MHS homecoming set for Sept. 25

Students and exes of Muenster Public School are preparing for the 1987 Homecoming activities, featuring the Muenster High Hornets and the Callisburg Wildcats, at Hornet Field Friday, Sept. 25.

Friday's game will be preceded Wednesday night at Sacred Heart Church with a special homecoming liturgy. A special invitation to coaches, football players, cheerleaders, princesses and queen candidates is extended to take part in the ceremony arranged by the MPS Senior Class under the guidance of Mrs. Pam Fette. The service will begin at 8 p.m.

The school auditorium will be opened to everyone at 3:15 for a pep rally Friday.

The formalities of presenting members of the royal party and crowning the queen will be held at halftime with the Hornet Band participating in the coronation.

The princesses are freshman Jane Klement, daughter of Kenneth and Mary Klement; sophomore Lisa Robison, daughter of Jim and Sheri Robison; and junior Carrie Russell, daughter of Robert and Rita Russell. The four senior queen candidates are Darla Bindel, daughter of Harold and Sug Bindel; Michele Monday, daughter of Roy and Janie Monday; Jennifer Reeves, daughter of C.G. and Bobbie Reeves; and Staci Walterscheid, daughter of Boobie and Pat Walterscheid.

The candidates and princesses were selected by their classmates; the queen will be selected by the football team. When the queen is announced, she will receive her crown from Melanie Richey, the 1985 homecoming queen.

Escorts of the court will be Muenster High graduates of the class of 1987. They are Sam Fleitman, Shawn Flusche, Gary Grewing, Damie Hellman, Greg Hoinig, Bubba Klement, Daniel Klement and Joe Pagel.

The final homecoming event will be a dance Saturday night, Sept. 26, from 8 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at the Muenster KC Hall. Music will be provided by The Entertainer. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed in the dance.

KLEMENT GROUNDBREAKING - Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Klement, left, of Muenster were on hand Sept. 8 to help their son, Karl J. Klement, second from right, break ground for his new $1.2 million Ford-Mercury dealership facility in Decatur. Also helping shovel the dirt at the occasion were Dick Davis, right, Dallas District Manager for Ford Division and H.S. Feder, center, Dallas District Manager for Lincoln-Mercury Division.

Both schools observe the Bicentennial of Constitution

Both local schools will mark the 200th anniversary of the Constitution of the United States, by holding special observances.

Occurring after press deadline, however, pictures of those events will appear in next week's paper.

At Muenster Public School, the entire student body, K-12, will gather at the flagpole, raise the flag, and the Hornet Band will play the National Anthem.

All will then re-enter the buildings to witness a TV presentation and will join President Ronald Reagan in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Preceding this event, for several weeks, in classrooms students have been completing units of study on the American Constitution and have made pictures and posters. During the week a skit will be presented by third and fourth graders. Certain students have volunteered to memorize the Preamble to the Constitution.

Other school activities relating to the Bicentennial will be included in greater detail with next week's pictures.

At Sacred Heart School, activities relative to the Bicentennial begin on Wednesday, Sept. 16, when students may dress in red, white and blue. At 12:30 p.m., preschool through grade 8 students will view a television special, "A Celebration of Citizenship" in the Community Center.

On Thursday, Sept. 17, at 2:45 p.m. students will gather on the football practice field for a balloon release. Following that, at 3 p.m., bells will ring, there will be a period of silence, followed by the National Anthem. Individual classroom parties will be held at 3:10 p.m.

Details of other school activities in observance of the bicentennial will be included with next week's pictures.

Many from Muenster among those attending Papal Mass in San Antonio

This community was represented twice during the visit of Pope John Paul II in the United States, first with the presence of Rev. Denis Soerries, O.S.B., in Miami, Fla. when the Pontiff arrived to begin his 10-day United States tour. Father Denis was among about 500 priests sent by their Bishops to greet the Pope, to have an official audience with him and to officiate at an open-air Mass, with all of them as celebrants. Father Denis visited relatives for several days following.

Also representing this community was Patti Bayer. She was accompanied by her family to San Antonio for a week's visit with friends. On Sunday she was a member of a 500-voice choir that sang for the papal Mass.

Others attending in San Antonio were Mrs. Tillie Schoech, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spaeth of Gainesville. More than 40 from Cooke County who traveled on a chartered bus included these from Muenster: Dolores Hofbauer; George and Anna Bayer; Claude and Linda Vogel; Chuck Bartush, Jr.; Miriam Caplinger; Carrie Ann Walterscheid; Jennifer Campbell;

County will close EMS substation in Muenster

Sept. 30 will be the last day for emergency medical service by the Cooke County EMS in Muenster. County commissioners voted 3 to 1 Monday to exempt the Muenster station from the county spending picture. Precinct 4 Commissioner Rosalee Bayer cast the only vote against the motion to do so. The commissioners voted unanimously to accept a 1987-1988 budget of $5,844,995.10, representing an increase of about $480,000.00 over the previous year.

The county will maintain the lease on the station at Third and Oak Streets through 1987 but probably not after that according to EMS Chief David Cleveland.

Cleveland said that the commissioners had received 166 replies to the newspaper survey printed earlier. Of those, 144 voted no to any tax increase. "We're disappointed in the closing," he said. When contacted Wednesday, Cleveland described plans to try to raise voluntary funds to start purchasing first responder equipment in hopes of establishing the program countywide in the future. Although this plan does not have the commissioners' blessing yet, Cleveland says, "We're going to see what we can do on our own. We've got a job here to save lives."

THE POPEMOBILE passes before crowds, on the roadway before it approaches the altar site, in this picture by Dolores Hofbauer.

Jim and Cindy Gehrig and Michael Gehrig; Mickey Haverkamp; John Walterscheid; Dana Dankesreiter; Tony Hess; Patsy Fleitman and Jon Fleitman; Fran Voth; Agnes Hesse; Leon Fuhrmann; Rufus and Betty Henseid; and Bryan Sicking.

Others from Gainesville, Lindsay, Sherman and Valley View were Diane Zimmerer, Mary Kay Endres, Diane Bedolla, Clem and Rita Sandmann; Albina Schmitz; Joanie Bezner; Viola Schmidkofer; Al Mulrean; Dorothy Grewing; Curtis Grewing; Denise Brewer; Gordon and Valerie Smith; Janice Hesse; Patsy Schumacher; Joyce Stewart; Leslie Stewart; Eddie and Elaine Schad.

"After reaching San Antonio Sunday morning," said Dolores Hofbauer, "we were parked in the assigned area and then we walked about two miles to the Mass site, which was located on a sloped area forming a natural auditorium-like arena. Excitement of the occasion was reflected by everyone.

When Pope John Paul II arrived in the limousine, he transferred to the Popemobile, circled the Mass site and passed about 10 yards in front of us.

"The Mass took about two and a half hours. Holy Communion was distributed from many stations along the roads. Excitement of the occasion continued even as we made our way back to our bus," said Mrs. Hofbauer.

The Muenster Enterprise asked Mrs. Jim Gehrig (Cindy), before she left on the memorable trip, to record her impressions as the day progressed. She graciously consented. We are deeply indebted to her for this first-hand account of a once-in-a-lifetime experience. She also included words from others on the bus.

"The chartered bus, with 44 area passengers who were part of the faithful making the pilgrimage to a 144-acre pasture west of San Antonio, left Sacred Heart Community Center at midnight on Sept. 13, 1987. All would be part of a great historic event when Pope John Paul II would be celebrating Mass at 11 a.m.

Myra says "Happy Birthday" to itself as it reaches centennial

An all-day celebration culminated the one hundredth birthday of Myra on Saturday, Sept. 12.

Although no longer equal in size to the once-bustling, thriving, growing town at the turn of the century, this year's spirit, enthusiasm, dogged perseverance and old-fashioned hard work of the community members who put together the celebration, reflected their kinship with their forebears, Myra's pioneers and founding fathers.

Heavy thunderstorms and high winds Friday night and after midnight discouraged a number of intended parade entries who could not put their floats at risk. However, those who waited out the last morning rain, appeared in the parade that started late, about an hour after schedule, and were rewarded with a beautifully cool and sunny afternoon, although the sun was blazing down by suppertime.

Crowd estimates were inconclusive but ranged upwards of 2,000, as attendance swelled and fell and rose again.

Winners of trophies in the parade were: Mercy Hospital, "Overall First Place," featuring Evelyn Meurer, R.N. in 1929-1930; and Rose Rohmer, patient there in the mid-1920's.

Head Start won "No. 1 Best Float," featuring little Myra children and a banner reading "Happy 100th Birthday, Myra." The Gainesville Riding Club won "Best Club Entry."

Buddy May won "Best of the Horse and Carriage" entries.

Kenneth and Rose Zwinggi won

COOKE COUNTY'S first hospital was built in Myra by the town's beloved Dr. Corwin L. Maxwell. Now the home of Paul and Bernice Sicking, a portion of the lower floor was opened to the public during Myra's centennial celebration and used to offer Blood Pressure Checks and free computerized Health Checks. Paul Sicking is shown having his blood pressure checked by daughter, Debbie Kirchenbauer.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
 Since your very nice editorial of Sept. 3, I began to wonder what the solution to the tower situation was.
 First thing, why didn't the telephone company put it up out of town? Since two of these towers have blown down recently, one in San Antonio two weeks ago, we all know it is a hazard.

 Why can't we vote on it and let the majority rule. If we need signed petitions to get up a vote, let's get started.
 We all want progress, but not when it humiliates, hurts and costs our city what this has.
 Fondly,
 Mattie Swirczynski

PROCLAMATION

The writing of the American Constitution is one of the most significant events in the history of this nation. Few things can be more important than the document which lists and guarantees all of the freedoms which each citizen is entitled to. The Constitution also continues to serve as a symbol of hope for people throughout the world striving for their own freedom.

For two hundred years, the Constitution has guided the management of our government. Having proven its flexibility and ability to be adapted to changing times, the Constitution, with care, should still be around hundreds of years from now. The Bicentennial of the signing of the Constitution is a perfect opportunity to honor that document and its significance.

Therefore, I, Jim A. Robertson, County Judge of Cooke County, Texas, do hereby proclaim September 17, 1987 as Constitution Day in Cooke County, Texas.

I urge all citizens to support both public and private efforts intended to encourage both increased appreciation and understanding of the Constitution of the United States.

Police Chief Tompkins points to driving errors

Police Chief Helen Tompkins has reported that "It has come to my attention that there is much misunderstanding concerning the right of way in local driving.

"In all residential areas, drivers must yield to the person on the right. It is in error to think that the smooth straight streets running north and south have the right of way.

"Some drivers plead that the dips on streets running east and west are there to slow traffic. This has nothing to do with the fact. Dips are there to provide drainage."

Chief Tompkins continued, "Drivers must yield to the person on the right, unless it is otherwise clearly marked. This is State Law!"

Referring to an entirely different topic, Chief Tompkins said, "I want to make those people who consume alcohol aware that the consumption laws in the state of Texas are on weekdays, "No consumption of alcohol after 12:15 a.m., and on Saturday night after 1:15 a.m. Anyone caught after these hours consuming alcohol in public can be issued a citation. This is not only a state law, but also carries the weight of a City Ordinance." Chief Tompkins concluded.

AFTER THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE OUR FOUNDING FATHERS WROTE SOMETHING EVEN MORE IMPORTANT.

Ten years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence our founding fathers created what historians have called the greatest single document struck off by the hand and mind of man.

Our founding fathers created the Constitution of the United States.

For the first time in history, power was granted by the people to the government, and not by the government to the people.

The freedom unleashed by the Constitution allowed Americans to develop their talents and abilities to the fullest. And attain what is now known the world over as the American Dream.

As we commemorate the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, there is no better way for you as an American to reaffirm the principles for which our country stands than to learn more about the Constitution.

The words we live by.

Constitution Week set for Sept. 13-23

By Mary Katharine Smith

By proclamation of the President of the United States, and by act of Congress, and by Proclamation of our Mayor the Honorable Charles Woolfolk, the members of the Rebecca Crockett Chapter and the Francis Lightfoot Lee Chapter, NSDAR, remind all citizens that Sept. 13-23, 1987 is Constitution Week, marking the 200th anniversary of this immortal document.

The NSDAR requests that Constitution Week dates be posted on all church, public and school calendars. All members, residents and merchants are requested to fly the flag all week.

"We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution of the United States of America."

Penned two centuries ago by 55 revolutionaries, this perfect statement sets forth our fundamental national being. The 200-year-old United States Constitution is remarkably simple in terms of style and length.

James Madison's concise notes are our best record of that event. He was at work long before the convention started - studying ancient and modern governments to gather ideas, he became chief architect of the Virginia Plan - the ultimate basis for the Constitution.

George Washington was President of the Constitutional Convention, and was the dominant influence that led to the ratification of the document by the States. His leadership, his known support for the document, his unquestioned devotion to his Country earned the post-ratification conclusion expressed by James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson: "Be assured that George Washington's influence carried this government." Standing as a pillar of strength, the hot summer days passed, and on Sept. 17, 1787, one by one the delegates drew a quill pen from the ink stand and signed the United States into life.

The Constitution of the United States of America is the safeguard of all our liberties, champion of our freedoms. The purposes for the observation of Constitution Week are (1) to emphasize the responsibility of protecting and defending the Constitution and preserving it for posterity; (2) to understand that the Constitution is the foundation of our lives and great heritage; and (3) to study the historical events which occurred during September 1787.

Instinctively, Americans seem to have great pride and confidence in their Constitution. The Constitution is the pledge of our national existence.

Will we use our Constitutional privileges wisely and conscientiously to do for future generations what the Founding Fathers did for us? May God help us, like them, to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity.

Pro-Life director attacks Bryant

Bill Price, Director of the 100,000-member Texas Coalition for Life, the States's largest right-to-life organization, held a press conference Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 1:30 p.m. The purpose of the press conference was to discuss serious violations of ethics by Congressman John Bryant in his lobbying against the Bork nomination.

U.S. Rep. John Bryant (D-Dallas), rumored to be considering a statewide race in 1990, abused his Congressional mailing privilege by urging Texans to write to their Senators, asking them to vote against confirmation of Supreme Court nominee, Judge Robert Bork. Cong. Bryant should reimburse the U.S. Treasury for the cost of the mailing, according to Texas Coalition for Life Director Bill Price.

Price charged Bryant with "unethical conduct and misuse of his high office," citing an Aug. 10 letter from Bryant's office, which accuses Bork of being "not worthy of the Supreme Court" and suggests, "If you oppose the Bork nomination, I strongly urge you to make your opinion known to our two Senators ... as soon as possible."

"The Constitution clearly states that Supreme Court nominations will be made 'by and with the advice and consent of the Senate,'" Price said. "As far as Bork's confirmation is concerned, John Bryant is in the same position that I am in. We are both private citizens

A&M dean says worry about why kids can't pass not why they can't play

COLLEGE STATION — Rather than worry about why students can't play, parents should be concerned about why they can't pass, says the dean of the Texas A&M University College of Education.

"Something is wrong with the system," said Dean C. Corrigan. "Recent figures show that a large percentage of Texas high school students are failing one or more courses. If half of a doctor's patients died somebody would start asking questions about the way medicine was being practiced."

Corrigan's comments came at the end of the first six week grading period in which the state's no-pass, no-play rule makes students ineligible for extracurricular activities if they fail to pass all subjects. Reports from throughout the state indicate many students failed to maintain their eligibility.

Corrigan was critical of the heavy emphasis on test scores as a measure of student worth.

"One of the most frightening aspects of the current emphasis on testing is that the push for high test scores may become a device for weeding students out of the school system," Corrigan said.

"The worst thing that could happen is in five years the average SAT score or state mandated test score increases and we learn that the reason for the increase is that the 20 percent of the students who needed help the most were pushed out of school."

"We've got to stop blaming the victims," he said. "The aim of a school is to help young people succeed academically. We must make our schools better, not just tougher. Success is the primary motivator for quality, not threat.

who have our opinions, but neither of us will ever get to vote on it."

Price said that Bork's nomination has become a political battle, with conservatives favoring Bork and liberals opposing him. "The difference is that I have to pay from private sources for mailings to lobby for Bork's nomination, while Bryant uses the taxpayers' money to lobby against it," Price said.

Price cited regulations by the House of Representatives Commission on Congressional Mailing Standards, which prohibit the use of the Congressional mailing privilege for "mail matter which specifically solicits political support for the sender or any other person or any political party," including "the forwarding or transmittal of any mail matter of private persons or associations which seeks to influence any public issue. The use of the frank to mail matter constituting a political petition is not authorized."

"All John Bryant is doing with this mailing is saving liberal groups such as 'People for the American Way' from paying postage, all at our expense," Price said. According to Price, "This is like getting shot with one's own bullets. The only ethical course of action is for Bryant to repay the U.S. Treasury from his campaign funds, for this 'blatantly political mailing which was apparently designed to further his own political ambitions.'"

Joining Price at the press conference was a Democratic Precinct Chairman, who received the Aug. 10 Bryant mailing, a copy of which follows:

COMMITTEE ON ENERGY AND COMMERCE
 COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON VETERANS' AFFAIRS

Dear Ms. _____

If the Senate confirms President Reagan's nomination of U.S. Appeals Court Judge Robert Bork to the U.S. Supreme Court, it will cause a radical shift to the extreme right in the high court's decisions well into the next century. As a member of the House Judiciary Committee, I want to alert you to the seriousness of this nomination and urge you to oppose it.

Judge Bork's extreme views are well known. He has opposed civil rights laws as unconstitutional and has denounced the organized labor movement as disruptive and irresponsible. He has criticized the historic "one man, one vote" decision guaranteeing voters equal representation in elections. And he has denied that there is a constitutional right to privacy, arguing instead that a state can even prohibit married women from using contraceptives. These are highly unusual views, not in the mainstream of American thought, and not worthy of the Supreme Court.

In 1973, the U.S. Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General resigned rather than carry out Richard Nixon's order to fire Watergate Prosecutor Archibald Cox, who was investigating Nixon. Bork, then Solicitor General, was promoted to Acting Attorney General and promptly fired Cox.

In 1982, both Texas Senators Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower voted to send the nomination to the Appeals Court. And both Texas Senators Bentsen and Phil Gramm have voted for each of Reagan's other Supreme Court nominees. For this reason, if you oppose the Bork nomination, I strongly urge you to make your opinion known to our two Senators, Bentsen and Gramm, as soon as possible.

Sincerely

 JOHN BRYANT

POPE

"Carrie Ann Walterscheid felt, 'If the Pope can travel all the way to Texas, I want to be there. It is the first time a Pope has ever been to Texas.'

"Congested traffic was no problem, and our bus arrived at 6:30 a.m. in the designated area. Many buses were already there and a steady stream of buses were pulling in, unloading their passengers. We followed the throngs of people which looked like a river moving at a steady pace. This scene could have been similar to Biblical times when Christ's followers flocked to the countryside to see and hear him."

Mrs. Gehrig continued, "We reached the area of the Mass site, about a mile from the bus, and chose a section near a roadway. After we unloaded our folding chairs, little stools, ice chests and blankets, we took turns walking to the fenced area around the altar to get a closer look at it, where there were also seats for invited guests."

"At 9 a.m. an usher in our section informed us the route the Pope would take to tour and bless the crowds, would come past us, we felt so fortunate that everyone cheered and clapped."

"A little later, the National Guard spaced themselves along the Papal route and members of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, in full regalia, formed an honor guard."

"The morning was still cool and slightly overcast. From the time of our arrival we were inspired by a program of beautiful music presented by various choirs from all over Texas. An announcer praised us for joining in several verses of hymns. When he said that the singing of 300,000 sounded glorious, it was the first indication for us of the size of the crowd, and excitement was mounting as we awaited the arrival of Pope John Paul II."

"At 10:35 a.m. we were told that the Pope had arrived. In the distance we could actually see the Popemobile moving along the roadway. As it neared our area, we could see him standing with Archbishop Flores of San Antonio, in the bullet-proof vehicle. When he came down our roadway, some waved and cheered but others simply stood in awe as he passed us. All were hoping to get a close-up view of John Paul II."

"This was the highlight for our son, Michael Gehrig, 11 years old. He was next to the ropes and later said: 'I'm glad I went, because I was so close to the Pope, when he drove by in his Popemobile.'"

"By noon the weather was no longer pleasant - it just got hot!"

IN THE DISTANCE, the altar at the Papal Mass site in San Antonio is shown in this picture by Cindy Gehrig. Five panels of tapestries form a backdrop.

We saw several people being carried out on stretchers. The temperatures continued to rise during the Mass.

"Probably the most memorable part of the Papal visit," said Jim Gehrig, "besides the actual meeting of the Pope in his travelcade to the altar, was his sermon to the throng of people. There have been many statements and beliefs by today's people about the worth of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, questioning whether it is really necessary for one's salvation. Pope John Paul II put the Sacrament back into its proper perspective and chided the faithful to receive the Sacrament more often."

Cindy Gehrig continued to relate, "We were told before Mass that only 18 minutes would be allotted for distribution of Holy Communion. Jon Fleitman, 14-year-old son of J.D. and Patsy Fleitman, wanted to be sure to receive at this special Mass. So early in the Mass, he stood at the designated station and was fortunate to be the first to receive Holy Communion."

"Dianne Bedolla said she was renewed spiritually by being present at the outdoor Mass. 'Despite the time spent traveling on the bus, despite the heat and the crowds, I'm so glad I went. It was a very rewarding experience for me and I really did enjoy being there.'"

"George Bayer (oldest passenger on our bus) said, 'I'm so glad I went but I don't think I would ever go again.'"

"Chuck Bartush Jr. said of going to San Antonio: 'It was something I knew I wanted to do' and then remarked, 'It's a small world, when you see someone you know amongst all those people. I saw Mike Belz, president of Catholic Life Insurance, and a college friend, who was an usher at the Mass.'"

"It was a real nice pilgrimage," said Carrie Ann Walterscheid.

Cindy Gehrig continued to relate, "Both Jim and I wanted to go to see Pope John Paul II in San Antonio because we felt it was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. The date had special significance for us because we were married 18 years ago on Sept. 13. This seemed the best way to celebrate our anniversary - one we would never forget."

She concluded by saying, "When the bus returned to Muenster at 11:30 Sunday night, the sleepy passengers felt there was a bond in knowing we were all part of this historic day. For in 20 centuries, this was the first time a successor of St. Peter came to Texas and we were there to welcome him."

Major Ronald J. Fuhrmann, a pilot for Southwest Airlines, was one of the flyers from the Dallas Marine Corps Station selected to pilot a helicopter as a papal escort to the Mass site in New Orleans and to fly over the area during Mass.

The bad weather with wind and rain cancelled the planned program and the choppers were called off at the site.

Fuhrmann had spent several days with other helicopter pilots practicing for the event. He is the son of Amanda Fuhrmann of Muenster and the late Adolph Fuhrmann. He resides in Grapevine with his family. His wife is the former Patty Felderhoff of Muenster.

Telethon viewers urged to make pledges count

An unprecedented number of people in the North Texas/Southern Oklahoma area made pledges to the 22nd annual Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), according to Hank Grieb, president of the Red River Chapter of the voluntary health agency.

"The Telethon's final pledge total of $39,021,723 clearly indicates the tremendous support the show received from Americans coast to coast," said Mr. Grieb. "But for those pledges to really count, people must send in the donations they promised during the telecast."

Funds raised by the Telethon help support the Association's comprehensive patient services program and worldwide research effort. "People with neuromuscular disease right here in our area depend on MDA for help today and hope for tomorrow," said Mr. Grieb. Pledges to the Telethon may be redeemed by using the special envelope sent to each viewer who made a pledge during the 2 1/2-hour spectacular. If the Telethon pledge envelope has been misplaced, donations can be sent directly to MDA, New York, N.Y. or to the area office located at 3415 McNeil, Suite 103, Wichita Falls, Texas 76308.

"Even if you didn't make a pledge during the show itself," Mr. Grieb said, "you can still contribute to the Telethon's ultimate success by mailing a check to MDA at one of the above addresses."

School enrollment numbers are tallied

With both Muenster schools in session, Sacred Heart shows a gain and Public School a loss in student enrollment.

Combined totals this week reveal a gain of only nine over the 1986 starting figure.

Totals are 678 in both schools with 22 enrolled in Sacred Heart's pre-kindergarten.

Detailed listings reveal that 12 of the schools gain were at Sacred Heart (266 to 278) and a loss of three (403 to 400) at the Public School. Further details show that Muenster Public has 270 in elementary, a loss of four, and 130 in high school, a gain of one. The separate figures at Sacred Heart are 203 in grades, a gain of 19, and 75 in high school, a loss of seven.

Other combinations show a total of 205 high school students, down in the two schools, and 473 in the elementary, a gain of 15.

FIRESIDE CHAT

The comment that is usually made about Mathews is: our prices. I can tell you that you do not look or hear or communicate. Our prices range from as low as you want to the best of quality that Mat's ability and LaDonna's ability can give you. Communications always help you. We have many specials each month which mean quite reduced prices. "Toys for Tots" is coming up for Christmas. Children's Contest and "Couples and Friend's Day" are in December. The yearly Bridal Show is in January or February. Penny a Pound is every Wednesday for children complete with special prices. Mini Settings to all with special prices any time. I am very proud of our community and the people who are in it. We have been here many years and are looking forward to a studio anniversary. We are always closed on Mondays and we apologize for the inconvenience. Drive through anytime and see our zoo.

Looking forward to the Great Year ahead with you,

Church officials clear ground for Papal visit

In San Antonio, in early September, local church officials were taking no chances with the comfort and safety of the estimated half a million people expected to attend the Papal Mass in a natural amphitheater on the outskirts of the city.

With construction at the site nearly complete, workers began turning their attention to installing water and toilet facilities and ridding the area of fire ants.

According to Father David Garcia, Papal Mass Site Coordinator for the Archdiocese, fire ants were

"...one of the elements we had to deal with to make sure that people could attend the mass in safety and comfort."

Church workers, with the help of specialists from the Texas Department of Agriculture, began treating the site with Amdro fire ant insecticide donated to the San Antonio Archdiocese by American Cyanamid Company.

Father Garcia said he expected the fire ants to be controlled and people to be able to "enjoy a really nice day in the Texas sun with the Pontiff."

EIGHTEEN MUESTER YOUNG PEOPLE LEAVE FOR SCHOOLS

Eighteen Muenster boys and girls are off to another year of scholastic work at academies and colleges.

Beginning early last week Albert Hoehn led the way when he enrolled at the University of Texas. He will occupy some of his time with a part time job at the Nu-ley Bottling Co., the company with which Mr. Purzer was connected during the summer.

The day after Labor Day Misses Ernie Hurr, Catherine Seyler, and Agnes Fette enrolled at Our Lady of Victory Academy in Fort Worth. The Subaco crowd with Roy Endres as chauffeur, departed Wednesday morning. That group includes Edward, Urban and Roy, Jr., Endres, Raymond Fuhrmann, Wilfred Retter, Wilmer Luke, and Anthony Klement.

Miss Louise Felderhoff entered her last year of high school work at Ursuline Academy in Dallas last Friday. Perhaps the oddest school going combination of them all was Emmet and Richard Fette with their motorcycle. A sidecar was well loaded with a trunk and the usual students' paraphernalia and perched atop it all was Emmet. They pulled out Friday for St. Edwards' University at Austin.

Everyone in this community is busy picking cotton and getting ready for school, which will begin about the first Monday in October.

Robert Weinzapfel left Monday on a roundabout motorcycle trip which will end at San Antonio at the end of this week, when Robert will enroll for his sophomore work at St. Mary's University. His tour will include Lubbock, Slaton, and Carlsbad, N. M.

Misses Agnes Weinzapfel and Elfreda Luke also left Monday for their coming school term. Both will be students at Victory College in Fort Worth.

M. J. Endres, Jr. will enroll at A. & M. College in College Station next Monday. He will leave Friday and spend Saturday with his brothers, Leonard Endres, and family at Bienville.

Not many nights ago two young persons apparently very fond of one another were parked on the overpass listening to the moonlight when they were suddenly interrupted by the screech of skidding rubber. Someone was coming over the structure at a merry gallop and noticed the parked machine only in time to avoid a tragic crash. While not wishing to imply that we can identify the foolish pair we do offer the suggestion that hereafter they keep their machine in motion there. If they are particularly impressed by nocturnal beauties they can stay within the bounds of safety by walking up the overpass and leaning on the railing. But another such foolhardy stunt might result in their admiring the moon and stars from considerably closer quarters.

Opening Day at Lindsay School Set for Monday

Lindsay, Sept. 15.—The session of 1937-38 at the Lindsay school will open on September 20.

The school is organized according to the plan of the State Board of Education and comprises an elementary department of seven grades and a four-year high school.

This year the high school offers the following subjects: English, algebra, plane geometry, modern history, American history, German, general science and bookkeeping.

Members of the faculty and their assignments are as follows: Venerable Sister Mary Lucian, principal; Sister Francis Marie, bookkeeping, fifth and sixth grades; Sister Mary Emilia, high school; Sister Mary Ambrose, third and fourth grades; Sister Anna Victoria, sixth and seventh grades; and Sister Mary Alivet, first and second grades. Sister Mary Paulinus is supervisor of the convent and looks to the comforts of the teachers.

Double ring ceremony unites couple

MRS. EARL CHARLES II
... Nee Donna Russell ...

Donna Russell and Earl Charles II were married at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 12, in Sacred Heart Church. Father Victor Gillespie, O.S.B., officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Grewing of Muenster. The groom is the son of Earl Charles of Campti, Louisiana, and Myra Warsaw of Cartwright, Okla., and the grandson of Clarine Boney of Oklahoma.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her sons, Darrell and Cory Russell. She wore an ivory tea-length gown embellished with lace and satin ribbon. It was designed with an illusion yoke edged with a wide lace ruffle. The high neckline was ringed with petals of lace. Re-embroidered lace sleeves were elbow-length.

She wore a wreath of delicate tiny white flowers in her hair and carried a bridal bouquet of ivory roses.

Linda Grewing, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Joe Warsaw of Cartwright, Okla., the groom's stepfather, was best man.

The bridesmaid wore a tea-length mauve gown of taffeta overlaid with lace. She carried a bouquet of mauve and ivory flowers.

Wedding music was provided by Diane Grewing and Christi Klement, vocalists, with guitar accompaniment. They sang "Let It Be Me," "Only A Shadow," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Edelweiss," "Wedding Song" and "We've Only Just Begun."

Participating in the wedding liturgy were Lana Charles, the groom's stepmother, who offered Prayers of the Faithful, and Elaine Grewing, the bride's sister, who read petitions.

The altar was decorated with two large arrangements of white gladioli and a pair of branched candelabra with lighted candles.

Following the church ceremony, a reception and dinner were held in the Community Center meeting room.

Louise Schad and her assistants of Lindsay catered the dinner.

The bride's cake, decorated in ivory and mauve, and surrounded by matching flowers, and the groom's chocolate cake were made by Betty Rose Walterscheid. Marla Fette, sister of the bride, cut and served both cakes, assisted by Amy and Becky Fette, the bride's nieces, who also registered guest signatures in the bride's book.

Special decorations for the reception room included two large silver hearts, decorated with lace and ribbon and designed by the groom's mother, Myra Warsaw. These were used to decorate the wall behind the bride's table.

Tables were decorated with mauve and ivory candles, and arrangements of swans holding silk flowers.

After the reception, the bride and groom left on a trip to Colorado. Upon their return, they will reside in Muenster. He is employed by Cooke County Distributors; and she is employed at Valenite Metals in Gainesville.

For Benedictine Sisters...

Annual supper is "Welcome Back"

Members of St. Anne and St. Joseph's Societies honored the local Benedictine Sisters and the pastors at a covered dish supper on the first Sunday of the month in the Community Center meeting room. A buffet of food was arranged for self serving. Father Victor asked the blessing.

Afterwards the women and the men held separate meetings, then joined again for table games.

Della Walterscheid, president of St. Anne's Society, presented an entertaining review of happenings during the Catholic State League's weekend meeting she and her husband attended at Sandia in July.

During the business session Bertha Knabe read minutes of the previous meeting in July and Marie Henscheid, treasurer, listed expenditures during July and August. She also reported get-well cards mailed to Mrs. Lawrence Wimmer, Mrs. Regi Bayer, Mrs. Paul Fisher, Mrs. Tony Walterscheid, Mrs. Al Walter and Mrs. John Fleitman, and read a card of thanks from Father Victor for the society's contribution to his Ireland trip.

Tillie Otto reported for the rosary makers, telling about sending 100 rosaries to St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas after receiving an appeal from the hospital nuns. She also sent literature to the Texas Prison System.

The St. Joseph's Society meeting, conducted by Wilfred Bindel, president, was routine business and a report by Denis Walterscheid on the State League Convention was read.

Please help us adhere to our news deadline of Tuesdays at 5 p.m. It is impossible to handle the work load and abide by printing deadline when major news items, including weddings, are sent in after our deadline. We are happy to have all news and we appreciate your interest, but when we hold new stories until the next week, it is because they reached us after deadline.

Red River Quilters set show for Oct. 3

Red River Quilters Guild has set the date for its third annual Quilt Show and Bazaar for Saturday, Oct. 3, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 4, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., at the Great Hall of the Activity Center, 1001 Indiana, Wichita Falls, Texas. Admission is $1.00.

Displays will include vendor booths of quilt and country related crafts from Wichita Falls and area artists. Antique and new quilts, miniature quilts, wall hangings and quilted clothing will be featured.

There will be an auction of miniature quilts at 2 p.m. Saturday with proceeds going to the Red River Quilters Guild Educational Fund. This fund was created to acquaint the public with the art of quilting and to subsidize quilt classes and teachers for the area.

New to the planned activities this year is a fashion show at 2 p.m. Sunday, featuring quilted or quilt related clothing. The cost of admission is $1.00 for the fashion show.

The drawing for the donation quilt will be at 4 p.m. Sunday. Tickets may be purchased from any RRQG member or at the quilt show until the time of the drawing.

Muenster Garden Club resumes meetings

Meeting on Friday, Sept. 11, at 9:30 a.m. in the Cooke County Electric Co-op Building, the Muenster Garden Club re-activated after a summer recess.

Daryl Ferber was hostess to the group which included 15 guests and 11 members. A guest speaker presented a program on "Nature's Kaleidoscope," specifically Texas Wildflowers. She was Sharon Gaston of Saint Jo, a faculty member and Botany instructor of Cooke County College, who incorporated slides and a series of comments in a delightful presentation.

Mrs. Ferber, president, conducted the business meeting after serving brunch to the group.

Members voted to donate to a fund to purchase wildflower seeds which Rodney Knabe will plant on Muenster roadsides, with cooperation and direction from the Texas Highway Dept. This will be in partial fulfillment of requirements for Eagle rank in the Boy Scouts.

Members also voted to buy a tree for planting on Arbor Day near the walled, outdoor patio adjacent to Muenster Public Library. This will be in cooperation with a beautification project for the area.

Yearbooks were distributed; the club's budget was ratified; and plans were made for the coming year's programs.

Announcement was made of awarding of "Yard of the Month" to Mrs. R.N. Fette. Also announced was the District II Garden Club convention in Gainesville on Nov. 10-11, at the new Convention Center.

The attendance prize, a fall theme arrangement of gourds in a basket, glazed to a high polish and dressed with a coordinating bow, and made by Mrs. Ferber, was won by Mrs. Fette.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Eileen Luke on Oct. 9. Karen Trubenbach of Memories Portrait Studio will present a program on "Capturing Nature's Beauty."

Seventh grade elects at Public School

Congratulations are in order for winners of an election to choose officers to lead the seventh grade at Muenster Public School. Newly elected, during a class meeting, are Jeremy Jones, president; Lori Graham, vice president; Joy Tisdale, secretary/treasurer; and Staci Whittington, reporter.

Class favorites are Lori Graham and Darren Bindel. Class sponsors are faculty members Bill Jump and Ted Heers.

The meeting was reported by Staci Whittington.

ALICE ANN FUHRMANN and Charles Edward Schumacher have chosen Saturday, Oct. 10, for their wedding day in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay. The bride-elect is the daughter of Joseph Paul and Marie Fuhrmann of Lindsay. The future-groom is the son of Richard and Florence Schumacher of Gainesville. Alice Ann is a 1981 graduate of Lindsay High School and received her BBA degree from East Texas State University in 1985. She is a secretary employed by Cooke County Electric Cooperative. Schumacher is a 1981 graduate of Gainesville High School and has attended West Texas State University. He is employed as a mechanic for S & W Tractor Co. They plan to reside in Gainesville.

Homemakers Club holds meeting

Adeline Sicking hosted members of the Muenster Extension Homemakers Club on Sept. 9, with Ruth Barter as her co-hostess. Jacki Bilderback chaired the meeting.

Irene Klement read two inspirational, "The Window of Gold" and "The Golden Chains of Friendship."

Lucille Lutkenhaus reported on the Leader Training meeting she attended earlier and told members about programs available for the coming year. She also related that Jacki Bilderback was elected vice president of the Cooke County Council of Extension Homemakers Clubs, at the same meeting.

Members completed yearbooks and selected programs and hostesses for 1987-88. Members also elected to suspend meetings during July and August in 1988.

The hostess, Mrs. Sicking, served pound cake, sherry and coffee to 22 members, following adjournment. ***

In the previous month, club members met on Aug. 12 in the home of Dorothy Yosten, when Irene Klement presented a program on "The Dollar." She gave a history of the beginning and told when the need for printed bills began. She also pointed out the numerous symbols on the $1 bill and explained the meanings of each. This led into a discussion of the Dollar, which they agreed, many have taken for granted.

The hostess, Mrs. Yosten, served punch, fruit cocktail cake and homemade ice cream made by Ann Herr to 21 members.

Girl Scouts make big plans for next year

Girl Scouts are beginning to organize in all areas of the county. Information will be passed out in each school and troops are forming for the upcoming year. Girls and leaders are excited about the activities that have already been planned for the girls and more will be planned throughout the year. Some of the events that have been planned are:

Dad 'n' Me Day - Oct. 17, Sid Richardson Boy Scout Camp at Bridgeport, Texas. (Girls will spend the day with their dad, fishing, flying kites and playing games.)

Camping Weekend called "Dance, Dance, Dance" - Oct. 9-11 or Nov. 6-8. (Girls will earn dance badge and meet new friends.)

Songfest - Sept. 26 - Decatur (Girls will learn new songs and meet other Girl Scouts.)

Ice Skating - Nov. 7 and 14, Prestonwood Mall, Dallas (Girls will go ice skating and then explore the mall.)

Omni Theater - Dec. 5, Fort Worth (Girls will enjoy an exciting new experience.)

Area Girl Scouts will also be planning other camping trips, skating parties, bowling, cookouts and sleep-ins.

Girl Scouting has a lot to offer both girls and adults. They have fun, they make new friends, and through meaningful community service, they acquire understanding about themselves and others.

Girl Scouting is open to all girls ages 5-17 years old, and is the largest all-girl organization in the world.

Membership costs are $4.00 a year, which includes the girls' insurance while participating in Girl Scout activities for the year.

Cross Timber Girl Scout Council is a United Way Agency serving girls in Wise, Montague, Cooke, Grayson and Denton Counties.

For more information about Girl Scouting, please call your local Field Director, Barbara Reynolds, at 825-3618.

R.C.I.A. classes to be offered

Persons interested in joining the Catholic Church or adult Catholics wanting to be confirmed or brought up-to-date on the teachings of the Church are urged to consider the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults to begin shortly at Sacred Heart Church. The goal of the R.C.I.A. is to involve persons in an on-going conversion to Jesus Christ as they learn about Catholic beliefs and practices. The process is also marked by special rites or ceremonies at various stages. It culminates with the candidates receiving the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.

Classes will be held on Thursday evenings, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., at Sacred Heart High School Library, beginning Sept. 24. The classes will be presented by various members of the R.C.I.A. team: Barbara Fuhrmann, Lorena Taylor, Father Denis, Father Victor, Roy Hartman, Jeanne Greathouse, Gary and Mary Enders, and others. Anyone interested in the R.C.I.A. should call Barbara Fuhrmann at 759-4067 or Lorena Taylor at 759-2968.

Life in the Spirit Seminar Sept. 19

Over the past 20 years, millions of Catholics have been touched in powerful ways through Life in the Spirit Seminars in which they have experienced a release of the Holy Spirit that they first received in baptism and confirmation. Such a seminar is being presented by the Sacred Heart prayer group this coming Saturday, Sept. 19, from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Community Center Cafeteria.

The Seminar will consist of talks on "God's Love," "Salvation," "New Life," "Receiving God's Gift," and "Praying for Baptism in the Holy Spirit," followed by small group discussions.

The final two talks on "Growth" and "Transformation in Christ" will be given on succeeding Sunday evenings. Speakers include Roy and Irene Hartman, Father Denis Soerries, Barbara Fuhrmann, David and Pam Fette, and Lynn Dangelmayr. There will also be time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and prayer for individual persons to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit as described in 1 Corinthians 12 and 14.

The goals of the seminar are to lead persons into a deeper commitment to Jesus Christ, to experience the gifts of the Spirit, and to provide a faith community in which to grow spiritually. For further information, call Roy Hartman at 759-2585 or Barbara Fuhrmann at 759-4067.

SH School Board to hold meeting

The Sacred Heart School Board will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Sept. 21, 1987, convening promptly at 7 p.m. in the high school library.

Wiesmans have guests

Peter Grunert and Bernhild Buntenhotter of Everswinkel, Germany arrived on Aug. 28 to visit Mr. and Mrs. E.I. Wiesmann of Southlake, Texas.

They also spent Sept. 7 and 8 in San Antonio as guests of Sister Ann Theodore Wiesman and were privileged to view the location of the Papal Mass.

During the past weekend they came to Muenster to visit Mr. and Mrs. Al Wiesman, before returning to Southlake. On Sept. 15, they began the drive toward San Francisco. Enroute, they went first to Spokane, Washington, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E.H. Kuonen and family.

Grunert and Buntenhotter will return to Germany on Sept. 24. Peter Grunert is familiar with this area as his parents visited Muenster and its Germanfest, and also in Fort Worth, last spring, 1987.

Hood hosts Harvest Supper Nov. 7

DARYL FERBER, president of the Muenster Garden Club, presents to Boy Scout Rodney Knabe a check from the club to assist him in the purchase of wildflower seeds. Knabe is a candidate for Eagle Scout. One of the civic improvement projects to fulfill requirements for his advancement toward Eagle Rank will be the planting of Texas Wildflower seeds on roads approaching Muenster from four directions - Highway 82 East and West and Ash and Mesquite Streets North and South. Knabe has secured the permission, cooperation and assistance of the Texas State Highway Department in carrying out the project. He is meeting with groups and organizations asking for their help and hopes to plant 100 pounds of Texas Wildflower seed. The seed will be purchased from Abbotts of Kerrville at a cost of $28 per pound. Janie Hartman Photo

German Day activities set for Oct. 10-11

The Texas German Day Council, a cultural non-profit organization of Dallas, extends a special invitation to the 25th Anniversary Pioneer Ball, Saturday, Oct. 10, 1987.

This event will be held at the world-renowned Grand Kempinski Hotel, at 15201 Dallas Parkway.

The atmosphere of the ball will reflect the grand style that Kempinski Hotels are famous for since the beginning of this century.

Entertainment will include the Dallas Froshinn Singing Society and the German Air Force Choir from Fort Bliss. The Dallas Town North Concert Band will entertain during dinner.

An elegant dinner will be served with the main course featuring Zigeuner Rostbraten (Beef Sirloin).

For dancing pleasure, the Bavarian Band "Musikkapelle Markt Erkeim" will be playing.

State Fair activities the next day, Sunday, Oct. 11, consists of German "Gemutlichkeit" at the Bandshell from 11:30 a.m. till closing time. (German food, drinks, songs, dance and music.)

Entertainment consists of German folk singing, dancing and music. The following groups will entertain: Skyline High School German Clubs Folk Dancing and Oompah Band, Dallas Froshinn Schuhplattlers, Kapelle Choir, and the Dallas Froshinn Singing Society. Also performing will be the Soldiers Choir of the German Air Force from Fort Bliss, Texas, their 20th appearance at the German Day activities. Music will be provided by the Musikkapelle Markt Erkeim band from Bavaria, Germany.

Tickets must be purchased in the near future to assure that they will be available. It is planned to rent a van for the evening. Anyone interested should call Alvin Fuhrman, Muenster's representative on the German Day Council, for more details, transportation and ticket reservations. "It is hoped that Muenster will be honored along with a sister city in Germany during Muenster's centennial year at this event in 1989. We need to be well represented starting this year if this is ever to take place," said Alvin Fuhrman.

Schilling, Stoffels get top honor

Kelly Schilling and Sally Stoffels have been accepted as 1987 members of the Society of Distinguished American High School Students. They are graduates of Sacred Heart School.

Their sponsor, Sister Cabrini Arami, was presented with the Society's National Appreciation Award for "devotion to the development and encouragement of student leaders."

Membership in the 19-year-old Society is designed to be a national honor and incentive for top performance among high school students. To be accepted, candidates must excel in academics, extracurricular and civic activities.

Kelly Schilling and Sally Stoffels are both attending Texas A&M University.

THREE PIECES of chapel furniture for O.L.V. altar, a tabernacle table and a lectern were built by Rudy Koesler.

New OLV Center Relatives attend dedication

When friends and relatives attended the dedication ceremony of the new Our Lady of Victory Center in Fort Worth on Sunday, Aug. 30, at 2 p.m., they were given guided tours of the facility by hostesses of the event, the Sisters of St. Mary of Namur.

Attracting special attention in the new chapel at OLV were three pieces built by Rudy Koesler of Muenster.

Following the architect's design, he built the altar, lectern and tabernacle table. The architect designed the stained glass windows for the chapel.

Each of Koesler's three items had a 16-side base of white oak, with a flat oak top on each. All were built in his workshop near his home and were transported to the Our Lady of Victory Center in Fort Worth. To be added in the near future are more pieces, including matching candle holders.

Among those attending the dedication and open house that followed were Muenster relatives and friends, Norbert and Elizabeth Koesler; Rudy and Martha Koesler; Dan, Mary Alice, Denise and Melissa Bayer; Christi and Andrea Klement; Karl and Sondra Koesler; Fred Koesler and Elaine Grewing all of Muenster; and Gretchen Kostyniak and sons Brian and Michael of Arlington; Joe and Loretta Spaeth of Longview; Ida Rohmer and Suzanne Williams of Fort Worth; Eileen Georgia of Dallas; Mattie and Ray Swirczynski of Muenster; Mary Hesse and Chris Hesse of Dallas.

Dignitaries who participated in the dedication program included, in order given: Sister Miriam Ne Smith, Provincial Superior of the Sisters of St. Mary; Bob Bolen, Mayor of Fort Worth; James C. Wright, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives; Most Rev. Joseph P. Delaney, Bishop of Fort Worth; Sister Mary Elaine Breen, Coordinator of OLV Center; and Rev. James Young SM, Chaplain of OLV Center.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoffels of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sawyer of Gainesville. Mrs. Frankie Stoffels is the former Traci Sawyer.

Two CC grocery stores join in Food Festival

Tom Thumb-Page and Scivally's West in Gainesville will join more than 8,000 supermarkets nationwide celebrating the American Heart Association's national community nutrition awareness event - the American Heart's Third Annual Food Festival.

Food Festival is scheduled for Sept. 13-19, and is designed to raise the public's awareness of nutrition and heart health. AHA's nutritional information on "heart healthy" eating and recipes will be available at Gainesville area supermarkets participating in the weeklong festival.

"The grocery store is an excellent place for us to reach people, since it's the primary place the public makes decisions on food selection," said Gayla Blanton, local Food Festival chairman. "Some of the things we hope to educate people about during the Food Festival include the importance of reading and interpreting nutrition labels on packaged foods; how to choose lean cuts of meat; and which dairy products are preferable according to the Heart Association.

"The AHA recommends a diet low in saturated fat, cholesterol and salt and limiting cholesterol intake to no more than 300 milligrams per day," Blanton explains.

According to Blanton, not all cholesterol in the blood comes from the foods we eat. The body produces about 1,000 milligrams of cholesterol each day, and this cholesterol is needed to produce certain hormones and to construct cells. The body filters out and eliminates some of the cholesterol in the blood.

During the Food Festival, AHA, in cooperation with Tom Thumb-Page and Scivally's West, hopes to provide Cooke County residents with the nutritional information to enhance their own heart health and that of their families.

For more information about Food Festival or nutrition, call the Heart Association at 696-5596.

FOOD, FIBER & FITNESS

The first step toward healthy eating is to select a variety of foods each day from the four basic food groups. These groups are: milk and dairy products... meat, poultry and fish... fruits and vegetables... breads, grains and cereals.

In addition to eating a variety of foods, the U.S. Dietary Guidelines recommend limiting foods which are high in fat, saturated fat, cholesterol, sodium and sugar. Simple changes in shopping habits and cooking techniques can help, including:

- Purchase low-fat dairy products, no-salt-added canned products, low-fat fish varieties, lean meats and poultry.
- Trim all visible fat from meats before cooking and remove skin from poultry.
- Season foods with lemon juice and herbs instead of salt.
- Steam, poach, broil or bake instead of frying.
- Sweeten fruit desserts with fruit juice instead of sugar.

Mark Reinert of Germany visits Kralickes

JILL WIMMER is helping Barry Escobedo to form letters. Barry is a kindergarten student at Muenster Public School and Jill is a senior at Texas Woman's University, doing 30 hours of observation at MHS in the morning Kindergarten class. This is part of the Teacher Education Program at TWU as she studies Child Development and Elementary Education. Jill Wimmer is the daughter of Arnie and Gertie Wimmer and a graduate of Muenster High School. She also attended Cooke County College and plans to graduate from TWU in the fall of 1988.

"I've been here before," said Mark Reinert during a recent stop at The Muenster Enterprise, "and I hope to come back again. It is so wonderful being here in Texas."

Reinert, whose parents, Rolf and Ursula Reinert, are friends of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke, is a guest in their home, since arriving on Aug. 27. He will return to his home in Memmingen, West Germany on Sept. 23.

MARK REINERT

"I was born in Phoenix, Arizona on April 29, 1968, while my father was in training as a student pilot in the German Air Force. My parents became acquainted with the Kralickes in 1967 while my father was studying at Sheppard Field in Wichita Falls. A group of German student pilots was invited by Muenster's mayor to attend Germanfest and my parents met Dr. and Mrs. Kralicke through mutual friends," explained Reinert.

After that they visited on occasional weekends until transfer to Phoenix. The Reinert family, parents and Mark and his older brother Bernd, were transferred back to Germany in Oct. 1968 when Mark was about 6 months old. They lived in Memmingen, West Germany until 1979, when his father was again assigned to Sheppard Field, this time as an instructor for student pilots in the German Air Force.

While living in Wichita Falls, Mark and Bernd attended school at Notre Dame Elementary and High School. From second grade through fourth, Mark attended Notre Dame taught by a German teacher. He skipped the fifth and continued at Notre Dame from regular sixth grade, junior high seventh grade, and eighth grade until January 1981. It was then his father was transferred back to Germany.

Now retired from the military, his father is employed by a chemical firm and the family still lives in Memmingen, about 1 1/2 hours drive from Munich.

"The Kralickes have visited us in Germany and we have been especially proud to have them as our guests in our home," said Mark.

He has now completed his studies at Bemhard-Strigel Gymnasium, equivalent to second year college level in the U.S., with a double major in English and History/Political Studies. Now when he returns to Germany, he will enter the German Armed Forces on Oct. 1 for 15 months of required service. He said, "Fifty percent of our students go to college, but 100 percent of our young men go to the military first, for 15 months. It is an obligation." He will be stationed in Munich in the Medical Corps. "I have sent resumes to several industrial firms, hoping to be admitted into one of their training programs after my military service is completed."

When asked about his hometown, Mark Reinert said, "It has about 40,000 population. Our climate is about like Minnesota. Our winters are severe from November until mid-April. On a nice day we can see the magnificent, snowy white peaks of the Alps. Unfortunately, we have many cloudy days. We live about a half-hour's drive from the Alps."

Then he laughed, "You must remember that our speed limits are much higher than yours." And he amended the distance to say, "about 40 miles from the Alps."

"Most of the time it is much too cold to swim at home. Here, it is so glorious to swim any time this summer. At home we have not more than 15 days a year when the water is warm to enjoy a swim."

His favorite sports are track and field in which he has won trophies. His hobby is tennis. He was twice Bavarian champion in long-distance running and won fifth place in the All-Germany Junior Championship.

"I like to run with Ronnie Hess and go hunting with Terry Walterscheid. I marvel at the countryside. We went for miles and did not see a town. At home it would not be so. It is so densely populated and every inch of land is in use. However, population in West Germany is decreasing about 40 to 50 thousand annually," he went on in explanation.

When asked about favorite holidays in Germany, Mark said, "Christmas is BIG, BIG, traditional and family-oriented, with a big dinner, a big tree and church attendance."

"I enjoy the friendliness here," he said. "Texans are friendlier. In Germany, customs and mores are more formal, especially if you are speaking to persons older than you are..."

"I enjoy the school spirit. I have been to sports activities at both schools. At home, we don't have as much school activity. We have never had a pep rally. Schools are strictly regimented. All sports activities are carried out in Sports Clubs, but unrelated to school attendance or activities."

When asked about his favorite Texas foods, he said with enthusiasm, "Steaks and shrimp! ... 'and Blue Bell Ice Cream."

When asked, "what do you miss most about German foods," he answered without hesitation, "German Beer!"

KAREN & MICHAEL GEHRIG

Karen and Michael celebrate together

The birthdays of Karen and Michael Gehrig were celebrated together on Aug. 12 at Muenster City Park. Their party was held early since their oldest brother, Jason, would be leaving for Subiaco Academy the next day. Karen's first birthday was on Aug. 21 and Michael's eleventh birthday was on Aug. 26.

Jim and Cindy Gehrig hosted a hamburger cookout for their children. The guests enjoyed swimming in the pool following supper.

Karen's godmother, Pam Dangelmayr, baked and decorated her cake, and Michael's cake was baked by his mother. A special treat was homemade ice cream, prepared by Grandmothers Jake and Alma. Goodie bags were sent home with all of the cousins.

Attending were Karen and Michael's other sister and brothers, Joanna, Jason, Ryan and Lucien; their grandparents Alma and Herman Stoffels and Jake and Arnold Schilling; aunts, uncles and cousins Yvonne Ambrose and Jennifer and Duncan Campbell; Joe, Pam, Kelly, Glen and Debra Dangelmayr; Chuck, June, Stephen, Jackie and Dan Bartush; Donna, Russell, Chad, Pamela, Cheryl, and Matthew Simmons of Denton; Chris, Jana and Lauren Stoffels; Sally Stoffels; and Jeff Wimmer.

Michael's godparents, Joe and Dianne Bedolla of Sherman, were unable to attend, but Michael spent a weekend with them before school started.

Free shade trees for fall planting

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving 10 free shade trees to everyone who joins the non-profit Foundation during September, 1987.

A Sugar Maple, Weeping Willow, Red Oak, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, Silver Maple, Tuliptree, River Birch and Red Maple will be given as part of the Foundation's campaign to encourage tree planting.

These trees were selected because they provide beautiful orange, red and yellow autumn colors and cooling summer shade, according to John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director.

The Foundation will give the 10 free trees to members contributing $10 during September. The 6-12 inch trees will be shipped this fall between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10 when conditions are right for planting. They will be sent with enclosed planting instructions, and are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to TEN SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by Sept. 30, 1987.

Lindsay ISD offers free meals

The Lindsay ISD has announced its policy for free and reduced priced meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program. This policy may be reviewed by an interested party in the Superintendent's office.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility: Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

Family Size	Yearly	Monthly	Weekly
1	10,175	848	196
2	13,690	1,141	264
3	17,205	1,434	331
4	20,720	1,727	399
5	24,235	2,020	467
6	27,750	2,313	534
7	31,265	2,606	602
8	34,780	2,899	669
Each Additional Family Member	3,515	293	68

For school officials to determine eligibility, households receiving food stamps or AFDC must list the child's name, their food stamp or AFDC case number and the signature and name of an adult household member. Households not receiving food stamps or AFDC must list: names of all household members, social security numbers, total household income and the amount and source of the income received by each household member, and the signature of an adult household member certifying that the information provided is correct.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price policy, Principal Gilbert Hermes will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. Parents wishing to make a formal appeal may make a request either orally or in writing to Jim Myrick, P.O. Box 5, Lindsay, TX, 76250 or 665-0977 for a hearing on the decision.

Households that list a food stamp or AFDC case number must report when the household no longer receives these benefits. Other households approved for benefits are required to report increases in household income of over $50 per month or $600 per year and decreases in household size. Also, if a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size increase the household should contact the school. Such changes may make the children of the household eligible for benefits if the household's income falls at or below the levels shown.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for school meal benefits. If a household wishes to apply for benefits for foster children living with them, the household should contact the school for more information.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of child feeding programs administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

WHO IN THIS FAMILY IS BEING TREATED FOR A MUSCLE DISEASE?

GUESS AGAIN.

The answer is, they all are. Oh, only the child in the wheelchair is disabled. But his illness affects the entire family. And that's why the Muscular Dystrophy Association, through its 240 clinics, provides patients and their families with the help they need. Parents of a child with a neuromuscular disease may feel angry, even guilty, about the child's illness. They face the task of caring for him, while not neglecting their healthy children's needs—or each others.

Siblings can feel guilty, too, just for not being the sick one. An MDA clinic will counsel a family on problems like these. Provide many essential services, such as diagnosis, therapy, and orthopedic equipment. And point out other available community health resources. All at no direct cost to the patient or family.

It's often said that with muscular dystrophy, the family is the patient. So at MDA, that's exactly who we treat.

Turnovers plague young Hornets

Rally falls short

The Muenster Hornet offense got untracked Friday night; however, the end of the hibernation came too little too late. Sophomore Jerry Brawner directed a 5-play 50-yard drive, culminating with a Brawner to J. Shane Wimmer 29-yard scoring toss with 1:16 to play. Keith Klement passed to Brian Hess for the 2-point conversion, leaving the Hornets trailing 14-8. An unsuccessful outside kick allowed the S&S Rams to run out the clock and leave Muenster 0-2 while S&S ran its record to 2-2.

"We're holding our heads up and looking to win," Coach Bill Jump said Monday evening from the Hornet fieldhouse. "It felt good to score, to still be in the ballgame at the end."

The Rams scored on the opening drive of the game, a 9-play 83-yard drive. Brian Flowers ended the drive with a 2-yard run. The extra point failed.

Trailing 6-0, the Hornets twice penetrated the Rams' 20-yard line, but twice they came up empty. Both possessions were stymied by fumbles.

"We had 8 fumbles and lost 3," Jump lamented, "but we cannot make excuses, we have to execute. We've buttoned our chin straps, we're going to Nocona Friday night and, believe you me, we'd love to ring up win number one."

S&S scored its final touchdown late in the third quarter when, on a 4th down and goal from the Hornet 4-yard line, quarterback Del Van Cox rolled left and passed to Craig Yost. Cox then swept around left end for two points and a 14-0 lead. The talented senior, Van Cox, completed 11 of 19 passes for 167 yards and rushed 12 times for 83 more. Hornet J. Shane Wimmer intercepted a Cox aerial at the Muenster one-yard line early in the 4th quarter to keep the Rams from breaking the game open.

Wimmer paced the Hornet offensive attack with four receptions for 74 yards and the lone touchdown. Juniors Travis Klement and Keith Klement combined with senior Brian Hess to lead the Hornet defense in tackles.

The Hornets meet the Nocona

Indians Friday night at 8 p.m. at Jack Crane Stadium in Nocona. Muenster was a 14-0 winner over the Indians last season, but the much-improved Nocona squad was a 14-7 winner over Windthorst last Friday night, and sports a 1-1 ledger this season.

SH edges Owls 21-14...

Tigers turn tables

Last year, it was the Sacred Heart Tigers who made the mistakes and came away with a heartbreaking district opening loss to the Oakridge Owls. This year in Fort Worth, the tables were turned.

Sacred Heart scored first Friday afternoon, following a 28-yard completed pass from Darrell Dangelmayr to Curt Bayer. Senior back Wayne Becker broke loose for a 14-yard touchdown, with the extra point attempt failing.

Fifteen plays later, Oakridge moved the ball inside their 10-yard line, threatening to score when the Tiger defense, led by Deano Bayer, stopped the drive and the Tigers took over on the 8-yard line. Several plays later, the Tigers fumbled the ball back to their host, setting up the Owls' first points early in the second period of play. Becker blocked the extra point kick, making an even 6-6 score.

Then the scoreboard went wild, with both teams adding touchdowns in less than one minute. Becker returned the Owls' kick 82 yards up the middle to give the Tigers the lead. Dangelmayr's pass hit Chad Fleitman for two extra points. But Oakridge returned the favor the next play, returning the Tigers' kick 92 yards, then adding two points, evening the score once again, 14-14 with just 8:04 ticked off the clock.

The Tigers worked the clock on their next drive, making six first downs in 12 plays, moving the ball 81 yards, with Scott Taylor going in from the 8. Deano Bayer's extra kick was good, giving the visitors a 21-14 lead.

Randy Miller killed an Owl scoring attempt, intercepting a pass as time ran out in the first half.

During the half time break, the high humidity and heat took its toll on Deano Bayer. Heat exhaustion kept Bayer out of the remainder of the game and puts him on the doubtful list for this week's game.

On the Tigers' first possession of the second half, the ball was fumbled on the 25-yard line, giving the host team good field position. Three plays later, Scott

Taylor received a deep bruise in his thigh, which will prevent him from playing several games.

"What made me feel good was the comeback," said Coach Pasqua. "They drew up their belts and took up the slack from the boys that got hurt."

The next play, Donnie Knabe gave the Owls a loss, and on fourth down on the 11, the Tiger defense held as Oakridge threw an incomplete pass to give the ball back to the Tigers.

Both teams exchanged possessions to finish the third quarter with the Tigers leading 21-14.

The fourth quarter remained scoreless, with the Tiger defense keeping the pressure on the Owls' runners.

The Tigers threatened to score once more, but time ran out, stopping play at the one-yard line.

"You found something tonight!" praised Coach Joe Pasqua after the game. "You had to get down and get it and you got it. I'm proud of you, you did a great job!"

Sacred Heart amassed 257 yards on the night, grinding out 175 yards on the ground on 37 rushes. Becker led the rushing with 98 yards on 20 carries, completing 2 passes for 36 yards and returning a kick 82 yards. Scott Taylor gained 35 yards on 7 carries and Curt Bayer caught a 28-yard pass.

Defensively, Becker led with 11 tackles, Dangelmayr 9 and Chad Fleitman 7. Randy Miller, Max Hastings, Deano Bayer and Tommy Bonner added big plays holding the Owl line.

This week Sacred Heart will host Dallas Temple Christian. Though a fellow TAPS participant, Temple is not in the Tigers' district. Coach Pasqua says they're "the biggest team we'll play. Their line averages 240 lbs., but they look slow, so we're feeling good about the game." Game time is 7:30 on Tiger Field.

Cubs pluck Owls

Sacred Heart's Junior High School Cubs traveled to Arlington Thursday afternoon and opened their 1987 football season in roaring fashion with a 46-0 blasting of Oakridge.

The Cubs kicked off and stopped the Owls cold on their opening drive. Larry Switzer penetrated the line and blocked the Owl punt, setting up the Cubs first score. Darren Klement clipped off 37 yards around the right end to put up 6 for the Cubs. The conversion failed. Nearing the end of the first period, quarterback Helmut Koelzer rolled around right end for a 30-yard touchdown run.

The second quarter was all Cubs as Koelzer scored from 45 yards on a sweep and then found Steven Nasche on a post pattern for 28 yards and a 30-0 Cub lead at the half.

In the second half, Gary Hess darted off tackle for a 50-yard gain to set up a Kelly Bell 4-yard plunge for six more. Bell also ran for the conversion. Darren Klement capped off the scoring with a 25-yard sprint around right end. Nasche ran for 2.

Larry Switzer blocked 2 punts and Steve Fisher, Gary Hess and Kelly Bell collected 1 interception. Switzer, Bill Park and Scott Hennigan recovered fumbles.

Next action for the Cubs will be Thursday evening at Tiger Field as the Cubs will entertain Era at 6 p.m.

Boys Club football starts Tues.

The Muenster K.C. Oilers will play CBJ Tire at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 22, on the Sacred Heart field. This will be the first game for both teams. However, this is not a conference game.

See you at the Game!

Farm safety makes good sense

Times are tough enough right now for farmers without having to pay all the costs associated with work-related accidents. During periods of economic uncertainty in agriculture, farm safety is particularly prudent.

According to National Safety Council estimates, the total direct and indirect cost of an average disabling work injury (all occupations) in the United States is $12,200. An average fatal work injury totals $460,000, reflecting the value of lost future earnings.

While accidents create a heavy economic burden, the human toll is more devastating. "No dollar figure can be placed on the intrinsic value of a life cut short by an accident, or on the despair suffered by an accident victim's family and friends," says Jack Burke, program manager for agriculture safety at the Council.

A recent study conducted by Roger Tormoehlen, an extension safety leader in Wisconsin, examined several farm accidents involving machinery drivelines to determine the resulting costs. In one case, the victim caught his sleeve in a grain auger driveline where his right arm was amputated above the elbow. Total costs - medical bills and expenses for modified farm equipment - amounted to about $26,000.

Another accident included in the study involved a 12-year-old girl who slipped off the back of a tractor and was caught by a running PTO stub shaft. Her arm was cut off at the shoulder and later surgically reattached. Costs, including surgery and hospital costs, physical therapy and mileage to and from the hospital, exceeded $150,000.

Medical bills are the obvious accident costs, but there are a host of hidden costs that add to the financial burden. Even if an injury is not serious, an accident can result in serious property damage. A damaged machine would not only require heavy repairs, it would also be unavailable for work while it was being fixed. A fire could destroy a house, utility building and a farmer's possessions.

Lost work time is an expense that can add up in a hurry. Burke says, "You may need to hire someone to fill in for an injured worker or yourself. Depending on the kind of work you need done, that could cost you from $35 to more than $100 a day," he said. Lost work time can be even more costly if it occurs during a critical period such as planting, harvesting or farrowing. "A disabled farmer can suffer real production losses by being off the job or having to work at less than capacity," Burke said.

"The majority of farm injuries and work-related illnesses could be prevented by simple measures that involve little or no expense, like reading and following instruction manuals and labels," Burke said. "Costly or complex preventive measures are seldom required on the farm, but common sense and extra care during the work day cannot be stressed enough," he said.

Other safety measures include:

- * Have your dealer install rollover protection systems and safety belts that will keep you inside the zone of protection on tractors.
- * Inspect all equipment and facilities periodically, and remove hazards and make needed repairs.

* Take precautions before starting any job. Check machinery shields to make sure they are in good shape and in place.

* Use personal protective equipment (goggles, respirators, hard hats, etc.) when conditions call for them. Such items can prevent serious injury and chronic illness.

Farm safety pays off, both in economic and human terms. By investing a little extra time and effort, many accidents could be avoided. Safety and health information is available in many places, such as a local safety council, farm extension office or local fire station.

A proclamation designating Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week was sent to Governor Clements for signature. It notes, "No occupation daily faces a greater variety of risks related to machinery, chemicals, livestock or environmental hazards than does agriculture."

The observance is supported by TSA, Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System, Texas Farm Bureau, Future Farmers, Future Homemakers, and the Young Farmers of Texas.

FARM SAFETY WEEK

President Reagan proclaims National Farm Safety Week

President Ronald Reagan has proclaimed the week of Sept. 20-26, 1987, as National Farm Safety Week. The 44th observance of the week is sponsored by the National Safety Council, U.S. Department of Agriculture and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"The President's action points out the need for everyone connected with agriculture to continue efforts to reduce the number and severity of accidental injuries and work-related illnesses so very costly to farming families and to our nation," said T.C. Gilchrest, president of the Chicago-based National Safety Council.

Agricultural work accidents resulted in about 1,700 deaths and 170,000 disabling injuries in 1986, according to preliminary Council statistics. Jack Burke, program manager for agricultural safety at the Council, says many farm and ranch residents also were seriously injured or killed in home, recreation and roadway accidents. In addition, an undetermined number of farmers and farm workers were victims of agricultural work-related illnesses known to cause disability and sometimes premature death, he said.

Agriculture remains among the nation's most hazardous major industry divisions with an accidental death rate of 52 per 100,000 workers in 1986, a slight increase from 1985.

This year's theme for Farm Safety Week, "Farm Safety Makes Good Sense," stresses the significant financial advantages of investing time and effort into preventing injury and illness on the farm, especially during times of economic stress.

Be prepared!

When an emergency occurs, a first aid kit is a valuable item. First aid given immediately can prevent serious infection. As many individuals as possible who live and work on your farm should be trained in first aid procedures, so that assistance can be provided until medical help can be obtained. Phone numbers for obtaining medical assistance from your local health care facility should be posted.

Fire extinguishers should be located in convenient locations around the farmstead and on all self-propelled farm equipment. The ABC-rated, dry chemical fire extinguisher is considered the best all-around type because it is effective against all three major classes of fires. It is recommended on combines, tractors, and farm trucks where fires involve materials such as straw and flammable liquids such as oil.

TEN GOOD REASONS TO WORK SAFELY

Fall gardening time at hand

Although there is still plenty of hot weather ahead, it's time to get that fall vegetable garden started.

Much of Texas is well suited for year-round gardening, and fall vegetables generally have better quality and flavor than those grown in the spring, points out Dr. Sam Cotner, horticulturist with the Texas A&M Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Many popular warm-season vegetables such as tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, pole beans, potatoes, okra, cucumbers and squash can be planted during the final weeks of the summer season.

Also, the so-called "winter" vegetables such as broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, greens, parsley and carrots can be planted now for early harvesting. Later plantings of these cold-hardy crops will supply fresh vegetables well into winter, notes Cotner.

What are some of the important aspects of fall gardening?

First of all, get the land into good shape, suggests the horticulturist. If you had a garden this spring and applied fertilizer, little if any additional fertilizer will be needed before fall planting.

For new gardens, apply two to three pounds of complete fertilizer such as 10-20-10 per 100 square feet and work it into the soil. If plants grow slowly, Cotner suggests applying a light amount of fertilizer between rows and watering it into the soil.

Adequate water is vital for a successful fall garden, particularly for seed germination and early plant growth. Cotner recommends "pre-irrigation" before planting followed by subsequent, light waterings three or four times a week to keep soil from drying and crusting. Water stress during early growth of plants can reduce later yields.

Transplanting is a good practice in the fall since this allows seed to be started in areas sheltered from high temperatures and drying winds. Check at garden centers for recommended varieties of vegetables and select strong, vigorous, healthy plants, says Cotner. Or you may want to grow your own transplants.
