

PLANTING NEEDS GREAT CARE

County Expert to Know Local Requirements

You are one of the thousands whom the New Deal has freed more leisure, you may be interested in the following articles on subsistence gardening, prepared by the staff of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

By W. E. BEATTIE
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Light during the growing season, the plants should have more space than in sections where there is an abundance of rainfall.

How deep to cover the seeds depends both on the size of the seed and on the character of the soil. For example, garden peas may be covered two to three inches in light, well-drained sandy soils, but if the soil is heavy or if the water table is near the surface, the peas frequently are planted on a ridge or bed and covered not to exceed one-half inch.

A good rule to follow is to cover the seeds sufficiently deep so that they will receive enough moisture to sprout them, but not so deep that they cannot push through to the surface.

Sprouting
A heavy rain may form a crust on the soil after the seeds are planted and before they are up. In that case the surface should be broken gently by means of a steel rake or a wire scratcher to allow the seedlings to come through.

Take care to open the furrows and plant the seeds quickly before the soil dries out. If the soil is rather dry, firm it over the seeds. Pat down the soil with the back of the hoe, but do not make it too compact.

Keep Soil Working.
To get the greatest benefit from a subsistence garden, plan to keep it working all season. One crop should follow another. Late cabbage may follow early peas or early potatoes, and fall turnips may come after early sweet corn.

There should be at least three plantings of snap beans in the early part of the season and two in late summer for fall use. There should be late plantings of beets, carrots and turnips for winter storage. Plant plenty of tomatoes for canning.

One more point—always plant your vegetables in straight rows; they are easier to cultivate. Next Week: Cultivating the Garden.

Mr. Beattie shows how to do it. Dig a straight, shallow ditch, place seeds at intervals, then cover.

New City Directory To Be Issued About Twentieth of May

Announcement was made today that Brownwood is to have a new city directory, and Ray B. McCorkle and A. B. Cunningham, local newspapermen, are already busy compiling data and soliciting advertising for the new book. The directory, according to Mr. McCorkle, will be ready for delivery about the 20th of May.

The book this year will be different in many ways from directories published in former years, and especially is this true with reference to price. The publishers this year plan to issue a complete directory that may be sold for about $2 a copy instead of the usual $9.

The directory will be compiled and published in Brownwood, by local people, instead of by outsiders, as has been the custom, it was stated, and will be complete in every detail.

THE PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of the big distribution is two-fold; primarily to increase the already large subscription list of the Brownwood Banner, to collect averages and advance subscription payments from present or new subscribers, and at the same time afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, and in a big way, through their spare time during the next few weeks. So it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartily.

Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success. The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no "double vote" offers, extra votes given or any other vote inducements whatever inaugurated during this competition. Neither will there be any long-term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straightforward and simple and is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is no "beauty" or "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and the boys and girls and one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no losers in this race.

How to Enter the Gift Distribution

The first step in order to become a candidate and compete for a prize is to clip the nominating coupon appearing below; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to the Campaign Department of The Brownwood Banner. This coupon entitles you or the person whom you might nominate, to 5,000 FREE votes. These votes are given you as a starter, and speeds you on your way to win. Only one such nomination coupon will be accepted for each candidate entered.

The next step is to call on or write the Campaign Department for a free working outfit, consisting of an official receipt book, sample copies of The Brownwood Banner, and other information relative to launching an active campaign.

Thus equipped, you have but to go to your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them pay up a subscription to The Brownwood Banner through you. THAT IS ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will never win anything unless you make the start; and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless, it is necessary that you start early. You must plan out your campaign the same as any successful business man plans out his work for a season. Above everything else, let no one discourage you, but stick to it and finish. Anything worth having is worth trying for. A few short weeks and you may be riding in your own automobile. It takes votes to win, and votes are secured in one way only, and that is by securing subscriptions to The Brownwood Banner. On each subscription turned in a certain number of votes is given, varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the Campaign Department. See schedule of votes elsewhere. So you see, the more subscriptions you can get the better your chances are to secure one of the capital prizes. The full advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the FULL TIME in which to secure the winning votes, but now and up to and including May 14, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscriptions. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of votes, and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

How Prizes Will Be Awarded

Every active participant in The Brownwood Banner Gift Distribution will receive either a cash award or one of the two motor cars.

The person polling the greatest amount of votes in the campaign, regardless of district, will receive his or her choice of the two beautiful cars.

Then the person who secures the highest number of votes in the other district will be given the other car, the highest taking his or her choice, each of the districts drawing one of the cars.

The person securing the next highest number of votes in the two respective districts will receive $200.00 in cash.

Then the person having the next highest number of votes in the other districts will receive $200.00 in cash.

The person securing the next highest number of votes in the two respective districts will receive $100.00 in cash.

Then the person having the next highest number of votes in the other district will receive $100.00 in cash.

All other active contestants in every district will receive 10 per cent cash commission on all subscriptions they may secure, according to the rules of the campaign.

The Advisory Board

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct the Gift Distribution from start to finish, in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of participants, and absolute honesty in all dealings is guaranteed. However, not all wisdom lies with any one man or institution, and for that reason, an Advisory Board will be decided upon, whose functions shall be to decide any question of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the Gift Distribution, and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes the last night of the Gift Distribution, names to be announced later.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1—Any reputable white man, woman or child residing in Brownwood and surrounding counties is eligible to enter this election and compete for a prize. Nominations may be made at any time during the election.
- 2—No employe or near relation of any person in the business office of The Brownwood Banner is eligible to enter this distribution. The management reserves the right to reject any nominations.
- 3—Winners of the prizes will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, and by votes issued on nomination coupon, and first week coupons.
- 4—Candidates are not confined to their particular town or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere.
- 5—Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect back subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions and votes will be issued on both.
- 6—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to vote for his or her favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying their subscriptions.
- 7—Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the campaign department must be represented by subscriptions. All subscriptions subject to our check and candidates found putting up their own money for subscriptions other than their own subscription, or turning in any subscriptions that are not bona fide and paid in full by the subscribers themselves, will be disqualified.
- 8—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be canceled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.
- 9—Any effort or collusion on the part of a candidate or candidates to discourage competition by the spreading of false rumors or exaggerated stories or anything done by any candidate or combination of candidates to the detriment of this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering into or taking part in any such agreement, arrangements, or efforts, will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.
- 10—Any ballots issued on subscriptions may be held in reserve voted at the discretion of the candidates.
- 11—In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes, a prize identical in value will be given each tying candidate.
- 12—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or candidate varying from the rules and statements published through the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publishers.
- 13—In case of typographical or other error, it is understood that neither the publisher nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible, except for the necessary correction of same.

- 14—Every candidate is an authorized agent of the Brownwood Banner and as such may collect subscription payments from present as well as from new subscribers.
- 15—Extension of subscriptions will receive votes according to the vote schedule in effect when the first subscription was paid, except that no extension votes will be given the final period.
- 16—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all monies collected and that they will remit such amount in full at frequent intervals or on demand of the campaign department.
- 17—There will be several big prizes awarded, besides a 10 per cent cash commission to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event ANY candidate becomes INACTIVE, failing to make a weekly cash report, he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or a commission. READ THIS RULE AGAIN CAREFULLY.
- 18—To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of the prizes, the gift distribution will be brought to a close under a "sealed ballot box" system, and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges, selected from the Advisory Board. During the entire last week of the gift distribution the box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed will the seals be broken, the box unlocked, and the judges begin the final count. In this way, no one, not even the Campaign Manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.
- 19—No prizes will be delivered at the conclusion of the gift distribution until subscriptions turned in the last week in the sealed ballot box, have been checked and verified as to their being bona fide.
- 20—The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of this election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidates and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.
- 21—The Brownwood Banner guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.
- 22—Two hundred thousand extra votes will be awarded each candidate with every four one-year subscriptions or the equivalent, turned in during their first week in the campaign. These are in addition and above all regular votes.
- 23—Campaign opens today—closes June 16. In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above conditions.

The cost is no more than is asked for many other feeds not so good, and the results you will obtain will be pleasing. anything but satisfactory. Too many of the workers were left "holding the sack."

Unrivalled Interest.

The unusual liberality of the offers in this campaign, coupled with the fact that each contestant is sure of a prize and the ease with which even the biggest of the gifts may be won, is expected to create unrivalled interest among the people of this section. Each district it is believed, will soon produce "live wire" candidates.

Planning with such results in view The Brownwood Banner has tried not merely to obtain gifts that anyone would be glad to use in his spare time to secure, but instead has purchased gifts of such quality and value that any individual can hardly afford to stay out of the campaign.

Both of the two automobiles have been purchased by The Banner from local dealers, and each is the latest 1934 model of its kind. Any one of these machines will be a remarkable prize.

Now Seize This Opportunity. Here is an outstanding campaign extraordinary in its opportunities and magnificent in its rewards. It is open to anyone on an equal footing with all; it is amazingly easy in method; it is arranged so that each contestant will win cash or its equivalent; and it is pre-eminently fair and square from beginning to end.

Turn to the page carrying the nomination blank. Fill it out and send it in. Clip and keep for study the campaign rules, for they are the gist of this great gift election. Then call or come to the campaign manager. His telephone number is 112; his office will be open daily from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and you will find that he can do much to aid you. If you are interested, come down today. He will be in the office all day Friday to explain details.

A typewritten report giving in detail every transaction will be sent to the County Board of Welfare and Employment by the auditors and that report will be available to any citizen of Brownwood or Brown county who cares to have further information about the activities of the relief organization.
