

Texas Utilities Electric asks for refunds and decrease in reserves

Texas Utilities Electric Company, parent of Texas Power & Light Company, has filed an application with the Public Utility Commission asking authorization to refund about $58.4 million to its customers.

Harry Bomar, TP&L Manager in Gainesville, said the company is also asking for authority to decrease fuel reserves by about $42.8 million from the level previously approved in 1986.

The company is asking the PUC to decrease its composite charge for fuel from 2.45 cents per kilowatt-hour to 2.19 cents. Because of the lower fuel charge, the average residential customer will save about $30 per year, a 3.7 percent reduction.

The proposed reduction in the fuel charge will be the second for TUEC customers this year. The charge was reduced in March, lowering residential customers' bills by about 5 percent annually.

TUEC had announced on Oct. 15 that it planned to ask approval of the refund and a lower fuel charge.

The $58.4 million refund represents a continuation of savings to customers brought about by lower costs for fuel used to make electricity.

Under the company's proposal, the refund would be made through a credit to bills in the first billing month after Commission approval. Residential customers would receive refunds averaging about $10.

The company also has made two previous refunds this year - a $140 million refund in May and a $64.8 million refund in October. The year-long savings to customers have been made possible by the declining cost of natural gas, which has allowed TUEC to aggressively pursue lower-priced fuel supplies. The company's average cost of gas has declined from $3.74 per million BTU in 1984 to $3.41 in 1985 and $2.88 for the 12 months ended in September 1986. The company expects its average cost of gas to be $2.54 per million BTU in 1987.

Texas Utilities Electric Company provides electric service to about one-third the population of Texas through its operating divisions - Texas Power & Light, Dallas Power & Light and Texas Electric Service.

Christmasfest begins with lighting, parade

Dec. 6, 1986 marks the beginning of Christmasfest in Muenster. All the shops, stations, businesses and homes should be decorated for the Lighting and Decorations Contest no later than Dec. 5. Judging will be held after the parade on Dec. 6. There is no better way to advertise your business and make people stop to look than to decorate it attractively for the holidays. This year's theme is "Olde World Christmas" and gives each entry a wide range of ideas. This same theme is also to be carried out in our parade which will begin at 1 p.m. on Dec. 6 at Mesquite Street and Hwy. 82. The route will be west on Hwy. 82 to Main Street and north on Main to Fourth Street and back to Mesquite. The parade will be followed by a drawing and you must be present to win.

This year the business with the best entry in the parade will receive a large trophy to keep for one year. At the next year's parade the trophy will be passed to the new winner. Trophies will be awarded for most unusual entry, best theme interpretation, and for the Best Business Entry. The Christmasfest Lighting and Decorations Contest will use the same type of system for the business trophy, to be passed to the winner for next year, but cash awards will be given to the individuals entering.

The Lighting and Decorations Contest will be awarding prizes for three categories: Best Olde World Nativity, Most Unique and Best Overall. Individuals will be awarded $25 and the winning business will be given a trophy. Organizations will be awarded a cash prize also. Entry forms and additional information may be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce office.

Karen Trubenbach opens "Memories"

Muenster welcomes a new business this week as Karen Trubenbach opens her new portrait studio, "Memories," in Hillcrest Center, the Endres building on East Highway 82.

Relatives and friends welcomed Karen and Mike Trubenbach and Trent and Justin about a year and a half ago when they moved back to Muenster from the Metroplex.

In opening this studio, she continues work related to her professional training and experience begun in Dallas about 14 years

City receives state tax shares

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock, on Nov. 7, sent checks totaling $104.6 million in local sales tax to 1,033 cities that levy the one-percent city tax.

Bullock said 1986 payments to date were down 1.7 percent as compared to the payments to date in November of last year. Muenster's check was for $17,688.81, well over last November's check for $15,911.17. By comparison, Muenster's receipts show the highest percentage increase in Cooke County. Gainesville's percent increase to date was 0.23 percent, Muenster showed 2.92 percent, Lindsay and Valley View both have collected less so far this year than last year.

The city also received a check for their share of the state's 12 percent mixed drink tax collected during the third quarter of 1986. Texas cities and counties now each receive a 12.5 percent share of the tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries.

Cooke County received $5,884.87. The city of Gainesville received $2,662.37, Lindsay $2,133.98, and Muenster $537.07.

ago. She will be assisted here by her niece, Delanne Walterscheid. Her studio occupies an area 28 feet in length and is equipped with many kinds of props, for both indoor and outdoor scenes.

She said, "With individual customers my work is primarily creative. I do all kinds of shots, indoor, outdoor, casuals, at home, formal portraits, children, animals."

"I do bridal, engagement and anniversary portraits. I will make family reunion portraits after Mass on Sunday, by special appointment.

"I am very proud of the work I do in restorations of old photographs. I am aware that those pictures may be one-of-a-kind, real family treasures. For this reason, I hand-deliver and pick up personally all the old photographs I take to the lab."

When asked, "What would you suggest to an inquiring customer?" she said, "Please phone well in advance of the date you want, and discuss your personal preferences. Plan on more than one change of clothes, dress-up and casual."

"Memories" Portrait Studio has four price categories: Children 0 to 6 years, now reduced, principally because of rapid growth and changes. 2) Children 7 years through high school seniors, student price list. 3) Adults, families or groups. 4) Bridal-wedding category.

Also suggested were gift certificates, available for Christmas or anytime.

Accident sends Dangelmayr to Harris

Chris Dangelmayr, 19, is a patient in Harris Hospital, Fort Worth, in the intensive care unit, where he will probably remain about two weeks. He underwent surgery twice, Monday and Tuesday, and a third time on Wednesday. According to family members, his condition is stable. He is a son of Paul and Patsy Dangelmayr.

Chris was Care-Flited to Harris Hospital Sunday evening according to hospital spokesmen.

He was accidentally shot in the abdomen with a 30-06 round fired by a companion, while they were hunting in the Sivells Bend area north of Gainesville, according to Cooke County Sheriff John Aston.

"It struck him in the stomach and exited out his back," the sheriff said.

Chris was accompanied by three friends, all juveniles, two were 15 years of age and one was 16. No charges were filed in connection with the hunting accident.

Family members have given the following address for anyone wishing to send get-well cards: Chris Dangelmayr, ICU South, Room 232, Harris Hospital, 1301 Pennsylvania Ave., Fort Worth, Texas 76104.

ICU attendants have suggested cards or small gifts to brighten his day.

Thanksgiving Picnic to feature new booth

Something new added to booths at the Nov. 23 parish dinner and picnic at the Community Center will be "Heavenly Gifts," featuring a Catholic Gift Shop with a wide assortment of books, statues, rosaries, and many items suitable for Christmas giving. Co-chairmen are Margie Klement and Pam Fette.

Traditional features of the parish's annual benefit event will be repeated, including the bountiful dinner starting at 11:30, children's booths and entertainment during the afternoon and a greatly expanded Country Store with Christmas Arts and Crafts

Funds added to fire truck account by Autofest '86

The Muenster Volunteer Fire Department Fire Truck Savings Account has grown with the addition of money raised at Autofest. At presstime, with a few organizations not having reported, these contributions have been made:

Muenster Volunteer Fire Department, 100% net; Muenster High School Sophomore Class, 25% gross; Sacred Heart 7th grade class, Muenster Volunteer Fire Department, 100% net; Muenster High School Sophomore Class, 25% gross; Sacred Heart 7th Grade Class, 100%-plus net; Kiwanis, 100% net; H & W Meat Company, 25% gross; Golden Distributing of Wichita Falls, 100% gross; Endres Motor Company, 100% gross; Dairy Inn/DI One Stop, 25% gross; Catholic Daughters of America, 25% gross; Chamber of Commerce, 100%-plus gross; American Combat Games, 25% gross.

In addition to their office, secretary and organizational skills, the Chamber of Commerce donated all the proceeds from the raffle to the savings account fund. The Chamber of Commerce underwrote the event with advertising costs and organizational costs of the event for a total cash contribution of $1,269.19. The total contributions resulting from Autofest were $1,578.09. A great big Thank You to all who participated.

making it especially timely. A "Christmas Wonderland" will be a special feature, offering a great assortment of both indoor and outdoor Christmas decorations. Dorothy Mae Yosten, Regina Pels and Miriam Caplinger are co-chairmen.

Carrie Ann Walterscheid, Charlotte Dangelmayr and Patsy Dangelmayr are co-chairmen of the dinner.

Don Hess, Werner Becker, Jr. and Tom Herr are general picnic co-chairmen.

All urge everyone to remember that the date is Sunday, Nov. 23.

Anti-terrorist forces must be sent overseas

by Lloyd Bentsen, United States Senator

No matter how much planning terrorists may do, the first few hours of any hijacking or hostage-taking incident will be confused and disorganized.

Within a relatively short time, though, the terrorists consolidate their position. They may bring in reinforcements and more weapons or, if it's a hijacking, they may fly to another location.

If we want to end such an incident with minimal loss of innocent lives, the best time to strike is in that first few hours of confusion - to deny the terrorists a chance to increase the odds in their favor.

As a member of the Senate Intelligence Committee, there are limits to what I can say publicly about our nation's ability to respond to terrorism.

But any American who keeps up with the news knows that the U.S. military created specially-trained, elite counter-terrorist forces after the disastrous 1980 attempt to rescue hostages at our embassy in Iran.

And an unidentified Administration source confirmed in recent news reports that our counter-terrorist "Delta Force" did not arrive in Pakistan before the tragic conclusion of the hijacking of an American airliner in August.

No one can say if fewer people would have been killed had Delta Force arrived within a few hours after the plane was hijacked. Even if they had, it would have been too much to expect them to operate at peak efficiency after a 16-hour flight halfway around the world.

And it's certain that our special forces will not be able to help resolve a hijacking if they are still in the air when it ends.

For more than a year I've been trying to persuade the Department of Defense to station some portion of our counter-terrorist forces overseas, closer to the likely trouble spots. But nothing's been done - even after the Vice President's Task Force on Combating Terrorism recommended at my urging that this be considered.

The Pentagon says these forces should be stationed only in this country, for training purposes.

Having seen the rigorous training these forces undergo, I can appreciate that their skills, such as small arms accuracy, need to be continually honed through constant practice. But it seems to me that the United States is not the only place they could perfect their marksmanship.

Neither do the forces chosen to go overseas need to stay there permanently. Assignments could be made on a rotating basis every few months, with methods updated when the forces are back in the States.

Every civilized nation by now understands the global dimensions of the problem of terrorism - a problem that is here to stay. If approached properly, one of our allies should agree to host some of our special forces.

In a recent speech to the Senate I warned Defense and State Department officials to take the steps needed to position some of our counter-terrorist forces overseas. If they don't, I will introduce legislation to require it.

Our special forces should not be hamstrung any longer, nor should American lives be jeopardized needlessly through our inability to reach the scene of a hijacking quickly, with troops rested and ready to go.

CONGRESS: NO HITS, NO RUNS, ALL ERRORS ON PRODUCT LIABILITY REFORM LEGISLATION

It was the bottom of the ninth. The bases were loaded as our best slugger strode to the plate. Victory was just a swing away. This was it . . . the big one.

The crowd roared. Suddenly, as the pitcher went into his wind-up, the ump yelled, "Game's over!"

Had it been a baseball game, the fans would have rioted. But this contest wasn't in Shea Stadium or Fenway Park. The arena was the marble halls of Congress. At stake was a law that would return fairness and reason to business insurance pricing and coverage.

S. 2760, the Product Liability Reform Act, was introduced in the closing weeks of the Congress by Sen. Bob Kasten (R-Wisc.). A combination of civil justice reforms and expedited settlement procedures, the bill would have helped defuse a crisis which has left American business victimized by huge damage awards, unprecedented legal fees and unaffordable insurance rates.

"We are now facing a nationwide liability crisis," Kasten said. "It is touching everyone - from cities and towns to day-care centers, from the manufacturers of vaccines to the tourism industry, from the makers of football helmets to the neighborhood drug store."

Make no mistake about it. The debate over product liability reform is not a game played for bragging rights. It is a high stakes contest.

In a recent survey of its members, the National Federation of Independent Business found that cost and availability of liability insurance was the single most acute problem facing small firms. The 1,800 delegates to the White House Conference on Small Business put the kinds of reforms included in S. 2760 at the top of their list of 60 high-priority items, calling their passage "a life or death" matter for many small businesses.

Fans of S. 2760 tried to give the bill its time at bat. Thousands of business owners phoned their Senators, urging them to hang tough and pass the bill - even if it meant sending the 99th Congress into extra innings.

But in the end, the urge to politick for re-election outweighed the business community's cries for help. Opponents of the measure used the old "debate-it-to-death" defense, until Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole withdrew the bill.

Unfortunately, this game-playing in Congress has serious consequences for small business. It takes so long to get a bill through subcommittees, committees and conferences that good legislation must hit a home run every time it comes to bat, or months - even years - may pass before it gets to the plate again.

The World Series and the 99th Congress are history, but spring training and the 100th Congress are not far off. Product liability reform should be near the top of the 1987 legislative line-up.

Congress needs to win this one for small-business owners, their workers and their customers. If our legislators don't play ball soon, many firms will have to close their doors "on account of" the continuing insurance crisis.

Walterscheid is district mgr. for Vermeer

The Vermeer Mfg. Company of Pella, Iowa has appointed Jerry Walterscheid as District Manager for their company in the North Texas area.

He has been a local dealer for Vermeer for 12 years, and will continue to sell and service Vermeer equipment and parts locally, along with being district manager.

Jerry and Betty Rose Walterscheid attended a sales meeting and demonstration in Pella, Iowa in early September, where the latest line of Vermeer Equipment was shown, including Vermeer's new round double baler.

In addition to balers, the company sells and drills, rock pickers, bale busters and other equipment.

Coleman Jones, territory manager from Longview, accompanied by his wife, Elsie, were in Muenster last week to present the contract papers appointing Walterscheid as the new job official.

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor:

After reading an article in the Gainesville Register and the Shopping News, it has come to my attention that there are those people who believe that children who stay in Day Care Centers and nursery schools do nothing but sit around and play with toys all day.

I hope to shed some new light on the Day Care Industry which has made some very progressive changes in the past four or five years.

You will certainly find a number of toys at the centers, but they are required by the Texas Department of Human Resources to provide certain types of toys both inside and outside the centers. You will also find many good educational programs being taught.

In order to provide these programs, Day Care Directors are required by the state to receive 30 hours per year of training in child development and education and all other caregivers working at the centers must receive 15 hours per year of training in the same areas.

Many of your larger Day Care Centers are arranged in classrooms by age and have full-day education programs, plus gymnastics and music included. Due to the size of my center in Muenster, it is not possible for us to keep the children separated by classrooms all day. However, we do offer a structured educational program each morning with Nancy Fleitman teaching children who range in age from 18 months to 3 years and myself teaching 3 to 5 year olds. Our children learn to dress themselves, learn shapes, colors, A B C's by sight and sound, do pouring exercises, shell peanuts and have art and music every day.

Day Care Centers have the responsibility of serving all the needs of children ranging in ages from 6 weeks old to 10 or 12 years old. In essence, we have become "a home away from home" for these children, many of whom are in our care for 8 to 12 hours per day. It is our first responsibility to see that these children receive love, attention, help them to feel good about themselves, and feel secure in their surroundings. We must also provide toys and equipment to stimulate their mental and physical growth.

I encourage a visit to a Day Care Center. There is a great deal of learning and love taking place even while the children are at play. I also offer a challenge to anyone to provide a "happy, well-rounded program" for 30 or more children who are in your care for 8 to 12 hours per day with no toys.

Operation Game Thief completes fifth year

AUSTIN - "Operation Game Thief," the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's program for public reporting of game law violators, paid $44,700 in rewards during its first five years of operation and caused 937 violators to pay almost $18,000 in fines.

The program is funded entirely through tax-deductible donations from individuals and sportsmen's organizations across the state. The Operation Game Thief Committee serves without pay and meets twice yearly to review poaching cases and disburse rewards.

Capt. Stanley Brooks, OGT coordinator, said the program closed out its first five years with its busiest year. "We received 1,142 calls, which is 160 more than the previous year and the highest for any year since the program started," Brooks said.

The committee last week awarded $3,200 to 18 persons whose calls to the OGT toll-free number 1-800-792-GAME resulted in convictions of game law violators during the past six months. The cases resulted in 50 citations and $6,352.50 in fines. There were 22 other callers whose calls resulted in arrests, but they elected to leave their reward money in the OGT fund. These calls were responsible for an additional 38 citations and $3,921 in fines collected.

The largest reward was $300 to a caller whose tip led to the arrest of three violators who used illegal electronic devices to catch fish. Rewards were approved in a variety of cases, including snagging and netting of fish, killing deer in closed season, illegal possession of red drum, hunting doves over a baited area and killing an alligator without a permit.

Callers to the OGT line remain anonymous.

"WITHOUT YOU AND ME, SOME PEOPLE WON'T HAVE THE ENERGY TO STAY WARM THIS WINTER."

Joe Bob Jones
Customer Operations

"Winter's a serious problem for those people in our community who've had some financial misfortune. Usually, they can just cut back on energy use, but winter cold can make that unsafe. That's why the Energy Aid program is so important.

"Energy Aid was set up to give a helping hand to families in the middle of a financial crisis. And it's been doing a good job. Since 1983 - the first year - Energy Aid has helped warm the winter for over 21,000 families. Your contribution is administered by a charitable organization in your community. So, you really are helping your neighbors at a time they need it most.

"Contributions can be made in a single sum, or you can have an amount added to your monthly electric bill. Either way, it's up to you to decide how you give, and how much. And your contributions are tax deductible.

"I know you get a lot of appeals for donations these days. But a small donation to Energy Aid can mean warmth for a family this winter. In times like these, it feels good to help a neighbor. That's why I give to Energy Aid, and why I'm asking you to do the same."

Help others with tax returns with VITA

If you enjoy helping people and working with them to make a difficult task easier, VITA may be for you. VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), is looking for volunteers to help taxpayers with their tax returns.

VITA assists lower income, elderly, handicapped and non-English speaking individuals who have problems preparing their own returns. VITA volunteers help these people fill out Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, and a basic Form 1040, including Schedule A, which is used for itemizing deductions. They also explain how to take advantage of such credits as the child care credit and the credit for the elderly. Assistance is provided at community locations such as community centers, libraries and churches.

VITA volunteers include college students enrolled in business management and accounting programs, law students and members of professional business organizations. Others who participate are members of retirement, religious, military and civic groups. Generally, volunteers learn how to prepare a simple tax return by successfully completing a special training course in basic income tax return preparation.

VITA instructors and training materials are provided free by the IRS. Training is conducted at a location convenient for volunteers and instructors and generally in early January. That seems like a long way away, but now is the time to sign up as a volunteer or arrange for your organization to sponsor a VITA Program.

Volunteers are used in many different ways. For example, volunteers help set up and organize sites, while others do the local publicity for a site. IRS says, "If you have a talent and would like to help, VITA can find a way to involve you in the program."

Last year, VITA volunteers helped over 31,000 North Texans in 250 community locations to prepare their 1985 tax returns. If you would like to become a volunteer, or if your organization would be interested in sponsoring a VITA Program, please write to the Internal Revenue Service, 1100 Commerce Street, Mail Code 6610 DAL, Dallas, Texas 75242 or call toll-free 1-800-424-1040.

Operation Clean Sweep ponders use of $20,000

Representatives of the organizations which make up Operation Clean Sweep will meet Nov. 18, 1986 at 7 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce Office at 115 E. First St. Each organization that participated in Operation Clean Sweep is to have some input into the use of the $20,000 awarded to the community by Governor White and Keep Texas Beautiful, Inc. The decisions reached by this committee may have a long-range impact for our community. The direction begun by the use of this $20,000 may well determine the way the community will go in beautification litter control and utilizing the road ways of Muenster. The following organizations should have a representative at this meeting: MV Fire Department, Boy Scouts, Kiwanis, Catholic Daughters of America, Sacred Heart School, Chamber of Commerce, Bluebonnet Club, Garden Club, Beta Kappa Sorority, Knights of Columbus, Muenster Public School, City of Muenster, Wholesale Beer Distributors of Muenster, Retail Merchants Association, Young Homemakers of Texas, Future Farmers of America, Muenster Police Department and any other groups, organizations, or individuals who helped with Operation Clean Sweep.

There have been several suggestions presented to the committee, but your ideas are needed to give the direction to this project. Please be sure to attend or send a representative from your organization to this very important meeting.

Veterans Land program gets better benefits

AUSTIN - The Texas Veterans Land Board made permanent a dramatic increase in benefits for Texas Veterans, benefits that will expand from $20,000 to $55,000, said Garry Mauro, Chairman of the Texas Veterans Land Board.

"By adopting these recommendations, the number of state benefits for Texas Veterans has been permanently tripled," Mauro said. "Because the programs are financed through the sale of federal tax exempt general obligation bonds, it doesn't cost Texas taxpayers a single penny."

In unanimous action last week, the Texas Veterans Land Board agreed to make permanent a four-month trial program that broadens guidelines to allow qualified Texas Veterans to use all three - rather than only one - of the Texas Veterans benefit programs.

"This will allow Texas Veterans to participate in all three Texas Veterans programs, greatly increasing the state benefits now available to Texas Veterans," Mauro said.

"What this means is Texas Veterans can now get a $20,000 loan to buy a house AND get a $20,000 loan to buy land AND get a $15,000 home improvement loan to make repairs to their residence," Mauro said. "Let me urge all Texas Veterans who've always wanted to use more than one of our fine programs to act now to take advantage of our low interest rates."

In the past, Texas Veterans were limited to only one loan with the Texas Veterans Land Board. "Now, after overwhelming acceptance of the public and our Texas Veterans over the four-month trial period," Mauro said, "the board gave unanimous approval to the expansion of the benefits."

A Texas Veteran who has already received one loan will now be eligible to apply for a loan from one or both of the remaining programs as well. For example, a Veteran who had already received a Texas Veterans land loan could now apply for a Texas Veterans housing or home improvement loan.

The Texas Veterans Land Program offers eligible Texas Veterans a $20,000 loan at 8.75 percent to purchase a minimum of five acres.

The Texas Veterans Housing Assistance Program offers eligible Texas Veterans a $20,000 loan at 9 percent to apply to the purchase of a home.

The Texas Veterans Home Improvement Program, the newest benefit program, makes available up to $15,000 at 11.5 percent to make substantial repairs to a Veteran's residence.

To find out how to participate in these programs, Veterans can call toll-free 1-800-252-VETS for assistance.

Couple exchange vows

MRS. ADAM JAMES SCHNIEDERJAN
... nee Renee Ann Rohmer ...

Mr. and Mrs. Adam James Schniederjan are on a Caribbean cruise and trip to Orlando and Epcot Center following their marriage in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, Nov. 8.

The bride is the former Renee Ann Rohmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rohmer of Muenster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Self of Gainesville and the late Ted Schniederjan. Renee is a 1983 graduate of Sacred Heart High School and attended Cooke County College. She is a secretary employed by FMW Insurance Agency. Adam is a 1979 graduate of Gainesville High School and a 1984 graduate of TSTI in Waco. He is a refrigeration mechanic employed by Otts Heating and Air Conditioning Co.

Father Victor Gillespie officiated for the Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony at 5 p.m.

Wearing a gown designed expressly for her by Milady of New York, the bride was presented at the altar by her father. Her formal ivory satin wedding dress was elegantly embellished with beaded French Alencon lace trim. The all-over lace basque bodice with pearl and sequin embroidery featured a high-collared jeweled neckline with a sheer yoke and long court sleeves. The skirt flowed from an elongated waistline into soft gathers adorned with a lavishly beaded lace inset and scalloped-edged hemline. The formal length cathedral-length train was enhanced with an extended inset of applied lace on English net that continued into a tiered crystal pleated ruffled edging.

For her hair she chose a wreath of pearl sprays and a waltz-length illusion veil completing a look of total elegance.

For sentiment, she carried a rosary given to her mother by her father on their wedding day, and entwined it in her bridal bouquet of peach apple blossoms, ivory stephanotis, ivory gardenias, peach and ivory roses, ivy and seed pearls. She wore her late maternal Grandmother Anna Sandmann's wedding band, and a birthdate penny in her shoe.

ATTENDANTS

Lisa Hess of Lindsay, a friend of the bride was maid of honor. Laurie Rohmer of Muenster, Kim Rohmer of Coppell and Cindy Rohmer of Muenster, all sisters-in-law of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore formal-length jade dresses with long sleeves and double fluted ruffles from shoulder to V-back, with peplum effect, designed by Jordan Fashions. In their hair, they wore wreaths of peach apple blossoms, ivory double ruffles and seed pearls. They carried miniature bouquets of ivory gardenias, peach apple blossoms, peach roses and seed pearls.

John Schniederjan of Dallas was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were brothers of the groom, Phil Schniederjan, Bob Schniederjan and Mike Schniederjan, all of Oklahoma City. Ushers were brothers of the bride, Steve Rohmer of Coppell and Kenny Rohmer, Terry Rohmer and Billy Rohmer, all of Muenster.

David Rohmer, bride's cousin, and Tony Grewing were Mass servers.

Sister Romana Rohmer of Mobile, Alabama gave the Readings of the wedding liturgy.

Wedding music was presented by organist Pat Hennigan, Jr., a cousin of the bride, and by soloist Christi Felderhoff. Selections included traditional wedding marches, "Eres Tu," Clarke's "Trumpet Voluntare" and Morrat's "Trumpet Tune," also "Endless Love," "Let It Be Me," "You Are The Wind Beneath My Wings" and "Ave Maria."

Altar decorations included arrangements of white gladioli and peach carnations and lighted candles. Palm trees added to decor of the altar space.

RECEPTION

A reception with dinner and dancing followed in the Sacred Heart Community Center.

Clair Schniederjan of Austin, the groom's sister, and Christi Rohmer of San Antonio, the bride's friend, registered 475 guests in the bride's book. Rohmer's Restaurant catered the meal and Hoss provided music for dancing.

Betty Rose Walterscheid served a four-tiered ivory and peach wedding cake, assisted by Carolyn Schniederjan, Barbie Walterscheid, Laurie Ann Flusche, Carol Grewing and Lora Hennigan.

Decorations in the reception area were designed by Aileen Knabe, in the bride's chosen colors.

Out-of-town guests attended from Irving, Longview, Saudi Arabia, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Oklahoma City, Amarillo, Arkansas and Alabama.

The rehearsal dinner was served at The Center Restaurant to 23 guests. A recipe shower given by the bridesmaids was held on Oct. 19 in the Billy Rohmer home.

6th annual Sell-O-Rama Nov. 14-15

Evelyn Yeatts,
County Extension Agent

The Sixth Annual Arts and Crafts Sell-O-Rama is scheduled for Nov. 14 and 15. The sale, which is being sponsored by the Cooke County Extension Homemakers Council, will open on Friday, the 14th, at 10 a.m. and remain open until 8 p.m. On Saturday, the 15th, exhibits open at 10 a.m. and remain open until 6 p.m.

The Sell-O-Rama will be held in the Boys Club Gym in Gainesville. The Boys Club is located at the corner of South Weaver and Hird Street. Eighty-five tables will be filled with arts of all types. The craft tables have been reserved by individuals as well as clubs.

Items to be sold by area artisans are all handcrafted. They include such items as toys, dolls, jewelry, woodcrafts, paintings, handpainted china, and soft sculptures. Also Normandy lace, needlework, Christmas ornaments, leathercrafts and many more items will be available for sale.

The Sell-O-Rama will offer an excellent way for people to Christmas shop or buy those homemade items which they don't have the time to make themselves or don't have the talent to make.

Door prizes will be provided by each exhibitor with drawings held every hour.

The Extension Homemakers Council will also have a Bake Sale of homemade items and a concession stand. The bake sale is to benefit the 4-H Scholarship Fund. The Cooke County Council annually presents scholarships to graduating seniors.

For any questions concerning the Arts and Crafts Sell-O-Rama, call Mrs. Evelyn Yeatts, County Extension Agent, at 668-5412. Join the fun and come to the crafts sale.

Baptisms

Fisher

The baptism of Lana Rose Fisher was held in Sacred Heart Church during the Sunday morning Mass celebrated by Father Victor Gillespie on Nov. 9 at 9 a.m. Lana Rose is the infant daughter of Gary and Marlene Fisher.

Her baptismal sponsors were Dave and Pam Fette.

The infant wore a handmade traditional, very long christening gown adorned with lace insertion and ribbons, a matching cap and matching baptismal blanket.

Also participating in the liturgy were Alex Fuhrmann who gave the readings, and Danell Reiter, a cousin of Lana Rose, gave the Offertory petitions. Mrs. Earl Fisher and Mrs. Albert Herr, the baby's grandmothers presented the Offertory collection and the chalice to the altar. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Fuhrmann, grandparents of Andrew Jay Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Davis, who was also baptized during the Mass, presented the water and wine at the altar.

Music was presented by organist Linda Flusche and soloist Mary Endres.

Following the church service, the Fette godparents of Lana Rose, hosted a dinner at The Center Restaurant and a reception in their home at 1 p.m. The reception table held a decorated christening cake made by Cathie Fuhrmann of Myra. The centerpiece was an arrangement of fresh pink roses in an antique crystal vase, once belonging to Pam Fette's grandmother.

Guests enjoyed visiting during the afternoon.

Davis

Andrew Jay Davis, infant son of Kelly and Karen Davis of Saint Jo, was baptized in Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, Nov. 9, 1986 with Father Victor Gillespie officiating for the Sacrament.

Godparents were the baby's uncle and aunt, John and Diane Hermes of Lindsay.

Andrew Jay was dressed in a christening gown made by his mother.

Alex Fuhrmann, an uncle, gave the readings. Maternal grandparents Erwin and Clara Fuhrmann presented gifts at Offertory.

A dinner was hosted by the baby's parents in their home following the church service. Attending were the honoree's brother Joseph; grandparents Erwin and Clara Fuhrmann; Mr. and Mrs. John Hermes and Leah and Kimberly; Aunts Barbara, Martha and Laura Fuhrmann; Jill Davis, an aunt; aunt and uncle Arnold and Cecilia Fuhrmann; and uncles Alex Fuhrmann and Ted Fuhrmann.

Smokeout: a day for quitters

Smokers who want to give up the cigarette habit may find the task easier on Thursday, Nov. 20. That's the date of the American Cancer Society's 10th anniversary of the annual Great American Smokeout - a day when the nation's 54 million smokers are encouraged to kick the habit for at least 24 hours, just to prove to themselves that quitting is possible.

Smokeout Day is celebrated throughout the country as an upbeat, lively event. Parades, "Run Your Butts Off" races, rallies, cigarette "matches" and other activities keep the mood light, and keep smokers' minds off cigarettes. American Cancer Society volunteers organize Smokeout events in shopping malls, parks, corporations, schools, hospitals, and other areas. The aim: to offer support and assistance to smokers trying to quit for the day.

The Cooke County Unit of the American Cancer Society will be having a Smokers Booth set up in Tom Thumb Store Thursday, Nov. 20. They will be handing Smoker Survival Kits, brochures, stickers, balloons, buttons and also a turkey at the end of the day. Stop by and visit with the ACS volunteers and register for the free turkey to be given away - but in order to register you have to give up your package of cigarettes.

Although the Great American Smokeout may seem all festivities and celebration, it has a very serious purpose, since more than 340,000 Americans die each year of diseases linked to smoking, representing one out of every seven deaths in the United States.

Cigarette smoking is responsible for 83 percent of all the lung cancer deaths in the nation, and, in 1986, lung cancer will surpass breast cancer as the leading cancer killer of women. This statistic is attributed to the large number of women who started smoking during and after World War II. Cigarette smoking is a significant factor in other cancers as well: cancer of the mouth, esophagus, larynx, pharynx, bladder, pancreas and it has been linked to some cases of cervical cancer.

Last year, a record number of smokers - an estimated 20.4 million, according to a Gallup survey - participated in the Great American Smokeout. Of the participants, 5.4 million smokers - about 10 percent of the nation's smokers - succeeded in quitting for the day. Approximately 3.1 million still were not smoking one to five days later. "These are impressive statistics," says Smokeout Chairman Larry Hagman, star of the television series "Dallas." "They represent a growing number of Americans who have a strong desire to stop smoking."

Lindsay Fraternity holds Prayers for Peace day

Members of the Secular Franciscans of St. Peter's Parish, Lindsay held a special prayer service on Oct. 27 following morning Mass, in observance of Pope John Paul II request for a day of prayers for peace. Mrs. Tony Hermes, prefect, gave a reading from the Book of Sirach; members joined in recitation of the Psalms and in group singing. Jean Haverkamp, Elvira Flusche, Mary Stofels, Veronica Klement and Theresa Hermes each read a paragraph from St. Francis' Letter To All The Faithful, followed by renewal of commitment. To this special service, members of the Secular Franciscans of St. Peter's Parish prayed the Rosary and the Litany to the Blessed Virgin, for world peace. The meeting closed with the Peace Prayer to St. Francis of Assisi. On Oct. 22 and 23, members quilted for a quilt-affle, set for a later date. The next business and prayer meeting will be on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerman.

Ed Endres honored on 65th birthday

A surprise party on Nov. 1 celebrated the 65th birthday of Ed Endres at the home of his son and family, Clinton and Debbie Endres and children. A barbecue brisket supper was served, with a variety of covered dishes brought by those attending. A birthday cake, made by the hostess was served with ice cream for dessert. Movies were made and family pictures were taken. Gifts and cards were open. Attending were Ed's wife Clara, brothers, sisters, spouses and guests, Donald and Dorothy Endres of Muenster; David and Ilene Endres of Garland; Gene and Floradell Le Gesse of Austin; Marjorie Endres and Mary Glade of Fort Worth. And Ed and Clara's family, Clinton and Debbie Endres, Paulette and Tom Swirczynski, Connie Bezner, Gary and Mary Endres, Phil and Marlene Endres, Kenny and Rhonda Hartman, Monte and Jacque Endres, David and Laurie Flusche and Roger Endres.

News of the Sick

Tony Felderhoff entered Gainesville Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning, Nov. 12, for medical care and tests. Mrs. Charles Coffey (Phyllis) is a patient in Muenster Memorial Hospital, undergoing gallstone surgery on Monday, Nov. 10. Mrs. Richard Cain entered Muenster Memorial Hospital late Sunday night as a medical patient. Mrs. Dorothy (Eberhart) Smith returned home Saturday, Nov. 8, from Harris Hospital in Fort Worth. She is improving steadily, according to her daughter, but will need months to recuperate after a very serious automobile accident. She expressed gratitude for the cards and prayers and said she looked forward eagerly to mail. Cards now may be sent to her home, 813 Throckmorton, Gainesville, Texas 76240. Because her medical expenses have been extraordinary, friends have established a special fund to help. Checks may be sent to Drawer A, First State Bank, Gainesville, Texas 76240.

Forestburg News

by Myrt Denham

This week I wish to begin with the "Recipe for Contentment" written by Van Goethe and taken from the Radio Bible Class Discovery Digest. It goes thus and I quote:

- "Health enough to make work a pleasure,
- Wealth enough to support your needs,
- Grace enough to confess your sins and overcome them,
- Charity enough to see some good in your neighbor,
- Faith enough to make real the things of God, and
- Hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future."

Upcoming events

The WBAP Community Service Club will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday night, Nov. 19, in the Community Center. Everyone is urged to attend.

Thanksgiving

The annual Forestburg Community Thanksgiving Supper will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 20, in the Forestburg Community Center. Everyone that considers the Forestburg area their home is invited to attend. Bring a vegetable or salad and a dessert and join your neighbors and friends.

Church Bazaar

Saturday, Nov. 22, is the date for the annual Forestburg United Methodist Church Bazaar. It will be in the Community Center and doors will open at 10 a.m. for a Bake Sale, Arts and Crafts and White Elephant Sale. A traditional Thanksgiving lunch will be served from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Charge is $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for children under 12 years of age.

Supper and gospel singing

There is to be a supper and gospel singing in the New Harp Community Building Saturday, Nov. 22. The supper will start around 5:30 p.m. to be followed by the singing. Everyone is invited to bring a covered dish - come and feast and then sing.

Big Bazaar coming

On Saturday, Dec. 6, there will be a BIG BAZAAR in the Forestburg Community Center. It is to be an all-day affair with many booths featuring arts and crafts of all kinds, woodcrafts, ceramics and quilts. A lunch of sandwiches and hot dogs will be available. There will be more information on this next week.

Over Forty Socials cancelled

After much thought and consideration, it has been decided to cancel the Over Forty Socials activities due to the lack of interest, poor support from, and meager participation on the part of, the Forestburg people.

Jackson activities

It was a shopping, a business and a "grazing" trip to Gainesville on Wednesday, Nov. 5, for Ted and Laura Belle Jackson.

That evening the S.T. Warfords of Shidell came a-calling.

Friday the Jacksons had the pleasure of the company of two little ones - they were Josiah Allena and his sister Elspeth of Saint Jo.

Mrs. Paula (Scott) Craig and daughter Lacey of Haltom City visited with Mrs. Billie Poyner recently. Paula is Billie's granddaughter.

Personal items

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Dill were in Dallas on business Wednesday night.

They were Saturday and Sunday visitors in Era with Jack's mother, Beulah Dill.

Mrs. Shirley Harvill of Vernon visited with Louise Shults Tuesday. Then Louise accompanied Shirley to Saint Jo Nursing Center to visit with Mrs. Lenora Moore.

Yours truly and Elaine Truitt had ourselves a day out in Denton Wednesday. We had us a big time "a-looking" and "a-buying."

Juanita Bailey drove over to visit with Mrs. Georgia Greenwood on Thursday, which was Georgia's birthday.

Louise Shults really gets around at times. She was in Waurika, Oklahoma on business Wednesday.

Millie Reynolds reports that she, Gene Links and Ceil Perryman got together Saturday evening and drove over to Muenster to eat supper at The Center. Then on Sunday Mrs. Dennis Reynolds of Sherman was a visitor in the W.T. Reynolds abode.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy McClarey of Lancaster visited with Mr. and Mrs. D.D. Echols of Mallard and Mr. and Mrs. Buford Greenwood of Uz over this past weekend.

Mrs. Lavonda Cannon of Fort Worth spent all of last week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Huckabay and Lance. On Saturday Lavonda's daughter, Ann, also of Fort Worth, came up for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barber and two children of Wichita Falls were weekend visitors with her parents, the Clifford Hudspeths.

Mrs. Becky and Yvonne Scott put in a hard day's work shopping in Wichita Falls on Saturday.

Mrs. Viola Parker of Grapevine spent the past weekend with Cecil and Dorothy Foster. The Chuck Scott family of Denton and the Jerry Periot family of Krum were also weekend visitors.

Edna Merle Hill of Bowie drove over to visit her mom, Vera Mae McGee, Sunday afternoon.

Shirley and Eli Harvill of Vernon spent the past weekend in their Forestburg residence.

Blankenships visit

John C. and Nelda Blankenship of Lindsay, Okla. made it to the 'Burg on Friday to visit with her mother, Mrs. Louise Shults. On Saturday they all took in the Bowie flea market. The Blankenships returned home Monday.

Dallas trip

Mmes. Debra Dill, Beth Dill, Cathy Moseley and Cindy Rotruck drove to Big D Sunday evening to attend a crafts show at the Market Hall there.

New area homes

Every now and then I get asked who is building a new house here, there and yonder. So will report on three I know about.

The BIG new house going up on the former Bill Landers's place belongs to Herman Bell of Fort Worth. I'm told Mr. Bell is in the produce business.

Stephen and Susan Hubbard of Dallas are building the house out close to Vincent Forrester. Mr. Hubbard is an attorney and he and Susan have two children.

The new house going up on the old Hogan place close to Mallard belongs to Price and Elaine Truitt. The Truitts are from Argyle and are already in residence here.

A couple from Gainesville have taken up residence in the Golightly house in Mallard.

I'm sorry that news is on the short side this week but I more or less hit a mighty "dry hole" this week. Let's hope for better digging next week!

Eight spend long visit in Roswell

Five sisters and three of their nieces were united for a trip to, and visit in, Roswell, New Mexico recently.

Hallie Berry and Edith Richardson of Gainesville, Mildred Berry of Hood, Wilma Thurman of Forestburg and Dorothy Riley of Sanger were joined by Sally Berry of Grand Prairie, Imogene Gooch of McKinney and Norma White of Rosston. They visited their 98-year-old Aunt Rhoda Elam and other relatives.

While in Roswell they visited the cemetery where their Grandmother DeBorde and three uncles are buried.

They went sightseeing to the Bottomless Lakes and other places of interest. Another attraction was the Homecoming Week for the Military Academy in Roswell. Their very enjoyable visit continued from Thursday through Sunday, when the eight returned to their homes.

Ross-Point Harvest Supper hosts more than 460

The annual Ross-Point Harvest Supper in the community center on Saturday evening, Nov. 8, was its usual happy event. More than 460 attended from various parts of the county.

Among those this community was especially happy to see there, were guests over 80 years of age. They were Mrs. Bertha Bewley, 92, who formerly lived here but now resides at St. Richard's Villa in Muenster; J.M. Weinzapfel, 92, of Muenster, former president of Muenster State Bank; Joe Fisher, 83, and his wife Bertie of Muenster who were in the grocery business for many years, that is now operated by Butch and Johnny; Mrs. Mary Settle and Mrs. Amy Gilliland, both 89, of Gainesville and both former residents.

Also Mrs. Edith Richardson, 80, of Gainesville, a former resident; Mrs. Myrtle Stout, 80, of Gainesville, a former area school teacher; Mrs. David Smith, 86, of Gainesville who through the years has been very active in the Extension Service; Mrs. Rosa Price, 82, of Alvord, a sister of Mrs. Irene Harry.

Among those in the Ross-Point area were W.C. (Pettie) English, 89, who has been in farming and ranching here; Mrs. Vena Settle, 86, who has lived in the community most of her life; Mrs. Irene Harry, 86, a longtime resident; Mrs. Opal (Christian) Berry, 84, who has resided here all her life on her ranch.

Also Mr. and Mrs. John Gilliland, 82 and 83 - he has lived here all his life and was in oil-leasing business - his wife, Thelma was a local school teacher; Mrs. Mae Maughan, 82, who lived here most of her life and operated a grocery store in Prairie Point.

The sponsors of the Ross-Point Harvest Supper and all the community thank all of you for coming and we also thank all of our guests who are under 80 years of age. Attendance of all of you, even the very youngest, is deeply appreciated.

Special thanks are due all who lent a helping hand to make the Harvest Supper a success. We wish you Bon' Appetit and Good Living!

Weekend visitors

Mrs. Evelyn Brown had as her guest for lunch Sunday her granddaughter, Anita Brown of Alvord, who came home with her from church.

Attend bridal shower

Mrs. Ruth Christian and Mrs. Christine Hughes attended a bridal shower Sunday afternoon in Pilot Point for Miss Jennifer Smith, bride-elect of Dale Hudspeth.

Birthdays observed

Mrs. Nannie Mae Bonner and Mrs. Mag Huckabay of Forestburg treated Mrs. Joyce Hanson to a fish dinner for her birthday that was Nov. 5 at the Crow's Nest in Gainesville.

Saturday Mrs. Hanson drove over to Montague for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Carol Jakse, and family and they attended Trades Day in Bowie.

Attend Trades Day

Miss Lois Bewley visited Mrs. Essie Agee in Saint Jo Friday afternoon. Sunday afternoon Miss Lois Bewley and Clyde and Mrs. Corvella Robeson went to Trades Day in Bowie and went by to see Mrs. Ima King.

Mrs. Estelle Kelley drove over to Era Saturday and accompanied her daughter and son-in-law, the T.J. Amises, to the Golden Triangle Mall in Denton for shopping and they all had lunch there.

More Harvest Supper guests
Mrs. Estelle Kelley and Mrs. Mae Maughan were in Forestburg Wednesday for some shopping and they attended the Harvest Supper Saturday evening. Monday evening guests of Estelle were her sister, Mrs. Merle Rosson and husband Tom of Era. Guests during the weekend were Jerry Kelley, Lanny Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Kelley of Era and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pruitt of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Delia Sutton of Gainesville was a visitor at the Church of Nazarene at Prairie Point Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berry had as their guests during the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Lee McKown of Dallas and their guest, Mrs. Janie McKown of Granbury. Dr. and Mrs. Jerry McKown, Kristin, Kimberly and Casey. They all attended the Harvest Supper and then drove over to Mountain Springs for the musical.

Three visit Scott & White Clinic

Mrs. Della Maberry left on Sunday for Sylvester to visit her sister, Mrs. Dottie McCain, and Mrs. Addie Maberry at McCaulley. Then on Monday they all drove to Temple for a checkup at Scott & White Clinic. Della returned home on Wednesday.

Ruth Smith stopped by for a visit with Della and Marvin after church Sunday and had lunch.

Sunday and Monday guests

Tigers win finale 39-0

by Max Hastings

The Sacred Heart Tigers finished the season Friday night, even though they walked away with a 39-0 victory over the Dallas Lexington Patriots. This win put the Tigers in a four-way tie to go to the playoffs, but they found out they would not be going Sunday evening.

Both teams came out fighting in the first quarter for that chance at the playoffs. The Tigers, however, managed to get a 6-point cushion with 2:47 remaining in the quarter. The score, made by Wayne Becker, was set up when the defense pressured the punter to a 9-yard punt.

The Tigers went on a scoring rampage in the second quarter, and Darrell Dangelmayr got things rolling as he slipped through from the 3-yard line to make the score 12-0. Seconds later, Steve Knabe ignited another scoring drive as he intercepted a pass. With the ball on the visitors' 35-yard line, Dangelmayr passed to Mike Adair and Becker to get his team into scoring position. Becker then hammered in from the 5-yard line. Becker also threw to Craig Voth for the PAT to boost the score up to 20-0.

With the Tigers capitalizing on turnovers all during the second quarter, Casey Houtchens set up the next touchdown as he recovered a fumble with 4:09 remaining in the half. Nine seconds later, Dangelmayr found Voth in the end zone for a 24-yard TD throw and a 26-0 lead.

Yet another turnover led to the fourth and final score of the half.

Steve Knabe, with his second interception of the night, put the ball on the Tigers' 30-yard line with 45 seconds remaining in the half. Dangelmayr again put the Tigers' aerial game into motion as he connected with Frank Hastings for a 68-yard reception. Stopped short 3 yards of the score, Knabe capped off things with a TD. The PAT was

STEVEN KNABE in district action against Lexington.

Janie Hartman Photo blocked, but the Tigers had already built themselves a 32-0 lead at the intermission.

A murky fog rolled in during the second half and slowed things down for both teams. However, Dangelmayr served as a beacon in the night and keyed on receiver Steve Knabe for a 48-yard TD pass. Hastings added the PAT to put the score at 39-0 with 11:43 remaining in the third quarter. Dangelmayr intercepted a pass with 2:32 left in the quarter, but the Tigers failed to convert for a score.

In the fourth quarter, the Patriots mustered up all they had in their last drive of the game. With 5:15 remaining, an official measurement put the Patriots at 1st and goal. Then at 3:19, it was 4th and 2, when Terry Bartel broke up things as he slammed the ball carrier for a loss.

Wayne Becker paced the defense with 8 tackles and 9 assists. Casey Houtchens followed with 8 tackles and 7 assists. Other standouts were Donny Knabe, Deano Bayer, Mike Adair, Terry Bartel, Steve Knabe and Tommy Bonner.

Becker also led all rushers with 101 yards on 19 carries. Knabe picked up 57 yards on 9 tries and Ryan Bayer added 43 yards on 6 attempts.

Dangelmayr threw 15 passes completing 7 for 167 yards passing. Steve Knabe snagged one pass for 47 yards and a TD. Craig Voth caught the other TD pass for 24 yards receiving. Hastings also hauled in one pass for 66 yards receiving.

As a team, the Tigers racked up 231 yards rushing on 44 carries with 24 first downs, while the Patriots were held to 65 yards on 40 carries and 7 first downs.

Passing also went to the Tigers as they went 7 of 15 with one interception for 167 yards in the air. Lexington picked up 17 yards and went 2 of 13 with three interceptions.

Sacred Heart finishes the season at 4-2 in district and 5-5 overall.

Hornets finish at 5-5

Muenster Hornet football ended the season Friday night on a high note with a 21-8 victory over the host Collinsville Pirates. The Hornets finished 3-2 in zone play, good enough for a third place behind Valley View (5-0) and Era (4-1). Playing their last game for the Muenster Red were seniors Joe Pagel, Bubba Klement, Dan Klement, Damie Hellman, Drue Bynum, Gary Grewing, Mark Hennigan, Andy Burnette, Steven Whittington, Ryan Klement and Shawn Flusche. Captains, elected by team members, were Pagel, Grewing, Bynum, R. Klement and Flusche.

Bynum led the charge against the Pirates. He rushed for 122 yards on 18 carries and 1 touchdown, and also caught 3 passes for 47 yards and another score. Bynum averaged over 100 yards rushing in district contests. Sophomore J. Shane Wimmer sparked a strong defensive showing with 3 interceptions, giving him 7 thefts for the year. Grewing, Burnette and D. Klement recovered Pirate fumbles and Hellman blocked a punt to keep Collinsville bottled up for most of the night. Billy Youngblood also intercepted a Pirate aerial. The Hornet defense held the Pirates to 26 yards rushing on 28 carries.

Bynum opened the scoring with a 4-yard jaunt with 1:04 left in the first quarter. Stuart Hess, who had an excellent game from his noseguard position, kicked the PAT.

With 35 seconds left in the first half, Wimmer connected with Burnette on a 38-yard scoring toss. Hess added the PAT for a 14-0 Hornet halftime lead.

Wimmer hit Bynum on a beautiful 66-yard pass-and-run score early in the third quarter, but a holding call nullified the tally. Minutes later, Hess had a field goal attempt blocked. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Wimmer went to Bynum again, no flags this time, and after 38 yards and a Hess PAT, the Hornets had a 21-0 advantage.

Collinsville quarterback Darren Roberts put the Pirates on the scoreboard with 3 minutes to go on a 24-yard scramble. He then passed to Tar Henderson for the 2-point conversion. Collinsville ended the year at 2-8.

The Muenster Varsity was 5-5. The Junior Varsity finished 5-1 with the Junior High winning 7 against 1 loss.

Head Coach Dewey Sims is now 14 and 8 in two seasons at the helm. Next season he will return four starters on defense and four starters on offense against the same schedule as this past season. Valley View and Era will both be hard hit by graduation.

The Muenster JV team did not lose to a district opponent, suffering their lone setback against Nocona. Next fall should provide an interesting race for the playoffs.

Muenster Junior High wins district crown with 5-0 record

The Muenster Junior High Hornets ended their season with a convincing 26-0 win over Collinsville. The victory gave them a perfect 5-0 slate in district play and a 7-1 season record. Their only loss was at Van Alstyne by a 12-8 count.

Muenster ran to a 26-0 halftime lead over the Pirates. Spencer McAden scored on runs of 40 yards, 2 yards and caught a touchdown pass from Troy Pagel, covering 32 yards. Pagel scored the first touchdown on a 2-yard plunge and he also scored a 2-point conversion to round out the scoring. In district games, the Hornets outscored the opponents 132-12.

Scott Hudspeth and Troy Pagel led the defense from their linebacker positions. The rest of the defensive team were Tony Perryman, Paul Black, Brad McDaniel, Ryan Sicking, Terry Felderhoff, Mike Gobble, Doug Hennigan, Rex Huchton, and Chris Reyling. Gobble intercepted 7 passes on the year as well as leading the team in fumble recoveries.

McAden and Pagel provided an outside and inside running attack on offense that proved hard to stop. In the last three contests vs. Valley View, Era and Collinsville, the Hornets outscored the opponents 80-6 in the first half. McAden had 16 touchdowns for the year. Pagel either paved the way for McAden or carried himself as he tallied 9 six-pointers. Offensive starters also contributing were Perryman, Black, McDaniel, Hudspeth, Sicking, Felderhoff, Reyling, Richard Tuggle, Darrin Russell, Bryan Reiter and Gobble.

The rest of the District Championship squad was made up of Ronnie Jones, Steven Youngblood, Kelly Colwell, Sam Walterscheid, Chris Kubis, Jason Biffle, Justin Ramsey, Bill Park, Joey Serna, and Jim Eckart. Doug Evans, Raymond Stewart and Chad Bayer were team managers.

Hunters are reminded of registry service

AUSTIN - Prospective deer hunters who have not yet found a place to hunt this fall still have time to locate a lease through the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Deer Hunting Lease Registry.

Horace Gore, white-tailed deer program leader for the TPWD, said the program now has listings of more than 950 landowners and some 4 1/2 million acres of land. "We have sent out about 2,700 letters to prospective hunters, which I feel is a pretty good start for the program's first year," Gore said.

Interested hunters should write the TPWD at 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, TX 78744 and specify which region of the state they wish to hunt. They will receive a list of landowners which includes basic information about the type of leases being offered. Gore stressed that the TPWD acts as a clearinghouse for getting hunters and landowners together but is not responsible for negotiations between the parties.

Gore said the 2,700 recipients of lists are a good start because in many cases hunters who request the information are representing several other prospective hunters. "We are going to do a follow-up survey after the hunting season is over to see how effective the registry has been," Gore continued.

Nine returning lettermen...

Tigers open play at Lindsay Friday

Heading the list of returners are seniors Steve Becker, Frank Hastings, Casey Houtchens, Steve Knabe, Todd Thorson, Craig Voth. Juniors are Wayne Becker and Deano Bayer. Sophomores Ryan Bayer, Darrell Dangelmayr, Glenn Swirczynski and freshmen Dave Rohmer and Steve Koelzer. The Tigers will not have a JV squad this season.

The Tigers will have good size with the pair of 6'3" forwards in Thorson and Houtchens. The 6' Voth and the 6'1" Wayne Becker and the 6' Dangelmayr will add size and quickness to go along with the cat-quick guards of Steve Becker, Hastings, Knabe and Swirczynski.

"Dangelmayr, Knabe and Hastings can shoot with anybody but I don't know if they can be consistent scorers," said Coach Jon. The Tigers plan to continue a set offensive pattern and take the break when it is available. On defense the Tigers will play a match-up man with some basic zone sets.

The Tigers open play this Friday at Lindsay. "They might be a little ahead of us as they have an athletic period but officially Coach Thomason was unable to have his first full-scale practice until Monday," said Coach Jon. Game time is scheduled for JV girls at 5:30 followed by varsity girls and varsity boys.

The Sacred Heart Tigers opened practice Monday evening in preparation for the 1986-87 basketball season. Nine returning lettermen are expected to pace the Tigers this season. "I'm very optimistic about the upcoming season," said Coach LeBrasseur. "With the returning of nine letter-winners and some hard work we could be very competitive this season."

Even though returning nine letter-winners the Tigers lost through graduation Ken Hesse, the Tigers' leading scorer and rebounder, John Nasche, the speedy playmaker, and Lloyd Walterscheid, a defensive specialist. "Our lettermen do not have much playing time under their belts, but they are a year older and they know the system," said an enthusiastic Coach Jon.

"We have had back-to-back losing seasons and I am hopeful we can turn this thing around this year," said Coach LeBrasseur. "Last year we were above .500 until we began district." The Tigers did not win a district game last season. "I am trying a new approach to practice this season," said Coach Jon. "We are going to take the first three weeks, just as the girls do, and learn our entire playbook correctly." "The first month might be rough but by district I hope we will be ready."

Muzzle Loading Rifle course set for Nov. 18

GAINESVILLE - Sportsmen and gun fanciers who harbor a nostalgic yen for the days before firing pins and repeaters should be especially interested in a non-credit "mini-course" to be offered at Cooke County College beginning Nov. 18.

Instructor Ricky Tuggle will take students back to the days when a steady hand, a good aim, reliable flint and dry powder made the difference between eating or going hungry or, as was often the case, staying alive.

"Muzzle Loading Rifles and Pistols" is the title of the course, and it will meet from 7 to 10 p.m. on Tuesday evenings through Dec. 16. Cost for enrolling is $28.

Tuggle will be using his own collection of muzzle loaders for instruction and cautions that students are forbidden by law from bringing any kind of firearms to campus.

"However, we are planning to work in some firing range practice off campus where students can practice what we'll be talking about in class and even bring their own guns if they wish," Tuggle reports.

The National Rifle Association-approved instructor says that muzzle-loading weapons can be fascinating even for a casual gun fancier and especially for history buffs.

"The fact is that muzzle-loaders have played a pivotal role in so many aspects of the history of our country, from the taming of the frontier to the Civil War and beyond," he observes.

Tuggle also points out that there are many, many different types of muzzle-loaders. For example, there were both muskets and rifles, each with its own kind of ammo, flint and powder weapons and so on.

"Anyone who's ever tried to load up one of these guns and shott it knows that having the proper load of powder and the proper angle on the flint is critical," he says, "and we'll be talking about how to achieve that consistently in the class."

Another major area of emphasis in the class will be on the care and maintenance of muzzle-loading pistols and rifles - an especially important consideration for persons who own and want to preserve genuine antique guns.

"Of course, proper care and maintenance is critically important for any type of gun, no matter what its type or age," Tuggle stresses. "This and other safety considerations will also be covered in the course."

Space in the class will be limited so persons wishing to enroll should register in advance in the CCC Continuing Education office in Room 107 on campus. For more information call 817/668-7731 or Metro 430-0352, Ext. 223.

Muenster basketball opens season Mon.

Muenster High School will unveil its two varsity basketball teams this Monday night with the Callisburg Wildcats coming to town. The girls are scheduled for a 7 p.m. tipoff with the boys' game to follow. A junior varsity contest will precede the varsity games.

The Muenster Hornets will tune up for the opener with a scrimmage against Archer City this Saturday. JV action will begin at 10 a.m. with varsity to follow.

Support the Muenster Hornets and Hornetses and see a game. The second home contests will be Nov. 25 against Gold-Burg at 7 p.m. Next Friday, Nov. 21, the teams will be away at Valley View with a 7 p.m. tipoff.

Sacred Heart tickets on sale

Basketball season tickets for all Sacred Heart home games went on sale last Friday evening. A season ticket holder is admitted to all home basketball games from grade school up through varsity, and their names appear on the program. "Our goal is to sell 100 tickets," said Coach Jon. "It is a great buy and some of the money will be used to purchase new red jerseys for our boys."

The varsity Tigers and Tigerettes will host 13 games and the junior high will be home for five contests.

Regular admission prices are the same as football - $3.00 for adults and $2.00 students. Junior high admission prices are $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students.

Season ticket prices are: two for $25.00; one adult for $15.00; and one student for $10.00.

Tickets may be purchased from any player or call the school office (759-4121) and a player will get in contact with you. First home game is next Tuesday evening as the Tigerettes and Tigers will host Prairie Valley at 7 p.m.

Tigerettes ready for opener with Lindsay

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes hosted the Valley View Lady Eagles Tuesday evening in their final warm-up for the season opener Friday at Lindsay. The host Tigerettes hung on for a narrow 53-50 win while the JV Tigerettes claimed a 24-16 win.

The Eagles jumped out to an early 12-10 first period lead behind Lori Alexander and Diana Bierschenk who scored four each. Danna Hamric led the Tigerettes with seven. The second period saw Danna Hamric nail three bombs and Vicki Walterscheid control the boards as the Tigerettes took a 28-20 halftime lead. Danna Hamric led the Tigerettes with 10 for the period and Paige Clark had four for the visitors.

The third frame was a standoff as both teams scored 13 with Stephanie Krahl pacing the Eagles with six and Vicki Walterscheid leading the Tigerettes with three. The final period saw the Tigerettes jump out to a 14-point lead only to throw it away to the tenacious Eagles, who closed the gap to the final margin of 53-50. Leading the Eagle charge was Diana Bierschenk with six and leading the Tigerettes was Vicki Walterscheid and Julie Rohmer with four each.

"The close game helped both teams," said Coach Jon. "We sure learned a lot and Valley View made our weaknesses stand out." Coach Golden is doing a fine job over there and they are going to win their share of games."

Scorers for Sacred Heart were: Danna Hamric 22, Vicki Walterscheid 10 points and 11 rebounds, Juline Bartel 5, Molly Koelzer and Julie Rohmer 4 each, Lisa Hamric, Noelle Hesse, Vicki Schmitt and Amy Walterscheid all had 2 apiece. Juline Bartel led the defense with five steals. Leading the Eagles were Stephanie Krahl with 14, Diana Bierschenk 10, Paige Clark 6, Becky Montgomery 9, Lori Alexander 5, Tanya Alexander 4 and Tanya Roberts 2.

The JV contest was all Sacred Heart as the young Tigerettes raced to a 14-4 halftime lead and never looked back. The JV Tigerettes coasted to a 24-16 victory. Scorers for the Junior Tigerettes were: La Becca Hess 6, Debbie Schmitt and Angela Endres 4 each, and chipping in with 2 were Michelle Walter, Janal Flusche, Jennifer Fuhrmann, Misty McCoy and Tina Schilling. Leading the JV Eagles were Paula Alexander and Michelle Pennington with 5 each.

A Breakfast Meeting is scheduled for Thursday morning, Nov. 13, at 7 a.m. at the Cooke County Fairgrounds. This meeting will cover various grass and weed problems and their control measures in small grain fields. T.V.

Smith, DuPont Chemical representative, and Craig Rosenbaum, County Extension Agent, and products will be available to try.

Small grain producers are invited to attend the informative meeting. The breakfast is sponsored and we look forward to the attendance of small grain producers in the county.

will present a workshop on proper ryegrass control using Glean and other herbicides. This year DuPont is sponsoring a sample program

Learn microwave cooking at home

A home study course containing information and experiments to help you learn about microwaving with your own oven is now available from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says Cooke County Home Economist Evelyn Yeatts.

"Research studies show that most people use their microwave ovens for simply reheating and defrosting foods, rather than actually cooking," she says. "So we're offering this course for people who want to get full cooking use out of their investment in a microwave."

Participants in previous Extension home study course have reported significant changes in the way they use their microwave ovens after completing the course, she adds.

The course contains eight lessons for you to complete at your own pace. The first three lessons include information on the oven, accessories and utensils; factors that influence cooking, reheating and defrosting times; and meal planning and recipe conversions.

The remaining five lessons cover microwaving breads and cereals; dairy products; vegetables and fruits; meats; jam, jelly and candy, as well as foods for children to cook. Although these five lessons follow a logical progression, each can stand alone so you can do them in a different order or skip over some, she notes.

THE COOKE COUNTY HAY JUDGING CONTEST was held Nov. 11 in Gainesville with 24 teams and over 100 participants. Pictured are Muenster's Senior division members David Fleitman, Alan Hudspeth, Gary Grewing and Dale Reiter. The team placed second with Alan awarded High Individual. Also participating was Muenster's Junior division team placing seventh. Team members are Keith Vogel, Justin Ashley, Yancy Culp and James Hennigan, who was awarded Fourth High Individual. ## Reducing visible and hidden fats in the diet

Consumers may associate fat with meat because it is visible, and tend to ignore the hidden fats in other types of food, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

Mary K. Sweeten explains that there are three types of fat in food:

- Polyunsaturated fats are liquid at room temperature. These fats tend to lower blood cholesterol. Vegetable oils, such as corn, cottonseed, safflower and soybean oil are all polyunsaturated fats.

- Monounsaturated fats seem to lower blood cholesterol, but still provide fat-based calories. Peanut butter and peanut oil, nuts, avocados and olive oil contain monounsaturated fats.

- Saturated fats are solid at room temperature and tend to raise blood cholesterol levels. Animal products, such as cheese, meat, butter and lard are a main source of saturated fats. However, vegetable products including cocoa butter, coconut oil and palm oil also contain large amounts of saturated fats.

"Unless people read food ingredient labels, they are often unaware that coconut oil, palm oil and other saturated fats are frequently used in baked goods and other processed foods," Sweeten remarks.

One way consumers have tried to cut back on saturated fats is to choose lean meat, says Sweeten.

According to the nutritionist, results of a recent national study conducted by Texas A&M University showed that consumers evaluate the leanness of a cut of beef primarily by the amount of trimmable fat, or the "plate waste" fat that would be cut away and not eaten.

"The degree of marbling in the meat also contributes to its fat content," she says, "so consumers may wish to select beef on that basis as well." In general, USDA "choice" grades of beef have more marbling than those labeled "good."

About 3 to 6 percent of fat from marbling is necessary for tenderness and taste appeal in beef, says the nutritionist. A 3-ounce serving of cooked lean beef has 192 calories.

Sweeten notes that some of the leaner cuts of meat include flank steak, top sirloin steak, bottom sirloin, top loin steak, top round steak, chuck top blade steak, beef tenderloin steaks, round tip roast and bottom round roast.

Both the U.S. Dietary Guidelines and the American Heart Association Dietary Recommendations advise Americans to cut back on their consumption of fat so that it is no more than one-third of their daily calories. In addition, the Heart Association recommends reducing saturated fats to under 10 percent of daily calories.

"That means consumers need to be thinking in terms of their total fat intake," says Sweeten. "They may want to watch their intake of saturated fats from processed foods and baked goods as well as select lean meat."

Using a minimum of fats and oils and choosing to broil, bake, poach or steam foods instead of frying will also help reduce total fat consumption, she says.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

A neglected garden site this fall and winter can become an insect haven waiting to explode next spring with hundreds of hungry and unwanted insect pests. Don't maintain insects in your garden this winter. Destroy their critical food supply and shelter to have fewer pests in your garden next spring. Garden insects, like most living creatures, need food and shelter to survive freezing temperatures and other adverse weather conditions. Don't give them a place to spend the winter in your garden.

Ideal places for insects to overwinter are trash, vegetable stubble, unharvested fruits and tubers, boards, mulch, tall grass and weeds. Removing plant residues and disposing of debris, weeds and other volunteer plants eliminates food and shelter for many insect pests such as cutworms, webworms, aphids, wireworms, white grubs and millipedes, sowbugs and spider mites.

When a garden plant stops producing, spade it into the soil or take it to the compost pile. Don't allow it to remain in the garden.

Spading the soil deeply during the fall is also good as it will expose many insects to be eaten by birds and predators. Other insects will be tilled deep enough into the soil to prevent their emergence.

By practicing good garden sanitation this fall, you'll be riding yourself of many undesirable garden "friends" and saving yourself time and money for insect and disease control next growing season.

Daily Short Course

Information to help dairy producers cope with changes affecting the industry and to better evaluate alternative management practices will be presented at the 1986 Dairy Short Course. The short course will be held at the Weatherford County Annex, Weatherford, on Nov. 19. The session will start at 10 a.m. and conclude by 3 p.m. Another session will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Windhorst Parish Hall in Windhorst on Friday, Nov. 21.

Opening discussions will deal with supply management and its effect on dairy production. Genetics, reproduction management and sire selection will also be discussed. Financial management and the effect of the new tax laws from both a business and personal standpoint will be presented. Since feed is a major dairy expense, the session on buying feed and feeding for profit should be of interest.

Pre-registration is not necessary. The short course is designed to provide dairymen with practical information on planning and management and evaluating alternatives so that they can cope more effectively with the many factors that are impacting the dairy industry.

HOME EC BRIEFS...

CHECK CHIMNEY BEFORE USING FIREPLACE - Preventative measures can help reduce dangerous creosote and tar buildup in your fireplace chimney and flue, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service housing specialist. "Both flue and chimney units should be cleaned before the first fireplace fire of the season," says Dr. Susan Quiring. "It also may require cleaning again during the winter, especially if you burn wood that has not been air-dried or seasoned." The specialist says a fourth-inch accumulation of creosote indicates the flue needs cleaning. She suggests checking the fireplace by hanging a flashlight from the top of the flue to a third of the way down the flue. Then, look up the lighted flue from the fireplace with a mirror to get an estimate of the buildup.

PRECAUTIONS WITH PRESERVATIVE-TREATED WOOD - To avoid possible danger to individuals and the environment, certain precautions are necessary when handling, using and disposing of preservative-treated wood, says a wood products specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Wood treated with creosote or penta (pentachlorophenol) can be used for some interior situations if it receives two sealer coats of such materials as urethane, epoxy or shellac. Wood treated with penta or creosote should not be used in situations where frequent or prolonged skin contact occurs unless an effective sealer has been applied. Also, treated wood should not be used in structures or containers for water, silage or food or for farrowing or brooding facilities. Wear a dust mask when sawing or machining treated wood, and do not burn scraps of treated wood.
