Historical gathering points the way to 1989

Present for a historical gathering on Oct. 20, 1987, in preparation for the Muenster Centennial were Juanita Bright, Wanda Fleitman, Robert McDaniel, Bernice Sicking, Ray Wilde and Janie Hartman.

Various projects of collecting materials and histories were divided among those present.

The very beginning history of this part of Texas, the people who lived and owned land in the area and the development up to the colonization of Muenster will be researched by Robert McDaniel. The family histories of the first families and first settlers involved in the development of Muenster is to be researched by Wanda Fleit-man. Ray Wilde is in charge of gathering personal memories and anecdotes.

Bernice Sicking will research the military history. Janie Hartman has been named as official photographer. She has volunteered to reproduce any prints which will insure owners, of prints used, having their photographs returned almost immediately.

Still needed are volunteers to trace the history of organizations, both civic and fraternal, and business and industry in Muenster. Rosa Driever will research the history of journalism in the city prior to the establish-

Forestburg FFA won first place in the junior division and second and fifth place in the senior division of the State Fair of Texas range plant identification contest Saturday, Oct. 24.

In the junior division, Jamie Lively was high individual with a 312 score. David Morris was third, Douglas Allen fifth and Micheal Chance sixth. All received individual trophies and the team won $100 in prize money.

In the senior division, Brent Holland was second high scoring individual, Terry Allen fourth, Chad Hudspeth seventh and Bart Sirman ninth. They also received individual trophies.

The top five teams and their scores were: 1st, Sam Norwood FFA, 1050; 2nd, Forestburg FFA No. 1, 958; 3rd, Comal County 4-H, 864; 4th, Comal County 4-H No. 2, 857; 5th, Forestburg FFA No. 2, 823.

Forestburg team members winning the second place banner were Brent Holland, Chad Hudspeth, Bart Sirman and Marshall Hardy. Winning the fifth place banner were Terry Allen, Vernon Forrester, Billy Covington and Dee Bell.

Thanksgiving event is being set for Nov. 22

The annual Thanksgiving dinner, picnic and bazaar, sponsored by Sacred Heart Parish, will be held on Sunday, Nov. 22, at the Community Center.

Tom Herr and Don Hess are general co-chairmen. Carrie Walterscheid heads the dinner committee. Regina Pels, Miriam Caplinger, Margie Starke and Charlotte Dangelmayr are co-chairmen of the Country Store. Billie Fleitman and Debbie Hess will be in charge of the Silent Auction.

Workers are still needed for all booths. Sponsors urge parishioners to invite friends and relatives from surrounding towns to join them at the event.

Chairmen are requesting volunteers to help bake turkeys, and to donate items for the dinner. Cakes are needed for the cake walk and pies are needed for the dinner. Items for the Silent Auction and Country Store are also needed. For information, call any of the chairmen.

Property tax issue nears a decision...

Voters face long list

Registered voters of Cooke County and all of Texas have a responsibility to vote on Tuesday, Nov. 3, for the purpose of adopting or rejecting 25 proposed amendments to the state's Constitution. Also included are two referendum propositions as submitted by the 69th and 70th Legislatures and a referendum for or against the following proposition: "Requiring the Cooke County Tax Assessor-Collector to assess and collect taxes for all units in the appraisal district for Cooke County."

There has been much talk about the upcoming election and how to vote on the tax question - whether to vote to take the assessment and collection from the Appraisal District and put it in the hands of the Tax Assessor/Collector.

Many have the mistaken idea that a vote to take the assessment and collection away from the Appraisal District will close that office. That is incorrect. The Appraisal District office will continue to appraise and set the value of property.

Assessment as applied to property taxes includes the discovery, listing and valuation of property.

Appraisal is a definite detailed written opinion of the value of a property, fully supported by a complete inspection of the property and by a careful consideration of all factors influencing its value as of a given date.

To vote for taking the assessment and collection away from the Appraisal District and put in the Assessor/Collector's office will take this away from the City Office in Muenster. The City of Muenster now has the option of keeping the assessing and collecting local by contract. If the election is successful, the City of Muenster will no longer have this option. It will then be necessary to pay all taxes at the tax collector's office in Gainesville.

All entities in Cooke County have the option, by contract, to take the assessment and collection away from the Appraisal District.

Those who favor placing the assessing and collecting in the hands of the county assessor/collector argue that the taxpayers now carry a double load to support two tax offices. The county tax office and county appraisal district offices combined will have 21 employees with a $617,140.00 budget. They have not speculated whether the county assessor/collector would have to staff up from its current seven employees to handle the potential load.

They have not addressed the possible need of offices and/or computers to handle the load. They simply state that the current system is wasteful and that Cooke County's high tax rate is driving new families and new businesses away.

The City of Muenster has always assessed and collected its own taxes, claiming much better efficiency and reliability. The city does not want to lose that option. Proponents claim that local taxing units prefer the current system because they get more tax dollars while the appraiser draws the criticism. They complain about the two-way squeeze of the appraiser raising valuations and the taxing units raising rates. It is more correct, at least in Muenster, that the local governing body has always sought to lower the rate when values rose and obtain a balance to derive only the funds needed. The Muenster Independent School District Board has also opposed the change as described at length in the Oct. 16 Enterprise. They are currently spending less on appraisal, assessing and collecting with the Appraisal District than they did in 1980-81 when Cooke County last did the taxes for Muenster ISD.

The question is not an easy one, no more than deciding whether allowing parimutuel betting in Texas will invite organized crime and animal cruelty or give a much needed boost to the state's economy.

To help inform the voters, The Enterprise has published the proposed amendments in the Sept. 11 and 18 issues and analyses on them, giving pros and cons when received from State Representative Richard Williamson's office.

The deadline for absentee voting at the County Clerk's office in Gainesville is Friday, Oct. 30. Locations of polling places in western and southwestern Cooke County are:

THE DEPRESSION ERA OUTLAW ASSOCIATION performed a robbery-shootout skit for the Muenster Autofest Saturday afternoon, acting out a 1930s style bank robbery on Main Street. Earlier, they were photographed in front of the Chamber of Commerce and Muenster Enterprise building, authentically dressed and equipped. Their get-away car, a 1932 Pierce-Arrow, could easily have won first prize in the Autofest's Antique Auto Show.

Autofest hampered by weather

Even though the skies were threatening rain, Autofest went on. The Volksmarch began at 7:30 a.m. with the clouds still dripping. The Muenster Wandervogel Club met at the baseball field and was ready to register any and all hardy walkers. At 8 a.m. the decision to go ahead with the auto show was made and final preparations were done in a flurry of activity. As the day progressed the sun began to peep through the clouds and more people came out to see what was happening.

The area was filling up with antique, custom and classic cars as well as street rods and trucks. The judges had their jobs complicated by late arrivals but they persevered and the totals were turned in for final tally.

As the scores for the auto show were computed, the Depression Era Outlaws Association (DEOA) staged a living history "robbery" of the "Bank" (Modern Floors). The people gathered on the east side of Main Street at 2:30 p.m. were treated to a moment from history. The Cooke County Sheriff's Dept. blocked the street for about three blocks and a car full of gangsters "cased" the bank. The resulting robbery and shoot-out with the "G-Men" was once again a triumph of good over evil as the "bad guys" were stopped and the "money" was recovered.

Due to the wet weather early in the day, the auto contests and games were cancelled. When the judges' totals were in, the trophies were awarded as follows:

Best of 1920's was David Spaeth with a 1928 Ford Model A Huckster; Best of 1930's was John D. Lundt with a 1930 Model A Ford Cabriolet; Best of 1940's was Marland Knight with a 1940 Ford Coupe; Best of 1950's was Paula Innis with a 1955 Ford Thunderbird.

A tie for the Best of 1960's went to Charles Brooks with a 1965 Chevrolet Impala Super Sport and to Joe Wallace with a 1962 Chevrolet Corvette.

Winner of the Best of Commercial Division was Jerry Foster with a 1955 Chevrolet Panel Truck.

Winner of the Custom Modified Division was David Deckard with a 1973 Dodge Challenger.

Winner of Best of Show was Clark Kirby's 1975 1/2 Chevrolet Vega Cosworth.

The People's Choice was the 1955 Ford Thunderbird owned by Paula Innis of Gainesville.

Honorable Mention went to Pat Ramsey's 1963 Studebaker Hawk.

The volunteers manning the Information and Registration tables received many suggestions for improving the event, including

"have it earlier in the year," and "give more and less expensive trophies." The comments heard were favorable with the desire to return next year heard frequently.

The financial results have not been determined at press time, but it is hoped that the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department will benefit from the day of activity. The MVFD manned the beer sales, both at the park and at the dance, and some of the proceeds from the various clubs will go to the MVFD. The Chamber of Commerce provided publicity and organization for the event, but did not take in any funds. The total cost to the Chamber has not been determined at press time.

Group urges "no" vote on dog, horse gambling

Gambling on dog and horse races could turn Texas into an "arena of cruelty" according to opponents of legalized betting who, on Sept. 15, launched the public phase of their campaign to defeat the Nov. 3 pari-mutuel gambling referendum.

"Dog and horse racing have become big business where the dollar takes priority," said Cile Holloway, president of the Texas Humane Information Network. "A vote for pari-mutuel gambling is a vote for animal cruelty."

Holloway spoke at a press conference sponsored by Texans Who Care, a statewide coalition of law enforcement officials, business and civic leaders, public officials, religious groups and animal rights alliances united in their opposition to pari-mutuel gambling on dog and horse races.

The press conference in Dallas, Houston and Austin focused on what Sue Cox, campaign manager for Texans Who Care, called "the terrible problem of animal abuse as it relates to racetrack gambling."

Ann Koros of the Texas Humane Information Network noted that 30,000 to 50,000 greyhounds are killed annually by their owners because they no longer can run fast enough to win. She pointed to a recent article in the St. Petersburg, Fla. Times stating that unprofitable dogs are being incinerated around the clock at a Pensacola crematory. The article goes on to tell how the rate of destruction of dogs at the animal shelter increases by a factor of ten during greyhound racing season.

William Meade, southwest regional coordinator for the Humane Society of the United States, directed attention to the widespread practice of "courting," a means of training greyhounds by using live animal lures. He noted that current legislation in Texas prohibits the practice only "only on a racetrack," not in the training setting where it actually is practiced.

"It is one animal killing another animal, a situation no different than dog fights, cock fights or other blood sports," said Meade. "Legalization of gambling on dog and horse racing would allow a blood sport to continue to flourish and grow in Texas."

Mrs. Cox noted the Sept. 15 news conference was the first of several scheduled to spotlight different issues related to legalized pari-mutuel gambling.

"We oppose dog and horse race gambling because we are concerned about the problems it would bring to Texas," Mrs. Cox said. "We care about the threat of increased crime, the suffering gambling brings to the poor and the adverse effect gambling has on families and children. We are especially concerned over the abuse dog racing causes both to the dogs themselves and to the kittens, rabbits and other small animals destroyed in the training process.

"In the next few weeks, we are going to show the people of Texas that what we have here is a desperate and dying industry centered outside our state that wants to bleed this state of its economic resources to fill its own depleted coffers," she said.

Voters will decide the fate of legalized pari-mutuel dog and horse racing in Texas in a statewide referendum on Nov. 3. If the referendum passes, gambling on horse racing could be conducted in any county which approves it in a local option measure. Dog racing could be conducted in three coastal counties.

Texas last had legalized pari-mutuel gambling on horse racing in 1933-1937. Dog race wagering never has been legal in the state.

Voters turned down the pari-mutuel proposal in party primary balloting in the 1970s. The Nov. 3 vote will be the first binding ballot. The issue is listed after 25 constitutional amendments submitted by the legislature for voter ratification.

"Proponents of gambling are telling their supporters to vote from the bottom up. We're telling ours if they want to keep Texans off of the bottom of the barrel, vote no at the bottom of the ballot," Mrs. Cox said.

"Yes on Prop. 19" forms super support group for SSC

AUSTIN - More than 100 prominent Texans have united to serve on a statewide steering committee for "Yes on Prop. 19, the Super Collider," Houston businessman Jack S. Blanton, Chairman of the bipartisan campaign, has announced.

"I don't think you'll ever see a more diverse group of our state's top leaders brought together for one election effort," said Blanton.

"Look at the names on the list and you'll see an honor roll of Texas civic leaders, business and labor leaders, educators, scientists, professional people, Democrats and Republicans - a whole cross-section of the state - all supporting Proposition 19," he said.

"That's because if there's one thing our state's leaders now all agree on, it's that Texas needs economic diversification of the sort that will spin off from basic research," he said. "The Super Collider is a massive project that will generate jobs, educational opportunities, new technology and business start-ups for years to come. Those opportunities will be diverse, from construction jobs to research to retail trade and services.

"We see it as a chance to go steps ahead of the competition and guarantee our state a place in the 21st century, economically, educationally and in terms of international prestige. The state's leadership is united in agreement that we can't let this opportunity pass by," said Blanton.

Members of the steering committee will be working to urge voters in their areas to vote for Proposition 19 on Nov. 3.

The measure would allow $500 million in general obligation bonds to be issued to meet some of the costs of preparing a Texas site for the $4.4 billion Federal project. If, however, Texas is not chosen by the U.S. government as the site for the SSC, then no bonds would be issued.

Every major state in U.S. derives benefits from parimutuel racing

AUSTIN - More than the eyes of Texas are now focused on the Lone Star State. With Texans voting on parimutuel wagering Nov. 3, every state is looking to Texas as a new leader in the horse and tourism industries.

Forty states now have parimutuel wagering and the economic benefits this major industry provides. The only states which do not currently allow parimutuel wagering are Hawaii, Utah, Alaska, Indiana, North and South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia and Mississippi. And of these states three, Alaska, Hawaii and Georgia, have been debating parimutuel in their state legislatures and the citizens of Indiana will soon be voting to allow parimutuel.

"I am amazed at all of the states which have parimutuel horse racing and its attendant benefits," said Ricky Knox, Executive Director of the Texas Horse Racing Association. "Over the past five years parimutuel horse racing has contributed more than $3.1 billion in direct taxes to state governments alone."

Many Texans do not realize the widespread contributions the parimutuel horse industry makes not only to the surrounding states' economies but, also, to eighty percent of the United States.

In a study done by the Texas Department of Agriculture it was estimated that this new horse industry in Texas would create 7,000 new jobs in the Texas farm economy as well as an over-$500 million a year economic impact for Texas farmers. In addition, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company, an accounting firm, estimated that parimutuel horse racing would also create over 11,000 new jobs for Texans in all fields.

"Texas now has the opportunity to compete with all of the states which have parimutuel horse racing and the horse industry that goes hand-in-glove with it," said Knox. "It's time that we started keeping some of the millions of dollars from Texas tourists and businessmen, which go to Louisiana, Arkansas, New Mexico and the other parimutuel states, at home. With Texas' economic situation and our need for economic diversification, it only makes sense to bring a $1.2 billion a year industry home."

Applications being accepted

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Charles W. Stenholm is currently accepting applications from young men and women in the 17th Congressional District who are interested in attending one of the nation's service academies.

This December Congressman Stenholm will have the opportunity to nominate area citizens for appointments to the four U.S. academies: the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Co.; the Military Academy in West Point, N.Y.; the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.; and the Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, N.Y. Persons interested in the possible nominations should contact the Congressman's Washington, D.C. office as soon as possible. The deadline for completed application files is Dec. 1, 1987.

To be eligible for an appointment, the applicant must meet certain requirements. The requirements are: American citizenship; good SAT or ACT scores; outstanding high school record; and good physical condition, including excellent eyesight. There is a very limited number of waivers for non-pilot candidates whose eyesight is less than 20/20.

Aside from academic achievement, emphasis is also placed on character, church and community involvement, extra-curricular activities and/or part-time employment. Applicants must be single with no dependents and at least 17 years of age, but not past their 21st birthday upon admission into the academy on July 1, 1988.

Additional information may be obtained from high school guidance counselors or by contacting Susan Goulart in Congressman Stenholm's office at 202-225-6581 or by writing 1226 Longworth, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Texas At The Turning Point November 3 Vote To Determine Economic Future

By Tom Vickers Chairman/Build Texas Committee

On November 3, Texans will have the opportunity to determine the future of our state, to determine whether we retreat in the battle against economic decline or push forward and build a better Texas for present and future generations.

That determination will be made by our votes on the statewide referendum ballot. With 25 proposed constitutional amendments, it is the longest such ballot in Texas History, and eight of the proposals make it, perhaps, the most important ballot in our history as well.

These eight proposed constitutional amendments - Propositions 4-8, 11, 19, and 23 - would have a direct, positive effect upon our state's economy. If approved by the voters, they will be the building blocks for Texas' future.

It is expected that the initial outlay of $1.925 billion in bonds will enhance statewide income by at least $5.7 billion and create almost 60,000 jobs. This just represents the direct effects, such as construction jobs, construction services, suppliers and others, and does not include the additional income and jobs from increasing the state's capacity for economic activity or the other indirect effects.

There is no better time for these programs than right now. Interest rates are relatively low, building costs are low and land prices are low. Perhaps most important, there are more than 700,000 Texans out of work.

We have to plan now for a future that by 1990 will see Texas become the second most populated state in the nation. By the year 2000, Texas is expected to have 20 million citizens - 3 million more than today. We must act now to meet the needs of those Texans.

Five of the eight economic development proposals would authorize a total of $1.925 billion in state general obligation bonds for state programs. These programs include funds for agriculture, new products and small business development, local public works projects, court-ordered improvements in prisons and mental health-mental retardation facilities, for water projects and for the superconducting super collider.

Others include public loans and grants for economic development to local governments, state and local assistance for turnpike projects and restoring our "Freeport Law" that encourages the development and expansion of business.

With interest rates being relatively low and the state in a cash crunch, bonds are a very attractive way of financing needed programs, especially those dealing with economic development. Given short-term economic forecasts, bond financing is a method well-suited to the times.

Because it is essential that Texas manage its debt wisely so that we don't mortgage our children's future, I want to stress that these programs contain safeguards against abuse.

The Legislature created two of the most important safeguards earlier this year when it established a Bond Review Board of the top five elected officials in the state governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, comptroller and treasurer - to ensure that each bond issue is prudent and advisable and by a law requiring a legal review of all bonds by the attorney general.

It is also time to send a signal around the world that Texas has not pulled in its horns, that we intend to compete fiercely for new business and jobs. Our elected officials in the Legislature put these propositions on the ballot to show the world that we are alive and kicking and we'll prove it by voting "yes for Texas" on November 3.

The need for these programs has already been clearly demonstrated, but delayed due to economic conditions. What approval of Propositions 4-8, 11, 19, and 23 will mean is that these projects will be accelerated and Texas will move ahead instead of falling behind.

There's no better time than now to build for Texas' future. Please vote for a strong, healthy Texas. Vote Yes! on November 3.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Tom Vickers is county judge of Bexar County and chairman of the Build Texas Committee, a bi-partisan, non-profit organization formed to promote the passage of Propositions 4-8, 11, 19 and 23 on the November 3 ballot.

Postmaster announces overseas holiday mailing rates

For those with relatives in the armed services stationed overseas, and those who wish to mail holiday greetings and packages to others living in foreign countries, now is the time to plan for holiday mailings, according to Muenster Postmaster, V.A. Henscheid.

"November is the month when most parcels shipped via Parcel Airlift Mail (PAL) should be sent," stated Postmaster Henscheid. "PAL packages are airlifted domestically to a gateway facility, then airlifted on a space available basis from the gateway to the APO (Army or Air Force Post Office)."

Packages up to 30 pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth may be sent by PAL. Mailers pay the regular Parcel Post rate to the U.S. exit port or from the port of entry, plus a fee for air service. The air service fee is 30 cents for parcels weighing two pounds or less, 60 cents for two to three pounds, 90 cents for three to four pounds, and $1.20 for four to 30 pounds.

November mailers can also ship military parcels by Space Available Mail (SAM). Items shipped by SAM are transported by surface means in the contiguous 48 states and flown on a space available basis from the U.S. to the overseas destination or from the overseas destination to the U.S. Packages up to 15 pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth may be sent by SAM for regular Parcel Post rates to the U.S. exit port or from the U.S. port of entry.

When mailed from a military post office outside the 48 contiguous states, the weight of any piece cannot be more than 70 pounds and the size cannot exceed 100 inches in length and girth combined.

More information on international mailings is available from the Postmaster's office or post office window clerks.

To assure the timely arrival at overseas destinations for Christmas delivery, all mail should be posted in the Continental United States (only) on or before the following dates in 1987:

Hospice program discussed at CCC

Help in coping with the impending death of a loved one suffering from terminal illness is offered in a special series of mini-courses beginning at Cooke County College on Saturday, Nov. 7.

The course, "Death Awareness/Life Awareness," will introduce participants to the Home Hospice program, a medically directed, nurse-coordinated program that provides a circle of care for the terminally ill patient and the patient's family.

It will run for three successive Saturdays through Nov. 21 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the CCC campus. The registration fee is just $5 per person.

Sponsored by CCC's Division of Continuing Education, the course is being conducted by representatives of Grayson County Home Hospice (GCHH).

Continuing Education spokesperson Treon Kindiger says GCHH is a non-profit organization aimed at "helping everyone involved in a terminal illness to deal with the physical pain, the emotional grief and the confusing questions that result from such illnesses."

Kindiger adds that participants may take the course for either volunteer training or for personal enrichment.

She explains that Hospice care is provided primarily in the home, allowing the terminally ill person the choice to remain at home rather than spend their last days in a hospital or nursing home. At home, they can be comforted by familiar surroundings, family members, friends, even beloved pets.

A Hospice team of physicians, nurses, social workers, clergy and trained volunteers helps the family deal with the physical, emotional, spiritual, social and economic stresses which are typically experienced during the final stages of illness, death and bereavement.

Kindiger reports that a Cooke County Home Hospice group is currently being organized. Organizers hope to begin taking patients by shortly after the first of the year.

"Although our mini-course is open to any interested person who may wish to take it for their own information or for personal enrichment," Kindiger notes, "it is required training for volunteers who wish to work directly with patient care through Hospice."

She adds that the course is also open to persons from outside Cooke County who may wish to obtain information about the possibility of organizing a Home Hospice group in their own communities.

To enroll in "Death Awareness/Life Awareness," go to the Continuing Education office in Room 109 on the CCC campus, or contact Treon Kindiger for more information at 817-668-7731, Ext. 272.

AA

The Muenster AA chapter meets at 8 p.m. on Tuesdays in the Community Center meeting room.

Muenster Hornettes prepare for championship title defense

The '87-88 Muenster Hornettes began workouts last week in preparation to defend their '86-87 District Championship. Twenty-seven girls reported, with probably 10 to 12 of the girls making the varsity team. Second-year coach Ted Heers says there has been a tremendous amount of enthusiasm, effort and desire.

"We've set several team goals," Heers reported. "We hope statistically we can improve our field-goal percentage as well as lower our number of turnovers. We also hope to be competitive in post-season play."

The Hornettes, 8-5 prior to district play, were a perfect 10-0 during district before losing their final two games to Petrolia and Ponder. Heers believes they can be better this year. Their primary goal is to be the first basketball team to win consecutive district crowns.

"We talk of title defense everyday," said Heers, "and we then talk about improving on our 8-7 non-district record. They are a great bunch of girls who don't mind working a little harder and we hope to have a fun and exciting season."

Leading the Hornettes will be seniors Staci Walterscheid, Meredith McDaniel and Melody Klement. Walterscheid was the District 33-A MVP last season with over 15 points per game. McDaniel was 2nd team All-District the Honorable Mention team. Heers noted that Klement had a very good performance in the North Texas Summer Basketball League.

Sophomores Dana Wimmer and Shonna Reiter will round out the starting five. Wimmer was 1st team All-District as she averaged 10.3 points per game and 8.9 rebounds. Reiter was included on the Honorable Mention district squad.

Depth will be provided in the forms of lettermen Peachy Switzer, Michelle Monday, Jennifer Carroll and Tara Walterscheid, as well as probably two or three other Hornettes who will suit up for the Varsity. Heers indicated those spots were still undecided.

Muenster will scrimmage the Gainesville Leopards on Monday, Nov. 2, at 5 p.m. here in Muenster. There will be JV and Varsity contests.

On Tuesday, Nov. 10, they travel to Archer City for 9th, JV and Varsity scrimmages to begin at 5 p.m.

Opening day will be Saturday, Nov. 14, in Gunter. The varsity girls' game is the only game scheduled and will tip-off at 2 p.m.

Card of Thanks

We would like to thank all the wonderful people of Muenster for all they have done for us while Laura and Adam were hospitalized the past several weeks; for all the cards, flowers, gifts, phone calls and food which meant a lot to us. A very special thanks for all the prayers and Masses that were offered for Laura and Adam. We are sure that is why they did so well during and after their surgeries. Also thanks for all who watched after Nicholas. We know he was well cared for. We also want to thank Beta Kappa Sorority for opening the love fund for us. Many thanks to all who have donated to it. The donations will be a great help. It means a lot to all of us to know that all of you care. Thank you all for everything you have done for us. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Steve, Doreen, Nicholas, Laura and Adam Taylor

KC Dance rated a "roaring" success!

Advance ticket sellers had been promising a great night of entertainment at the KC Autofest Dance, and from all reports, the evening more than met the expectations of dancegoers. As the curtain closed slightly after midnight, the crowd roared for more and the band returned for one last encore to the delight of all.

The committee working on the dance had decided that a first-class performance should be the priority to give dancegoers a true value. The band, Johnny Reed & the Time Machine, is actually a Country Western band which enjoys the early Rock & Roll music. Their country music is sung under the name of the Crystal River Band. The name change for Saturday night was necessary to prevent country music fans from walking into a rock dance, unsuspecting. However, had they done so they probably would have enjoyed the sounds of the early hits from the 50s and 60s.

The evening began with a "Trivia Happy Hour," which was sponsored by the Muenster Wholesale Beer Distributors, Miller Lite, Budweiser and Old Milwaukee. Trivia questions regarding the early rock and roll artists and songs were fielded by Tom Carson of KGAF, host emcee for the evening. Prizes were donated by the three beer distributors to award those who were able to recall the events and happenings from the period over 30 years ago.

Around 8 p.m., Tom announced the start of the live show which included a taped musical arrangement as the lights were blacked out in the entire hall. With the cue of a drum roll, the curtains opened to the sounds of one 50s hit after another until the curtain closed on the 50s set at 9 p.m. During the break from live music, Tom Carson hosted a Jitterbug and Twist Contest and Dress Contests for men and women.

The final judging of the winner was done by loudness of the crowd roar, which added to the fun and excitement. The band continued at 9:30 for another hour set of 60s music, followed by another break where Hoopla-Hoop Contests generated many laughs for the crowd. The final set was a mixture of selections which seemed to hit the memory button of just about everyone in the hall. Several times during the evening, dancers from the floor were asked to come onto stage to sing along with the band to the delight of all.

A lot of preparation and thought went into the stage construction and arrangements. The stage was built from existing 4x8 panels from the hall with extra panels donated from the Chamber of Commerce. The motorized curtain system was built by three KC members. The stage was set into the corner of the hall to provide maximum room in front of the stage on the dance floor. Spanning 32 feet across the front, the platform was raised 30 inches, then the drummer was raised another 20 inches so everyone could have a view. The lighting of the stage made the performance take on a professional tone and added atmosphere. Bill Boswell, Boswell Stage Productions of Denton, was hired to provide theater lighting and effect. A professional sound man was also hired to keep the sound to an acceptable level in the large main room of the hall. Endres Motor Company provided streamers to decorate around the room.

The beverage concession was handled by the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department, while the KCs handled the door receipts. Funds from the dance will go to the MVFD to use towards the purchase of fire equipment and the new fire truck. Figures at press time indicate that the KCs grossed around $2,600, with a net of around $1,100. Beverage sales by the MVFD netted around $800.

Special thanks must go to Tom Carson, emcee for the evening, and Dennis Goodwin. Both are professionals from Radio Station KGAF. Throughout the evening, these two volunteers demonstrated that they could respond to any situation calmly, lending to the atmosphere and fun. The KCs were fortunate to have these two fine gentlemen work for the evening free, donating their time to the cause of the fire truck fund. The public is also fortunate to have them working for Cooke County daily on KGAF, spreading news about events such as the Autofest Dance.

Flusche descendants hold reunion

AT A RECENT CEREMONY, four Girl Scouts received service patches in recognition of their service at Cub Scout Day Camp during the summer. Lupe Evans, Day Camp Director, spoke of the four days of work the girls did in helping with swimming lessons, crafts, headquarters assistance and helping take care of the young children of adults on the day camp staff. The girls shown are, 1 to r, Vanessa Felderhoff, Julie Felderhoff, Misty Knabe and Tonya Knabe. Lou Mosier is shown in the background.

Elaine Grewing is shower honoree

Elaine Grewing, bride-elect of Fred Koesler, was honored at a bridal shower on Sunday, Oct. 25, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mary Alice Bayer. Forty guests attended, and special guests were the mother of the bride-elect, Juliana, Mrs. Steve Grewing, and the mother of the future-groom, Elizabeth, Mrs. Norbert Koesler. Hostesses presented corsages to the three.

Table decor was carried out with the chosen wedding colors, dusty rose, silver and midnight blue. The gift display table was covered with a lace cloth.

Dessert plates and punch were served to the guests.

Hostesses were Diane Grewing, Connie Grewing, Marla Fette, Sheila Kleinert, Donna Charles, Christi Klement, Sondra Koesler, Martha Koesler, Gretchen Kostyniak and Mary Alice Bayer.

Wilhelm Flusche descendants from throughout the U.S. and from Germany joined their Cooke County relatives in a reunion at the Lindsay City Park Oct. 18. For many of the visitors, the event began with Mass at St. Peter's of Lindsay, the same church of their forefathers.

The sporadic thunderstorms that rolled over the park ground did not discourage attendance as 281 visitors registered in the shelter of the park pavilion for the day's activities.

Sister Bernadette Bezner, daughter of Margaret and the late William Bezner, gave the invocation for the noon meal which was catered by Mrs. Ed Schad and her sisters.

Don Flusche Sr. of Dallas, son of Max Flusche, was master of ceremonies, for the afternoon program. He read a letter of greetings and best wishes for the "Family Day of the Flusches" from the City Manager, Herr Sperling, and from the Mayor, Herr Ruenauer, of Attendorf, Germany. The letter was brought to the reunion by special guests, Gunter and Brigitte Flusche of Attendorf, and house guests of Don and Jonnie Flusche.

Mr. Flusche paid tribute to Wilhelm Flusche and the legacy he left to his descendants: a life of commitment to the welfare of his family, and to the preservation of his German, Catholic heritage in the service of his community and of his church.

Wilhelm Flusche was the oldest of six brothers who emigrated to America in the early 1870s. He and his brothers helped start seven communities or parishes in this country.

Wilhelm was a 34-year-old school teacher when he settled in Westphalia, Iowa.

Each of Wilhelm's children was addressed: Willie Flusche and his sister Clara (Sister Christina) of Wilhelm's first marriage to Christina Flusche who died of typhoid fever in 1881, and the nine children of his second marriage to Augusta Steinmetz in 1885: William Robert, Frederick Carl, Augusta Flusche Bezner, Otto Stephen, Herman Joseph, Max Paul, Elsie Flusche Fuhrman, Anton Alex, and Claire Antonia Flusche Gimple. All of Wilhelm's children were reared in the Lindsay community.

Special honors and silk floral corsage were given to Mrs. Elsie Flusche Fuhrman of Muenster, only surviving member of Wilhelm's immediate family. The occasion also served as a celebration of Mrs. Fuhrman's 93rd birthday. Relatives sang the birthday song; a decorated, tiered birthday cake made by Betty Rose Walterscheid was served to the reunion guests by Mrs. Fuhrman's six children.

Recognitions of interest and presentation of awards concluded the program. Of the many descendants of "William" namesakes, only three were held by Flusches: William R. Flusche of Lindsay; his son, William E. Flusche of Spring, Texas; and his grandson, William Walton Flusche. Those receiving awards were the following: longest married, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hermes, Sr. of Lindsay, 60 years; oldest member present, Mrs. Elsie Fuhrman of Muenster, 93 years old; traveled the greatest distance, Gunter and Brigitte Flusche of Attendorf, Germany; newest married couple, Joe and Lou Ann Sims of the Otto Flusche family; the most children, William and Mary Evelyn Hermes of Muenster, nine children; and youngest member present, Jeffrey Zimmerer, infant son of Michael and Donna Zimmerer. Door prizes were won by Belinda Pulte, Margaret Bezner, Charles Mitchell, Lonnie Woods and Julia Fleitman.

Visiting and dancing continued into the afternoon with music and P.A. system furnished by DeeJay, J. Michael Nanney of the Dallas Police Department.

Of the several generations of descendants of Wilhelm Flusche at the reunion, those of Wilhelm's children's families who attended were the following: Mrs. Cecilia Hermes, William R. Flusche, Mrs. Christine Voth, Mrs. Zita Fleitman, all of Lindsay, and Paul Flusche of Corpus Christi of Willie Flusche family; Ralph Bezner of Fort Worth, Hugo Bezner and Walter Bezner of Lindsay, and Mary Louise (Bitsy) Duffy of Gainesville, of the Gustia Flusche Bezner family;

Hilda Conner and Norbert Flusche, Sr. of Saint Jo, O.S.

Lindsay ISD meeting Friday

The Lindsay ISD Board of Trustees will hold a special meeting on Friday, Oct. 30, 1987 at 7 p.m. in the Superintendent's office.

The agenda will include: 1. an election of Cooke County Appraisal District Board of Directors. 2. Adjournment.

Flusche of San Leandro, California, Bernard Flusche of Littleton, Colorado, Kenneth Flusche of Virginia Beach, Virginia and Johnnie Flusche of Lindale, Texas, of the Otto Flusche family; Eleanor Zwinggi of Gainesville, and Herman Flusche of Sherman of the Herman Flusche family;

Elsie Endres, Alvin Fuhrman and Rosalee Bayer of Muenster, Coralee Pulte of Gainesville, Bill Fuhrman of Fort Worth, and Jerry Fuhrman of Houston of the Elsie Flusche Fuhrman family; Max Paul, Jr. of Austin, Harold Flusche of Arlington and Donald Flusche of Dallas of the Max Flusche family; Alex Flusche's four daughters: Delores Majefski, Pat Mullenix and Louise Sander of Corpus Christi, and Jeanette Mullenix of Hillsboro, California; and Dorothy Mitchell of Gainesville of the Clara Gimple family. Also attending the reunion were Karl and Cindy Flusche and children of Weisbaden, Germany, of the Don Flusche family. Surprise guests were Phillip and Connie Flusche and family of Keller, Texas, enjoying their first acquaintance with the Flusche relationship. Phillip's father, Julius Flusche of the Herman Flusche family, was killed in action during World War II.

The Flusche family elected to have another reunion and one has been tentatively set for October 1990.

The reunion committee included the following: Alvin and Gracie Fuhrman of Muenster, Hugo and Florence Bezner of Lindsay, Coralee Pulte of Gainesville, Dorothy Mitchell of Gainesville, Don and Jonnie Flusche of Dallas, and Norbert Flusche of Saint Jo.

Students build for Scouts

Rudy Koesler's Woodshop students at Muenster High School recently built six camping boxes for the Muenster Boy Scout Troop. The units were built according to plans submitted by Scoutmaster Waylen Poole. Each box has removable legs which are stored inside the box when not in use. Each box is painted a different color; and the lids are covered on the inside with plastic laminate, for use as serving tables, when opened and held by chains.

Good Turn Day is Nov. 1

Sunday, Nov. 1, is Good Turn Day. Area Cub Scouts will join Scouts from across the area as they canvas area neighborhoods at 2 p.m. to pick up the filled Good Turn Day bags they delivered this past week.

Donations received in this drive will insure continued training programs and employment for the 120 disadvantaged or disabled workers at Goodwill. This annual drive has made it possible to avoid any layoffs due to lack of work in the 28 years Goodwill has been in operation in Northeast Texas.

Once the bags have been collected, the Scouts will deliver them to their Den Leaders for delivery to a Goodwill Trailer in the parking lot of the Goodwill Industries Store east of Gainesville on Highway 82 between 2 and 4 p.m.

Leaders will receive the boys' service patches at that time.

Jonathan is three

JONATHAN KRAHL

Jonathan David Krahl celebrated his third birthday in the home of his parents, David and Judy Krahl of Lindsay, on Oct. 4. His actual birthday is Oct. 3. A Sesame Street theme was carried out in the party.

Persons celebrating with Jonathan included his brother Adam, 18 months, his parents; his grandparents, Viola and Joe Schmidkofer of Gainesville, and Margie and Edward Krahl of Muenster; and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Schmidkofer and Mrs. Elizabeth Krahl of Gainesville.

Also joining in the fun were uncle Sam Jordan and cousin Christine of Lindsay, Lisa and Steve Hughes and cousin Jennifer of Sherman, Janet and Chris Null and cousin Amy of Whitesboro. Supper was served and afterwards cake was served and Jonathan enjoyed opening his birthday presents.

Those unable to attend but sending best wishes were Great - Grandmother Regina Flusche of Decatur, Aunt Janet Jordan, Mark and Joyce Cler, Dea and Karen of Myra, Uncle Steve Schmidkofer of Gainesville and Uncle Victor Schmidkofer of Austin, Aunt Linda Krahl of Muenster and Uncle Billy Krahl of Muenster, and "Nanny" Velia Renteria, and Gracie and Dustin Lemons of Gainesville.

Stoffels

Eric Dale Stoffels, son of Frankie and Traci Stoffels of Muenster, was baptized on Saturday, Oct. 24, 1987 by Father Nicholas Fuhrmann, an uncle, in St. Mary's Church of Gainesville. He wore a white christening gown with robe and bonnet.

In attendance with his parents were his godparents, an uncle, Stephen Stoffels, and an aunt, Yvonne Gilbreath.

Other guests included his maternal grandparents, Cecil and Ruth Sawyer, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rose Stoffels. Also Jimmy Stoffels, Jerry Stoffels, Terry Hess and Justin Hess.

A noon meal was hosted in the home of his maternal grandparents, complete with a traditional lamb cake made by his Grandma Sawyer.

Country Store is parish bazaar feature Nov. 22

Four chairmen have been named for the Country Store, always a popular feature at parish bazaars and homecoming events. They are Regina Pels, Miriam Caplinger Charlotte Dangelmayr and Margie Starke.

They urge everyone to begin preparing craft items and handmade gifts suitable for sale in the Country Store.

Needed are baked goods, cakes, pies, rolls, cookies, etc. Also homemade candies and jellies.

The chairmen also request handmade Christmas items, tree ornaments, wreaths, pictures, and centerpieces.

The parish bazaar and Thanksgiving dinner will be held on Sunday, Nov. 22, in the Sacred Heart Community Center. For information, call Mrs. Pels at 759-2851, or Mrs. Caplinger at 759-2537, or Mrs. Dangelmayr at 759-2960, or Mrs. Starke, 759-4194.

The great-grandparents are Mrs. Teresa Moster of Muenster, Mrs. Olivia Alvarado of Robstown and Mrs. Guadalupe Serna, also of Robstown.

Paula Fleitman gets celeb status

One morning Paula Fleitman noticed an advertisement on TV telling that two television celebrities would be in Dallas on Oct. 24, to sign autographs at Galleria Mall.

Because she had never been so fortunate as to see or meet a television personality, she decided to try for a first time, feeling of course, that a big crowd would be ahead of her and her daughters.

Arriving there, she was surprised to find herself first in line to greet Dr. Ehrlich (Ed Begley Jr.) of the TV show, "St. Elsewhere." They also met McKenzie (Richard Dysart) of "L.A. Law."

Mrs. Fleitman told both of them about Muenster's Germanfest and Dysart commented that it sounded like something he'd enjoy attending. He asked about a possible Oktoberfest, so Mrs. Fleitman told them about Autofest in Muenster.

Noting that six-year-old Kerry Fleitman had just recently lost her two top front teeth, one of the stars said, "I bet all you want for Christmas is your two front teeth."

Everyone with TV sets tuned to KXAS-TV, Channel 5, on Saturday, Oct. 24, for the 6 p.m., 10 p.m. and 12:30 news reports got to witness both stars kiss Mrs. Fleitman on the cheek. Her daughters, Jan, Melinda, Kerry and Kristen Fleitman, had their pictures made with the stars. For the Fleitman girls, it was a special day.

Candle light ceremony

On Thursday, Oct. 8, Girl Scout Troop 495, Brownie Troop 60 and Daisy Troop 494 gathered at the Sacred Heart School Library for a special pinning ceremony to welcome girls into the Girl Scout organization. It is a symbol of the international bond shared with girls and adults across the world.

Troop 495 began the ceremony with the presentation of colors. Vanessa Felderhoff was caller, flag bearers were Loretta Reiter and Kathy Hacker, color guard members were Karri Endres, Nicole Endres, Leasha Perryman and Kari Crow.

Janette Hess presented the Daisy pin to Anne Flusche, welcoming her to the Kindergarten level of Girl Scouting. Other Daisies welcoming Anne were Karen Cler, Kristen Knaut, Kristen Creed, Sara Hess and Leader Cathy Creed.

Three candles were lit by Emily Klement as Loretta Felderhoff explained the three parts of the Girl Scout promise. The first part of the promise is for service to God, the second is service to country and mankind, the third is obedience to the Girl Scout law. The Girl Scout promise was then recited by all present, using the Girl Scout sign of three fingers extended.

Loretta Felderhoff presented Loretta Reiter with her Contemporary pin, showing the silhouette of girls' faces. Young, vital girls eagerly looking forward to the future and what it holds for them.

All Girl Scouts receive their pins upside down. The pins may be placed properly as soon as the girls do a good turn.

Troop 495 retired the colors and served refreshments to all present.

Brownie Troop 60 members present were Emily Klement, leader, Allison Bayer, Carrie Coker, Shauna Endres, Trisha Endres, Laura Klement, Amanda Wimmer, Kammi Barnhill, Dea Marie Cler, Summer Jones and Kristine Hartman.

Other guests were Bronte Gonsalves, Sacred Heart principal, representing the sponsoring organization, and Patti Bayer, Rosalie Reiter and Margaret Reiter.

Speech therapist is guest speaker at SH meeting

Debra Fowler, a speech therapist, was guest speaker at the Oct. 26 meeting of the Sacred Heart Home-School Society.

Prior to the general meeting, Ms. Fowler met with parents of children who have speech problems. She joined faculty members Steve Kohler, Becky Felderhoff and Patti Bayer in presenting a program on the development of reading skills and the importance of reading at all levels of education. They pointed out that reading opens the door to learning and expanding vocabularies.

Ms. Fowler added, "Encourage your children to read by setting the example of reading yourself. Teach your children that reading can be an excellent form of entertainment."

A question and answer session followed the program, and a general business meeting was held.

Betty Sicking has birthday honors Oct. 25

Betty Sicking was honored on her birthday Sunday, Oct. 25, when an afternoon party, arranged by her son Gary Sicking, was held in her home.

Guests included Keith and Dianne Clegg and Pamela and Lisa of Gainesville; Sam and Peggy Sparkman and John and Jo of Gainesville; Tim Sicking of Lindsay; Nancy and Sonny Barnes, Candy Riley and her niece and nephew Umberto and Candy, Mary Jo and Bill Graham, all of Gainesville; Leroy Sicking and Boots, Betty and Gary Sicking, all of Muenster.

Special cakes were made by Peggy Sparkman, Juanelle McCabe, Inez Sparkman and Retha Sparkman.

Infant is honoree

Danielle Renee Bindel, infant daughter of Ben and Tina Bindel, was the honored guest at a baby shower held on Sunday, Oct. 18, in the home of her grandparents, Willfred and Ida Mae Bindel. The maternal grandparents are Benny and Edna Garrett of Gainesville.

Hostesses were Phyllis Garcia of Lewisville, Cindy Dennis of The Colony and Lisa Bindel of Wichita Falls.

Twenty-four guests attended, including the great-grandmother, Mrs. Joe J. Neu of Lindsay.

The refreshment table held a decorated cake, an ornamental parasol, and a small bassinet holding napkins.

Gifts were on display, and pictures were made. Everyone got to meet and get acquainted with Danielle. Guests attended from Lindsay, Gainesville, Lubbock and Muenster.

REBECCA GANTT

Rebecca celebrates

Rebecca Gantt, daughter of Doug and Val Gantt of West Richland, Washington and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voth of Muenster, celebrated her fourth birthday on Sunday, Oct. 4, with a party in the family home. Her actual birthday was Oct. 2.

Guests enjoyed games, followed by refreshments including a "Strawberry Shortcake" birthday cake baked and decorated by Rebecca's mother. A special guest was her sister, Stephanie.

Sr. Mary Bergman will observe 60th

Sister Mary Beatrice Bergman, a relative of the Wilde families, and an occasional visitor in the home of Anne McDaniel, will observe her sixtieth anniversary as a nun, on Nov. 8.

The celebration will begin with a Mass at 10:30 Sunday morning in Oklahoma City's Sacred Heart Church at 2706 S. Shartell St.

At noon, a covered dish dinner for all friends and relatives will be held at the convent. For more information, contact Ray Wilde at 759-2535.

The baby's great-grandparents are Mrs. Billie Deatherage of Merkel; Mrs. Bertha Garrett and the late Ben Garrett of Olney; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Neu of Lindsay.

Halloween party set for Saturday

Muenster Jaycees will host their fourth annual Halloween party on Saturday, Oct. 31, from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. This year the party will be moved to Sacred Heart Community Center, to accommodate the attendance that increases each year. Music will be by Hoss Country.

All who intend to be included in judging of costumes are reminded that there will be a 10 p.m. deadline for entry into the contest. The party will continue at full swing after the judging.

MHS seniors elect

The Senior class of Muenster High School has chosen officers for the 1987-88 year. At the helm is Brian Hess. Serving as his vice president is Darla Bindel. Jamie Walterscheid returns as secretary-treasurer and Jenni Reeves is reporter. The class also chose Darla Bindel and Kevin Anderle as favorites.

Roewe kin hold second reunion

The second Roewe reunion to be held in Texas was an event of Oct. 4 in Pilot Point. The first for the relationship was held in Muenster City Park nine years ago in September 1978.

More than 200 relatives shared a covered dish meal in Pilot Point Sunday.

Most of those attending were descendants of Bernard H. and Elizabeth Roewe, pioneer Muenster residents. All of their children are now deceased. Among them was the late Mrs. Joseph (Katie) Fleitman.

Attending the Pilot Point reunion from Muenster and Myra were Andrew Fleitman, Anna, Jostwerner and several members of the J.W., Joe Fleitman, Ben Fleitman and Tony Fleitman families.

Another attending was the family historian, Philip Roewe, accompanied by several members of his family from Chelalia, Washington. Philip has visited Germany several times and has traced the family history back to the 1600s in Germany. He has also done extensive research in the United States.

Other relatives attending came from Seattle, Washington; St. Louis, Florissant and Hermann, Missouri; Oklahoma City and Guthrie, Oklahoma; Gainesville, Grapevine, Coppell, Sunset, Dallas, Carrollton, Denton, Lamesa, Denison, Burleson, Haskell, Carthage, Lubbock, San Angelo, Garland, Plano, Richardson, Wichita Falls, Windthorst, Fort Worth and Highland Village in Texas.

Sock Hop at CC College features Smith, Welch

CHARLOTTE SMITH

CINDY WELCH

Charlotte Smith and Cindy Welch have teamed together to create a success for the Sock Hop slated for Halloween Night's activities held at Cooke County College.

Cindy Welch, a native of Saint Jo, has been involved in music since the age of five. Strong influences from her brother, the late Honey Welch, are reflected in her music.

One of Charlotte Smith's music career highlights has been securing a spot on the nationally televised "Today Show" taped in the spring in Nashville, Tennessee.

The sounds of the '50s and '60s will be brought to life again at the college dance as Charlotte and Cindy bring back old memories with tunes like "Blue Suede Shoes," "Hang On Sloopy," and "Twilight Time." The Beatles and Supremes were chart busters of the '60s. Songs such as "A Hard Day's Night," "Where Did Our Love Go" and "I Want To Hold Your Hand," the Beatles' first number one hit will bring back memories.

Mini-skirts, bell bottoms and knee boots mark the era of Beatlemania and Motown sounds. The look of the '50s and '60s will be reflected as Charlotte and Cindy brighten the stage with frequent costume changes and strobe lights adding glamour and excitement to their show.

There will be something for everyone, young or old. All college, high school and junior high students are invited to come to the dance in the Activity Center, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 31.

THE MUENSTER GARDEN CLUB has awarded Yard of the Month honors to Jon and Monica LeBrasseur in October. Their lawns, a little over one year old, have grown into well-groomed bermuda turf. Two young trees in the foreground, a Bradford pear and a live oak, are encircled with special flat edging with ground cover planted within. The front of the house is bordered by a wide flower bed. On one corner is a blooming white Abelia shrub, a Peace rose and several deep pink fragrant roses, all with large blooms. Red cannas are also in bloom. To the right of the front walk, and in front of the porch, are yellow cushion mums and blooming phlox in colors of purple, pink and white shades. To add a holiday touch, a Halloween arrangement on the porch features a large pumpkin surrounded with fall leaves and ears of dried corn. Halloween accessories hang in the windows and on the door to complete the fall scene. The inset shows a detail of a cluster of cushion mums and pink phlox.

Hornets shutout by Valley View

The Valley View Eagles made 26 first-half points stand up last Friday night in Valley View for a 26-0 shutout of the Muenster Hornets. The game did not count in the standings pending a UIL appeal by the Eagles over a District Executive Committee ruling which voted for forfeiture of all the Eagles' district contests for knowingly playing an ineligible player. Muenster head coach Bill Jump was only concerned with the effort by his team.

"We were proud of the second-half performance," an enthusiastic Jump declared, "and we gave 100 percent, even though the game had the legal problems surrounding it."

Muenster saw an untimely continuance of penalties thwart three first-half scoring opportunities. They committed only one turnover, a second-half interception, but the six flags for 50 yards usually came on third-down situations, forcing the Hornets to punt a season-high eight times.

"There has been steady improvement," Jump said, "and we feel we can springboard from this strong second-half into the playoffs. We play Era and Collinsville these next two weeks and must win both games to get second place. It's up to us to rise up and play."

The Eagle defense managed to rise to the occasion three times in the second half and stop Muenster on 4th down attempts. The Muenster offense got into a gear it hadn't seen for much of the season and chewed up yardage and the clock. Led by the running of Scot Vogel and the blocking of Stuart Hess and Brian Hess, Muenster ran the ball consistently until they crossed the Eagle 30-yard line. Vogel finished the night with 73 yards of 19 carries. He had one key 15-yard run wiped out by penalty. The bottom line credits an Eagle defense that refused to crumble and held on for a third consecutive district shutout.

Valley View scored 12 first quarter points on short passes from David Moore to Kenny Jackson and Bobby Stringfellow. Both times the extra point failed due to bad snaps. Tony Keen ran 7 yards for another score in the second quarter and Damian Krahl kicked the PAT. On the final play of the half, Moore scampered 18 yards to seal the win, and Krahl added the PAT for the final margin.

Muenster Little Reds edge past Valley View

The Little Red junior high football team used a strong running game and ball control offense to defeat the Valley View Eagles 8-6, and take a giant step towards defending their 1986 District Championship. After a scoreless first half, the Eagles returned the second-half kickoff 80 yards for the go-ahead score, only to then watch the Muenster Hornets march 70 yards using the entire third quarter. Mike Vogel scored from 2 yards out and ran in from 3 for the winning 2-point conversion. The strong Hornet defense limited the Eagles to four first downs.

Muenster is now 5-1 for the season and 3-0 in district play. Valley View suffered their first setback of the year and is 2-1 in district competition.

Chris Kubis, Vogel, Ryan Sicking, Sam Walterscheid, Justin Ramsey, Mike Gobble, Doug Hennigan and Tony Perryman led the Hornets to a well-played and hard-fought win.

The Little Red squad will play Era tonight at 6 p.m. at Muenster Stadium.

Knights sink Pirates

by Gene Hermes

The Knights piled up 309 yards on the night as they sank the Pirates 53-0.

The defense scored first, when Dale Martin recovered a fumble in the end zone. Leo Sandmann kicked the extra point. The Knights followed by scoring four times out of its first five possessions in the first half.

The second TD came on a 3-yard run by Rick Sandmann. Three minutes later Ashley Fuhrmann ran for 65 yards to make the third score of the first quarter. Sandmann booted the extra points.

In the second quarter, workhorse Mike Dieter crossed into the end zone first on an 11-yard run. Then from the 1, the extra kick failed, ending the first half Lindsay 33, Collinsville 0.

Ted Cason scored first in the third quarter with a 4-yard run. Sandmann's kick added another point.

Phil Metzler set up the next drive on an intercepted pass, running the ball back 21 yards. Greg Roller scored from 4 yards out, with the kick failing, extending Lindsay's lead 46-0.

In the fourth quarter, linebacker Jeff Arendt intercepted a pass and ran 55 yards for the final TD of the game. Leo Sandmann kicked his fifth extra point in the game to make the final score 53-0.

Once again, the defense for the Knights was outstanding, holding their opponents to 0 points, a minus 27 yards rushing, four interceptions, nine quarterback sacks, forcing the Pirates to punt eight times for 265 yards and only allowing two first downs. The leading tacklers for the Knights were Paul Hughes, Tracey Huchton, Rudy Hess, Troy Huchton and John Fangmann.

The Knights' offense made 16 first downs, with 309 yards rushing. The leading rushers were Ashley Fuhrmann, 120 yards on 14 carries; Mike Dieter, 69 yards on 9 carries; and Greg Roller, 43 yards on 4 carries. The Knights were forced to punt one time for 30 yards, threw one interception and lost one fumble.

DARRELL DANGELMAYR goes around right on a quarterback keeper, with blocker protection from Tony Grewing 81 in Sacred Heart's first district defeat against Liberty.

Liberty holds off Cubs Friday 14-12

The Sacred Heart Cubs played their best game of the season last Friday evening at Tiger Stadium, but it wasn't good enough as the juniors from Liberty Christian held off a late Cub rally to take a 14-12 win over the hosts.

The outsized Cubs used a hard-hitting defense, spearheaded by Steve Fisher, Larry Switzer and Gary Hess to hold the visitors to a score early in the second period. Helmut Koelzer then put the Cubs on the scoreboard as he returned the Warrior kickoff 73 yards to paydirt. The conversion failed as the Warriors took a 8-6 lead into the locker room.

The third period remained scoreless as the Warriors used the entire 8 minutes in a scoring drive that ended with 7:35 remaining in the contest. The conversion failed.

On the Cubs next drive, they marched 70 yards to a score by Koelzer sweeping the right side. The conversion try failed, leaving the Cubs trailing by a 14-12 count. The Cubs stopped the Warriors and forced a punt. With under four minutes remaining, the Cubs had one more chance.

Taking over at the 42-yard line, the Cubs marched down the field by mixing passes with runs. Twenty-two yards from paydirt, the Cubs faced a fourth and five. Koelzer swept the left side only to be stopped two yards short. The Denton club proceeded to run out the clock, giving the Cubs their second loss of the season.

Next action for the Cubs will be Thursday evening as they play host to Saint Jo at 6 p.m.

CBJ 22, Oilers 8

The score read CBJ Tire 22, Muenster KC Oilers 0 at halftime on Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 5:30 p.m., but in the second half, the young Oilers turned the game around. It was then an Oiler-controlled game.

Rodney Vogel scored from 2 yards out, and Jason Huchton added the extra points. Also helping on offense were Cory Cain, Ryan Haverkamp and A.J. Knabe.

Defense was led by Chris Pagel, Brandon Walterscheid, Cody Price, Willie Hess, Jason Hess and Charlie Luttmer.

The next game will be Nov. 7 with Valley View at Gainesville Boys Club.

The teams have added a new feature to this year's excitement by each nominating a queen candidate for Boys Club football. The KC Oilers' queen candidate is Amy Otto, daughter of Ed and Darlene Otto. The crowning of the queen will be held at the Boys Club in Gainesville on Nov. 7 at 7 p.m.

Amy will be escorted by the KC Oiler king, Rodney Vogel. Both students were selected by vote of all members of the KC Oilers team.

Tigers fall to Warriors

The Sacred Heart Tigers fell to 3-1 on the district Friday night as they lost 26-7 to Denton Liberty in Muenster.

The Warriors rushed for 277 yards with Eric Nelson gaining 139 on 19 carries and Lucky Smith carrying 17 times for 108 yards.

Liberty put their first touchdown on the board with 6:27 remaining in the first quarter. In eight plays, the visitors moved the ball 54 yards to reach the end zone. A bad snap on the extra point attempt made it 6-0.

Early in the second quarter, Liberty caught a Tiger fumble and ran 63 yards to extend their lead 12-0. Deano Bayer and Darrell Dangelmayr stopped the extra point attempt.

The Warriors scored a third time before half, moving the ball 86 yards in seven plays, 11 seconds remained on the clock.

The Tigers did have some outstanding defensive plays in the first half. David Rohmer sacked the Liberty quarterback. Tony Grewing recovered a fumbled pitch and the line held on a critical fourth down situation.

Also Dangelmayr punted for 52 yards. Scott Taylor passed to Randy Miller for a 25-yard gain, and Wayne Becker completed a Dangelmayr pass for 24 yards.

"The second half we came out and played them," said Coach Joe Pasqua. "They got two easy touchdowns and the boys got down."

The opening of the second half, Liberty kept the ball for 2½ minutes, moving it 80 yards, 70 yards by Neilsen in three plays, for a fourth touchdown.

The Tigers picked up 3 first downs on their first third quarter position, then fumbled the ball over to the Warriors. Two plays later, Deano Bayer recovered the ball, setting up Dangelmayr's 27-yard pass to Becker for the team's first points. D. Bayer lugged the pigskin on the extra point attempt and made it 26-7 in the visitor's favor.

The fourth quarter remained scoreless with the defensive teams taking over. Ryan Bayer sacked the Warrior quarterback and Dangelmayr intercepted a pass. Also lineman Deano Bayer picked up nine yards on an "Old McDonald" trick play.

"Things didn't go right for us," said Pasqua. "Our game plan was to throw, but with the weather the way it was, it didn't develop."

The Tiger defense was led by Deano Bayer with 20 tackles and one fumble recovery. Wayne Becker and Darrell Dangelmayr followed with 13 apiece. Dangelmayr also intercepted a pass and Tony Grewing covered a fumbled pitch-out. David Rohmer and Ryan Bayer are credited with each having a quarterback sack.

Offensively, the Tigers averaged less than 3 yards per carry for 86, led by Becker's 16 carries for 66 yards. Dangelmayr passed for 147 yards, 66 completed by Ryan Bayer, 46 yards by Becker and a 25-yard pass to Randy Miller. Sacred Heart is the only district team that has scored on Liberty.

Sacred Heart will host Quinlan Boles Home Friday night. The Hornets suffered through a 1-8 season but have 12 returning lettermen, including three 200-plus linemen. Heading the roster is punter Scott Kimbrell, who averaged 41 yards per punt last season.

"Boles is big in size, but not too agile," said coach Roddy Clack. "We don't have speed and bulk as other teams, so we have to be fundamentally sound."

"We expect to win if we play the kind of game we're capable of," continued Clack, "but it's going to be tough."

Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Senior Night

Senior Night will be observed by the Sacred Heart Tigers football team on Friday night, Oct. 30. Seniors and their parents will be honored in a ceremony on Tiger Field at 7 p.m. preceding the Tiger-Quinlan Boles football game.

Contest produces new winner

Last week's football contest returns gave a new weekly winner and a new leader for the grand prize.

Carol Grewing, Mickey Haverkamp and Curtis Pagel all picked 20 correct out of 24 games. Carol won on her 17-33 tiebreaker score, only seven points off. Mickey finished second with a 13 point difference and Pagel missing by a 19 point spread.

Going for the grand prize, Mickey Haverkamp moved ahead with a 74.17 correct percentage. Following, tied for second, are Chris and Craig Stoffels with percentages of 72.88. Also close in the running are Mark Klement, 72.03, and Curtis Pagel, 70.34.

All entrants correctly picked the winner of the Lindsay-Collinsville, Gunter-Fannindale, Texas Tech-Tulsa, Colorado-Oklahoma and Arkansas-Houston games. There was only one wrong pick in the Notre Dame-Southern Cal, Texas A&M-Rice and Lexington-Lakehill games.

Only four chose Dallas' loss and no contestants knew the outcome of Buffalo's defeat over Miami.

Winners picked up their cash prizes at Encore Video, the tie-breaker sponsor last week.

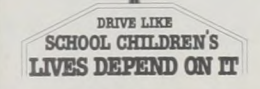

TIGER DEFENSE including Ryan Bayer 20, Max Hastings 56, Wayne Becker 35, and Tommy Bonner 68 keep Liberty's Lucky Smith from making a large gain.

ATSWCDs elects new officers

Clyde E. Hale of Sherman, Texas was elected president of the Association of Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts at their annual meeting held Oct. 12-14, 1987 in Galveston.

Hale succeeds Waldo Smith of Brenham, Texas, who completed his third term as president of the ATSWCDs and is no longer eligible to serve as president of the organization.

Hale, who is a farmer and livestock producer, also serves as chairman of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD which is headquartered in Gainesville.

Elected vice-president of the ATSWCDs was Charles D. (Bud) Clark of Menard. Clark is a livestock producer and a member of the board of directors of the Menard County SWCD.

W.Q. Richards of Paducah was appointed Secretary of the ATSWCDs. He is also a farmer and livestock producer.

Replacing Smith as director of Area III is Don Swann of Taft, Texas. Swann is a member of the board of directors of the San Patricio SWCD headquartered in Sinton.

Membership of the Association of Texas SWCDs is made up from the 206 SWCDs in the state. It is an organization established to conduct educational, scientific and other work to further the conservation, maintenance, development and improvement of soil, water and related renewable natural resources.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Growing weather for winter pasture is ideal now, but before long, it can be over. If needed winter pasture of small grains has not produced to the extent desired by December, chances are the production will not reach desired levels before spring.

Thanks to a dry summer and fall, warm-season pastures have been heavily used and have little standing forage left to utilize in many cases. There is no doubt that warm-season pastures will soon stop production. Utilization of the residue will be the only alternative left on these pastures.

Many acres of winter pastures were planted in Cooke County in anticipation of high quality winter forage for stockers and cow/calf operators.

Several uncontrolled factors are necessary for winter pastures to be as productive as desired. Sunlight, moisture, and temperature are the three main factors that must concern everyone in the livestock business at this time. They are the main factors that will determine if winter pastures will be adequate or short during the season ahead. They will determine if producers will need to cull even heavier or spend extra money on winter feed.

Sunlight is a main factor in photosynthesis, the process by which plant food is manufactured from raw materials. The longer the day length, the longer sunlight is available as an energy source for photosynthesis. The shorter the day length, the shorter the period of photosynthesis. Lesser amounts of plant food are available for plant growth. Since late fall and winter days are relatively short, plant food is less available for growth and is a restricting factor on winter pastures.

Moisture is a critical factor for any plant growth anytime during the year. Lack of moisture is the prime factor that has put many producer's pastures in the shape they are in today. An abundant supply late in the season will help some but not as much as needed.

Temperature is another critical uncontrolled factor that will have a drastic effect on winter pastures. Temperatures between 60°F and 80°F are good growing temperature for winter pastures. Higher or lower temperatures will have a retarding effect on growth. The big danger in winter pastures at present is that an early and extremely cold winter will develop. This would stop all practical growth until warm days following late January.

Ideal winter pasture growth would take place if all three factors (sunlight, moisture, temperature) were adequate. The lack of any of the three factors at adequate levels will restrict pasture growth. This is the key to what this fall and winter will be like with regard to winter pasture growth.

Winter days are short when compared to summer days. Sunlight is going to be more limited than at any other time of the year. Should cloudy skies be prevalent, the growth potential would be reduced even more. Producers must realize that, regardless of moisture and temperature, short winter days are going to be a limiting factor in pasture growth.

Winter temperatures are generally colder than optimum growing temperatures so growth is restricted. The concern now should be how soon severe temperatures will arrive. If a mild fall and winter occur, winter pasture growth may provide most of the grazing needed. If severe temperatures occur early and continue through the winter, little pasture growth should be expected. Under "normal" conditions, limited growth is available during January and February. Under severe conditions, the limited growth period could include November and early March. Cold temperatures should be used by producers to gauge their pasture's productive possibilities.

More creative writing...

The following item was submitted in the split third/fourth grade Creative Writing classes at Muenster Public School.

This week in school we had a witch contest. We had to write a word for every letter in "Halloween." We also had to color them. The winners were Mary Knabe for grand prize, Audrey Knabe for best words, and Melissa Biffle of best art.

We are decorating stamps. We have to copy them out of a book.

The last six weeks the third grade has been learning communities and people who live in communities. The fourth grade learned about adaptations and food chains.

The blue ribbon students were James Klement and Andrea Klement.

Elementary using unique program for reading skills

Muenster Elementary is using "Read to Succeed," a unique reading program, that motivates students in grades 3 and 4 to read for recreation and enjoyment. The program materials are designed to supplement the traditional skill building curricula.

"Read to Succeed" and the 600 Minute Reading Club materials are provided free of charge by the Six Flags Corporation to Muenster ISD. The first kit, "Authors and Their Craft," is currently being used in the third and fourth grades. The kit includes posters, color filmstrip teacher's guide and 25 activity cards. The second kit, "Sports and Games," will arrive in February.

As an added incentive to read, third and fourth grades will receive a special 600 Minute Reading Club unit in November. Students who read a total of 600 minutes by the specified date will receive one free admission to the nearest Six Flags Park any during the month of June. Participating teachers will also receive free admission to Six Flags.

Good Turn Day bags sent out

Cub Scouts from the Longhorn Council in Muenster delivered "Good Turn Day" bags to area residents on Oct. 26.

Goodwill Industries programs of vocational rehabilitation are supported by the revenue generated by the Goodwill Retail Stores. In the winter when donations decline, the Good Turn Day drive supplies goods that will insure the continued employment and training for 120 disabled or disadvantaged workers at Goodwill.

Scouts participating in the Good Turn Day drive will receive a patch exemplifying their good citizenship. The scouts encourage the community to participate by having their filled bags outside the front door at 2 p.m. on Nov. 1 when they will pick them up. This way everyone can be a part of "Helping the Handicapped Help Themselves."
