Signs continue to improve for the future of our country. While President Reagan and his conservative supporters are going all out to restore integrity and fiscal sanity in government, while the Moral Majority is making a great effort to re-awaken the conscience of American society, we see a ray of hope for a long delayed turn-around in the legal system's attitude toward crime.

The very welcome proposals come from no less an authority than US Chief Justice Warren Burger, who says that the country "is approaching the status of an impotent society, a society whose capability of maintaining elementary security on the streets, in the schools and for the homes is in doubt." Also, referring to international terrorism, he observes that "our rate of routine, day-by-day terrorism in this country in almost any large city exceeds the casualties of all the reported international terrorists in any given year."

"Why do we show such indignation and alarm over alien terrorists and such passive tolerance apparently for the domestic variety? Must we be hostages within the borders of our own self-styled enlightened civilized country?"

The man has a point there. Millions of people tied up by the yellow ribbons and clamored for release of the hostages and the media exploited every angle of the captivity, but there were no demonstrations, no public outcries, no media campaigns to combat the crime of our own country. Furthermore the sufferings of Iran's 52 hostages was mild compared with those of this country's victims of murder, rape, kidnapping, arson, robbery and other major crimes.

As regards the cause of our crime, the chief justice said that poverty is only one factor, and a far greater factor is "the absence of the deterrent effect of swift and certain consequences of criminal conduct...swift arrest, prompt trial, certain penalty and...at some point...finality of judgment."

"A startling amount of crime is committed by people free on bond awaiting trial, on probation or parole. And overburdened courts and prosecutors tend to drop other pending charges when one conviction is obtained."

Burger said that the words gets around in the criminal community that "you can commit two or three crimes for the price of one, and there is not much risk in committing additional crimes while you're awaiting trial on one."

The system of justice is further hampered, he said by the judicial process and philosophy with respect to final judgments. The availability of numerous lengthy appeals allows convicts to maintain constant warfare with society. "The judicial process becomes a mockery of justice if it is forever open to appeals and retrials for errors in the arrest, the search and the trial."

He elaborated further on this latter detail, which is a most flagrant miscarriage of justice in our trial system. The search for justice, "must not be twisted into an endless quest for technical errors unrelated to guilt or innocence."

Almost daily we hear about incidents in which vital evidence is rejected because an arresting officer made a mistake. It doesn't matter if the evidence is conclusive and proves the accused's guilt, beyond a doubt, it cannot be accepted in trial if someone made a technical mistake in obtaining or presenting it. The right of the accused is more important than justice, more

Sacred Heart Observes Catholic Schools Week

Catholic Schools Week will be observed by Sacred Heart Elementary and High Schools February 22 to 26, as announced by Sister Carmelita.

The five day program of events begins with the opening liturgy and Mass Monday morning at 8:00, themed: "Worshiping Together." The public is invited to visit classrooms between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Posters will be on display.

Tuesday, February 24 is Parents Appreciation Day, with the theme: "Proud of Our Heritage." Parents, relatives and friends are invited to eat lunch in the cafeteria with the students. There will be an exhibit and Craft Show in the elementary building, 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. and refreshments will be served in the high school. The Home School Society meeting will be in the SHH Gym at 8 p.m.

On Wednesday, February 25 there will be a Special Service and Appreciation Day themed: "Caring About Others." The school will publish a message of thanks in the Enterprise and the 8th grade will attend a special liturgy at St. Andrew's Church in Fort Worth.

Student Appreciation Day on Thursday will be themed "Growing Together." Activities will include Holy Mass, Dress-Up Day, a Spelling Bee in the elementary school and a movie in the high school.

On Friday the theme "Learning Together" will be emphasized for Teacher Appreciation Day. The closing liturgy in Sacred Heart Church will include teacher and student dedication.

Public Schools Week Scheduled at MHS

The Muenster School District is one of 1,100 public school systems in the state which will observe the 127th annual Texas Public Schools Week March 2-6.

"Although parents and the public are invited to visit our schools throughout the school year, a special invitation is being extended during Texas Public Schools Week," Superintendent Charles Coffey said.

"All classrooms, elementary through high school will host open-house during this week and the community is invited to see first-hand how the school system operates," Coffey said.

In addition, Tuesday, March 3, 7 to 9 p.m. is set aside as a special open house event featuring the always popular arts and crafts show in the gym as well as classroom displays hosted by teachers and showing student work specimens, teacher aids and equipment.

The arts and crafts show includes a large variety of things done in shop, agriculture and homemaking classes plus many non-class hobby projects made by the students on their own.

Texas Public Schools Week was organized in 1950 so that community members might have the opportunity to see first-hand how their local public school system operates. During the past 31 years, it has been used to increase the public's knowledge about the schools, to encourage parents to visit their child's school and to help the public gain an appreciation of what schools and the community are doing for them.

School officials are encouraging parents and the public to not only visit, but to have lunch with the children, sit in on classroom sessions and to ask questions. Teachers and students are planning special programs and displays in recognition of the week.

"We invite the community to pay us a visit," Coffey said. "We endeavor continued on page 12..."

City Election Getting Lively

With almost two weeks remaining before the March 4 filing deadline for city council candidates, it appears that the election will be more lively than usual. At noon Wednesday six names are on the list whereas the custom has been to wait and see what develops. The normal procedure has been for one candidate, usually the incumbent, to sign up late on the deadline date, and the resulting ballot had only one candidate for each position.

It's different this time. Five of the six candidates are not incumbents and two races have developed.

Leo Hess, with one year of unexpired term remaining in Position 1, has declined to seek re-election and has announced his candidacy for mayor, now occupied by Richard Grewing, former mayor-pro-tem, who was appointed by other council members after the death of Leonard Endres. Roger Taylor also has announced as a candidate for mayor. Grewing has indicated that he does not intend to run.

The second contest on the ballot is for the remaining year of Position 1, which is being vacated by Hess. David Fette and Jerry Wimmer are the candidates.

Also, Ronnie Felderhoff has filed as a candidate for Position 3, which is currently held by Ray Walterscheid, and Ted Henschel has signed as a candidate for re-election to Position 5. Walterscheid has not indicated whether he will seek re-election.

Others wishing to get their names on the ballot can file their candidacy at the city hall up to 5 p.m. on March 4.

The election will be held along with school and hospital board elections on Saturday, April 4, in the Public School.

As of Wednesday no names are announced as candidates for the hospital board election and only one is listed for the school board election. He is Harold Bindel, seeking to complete the one year of unexpired term in Place 5 which he now occupies.

March 4, Deadline For April Election

Persons who still need to register in order to qualify for voting in the April 4 elections are facing a March 4 deadline, according to tax assessor-collector Joyce Zwinggi.

This applies to those who will have reached the voting age of 18 years on or before March 4 and those who allowed their eligibility to expire by failing to vote in last year's primary or general election.

She pointed out that the record shows all who voted in the primary and general elections, and they have no problems. However those who need to register must come to the tax office or mail an application form postmarked on or before March 4. The application forms are available at the tax office and can be obtained by phoning or writing or having someone pick it up in person. They must be returned to the tax office by mail or in person by the applicant, but not by another person.

Mrs. Zwinggi specially urges applicants to specify the voting precinct on their forms. The registration can not be completed without it.

Good News

Galatians 2:20: I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Reagan Brown Will Speak At Nocona

Reagan Brown, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, will head the program as guest speaker when the Nocona Chamber of Commerce has its 54th annual banquet on Saturday, March 7, 7 p.m. in the Nocona High School building. Tickets at $7 each can be purchased from the Nocona Chamber of Commerce office.

Heart Association Drive Set Feb. 26

Wayne Klement, Muenster representative of the Cooke County Chapter of American Heart Association announced this week that a door to door solicitation for the association will be conducted by Muenster Jaycees Thursday night of next week, February 26, starting at 7:30 p.m. At their meeting they will organize their drive so as to reach every home in town.

Season Ends on Low Note

Sacred Heart's adventure in basketball at San Antonio last week was less successful than hoped for but a satisfying experience nevertheless. It was a case of no glory and no regrets.

Going there they were rated in the top four of TCIL Class 3A, and returning home they still held that rating, along with the thrill of having been in the state playoff. In addition they had the experience of playing talented teams and feeling the pressures when titles are at stake.

Coach Jon LeBrasseur was proud of both teams saying they made a fine effort and gave a good account of themselves against strong teams that have been there before. He's confident that the experience will be helpful in big games of the future.

Also gratifying was the honor of having one of the Tigers named on the all tournament team. Monte Endres, 6-4 senior, who scored 38 points in the two games, was selected by tournament coaches along with two from Incarnate Word of Corpus Christi, and one each from Waco Reicher and Houston Lutheran.

The two Muenster teams lost their semifinals games and later lost to the other semifinal losers in a bid for third place and had to settle for the No. 4 spot.

Winners of the tournament and the state champ titles were the two teams of Corpus Christi Incarnate Word. Runners up were the teams which defeated Sacred Heart in the opener...Waco Reicher and Schulenburg Bishop Forest. And third place winners were the teams of Houston Lutheran, which defeated SH in the consolation games.

Playing Bishop Forest of Schulenburg in the semifinal, the Tigerettes did a great job in soaring to a 13-0 first quarter lead. The period was featured by Sacred Heart's good rebounding and Carol Walterscheid's 12 points. But the situation changed sadly after that as SH went into a slump and Schulenburg shook off its slump. The Tigerette lead was cut to 17-9 at the half and wiped out by the 22-22 third quarter tie. Thereafter the teams played it neck and neck and Schulenburg was at the big end of 37-35 as the buzzer sounded.

The main cause of the let down, as Coach Jon sees it, was nerves, resulting in a rash of turnovers and fouls and missed free throws. The Tigerettes hit only 3 of 14 at the line, Bishop Forest made 11 of 22.

Weather's Nice, But Not Good

"Weather is nice but it ain't good." That's how lots of people of the community, especially farmers, size up the situation. While the mild and dry days have been pleasant they are not giving land the moisture a winter treatment which many regard as essential for the future.

Four inches of rain in more than four months does not provide the moisture that's needed when growing time comes. Also land is missing the benefits and insects are escaping the consequence of an extended freeze. A plague of grasshoppers is expected unless a lot of them are exterminated by a siege of severe cold.

Still another worry is the fruit crop. Continued mildness may bring out the blooms prematurely, in time to be wiped out by a late freeze.

Low and high readings of the week were recorded as follows by Steve Moster. Thursday, Feb. 12, 19 and 45; Feb. 13, 25 and 52; Feb. 14, 28 and 61; Feb. 15, 31 and 66; Feb. 16, 36 and 69; Feb. 17, 38 and 73 Feb. 18, 42 and 70.

All moisture readings were zero, and the total is .85 for February, 1.04 for the year to date.

Extension Service Plans Dairy Short Course

County Group Joins Anti-Drug Crusade

"Families in Action in Cooke County", formerly Cooke County Citizens Against Drug Abuse, will resume regular meetings on the 4th Thursday of each month, at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church on East California Street in Gainesville.

Now part of the "Texans' War on Drugs," this will be the first scheduled organizational meeting following the major Anti-Drug Rally in the auditorium of Gainesville High School.

At the February 26 meeting, working committees will be formed from the list of membership sign-ups.

Also, plans and dates for local citizens' bus trip to Austin will be announced. Purpose of this trip will be to visit Representative David London and Senator Bob Glasgow in support of the Texans' War on Drugs legislative proposals.

"Families in Action" is also making plans for a fund-raising project, a ladies luncheon and white elephant sale at Red River Country Club on Saturday, March 7.

New membership is welcome at the March 7 luncheon and also at the next business meeting on February 26.

PLAYING WITH MATCHES

Speaking at the Spring 1977 commencement exercises at Notre Dame University, President Carter said, "Confident of our own future, we are now free of that inordinate fear of communism, which once led us to embrace any dictator who joined us in our fear." After the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, an apparently shocked Carter said, "My opinion of the Russians has changed more drastically in the last week than in even the previous 2 1/2 years."

The key words here are: "we are now free of that inordinate fear of communism" and from the latter statement: "My opinion of the Russians has changed."

Several interesting points, important from the standpoint of the survival of the American people as free individuals, arise from thoughtful examination of these two contrasting statements.

If we accept the statements of President Carter at face value, it means that a person can be and was elected to the highest position of leadership in the land who was totally ignorant of the nature of communism and how that bears on Soviet attitudes and conduct.

When it is further understood that this individual was a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, and subsequently a naval officer, trained in nuclear submarine technology, this realization becomes all the more astounding. How could this be?

Not knowing President Carter personally, we have no way of knowing how his ignorance of communism came about. But what is important about this is that his case is illustrative of what happened to millions of other Americans in all walks of life. They were brainwashed in a communist-directed program of psychological warfare. The tragedy of the Carter case is that one of the most important political posts in the entire world. And this has had serious implications for every American and the whole free world.

As an illustration of what that has meant, it is interesting to note that Carter abhorred any alliance with a so-called dictator who might be an anti-communist, but he had no such concern over alliances with active communist dictators. He was only too willing to sign agreements with the communist dictators of Yugoslavia, Poland, the Soviet Union and Communist China, among others.

The intention here is not to attribute motives to the former president, but to illustrate how dangerous it is to have political leaders who do not understand communist doctrine.

In the life or death ideological struggle in which we are engaged, it is not so much intentions which are important, but consequences!

It makes little difference to you whether your home is burned down by a raving maniac with a flaming torch or a three-year-old child playing with matches. The loss of the home is what matters.

By the same token, it will not matter if our freedom is lost by defeat in battle because of inadequate armaments or by willful surrender to them by brainwashed leaders who did not understand communism.

THE 67th TEXAS LEGISLATURE
by SENATOR
BOB GLASGOW

This is first of what I hope to be a column written on a weekly basis that may better inform you as to what is occurring in your State Capitol.

This week has been the most active week yet this session. Several bills have involved heated discussion and debate on both the Senate floor and in committee hearings.

Bills evoking the most debate were bills involving unemployment compensation, the establishment of the Criminal Justice Division within the Governor's Office and the shock probation laws.

I supported a bill which would tighten the eligibility requirements for unemployment compensation.

The bill required anyone who had previously left their job voluntarily without good cause or had been dismissed for misconduct from being eligible for unemployment compensation until such time as they had returned to work and had worked at least six weeks at a comparable job.

If they then lost their job through no fault of their own, they would be eligible for benefits.

Also passed out of the Senate was a bill establishing the Criminal Justice Division within the office of the Governor.

Previously a similar program had been operated out of the Governor's Office that involved the distribution of federal LEAA funds. Now these federal funds have been cut off and state funding will take its place.

The state funds are matched on a percentage basis with local funds. These state matching funds are essential to many of our local law enforcement agencies within the 22nd District.

Although the administrative portion of the program is operated by the Governor's Office, there is an oversight committee composed of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor and the Comptroller.

Both the unemployment compensation bill and the Criminal Justice bill have been sent to the House for consideration there.

Another bill involving criminal matters was heard in the Jurisprudence Committee this week. This was a bill involving changes to be made in the shock probation law and was in response to an abuse of this law.

I generally supported the theory of the bill yet felt that the bill needed more work and this was also the feeling of the committee. The bill has been retained in the committee for further study and revision and is expected to be brought up again in two weeks.

I urge each of you who have any comments or concerns on other matters facing us here in Austin to be sure and contact us. My Austing address is Senator Bob Glasgow, P.O. Box 12068, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711; telephone number (512) 475-3452.

Additionally, I have a district office in Denton, and my administrative assistant there is Charles Cryan. The office is in the North Texas Savings and Loan Building at 110 Piner Street, Denton, Texas 76201. Charles may be reached by telephone at (817) 383-2728.

The News Media etc. always include Social Security as a government expense, as if it was welfare or a donation to the elderly.

I paid Social Security from the very first day back in the 1930s, most of the time the maximum also matched by my employer.

If this money had been invested properly the social security would not be in trouble but have a surplus.

I could have taken the money me and my employer paid and invested it properly and today draw a larger payment each month with a nice inheritance for my heirs at death not only the $250.00 from social security as a death benefit.

Where does it come off that Social Security being a Government expense???

To the People of Muenster:

Next Monday, February 23, begins this year's Catholic School Week, the week in which we at Sacred Heart share with the community the joys, hopes, and accomplishments of the Catholic schools in Muenster.

The theme of this week, "Educating for Life...the Catholic School," points to the magnitude of the task that we as Catholic educators set for ourselves. In recognizing that the job of education does not end at age 18, we commit ourselves to educating individuals in such a way that they--after their formal schooling is finished--can continue to learn. We are dedicated, therefore, to the principle of learning as a life-long experience.

Catholic schools also consider the training of the "total child"--rather than just the intellect--to be of the utmost importance. The product of a successful Catholic education is more than an intelligent, well-informed and reasoning individual. It is a thinking, feeling, caring, loving person who is prepared to grow with the times, seek his or her own ends, yet always be aware of others and their needs. He or she lives with people, but lives for God.

Our effort is to "Educate for Life"--a life that holds promises for none, but many rich opportunities for all. We invite you to join with us in this, our week of recognition of this effort.

important than the right of society.

Something urgently needs to be done about this judicial blunder. It is absurd to claim that guilt which is firmly established beyond a doubt can be absolved by an unrelated technicality. The only reasonable way is to judge by the evidence and find another way to deal with mistakes that do not concern guilt or innocence. In that case the offending officer should be reprimanded as fined for violating another person's right. But certainly no guilty person should be declared innocent because of a third person's mistake.

In line with Chief Justice Burger's recommendations, is another by Senator Lloyd Bentsen. He deplores the extreme flexibility which now applies in sentencing and paroling convicted criminals, the result of which is to allow those undesirable an early return to society...an unjust exposure of society to repeat crimes.

Bentsen points particularly to Abdul Hamid, one of 12 terrorists who in 1977 held 120 Washington persons hostage for 3 days, killing one and wounding another. He was sentenced to 36 to 108 years in prison, but now, after three years has been released by a Washington DC judge. Bentsen claims that flexibility of sentence and parole gives criminals a sense of security and it should be abolished to prevent the early return of criminals to society, and to convince criminals that punishment is tougher and more certain.

For Skiers...

(ASR) When moisture gets into ski bindings they can rust or corrode and become difficult to adjust. But a spray of WD-40 can prevent this problem. This water-displacing product penetrates water and ice build-up to free sticky bindings and provides an effective barrier against future moisture damage. Spray bindings at the end of a ski trip, and they'll work smoothly when you're ready to ski again. The non-oily product will also lubricate sticky boot buckles and protect metal ski poles from rust. Find WD-40 in two oz., nine oz. and 12 oz. spray can sizes at sporting goods, grocery and other retail stores.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

A wave of discussion asking if the United States should resume arms control talks with the Soviet Union once again is sweeping the political landscape. It seems like an easy question to answer at first, since real, meaningful arms control and reduction is a dream of all who love peace. Yet, to achieve these ends, we must look realistically at what course of action we should take to arrive there.

The SALT II treaty actually guaranteed neither arms control nor arms reduction because it would have allowed the Soviet Union to take reciprocal action.

Since the ratification of SALT I, the Soviets have deployed entirely new systems for each leg of the Soviet strategic weapons system. On the other hand, the United States has not deployed many new strategic weapons systems during this period.

As a Carter Administration official once put it, when we arm, the Soviets arm; if we fail to arm, the Soviets still arm.

In fact, over the past decade, the Soviet Union has outspent us by $240 billion on defense. That means the Soviets already are engaged in an arms race, but it's a one-sided race.

The Soviets view arms limitations talks as hard bargaining sessions. They will press for the deal that is most advantageous to their interests. Unfortunately, during the last stages of the SALT II talks, at least, we were simply out negotiated.

So how do we get back on the road to real arms control? We will never be successful in negotiating with the Soviets unless they believe we have the national will to have a truly strong national defense system. The first step in this process must come from the Administration, which should come out with a recommendation for a substantial increase in defense spending to demonstrate our national resolve.

As chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I will do everything in my power to help promote a stronger defense budget, realizing how vital it is not only for the future of true arms control, but to shore up our defense posture as well.

If we cut back on our defense programs without demanding reciprocation, we have little left to use as bargaining chips.

While the Soviets are already engaged in a one-sided arms race, and have exceeded us in some areas, they desperately want to avoid dragging us back into the 2-sided arms race.

They seek to avoid this because they know that the American capacity for increasing our defense system actually is much greater than the Soviet Union's. The Soviets do not have the slack in their industrial capacity to increase their arms production much above its current level.

The United States, on the other hand, could sustain a large increase if it possessed the national will. In short, if we were inclined to enter in an all-out arms race, we would win. And the Soviets know that. That knowledge represents our best chance at achieving real arms reduction.

When the Soviets become convinced that we have the national resolve to build a national defense system that is at least truly equal to theirs, then they will realize it is in their best interests to enter into serious and meaningful negotiations.

Circus Lives in Gainesville's Memories

By Teresa Rainwater
Enterprise Staff Writer

For more than 25 years, the kids in Gainesville didn't have to run away to join a circus. There was a circus right at home with friends, neighbors and relatives billed as stars.

Anyone with talent, young or old, had a chance to perform in the three-ring big-top known throughout the world as the Gainesville Community Circus.

The word circus is defined as "a traveling show of acrobats, clowns and trained animals." The Gainesville Community Circus fit that common description, but in many ways was unique.

The performers were housewives, lawyers, surgeons, salesmen, grocers, butchers, bakers and candlestick makers, all of the community of Gainesville. Each had a busy life apart from the circus world but came together to entertain, to make people laugh and possibly just to do what many boys and girls dream about—to join a circus!

These entertainers gave not only of their time and talent, but many risked their lives in such daring performances as high trapeze artistry, hazardous aerial acts and amazing balancing on the tight wire.

The Gainesville Community Circus was in existence for 28 years, from 1930 - 1958. During that time, there were three years without any shows because of World War II.

"It was started as a community little theatre to give young people something to do," said F.E. Schmitz. Schmitz was a resident of Muenster but moved to Gainesville during the circus years. He was a president of the Gainesville Community Circus and was a clown with the circus for several years.

Schmitz explained, "The little theatre went into the hole financially, and it was decided to change the title to stimulate interest. Morton Smith, the editor of the Gainesville Register at that time, was willing to try it. He rented a building at the county fair grounds and started rehearsals.

When the community circus began, it was decided that all members must be residents of Gainesville and without any professional circus experience. Each member had to be willing to learn some circus act, furnish his own costumes and riggings and work without pay.

The circus' first out-of-town engagement and show under canvas, was nearly 50 years ago, October 7-9, 1931 at the Denton County Fair. Approximately 7500 attended the two night performances.

From there, it was circus history as the Gainesville Community Circus grew to be the third largest three-ring circus in the world with the third oldest title at that time.

There were four engagements each Spring and four in the Fall of each year. Each engagement consisted of three nightly performances. One performance each fall was on a train. The performers worked on the Santa Fe all over South Texas and as far north as Wichita, Kansas. The rest of the engagements were within 100 miles of Gainesville.

To get a complete picture of the size of the circus, Schmitz described the caravan it took to get the circus to an engagement. "A minimum of 20 automobiles were needed to transport the 115 performers. It took eight semi-trailers to haul the equipment and animals," he said.

Schmitz explained: "The circus ended for many reasons. Crowd size had begun to dwindle because of the popularity of television considered "professional", the performers were equal to the "pros." In fact, Gainesville offered winter quarters for some professional circus acts in turn for being taught some of their "tricks of the trade." At least twenty pros who came during the winter, ended up making their permanent home in Gainesville.

Schmitz has a collection of circus memorabilia including programs, pictures, posters and advertising gimmicks such as plates, ties, postcards, play money—all proclaiming the Gainesville Community Circus, "the only show of its kind in the world."

Through a depression and a World War, the circus survived. In 1958, the last performance was held in Plano, Texas.

VFW Auxiliary Hears Convention Report

Mrs. Gilbert Knabe reported to the VFW Auxiliary on the district convention she attended in Lewisville, when the local group held its February meeting in the post home. She also presided for the business meeting.

Mrs. Leo Hesse was guard pro tem and Mrs. Al Walter was patriotic instructor pro tem.

Members were asked to provide a Buddy Poppy display at the Greenville convention.

Contributions were made to the Lucille Suchina Fund and to the Disaster Fund. Members discussed nominating or recognizing an outstanding person or group.

Mrs. Bernard Hesse gave the treasurer's report and Mrs. Gilbert Knabe won the door prize. Mrs. Wilfred Bindel served lunch to 11 members. Mrs. Joe Sicking will be refreshment chairman for March.

Admission Charge OK for Germanfest

A technicality concerning admission charges at this year's Germanfest was resolved last week by City Attorney Chuck Bartush Jr. There was a question as to whether the festival could legally charge for entry into the city park, which is classified as public property.

Bartush referred to the state law and determined that a person, firm or organization may use the park for that purpose if it will gain the consent of the governing body and pay for its use. It means, he said, that Germanfest can solve its problem by leasing the park from the city for the three days.

A stipulation is that income from the lease is to be used for maintenance of said park. In addition the chamber had proposed to donate 5 per cent of its gate receipts to the park fund.

Hospital District Will Elect Four Directors April 4

During their meeting of February 18, 1981 the directors of Muenster Hospital District set April 4, 1981 as date for election of 4 directors and ordered the procedures to be followed in holding the election.

To have their names placed on the ballot, candidates must submit a petition signed by 15 qualified voters of the district. The petition must be submitted to Rufus Henscheid, secretary, no later than March 9, 1981 which is 25 days prior to the date of the election.

Forms for the petition may be obtained from the administrator of Muenster Memorial Hospital but must be submitted to Henscheid to insure proper receipt.

Current directors whose terms are expiring are Paul Fetsch, Alois Trubenbach, Alphonse Felderhoff, and Jimmy Jack Biffle.

Candidates must have resided in the state for a period of 12 months and in the district for a period of 6 months and otherwise comply with all qualifications for holding office as provided by the Texas Constitution, Texas Election Code, and all acts authorizing the creation of the district.

The election will be held in Muenster High School along with other local elections.

This calliope, used for many years with the Gainesville Community Circus, has been restored and repainted. It is on display at Leonard Park in Gainesville.

A noted ring master was used each year. There were eight engagements annually with the first being held in Gainesville. The other seven sponsors were service clubs in distant towns who paid for the circus to come. All proceeds went back into the circus operation. The performers never earned a dime.

The animals were owned and trained by local people. Vern Brewer trained the elephants and horses. Portis Sims was in charge of the dog acts and was the only performer to go professional after the Gainesville Community Circus disbanded.

Although the Gainesville Community Circus was not and air-conditioning in homes. The circus was not air conditioned being under canvas."

Morton Smith, responsible for putting the circus together and keeping it going, suffered from ill health. The circus no longer had his enthusiastic and dedicated efforts.

The winter fire was the last straw and caused the circus to lose 90 percent of its winter quarters. The fire was started by the circus' elephant which liked to pick things up with her trunk and toss them. She threw hay into a heater and the blaze began. The elephant escaped the fire, but the equipment was lost as was one life -- the community with a bond of common interest that lasted nearly three decades.

According to many Gainesville residents, "it really was the only show of its kind in the world."

Forestburg News by Myrt Denham

Greetings! Us Denhams are home once again at our perch in Dewey. Made the home scene at 7 p.m. Tues. Jan. 27, and it is indeed good to be back. Want to take this opportunity to thank the two ladies that sent in news from Forestburg for me while we were gone. "Myrt's Friends" are none other than Cleo Lanier and Merle Hudspeth and I do appreciate their help, effort and all that goes with getting up a news column. It is no easy job.

Here is a chance for all of us to enjoy supper out at very reasonable prices. There will be a salad supper at the Forestburg community center Thurs. Feb. 19 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 to benefit the Heart Fund. All Forestburg ladies are asked to donate a salad. Cost of supper will be $2.00 adults $1.00 students.

And as the little lady on "Hee-Haw" says "That's all folks."

Have any of you been wondering if the weather of 1981 is gonna be a repeat performance of the 1980 weather we endured? Sure is stacking up that way - no rain to speak of and a lot of warm weather for winter-time Then there are always the grasshoppers to be dealt with - if we don't get spring rains.

Years ago the late Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Perryman had a hired hand whom everyone called Uncle Issac. This gent was what we in this day and time would term a "regular character". The Perryman's young sons Lewi and Chandler and their grandson Perryman Denham had the time of their young lives teasing and picking at Uncle Issac. One day after Uncle Issac had had his fill of this teasing, etc. he told Mrs. Perryman - "Lucy, the boys are raggrivating me again." He also informed her that her boys were good boys until "eh Perryman comes to visit them." Well, after some 50 years or more later I might add that "eh Perryman" just hasn't changed much at all. As someone once said - "Men are just little boys grown tall!"

Mrs. Bessie Greenwood visited in the home of her daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Jack Potete and Mrs. Mae Wade of Sunset Sat. Feb. 14. The Potetes recently purchased a home between Sunset and Bowie and moved there from Newport Beach, Calif.

A number of Forestburg folks attended the Valentine Dance at the Rosston Fire Department Sat. night Feb. 14. It was a family type affair and all that attended report having had a good time. It has been expressed to this reporter many times that "they" can't understand why Forestburg can't have affairs like this from time to time for people to attend and enjoy. That to me is the $64 question also.

Jackie and Cindy Monroe of Wichita Falls visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Junior Monroe and Janet the 14 Feb. weekend. Jackie and Cindy are presently employed in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Sue Sutton of Gainesville visited with her aunt Mrs. Edna forrester Sun. Feb. 15. Mrs. Sutton is the daughter of the late Jace and Helen Paynor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dill of Saginaw visited with his twin brother and wife - the Jack C. Dills of Forestburg Sat. night Feb. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Dill and Mrs. Eula Dill of Era motored to Gainesville Sun. Feb. 15 to visit with Mrs. Dorothy Meyer. Mrs. Meyer used to be a Burg resident and neighbor of the Dills. While in Gainesville the Dills also visited with Jack's aunt Mrs. Lillian Lee in a rest home there.

Graveside services were held Sun. p.m. Feb. 15 at the New Harp Cemetery for Mutt Berchard of the Decatur nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harwell of Denton visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Putnam, of New Harp the Feb. 14 weekend.

Brotherhood week was observed at the Forestburg United Methodist church Sun. a.m. Feb. 15. Rev. Bob Ellis, lpastor of the Forestburg Baptist church, gave the opening prayer. Other members of the Baptist church were also present. Mrs. Raymond Volkman and three daughters of Fort Worth presented the special music at the service. After the worship service the young adult Sunday school class served refreshments in the church annex.

Mrs. Vivian Barnett - wife of Carl Barnett - entered Scott and White Hospital in Temple on Mon. Feb. 16 for a series of tests. Carl Barnett is the nephew of Mrs. Cleta Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnett.

In Bowie they visited with Mrs. Joe Denham, in the Burg area they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sockwell, Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Perryman Denham and others. Bob is a first cousin to Mmes. Joe Denham, Marion Sockwell and Millie Reynolds.

Veda Brogdon, Cleo Lanier, Marion Sockwell, Cleta Reynolds, Betty Reynolds, Decie ellzey, Juanita Bailey, Vera Mae McGee, Wilma Moseley, Merle Hudspeth and Mrs. Tolbert Fanning.

On Fri. night Feb. 20 at about 7 p.m. there will be a basketball game at the Forestburg school gym between the faculty and the students who normally do not play basketball. This will be the last game of the season and then volleyball practice will begin. I am told this is a real fun time nite and folks are urged to attend.

Garden Center Bulletin

Now is the time to apply BALAN to your yards to completely eliminate crab grass, and grass burrs in your lawn. BALAN is a granular weed killer easily applied with fertilizer spreader and best of all is that it is perfectly safe to use around trees and shrubs and is also safe on St. Augustine lawns. But be sure you apply it now or it will be too late for it to work properly.

We also have a large selection of spring bulbs and indoor bulbs. Come by the Garden Center and look over our selection and get an early start for some pretty spring color.

Start planning now for all your landscaping needs as we will be receiving thousands of trees, shrubs and roses in about 3 weeks.

Microwave: Key Word in Cookbooks of the Future

The gift of a microwave oven would likely be regarded as modern-day mealtime manna by those who have spent many of their holiday hours slaving over hot stoves.

A commonplace as the microwave unit is now, it's expected to occupy even more space in kitchens of the future. However, future microwaves will be a lot "smarter," computer designers already are perfecting appliances that "listen" and reply with a cheery "O.K." when asked to do tasks.

A recipe card will be inserted into a slot to tell the oven how long to roast, turn and simmer each dish, as well as give spoken instructions to the person preparing the ingredients. When the dish is done to perfection, the oven will tell you by calling, "The meatloaf is ready now!"

The popular microwave oven is very likely to be a part of nearly everyone's future because it's convenient, recipes require little advance preparation, and it reduces time and labor spent in the kitchen. Perhaps more importantly, the microwave will be used to extend the shelf life of perishable foods.

Searching for advanced ways to prepare foods to nourish astronauts during long space voyages, government scientists have tested radiated foods for many years. They've found that certain fruits and vegetables treated with microwaves can stay on the shelf without spoiling or needing refrigeration for days and weeks. The microwaves work to disrupt sprouting and slow down the ripening process.

Scientists also are excited about industrial use of the microwave process to extend the life of liquids, like milk. At this time, however, the process is impractical since there is no way to cool pasteurized milk fast enough for storage to prevent airborne microorganisms from becoming active.

The microwave oven, which uses ionizing radiation to heat food molecules, is the first entirely new method used to preserve food since Nicholas Appert discovered thermal canning in 1809. Though we can't rule out the possibility that still another cooking method will be discovered (solar cooking?), the microwave oven, with imminent innovations in application, will likely be part of our future.

Winter months can also mean tornado troubles

COLLEGE STATION - The winter months not only mean cold weather for Texas, but they also carry the threat of tornadoes, widely believed to be only a warm weather phenomenon.

Since 1951, nearly 100 twisters have touched ground in Texas during January and February, according to figures compiled by the State Climatologist's Office at Texas A&M University.

Over the last three decades of record-keeping, February has had a slight edge over January in number of tornadoes spotted.

SH Basketball...

Carol Walterscheid 17, Susan Walterscheid 9 (plus 11 rebounds), Anne Felderhoff 6, Virginia Bartush 3.

After having the advantage in size in their first game, the Tigerettes were at a disadvantage in the second. Houston Lutheran took charge early and moved to leads of 13-5 and 25-11 in the first and second periods. After that SH improved, matching point for point in the third and cutting the margin to 6 in the fourth before Houston's final rally upped its lead to 51-39.

Anne Felderhoff led the SH scoring with 12 and Susan Walterscheid was next with 10 (also 8 rebounds). Shellie Walterscheid hit 7, Tammy Henscheid 5, Carol Walterscheid 3, Virginia Bartush 2.

The Tigers, Too

The Tigerettes, like the Tigers, had an early taste of success but could not keep it going. Playing Waco Reicher in the opener they tied at 10-10 in the first period and led 27-20 at the half. After playing even in the third they still led 38-31 and then blew it. Turnovers and missed shots, including easy ones, allowed Reicher to outscore them by 11 in the last quarter and win by 49-45.

Monte Endres earned his all-tournament honor in the contest with 21 points and 14 rebounds. Brian Herr added 10, Kirk Mollenkopf 4 (also 6 assists) Brian Bednorz 4, Gene Fuhrman 4 and Greg Walterscheid 2.

Again in the last game, the Tigers started strong, but weakened. After leading Houston Lutheran 14-9 in the first period they went into a slump and allowed Houston to outscore them 16-4 in the second. They trailed 25-18 at half time and kept trailing by counts of 33-22 at the third and 57-44 at the end. For a while in the fourth they rallied and gained to within 5 points at 50 seconds to go. Also in possession of the ball, they were still in contention but passed wild and allowed Houston an easy lay up. A factor in the game was the tight guard on Endres for three periods. He made only one point the first half and 4 the third quarter, and finally 12 in the fourth.

Point makers were Endres 17, Brian Bednorz 13, Gene

Fuhrman 4, Greg Walterscheid 4, Kirk Mollenkopf 3, Brian Herr 3.

Though the teams failed to win at the Hemisfair, Coach LeBrasseur has nothing but praise for them. He said they have practiced hard, have been a great bunch to work with, and have improved marvelously since last year. Regardless of losses at the state playoffs, just advancing to them has been a great achievement and a good start for next year.

The Sacred Heart teams and their coaches close out their very successful season with the following message.

The Tigers, Tigerettes and the coaches of Sacred Heart High School would like to thank the parents, the SH School, the SH Alumni, the Gainesville Register, KGAF Radio, the Muenster Enterprise, and all of the boosters who helped to make the Sacred Heart basketball program a success this year.

SS Exemption Amount is Up

People getting social security checks will be able to earn more in 1981 than in 1980 before any of their social security benefits are withheld, a social security representative said recently.

In 1981, a person under 65 for all of the year can earn $4,080 before any checks are held back. This annual exempt amount was $3,720 for 1980. The annual exempt amount for people 65 or older in 1981 is $5,500, up from $5,000 for 1980.

If a person's earnings exceed the annual exempt amount, $1 in benefits is withheld for each $2 of earnings above the exempt amount. People should notify social security as soon as they think their annual earnings might exceed the exempt amount. This way they can avoid receiving any incorrect payments that might have to be repaid.

There is a special rule that applies to the year in which a person retires. In the year of retirement, people can receive checks for any month their earnings do not exceed the monthly limit even though total annual earnings are well above the annual exempt amount.

The 1981 monthly limit is $458 for people 65 or over and $340 for people under 65.

People who want more information about the annual earnings test can ask at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory.

MHS and Slidell Split Two Games

Muenster's High basketball teams closed out two disappointing seasons last Friday night by dividing a pair of games at Slidell. The Hornets won 61-45 and the Hornettes lost 36-31.

MHS boys had it their way all the way. Starting with a 11-7 first quarter lead, they gained to 29-18 and 56-31 in the second and third, and were outscored 14-5 as reserves played the last period but still had the comfortable lead of 61-45.

Muenster scorers were Larry Fleitman 15, Ricky Winn 14, Tim Schneider 13, Glenn Fisher 8, Steve Luke 5, Kevin Felderhoff 4, Garland Tate 2.

The Hornettes led 7-5 and 17-15 the first two periods but were nudged out in the hotly contested third and fourth periods which ended with MHS trailing 27-25 and 36-31. Charlotte Fleitman led the Muenster effort with 14, Carla Walterscheid hit 5, Kyla Hale 4, Stephanie Richey 4 and Mary Winn 4.

Forestburg Jr. Teams Number 2 in District

Forestburg junior high kids won two games each but lost the big ones at the district tournament last week. The end result is that both teams close out the season as district runners up the boys with a season record of 14-3, the girls with 12-6.

The boys started the tournament with a 34-19 win over Valley View, Kendall Holland and Brent Shults scoring 18 and 15. Next they rolled over Muenster 27-18 and 8. And in the finals they were turned back 42-30 by Ponder, and again Holland and Shults led the scoring with 16 and 8. For the season Holland has 289 points, an average of 17 and Shults 215, an average of 13. Other team members Jeff Lanier, Monte Sewell, Tammy Souther and Jimmy Smith.

Forestburg girls met Alford in their junior high tournament opener and came away as 28-22 winner. Nancy Trayler led the scoring with 17 and Patricia Bell added 7. The next game was a thriller, Forestburg winning 25-23 in overtime. Trayler scoring 14 and Bell 11. Then, like the boys, they met Ponder in the champ final and lost 18-12 for second in the district. Again Trayler led the scoring with 8. For the season Trayler has 196, an average of 11 per game and Bell has 140, an average of 8. Other team members are Ann Floyd, Page Sirman, Shelly Perryman and Danna Hamric.

Doctor's Rx: Walk before you run

COLLEGE STATION — Millions of joggers should learn to walk before they run, advises a cardiovascular researcher and jogging enthusiast.

"You should be able to briskly walk for two hours (about six to eight miles) before you begin jogging. Running is really a progression of walking," said Dr. Elvin Smith, associate dean of medicine at Texas A&M University.

Smith says there is still controversy among scientists and physicians as to whether running or walking is better exercise, and no clear-cut answer seems ready to break away from the pack.

So many variables are involved — prior heart damage, individual heart rates, the body's metabolic rate plus the speed and distance traveled — that each person has to answer the question for himself or herself, he explained.

Researchers do agree there are two ways of risking your health. Those are either doing nothing at all or starting out on a vigorous plan of exercise without a slow conditioning period.

"One of the quickest ways to kill yourself is to jog just once a week for two miles as fast as you can," said Smith, a former county president for the American Heart Association.

"The person who enters into a vigorous exercise program with known or unknown previous heart damage runs a higher risk of heart attack. However, I believe you cannot hurt an already healthy heart, no matter how strenuous the exercise," he said.

Walking is certainly better on the feet, heels, ankles, legs and knees than running, Smith said.

For people concerned that merely walking won't help them shed those extra pounds, Smith has a thought or two.

If the variables are nearly equal, a person walking fast requires more energy (translate that to calories burned) than someone jogging slowly, he explained.

And if two people — one walking, one jogging, both with equal heart and breathing rates — cover the same length of ground, it's likely the two will derive equal benefits for their cardiopulmonary systems.

"It is possible that if you went far enough and fast enough by walking, even though it requires a lot more time, you could get more exercise from that than by moderate jogging," Smith said.

Smith said he was hesitant about making any hard-and-fast declarations because the fine balance of benefit vs. exercise is one that varies from individual to individual.

This is linked, Smith said, to the body's production of HDL, or high density lipoprotein, the so-called "good" cholesterol needed by our bodies. HDL production seems to follow a formula of intensity multiplied by duration.

All things being equal, a person would probably get more benefit and produce more HDL (thought to aid in blocking the action of "bad" cholesterol called LDL) by walking briskly for a long period of time than for jogging slowly for a shorter time, he explained.

39 SH Students Report for Track

As basketball teams of Sacred Heart School checked in their uniforms, twenty two girls and seventeen boys reported to Coaches Ronnie Hess and Wanda Flusche for the 1981 track teams.

To most of the youngsters the new activity is principally a matter of getting assignments. As regards conditioning they are ready, some having worked regularly on the road and in the weight room, some having been in basketball.

Time for getting familiar with their job is limited. They'll participate in a triangular practice on the MH track on Friday the 27th and they'll be in a quadrangular practice at the same place on March 6. After that they will get into their schedule of meets as follows.

Jump Rope For Heart Benefit Scheduled

Students in Muenster area elementary schools will jump rope to raise funds for the American Heart Association in a Jump Rope for Heart scheduled for Wednesday, March 4, 1981.

The three-hour event will feature students who will jump rope as members of six person teams. Each team member will jump until tiring and then pass the rope to another team member. The sequence is repeated for a maximum of three hours.

Prior to the event, each participant will collect pledges from family, friends, and neighbors on each minute their team jumps. Following the event, the student will return to sponsors with a verified report and collect the pledges. These pledges will then be turned in to the Jump Rope for Heart coordinator and forwarded to the local American Heart Association.

All participants will receive a Certificate of Appreciation. Students who turn in their pledges on time will receive an official Jump Rope for Heart T-shirt. Each member of the team raising the most money, over $200 at their school will receive a warm-up suit. And the individuals turning in $100 or more and not members of the winning team will receive a windbreaker.

Each school participating also competes for statewide prizes. The top three elementary schools have a chance to win springboards, tumbling tables, vaulting horses, horizontal bars, tumbling mats, and other gymnastic equipment, based on the highest amount raised per student, according to the school's average daily enrollment.

A nine-station Universal gym until will go to the junior or senior high school in Texas raising the most money. The physical education department of the college or university raising the most money will receive a $1,000 gift.

Sharon Felderhoff, Jump Rope for Heart coordinator at Muenster, stated that adults are encouraged to enter the competition. "Jump rope is a great physical exercise. It requires a minimum of space and equipment, and can be pursued and enjoyed throughout life," she stated.

The Jump Rope for Heart event is sponsored by the Texas Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation and the Governor's Commission on Physical Fitness.

Over 55,000 students are expected to participate in the event here in Texas, joining over a million participants nationwide.

School Kids Hear Dental Health Program By Dr. Graham

Dr. Gerald Graham presented a program at Muenster Public School and Sacred Heart School on Monday February 16 in recognition of National Dental Health Week.

His assistants, Monica Hartman and Connie Grewing, joined Dr. Graham in the program. The children, Kindergarten through third grades, were shown the proper way to brush, floss and care for their teeth.

Seventh graders from both schools presented a play, "The trials of Tillie Tooth," to the younger students. Those in the play were Paula Yosten, Leslie Hess, Laura Flusche, Charla Bayer, John Nasch, Kenny Hesse, Lisa Haverkamp, Lydia and Sandra Walterscheid, Amber Grewing, Jean Pagel, Julie Fisher, Dolle Pagel, Penny Hess and Connie Klement.

Each child was given a packet containing a toothbrush and other goodies after the program.

Dental health week is observed to remind everyone of the importance of teeth and their care.

UP THE CREEK with C. L. Yarbrough

The Disappearance of the Chicken Feeder

Booger Barnes used to have a bachelor neighbor who didn't have a whole lot to do except feed a few chickens. This fellow could come and go on short notice without the world coming apart on anything, and when the hunting fever would suddenly overwhelm Booger, he'd usually pick up the chicken feeder and away they'd go until the fever left Booger, which could take a week or so.

He did this one time, and for some reason or other some of the chicken feeder's kin folks decided to check on their relative after he and Booger had been gone about three days. Everything about the place was in as good order as it ever was, but the chickens were out of feed and water, and that didn't seem just right to the relatives, and was enough to start them worrying. Like most folks, they sort of liked to suspect the worst just for the adventure of it.

When dark came on, and their missing relative was still missing, they put out the alarm.

Quite a crowd had gathered by the next morning. They searched the pastures out around the place, and of course failed to find him. By late afternoon they were reduced to standing around in the yard telling about people who had disappeared and never turned up again, and about others who had been found dead and eaten up by wild animals and the like.

Somebody remembered that the missing man had always liked to hunt rattlesnakes in their dens, and offered the opinion that he'd gone off to a snake den, gotten himself bitten, and had died before he could get to the house. Everybody liked that tolerably well, and they all enjoyed that possibility for awhile, and talked about where the various dens were, and where they might find the body.

Nobody paid much attention to a car that stopped for a second on the main road.

It was in the dusk of the evening by that time, and they didn't see the chicken feeder until he was right up among them, wondering what all the crowd was about.

The men all tried to make out like they were overjoyed to see him, but they didn't pull it off very well because they'd really been enjoying the whole thing as a kind of holiday.

Women are better at that sort of thing. They'd been sitting around the house, red-eyed and funeral quiet, getting set for a big spell of squalling when the men brought the body in. They weren't about to waste all that preparation.

They came spilling out the house on top of the chicken feeder. The faster ones grabbed hold of him and went to crying and hugging. The slow ones that couldn't find a handhold had to content themselves with shouting, which was almost as good, anyway. And all this time, our chicken feeder still didn't know what was going on.

When he found out, it made him feel so bad, and they had him so excited, that he got to wishing he really was dead or lost so everybody wouldn't be so disappointed.

The faster ones grabbed hold of him and went to crying and hugging.

Teen Years - A Testing Ground Nutrition Information

From the Dairy Council

Your son's or daughter's teen years represent a difficult period; no longer a child, not yet accepted as an adult. It is a period of great physical and psychological, and often ignored nutritional needs.

The teen years are marked by physical growth, putting additional demand on needs for protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals. These nutrients are needed daily to build healthy bones, muscles and organs.

Many teens may not be meeting these needs because:
1. Breakfast may be skipped or replaced with foods high in carbohydrates and fats and low in nutrients;
2. Lunch and dinner are often eaten "on the run" and away from home;

3. They become weight conscious and may eat very little, severely limiting the amounts of nutrients their bodies receive daily; and
4. Some vent their frustrations by overeating.

Solutions to these problems lie in keeping less nutritious foods to a minimum. Replace soft drinks with juices. Keep nuts and seeds, cheese, fresh vegetables, and whole grain products around for snacking.

The teen years are a period of crucial development. Habits formed during this time can influence your children's health now and later. Provide a balanced diet from the basic four food groups; milk, meat, fruits and vegetables, and grains. Discourage meal skipping.

The good health you encourage by assuring that nutritional needs are met may prove to be the most enduring gift you can give.

To Visit Parents and Grandparents

The Endres family of Sodas, New York, Dr. Richard Endres and Dr. Martha Kincaid and children, Nathan and Eric have returned home after visiting their Texas relatives.

The two little boys spent 12 days here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Endres while their parents attended a conference in Austin and a medical convention in New Orleans, and also visited his brother, Clifford and his brother John and their families and his sister, Karen Endres all in Austin. After a 3-day visit back in Muenster, they returned to Sodas on Sunday.

John Block Heads US Dept. of Agriculture

Coming from a long line of farmers, John Block, the 21st Secretary of Agriculture, faces many challenges as head of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Some of the challenges presented to him are: helping to meet the rising demand for food world wide; making agriculture more energy efficient and less energy dependent; and improving farm production so as to improve our balance of trade.

John Block was appointed in January from the State of Illinois. He is only the second active farmer to head the U.S.D.A. in more than 40 years.

At age 45, Block is also the fourth youngest named to head the department. He and his wife and his parents own and operate a 3,000 acre farm near Gilson, Illinois.

Block, a physical fitness advocate, jogs daily and finished the 26-mile Boston Marathon in 1980 with a time of 3 hours and 12 minutes.

He graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, in 1957 and has received numerous awards and commendations. They include the Illinois Governor's outstanding achievement award in 1980, the Illinois Cooperative Extension Service's meritorious service award last year for outstanding contributions to Illinois agriculture, and the U.S. Jaycees' outstanding young farmer in 1969.

Block said he believes strongly in exporting U.S. grain, and that one of the major problems facing U.S. Agriculture is excessive soil erosion.

Water, weather used in naming towns in Texas

COLLEGE STATION — Although it's not always plentiful, water must have been on the minds of many Texas towns' founding fathers.

There are 41 Texas towns named after springs, another 37 have the word lake in their names; 17 towns are named for creeks, rivers or brooks. Community names also reflect Texans' preoccupation with the weather. Hail, Dew, Rainbow, Cook, Dryer and Snow Hill are examples.

In its November newsletter the Texas Water Resources Institute — located at Texas A&M University — points out the importance of water to the history of the state in the names that Texans have given their towns.

Some names describe the local water situation: Sour Lake, Sweetwater, Agua Dulce, Shallowater and Redwater. Then there is Long Lake, Big Lake, Blue Lake, Silver Lake, Clear Lake and Little River.
