MUENSTER, TEXAS, COOKE COUNTY, FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1943

NUMBER 22

How this gang has changed in the past few days! It has become the typical senior class. Gone is the old grind with its attendant Mass Here June 15 worries. We've quit thinking about ments and exams and snap writs and have turned our attention to graduation, preparation for a hasty exodus, and plans for the long-awaited 10-day leave. The place is fairly bubbling with a feeling of relief and jubilation.

Friday was the turning point, the day of the last examination. Final grades have to go in several days early so that records can be completed and red tape unraveled prior to the big event. Then, when the fellows get their commissions, they're practically ready to take off. Naturally we don't want to waste any more time than nec-essary. And the school is just as anxious to be rid of us. Another class is scheduled to take over these huts next Thursday evening. Nothing is permitted to interrupt this mass production of officers.

Assignments are already posted. The class is being scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Gulf to the Canadian border. Some men had the good luck to get just what they wanted. Some were disappointed. As for myself, there are no complaints. I am destined to stay at Fort Sill.

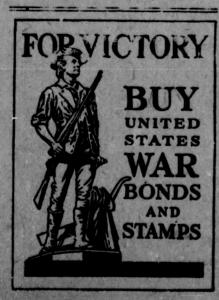

We had an experience Satur-day that would have been a wonderful thrill under other circum-stances. Signed our discharge papers. Conditional discharges releasing us as enlisted men so that we can be commissioned as officers. However, this doesn't mean that we've returned to the status of civilians. The discharge becomes effective the same day the commission does. From what I am able to gather about the procedure, one man gives the discharge and the next gives the commissions. We'll be free men during the few seconds' interval between the events.

thought of the tremendous satisfaction I could get from signing the real thing. Regardless of the work and grief we've been through to get a commission, there are few in this crowd who aren't more interested in peace. The real thrill we look forward to is the one we will share with the whole

The catch is that he has to maneuver He asked that his regards be exthrough fields of fire to reach a suitable observation point and remain exposed while he's there.

To give us an idea of what hap pens they had us crawl to an observation post while bullets were whizzing overhead. Those machine guns were clattering and every few moments a giant firecracker would remind us of enemy heavy weapons. In the bargain we had a few barbed wire entanglements to crawl through.

The period is known to the men as the Laptism of fire. Needless to say, it gets results. They are really serious about doing everything just right. They keep flat on the ground whether quiet or moving. And the only means of locomotion is by squirming forward on bel-lies — not on hands and knees Well, after crawling a hundred yards that way we felt like veterans. Arm and chest muscles were aching, knees and elbows were raw, and we'd inhaled almost as much dust as we'd scooped up in our clothing. We coughed up mud for the next half hour. Effect, about the me as scoping dusty (Con inued on page 3)

To Celebrate First

Father Paul Hoedebeck, O.S.B., who will be ordained to the priesthood on June 3rd at Little Rock Ark., will officiate at his first sol emn mass at Muenster on June 15th, it was learned this week. The young man is remembered here as Freddie Hoedebeck, a member of the Fred Hoedebeck family, and a student at Subiaco Seminary for several years.

Members of the parish are making extensive plans to observe the day of Father Paul's first mass with a fitting celebration, and meanwhile, members of the adult parish societies are planning on having the annual district meeting of the Catholic State League on the same day.

Nothing definite regarding the one-day conclave of the League has been reported but it is taken for granted that it will be held on June 15. Muenster is to be the host city in any event and since a delegation of clergy and other persons are to be present for both events the logical thing is to combine the celebration and the convention so that both can be at tended at one time.

Holy Name Society Will Give Minstrel Show May 3

Members of the Holy Name Socety, under the direction of Rev. Richard Eveld, will present a Minstrel Show in the parish hall on the evening of Sunday, May 3, it was announced this week.

The young men have been having regular rehearsals and according to members of the cast the presentation is a "real knock-out" Along with the black-face comedy will be given a concert by the Youth Band, Father Richard said.

Writes Letter From Iran

Pvt. Hugo Wilde has written an interesting letter to the Enterprise here in Iran, he reports. He As I was signing the paper I mentioned that he is seeing many scenes in the land where Christ was born. The country is very poor but the American soldiers stationed there are well taken care of and the food is good. Water, however, is scarce. The men are comfortably housed in tents but most of the natives live in mud huts. Trying to figure out Iran money is quite a problem, he says, but it doesn't matter much because there is no place to spend thing in their lives is mail call to hear from relatives and friends tended to all his friends in this city. Rev.Paul Hoedebeck Mayor Asks Observance Of Good Friday

In a proclamation issued this week, Mayor Ben Seyler designated Good Friday as a day of special reverence and called on all the residents of Muenster to observe it fittingly by suspending business and attending church services.

The proclamation requests that all business houses close between the hours of noon and

In the past Muenster business has been very respectful in its observance of Good Friday, Mr. Seyler said. He asks that this record be carried thru again this year. He pleads for complete cooperation - that all business houses close their doors, that workmen lay down their tools, that activity on the streets be held down as much as possible.

Bond Sales For Muenster Are $40,750 Tues.

Over Two-Thirds Of Quota Is In; County Reaches Half-Way Mark

Fighting dollars of Muenster head for the front lines this week as the Second War Loan drive shifts into high gear.

Up to Tuesday evening $40,750 had been converted into government securities. Most of this amount was received through large purchases, J. M. Weinzapfel, local chairman of the campaign, stated, and now it's up to small buyers to come forward and make up the balance. During the week Mr. Weinzap-fel was advised by the county chairman, Felix McCurdy, that this community's quota is $60,000, one thousand dollars more than originally set.

So far members of the local committee have not made calls on their friends and neighbors to encourage bond buying, Mr. Weinzapfel stated, because citizens came voluntarily to make their purchases. During the next week however, local workers will make house to house calls in an effort to make up the amount lacking, in the one week remaining before the campaign closes.

In the county over half of the quota was subscribed Tuesday when the total sales amounted

Pressure Cooker Only Method Recommended For Non-Acid Vegetables

Miss Nette Shultz, County Home Demonstration Agent, has received a statement from the U.S. Department of Agriculture that the use of the steam pressure cooker or canner is the only method it can recommend for the canning of non-acid vegetables such as beans, peas, corn, spinach and other greens, asparagus, as well as all meats. This statement is in confirmation of the practice that has been followed by the department of agriculture and the Texas Extension service through County Home Demonstration agents for a number of years. The office of War Information, Department of Agriculture, is putting forth every effort to give this information to the people of the United States in order that no food value will be wested this years. wasted this year.

This information is being given in response to numerous requests from individuals and agencies intrested in the canning of Victory Garden products.

The reason the pressure cooker is the only method for canning non-acid vegetables is because it takes higher temperature than boiling to destroy spore bacteria, the type of bacteria that grow on non-acid vegetables. While fruits and tomatoes, which do not grow spore forming bacteria, should not be canned under programs. not be canned under pressure as the high temperature of pressur ing destroys the vitamin content of these foods To retain all food value possible is more essential now than ever before, so each person who expects to can is urged to get the newest and most up-to-date recipes and information on canning from the County Home Demon-stration Agent which is printed by the Extension Service in coopera-tion with the United States Department of Agriculture.

Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C.-A blunt challenge-whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons—confronts U.S. citizens as they prepare to nment to put an billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

American dollars which run off to some cozy shelter to hide while American boys are dying to defend our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

This Is About Eggs And Poultry

Cooke County can reach its goal for egg production if six more hens are kept on every Cooke County farm, and if every hen lays three more cggs in 1943 than in 1942. In other words, we must keep at least 2,548,000 more hens on Texas farms this year than we did in 1943. And we must increase the production at least three eggs

Meeting this goal is a big order for Cooke County poultrymen because of the shortage of labor and for city. — Party honors Miss equipment. Many have crowded birds in houses, which results in more desease and less production per bird. That means even though we may have almost 31 million attend flower pilgrimage at Dallas hens on Texas farms, still we will probably have a great deal of trouble meeting the goals.

To get the necessary increased production of eggs, the poultryman should:

Among other things the publication introduces cadets to the "Bombii," which is described thusly:

In fact any ill-fortune which befalls a bombardier is attributed to the Bombii, not to the cadet—which probably is as it should be.

Your Health

BY GEO. W. COX, M. D. Texas State Health Officer

Austin, Texas.— Some timely advice to vacationists and picnic-kers was released from the State Health Department today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It was pointed out that, in view of wartime restrictions, vacation pleasures are apt to be limited to excursions and picnics at nearby lakes, rivers and ponds of unfamiliar depths and currents, and without the usual lifeguard super-vision associated with bathing beaches and commercial swimming pools.

"Swimming and water sports are beneficial to good health provided one's physical condition justifies this type of exercise," Dr. Cox aserted, "nevertheless, they posses dangerous possibilities if the rules of safety are disre-garded."

The following simple rules for bathing and swimming in safety were suggested: at least one hour should elapse after a meal before entering the water; never dive into unfamiliar waters; upon the first indication of fatigue, come ashore and don't re-enter the waters. ter; leave the water immediately, if chilled; do not enter the water when overheated; learn to float; never attempt to rock a boat in a spirit of fun; never swim in water that may be polluted. Swimming close to or even a few miles below sewage outlets is inviting the possibility of acquiring diseases.

"Excursions, picnics and swimming parties contribute much to a healthy, happy, normal life, which is especially desirabe at this par-ticular time when the whole nation is under the strain of war," Dr. Cox said. "It is by no means advisable to eliminate these excursions from our summer program, but it is important that they prove beneficial and not disastrous

MUENSTER PUBLIC SCHOOL

The students of Muenster Public School have invested $503.05 in war stamps this year. The children in Miss Luke's room have invsted $329.90. They bought $23.50 last Monday. Isn't that a wonderful record? Mrs. Kline's room has spent $114.60 on war stamps and the high school has spent $58.55.

The school has been busier than usual this week. All high school classes have been rushing to finish work before the state tests. The grades had their achievement tests this week.

Shakespeare must have stirred in his grave at the recitation of Anthony's funeral oration by the Sophomore English class. Mrs. Burchfiel was surprised to read on a test paper, "David Crockett was a very brave man. He was mar-ried twice."

The Home Economic girls are finishing their dresses this week. Miss Harrison says they have all done exceptionally well. Florentine and Thelma have done the nicest work. Some of the girls have worn the dresses they made first and they are very becoming and fit nicely.
