Water District engages new attorneys

Proposed lake project shows movement

On Saturday, June 13, the Board of Directors of the Muenster Water District met with attorneys John Boyle Jr. and Kenneth Dippel of the firm of Hutchison, Price, Boyle and Brooks, who were being considered as Counsel for the Water District to replace Richard Stark who had resigned. Mr. Boyle and Mr. Dippel have both had extensive experience in this field.

Mr. Boyle presented a proposal to the Board, and it was discussed at length after which the Board voted unanimously to accept the proposal and engage Mr. Boyle and Mr. Dippel as Counsel for the Muenster Water District.

They will begin immediately with reviewing the files to acquaint themselves with the status of the project. They expect to begin the land acquisition in the near future. Two pieces of property have already been acquired.

Chairman of the Water District Board of Directors, Jim Roark said Tuesday that more information on the proposed lake and the history of the water levels beneath Muenster would soon be released. He commented that Muenster is near the top of the Trinity Sand water formation and that the many cities to the south and east are definitely drawing it down.

The land required for the proposed lake should be acquired in the foreseeable future. That must be accomplished before engineers can get on the site to start designing the dam.

When asked about the effect the dam would have had on last weekend's flash flood Roark said, "The dam that will be built would be able to swallow that much water easily."

MINIBUS IS HERE! The minibus, a boon to residents who need a lift, arrived in Muenster on Monday afternoon and began its service on Wednesday. Friday's flood upstages other news...

Flash Flood strikes!

FLASH FLOOD!! To many local people those were merely words in a dictionary, or, at best, used only in newspaper, radio and TV weather accounts of other catastrophes in other areas, hurting other people.

Friday afternoon, June 12, the words became reality with speed and force that now meet with disbelief in the re-telling of many incidents.

"Wall of Water" was a relatively good descriptive phrase - perhaps a bit far-fetched, but it became reality in a matter of minutes for this town Friday afternoon.

"The deluge that struck between Saint Jo and Muenster and north of town about 3:30 p.m. Friday," say rural residents of that area, "almost defies description."

"I walked outside about 3:20 p.m. with my children," one young mother said, "intending to go to the post office, when I heard an incredible roar, with nothing visible nearby to relate to the sound. We walked toward the creek and we literally watched the waters rise. Needless to say, we retreated in a hurry! Then I started phoning..."

Officer Bob Stovall was driving on Highway 82 West, when he became aware of the imminent flood. He called Celine Dittfurth at City Hall and notified City Manager Joe Fenton, requesting that they relay the message to Dan Luke, whose home would be in the direct path of the danger; and then call the Cooke County Sheriff's Department, who might need to alert residents of low-lying sections toward Gainesville, of the possibility of high water damage down stream. However, at that time and most of Friday, rainfall downtown in Muenster had been only soft and messy.

As related by Joe Fenton, the exchange went something like this: Stovall, "Have you seen the water?" ... Fenton, "What water?" ... Stovall shouting, "A Wall of Water!! literally ... the roar of water is hard to describe."

As residents began making phone calls to pass the alert, "What Water?" was the general response, so rapidly did the danger rise.

Water rose to more than 15 inches in the living room of the Dan Luke home just west of town, and receded to less than a foot after a brief time but it definitely left its grime, ruining carpets, flooring, paneling, cabinets, books, etc. and began seeping into the dining room. However, friends rushed in to carry furniture to higher parts of the house before Luke could reach home. Luke was notified when the Brushy Elm Creek overflowed onto his driveway and crept up toward his deck.

The force of the water pushed his propane tank off its base, washed it down the creek, through Muenster City Park and hung it high on the iron bridge over the crossing further downstream. Later that evening the tank was "roped," coaxed to the creek bank and removed by a winch truck. It is now back in place and in use by the family.

Other losses sustained by the Luke family include damage to a shop and equipment, and to a separate tool shed. "It completely annihilated our backyard and landscaping," said Dan Luke, "also roses, flowers, shrubs, trees, fences. Some statuary was broken. Fences are just gone... This flood caused damage by its speed and force. In 1981 we were flooded when overflow couldn't get away and just continued to back up, higher and higher and wider and wider. Friday we had two inches of mud inside the carport, where one hot water heater was also damaged. Yes, it was a mess, a real mess."

Muenster City Park was literally inundated. Muddy water reached the wing tips of the airplane. Debris and mud clung to playground equipment.

"The swimming pool was flooded. After a while a stream of black goo several arms-length wide began passing over and into it," related Joe Fenton. "After we drained the pool, there was an inch and a half layer of silt, black mud, sticks and trash."

"Included in flood-related damage was one electric motor requiring repair because it was submerged. Mud caused the greatest problem. We worked Saturday evening and Saturday night until after midnight cleaning the pool and refilling, with assistance from the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department.

"Earlier, the pool manager, Valerie Vogel, lifeguards and assistants helped Saturday morning, washing and scraping thick mud off pool decks. The pool reopened Tuesday," said Fenton. "About 96-100 kids came jubilantly. Everything is in full swing and back to normal."

"What remains now is the damaged roadway in the park. We (the city crew) have picked up the broken pavement that came up in huge slabs and pieces. There was damage near the airplane and up Please See FLOOD, Page 2

It's a seedy business

Gray, rain-laden clouds have covered the Muenster area during the past weeks, opening to release drizzles as well as downpours that caused flash flooding and extensive damage. These clouds, unusual because they hung in the area without drifting on, have many people perplexed. One local family, however, the Joe Fuhrmann family of Lindsay, is searching for some answers.

The Joe Fuhrmanns, who suffered crop and cattle losses due to the recent heavy rainfall and flooding, believe that more than nature may be behind the abnormal weather. Doing some research, the family found newspaper and magazine articles reporting the seeding of clouds in Texas and Oklahoma. Now the Fuhrmanns feel that this practice of shooting silver iodide into clouds to induce precipitation may at least partially explain the rainclouds that have been plaguing Muenster and the surrounding area.

Deciding to take action, the Fuhrmanns wrote several agencies and legislators about two weeks ago. In the letters, they told of the excessive rainfall, sent pictures of the flooding and damage, and also sent copies of the articles citing the procedure of cloud seeding. They additionally requested that all cloud seeding practices be stopped.

In one of the articles sent in the letters, Dr. James R. Scoggins, chairman of the Department of Meteorology at Texas A&M University, states that "it is not possible in advance to determine where, when, and how much additional precipitation will result from seeding a given cloud."

The only response the family has received came from Richard F. Williamson of the Texas House of Representatives on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Joe Fuhrmann said that Williamson's letter expressed sympathy to those who suffered losses from the rainfall, but that since cloud seeding operations crossed state lines, they became a federal matter that he could not deal with.

When The Muenster Enterprise contacted the Oklahoma Water Resources Board, a spokesman said that in their agency, cloud seeding was "only in the study stages" and that "no clouds have actually been seeded."

Thomas Larkin, a meteorologist for the Weather and Climate Section of the Texas Water Commission, told The Enterprise that seven cloud seeding operations currently have permits in Texas. The cloud seeding operation closest to the Muenster area is run by the Comanche County Weather Modification Association. Working for several years now, this organization seeds clouds through generators located in Wichita, Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, Clay, Knox and Baylor counties, utilizing breezes that blow the clouds northward to Oklahoma. However, this particular operation has not done any cloud seeding so far this year and is not scheduled to begin the process until later in the summer.

The currently active cloud seeding operation nearest Muenster is sponsored by Texas Tech University in the area between San Angelo and Big Springs, Texas. But according to Larkin, this high-tech project is "too far away to have any effect [on the Muenster area]."

Larkin feels that the excessive rainfall this area has been experiencing is not due to any seeding project, but to an abnormally slow-moving weather pattern.

Now the rain spell appears to be over - for awhile. Farmers and sun lovers alike are turning smiling faces upward to greet the traditionally dry Texas skies, a welcome relief after the long days of thick, massive rainclouds.

For more information on cloud seeding in Texas, write Mr. Bob Riggio, Chief, Weather and Climate Section, Texas Water Commission, P.O. Box 13087, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Mother Cabrini Arami returned to Muenster briefly Wednesday. Coming on Tuesday were Sisters Monica Swirczynski, Florentine Tempel, Lillian Marie Reiter and Aloysia Kleiss who will visit relatives. Sister Mary John Seyler will arrive Friday to visit her mother.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

What a great country we live in that allows representation of the people through our elected officials. Only one component is sometimes missing: elected officials only know what we want if we tell them. A situation exists now where the County Commissioners apparently are seeking our input and we should accommodate them.

An open meeting is scheduled for Monday, June 22, to determine the continued need of a timely and effective ambulance service in Western Cooke County. The problem apparently exists that the patient load has increased so much in the Eastern part of the County that the current Muenster based unit is needed to help carry the load. This results in the necessity of calling back the Muenster unit and leaving that station unmanned frequently.

The question is whether or not to close the Muenster station permanently, which would effectively reduce the problem of the Eastern portion of the County. Wouldn't it also leave another problem unsolved? The average response time to the Muenster area is approximately 15 minutes, which according to many experts, is too long for a heart attack patient to go unattended. One suggestion is that this occurrence is too infrequent to warrant a full-time service. I contend that one life is worth any amount needed to continue this valuable and necessary service. The increased need in the Gainesville area should be addressed without reducing service elsewhere.

EXAMPLE: After the flood in '81, damage to roads and bridges was some 10 times greater in Precinct 1 than any other of the 4. We did not close the other three to move resources to that area. During Germanfest weekend when there were more people in Muenster than anywhere else in the County, we did not close the other ambulance station and put all personnel in Muenster. When the Jail Commission said we were overcrowded we did not close the County Jail. So why consider closing the Muenster station because the Gainesville one is too busy?

The new EMS Administrator, David Cleveland, has a number of ideas on how we can solve this problem without causing anyone to suffer needlessly. I believe it's up to the taxpayers to ask that he be given a chance to do what he has been hired to do. That is find a solution to the problem without moving backwards. I believe that he can.

Call your commissioner or come to the scheduled meeting to insure that the first option is not really an option after all.

Sincerely
Don Rice

St. Peter's Special

The Muenster Enterprise will publish a special edition on June 26 to coincide with the celebration of St. Peter's Church and parish, noting the restoration and redecorating of the historic monument. This edition is timed to also coincide with the Homecoming event marking its seventieth successive observance, that began in 1917 on the July 4 weekend following the cyclone that destroyed St. Peter's Church. The Lindsay gatherings were designated as benefits for the rebuilding fund. The special edition will be available without charge to regular subscribers and supporters only. Saragosa fund raising planned

Fund raising projects for the victims of the tornado in Saragosa, Texas were the dominant topics discussed at a recent J.A.M. (Jesus Alive in Muenster) meeting held at the home of Emily Klement. Those present at the meeting selected to raise money for a service project for this small Catholic community which was destroyed last month by a tornado.

Plans were made to hold Stroll for Saragosa on Tuesday, July 7. Stroll for Saragosa will be a walk of about three miles through designated streets of Muenster. Participants will be asked to donate to the Saragosa cause at the start of the walk.

Also on July 7 will be a Supper at the Community Center. Hamburger plates will be sold to further benefit the drive for money to aid Saragosa victims.

J.A.M. held a scavenger hunt at its regular meeting on June 10. Three teams competed for prized fudge cones. A prayer session was held afterwards.

The next scheduled J.A.M. meeting is set for Wednesday, June 24. Everyone is invited for prayer and refreshments in the SNAP meeting room at 7:30. Volleyball games will follow the meeting.

towards the pavilion." All areas of the park were under water, and about half of the surface area was littered with floating debris. Fenton added, "Jaycees hauled off several large truckloads of debris Saturday morning. They literally cleaned up the grounds and did a super job."

At the Jaycee building in Muenster City Park, water rose to three feet at the front door when Neal Flusche and Dick Dangelmayr attempted to enter to retrieve several pieces of important Jaycee equipment. They therefore went through a window and were inside only five minutes when water was scarcely two inches deep when they entered. They attributed this to a very good door seal. However, in those brief minutes, a heavy floating log struck the metal door, bending it enough to allow water to seep inside to a depth of 21 inches. It receded almost as quickly.

Neal Flusche said, "The door has been straightened, but the door lock was too damaged and has been replaced. We had a lot of help cleaning up after the flood. This gave us a good chance. It has never been this clean before."

Joe Fenton continued, "Damage at the sewer plant included everything on the north side of the creek, as all sewer facilities were submerged by flood water. We had to clean several inches of mud and trash off decks and out of the inside of the pump house. We had to take all 10 electric motors out of the pump house to United Electric for repair. City employees did this work with the help of a backhoe from C and H. Saturday evening we put some back to restore operation, and installed the rest of the motors Monday and Tuesday. Everything is now back on line!"

Roads and bridge damage included the bridge on Ash Street, Eddy St., FM 373 south of town when water washed away approaches. Only Ash Street remains barricaded today. Others have been repaired. The Ash Street bridge foundation was undermined and damage has not been determined. It therefore remains closed.

Police Chief Helen Tompkins and Deputy Bob Stovall were kept busy - very busy - during those several hours. The water peaked at approximately 5 p.m. Chief Tompkins commented, "Everyone reacted with alacrity - cheerful willingness and promptness. Although none of us had a previous incident to provide an experience for response or prior knowledge, all efforts to help just seemed to fall into place so very well."

Both Chief Tompkins and Deputy Stovall repeated, "The 'Wall of Water' reminded us of the biblical story of the Red Sea. First, you heard the roar and suddenly you saw the water. When it spread, the roar stopped. We can't find the right word to describe it."

Residents give personal descriptions of flood

There are almost as many personal stories of the flood as there are storytellers.

Rainfall in Muenster, according to Steve Moster's records, could hardly predict Friday's flood. Rain measure, June 7 to 11, amounted to .43 on Wednesday and .44 on Thursday. But on Friday's doom's day the deluge struck north of Muenster and also between Saint Jo and Muenster.

As Duwayne Schilling assessed the event: "The sky fell in." When Brushy Elm Creek could not contain the on-rush, the muddy waters spilled over, and flooded both sides of the creek, reaching long fingers of goo, slush, trash and mud into and over farmlands, hayfields, row crops, oil field pumps, whatever was in its way, over roads and bridges, and ripping out fences, both old and new.

Round hay bales were washed out of fields onto roads; debris was hung wherever it could attach itself like Spanish Moss. A picnic table that had been anchored on concrete is still hanging high in a tree in the creek.

Duwayne Schilling said, "Several weeks ago we got 9 inches, but it fell in several showers. This time we got 2 1/2 inches on Thursday and 5 1/2 inches in one hour on Friday. Our tinhorn culverts held, but the gravel approaches were simply washed from 12 feet wide to less than four feet wide. Only a three wheeler could have maneuvered that ... maybe. I want to give special credit to the crews from Precinct 3. They came early Saturday morning to do the repairs needed to let the milk truck pass. Please thank them for us. We are so thankful they came to help!"

He added, "My wife and children were coming from Gainesville Friday evening. They could not cross the tinhorn so Sharlene drove around through Saint Jo to come home the long way. The kids decided to walk home. They had a great time walking in the water spilling over the road. And they were picking their way among the crawdads floating across."

As for me, I was so thankful my dairy cows were close to home and not on the other side."

Mrs. Victor Sicking said their rain gauge indicated 5 1/2 inches in about an hour northwest of Muenster. Roads sustained bad washing and fences were out. Mrs. Tony Fleitman said they had 5 inches in about an hour and their pastures were under water. Wayne Klement measured 5 inches. Mrs. Albert Dangelmayr said their rain gauge showed 6 inches and continued to run over. Mrs. Charlie Wolf said they had 6 inches in one hour and lost water gaps and culverts (tinhorn) and approaches were badly damaged.

A lady from Saint Jo related she recorded 8 inches in about an hour. Mrs. Joe Knauf told how roads were washed out and that Joe said fences were washed away for the first time he ever recalled. They recorded 6 inches of rain on Friday in one hour and 3 inches earlier in the week. Wilfred Reiters had 3 inches and Harold Bindels had 5. Sug said, "Our fine, productive bottom lands took a beating."

Earl Hess said his rain gauge overflowed at 6 inches. He said much of his newly-built fences were washed away Friday afternoon and many of his cattle were scattered. He added that this is the third time his land has been flooded in the past five years. He said water rose so rapidly and was higher than in the big flood of 1981.

Rosalie Bayer, Precinct 4 Commissioner, reported water and road damage north of old Coppers Switch. She said also the worst was near the Joe Knauf, Lampkin, Harold Bindel and former Dankesreiter farms.

South of town, Daryl Ferber reported rain measure of 3 inches and said neighbors reported 3 and 4 inches. She also mentioned bridges that remain barricaded.

The Muenster Enterprise attempted to contact many other residents by phone but was unable to reach some. Others generously shared their comments and will be included next week.

Many pictures will be printed this week. More will follow next week, along with gratitude and thanks from many whose expressions will be included then.

Generally they stated: "We were almost victims of weather's caprice, had it not been so potentially deadly."

Airplane Lost in Fog; Lands at Muenster to Get Lay of the Land

The airplane that circled over Muenster several times last Thursday was not just showing off. It was lost in the fog and was trying to attract attention so that someone would advise whether landing was safe.

Thinking that the flyer was a friend of theirs, Herbert Meurer and C. J. Kaiser drove to Henry Fleitman's pasture, the usual landing place. There the aviator dropped a note asking whether the ground was safe for landing and was promptly signalled to come down.

After learning his whereabouts and studying maps the flyer came to town for lunch and then resumed his journey.

Joe Trachta and John Luke Escape Injury As Car Is Demolished

Adding their bit to Muenster's growing accident list, Joe Trachta and John Luke overturned in Mr. Trachta's new Chevrolet sedan on the Dallas-Denton road near Lake Dallas last Saturday night about 10 o'clock.

Mr. Luke, who was driving the car at the time of the accident, states that the turn-over occurred immediately after the car had been sideswiped by an oncoming automobile that was passing another car. He lost control of the machine after the other car had collided with the left rear fender and thrown it out of line, and before he could regain control the machine left the road and rolled over twice.

Though considerably shaken, neither Mr. Luke nor Mr. Trachta was seriously injured. The car, however, was badly damaged, only a very few parts of the body escaped marks of the accident. It was brought to Muenster by a wrecker Sunday.

The other car involved in the wreck was damaged only at the point of contact with Mr. Trachta's car and none of its occupants were hurt.

Aces?

What is the name of the Muenster softball club? To date it has not been revealed to The Enterprise.

And since nominations are still open, this publication will take its tip from preceding games and suggest the name Aces. In their first four starts the boys had four one-point margin games—three were victories, the other a defeat.

Furthermore, the name Aces gives the players something to defend. The ace ranks as top card in the deck, the Muenster Aces can establish themselves as top team in the league.

John Herr Injured When Foot Is Caught in Chain

John Herr is confined to his bed with a badly injured leg as a result of getting his foot caught in the family milk cow's stake chain. Adolph, his son, advises that the injury is very painful and will keep Mr. Herr in bed for an indefinite period.

Exact details of the accident, other than that Mr. Herr got tangled in the chain and the cow did the rest, are not available. It happened Tuesday morning.

McGruff visits Muenster

McGruff, the Crime Prevention Dog, made a special appearance at the Muenster Swimming Pool on Wednesday afternoon. McGruff gave a preview to the "Take A Bite Out Of Crime" program to be presented in the local elementary schools this fall. Children visited with him and watched with rapt attention as he presented a song on "Say No To Strangers."

McGruff became especially happy when he was presented checks to help finance his program. In the picture at right, he receives checks from Pat Knabe of the VFW, Eileen Fisher of the Bluebonnet Extension Homemakers Club, and Frances Bayer and Linda Knabe of the VFW Auxiliary. Seven more sponsors for classes are needed.

Citizens asked to help prevent burglary, vandalism

Texas and Oklahoma continue to be the target of post office burglaries, according to Postal Inspector in Charge D.C. Strader, Fort Worth. Strader, whose area of responsibility includes the northern half of Texas (north of Austin) and all of Oklahoma, said that over 50 burglaries will occur within the boundaries of the Fort Worth division this year if the current trend continues.

Most of the burglaries have occurred at post offices that are located in rural communities that have limited or no local law enforcement available for routine patrols at night.

"A majority of the burglaries do not involve the loss of postal funds, because very little money is kept overnight in post offices and postal stations. Safes and security containers are used to secure the money and blank money orders which are kept overnight," stated Strader. "In addition to burglary-resistant security containers, we are continually adding and updating existing alarm systems where appropriate. However, we need for the residents of each city, town and community to help us protect their post offices and stations from burglaries and vandalism."

Local postmaster Virgil Henscheid emphasized the need for citizen involvement. "Even though postal funds are secured in a safe, burglars who are unsuccessful in attempting to break into a safe will sometimes steal mail left in customers' post office boxes. Even when they don't steal mail, they sometimes just cause malicious vandalism. In either event, it does cost the Post Service money to repair the damage incurred and for the Postal Inspectors to conduct an investigation.

"Our local tax money is also spent by our local law enforcement officers who incur expenses, because they are usually the first agency to respond, and they also provide valuable assistance in the investigations to the Postal Inspectors.

"But the most important reason for citizen involvement is because it causes a hardship to those whose mail is stolen or destroyed as the result of a burglary or a senseless act of vandalism," said Postmaster Henscheid.

Residents can help reduce burglaries and vandalism by reporting suspicious activity at or around the postal facilities which occurs after business hours. This activity would include such things as automobiles or trucks with license plates from outside the local area, unfamiliar people asking suspicious questions about the post office or amount of law enforcement patrol at night, or loitering in the post office lobby or around the post office by groups of young people at night and on weekends when the post office is closed. This information should be reported to the local law enforcement agencies and to the postmaster or station manager.

Post office burglary is a Federal crime which carries a penalty of up to a $1,000 fine or up to five years in prison, or both. The Postal Service offers a standing reward of up to $5,000 for information and services leading to the arrest and conviction of any person responsible for the burglary of a post office. Any information about a post office burglary, or any crime committed against the Post Service or its employees, should be reported to the local postmaster or the Postal Inspector in Charge in Fort Worth.

The 24-hour number for the Postal at Fort Worth is 817/885-1111. Postal Inspectors are also located at Dallas and Lubbock in Texas, and at Oklahoma City and Tulsa in Oklahoma.

"It's your community, your post office, and your mail," said Henscheid, "and we need the help of all citizens in helping to reduce crimes against the Postal Service in our area."

Historical? Heritage? Cultural? Genealogical? Which shall it be?

The Muenster Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring an informative and exploratory meeting to encourage the formation of a historical, heritage, cultural and/or genealogical society in the Muenster area.

Representatives from each of the Cooke County Societies will be on hand to explain the function of each organization at the county level and to answer questions.

This will be a very informative meeting and will help greatly in determining the emphasis or direction local citizens might wish to take with regard to the formation of a related and/or similar society in Muenster.

Special guests will be Ona B. Reed (Historical Society), Bernice Sicking (Genealogical Society), Margaret Parx Hayes and Mary Jean McElreath (Heritage Society).

Everyone is invited to come on Wednesday, June 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the Texas Power and Light Meeting Room in Muenster.

City sales and use tax down

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks on June 11 totaling $52.6 million in local sales tax to 1,039 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. June checks represent taxes collected on sales made in April and reported to the Comptroller by May 20. Muenster received $5,244.10 of the $69,224.00 sent to Cooke County for this period. This amount is $350.85 less than the amount Muenster received for the same period in 1986.

Bullock said 1987 payments to Texas cities were down 6 percent as compared to payments to date made in June last year. In comparison, payments to Muenster for the first half of 1987 total $50,457.96, down 6.2 percent from the first six months of 1986. 1987 payments to date for Cooke County are down 9.95 percent.

Another scam?

John Kleiss received a rather disturbing phone call Tuesday about 5 p.m. The caller requested donations to a "Handicapped People's Fund." When Kleiss told her that he restricted his donations to church and local charity, she responded less than politely and hung up abruptly.

As he pondered, he began wondering if others received similar calls and said Wednesday morning, "I wish I had permitted her to say more. Maybe she would have given me an address to mail the donation." Needless to say, one shares his suspicions. Now he's wondering how many others feel as he does and if the caller was leading up to a hoax. He also hopes others will be as alert.

Kiwanis Club sponsors Free Swim Night

MR. and MRS. WESTALL WILLIAMS of Saint Jo announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carla, to Ricky Hennigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hennigan of Muenster. The couple has set Saturday, July 11, for their wedding day in Sacred Heart Church. The bride-elect is a graduate of Saint Jo High School and is employed at Nocona Boot Co. The future-groom is an August 1985 graduate of TSTI in Waco and also a graduate of Sacred Heart High School in Muenster. He is self-employed and is the owner of Ricky's Audio and Video in Gainesville. The couple plans to reside in Gainesville.

The "Free Family Swim Night" set for last Friday by Muenster Kiwanis Club was canceled because of the devastating storm that struck Muenster in the form of a Flash Flood!

By Wednesday of this week, city employees, pool manager and pool staff members and a group of volunteer firemen had the facility cleaned, repaired and back in operation.

Therefore, the invitation is again extended for every Friday throughout the summer except June 19, which was booked before the project began. The pool will therefore be open at 7 p.m., courtesy of Kiwanis Club, on Friday, June 26, for the Free Family Swim Night.

"We hope parents and children take the opportunity to enjoy this activity together until 10 p.m." Standard pool rules still govern all swimmers with the exception that children under 10 years of age must be accompanied by at least one parent.

Cub Scout Day Camp gets started June 22

Cooke County Cub Day Camp is just a few days away and the excitement is mounting. The staff is nervously awaiting those bright, searching, big eyes on that first day of camp. Planning has been in progress since early February and now here it is, June 22.

A reminder from Camp Director Lupe Evans to all parents with Cub Scouts who are attending: Camp starts at 8:45 with a flag ceremony and daily announcements, first session is at 9:00 a.m. Remember to pack your camper a "SAFE" lunch. Coolers will be available to keep lunches cool and fresh. Make sure your camper's personal supplies, like bathing suit, towel, underwear and camp T-shirt are marked with his name and/or initials with a laundry marker for quick identification.

Send a drink with his lunch and also, if possible, a drinking cup that can attach to his belt loop on his pants. According to the latest report, it will be a hot week. Closing flag ceremony will be at 3:00 p.m.

A family picnic and camp fire closing is planned for Friday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m. There will be extra Camp T-shirts, mugs and patches from previous camps on sale that evening.

CHARLOTTE SMITH

Charlotte Smith to appear in Gainesville

Deep in the heart of Texas is where Charlotte Smith's from. Deep in the heart of country music is where she is - from a small town girl to a Nashville artist.

Charlotte Smith, originally of Gainesville, and her singing partner, Salena Powell of Jasper, Texas, will appear at the newly redecorated Coachman Annex on June 25, 26, 27. Their music ranges from Big Band and Pop to Country and Blues.

Charlotte became musically serious five years ago when she studied voice in college. Since then she has made several appearances including "The Today Show" and the Germanfest in Muenster. Tennis clinic to be held at CCC June 23

Both beginners and more advanced players may enroll in a special Summer Tennis Clinic to begin at Cooke County College on Tuesday, June 23. The program is open to all interested persons age 10 and above, and it will run for eight Tuesdays through Aug. 17. "The fundamentals of the game are the same whether you're 10 years old or 65 years old," says Sallyanne Fossey, one of the program's two instructors. "We hope to see the class filled with people of all ages." Fossey's teaching partner will be Roy Gum, also an experienced instructor. Fossey was a member of CCC's varsity tennis team which recently brought home the third place trophy from the national junior college championship tournament. Participants in the clinic may choose between either a morning session or evening session. The first will meet from 9 to 11 a.m., and the latter is scheduled for 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

most appropriate equipment, tennis shoes and so on they should buy. "This may vary greatly from one player to another based on size, strength, playing style and so many other variables," Gum points out.

Cathy Keeler of CCC's Continuing Education Division cautions that this has been a popular program and that space is limited, so interested persons are urged to enroll as soon as possible.

To register, come to the CCC Continuing Education Office in Room 109 on campus. For more information, call this office at 817/668-7731, Ext. 272.

Telephone Company entertains 42 guests

Robert C. Brown, III, president of the Texas Telephone Association, and his wife Carole of Sugarland, Texas, along with 40 other guests representing 16 telephone and associated companies from Texas, Oklahoma and Nevada attended Open House given by Muenster Telephone Corporation on Saturday, June 13.

The guests met local telephone company personnel, visited amongst themselves and were given informal guided tours of telephone, television and office equipment and office areas, along with the television headend and warehouse across the street. Name tags gave local personnel a chance to meet the people they have been talking to over the telephone and corresponding with.

Upon arrival, all guests received a copy of the Company's History 1909-1987 booklet and several assorted novelty souvenirs. A reception with punch and cookies was served from a table carrying out the Company's color scheme with an orange and blue floral arrangement by Bouquets & Gifts. Guests arriving early were given a map of Muenster with points of interest to tour the city.

All gathered in the meeting room that evening for a fried chicken and German sausage dinner that was catered by The Center Restaurant. The evening meal was concluded with a large cake depicting eras of the telephone history from the old to the new created by Cathy Fuhrmann of The Farmer's Kitchen. After dinner, guests and employees stayed for games and more visiting.

Falls Fanfare to feature top 5 drum & bugle corps

Falls Fanfare, one of the first major entertainment productions in celebration of the season of Falls Extravaganza in Wichita Falls, is coming to its Memorial Stadium on Tuesday, July 28, at 8 p.m.

It will feature one of the most spectacular displays of musical entertainment and outdoor pageantry in North America. Five of the top drum and bugle corps of the U.S. and Canada will bring their musical productions to life through creative use of color, choreography, costuming, props and intricate drill maneuvers.

The two-hour show, in the form of competition between the five groups, will present music ranging from classical to Southern jazz to Broadway favorites.

The top five organizations include the Blue Devils from Concord, California, rated the No. 1 group, whose vivid use of color and motion will enhance their full range of jazz styles.

Also performing will be the Cavaliers of Rosemont, Illinois; the Star of Bloomington, Indiana; the Spartans of Vancouver, Washington; and the Colts of Dubuque, Iowa. This will be the first of only two drum and bugle corps international shows to be presented in Texas.

Tickets are $8.00 (between the 40-yard lines) and $6.00 (outside the 40-yard lines). For information or tickets, mail orders to Falls Fanfare, 2149 Ave. H, Wichita Falls, TX 76309, or call 817-692-2803.

Budweiser presents Okla. music festival

The state of Oklahoma is gearing up for its first-ever music festival to be presented by Budweiser in conjunction with longtime singer/songwriter Tommy Overstreet. The Sooner Music Festival is a three-day country music extravaganza set for July 3, 4 and 5 at the Pittsburgh County Fairgrounds in McAlester, Oklahoma.

A potpourri of country music's heavy-hitters will headline the festival, including such names as Oklahoman Reba McEntire, Charlie Daniels, Conway Twitty, Tammy Wynette, Mickey Gilley, John Anderson, Mel McDaniel, Johnny Paycheck, Gene Watson, as well as Tommy Overstreet himself. These established veterans will also be accompanied by such promising new acts as Becky Hobbs, Patsy Lynn, J.D. Hart, Rodney Dillard and Billy Parker. Master of Ceremonies will be Nashville's own Charlie Douglas, host of the Music Country Radio Network. Douglas will also be highlighting information about the festival throughout the month of June on The Nashville Network.

Nearly 30 hours of music will be packaged into this three-day weekend, with the gates opening at 10 a.m. each morning and the day's entertainment beginning at 2 p.m. and continuing until approximately 11:30 p.m. Intertwined among the attractions on the 4th of July will be a fireworks spectacular at nightfall. The festival, which includes over 35 acts, is expected to draw thousands; however, maximum capacity of 35,000 per day has been set.

The site of the event, just 20 minutes from the Lake Eufaula resort area, was chosen for its central location from Tulsa, Ft. Smith, Dallas and Oklahoma City. The grounds for the concerts, which will contain one massive stage, will also provide for over 60 acres of parking, adjacent to 2,500 campsites and within short distance of an additional 15,000 campsites.

"Beef For Father's Day" ... A great idea!

AUSTIN, May 28, 1987: Governor Bill Clements signed a "Beef For Father's Day" proclamation which states:

Beef is a basic American food. It is rich in protein, iron, B-vitamins and other essential nutrients making it a food that fits well into today's active lifestyle ... Father's Day is traditionally a time to honor the family by honoring the guiding member of the family.

Therefore, I, William P. Clements, Jr., Governor of Texas, do hereby designate June 21, 1987, as: Beef For Father's Day, in Texas and urge appropriate recognition thereof.

"Beef is the perfect food for Father's Day," says Lou Anne Smoot, state Beef For Father's Day chairman. "When families want to serve Dad the best, they serve him beef."

Representatives of Texas CattleWomen, a non-profit voluntary group of over 800 women banded together to promote beef, and the Texas Beef Industry Council presented Governor Clements with a gift certificate to Ruth's Chris Steakhouse in Austin - to provide the Governor with his "Beef For Father's Day!"

If the "Dad" in your family is concerned about beef's old image of high calories, high fat, and high cholesterol content, Texas CattleWomen want to share with you the fact that "beef has gone on a diet!" The beef of today, because of new breeding and shorter feeding time, is a much leaner meat than ever before. A 3-ounce (about 4 ounces raw) serving of cooked, lean, trimmed beef contains only 189 calories, about 10 percent of an adult's diet of 2000 calories per day. If your Dad likes to eat a larger serving of beef, share with him that double that amount (and that's talking about 8 ounces of lean meat with no bones or outside fat) will supply only 378 calories - still a small portion to his total daily intake.

Is "Dad" concerned about his dietary cholesterol intake? The cholesterol content in the 3-ounce cooked serving is only 76 milligrams, which equals about 25 percent of the daily amount allowed by the American Heart Association - the same amount that is in a lean, broiled 3-ounce piece of chicken. Ounce for ounce, beef and chicken have the same amount of cholesterol as documented in USDA's Food Composition Handbooks.

Many consumers believe that beef's fat is all saturated. If your "Dad" is concerned about his fat intake, share with him that less than half of the fat in beef is saturated - and that the fat in a 3-ounce serving of lean, trimmed beef is 8.7 grams. How much is 8.7 grams? Each gram of fat is equal to 9 calories which means that the serving of beef provides only 13 percent of the amount allowed by the American Heart Association.

"Consumers think of turkey for Thanksgiving and ham for Easter. We want them to think of 'Beef For Father's Day!'" says Lucille Sterling, President of Texas CattleWomen.

MR. and MRS. KNOX MILLER, JR. of San Antonio announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elaine Miller, of Houston to Samuel Louis Bright, also of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bright of Muenster, Texas. The bride-elect is a graduate of Alamo Heights High School in San Antonio and holds a bachelor's degree and a Master of Business Administration from University of Texas at Austin. The prospective groom is a graduate of Muenster High School and holds a BBA and an MS in Economics from Baylor University. The couple plans an Aug. 8 ceremony at Alamo Heights United Methodist Church in San Antonio.

Sacred Heart basketball camps conclude

The third annual Sacred Heart Alumni Basketball Camps concluded last Friday and as expected, the camps were a huge success. "The staff (Danna Hamric, Sandra Walterscheid, Vicki Walterscheid) did an outstanding job, and when you put a great staff together with great kids it can't help but to be a success," said camp director Jon LeBrasseur. "I feel we improved all the campers' skills and perhaps the most important aspect was the fellowship among all," said Coach LeBrasseur.

The camp will run from June 29 through July 3 and is restricted to boys and girls who have not played in a UIL-sanctioned varsity contest.

Heers added that Dennard will have two assistants at the camp, both of whom have college experience. Fishing license legislation signed

Gov. Bill Clements has signed legislation restoring the exemption from fishing law requirements for Texas residents under 17 years of age and 65 or older.

The governor signed Senate Bill 13 on April 22, and it went into effect immediately. Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials said prior to April 22, persons in those age groups were required to possess an exempt fishing license issued free by the department.

Nonresident fishermen under 17 and 65 or older also are exempt from having to purchase a fishing license if the person's state of residence grants a similar exemption to Texas residents.

Texas residents under 17 and 65 or older also are not required to purchase the State Saltwater Fishing Stamp or State Troup Stamp.

All Texas hunting and fishing licenses expire on Aug. 31 and new licenses go into effect Sept. 1.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS

Small Grains Result Demonstrations are completed; producers thanked

By Craig Rosenbaum, County Extension Agent

For the past several weeks we have been completing the Small Grain Result Demonstrations. Observations during the growing season are beneficial. However, the greatest degree of results is obtained through harvest of the demonstrations.

During the year we have conducted, in cooperation with county farmers, Small Grain Result Demonstrations on Varieties, Fungicide Seed Treatments, Foliar Fungicides, Systemic Insect Control, and various types of Weed and Grass Control.

The demonstrations are planned by the Small Grain Program Area Committee to meet needs of county producers in various aspects of small grain production. Results of these demonstrations are being compiled and will be publicized in the near future.

We want to offer a special thanks to all the result demonstrators who assisted in these programs this year. These Small Grain Demonstrations include: J.H. Bayer and Sons, William Hermes, Jerry Hudspeth, Henry Popp, Roy Lee Fuhrmann, Frank and Don Sandmann, Kenny and Danny Hoedebeck, Al Dudenhoefter, and Weldon Beznar.

These producers have provided sites, production and management in establishing and harvesting the demonstration.

During the year observations and records are kept on the growth and development of various practices involved in the demonstration. All of this information is compiled in the Result Demonstration Handbook which is distributed to producers in the county on a request basis. Economic data derived from the demonstrations can help to forecast profitability in various new management practices.

The demonstrations at the Muenster location compared various varieties with their susceptibility to wheat leaf rust. Foliar fungicides were applied at different stages of wheat growth using different rates. These plots were harvested in order to find yield differences and economic improvement over non-treated plots.

Again, our sincere thanks to the producer demonstrators for their cooperation in this year's Small Grain Result Demonstrations.

4-H DAIRY JUDGING CHAMPIONS - These Cooke County 4-H members captured first place in the Dairy Judging Contest at the 1987 State 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University June 10. From the left are Parker Friedrich of Gainesville, Pam Martindale and Rhonda Martindale of Era and Wayne Becker of Muenster. In back is Vernon Friedrich of Gainesville, team coach. The Dairy Team will participate in the National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest at the World Dairy Exposition in Madison, Wisconsin, in October. In addition to the team placing first, Parker also won First High Point Individual and Pam won Second High Point Individual.

June deadline for steer validation

4-H and FFA members who plan to exhibit steers at the major livestock shows (Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, State Fair of Texas) must have their steers validated in June. A countywide Steer Validation time has been set for 8 a.m. until 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 24. The validation will be held at the Gainesville Livestock Auction.

A validation fee of $3 will be charged to 4-H members. Steers will be weighed, nose printed, and ear tagged at the validation session.

Steers that are not validated will be ineligible to show at the major livestock shows in 1987-88. If you have any questions, contact your local Vocational Agriculture Instructor or County Agent.

GARDEN BULLETIN CENTER

After all this rain our lawns are really backed out of all the essential nutrients. Now is a good time to fertilize with our 15-5-10 Blend recommended by Neil Sperry. It also has iron and sulphur which will sure help to repel those terrible chiggers.

Continue to watch for squash bugs, aphids, spider mites, bagworms and webworms. They will all be taking full advantage of the new lush growth on all our plants.

With this much moisture, fungus diseases will also begin to show up on roses, tomatoes and some trees. Treat as quickly as you notice the problem for best results.

TIP OF THE WEEK: Avoid the temptation to raise your lawnmower now because of all the new growth caused by the rains. Continue to mow your Bermuda lawns at 1 1/4"-1 1/2" for the healthiest grass.

The Scotts expressed gratitude to all friends and relatives who attended and thanked them for gifts, cards and remembrances and added, "Your presence here is the most treasured gift of all."

They also thanked those who assisted with the party, and also Pat Bell who provided special music, and all members of the band: Wassie Reynolds, Larry Eldridge, Doug Martin, J.C. Maughan and Ernest Muller. Most especially they thanked their children, spouses and
