Jaycees make final banquet preparations

Muenster Jaycees are making final preparations to welcome the 1986 Outstanding Citizen and recognize his or her contributions to this community. The selection is made from many worthy suggestions by area residents, and narrowed down to one by a Jaycee selection committee.

The occasion will be marked by recognition of the year's outstanding Jaycees and installation of new officers and directors for the coming year. The Jaycees hope for a large turnout of local supporters to show their recognition of the award winners and enjoy the banquet and dance.

For a price of $10.00 per couple, you can attend the complete evening. The dance afterward will be open to the public for $5.00 per couple. All the activities will take place at the Muenster VFW Hall starting at 6 p.m. Saturday, May 31. Dance music will be provided by Mike Otts. For more information, call 759-4343.

Reception honors pastors

A large group of Sacred Heart parishioners, joined by relatives and friends, gathered in the Sacred Heart Community Center Monday night for a reception sponsored by the Social Activities Commission to observe the 30th anniversary of the ordination of Father Denis Soerries and Father Victor Gillespie. Chuck Bartush Jr. was the master of ceremonies.

Both priests were ordained on May 26, 1956, by Bishop Albert Fletcher of Little Rock. Both are natives of Arkansas and members of the Benedictine Abbey at Subiaco, Ark., and they share the honor of being named Citizen of the Year by Muenster Jaycees in 1985.

Father Denis was born at Hartman, Ark., Feb. 18, 1931, a son of Alex Soerries, now deceased, and Mrs. Soerries. He has six brothers and two sisters, all living.

After his early education at Sacred Heart School in Hartman, he attended Subiaco Academy, 1945-49, and Subiaco College and Seminary, 1949-53. Since then he attended St. Louis University, Notre Dame, TCU and Memphis State University. He has an AB degree from Subiaco and an MA from Notre Dame.

Assignments since ordination have been at Laneri High, Fort Assignments since ordination have been at Laneri, Fort Worth, 1958; Subiaco, 1958-82; and has been assistant pastor here since June 1982.

Wagon train coming

The Texas Sesquicentennial Wagon Train will arrive in Muenster on June 19. The Muenster Sesquicentennial Committee is asking the community to respond with a big "Willkommen" for the visitors.

The Wagon Train will have completed five and one-half months of its six-month journey. This living exhibit of western heritage will have traveled almost 3,000 miles when it reaches Muenster.

Monica Hess, Chairwoman of the Sesquicentennial Committee, announced plans for a real "German" welcome. The Jaycees are preparing an ethnic meal of sausage and all the goodies that go with it to be sold to visitors coming to see the Wagon Train. Jerry Oz, accordionist, will be here to play polkas and to entertain with his group. Jerry was at Germanfest on Friday night and was enthusiastically received. Also on tap for entertainment is a "teaser" by the Butterfield Stage Players of Gainesville. They will give a sample of what may be seen on Friday or Saturday at their presentation of "Curse You, Jack Dalton." Plans for other entertainment are pending at this time.

The Wagon Train has invited all other states in the Union to send a representative wagon or rider to travel with them. The Honorary State Wagon Master is Walt Garrison with Honorary Assistant Wagon Masters, Billy Bob Barrett, Tom Landry, Gib Lewis and Glen Courson. The Wagon Train is an opportunity for residents to see a bit of history in action.

Memorial honors deceased veterans

Deceased war veterans of the community were remembered Sunday in the annual memorial service sponsored by the Muenster VFW Post 6205 and the VFW Ladies Auxiliary.

The address was delivered by Robert Speakes, life member of the Gainesville VFW Post and state commander of the VFW in 1978 and 1979. He quoted at length from an address by John A. Logan, general of the U.S. Army and later the national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. It was a message of appreciation and praise to the men who serve their country in time of war, especially the dead and injured.

The memorial was held after the 7 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church, at which Father Denis was celebrant. Also prayers of the faithful were read by Auxiliary Conductress Linda Knabe and offertory gifts were presented by the post's rifle squad. Auxiliary President Frances Bayer and Organist Tony Luke were song leaders.

It was headed by the Post's color bearers and honor guard directed by Arthur Bayer through an avenue of flags. Other members of the parish, including children of the communion class, attended.

First stop in the cemetery was the crucifixion monument where Auxiliary Chaplain Flora Mae Knabe placed a wreath and Father Denis Soerries led prayers for all deceased of the parish.

At the veterans' area, Auxiliary President Frances Bayer and Junior Vice President Josephine Schilling placed wreaths and Buddy Poppies in front of the monument. First Communicants placed long-stemmed carnations on individual graves. Father Denis again led the prayer and Post Commander Virgil Hess read a "Prayer for America" and introduced the speaker.

The speech was followed by a three-volley rifle salute by the rifle squad and taps by Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Weinzapfel. Special for the ceremony were corsages and boutonnières for gold star parents from the Auxiliary. The gold star parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer, J.M. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Theresa Moser. A special visitor was Past Department Commander Andy Stelzer.

Members of the color guard and rifle squad were Earl Hess, Leo Becker, Herbert Yosten, Bernard Hesse, Meinrad Yosten, David Fisher, Pat Knabe, Dink Hudspeth, Don Hellman, Willie Fisher, Don Fisher and Arthur Bayer, conducting.

Flag bearers were Eleanor Felderhoff, Juanita Knabe, Magdalen Yosten, Laujuana Klement, Julia Cunningham, Hilda Sicking and Linda Knabe, conducting.

First communicants were Toby Hess, Mary Knabe, Scott Poole, Jake McCoy, Carrie Hess, Karrie Endres, Heath Bayer, Andrea Klement and C.J. Muller.

At a Post supper Sunday night, Virgil Hess and Frances Bayer thanked all memorial participants. Robert Speake and Andy Stelzer also praised and commented. And Virgil Hess announced that on April 26, 1946, the Post received the first perpetual charter in Texas and named the charter members.

Baccalaureate message stresses joy of living

Seniors of Muenster High School were reminded Sunday night that the first ingredient of success is happiness.

Father Victor Gillespie, speaking at their baccalaureate service, told them that while involved in the great challenges of modern times, such as the nuclear threat and social and industrial problems, they should not forget to enjoy life.

He pointed out, however, that happiness is not the goal to seek. Rather it is the result, the reward, of devotion to duty and doing a job well. He named St. Francis and Jesus as persons who enjoyed great happiness while doing God's will and helping others.

The speaker summarized by stating that the primary aim in achieving a joyful life is to aim first for duty and service, and the other blessing will follow.

Other parts of the baccalaureate program were the processional and recessional by Barbara Robison, the invocation by Tammie Reiter and the benediction by Deann Walterscheid.

Grads to get diplomas Friday

The grand finale of graduation will be the commencement exercise Friday, May 30, 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Dr. Luther Bud Joyner of Cooke County College will be the speaker and D.J. Hellman, school board president, assisted by E.R. Griffin, principal, will present diplomas and awards.

Charles Coffey, superintendent, will introduce the speaker, Jean Pagel will give the valedictory; Francine Hudspeth the salutatory; Harold Bindel, school board vice-president, the invocation; Dennis Hess, school board secretary, the benediction; and Barbara Robison the processional and recessional.

RECENT GOOD WEATHER, after the rains, have allowed Gary Fetsch, pictured here, and many other farmers into the fields. The grain trucks, however, had to stay on the firmer ground on the other side of the fence. See more pictures on Page 11.

Harvest is critical

The community's wheat harvest appears to be at the critical stage. It needs favorable weather in a hurry to stop the deterioration and salvage what is left of a poor crop.

Both local grain dealers say they had their last deliveries last Friday. At that time, combines were just returning to work after rain earlier in the week. And the situation was encouraging as cutting conditions were getting better and tests were up to 60. Then rain returned Saturday morning and Monday night. The best hope now is for a return to work Wednesday and the weekend.

If that happens, the situation still is not good. Grain quality continues to decline as kernels shrivel. After Friday's test of 60, the next deliveries are expected to drop to 58.

And there are other problems. Combine travel is difficult on the wet ground. Besides, weeds are thriving and damage the moisture content as they go through the threshing process with the wheat. Meanwhile, price has dropped. From $2.60 at the start of the season, it's down to $2.35 per bushel. That's for hard wheat. Soft wheat is $2.25.

Considering all, the crop started at below normal and it keeps getting worse. Much of it already rates as a crop failure, and will be left in the field unless ideal weather comes to the rescue very soon.

At press time, about midafternoon Wednesday, some combines were reported operating, when sunny skies gave a chance for improvement and before unfavorable weather dealt another blow.

Good News!

...Asa did what was good and pleasing to the Lord, his God, removing the heathen altars and the high places, breaking to pieces the sacred pillars, and cutting down the sacred poles. He commanded Judah to seek the Lord, the God of their fathers, and to observe the law and its commands. He removed the high places and incense stands from all the cities of Judah, and under him the kingdom had peace.

Master of Ceremonies Chuck Bartush Jr. welcomed guests and recognized fellow members of the social activities commission. Both priests spoke after dinner, and the assembly sang "Have We Told You Lately That We Love You?" Ruth Felderhoff was accompanist and Christi Klement was song leader for other songs, also. A special table held two silver trays, where parishioners placed monetary gifts for the two honored priests.

Letters to the Editor

To the Voters of Precinct 4,

I ask for your confidence and support in the Cooke County Commissioner of Precinct 4 runoff election on June 7.

I believe that my experience working for AMPI for 31 years in management of men, budgets and equipment and my six years as a member of the MISD School Board where I worked with budgets and the county tax situations, make me very qualified to get the job done. I am familiar with the tax situations of our county and will do everything I can to hold taxes down, and get the most for the tax dollar for the people of Cooke County.

I believe in a strong EMS and local fire departments. I will work as far as the law allows to have a good working relationship with these and see that Muenster's location is manned at all times if possible. I hope to work closely with the City of Muenster, and the other cities of this precinct to get the job done.

I have tried to run a clean campaign, but in the last few weeks I have been the target of some untruth concerning my job with AMPI. I had a good working relationship with AMPI and chose to retire after 31 years of service last June. Anyone wanting to check my records may call AMPI in Arlington, 1-800-792-2984, Ext. 15.

My opponent worked for Cooke County PCT. 4 for four years, National Supply, Powell Oil Co., and Southland Paint Co. Please check his record also. When you have all the facts, make your choice and VOTE on June 7.

I have not personally worked on the roads but we have a good crew here at Precinct 4 and 75 percent are behind me. This will lead to a good working relationship to do a good job for Precinct 4. I am in good health and mature enough to get the job done.

Thank you,
/s/ Gerald Walterscheid

Dear Editor:

The two candidates in the Republican runoff for Lieutenant Governor are David Davidson and Aaron Bullock. I am familiar with David Davidson and his stand on issues, but Mr. Bullock has remained a complete mystery. I can't find anything about him, except that he is a black lawyer from Kingswood. I would like to know what kind of a Republican he is. Where does he stand on issues like education and tax reforms - issues in which the Lieutenant Governor is very influential. So far he has been running on his last name. The fact that he has the same last name as the State Comptroller is hardly a platform, and is an irresponsible way to try to win a public office.

Sincerely,
/s/ Mary Gay Caven

Texas Youth In Action Conference set for July 17-20

Texans' War on Drugs (TWOD) announces the first annual TEXAS YOUTH IN ACTION conference for young people in drug abuse prevention at Southwestern University in Georgetown, July 17-20, 1986. The conference will attract hundreds of students and adult sponsors from across the state who want to learn more about drug abuse prevention and how they can get involved.

The four-day conference, at a cost of $75 per person, will help young people develop leadership and decision-making skills, educate them about the dangers of drugs, and at the same time show that kids can have fun and say "no" to drugs and alcohol. Guest speakers include University of Texas women's basketball coach Jody Conradt and Dr. Ian Mac Donald, administrator of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration in Washington, D.C.

Round Rock senior, Bobby Heard, attended the TWOD youth leadership conference last October in Austin. "It's so neat to meet other kids who feel the same way you do. We really can make a difference in helping our peers say no to drugs."

The focus of Texas Youth in Action (TYIA) is positive peer pressure, that is helping kids feel good about a decision to say no to drugs and alcohol. "Kids have such a profound influence on each others' lives. The programs we promote help them realize that," said Amy Croxton, youth coordinator of TWOD and president of the board of TYIA. The theme of the event is "Makin' A Difference." Students not only make a difference in others' lives, they develop leadership skills and responsibility. "They are willing and eager to set themselves up as positive role models for younger kids, especially," said Croxton.

The conference registration deadline is June 13 and is open to students entering seventh through twelfth grades. For information, call 512-459-4365.

WHERE OTHERS HAVE THEIR BRANCHES, WE HAVE OUR ROOTS.

Today's banking picture leaves a lot to be desired. The big financial networks have branches everywhere. The home office dictates policies for everyone... which means the real decision makers are often hundreds of miles away. While you're looking for personal service... big banks' employees are climbing the corporate ladder. Their main concern? Personal success.

At our Independent Bank things are different. We have our roots firmly planted in the community we serve. When you need to see a decision maker, you see a neighbor who's responsive to the local economic climate and has the responsibility for making your money work here... in our community.

If your bank gives you the feeling you're out on a limb... maybe it's time to bank the Independent Way.

CCC offers summer school

GAINESVILLE - With registration set for Monday, June 2, it's still not too late to get enrolled in the first session of summer school at Cooke County College.

Classes for the first of the two six-week summer sessions will begin Tuesday, June 3, and run through July 8. Latecomers may also register for classes on Tuesday.

"Summer school is a great way to earn up to 12 hours of college credit in a short time," says CCC dean of instruction Whitten Williams. "Two three-hour courses can be completed during each of the six-week sessions, whereas a regular fall or spring semester lasts about 16 weeks.

"Obviously, of course, this means that classes must meet longer and more frequently in the summer - in most cases four times a week, Monday through Thursday, for about two hours each time."

Williams says summer school at CCC also offers some big advantages for recent high school graduates and others in the local area who may be headed for a senior college or university in the fall.

Williams adds that students who think they may need some extra help and individualized attention in important basic level courses like math, English and foreign language can do themselves a real favor by taking those courses at CCC before transferring to a bigger school.

"But don't be misled," says Bill Caver, CCC director of counseling. "This certainly shouldn't be taken to mean that these courses at CCC are 'easier' or less demanding.

"It simply means that a student's chances for academic success - for really learning and understanding the material - are much greater in smaller classes led by an experienced, thoroughly qualified teacher who knows your name and has time to work with you individually both in and out of the classroom."

Caver points out that getting enrolled in summer school at CCC is simple and easy. All that's required, basically, is completing an application for admission form, and, except for those who've been out of school five years or more, a copy of the applicant's high school or other college transcript.

For more information, contact the CCC Registrar's Office at 817/668-7731, Ext. 240.

New western entertainment center set for preview in Fort Worth June 1

FORT WORTH - Renovated Cowtown Coliseum, a state and national landmark that is the home of the world's first indoor rodeo and stage for performers ranging from tenor Enrico Caruso to shaker Elvis Presley, will be rededicated in a Western-style ceremony June 1.

Located in the heart of the Fort Worth Stockyards National Historic District, the 2,500-seat, city-owned Coliseum has been restored to its near-original appearance and will once again host Wild West shows, the finest in livestock, rodeo and special events, and musical entertainment.

The June 1 dedication marks the beginning of a month and a half of special activities in the Stockyards, including the arrival of the Texas Sesquicentennial Wagon Train on July 3, followed by the official grand opening weekend of July 10-13, the first phase of what will eventually be a $100 million redevelopment project in the Stockyards.

The redevelopment is being undertaken by Stockyards 85, a Fort Worth development company.

Funding of Phase I includes $33 million from Stockyards 85 and $5 million in federal and city monies.

Stockyards 85 has focused on restoring the Stockyards area as an authentic slice of the Old West in a safe, family-oriented setting.

"The Stockyards project is an example of public and private efforts working together for a common goal - a better Fort Worth," said Councilman Louis Zapata, whose district includes the Stockyards area.

A second phase of redevelopment, proposed to begin in mid-1986, will add a major arena facility and convert 180,000 square feet of horse and mule barns into retail and restaurant space. This will bring the total private investment in the Stockyards area to more than $100 million and attract 2.5 million visitors a year.

"Our goal is to make the Fort Worth Stockyards a destination for the finest in Western entertainment, music, shopping and dining," said Billy Bob Barnett, chairman of Stockyards 85.

Several hundred dignitaries, historians, public officials and citizens who have helped make the renovation a reality are being invited to attend the ceremonies.

The 2 p.m. June 1 dedication will include the unveiling of a state historical marker and a preview of a Wild West Show planned to premiere in the Coliseum June 11. Following the ceremonies, the Coliseum will be open to the public for self-guided tours.

Outside, visitors can enjoy a sneak preview of other elements of the Phase I development that are scheduled to open mid-June through July 10. These include:

- Rodeo Plaza, an outdoor pedestrian walkway immediately west of the Coliseum. The Plaza will feature daily Western parades, trick roping exhibitions, stagecoaches, puppet shows, wagons, "gunfights" and music.
- The 56,000-square-foot Exhibit Building, restored as retail space and featuring quality Western wear and Western goods, children's activities, an arcade and beverage and dining facilities.

Adjacent to the Coliseum, Billy Bob's Texas, the world's largest honky-tonk, is being remodeled to provide a better view of the stage, better lighting and state-of-the-art sound system.

Twenty-eight acres of high-security, landscaped parking have been added north of Billy Bob's.

Built in 1908 as the home of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, the mission-style Cowtown Coliseum has been restored to its original appearance and use.

"We've tried to make the Coliseum look exactly like it did in 1908, with the exception of some interior remodeling to add modern conveniences and space needs," said project architect Ward Bogard Jr. of Ward Bogard & Associates. General contractor on the renovation project was the DeMoss Company of Fort Worth.

The Coliseum was recognized as a state archaeological landmark in 1983 by the Texas Historical Commission Antiquities Committee. The $3 million restoration project was funded through city bond monies. The facility is being operated and managed by the Stockyard 85 partnership on a long-term lease.

Perhaps most important for hot Texas summers and cold winters is the addition of a central air conditioning and heating system that will enable the facility to be used year-round.

The Coliseum's construction in 1908 gave livestock exhibitors their first home for the annual Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. The $200,000 building cost was borne by the Swift and Armour packing companies and the Fort Worth Stockyards Company, which owned the property. The Stock Show was held at the Coliseum for 34 years before moving to Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in 1944.

Rohmers celebrate 40th anniversary

ARNOLD and IMELDA ROHMER
... married April 24, 1946 ...

A Mass of Thanksgiving on Saturday, May 17, at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church and a reception hosted by their children in the Knights of Columbus Hall celebrated the wedding anniversary of Arnold and Imelda Rohmer as they observed 40 years of marriage.

Arnold Rohmer, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohmer, and the former Imelda Felderhoff, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felderhoff, were married on April 24, 1946 in Sacred Heart Church. Members of their wedding party were maid of honor, the bride's sister, La Rue Felderhoff (now Sister Georgia) and best man, the groom's brother, Alois Rohmer; also ringbearers Carol Ann Voth and Juanita Wierler.

The Rohmers have lived all of their married life in Muenster. He is now retired after more than 25 years in the petroleum industry and she is an employee in the U.S. Post Office with more than 20 years of service. A host of friends regard them as mutual friends and the best of neighbors. Their response reflects the thought "To Be A Friend, is in part, A Gift Of God."

They are parents of one son and five daughters, Donald Joseph Rohmer, Linda Ruth Sepanski, Donna Marie McClendon, Mary Margaret Rohmer, Christi Ann Rohmer and Julie Marie Rohmer. There are four grandchildren, Nicole and Letecia McClendon and Sara and Kathryn Sepanski.

The anniversary Mass was offered by Father Denis Soerries who also officiated for a renewal of the couple's marriage vows.

Preceding the Mass and as guests were being seated, prelude music was given by Don Rohmer with several beautiful guitar selections.

Mary Ann Walterscheid sang "On This Day."

During the Mass, Emily Klement was soloist and song leader for congregational singing and Ruth Felderhoff was organist. Songs were "How Great Thou Art," "Fill My House" at Offertory, "Only A Shadow" and "Wherever You Go." At Communion, Werner Becker, Sr. sang "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

Lectors for the liturgy were the couple's daughters Mary Margaret, Donna and Linda. Father Denis delivered the Homily.

Don Rohmer narrated the Offertory procession, presenting Nicole McClendon who carried a Bible and a Rosary, symbolic of her grandparents' faith in God and devotion to His Mother. Letecia McClendon and Sara Sepanski pushed a baby buggy that held symbols of various facets of their grandparents' lives: two entwined hearts indicating commitment and love for each other, their family, friends and those in need; a piece of pottery "the potter and his clay;" a hard hat, representing their grandfather's more than 25 years in the petroleum industry; postal stickers representing more than 20 years of their grandmother's service to the U.S. Post Office; a coffee cup representing time together and hospitality and warmth extended to relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Rohmers' daughters, Christi and Julie, carried the Offertory gifts of bread and wine.

Eucharistic Ministers were Evelyn and Jerry Sicking, Linda and Werner Becker, Jr. and Norbert Walterscheid. Mass servers were Brian Rohmer and Werner Becker III.

Altar decor included fan-shaped arrangements of white gladioli and tall, lighted candles.

The recessional and concluding hymn by the congregation was "Lord, Send Out Your Spirit."

The liturgy was planned and prepared by the family. Given to each guest upon entry was a beautiful keepsake book, covered in "ruby for 40", that included the liturgy, Mass prayers, wedding and anniversary pictures, family pictures and tributes reminiscent of the lives of two parents and their six children.

Reception

Following the Mass of Thanksgiving, a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall, prepared and hosted by the couple's children and their spouses, was held for approximately 160 guests.

Festivities began with a cocktail hour which also featured a variety of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres.

While music from the Big Band Era played in the background, guests enjoyed visiting and perusing a series of collages of photographs reflecting the couple's years together, beginning in 1944 when they began dating to the present. Also displayed on a wall were a number of enlarged, poster-size photographs of the couple.

For dinner, a large buffet table in the center of the hall offered a bountiful assortment of foods. A four-tiered white anniversary cake, adorned with fresh gladioli in hues of pink, served as the centerpiece.

Fresh floral arrangements and table settings carried out the ruby and pink color scheme.

Following dinner, Linda Rohmer Sepanski presented "A Time To Remember - Our Years With Mom and Dad," a humorous recountal of the couple's years together. Granddaughter Nicole McClendon entertained with a song, "Smiles."

After the anniversary cake was served, guests enjoyed visiting and dancing to old 78's and other favorite melodies.

Guests from out of town included Sister Georgia Felderhoff and Sister Miriam Burns of St. Michael's Convent, West Memphis, Arkansas, and Sister Amora Felderhoff of Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Arkansas and Mrs. Rita Tucker of Wichita Falls.

Love at first touch.

We've got the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter. It's typing made easiest.

Xerox asked secretaries what they wanted in an electronic typewriter. They said, "Make it easy."

So Xerox created a Memorywriter with so many automatic features, typing simply couldn't be easier:

- Automatic correction, boldface, underlining, centering, indenting, block editing, carrier return, right flush, line spacing, decimal tabs, column formats, pitch selection, proportional spacing, paper insertion, and more.

And now it's here—the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter.

It's still the basic typewriter secretaries want—for forms, for envelopes, for labels.

Yet it's got word processor power to make most documents a breeze.

With a 3-line display which shows them text, features being used, and helpful directions.

With block editing so they can move, copy or delete blocks in seconds.

With document format storage, starting with a 16K memory which can be expanded to 32K or 64K with optional cassettes.

And with Automatic Spellcheck, an option which provides a 50,000-word dictionary to verify spelling, plus any special words in your business.

What's more, for text editing, there just isn't a more automatic typewriter that does so much, for such an easy price.

So stop in, and ask for the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter, and make typing easy for your secretary.

With all this talk about the Sesquicentennial and all the celebrations, young Brady Dill must have thought that the days of yore had returned the other morning. He was waiting to catch the school bus when all of a sudden, he saw two buffalo coming over the hill. Then appeared the bus behind them. This caused the buffalo to jump the cattle guard into Brady's place - well, he got so excited he ran in the house to tell his dad, Larry, who didn't believe him. She is the daughter of the former Ola Mae Littell. On Sunday, the Hawk family visited with Vera Mae McGee - Vera Mae is Mrs. Hawk's great-aunt.

Now we come to a little Laura Belle and Ted Jackson news. On Tuesday, Ted and his buddy, S.T. Warford, made a fishing trip to Lake Dallas and had real good luck. On Thursday, the Jacksons made their "grazing run" to Gainesville. On Friday, Ted and a friend, Richard Holley, made a fishing trip to Bridgeport, but the high winds sent them home. That evening, their daughter, Shirley Brogdon of Miami, Texas, made it in. Then on Sunday, the Jacksons took Shirley to Nocona to catch her ride back home to Miami. Nell and Bill Looney of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Berry and Jamie of Denton and Jerry Browder and son Jim were all visitors in the Dede Berry home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph St. John, two sons and a niece of Greenwood visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Reynolds Sunday morning.

On Saturday, Mrs. Juanita Greenead and Mr. and Mrs. Ran Greenead and Matt drove down to Burleson to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Greenead and Jennifer. Juanita babysat while Ran and Cass and Gary and Brenda took a 21-mile canoe trip down the Brazos River. They put in at Glen Rose on Saturday, camped out that night on the banks of the river, then on to Brazos Point where their trip ended on Sunday. Juanita says she really had a good time babysitting, but she just isn't too sure the others had such a good time - weather was bad, etc.

Pat O'Brien and his girlfriend, Laura Lauder of Wichita Falls, spent the past weekend with his grandparents, Merle and Clifford Hudspeth.

Doyle and Virginia Lynch drove up to Wichita Falls on Saturday to visit Doyle's grandmother, Mrs.

Dave Roy, who is a patient in Bethania Hospital. The Lynches spent Saturday night with the Raymond Wood family. Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Wood are sisters.

Bert and Eula Fae Galmor made it over to Gainesville Sunday evening to visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Lovette. Mrs. Lovette is Bert's cousin. Then on Monday night the Galmors, "Bo" and Alice Shults and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans, Jr. and family all attended the graduation exercises

TPWD offers brochure on conservation program

AUSTIN - Landowners interested in the new federal Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) can obtain a free brochure on the subject from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Entitled "Wildlife Benefits of the Conservation Reserve Program," the publication describes how landowners can utilize erodible lands taken out of agricultural production for enhanced production of wildlife.

The CRP, which is patterned somewhat after the "Soil Bank" programs of the 1950s, is administered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

To obtain the brochure, write the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, TX 78744, or call toll-free 1-800-792-1112.

Bassin' with the pros

by Trey Foerster

Spring tackle care tips

Over the many years I've been fishing, I often have found myself in a situation where I've asked, "Now how would a pro handle this?" "Bassin' with the Pros" is a new column that will feature professional bass fishermen providing the answers to many of the questions I've asked, and I hope to many of your questions as well. The column also will offer tips on fishing equipment and its proper use and care to help all of us catch more bass.

Before you hit the water for the first day of the new season, you should make sure your equipment is as ready for bass action as you are. Spring is the time of year that most anglers inspect their tackle - that is, if they inspect it at all. 'Tis the season to check over your rods, reels, line, lures and tackleboxes. With the costs of these items going up each year, proper maintenance can keep these tools productive for many, many years.

Here's the basic "spring workout" that I take my gear through.

Tackleboxes - Completely empty the boxes and sort the contents according to types of tackle. Once the box is empty, remove any rust left by the lures and any film residue. I use an old toothbrush and a mild dishsoap for this job. Rinse the box thoroughly, blot it dry and then let it air dry. I complete the cleaning process with an inspection of the box's hardware - handles, latches, etc.

Sharpen hooks - This is probably one of the most important areas overlooked by most anglers. A good, sharp hook will catch more fish. There are two types of hooks, the straight-point and curved-point. Each is sharpened differently. The straight-point hook is sharpened with a file at three different angles to make a triangular-shaped cutting edge. The curved-point hook is attached with a rounded hone, which sharpens the two sides of the hook. If you can't eye the sharpness of the cutting edges, here's a test that my father taught me: drag the hook across your thumbnail. If the hook sticks into your nail while you are applying little or no pressure, then the hook is sharp.

Plugs - Polish your plugs with a damp cloth. Eliminate any rust on the hooks and put the original shape back into them with a needlenosed pliers. Check the lips, hook hangers, propellers and blades.

Spinnerbaits - Check all the metal parts for the slightest sign of rust. I touch up any lead heads that show chipping. I look at the skirts and replace those that have seen better days. I wash each lure with a damp rag and wipe dry.

Spinners - Check all the metal parts for that nasty rust and remove it wherever it occurs. Inspect the clevises and blades for effortless operation. Then, give the spinners a quick coating of demoisturizing oil.

Jigs - Check the lead heads for chipping and repaint them if necessary. Also, look over the skirts for wear, tear and discoloration. Re-tie the skirts out of bucktail or FisHair.

Soft plastics - I keep all my soft plastic lures in a separate tacklebox, or transfer a few of my favorite plastic worms to baby food jars for leak-proof storage. The soft plastic lure contains plasticizer, an oily substance that gives the plastic its pliability. The plasticizer can leak with age or heat and can damage other lures stored nearby. If your soft plastic "springs a leak," be sure to scour the affected compartment and discard the pieces struck by the "oil spill."

Line - If you remember that the only thing between you and a trophy bass is your line, you might start taking a lot more interest in its condition. Cut off about five feet of line after every two or three hours of fishing. Remove any portion of line that shows nicks or abrasions.

Rods - Wash your rods with a dishsoap solution and wipe them dry. Inspect the blanks, handles, guides, tips and wrapping for wear. If there is something wrong, don't hesitate to take the rod to a qualified repair shop for the necessary improvement.

Reels - All reels need to be periodically oiled and greased according to the manufacturer's instructions. As a rule of thumb, I take my reels to a repair shop every year for their "spring tuneup" - much like I take my car in for its checkup. I have the shop check parts for wear, repair or replace parts necessary, oil and grease the reels and put on new line. With the proper care and maintenance, reels should last you many, many years.

OMC has introduced a new partially synthetic outboard lubricant designed for today's high performance V-6 outboards. Called Johnson® GT and Evinrude® XP High Performance lubricant, OMC says the product offers better engine protection at high RPMs, reduced piston scuffing and ring sticking and reduced carbon building. Both lubricants may be used in any outboard at the manufacturer's recommended fuel/lubricant ratio.

Have any questions you'd like a bass pro to answer? Jot it down and mail it to "Bassin' with the Pros" at this newspaper. Answers to your questions will appear in a future column.

June 1-7...

Governor White sets Safe Boating Week

Governor Mark White has proclaimed June 1-7 as Texas Safe Boating Week, just in time to help kick off summer vacation for millions of Texans. Texas Safe Boating Week coincides with National Safe Boating Week sponsored by the U.S. Coast Guard. This year's national theme, "Be Smart - Take a Boating Course," is aimed at promoting education about proper boating procedures, equipment and water safety.

Boaters, both in Texas and nationwide, have apparently been taking such previous safety reminders to heart. Boating fatalities have been steadily decreasing over the past few years, according to the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department and the U.S. Coast Guard.

With more than 600,000 registered boat owners, Texas ranks as the third largest boating state in the country. Texas also ranks second in the number of miles of inland waterways across the state.

Golf Assoc. tourney set for June 1

Next Sunday, June 1, the Muenster Golf Association will host its monthly tournament at Nocona Municipal Golf Course, starting at 9 a.m. Carts will be reserved.

Striper, three other record fish certified

AUSTIN - The 43-pound, nine-ounce striped bass caught during April below the Lake Travis dam has been certified by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department as a state record.

Wayne Savoie of Round Rock caught the fish while fishing from the bank in the headwaters of Lake Austin just west of Austin. He was using a shallow-running crankbait and 12-pound-test line.

Savoie's fish beats a 38-pound, four-ounce striper caught from the same location by the late Harry Lamb of Austin in 1981.

The TPWD's fish records committee also certified three saltwater fish as state records. They are a four-pound, 10-ounce smooth puffer caught by Les Daughtry Jr. of Hitchcock on April 12; a six-pound, four-ounce black margate caught by Charles Sanders of Texas City on March 25; and a nine-ounce cubbya caught by Floyd Victor Pansana Jr. of Corpus Christi on Jan. 12.

Beginning Sept. 1...

License to be required of all Texas fishermen

AUSTIN - Beginning Sept. 1, 1986, anyone sport fishing in Texas waters will be required to have a fishing license, including persons under 17 and over 65 years of age.

However, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials said those exempted because of age will not be charged a fee for a fishing license. The free fishing license will be available from department offices and the usual retail fishing license outlets.

Also, holders of commercial fishing licenses will be required to obtain the free license to fish Texas waters for sport purposes.

The charge was mandated by the agency's Sunset Review legislation passed by the Texas Legislature.

Hunting and fishing license fees currently in effect will not change during the 1986-87 fiscal year. Some of the major licenses and fees include: resident combination hunting/fishing, $15; resident fishing, $8; resident hunting, $10; resident exempt hunting, $6; duplicate hunting, $6; temporary nonresident fishing, $8; nonresident small game hunting, $75; general nonresident hunting, $200; Lake Texoma fishing, $7.50; and blind/disabled veteran fishing, $1.50.

ELECT GERALD (JERRY) WALTERSCHEID

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Some producers will be putting up wheat in storage bins for planting of wheat in the fall. A note of caution - please clean out the bins of all old seed and trash before storing this year's seed. The bin walls can be sprayed with methoxychlor or malathion. This will help to keep down the weevil population in the bin. Be sure to clean the augers and outside areas around the bin where grain has been spilled. Keeping weeds and other debris from around the storage bin also helps to reduce weevils. Store the grain as dry of moisture as possible. Anything below 12 percent moisture will store much better than with a higher moisture content. Planting seed can be treated with premium grade malathion or Ralden as it goes into the bin. The top of the bin, after it is full, can be treated with Bacillus thuringiensis to control the moth infestation. Preventing weevil infestations is much easier than treating after they appear.

Grasshoppers are appearing in large numbers in some areas to the west of Cooke County. Grasshoppers can be found in concentrated areas. They will usually hatch in one area bunched together. Treat the areas where the grasshoppers are now concentrated. This method will save spraying later in the year. Be prepared to protect gardens, row crop and field crop margins, peach trees and other crops from grasshopper attack. An insecticide that is long lasting, if there is no rain, is Sevin XLR. Locate and treat the spot of grasshoppers before they disperse.

Watch for a buildup of squash bugs on squash. Reddish brown eggs on top of leaves is a good indication that squash bugs are present. Sevin does a fair job on young squash bugs but is not very good on adults. Thiodan is a much better insecticide to use against the adults. Watch for squash vine borers. This insect attacks the vine at ground line and will cause them to wilt suddenly and die. Plants that die in this manner should be examined by splitting the stem and looking for the larva. Sevin dusted or sprayed around the vines at the base of the plant will help prevent the entry of this pest. Apply Sevin when bees are not pollinating the blossoms of squash, cucumbers or melons.

TOMI SUBJECT FOR JUNE

Reports on irradiated foods, agricultural trade, the dairy buyout program, cattle-on-feed, and updates on cotton, soybeans, hogs and pigs, and crop production will be featured on the TOMI program for June.

Information provided by TOMI is designed to help keep agricultural producers updated on commodity markets and other vital information useful in planning and managing their operations.

Messages for TOMI are prepared by Extension Service economists, who provide the latest information available to aid producers in making decisions.

The telephone information system operates seven days a week on a 24-hour basis.

This Land Is Your Land

by Garry Mauro, Texas Land Commissioner
FIVE-YEAR CONTRACT WITH LONE STAR GAS TO SAVE STATE $25 MILLION - Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro announced an agreement with Lone Star Gas Company that will not only save ten state agencies more than $25 million but will also add more than $29 million to the Permanent School Fund over the next five years.

"Lone Star Gas Company is to be commended for helping us put together a deal that will not only save the state $25 million in utility costs but will make $29 million more for the school children of Texas," Mauro said.

Mauro said that the biggest savings went to Texas A&M University - more than $19 million over the five-year life of the contract.

Mauro said the arrangement was made possible as a result of an "in-kind" gas program at the Texas General Land Office in which the state chooses to be paid in gas, rather than cash, for the natural gas taken from wells on state-owned lands.

MAURO ANNOUNCES REDUCED INTEREST RATE FOR TEXAS VETERANS LAND PROGRAM - Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro announced recently a dramatic drop in the interest rate Texas Veterans are charged to buy land through the Texas Veterans Land Program. Mauro said the interest rate on $20,000 loans to Texas Veterans to buy 10 acres of land through the Texas Veterans Land Board will drop from 9.97 to 8.75 percent as a result of action taken Wednesday by the Texas Veterans Land Board.

Mauro said the rate reduction was made possible by a highly successful bond sale which saw the board refund $543 million in bonds on previous issues for the Texas Veterans Land Program.

"I'd like to encourage all Texas Veterans to check out our program by calling toll-free 1-800-252-VETS because we've got plenty of money to loan at very good rates for both the land and housing assistance programs," Mauro said.

MAURO: MAY 1 IS FIRST DAY TO APPLY FOR VETERANS HOME IMPROVEMENT LOANS - Commissioner Garry Mauro has announced that the Texas Veterans Land Board will begin accepting loan applications from Texas Veterans for the new Texas Veterans Home Improvement Loan Program.

"This program is designed to respond to the thousands of Texas Veterans who need financial assistance in maintaining existing older homes but who have been frozen out of limited conventional home improvement money by high interest rates," said Mauro, who also serves as Chairman of the Texas Veterans Land Board.

Starting May 1 Texas Veterans may apply for a maximum $17,500 fixed-rate, 15-year 11.5 percent loan for improvements to single family residences ($20,000 for 2-4 family residences such as a duplex, tri-plex or four-plex). The minimum loan amount is $5,000. No down payment is required and all loans are 100 percent FHA-insured.

Information on lender qualifications and program guidelines is available by calling toll-free 1-800-252-VETS at the Texas Veterans Land Board.
