Measuring of cotton acreage which comes under the provisions of the cotton reduction act will begin about July 1. It was announced this week by C. W. Lehmburg, county agent.

Mr. Lehmburg stated he had received a number of inquiries for certificates of exemption and bale tags for 1934 cotton. Mr. Lehmburg has written for these certificates and tags, but they have not arrived. He will notify cotton growers through the local press when these arrive, he stated.

MOTHER AND QUINTUPLETS HOLD WORLD SPOTLIGHT

Five living examples which prove that the age of miracles has not passed are shown here—the quintuplets born to Mrs. Olivia Dionne, left, in her log cabin home at Corbeil, Ont. Despite physicians' fears that they could not live, the five girls are thriving under devoted care, with offers of aid coming from all parts of the continent. The children, whose combined weight at birth was 13 pounds 6 ounces, have been named, Cecile, Yvonne, Maria, Emily, and Annette. Ernest Dionne, the father, is 31; the mother, 24.

HIGHWAY AND RAIL CONNECTIONS SOUTH PROMISED BY WHALEY

The paving of Highway No. 19 from the Brown county line to Brady, the building of a shorter highway from Brownwood to San Antonio and the construction of a railroad from San Antonio, north-west, which would serve Brown county, will soon become realities, according to the opinion of Porter A. Whaley, former secretary of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and at present manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Whaley was a visitor in Brownwood last week and while here was taken on a tour of Lake Brownwood. He was most enthusiastic about that great body of water and stated that he would recommend it as a vacation site for San Antonio people. Mr. Whaley stated that the lake would lead to a new Brownwood and was the more enthusiastic about bringing Brownwood and San Antonio closer to each other by highway and by rail.

Mr. Whaley expects to bring D. K. Martin, member of the Texas Highway Commission, to Brownwood, within a few weeks for a visit to Lake Brownwood and the state park. Mr. Martin informed Mr. Whaley that a contract for the paving of highway ten in McCulloch county will be let within a few weeks.

A story from the San Antonio Express of May 30 regarding a railroad from San Antonio into this section also shows that interest in that project, which has been discussed for several years, is still alive.

"As Porter A. Whaley, general manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, lately suggested, this city also is earnestly concerned with region-building. A long-standing plank in the Greater San Antonio Platform called for a railroad to the northwest. Such an outlet has been an objective of the business community for a generation past. On his recent visit to Brownwood, Mr. Whaley found that in West Texas that issue is still very much alive. That region needs a direct railroad line into San Antonio and a direct outlet to the Gulf. The Gulf and West Texas Railway, which would open up rich resources to exploitation is a particularly needful long-range building enterprise that would stimulate growth for permanence, the growth of this city and of all the region, from the Panhandle to the Gulf, which the carrier would serve. Such constructive enterprise now would promote recovery."

Local Men Issue New City Directory

Ray McCorkle and A. B. Cunningham this week are distributing the new city directory, compiled and published by them. The directory is the first issued in three years, and records many business changes and new residence addresses. The publishers estimate the directory to show the population of Brownwood at the present time to be slightly in excess of 12,000. Four-H club girls in Wharton county continue to lead the way in showing the home folks how to make much of the living-at-home. Gardens are tended by 133 girls, 73 of whom made hotbeds late in January for getting their vegetables off to a quick start. Eighty-five Valencia orange trees of the original 1883 plantings near Placencia, Cal., are still living and a few yield fruit.

BROWNWOOD, ARID SPOT IN WET AREA, MAY BE BREWERY SITE

Two engineers, representing a large Milwaukee brewing company, have completed a survey of conditions in and around Brownwood, and have filed with their company a report on the advisability of establishing a brewery near Brownwood. It became known this week. The survey has been in progress for some time, and is one of a series of surveys being made throughout this section of Texas by one of the largest national breweries, which is planning the establishment of a plant in Texas.

Four major considerations will govern the establishment of the brewery, should one be established in Texas, those who talked with the engineers state. Those are said to be: Ample water supply, low fuel rate, rail-and highway outlets to larger population centers of the state, and proximity to consuming centers.

No report of the findings of the engineers could be obtained, as their report was kept secret and filed with the company, but it is known that they made inquiry as to rates for natural gas, took samples of water from Lake Brownwood, and inspected at least one site, north of Brownwood on the Frisco railroad.

The engineers came here from Sweetwater, where they were said to have made a similar survey, and left to make other surveys in this section of the state.

World Employ 200 Establishment of the brewery, which probably will be located somewhere in Texas, will result in the employment of approximately 200 people at peak times, according to information received by The Banner. The peak operation period probably would be about three to four months.

ZEPHYR GIRL WINS BEDROOM CONTEST

Miss Katherine Fisher, of Zephyr has been announced as the winner of the annual Brown county bedroom contest. This announcement followed the filing of reports by judges in this year's contest with Miss Mayesie Malone, county home demonstration agent. The judges were Mrs. Kent Hallum, Mrs. W. R. Scrimgeour and Miss Suella Clark. Miss Fisher's victory in the county contest automatically qualifies her for the district contest. Her room will be inspected and judged by Miss Gertrude Blodgett, district agent, on June 19. Miss Fisher wins a free trip to the annual A. & M. short course in August, this trip being made possible through the courtesy of Austin Mill & Grain Company.

Catherine Porter, of Blanket, won second place in the county bedroom contest and will receive $5.00 to apply on expenses of a trip to this year's short course, this also being donated by Austin Mill & Grain Company, Margaret Guthrie, of Winchell, and Chloe Newton, of Cross Cut, tied for third honors in the county contest. The third place prize has not been announced. The results from this contest have been among the best of any contest ever held in this county, Miss Malone believes. Not only club girls but men and women in several communities have become interested in further home improvement through the improvement made in these bedrooms. Two of the girls in the contest report a total of eighty visitors to their homes in the last few weeks to inspect the changes and improvements made in their rooms.

GILLIAM CONVICTION REVERSED BY COURT

The court of criminal appeals at Austin Wednesday reversed and remanded the conviction of E. E. Gilliam, Sr., former Brownwood business man-banker and former president of the board of trustees of Daniel Baker College.

Mr. Gilliam was tried at the winter term of district court in Brownwood and was found guilty on a charge of embezzlement of campaign funds of Daniel Baker College. He was given a two year prison sentence by the trial jury. Notice of appeal was filed immediately after the jury's verdict was brought in and Mr. Gilliam was released on bond.

Reference to Gilliam's failure to testify in his own behalf at his trial was held by the appeals court to constitute a reversible error.

By virtue of the appeals court's action, the Gilliam case will be reinstated on the court's criminal docket for trial. Court officials were not in a position this week to say when the case would again be called for trial.

George B. Savage For County Judge

George B. Savage, local attorney, has announced his candidacy for County Judge of Brown County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

Mr. Savage's announcement will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Banner.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL DELIVER FLOWERS TO SHUT-INS SUNDAY

Flowers donated by Brownwood members of the Floral Telegraph Association will be delivered to "shut-ins" Sunday by members of the Brownwood Business and Professional Women's Club. It was announced this week by Dr. Mollie W. Armstrong, chairman of the committee from the women's club which will have charge of the distribution.

Every effort will be made by the club members to deliver flowers Sunday morning to every invalid or person confined to their rooms. However, it will be necessary for those knowing of such cases to cooperate.

Mrs. Armstrong asks that everyone knowing of any invalid telephone before Sunday to Armstrong Jewelry Store, phone number 418, or to Brownwood Floral Company, phone number 249-R 1, and give the names.

The custom is an annual one, originating with the floral companies over the country. Last year Brownwood Floral Company donated flowers for more than 100 invalids in Brownwood.

Chester Harrison Is Expected Back Soon

Chester Harrison, secretary of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, who has been in Washington on business for the past month, is expected back in Brownwood Friday or Saturday of this week.

Mr. Harrison has been conferring with government officials regarding the opening of the Citizens National Bank at Brownwood which will take over the affairs of the old Citizens National, now operating under conservatorship. He also has been working in the interest of the city of Brownwood PWA projects, the municipal airport and other federal projects now under consideration.

Fred S. Abney, president of the Citizens National Bank, was in Dallas Thursday. He is expected to confer there with Mr. Harrison and accompany him to Brownwood.

No statement was obtainable this week as to the probable date for opening of the new bank.

Legion Membership Drive Is Extended

Isham A. Smith Post, American Legion, is extending its 1934 membership drive to June 15, in honor of the new State Commander, M. J. Benefield of Brady, recently elected to succeed Van Perkins.

A. S. Gaine and Ray M. Morgan have been named drive captains for the new membership campaign, by which it is hoped to bring the local membership up to the quota for this post.

An open meeting for all ex-service men will be held at the club rooms next Friday night at 8 p. m. Immediately after the close of the 1934 drive on June 15, a year book will be issued and each member will have a membership record of the local post.

Tax Penalties Apply July 1; Rush To Pay This Month Results

Tax Collector Lee Meek expects tax payments during the month of June to rival even the heavy payments made in January each year. All penalties and interest on delinquent taxes go into effect after July 1st and many of the county's taxpayers are making plans to pay their delinquent taxes while they

DAIRYMEN TO SEEK STATE AID IN PLAN TO ESTABLISH CODE

Aid of the State Department of Agriculture was sought Thursday by Brown County Dairymen who are formulating plans for adoption of a Code of Fair Practices to govern the dairying industry in this county. A letter was sent Austin requesting that a state department man be sent to Brown county to organize the dairymen here and to assist in putting into operation the proposed code.

Decision to call in the state was reached at a meeting of dairymen at the court house Wednesday night, the second code meeting held by the group within the past ten days. At the meeting it developed that 25 dairymen, representing 1485 gallons of daily production from 788 cows had signed a request for action by the department. This was estimated to represent 75 per cent of the dairymen and 85 per cent of the production.

The department previously had indicated it would send a man to Brownwood to assist in straightening out the local situation if 51 per cent of the dairymen, representing at least 60 per cent of the production requested it.

Price of milk came in for considerable discussion at the meeting, and a committee was appointed to recommend a selling price for Grade A milk on the Brownwood market that would be fair both to producer and consumer. This committee is composed of Joe Shelton, Earl Foster, A. D. Murphy, and W. H. Parks.

C. W. Lehmburg, county agent, and Chester Harrison, secretary of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, will serve with this committee in drawing up a proposed ordinance which will be submitted to the Brownwood City Council. The ordinance, which is to be patterned after similar ordinances in effect in San Antonio, Lubbock and other cities, will set out the price at which Grade A milk can be sold in Brownwood.

ORVILLE TURNER IS NAMED MANAGER OF EMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Orville H. Turner has been named manager of the Federal Reemployment Service office in Brownwood, effective June 8. He succeeds Raymond Boyett who has been acting manager of the local office since its establishment here about two months ago.

Due to the lack of patronage of the office on the part of employers, it has been necessary to reduce the office force to one man, and Mr. Turner will be in complete charge of operations here in the future, it was announced.

"Many towns carry on reemployment offices at the expense of the employe," Mr. Turner stated Thursday. "Here we have the office operated without expense to anyone."

"If employers will avail themselves of the lists on file at the office, they can secure almost any sort of employes they need, from unskilled labor to educated and well trained help."

Mr. Turner stated that the future policy of the government in keeping the office depended upon the cooperation given by employers. The office has nothing to do with the salaries paid, or the terms of employment, merely acting as the agent for getting employer and employe together.

The office is located on the second floor of the court house. The telephone number is 712.

are able to avoid the penalties and taxes on the last half of the year are now due and payable until July 1 when penalties on these taxes go into effect.

Mr. Meek points out that after July 1, he must collect the penalties and interest in addition to the assessed taxes and for that reason urges the county's property owners to pay during June before these go into effect.

MORE WHEAT CREWS IN FIELD THIS WEEK

Two more wheat crews were in the fields Thursday, measuring wheat acreage in this county, to see that it comes under the provisions of the wheat reduction program. The crews were put to work Wednesday by the county agent.

They are headed by H. J. Starnes of Brooksmith and A. A. Rochester of Bangs. This brings the number of crews up to five.

About 25 per cent of the wheat has been measured. The job will be completed within the next six or eight days, County Agent Lehmburg estimates.

The Senatorial Race

Theoretically, every time a voter casts his ballot for a public official he is given an opportunity to vote for or against a betterment of his own conditions. Actually, however, the result too often is so remotely removed from his every day life that the voter loses sight of the importance of his individual vote.

Brown County voters this year have an opportunity to vote for direct representation in the Texas Senate, a thing they have not had for almost a generation.

Entries have closed in state and district races, and voters in this senatorial district will have a choice between two candidates, one a resident of San Angelo, in Tom Green County, and the other Judge E. M. Davis of Brownwood.

Aside from the qualifications, through training and through service to the people of this county and section, which should be sufficient to place Judge Davis in the Senate without serious difficulty, Brown County voters have a selfish, though very important reason for wanting to see Judge Davis elected.

Brown County too long has been without resident representation in any legislative hall, either in Congress or the two houses of the State Legislature. The county has suffered through such lack of direct representation greatly, especially so during the past year when many favors were granted to counties who had representatives on hand to demand them.

Judge Davis is well known to the readers of The Banner. During the years that he has been a resident of this county, he has served the people in many capacities, most notably as County Judge during the fight for passage of road bonds for the construction of the splendid system of highways we now have.

It is to the credit of the county that it has a citizen so qualified who is willing to give further service in the Texas Senate, and so far as Brown County is concerned, Judge Davis should not find it necessary to make a campaign.

To those voters in other counties who may not be so familiar with his qualifications, The Banner unhesitatingly recommends Judge Davis as eminently fitted for the position, able and willing to give splendid service to all of the district, and a man who will add distinction to the office and the district he serves.

The Banner is glad of the opportunity of adding its endorsement to those of Judge Davis' many friends in Brown County, and wish for him many years of useful service to his people in the Texas Senate.

This week The Banner begins its second year under the present ownership, although well along in its 50th year of continuous service. Maybe it's not much of a milestone in the long history of the paper, but it gives us an opportunity to glance over the past twelve months.

Although we are the first to realize that there is much room for improvement, and the paper is not yet what we hope it eventually will be, the many favorable comments we have received during the past year lead us to believe that some improvement has been accomplished, and that The Banner is a better newspaper than it was a year ago. Needless to say, we plan to continue improvements as fast as our abilities and resources will permit.

The beginning of our second year is a fitting time, we feel, to express our appreciation of the cooperation and the patronage we have been given during the past year, without which progress would have been impossible, and for the many expressions of good will and encouragement we have received. For the coming years we pledge our best efforts toward giving the people of Brown County the very best newspaper of which we are capable of producing.

It doesn't take a very wise observer to predict that the coming months will be the proving ground of the NRA. Whether it is to be continued as a government policy, or so modified as to gradually be thrown into the discard will depend upon the reaction of the public during the months ahead.

As it was founded on new and untried economic theories, it is not surprising that there have been many inconsistencies in its operation. Many more may develop as its operation is brought closer to the every day life of the nation.

It is unfortunate, we believe, that administration of the code has been left to such a temperamental character as General Johnson. The very traits of character that made him the ideal man for putting the various codes into operation seem to us to make him of little value in seeing that all factions receive fair and temperate consideration of their rights and claims.

The NRA will need many adjustments to fit the needs of all business. But unless such constructive criticism as the Darrow report is given serious consideration instead of being received with explosions of temper, it is going to be difficult either for the NRA to stay in operation or for certain small groups to remain in business.

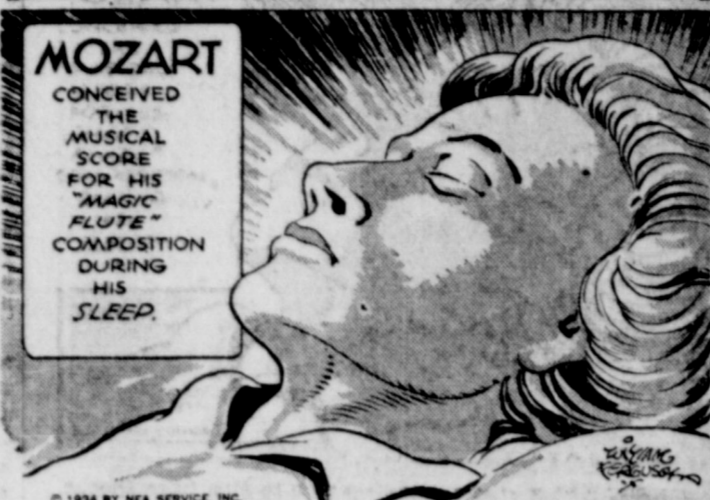

We believe that the codes will work, and that present difficulties of operation will be ironed out, but it is going to take some time, and the success of the NRA depends upon the success with which all groups are given fair treatment at the hands of those who hold such tremendous power over business and industry.

The helter-skelter method of campaigning for county and district offices is proving an onerous burden on candidates in Brown County, according to reports reaching The Banner. Not only the increased expense, but the inability of the candidates to reach a sufficient number of voters makes the present system unsatisfactory.

In Dallas County candidates have solved the problem by fixing speaking dates in various communities in the county, the various candidates paying a small sum into a general fund to take care of the expense of the gatherings, and each candidate being allowed time on the program to present his claim to office to the assembled voters. A similar program is being adopted in Coleman and other counties, it is reported.

Such a plan should be worked out in Brown County, either by the candidates themselves, or by someone working for them. In a series of meetings over the county, the candidates could meet practically all of the voters without too great expense or inconvenience, and at the same time sufficient opportunity would be given for voters to make their choice between candidates.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

Fifty Famous Frontiersmen by Elmo Scott Watson

The Pioneer Photographer EVERY summer for the last few years a gray-haired New Yorker has been setting out on a romantic journey. He is William H. Jackson, past four score years in age, who has been back-tracking on the path of his youth, the historic Oregon trail. Among the thousands who passed over that trail, Jackson is unique. For he was the pioneer photographer of that "highway of a westward-faring nation," the first man to traverse it with the crude photographic materials of 65 years ago, to make a pictorial record of the country through which it ran in its primitive state and to make hundreds of photographs of Indians, among them chiefs and warriors who became famous by their deeds on the warpath and in the council lodge.

Born in New York in 1843 Jackson became an itinerant artist, a map-maker in the Union army during the Civil War, a village photographer afterwards, then a fortune-seeker in the trans-Mississippi West. In 1866-67 he was a "bull-whacker" for a freighters' outfit hauling supplies from Nebraska City on the Missouri to the valley of the Great Salt Lake in Utah.

Next he and his brother set up as photographers in the booming frontier town of Omaha, but when the Union Pacific began building west, Jackson left his brother to run the studio, and started out to record what was happening in what was then the real "Wild West." To get pictures he took the chance of losing his scalp, but he got the pictures!

So successful was he that Dr. C. V. Hayden, head of the United States geological survey, offered him a job as photographer for the expedition which started out in 1870 to survey the old Oregon Mormon trail and the old Overland Stage route. For the next ten years he accompanied other surveying expeditions and it was on these expeditions that he took the pictures of scenes in the West, Indians, frontier posts, etc., which have become such a priceless heritage to posterity.

In 1871 he made the first photographs of the marvels of the Yellowstone country and his pictures, as well as the discoveries of and the specimens collected by the Hayden expedition, of which he was a member, played an important part in the creation of the Yellowstone National park in 1872. In recent years Mr. Jackson has been research secretary of the Oregon Trail Memorial association, in which role he is completing the work started when he was not only a frontiersman himself but the pictorial historian of the frontier.

Completion of the Los Angeles Colorado river aqueduct will provide a water supply for scores of canyons in the California desert suitable for winter homes.

THE BANNER'S SCRAP BOOK

Cost Too Great. (Bee, DeQueen, Ark.) Under the present system it costs too much to run for office, and the overhead expected from an official in the form of donations is too great. Some day we will have a county manager or similar form of government, when county officials will be hired as they are hired in private business—strictly on the basis of efficiency and fitness, without expensive campaigns and without political alignments or considerations whatever. Some day there may be a government without politics, made necessary for relief from an intolerable tax burden.

The Flag of Texas (Dallas News)

Texas is rather unique among the states in its history in that it has lived under six different flags. Texans know this, to be sure, but most are quite ignorant of the particular flags that have flown each in its own period. The French flag, for example, is often shown as the present tricolor, but rightly, it should be the royal flag bearing the fleur-de-lis. Fortunately, a native Texan, Mrs. Mamie Wynne Cox, has given much time to the study of Texas flags—the six flags of Texas—so that henceforth, in the centennial year especially, the proper flags should be shown in emphasis of "Texas under six flags."

The approaching centennial should cause throughout the state a revival of interest in the fascinating pages of Texas history. With its imperial area and resources the state is destined to take a prominent place in American life. While sources of information can best be had, accurate knowledge should be secured to supersede present inaccurate knowledge about many events in the state's earlier history.

Great credit is due to Mrs. Cox and many others who, like her, are giving much time and energy to the study of the earlier historical events when Texas was under the flags of other nations and, when later, it flew its own flags as an independent republic.

The agricultural department of the University of Kentucky says the outlook for tobacco growers in that state has improved greatly since last year.

CANDIDATES IN FINAL DRIVE OF BIG CAMPAIGN

Now or never! Now or never! This time the end of the great campaign of the Brownwood Banner, which has aroused all this section, is at hand. Just nine more days!

There is tremendous opportunity in these last hours. If you can set yourself a goal, lay your plans accordingly, and WORK till you reach that goal and pass it, you can stem the tide and turn what might be defeated into a sweeping victory.

This is truly a wonderful race. With a small fortune waiting at the finish wire, these contestants have come off the turn into the home stretch in such a burst of tireless, unremitting effort as this section has never seen before.

Will your favorite win? If you want to see her crowned the champion of champions and possessor of a magnificent new automobile, you had better help her now. The race—the greatest in the history of this section of the state—can yet be won with a final burst of subscriptions. Do not delay!

Information Given On Destruction Of Garden Insects

"At this time there are several insects which may appear in your garden and which will do damage to your vegetables if not controlled in time with the proper materials, says Miss Mayes Malone, county demonstration agent, in a note to the home demonstration club women of Brown county. Those who are not members of clubs will also find this information valuable.

Insects most commonly found in the gardens are listed below, with a brief description for convenience in identifying them. In the following list the name of insect, description, crops attacked and the material for use in destruction of the insects are given in the order named.

Plant lice—Small green sucking bug, usually on or under surface of leaf. Cabbage, melons, cucumbers, Nicotol or Black Leaf 40. (Dust or spray.)

Cabbage worms—Velvet green or looping caterpillar, about an inch long. Cabbage, cauliflower, collards. Calcium arsenate. (Dust or spray.)

Potato beetles—Striped black and yellow beetles 1-3 inch long and its orange colored slug. Irish potatoes. Calcium arsenate. (Dust or spray.)

Harlequin cabbage bug—Sucking bug, 1-2 inch long, definitely figured with black and orange markings. Cabbage and collards, cauliflower. 1 lb. soap in 2 gallons of water, spray.

Agricultural authorities of Jugoslavia like the type of sweet potato grown in North Carolina and have requested the state college to ship them some seeds.

Figures published in London show that Canadians made more telephone calls in 1932 than any other people, averaging 223 calls each. The United States had 222 calls a person, while Britain had only 33.

THRESHING GRAIN TO GET UNDER WAY NEXT WEEK; CROP IS GOOD

Most of Brown county's bumper oats crop and an average wheat crop is now shocked in fields and awaiting the thrasher, according to information gathered from farmers from various sections of the county. The grain crop ripened a bit early this year, it is stated.

Threshing will likely get under way next week in most communities of the county. Farmers report that the year's oats crop is above the average. It is likely that the county's crop will average better than 50 bushels to the acre with some fields harvesting between 60 and 100 bushels to the acre.

The wheat crop is about normal but some sections report probable yields of 20 or more bushels of wheat to the acre.

The harvest season is giving employment to many citizens of the county and the money that will be derived from the 1934 grain crop will be of great benefit to the county's farmers. Grain prices have been climbing recently because of the great damage that has been done daily by a severe drought in the middle west grain belt.

Memorial Services Held For Deceased Members Of Church

Memorial services for the eighteen members of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church, who died during the past year were held Sunday morning with Dr. W. R. Hornburg, pastor, delivering the memorial address. Most impressive services were held at the 11:00 o'clock hour. The names of members who had gone to their eternal rewards were called and as each was called, Misses Mary and Elizabeth Griffin placed flowers in large baskets.

The Lois Howard Bible class held memorial services for three departed members at the Sunday School hour. Those honored were Miss Ora Moore, Mrs. Christine White, and Miss Betty Butler.

At the close of the morning services, the congregation went to Coggin Park for a basket lunch.

AAA CONTRACT SIGNER MAKES MORE MONEY THAN NON-SIGNER

Whether the hog processing tax comes out of the farmer or out of the consumer, the farmer who signed a corn-hog contract makes considerably more money than the one who did not sign, declares E. M. Regenbrecht, swine specialist at Texas A. and M. College. He bases this statement on the contract benefits and on the current price of hogs.

Take two farmers each having four sows and marketing an average of 40 hogs of 200-pound weight each year. One signed the hog contract, the other did not. The one who signed will make $84 more than the one who did not, assuming the current Fort Worth market price of $3.30 per hundred.

The non-signing farmer, forgetting transportation and marketing costs, would receive $5.50 per head for his 40 hogs or $264. The farmer who signed the contract would reduce his market hogs by 10 head and would sell 30 hogs. At $3.30 per hundred he would receive for these 260-pounders $198. In addition he will receive through the year $5 per head for his 30 market hogs, or a total of $150. His total hog income would be $348 or $84 more than that received by the non-signer. This would be subject, of course, to a small deduction to take care of the local cost of county corn-hog production control association in administering the program.

"The fact is," says Mr. Regenbrecht, "that the hog reduction program, at present hog prices means a net increase to the farmer who is cooperating of about 10 per cent. What prices would have been had the reduction not been made by one and one-half million farmers over the United States is one can tell. When consumer demand is lively it is probable that the processing tax will come out of the consumer. When the market is dull as at present it is coming out of producers' pockets. Even so, the cooperating farmer is making more money than the man who is not cooperating in addition he is helping the United States to cut production to demand just as manufacturers do. In the long run this means more favorable prices to the consumer."

Miss Lucile Taylor of Brown county, Kentucky, thinks she has some sort of record last year when she canned 508 quarts of home grown fruits and vegetables.

Hovey, Texas, bids fair to become the newest "ghost city" of the state. Only about six families remain in the community now, and the postoffice has been discontinued.

TRIP TO EAST TEXAS

Thursday May 17th we all, my wife, Floyd, and the twins boarded our Singing Wagon for Wood county. We saw some fine oats between Gatesville and Corsicana.

We were a week too late for the strawberries and two weeks too early for blackberries. (Say, by the way, some one tell us why a blackberry is red when it is green?) We spent a pleasant two days with our brother, D. E. White who is teaching school at Crow, Texas.

DETAILS of FINAL COUNT

In order to maintain the utmost secrecy as to the number of subscriptions turned in by each candidate in this, the last period of the Brownwood Banner Big Automobile Campaign, the race will be brought to a close in a sealed ballot box!

TODAY'S STANDING WILL NOT BE CHANGED

CANDIDATE—If this standing is not correct according to YOUR FIGURES, be sure and check with the Campaign Manager not later than Wednesday night, June 13.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY

No subscriptions whatever will be accepted through the Campaign Department this week but instead, candidates themselves will deposit their collections in the sealed ballot box — located in the business office of The Brownwood Banner during banking hours only. The box will be locked in a bank vault at the end of each day's banking hours (3:00 p. m.) and will not be brought out again until the banks open next morning.

By this plan no one, not even the Campaign manager or the Publisher, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

Locked and sealed, with the key in possession of the judges, the ballot box has been placed in the business office of The Brownwood Banner, where it will remain each day from 9:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. until the closing hour of the campaign — 8 o'clock Saturday night, June 16th.

When the final hour arrives, the campaign will be declared closed. The judges will break the seals, unlock the box and immediately thereafter, or as soon as the votes can be issued on subscriptions contained therein, the last count will begin.

The winners will be determined by merely adding the published vote totals, which appear in their final form in today's issue, to reserve votes and those contained in the ballot box. There will be no waiting; no complicated count — simply a matter of adding the totals and announcing the winners. It is calculated that it will require some time, however, to canvass the findings of the box and to determine the winners. The official results will be announced in the Brownwood Banner, in the issue of Thursday, June 21.

OUT-OF-TOWN CANDIDATES, ATTENTION

Heretofore out-of-town candidates have had the privilege of mailing their letters containing subscriptions from their home town as late as the closing hour of the various periods. This will not be permitted the last night of the campaign. All votes and subscriptions must be in the sealed ballot box when the race is closed at 8 o'clock sharp. Out-of-town candidates should, where it is possible to do so, arrange to deposit their envelopes in person at the office; but where this cannot be done, letters containing remittances should be addressed to "Campaign Department, Brownwood Banner, Brownwood, Texas," and plainly marked: "For Sealed Ballot Box — Not to Be Opened."

Particular care should be taken to post such letters in good time to reach this office before the final hour. It is advisable also that the same should be by registered mail and be under special delivery stamp.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

All subscriptions deposited in the sealed ballot box must be accompanied by cash, money order, or certified check for the full amount to cover. Personal checks are not acceptable. Have personal checks made to yourself and cash them. This rule is made in fairness to all candidates, and it will be strictly adhered to.

FOURTH PERIOD

Embracing the fourth period, terminating June 16th, the following numbers of votes will be issued on subscriptions:

Table with 2 columns: Subscription Term and Number of Votes. 1 Year: 1,000; 2 Years: 4,000; 3 Years: 17,000; 4 Years: 40,000; 5 Years: 60,000.

100,000 EXTRA VOTES FOR EACH $15.00

THE JUDGES

The gentlemen who will act as auditors and counting judges, and who will canvass the findings of the ballot box and award the many prizes, including the 1934 Dodge Coach and the 1934 Plymouth Coach, Cash Prizes and the Cash Commissioners, are: All these gentlemen are well known to everybody in Brownwood and the surrounding territory, and the final results as given out by them will be beyond dispute.

JUDGES—

George B. Savage Announces For Judge

In conversation with Attorney George B. Savage today he said: "I am a candidate for County Judge of Brown county. I favor continuing the good roads work, and believe in getting all the state and federal assistance possible. I will be fair to all.
