Master slater hopes to leave no evidence

Muenster's landmark Sacred Heart Church should have a completely renovated roof by the end of October but it shouldn't look like it. Master slater, Leon Shabott of Dallas-based All Tile and Slate Company, says one of his chief concerns is that the roof on this landmark appear even and original with no bright or dark "hot spots" when he's finished. That, and keeping moisture out of the church, will be his main concerns while cleaning the surface, installing new decking and asphalt felt and replacing the original tiles. Shabott's company specializes in steep, tall and difficult roofs and steeplejack work.

They recently did the roof renovation for St. Peter's Church in Lindsay. He has located some used tile to replace the damaged ones but they had a northern exposure and will be darker in color than the Sacred Heart tiles with a southern exposure. The trick is to install the tiles so they're not greatly noticed.

"This will be one of the biggest and most important repair jobs we have attempted," said Father Denis Soerries. "We hope this will be the last time in our lifetime that the roof will need repairs. Until now it has meant a patch-up job every four or five years."

He explained that the problem was due to a design flaw which allowed the roof tiles to flap up in high winds and eventually pull loose and fall off.

If Wednesday's beautiful weather continues and no major problems occur, Shabott expects to finish the roofing and waterproofing by Oct. 31. As described in a letter to Sacred Heart parishioners, the total project is expected to cost $45,000.00.

Kiwanis Club installs new officers for 1987-88

Herman Carroll, Muenster Memorial Hospital Administrator, has been installed as the president of the Muenster Kiwanis Club for the 1987-88 administrative year. James Chastain, Kiwanis Lt. Governor of Texas-Oklahoma Division 8 was present at the regular Wednesday luncheon meeting at The Center to install the new officers. Also installed were Ben Bindel as vice-president and Alton Ladd as secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Chastain resides with his family at Lake Kiowa and is a charter member of the Lake Kiowa Kiwanis. He extended his thanks and presented plaques on behalf of the local club to Butch Fisher, past president, and Alton Ladd, who continues as secretary.

Plans were announced for a club fundraising pancake supper to be held Friday evening, Oct. 16, at the MHS cafeteria. Serving will extend from 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Everyone is encouraged to attend and support the club's service projects to the community.

Past-president Butch Fisher thanked the seven members who recently helped clean up the section of Highway 82 East which the Kiwanis adopted. He reminded everyone that the state recommends four clean-up sessions a year.

The 1987-88 Kiwanis Major Emphasis Program focuses on the organization's resources on community service activities that address the social and emotional problems of young people with the theme, "Our Quest, Their Best."

Kiwanis has clubs in more than 70 countries with 315,000 members. Last year, Kiwanis Clubs donated $73.5 million and more than 22 million volunteer-hours for community service projects. Men or women interested in local membership are encouraged to contact Herman Carroll, Ben Bindel, Alton Ladd or Butch Fisher.

Group studies in Fredericksburg

Enthusiasm! could scarcely describe the response of a group from the Muenster Chamber of Commerce who spent part of several days in Fredericksburg studying that city's approach to tourism.

Visiting with Executive Vice President Joe Kammlah and Coordinator of Fredericksburg Convention and Visitors Bureau

Dainne Pehl was the dominant reason for the trip. While discussing with them particular questions pertinent to this town's ambitions toward tourism, the Muenster group also had opportunities to go sightseeing, wander through craft shops and chat informally with merchants and tradespeople.

Making the trip were Johnny and Louise Fisher who left here about 2 p.m. Friday to drive to Fredericksburg where they were overnight guests of his cousin, Neil and Gaelyn Fisher.

Gary Endres, Monica and Jerry Hess and Pat Dennis also drove to Fredericksburg and enjoyed being guests in two of Fredericksburg's special claims to gracious hospitality, the "Bed and Breakfast" accommodations offered by the Trefflich-Roeder Home and the Strackbein-Pioneer Home, both renovated and restored to their antique beauty.

"We were all very impressed with the success of their 'Bed and Breakfast' business," they all said, "especially the authenticity of fine antique furnishings and delicious German food."

On Saturday morning very early, Ted and Carol Henscheid and Charles Bayer flew to Fredericksburg to join the conferences with Mr. Kammlah and Ms. Pehl, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Everyone said, "This was very informative." Kammlah and Pehl related their recollections of Fredericksburg's initial attempts at tourist attraction and said they suspected Muenster is about at that stage this year. They told how a plan was developed through cooperation between the City Council and the Chamber of Commerce that would result in the greatest benefit to both.

Also discussed was the proposed budget for the Fredericksburg Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the mechanics of the office.

Much of Saturday afternoon was spent touring the downtown business district, visiting and chatting informally with merchants, walking up and down streets, trying to absorb what tradespeople were doing to attract visitors. In craft shops, attendants were frequently dressed in beautiful authentic costumes.

All of the Muenster people commented on the genuine politeness and congenial attitude of citizens in Fredericksburg.

"They really are devoted to their town," said Pat Dennis. "I was also particularly impressed by frequently find old items beautifully refurbished for re-sale today." "Fredericksburg is approaching its 150th anniversary, just as Muenster is approaching our centennial," added Pat Dennis. "Fredericksburg people pointed with pride to their obvious ethnic cleanliness. We're proud too, of our town's cleanliness," she said.

Monica Hess said, "On Saturday we noticed with great interest that streets and sidewalks were crowded with people walking. We knew they were tourists because almost everyone had a camera hanging around his or her neck."

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fisher accompanied the group and invited them to come into their completely restored limestone home, furnished beautifully with antiques and treasures in German tradition. Focal point of their huge kitchen is a central water well with suspended electric light and heavy glass cover.

The group also toured a local

SWCD to hold election for Zone 3 director

An election for a director to serve in Zone 3 on the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation Board is scheduled for Oct. 6, 1987 at the Cooke County Electric Co-op in Muenster, announced Clyde Hale, Chairman of the Board. The election will be held at 7 p.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the district where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 18 years old.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district. Soil and water conservation district directors serve four year terms of office.

Current members of the board of directors of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD are James K. Brite, Jr., Vice-Chairman, Bowie; Jake G. Biffle, Jr., Secretary, Myra; Henry Berry, Member, Nocona; and Clyde Hale, Chairman, Sherman.

The purpose of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD, with headquarters in Gainesville, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

Good News!

Someone in the crowd said to him, "Jesus, tell my brothers to give me my share of our inheritance." He replied, "Friend, who has set me up as your judge or arbiter?" Then he said to the crowd, "Avoid greed in all its forms. A man may be wealthy, but his possessions do not guarantee him life."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

How handicapped people fare in the job market matters a great deal to me. In 1969, deep in the jungles of Vietnam, gunshot wounds left me paralyzed. That's why I hope you'll use the enclosed artwork during National Employ the Handicapped Week, Oct. 4-10. If you'd like to give more thorough coverage to the employment needs of America's handicapped citizens, including her 2.2 million disabled veterans, the one-billion-member Disabled American Veterans (DAV) would be most appreciative. For more information, just call DAV National Employment Director Ronald W. Drach at 202-554-3501. Thanks for your help, Gene A. Murphy National Commander Disabled American Veterans

Letter to the Editor,

Appreciate the opportunity of expressing thoughts on current matters. Since it seems it is very difficult to bring together the whole community for a good open discussion for the good of our town, the next best thing is for people to come forward with their thinking and express their feelings. This is difficult for anyone, since who wants to "step on any ones toes," and it is easy enough to be misunderstood. I appreciated reading the comment from Ms. Swirczynski and the review from council member Aubrey Tuggle. We need to keep this before the people and how better to get the facts out for thought. It is much better to work towards solutions by individuals rather than the attorneys of both sides running up the $ bills, which could go on for years and years.

I had written out about three pages of my comments from what others have previously said, but I feel it is time for someone else to bring forth whatever else is needed.

The next item I wish to get on to, and I feel is very important is the emergency ambulance or paramedic service in Muenster.

Just a few brief remarks. This is a vital public service that can mean life or death.

We have other public service, such as school bus pickup of children, rural mail delivery, electrical and telephone service. Now I have heard some astounding stories of the great extra distance traveled to pick one child up with the school bus, or the delivery of a 8.5 cent letter! Is this on a practical basis or to that extent always a definite necessity?

I am ashamed that I failed to get my vote in on the query if we wanted the service continued in Muenster, but after inquiring of numerous people, I found that not one that I asked knew about the insertion in The Muenster Enterprise or The Gainesville Register. This was not a fair trial, and as stated by the EMS people the 25 percent cost increase in taxes was greatly overstated, and I wonder for what reason?

Maybe the coming legislation we are to vote on can be a help to us. Could (it) possibly be that Saint Jo would be interested to come in with us? They have been working very hard and have some good active people that have taken training to work with their ambulance and fire department.

What are the plans on "keeping Muenster clean?" Our northwest part of town has been kept well "picked up." Can the rest of you match us?

I sure like the looks of the lamps, and am looking forward to the installations.

Regards, Ray Wilde

Governor's Proclamation...

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 4-10

Citing the tragic loss of lives and property from fire each year in Texas, Governor Bill Clements has proclaimed the week of Oct. 4-10, 1987, as Fire Prevention Week.

"Fire continues to be a major threat to all Texas citizens, even though many destructive fires could be prevented," said Governor Clements. "We have the knowledge and technology today to prevent much of the needless loss of lives and property in this state and we urge every Texas citizen to practice fire prevention every day in an effort to conserve our valuable Texas resources," he continued.

This year marks the 65th anniversary of National Fire Prevention Week. The week-long observance was first established in 1922 by President Warren Harding in memory of the so-called "Great Chicago Fire" of Oct. 8, 1871.

That conflagration killed 250 people and destroyed 17,430 buildings at a cost of $168 million. People began thinking in terms of fire prevention in addition to fire fighting as a result of this fire.

Texas Fire Data Facts 1986
Fire departments in Texas reported 92,737 fires which killed 281 people, injured 2,344 and destroyed more than $434 million in property during 1986, according to data from the Texas Fire Incident Reporting System (TEXFIRS).

When compared to fires reported in 1985, the number of fires increased less than one percent in 1986, but fire-related fatalities increased 13.8 percent, property loss and civilian injuries increased 7.3 percent, while injuries to fire service personnel decreased nearly 12 percent.

Residential properties suffered the most damage from fire. Of the 24,492 building fires reported during 1986, 75 percent of the fires and 44 percent of the property loss occurred in residences. In addition, 95 percent of the structure fire fatalities and 78 percent of the injuries occurred in residences. In 1986, residential fire fatalities increased 23 percent over 1985 and civilian injuries increased 11 percent.

Of the 213 deaths that resulted from residential structure fires, the vast majority (27 percent) were children 10 years old or younger. Among the 57 fatalities in that age group, 72 percent (41 fatalities) were children younger than five years of age.

Fires of an incendiary or suspicious nature represented a major cause of fire during 1986. These fires increased 13 percent over 1985, while the estimated dollar loss decreased 2 percent. Civilian fatalities from these fires increased 53 percent and civilian injuries increased 26 percent over 1985, while fire service fatalities decreased 50 percent and fire service injuries decreased 20 percent.

Maudine Griffin, executive vice president of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce, revealed that the main speaker for the annual banquet will be a representative from the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce office.

He will explain the past centennial of Fredericksburg, how they planned for and developed the event and how Muenster might gather information for preparation for its centennial.

Planners for the Chamber of Commerce banquet hope to carry out a German theme throughout. The Chamber of Commerce office has recently received a catalog from Fredericksburg picturing and offering for sale most attractive ladies' costumes in authentic ethnic German style and tradition.

Muenster I.S.D. offers free, reduced price meals

Muenster I.S.D. has announced its policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Program. Each school office has a copy of the policy that may be reviewed by any interested party.

During first enrollment each year every family is provided income eligibility guidelines as announced by the United States Department of Agriculture for free and reduced price meals. (Income Eligibility Guidelines are depicted below.)

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households must fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials.

For school officials to determine eligibility, households receiving food stamps or AFDC must list the child's name, their food stamp or AFDC case number and the signature and name of an adult household member. Households not receiving food stamps or AFDC must list: names of all household members; social security numbers of all adult household members or a statement that the household member does not possess one; total household income and the amount and source of the income received by each household member; and the signature of an adult household member certifying that the information provided is correct.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year. Under the provisions of the free and reduced price policy Superintendent Charles Coffey will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the children of the household eligible if the household's income falls at or below levels shown.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for school meal benefits. If a household wishes to apply for benefits for foster children living with them, the household should contact the school for more information.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of child feeding programs administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

A question of style...

Your decision not to be taken lightly

The five light fixtures on display at the Mid-Park were the result of a year of study into the feasibility and availability of many different types of light fixtures and bulbs. A number of towns have undertaken lighting projects with fixtures similar to those on display in Muenster, however, most have been in only one particular area near a retail shopping center or downtown strip. The problems encountered with the installations were studied closely to determine if they would be lessened or avoided altogether in an application here. Those problems ranged from the high cost of a common underground wire, to the cost of operation. While the installation and operation costs seemed to take a front seat to the question of style, the long-term consequence of choosing an aesthetically pleasing fixture is of utmost importance. Long after the installation and power problems are worked out, the fixtures will stand as testament to our uniqueness, unity and community pride. No other Texas town will have ever accomplished anything to this scale for its size. In the town of West, Texas, the residents are now at the same stage of progress in their lighting program; however, they have taken a different route. Having decided to undertake the project along the railroad right-of-way which lines the main business strip, the local chamber asked both gas and electric utilities for help. Not blessed with the funds from the Governor's Achievement Award as Muenster, the money available would buy only 20 fixtures priced under $200. The electric utility could provide no financial assistance for installation due to PUC restrictions. The gas company, not hindered by the PUC rules, agreed to lay a common underground gas line and handle maintenance, provided the gas bill was paid by someone else. The annual cost for the gas at the highest possible charge totaled $3,000 annually for the 20 lights. At this time discussions are still underway with their city council. In Burkburnett, along one city block downtown, the local businesses have participated in a grant program with the Texas Highway Department to the tune of $50,000. The local businesses along the section raised $25,000 towards improvements, and the other half was matched by the Highway Department grant. The bulk of the funds was used for improvements to sidewalks which included paverstone, planters, and street lights. When the sidewalks were torn up a common wire was installed for the light fixtures. Construction is ongoing until the entire strip has been improved. In Gainesville, the merchants on the west side of the courthouse square along Commerce Street undertook an improvement on their own initiative without grants or utility involvement. The merchants decided that something needed to be done to enhance the beauty of the strip. One particular shop owner got the merchants to agree on the improvements and work was begun to install paverstone on the sidewalks, and Victorian lights at curbside. The improvements were paid for by the individual merchants, while the city of Gainesville pays the electric bill. Everyone agrees that the improvements were worth the effort. In each of the towns a different style of fixture was installed or is being considered. Depending on the history of the town, the type fixture selected represented that city's heritage. In West, Texas, the lantern style was the choice. The lantern style is a common fixture along the streets in Eastern Europe. It is also referred to as the Dutch, Holland, and Swiss style. In Gainesville, the Victorian fixture was the choice because of the Victorian heritage displayed in the various homes and churches. Burkburnett also chose the Victorian (5 globe) to reflect its image. The Victorian fixture is the most commonly used fixture in Texas. Dallas has many areas using the "acorn-shaped" globes, and this fixture is commonly referred to as the "Americana," or "government" style. It was used extensively at the turn of the century, especially in Washington, D.C.

What's best for Muenster? By copying a style others use extensively, we could get lost in the "me too" syndrome. Having charted a course to take advantage of tourism, should we choose a style which will promote it? Will the fixture reflect our heritage? Would the "Americana" style give us the appearance of trying to be like a "big city"? These are the questions to be answered. That is why the input from local area citizens is being sought. The public is invited to make their selection of the style they prefer and add any comments which will be helpful on the back of the ballot. Anyone can vote, not just those who may be adopting a fixture. The ballot does have a place for those who are interested in adopting a fixture to indicate such, as well as indicate their preference in style. If you have already voted and wish to change your vote, you can do so by making your new selection, signing your name, and dating the signature. The most current selection will be counted. In fact,

Oct. 6 designated as German-American Day

Tuesday, Oct. 6, has been designated nationwide as German-American Day, to honor German immigrants and their contributions to America. It has been 300 years since the first group of 13 Mennonite families from Krefeld, Germany settled in Philadelphia. Many of the early leaders of our country were of German descent. The day will be observed throughout the United States and in Germany. Selection of Oct. 6 was voted unanimously by the Senate and House of Representatives to honor the contributions of German immigrants. Another observance will be the planting of a German Friendship Garden in Washington, D.C. The Muenster Enterprise is indebted to the German-American Club of Lawton, Okla. for information relative to Oct. 6. The Lawton club will host its 15th annual two-day Oktoberfest on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3 and 4, in the Great Plains Coliseum. There will be folk dancing; two polka bands direct from Germany; a grand prize drawing of a round trip for two to Germany plus $500 travel money; music by The Polka Kings of Lawton; authentic German food; fun and games; and door prizes daily.

Ceremony unites couple

MRS. GARY DON BARNHILL
... nee Barbara Marie Walterscheid

The wedding of Barbara Marie (Barbie) Walterscheid and Gary Don Barnhill was held in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, Sept. 26, with Father Victor Gillespie officiating for the Nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony at 2 p.m. in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Henry A. and Louise Walterscheid and the late Marie (Sis Swingler) Walterscheid.

The groom is the son of Raymond and Angie Barnhill, all of Muenster.

In an altar setting enhanced with arrangements of white gladioli and lighted candles, the bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a formal, white bridal gown with an over-bodice of lace encrusted with iridescents and seed pearls. The slim-fitted bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline. Sheer illusion sleeves were enhanced with an inset of matching lace at the shoulders, and were caught to close-fitting lace cuffs, buttoned at the wrist. Pearl-sprinkled lace edging surrounded the hem of the full flowing skirt and extended around the chapel-length train.

A halo of white silk flowers held her tiered illusion veil. The shorter tier was edged with pearls and the second tier with lace. The gown and veil were designed and made by Stella Hess, a friend of the bride.

For sentiment, she wore the wedding band of her late mother, Marie.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias, roses, stephanotis, rosebuds, seed pearls, yellow double forget-me-nots, English ivy and yellow and white streamers, with her mother's rosary entwined.

Each carried a single, long stem yellow rose. Polly Fette, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Jesse Harris, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The groom's brother, Karl Barnhill, was his best man; and another brother, Randy Barnhill, and the bride's brother, Nick Walterscheid, were groomsmen.

Neil Walterscheid and Dale Walterscheid, brothers of the bride, and Jimmy Barnhill, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Mass servers were Jason Endres, bride's nephew, and Jeffrey Walterscheid, bride's cousin.

Ruth Felderhoff, organist of Muenster, presented traditional wedding marches and "Nadia's Theme" and Tricia Gieb, vocalist, of Gainesville sang "The Rose," "How Great Thou Art," "Evergreen" and "Edelweiss."

The bride's sister, Mrs. Debbie Endres, gave the scriptural readings during the liturgy, and she and her husband, Clinton Endres, were Eucharistic ministers.

Walterscheid assisted. The wedding cake was made by Debra Schoppa, and was cut by Candace Riggs, sister of the bride, and by Mrs. Brenda Walterscheid, sister of the groom. Mandy Barnhill, Angela Endres, Sara Walterscheid and Donna Walterscheid assisted in serving wedding cake.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride's parents in their home on Sunday, Sept. 20, at 6 p.m.

A personal shower was hosted by Robynn Walterscheid in her home for 21 friends of the bride.

The couple is at home in Muenster, since returning from a wedding trip.

The bride attended Sacred Heart School and graduated in 1979 from Muenster High School. She also attended Cooke County College and is a waitress employed by Rohmer's Restaurant.

The groom also attended Sacred Heart School and graduated from Muenster High School in 1974. He is employed in the oil field by Felderhoff Brothers Drilling Company.

ATTENDANTS

The bride's sister, Mrs. Nancy Sicking of Muenster, was her matron of honor. Another sister, Rita Walterscheid, and the groom's sister, Karen Barnhill, were her bridesmaids.

They were attired in tea-length gowns of primrose yellow satin, designed with sweetheart necklines above fitted bodices overlaid with lace. Also, lace ruffled sleeves and peplum, and yellow satin cummerbund complemented the gowns.

Reunion draws 54

Fifty-four descendants of the late Frank and Marie Bindel gathered in Muenster at the pavilion of the city park on Sunday, Sept. 27, for a noon covered dish dinner.

Only family members unable to attend were the Leonard Bindels and family of Goldthwaite and the Gerald Bindels and family of Wichita Falls.

The entire assemblage joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Adeline Livingston, who observed her sixtieth on Sept. 24. Darla Bindel and Debbie Hale were also birthday honorees.

The group attending included Adeline and Tommy Livingston of Myra; Marcella and William Koerner of Pilot Point; Donnie, Elise and Dustin Koerner; Floyd, Kathy, Jessica and Kody Koerner; Larry, Sharon and Jacob Stuckly, all of Pilot Point.

Also Mac and Cindy Dennis and Mellisa of The Colony; Phyllis and Lionel Garcia and Laura, Diana and Alicia of Lewisville; Sid and Linda Newton and Chad and Christopher of Burleson; the Gilbert Bindels and Denise of Gainesville; and Hilda Self of Muenster.

Also the Wilfred Bindels, Arnie and Gertie Wimmer, Jill Wimmer, Ronnie Wimmer; the Harold Bindel family; the Wayne Wimmer family; the Bobby Hermes family; the Kim Hale family; Tim Bindel, Brian Bindel and Ben and Tina Bindel.

Gilbert Bindel shared pictures he made while on vacation in Germany, England and France. The Gilbert Bindels visited particularly with Fleitman relatives and toured areas of special interest in Germany and the other two countries.

Council issues health warning

The Dallas/Fort Worth Council Against Health Fraud (CAHF) has been formed by area professionals in the health care field, federal, state and local government officials and businesses and industries in related fields.

With a goal of educating the citizens of the community and agencies regarding health fraud, misinformation on nutrition, and quackery, the Council will provide a Hotline to handle complaints and questions on these matters.

The Metro Hotline number is (214) 263-8989. It covers Dallas and Tarrant Counties plus parts of surrounding counties.

The initial meeting of CAHF was held Tuesday, Sept. 15, 9 a.m. at Scottish Rite Hospital Auditorium, 2222 Welborn, Dallas, Texas. Three topics were addressed by experts in their respective fields: John Renner, M.D., Kansas City Council Against Health and Nutrition Fraud and Abuse, speaking on "Detecting Fraud in the World of Advertising;" Sharon Robinson, Benefit Specialist with the Health Care Financing Administration, speaking on "Medigap Insurance Fraud;" and Donna Simmons, R.D., L.D., Assistant Director of Food and Clinical Services, Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas, speaking on "Nutritional Fraud."

Chartered by the State of Texas, the non-profit organization is a project of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Public Health Service, Food and Drug Administration. The Council is sponsored by the Access Center for the Elderly through the Texas Health Sciences Foundation.

Efforts will be made to inform citizens of the community how to spot health fraud as encountered and in advertising. When a questionable product or service comes to someone's attention, the Hotline should be called. The inquiry or complaint will be answered or investigated, or the matter will be directed to the source which can handle it.

By combining resources, health and nutrition professionals will be able to answer questions or investigate a widely diversified range of health fraud schemes. Because the number of problems they suffer is so much greater and many are so desperate, senior citizens are susceptible to so-called "miracle cure" approaches. CAHF will focus on health fraud problems of the elderly, although it will serve the entire community.

While the Health Fraud Hotline will not be manned 24 hours daily, messages may be left around the clock, and calls will be checked Monday through Friday. Calls will be returned within a short time after receipt. Emergency calls should not be left on the Hotline recorder.

The public using the Council Against Health Fraud and its Hotline must be aware that quite a number of reporting and investigating bodies are involved: Better Business Bureau, Environmental Protection Agency, Tarrant or Dallas County Medical Associations, Federal Trade Commission, Texas Department of Health, American Cancer Society and the Texas Attorney General's Office are just a few of the entities to whom matters will be referred.

Membership in the Dallas/Fort Worth Council Against Health Fraud is open to business and industrial enterprises, health care organizations and interested individuals. Annual memberships are available to individuals, $25.00; senior citizens, $10.00. Supporting memberships for organizations and businesses are $100.00. Membership is not necessary to use the Hotline.

SH to celebrate Nat'l. Yearbook Week

Sacred Heart will celebrate National Yearbook Week Oct. 4-11 with a "special" offer for one week only.

The Sacred Heart yearbook staff produces the "Cordis" and is directed by Adviser Janie Hartman. This is the first time Congress has officially declared a week to honor and recognize yearbooks and the student journalists nationwide who create them.

President Reagan has signed a proclamation that cites the educational and career value of the yearbook and the historical and social significance of this school publication.

Sacred Heart has a long yearbook tradition, having produced The Cordis for over 40 years. Each year a student staff plans, designs and produces the publication. "It's a complete experience," said Hartman. "Staffers learn and practice skills in editing, marketing, advertising, budgeting, photography, art and design. All benefit in some way from the demanding and educational work of producing a yearbook, and still have fun."

The yearbook staff will be selling annuals for half price to students during National Yearbook Week. Posters will be displayed in school, listing staff members to contact for this one-week-only offer.

The 1988 Cordis is scheduled to be delivered next summer during August. Past yearbooks are available for sale, some dating back to the 1940s.

VFW Auxiliary sets annual bake sale

Plans for the annual Bake Sale sponsored by the VFW Ladies Auxiliary on Oct. 23 were completed during the organization's September meeting in the Post Home, with Frances Bayer presiding.

Safety Chairman Linda Knabe told that the McGruff autographed posters were distributed at both schools; and she discussed the Lite-a-Bike tapes for Cub Scouts.

All members were encouraged to pay 1988 dues. Lucille Hesse gave the treasurer's report and Ethel Hesse read communications. General orders were read by Frances Bayer.

A buffet lunch was served to 26 members by Hilda Sicking. The door prize was won by Rosa Driever.

BOOK IT! program begins on Oct. 1

Beef today is better than ever before, that is, it's better for your health. It's lower in fat, calories and cholesterol, as a result of new breeding and feeding techniques brought about by people wanting to cut more fat from their diets.

A special Beef Workshop will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 6. Dr. Dan Hale, Meats Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station, will be the featured speaker at the workshop. Dr. Hale will present information on changes in beef, nutritional information, buying beef, preparation and storage of beef. He will also have a cutting demonstration to help consumers get the most for their beef dollars.

Also, included in the program will be a short demonstration on beef cookery and distribution of beef recipes by Evelyn Yeatts, County Extension Agent.

An afternoon workshop will be held at Cooke County Electric, in Muenster, at 2 p.m. The workshop, on Tuesday, is free and open to any consumer interested in learning more about the myths relating to beef, nutrition and other food buying and preparation hints.

Beef - What's In it For You - Workshop Oct. 6

The BOOK IT!, a nationwide reading incentive program, begins at Muenster Public School on Oct. 1 for grades 1 through 6.

It is a five-month reading incentive program for children, designed to motivate children to read more, both at school and at home, by rewarding them for their reading accomplishments.

The program is proudly sponsored by Pizza Hut, Inc.

Parents should understand that the teacher sets monthly reading goals for each child in the class. When a reading goal has been met, the teacher gives each child a Pizza Award Certificate, that can be redeemed for a Personal Pan Pizza at any participating Pizza Hut restaurant. The child receives also a button and star on the first visit and additional awards on each succeeding visit when redeeming a certificate.

If a child meets the reading goals for all five months of the program, he or she receives a BOOK IT! Honor Diploma. If all in the class meet reading goals for any four of the five months, the entire class is given a free pizza party.

More than 12 million children were enrolled last year. Teachers and sponsors alike agree that through participation in the BOOK IT! program, all children can improve their reading skills and, equally important, develop a greater appreciation for the written word as a source of pleasure, knowledge and information.

Grades three and four in Muenster Public School will also read for free tickets to Six Flags later in the school year.

Antique Machinery Show to be in telecast

Channel 8 TV has announced a program that will have special local interest, when "8-Country Reporter" will show a film on the Cooke County Antique Tractor and Farm Machinery Show, held north of Lindsay last month.

The TV program is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 4, at 5 p.m. on Channel 8. "Area viewers are urged to mark the date for what promises to be an interesting, informative and very descriptive account of a project attempting to preserve the heritage of farm machinery of a long-ago era," said Leon Knauf, president of the Cooke County Show.

The Channel 8 camera crew attended most of the day and also interviewed several of the spectators.

Choose dried fruit over candy

Dried fruit can be a sweet and nutritious alternative to a candy bar for your child's sack lunch or after-school snack.

"Like candy, dried fruit tastes sweet and has a chewy texture which appeals to children, but it also contains fiber and some vitamins and minerals," says Dr. Alice Hunt, a nutritionist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

"Most dried fruits have 3-5 grams of fiber per 100 calories, so they can make a real contribution to the 20-30 grams of fiber needed each day," she explains. "A 100-calorie serving of dried fruit also provide 3-11 percent of the Recommended Daily Allowance for iron."

Hunt adds that some dried fruits, including apricots, peaches and prunes, contain significant amounts of vitamin A.

"One big advantage of dried fruits over candy is that they contain virtually no fat and do not have artificial colors or flavors," she adds.

According to the nutritionist, commercially prepared fruit rolls, wrinkles and bars are conveniently packaged for lunches but don't measure up nutritionally to dried fruit.

"Fruit rolls are high in sugar and starch, and typically contain less than 2 percent of the Recommended Dietary Allowance for vitamins or minerals. They are, however, often fortified with added vitamin C," she remarks.

Fruit rolls don't contain the fiber that is found in fresh or dried fruit either, Hunt notes.

Dried fruit and fruit rolls shouldn't replace fresh fruit in the diet of adults or children, advises the nutritionist. The process of drying causes fruit to lose water content, so it contains more calories and less vitamins, minerals and fiber than an equal amount of fresh fruit.

But dried fruit can make a convenient snack and a nutritional contribution to the diet when it's eaten in place of candy and other sweets, Hunt emphasizes.

Some dried fruits, especially light-colored ones, are treated with sulfites to keep them from browning. The nutritionist suggests that people who are sulfite-sensitive carefully read the package labels to make sure they are getting fruit that does not contain sulfites.

Public School students express themselves creatively with writing

Expressing their interest in the Creative Writing classes offered at Muenster Public School, students are submitting original and personal accounts of many topics including everyday school life.

In the split third and fourth grade class, DaLana Endres, daughter of Jim and Shirley Endres, and Tony Hartman, son of

Tom and Debbie Hartman, have submitted their impressions of several activities:

Three Weeks at School

Hello, 3 weeks have passed and school is going great. In 3rd and 4th grade we up a poster called Super Duper. If you don't get your name on the board at all every week you will get a sticker on the poster. Sometimes we get stickers and little toys. In the 4th grade we read about a computer that helps athletes in their jobs. In the 3rd grade we read about the legend of the white stallion. Every week we have a different reporter in each 3rd and 4th grade. We are having a blue ribbon special and last week Mary Knabe got it. This week Jeff Flusche got it. The ribbon special is a good citizen and a good samaritan.

Home-School Society hears John Yates

The Sacred Heart Home School Society members held their second meeting of the school year on Monday, Sept. 28, to welcome a special guest, John Yates, who directed a parent-teacher workshop on achievement tests.

He explained the value of these tests in determining areas where a student may require help; or excel in; or should advance in.

Achievement tests, he added, are based on average textbook material. Instructional features of achievement tests include 1) content validity, 2) listening, 3) writing, 4) thinking skills, 5) three kinds of reading.

Mr. Yates also stressed the importance of discussing achievement test results with students. Another important factor is to not rely solely on achievement test scores to determine the level of a student.

A general business meeting took place after conclusion of the workshop.

LIGHTS

voters may wish to wait until next week when the light bulbs will be interchanged between fixtures and higher wattages used. Also, one voter has suggested that the lantern fixtures on the north and south end be rotated 90° so that the arms point east and west. This was suggested to give yet another view of potential installation. Ballots are available at many area merchants.

The information gathered from the balloting will be used to help make the decision on the fixture which will look the best for Muenster, and which will also pass the test on being cost-effective and maintenance free. Whatever the final decision, the choice of fixture will set the atmosphere for many years to come. People who travel to Muenster will carry with them an image of a small town like no other in Texas. They will speak highly of Muenster to others, which can only help us economically as others come to see us as well. That image can do wonders for attracting and promoting businesses, but more importantly, it is what the image-boosting does for our own residents. That demonstration of pride and unity is an important part of a successful community, something we all should celebrate in 1989. When you go to make your decision, give it some careful thought.

HEALTH OFFICIAL DISCUSSES LOCAL SEWER PROJECT

Beginning in earnest the movement of a sewer system in Muenster, Mayor M. J. Endres, President of the Chamber of Commerce, J. M. Weinapfel and City Health Officer, Dr. T. S. Myrick spent several hours Wednesday consulting with W. R. Hardy, a representative of the State Health Department.

In their conference they considered the sources of contamination now exposed by the antiquated system of sewage disposal and also the most efficient and satisfactory systems of sewers and disposal plants known at the present time.

While suggesting that modern sewerage is essential for the well fare and continued growth of the city, Mr. Hardy declined to make any official statement concerning the result of his investigation here. That statement will be issued in the form of a report within the next few weeks.

Eight new Allis Chalmers tractors were unloaded by H. S. Wilde last Saturday.

More than 2,000 pounds of poultry was shipped out by the Farmers Marketing Association during the past week.

SPORTS PROGRAM AT PAROCHIAL SCHOOL NOW IN FULL SWING

Children at the parochial school are receiving a foundation in sports as well as in their classwork. Father Frances stated Wednesday in discussing the sports program now in progress. The touch tackle variety of football has been introduced and is being favored with widespread interest which can possibly result in a widespread loss of talent for the basketball team.

The girls of the school continue to practice intensively on their volleyball court in the hope of developing a really formidable team.

Father Francis is hopeful that he can also develop a few good tennis and handball players as a result of lively activity on both of those courts. Interest in tennis has increased a great deal since the erection of a new backstop for the court.

After spending the Summer months with her husband at Decatur, Mrs. L. W. Flusche returned Tuesday to make her home in Muenster during the current school year. Mr. Flusche, who assisted his wife in moving, advised friends that since his family now lives here his weekend visits are likely to be more frequent.

Hornets trounced by Wildcats

The Callisburg Wildcats chanted "Happy Homecoming" to the Muenster Hornets Friday night after they dominated the dazed Hornets from start to finish for a 42-0 win. Muenster fell to 1-3 for the season while Callisburg upped its season mark to 2-1-1. The Hornets managed only 94 yards of total offense while giving up 373 yards along with 4 turnovers on the Hornet end of the field.

"We were embarrassed," said Coach Bill Jump. "We didn't come to play tonight. Beginning Monday, we'll start separating the sheep from the wolves. We can't let something like this happen again."

If there was a bright spot for Muenster, it had to be that they remained healthy heading into the season's fifth game this Friday at Van Alstyne. The Wildcats streaked to a 28-0 halftime lead behind two touchdown passes from Duane Milam to Dwain Case, a 1-yard run by Milam, and a 3-yard run by Tad Kirchoff. Callisburg added 2 third quarter scores on a 1-yard run by Jeremy Smith, and a 38-yard punt return by Frank Silva.

Trailing 42-0 going into the fourth quarter, Coach Jump inserted his second unit and got good performances from Troy Pagel and Ricky Walterscheid.

"At least the younger players displayed some enthusiasm," he surmised, "and that's what we're lacking right now. We need some leaders to step forward among the veterans. Someone to step up and get a little mean and nasty."

With one game remaining before district play, the Hornets find themselves right where Texas Football Magazine predicted they would finish, fourth. Jump disagrees.

"We're certainly playing for more than fourth place. The coaches believe that and we want the players to believe it. The championship is up for grabs."

Muenster will try to get back on track Friday night at Van Alstyne at 7:30 p.m. Last season the Tigers defeated the Hornets 34-6.

Muenster Jr. High evens record with win at Callisburg

The Muenster Junior High Hornets won for the first time this year last Thursday at Callisburg by a 20-12 margin. The win evened their season mark at 1-1.

After falling behind 6-0, the Hornets struck back on the ensuing kickoff when Mike Gobble raced untouched for 75 yards and a tie game. Moments later, Mike Vogel ran behind the blocks of Chris Kubis and Kody Trubench for 60 yards and the go ahead score. With one minute to play in the first half, Ryan Sicking ran around left end for 50 yards down to the Wildcat 2-yard line. From there Tony Perryman ran it across for the touchdown. Vogel then took the pitch from Gobble and made the extra point for a 20-6 halftime margin.

The second half became a defensive struggle with Callisburg able to mount one scoring drive and then pushing its way to a first and goal at the Hornet 5-yard line with 53 seconds to play. Muenster came up with a goal line stand behind stellar plays by Sicking, Gobble, and Sam Walterscheid to preserve the victory. Noseguard Perryman, along with linebacker Vogel, led the defense throughout the contest.

The Little Red squad will play tonight here at 6 p.m. against Van Alstyne.

Golf tourney set for Oct. 4

The Muenster Golf Association will hold its regular monthly tournament on Sunday, Oct. 4, at the Nocona Municipal Course, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

Tigers struggle back, face Eagles Friday

The Sacred Heart Tigers will be looking to struggle back after a tough 38-12 loss to Irving Cistercian.

The Hawks exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to give Sacred Heart their third pre-season defeat. Their one victory being an early district win over Oakridge.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff on the goal line, where Wayne Becker returned it to the

Cubs pluck Hawks

The Sacred Heart Cubs traveled to Irving and plucked the Cistercian Hawks 14-0 last Friday evening. Both defenses were strong with a large size advantage to the Hawks. The quickness and hard hitting of the Cubs forced a Cistercian fumble. The Cubs capitalized as Helmut Koelzer found a hole and dashed 13 yards for a score. Koelzer then hooked up with Gary Hess for the conversion.

In the second half, Cub fullback Kelly Bell bulled his way in from the three for six more for the Cubs. The conversion failed. Both defenses got stronger as the game went on. The Cubs' two scores stood as the margin of victory. The win kept the Cubs undefeated with a 3-0 mark. Koelzer paced the Cub ball carriers with 147 yards. Top tacklers were Steve Fisher, Kelly Bell, Helmut Koelzer, Greg Hess and Bill Park.

Next action for the Cubs will be Thursday evening at Tiger Field against the Valley View Eagles. Game time is 6 p.m.

45. Four plays later, Darrell Dangelmayr connected with Scott Taylor on a 36-yard pass. Becker caught a 14-yard pass, then ran the ball in from the 5 for the game's first score. Deano Bayer had to re-kick the extra point following a penalty, which went wide giving Sacred Heart an early 6-0 lead.

The Hawks returned the favor, moving the ball 77 yards on their first possession. They picked up five 1st downs to put Cistercian ahead for good.

Ryan Bayer covered a fumbled pitch-out late in the first quarter, only to have the Tigers fumble the ball back to their host the next play.

Time ran out in the opening quarter, but on the first play of the second, Cistercian struck, taking a 14-6 lead.

The Hawks scored again twice before the half, controlling the ball on the ground and in the air, giving them a 28-6 halftime lead.

The third quarter gave the host a touchdown and a 25-yard field goal, stretching their 38-6 lead to begin the fourth quarter.

With 1:21 left in the game, Sacred Heart was able to score, after Tommy Bonner covered a fumble on the 17-yard line. Ryan Bayer carried the ball in from the 5, but Steve Koelzer's extra point attempt failed, making the final score 38-12.

Players and fans were surprised after the game when Coach Joe Pasqua led his team in its customary prayer, did not take time to speak directly to them, but requested medical attention. A doctor at the game attended him and called an ambulance, which took him to Irving Community Hospital.

After being released Monday afternoon, Coach Pasqua showed up at football practice Tuesday, "but I'll have to take it easy," said the coach. "The doctors weren't sure what went wrong, but it wasn't a heart attack." Coach Pasqua wishes to thank everyone for their concern, phone calls, cards and prayers he received over the weekend.

Running back Wayne Becker led Sacred Heart's rushing with 58 yards on 13 carries. Dangelmayr hit 5 of his 10 passes, intercepted once. Scott Taylor led in passing with one 36-yard completion. Becker caught the other 4 for 35 yards.

Tommy Bonner and Ryan Bayer covered fumbles with Bonner and Deano Bayer grabbing the most tackles.

Cistercian's Anastopoulos gained 142 yards in 24 carries and Whaley completed 6 passes for 130 yards.

"We lost to a fine, fine ball club. They would be a top-10 team in AA ball," said Coach Roddy Clack. "The injury bug's been hitting and causing havoc with the team."

Pasqua's troops will face Valley View Friday night for the Eagles' Homecoming. Game time is at 8 p.m. "We look forward to playing Valley View and Coach Kassen," said Coach Clack, "it's a good rivalry."

Sacred Heart may be without senior Scott Taylor, who dislocated a finger in Friday's game and lineman Donnie Knabe. Becker's cast broke during the fourth quarter and he was sidelined, but no re-injury occurred.

At Valley View, the Tigers will be facing explosive running back Tony Keen, who rushed last week for over 100 yards for the second week in a row. "We have to put pressure on the quarterback," said Coach Pasqua. "The Eagles had a slow start this season, but are starting to soar with victories over Paradise and Gainesville JV."

Lindsay loses exciting matchup

By Gene Hermes

Lindsay and Alvord fans were treated to an exciting gridiron battle Friday night. But a last minute penalty forced Lindsay to accept a 15-13 loss.

The Knights received the opening kickoff. Ashley Fuhrmann ran the ball out to the 34-yard line before being tackled. On third down and long, the Knights passed but were intercepted by Alvord's Bo Sons. The interception set the Bulldogs up in good field position on the 28-yard line. Two plays later, Sons went 24 yards for the first TD. The extra point attempt was no good, making the score Alvord 6, Lindsay 0.

The Knights came right back and scored to cover up Alvord's TD, and took 3:20 to do it. The play started with a 23-yard kickoff return by Ashley Fuhrmann to start the Knights on the 42-yard line. They made three first downs on this drive before Mike Dieter themselves up for an 11-yard TD run by Sons. Their extra point attempt failed once again, leaving the score at the end of the first quarter Alvord 12, Lindsay 7.

The second quarter was a defensive one as both teams were forced to punt. However, the Bulldogs managed to control the ball and move it downfield, and with 13 seconds left, Jason Steon kicked a 20-yard field goal and sent the teams to the locker rooms with a halftime score of Alvord 15, Lindsay 7.

The Knights came out in the second half fired up, and it showed. The defense held the Bulldogs early in the third quarter, forcing them to punt. With no return on the punt, the Knights started on their own 25-yard line. They moved 75 yards on the ground in 17 plays to score, making it Alvord 15, Lindsay 13. The extra points were no good. The TD came on 4th down and 3 from the 3-yard line. The ball was given to Dieter,

The fourth quarter once again proved to be a defensive game, as neither team could get anything going. Then with less than a minute to go, Lindsay scored, but was called back for a clipping penalty. The game ended with Alvord on top, 15-13. The record for Lindsay and Alvord is now 3 and 1.

Leading tacklers for Lindsay were Brad Neu with 15, John Fangman with 14, Ted Cason and Leo Sandmann each with 11.

Lindsay's leading rushers were Craig Neu with 11 carries for 66 yards, Mike Dieter with 14 carries for 56 yards, Rick Sandmann 10 for 40, Ashley Fuhrmann 4 for 17 and Greg Roller 2 for 21.

Who Are Your Customers?

By far the greater portion of the money spent in Muenster comes from the people who live within a radius of a few miles of town, and from the people who live within the city limits.

These, then, would be termed "steady customers" — the ones you lay in supplies for and whom you expect to sell to. We want to further expand our trade area, but your sales campaigns are directed at the people you see daily or frequently.

The very obvious and easily demonstrated conclusion is that The Enterprise, which goes into nearly all the homes of your customers, is the medium of advertising you can use to the best advantage. It reaches them regularly, and is read thoroughly.

An advertising or merchandising campaign that does not include The Enterprise in its scope consequently is passing up the greatest potential medium at the disposal of the merchant.

The fact that "everybody knows me" will not sell the merchant's wares. Tell your customers of the advantages of trading at your particular store, rather than with the other fellow, whom they doubtless "know" as well as they do you.

Farm/Ranch

Cooke Co. Hay Show scheduled for Oct. 27

Hay producers need to set aside hay samples to exhibit at county and state shows. Hay shows provide an opportunity to compare different samples of hay and help producers evaluate what makes high-quality hay. Hay is a major portion of the roughage diet of many ruminant animals, so an evaluation of food value and protein content can help growers determine hay quality more easily so that livestock can be fed according to hay value.

An individual entering a hay sample will know the value of his hay when the show is over. Samples will have a protein analysis run and by physically evaluated as to leafiness, steminess, color, foreign material and maturity.

Livestock producers preparing to feed hay will know if their hay is adequate to meet animal needs or if supplements are needed. Hay shows can take a lot of guesswork out of livestock feeding.

The Cooke County Hay Show will be Tuesday, Oct. 27, at the Cooke County Fairgrounds while the State Hay Show is set for Dec. 10-11 at the Green Oaks Inn in Fort Worth. The annual meeting of the Texas Forage and Grassland Council will be held in conjunction with the hay show.

Producers planning to enter the show should submit their bale to Doug Robison or T.J. Davidson at the Cooke County College or give me a call and we will see that your bale is entered. Entries must be in by the week of Oct. 12 in order for chemical analysis to be run.

Hay entries should be plainly marked with the type of hay, the name and address of the producer, and any other information you may wish to submit.

Classes in the show consist of Coastal Bermudagrass, other Bermuda Grasses, other Perennial Grasses, Mixed Grasses, Summer Annual Grasses, Winter Annual Grasses, and Legumes and Legume Grass Mixes.

An educational program will be held at 7 p.m., Oct. 27, with the results of the hay show.

Chris Stoffels is this week's contest winner

Chris Stoffels was the winner in the second week of The Enterprise Football Contest. Stoffels guessed 17 right out of 22 as did Mark Klement, but Chris was closest to the tie breaker with a 40-point score difference, compared to Klement's 48-point difference.

Only 22 games were counted this week, the Lone Oak-Cumby and Savoy-Fannindale games were out of play because The Enterprise was misinformed about the District 9A East Zone schedule. Savoy defeated Cumby 35-0 last Friday.

Two entrants picked 16 correct and two picked 15, while one entry form was turned in without a name.

No one picked Lindsay's defeat but everyone picked Oklahoma to win over Tulsa. Two college games, Auburn vs. Tennessee and Ohio State vs. LSU, ended in a tie.

Last week's cash prizes were picked up at H & W Meat Company, this week's tie breaker sponsor.

THE EXCITEMENT and exhilaration of a professional dragster race is offered spectators who attend races to be held at Texas Motorplex in Ennis, Texas, Oct. 1 through 4, with finals on Sunday. Participating will be this "Gunite Express," a top fuel dragster owned by Lee Roy Hess, Chris Cagle, Billy Huchton and Carl Pagel of Southlake, Texas. The dragster will be driven by Ray Stutz of Laverne, Calif. It will be tuned by Tony Ledford of Pomona, Calif. The car is capable of running 280 m.p.h. It will run against all of the top-ranked fuel dragsters in the world, such as Don (Big Daddy) Garlits; Joe Amato; Shirley Muldowney; Dan Pastorini and Darrell Gwynn.

LOCAL TAE KWON DO STUDENTS and enthusiasts were among those at the First National Open Tae Kwon Do Championships in Edmond, Oklahoma on Saturday, Sept. 12. Winners of the senior men's form competition are pictured above. Alton Ladd of Muenster is on the left with his third place trophy. Ladd, who studies under Master Choi of Gainesville, also placed third in men's senior sparring competition at the tournament which was sponsored by Master Kim's Tae Kwon Do Academy of Edmond. Ladd, a Muenster Kiwanis member, extends a reminder of the Kiwanis-sponsored World Top Class Master's Exposition Nov. 14 at the NTSU men's gym in Denton. Proceeds will go to the Special Olympics for handicapped children.

Jaycees set date for annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest

Muenster Jaycees, sponsors of the annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest, have set the date for Sunday, Oct. 11, at 2 p.m. at the Muenster High School football field. Parents are expected to complete and sign the attached release form!

Boys and girls, ages 8 through 13, are eligible to compete in six age groups. The three high scorers of each group will receive trophies as awards. Scoring is determined by combining distances of a punt, a pass and a kick.

Entry is subject to two requirements: a child must have a parent's permission, and the sponsor and the school must be excused from responsibility in case of injury.

For more information, call either of the co-chairmen, Neal Flusche or Shawn Flusche, 759-4876. Entries will be accepted up until the start of the contest.
