Mules Fall to Dumas at Homecoming

Tromping Through The Dandelions'

The Muleshoe Miss America Beauty pageant is reported to be progressing satisfactorily, according to the local producer, Karey Moore.

You will note that a similar name to a very important event is being used in the local production, but after that name, all similarities end.

Other things are being copied in this show besides its name. For instance, most everyone knows, or has heard that old version of the song, "Tip Toe Through the Tulips." Well, the production staff of the show promises a new version of the song, "Tromping Through the Dandelions." And what the performer of this song lacks in quality, she makes up for in quantity.

You have also seen the very popular Nancy Sinatra dressed in her finest riding habit, with shiny soft knee high boots and singing "These Boots are Made for Walking." Well, watch out for a pair of irrigation boots on a character going across the stage like a bull in a china closet.

And, from here, the show goes from bad to ridiculous. But, honestly, there will be some good singing, and the candy sale during intermission will give you a chance at some very valuable merchandise donated by local merchants, service firms, and professional people.

It will definitely be your biggest entertainment bargain of the century. The performers all say, "Y'all Come!"

Vicki Henexson Named Queen Of Homecoming

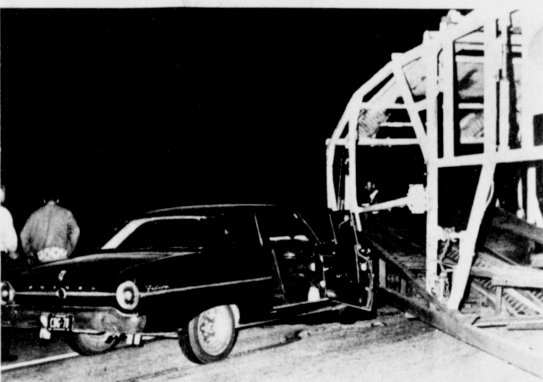

"Fantastic," "Outstanding," "Beautiful" were only some of the adjectives used and heard to describe the Friday night football game when the Muleshoe Mules met the previously highly touted Dumas Demons.

Standing room only crowds were in evidence at Benny Douglas stadium Friday night for the Muleshoe homecoming and first conference game of 1968. The Muleshoe Mules lost the battle 21-6, but may have won the war, as they romped, fought and held the Demons. Allowing the Demons to work downfield several times, on two occasions, they fought back in hard defensive actions and kept the Demons right in the shadows of the goal without penetrating the goal line.

Starting out offensively, the Mules held the ball for the first kickoff for thirteen plays before losing out on the Dumas five yard line. Mules' defensive team held the Demons and Muleshoe lost possession of the ball on a pass interception by Demon left guard Robny Fleming.

The Demons, who had not previously played an outstanding game this year in the air, took to the air working their way downfield and scored in the final play of the first quarter on a pass play from quarterback Bobby Laughty to Bob Borchardt. Dale Thurman, Demon kicking specialist, added the extra point, and the score was 7-0.

A long, 45-yard pass from Mule quarterback Ronnie Barrett to Dennis Beene, set up Muleshoe's touchdown in the second quarter. Beene took the ball and moved it to the Demon three yard line before being brought down and on the next play, with 6:58 on the clock, in the second, in an outstanding play, Roger Swint barreled over from three yards out for MIDNIGHT ACCIDENT--A truck jackknifed across U.S. Highway 70 at the east edge of Muleshoe Friday night around midnight and was hit by a 1963 Ford driven by Donna Whitefield of Ralls. A passenger in the Whitefield vehicle, Charlett Smith, also is hospitalized in West Plains Memorial Hospital for treatment of a broken collarbone and other injuries.

Three Hospitalized From Four Accidents

Automobile accidents, school bus wrecks, freak accidents and fires have kept the area law enforcement officers, ambulances and the Bailey County Volunteer Fire Department running the past few days.

It all started at noon Thursday when a 1959 Chevrolet, driven by Clint Garlington, was struck as he was attempting a left turn onto Ninth Street from West American Blvd. The vehicle that struck the Garlington car was a 1968 Ford pickup, driven by M.J. Gibson, Muleshoe.

Garlington was taken to West Plains Memorial Hospital where his condition is reported by hospital authorities as being 'good' at present. Gibson, driver of a pickup, was not injured and Marshall Wimberly received slight injuries to a knee in the accident.

At 4:54 p.m. Thursday afternoon, ambulances and officers were called to a point approximately nine miles southeast of Muleshoe on U.S. Highway 84.

W.E. Young, driver of the bus, said he had just left of some children and had started to cross the four-lane highway at an intersection to drive back toward Muleshoe. He only had one child on the bus at the time of the accident. Gaylon Strahan, 7, a second grader at Richland Hills, was the last one scheduled to leave the bus. His mother, Mrs. Don Strahan brought her son to West Plains Memorial Hospital to be checked, however, he was uninjured.

Kinder, driver of the car in the accident was hospitalized at West Plains and Young was treated for an injury to his right hand.

A freak accident was reported to Muleshoe City Police officers around 9 a.m. Friday morning.

A jeep, being towed by Arthur P. Brashear of Temple, jostled loose from the car towing it and veered off the

Confidence Vote Given Muleshoe Team Coaches

Immediately following the Friday night football game which had the Muleshoe Mules pitted against the Dumas Demons in the first game of conference play, the Muleshoe Athletic Boosters Club held a called meeting.

During the meeting, the members present voted a solid vote of confidence for the team and coaches in Muleshoe.

The following resolution was adopted: "We are behind our coaches and team 100 percent. Their attitude and their spirit is very much appreciated by us."

"The team really played their hearts out tonight in good, clean, hard ball. They all, without exception, played like a winning team. It is our hope that the team and coaches will continue to have the backing by parents and friends as was displayed by the large crowd attending the Muleshoe-Dumas game."

It's Time... To Change

It's time to change... the clock, that is. This morning (Sunday) after six months of Daylight Savings Time, clocks reverted to the 'old' Central Standard Time for the winter months.

Last April, clocks were advanced for one hour to take full advantage of daylight hours. Now, it is time to turn the clocks back once again.

People will find they are going to bed an hour earlier and getting up in the morning an hour later than they have been. Usually, it takes a little time to become accustomed to the time change.

Through the summer, with the advantage of an extra hour of daylight, farmers stayed in the field longer and sports fans had just that much more time for their favorite pastime.

The last Sunday in April of 1969 will see the clocks advanced for one hour again for the six months to come.

Halloween Carnival Annual Jaycee Crane Hunt To Begin Soon

Many organizations are hard at work preparing for the fever of activities which will take place the night of October 31. The Carnival is to be opened at 6 o'clock in the school bus barn and will continue until ten o'clock at which time the crowd will move to the high school auditorium. Kerry Moore is general chairman of the Carnival.

Groups assigned booths thus far are as follows:

Junior Class, CakeWalk; Fire Department, Money Pitch; Fine Arts Boosters, Bingo; Llano Estacado Study Club, Basketball; Jaycees, Homemade barbeque; Lions Club, Barrel Pitch; Rotary Club, Fishing Pond; Muleshoe Study Club; Art Club, Homemade ice cream; "M" Club, Dunking Board; "M" Club, Tomato Throw and F.H.A. Girls, Canded apples and fortune telling.

Jaycees and others are to be assigned booths later. Area community organizations are urged to participate if there is no celebration in their town.

Mrs. Carl Bamert and Mrs. Herb Griffin are co-chairmen

The Muleshoe High candidates and their escorts are as follows: Renee Dyer, Speech, escorted by Steve Woodard; Lana Moore, Choir, escorted by Leland Ferris; Vicki Henexson, Art, escorted by Tommy Little; Key Coppedge, Band, escorted by John Pitts.

The Muleshoe population is believed to be the largest concentration of this species in the United States. Oliver and Bob Stovall checked the population at the refuge Thursday afternoon and Stovall said, "They are coming in early this year and there are thousands at the refuge now."

Also, as in past years, the Jaycees will provide transportation to and from the hunting area. Shells and licenses will be available and the escorts will leave the Corral Restaurant, which is hunt headquarters, one hour before sunrise each day.

There will be prize money for the hunter who bags the largest crane during the hunt.

Hospital Authority Discusses District

Interested people flocked to the Muleshoe High School cafeteria Tuesday night for a meeting with the hospital authority board.

More than 50 people were present to hear statements from various persons concerning the need for creation of a hospital district in Bailey County.

Civic leaders, club presidents and organizations heard Neal Dillman, keynote speaker, who explained some of the reasons for a hospital district. Dillman said, "In the early 60's, several doctors could see the day coming for organizing a hospital district. They could see what was going to have to be done with federal programs coming in. Last spring when Dr. Birdson died, the situation became critical."

"I told the interested group that partially I would like to see a hospital district created," he continued, "so we would have medical facilities and doctors for not only my family, but for prospective qualified teachers, professional people and employees and any industry that may think about moving into or near our city."

Dillman explained that a hospital authority, such as was organized here merely to preserve the medical facilities presently in Muleshoe, has no authority to sell bonds or take notes to expand facilities.

In order to obtain Hill-Burton funds for one-half of the construction costs of a new hospital facility or to expand or rebuild present facilities, the hospital group must provide one-half the funds before obtaining those from Hill-Burton.

A straw vote was taken on the feasibility of creating a hospital district in Bailey County. The vote showed 48 for the district and three against the district.

Presently the hospital authority is drawing up a bill to present to legislature. A bill must be presented to the next legislature or two years must pass before it can be submitted. The bill will be entitled "An Act providing for the creation of the Bailey County Hospital District."

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm apparently has a lot of problems on his mind, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
There are too many things to think about in this world and it's getting worse all the time.

For example, I woke up this morning and the first thing I read in today's newspaper was a headline: Trouble Breaks Out In Panama.

Now up to then I hadn't given a moment's thought to Panama, outside of knowing there's a canal down there, being occupied with the Presidential election, state and local elections, the Supreme Court, Vietnam, Paris peace talks, Czechoslovakia, the Israel-Jordan problem for October, Biafra, the astronauts, law and order, a weak battery and white coming on, high hospital cost in case I get sick, football, laws, etc., although these aren't necessarily listed in the order of importance. There are some global problems that can't hold a candle to some in-laws. The point is, with all the domestic and national problems man has to deal with, it's unfair to load him down with constantly changing international problems, and once more I call on the world to establish an International Trouble Spot. Just pick out one place, stock it with reporters and television cameras, and let all the crises occur there. This practice of letting trouble break out helterskelter around the world, lots of time in countries I never heard of before, is worse than having four different telephone systems in one town. It's gotten so a newspaper can keep one headline set up in type reading: Trouble Breaks Out in Chicago, and all it has to do is fill in the blank from day to day.

If a man's going to have time to take care of his own business we've got to simplify. We need one country for crises, one university for riots, one city for crime, so a man could go to sleep with not over three major problems on his mind outside of the hundreds of minor ones he has to tend off in his own neck of the woods.
Here comes a neighbor now probably fixing to tell me my cows are out again.
Yours faithfully,
J.A.
ON GUN BILL

Bill Clayton knows the vital importance of water, not only to your future, but to the future of the entire State. Past accomplishments and effective leadership have made Clayton vital to continued progress in development of water resources for the High Plains.

* Education

Child by child we build our nation...tomorrow depends on today's children and young adults. Bill Clayton is ever mindful of the need to raise our standard of excellence in the Texas school systems. This can only be done through the up-rating of the Texas schools, and dedicated recruitment of the finest teachers. Clayton co-authored a bill that created the coordinating Board of Texas Colleges and University systems. His voting record shows a continued support of teacher pay-raise and the strengthening of all educational systems in Texas.

VOTING RECORD & POSITION

* Industrial Development

Bill Clayton knows that industrial development helps to stabilize the economy of any given city or area. During his six years in the Legislature, Bill Clayton has worked aggressively for industrial development for our area of the State. Several smaller cities in our 72nd Legislative District now have airports as a result of Clayton's assistance in starting a program of State grants. These state grants are financed with unclaimed gas tax refund on aviation fuel. Bill Clayton knows that airports help encourage industry in less densely populated areas.

* Tourism

Bill Clayton has worked hard for tourism during his six years as State Representative. Clayton, House Speaker Ben Barnes and 3 other interested legislators were successful in establishing a National Park in the Big Bend area of West Texas. The water importation program being led by Clayton will develop many new recreational opportunities with huge water reservoirs for fishing and boating. Bill Clayton realizes both the need for more recreational facilities in his district and increased business activity from tourist trade.

* County, City & Local Government

Bill Clayton has been a strong advocate of local government. He is currently serving as chairman of the Committee on Counties of the Texas House of Representatives. Clayton believes that government at the county and city level are more responsive to the people and whenever possible they should take the lead and the responsibility of many governmental programs and functions. Clayton has authored many bills that benefit the cities and support the idea of allowing cities the option to choose their own method of taxation. Bill Clayton is needed on the job for more effective and responsible county, city, and local government action.

a touchdown. Barrett faked a pass to Beamon and attempted to run the ball into the end zone for extra points, but the try failed and the score was 7-6.

A pass interception by Jerry McVicker perhaps held the Mules on the six-point mark and after working down the field, Dumas was held on Muleshoe's four-yard line and lost the ball on downs to the Muleshoe team.

Early in the third, Bobby Burge intercepted a Dumas pass, but officials ruled that the ball was out of bounds.

With 2:49 left in the third, Amanda Casas made it over from three yard line for the second Dumas TD. Thurman again kicked the extra point and the score was 14-6. Trevor Ford intercepted a pass on the Muleshoe 39 yard line that perhaps held the Dumas team in scoring bounds in the third.

In the fourth, with 3:31 on the clock, Allen Hall scored for Dumas from the Muleshoe 11-yard line. Thurman made the score 21-6 to end scoring for the game.

Although the Mules lost the game, it is perhaps regrettable to say once again, "They played the best game of the season." But... they did. The entire team, not just one player or a few, played as though he were a seasoned player.

With the sudden rash of untimely accidents in and around Muleshoe, it would be worthwhile for each and every person to stop and consider his or her driving habits.

Are you driving safely? What can you do to help prevent some of the accidents and injuries presently happening all too frequently?

Consider these questions and look at your own driving habits from an objective angle. See yourself as the other driver sees you and start correcting where corrections are needed. Who knows, you may be the one who lives longer.

Brashear told the Journal that he felt the jeep jar loose from his Cadillac when he hit a bump near the light. He said he tried to slow it down with his car, however, after about a block, it veered to the right and demolished the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelino Rodriguez, owners of the fruit market, and Refugio Cantu, an employee, were inside at the time of the accident, but were not injured.

Brashear and a friend had been in Colorado deer hunting and were enroute to their home in Temple.

The 10 a.m. fire on Thursday, destroyed the kitchen and utility room of the Russell Bryant home.

The fire, which started in the kitchen area, did extensive smoke and heat damage to the rest of the house.

No one was at home when the fire broke out. Fire Chief Earl Ladd said the fire seemed to have started in the kitchen in the area of the stove.

A small dog suffocated in the house.

To cap off the days of violence in the area, around midnight on Friday, a 1963 Ford, driven by Donna Whitefield of Ralls, rammed into the trailer of an auto convoy truck on the curve at the east edge of Muleshoe on the Plainview highway.

Driver of the truck, Paul Clutter Nelms, Amarillo, told investigating officers that he was meeting a car on the wrong side of the road and veered to the left to miss the oncoming vehicle when his rig went off the highway and high-centered, with the trailer of the rig blocking the highway on the north lane.

The car driven by Miss Whitefield struck the trailer of the rig before flames could be put out.

Charlett Smith, a passenger in the Whitefield car, is hospitalized at West Plains Memorial Hospital with a broken collarbone and undetermined injuries.

Driver of the car, Donna Whitefield, was treated at the hospital for a tooth knocked out, lacerations and abrasions. Another passenger in the car was uninjured.

None of the funds obtained locally go to support "Corps" operations, which maintain "Chapels" in larger cities. Ten local men and women serve on the volunteer service unit committee, of which W.D. "Bill" Moore is chairman.

Dogs Continue

Plague Area;

Child Bitten

Stray dogs, and licensed dogs, still continue to plague the Muleshoe area.

Latest in a series of incidents involving dogs was Wednesday afternoon when Roy Anzaldua, 12 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Noe Anzaldua was bitten by a stray dog.

His father, Noe Anzaldua, said the child would have to have a series of painful rabies shots. The dog was taken to the local animal clinic for observation and owner of the animal has not been located.

During recent days several complaints have been filed against owners of dogs in Muleshoe. Most of the complaints have been for "Allowing a dog to run loose" and "owning an unlicensed dog."

Corporating Court Judge Harold Wyer said wearhaving probably "about an average of cases filed now and the problem is still bad."

It was noted by city officials that dog calls are still coming in at the city hall at a steady clip and there is no noticeable improvement in the dog situation in the city.

A TIME FOR DECISION

A Presidential election, the most important one in our lifetime, is close upon us. With three candidates in the race Texans are confronted with such a variety of appeals that some confusion is not surprising. We see some of our top state political leaders urging support of Hubert Humphrey on the self-serving appeal of party loyalty. We see fine Texans tempted to support George Wallace because they like his outspoken position on certain issues and are thus swayed by an appeal of sheer emotion. With full respect for the right of every Texan to make a personal decision, this message in behalf of Richard Nixon is offered as

... AN APPEAL TO REASON!

HUBERT HUMPHREY WILL NOT change. He has proved consistently anti-Texas. He is famous for his filibuster against Texas owning its tidelands. He has fought our right to work laws and sought to destroy our vital oil depletion allowance. On every issue of world importance his position is contrary to that of most Texans. Humphrey, an ultra liberal founder of the ADA organization, would gain executive authority for radical minority viewpoints should he become president. This cannot happen by popular vote. In view of his vicious attacks upon George Wallace, what a ghastly miscarriage of intent it would be if Wallace supporters themselves should throw the election into the House of Representatives where every Wallace vote in Texas would automatically go to Humphrey!

GEORGE WALLACE CANNOT
be denied his impressive showing. A number of fine people heed his third party call. The very least that can be said is that he has dramatized the desires of many people for a change of direction in the affairs of our government. However, the very most his supporters can hope for is to split the popular vote so that all of us would be at the mercy of Washington politicians who would elect our president for us. This is Hubert Humphrey's only hope for election. The more positive way to vote for change is to recognize the many fine merits of Richard Nixon and his program, then vote for Nixon to assure the election of our president by the people instead of by the Congress!

RICHARD NIXON CAN... AND WILL supply dynamic, experienced leadership for an immediate change of direction--at the top--in all our national affairs at home and around the world. Your concerns are his concerns!

- NIXON ON LAW AND ORDER is pledged to help improve local police protection, to appoint an Attorney General dedicated to rooting out crime, to restore balance in our courts strengthening peace forces against criminal elements and to cease freeing so many of the guilty on technicalities.
- NIXON ON VIET NAM will call upon his experience as vice president during eight great Eisenhower years of peace to reform world alliances now in disarray, to redirect our strategy on new global threats. He will end this war and avoid future ones by dealing with adversaries in the only way they respect--through strength, collective security and patience.
- NIXON ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT is pledged to move control of local schools and all other governmental functions which properly belong at the local level closer to the people.
- NIXON ON OTHER PROBLEMS has solid solutions PLUS solid backing of enough members of Congress to implement those solutions.

The Upper Room Devotional

Read Ruth 1:11 - 17

Ruth said, "Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

Because of famine in their own land of Bethlehem-Judah, Naomi and her husband and their two sons had gone to Moab. Naomi's husband died there, as did her two sons who had married Orpah and Ruth, girls from the land of Moab. Thus did Naomi suffer famine, exile, and great sorrow.

Naomi's desire was to return to her homeland. One day she said to Orpah and Ruth, "Go, return each to her mother's house: the Lord deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me."

Orpah returned to her people, but Ruth said, "Intreat me not to leave thee." She wanted to continue the sweet relationship. More than that, Naomi had taught Ruth that religion was vital to life.

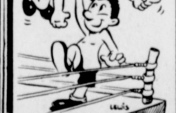

What is the greatest thing that an individual can do in this world? Is it not the very thing: to bring others into the presence of the Father?

PRAYER: Dear God, help me, a sinner redeemed by daily lives that others will desire to know Thee, our God. Because we esteem others, help us to be zealous in bringing them to Thee and so find our richest joy. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Does my religion lead others to know God?

Wallace Strength

One of the ironies in the present unique political situation in the United States today is that those who are expressing the most alarm over the surprising swell of support for third-party candidate George Wallace are those who have produced that swell among the American public.

Wallace-LeMay strength today is, in fact, a direct measure of the excesses and extremes to which the nation has been treated at the hands of the radical left in recent years. And the liberals, or many of them are somewhat discredited in the eyes of a large segment of the nation because many failed to denounce the left-wing extremists, and rationalized away their crimes and excesses in sympathy with their grievances.

The miscalculation of the radical left, then, was in assuming that the majority could be constantly intimidated by more and bigger scenes of riots and disorders without counter production of a strong right-wing reaction. Some who see the swell of right-wing sentiment as fascism fail to realize that many see in the rise of radical left-wing extremism anarchy.

In view of the serious situation no editor would wish to sensationalize the present dilemma in American society's evolution. Parallels are easy to draw and easy to oversimplify but it is true that in this century's most spectacular government takeovers by the right, in major western countries, right-wingers have taken over after anarchists or Communists threatened the order and stability of society.

"This levy increased 36 cents between 1963 and 1968 and falling prices on the American commodity markets do not stimulate exports, but instead force other nations to freeze our efforts to protect their own producers," the Congressman said.

Price cited the International Wheat Agreement as another example of the failure of U.S. policies and programs to grasp the significance of low American prices in the world market. "This agreement simply acknowledges that our U.S. wheat prices are so depressed that they have to be artificially raised to that of the world market," Price said.

"An exporter who wants to buy American hard red winter wheat on the Gulf Coast now pays our government up to 22 cents a bushel so that wheat prices reach levels set under the international agreement. But, both this and the foreign import levies, constitute sheer folly," he said.

"The truth of the matter is that the United States wheat farmer could receive a full parity price of $2.62 a bushel and we could still supply wheat to the Netherlands for less than the Dutch processor now pays.

From Congressman BOB PRICE

Congressman Bob Price in a town hall meeting in Perryton this morning told a group of farmers and agriculture people that "Cheap American wheat is no answer to this country's desire to increase exports."

"In fact, it is our cheap wheat that has frightened foreign countries into a system of prohibitive variable levies which keeps our wheat from entering their markets," the Congressman said.

Price, who is seeking reelection in the November 5 general election used prices received by Panhandle farmers and the cost of wheat to Dutch processors between April 1963 and April 1968 as the basis for his remarks.

"The Panhandle farmer now gets 86 cents a bushel less than he did in 1963," the candidate said. "But the Dutch processor pays 28 cents a bushel more. Obviously, the falling price of wheat in the United States was not passed on to the Dutch buyer."

"Much of the foreign price increase was due to the variable levies on wheat imposed by the European Common Market countries."

Halloween

We are approaching the time of year when goblins and ghosts will be dancing in our neighborhood. It is the time when doorbells ring and the familiar "trick or treat" salutation will unload tons of candy through our country.

The mystic rites and ceremonies with which Halloween was originally observed originated among the Druids, many centuries before the dawn of the Christian era.

Halloween was once a time when young people got into trouble and created trouble and disorder. That custom prevailed until recent years, when the energy and effort of young people were turned into more constructive and helpful channels.

Today, youngsters go out on Halloween night to collect funds for charities and good causes, and treats for themselves.

NEWS REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

G.O.P. Victory?
Wallace Policy—
The Nixon Cabinet—
The Wallace Danger—

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Unless the election takes a last-minute unexpected turn, Richard Nixon appears certain to poll the largest popular vote, also the greatest number of electoral college votes, on November 5th.

If a late surge of strength for George Wallace doesn't prevent Nixon from getting a majority of the electoral votes, his new Cabinet may include both former Pennsylvania Governor William Scranton and New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

Nixon is reportedly considering Rockefeller as the next Secretary of Defense, though it is known Rockefeller's first choice is the State Department. For Secretary of State Nixon is apparently grooming Scranton, who has already made a feeling-out trip, to several European capitals, for the former Vice President.

John Mitchell, Nixon's campaign manager and well-known New York lawyer, is said to be in line for the post of Attorney General, which may well be a post of very high importance in the next few years. The G.O.P. nominee will probably reach into Midwest, South and West for other members of his Cabinet.

Of course, all Cabinet speculation at this time is subject to error, and/or change of heart. And if the Wallace vote should be as heavy as some feel, and prevents Nixon from winning more than half the electoral votes, this could conceivably affect certain selections.

One of the late-inning fears in some Nixon circles is the Wallace threat in the cities. At the beginning of the campaign it was hoped that the Wallace pull would be largely limited to Dixie. It was nevertheless thought Nixon could carry most of the South.

Wallace strength has become quite strong, however, in the Deep South and Nixon's hopes of something like a Dixie sweep

The Beverly Hillbillies

BY PAUL HARVEY

Suppose a real-life likeness of TV's Beverly Hillbillies should move to the big city without those millions of dollars in the bank. Some did.

Thousands of "poor whites" have moved to Chicago. Let's see what has happened to them.

Those hereinafter referred to as "hillbillies" are migrants, from impoverished homes in rural Arkansas, Tennessee, Missouri, Kentucky and the north.

They have settled mostly in the Uptown area of Chicago.

Each usually has something less than an eighth-grade education. They are "poor" by contemporary standards but rather fiercely determined to "do for themselves."

This latter characteristic is frustrating, exasperating, to the 26 public and private agencies in the Uptown area which are dedicated to their "improvement."

Welfare people are stumbling over one another, competing in their efforts to "uplift these unenlightened Southern migrants."

But the "unenlightened Southern migrant" does not like organizations, does not like to attend meetings or appoint somebody else to speak in his behalf. He does not like to do any of the things that underprivileged minority groups are supposed to like to do.

He works.

The typical "hillbilly" in Chicago does not like social workers coming around asking questions. He figures an able-bodied man or woman ought to have something better to do with his time than pry into other peoples' affairs.

A graduate sociologist from the University of Chicago moved in and lived among the Chicago hillbillies for two years, after which he arrived at the conclusion that "chronic, hard-core poverty is relatively rare among them; good jobs (averaging $2.50 an hour for men and $1.90 an hour for women) are available—thus these migrants are making and spending more money than they have ever enjoyed in their lives."

Well, this is blasphemy to the agencies which depend for the subsidy and survival on deprivation, pity, complaints and organized protests.

The hillbillies are not deprived, not complaining, not protesting. They are working.

Poverty can be very comfortable in Chicago, but most of these migrants have matured under another philosophy. They work.

The Chicago hillbilly regards work as a necessary evil, a means to an end. A job is a job, it buys bread, it pays rent.

Recently, it was announced that the area around Montrose and Racine must be cleared to make way for a new junior college.

Hillbillies in the area, 4,000 of whom would be displaced, accepted the decision that "we'll have to live somewhere else."

Others in the area insisted, "You don't understand; don't let the establishment shove you around!"

Militant protestors summoned a "Voice-of-the-Poor" rally.

Most hillbillies ignored the rally; they went on working. Reporter Clarius Backes of the Chicago Tribune questioned residents of the area extensively and concluded that "The welfare people are as frustrated trying to make these hillbillies over in their own likeness as were early Western Americans who tried to 'civilize' the Indians, whether the Indians wanted it or not."

That's when the wars started.

Do you ever stop and wonder what ever happened to your old High School Pals? You wonder who has done well or if your old boy or girl friend is married or not.

Many schools have a club for the Ex-students. The Exes form this club when Seniors. Every year at Homecoming they have a reunion.

Can you imagine seeing your old friends you haven't seen in five, ten, even fifteen years? Such a club could sponsor Exes' luncheons and the ex who has made fame for himself and Muleshoe to be the guest speaker. Teas could be scheduled at various meeting places in town. A Hall of Fame could be established to recognize past Exes. A dance could be scheduled after the game with refreshments, perhaps even a golf or Bridge tournament.

If anyone thinks he would be interested in a program like this, he should check the "yes" box. If not, put a check in the "no" box.

YES  NO

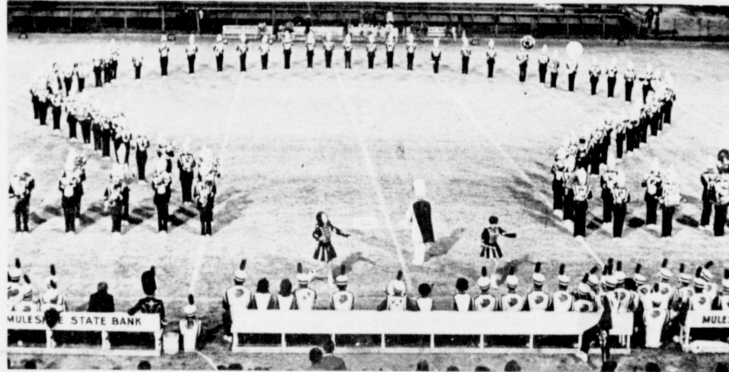

Give all ballots to Mr. Moore in room 15.

The Portales game was a very difficult game for us to lose because we had so many chances to win it.

During the first half we were in complete control of the ball game, while in the second half it was just the opposite. In the final analysis the thing that cost us the ball game was the inability of our defense to take the ball away from them during the second half. We only had the ball five offensive plays during the third quarter. I feel that we had a good team effort, but losing momentum is especially hard to overcome. After that first win the second one comes easier.

So many things have happened to us this year when we are within reach of a victory, that I feel our boys are kind of waiting for that unexpected to happen rather than making sure that it doesn't. Good breaks don't just happen, they are made.

MULESHOE'S MIGHTY 'M' BAND--The Muleshoe Mighty 'M' Band has been working very hard this year and as you can see, their work is paying off. The above formation is a Mule's shoe. This formation was made for the 1968-69 Homecoming Queen to be crowned in. The Mighty 'M' Band is doing a great job this year.

Miss America Comedy Hour Tickets Sold

The Businessmen's Activities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is presenting the "Miss America Parade" on November 4-5 at 7:30 p.m. Each state will be represented by one of the "lovely" businessmen in town.

The Senior class will sell tickets for this event. There are only about 100 reserved seats available at $1.50 each, general admission is $1.00. A group of Seniors will be out around the town selling tickets on October 28-29. Be making plans now to purchase your ticket from them or you may get in contact with Johnny St. Clair or Debbie Burrows for your tickets.

Former Basketballer Shows Skills

A wonderful program which both students and faculty will long remember was presented Thursday by Jack Chase. Mr. Chase held our students literally and actually spellbound, in his wheelchair displaying a stirring demonstration of skill and Perseverance.

Freshman Team Dropped 26-3 By Plainview

The Muleshoe Freshman team played the Plainview Red Pups at Plainview last Thursday and were defeated 26-8. Overall we played our poorest game of the season. The score at halftime was 8-0 with Plainview leading. We played much better the third quarter and the score at the end of the third quarter was 8-8. Muleshoe's scoring was set up on a 40 yard pass play from quarterback Mike Riley to left halfback Lee Clodfelter. Mike Riley scored from 2 yards out on a quarterback sneak. Lee Clodfelter ran the extra points. Fumbles led to three Plainview TD's in the last five minutes of play. Steve Black ran a kickoff back to the Plainview three yard line, but we were unable to score.

Student Council Slave Sale Brings $146

Friday, October 18, the M.H.S. auditorium was the scene of the Student Council Slave Sale. Auctioneer, Coach George Washington, kept the action going during the sale by boosting bids and "black-mailing" many students with precious notes and other valuable articles. In all, sixteen students, representing the four classes, crossed the auction block. The slave going for the largest amount was Debbie Reed, a Senior, who sold to Lee Gable for $28.50. The sale was considered a great success since the Student Council raised $146 to use towards the state convention in the spring of 1969.

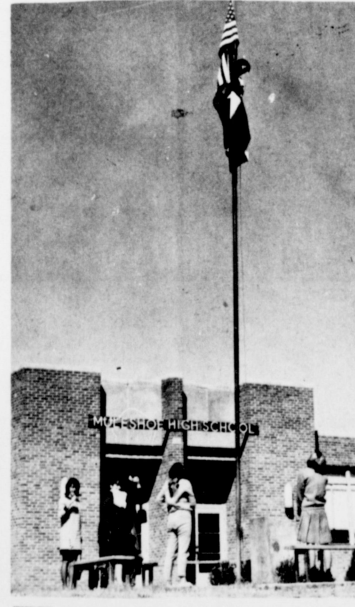

Starting center Don Heathington did not play because of sickness.

Miss W.oman Student--To whom was Minerva married?

Professor--My boy, when will you learn Minerva was the goddess of Wisdom? She wasn't married.

DUSTY PAGES--These students are all members of the Dusty Pages Club. This club is especially for those students who work in the library.

THREE SECONDS FLAT!--Bob Bomer, one of the many slaves, is given the task of climbing the flag pole. Bob was sold at an auction last Friday. All funds raised went to the Student Council.

DO I HEAR $10?-- This is what Coach George Washington shouts at the annual Student Council Slave Sale. Quietly, Marilyn Foot waits to see who is going to buy her. The money from the slave sale will go into the Student Council treasury.

Freshman Team Bounces Back With 32-6 Win

After being put back with a 28-6 loss to the Plainview Red Pups last week, the freshman Mules roared back, kicking and stomping Thursday night to take the Levelland freshmen 32-6. Lee Clodfelter drew first blood in the game as he returned the puskinn from the Muleshoe 15 yard line to the Levelland 40-yard line. Working their way downfield, Clodfelter scored on a three yard run. The PAT failed. A long pass from Mike Riley to Jerry Putman set up the next TD. The 50-yard pass put Randy Field in scoring position from the 12. Speedy Clodfelter ran the extra points and the score stood at 14-0. Levelland scored their solitary touchdown in the first half to leave the scoring at 14-6. Bobby Hays moved the ball from the Muleshoe 30 yard line to the Levelland 15 yard line to set it up for Clodfelter to barrel in from the 15 for the next TD. Riley passed to Putman in the end zone for an extra two points.

FIRST HALF STATISTICS

Muleshoe	Levelland
First Downs	5	7
Penalties	38 yds	0
Lost on downs	0	1

There were no punts in the first half.

Muleshoe kicked off in the second half but were not out of possession of the ball for very long.

They took over on downs on the Levelland 40 yard line and after working their way down to the eight, Clodfelter pitched out to Randy Field who barreled over from the eight for a TD.

On a reverse play, Mike Riley to Lee Clodfelter, two more points were scored.

Jerry Scoggin added two more points to the Muleshoe score with a safety.

Near the end of the game, Levelland was held inside the Muleshoe two yard line and lost the ball on downs. To wrap up the game, Don Long intercepted a Levelland pass but time ran out before the young Mules could score again.

SECOND HALF STATISTICS

Muleshoe	Levelland
First downs	3	2
Penalties	5 yds	17 yds

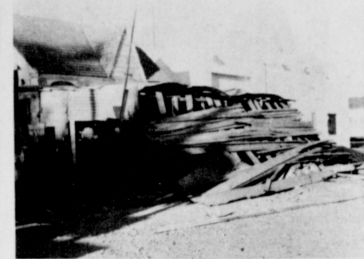

Lost on downs	0	2
Punts	2	2
Fumble	1	1

Coaches Raymond Schroeder and Bob Graves report that the Mules' defense showed much improvement over the October 17 Plainview game.

THE QUEENS PORTRAIT London-Queen Elizabeth II has agreed to sit for a new portrait by Pietro Annigoni, an Italian artist. The portrait will be given to the National Portrait Gallery which has no painting of the Queen other than a family portrait while she was Princess Elizabeth.

PULL OVER TO THE MILKY-WAY AND STOP!

WHOA, NOW! -- A runaway jeep demolished this building at 301 E. American Blvd. early Friday morning. A jeep being towed through Muleshoe by a man from Temple jostled loose from the car towing it and veered off the highway and through this building. It was the Boulevard Fruit Market.

Area Youth To Trick For Crop

CROP has helped to minister to the starving refugees of Biafra, earthquake victims of Iran, flood victims in India, and other similar emergencies from disasters. Its major thrust is providing "More Than Food" with its seed, tools, fertilizer, and food-for-work, to help attack the root causes of hunger and help people of other nations to provide for themselves.

Although working through the various churches of each community, CROP is inter-denominational and is the organization through which major Protestant and Eastern Orthodox communions carry on cooperative, world-wide programs of service to the hungry, homeless and disaster-stricken.

Bailey County CROP Chairman, Rev. J. Waid Griffin, reports the annual TRICK OR TREAT collection of funds by the youth of local churches is slated for Tuesday evening. The young people are sponsored by Muleshoe Ministerial Alliance, Rev. Walter Bartholf, president. They will be wearing a sign prepared by the CROP Committee attached to their clothing and will solicit from door to door contributions for Church World Service for the relief of hunger in approximately 39 countries.

Several of the teachers attended the local TSTA meeting Monday evening at the Three-way School.

Mike Warren, math teacher in the local school, spoke to the teachers and pupils in an assembly program Thursday morning at 9:20. He told of his ten month tour around the world in 1967.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Harlan and Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard were in Muleshoe Tuesday morning for the coffee at the Muleshoe State Bank honoring Dick Brown, Democratic candidate for congressman from the 18th Congressional District.

Mr. and Mrs. P.O. Smith of Lubbock visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. V.C. Weaver. Smith was superintendent and Mrs. Smith also taught in the Bula School 1931 to 1937, leaving Bula to go to Whiteface for the 1938 school term.

Mr. Weaver was on the school board at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ellison and daughter Trixy of Crosbyton spent Monday night in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Layton.

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Withrow and children attended a farewell shower for her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Murphey, who are moving to New Jersey, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noble of Littlefield.

Farmers in the community have been real busy recently trying to complete the grain harvest. Most of the cotton defoliated October 17 with a frost and freeze and farmers are just waiting for the drying of the burs a little more.

Cotton is very good and is really getting white. Harvesting will begin in about a week if there is no bad weather.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT NO. 12!

NO.  FOR 12  AGAINST

The Constitutional Amendment to Give the Legislature the Power to Authorize Cities and Counties Revenue Bonds for Industrial Development Purposes.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT (SJR14)

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 14 proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new Section 52a to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 52a to read as follows:

"Section 52a. The Legislature shall have the power to authorize counties, cities, and towns to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes, or in aid thereof; provided, that property acquired from proceeds of the bonds shall be subject to ad valorem taxes. Legislation passed in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment shall not be invalid solely because of its anticipatory nature. The tax revenue, the utility revenue, and the revenue from services of any county, city or town may not be used to pay any bonds issued pursuant to this authority nor the interest thereon."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

- (1) Any industrial bonds issued under this amendment must be serviced by revenue from the property involved and not from any other source.
- (2) The credit rating and resources of the city or county are not behind the issuance of such industrial bonds.
- (3) Manufacturing facilities are the only type of property which can be financed with the industrial revenue bonds.
- (4) Facilities purchased with the bond monies remain on the taxrolls for ad valorem tax purposes for the city, county and State.
- (5) Present limitation on tax free status of such bonds is $1 million, but the Internal Revenue Service is considering raising this to $5 million under legislation pending in Congress.
- (6) Strict rules and regulations and careful supervision by the Texas Industrial Commission will protect the bond buyers and the issuing city or county.
- (7) These bonds must be paid off by the revenue from the facility financed and cannot be paid by tax, water, sewer or other revenue sources of the city or county.

All of the adjacent states and, in fact, forty-four of the fifty U. S. States have some type of industrial development bond program. Texas is far behind in industrial development in this respect and should get ready for expansions by small town industrial growth - making this method of financing available to cities and counties. We heartily recommend Amendment No. 12 as it will assist small towns to reach their potential in industrial growth. Most small towns have unused labor which could very well be utilized in new industry. Vote for No. 12.

Clayton on Committee For Water Problems

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake, Texas was recently elected to the Executive Committee of the Interstate Conference on Water Problems, holding its annual meeting in New Orleans.

The Interstate Conference on Water Problems is composed of State water officials, river authority officers and legislators throughout the United States. It is affiliated with the Council of State Governments with offices in Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Chicago and San Francisco.

The Interstate Conference on Water Problems concerns itself with all aspects of water conservation, development, pollution control and other water-related problems throughout the Nation. Its officers and members closely follow congressional legislation and federal agency regulations on water subjects to assure that the rights of the States and local areas are fully protected from federal encroachment and domination. Officers of the Conference are often called upon to testify before Congressional Committees on water legislation.

Only one other elected State official, Henry Stucky of South Carolina, is on the Executive Committee with Clayton. State water officials who also serve on the Executive Committee are Reinhold W. Thieme, Vermont; Calvin T. Watts, Louisiana; Francis W. Montanari, New York; Herbert Lambert, Utah; Norman Billings, Michigan; Herbert A. Howlett, New Jersey; Robert R. Lee, Idaho; and Otis McMurry, Iowa.

A person must continue as a legislator or state official to remain on the Executive Committee of the Conference. Through Clayton's efforts at New Orleans, the Resolutions Committee recommended to the Conference that during the next year particular study would be given to the 160-acre limitation in the law governing projects of the Bureau of Reclamation. The conferees attending were impressed with Clayton's arguments on this subject, so it is anticipated that the Interstate Conference will soon take an official position urging modification of the existing federal law which was considered too stringent.

While at the Interstate Conference on Water Problems, Clayton finalized arrangements with the Bureau of Reclamation for a West Texas area tour by Calvin Watts, Assistant Director of the Department of Public Works, Louisiana, John Pegg, Chairman of the Mississippi River Commission from Vicksburg, Howard Boswell, Executive Director, Texas Water Development Board, Leon Hill, Amarillo Regional Director of the Bureau of Reclamation and Harry Bureleigh, Chief Engineer of the Austin office of the Bureau of Reclamation on November 7th and 8th. This tour is considered vital in proving the future water requirements of West Texas. Helping in the tour arrangements with Clayton will be Water, Inc. and the High Plains Underground Water District.

Q -- When does the time expire for seriously disabled veterans to apply for an allowance for an automobile?

A -- There is no longer any time limit; the previous limitation has been removed. Your nearest VA office can provide the proper form to apply for the VA payment (not to exceed $1,600) for veterans who have lost -- or permanently lost the use of -- one or both hands or feet, or suffered severe impairment of vision of both eyes. But one word of caution: Do not agree to the purchase of any automobile before you have received VA's written approval.

New Galvanizing Doubles the Life of Valley Self-Propelled

Every new Valley is almost totally galvanized inside and out. Valmont built one of the nation's largest hot dip galvanizing plants to make this new, long-life Valley Self-Propelled possible.

save labor Even long-time flood irrigators means to save half your water and Valley Self-Propelled is a true, push button operation. You irrigate up to 180 acres with no more work than the push of a button. There are no stops, no re-hook-ups, no pipe to move, no constant attention. It works while you sleep. Count up the dollars you'll pay for irrigators and other labor over the next ten years and then see a Valley dealer.	save water Sprinkler irrigation gives you the means to save half your water and Valley Self-Propelled gives you the way to do it with even less labor than furrow-ditch systems. Think of the savings you can make when 1,000 gallons per minute does the same job that 2,000 gallons did formerly.	make money Drastic water and labor savings and increased yields are only part of the story. No land leveling. You pocket those savings, too. On new land developments, you can achieve the same kind of yields as farmers are getting on land costing ten to twenty times as much. Be sure you investigate Valley Self-Propelled before you invest in hard work.	boom yields Rain at the right time is the secret to those extra big yields of any crop. Many soils need frequent, light water applications and a Valley makes that possible. For example a Valley can automatically supply one inch of water every three days to 150 acres. Supply fertilizer at the same time and the right time.

By Beulah Newton
"CHRIST OF THE OZARKS STATUE"

I would like to share with you the story of this statue of Christ. It is located on Magnetic Mountain, Eureka Springs, Arkansas. I am not sure of the date of construction. The altitude is 1500 feet.

The statue is seven stories high. Armspread from fingertip to fingertip is 65 feet. Weight is something over 1 million pounds, in addition to the foundation which is hidden underground, contains 320 tons of concrete, not counting the reinforcing steel.

Sculptor Elmer Sullivan, Associate sculptor, Adrian Forch, Coordinator Charles F. Robertson, Structural Engineer, McKinley Weems, Consulting Engineers, Holway Associates, Tulsa Oklahoma, Associated craftsmen, A.C. McBride, Billy Myers, Earl Colvin, Larry Evans, Jack Wilson and Rex Mertz, Pictorial Historians, Michael Mountjoy, Wayne Bashner, Bob Wheeler, Dwight Nichols and artist, Glenn Gant.

The statue was built by Elma M. Smith foundation, originated and instigated by her husband, Gerald L. Smith.

It is built to withstand 500 mile an hour wind. An automobile could be suspended from either wrist without affecting the structure.

Below the statue is a running spring near which is being built a shrine and drinking fountain for hikers, the spring is known as living waters spring, and the shrine is located beneath an overhanging rock which has been named "The Rock of Ages". Soft music was played from a huge stereo. The sound effects were beautiful.

The statue is completely isolated from commercial enforcement on a 167 acre tract of land, seven acres of which are within the city limits of Eureka Springs.

No charge of admission, nothing can be sold on the grounds or no collections or hints for contributions will be indulged in.

In the town proper there is an art gallery. The Elma M. Smith foundation which has built and paid for the statue complete without debt, has also established what is known as the "Christ Only Art Gallery."

This includes a wide variety of portrayals of Jesus Christ only. The objects number nearly 200, including wood carving, ivory carvings, inlaid marquetry, sculptured marble, crochet portrayals of the Lord's Supper, Mosaics, needlepoint portraits and many others.

The Passion Play is presented through the summer months. Next year the first showing will be memorial day. The cast consists of 250 performers of local people. There are camels, donkeys and horses also performing.

The stage setting is built in the side of the mountain and is the Garden of Gethsemane, Herods Military Court, Simons house, Pilates Judgment Porch, The Tomb, The Temple, Golgotha, Upper Room, Court of the Sanhedrin, and the House of Ascension.

I saw all of this Saturday, October the 20th. The Passion Play was closed for the winter. They were building more on the stage setting, also more places for a museum later.

Mr. and Mrs. L.S. Griffin spent last weekend in Abernathy visiting their children, Mr. and Mrs. Lary Griffin, Sharla and Micheal.

Mrs. Leon Foster and Beulah Newton were in Clovis on business Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams are now at home. Rev. Williams is doing fine from the ear surgery, but still has to stay in bed most of the time.

There are several cases of flu in the community. Mrs. Oliver Tunnell is confined at home with flu at this time. Some of the school children have had it too.

Some are pulling cotton. The frost killed all the leaves and there are some fields that have been defoliated. The grain is almost all harvested and they are working on the soy beans.

The fall harvest is a wonderful time of the year.
