NOVEMBER 22, 1985

It was a pleasure last week to hear President Reagan reveal his wishes as he was getting ready for the summit conference with Premier Gorbachev. His emphasis was not on a possible confrontation over preparations for a nuclear war, but rather a wish for greater harmony than the two nations have ever experienced. He further hoped that the good will would be rewarded by a new high in friendly relations among all countries.

The president pleaded for a new era of peace expressed by a cheerful and trusting people to people attitude rather than a superficial policy of getting along in a mutual aim of arms superiority.

Reagan disregarded the predicted negotiating for superiority and set his sights on the pleasures of civilization. He would like to have exchanges bringing persons of US and USSR together in a sharing of interests. Let them travel freely in each other's countries, and buy freely in each other's stores. Let them have exchanges of students along with exchanges of entertainers and athletes. Let them be free to bring their trades and crafts to each other as well as their cultures.

All those blessings are presented as answers to the President's prayer for a healthier and happier world. They are infinitely better than any of the benefits that can be attained by war, and certainly greater than just being a survivor in a nuclear conflict.

The world fervently hopes that Reagan is on the right course in proposing his aim as the summit objective. His wish assumes that the Soviets, in spite of past objectives, are reasonable people, able to appreciate harmony rather than antagonism, and especially pleased to avoid the horrors of nuclear war.

Related to Reagan's peace talk, a group of Americans urged the Summit to ban nuclear weapons. The idea is fine, but it has a flaw in that the weapon's usefulness should not be overlooked as a deterrent to conventional weapon superiority. Arms race is an old world problem and has been used to dominate other countries. Such conventional arms are less likely to become a serious threat as long as they have to respect the peace keeping potential of nuclear weapons.

The situation is somewhat similar to the US Star Wars program. There has been much comment from the Soviets opposing our Star Wars program. Reds say it is an offensive weapon of war. But Reagan says it is strictly a defensive weapon to destroy offensive weapons. It is not an anti personnel weapon. In line with that view, the President insists on keeping Star Wars, to be prepared if and when the nuclear weapons are launched.

Considering the potential of nuclear and star wars it seems that both have their uses and a ban of either ought to be limited. As a matter of precaution, the supply of nuclear ought to be sufficient to discourage the old time arms race. More would become a threat. Likewise, there should be enough star wars weapons to successfully defend against the nuclear if it should become the dominant threat to peace.

There was a time when civilization was threatened by hordes of marching men. But nuclear weapons now stand guard for civilization in case of need.

We Americans are inclined to assume that all would be fine if we were the nuclear guardians of civilization and proper use of the weapon could be assured. But if nuclear becomes an offensive weapon, it is comforting to think that US has star wars.

The situation seems to imply that US is able to deal from strength at the summit. But we are more pleased with Reagan's approach. He has indicated respect

Stenholm seeks intern applicants

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Applications for summer internships in Congressman Charles Stenholm's Washington, D.C. office are now available from the district office in Abilene.

Four people will be chosen in March, 1986 to have the opportunity to work in the nation's capitol in June or July, two people during each month. Interns have the opportunity to attend committee hearings, floor debates and a special speakers' forum. They will also answer constituent inquiries and assist in the day-to-day operations of the office.

College students in or from the 17th Congressional District, teachers at any level, or residents of the district, age 19 to 25, who possess a demonstrated interest in government are eligible for the internship program. For applications and additional information, please contact Congressman Stenholm's Abilene office at P.O. Box 1101, Abilene, 79604, or call (915)-673-7221. Deadline for application is Jan. 15, 1986.

Auxiliary repeats 'Donations in lieu of Christmas cards'

"In Lieu of Christmas Cards" will be sponsored again this year by the VFW Auxiliary. It will benefit the Auxiliary's local relief fund for all area people struck by serious illness or in great need in some way. Donations are also made at the discretion of the organization to other local charities.

Co-chairmen of the project "In Lieu of Christmas Cards" are Ethel Hesse, Rt. 1, Box 140 Muenster, Janet Barnhill, P.O. Box 15, Muenster and Frances Bayer, Rt. 1 Box 19-A Muenster.

Donations may also be given to Mrs. Hesse at Ben Franklin Store.

The charitable project is an opportunity to send sincere Christmas greetings to friends in a manner that benefits many others. Names of participants will be announced in a special feature in The Muenster Enterprise the week before Christmas, but amounts of individual contributions will not be revealed.

Deadline for inclusion in the greetings is Dec. 14, to enable the sponsors to type the list and submit it to the printers.

Two very proud little boys in this group told their classmates in Eileen Fisher's second grade at Sacred Heart School that "My dad helped build this fun thing." The children agreed to perform for the camera, hoping to bargain for extra recess time. It didn't work—the bell rang anyway. They are shown on part of the playground equipment built by Ernie Martin and Clinton Endres.

Williamson endorses Sharp as RR Commissioner candidate

State Representative Ric Williamson (D-Weatherford) will host a 9:00 a.m. reception for Railroad Commissioner candidate State Senator John Sharp (D-Victoria) at the Decatur City Hall in Decatur, Texas on November 25, 1985.

John Sharp was elected to the Texas House of Representatives from the 40th District on November 7, 1978, winning a five man race without a runoff. His first term appointments included the Ways and Means Committee, the Constitutional Amendments Committee and the Local and Consent Calendar Committee.

Senator Sharp is a graduate of Texas A & M University where he served four years as a member of the Corps of Cadets. There, he was elected sophomore class president, Student Life Chairman, and in his Senior year, student body president. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army upon graduation. A committee of the U.S. Congress chose Senator Sharp as one of the top five student leaders in America. He represented wives of American MIA's and POW's at the Paris Peace Talks in France in 1971. He received a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Southwest Texas State University by attending night school while working for the Legislative Budget Board.

In June of 1979, following that legislative session, John Sharp was chosen by "Texas Monthly" magazine as the "Outstanding Freshman" in the Texas House of Representatives. In his second Legislative session, he served as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee for Budget and Oversight and was a member of the Committees on Constitutional Amendments and Local and Consent Calendars. He also served as a member of the Coastal and Marine Council and was appointed as one of three legislators to serve on the "Task Force on Traffic Safety" which focused on strengthening DWI laws.

Williamson, an outspoken critic of the Railroad Commission, has committed to support Sharp in the May, 1986 primary.

"John Sharp is one of the bright stars on the horizon of Texas politics. His integrity, knowledge of the legislative process and dedication to good public policy should assure the voters of our state that he will be an outstanding Railroad Commissioner. I urge all citizens in District 63 to take the time to visit with Senator Sharp between 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. this Monday, Williamson said.

10th Mountain division has reunion

Jim Penton has just returned from a reunion in Dallas on November 16 of veterans of the 10th Mountain Division of World War 2.

He said the event was special in that the 22 members attending from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico organized the new Chapter of the Southwest, the seventeenth chapter of the organization. Penton also stated that the reunion was honored by letters of greeting and congratulation from Mayor Taylor, Governor White, Senators Gramm and Bentsen and Congressman Bartlett.

The 10th Mountain Division was a unit of men with training and background suited to serving in mountains. Its members were "muleskinners and skiers." Muleskinners were more mobile in plain rough terrain, the skiers in the snow. Penton added that Canadian soldiers served with them in the Adulians. Another area of extensive service was Italy.

Enterprise will publish early

The Muenster Enterprise will be published early next week to allow our staff a Thanksgiving holiday, and to assure delivery of the newspaper before Wednesday for the benefit of shoppers anticipating the holiday. Also, to enable advertisers to send out their messages aimed at the traditional opening of the Christmas shopping weekend following Thanksgiving Day, our deadline for news and advertising must be moved forward two days, that is to EARLY MONDAY. The following week we will return to the regular schedule. Please help us by arranging to send in news and ad copy early.

Dr. George S. Benson

Will we follow foolish advice?

Whether or not one nation has a right to intervene in the internal affairs of another has always been a matter of great controversy. As far as we know, this issue has never been settled, one way or the other.

But, nevertheless, the House of Representatives has arbitrarily decided that the U.S. Government should intervene in the internal affairs of another nation, specifically, in the internal affairs of the Republic of South Africa.

Even though there is no legal justification for such action, short of war, if it is to become U.S. policy that we do so, then it should not be peculiarly selective, based on race, but should be based on moral principles.

The ostensible reason given for intervening in the internal affairs of South Africa has been outrage over "apartheid." What is apartheid? It means "separate development." It was intended that in the complex, multi-racial society that is South Africa, the whites would develop their society in their own way, and the blacks would have territories in which to develop theirs.

Now, if that is really the issue, why are we not objecting to it and applying sanctions against it universally, all over the world, against all nations which practice, "apartheid" under different names?

Why are we not applying sanctions against India where people are relegated to and kept in "castes" — where the nation is clearly divided along religious lines — where the ruling Hindus persecute the Sikhs?

Or why are we not applying economic sanctions against the Soviet Union — where "apartheid" has been the policy of the government from the very beginning? Where Georgians are confined to Georgia, where Ukrainians are kept in the Ukraine; where the Uzbeks have been kept in Uzbekistan, and on and on.

Otto Scott, a noted contemporary American historian, has recently written a most important book on the South African situation, appropriately titled: The Other End of the Lifeboat.

In the struggle for the world the Soviet-Communists have brilliantly deduced that if they can control the "energy treasure house" of the Middle East and the "mineral treasure house" of Southern Africa, they can bring the free world to its knees.

The loss of the Middle East to the Soviets we might survive. But the loss of Southern Africa would be catastrophic! And that is why we and the South Africans are in the same lifeboat. We are very unwise in trying to destabilize and sink it!

Television and newspapers urge disinvestment in South Africa:

"They are the linear successors of those who swore that the Vietnamese Communists had no aggressive designs on their neighbors, and that Iran would be well if it could just get rid of the Shah. Now we're told that the best thing we can do for the people of South Africa is help destroy their economy..." If we are wise we will try to help them, but not help destroy their economy, upon which we ourselves are so very dependent.

Benson is president of the National Education Program, based in Oklahoma City.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The Texas Public Utility Commission has had its share of troubles this year, catching flack not only for high rates in Southeast Texas but also for questionable and excessive expenses by the panel and staff.

Last week the PUC got its eye blacked again after legislators learned one commissioner used thousands of dollars in computer time, secretarial services and taxpayer-paid research to earn a Ph.D from the University of Texas.

The governor and the PUC chairman defended Commissioner Dennis Thomas, saying his dissertation on developing a method to audit utility cooperatives will benefit ratepayers.

But the state senator who authored the state employees training act said he doubted if lawmakers intended to authorize thousands in state funds for research on advanced degrees.

Other officials questioned the use, too, especially of PUC staff.

State-Time Thesis

State records show Thomas prepared his dissertation using $2,800 in state computer time and got PUC to pay $400 for his tuition and $1,176 for a part-time researcher.

He also had PUC secretaries type and copy his 375-page thesis.

Governor Mark White, who appointed Thomas to the PUC in 1984, defended him, saying there was benefit to the ratepayers and no abuse of state money.

The governor also sent a letter last week announcing new procedures in use of such funds, and he said Thomas will reimburse the state if no benefit comes from the research.

Thomas' study outlines a method to audit utility cooperatives every year, instead of 10 years.

Pride.

A tradition in the good country. And at Olney Savings.

The tradition of pride runs deep in the good country, and it sets the people here apart from others.

In one sense, it's pride in being the best they can be. But more importantly, it's pride in knowing that their efforts are directed toward a common good — the kind of pride that can be experienced only through shared achievement.

At Olney Savings, that's the kind of pride we encourage — and always will. Because that's the kind of pride that makes the most important things in life happen.

Come see us soon. Or call and we'll come see you. We'd be proud to serve you.

Al Trubenbach's have 50th wedding anniversary

Louise and Alois Trubenbach celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding on Saturday, Nov. 16, beginning with a brunch in their home at 11 a.m. for their children and spouses, grandchildren, and their brothers and sisters.

At 2 p.m. Father Denis Soerries O.S. B. celebrated a Home Mass and led renewal of wedding vows, witnessed by the group.

A reception and dinner in the Knights of Columbus Hall at 4 p.m. was hosted by their children and spouses.

The Trubenbachs are parents of Loyd Trubenbach of Muenster, Mary Page of Sanger, Judy Trubenbach of San Antonio, Kathy Whitt of Sanger and Rita McCorkle of Lindale. There are twelve grandchildren and one great-grandchild. All were present for the celebration.

Guests enjoyed taking many pictures, viewing old photographs on display, visiting and "remembering when."

During the dinner Loyd Trubenbach spoke briefly welcoming his parents and guests, and after dinner James Whitt showed slides he assembled to relate family history, beginning with the Ed Schmitts wedding picture, childhood scenes and growing-up years, courtship of the Trubenbachs, their first home and their children. Guests were intrigued by a delightful musical background Whitt arranged to express the mood of individual pictures.

A display table held collages of the grandchildren.

The three tiered anniversary cake was baked and decorated by a niece, Della Rose Voth.

Decorations throughout were in a golden anniversary theme and all tables were enhanced by arrangements of dozens of yellow roses brought from Tyler by Rita McCorkle.

Mrs. Trubenbach wore a cream colored dress. Her corsage and his boutonniere were of yellow rosebuds.

Doug Martin's band played for dancing and the goldenweds led the first dance to their favorite "Red Wing."

More than 150 relatives and friends attended from Buda, San Antonio, Kerrville, Sanger, Denton, Wichita Falls and the Cooke County area.

The Trubenbachs are lifelong residents of Muenster. She is a homemaker and he is a farmer rancher and prominent cattleman. Since 1964 he has been president of the Muenster Hospital Board. Both are long-time members of the Myra Community Improvement Club.

Hornets beat Paradise 21-7 in 4-a playoff

Muenster Hornets closed out their district schedule at Decatur Friday with a 21-7 win over the Panthers of Paradise. As runner-up of the north zone of District 4-A they met the south zone winner Valley View, the no. 1 of the north zone, downed Perrin, the no. 2 of the south zone.

The result is that north zone teams share the district lead, but as a result of a previous win over Muenster, Valley View has the district title.

Both teams will advance to bi-district. Muenster will play Crowell at Archer City Friday at 7:30. Valley View will play Munday at Jacksboro at 7:30.

In their game with Paradise the Hornets dominated the stats as well as the scoreboard. They led in first downs and yardage while giving up fewer turnovers. However they gave up more in penalties.

Muenster started its scoring on first possession with an 80 yard drive that ended with 43 yards of fancy footwork by Ryan Klement through a broken field. Shawn Flusche's kick upped the score to 7-0 at 8:28.

On next possession they had 59 yards to go after a Panther punt. Flusche and John Eldred accounted for most of the gains in a steady drive to the 10 where Klement kept the ball again and scooted to the end zone. Flusche's extra point upped the count to 14-0 with 2:51 still remaining in the first period.

Moments later a Panther fumble caused by Darren Walterscheid and recovered by Andy Burnette set up another opportunity with 30 yards to go. But Muenster promptly fumbled and Paradise punted to end the series. Then Klement passed to Brian Hess for 18 but the next series led to an exchange of punts followed by a break-away for the Panther's only score. Lewis dashed 56 yards to the end zone. The PAT added 1. The score was 14-7 at 5:17 until the half.

Starting the second half Paradise punted on first series after which Muenster drove 56 to the 21 but was backed to the 35 by penalties and had to punt. The kick was fine, going out of bounds at the 1 yard line. Lewis escaped from that disadvantage with a fine 25 yard run only to fumble it when halted. Brian Hess recovered.

Klement's pass to Eldred went 23 to the 4 and Flusche scored. His PAT made the count 21-7.

The last quarter was scoreless but the effort continued. A half minute before the end Drue Bynum intercepted a Panther pass on the 7 yard line.

Standouts of defense were Trubenbach on three quarterback sacks, Bynum on two interceptions, also Damian Hellman and Eldred. On offense Flusche had 94 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries, Klement had 75 yards and 2 touchdowns on 9 carries, Eldred had 58 yards on 14 carries.

Ryan Klement takes off on a 43 yard broken field scoring sprint in the MHS game with Paradise. Darren Walterscheid, No. 50 and Stuart Hess No. 72 are Blocking. David Fette Photo

The Mothers Club of Archer City announces that it will have chili, hamburgers and hot dogs at the concession stand at 6:30 for the convenience of persons who wish to eat before the Muenster-Crowell game, which starts at 7:30.

Also Superintendent Coffey asks Hornet fans to observe the UIL regulation banning fans on the playing field. They are reminded that they can legally join a victory line only beyond the actual playing area. Uniformed personnel such as band members are welcome on the field.

Gorman wins over Tigers

Sacred Heart's last chance to share in the season's TCIL honors faded away at Tyler last week as the Tigers were eliminated 20-10 by the Crusaders of Gorman High.

As a result SH is winless in the loop and 5-4 in the season. Gorman is perfect in district and 6-4 in the season. Notre Dame is 1-1 in the district.

The Crusaders got organized on their first possession following Sacred Heart's fumble on its second series. Logan recovered with only 24 yards to go and six plays were enough. Wladron scored from the 2 and Wayne Becker blocked the PAT kick.

On next possession the Tigers had to punt on second series setting Gorman back to its 11. There a 2 yard loss preceded a sensational 91 yard gallop nullified by a penalty and called back to the 4. Then, on next play Carney of Gorman was sacked in the end zone by Houtchens. The score was 6-2 at 3:31 in the first period.

After the next kickoff the Tigers started at the 30 and marched to the Gorman 7. Big plays along the way were Taylor's passes of 18 to Adair and 29 to Craig Voth and his run of 12.

From the 7 Switzer crashed over for a TD that was nullified by a penalty and three plays later Switzer's pass was intercepted in the end zone.

Next each team punted and Gorman was attempting another punt when Adair took advantage of a bad snap and nabbed the ball at the 11. Three plays later Switzer went over from the 8 and ran again for a 2 point PAT. That gave SH a 10-6 lead. Gorman followed with a good drive that reached the Tiger's 14 at halftime.

Starting the third period Gorman fumbled on second series and Deano Bayer recovered.

That was followed by an exchange of punts: Tigers on first series, Crusaders on second series and Tigers again on second series. During the several series the Tigers got two tough breaks as long runs by Switzer were nullified by penalties.

After the last punt Gorman was back to its 18 and advanced to its 44 on a good gain and a penalty. Two plays later Carney broke away for 52 yards to pay dirt. The PAT kick was good putting Gorman back in the lead with 13-10.

Back in possession the Tigers gained for two first downs but had to kick on the next series, and the Crusaders were 68 yards away. They made the distance in 10 plays. Waldron finishing the job with a 12 yard run. The PAT kick upped the count to 20-10 at 5:45.

In the remaining minutes Sacred Heart started at its 22 and gained 32 before being stopped by an interception, but regained possession two series later when Keith Hennigan recovered a fumble on the Gorman 47 just before time ran out.

Standouts for Sacred Heart were Switzer with 90 yards on 23 carries and Craig Voth with 42 yards on two passes; also Hennigan, Houtchens and Switzer on defense.

SH varsity splits at Callisburg

With only one day of practice, Sacred Heart's Tigers were ice cold for their season opener in basketball Tuesday night. That had some bearing on a 61-15 loss to Callisburg.

However the Tigerettes made good use of slightly more than a month of practice, and came out at the happy end of 61-34.

Scorers for the girls were Sandra Walterscheid 17, Tammy Hess 15, Lisa Haverkamp 11, Vicki Walterscheid 9, Lydia Walterscheid 6, Juline Bartel 2, Molly Koelzer 1.

Tiger scorers were Ken Hesse 9, John Nasche 2, Casey Houtchens 2, Wayne Becker 2.

The games were preceded by a junior varsity girls game in which Sacred Heart was the loser by 18-13. Point makers for Sacred Heart were Michelle Walter 8, Noel Hesse 4, Vickie Schmitt 1.

SH Juniors lose two at Nocona

Junior high girls of Sacred Heart lost a pair of season openers to Nocona Monday night.

Seventh graders went down by a count of 9-6 as Kristin Klement and Dawn Knabe, with 4 and 2 respectively accounted for all of the SH points.

Eighth graders lost theirs 36-24. The scorers were Janie Fisher 11, Angela Endres 8, Amy Walterscheid 4 and Debbie Schmitt 1.

Boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades will be at Prairie Valley Monday.

Remember trying to erase a mistake on four carbon copies?

Times have changed...

Not too many years ago we used manual typewriters with lots of carbon paper. Typing a letter took a lot of time and effort and sometimes the end result wasn't quite what we'd hoped for.

That was before electric, self-correcting typewriters and quick copy machines. Today, word processors allow us to make corrections on the screen and print as many copies as we need. We can get much more work done much faster. That's progress.

Times have changed for your cooperative, too.

The Brazos System used to build natural gas power plants. The gas was delivered to the boiler by a simple system of pipes and controls.

Today, we build lignite coal power plants. They are large and complex. The fuel is delivered by conveyor belts. It must be crushed and then pulverized to powder. Intricate controls are required. Even so, lignite is today's most economical choice for making your electricity. Lignite costs only a third as much as natural gas.

Your business, Cooke County Electric Cooperative, benefits from that choice, and so do you. The power of the kilowatt hour can do so much good... don't waste it.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Some small grain fields in the county are showing yellowing and poor growth. This can be due to several factors.

First, the extremely wet fall that we are experiencing can cause an imbalance in the uptake of plant nutrients. Small grains that are freshly planted, young and tender, may even be drowned or develop fungal rots.

Second, producers should always check for insect damage if spots appear in the field. Both greenbugs and spiders flourish when temperatures are in the 60 degree range. We have not had any reports of severe insect problems in the county this year. However, we need to be aware and check for them at various times during the year.

And, if you feel you have lost your nitrogen fertilizer, the Soil Testing Laboratory at Texas A &

M is equipped to check for nitrogen in the available form, nitrate. Just take a random soil sample and send it to the laboratory with pertinent data as to how much fertilizer has been applied to the particular field. The lab will be able to tell you how much available nitrogen is in the top root zone area of your soil. Soil test kits are available at the Extension Office. There is a $6 charge on a general soil test report from Texas A & M.

Small grains require about two pounds of nitrogen and one pound of phosphorus for each bushel of yield. This means that 80 pounds of Actual N is enough nitrogen to provide a yield potential of 40 bushels of wheat.

With drying conditions and optimum temperature, small grains should begin to grow again.

Comanche Peak cost: 5.46 billion

Revised cost and schedule estimates for the Comanche Peak Nuclear Plant were announced today by the Texas Utilities Electric Company.

The new estimates are included in the Company's revised resource plan for meeting area electricity needs through 1995. The plan is based on estimates of growth in TUEC's service area over the next decade and includes the Company's plans for meeting growing needs for electricity.

A detailed reanalysis and reinspection effort presently is underway at Comanche Peak.

The Company estimates this effort, and all related plant modifications that may be necessary, will be complete in time to support commercial operation of Unit 1 in mid 1987 and Unit 2 six months later.

If this schedule is achieved, it is estimated the plant will cost $5.46 billion. TUEC's share of the plant cost will be $2,297 per kilowatt, about 20 percent below the industry average for plants going in service in the same time period.

The previous cost estimate of $4.56 billion was announced in January, 1985. That estimate assumed that Unit 1 would go into operation in early 1986 and Unit 2 in mid 1987.

The revised cost and schedule estimates are subject to further change, emphasized Texas Utilities Generating Company President Michael D. Spence.

"There are substantial uncertainties associated with the time required to complete the process of obtaining an operating license," he said. "Many aspects of the process are beyond the control of the Company, and we cannot predict when it will be completed."

The comprehensive reinspection program currently in progress at the plant will address all concerns that have been raised," Spence said. "At the conclusion of that program, we will be able to satisfy ourselves and the NRC that all safety significant concerns have been identified and corrected and the plant can be operated safely."

The new cost estimate takes into account the cost of money used to finance the plant's construction, cost of the reinspection effort and associated modifications, ongoing operating expenses such as salaries of permanent personnel and engineering and construction costs.

R.K. Campbell, President of Texas Power & Light Co., noted that Comanche Peak will still benefit the Company's customers.

"Comanche Peak is the cornerstone of our resource plan for meeting our customers' needs for reliable electric service in the future," he said.

The area we serve includes about 5 million people -- A third of the population of Texas -- and it continues to grow rapidly," he said. "Despite this cost increase, Comanche Peak is still an essential long-term resource for providing the electricity our customers need."

In its revised 10-year resource plan, the Company estimates its customers' need for electricity will increase by 11,586,000 kilowatts by 1995.

The Company plans to use its aggressive conservation and load management program to displace the need to meet 16 percent of that increase with new generating capacity. The remaining 84 percent of the increased need will be met as follows:

- * 18 percent with the Comanche Peak Nuclear Plant.
- * 26 percent with 4 lignite-fueled generating units currently under construction.

* 16 percent with cogeneration and small power production sources.

* 13 percent with combustion turbines, which are small natural gas-fueled used to meet peak demand.

* 11 percent from unspecified capacity additions.

This diversity of resources, combined with our effective load management programs, will assure our customers a continuing supply of reliable electric service," said R.K. Campbell, Texas Power & Light Co. President.

John Deere waives finance charge on variety of deals

John Deere has announced new programs to waive finance charges for varying periods for major items of farm equipment purchased through the John Deere finance plan. Waiver of finance charges reduces the interest paid during the term of a retail financing contract. If payments are required during the waiver period, the program permits a faster buildup of the buyer's equity since all such payments apply entirely to principal.

Under the newly announced program, finance charges on all used combines and new John Deere combines will be waived until the beginning of the use season in 1986, and in some cases until the beginning of the use season in 1987.

Finance charges on all over 40 PTO h.p. tractors may be waived until June 1, 1986.

Finance charges on all new and some used seasonal equipment may be waived until the beginning of the month in which the next use season begins.

For many items, price discounts are available as an alternative to the waiver of finance programs.

Now That CD Rates Have Dropped... Shouldn't You Be Looking Out For Your Best Interest?

Let's face it, CD and Money Market rates just aren't what they used to be. The numbers tell the story - last year, a one year CD yielded up to 12%. Today, the same CD might only offer an 8 1/4% return. Prudential-Bache Securities has just published a new "Action Alert" on CD alternatives for the concerned investor... safe, secure investment alternatives you may not be aware of.

So, before you let the bank roll you over into lower CD rates, send for your free "Action Alert," and find out which alternatives are in your best interest. Just call us at the number below or send in the coupon.
