Canal giveaway. Carter and Associates have fenagled to give this vital economic and security installation to a fanatic enemy, who is dedicated to the communist goal of destroying US and the rest of the free world... and they arranged to make us pay the enemy for accepting it. Three fourths of the country violently opposed the deal but was over ruled... and all should remember on election day.

Only slightly less disgraceful was our betrayal of Taiwan at the insistence of the Chinese Communists. They said we could not deal with them without stabbing an old friend in the back, and Carter agreed to stab. He showed the world that America's word to an ally is meaningless.

Likewise he cooperated with red revolutionaries in overthrowing Rhodesia and countries of Central America but has assisted the Reds in constantly trying to destroy Chile, which upset its dictator and restored freedom. Carter's record has been to double cross the world's few remaining free countries and assist the spread of global communism. As the leader of the world's foremost free country he has been a failure and a disgrace.

Another issue that needs consideration this year is the country's moral decay. The Democratic campaign machine has been mean mouthing the fundamentalist movement for its efforts to bring religion into politics, but millions of people know this isn't really the issue. It's not a matter of enhancing the influence of any one denomination, but simply to bring back original American respect for God and morality. The fundamentalists are people from all creeds whose concern is to elect people of their own conviction. Our sincere hope is that they will help elect Reagan and continue the good work in future elections.

We hope this will be the beginning of phasing evil out of our society: the grafters in government; the thieves and murderers and rapists who prey on society; the gays and pornographers and abortionists whose life style is an abomination to God and a ruination to the country.

How does this concern the election? Well the homosexuals and sex glorifiers and abortionists are the people who, by Democratic manipulation, took over the White House Conference on Families. These moral lepers, with Carter's approval, are trying to impose their immoral principles as the guidelines of American family life. And still the party leaders have the nerve to criticize the fundamentalists for their effort to restore morality.

Folder Shows Texas Rocks and Fossils

Rock collectors in Texas will be inspired to add to their collections after seeing a new publication prepared by the Travel and Information Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation. Entitled "Texas Rocks & Fossils," the folder pictures nearly 100 specimens in vivid color. Each is identified by its county or region of origin.

Similar in style and format to the popular "Flowers of Texas" folder, the new publication is designed for the layman rather than the professional collector. It relates helpful suggestions for the amateur rockhound, along with admonitions about unauthorized collecting.

The folder also includes a small map that divides Texas into seven general areas based on the relative age of the surface geology of each region.

"Texas Rocks & Fossils" is available free at any Texas Tourist Bureau or by mail from Texas, Dept. DHT, P.O. Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78763.

Can you explain how a solar water heater works? T. R., Tyler.

In order to understand the operation of a solar water heater, it is helpful to understand the mechanics of an electric water heater, since the two are similar.

In the case of a standard electric water heater, turning on a "hot" water faucet in the house causes cold water to enter the tank. A sensor within the tank determines when the water temperature drops and activates an electric heating element. The element heats the water to the desired temperature (120 degrees F to 140 degrees F) and shuts off.

A solar water heater, however, has two temperature sensors with the second one located at the collector panel. As the sun heats the panel to a temperature higher than that of the water in the tank, the circulating pump turns on to force the cooler water up to the panel. After it is heated, it flows back into the tank. When the water in the tank reaches the indicated temperature, the pump shuts off.

The process continues as long as the panel is hot enough to raise the water temperature. At night or during periods of extreme cloudiness, the electric heating element takes over.

Collector panels and plumbing must be protected against freezing during cold winter months. The most frequently used methods are a drain down system where water drains from the panels when near-freezing temperatures occur and the closed loop system which uses an anti-freeze solution (separated from household water by a heat exchange device) in the exposed areas.

These and other questions on solar water heaters are answered in "Solar Water Heaters — Consumer Tips and Information," a publication available free from the Texas Energy Extension Service. My husband and I are very interested in solar and wind energy and their uses in this area. What information does the Energy Extension Service have on solar and wind? B. W., Beeville.

The Energy Extension Service has available free packets of general information on the domestic use of solar energy and wind energy. Information in the two packets is varied but includes bibliographies, short articles, and lists of manufacturers, designers, and distributors where appropriate.
