Cates Clothing Changes Ownership

Gary Cates and Alfred Avila pause for the camera as they prepare for the change of ownership for Cates Clothing.

by Sara Eisfeld

Alfred Avila spent 18 years training for what he now does.
On April 2, 2001, Alfred and his wife Cindy along with their two children took over ownership of Cates Clothing.

SERVING HANSFORD COUNTY SINCE 1907

"It was a once in a lifetime chance for us," said Mr. Avila. "It was great for us to be able to reach it."

The Avila's purchase of the business was a unanimous family arrangement as well.

"It was a group decision," said Avila. "We all okay'd the purchase of the store."

Avila first began his career at Cates in 1978 at the age of 16. For 15 of his 18 years there, he spent as manager.

After spending the past three and a half years as purchasing director at Hansford Hospital, Avila saw the opportunity to purchase the 42-year-old business from Gary Cates.

"It was a great opportunity," said Avila. "Gary wanted to carry on the same service as before."

Avila credits his wife Cindy, who is employed with Hansford Appraisal District, with a major part of the business end of things.

"I do the front business," he said. "My wife is doing a lot of the behind the scenes work, so she gets a lot of the credit.

The Avila's have two children, Cha'tae a fourth grader and Michael, a second grader, both at Spearman Elementary.

The name will stay the same as well as the same lines of clothing.

"As the old saying goes,'If it ain't broken, don't fix it'," said Avila. "Gary always kept up with the top lines and we intend to continue that."

Senator Announces Changes To School Calendar Bill For Education Committee

Senator Eddie Lucio, Jr. will add a referendum to the "School Calendar Bill" that will allow individual school districts to select a start date for the school year.

"After meeting with various groups and members of the Legislature, I crafted a referendum that will ensure much more extensive community involvement in each school district's decision for the first day of school," said Lucio. "I removed the language requiring school districts to begin classes no earlier than August 21."

The referendum will permit every voter within each school district to select one of the following time frames for that district's start date:

1- the last full week in August 2- the second to the last week in August

3- the third to last week in August
4- September 1 or a later date
The legislation also allows each

The legislation also allows each school board to choose the day of the week each year that school should start, based on the week garnering the most votes through referendum.

"I have heard from both school teachers and parents who are unhappy with the earlier and earlier date that public schools start each year," said Sen. Jeff Wendworth, R-Republican, co-author of the bill.

Community voting will allow each school district to determine their own needs.

"SB 108 ensures that educators will consider feedback from parents and others who understand the impact of academic calendars on the community in general and on families in particular," said Judith Zaffirini, D-Laredo.

According to the current system, the school board or a calendar committee determines when that school district will start school, with little or no input from the community.

"When I voted for local control as part of the Education Code, I did it with the full understanding that it meant that a local decision would involve the community and have some sort of parameters," said Sen. Lucio. "Unfortunately, that has not always been the case."

The proposition would be added to the next school district election or it can be added to the statewide November 2001 election on the Constitutional amendments. SB 108 would not require school districts to hold a special election for this purpose, but they may do so. If the bill becomes effective immediately, school districts with elections in May could still add the referendum at that time. However, an election cannot be held on a bill until 46 days or more have passed since the bill became effective. School districts would not be required to adhere to the new schedule until the 2002-2003 school year.

Sen. Lucio strongly encourages parents and teachers of migrant students to participate in the election and choose the week that they honestly feel is the vest time to open schools with minimal loss of classroom time for these students.

Rep. Harold Dutton, Jr, D-Houston is the bill's primary sponsor in the House. Sen. Leticia van De Putte, D-San Antonio is also a co-sponsor of the bill. Nineteen House Representatives have signed on as co-sponsors. The bill has been referred to the Senate Education Committee but has not yet been scheduled for a hearing.

Kade Carthel of Gruver High School will compete in ready writing and headline writing at the state UIL Academic Meet, May 4 and 5 in Austin.

Don't Forget To Vote Saturday, May 5th 7:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

A friend sent me the following poem. It really made me stop and think about some of the things that I say. (In the future I hope it will make me stop and think before I speak.) I hope you enjoy it.

Silver Boxes

by Michael Bright

My words were harsh and hasty And they came without a thought. Then I saw the pain and anguish That my bitter words had brought.

Bitter words that I had spoken Made me think back through the past; Of how many times I'd uttered Biting words whose pain would last.

> Then I wondered of the people I had hurt by things I'd said; All the ones I had discouraged When I didn't use my head.

Then I thought about my own life, Of painful words I've heard; And of the times I'd been discouraged By a sharp and cruel word.

And now clearly I remember All the things I might have done; But, by a word I was discouraged And they never were begun.

Lord, help my words be silver boxes, Neatly wrapped up with a bow; That I give to all so freely, As through each day I gladly go.

Silver boxes full of treasure, Precious gifts from God above; That all the people I encounter Might have a box of God's own love.

May God bless and keep you; May He make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; May the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

Sometimes we learn more from an outsider about ourselves than that newcomer learns herself.

Such was the case with Sara Eisfeld, a bright, enthusiastic, young journalism graduate from Minnesota who has been an employee of the Reporter-Statesman since August.

Just about the time I was convinced I and my surroundsing were about the most common and ordinary in all the world, the Norwegian newlywed arrived.

Every day was a new discovery for Sara. Just the finding of a huge chunk of beef in local grocery was an experience.

'Mark (her husband) and I bought this huge hunk of meat called beef briskets. How do you cook it?

After explaining the secret of cooking a good brisket was low heat over a long period of time, Sara, a great cook who makes Lefsa and other dishes I can't even pronounce, decided to chunk the whole brisket and cook it in a crock pot.

The results were, shall we say, less delicious than expected.

The next cooking question also dealt with a local delicacy - pheas-ant. After Mark shot his first of the big birds in December, Sara was quick to ask"Do we need to bleed it before cooking?

Sara wanted to know about everything "What is a cattle fore-man? a cattle guard? She often tried to figure out things on her own, but some defied logic i.e. a cutting contest.

As I tried to explain the process o a horse separating one calf from the herd, Sara had this look on her face as if I were pulling her leg . I never did know if she believed me

Sara loved seeing cowboys and big hats and spurs and dogs riding in the back of pickup trucks. She and her husband Mark read and visited more spots of "interest" in Hansford and other counties than most locals do in a lifetime.

Her speech was also different than ours in content and in a faster pace. We had to teach her how to correctly use the term "you all" but she picked up on "yep" quickly. One day she remarked" Everyone here always appreciates

'Well don't Minnesota people appreciate things, too?" I asked.

"Of course, but we don't say we appreciate things," she answered.

Well, what in the world do you say when you appreciate something?" I querried.

'Thank you," was her curt reply. Sara and Mark did a lot of good in the short time they were here. They were most active in the Trinty Fellowship Church and were dependable volunteers at Cross Roads, even spending their last weekend here taking some of the kids camping. She also shared her talents with the UIL journalism students in Gruver prepaing for

As time passed, Sara learned to make a mean beef brisket using Claude's Brisket Marinade, and she even made sour dough biscuits to her repetoire. And she knows that a cutting horse contest is a bloodless event. But we learned a lot more about ourselves through Sara than she ever learned of us. And with her high ideals and good heart, she probably gave us more encouragement that we ever imparted to her. So to Sara (and Mark) we will miss you, and we wish you happy trails. And for all you've done, we "preciate it.

Spearman was saddened by the tragic and unexpected passing of a well-known and respected citizen, Kerry Henton last Thursday, April 26 in Collingsworth County.

Available information as to the details of his passing is that he was on a fishing trip with friends at the lodge of Larry Butts on the lake when he suffered a massive heart attack.

His obituary is elsewhere and the numerous church and civic activities in which he participated indicates the extent of the legacy

To his widow, Jane, his son and daughter, and other family members, the community extends sincere sympathy.

The Friday Amarillo Daily News headlined two articles in sports section with Spearman and the names of two high school athletes.

One quote "Spearman's Nollner takes individual route this year" referring to Chelsea Nollner and her winning track record. There were many details of her records and stated that she's one of only two girls to be ranked in four indi-vidual events in the area honor roll. Chelsea is the daughter of Kyle and Jennifer Nollner.

The other write-up was head-"Spearman's advances to Austin" and details many of his record, stating "Kevin Beedy left no doubt Thursday in Abilene as to who owned the Regional 1-2A tennis championship." He will advance to the UIL state tennis tournament May 7th and 8th in Austin.

Doug and Shannon Barnes with Kaley, Sara and Brittany spent an unusual weekend at the Mountain Men Rendezvous on the Arkansas River, west of Lamar, COL. At this camp, all live as the mountain men and Indians did in the decade of 1830-1840. They stayed in tepees, cook over an open fire, have contests and races as were those of the period. There is much fun, competition and comradeship. Their shooting contests are with black powder rifles, or muzzle-loading guns.

The Barnes reached the camp Friday evening just in time for Doug to enter the "candle shoot" where a lighted candle is the rifle target in the pitch dark

The women live as the Indian women did, just to a degree.

Contests and games, but none of that of the squaws, servile conduct not for these modern women, the children also had contests and games

This year there were 30 tents.

Carpentry Crew Goes South to Serve

by Sara Eisfeld

Leaving the familiarity of the Texas Panhandle to hone in on their carpentry skills, ten traveled to the children's home in Matamoros, Mexico to represent First Baptist Church of Spearman.

Consisting of younger and older, the crew's mission was to spiff up the volunteer house at the Matamoros Children's Home, the locale for nearly three decades of service by the Baptist Church.

We work hard because we know we're going to be there only a week," said James Cunningham. "We start on Monday and have to be finished on Friday.

For a week the tasks at hand divided the group in three: one group to build bunkbeds, another to work on tables and still another to construct kitchen cabinets and a

Brooks Beck, Will Jarvis and Shawn Farrar, the younger and less experienced section of the group, who flew down for just three days, received good reviews from their elder team members.

"We had some good help - some who were younger than me went with," said Roy Lee Uptergrove. "They were willing helpers.

The group was a mixed selection of experienced and new to the trip. "I was surprised at how much we got done," said Shawn Farrar, who went for the first time. "A group of guys can go over there and get a lot done."

Roy Lee Uptergrove has spent a week there every year but two since 1974.

"They needed some building done," he said of his first trip. "It was along my line so I went.

The yearly journey south is a hands and feet portion of the First Baptist Church's mission giving, in which they send both the money for building supplies and the laborers necessary to complete a building project.

the Lord's work in a small way," said Mr. Cunningham, who has gone on the trip on and off for nearly 25 years.

Although the group enjoyed the fellowship of the trip, they also were encouraged by the Children's Home and its residents.

Alton Ellsworth noticed the kids attitudes toward each other.

"There's no fussing, no fights," he said. "They get along and play and play."

James Cunningham seconded that observation.

"That's what I appreciate most," he said. "To see the conduct of the children that live there."

The Children's Home itself is home to about 100 kids from ages kindergarten to the upper teens. Saul Comacho, a doctor who serves the nearby town of about 5,000, manages the children's home as well as a medical practice serving the nearby Matamoros. Dr. Comacho along with his wife grew up in the Children's Home.

You nearly have to be down there to appreciate what they do down there - on a shoestring," said Mr. Cunningham.

But the experience handed out a few lessons in contentment as well to the group.

"They don't have to have as much stuff as we do," said Mr. Farrar. "They have enough to get by and are happy with it.

Despite the obvious differences culturally and economically, the desire to serve draws the veteran mission builders back.

"It's the satisfaction in doing something that helps out those less fortunate," said Mr. Uptergrove.

Minutes and Meetings

Hansford County Hospital District Board

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of Hansford County Hospital District was held in the Hansford Hospital Board Room on Monday, February 26, 2001.

Board members present: Lynn Davis, Tom Latta, John Sutterfield, Pat Irwin. Administration and staff present: Allen R. Alberty, Anne Snow, Vibhu Sharma, Kaye McFarlin, Charla Hargis, Carol Sell. Absent: Helen Etter-Holt and Ginger Pittman.

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 p.m. Minutes were approved for January.

In old business, Alberty called the Board's attack.

the Board's attention to an agreement between the hospital district and Sander Baker, PC, a collections agency, a firm that exacts approximately a 20-30% collection rate. He hopes to turn accounts over by 45 days after initial billing with most as self-pay accounts.

The Building and Grounds Committee decided wall covering, window treatments and counter tops needed to be replaced in Clinic 3 in preparation for the arrival of Dr. Garnett.

Two new employees are being oriented in the Laboratory. In Radiology, an applicant in consideration decided not to relocate. The department is at present being covered by a technician from Amarillo on duty from Sunday night to Wednesday afternoon, by Jim Nicholson from Wednesday afternoon through Friday afternoon, and other part-time technicians over the weekends. The department is staffed through April.

In new business, Alberty discussed his concern regarding the lack of activities in the hospital inpatient and ancillary departments, which are down 30% from last year. The hospital loss without taxes and depreciation is more than $72,000 compared to last year. The Manor's loss is more than $55,000 compared to last year. The losses may be attributed partly to the number of Medicaid patients being up and the number of private payer source have decreased. The clinics however have less loss. Retain Pharmacy gain is less than last year's period. The hospital district's loss is $93,000. Alberty concluded that an increase in inpatient activities would help to compensate this. In regards to other financial matters, an additional $150,000 of tax revenue was deposited into Certificates of Deposit. The hospital district could also receive approximately $70,000 to $80,000 this year in Tobacco Settlement Funds, possibly in April.

According to statistics reports, January 2001 brought only 14 admissions compared with 31 from the previous year. Alberty commended Physical Therapy's January activities. Occupational Therapy activities have increased 39% compared with last year. However Laboratory, Radiology and Respiratory Therapy in January had lower volume mostly due to low inpatient activities.

Anne Snow presented the Manor's report, showing that there are currently 74 residents, three of whom are Hospice and one who is Skilled Nursing Facility patient. She mentioned that with the loss of some CNA's, it is necessary to schedule another training class for mid-March. Some Aides have applied for the positions and decreased the immediate need to begin the class

Kaye McFarlin reported that hospital activities have been slow and she is short-staffed, needing two RN's and one LVN.

According to the Professional Advisory Committee Report and Annual Review of Home Care, Vibhu Sharma will be appointed Medical Advisor for a two year term, Shirley Kimbrough will be the new Director, Dawn Hearon will be Alternate Director and Alberty will remain Agency Administrator. The board also went over goals, objectives, conclusions and recommendations for Hansford Home Care.

The board adopted a corporate resolution for the District Employee's Cafeteria Plan and execution of Signatures for Checking Accounts.

They also voted to adopt the Texas Medicaid Contract amendment, increasing the hospice cap for the next year. They voted Alberty as the person to authorize negotiation of term and conditions regarding this with the Texas Department of Human Services and the Texas Medicaid Contract concerning the Medicaid Hospice

A grant application by the Coalition of Health Services is nearing completion that would complete the telemedicine network project at seven test sites in the region, that could help establish distance learning professional development network. Matching funds from the hospital district, amounting to 30%(approximately $6,123) of the total cost of equipment, that includes one Cobra Scan Scanner and computer, MultiTech Voice Over Ip and HP ProCurve 10/100 12 Port Hub and shipping and handling of RadVision, is not a budgeted item. but was approved by the board.

Janee Russell, LVN, was presented a scholarship to attend the ADN program at Amarillo College.

The board reviewed the reasons for opening the Swing Bed Program and terminating SNF

With Dr. Sharma's arrival, the hospital district will purchase enhanced pulmonary function testing equipment to aid the new doctor in diagnosis and treatment in asthma. Delivery and setup is anticipated within 30 days of the Lynn Davis, Tom Latta and John Sutterfield will not accept appointment to the board after their terms have expired.

Gillaspie Sisters To Attend Baptist All-State

It's Worth Writing

Laura Gillaspie

Texas Baptist All-State will be held July 6-13, 2001. Stephan Holcomb, Choral Director at Dallas Baptist University will direct this elite group of high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Participants will convene on the campus of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton. The choir, as well as a band, will be performing in Belton and Temple churches for worship on Sunday morning, July 8th, and concerts in Corpus Christi and San Antonio later in the week. Participants must be members of cooperating Baptist General Convention of Texas church, should exhibit a desire to live a godly life and grow spiritually, be self-motivated and maintain a high moral character. Because of recommendations from Carol Pack, choral director, and Brian Foster, minister of youth, both of First Baptist Church, Spearman, two Spearman High School students, Laura and Mindee Gillaspie, humbly submitted a tape audition. These sisters have been selected as participants in the Texas Baptist All-State Choir.

Laura, a junior at SHS, is active in her church youth group, as well as Monday night Bible study group in Gruver. She has also been accepted to participate in a dramaevangelistic youth mission tour in Venezuela in June. She is a member of her high school choir, having qualified for all-region this year, and recently received a #1 rating on her "class one" UIL solo. Laura, class president, participates in cross country, basketball and is currently a member of the varsity track team.

Mindee, a sophomore, is also active in her church youth group and the Bible study group in Gruver. Like her sister, she too has been accepted to participate in the youth mission tour going to Venezuela. The First Day of The Rest of My Life

Day after day I found myself frightened and alone, as though I were traveling through the universe in a void with no map or any means of finding my way home. My life slowly passed by in silence and in darkness. There was no beauty or peace, only pain and suf-

This day someone reached for me out of the emptiness, just as so many had before. I turned away in hopelessness, for always when I would reach for their hands, they would withdraw and leave me alone, more discouraged and anguished than before. But today it was different. Today I am truly alive for I have found Jesus. Beyond doubt, today is the first day of the rest of my

As a teenager, the Hebron sophomore has already mastered the skill of downsizing.

Vernon was a player. Now she's down to just one slash - competing in solely tennis and basketball - and the cutbacks are already paying dividends.

Vernon has served and volleyed her way to the Class 4A Region II Wednesday tournament Thursday in Denton.

'Going from four sports has really given me more time to focus on what sports mean the most," Vernon said. "I think I've improved quite a bit."

There's going to be a lot of competition [at regionals], but I think I'm ready. I'm hoping to get at least a couple of rounds into the Vernon is Hebron's lone regional qualifier, advancing to the tourna-ment with a second-place finish at the district championships.

Vernon has plenty of those already. Her forehand, backhand and groundstrokes are all first-rate, according to Schuchart. Throw in a solid attitude and a solid mind-set, and you've got a solid player.
