As a senate panel conducts its hearing on the qualifications of Sandra O'Connor for appointment to the Supreme Court, popular opinion in her support appears to get stronger. She has been candid in her interview with the senators, and her answers have been the kind that the big majority of Americans likes.

In this era of declining regard for the sanctity of the home, she paid tribute to the importance of families and called marriage the hope of the world and the strength of our country.

Regarding crime, she said the country is distressed by its extent and indicated that she favors measures to correct conditions which favor criminals in trials and after conviction. She also indicated that she believes justice can be served by cutting down legal delays and seemingly unending appeals in criminal cases.

As regards modifying laws to apply to the times, she does not feel free to expand or restrict a statute to reflect her own views. She doesn't believe it is a function of the judiciary to step in and change the law because social mores have changed.

Concerning busing, a current hot issue, Mrs. O'Connor said she did not think it was beneficial to the child, however she declined to indicate her stand if confronted by the matter on the high court.

A similar attitude applies in the case of abortion, which is the very hottest issue in matters involving confirming her nomination to the court. It is also the basis of widespread objection to her nomination. Mrs. O'Connor said personal views and philosophies of a Supreme Court justice should be set aside in resolving matters that come before the court.

This seems like saying Constitution and basic principles are the considerations rather than social or political trends. And, if so, it can be accepted as a good sign, because Sandra O'Connor appears to have both background and character to consider a case impersonally.

When President Reagan chose Mrs. O'Connor as the Supreme Court nominee he set off a nation-wide hassle by anti-abortion people. They felt betrayed because of his personal anti-abortion statements and a belief that their strong support was a factor in his election. Understandably, his choice seemed like poor gratitude. As a result the opposition has made intensive effort to block the confirmation.

However, opposition decreases as the hearing proceeds. It's beginning to appear that pro-life controversy is declining and may eventually fade out completely.

The first consideration is that the nominee probably is not a staunch pro-abortionist after all. In her hearing she said that she has an abhorrence of abortion. She admitted she did vote in 1970 to repeal a state anti-abortion law, but her perception and awareness of the issue have changed, and she now regrets the vote. She also admitted that after the Supreme Court legalized most abortions in 1973, she opposed a constitutional amendment aimed at overturning the ruling. "I was not sure that we had given the proper amount of reflection," she recalled.

In making his nomination, President Reagan was aware of the lady's changes of personal opinion and had reason to think that her judgment, if called upon would be based on constitution and principle. Perhaps Reagan was a better judge of qualities than the

Ag Dept. proposes 15 per cent reduction of '82 wheat acreage

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block today announced his intentions to implement a 15 per cent "reduced acreage" program for the 1982 wheat crop to offset the effects of record supplies and depressed wheat prices.

Program operating procedures will be issued after pending farm legislation is enacted into law.

"Wheat supplies in the United States are 14 percent above last year," Block said. "The carryover next June is expected to exceed 1 billion bushels, the highest level since 1977-78. The reduced acreage program will strengthen prices by reducing the 1982-83 marketing year supplies."

Block said the increase in supplies and decrease in prices is the result of two successive record U.S. wheat crops and a record-setting 1981 world harvest.

The program will be voluntary so producers can decide for themselves, based on market conditions, whether they want to participate. Program benefits, however, will be tied to participation.

"Soil conservation will be strongly stressed in this program," Block said. "The reduced acreage will have to be devoted to conservation uses."

Promotions planned to attract shoppers...

Hoedown coming on strong

Muenster Chamber of Commerce is going all out to make a super event of its third annual Harvest Hoedown to be held Saturday, the 19th, 9 to 5 o'clock.

With Dr. Bernard Luke and Larry Kinard as co-chairman, it is planned for lots of crowd appeal, and business people are urged to join in the spirit by offering outstanding sales values. Kinard said the Chamber "wants visitors to be impressed not only by the quantity but also the quality of the sale items."

Lots of attractions are planned as the Chamber's crowd pleasers. Skippy, the lovable clown, will head the list with comedy bits, magic, balloon animals and other amusing feats to charm young and old. He is a veteran of many engagements with circuses, fairs, shopping center promotions and other crowd events.

Another feature is a scattering of 200 special ping pong balls redeemable at $1.00 each in trade at all stores of town on Hoedown day only. Some of the balls will have additional markings entitling the finders to prizes furnished by the wholesale beer distributors. All of the balls will be dropped from an airplane at noon. Merchants who accept the balls in trade can turn them in later to the Chamber of Commerce for refund.

Another feature of the day is two drawings for football parties at the Cowboys' game with the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium on Thanksgiving Day. Each package consists of four tickets plus $20 for gas and $3 for parking. Eligibility is restricted to persons at least 18 years old. Registration blanks are available in the stores of participating merchants and can be filled out until 3 p.m.

Saturday, when the slips will be picked up for the 4 o'clock drawing. A person does not have to buy to register and does not have to be at the drawing to win.

Also an attraction is the Coors One-Man-Band who appeared here during Germanfest. He will entertain throughout the day.

Besides, there's something special in food and drink. Hot dogs will be available for 25¢ in a deal that has been arranged by the Chamber of Commerce and Friends of the Library. The Chamber provides the makings and the Library Friends do the work. Proceeds of the sales will go into a Library benefit fund.

And, by special arrangement with the distributors, Fischer's Store will serve free Cokes and The Hut will serve free Dr. Pepper.

Much of the activity will be centered on Main Street between First and Second Streets. To allow the crowd freedom of movement as well as to avoid traffic problems that area of the street will be closed.

How many of you remember this scene?...or the men at work? And how about that sign? This building was on Main Street and part of it still remains. Hoedown helps us recall the days when the pace of living was less hectic - when horseshoeing was a thriving part of the blacksmithing trade, and prices were considerably lower. When this picture was made, buggy and wagon wheel steel tires were set, "either hot or cold", as the hand-lettered sign says. The picture was loaned to us by Joe and Hilda Sicking.

Homecoming awaits MHS Exes

Everything is set for pomp and ceremony and fun Friday night for Muenster High School's 1981 homecoming.

Feature event of the occasion will be a renewal of old time football rivalry between the Hornets and the Knights with prospects for an extra good game. Both teams will go in with a 2-0 record and both have done well offensively and defensively. Their tussle could easily become a standoff determined by the breaks.

Festivities, planned by former homecoming queens with Mrs. Nick Walterscheid as chairman, started with a bonfire and pep rally Wednesday night. They will be resumed Friday night in a parade from downtown to the grandstand starting at 7 p.m. It will be headed by the band, and friends are welcome to join. The band will also perform on the field before the game.

The formalities will be held at the half with introduction and coronation of the queen who has been elected by football players from four senior candidates.

The remaining three candidates will join lower class representatives as princesses of the queen's court.

Also in the ceremony are queens of the honored classes, '51, '61 and '71, who will present nosegays to members of the royal court, and queens of the past three years, who will conduct the crowning. The queen of '78, Kathie Herr, escorted by Tim Herr, will present roses to the '81 queen. The queen of '79, Lou Dyer, escorted by Todd Richey, will pin the banner on the queen. And, the queen of '80, Barbie Wimmer, escorted by David Felderhoff, will perform the crowning.

Proceedings of the ceremony will be announced by Chris Cain.

The queen candidates and their escorts are Carla Walterscheid and Glenn Fisher, Elaine Grewing and Mark Grewing, Peggy Winn and John Walterscheid, Tracey Sawyer and Benji Luke.

Princesses and escorts are Ginny Fisher (junior) and Larry Fleitman, Cindy Tisdale (sophomore) and Bruce Coffey, and Amy Reiter (freshman) and Ricky Winn.

Queens of the honored classes and their escorts are LaQuita McCollum (1951) and Bill McCollum, Della Hellman (1961) and Dolphy Hellman, Jeanette Reiter (1961) and Johnny Reiter, Debra Bradford (1971) and Stewart Bradford.

The final event is a homecoming dance after the game in the VFW Hall with music by Cherry Rhone. Though a part of the MHS homecoming, it is not restricted to MHS students and exes. Everybody is welcome. Advance tickets are available at $4 per person from Tommy Sue Hess, 2855, Robyn Walterscheid, 4308, or Rita Richey, 4123. Ticket price at the door will be $5 per person.

5.13 in soaker

Halleluyah! The rain finally arrived and it was dandy soaker scattered over four days. It started Saturday with 2.85 inches and added measures of .80, 1.46 and .02 the next three days for a welcome total of 5.13. Along with 1.23 earlier in the month, September now has a total of 6.36 inches and the year's total is 27.13, and the odds of reaching a normal total of near 36 inches are improving slightly.

Meanwhile summer has been phasing out with temperatures dropping to the eighties. Low and high temperature readings of the week were recorded as

Pecan Weevil spray time is here

Now is the time to treat for the pecan weevil according to the County Extension Agent, Neil Tibbets. This weevil can drastically reduce the pecan crop that we have in Cooke County, if it is not controlled.

Pecan weevils are very large weevils about one-half inch in size with a very long bill, and can be found feeding on clusters of pecans. The pecan weevils then bore holes in the pecans and lay eggs that hatch into the red-headed worm which appears in the pecans about the time that they are harvested.

Trees can be examined for the presence of pecan weevils by spreading a piece of plastic, bed sheet or any other similar article underneath the tree and jarring the limbs. The sudden jarring of the limbs will cause the pecan weevil to act like it is dead and fall from the pecan cluster on to the plastic sheet. Pecan producers are urged to treat if they find one weevil per tree.

Treatment of pecan weevils with three pounds of 80% wettable Sevin per 100 gallons of water has given excellent control. Tibbets also warns that a second application ten days later may be necessary in order to protect the pecans from the pecan weevils. Thorough coverage of the pecan tree is important when treating for pecan weevils.

Every test that you have experienced is the kind that normally comes to people. But God keeps his promise, and he will not allow you to be tested beyond your power to remain firm; at the time you are put to the test, he will give you the strength to endure it, and so provide you with a way out.

Soil District sets Oct. 14 for judging

The Board of Directors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District along with other agricultural workers in the district set October 14 as the date for the annual grass judging contest. "This will be our 32nd annual contest," said

J.H. Bayer, chairman of the board of directors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District. "The Board started this contest back in 1950 and it has lasted down through the years and has proven to be one of our best contests for the youth of this district," Bayer added.

The contest will be held at the Community Center Building in Gainesville. Registration will start at 12:30 p.m. and judging at 1:30. This contest is open to continued on page 14...

After a number of delays Muenster's paving project is getting into high gear. These crew members of the Luke Construction Co. are pictured in the act of spreading oil on Hickory to be followed by crushed rock. The city is getting some $93,000 worth of pavement on this project, $12,000 for 5 blocks of new pavement and $81,000 for resurfacing some 22 blocks of existing pavement.

Small-business Angle

by Wilson S. Johnson

HIGH INTEREST RATES STRANGLING SMALL BUSINESSES

High interest rates affect almost everyone in the country somehow, but for the small-business person high interest rates may be the "straw that breaks the camel's back." One small-business man in Michigan recently reported, "Business is the worst I have ever seen. Ours has been a successful company for 40 years, but if things don't improve by September, we will close our doors."

The National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) has been taking a quarterly economic survey of small businesses since 1973. The latest such survey shows that for the first time "interest rates and financing" were named the most important problem of those responding. The average rate of interest paid on short-term loans rose abruptly in the second quarter of this year, from 17.6 to 19.0 percent, according to the survey. Those whose loans are tied to the prime rate fared even worse, paying an average of 21 percent.

What this means to the economy in general is best illustrated by the comment of a merchant in California who said, "Interest rates are too high to expand and wages are so high we can't afford to hire anybody, so we just get by with what we have." Or another retailer in Florida who explained, "If interest rates come down for business, I know we will increase our labor force by 30 or 40 people, because we have plans to build a new store."

In other words, small business, the source of more than half the jobs in America, isn't hiring at the rates of recent years. In fact some firms surveyed last month reported they had to let workers go in order to have enough cash to meet other obligations to keep the business operating. Business expansion, which has a ripple effect through the entire economy, is off as well.

The interest rate problem cannot be solved overnight. High interest rates are a symptom of the bad economic conditions created by the federal government over the past two decades. Government deficits and the borrowing to cover those deficits have helped push the interest rates to current levels.

The cure is continued reductions in federal spending, because only when the federal government reduces its borrowing needs will interest rates begin to fall. The President and the Congress have taken some important steps in this direction. We can only hope that the thousands of small-business people, like the man in Michigan, will soon experience some improvement in the economic climate so that they can keep the doors of their establishments open.

Wilson S. Johnson is president of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small-business men and women.

Appeal made for Muenster support... Arts council starts fund drive

The Cooke County Arts Council is beginning its fund raising drive this week. The Arts Council is soliciting memberships to help finance the season of performances planned by its member organizations. The four member organizations of the Arts Council are the Cooke County Symphony and Choral, The Butterfield Stage Players Community Theater, Arts Activities and The Community Big Band. These groups provide a variety of performances, shows and other events of r Cooke County residents.

Muenster is well represented in the Arts Council and its member organizations. In addition to places on the Board of Directors of the Arts Council, itself, Muenster people make up 25% of the Cooke County Choral. The Symphony and Choral always give one performance of The Messiah in Muenster. Citizens of Muenster serve on the Board of Directors of The Butterfield Stage Players Community Theater and have played leading roles in theater productions. Muenster artists and craftsmen are involved in Arts Activities, and The Community Big Band has played at Germanfest the last two years. The Cooke County Arts Council owes a great debt to the many citizens of Muenster that are a part of its organization.

This performing season of the member organizations promises to be truly exciting. The Cooke County Symphony and Choral will launch the first full season

TAXING and SPENDING

by LEWIS K. UHLER

BUREAUCRATS MAKE YEAREND WHOOPIE

It's that time of the year again for our Federal bureaucrats — the end of the fiscal year — and that means another spending spree. But unlike the Christmas gift buying spree most of us go through each year, the bureaucrats do not use their own money.

When bureaucrats go on a spree, they do it with a vengeance. In the last two months of FY 1979, the Department of Housing and Urban Development obligated 47.2 percent of its annual budget. In those same two months, the Environmental Protection Agency spent 41.7 percent of its budget, the Department of Commerce spent 30.3 percent, and the Department of the Interior spent 23.1 percent.

In its study of spending for FY 1977, the General Accounting Office discovered that nearly 60 percent of the overall budget for supplies and materials, across the federal government, was spent in the last month of the fiscal year. Also, 50 percent of the annual obligations for grants, subsidies, and contributions were made in the final quarter, with almost 35 percent of the year's total occurring in the final month.

The GAO determined that year-end spending sprees are accompanied by:

- the funding of low-priority projects, including those that failed to meet cost-benefit criteria during the initial budget review process;
- drawing up "wish lists" of products and services, massive stockpiling, and dumping of furniture and equipment;
- funding of contracts months ahead of actual need and, in some cases, before a contractor has ever been selected;
- pre-recording future obligations, suggesting a fictitiously high level of program activity;

Even if one considers the possibility of federal agencies holding out until the last possible moment to buy the sorely-needed paperclips, this still indicates just how over-funded federal agencies are.

All of these and more are described in detail in the National Tax Limitation Committee's 254-page book, "Meeting America's Economic Crisis: A 'Road Map' to Emergency Federal Spending Reductions" ($6.95 Caroline House).

In 1980, then Congressman Herbert Harris of Virginia introduced a bill which authorized the Office of Management and Budget to make sure that agencies spend no more than 20 percent of their annual budget in the last two months of the fiscal year. It is estimated that restricting fourth quarter spending-surges would save the taxpayers $18.9 billion a year.

Clearly, the "hows" of federal spending are nearly as important as the "how much." Curtailing such fiscal extravagances will do a great deal to bring bureaucratic waste under control.

What is possibly the worst example of such year-end waste, I saved for last: On the last business day of FY 1979, the Department of the Interior awarded a $145,000 consulting contract for a program to help it avoid year-end spending sprees!

(Note: Lewis K. Uhler is President of the National Tax Limitation Committee, the sponsor of a Constitutional amendment to limit permanently federal spending and taxes.)

critics. Something else to think about is current politics. When the nomination was made Reagan popularity was soaring. His supporters were cheering his success, and political opponents were depressed. The nomination had possibilities to please people on both sides; a woman on the bench, a conservative on the bench, but also a big problem on the abortion issue. Whatever the choice, there was sure to be complaints. And the president, realizing that conservatives already had more to please them, was less hesitant to please liberals on the abortion issue.

And there may be another good reason that fusing people were not aware of. Maybe Reagan knew that O'Connor was an excellent choice in other respects and had the quality to judge wisely if the abortion matter comes before the court.

A good rule in this situation is to remember that the president has conscience, judgment and courage, the qualities of a good leader. We can be confident that the choice, in his opinion, was good for the country.

NATIONAL CF WEEK SEPTEMBER 20-26

What Every Parent Should Know About CYSTIC FIBROSIS And Why!

Cystic fibrosis is the number one genetic killer of children. Every day, an average of five children are born with the disease, every day, three die of it. Sad, you say, but it won't affect my children. However, you really can't be sure. Approximately ten million Americans — one out of every 20 — are symptomless carriers of the gene that causes this incurable, degenerative disease that attacks the lungs and digestive system.

When two carriers conceive a child, that baby has a 25 percent chance of inheriting cystic fibrosis, a 50 percent chance of being a carrier.

Early diagnosis and treatment can help prolong life. That's why you need to know more about CF. Common symptoms are:

- A salty taste to the skin.
- Recurrent wheezing and pneumonia.
- Persistent cough.
- Bulky stools.
- Nasal polyps.
- Large appetite with poor weight gain.

If your child exhibits these symptoms, see your doctor.

The more we learn the sooner we can conquer cystic fibrosis.

Congressman
Charles W. Stenholm
Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Most of us are familiar with the term, "rob Peter to pay Paul." We also know, when dealing with our personal budgets, that the time invariably comes when that play no longer works. So it is with the Federal budget.

It is no secret that for years, politicians on both sides of the aisle — both Democrats and Republicans — have taken "the easy way out" and responded to a variety of social ills by approving more and more money to create programs to deal with those problems. Many of those programs were very popular with their constituencies and, so long as no one seriously complained (usually serious complaints are defined as votes during election time), business went along as usual.

Business as usual meant "robbing" the Defense budget, for example, to finance domestic programs. In 1970 defense's share of federal expenditures was 40 percent. A steady decline in that share since then has finally dropped defense spending to only 20 percent of the total budget in 1980. With our new emphasis on defense (even with some cuts) we will be spending over 30 percent by 1984.

We are currently examining the Defense budget for areas where spending can be tightened and, in some cases, cut outright. There is no area of federal spending that cannot stand close examination. Defense is no exception. I am confident, that cuts can be made in non-essential areas — the fat that is present in every federal budget — while we are concurrently concentrating on strengthening our overall defense "muscle".

We have now reached the point when even the liberals admit that there is no more room for such spending shifts away from national defense. The question now before Congress is how can we best improve our defense posture at the least cost to the budget. There is no question, however, that improvements have to be made.

The Social Security Program grew by leaps and bounds during the same time frame. As long as the voting public did not complain, Congress increased payroll contributions to Social Security from 3 percent at the end of World War II, to the present 13 percent and benefits increased accordingly.

Such increases are no longer "politically easy", however. Workers now question the stability of the program and it takes no economic genius to recognize that revisions to the Social Security Program are in order. "Easy revisions?" No. I can think of no easy answers to the current Social Security dilemma. I can only offer my personal assurances to those dependent on Social Security that the program will continue, but further increases in benefits will be of less magnitude.

The final ploy that has been common in the past is the use of deficit spending to continue the "business as usual" spending attitude in Congress. The federal government operated as a deficit during 19 of the past 20 years and, despite our best efforts to date during the current Session, deficit spending has not yet been eliminated. Important steps have been made toward lessening the deficit that have had the country economically bogged down. More will be necessary because of high interest rates. There is much concern today, but all skeptics need to be reminded the new plan does not begin until October 1.

I did not expect to see immediate results following the votes on the budget and tax plans this summer. We have made an important beginning, but our task is very difficult and our job is far from finished.

State funds earn $1 million a day in interest

Warren G. Harding, State Treasurer of Texas, reports interest earnings for the State have hit a historical high of over $1,000,000.00 per day. That day was Thursday, August 20, when the State earned $1,010,003.63. The highest earnings for any day in August occurred on Monday, August 31, when the State earned $1,088,505.99.

During the month of August the State Treasurer had an average of 98.7% of the State's $2,538,523,488.91 in interest bearing accounts earning 14 1/2% interest. The State's funds are placed in 1,493 depository banks in Texas and are secured by collateral pledged by the depository banks.

Depository interest earned during fiscal year 1981 (September 1, 1980 through August 31, 1981) amounted to $254,999,541.13 which represents an increase of $29,699,929.74 over fiscal year 1980. This equates to a 13.2% increase.

Mr. Harding stated that his primary objective is to continue to serve the best interest of the people of Texas by keeping their hard earned tax dollars working effectively for them.

Don and Dot visit Pacific Northwest

Vacation time this year for Donald and Dorothy Endres was a delightful 5,000 mile trip to Oregon and Washington.

They were guests of their daughter and family, Donna and Danny Schmitt and children Corey and Amber. Marked for special celebration was Amber's 3rd birthday and Corey's first day in first grade this year.

The Endreses arrived in Washington in time to see the best wheat harvest in years. They said that the sight of seven big combines at work in one field at the same time, was memorable.

They visited in Tri-cities, where Amber's birthday was observed, and during a weekend they visited in the Leo Schmitt's mountain cabin; also with Mrs. Marge Schmitt & Mr. and Mrs. Mark Schmitt in Yakima. A trip to Mt. Ranier was made in unseasonably hot weather, otherwise weather was ideal.

The Danny Schmitt family traveled along to Lincoln City, Oregon for a stay at the ocean, walks along the beach, and hunting keepsakes to bring or send back to Texas. They also visited at Depoe Bay, Oregon to watch fishing boats come in with the day's catch; and they toured Portland, seeing beautiful waterfalls, flowers and spectacular scenery.

The Danny Schmitt family sent greetings to relatives and friends in their former home town.

County tax rate drops slightly

The Cooke County Commissioners court at its Monday meeting voted to reduce the county tax rate, but just barely. Their new rate is 47 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, with valuations set at 100 percent of actual value. The previous rate was 95 cents per $100 of valuation, with values set at 50 percent of actual value. The comparison at full valuation amounts to 47 cents this year and 47 1/2 cents last year.

From the 47 cents, 23 cents will be assigned to general operation, 18 cents for the road and bridge fund, 2 cents for permanent improvement and 4 cents for the Farm to Market lateral road fund. The lateral fund can be used to purchase right of way for FM road construction.

Revenue expected from this year's county tax rate is $1,179,900 for the general fund, $923,400 for road and bridge expense, $102,600 for permanent improvements and $205,200 for the lateral road fund.

Revised city budget is $336,085

The city's budget for the coming fiscal year is $336,085, not $322,687 as reported a week ago. City Secretary Celine Dittfurth explains that previously approved salary raises were overlooked in preparing the budget and figures were revised accordingly. The updated figures show expected expenditures of $236,691 in the general fund and $99,394 in the water and sewer fund. Anticipated revenues are $273,706 in the general fund, leaving a balance of $37,015, and $16,101 in the water and sewer fund leaving a balance of $62,707.

From the latter figure, $12,000 a year is transferred to the lake fund and the remaining $50,707 is set aside as a contingency for emergency expenses, etc., and whatever remains at the end of the year will be added to the lake fund. Likewise in the general account, the surplus of $37,015 becomes an emergency fund and what remains at the end of the year will be added to the street fund.

Of the $273,706 estimated revenue, the city expects to receive $76,052 from tax. The total assessment is $80,838 on a valuation of $15,696,844, assessed at 100 percent of actual value and taxed at 51.5 cents per $100 of value. With a 98 percent collection ratio, the actual yield is reduced to $79,221. Four percent of this amount is transferred to the interest and sinking fund, leaving $76,052 for the general fund.

Alan Rohmer marries Connie Tole

Mr. and Mrs. Alan L. Rohmer are at home in Dallas since returning from a wedding trip to Acapulco. They were married on Saturday, September 5 in an afternoon double ring ceremony officiated by Rev. Jim Rose, pastor of Northwest Bible Church of Dallas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Tole of Wichita Falls. She is the former Connie L. Tole. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Rohmer of Muenster.

The bride was presented at the altar by her brother Allan Tole, substituting for her father who was hospitalized and unable to attend. For her wedding she wore a formal gown designed and made by her aunt, Thelma Jackson of Weatherford, of white taffeta with an organdy overlay trimmed in venise lace. A sheer matching shoulder cape had a Victorian neckline. Sleeves were sheer, long and tapered with delicate lace edging and lace appliques. On the skirt, a wide detail of applied lace formed a pattern above the hemline, encircling the aisle-wide train. The full length bridal veil was attached to a Juliet cap trimmed with venise lace and seed pearls. White roses with accents of daisies, azaleas, and dogwood were carried in the bridal bouquet, with ivory and rose ribbons.

For sentiment she wore an antique ruby ring, once owned by the groom's great-grandmother, given to his seed pearl caplet. A band of matching lace completely encircled the veil.

The bride also wore her sister Barbara's diamond pendant; and a pair of new pearl earrings, gift from the groom.

Her bridal bouquet of white roses, carnations and babies breath was entwined with a blue crystal rosary, a gift of the groom's sister, Mrs. Ted Henschel.

Boys brought their completed projects they have been working on to earn their activity badges at the next pack meeting. It was announced that Saturday, September 19, the Cubs will all be helping by keeping Main Street clean during the community's Harvest Hoedown. This project will count as part of the "Citizen's" activity badge. Next pack meeting, September 28, there will be a bicycle rodeo. Boys were told registration starts at 6:45 and were reminded to bring their bikes. Boys in the Webelos den are Don Joe Park, Marlin Evans, Jeff Walterscheid, Jason Gehrig, Ryan Bayer, Johnny Herr, Michael Mangum, Shawn Vogel, Keith Vogel, Danny Black and Eric Dankesreiter.

Den 4

Den 4 met for its regular meeting Tuesday, Sept. 15 at the Muenster Park. Opening flag ceremony was conducted by Denner Scott Hudspeth and assistant denner, Steven Fisher. The boys were told about their part in the Harvest Hoedown as clean-up committee and about the bicycle rodeo planned for the pack meeting on September 28. Assistant den leader, Rita Russell checked over the boys' books for completed advancements and beads were given to the cubs for their instant recognition patch. Cubs receiving 1 bead for having completed 3 achievements were: Douglas Evans, Darrin Russell, Ryan Gehrig, and Brad McDaniel. ## PUBLIC NOTICE BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 3, 1981

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize cities, towns and other taxing units to grant exemptions from ad valorem taxes on an unproductive, underdeveloped or blighted area in order to encourage its development. The amendment would also allow the legislature to authorize a city or town to issue bonds or notes to finance this development and to pledge future increases in ad valorem tax revenues from the property in such areas to repay these bonds or notes.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and other taxing units to encourage the improvement, development, or redevelopment of certain areas through property tax relief and the issuance of bonds and notes."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 117 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize a person to receive a patent to land from the Commissioner of the General Land Office under certain conditions. Application for the patent must be made within five years from approval of the amendment. The land must be surveyed, public free school land not previously patentable. The person must have a properly recorded deed to the land, which he acquired without knowledge of the patent defect and which title he and his predecessors in interest have held for at least 50 years. The person and his predecessors in interest must have continuously claimed the land and paid the taxes for at least 50 years. This amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands. An applicant may not use this provision to resolve a boundary dispute. This amendment will not apply to land which has been determined to be state-owned by a court of competent jurisdiction or that has a productive state mineral lease on the effective date of the amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years as of November 15, 1981."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 38 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the authority to manage state funds. Funds constitutionally dedicated to specific purposes would not be subject to committee management. The committee would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, and the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide that one-half of the surplus tax revenues above the spending limit provided by Article VIII, Section 22, of the Texas Constitution would be placed in a Water Assistance Fund to be used as provided by law, including projects for water development and conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes or any combination of these purposes.

The amendment also provides $500,000,000 of the general credit of the state to guarantee bonds issued in commercial markets by local political subdivisions, including cities, counties, and special districts. The amendment allows amounts to be established to decrease or retire state debt, which is defined as that debt secured by the full faith and credit of the state. The amendment would raise the interest that could be paid on authorized, but unissued, bonds guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the state from 6% to 12%.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the use of a portion of the excess revenues of the state for water development, water conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes, authorizing the use of the state's credit, not to exceed five hundred million dollars, to guarantee the bonds of cities, counties, towns, and other units of local government in the financing of projects for such purposes; increasing the interest rate that may be paid on previously approved, but unissued, state bonds; and authorizing a program to retire state bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt livestock and poultry from taxation. Currently, farm products in the hands of the producer and family supplies for home and farm use are exempt. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the inclusion of livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 81 authorizes the governing body of a county, city, school district or other political subdivisions to exempt from taxation a portion of the market value of a residence homestead. The portion exempted may be as much as 40% for 1982-1984; 30% for 1985-1987; and 20% for 1988 and after. The amount of an exemption may not be less than $5,000 unless the legislature by general law prescribes other monetary restrictions on the amount of the exemption. An eligible adult is allowed to receive other applicable exemptions provided by law. An exception is made where ad valorem tax has previously been pledged for the payment of debt.

The amendment further directs the legislature to require that notice be given to property owners of a reasonable estimate of tax on their property in certain situations.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell an additional $250,000,000 in bonds increasing the Veterans' Land Fund's total bond issuance authorization from $700,000,000 to $950,000,000. The amendment would increase the maximum interest payable by the state on these bonds from 6% to 10%, and permit an even higher rate, if specified by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of additional bonds to finance the veterans' land program and to increase the maximum interest rate allowable on veterans' land fund bonds."

Coal's our most abundant fuel... let's go ahead and use it.

Volumes of bureaucratic regulations restrict our use of coal at a time when its use needs to be encouraged.

We Americans have always been forward-looking people. We've always kept our eyes—and our options—open.

An energy option we need to exercise is the use of coal to generate electricity. It makes sense: coal is our most abundant fuel with known reserves that will last more than 300 years at present rates of consumption; its cost is rising slower than that of other fuels; and using it helps reduce our petroleum imports.

The largest obstacle to our continued development of this necessary resource is over-zealous government regulation. By imposing unnecessary measures this unrealistic over-regulation slows our progress, increases the cost of your electricity, and does little or nothing to protect the environment. For example:

- Present standards for coal plants require more stringent emission limits on a plant using low-sulfur coal than a plant using high-sulfur coal, which, in effect, provides an incentive to use "dirtier" coal and penalizes plants that use low-sulfur or "cleaner" coal.
- Regulatory documentation for a permit to mine coal in Texas in 1975 consisted of a single report about one-half inch thick. Obtaining permits for the same area in 1980 required volumes of reports.

We have the technology today to use coal cleanly and safely. It's plentiful and relatively inexpensive, if its use is not over-regulated. And we need the energy now.

Forestburg News by Myrt Denham

Mrs. Cleo Lanier and grandson Charles Lanier of Wichita Falls attended the Stenholm picnic at Ericksdahl picnic grounds, near Stanford, Saturday Sept. 12.

Just about serving time it came a down pour of rain which sent everybody scurrying for cover, under the food tent. It finally stopped, everybody moved out, and they took paper towels and dried off the benches. About the time everyone got located it came another blast, with rain, wind and hail. Everyone took cover again. After it stopped, they began serving a delicious meal of chicken, barbecue, beans, potatoes salad and watermelon. 889 persons went through the line.

Several state officials made talks, among them, Charles Finnell, who will probably be our state representative in 1982, replacing Joe Hanna, who has been poled out of our district. Mr. Finnell has promised to be visiting in Forestburg in the near future.

and some relating to summer work. She told about plans for a Horticulture Exhibit to replace the flower show, scheduled for October 31, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

She also distributed new yearbooks and reported on Junior Garden Club progress. Beginning this fall junior garden clubs will be sponsored in both grades 1 and 2 of Sacred Heart School.

Muenster Garden Club members will have a tree planted to add to other landscaping at the Mid-Park. And members voiced pleasure in hearing that redwood planters have been designated for placement on Main Street by 15 businesses. Muenster High School shop class students and instructor Rudy Koessler are building them.

Mrs. Arthur Endres requested an additional piece of playground equipment for the Mini-Park and Myrick Play Center. Coming events announced include the Fall Zone meeting at the Woman's Forum in Graham on November 10; also a Flower Show Judging School on October 6-8 and the state convention in Kerrville October 27-29. Mrs. Vernon Sparkman will be the club's voting delegate and Mrs. Ray Sicking will be alternate. Mrs. Arthur Endres will also attend.

The October 12 meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Ray Wilde when Chris Kaden will speak on Landscape Design.

Last week's picture of the young couple in front of their early home showed Mr. and Mrs. Pryor McGee, who were married on October 26, 1919. Mr. McGee is now deceased. He was born in Broken Bow, Oklahoma and raised in Shawnee. Mrs. McGee is the former Vera Mae Perryman, born and raised east of Forestburg. Her parents were Columbus and Janie Perryman. Mr. and Mrs. Pryor McGee were parents of eight children. He was a barber for 47 years, most of it in Forestburg, when hair cuts cost 25¢ (with hand clippers, yet!) He also sold insurance and drove a school bus. Mrs. Vera Mae McGee is a resident of the Forestburg area.

Rainwater talks to Garden Club on wildflowers

Gary Rainwater, District Soil Conservationist, presented a program on Wildflowers of the North Texas area, when he spoke to the Muenster Garden Club Monday evening. He showed a large number of colored slides that he made, and gave a commentary on each, including the botanical and common names and general location of individual plants indicating if they are useful to cattle or soil, and frequently telling how Indians and early settlers found uses.

Rainwater was introduced by program chairman, Mrs. Ed Knauf. She told that he and his wife, Teresa and their children Travis and Heather have lived in Muenster about a year. He began work for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in 1974 and is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University. He prepares a weekly column for the Muenster Enterprise; "Cooke County Blooms!"

Mrs. John Mosman was hostess in her home. Sixteen members and one new member, Mrs. Ray (Mabel) Sicking of Myra attended.

Mrs. August Felderhoff reported on several garden club activities, some current,

Hornets win No. 2...

MHS nudges Nocona 7-0

Muenster High Hornets, lacking some of the zip of their opening performance, nevertheless won 7-0 in their tussle with Nocona Friday for a 2-0 start on their season record.

Their limited success can be explained mainly by two factors, the first being the Indian defense and the second being failure to get their game together. It was not a matter of effort, Coach Peters said. "At times like that no matter how hard they try, things don't seem to work out."

However, it can be said that the Hornets improved as the game progressed. They gained 139 yards the second half whereas they gained 67 before the half...also 9 first downs compared with only 1. And they made a TD only to have it wasted by a clip call. Also they ended a yard short of the goal on the game's last play.

Another disappointment was the passing. Nine tries resulted in eight incomplete and one interception, along with a few efforts that were spoiled by quarterback sacks.

The Hornets only score was set up when the Indians failed on a punt. The center's snap sailed over the kicker back to the 17. He got to it a split second before Greg Luke but that made no difference. Possession went to the Hornets.

From there Gary Klement gained 6, a pass was incomplete, a run was stopped and David Flusche, on fourth down, found a crack in the line and busted through for the TD. Dale Swirczynski booted an extra point. MHS led 7-0 at 7:35.

To begin the game Nocona had to punt on first series after which Muenster seemed to be going. It gained 28 in two series and fell short by 3 on the third. The rest of the half, except the Hornet TD was spent mostly in the middle of the field with penalties and quarterback sacks nullifying progress on both sides. Each team made four first downs before the half.

Flusche started the second half with a 31 yard kickoff return and the team followed with a first down and bogged down. Shortly later Klement returned a kick 22 yards and the first MHS series was stopped by an interception.

Just before the quarter a super Indian punt set MHS back to the 20, where the Hornets started a drive that gained 35 in three series and was stopped on the fourth by a penalty and a quarterback sack.

Then came a defensive stand off in which both teams had to punt twice, after which Muenster finally seemed to get organized. With 64 to go, Flusche gained 27, Swirczynski went 12 and Flusche made the remaining 25 to the end zone. However, as he was scoring a teammate was taking out a defender. Officials called it a clip, scratched the score and stepped off 10 yards.

In spite of the setback Muenster completed a first down to the 13 and bogged down again. It lost possession on the 6.

With 2 minutes to go The Hornets missed another opportunity. Vance Wells intercepted on the Indian 47 and another drive ran out of steam on the 15 with 33 seconds to go. Four incomplete passes later Muenster regained possession with time left for a last play from the 14. That play was halted at the 1. For the second time David Flusche was the offensive workhorse for the Hornets. He carried the ball some 30 times for total yardage of 149. Gary Klement stepped off 20 and Dale Swirczynski 28.

Defense featured the same trio along with Tim Schneider and Vance Wells in holding the Indians to a short net yardage, and allowing them to advance past midfield only twice.

Keen rivalry of Hornets, Knights continues Fri.

Selection of the Lindsay game for the MHS homecoming was an inspiration. At this time in the season it appears to be about the most nearly matched contest in sight, and a traditional keen rivalry can be expected to add intensity.

Both schools are going into the game with a 2-0 record. Lindsay started with a 35-20 decision over Era in a game that was closer than the score, and went on a 53-0 scoring spree last week with Savoy's brand new team. Meanwhile Muenster crushed Callisburg 35-0 and nosed out Nocona 7-0.

Coach Peters has lots of respect for the Knights, especially after seeing them in an action film. He says the team is strong on basics, quick and scrappy and does a good job at both running and passing.

Hornets, too, rate well on the fundamentals and quickness and spunk, and, with a pair of shutouts in their favor, have done well on defense. The offense has been limited to rushing while passing has been disappointing.

However all other considerations are less important than the simple fact that the opponents are Muenster and Lindsay in their usual keen rivalry. Spectators can expect to get their money's worth.

Muenster Jr. lose 2 at Nocona

Muenster junior teams were the losers in two closely contested games Thursday night with Nocona's kids. Junior high score was 14-8 and junior varsity 14-6.

In either case the loss was nothing to be ashamed of. Coach Peters described them as good efforts with the odds slightly stacked in size and numbers. The Little Monsters did a specially good job in the second half after trailing 14-0. They dominated the period offensively as well as defensively.

Doyle Lewis made the TD on a sweep around end to complete a 50 yard drive and Paul Russell nabbed an Indian behind the goal to score a safety. Later Lewis got loose for a 50 yard sprint to the goal but the score was nullified by an infraction. The score would have tied it and points after could have won.

JV teams played about even and their score was 6-6 until moments before the end when Nocona cashed in on two fat breaks. A fumble and a face mask penalty gave Nocona a set-up in front of the goal line and a crash at the line plus bonus points raised the count to 14-6.

Ronnie Fisher was the Hornet scorer. A turnover at the 30 plus a pass got inside the 10 and Fisher finished the job with a dive into the line.

MHS starts volleyball as district, bi-district champ

As of now Muenster High School is district and bi-district champion in volleyball. The reason is that MHS has the only team in the districts concerned. It's only competition in UIL will come in regional play. However things can change if one or more other teams will organize soon and qualify for district membership.

The Hornets started their season last week Thursday in a match with Sacred Heart, winning two in varsity and two in junior varsity. Their second encounter was with Sanger here, in which the JV won 15-10, 7-15, and 15-6; and varsity won 15-7 and 15-8. Until regional time the team will continue playing 2A teams plus a return match with Sacred Heart.

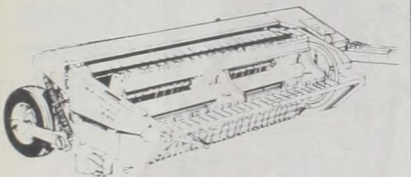

The team is coached by Alan Gustine and the roster includes the following Varsity: Charlotte Fleitman, Elaine Grewing, Carla and Jill Walterscheid, Sandy and Renee Wimmer, Peggy and Mary Winn, and Ginny Fisher. Juniro Varsity: Nancy and Sara Walterscheid, Stephanie Richey, Kyla Hale, Debbie Bindel, Jill Mollenkopf, Amy Reiter, Sandy Ramsey, Pam Hermes, Kim Eldred, JoEll Hellman and Jean Trubebach. The manager is Jill Wimmer.

Tigers bow to Trinity Valley 38-13

Trinity Valley's Trojans were much too much for the Sacred Heart Tigers, at Fort Worth last Friday as indicated by the lopsided score of 38-13. But that doesn't tell all of the story.

Item No. 1, the 13 points were earned by the two biggest plays of the night; the first one a 90 yard return of the opening kickoff for a TD by Ricky Hennigan, the second one a repeat performance by Ricky for 85 yards to pay dirt on the second half kickoff. Item No. 2, though being outclassed, outsize, and outnumbered, the spunky Tigers played tough...a credit to their school and themselves. A comparison of teams is reflected in a comparison of enrollments; 635 to 240.

Father Stephen, coach, said he was proud of his boys for a big improvement over the week before. In spite of a few mental mistakes and missed tackles they kept up their spirit and managed to stop a few of the Trojan drives. Also the Tigers made two good drives but fumbled their opportunity away on the 9 yard line and bogged down on the 25.

Statistically the Trojans led in all respects, however there's a matter of 175 yards on kick returns which does not show on the record. This, added to 61 yards rushing, would give Sacred Heart a lead of 236 to 188 in running gains.

Next to Hennigan the Hesse brothers were the leading runners, Curtis with 39 and Neil with 33. Meanwhile defensive standouts were Wade Walterscheid, T.J. Walterscheid and Mike Bartush.

Hennigan's sensational 90 yard gallop opened the game with a thrill for Sacred Heart. The PAT kick was blocked and Tigers led 6-0 after only 14 seconds.

After that the Trojans promptly started showing their muscles, and they did not let up on the pressure until they had completed four possessions with as many touchdowns- in just a little more than 12 minutes.

The first score went 56 yards in 10 plays, the pay off being a 4 yard dive by Warren, the mighty mite who made three TDs and gained 120 yards.

Next score came on another nice drive, 59 yards in 9 plays with benefit of a pass interference ruling. The scoring play was a fullback plunge for 1 yard. A kick upped the score to 13-6.

No. 3 score was practically a gift. A clip penalty nullified Hennigan's kickoff return and set SH back to its 10. Three tries later a fumble gave TV a set-up on the 19, and six plays finished the job. Walton scored from the 2.

The fourth was an outright gift. SH failed to play the kickoff, a free ball, and TV claimed it on the 11. A penalty moved it back to the 16 where Walton scored on an end sweep. The score was 25-6 at 8:57 in the second period.

For the remainder of the half it seemed more like a contest. Tigers ended their first series with a kick, and Trojans their second period, but the punt was bad...only 11 yards... and the Tigers were 40 yards away. A 15 yard pass, Brian Herr to Curtis Henscheid, and a 12 yard gain by Herr were the big plays in two series that reached the 16, but the opportunity was lost three plays later in a fumble on the 9. The half ended 25-6.

The second half started as a replay of the first, Ricky Hennigan returning the kickoff all the way for a Tiger score. The only difference was 5 yards less distance and the point after by Neil Hesse.

However Tiger defense improved, requiring the Trojans to use almost an entire quarter for their next score. The home team was stopped twice before scoring on its third possession. The drive used three plays for 68 yards and included one nullified touchdown. The one that did not count was a 45 yard pass Newton to Addison. Following a five yard penalty the same pair on the next play repeated the pass.

A kick added one point. The count was 31-13 at :49 in the third.

Trinity Valley's final score came easily in the final period after a Tiger kick. The drive used 7 plays, including passes for 23 and 13 in gaining 44 yards. The scoring pass was for 13, Newton to Pierce.

Near the end, with TV youngsters in the lineup, the Tigers had more success. Starting from their 25, Neil Hesse gained 27 and Curtis Hesse 14, but the next series was short by a yard and SH lost possession on the 25.

Tiger ambitions incline this week to giant killing

The thought of beating a state champion brings out the ambition of a football team, so the enthusiasm of the Sacred Heart Tigers this week is understandable. Knowing that the opportunity seldom comes around, Coaches Father Stephen and Virgil Henscheid, along with their boys, are going all out to be ready in case the ball bounces their way.

Though fully aware that Valley View is heavily favored Henscheid said Sacred Heart isn't conceding anything. It is going for the win, convinced that others have made the big upset, and it can be done again.

Tigers aren't looking for a miracle however, although one would be gratefully accepted. Their hope is to play their very best, avoid the mistakes and be alert to every opportunity. At the same time they are hoping that this week's practice will help them move the ball better. They aren't quite satisfied with their records to date.

Along with hopes and prayers the Tiger coaches are being realistic. As champs, with a present No. 4 rating in the state, The Eagles are entitled to lots of respect. They have a fine team, period! All-state talent, experienced veterans, depth, speed and size are all in their favor. Against such odds a Sacred Heart win would be really super. Just a good showing would be a pleasure.

October 1st

The ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATE has been approved by Congress as part of President Reagan's Economic Recovery Program. Under this program, banks may issue one year certificates with the first $1,000 ($2,000 for couples filing jointly) of interest earned being TAX- EXEMPT.

The issue rate will be based on the monthly auction of one year treasury bills. MSB ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES issued Oct. 1 will earn TAX FREE interest at rate of 12.61%.

UPDATE: According to the most recent IRS ruling, MSB ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES definitely qualify for tax free status.

MSB Muenster State Bank

"Our interest is in our community."

The tax exemption is lost if the certificate is cashed before 1 year. $500 minimum required. This offer is subject to Federal regulations.

Cooke County Blooms!

By Gary Rainwater
District Conservationist

Prairie spiderwort has several erect, smooth, fleshy stems from a fleshy root, somewhat lily-like in appearance.

The leaves are alternate, fleshy, linear-lanceolate, usually folded lengthwise. The lower leaves may be up to 20 inches long with the two upper leaves shorter, bract-like, and enclosing the flower clusters.

The flowers have many clusters with 3 small sepals, 3 bluish-purple to rose petals up to 3/4 inch long. There are six prominent stamens tipped with bright yellow anthers. The plant blooms from March to July.

The fruit is a 3-celled capsule containing 12 to 15 seeds.

The spiderwort is the most widespread species in Texas, and is found in all parts of the state.

The plant was named in honor of John Tradescant, who served as a gardener to Charles I of England. Wild spiderwort seeds were sent to this gardener from the U.S. and planted in Hampton Court Palace and since then have become a common garden flower in England.

There are a dozen species of spiderworts in Texas. All of them have rather showy flowers. They can be transplanted by moving the fleshy roots in the fall or winter, or can be seeded by collecting seeds.

Spiderworts prefer sunny positions. These plants can be counted on to flower for several years.

Zone 3 of Conservation Board will elect director

An election for a director to serve in Zone 3 on the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District Board is scheduled for Oct. 14 at the City Hall in Muenster announced J.H. Bayer, chairman of the board. The election will be held at 7:00 p.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 18 years old.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district. The purpose of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD, with headquarters in Gainesville is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

Zone 3 of the district includes an area west of a line

Grass judging...

all agricultural extension service 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America Chapters in the three-county district.

This is a unique contest in that it is based on knowledge of fifty plants growing on the farms and ranches of this district. These plants are identified by giving them the correct common name and then classifying as to grazing value, wildlife value, annual or perennial, native or introduced, and cool season or warm season growing plants.

Chairman Bayer stated that awards will be presented to winning teams and high scoring individuals at 4:30 p.m. Over 2500 students have participated in this contest since its beginning.

The contest will have a junior division for the first year agriculture students and a senior division for advanced students. A team will be composed of four students and the team score will be made up of the three highest scoring individuals. Each school or 4-H club is requested to enter a team in each phase of the contest.
