Not only do I have a son, Clayton, that I often mention in this column, but I also have two wonderful daughters. Jennifer, the oldest, is a graduate of East Carolina University, and Elizabeth is a student at Colorado State University,

Any of you who have children, know that school aged kids are more than a little expensive.

In a couple of weeks, Jennifer is going to marry a fine young gentleman, Dave McNulty. Many people would be saddened at such a time, but not me. It is not like I am gaining a son, but like I am losing a daughter. Dave, you see, is an officer in the United States Air Force and makes enough money, I believe, to support young Jennifer without assistance from Dad.

Anyway, the blessed event takes place on September 19 in Washington, D.C. and I have been told that I am expected to be there SO, on the week of September 14, we are going to publish a day early. This means that we need articles and advertisements into our office early. The office will be open Friday, September 11. If you want anything in the newspaper for that next week, please try to get it to us no later than that Friday. Oh yea, we are flying to D.C. It is not that I am afraid of flying, but just in case I don't make it back, would one of you please take care of the next week's issue?

I like theologians. I like it when people think about spiritual things. Friend Odell Fanning brought me this theological jewel that he found in some northern newspaper. I hope you enjoy it.

A cat dies and goes to heaven, God meets him at the gate and says, "You have been a good cat all these years. Anything you desire, all you have to do is ask."

"Well," the cat says, "I lived all my life on a farm and had to sleep on hardwood floors."

"Say no more," says God, and instantly a fluffy pillow appears.

A few days later, six mice are killed in a tragic accident, and they go to heaven. God meets them at the gate with the same offer he made to the cat.

"All our life," the mice say, "we've had to run. We've been chased by cats, dogs, women with brooms. If we had roller skates, we wouldn't have to run any more." God says he can take care of it, and instantly, each mouse is fitted with a beautiful pair of tiny roller skates.

A week later, God checks in on the cat, who is asleep on his pillow. God gently nudges him awake and asks, "How are you doing? Are you happy here?"

"Never been happier," says the cat, stretching and yawning.

"And those meals on wheels you've been sending over are great!"

Grandma Lucy

When we were little we'd go stay at her house. Out on the farm where we'd ride horses, catch frogs or chase a mouse. She was never too busy to play paper dolls, or dress-up The jewelry and makeup - she had it all!

1 10 4 10 As we grew older, we'd still go and stay We'd pick corn, snap beans, can tomatoes, or just play. The best times were the morning as the sun was coming up, The smell of bacon cooking and fresh coffee in her cup. We'd sit at the table and eat all we could And if we weren't stuffed - fix more? Yep - she would.

She was born a twin in a quiet town. People came to see these two from miles around. This lady, she came from a family of many -Money and food - they didn't have much of any. The children grew up believing in Him -Knowing with their faith - He'd take care of them.

Her values and virtues - a lifetime would last -To look toward tomorrow - don't live in the past. She was caring, loving, and always kind Always thinking of others - bake a cake, volunteer - No, she didn't mind.

She loved to paint - her talents were many. If we wanted to draw, chalk and paper was plenty. She taught us to see the beauty within -A picture in her mind was what she needed to begin. She would draw and color some form on the page, She believed any one could do it - no matter what their age!

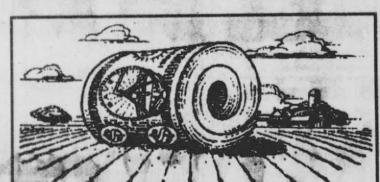

This lady taught us about family and love, And when times got tough - Don't give up - look above. Some called her friend, one called her his wife, They married in '34 and shared a great life. Some called her 'Sis', four called her mother, But to 28 of us - she was our Grandmother!

Today as we sit here - our tears we shed She would tell us "Don't be sad A good life I led." She'd say "Now I've gone on - to my home above, To my Father, my family - to many I love. Be strong, have faith and I will wait For you to join me at Heaven's Gate,
