Weekly Update

Texas, December 17 - Average retail gasoline prices in Texas have fallen 5.4 cents per gallon in the past week, aver-aging $3.02/g yesterday, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 13,114 gas outlets in Texas. This compares with the national average that has fallen 8.0 cents per gallon in the last week to $3.25/g, according to gasoline price website Gas-Buddy.com.

Including the change in gas prices in Texas during the past week, prices yesterday were 2.5 cents per gallon lower than the same day one year ago and are 12.0 cents per gallon lower than a month ago. The national average has decreased 18.3 cents per gallon during the last month and stands 1.3 cents per gallon higher than this day one year ago. "The drop in gas prices certainly has been well noted- in some instances people have been calling this a gas price crash. Dub it whatever you like, but I'll remind motorists: gasoline prices in some areas still could set all-time record highs for Christmas Day," said Gas-Buddy.com Senior Petroleum Analyst Patrick DeHaan. "While it is excellent that gasoline prices have dropped, I'm not on board with this being called a gas price crash. Call me a grinch, call me a realist, but at the end of the day, data doesn't lie- and that data shows that gasoline prices are still clinging near all time highs for today's date," DeHaan said. GasBuddy operates, TexasGasPrices.com, and over 225 other local gasoline pricetracking websites that follow prices at over 125,000 gasoline stations in the United States and Canada. Gas-Buddy also uses Facebook (facebook.com/gasbuddy) Twitter (twitter.com/gasbuddy), and phone apps to keep motorists ahead of changing gasoline prices.

by Cecil R. Biggers, Lutheran Lay Minister

In the fourth week of the Season of Advent we prepare to behold the gift of God's grace to all mankind. We study Micah 5: 1-5, Luke 1: 46-55, Hebrews 10: 5-10, and Luke 1: 39-45.

Micah prophesied in the 8th Century B.C. It was a time of great turmoil because of the war-like Assyrian Empire. Micah takes Israel to task for social and moral abuses by the secular and religious leaders of the people. Later in Chapter 6 verse 8, Micah asks, "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God." In Chapter 5, Micah tells the oppressed of the people that in Bethlehem of Ephrathah that one shall come forth who will rule in Israel, whose origin is from old, from ancient days. This leader shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord. He shall be the one of peace. We as Christians tend to read back into Micah a prediction of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Yet, even if we read this passage as a good Hebrew child, we see the promise of God to bring forth a Good Shepherd for his people. God's steadfast love is displayed and promised. Luke records the Song of Mary, which is called The Magnificat. Mary is the perfect example of one who receives the gift of God humbly, patiently and gratefully. She recognizes that the honor given her by God is not of her doing or merit; it is a gift of God. She prophesies that God's gift has begun three revolutions: God has scattered the proud in their plans (a moral revolution); God has brought down the mighty and exalted the lowly (a social revolution); and God has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty (an economic revolution). God has kept his promises to Abraham. Rightfully can generations call Mary, Blessed and praise God for his gift of steadfast love. The writer of Hebrews shows us Christ who coming into the world has changed the way in which we enter the presence of God forever. The old system of sacrifice and offerings was good, but the sacrifice of Christ doing God's will by the cross has sanctified us once for all. This too is the gift of God. We are redeemed not by our own merit, but by the grace of God in Jesus The Christ. The gospel lesson comes also from Luke and shows us the visitation of Mary to her cousin, Elizabeth. When Mary arrives at the house of Zechariah and greets Elizabeth, Elizabeth's baby leaps in her womb and Elizabeth prophesies, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb ... and blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord". May the Holy Spirit enable you to behold God's gift of the Christ child as we patiently await Christ's return. Maranatha!

Texas' chief law enforcement officer, Attorney General Greg Abbott, had this to say:

"As a board member of the Texas School Safety Center, I am committed to making sure educators, students and law enforcement are working together to prepare Texas schools for the unthinkable. We must not wait until it's too late to act. We remind all schools to review their school safety plan to ensure they have proper procedures to keep students and campuses safe."

Dear friends,

When you buy a monument from us we make sure it is exactly what you want at a price you can afford. If it is not right, we will make it right. And you will not have to search the countryside to find us. We are here when you have a need.

Sincerely, Bob Boxwell

> Six blocks, I counted, to the right, four to the left, one more right, and we were there ... at a cattle stall washed bright by that amazing starlight!

Hushed, almost holding our breath now, mom took my hand and led me into the stall, back to the back, in the corner, and there we saw a baby! A baby, in a cattle stall, made visible by the light of a star!

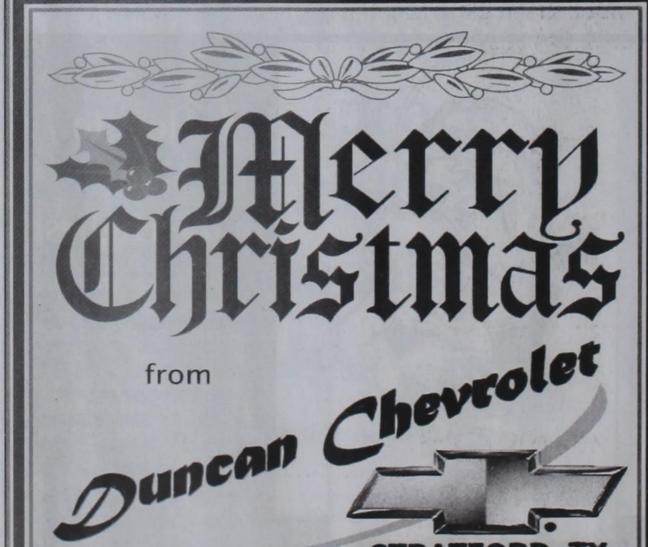

I remember that trip like it happened yesterday. And I remember the next thirty years because the baby. the one from the cattle stall manger - we grew up as friends played in the dirt, and learned how to worship God together.

And 9 remember the joy of His kindness and servant spirit, His healing and forgiving spirit. His touch of gentle grace: and the agony of His suffering. His death, and my anguish at the thought of His being gone forever.

But 9 also remember how His face shown, like that amazing starlight from so long before, as He stood before us alive! Jesus! The Savier of the World, conquerer of death, Bringer of Peace ... and my life-changing friend!

The Hansford County Reporter-Statesman

Merry Christmas!

Wow! I'm glad I got your letters! We have so much snow here at the North Pole that I was afraid the mail might be slow. But, the mail man is as quick as all the reindeer!

The reindeer are outside now playing reindeer games: Dasher is running in the snow - spelling out "Merry Christmas;" Dancer and Vixen are building snow elves; Prancer and Cupid are having a snow ball fight (with some snow balls that look like candy); Blitzen is playing in the snow with his toys; Comet is flying from roof top to roof top the flies real good); Dancer is making reindeer angels in the snow by laying down and waving his legs; and Rudolf - he's in the barn polishing his nose and practicing his leadership skills.

Mrs. Santa and I watch them through the windows and laugh at all the fun the reindeer have.

We all love you and can't wait to see you Christmas eve! Keep being good!

Love, Santa Claus

16th Appraal Gommunity Ghristmas Dinner

Where: The O'Loughlin Center When: December 25th + 12:00-1:30 p.m. What: A free dinner will be provided for anyone in the community who would like to share the Christmas spirit with food and fellowship.

Everyone is invited for this special occasion.

Operation Christmas Greeting

The Hansford Hospital Auxiliary has begun their yearly fundraiser – Operation Christmas Greet-ing. Instead of mailing greeting cards, individuals who wish to may donate money to the Hansford Hospital Auxiliary and have their greeting published in this paper. The money is used to purchase equipment and supplies that are not budgeted at the Hospital and Manor. Your donations can be mailed to Operation Christmas Greeting Chairman Judy Nelson, 130 Nel-son Road, Spearman, Texas 79081. Checks should be made to Hansford Hospital Auxiliary and marked Operation Christmas Greeting. Thank you so much for supporting this fundraiser.
