MISD school board considers applications for principal

Trustees of the Muenster ISD at their regular session last Thursday considered applications for a principal to replace Thomas Frost, who had accepted the position a month earlier but decided before reporting to the job to stay with the school system at Hugo, Okla.

Superintendent Charles Coffey said later that the board expects to announce its selection some time this week.

The trustees also went through the formality of accepting resignations from Frost and his wife, Betty, who was to be an elementary teacher.

Other resignations they accepted were those of Mrs. Nona Stanley, who had been a special education teacher for three years. A resident of Gainesville, she prefers to be near home as a teacher at McMurray School. And another acceptance was the resignation of Mrs. Kay Poitier, who has taught here for four years. She has accepted assignment at Krum which is considerably nearer her home at Denton.

Two of the three vacancies were filled Thursday night. Miss Doris Rosson of Gainesville will be a special education teacher. She graduated at TWU in 1983 and has taught two years at Waxahachie. And Mrs. Nadine Yeager will teach first grade. She has a BA degree from SMU in 1956 and a master of education degree from TWU in 1975. She has taught at Quindan the past three years, will live at Valley View, where her husband is a minister.

In other business, the trustees approved air conditioning in two more areas of the school. A 7.5-ton unit will be installed in the dining area of the cafeteria and a 5-ton unit in the kitchen. Another unit is okayed for the north hallway of the high school wing serving also boys and girls rest rooms, the teachers' lounge and the counselor's office. With those installations, air conditioning at the school will be complete except the main entrance lobby and the auditorium. The contractor is D & H Air Conditioning of Muenster and the job is expected to be ready when school starts.

More improvements are in dressing rooms of girls basketball. They involve removal of several showers followed by a remodeling and paint project. Other additions are 36 new athletic lockers plus three racks with 21 baskets each for PE. Installations there will be made by teachers JoAnn Pagel and Teresa Walterscheid and Coach Charles Meurer.

Patricia Ann Schmidtkofer, 22, is victim of head-on collision

Patricia Ann Schmidtkofer, 22, of Gainesville, died at 10:09 p.m. Sunday in Scott and White Hospital, Temple, from injuries received in a highway crash at 5:15 near Cameron.

According to Clay Taybor, highway patrolman, the accident occurred when one car attempting to pass on a bridge collided head-on with the Schmidtkofer car. She was accompanied by her fiancé, Charles Jefferson McCrory, also of Gainesville. Both of them, along with the driver of the other car, a Waco man, were taken to a Cameron hospital and later transferred to Scott and White.

Schmidtkofer, with head and chest injuries and leg lacerations, did not regain consciousness. McCrory was treated and released. The Waco man was reported in critical condition.

Funeral service for Patricia Ann was held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in St. Mary's Church with Father Timothy Donnelly officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial, and interment was in Fairview Cemetery directed by Geo. J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Victor Schmidtkofer, William Schmidtkofer, Albert Fuhrmann, Dave Reiter, John David Schmitz and Doug Schmitz.

An earlier service was recitation of the rosary at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Carroll Funeral Home chapel.

Patricia Ann's death is especially sad in that she is the fourth member of the family to die; three of them in accidents. James, 20, was killed in a motorcycle crash in 1973 and Kenneth, 24, in a hunting accident in 1975, and now Patricia Ann. The fourth child died in infancy in 1950.

She was born in Gainesville May 15, 1963, a daughter of George and Louise Schmidtkofer. She attended Lindsay High School, graduating in 1981 as salutatorian. She also attended Cooke County College, then North Texas State University and graduated magna cum laude the past May with a bachelor degree in biology, and also received an award as outstanding female senior in biology. A memorial fund for her has been established in the NTSU biology department. Along with her studies, she has worked almost five years as a checker at the Gainesville Safeway Store.

Survivors are her parents; four sisters, Theresa Larson of Corpus Christi, Dorothy Hogue of Arlington, Pauline Brinkley of Gainesville, and Donna Hess of Lindsay; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidtkofer of Lindsay; and fiancé Jeff McCrory of Gainesville.

Sam Bass Day draws near, July 20

It's countdown time for Sam Bass Pioneer Day in Rosston, with the major event to be unrecalled Saturday, July 20, sponsored by the Rosston Volunteer Fire Department.

Leading off will be the parade at 10 a.m., preceded by a welcome and invocation at 9:30; mule pull competition at 11 a.m.; barbecue plate lunch 11:30 - 2 p.m.; a gun-fighter team competition sanctioned by the National Association of Old West Gun-fighter Teams 1:00 - 3:30; a horseshoe tournament at 2 p.m.; children's games at 3:30; fiddler's contest at 5 p.m.; square dance exhibition at 7 p.m.; barbecue plate supper 6:00 - 8:00; a dance with music by the Denton Playboys 8 p.m. - 1 a.m.

Bud Ford will be Master of Ceremonies and doing the announcing throughout the day, assisted by his wife, Pat Ford.

There will be rides available on a trolley; stage coach rides; a dunking booth; souvenir booth; and arts and crafts.

Sandwiches and cold drinks will be available all day. A drawing will be held for prizes such as a

IT WAS A CYCLONE. It was an earthquake. No, it was a '77 Ford in reverse. This mobile home, in Walterscheid Sylvan Mobile Home Park, was the residence of David and Barbara Hacker until late Friday night when it was knocked from its foundation and heavily damaged. Muenster resident Ramirez Ventura Huerta, 27, was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated following the incident, according to Police Chief Helen Tompkins. See story page 3.

During the past weekend the world witnessed the greatest extravaganza of TV history in the rock concert originating at Philadelphia and London and beamed to crowds estimated at more than 1.5 billion people in 150 countries.

Its purpose was to raise funds for famine relief in Africa. In that it was a tremendous success, raising more than $70 million, while creating an enormous sense of pride in us Americans for our generous response to human suffering.

Throughout the big show it was generally referred to as African famine relief, but little if anything was said about which of the countries were intended as the beneficiaries. After all that has been said in recent months, most of us assumed that Ethiopia would receive most, if not all, of it.

The next thought crossing our minds is that previous generous donations, especially from this country, have been diverted from their intended destination into the hands of the ruling communist government. Furthermore, the government has declined to help its people, in one case spending $200 million on a huge celebration observing the 10th anniversary of the country's take-over by Marxism while millions were starving.

Another pertinent fact is that the United Nations is also turning its back on the people. It has promised to spend $75 million for a better UN building in Addis Ababa instead of helping relieve the famine. Also the Soviet Union has sold $3 million worth of weapons to Ethiopia whereas Western nations have provided most of the aid to the country.

Notice that the USSR not only refused to help but profits on its dealing. And there's more to be said in that regard. The Soviet arms sales are used by the government to keep its dissident starving people in submission.

We wonder if such facts were generally known to the millions of people who gave so generously in the big rock festival. Do they raise the question of how much of their donation will actually go to the starving people, and how much will be appropriated by the country's evil government?

Another fact not generally known is that the terrible famine of Ethiopia was not caused by drought but by a deliberate genocide program. Over the centuries, people have coped with cruel weather. They stockpiled food in times of plenty, also saved money and jewelry to buy food in hard times, or sent people to cities and other areas where food was available.

But things are different now. The 10-year-old Marxist government has outlawed saving and forbids anyone to leave the country. Moreover, it imposes price controls on farm products so that urban dwellers can buy cheap food and farmers have to sell at a big discount. For instance, barley sells 72 percent below market price. The result is inevitable. The country's ag program can't survive, and famine is the result of official policy.

President Reagan urged to lead in deficit cuts

By John Sloan
When members of Congress went home for the Independence Day recess, they had all but given up on their goal of reducing the deficit, and it now appears that the considerable influence of the president of the United States will be needed to get them back on the road to making necessary spending cuts.

By early June, the Senate and the House had forged separate plans to reduce the Fiscal 1986 budget deficit by more than $50 billion. But when conferees from both houses met to iron out the differences, they couldn't agree on some key provisions. So, they parted company leaving many observers in Washington wondering if there would be a deficit reduction package at all.

I was one of a small group of business leaders which met with President Reagan at the White House on July 2. We told him of our deep concern about the deficit and the failure of Congress to complete action on a package of spending cuts. We urged the president to "vigorously and personally direct his efforts to deficit reduction."

become deeply involved again, it is unlikely that significant spending cuts will be made - and the only alternative to even greater deficits will be a tax increase.

Congress must reduce the deficit through spending cuts this year. Politically it is the best time to do it, because the hard decisions on where to cut spending will not be made in the spotlight of election-year politics. Economically it is the best time, because the economy is still strong and the impact of cuts will, therefore, be minimized.

One of the sticking points in the House-Senate Conference Committee was the treatment of cost-of-living increases for Social Security. The small-business members of the National Federation of Independent Business support limiting the adjustments for inflation for Social Security and other entitlement programs. They also support far greater cuts in the budget of the Small Business Administration than either the House or the Senate approved.

President Reagan has taken the initiative to make deficit reduction the priority it must be. In his July 6 radio address, Reagan cited the immediate need for Congress to pass a deficit reduction package. The following week, he met with key congressional leaders to emphasize his concern and urge quick action.

NFIB has called on its members to contact senators and representatives - especially those in key leadership positions - and demand that the legislative deadlock be broken and that Congress produce a package that cuts at least $50 billion from Fiscal 1986 spending.

It is not pleasant to think about the consequences if Congress fails to act: a return to high interest rates, continuing unfavorable trade balance, rising unemployment and high inflation as the economy slows. Then, of course, demands for government assistance would increase, and so would the demand for scarce dollars.

The hurt caused by cutting spending now is minor compared to the pain most Americans will suffer if Congress fails to act this summer. Business leaders know it. The president knows it. Now we must get the message to Congress.

John Sloan is President of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small-business men and women.

SMALL PARASITES ASSURE THEIR SURVIVAL BY ATTACHING THEMSELVES TO LARGER HOSTS.

Dr. George S. Benson
The Fruit is in the Seed

After a long and costly war, Americans back in 1945 were anxious for a lasting peace and were therefore vulnerable to the propaganda which induced them to participate in the organization of the United States.

The perception of most people was that the UN was to be an instrument of peace. As is most often the case, the perception did not square with reality.

In the first place, it was foolhardy for the United States to join in anything with the Soviet Union. Communists are not like ordinary people. They are dedicated to a philosophy which is out to control the world - and they know no other morality except that which promotes that ultimate objective.

In the second place, as Dr. V. Orval Watts pointed out, "...the American architects of the new Organization were the same officials who had been writing the programs of the Socialist and Communist parties into law in this country.

"An organization of socialist governments, formed by socialistic officials, ...can hardly promote anything but socialism..."

Dr. Watts said that in a pamphlet in 1961. Six years earlier in his book, The United Nations, Watts warned "that the chief work of the UN consists in promoting the socialist ideas and policies of Karl Marx...the UN has a growing bureaucracy organized and staffed for this purpose."

It will be recalled that the major objections of U.S. leaders, which precipitated our pulling out of UNESCO, were the aggressive moves of UNESCO to promote socialistic economic policies and undemocratic political policies throughout the world.

Why should we be surprised when a socialistic organization, designed and staffed by socialists and communists, produces socialistic and communistic results?

Let's face it! The American people have been duped, not just once or twice, but many times, over and over, in their perception of the United Nations.

ded; they had been made over and over again throughout its history; and their truth has been proved by the consequences of its actions none need longer doubt.

From the very beginning the UN was stacked against the United States. At the Yalta conference, Stalin was demanding 16 votes in the United Nations, one for each of the Soviet Union's so-called "Socialistic Republics." Stalin, Roosevelt, Alger Hiss and an interpreter, Charles Bohlen, were closeted in a conference room. Everyone else was outside.

Listen to what Dan Smoot wrote about this 30 years ago: "When Roosevelt, a dying man, came out of the room with Alger Hiss, he announced to his advisers that an 'agreement' had been reached which would give Russia three votes against America's one in the General Assembly of the UN. To the protests of the American delegation, Roosevelt wearily announced: I know I shouldn't have done it. But I was so tired when they got hold of me."

That same Alger Hiss organized the American delegation to the conference in San Francisco which set up the UN. He was the general secretary of the meeting where the UN Charter was adopted.

State Capitol Highlight

AUSTIN — The Texas Supreme court last week took politics out of the "no pass, no play" law by declaring it constitutional, but re-campaign activity was stepped up in the attorney general's race.

One Republican announced he could challenge Democratic incumbent AG Jim Mattox, and three other Republicans say they're lined up to follow suit.

Mattox, meanwhile, was all over the field in an aggressive display of the power of his office. He and foe alike concede Mattox is one of the best campaigners, at none, in the state.

Student Competency

Another hotly contested reform, the pre-diploma test, is also about to get underway.

The State Board of Education is giving final approval to the test version which will be used to rate high school students before they graduate.

High school juniors who fail the exam will be required to take remedial classes, and, if they do not pass it by the end of their senior year, they cannot graduate on schedule.

Secrecy as well as controversy now surrounds the test: board members signed sworn statements pledging not to reveal the contents.

Mattox Challengers

The candidate who announced last week he would run for Mattox' job is former Williamson County District Attorney Ed Walsh. Walsh, elected last November as a Democrat, switched parties in March. He resigned from office prior to his campaign announcement after winning a conviction of alleged mass killer Henry Lee Lucas.

A state senator from the Houston-Galveston area, Buster Brown, said he will announce for the GOP slot soon. The man who lost to Mattox in '82 says he will settle "some unfinished business" by defeating Mattox this time: former state Sen. Bill Meier of Euless, also a former Democrat.

And last, but not least, is San Antonio state District Judge Roy Barrera, Jr., also due to formally announce soon. The son of former Texas Secretary of State Roy Barrera Sr., he is also a party convert.

Barrera said Dallas developer Trammel Crow has agreed to serve as campaign chairman. Add to that his anticipated inroads into the Hispanic voting bloc, and he is a serious contender.

Texas Statistics

The good news is that Texas is ranked second-lowest in the nation of states with low taxes.

The bad news is: Texas unemployment increased to 7.2 percent, the national plateau.

Only Nevada ranked lower in a study published by the Washington-based Advisory Committee on Intergovernmental Relations.

State and local taxes from 16 common levies totaled $949.99, some 14.5 percent below the national average.

Texas scored higher than average on taxes on alcohol, tobacco and licenses. Texas was lower in drivers licenses, property tax and sales tax.

10 Most Wanted

He stepped up his war on others who fail to make child support payments by announcing a list of high-dollar delinquent ads.

Mattox called the regional lists the "10 Most Wanted," and asked state newspapers and television and radio stations to print or broadcast the names.

Mattox said his agency will buy advertisements if free space/time isn't provided.

Pass-Play Rule

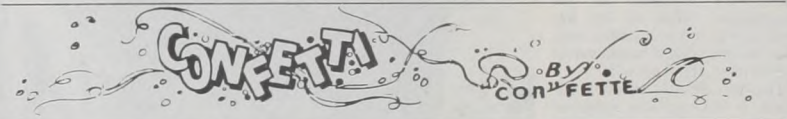

The High Court's upholding of the no pass-no play rule will probably end the ruckus and lawsuits over the controversial law which requires students to pass all courses or give up extracurricular activities.

In dozens of cases this spring, lower court judges ordered school districts to drop the prohibition on out-of-par students' non-class activities.

Mattox said the ruling is a clear signal to lower courts to quit tinkering with the law, which the legislature passed last summer when it reformed the public school system.

In spite of starvation, the Ethiopian dictator Mengistu has drafted farmers into the 300,000 man army and poured 46 percent of the country's gross national product into the military to make sure that dissidents are held in submission.

Along with such self-imposed calamity, the government either diverts huge quantities of famine relief or allows it to waste. In January, $1.2 million worth of Australian grain and supplies intended for the starving were seized by the government. It is estimated that only 40 percent of the grain sent there has been distributed. At the port of Assab so much grain was on a dock fermenting that the place smelled like a brewery. While that food was rotting, 200 people were dying daily at a neglected refugee camp 200 miles away.

Another incident, in January and February 20,000 blankets were piled in warehouses while people died of the cold. According to a relief official, the government denied people the comfort because it wanted them to volunteer for shipment from rebel strongholds to a resettlement area.

The story goes on and on. The tragedy of Ethiopia is not the fault of people or weather, but a deliberate Marxist program of mass starvation. And the tragedy is compounded by an official policy of diverting more than half of foreign help from the people it is intended for.

These are not happy thoughts in relation to the weekend's glorified relief effort. They bring up another big question. Will the program's sponsors be able to see that free people's charity reaches those it is intended for? Or will it be another opportunity for communist plunder?

Mobile home rearended, local man, 27, arrested

Barbara Hacker woke up from a bad dream Friday night to find herself and her husband, David, in the middle of a nightmare.

At approximately 11:50 p.m. David Hacker was thrown from his bed to the floor, while Barbara was slammed into the bedroom wall. According to Muenster Police Chief Helen Tompkins, the Hacker's mobile home was hit by Ramirez Ventura Huerta, 27, of Muenster as he backed a 1977 Ford automobile across the street.

Tompkins said Huerta had dropped off some persons at a mobile home across the street from the Hackers in Walterscheid Sylvan Mobile Home Park. It is believed he then backed across the street and hit the Hacker residence.

The mobile home was knocked from its foundation and heavy damage was sustained to both the structure and its contents.

Tompkins said Huerta left the scene and ran his car into the yard and up against a tree belonging to Fred Luttmier on Third Street.

Huerta was arrested and taken to Cooke County officials, where Tompkins said he was charged with driving while intoxicated. He posted bail and was released.

In the meantime, the Hackers were in the process of regaining their senses and assessing the damage.

"The car hit in the kitchen," Barbara said. "My kitchen stove was strung across the floor in pieces." Additional damages included a demolished television in the livingroom, a 20-gallon aquarium and 12-14 tropical fish destroyed, and a turned over refrigerator.

Hacker said their poodle was believed to have been hit by the aquarium as it fell to the floor.

Hacker said she was later taken to the hospital where it was determined she had sustained some neck injury.

For the time being, the Hackers are housed in a small camper beside their damaged mobile home. They said friends and neighbors have been very caring and helpful. The Hackers have secured a rental house, which they hope to be moved in to by this weekend.

Recounting the oddities of last Friday evening, Hacker told of a mirror which hangs on the kitchen wall of their mobile home. "You know," she said, "that mirror has fallen off and hit me in the head a couple of times. It has the servants prayer on it. And, with everything around it torn up, that mirror didn't move. The Lord was surely with us."

ON THURSDAY, TROOP 729, a group of adventure-hungry Boy Scouts organized from all over Longhorn Council, boarded a jet at DFW enroute to Washington, D.C. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Jack Ablon of Lewisville. In the group were three scouts from Cooke County. First Class Scout George Spaeth of Gainesville and Life Scouts Murlin Evans and Jeff Walterscheid of Muenster. Before going to the National Jamboree the trio will see sights in Baltimore and Washington, D.C.

Penny Newman receives Juris Doctor degree

Penny Gayle Newman, daughter of C.J. and Mary Nell (Hellman) Newman of Kansas City, Mo. and granddaughter of Mrs. Ernie Hellman of Muenster and the late Clarence Hellman, and Mrs. Nina Newman of Iowa Park received the degree of Juris Doctor from the University of Missouri School of Law in May 1985.

Academic honors include one year staff member of Law Review; one year magazine editor of Law Review; four semesters on Dean's Honor List; and two years Assistant on Missouri Prison Project. Her immediate plans are to take the Missouri Bar Examination and work for a Circuit Court Judge beginning in August.

Jones takes over as head of CCTAD

After a search of more than two months, the Cooke County Tax Appraisal District (CCTAD) has a new chief appraiser. Dale F. Jones, of Bailey County, was selected by the Board of Directors of CCTAD last Tuesday.

Jones was notified of his selection June 28 by the board, and reported to his new office July 1. However, he did not officially assume the chief appraiser's position until after the official announcement made by the Board July 9.

Jones has reportedly spent his time at CCTAD familiarizing himself with the operations of the county office and its personnel, policies and procedures.

Prior to coming to Cooke County, Jones, 46, held the position of chief appraiser in Muleshoe, Bailey County, from September 1980 until May 1985. He held the distinction of being the first appraiser for that district.

Jones is a 1956 graduate of Henderson High School in Henderson, and holds a 1957 associate degree in business from the Air Force College in Denver.

Jones was trained in management and sales while in the employment of Xerox Corporation, Lincoln-Mercury, Ford Motor Company and the Chrysler Corporation between 1960-64.

Between 1964-80 he attended a variety of courses and seminars keyed to agency operations, sales management and merchandising. While working as chief appraiser for Bailey County from 1980-85, Jones participated in several Texas State Law courses augmenting his experience as chief appraiser.

Jones operated a Chrysler dealership in Hereford from 1973-80, in addition to his duties as Bailey's chief appraiser. He worked as a partner and manager in the same agency from 1969-72.

Between 1964-69, Jones worked as a management trainee at Wichita Motors Lincoln Mercury in Wichita Falls, with Jones Motor Company in Henrietta, and Jones Ford Sales in Morton.

From 1960-64, Jones was employed with the Xerox Corporation in Dallas as a technical-public relations representative.

Jones is a veteran of the United States Air Force, where he served as an electronic technician between 1956-64.

Prior to his appointment at Muleshoe, Jones said he had little tax experience, though he brought with him experience in appraisals as a building contractor and later as an appraiser in the new car business.

Jones and his wife Deane, have lived in Hereford some 16 years and hope to buy or build in the Gainesville area. They have no dependent children.

Jones succeeds Sport Mowell, who has served as interim chief since the May 1 dismissal of Pat Dennis.

City gets $6,291 sales tax rebate

The city of Muenster has received a check in the amount of $6,291.33 as its rebate for city sales and use tax remitted here through the period ending July 3, 1985. The payment was a part of $56.8 million sent to 1,003 cities that levy the tax in Texas.

The amount increases Muenster's 1985 total to $57,741.50, a drop of 2.69 percent from last year's total at the corresponding date. State totals are $505 million for the year and a gain of 10.86 percent.

Rebates to other cities of this area along with their total receipts to date and the percentages of gain or loss are reported as follows by Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Gainesville, $63,808, to date $570,280, up 18.36 percent; Lindsay $4,870, to date $32,335, up 21.64 percent; Valley View $547, to date $8,558, up 95.92 percent; Denton $309,029, to date $2,660,434, up 16.27 percent;

Pilot Point $7,212, to date $47,282, up 2.86 percent; Sanger $4,169, to date $39,583, up 21.32 percent; Whitesboro $7,569, to date $75,018, down .01 percent; Bowie $29,013, to date $256,636, up 10.36 percent; Nocona $10,152, to date $96,630, up 13.7 percent; Saint Jo $1,378, to date $13,607, up 20.61 percent.

Knabe joins scouts on Jamboree

Rodney Knabe, only Muenster representative from Troop 664, will join 36 Boy Scouts of the Texoma Valley Council on Saturday, traveling by chartered bus enroute to Washington, D.C. and then to the National Jamboree site. They will be accompanied by four adult leaders.

Stops will be made at Mt. Vernon and historic sites, and tours will be made of the White House, the Smithsonian, the Federal Mint, the FBI, and the capitol, before going to Fort A.P. Hill, Virginia and the jamboree site.

The Jamboree contingent will return to Sherman on Aug. 4.

Archie Hess, 59, dies

Funeral service for Arthur William "Archie" Hess, 59, was held Saturday morning at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Denis Soerries officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial and Father Victor Gillespie assisting. Burial with military honors was in Sacred Heart Cemetery following the church service.

Archie Hess died at his home at 9:30 a.m. Friday, July 12, ending a long illness.

In his funeral homily, Father Denis referred to Archie's patience and endurance and acceptance of God's will through intensive suffering. Though foreseen for a long time, he said, death is sad when it arrives. However, it also has a happy side in the assurance of Christ's blessings in eternity.

Other participants in the church service were the Sacred Heart Choral Group; nieces Julie, Tammy Sue and Shawna Grewing in scriptural readings; sons Howard, Brent, Troy and Mike in presentation of offertory gifts; and Sherry Garcia in prayers of the faithful.

Burial was directed by McCoy Funeral Home and pallbearers were nephews Chris, Earl, LeRoy, Mark and Kenny Hess; Robert Klement, Dale Hellman and Walter Schmitz.

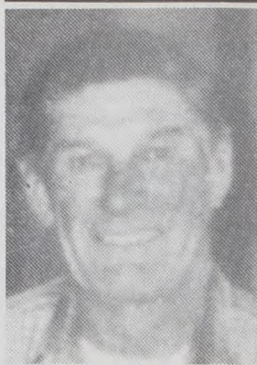

Military service followed. On the way to church and again to the cemetery the flag-draped casket had been escorted by the VFW color guard, and at the grave the honor guard gave the traditional three-volley rifle salute, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Weinzappel with the taps. Arthur Bayer officiated at folding the flag and presenting it to Archie's wife.

Services preceding the funeral were a rosary Friday at 6 in the funeral home chapel and a wake service at 8.

Archie Hess was born in Muenster on May 30, 1926, a son of community pioneers Frank and Mary Haverkamp Hess. He was a veteran of World War II, having served in Germany. He was married to Emma Lou Gehrig on Sept. 1, 1953. He was in the oil field business, a member of Sacred Heart Church and the Knights of Columbus, also a member and past commander of the Muenster VFW post.

Survivors are his wife; three daughters, Linda Grewing, Donna Biffle and Tammy Hess, all of Muenster; four sons, Howard, Brent, Troy and Mike, all of Muenster; one sister, Clara Evans of Pilot Point; three brothers, John of Lindsay, and Ed and Gary of Muenster; and 12 grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Catherine; four brothers, Henry, Arnold, Albert and Ray; and his parents.

William Fleitman of Lindsay dies Thursday

Funeral service for William Henry Fleitman, 81, of Lindsay, was held Saturday, July 13, 10 a.m., in St. Peter's Church with Father Cletus Post officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial. He died Thursday in Gainesville Memorial Hospital after an illness of about two weeks. Until then he had been in normal good health.

Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery directed by Geo. J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home and the pallbearers were grandsons Ronnie and Wayne Fleitman, Roger and Pat Krahl, Frank Lindemann and Curtis Reeves.

An earlier service was a rosary Friday at 7:30 in the funeral home chapel.

William Fleitman was a native of Muenster, born May 26, 1904, a son of Henry and Mary Hessel Fleitman. He was married to Lena Block in Lindsay on Feb. 7, 1928. They moved to Lindsay in 1935 to the farm southeast of town which they occupied since then. He retired from land work about 10 years ago and from cattle raising last year. He was a member of St. Peter's Church, St. Peter's Society, the Knights of Columbus and was an appraiser for Muenster Farm Mutual Fire Insurance Association for about 15 years.

Survivors are his wife; four daughters, Mildred Lindemann of Windthorst, Margie Reeves of Jacksboro, Clara Fleitman of North Miami Beach, Fla., and Virginia Krahl of Gainesville; one son, Henry, of Lindsay; 18 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two sisters, Irene Laux of Lindsay and Hilda Self of Muenster; two brothers, John and Bruno, both of Muenster; and one niece, Margaret Knight of Fort Worth, who grew up in the Fleitman home.

Family members who preceded him death were his parents, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Bindel and Mrs. Susie Hoening, and three brothers, Alois, Alphonse and Albert.

Accident report

Police Chief Helen Tompkins reported three accidents occurring within the city limits.

The first accident occurred Sunday at approximately 8 p.m. when Wesley Reynolds, 19 of Forestburg, fell out of the back of a pickup being driven by Ronnie Kubbie, 18 of Muenster.

The accident occurred at the dip in North Maple Street near the Muenster Clinic.

Tompkins said Reynolds received a severe brain concussion, cuts, bruises and was hospitalized.

The second mishap occurred Tuesday when Patricia Ann Coker of Saint Jo was driving her vehicle East on Division Street.

Another vehicle reportedly made an improper lane change in front of the Coker vehicle. Coker applied the breaks and, on the rain-dampened pavement, did a 360-degree turn before hitting a telephone pole.

Coker's five-year-old daughter, Christie, received a fractured collar bone.

The third incident occurred when Weldon Penton of Gainesville and Brian Sicking of Muenster were involved in the 200 block if East Division.

Penton reportedly made an improper lane change and Sicking struck the Penton vehicle in the side. There were no injuries and no citations were issued.

Photos from the Past

THIS WEEK'S Photos From The Past continues a series begun last week showing scenes from the old red brick Sacred Heart Church. At right, as dismantling began, a view of the exterior south wall shows removal of bricks and mortar under a stained glass window. Also, portions of the bell tower are removed. The picture was made on Jan. 5, 1949 after all fixtures were moved and the building was only a shell. Below, the roof and supporting beams are exposed and rubble begins to collect at the east end. The height of the building can be judged by comparing with the man on the ground. In the bottom right photo, the landmark steeple and portions of the roof and north walls are gone. The crumbling sidewalk awaits removal.

DURING THE PERIOD when the old church was being removed and the magnificent new edifice was under construction, parishioners of Sacred Heart attended Mass and other services in two locations - in the remodeled parish hall and in the basement of Sacred Heart School, because neither could accommodate the usual Sunday and Holy Day crowds. On Sunday, Jan. 9, 1949, Bishop Joseph Patrick Lynch of Dallas officiated at a special ceremony blessing the parish hall as a temporary church. The altar was located in a special extension at the east end of the building as shown in the above picture.

Jason Wolf's team is number 2 in international tournament

Bernard and Agatha Wolf spent a recent eight days in Dallas with their grandsons, Scott and Mark Wolf while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wolf and nine-year-old Jason were in Toronto, Canada. They flew from DFW to accompany Jason, a member of the Green Hornets Soccer Team of Dallas.

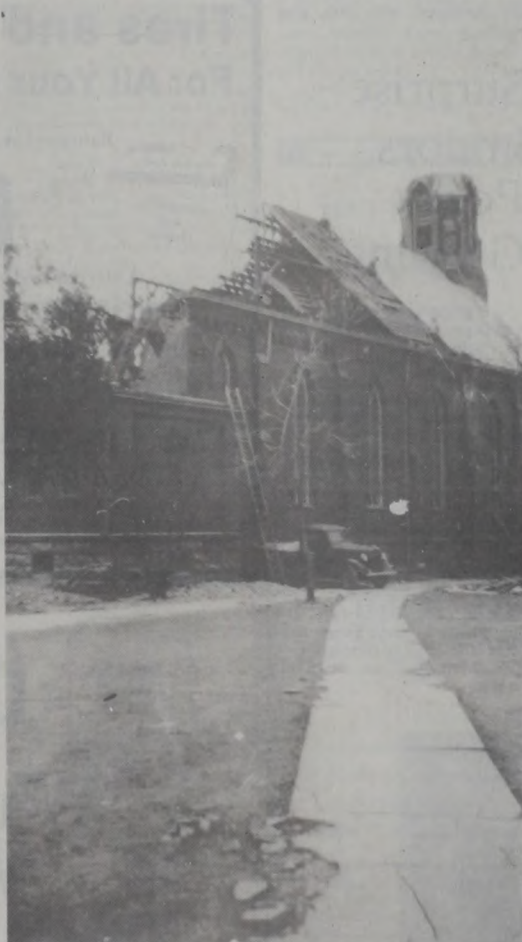

Jason played in the under-ten age group, in competition with 42 teams and his team won second place. Each member of the team received a trophy.

The games were played under sponsorship of the 19th Robbie International Soccer Tournament in Birchmont Stadium in Scarborough.

More than 8,300 boys in three age groups, on 410 teams from five countries, seven Canadian provinces and 22 states in the United States were participants in the tournament. The boys were guests of Canadian boys' soccer players and their families.

Truman, Pat and Jason Wolf also toured places of interest in the area before returning to Dallas.

— Personals —

Thomas and Barbara Felderhoff were weekend guests of their son and family, Chris and Sandy Felderhoff of College Station, and their daughters, Lydia, Kelly and Rachel. On July 6, the grandparents helped celebrate Lydia's fourth birthday, which occurred on July 5, with gifts and a special cake. Cousins who came along to help with the fun, Jackie Henscheid and Kerri Felderhoff, were also present for the "Super Friends" birthday party.

Weekend guests of Al and Dorothy Yosten were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Phillips of Dallas. Their sons were on a Boy Scout trip. Joining them on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yosten and Codi and a friend of Eules. They all attended the Saturday afternoon reunion of the Swirczynski-Yosten relatives and the Sunday afternoon open house reception honoring Sister Helen Swirczynski's golden jubilee.

My family and I wish to thank each and everyone who supported us during the illness and death of my husband "Archie." At a time like this, one can really see just how many generous people there are around us. Thanks to the doctors, nurses and staff at the Muenster Memorial Hospital: Fr. Victor and Fr. Denis. Special thanks to the UFW for the impressive military funeral; to the St. Anne's Society and Catholic Daughters and KCs for the help in preparing a dinner for the family and friends; and to the choral group for singing at the Mass. We hope we have not omitted any of the many people who have been at our side, helping in so many ways.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

DR. TROY G. MURRAY
CHIROPRACTOR

"Chiropractic Purpose"

The main purpose of chiropractic care is to free the nervous system of interference with its normal function. In this way removing a basic cause of disease. Founded in 1895, chiropractic is the science of health and disease as viewed from a structural standpoint. Special consideration is given to the spine and the nervous system and how they may affect the physical condition.

Doctors of chiropractic do not utilize drugs or operative surgery, but refer a patient to the appropriate specialist when the condition warrants.

While it is true that one should see a chiropractor for orthopedic cases, such as backaches, disc pains, sciatica, and whiplash, it must be remembered that other functional disorders, such as those that involve organs and internal glands of the body, often respond to chiropractic adjustment. The conditions that can be treated by doctors of chiropractic can be as varied as the nervous system itself.

These conditions include asthma, allergies, female disorders, headaches, sinus problems, knee pain, shoulder pain, high blood pressure and arthritis. And there are others.

A regular examination of the spine is your best kind of health insurance!

Wedding unites Wright, Cihacek

MRS. KENNETH DAVID CIHACEK
... nee Renee Marie Wright ...

Renee Marie Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wright of El Paso and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff of Muenster became the bride of Kenneth David Cihacek of Ames, Iowa at 3 p.m. on Saturday, June 29, at Most Blessed Sacrament Church in Arlington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin L. Cihacek of Morse Bluff, Nebraska.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Woman's University, holding bachelor's and master's degrees in education. She was a kindergarten teacher in the Grand Prairie Independent School District.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, with a bachelor of science degree in agronomy and agricultural education. He is employed by Corninco American, Inc.

Officiating for the Nuptial Mass and double-ring ceremony were Father Patrick J. Lynch of Richardson, a friend of the family, and Father Ivor Koch of Arlington.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a formal gown fashioned for her by Laverne Pannell of Irving, of satin and organza, featuring a lace bodice embroidered with pearls and beads. The organza skirt had a formal-length satin train that was appliqued with lace and pearls. Her full-length veil fell from a matching lace and satin hat. She carried a bridal cascade of orchids, white roses and stephanotis.

Attendants

The bridesmaids' dresses were designed and made by the bride's sister, Colleen Wright of Austin, who was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were her sisters, Janet Wright of Houston and Elaine Wright of Austin. Their dusty rose, tea-length mystique taffeta dresses were overlaid with a sheer clipped galloon lacing of the same dusty rose shade, featuring fitted bodice, oversized puffed sleeves, sweetheart necklines with matching pleated cummerbunds. They carried cascades of rubrum lilies, baby's breath and greenery. Their pearl necklaces were gifts from the bride.

Dennis Cihacek of Omaha was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Gene Cihacek of Arlington, Nebraska and Larry Cihacek of Artesia, New Mexico. David Felderhoff of Muenster, cousin of the bride, and Mark Stecker of Grand Island, Nebraska were ushers.

Mass servers were Tom Traska and Rudy Oftering. Readings of the wedding liturgy were given by Laura Hill of Dallas. Wedding music was presented by Lester Ackerman, organist. Offertory gifts were presented at the altar by Marian Cihacek of Omaha, sister-in-law of the groom, and by Kathryn Jaramillo of Arlington.

Altar decorations included the Unity candle and a background of palms, with a pair of tall floor candelabras, each holding nine hurricane globes with votive candles. White silk bows marked family pews.

Reception

A reception and cocktail buffet followed at the Arlington City Club, hosted by parents of the bride. Lisa Hawkins of Arlington presided at the bride's book. Music during the reception was provided by the Joe Felix Quartet.

Among guests at the wedding were relatives and friends from Texas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Illinois and New Mexico. Attending from Muenster were uncles and aunts, Messrs. and Mmes. Al Felderhoff, Vince Felderhoff, Henry Felderhoff; and from Gainesville were the Leo Felderhoffs; also Mrs. Rita Tucker of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Emma Elliott of Lincoln, Ill.

The couple is at home in Ames, Iowa since returning from a wedding trip to Bermuda.

Sister Helen observes golden jubilee

Sister Helen Swirczynski, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski and a 50-year member of the Olivetan Benedictine Order, celebrated the golden jubilee of her profession when she returned to her hometown for a family reunion.

The religious observance in Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, July 14, followed a special celebration earlier in the motherhouse of Holy Angels Convent in Jonesboro, Ark.

Hosts for the celebration, anniversary Mass at 11 a.m. and open house at 2 p.m. were Sister Helen's brothers and sisters, Al Swirczynski of Dallas, Herman and Ray of Muenster, Ed of Fort Worth, Bernard of Mineral Wells and George of Florida, and Anna Marie Knauf and Catherine Erpelding of Colorado Springs and Rita Miller of Austin.

The anniversary liturgy of the Sunday Mass was introduced by Sister Monica Swirczynski, as Sister Helen led the entrance procession, with celebrant Father Denis Soerries and Mass servers Curt Bayer, Glen Swirczynski and Ryan Sicking, nephews of the honoree.

The entrance song was "Here I Am, Lord," led by Emily Klement, accompanied by organist Rita Pels and Ronnie and Tina Weinzapfel on trumpets.

Shirley Endres, a niece, and Jerry Knauf, a nephew, gave the readings. Father Denis delivered the homily.

John Swirczynski and Diane Plank, nephew and niece, led prayers of the faithful. Sonja Swirczynski narrated the Offertory procession. Taking part were Sister Monica carrying a statue of St. Benedict; Sister Doty carrying the Rule of St. Benedict; Loretta Knauf carrying the divine office book; and Jeanne Swirczynski presenting the golden religious profession ring. Rosemary Eastland presented Sister Helen's jubilee candle used at the religious service in Jonesboro.

Symbols of Sister Helen's daily ministry were brought by other nieces and nephews, including a tray of bread, jelly and an apron carried by Tom Swirczynski, a stuffed animal, indicative of her love and care of pets, carried by Brenda Swirczynski.

Offertory gifts of bread, wine, chalice and paten were brought to the altar by Cathy Sicking, Melody Lloyd and Theresa Avery. Congregational singing included "On Eagle's Wings" and "A Time for Building Bridges."

Eucharistic ministers were Charles Bayer, Carolyn Bayer, John Yosten, Alvin Hartman, Joanie Hartman, Imelda Rohmer and Regina Pels.

Charles Bayer and Emily Klement sang "Edelweiss" as a Thanksgiving Meditation, and Sister Florentine Tempel led a prayer for vocations.

The recessional was "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name" with organ and trumpet accompaniment.

A catered noon meal attended by relatives followed in the Community Center, with Clifford Swirczynski as emcee and Catherine Erpelding reviewing Sister Helen's early years in Muenster.

The open house reception followed from 2:00 until 5:00 when friends came to visit and offer good wishes.

Sister Helen is spending a three-week vacation here and is the house guest of Charles and Carolyn Bayer. She also attended the Swirczynski-Yosten reunion Saturday afternoon.

THE MUENSTER ENTERPRISE presents its first "fantastic ad" idea award! Presented by THE MUENSTER ENTERPRISE Graphics Arts Staff. Along with this award, this space is given free. CONGRATULATIONS!

Dear Friends,

Would you help us show the boss we can run the business better than he can? He's been trying to figure out how to increase sales during this hot weather. We've been telling him to just put an ad in the paper saying everything in stock in the store is 20% off.

He says he can't give 20% off because his potato crop failed and besides, nobody will see the ad because they're all at the lake or in Colorado. Well, we're going to prove him wrong.

We've taken it on ourselves to put this note in the paper to tell you we'll give you 20% off if you'll bring a potato to the store from now until July 29. You see, that way everybody will be happy! You'll get a bargain, the boss will have lots of potatoes, and from now on he'll listen to us.

MR. AND MRS. J.D. CAPLINGER have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Diann Carol, to Gary Joseph Zimmerer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer. The couple will be married in Sacred Heart Church on Aug. 17 at 5 p.m. with Father Victor Gillespie officiating and Father Leo Koesler, uncle of the bride-elect, as concelebrant. Diann is a graduate of Sacred Heart High school and Cooke County College with an Associate Degree of Nursing. Gary is a graduate of Muenster High School and received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Agricultural Engineering at Texas Tech. He is employed with the Corps of Engineers in Fort Worth. The couple will reside in Fort Worth.

Huchton families get together July 7

Brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts and cousins enjoyed visiting and remembering in celebrating the annual Huchton family reunion. The 1985 gathering was hosted by Laura and Dick Trachta on Sunday, July 7.

Together for the day were descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Otto Huchton. They included Mr. and Mrs. John Huchton, Mrs. Ernie Hellman, Mrs. Ann Walterscheid, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Huchton and Cecilia Huchton, and the hosts, all of Muenster; and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Huchton of San Angelo. Unable to attend were Walter Huchton and Henry Huchton.

Joining them were Tim Hellman of Wichita Falls, Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Walterscheid, David Huchton and Lynn Huchton and C.J. Hellman, all of Lindsay; Monte Hellman of Dallas; Jimmy Hellman of Aubrey; Larry Gobble of Muenster; Eddie Hellman of Rockwall and their families; and the Joe Vicaris of Houston; the C.J. Newmans of Kansas City, Mo.;

Duain Newman of Kansas City; Joe Huchton and Donnie Huchton of San Angelo.

Also Wayne Trachta of Decatur and children Cody and Dee Ann, and Glenn Trachta of Decatur; Dave and Georgia Mae Trachta of Muenster and Tom and Sue Trachta and children of Plano.

The buffet dinner was held at noon, with visiting, games of volleyball and horseshoes in the afternoon.

Mary Nell and C.J. Newman of Kansas City spent two weeks with her mother, Ernie Hellman, arranging the visit to coincide with the reunion and returned home on July 15.

DON'T YOU AGREE? BY EARL W. CLEMENT

WHAT IS A HOME?
"Give me a house with that lived-in look. Give me a house where no one is worried about the first scratch on the furniture because the second and third scratches are already there... Give me a house where every book and magazine is not neatly put away in a bookcase or magazine rack, but you find them scattered around in a sort of orderly profusion... Give me a house where you may find fingerprints of a child on a front window, or pick a ball glove off a chair... Give me a house where you can't find the evening paper until you first find out who had it last... Give me a house that isn't too peaceful and quiet, a house where there are arguments over the use of the telephone... Give me a house where the children speak up to their parents, but don't talk back to them; where the parents listen to the children, but don't always give in to them... Give me a house where everyone knows his rights and everyone respects his obligations... Give me that kind of a house, and I'll show you a home - A HAPPY HOME."

Carl Walterscheids have 2 weeks vacation in Dominican Republic

A two-week vacation in the Dominican Republic was the special good fortune for Pat and Carl Walterscheid who visited their daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and Franklin Leon, in Santo Domingo.

Franklin Leon is brand manager of Heineken Beer in Santo Domingo and was also on vacation during the visit of his wife's parents. He guided them on several sightseeing tours. The Leons live on the south side of the island. Much of the history of the island is related to that area. The Walterscheids were interested in touring "The Colonial Zone." It dates back to the 15th century. They saw Felipe Fort, Cathedral of Santa Maria la Menor (built in 1514), the first and oldest church in the Americas where the tomb of Columbus is located.

They also saw the Columbus Alcazar (a fortress-palace), a pharmacy, the House of Baslidas, Museum of Real Houses and the treasures from the sunken ship "Concepcion." In Santo Domingo, they also toured Los Tres Ojos, the botanical gardens, the zoo, and rode along the Malicon in a horse-drawn carriage.

They visited a flea market, the Museum of Natural History, Museum of Modern Art and the Museum of Dominican Man. Pat said, "We even saw the open car used by the Pope in 1979 also the bulletproof car he rode in during his visit in 1984."

Carl "Boobie" and Franklin went deepsea fishing for two days, then after the first week they all drove to the north side of the island to spend six days in the beautiful beach house owned by the Leon family. Pat added, "We made side trips to several beaches, finding each one more beautiful than the one before. The beaches were very clean, the sand was brilliantly white, and the water so clear we could see our own shadows at the bottom."

Driving to the north shore they saw acres and acres of sugar cane, oranges, pineapple, corn, rice, beans, plantains, coconuts, papaya, pine trees, palm trees, bananas, yucca and trees bearing mangoes, avocados, lemons and almonds.

"We learned to eat a lot of different foods," they said, "such as Mora (rice and beans), plantains, heart-of-palm, octopus, and we loved the fresh fruits. We did not find anything we disliked except coconut water."

Returning to the city of Santo Domingo they toured the brewery owned by Franklin's family. They also visited an ancient Indian burial ground more than 750 years old.

The Walterscheids' description of the trip: "Enough memories of natural beauty to last a lifetime."

Casey Walterscheid

Casey is three

Casey Walterscheid, son of Terry and Dianne Walterscheid, celebrated his third birthday on July 11 at two events.

At Tender Loving Care Day Care Center, a Sesame Street birthday cake and punch were served to Casey and all his friends during the afternoon.

A celebration that evening in the home of the maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke, also observed the grandfather's birthday since the two share the date. Other guests were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Walterscheid, the honoree's baby brother, Tyler, and the parents, Terry and Dianne.

S.N.A.P honors birthdays

Honored for July birthdays, at the S.N.A.P. luncheon Tuesday, were Elizabeth Mosler, Mildred Fulton, Annie Hacker, Al Walter and Lawrence Wimmer. A special treat was sharing Al Walter's tiered birthday cake that had been decorated with 80 tall candles for the party hosted by his children on Sunday.

Jeanna, Doug and Pam Hartman

Hartman sisters receive scholarships

Pam and Jeanna Hartman, daughters of Gene and Judy Hartman of Denton, have both received scholarships to continue their studies in elementary education.

Pam received a scholarship to attend NTSU on the Denton Business and Professional Women's Club, and Jeanna received the Mabel Purcell Education Scholarship to attend Southwest Texas State. To receive the Purcell Scholarship a student must have at least a 3.5 average out of a possible 4.0. Jeanna's grade point average is 4.0. She will be a senior.

Pam will be a junior. Their brother, Doug, who attended Tarleton State University his freshman year, will transfer to NTSU as a sophomore.

Reunion honors Al Walter on birthday

The 80th birthday of Al (Shorty) Walter was observed Sunday, July 14, by his family with a party in the Muenster Knights of Columbus Hall, from 2 until 4 p.m., preceded by a catered meal there at noon.

The dinner and open house reception were gifts from his children. Graciously receiving the honor, at his side, was his wife of 57 years, Marie. Their children and spouses are Dolores and B.J. Swirczynski of Mineral Wells, John V. and Marie Walter of Dallas, Jeanette and Bill Karr of Houston, Claude and Nancy Walter of McKinney, Sandra and Tom Corcoran of Gainesville and Gene and Marilyn Walter of Washington. All attended the celebration except the Gene Walter family of Richland, Washington, who were unable to be present.

There are 19 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren and all were present. Also attending were all the brothers and sisters of the couple, except Alfred and Clare Walter of Hawaii. About 350 guests, relatives and friends, called during the open house.

Table and hall decorations were designed by daughters of the honoree, carrying out a western theme. Tables were covered with brown and cream cloths, centered by arrangements of cacti, ivy and yellow dahlias and marigolds.

The registration table was graced by a design of yellow flowers in a ceramic boot. Fresh anthuriums sent from Hawaii, a gift of the Alfred Walters, were arranged on a grapevine wreath tied with a dark brown bow.

Focal point of the refreshment table was the large two-tiered, square chocolate birthday cake holding 80 twelve-inch slim tapered, lighted candles, plus figurines representing the hobbies of his 80 years. The cake was made and designed by a friend of the John V. Walters.

Guests sang the happy birthday song accompanied by the Doug Martin Band.

Al Walter and the former Marie Hartman were married in Sacred Heart Church in September 1928. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, and she is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman. They are semi-retired since moving from their farm more than 12 years ago, but

Party of eight tours Europe

The trip is over, the return home was weeks ago, but the memories and excitement of a European tour remain for Paula Yosten, Laura Flusche, Sharon Henscheid, Amber Grewing, Charla Bayer, Penni Hess, Monica Hess and Serena Wright.

Their destination, after an overnight flight, was Frankfurt, Germany, and the tour began immediately from the airport, going to Heidelberg for a view of its famous castle. They continued on to Köln and took a Rhine River Cruise. A small boat took them up the Rhine and they viewed castles built along the river. In Köln, they stayed at the Hotel Kosmos.

On the second day of their tour, they departed for Lucerne, Switzerland and drove through the Black Forests, arriving in Lucerne late in the evening and staying in the small town of Giswil. Three students attended a Swiss Folklore performance, listened to yodeling, blew the Swiss horn and tasted cheese fondue.

Sightseeing in the city of Lucerne began with a walk across a covered wooden bridge built in the 1300s. There was also time for shopping, followed by an afternoon excursion into the Swiss Alps, by way of a cable rail car to the mountain top. On Mt. Pilatus, they found snow and enjoyed a snowball fight at its highest elevation.

From Lucerne, they boarded an overnight train to Paris, sleeping in compartments made for six passengers.

Arriving in Paris in the morning they began sightseeing immediately, going to the Louvre, Eiffel Tower, Arch of Triumph and Notre Dame Cathedral; and enjoyed an evening tour of "Paris By Night" and also rode on a boat on the Seine River.

The next morning they returned to the Eiffel Tower and to its second level, and in the afternoon went to Versailles, followed by attendance at Folies Performance in the evening.

On the sixth day of their tour, they departed for London, riding a ferry boat across the English Channel. From Calais it was an hour and a half ride to Dover, seeing first the fabled "White Cliffs of Dover."

The next day they spent touring London, and viewing the Houses of Parliament, Tower of London, Tower Bridge, Big Ben, Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace and the Changing of the Guard. Shopping in London was also an interesting diversion.

A trip into the countryside outside of London took them to Oxford to see the University and then on to Stratford-on-Avon to see William Shakespeare's birthplace and Anne Hathaway's cottage. They returned to London in time to attend the theatre to see a performance of "Pump Boys and Dinettes" at the Albery Theatre. The students also went to the largest disco in London.

After nine days in Europe, they began the flight home from London. Transportation during the tour included two-decker buses, ferryboat, taxis, planes, trains and motor coaches. Meals were mostly Americanized menus, often five or seven course dinners. The students were surprised to find familiar fast-food establishments within walking distance of their hotels.

Ruth and Jodie entertain guests

Jack and Shirley Needham of San Antonio returned to their home on Monday, July 8, after visiting his mother, Mrs. Ruth Needham, for ten days. Before coming to Muenster, they were in Valentine, Nebraska for a vacation visit with Shirley's mother. Earlier, other guests with Ruth Needham and Jodie French were the latter's son and granddaughter, Billy Frank Richter and his daughter, Gina Marie, of Odessa. They came for an overnight visit after enrolling Gina at TCU where she will be a freshman.

Camping opportunities widely available

A sure sign of Spring's arrival is the spate of American families heading for weekend outings in the Great Outdoors.

More than 61 million Americans are campers, says A.C. Nielsen. Approximately 30 million do their camping in motorhomes, travel trailers, truck campers and other types of RVs, combining the adventure of outdoor life with the comforts of home, according to the Recreation Vehicle Industry Association (RVIA).

With more than 5,000 public campgrounds and 8,000 commercial campgrounds to choose from there's no shortage of good camping destinations in the U.S. Information is readily available from a number of sources.

NATIONAL PARKS - There are more than 400 national park areas, many of which have developed campgrounds. For a handy booklet titled "Camping in the National Park System," send $1.50 to the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO), Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402.

NATIONAL FORESTS - There are 154 forests covering 200 million acres. For information on camping in individual forests write to the forests' supervisors. A list of all forests is available from: Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of Information, P.O. Box 2417, Washington, D.C. 20013. For a color guide to both the national parks and forests, send 75 cents for postage and handling to RVIA, Dept. AFP, P.O. Box 2999, Reston, Va. 22090.

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS PROJECTS - Corp projects nationwide have a total of 53,000 campsites conveniently located near lakes, rivers and oceans. A list of district offices that can supply you with specific camping information is available by sending a self-addressed, stamped long envelope to U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Public Affairs Office, 20 Massachusetts Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20314.

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT RECREATION SITES - BLM oversees 280 million acres of scenic outdoor recreational sites in the Western U.S. Camping information can be obtained by writing to BLM, Public Affairs Office, 1800 C St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20240.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE SYSTEM AREAS - There are 400 national refuge areas that offer the perfect opportunity to view a large variety of birds and wildlife. For information on refuge camping, write to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Public Affairs Office, Washington, D.C. 20240.

Texas Utilities contracts for cogeneration

Texas Utilities Electric Company has signed its first firm capacity cogeneration contract. The agreement has been completed with Northern Natural Resources Company, a division of InterNorth Inc.

Under terms of the 12-year contract, the customers of Dallas Power & Light, Texas Electric Service and Texas Power & Light will receive 393,000 kilowatts of electricity from an InterNorth cogeneration facility to be built near the Gulf Coast in Texas City. That amount of power is equal to the capacity of a medium-sized generating unit, enough power to serve about 70,000 homes.

Customers will begin receiving the electricity in 1987.

"Cogeneration has become an important resource for providing reliable, economical electricity to our customers," said TUEC Board Chairman Jerry Farrington.

"Because of the rapid growth of the area we serve, we anticipate we will need to supply an additional 10 million kilowatts of electricity to our customers by 1994," he said. "According to our 10-year resource plan, about 14 percent or 1,400,000 kilowatts of that additional supply will be provided by cogeneration."

The contract with InterNorth is the first long-term contract for cogeneration to be signed by Texas Utilities Electric Company. The utility also has signed an agreement with Dow Chemical Company for 300,000 kilowatts of cogeneration from June through September to help meet summer peak customer use this year.

Cogeneration involves the simultaneous production of steam for use in industrial processes and for the generation of electricity. Construction of the InterNorth plant will begin in July 1985.

The annual Girls Day Out for Mrs. Ernie Hellman and her daughters and several friends was held Sunday, July 14. Attending the races at Louisiana Downs and joining Ernie were Mary Nell Newman, Peggy Gobble, Alice Hellman, Queenie Walterscheid, Nancy Hellman, Dee Ann Morris, Ruthie Hess and Joan Williams.

Guests of Mrs. Werner Cler and attending the Swirczynski-Yosten reunion Sunday were Ben Heiman of West Point, Neb., and Bill and Grace Tichota of Cedar Rapids, Neb. They arrived Friday and remained through Wednesday morning.

Olney Savings adds Breckenridge office

Olney Savings Association has signed an agreement to purchase First Federal Savings of Breckenridge. The announcement was made jointly by Olney Savings Chairman Alan D. Myers, Jr., and First Federal Savings Chairman Pat Thompson.

The purchase is subject to approval by state and federal authorities which is anticipated within the next three to six months.

First Federal Savings of Breckenridge originated in 1934 as a Federally Chartered Association. Their first offices were upstairs of what is now Thurman Furniture Company. In 1952, First Federal moved to office space in the Burch Hotel and remained there until 1972 when they relocated to their current location on Walker and Breckenridge Avenue.

Conversion from a mutual to a stock association was completed in 1981. First Federal's total assets are now at $17 million.

There will be no changes in personnel according to Myers and Brady Tennison, First Federal Savings' president and chief executive officer.

In making the announcement, Myers commented, "Olney Savings has been doing business in and around the Breckenridge area for over 40 years. This area is very special to us. We are looking forward to becoming a more active citizen of this community."

Olney Savings is a $920 million savings and loan association with 31 offices throughout Texas.

Family honors Lawrence Wimmer

Lawrence Wimmer's July 5th birthday was observed with a family party and hamburger supper on Saturday, July 6, when his son and daughter-in-law, Tim and Eunice Wimmer, entertained in their home in Lindsay.

Attending with the hosts and honoree and his wife, Irene, were Carol and Tom Gressett of Carrollton, Ray and Kay Wimmer and family, Willie and Margie Wimmer and family, Ruth and Frank Hess and family all of Muenster. Laurie and Tom Valliere of The Colony were unable to attend. All grandchildren except two were present.

Games horseshoe, family visiting and picture taking added to the evening's entertainment.

Jesse Walterscheid wins Ranger tickets

"Who's On First?" What fun it was to watch those fine old comedians Abbott and Costello when they went through that routine! What excitement they created!

congratulations from The Dairy Inn.

The recent Who's on First Meal Ticket Game at The Dairy Inn created its own excitement too. Winners got prizes and congratulations and losers got another game to play. In a second drawing more than 2,000 tickets were entered, and the big winner was Jesse Walterscheid whose prize was four free Texas Ranger tickets, with special Lump sum distribution without taking any lumps from Uncle Sam.

If you're scheduled to receive a lump sum distribution from a pension or profit-sharing plan where you work, you can easily set up an IRA Rollover with these funds. If you do, you can avoid paying taxes on this distribution until you retire. Call me today for complete details.

Players invited for ladies softball

"Ladies oldies" softball teams for gals aged 18-up are about to be organized for the balance of this summer if sufficient interest shows up. Starting date is set for Aug. 6 and sign-up deadline is dated for July 31. Ladies wishing to participate are asked to contact Sharon or Cootie at Tops & Teams, 759-2540.

Let's Twist Again Like We Did Last Summer.

When temperatures hit their peak, so do your electric bills. The reason is air conditioning, the single biggest user of electricity in the average home.

But last year, we learned to save by twisting our thermostats to 78°.

This summer, 78° should be an even more popular number because temperatures are expected to be as hot or hotter than the summer of 1984.

If you'd like to ease the impact on your electric bills, twist again. Turn your thermostat up to 78°. And while your air conditioning is doing a little less, you can help by doing a little more.

By using ventilated awnings, drapes and other shading devices to keep the sun's rays out. And by waiting until the cooler part of the day to use heat producing appliances like your stove and clothes dryer.

Let's face it. You may not be quite as comfortable as in summers past. But you can take comfort in the fact that you'll be saving money.

How much? More than you might think. Because even during the peak temperatures of summer, the biggest influence on your electric bill is how much you elect to use.

Rosston News

by Ruth Smith

An old-time gospel singing will be held at the Forestburg Baptist Church Sunday, July 21, at 6 p.m. The event will be co-sponsored by the Forestburg United Methodist Church, the Prairie Point Church of the Nazarene, and the Rosston Baptist Church. There will be various groups and individuals singing special music, along with an abundance of congregational singing. The services will be followed by refreshments of Kool-Aid and punch, cookies and cake, and good fellowship in the parsonage yard of the Church of the Nazarene in Forestburg. The public is invited to participate. Anyone desiring to share special music is most welcome.

Mrs. Evelyn Brown had as her guest from Tuesday to Friday her sister, Mrs. Addie Slater of Amarillo. They visited cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Young, at Greenwood Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ima King of Bowie visited Miss Lois Bewley, Clyde and Lonnie Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Della Maberry was a Gainesville visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Inez Stevens and Mrs. Mary Ruth Kindiger visited Eddie, Treason, Josh and Casey Kindiger, then motored over for a visit with Mrs. Mary Jo West and family at Gainesville Saturday.

Mrs. Gladys Balthrop and Mrs. Anna Kirk were Denton visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Ewing went to Gainesville Friday where they visited her sister, Mrs. Addie Van Winkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanson had as their guests Saturday, July 13, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Penton of Issaquah, Washington, William Penton of Paris, Mrs. Carol Broussard and family of Montague, Jim Call and family of Gainesville, Ed and Nannie Bonner and Mrs. Louise Shults of Forestburg, and Orville and Paula Morford. There was a birthday party in the afternoon honoring the Hansons' granddaughter, Anne Call, on her fourth birthday. Cake and ice cream were served.

Mrs. Bobbie Dill and Mrs. Ellen Berry were Gainesville visitors Tuesday.

John Fletcher of Amarillo spent last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Cook. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee McKown of Dallas, who also visited their son, Dr. Jerry McKown, and family of Valley View.

Ellis and Jo Stofel of Tioga, Charles and Beverly Fleitman of Gainesville, J.Y. and Agnes Brandon visited Miss Lois Bewley, Clyde and Lonnie Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Ruth Kindiger and Mrs. Inez Stevens went to Fort Worth Sunday where they had lunch with Mrs. Ruth Ann McKinney.

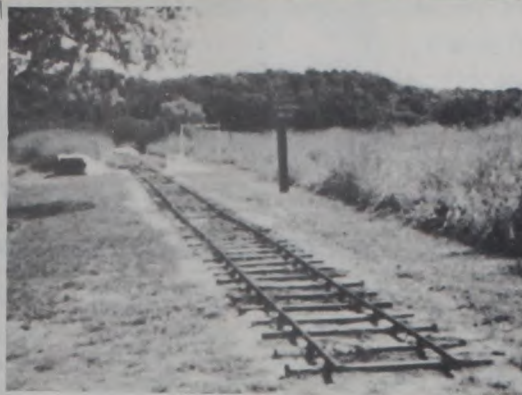

Mrs. Gladys Balthrop and Mrs. Anna Kirk were in Decatur on business Monday.

Mrs. Odessa Berry and Mrs. Faye McKown of Dallas visited Mrs. Vergie Fennel in Gainesville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Martin visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyton Coursey Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Cook had as their guests Sunday their son, Fred Cook, and granddaughter, Allison, of Rockwall. Allison will spend this week with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Robinson of Forestburg visited Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Martin Saturday afternoon.

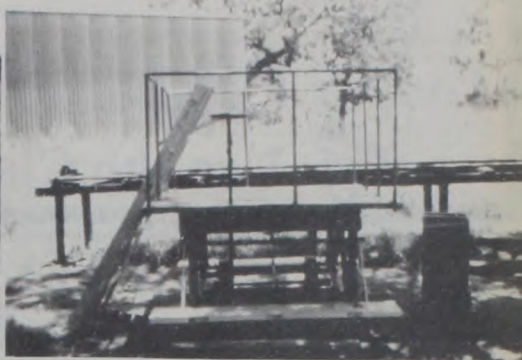

Open air trolley is feature of Sam Bass Pioneer Day

Something different, in fact the only one of its kind anywhere, will be the open-air trolley operated as a new attraction at Rosston's Sam Bass Pioneer Day festival Saturday.

It's a creation by Jim Penton who verifies that the track with two-foot spacing between rails is the only one of that measure in the U.S. The track is 150 feet long and the vehicle rolling on it consists of a framework with wheels, a platform and surrounding rail and the identifying sign "Open Air Trolley." Penton's principal assistants on the project were Cecil Raney, Allen Reiter and Wilbur DeBorde.

He says friends and neighbors have been kidding about his crazy idea but he simply replies "that's what they said about Columbus." Jim has spent about six months of spare time on the project.

The trolley will be powered by a horse or mule and a ride will be 300 feet long. After reaching the end of the 150-foot track, the animal is unhitched from one end and hitched to the other end for the return ride. The trip will take about five minutes and will cost 25 cents for adult or child. Capacity will be four adults or up to 12 kids, depending on their size.

And Jim will be the one-man operator, meaning selling tickets, driving the animal and changing it from one end of the trolley to another.

Forestburg News

by Myrt Denham

The date for the annual Forestburg Watermelon Festival has been set for the weekend of Aug. 23 and 24. So, mark the date on your calendar and make your plans to attend. More information about this event will be forthcoming. Therefore, keep your "eyes peeled" for it.

On Thursday, July 11, Dolly Orrell finished work for her masters degree in Education in the Special Education Field. The professional paper she wrote was on her original idea and was approved by her committee. The topic was "Color Coding Directions for Learning-Disabled Students." Dolly uses this with her students. Regular graduation exercises will be in August in which Dolly will participate.

The second get-together of the Ladies Luncheon took place Thursday, July 11, from 10 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. in the old Community Center. It was a real fun time for all with everyone just enjoying visiting with friends, neighbors and making new friends plus having lunch together. The next Ladies Luncheon will be on Thursday, Aug. 8, at the same time and place. Everyone is invited (ladies, that is), so do mark your calendars and be sure to attend. Ladies enjoying the luncheon last time were: Mmes. Betty Jo Cook, Loveta Bewley, Mary Etta Foster, Imogene Links, Clara Reynolds, May Huckabay, Cleo Lanier, Eula Fay Glamor, Alice Burchard, Marion Sockwell, Veda Brogdon, Carrie Walterscheid, Caruth Christman, Juanita Bailey, Bobbie Wylie, Myrt Denham, Shirley Lanier, Christine Cook and Christine Patterson.

Shirley, Olita and Cleo Lanier attended an Estate Planning Meeting in Bowie Tuesday night, July 9.

Mrs. Bonita Gresham, Chris Gresham's mother, is in Fort Worth Medical Center after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Sockwell of Florence, Alabama visited with Marion and Howard Sockwell July 2 to July 7.

There is to be a Kuykendall family reunion at Pelham Park in Bowie Saturday, July 20. Bring sandwiches and something to drink.

Linas Boggess and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Reaves visited with the Barney Brogdons Wednesday, July 10.

Beth Dill and Liz Johnson spent last week taking sons, Keith and Kody Dill and Garrett and Lance Johnson, to swimming lessons in Muenster.

Louise Shults attended funeral services for Victor Penton on Thursday, July 11, in Sherman. Victor was Lyndell Richardson's youngest brother.

Ted and Laura Belle Jackson spent Thursday morning in Decatur on business and visited with their son Bill and wife. Thursday evening they went shopping in Dallas with the S.T. Warfords of Slidell.

Mrs. Peggy Holland, sons Kendall and Brent, made it to Denton Tuesday, July 9, where Kendall and Brent spent the night with Osama Rashid and Peggy was the guest of daughter, Christy Rashid. At 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, Kendall entered Westgate Hospital for nose surgery. Peggy spent Wednesday night with Kendall, Brent returned home with his dad, Kenneth. Right after noon on Thursday, Peggy and Kendall returned home.

Visitors with the Hollands on Friday were Mrs. Eva Crayton of Montague and Shana Mueggel of the 'Burg. On Sunday, Kendall's sister, Christy Rashid of Denton, spent the day and Brent returned to Denton with her. He will visit with Osama Rashid for a while.

Perryman Denham visited with his mother, Mrs. Joe Denham, in Bowie Friday.

Jack and Jewell Dill were in Era Friday night visiting his mother, Mrs. Beulah Dill.

Caton Orrell of Denton spent Thursday night with his grandparents, the Barney Brogdons, after visiting with his other granddad, Willie Orrell. Caton's brother, Hannan, also of Denton, came by on Friday to pick him up and visited with the Brogdons.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long of Dallas spent the day with the Brogdons. Mrs. Long is the Brogdons daughter (Margie). Veda says the Longs recently moved to Dallas from Denton since they both work in Big D.

Miss Jackie Farrell and her friend, Sharon Aarondale of Kilgore Jr. College, spent the past weekend with Jackie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Farrell of Scott. Sharon is from Caracas, Venezuela, although she is an American. She was raised in Venezuela where her parents live and work. She and Jackie have become good friends at college.

Mrs. Ettie Smith and Mrs. Lois Hall of Sunset visited with Cleo Lanier Saturday morning.

Kenneth and Charlene Woods motored to Austin Saturday to take grandson Andy Martin home, and returned here Sunday night.

Mrs. Merle Rosson of Ira spent most of Saturday afternoon, July 13, visiting her sister, Emma Steadham.

Brian Davis, grandson of Mrs. Imogene Links, is now living in Stephenville, where he is the assistant agriculture agent.

Keith Rogers and two of his friends, all of Denton, spent Friday and Saturday with Howard and Marion Sockwell. Marion celebrated one more birthday Saturday, July 13. She says they celebrated it by having lunch at the Golden Corral in Bowie. Many more happy returns of the day, Marion.

The descendants of the late J.W. Landers had their family reunion this past Saturday and Sunday at the new Community Center with 118 people attending.

Visitors with Wanda Perryman Saturday afternoon were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Christine Box, Tony, Cathy and Tonya Liebel and Carla and Bridgett Hoestee, all of Hart.

Seems that most of the real action in the 'Burg takes place at Dill's Station and Garage. There is always some kind of "milling and brewing" going on there. The menfolk meet up there and have their various discussions on cattle, hay, watermelons, weather, work and politics. 'Tis a shame these gents don't have a little meeting place where they can gather for coffee, talking and to settle the world's problems.

Vera Mae McGee was honored with a surprise birthday party Sunday, July 14, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edna Merle Hill. All of Vera Mae's children but Mayo were present. There were 34 folks attending.

Might add here that Vera Mae is much, much better these days, and we are all so very thankful.

Dude and Bula Mae Berry made it over to Chico Sunday afternoon to attend a housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Gail Rackley. He is Bula Mae's nephew.

Millie Reynolds reports that some friends of theirs, a Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie of Nocona, visited them Wednesday, July 10. Then on Thursday, she and W.T. plus Wanda Perryman went to Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Irene Harry, mother of Merle Hudspeth, entered Westgate Hospital in Denton Monday, July 15.

THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF COOKE NOTICE OF EXECUTION SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

By virtue of an execution issued out of the District Court of Cooke County, Texas, on a Judgment rendered in the 235th District Court of Cooke County, Texas on the 5th day of March, 1984, in favor of James R. Owen against C.H. Tucker, in Cause No. 83-824, styled James R. Owen vs. C.H. Tucker, on the 9th day of July, 1985, I levered upon the following described property situated in Cooke County, Texas, as the property of C. H. Tucker, viz:

Lots One (1), Two (2), and Three (3) in Block No. Nine (9) in the Robinson Addition of the Town of Aldridge (Myra), Texas.

On the 13th day of August, 1985, which is the second Tuesday following the legal publication of the Notice for three consecutive weeks, between 10:00 o'clock a.m. and 4 o'clock p.m. at the Courthouse of Cooke County, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash, all right, title and interest of C. H. Tucker in and to the above described property. Dated this 11th day of July, 1985.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my friends and relatives for their care and concern while I was in the hospital. Your prayers, flowers, cards and gifts, are deeply appreciated. Special thanks go to Dr. Knight and Kralick for their care, and to Father Denis and Victor for their visits and prayers, and to Craig and Grandma Sis for all their extra time and help. My family joins me in thanking all of you too.

God Bless You

"Clear Title" legislation added to bill

"Clear Title" legislation, introduced by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm, unanimously passed the House Agriculture Committee Wednesday, July 10, as part of the 1985 farm bill.

The legislation will provide greater protection for purchasers of agricultural products. Under the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), a farm products buyer is not afforded the same protection granted to a buyer of other products. Subsequently, a farm products purchaser can actually be forced to pay twice for the same commodities. If a buyer purchases mortgaged products, and the seller defaults on his lien obligation, the seller's lender can hold the buyer responsible, whether or not he knew of the lien's existence.

"This bill corrects the inequity in this law by removing the agricultural products exception but still provides a mechanism through which lenders can protect their security interests," Congressman Stenholm said.

Under Stenholm's legislation, a farm products buyer will take title to farm products free of any encumbrances, unless he has received written notice from a lender of his interest in an individual's production within one year prior to that purchase.

County Agent's Report

Soybean hay and other legume hays make excellent, high quality cow feed. And in a good year they can produce quite a lot of tonnage. There are several management techniques associated with soybean hay however.

One question that comes up is when do I cut soybeans for hay? For the answer to this I visited with several men who have been raising this type of hay for years. Arnold Fuhrmann, Paul Fuhrmann and Eddie Fuhrmann, who live north of Lindsay, have had good results in the past. They all say to watch the plant and when the lower leaves begin to turn yellow and start to die and this progresses up the plant, then is the time to cut. This can really happen at any time of the growing season due to moisture conditions.

Another element to watch for in cutting soybeans is the presence of blister beetles. In the past we knew there were severe toxicity problems when horses consumed blister beetles. But, work at the toxicology lab at Texas A&M now shows that blister beetle poisoning can be as toxic to cattle as horses. Watch for blister beetles occurring later in summer and when legumes bloom. Your yellow blossom buffalo burrs also attract these beetles.

Like most legumes, bale soybeans at the evening and night when they are tough. Feed them in bunks or troughs due to the shattering of leaves. Thurman Ward, at the Sivells Bend Community, uses soybean hay to grind with his oat and barley feed mixture. The bean hay adds bulk and still maintains protein and energy content of his concentrate.

How good is soybean hay? Well, this past year during the Cooke County Hay Show we tested six samples and the average protein was 13.5 percent. Production is good in wet years and increases with early planting for forage production.

Requirements listed

Lynn Goerke has passed along the requirements just issued for participation in the 1986 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Calf Scrambles. Goerke will be determining the number of 4-H'ers (boys and girls) who participate in either the beef or dairy calf scrambles at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Persons interested in participating should contact Goerke at 665-4931.

SCRAMBLE REQUIREMENTS

Participants must have reached their 12th birthday, but not their 18th birthday, on Jan. 1, 1986, and not be enrolled beyond their junior year in high school.

Participant's maximum weight should not be less than 100 pounds, and they shall be in top physical condition.

4-H'ers catching a calf can buy either a beef or dairy heifer of their choice.

ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

Does 4-H'er have suitable facility to care for and develop a heifer?

Does 4-H'er have desire to own and show a registered heifer?

Will 4-H'er still be in high school next year (1987) and be eligible to compete in a junior show?

Forestburg News

W.T. Reynolds also celebrated one more birthday Sunday, the 14th. We just might ought to call W.T. "The Popcorn Kid" as his nephew, Rex Reynolds of Houston, sent him a big can of popcorn. Mrs. Joe Denham was a guest in the Reynolds' home for a few days starting Sunday.

Perryman and yours truly were very pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon with a "pop visit" from Gladys Barclay, which was followed by one from Dude and Bula Mae Berry. Now I know why he is called "Dude" as he sure was "duded up" Sunday. He just looked mighty sharp.

Chad Hudspeth, Ricky Landers and Martin Jackson left Monday, July 15, for the Baptist Camp at Brownwood. They will return home Friday.

Don't want to forget Mrs. Minnie Sirman as she also celebrated another birthday July 14. We also wish her many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McClure and Mr. and Mrs. Israel Salinas have returned home after visiting relatives in Portersville, California.

Dick and Helen Ellzey of Lake Charles, La. brought Dick's mother, Decie, home Tuesday, July 9, staying until Sunday. Decie's daughter-in-law, Avalee Ellzey, and granddaughter of Odessa are here now with Decie and will spend two weeks with her.

There was a birthday party Saturday, July 13, in the home of Mike and Lesa Bentley of Gainesville for their daughter, Amy Ray. Amy will be two years old July 16. Cake and punch were served to Amy's Grandma and Grandpa Bentley, Grandma Sue Shults, Great-Grandmother Lucille Frank, Great-Aunt Estelle Stevens, Great-Uncle Boyd Franks, Great-Uncle W.F. Conway and Great-Aunt Jenny Conway, cousin Krista Shults, Uncle Chick and Aunt Meredith Bentley and Robert, John, Nancy, Braydon and Joyce Dunn, Patty, Jesse and Carmen Scott, Nella and Weldon Hataway, Melinda and Dustee Dieter and Hazel Greenwood. Jenny Conway was also surprised with a birthday cake, as she celebrates her birthday on July 17.

Is 4-H'er the type of individual who will devote his/her attention to the task in order to take a good heifer to the 1987 show?

Are parents willing to support son/daughter in this activity?

Will 4-H'er be conscientious in submitting regular monthly reports to the show and to his/her sponsor?

Any 4-H'er who has previously won a calf in either scramble, dairy or livestock judging contests, is ineligible to participate in the 1986 Calf Scramble.

Interested 4-H'ers must contact the County Extension Office by Sept. 1, 1985 in order to be in consideration for competition in the upcoming 1986 Scramble.
