VOLUME VII

MUENSTER, TEXAS, COOKE COUNTY, FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1943

NUMBER 24

We recommend for the Axis medal of honor some half million coal miners who gallantly have been advancing the cause of Hitler-Hirohito and company here in the United States. For John L. Lewis, a special diamond-studded medal plus an honorary seat on the Reich board of strategy. During the past few weeks he has contributed more to the Axis effort than Schickelgruber himself.

Observers have been telling us that we're a long way from the end of the war. We deserve to be. When a half million men will jeopardize the efforts, the very existence, of an entire nation in order to force compliance with their own selfish demands.

Where is the spirit of sacrifice and all-out effort this country has been bragging about? Events like this show how thin the veneer of patriotism really is in some quarters.

As Americans, we can find no fault with the motive behind their actions. This is a land of the free, in which every person has the right to demand more anytime he feels he is not receiving his due. To preserve that right, along with the many others that would be scrapped under a totalitarian regime, is this country's aim in this war. But the method employed to exercise the right was inexcusable. In times of national emergency a citizen's first duty is to the common cause, not to himself. To stop production at a time like this is little short of treason. Especially so when the strike was called in disregard of provisions set up specially to settle disputes.

Our country has a mediating board to consider labor controversies. That board has been officially invested with the responsibility of determining a just settlement — while the factions concerned continue their work without interruption. But John L. Lewis and associates chose not to abide by the rules. They preferred the strong arm methods of Hitler and Mussolini. Meanwhile Hitler and Mussolini and Hirohito were laughing up their sleeves. Their propagandists exploited the incident to the limit. Axis morale enjoyed a wonderful boost. At the same time Allied morale suffered. Our men on the several battle fronts informed us in unmistakable terms that they are disgusted. Imagine how they feel exposing their lives when they get this sort of cooperation at home.

A suggestion made by a chaplain over there deserves more than a passing thought. Draft every striker and send him back to his job under army supervision — at army pay. He'll learn to appreciate civilian privileges and civilian wages, after a taste of army life. If that isn't enough let him swap places with one of his fellow Americans over the pond. A drastic policy, and one that certainly is not worthy of a democracy, but it is one our country may have to adopt if some of our citizens do not prove themselves more worthy of their heritage.

In contrast with the mining disgrace, this little community again has a reason to view its record with a glow of pride. For the second time Muenster has over-subscribed in its war bond drive. What's more, Muenster's quota in the county goal was considerably higher than its proportion of the county population. Previous experience has shown that this community can be depended upon to do more than its share. It's a reputation to be proud of. Red Cross and USO drives likewise have been over-subscribed.

The same can be said for the community's representation in the armed forces. 133 names now appear on the honor roll — again more than our share of representation. And those 133 are carrying more than their share of responsibility.

New City Council Installed Monday At Regular Meeting

The installation of newly elected city officials and the remarks of Past-Mayor Ben Seyler, along with a brief talk by Mayor J. M. Weinzapfel, constituted the high spots of the monthly city council meeting Monday evening.

After routine bills and correspondence to officially close the year's business, Mayor Seyler gave a short talk in which he expressed his thanks for the council's splendid cooperation and also mentioned some details that should have attention in the near future. He then turned the new business over to the new council.

Members sworn into the new council were Mayor J. M. Weinzapfel and Aldermen J. A. Fisher, Andy Hofbauer and Henry Stelzer Nick Miller and I. A. Schoech being the second year of their term. The new Mayor's appointment of other city officials was made as follows:

JOHN LUKE IS GIVEN $350 AWARD FOR RECENT INVENTION

John M. Luke, Muenster man employed at Consolidated in Fort Worth, has been presented with a $350 award for a plate and bearing tool he invented recently. Fifty dollars of the money was in cash and three hundred in war bonds. It is one of the largest awards ever made to a Consair employee in Fort Worth.

The suggestion which nets him the award is a tool which removes bearings from drill motor plates and eliminates the need for scrapping of plates and bearings.

Luke is 56 and will celebrate his first anniversary with Consolidated Vultee next month. He performs mechanical and electrical work on motors in Electrical Maintenance.

Golden Wedding Is Observed By Mr. & Mrs. Eberhart

Came To Muenster To Reside 46 Years Ago

Sunday was a delightful day for Mr. and Mrs. John Eberhart of this city as they observed their golden wedding anniversary with a happy reunion of their children and grandchildren at their home here. Mr. and Mrs. Eberhart have been residents of this community for 46 years.

The anniversary party was planned by the honorees' children as a surprise affair. It began at noon when the guests arrived bearing covered dishes for a sumptuous dinner, and continued during the afternoon and evening hours as a family reunion. The dining table was centered with a huge tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, and flanked with roses and fern.

Mr. Eberhart is 75 years old and she is 70. He was born in Indiana on August 24, 1867, and at the age of 16 years moved to Saint Leary, Nebraska. It was here that he met Miss Mary Jane Washburn to whom he was married on May 2, 1893. She is a native of Missouri, where she was born January 26, 1873, but had moved at the age of 4 with her parents to St. Leary. They resided there for four years after their marriage engaging in farming. After coming to Muenster they farmed north of the city until 25 years ago when they moved to town to reside.

Both are enjoying good health and are active and busy with their duties. Mr. Eberhart is the local mail messenger, a position he has held for more than 20 years and during which time he has rarely ever missed a day's work.

Mrs. Eberhart's hobby is mission work and she spends much time sewing and quilting for both home and foreign missions. She is president of the local Mission Sewing Circle. In addition she does all her own house work.

They are the parents of nine children, five of whom are living: Ed Eberhart, Mrs. Joe Swinler, Mrs. J. B. Wilde and Al Eberhart of this city, and John Eberhart Jr. of Flora, Ill. They also have 19 grandchildren and 2 great-grand children.

During the anniversary celebration group pictures were made including a four generations picture which shows the honorees, their son, Ed Eberhart, his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Flusche, and her son and daughter.

The only member of the family not able to attend the affair was the son in Illinois.

MYRA CLUB WOMEN HEAR GARDEN LECTURE
Myra:— Mesdames Dave Gillette and Jake Biffle entertained the members of the Sunshine Circle in the latter's home Friday afternoon.

Highlighting the meeting was an address by Mrs. Robert Trew, county farm security worker, who spoke on insect control and proper fertilization as an aid to successful victory gardening.

The hostesses served refreshments to twenty club members and two guests at the close.

Members of the Mission Sewing circle are reminded of a regular monthly meeting and afternoon of sewing next Thursday, May 13, in the parochial school basement. Several quilts are on hand to be made. Mrs. John Eberhart, president, has advised and she asked that those who enjoy quilting be present at that time.

Muenster Citizens Buy Over $63,000 Worth Of War Bonds

Tomato And Fruit Juice Points Are Reduced By OPA

Dried Soups Removed From Ration List; Other Changes Announced

Dried or dehydrated soups came off the ration list Sunday and at the same time most fruit and tomato juices got lower point values and several other changes were announced for processed fruits and vegetables.

Removal of the dry soups from the ration list was decided so late that OPA had already distributed sample charts showing a one-point per package value for soups in 4-ounce packages. These will have to be corrected by the storekeepers.

Authorities acted from alarm over reports that wholesale stocks of dry soups had increased 80 per cent in March, due to a spurt in production, and much of the stock was in danger of spoiling during warm weather. In the fall the soups will probably be rationed again.

The cut in juices affect all popular juices with the exception of pineapple juice which went up from 13 to 17 points on the popular No. 2 1/2 size can. Other sizes of pineapple juice remain unchanged.

Grape juice came down from 4 to 2 points for a pint and from 8 to 3 for a quart. Grapefruit and other citrus juices were trimmed in the No. 2 can from 4 to 3 points, and tomato juice was reduced in the No. 2 can size from 12 to 6 points and in the 46-ounce size from 22 to 11 points.

OPA removed from rationing all vegetable juices and vegetable combinations except those containing 70 percent or more tomato juice. This freed carrot, beet, kraut and similar juices.

Among canned fruits reduction was made on certain can sizes: berries, cherries, apples, pears, plums and prunes.

Among vegetables decreases were ordered on certain sizes of catsup, canned carrots, leafy greens, kraut and spinach, but higher points were assigned vacuum packed corn.

The new values are applicable to G. H. and J. blue coupons in Ration Book 2 which are valid until the end of May.

New Sewing Assignment For Red Cross Workers

Mrs. G. H. Hellman, local Red Cross chairman, and her assistants met Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons in the sewing room to cut 120 yards of material into ladies' shirt waists, which is the newest sewing assignment for the Muenster group.

More than half the articles were distributed to members of the St. Anne's society for finishing Wednesday afternoon when they met in the parish hall for a meeting and other women of the community desiring to sew some of the blouses may get them from Mrs. Hellman or Mrs. Jim Cook.

Quota Is Exceeded By $3,000; Cooke County Also Goes Over The Top

Muenster's war bond drive went over the top with a generous margin to spare. More than $63,000 of this community's money was invested in bonds during the 18-day Second War Loan Drive which was concluded Saturday.

The community overshot its quota of $60,000 handsomely by investing $63,653 in the future of the United States. Likewise, Cooke county topped its quota by a generous margin. Figures available Tuesday gave the county total the amount of $666,068. The quota had been set at $560,000.

Official figures for Muenster, released by J. M. Weinzapfel, local chairman, show that the bank sold $80,100 worth of bonds during the drive and that the Postoffice sold $3,125 worth of bonds and $428 worth of stamps.

The campaign figure, added to $49,341.65, sales during the first three months of this year, gives Muenster the grand total of $112,994.00 invested in freedom securities so far in 1943. This is considerably more than the total for 1942 which amounted to $108,219.50 for that twelve-month period.

Muenster topped its quota without the least bit of high pressure. J. M. Weinzapfel stated. It was a free-will proposition and it was done cheerfully.

The accomplishment is noteworthy by reason of the fact that it followed closely on the heels of other things that took money. The Red Cross drive, in which this community exceeded its quota, had barely been completed and income tax payments had been made not long before.

Official figures of the Lindsay community's share in the county total were not available before going to press, but reports Tuesday were that citizens of that community subscribed well over $12,000.

MISS NETTE SHULTZ TO ADDRESS GARDEN CLUB

Miss Nette Shultz, county home demonstration agent, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Civic League and Garden Club next Friday, May 14. Her subject will be "4-H Club Work".

Following the conclusion of the games, in which Herman Pierce scored high and Frank Yosten low, the boxes were auctioned off by Loyal Burchfiel.

Mrs. E. O. Teague's box brought the highest amount, $2.60, and was purchased by Frank Yosten. Mrs. Ray Evans received the prize for having the prettiest box. Proceeds were placed in the P-T A fund.

PLANE TALK

by the Observer

Those diminutive light-planes, a common sight around any airport in the country before the war, nearly were ushered out of existence by the beginning of hostilities. Many Army men maintained the little fellows were useless for military flying.

But that's all pretty well changed by now, thanks to light-plane builders who stuck to their guns, the amazing performance of their products when put to the test, and a General who faced a 10-mile hike.

Seizing every chance to demonstrate what their planes could do, light-plane proponents proved their case by results: A low-flying light-plane skimming above the water at less than 100 m.p.h., could spot many a submarine which would be missed by a big airplane flying higher, at a much greater speed; a small "put-put-put" could rush invaluable material a few hundred miles when the bigger Army ships were not available; in combat zones it could direct ground troops and artillery fire and it could be used to ferry officers from one field zone to another, saving important minutes. All of this was done in tests.

Still the Army was skeptical, although admitting there was "something to light-planes such as the Stinson L-5 'Flying Jeep', and several others.

Then one day General riding in a tank on maneuvers, was suddenly plumped down 10 miles from his base of operations by a tank that refused to budge. Telling the crew to remain behind, he set out to walk the 10 miles back, along a blistering, humid Louisiana countryside.

After a wholly miserable couple of miles the already weary General heard a buzzing overhead. Looking up he saw a "Flying Jeep", which seemed to pop from a tree top. It circled low, skimmed over a brook and settled down right beside the disconsolate officer, all in a space of not more than 50 yards. The grateful General climbed aboard, and in a few minutes was back at his headquarters base.

From that moment on light-planes were "in"—but nobody has yet explained how the air "Jeep" happened along.

PARSLEY AT WAR

Vitamin A is essential to healthy eyes, which are a "must" for airmen. Now, with war demands for vitamins so great that it is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain them in concentrated form, it's encouraging to note that a new source is being used—the lowly, decorative, green parsley which has larger amounts of Vitamin A than any other edible plant; 3½ ozs. containing 30,000 units.

BRICKBAT FOR ADOLF

A promise to hurl a big, red brick on Germany, made before he joined the Army Air Forces, was fulfilled recently by Captain Gerald C. Price, of Estes Park, Colorado.

The day Captain Price left his job with the Estes Park Department of Public Works the staff superintendent requested him to drop a brick on Hitler. He suggested that if the personal target could not be reached the brick be directed at one of Hitler's important war plants. Captain Price didn't forget. He got his chance in a recent raid on the German submarine construction center at Vegesack. His brick went hurtling to the submarine base, along with tons of heavy bombs.

JUST LISTEN, DOCTOR

The Nazis are still planning the "reconstruction" of Europe. Writing in a recent issue of the Berlin "Vierjahresplan", Dr. Flucke, of the Junkers aircraft works, points out that 25 nations and 30 commercial airlines have used the Junkers "Ju-52" transport type of plane and predicts that, after the War, the civilian air services of Europe will be revitalized with this aircraft.

Apparently Dr. Flucke has been so absorbed with his prognostications he hasn't heard those Big Liberators, Fortresses and Halifaxes roaring over the Junkers Works in the Vaterland.

The cast of the rural comedy-drama, "Silas Smidge from Turnip Ridge" is having daily rehearsals. The play will be staged Sunday, May 16.

SUNDAY IS MOTHER'S DAY

For every man on the fighting front there's a mother on the home front, who in her own sweet way is "the bravest soldier of them all". She is the one who smiled through her tears when she said goodbye to the man in uniform, whom her heart kept remembering as a new born baby placed in the crook of her arm for the first wonderful time — eighteen, or twenty, or thirty, or more years ago!

Observance of Mother's Day this Sunday will be different from that of previous years. There will be still fewer homecomings of sons who are in the armed forces. Many men on foreign fronts will not even be able to send the customary greeting, but no station is too far off to keep those sons from thinking of their mothers on her day. Of that mothers can be assured.

For Gold Star mothers the day will be especially difficult but the grief will be lessened by the thought and realization that the sacrifice was made for one's country and for its people.

Those of us who are still at home should strive to make the day especially cheerful for mother. Remember her in some special way that shows your love and appreciation for her. Remember her in your prayers, too, for without brave and courageous mothers the home front would totter and fall.

Mother is doing all in her power to help her country — her boy — win. Mother renders most distinguished service on the home front and every son and daughter in the land salutes her!

REGARDING THE WAR BOND DRIVE

This community's showing in the war bond drive speaks for itself with such emphasis that further explanation seems unnecessary. The headline of this week's edition of the Enterprise is enough in some respects. There is little left to say of an endeavor whose success is so marked.

And yet in just one phase of the undertaking we wish to direct special attention. There are more than 150 young men from this community in the nation's armed services. Some are in remote parts of the world, engaged in perilous and exhausting tasks. All of them are making sacrifices in this time of stress.

We hope that the word goes to everyone of them, wherever they may be, that the folks at home have given them support, with dollars, that was required. There should be for them and for us great satisfaction in that fact.

FAREWELL PARTIES HONOR

Twenty-five ladies attended. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke were hosts at a bridge party honoring the couple for which members of the Texas company were guests. The honorees received a lovely farewell gift and after the games refreshments were served. The Roberts family has resided here for a year. He is a Texas company employee and will be engaged by the same company at Nocona.

School Daze

MUESTER PUBLIC SCHOOL

We are busy finishing our work at school. The grades have taken the achievement tests. Patricia Ezell made the highest grade. The County Superintendent's office said our grades were about average.

We are late with our honor roll this time, but we are just as proud of those who made it. Here is the students who had an "A" average: Lorene Knabe, Lorene Lutkenhaus, Mary Janelle Kline, Patricia Ezell, Sue Ann Teague, Betty Gene Witherspoon. The "B" average list is too long to include this time but we will have the complete list at the end of school. Miss Wiedemann was not feeling well last week but she is better now. She thinks she will not need the wheel chairs, crutches or canes the students have offered her.

Mrs. Kline's room had a nice birthday party for her last week. Mrs. Ezell brought a pretty birthday cake which we all enjoyed.

The teachers and seniors are proud of the autograph books given them by the Muester State Bank.

State tests have us all busy this week. The English II test was easy and general science wasn't so bad, but we all are dreading algebra, civics, American and Texas history and Spanish.

MAY PROCESSION AND CROWNING SERVICE

On Sunday evening, May 2, the sodalists of Lindsay honored our Blessed Lady in a deeply impressive procession and crowning service. The order of the procession was as follows: the boy sodalists with lighted candles, followed by the junior sodalists in their blue and white uniforms, then the senior sodalists in their immaculate white uniforms, the four guards of honor, six attendants of the May Queen in their lovely white gowns and becoming headress of blue net, and last the elected Sodality Queen, Miss Louise Hermes, in an exquisite gown of sky-blue chiffon and white finger-tip veil.

The sixty-five sodalists in procession joined in the beautiful hymn, "Bring Flowers of the Rarest", as they placed their lovely roses around Mary's Shrine, and when the church resounded with the strains of "O Mary, we crown thee, Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May," the sodality queen crowned our Blessed Lady. Assembled around the shrine, the sodalists recited a solemn act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed.

One hundred and twenty young people of this community and Lindsay, members of the CYO, attended the social sponsored by the local group here last Thursday evening in the parish hall. Games dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Confetti---

A hasty glance over the roster reveals the following army ratings (and corresponding ratings in other branches of the service) one master sergeant; one first sergeant; two technical sergeants; eight staff sergeants; eleven sergeants; seventeen corporals; nineteen privates first class. Also 7 commissioned officers, two cadets working for commissions, one warrant officer and two commissioned officers listed as missing in action. These figures are based on available records, which obviously cannot be kept up to date when men are scattered to all corners of the globe. Nevertheless, consider the total as one company - with far more ratings than a company usually carries.

Of all the tricks to boost the serviceman's morale, we can't think of any better than Nick Miller's. It's on the house when boys home on furlough or pass bring their cleaning and pressing to him. Says it is his way of showing appreciation for what they are doing. Nick insists that it is a very small thing to do, but the column can't agree. Being familiar with the service and quality of cleaning in the vicinity of army camps, Com knows that the boys prefer to have their work done here. They bring it in by the armful. The service he has contributed runs into lots of dollars.
