Friends Tommy and Sandy Russell sent me the following "Words of Wisdom from Andy Rooney," and I thought they were worth passing on to you. I hope you enjoy them.

Words of Wisdom from Andy Rooney

that the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person. I've learned....

that when you're in love, it shows.

I've learned...

that just one person saying to me, "You've made my day!" makes my day.

I've Tearned

that having a child fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful feelings in the world.

ve learned. that being kind is more important than being right.

ve learned

that you should never say no to a gift from a child.

've learned...

that I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in some other way. I've learned...

that no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to act goofy with.

've learned .. that sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand. ve learned ... that simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was a child did wonders for me as an adult. 've learned..

that life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes. 've learned.

that we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for. ve learned...

that money doesn't buy class.

've learned.

that it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular. ve learned ...

that under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved. 've learned that the Lord didn't do it all in one day. What makes me think I can? ve learned that to ignore the facts does not change the facts.

ve learned. that when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you. 've learned that love, not time, heals all wounds.

ve learned ... that the easiest way for me to grow as a person is to surround myself with people smarter than I am.

ve learned ... that everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.

that there's nothing sweeter than sleeping with your babies and feeling their breath on your cheeks. 've learned ...

that no one is perfect until you fall in love with them. 've learned that life is tough, but I'm tougher.

that opportunities are never lost; someone will take the ones you miss. ve learned... that when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.

've learned.

that I wish I could have told my Mom that I love her one more time before she passed away. ve learned.

that one should keep his words both soft and tender, because tomorrow he may have to eat them. ve learned.

that a smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks. ve learned...

that I can't choose how I feel, but I can choose what I do about it. ve learned that when your newly born grandchild holds your little finger in his little fist, that you're hooked for life.

ve learned .. that everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.

that it is best to give advice in only two circumstances; when it is requested and when it is a life-threatening situation.

've Tearned. that the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

May God bless and keep you; May He make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; May the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

Among The Neighbors

The recent trip to Hawaii taken by Verna Brown and family as reported could double for a travel commercial. On May 15th, Verna and her daughter, son-in-law, and 15-month-old granddaughter, of Guymon, and Verna's sister from Rolla, KS flew to Tulsa. There they were joined by another daughter and son-in-law, with their son and daughter and their spouses, all of

The group of 12 then flew to Dallas and on to Honolulu. There they boarded a plane, on a Hawaiian line to Maui, their destination.

They rented a house there where the entire family could stay. The spacious house, with a swimming pool and beautiful grounds, was close enough to the beach where some of them could enjoy snorkeling, swimming, and the sand. Various other activities kept the group pleasantly busy with golfing, sight-seeing, an interesting trip on a sugar cane train, visiting a large aquarium, etc.

One highlight was attending the Feast of Lele-a luau. The cuisine was certainly a variation, but tasty. After the entertainment, a dance with grass skirts and the hula lived up to its reputation.

Verna reached home late last Thursday; this was her second trip to Hawaii

On Thursday the ambulance was called to Lowe's Marketplace for Millard Tucker, who had suffered a fainting spell. After thorough tests at Hansford Hospital, he was sent to Amarillo Baptist St. Anthony's for further examination. At this writing (Monday) the diagnosis was not complete and a biopsy was being made.

His sister here, Vi Hornsby, is keeping in close touch through their two sisters who live in Amarillo.

Margarette and Kenneth Evans attended the funeral services for Beatrice Wilbanks, 86, in Dumas. She was the widow of the late Henry Wilbanks, who was reared in spearman, and was a brother to Margarette's father.

Andrew Cummings returned home Friday from Albuquerque with his parents, Linda and Doug.

He had undergone a very rare and complicated bone graft surgery to correct an oral birth defect. Bone was taken from his hip to provide bone that was missing on his upper jaw. Surgical plates were implanted, and in a very complicated procedure, a locking device was installed.

The operation was pronounced successful and is the first of three surgical procedures needed. The next two can be done on an outpatient basis.

Doug and Linda were guests of Leff and Dacia Lust in Albuquerque.

Those late Friday night sounds of revel originating at IV's were the celebration of Tommie White's birthday. The count is lost of which birthday but it was past the 39th, regardless of what he claims.

He and Sue had come up from Greenville to attend graduation exercises for grandsons, Tyson Diffy of Dumas and Tommie Dewberry of Spearman, and also the wedding of Brian McLaughlin.

They were guests of John and Wanda Brown. After the Friday graduation exercises, they went to eat at IV's. Tommie was flabbergasted by a large number of family and friends gathered for his birth-

An Associated Press picture in the Sunday Amarillo News shows a couple of cowboys roping - with the headline "Bringin' Him Home" and included in the write-up says "the brothers worked together to rope a cow that got loose on the campus-and captured him." Probably the Associated Press doesn't have a beginner's course in animal gender.

Out At The Lake

by Dorothy Hudson

Lake Depth--May 30, 2000--

The office rain gauge showed 2.63 inches of rain from both storms, but only a little runoff came from Horse Creek and none from the Palo Duro.

This Memorial Day weekend was a little slower than last years, although the number of RVs at the peak time, Saturday night, was the same--24 north of the dam. There were only 3 on the office side, and not as many tent campers.

This morning a yearling buck was sleeping off the effects of a shot from a tranquilizer gun in the hands of Billy Beasley, animal control officer of Spearman. The young buck with his 4 inch antlers in the velvet had made it into Spearman where he ran afoul of Billy. He was brought out to a spot north of the office to recuperate.

The picture is from a stereoview of a cattle drive from one of the double picture cards meant to be seen in a stereoscope which is an optical device that makes objects appear to have three dimensions. It is called Palo Duro Ranch, Palo Duro, Texas and that is what caught the eye of L. D. Pierce, son of Juanita Pierce of Spearman, who before her death was one of the leading county historians. Mike Schnell bought the picture from the Internet Auction Ebay and has donated it to the Stationmaster Museum.

I am in hopes that someone will recognize the area from the skyline of the picture. Although the Palo Duro Ranch, also known as the 777 and the Rifle Pits Ranch, had its headquarters just north of the dam on what is now the Buschman Ranch, they also had a camp for awhile near Zulu. This ranch was considered the biggest ranch in the area for a time as they claimed the northeastern quarter of Hansford County but extended south and into Ochiltree County.

The picture is not dated, but notice that the cattle appear to be Herefords. Perhaps Carl Archer or someone else knows when the first whitefaces entered the county.

Nothing has surfaced to tell us where the little settlement of Palo Duro was. My first reference was from the Dodge City Times in September of 1877. "The little town of Palla Dora is situated 21 miles north of Adaby Walls, on the straight road to Lakin [kansas]...

My next reference was April 1, 1887 from the Diary of R.S. Cutter who was hunting a homestead. He came to the Paladoria store near the creek, but instead of staying, went back to Ochiltree County, where the family is numbered among their pioneers. Later a grandson, Charles Cutter, did move to Gruver and a great grandson, Richard Cutter married Phyllis Fletcher of Gruver.

Because of an error in judgment, and we have all made them at one time

To Whom It May Concern,

It came to our attention today that one of our seniors was left out of the ceremony and festivities of graduation.

Open Letter

or another, she had to change from regular to alternative school. She attended regularly, finished early with good grades, and also held a job. When the Powers That Be were asked why she received no notice as to what she needed, or when, the excuse was that she was "lost in the cracks". When her mother called about at least getting her a tassel, she was given an address and told to order it herself. This is not acceptable!!! This senior was not included in the graduation ceremony. As far as good old SHS is concerned, she doesn't seem to exist. I can almost understand someone getting lost in the cracks somewhere like New York City, but in Spearman!!

I don't think so. Does our school not have counselors, teachers, etc. who know enough about what is going on with the students to at least inquire when a student does not respond to such an important occasion in their life.

Or maybe the students and parents are just supposed to automatically know what is needed without being informed. It seems to me that it would take more effort to lose someone in the cracks than it would take to be sure that everyone is included. Alternative school is a wonderful thing, and it IS connected to the regular school, therefore it seems to me that students attending the alternative school should be informed of all activities and treated the same. This young person has missed out on one of the most important events of her life. Would a little effort, concern, or even human kindness have been too much to ask?? I guess so, and I am very sorry. Bonnie Cox, Angelica Rosales, Missie Sumner and Anita Sumner

Bodacious Line

Continued by Family The notorious bull of rodeo, Bodacious, died last week. A legend in his lifetime, the bull had only been ridden six times during his rodeo career. The Bob Cluck and Mike Wilhelm families, who began a herd of Bodacious bucking bulls by artificial insemination over three years ago, now find themselves in possession of a now-limited famous bloodline. The young bulls raised by the families are currently a part of the Oklahoma Rodeo circuit and have also been noted for their virtual unridablity, as was their famous
