Tuesday, Nov. 5 is election day...

Some Hansford County residents to cast ballots in two elections

When Hansford County residents go to the polls on Election Day - Tuesday, Nov. 5 - some of them will be voting in two elections. Residents of Pringle-Morse CISD will be electing two new school board members as well as voting to accept or reject 13 proposed state constitutional amendments.

Pringle-Morse CISD is holding a special election, in conjunction with the general election, to fill two board places left vacant by the resignations of Jon Jarvis and Mark McCoy.

Roy Harris, P-MCISD superintendent, stated that both men resigned at the beginning of the school year with one year left on their terms. He added that the newly elected board members will serve out the remainder of the unexpired terms before facing re-election.

Harris said there are five candidates for the two spots. They are Clyde McCoy of Hutchinson County, Gary Urban of Morse, Clay Reid of Morse, Kerry Phillips of Morse and John Tolleson of Hutchinson County.

The 13 proposed state constitutional amendments deal with a wide range of state issues. To help Hansford County voters make informed decisions on those issues, the amendments will be printed in the Reporter-Statesman in order and as they will appear on the ballot, along with a summary of what the amendments will do. Half of the amendments are in this week's edition, and half will be printed next week.

The propositions and summaries were provided by the office of the Secretary of State, John Hannah Jr.

Proposition 1:

"The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular vote."

Summary: A home-rule city is a city that is able to govern itself, generally through the actions of a city council or commission. To become a home-rule city, a city must have a population of at least 5,000, it must hold an election to become a home-rule city, and the measure must pass by a majority vote. Once a city becomes a home-rule city, it may adopt a charter, and this charter may be amended through an election every two years. However, under current law, if the population of a home-rule city falls below 5,000, the city is no longer allowed to amend its charter. If passed, this amendment would allow home-rule cities whose populations have fallen below 5,000 to continue to amend their charters through elections.

Proposition 2:

"The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to spend money on turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority. The Department of Transportation may use any available money that it has for this purpose. However, if the Department of Transportation uses money from the state highway fund, this money must be replaced by money collected by the Texas Turnpike Authority from tolls and turnpike revenue. Currently, the state is not allowed to use any public money to build or maintain toll roads or turnpikes.

Proposition 3:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

Summary: If passed, this amendment would ease the restrictions on how the Veterans' Land Board can invest money from the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. The board may invest any money that is not to be used for the payment of principal and interest on bonds, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. In addition, the board is no longer limited to investing this money in bonds or securities of the federal government.

Proposition 4:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of the institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the state to issue up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions. This money will also be used to repair and renovate existing facilities. The bonds and interest on the bonds will be paid from the first money coming to the state treasury that is not set aside by the state constitution for other purposes.

Note: A general obligation bond is a bond that is repaid from the State's general revenue fund. Most of the money in this fund comes from state taxes and fees.

Proposition 5:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the exemption for ad valorem taxes of certain property in an enterprise zone."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by an in-

Commissioners' court okays alcohol use in county barn

by JoAnn Morton
Editor

In a split vote, the Hansford County Commissioners' Court decided at its Monday, Oct. 14 meeting to allow consumption of alcoholic beverages in the Spearman County Barn.

The vote followed discussion of rules for use of the county barn. According to minutes of the meeting, a motion was made by Commissioner B.J. Renner, and seconded by Commissioner Val Winger, to leave the rules for use as written. But voting on the motion was split, with Commissioners Dick Gillaspie and Joe T. Venneman voting against retention of the rules. Hansford County Judge Jim Brown cast the deciding vote "against."

Minutes say that a motion was then made by Venneman, and seconded by Gillaspie, to change the rule concerning consumption of alcoholic beverages in the Spearman County Barn.

The proposed change stated that alcoholic beverages could be consumed in the county barn during functions, with the stipulations that the sponsoring organization or individual post a $1 million liability bond and provide a certified peace officer as a guard.

Voting on that motion was again split, with Renner and Winger casting "against" votes. Brown cast the deciding "for" vote, and commented that "It was a hard decision to make."

In other business, the commissioners' court voted to rescind a budget amendment which decreased the salary supplement for District Attorney Steve Cross. Meeting minutes say that on a motion made by Winger and seconded by Venneman, commissioners voted for the original budgeted salary for the District Attorney.

Commissioners also assigned highway right-of-way to the Texas Highway Department for construction of the new FM 3214 which will cross Palo Duro Dam. According to Brown, the right-of-way had belonged to Hansford County on paved county road 760.

Regular business for the Hansford County Commissioners' Court included approval of minutes of the previous meeting, approval of the treasurer's report and approval of claims for payment.

Authorized by SISD board...

Schools to implement changes

During its Oct. 14 regular meeting the Spearman School Board voted to authorize the school district's administration to begin implementing some of the changes recommended by the district's strategic planning committees, according to Larry Butler, Spearman ISD superintendent.

The changes the board authorized the administration to make are those that will not cost the district. Butler indicated that the changes will be in the organization of school district departments.

The board okayed a request by the Spearman Girl Scouts to grant excused absences to a group of girls who have been participating in an energy seminar. The girls will miss school when they take a trip Albuquerque and Los Alamos to tour nuclear facilities at those locations.

Butler said that the board also okayed the Spearman Chamber of Commerce's request to use the varsity gym for a fundraising professional wrestling match on Saturday, Nov. 2.

In other action, the board changed student attendance requirements. According to Butler, a student will be required to attend school for 83 days out of a 90-day semester to get credit for the semester. The old figure was 80 days.

In his report to the board, Butler advised board members of the Panhandle Area School Board meeting and informed the board of a TASB report indicating a raise in the Worker's Compensation Fund rate. He also reported on future school board training opportunities and the status of the Texas Education Agency's monitoring and compliance visit. The agency visited the schools on Oct. 14 and 15.

In other business, the board adopted some changes in the special education policies and procedures. A discussion of a possible student expulsion was scheduled, but Butler said the problem was settled by other means before the meeting.

Butler reported that Verlan Winegarner, representing the Classroom Teacher's Association, attended the meeting to thank the board for its part in getting the 1991 school year off to a good start.

In regular business the board approved the minutes of its last two meetings, ratified payment of September bills and agreed to a budget amendment.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Spearman School Board will be Nov. 11 at 7 p.m.

Spearman city council sets hours for access to landfill

The Spearman City Council, at its Tuesday, Oct. 15 meeting, set hours of public access to the municipal landfill as required by the Texas Department of Health.

It was noted that the TDH will not allow the landfill to be open on Sunday, and "strongly suggests" the number of hours the landfill can be open on Saturday.

From Nov. 1, 1991 until March 31, 1992, the landfill will be open Tuesday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. From April 1, 1992 until July 31, 1992, the landfill will be open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The landfill will be closed on official city holidays.

In related business, City Manager Kelvin Knauf told council members that a recent report shows that Spearman has the lowest cost per ton for solid waste for a Type II landfill in the Panhandle.

In other business, the council considered awarding a contract for a temporary wastewater treatment plant. Two proposals were received, one from Davco and one from Smith & Loveless. It was noted that neither proposal met specifications, but the proposal from Davco came closest.

The council decided to meet with Davco representatives in an attempt to negotiate a workable proposal that meets specifications.

The council congratulated the H&S EMS volunteers on a letter received from the Texas Department of Health. The health department performed a spot inspection of the EMS service on Sept. 6 and found no deficiencies. The letter stated that the H&S EMS is an excellent example to other EMS providers for making high quality pre-hospital care available.

The council went into executive session to discuss contemplated litigation regarding a workman's compensation claim. No action was taken.

Regular business included approval of minutes of the Sept. 17 council meeting, approval of monthly departmental reports for September, approval of bills payable in the amount of $140,965.38, approval of current cash position, and approval of revenue and expense report for August.

A goal of 60 units of blood has been set for the Tuesday, Oct. 29 blood drive sponsored by the Spearman High School Student Council. Student council members have been busy putting up posters and recruiting donors for the blood drive, which will be conducted by Coffee Memorial Blood Center of Amarillo. Donors are urged to give the gift of life from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, in the Spearman High School library. The blood drive is not limited to donors of high school age, but is open to anyone 17 years of age or older, in good health and weighing at least 110 pounds. Student council members will conduct a contest between classes at SHS,

Kelvin Knauf, Spearman city manager, is asking Hansford County residents for understanding and cooperation with new rules limiting public access to the city landfill, which were adopted by the Spearman City Council at its Oct. 15 meeting.

The rules affect everyone in Hansford County because the Spearman dump is the only solid waste landfill now operating in the county, accepting waste from the communities of Gruver, Morse and Spearman.

Knauf stressed that the Spearman City Council was forced to enact the new rules because of new regulations handed down by the Texas Department of Health. TDH says it is responding to regulations handed down by the federal government and the Texas Legislature.

The new rules for operation of the landfill state that the landfill can only be open to the public at certain times. When the dump is open to the public, the city must have a person on duty to randomly inspect the waste being put into the landfill. This is to ensure that no illegal waste is put in the landfill.

The hours the dump will be open to the public will be 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, from Nov. 1 to March 31. On April 1, the hours will change to 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. These hours will be effective until July 31, or until the landfill pit is full.

To enforce these hours, the council has authorized city employees to put a gate across the all-weather road leading to the current open pit at the landfill site. According to Knauf, this gate will be locked during non-public hours.

Knauf went on to say that people will be able to dump solid waste into two sets of dumpsters, located outside the gate at the landfill site, during times when the pit is closed.

One set, located on the side of the all-weather road just off the county road, will be for general solid waste. A second set of dumpsters, located just past the turnoff to the open pit area of the landfill, will be for waste which has been sorted for recycling. The recycling dumpsters will be labeled according to the type of waste accepted. Knauf said that the dumpsters will be labeled to accept clear glass, colored glass, aluminum, tin and other metals and newspaper and office paper.

Knauf said that the recycling dumpsters are part of an effort to get a jump on the state regulation requiring all public agencies to have a plan in effect to recycle 40 percent of their solid waste by 1993. He added that if the recycling proves popular, more sites will be opened. "We would hope the public would start to sort their solid waste for recycling," said Knauf.

Knauf cautioned, however, that improper use of the dumpsters or illegal dumping at the landfill site could result in higher waste disposal rates to the citizens of the county.

During the hours the landfill is open to the public, a city employee will be on duty to assist people in dumping their solid waste and to ensure that no illegal waste is put into the landfill. The city council authorized the construction of a small building at the entrance to the landfill site, to be used by the employee. From there, the employee will be able to assist people using the landfill as well as being able to randomly inspect the waste being dumped.

Knauf listed several things that can not be put into the landfill. They include lead acid batteries, oil, biohazardous (medical) waste, industrial waste and some pesticide or herbicide containers. Things that can go into the landfill include grass and tree trimmings, and tires that have been quartered or shredded.

Knauf said that in two years, when the new federal and state regulations take full effect, grass and tree cuttings will not be accepted at the landfill. In order to deal with those regulations and the state laws about recycling, Knauf said, city officials are looking into applying for grants to help the city set up a community

Magellan ...

The Final Battle

by Charles H. Ridge, M.D.

Before boarding small boats for the trip to Mactan, the Spanish sailors begged Magellan to stay in Cebu. They wanted to take no chance on losing their leader in battle. Magellan adamantly refused. He wanted to lead personally their first great victory.

The spy, as it turned out, was sent by Lapu Lapu to lure the Spaniards into a trap. Lapu Lapu devised a simple battle strategy: "Attack only the leader."

He ordered his soldiers to throw their spears at Magellan's feet, the only part of his body unprotected by armor. After Magellan was thus wounded and fell to the ground, several of Lapu Lapu's men jumped on him and killed him. When the Spaniards saw that their leader was killed, they panicked and fled toward their boats. Before they reached the boats, another eight of them were killed.

Humabon was furious when he first learned of the defeat of the Spaniards. Nevertheless, he maintained his composure. He thanked the surviving Europeans and invited them to a feast to show his gratitude for their efforts in his behalf.

Next time: "The Return to Spain."

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor,

Recently our family purchased flowers to place on Paul's grave in Hansford Cemetery. These flowers were special, as this was for Lynx Homecoming and we wanted to share this time with Paul.

However, on Wednesday someone took the flowers from Paul's grave. Little do they realize how much it hurts. Death was bad enough, but not this now.

Just put the flowers back, let your conscience be your guide.

Dear Editor,

It is with great pleasure that I'm writing this letter to thank ALCO for coming to Spearman.

Time falls back on Sunday

Have you been sleepy all summer? It's probably because you lost an hour of sleep to daylight-saving time in April. Well, this Sunday, Oct. 27, you get it back because standard time will again become effective.

That morning, 2 a.m. will become 1 a.m. That's what happens officially, but most folks will set their clocks and watches back one hour before going to sleep Saturday night to catch up on some Z's.

A federal law, administered by the Transportation Department, specifies that the daylight-saving time applies from 2 a.m. on the first Sunday of April until 2 a.m. on the last Sunday of October. The schedule for the time change results in the saying, "Spring forward, fall back."

At the movies ...

Beginning Friday, Oct. 25 and showing through Tuesday, Oct. 29 at the Lyric Theatre in Spearman will be "The Commitments" on Screen 1 at 7:30 p.m. Held over for the second week is "Doc Hollywood" on Screen 2 at 7:15 p.m.

"The Commitments" is a really good fictional film about pop music that captures the essence of what it means to be in a band and shows us where the energy and magic come from.

Set in modern day Ireland, it tells the story of a soul band, from formation to inevitable breakup, with style and wit. The film plums the relationships of the characters without resorting to soap opera, achieves drama without melodrama, and finds humor in the characters rather than creating laughable caricatures.

The story begins with Jimmy Rabbitte (Robert Arkins), a young Irishman enamored of the music business who dreams of managing a soul band. He recruits musicians through an ad in the local paper, and with the help of an older trumpeter named Joey "The Lips" Fagan (Johnny Murphy) - who claims to have jammed with the likes of Sam Cooke and Wilson Pickett - dubs them The Commitments and starts whipping them into shape.

From the outset, they're surprisingly good, though their focus on '60s R & B sets them outside the mainstream. But almost immediately tension sets in: lead singer Deco (Andrew Strong) is an obnoxious boor who doesn't get along with the rest of the group; Joey has successive affairs with each of the three backing vocalists; and Jimmy gets into debt with hoods in order to secure the band's equipment.

There isn't really any plot to the film, just a series of anecdotes, but the script is filled with clever dialogue and genuine Irish flair. There is a strong visual element, with gritty camerawork lending the proceedings a steely, working-class ambience. Sharp editing makes the film seem considerably shorter than its 116 minutes.

There's a sense of spontaneity about the music that carries over throughout the film. By the end you're left with the same feeling of invigoration, the same kind of high, that you get from a really good concert. That's what makes "The Commitments" well worth committing to. Rated R for profane language.

5th grade APT class pays off bank loan

The Spearman fifth grade APT class was at First National Bank of Spearman on Thursday, Oct. 17 to pay off a $600 loan, borrowed to start up the class's "Great Parent, Great Teacher" t-shirt business.

According to the class teacher, Linda Rowland, the project was a great success. "The students learned principles of simple bookkeeping, interest accrual and public relations. Plus, they made enough money to pay back the loan in only 21 days," she said.

The students expressed thanks to all the parents and students who supported this endeavor, and to First National Bank for having confidence in the project.

Clyburn, Dawn Loomis, Matt Scott, Lisa Swink, Grace Davis, Cassie Butt, elementary principal Dr. Richard Partney, class teacher Linda Rowland and Sophie Garrett of FNB.

Eating Raw Meat Is Risky

Eating raw or undercooked meat or fish is risky business. It may be contaminated with bacteria that can cause foodborne illness. Most reported cases of Salmonella result from eating rare or undercooked beef, not poultry. Make sure those burgers are done.

Male Perspective on Nutrition

A national survey commissioned by the American Dietetic Association found that men express the most interest in nutrition between the ages of 50 and 64. A majority of men believed the most important reason for them to eat right is for disease prevention. A minority felt weight control to be the most important reason to be concerned about nutrition.

Eating Out More Popular Than Ever

Eating out is more popular than ever. The share of food spending for away-from-home meals rose from 39 percent in 1980 to 46 percent in 1989. Fast food restaurants now account for 31 percent of these sales. According to the National Restaurant Association, pizza franchises were the type of restaurant showing the largest percentage gain in number of franchises between 1973 and 1990 with a 650 percent gain.

Children Now a Force In Foods Market

Young people, ages 6 to 17, are now considered a major force in the restaurant market. Not only do they influence how much households eat out, but also where. The favorite foods among children under 13 appear to be chicken, hamburgers and french fries. Child-size menu portions at reduced prices are an attractive amenity now being marketed.

Teens and Aids:

A Time Bomb Waiting To Go Off

Almost 1,500 children younger than 20 had been diagnosed with AIDS by September, 1988; today over half of them are dead. AIDS can be prevented, but in order to prevent infection, education must increase and high-risk behavior must stop.

Because of the lag time between HIV infection and AIDS, teens as a group have relatively few cases of AIDS. Many of those infected through IV drug use or sexual activity during their teen years will not develop AIDS until their twenties. Young people are however being infected during their teen years and therefore prevention efforts targeting teens are necessary.

Teens tend to engage in high-risk behaviors of many types, including exploring their sexuality and experimenting with drugs. Teens at-risk for HIV infection tend to fall into one or more of the following categories: IV drug users of their sexual partners; sexual partners of infected adults; or sexual partners of infected teens.

To protect youth from HIV infection, adults must understand the nature and degree of their risk of exposure and their knowledge, attitudes and beliefs about the HIV and AIDS problem.

Educating youth about AIDS and HIV requires the involvement of all segments of society and places a special burden on families. If children are to absorb sound values and be prepared to face the threat of AIDS, family-based education is essential. Unfortunately, national data suggests that many children and youth are not getting adequate AIDS information from home. As difficult as it is to discuss AIDS and sexuality with children, parents must meet the challenge.

Spiritually Speaking

by Jeff L. Burress
Pastor, Union Church

Psalms 37:3, "Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."

Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Many times in God's word it is brought out that we can and should trust God. In any situation you face, as a servant of God, there is someone with you to help you in any way you need.

The Bible also shows us that placing our trust anywhere but with God is not wise. Isaiah 2:22, "Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for where in is he to be accounted of?" It is not wise just to trust mankind. Men will not always fail you, but there is no guarantee that they will never fail. Some, it would seem, not only fail others but attack and seek to hurt them. Hebrews 13:6, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

We might try trusting the amount of goods that we have saved up, but there is no guarantee that our accumulation of goods will provide for us. There are many even that I know that have had all they have worked for in their lives taken away and they are left with nothing. Luke brings this point home in chapter 12, verses 19 and 20. "And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?"

There is always the trusty old weapons that we can rely on to get us out of a jam. We have many weapons that we use from time to time to protect ourselves from others. But even our most trustworthy weapons are not fail-safe. 1 Samuel 17:45, "Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied." The end of this battle found the weapons, though tried and true, to fail the Philistine that day.

There is only one place to put your trust and never be disappointed. There is only man in whom there are no imperfections. Because of this it is impossible for him to fail you. That one is God, whom we know through Jesus Christ his Son. In God is that guarantee, "I will never fail you. You can always trust me." He is the one that is trustworthy. He will not, cannot fail you.

Hebrews 13:5, "for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee."

Scouts to get badges

by Donna McCubbin

Here I am again, your Wolf Mom, reporting to you on the activities of our Cub Scouts. The boys who were active last year stayed active over the summer, which you will be able to see from the list below of the badges to be handed out on October 26. This will be our first Pack Meeting of the year. The October 26 meeting is the one and only fund raiser the Cub Scouts have every year, "The Dad-Lad Cake Bake." This is an event that you should attend and see all the hard work fathers and sons have done together. This year's theme is "Living in the 21st Century" so I'm sure the boys imagination (and fathers) have been put into full throttle to come up with the best cake idea.

Among the Neighbors

by Helen Fisher

Sara Dossett was pleased to have her grandson, Chester Neely, with her last weekend and appreciative of his coming to winterize her home. Her granddaughter Christy Hunt and little daughter Michele accompanied him. Other guests were Bernard and Sharon Dossett of Amarillo who also visited the Bill Whitfords.

Juanita Pierce spent five days last week in High Plains Baptist Hospital undergoing intravenous chemotherapy. Juanita, with her usual disregard of expected results, came home feeling fine; no nausea or other unpleasant effects.

She and J.L. are enjoying their son, Lynn Pierce of Dallas, who will be here several weeks. He is employed by a security firm in Dallas.

Of interest to many who have lived here a long time is that Rose Roberts has moved into town. Rose recently purchased the home built by the late Gertie Archer at 402 Archer and left her farm in the north part of the county.

She and her husband, Duke, now deceased, moved to the farm to be with her mother, Minnie Ellis, in 1945. They raised their three children there. One daughter Glenda Baxter will continue to live on the farm, now operated by Dennis Nelson. Son Larry Roberts and his wife Donna live in Perryton. The other daughter, Lynda, passed away several years ago.

Rose enjoys looking after her yard and does handiwork. She is a member of the Church of Christ.

Last week her cousin, his wife and aunt from Plains, Kan. stopped by for a visit.

The Reverend Micheal and Debbie Wolfe and three sons of Indio, Calif. were in Spearman several days last week. They were enroute to Tulsa where the annual conference of the Christian Church was in session.

They were guests of the Larry Behneys who hosted open house for them on Thursday. A number of friends called to greet them.

He was the pastor of the First Christian Church here.

Dixie and Donnie Poole left Wednesday for Ft. Smith, Ark. for a visit with his sister, Brenda and Jack Stewart. They returned Sunday and had a glowing report of the beauty of the foliage.

Lyle and Melissa Lee and son Andy visited his grandmother Cleo and Lowell Denman during the weekend. They are from Amarillo.

Frank and Helen Yancy attended the wedding of his granddaughter, Crista Campbell to David Byers on Saturday. The wedding was in Decatur. Crista is also the granddaughter of Lucky and the late Viola Campbell.

Others from Spearman attending the wedding were Ronda Gibson and Connie and Monte Dixon with Trae of Morse. Ronda and Connie are cousins of the bride.

The Yanceys enjoyed a day of fishing with his son Rich Yancy at Denton after the wedding.

Funeral services were held in Oklahoma City last week for a former Spearman citizen, Lois Bailey McCarty.

She died of leukemia at age 79 and was survived by a son and a daughter. Lois was born at Old Hansford, daughter of Lena and Harve Bailey. She graduated from high school here in 1928, and attended Texas Tech. She taught school here for several years, leaving in about 1937. She still owned land northwest of Spearman and has kept in touch with old friends.

According to the Amarillo paper at the Larry Mahan Texas Circuit Finals rodeo, held in connection with the state fair at Dallas, Hadly Reed was among the winners.

In saddle bronc he won a third on both the second and third go rounds, a fourth in the fourth and won fourth in over-all average.

Hadley has qualified to be in the steer roping to be held in San Antonio next week.

The passing of Ora Sanders, 96, leaves another gap in the dwindling list of old timers. She came to the area in 1918 and has been here since. Always modest and low key, she was always available to help those in need, and in her church.

Sympathy goes out to Rue and R.E. and their families.

The Dean of Students office at Texas Tech University has announced the selection of two Spearman residents for inclusion in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

This top honor has been given to Kevin Nelson and Ginger Ann Pearson, both of Spearman. It is one of the highest honors which a student can receive at Texas Tech.

Kevin is the son of Dennis and Judy Nelson. He has a double major in finance and accounting, and has maintained a 3.96 grade point average. Ginger is the daughter of Bob and Jackie Pearson. Spearman PTA holds Red Ribbon campaign

by Candy Delozier PTA publicity chairman

The Spearman PTA is sponsoring the "Red Ribbon Campaign" against substance abuse this week. Chairman of the Red Ribbon Campaign is B.J. Park.

On Tuesday, students wore the "Proud to Be Free" ribbons, which were purchased with money donated by the Lions and Rotary Clubs.

Wednesday was "Wear Red Day!" A poster contest was scheduled for Thursday at the junior high and elementary schools, with winning classes receiving a party. Posters will be displayed at local businesses. Thursday was to be "Pledge Day" at Spearman High School.

Friday will be "Red Ribbon Pledge and Recognition Day," during which pledge cards will be available for students to sign.

Students are encouraged to attend the football game with their family Friday night, wearing their "Proud To Be Free" ribbons.

PTA membership winners announced

Spearman PTA's 1991 membership race drew to a close on Oct. 15. PTA has been encouraging Spearman elementary and junior high students to have parents, grandparents, friends - anyone interested in PTA - to join.

PTA promised a pizza party to the winning class in both elementary and junior high. At the elementary level, there was a very close win. Mrs. Thompson's third grade class won the pizza party, but the margin was so close that PTA gave a runner-up award to Mrs. Butler's kindergarten class. This class was treated to punch in their classroom.

At the junior high level, there was a tie between Mrs. Baker's and Mrs. TeBeest's classes. Those 13 students will be treated to a pizza party.

In another aspect of the contest, the winning class in elementary will have the first chances to dunk Dr. Partney in the dunking contest at the PTA's Fall Festival, scheduled for Nov. 9. The junior high winners will have the opportunity to throw pies at Mr. Olsen at the Fall Festival.

But the close of the contest does not mean that PTA membership is closed. Anyone interested in joining PTA is invited to contact Joan Brown or Lisa Pipkin for more information and membership.

Carthel chosen for Who's Who listing

Justin Carthel, a sophomore student at Gruver High School, has been chosen to appear in the 25th annual edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1990-91."

Justin is the son of Danny and Harletta Carthel of Gruver. His high school activities include being a member of the Gruver FFA chapter and playing Gruver Greyhound football. He attends the Church of Christ in Gruver. During his freshman year at GHS, Justin maintained a 96.0 grade average, and he has also been named to the "All A Honor Roll" for the first six weeks of this year.

"Who's Who," published by Educational Communications Inc., Lake Forest, Ill., is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Who" students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97 percent are college-bound.

The 24th edition of "Who's Who," published in 15 regional volumes, features 684,000 students, or 5 percent of the nation's 12,000,000 high school students. They represent 18,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

"Who's Who" students also compete for over $75,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed on a complimentary basis to over 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Amarillo library to exhibit artifacts

AMARILLO - To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbor, the Amarillo Public Library will present "We Didn't Sit Under the Apple Tree: Remembering Pearl Harbor." The project includes lectures, discussions, recording of oral histories and an exhibit.

The exhibit, "Yesterday, December 7th, 1941..." will open at the Central Library, 4th and Buchanan, in November and continue through December. It features artifacts from the Admiral Nimitz State Historical Park in Fredericksburg, Texas, as well as items from area individuals. Anite Pitts, Group Services Director at the Amarillo Public Library, states, "The attack on Pearl Harbor thrust the United States into World War II, and had a tremendous impact on the people who experienced it."

The Amarillo Public Library and the American Quarter Horse Museum and Heritage Center, co-sponsors for the project, are looking for artifacts from Panhandle residents who were stationed in Hawaii during the Pearl Harbor raid or who had family stationed there. Personal items such as uniforms, mementoes, photographs and souvenirs are needed to complete the exhibit. For more information about what the Library needs for "Yesterday, December 7, 1941..." call James May at 376-5181, or Anite Pitts at 378-3061.

On The Go With Joy

by Joy Henderson

This past week, Lewis had surgery on his shoulder again. Since this is the third time, we are hoping "third time is the charm" or something to that effect. Anyhow, it got me to thinking about some funny or unusual things that have happened at hospitals.

To begin with, I was rounding the corner going past the nurses station when I overheard a couple of them discussing a delicate subject concerning the patients on that wing. One of the nurses came to the conclusion that they had better order another case of prune juice. That reminded me of a little "ditty" called "The Epic of the Bedpan." I have had this hilarious epic for four years wanting to share it with you, but everytime I read it, I decide it is too "shmucky" and that the boss probably wouldn't print it anyhow.

However, all of you who have had any experience at trying to park your sitter upon a bedpan and can remember all the contortions and mishaps that occurred, then you can make up your own epic.

When all these experiences with "The Big Shoulder Injury" back in February of 1989, I was still recuperating from my triple bypass and stroke. I got in the habit of carrying my crochet projects along so I would have something to do while I sat and waited. By this time, I had gathered enough yarn in the largest plastic bag with handles that I could find. While rushing down the hospital corridors trying to carry the yarn bag on one shoulder, and my "purse" containing everything needed for a week's stay on the other shoulder, one of the handles stretched and broke. Naturally all the yarn tumbled out and I was frantically picking it up while the nurse, Lewis, J.M. and S.D. were way ahead of me and turning the corner for an elevator. I never did catch up, but at least I was able to crochet while Lewis was in surgery.

The second surgery found me no more experienced than the first time. Same batch of yarn, but it had been put into a large canvas bag instead of a flimsy plastic bag. But I sure had a hard time going from the front desk for admissions, down the hall and around the corner for the elevator and then from the waiting room to the fifth floor.

This time, I had a few days to prepare so I designed my big yarn bag with wheels and a strap like my luggage. I not only beat the gurney holding Lewis strapped down, and the nurses pushing him to the elevators, I was down in the holding room waiting for them to arrive. Boy, did I feel smug! I was indeed learning the tricks for dragging all that stuff around.

Well, as I kissed Lewis bye with a cheerful expression I told him I would see him after awhile. I left the "authorized personnel" area and headed for the waiting room. I settled down with a contented sigh and reached for my yarn bag - lo and behold - I had left it in the car! I not only left my yarn bag in the car, I had left my medicine bag in there along with my snacks, clothes, books etc. No wonder I was moving faster.

It was good to see Dr. Dee Green, wife Susan and sons Matt and Eric AMARILLO - The State Bar of Texas is hosting a forum on the legal needs of low-income Texans on Tuesday, Oct. 29 at 5 p.m. at the Amarillo Public Library, 413 East 4th St. in Amarillo.

Results from a State Bar survey on legal needs of indigents in West Texas and Panhandle counties will be addressed at the forum.

An educational program on the area's unmet legal needs will begin from Childress visiting in the home of parents Weldon and Elene Green. They also have a chance to visit Grandmother Vivian but also aunts, uncles and literally cousins by the dozens.

A familiar glow in Gruver these days as grandparents Dave and Dixie Karlin are trying to juggle their teaching duties and entertaining little Cassie and her mom Robin. Robin states her plans are to remain here for a spell unless she gets too lonesome for home (and she probably already is).

A few weeks ago, I overheard Skeeze Riley say they were planning on going to Branson, Mo. and something prevented them from going right away. But now, he and Cease along with Ross and Edna Marie Walker have been enjoying the beauty of Branson.

I also overheard Glenda Renner giving an hour by hour account of a trip but didn't hear anymore details of what was going on. But seems Glenda and Marlene Winger were enjoying Galveston while the Commissioners Val and B.J. were attending "Commish" Conference.

Happy Birthday to Josephine Ayers! Josephine was in the hospital a few days last week having some tests run. It is possible she will be having some back surgery in a few weeks.

I just learned that Bud and Shirley Lowe have joined the Riley's and Walkers over in Branson. I inquired if there were plans being made for touring Silver Dollar City and their activities, but no one knows that I have talked to. Maybe we can get the low-down when all have returned.

Cheryl (Nelson) Farren will be spending a few days with parents Archie and Margarite Nelson while recuperating from surgery. Joining them is Jackson who will be supervising the whole thing.

Bill Martin has had some surgery done on his hand recently and Matt Etheredge received injuries to his collar bone while participating in a football game.

We saw Tiffanie Hill in a local grocery store last week. She is indeed thankful for the prayers of this community offered on her behalf.

Bill Thiele who suffered a severe head injury back during the summer is now having some arthritic type pain in his joints. Mae Farren is scheduled for surgery in Ft. Worth on the 29th.

Other visitors in Gruver recently were Charles and Bunny Hanna of Tyler, Texas. They were guests in the home of Scott and Katy Nelson. The Hannas are Katy's parents.

Kenneth Taylor of San Antonio was a guest in the home of his parents Dewey and Virginia Taylor.

We are happy to report that Darrel Morris of Perryton is progressing real well from amputation of one foot. It is believed that surgery on the other foot can be avoided at this time. He is now at home.

Troy and Jennifer Morris have returned from attending the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. Their Angus bull is champion of the Intermediate Division. The bull's name is Colombia and Colby Morris will be happy to give you all the details. Kati Beth will probably take charge of the ribbon.

Joe Bob and Joan White of Arriba, Colo., and Don and Janie (Jefferies) Evans of Gruver announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joanna Lyn White (Joby) to Chris Ryan Cooper, son of Carl and Bobbie Cooper of Guymon, Okla., and Glen and Sue Pafford of Amarillo. Grandparents of the couple are Mrs. Elva J. Cooper of Gruver, Mrs. Nell Noble of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Bob White of Limon, Colo. The bride-elect received a bachelor of administration degree in management from West Texas State University and is presently attending Panhandle State University to receive a teaching certificate in business education. The prospective groom studied fine arts at Texas Tech University and is presently engaged in farming and ranching in the Gruver area. The couple plans a Dec. 28 wedding at 6 p.m. in the United Methodist Church of Gruver. They will reside 10 miles west of Gruver.

Lynx defeat Bobcats, 22 - 16...

Running game outperforms pass

The Spearman Lynx running game proved victorious over the Sunray Bobcat passing game Friday night as Spearman defeated Sunray, 22-16.

The Lynx scored one touchdown in each of the first three quarters. The first TD came on the Lynx' first possession. Khris Kelp dived over on a quarterback keeper from the 3 yard line.

In the second quarter Brian Beck capped off a 45 yard drive by going off-tackle for 7 yards and a TD. Beck scored in the third quarter as well. He went 17 yards on the same off-tackle play for the TD.

All three scores resulted from sustained hard running drives. In putting these drives together, Tim Dooley was the workhorse. In the fourth quarter he carried the ball four times in a row, gaining 49 yards, to put the Lynx in scoring position on the Bobcats' 4 yard line. On the next play another Lynx running back fumbled the ball and the Bobcats recovered.

The rest of the Lynx points came on two-point PAT conversions. Beck scored on one in the second quarter and Kelp scored a second one in the third quarter. The Lynx defense kept the Bobcat passing game contained. The Bobcats were not able to mount a long sustained drive until the last few minutes of the game. All of the Bobcats' points, except for their last TD, came as the result of Spearman turnovers in their own end of the field.

Some of the key defensive plays during the game included a pass interception by Brandon Vanderburg. He intercepted a 24 yard Bobcat pass on the Lynx 7 yard line. The interception stopped a Bobcat drive in the first quarter.

Another defensive play was the recovery of a blocked Bobcat field goal. Chris Strawn recovered the blocked field goal in the second quarter on the Lynx 38 yard line.

Beck had two interceptions during the fourth quarter. The last one would have put a stop to the Bobcats' scoring drive but it was called back because of a penalty. It took three more penalties called on the Lynx to finally get the Bobcats in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

The Lynx will put their first-place 2-0 district record on the line against Boys Ranch this Friday night. The game will be played in Lynx Stadium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Southwest Outdoors

with Mel Phillips

Watch out when buying shotgun shells for hunting waterfowl. It is illegal in Texas to use lead shot for any kind of hunting on migratory waterfowl. Some dealers are discounting prices and while lead can be used on other birds, the simple possession of lead shot in the field during a duck hunting trip could lead to an unpleasant and expensive meeting with the game warden. Using steel or coated shot means fewer birds will die after ingesting lead while they feed.

For those who do not own a ranch or are having trouble finding some good bird hunting, I can recommend several day-hunts. Listed in alphabetical order, they are good people who offer some great hunting packages and a variety of extras including lodging and meals.

BAR H DUDE RANCH - located near Clarendon, call 1-800-678-5771 and ask for Frank Hommel.

BOOKOUT BIRD HUNTING PRESERVE - located at Hartley, call 806-365-4488 to visit with John or Ann Bookout.

HARPERS HUNTING PRESERVE - just outside Booker on the north plain, Clydene Harper, 806-435-3486, welcomes your call.

MULESHOE PHEASANT CLUB -

Yes, it is near Muleshoe, and Jack Little at 806-272-4806 can answer any questions.

WEBB SHOOTING PRESERVE - located in the breaks near White Deer, Wesley Webb at 806-883-4101 offers bird and big game hunting.

A GOOD TOWN AND GOOD FOOD! Located half way between Amarillo and Wichita Falls on Highway 287 is one of my favorite towns. The citizens of Memphis made an extraordinary effort to keep their hospital open and "Hall County people" are among the most loyal, no matter where they now live. Since I drive through Memphis on the way to the lake (Fork, Baylor, Possum Kingdom, Pauline, Millers Creek, or Stamford), it is fitting that two of my favorite restaurants are located there.

And El Sombrero is quite simply the best Mexican food between Dallas and Amarillo.

LAST TOURNAMENT OF 1991 - Top-of-the-Line Marine, the Tracker and Nitro boat dealer in Borger, has added $500 in prize money to a Fun Fishing Tournament at LAKE MEREDITH on Saturday, Oct. 26. The early entry fee is $20 per category if paid by Friday and increases to $25 on Saturday. Based on 100 entries, first place wins $1,000. You can enter one or both walleye and bass categories. This event, headquartered at Cedar Canyon, starts at 9 a.m. and ends at 4 p.m. with a free cookout sponsored by Top-of-the-Line.

Alan Jones deserves special thanks for adding both the $500 and a cookout. He might make it an annual Fall event if the anglers show up and let him know that we appreciate his support for fishing. Listen to Y-94 fm radio for special surprises!

Lady Hounds CC outstanding

"I thought our performance was outstanding this week," was Gruver cross country coach Steve Myatt's comment on the varsity Lady Hounds' third place finish and the J.V.'s fifth place finish at the Spearman cross country meet. The meet was held on Saturday at the Palo Duro Reservoir.

He attributed the varsity's high finish to the fact that all the girls on the team ran their best time ever. "All seven girls broke 14 minutes for the first time this year," Myatt said. He went on to say that the team still seems to be improving every week, which is very good for this time of year. "Our district meet is in two weeks, Nov. 20, and we want to peak about that time," he concluded.

The Gruver varsity cross country team finished third overall in Division I. Team members, their finishing placement and times include Cora Meyer, 6th, 12:17; Kasey Davis, 16th, 13:03; Tisha Ralston, 20th, 13:16; Julie Meyer, 23rd, 13:20; Monica Ward, 29th, 13:31; Brendy Brown, 33:47; and Holly Venneman,

The junior varsity finished in fifth place overall. Team members and their times include Joni Hart, 2nd place, 12:58; Myriam Alvarez, 13:39;

Traci Crawford, 14:47; Mika McLain, 15:04; Janyth Hart, 15:13; Janelle Haefner, 15:19; Sharlet Slough, 15:23; and Wynn Maupin, 15:50.

Memphis wins, 19-0... Greyhounds suffer second district loss

The Gruver Greyhounds suffered their second district defeat Friday night when they lost to the Memphis Cyclones, 19-0.

According to Barry Haenisch, Gruver football coach, disaster struck the Hounds on the first play of the game when Hound running back Matt Etheredge was lost for the season with a broken collar bone. "It was just one of those things," said Haenisch. "He just fell on the ground wrong and some other players fell on him."

The injury left the Hounds short a running back for their wishbone offense. Haenisch reported that he had installed the new offense just that week. It was to take advantage of a weakness in the center of the Memphis team that the coaches had seen on the films.

Etheredge, as the fullback in the offense, was going to be the back to exploit that weakness. With the injury to Etheredge and with only a week of practice on the wishbone, the Hound offense was not able to execute well enough to score against Memphis.

Haenisch did say, however, that the offense did well in the second quarter. Using an I formation, the offense moved the ball from the Gruver 30 yard line to the Memphis 20 yard line. During this drive it was the blocking of Brady Pool, as the leading back, and the running of Victor Lopez that accounted for most of the Hounds' yardage.

On the defensive side of the ball, Haenisch reported that the Hounds played a very good game. Except for a Memphis TD early in the first quarter, the defense held the speed of the Cyclones in check until they scored two TDs at the end of the game.

Haenisch mentioned the outside linebacker play of Matthew Hoel as a factor in the good defensive effort of the Hounds. "Matthew Hoel played well in containing the off-tackle runs," said Haenisch.

In the 1930s, less than one in five cancer patients was alive five years after treatment. Today, the five-year survival rate has more than doubled to approximately one out of two. The American Cancer Society believes that many more people could be saved through early diagnosis, prevention, and prompt treatment.

Hansford County 4-H has awards banquet

The Hansford County 4-H Achievement Banquet was held on Sunday, October 20 at the Gruver Elementary Gym. Over one hundred were registered by Leah Mackie to attend this special event. The entire program was put on by the 4-H youth of the county. Leslie Latta and Rex Ralston were Co-Master and Mistress of Ceremonies for the afternoon. The prayer for the meal was given by Ronda Renner. The pledge of allegiance was lead by Kyle Deeds followed by the 4-H Motto and Pledge lead by Tommi Latta. The welcome was given by Dawn McCullough, while the introduction of special guests was by Kimberley Wagner.

The year pins and certificate of project completions were handed out by several youth: Jami Ralston, Chris Brooks, Sharlet Slough, Kevin Williams, Holly Venneman, Cameron Kunselman, Randie Renner, Jeremy Hunter, Karla Kunselman and Clay Scribner.

The adult leaders for 4-H were recognized by certificates of service. The 4-H'ers helping with this were Dallas Trospier, Kim Venneman, Leah Mackie, Kathy Slough, Mandy Kenney-Vernon, and Jake McCullough.

Record Book awards were given out by the youth: Brandon Vandenberg presented the Beef Award to Ashley Brown which was given by Syntex Animal Health Inc. Lena Kay

Harbour presented the Clothing Award to Karla Kunselman which was sponsored by Coats and Clark, Inc. and Singer Sewing Co. Chris Brooks awarded the Achievement Award to Mandy Kenney-Vernon which was given by Ford Motor Co. The Sheep Award was given to Leah Mackie by Cori Lowe, which was sponsored by Texas Wool and Mohair Warehouse Assn. and Texas Sheep and Goats Raisers Assn. Ashley Baker presented the Swine Award to Jeremy Mackie which was sponsored by Texas Pork Producers and Owens Sausage Co.

Special recognition was given to 4-H'ers who had achieved awards on a district level contest and higher. The Livestock Judging team awarded to Brett Bergin a plaque for his coaching them to the state judging contest. Lynna Renner received a special homemade award and an engraved plaque for her efforts in helping the youth in their beef projects.

The conclusion was the highlight of the banquet. Two 4-H'ers were honored with the county's highest honor, the Gold Star. They were Randie Renner and Leslie Latta. These 4-H'ers will be honored at the district level by our Rural Electric Co-op. It will take place on Saturday, November 2 at the Tascosa Country Club in Amarillo.

Hansford County ag pioneers recognized

AUSTIN - Three Hansford County ranches will be recognized at the 18th annual Family Land Heritage ceremony, to be held Wednesday, Oct. 30 at 1:30 p.m. in the Lyndon Baines Johnson Auditorium at the University of Texas at Austin.

Recognition in the Family Land Heritage Program will be given to the D.C. Jones Homestead and Ranch, founded in 1884 by David Christopher Jones. The homestead and ranch is owned today by Mrs. W.L. Blankenship, Mrs. Thomas Edward Jones and Mrs. Gene Reynolds.

Also scheduled to be honored is the D.C. Jones ranch, founded in 1884 by David Christopher Jones and owned today by T.J. Bergin.

The third Hansford County ranch scheduled for recognition is the X Cross X Ranch, founded in 1880 by Joseph W. Jones and owned today by Joel Lee Lackey.

The Family Land Heritage Program, sponsored by the Texas Department of Agriculture, recognizes families with farms or ranches in continuous agricultural production for at least 100 years. "We're proud to be able to recognize our longstanding farm and ranch families," Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said. "This is a wonderful opportunity to salute all of the 2,664 Texas farms and ranches that have been honored by the program since 1974."

For recognition through the program, land must have been in continuous production for at least 100 years, the owner must reside in Texas and actively manage the daily operations of the property, and the land cannot have been leased to anyone outside the family for any period of time.

The 1991 ceremony will honor 137 farm and ranch owners. This year, Hidalgo County has garnered the most honorees, with 11 qualified applicants. Gillespie County is represented by eight. Collingsworth and Hemphill, along with Hansford County, will be recognized for the first time.

H&S EMS of Spearman was the recent subject of a spot inspection, performed by the Texas Department of Health. After the inspection, H&S EMS received a letter from Terry Bavousett, EMS program administrator for Public Health Region 2, stating, "It is my privilege to report that no deficiencies were noted..." In his letter, Bavousett congratulated H&S EMS for "... their commitment to making high quality pre-hospital care available..." and held H&S EMS up as an "... example of excellence to other EMS Providers. According to Michele Davis, H&S director, spot inspections are performed randomly on about 10 percent of EMS services each year. Rigorous inspection is made of the services' drug and equipment supply and condition, along with maintenance procedure and various other items. Davis noted that H&S EMS is the only service found not deficient by the TDH recently. Proud members of H&S EMS include (l-r) Gail Coates, EMT; Genia Jones, EMT; Michele Davis, EMT/P; Kevin Russell, EMT/P; Cindy Scribner, EMT; and Paul Moore, EMT.

composting area at the landfill site and expand the community recycling program.

According to T.A. Outlaw, chief of the TDH's Bureau of Solid Waste Management, Hansford County can look forward to even more changes in solid waste disposal methods. He said in a news release that the regulations will inevitably increase the costs of landfill operation nationwide. "There is little doubt," he said, "that compliance with the new rules will mean higher costs to the taxpayers. Presently, we cannot estimate what those costs will be. But it is probable that operating costs of some municipal landfills, especially those in smaller towns, may force some cities to seek alternatives."

He said that some cities may close smaller local landfills and consolidate their waste disposal in regional sites. "Until we (TDH) have studied the regulations and consulted with EPA, we can't predict the rules' full impact," Outlaw said. He said that EPA expects to publish the new regulations in the "Federal Register" within two to three weeks.

In the meantime, Outlaw said, landfill operators and local officials, many of whom have waited since 1988 for the new standards to be set, have been calling his office for guidance. "At this point, there are no specific questions that none of the states can answer. Although EPA Administrator William Reilly signed the regulations Sept. 11, it may be several months before all their implications to Texas are clear."

He said that EPA now is scheduling meetings with their own regional personnel and state agency officials. His staff will not be versed in details of the standards until "mid-to-late October."

"Until then, we are referring inquiries about the regulations to the EPA Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response at (202) 260-4377," he added. Outlaw said that the regulations (Subtitle D, Resource Conservation and Recovery Act) are meant to ensure uniform compliance among landfill operations nationwide. "The requirements affect the location, design, operation, closure and monitoring of all municipal landfills. They will stress protective measures dividual or organization that does business in an enterprise zone. If passed, this amendment would allow a county, a junior college district, or a municipality to exempt certain personal property from ad valorem taxation. To be exempt from this tax, the following conditions must be met: (1) the property must be acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state; (2) the property must be assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone; (3) the property must be transported outside the state within 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone; and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is in a qualified business.

The purpose of this amendment is to encourage economic development in enterprise zones. Because some personal property will not be taxed, it will be less costly to operate a business in an enterprise zone.

Notes: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property. An enterprise zone is an area that has substantial poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. A qualified business is a business that is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. "Enterprise zones" and "qualified businesses" are designated by the Texas Department of Commerce.

Proposition 6: "The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will create a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by the Texas Constitution. The commission will consist of eight appointed members. These members will be selected by the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the legislature. Note: A commission that is established by the Texas Constitution can only be repealed by the voters. A commission that is created by statute can be repealed by the legislature. Proposition 7: "The constitutional amendment to allow the board of trustees of a statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in a manner that the board considers prudent." Summary: If passed, this amendment will change the way in which the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system can invest the system's funds. Currently, a board can only invest its retirement funds in securities (stocks, bonds, etc.). However, if this amendment passes, a board may invest its retirement funds in any way that it thinks is prudent.

If this amendment does not pass, there will still be a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by statute. This commission could not set the per diem of the members of

Spearman 5th grade constructs dwellings

by Verlan Winegarner

The Spearman Elementary 5th graders have been studying the Native Americans from North America and South America. The last couple of weeks the students and their families built Indian Dwellings at home.

The dwellings were spectacular again this year. Thirteen dwellings were chosen by other teachers as best of the 84. These 13 were judged by local business owners. The judges were Cindy Blackman from the Chamber of Commerce; Holly Simpson from Brown & Graham and Kevin Russell from First State Bank.

They chose 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. They are Grace Davis - 1st place; Betsy Holt - 2nd place and David and Deanna Zabin - 3rd place.

The three winners along with the other 10 winners will be on display at the elementary library. We will also have several at the next PTA meeting in November.

Any business interested in borrowing a dwelling for display may call Verlan Winegarner at 659-3633 after 5:00, or leave a message at the elementary school, 659-2565, during the day.

The class has studied four tribes in the U.S. (Iroquois, Plains, Pacific Northwest and the Pueblo). We also discussed the Aztec and Mayan cultures of Mexico. We compared the Incan culture of South America to the Aztecs and Mayas.

We began the unit by talking and acting out the first Native Americans coming across the "Land Bridge." The Bering Strait between Alaska and Russia covers the bridge today. They came here 20,000 to 30,000 years ago.

We wondered about why they spread out to become different tribes. We decided they had to follow animals for food.

During the last three weeks, we participated in many activities. Some of the highlights were:

1. Running the gauntlet (Iroquois)
2. Playing lacrosse (Iroquois)
3. Dressing up in authentic costumes from Panhandle Plains Museum, Canyon, Texas.
4. Listening to many stories about different cultures
5. Passing the peace pipe telling of events learned.

FmHA reviews loans

TEMPLE - The U.S. Department of Agriculture Farmers Home Administration continues to review its portfolio for possible graduation of borrowers to private credit as mandated by Congress, Neal Sox Johnson, FmHA state director in Temple, announced.

The FmHA credit programs are administered in a manner that will assure that they do not supplant or compete with credit available to farmers, rural families, rural communities and cities from other reliable credit sources. The law requires that FmHA borrowers should graduate to other credit on reasonable rates and terms when they are able to do so.

FmHA, as the lending arm of the U.S. government, has long been a source of credit for farmers, ranchers, rural homeowners, and rural area residents who have been unable to obtain credit through commercial lenders such as banks, savings and loans, Production Credit Associations, and Federal Land Banks. Farmers Home Administration has attempted to aid those borrowers as a "lender of last resort," Johnson said.

Nationwide, on an annual basis, FmHA revises its loan portfolio to determine those borrowers who have progressed to the point that they no longer need government assistance to obtain credit. This annual review is currently being conducted by local Farmers Home Administration offices. FmHA borrowers in all areas may be contacted to furnish information on their ability to graduate from their FmHA loans to these lenders.

The mission of the Farmers Home Administration loan program is that of "temporary sources of supervised credit in modest amounts" to those who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere.

Public Notice

On July 1, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas that proposes to delete Paragraph 3.4(G) from Section 3 of Southwestern Bell's intrastate Access Service Tariff, which concerns credits where a customer uses Switched Access Service to furnish a service which has been defined to be an exchange service. The application was assigned Docket No. 10463.

Because Southwestern Bell is not aware of any customers who presently use switched access service to furnish an exchange service, Southwestern Bell does not believe its revenues will be affected. However, certain interexchange carrier customers of switched access service have made claims under the aforementioned tariff. Such customers, but only to the extent they provide an exchange service using switched access, would be affected by this application. Based on claims made for credits (assuming such credits were allowable), Southwestern Bell's revenues would be affected by no more than $1,168,962 annually, which is .037 percent of the Company's adjusted revenue for the 12-month period ending December 31, 1990. It is not possible to know how many interexchange carriers might believe themselves entitled to credits, but 189 carriers have registered with the Commission pursuant to PUC Substantive Rule 23.61.

The tariff, after suspension, is proposed to be effective May 1, 1992.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, but no later than November 15, 1991. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256. The telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) number is (512) 458-0221.
