287 Seniors Awarded Diplomas In Commencement Exercises

Hale Named Highest Senior Honor Student

The Whiteface football stadium was almost filled to capacity Thursday night, but it wasn't for any athletic event. It was filled with parents, faculty and friends of 287 graduating seniors in the 1976 Hereford High School class. It was the largest contingent of seniors in the school's history according to school district officials. About 330 seniors composed the class, but some students are graduated other semesters.

The commencement exercises went as expected with no interference from weather as experienced last year. However, a slight surprise greeted those preparing the facilities for the event. A sprinkler system, set to automatically come on at 7:30 p.m. each night, turned on as usual although no one had yet been seated for the 8 p.m. ceremony.

THE WATER LANDED in the seats where the graduates were to sit, but luckily, school administrators led by Gene Barkowsky, assistant high school principal were able to shut off the system.

As usual, the real surprise of the evening was the presentation of the Highest Senior Honor Student Award to Pete Hale, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger

N. Hale of 228 Fir. It is awarded each year to the student faculty members feel is the best all around student in all phases of school activities, not just in academics.

The trophy for the award was presented by principal Jerry Don George. The award is considered the highest possible honor an HHS student can achieve.

During the graduation, the senior class gift, money to be used to start a fund to build a student patio in the HHS courtyard, was presented by Delphine Ulibarri, Secretary of the senior class. It was received by George.

THE VALEDICTORY was delivered by Jean Barber. She praised the parents and others present and voiced the hope that the seniors would be able to effectively apply in the future the things gained while in school.

The salutatory was given by Rhonda Thompson. She thanked all those present for attending and credited parents, teachers, fellow students and administration for making possible the education she and the other seniors received.

George presented Miss Barber and Miss Thompson with trophies signifying their academic accomplishments.

Dr. Roy Hartman, superintendent, presented the senior class. He recognized the achievement being observed at commencement and praised the large crowd which was in attendance.

Diplomas were actually awarded by Jim Conkright, president of the Hereford School Board of Trustees.

The invocation was given by Billy Word, senior class president, and the benediction was delivered by Bill Martin, senior class vice president.

Besides the valedictorian and a salutatorian, the seniors recognized for attaining grade point averages of 5.0 or higher were: Frances Renee Payne, Cheryl Laine Arney, Rose Marie Warren, Billy Robert Word, Robert Britt Hicks, Jo Lynn Williams, Lora Ann Zetche, Amy Donita Cox, Wesly Baker Strain, Betty Kay Banks, Lisa Ann Lyles, David Christopher Charest, Alice Ann Kuper, Terry Lynn Hetzel, Michael Gregory Foster, Sandse Kaye Krueger, Tamara Lynette Lawson, Gene Ann Shipley, Debra Kay Feagley and Maria Dolores Abalos.

HALE, WHO HAS LIVED in Hereford for about four years, has served as secretary and president of the Key Club, vice president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Junior Class President. He has been on the HHS Student Council for three years.

His athletic endeavors include three years as a varsity baseball team member and a year as a member of the varsity football team. He received the DAR Good Citizen award in 1976, was chosen a member of the National Honor Society and was junior class favorite. He ranked 41st in the graduating class.

Also, he was elected Who's Who in American High Schools and received the Most Versatile award this year.

His future plans include a desire to attend Texas A&M University and possibly continue his sports career. His parents are moving to Tennessee this year so his father can accept a television production position.

"I really enjoyed going to high school in Hereford," he said. "I feel it is the best school around as it provided me a good education."

George praised him as one of the most outstanding students he has had the opportunity to associate with in Hereford.

Annual Pioneer Day Held

Mrs. O.G. Hill Named Pioneer of the Year

The Mid-Plains Pioneer Association honored one of its own Saturday morning at the Bull Barn as Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr. was designated the "Pioneer of the Year" for 1976.

She was presented the award from Buddy Peeler, manager of KPAN radio here.

THE ORGANIZATION, composed of local residents who have lived here for over 25 years, celebrated its annual Pioneer Day Saturday, a highlighted by the morning meeting and meal.

Registration was conducted by the Pioneer Study Club with the call to order being handled by Ray Cowser, president. Mrs. R.L. Wilson, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes and delivered a treasurer's report.

The festivities commenced with Jim

Grand Jurors To Convene Next Tuesday

The Deaf Smith County Grand Jury will meet in lengthy session Tuesday to consider over 40 cases presented by Criminal District Attorney Andy Shuval and his Assistant Schalan Atkinson.

It was postponed from the middle of May, so a large volume of cases has mounted, Shuval said.

The 12 members of the jury panel will probably meet all day long if not more than one more day. Reports of the indictments and no bills will be carried in an issue of next week's Hereford Brand.

Govt. Offices Close Monday

For the most part, the city of Hereford will take the day off Monday observing Memorial Day to honor the nation's war dead. A few retail stores will remain open but except for the Sheriff's and Police departments, all of the city and county offices will be closed.

The post office will also take the day off.

21 Cast Absentee Ballots

Interest Gains For June 5 Runoff Election for County Commissioner

Absentee voting for the Saturday, June 5 runoff election received a fair amount of attention this week as 21 persons appeared at the Deaf Smith County Clerk's office to cast votes.

As of late Friday, the number of ballots cast reached the above figure. The voting began Wednesday and continues through Tuesday, June 1. Those wishing to cast absentee ballots must do so by 5 p.m. on the last day in the county clerk's office on the second floor of the courthouse.

THE MOST INTEREST in the runoff is the race between Leroy Bodkin and Alfred Smith for the Precinct One County Commissioners' Court seat. It was vacated by Earl Holt, who decided not to seek re-election after 12 years on the court.

Bodkin and Smith received the largest number of votes in a five man race in the May 1 Democratic primary election. Bodkin garnered 219 votes and Smith received the highest with 221 votes.

In the primary election, Bruce Coleman was returned to his County Commissioners' Court precinct three seat. He was opposed by Roy Bodkin, who received 319 votes as opposed to Coleman's 370 votes.

Others running in the precinct one race included Gerald Parker, Wallace Shelton Jr. and Donald Henslee.

Only those persons living in county precinct one may cast votes for the commissioners, but two other state wide races are on the ballot according to a spokesman in the county clerk's office.

THEY INCLUDE the race between Jon Newton of Boevilk and Jerry Sadler of Palestine for a seat on the Texas Railroad Commission. They received the highest number of votes in a nine man race.

Locally, Newton polled 311 votes and Sadler received 414 votes. It was the highest and second highest amount of votes respectively cast in the race. It was the case state wide.

The election for a railroad commissioner has gained a lot of attention due to the rapidly rising utility rates, especially gas prices. The commission has authority over the oil and gas interests in Texas.

Since utility companies have imposed authorized pass throughs of increased costs, a number of citizens have turned their attention to the government agency, which in the past has received little publicity.

The other statewide election is between W.T. Phillips and Carl Dally for a seat on the state Court of Criminal Appeals. Phillips received 755 votes in Hereford in the primary election and Dally received 470 votes locally. The other candidate was Jim Vollers, who lost out in the primary.

IN THE ELECTION, all 11 voting box locations will be open to the registered voters in the county. A list of the boxes will be carried in the next issue of The Brand.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. June 1. All voters are asked to bring their registration cards for absentee ballots and regular election day voting.

The commissioner elected for precinct one will take office on Jan. 1, 1977 since no Republican candidates ran to oppose them in the November general elections.

Bozemon delivering the invocation and Benny Wamble leading the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Art Manjot gave the welcome address. The response was given by Caldwell Hicks.

Club officers were elected for the coming year and included Jimmie Allred, President; Mrs. Alton Frazier, Vice President; and Mrs. P.B. South, Secretary-Treasurer.

The person traveling the longest distance for the meeting was Mrs. Anna Vaughn from Tacoma, Wash. Wife of the oldest man and woman present were W.M. Stewart, 92, and Mrs. Andy Thomas, 98.

THE PIONEER OF THE YEAR award recognizes the person in the community who best represents long term service to the area. Mrs. Hill was selected as that person this year.

She came to Deaf Smith County as a school teacher at Summerfield. She married O.G. Hill Sr. on Jan. 28, 1922. Her maiden name was Bessie Foster.

Presently living at 801 Main St., Mrs. Hill has been continually active in local and state levels of garden clubs. She served as state treasurer of Texas Garden Clubs Inc. in 1971. She also served as governor of District 1 in West Texas.

Locally Mrs. Hill has served in numerous capacities of the Hereford Garden Club. Her interests continue today as she maintains active interest in the garden center here.

She received a special achievement award from the state garden organization for civic contributions over a 12 year period preceding 1971.

ALSO IN 1971, Mrs. Hill received the highest local award in gardening for a display of trees and shrubs. It won her a

On the editorial page last week, we published a letter written by a umpire of Little League baseball. It had a message for parents who lose their perspective of the game. Our own Kids, Inc. baseball program must be on of the best anywhere, but parents and adults still get too emotionally involved here, too.

We ran across a poem by an unknown author and it underscores the philosophy of the recreational program:

Open House Scheduled Thursday For Senior Citizens Center

An open house showing off the newly constructed Senior Citizens Center of Hereford will be held from 7-9 p.m. Thursday, June 3, for interested residents and members of the Senior Citizens organization.

The center is composed of two rooms at the old Central School, which were converted into a meeting and recreational facility for all senior citizens in Hereford. It was built through $10,000 of Revenue Sharing money allocated by the Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court.

The center features coordinated carpeting, paneling, and painting throughout. Donations from several community businesses, individuals, or organizations made it possible for the facility to include furniture, and borrowed oil paintings worth $2,500.

Part of two bathrooms were remodeled and a kitchenette were part of the remodeling paid for with the revenue sharing funds. The senior citizens had been meeting in the Community Center and a separate center for the whole community was desired.

Mrs. Lucille Guinn, president of the senior citizens and center director, emphasized that the facility is for all older persons in Hereford and not just those who belong to the chartered senior citizens group.

During the open house, refreshments will be served and music will be furnished by "The Fuzz," a group composed mostly of local law enforcement and court officials. It is free.

For those attending, gifts will be presented to winners in a drawing from names of persons registering at the open house. The gifts have been donated from numerous local merchants.

All organizations, individuals or businesses donating to the senior citizens center will be printed in Old English lettering on a parchment, which will be framed and hung at the center. It will be on view at the open house.

A receiving line will greet guests. Included in it will be Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morgan, county judge; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Shuval, district attorney; Mr. and

Mrs. Bill Albright, executive vice president of the Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hicks, president of the C of C; Father William Lang, pastor of the Episcopal Church here; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gooch, a member of the Center's advisory board; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson, members of the senior citizens group.

Mrs. Guinn said that the center would be open from about 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. It will be open on weekends for special events.

A thoughtless voice cries, "Strike out the bum." Tears fill his eyes; the game's no longer fun.

Remember, he's just a little boy who stands all alone. So open your heart and give him a break.

HITTING SOMEONE else's ball in golfing competition is a drastic breach of etiquette. Aside from the embarrassment, the golfing miscue also costs the guilty player two strokes. For the edification of the non-golfer, it's something akin to going to sleep in church and have the preacher call your name from the pulpit.

This explanation leads to a report, as you may have guessed, that a Hereford golfer did commit such a boo-boo! It happened in the recent Friona golf tourney, but we wouldn't want to embarrass the man by mentioning his name. However, if Marvin Coffey tries to sell you some insurance, ask him if the policy covers wrong-ball hitters!

IN OUR LAST column, we advised graduates that "the elevator to success is out of order, you have to take the stairways one step at a time." Mrs. J.J. (Jennie) Buckner called us this week to report the advice brought back memories of her 1914 Hereford High graduation class.

"Our class motto was about the same thing: 'The elevator to success isn't working, take the stairs', and I thought it quite a coincidence that you had it in your column," said Mrs. Buckner. She reports there were 13 in the class and she and Mary Bourn are the only two who still live here. The school colors were black and gold at that time, prior to the adoption of the Whiteface mascot.

Shuval Disappointed By County's Rejection Of DA's Investigator

[EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was submitted by Criminal District Attorney Andy Shuval in response to the Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court decision Monday concerning a request for an investigative officer to help coordinate and research cases handled by the DA. The commissioners voted not to consider the request for the 1976-77 fiscal budget year of the county.]

Of course, I am deeply disappointed that the Commissioners' Court did not approve an investigator to assist the law enforcement agencies of this county in effectively prosecuting and convicting criminals. However, I know the commissioners acted in good faith and did what they thought best.

I want to thank the many people who supported us without engaging in personalities. I know they did it for law enforcement.

Those who have studied the facts know that we have increased our case load greatly over the last six years. An investigator was recommended for this office back in 1972 by an Independent Statewide Study.

Moreover, investigative assistance in some form has been endorsed by the district judge, the county judge, and the sheriff of Deaf Smith County. These are the people who know what the criminal case load is. These are the people who together with the District Attorney's office are on the front line of law enforcement in our county. I am particularly pleased and honored that those who know the facts favor more investigative assistance to aid law enforcement.

I also want to thank the people of Deaf Smith County who have been such good and able jurors. They have meted out penitentiary sentences rather than probation in seven out of the last eight trials.

I would like to urge the Commissioners' Court to consider expanding the number of Sheriff's deputies. As the Sheriff has pointed out, this is much needed as the Department can no longer provide the D.A.'s office with the investigative support we need due to the increased caseload and new federal regulations.

Finally, let me assure all the people of Deaf Smith County that we will continue to have quality prosecution in the future as we had in the past.

Two Hereford Men Arrested In Raid

Two Hereford men were among 20 individuals from a four county area who were charged with drug offenses in connection with a drug raid conducted by the Metro Intelligence Unit Tuesday.

Virgil Lucero Jr., 21, remained in Deaf Smith County Jail at presstime under $30,000 bond. He was charged with delivery of a controlled substance--heroin.

Pantaleon Nava, 40, was freed on $30,000 bond after being charged with delivery of a controlled substance--heroin.

Fifteen of those arrested Tuesday posted bonds Wednesday and were released from custody in Potter, Randall and Hutchinson counties.

Arrest warrants were issued on 29 persons prior to the raid.

The raid culminated an 11 month investigation, with most of the cases being made with the use of search warrants over a period of time.

Lt. Jimmy Davis, head of the Metro Unit, estimated that those charged did over a million dollars worth of narcotics business during the period the investigation covered.

He added that one of those arrested in the Tuesday raid was known to have handled $2000 to $3000 worth of heroin on a daily basis.

West Central Students Bury Capsule Friday

Members of Mrs. Richard Robinson's sixth grade reading class at West Central Elementary culminated a term project Friday morning with the burial of a Bicentennial time capsule, which is to be opened during the nation's Tri-Centennial.

Materials included in the time capsule dealt with communication, transportation, education, tools and machinery, food, clothing and shelter, family and social life and religion and arts.

Funds for the project came from sales of the "West Central Avalanche", a newspaper published by the sixth grade group. A clock for the school library was also purchased with newspaper proceeds.

Kevin Coupe, Lisa Snyder, Saleh Igal and Deborah Rogers developed the communications category.

Among items included were the shell of a pushbutton phone, donated by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., a transistor radio donated by Kevin Coupe, a Texas Almanac and Guinness Book of World Records presented by the sixth graders at Northwest and brochures from the U.S. Postal Service.

Also included were copies of various local newspapers and national magazines. A copy of the 10 codes was also included to reflect the current CB craze, and a calendar and dictionary were also included.

Todd Hedrick, Ken Cosper, Scott Simmons and Joe Barber were in charge of depicting the most commonly used methods of transportation.

Brochures on cars, motorcycles, airplanes and boats were included, in addition to clippings concerning the Mars landing vehicle, the Viking, which is to gather soil samples from Mars.

Road maps were also included as well as a Texas Automotive Guide and Flight Magazine. Education in Hereford was represented by a booklet with each administrators picture, signature, and statements on education.

Jeff Coupe and Pittenger collected educational material.

The agricultural economy was represented by brochures on tools and machinery. Compiling the category were Scott Morrison, Allen Gorrell, Kelly Cassels and Alfredo Arras.

Beth Anderson, Carrie Block,

Becky De La Cruz and Reecie Willson compiled information on food, clothing and shelter, with clothing, photographs and house plans included in this category.

Sixth grade students were surveyed by Susan Goss, Gina Griffin, Cheryl Farris and Kit Freeman concerning family and social life.

The final category, religion and art was compiled by Susie Gilliland, Annette La Fuente, Juanita Kelly and Carla Weemes.

The churches and pastors of Hereford were listed along with a paper comparing the major beliefs of the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant religions. Paintings were also included.

Class Reunion Held For 1926 Graduates

The 1926 class of Hereford High School held its first reunion, a golden anniversary Friday Night at Dickies'. Some of the class members had not seen one another since their time in school together.

Bernard Roberson, Chairman of the event acted as master of ceremonies. Opal Roberson decorated the quartet tables

A.J. (Major) Schroeter led the invocation.

Urlin Streu, who had played a saxophone solo for graduation, favored the company with Narcissus and Saxopeal. He was accompanied by Margaret Thompson Schroeter, secretary for the event.

Zella Mae Walser Crump read a squib from an old school newspaper, the Pow Wow, concerning Urlin's playing. Everybody enjoyed a good laugh, as the remark was not flattering.

Class members were given an opportunity to tell what they were doing or what had happened to them in the past 50 years, and something of their children and grandchildren.

Seven of the 35 member class are deceased.

Members and guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ray, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Peterson (Martha Duncan) Sun City, Ariz; Mr. and Mrs. Streu, Powderhorn, Colo; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Witherpoon, Albuquerque, N.M.; Mrs. L.L. McBrayer (Mildred Ricketts); Dalhart; Mrs. John H. Biggs (Pauline Jackson) and Mrs. L.V. Bassham (Ethel Mae Morris), Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Heard, Amarillo.

Local members included Mr. and Mrs. Perry McMinn, Summerfield; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tiefel, Mr. and Mrs. Onias Carroll (Gladys Vance), Mrs. V.O. Hennen (Frances Oberthier), Lucile Hughes;

Title I Program Registration Set

Registration for the Summer School Program at Tierra Blanca Elementary School will be Thursday and Friday, June 3 and 4.

The program was formerly for migrants exclusively but has been expanded to include all children who need extra help in their school work. It is funded by Title I federal funds and is being offered at no cost to the parents.

Classes will begin Monday, at 8 a.m. June 7, and will close at 2:30 p.m. each day Monday through Friday.

Last day of classes will be

July 16. Children four-years-old through the 6th grade are eligible.

Breakfast and lunch will be served each day and school busses will provide transportation within the Hereford city limits.

The general theme of the program will be the bi-cultural aspects of our bicentennial. It will stress the oral communications between students as well as reading, math, written, expression, art and music. Planned P.E. activities and swimming will be provided daily.

Time Capsule Planted

Sixth grade students of Mrs. Richard Robinson at West Central Elementary gathered articles which were placed in a time capsule and buried next to the school building Friday morning. Members of the class designated the date for reopening the capsule as 2076.

REICHENAU INFANT

Graveside services were held for Donna Denise Reichenau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reichenau of Wildorado, Friday afternoon at Palo Duro Cemetery in that city.

Burial was directed by Smith and Co. Funeral Home. The infant died Thursday at Deaf Smith General Hospital.

Survivors include the parents; three brothers, Nathan and Jerome of the home and Eddie of Birmingham, Wash.; four sisters, Allie and Patricia of the home, Mrs. Ettie Hemley, and Mrs. Sandra Robinson of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Also, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Reichenau of Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carbell of Dove Creek, Colo.

Hicks' Services In W. Virginia

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Ronceverte, W. Va. for Mrs. Bessie L. Hicks, mother of the late Dr. C.E. Hicks of Hereford.

According to a news report from The Charleston Gazette, Mrs. Hicks was found beaten to death at her home. Her body was found last Sunday by a cousin and a neighbor. State Police said they haven't found a motive in the case.

Services were held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in Ronceverte Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Ronald Buckalew officiating. Burial was in Ketrion Cemetery near Ronceverte. Mrs. Hicks, 74, was a member of the Ronceverte Presbyterian Church, Mutual Improvement Club, Home Demonstration Club, Historical Society, and was a retired laboratory technician for the Greenbrier County Health Department.

Survivors include a son, Dr. Donald Hicks of Billings, Mont.; a brother, Elton Whanger of Fayetteville; a half sister, three half brothers, 8 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Service Planned

A Memorial Day Service led by the Rev. Bernard McGorry, pastor of St. Anthony's Parish will be held at 10 a.m., Monday, May 31 at St. Anthony's Cemetery.

The service will include a recognition of all graves of American Veterans which are marked by American flags posted on each grave site by the local American Legion post. Everyone is invited to the service.

If anyone knows of a veterans grave overlooked by the American Legion, they may call M.J. Koelzer at 364-4124 and it will be taken care of.

Eating Breakfast Helps Employees Work Better

Eating breakfast may be no guarantee of a popularity prize, but it can certainly help. Take the case of the nation's work force, for instance. Employees who eat breakfast are less irritable and get along better with co-workers, according to the American Association of Industrial Nurses (AAIN), the national organization of more than 9,000 Registered Nurses hired by business, government and industry to help keep employees safe, healthy and on the job.

"It stands to reason that if eating breakfast can do so much for employees, it can do just as much for everyone else," Dorothy M. Sallet, AAIN executive director, advises.

"We'd like to challenge everyone to eat breakfast every day for just one week and see what a difference it makes. The results are worth the try."

COLLEGE COSTS

The cost of room, board and tuition now at private colleges is soaring as high as $6,000 a year ($4,000 at state-supported schools).

This is bad news for youngsters who want to go to college but whose parents simply don't have that kind of money.

The good news is that there's a way to beat the high cost of a college education, and that's in the work-study programs that are being offered in about one-third of the colleges in the country. There are about 200,000 students enrolled in these programs.

The work-study idea is a program that permits the student to spend part of the time in the classroom, part of the time working in a job arranged by the college. The job pays about $200 a week, and the students get solid training in a real-life situation.

When superstition goes religion remains.

Quilt Presented

Members of Mrs. Mike Paschel's second grade class at Bluebonnet Elementary presented this Bicentennial quilt to the school Wednesday. Each member of the class made one patch for the quilt, designing it himself. Work on the quilt continued over a semester period. Accepting the quilt on behalf of the school were Rodney Laubhan, principal, and Louis Montano assistant principal.

Pool Operator's School Held

Twelve persons from Hereford and Friona attended a swimming Pool Operator's School on Monday, May 24, held at the Hereford Community Center.

The school was sponsored by the Environmental Engineering Division of the Region 1 office of the Texas Department of Health Resources in Canyon. The purpose of the school was to instruct swimming pool operators in the principles of proper pool operations.

Those persons receiving certificates of attendance from Friona were Arley Outland, Archie Hollis, Jerry Shelton, and B.E. Duggins. In attendance from Hereford were Mrs. Merl Bridges, Lynn Bridges, Martha Emerson, Kim Martin, Dorrell Jones, Mal Manchee, Bill Gentzel, and Sonya Hacker.

St. Anthony's Has Awards Assembly

Top students at St. Anthony's elementary school were honored at an awards assembly held Wednesday morning.

Rhonda Reinart was awarded a trophy purchased by the St.

Anthony's Student Council after she was named honor student of the year.

Among those honored for maintaining their standing on the honor roll throughout the year were Douglas Detten, Matthew Albracht, Patricia Hund, Rhonda Reinart and Denise Gomez.

Some 65 students received a merit award for ranking above grade level in every subject. 36 students received an award for ranking more than two years above grade level in reading, 34 for ranking more than two years above normal grade level in arithmetic and 38 students for ranking two years above grade level in spelling.

Denise Gomez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Severo Gomez was awarded two plaques by Clarence Betzen as the first place county winner and third place Region 1 winner in the Tierra Blanca Soil and Water Conservation District Essay Contest. Second and third place ribbons were awarded to Michael Foster and Eric Walterscheid.

Sister Wendelina, principal, presented awards to teachers in recognition of their work during the year.

Students honored as top achievers according to SRA achievement tests given in April were Robert Foster, Rhonda Reinart, Sabrina Gamez, Anna Beth Friemel, Angela Hund, Michael Foster, Stanly Paetzold and Eric Walterscheid.

also, Patricia Hund, Matthew Albracht, Lee Brockman, Hunt

Chuck High Named Most Valuable

Charles "Chuck" High, a sophomore on the Tarleton State University track team for the 1976 season, recently was named the Most Valuable

Team Member. The award was presented at the spring All-Sports Barbecue. He is from Hereford. (Brand Photo)

There's no word in the Japanese language for "kiss."

High Paces Squad

Chuck High, former Whiteface track star, paced Tarleton State University's track squad at the NAIA National Meet in Arkadelphia, Ark. last week as they took three national places. High, a sophomore, placed fourth in the 120 yard high hurdles with a time of 14.37. Texan track coach Joe Gillespie emphasized that the time was electronic and in hand timing High tied his 14 flat record set earlier this year. "High lacked only .7 of a second getting third place and being All-American," Gillespie said.

Mike Barnes, a junior from Millsap, placed sixth in the nation in the high jump with a 6-8. Barnes was competing against 44 other men in the event.

Mike Perry, the only senior on the squad and in his first throw since injuring his hand, came in ninth nationally in the javelin with a 211. Perry is from Petersburg.

Tarleton's mile relay team qualified for the finals with a 3:16.5 and thus became one of the top eight teams at the meet. The season's bad luck on the mile relay resisted, however, and the team did not compete in the final run after being bumped by another team.

The mile relay team was made up of Eddie Shaw and Charles Grooms both of Fort Worth, Guy Yarborough of Mart, and High.

Coach Gillespie was elated at his team's showing in the national meet. "It was Tarleton's best showing ever there," he said. "If our mile relay team had been at full strength, we would have won the national title in that event."

Men's Softball Season Opens

The Hereford Amateur Athletic Association's Men's softball league held its organizational meeting Wednesday night with nine teams paying the registration fee necessary for participating in this summer's program. The season will open June 1 and the league will temporarily be playing its games at the field near St. Anthony's School.

Teams are limited to 15 players on the roster. Some of the squads still have openings available and anyone interested may call one of the following league board members, Rudy Gonzales, 364-5849, Jim Hansen, 364-2996, Bob Wagner, 364-5959 or David Alvarado, 364-5996.

They may also call the coaches of the teams involved which are: Monsanto, James Sell, 364-1274; Toters, Bob Wagner, 364-5959; Pioneer, Hack Harmon, 364-4440; Arrowhead, Rodney O'Rand, 364-3240; Armour, Ray Martinez, 364-2578; Caviness, Lupe Ramirez, 364-4890; St. Anthony's, Dale Smith, 364-3510; North Plains, Rick Castaneda, 364-1038 and Gonzales Bros, Albert Cantu, 364-6785.

The league schedule through June 30 will be as follows June 1 Arrowhead vs. Caviness 2 Toters vs. St. Anthony's 3 Pioneer vs. Monsanto 4 North Plains vs. Gonzales Bros.

7 Arrowhead vs. Toters 8 Caviness vs. St. Anthony's 9 North Plains vs. Armour 10 Pioneer vs. Gonzales Bros. 11 Armour vs. Monsanto 14 Caviness vs. Pioneer 15 Toters vs. North Plains 16 Arrowhead vs. St. Anthony's

Our future with Gifford-Hill's aluminum pipe has made history.

Farmers tend to be pretty tough customers. They want to get everything they can out of every nickel they spend. And that's good.

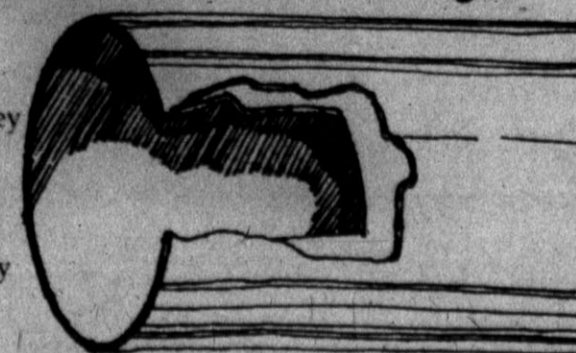

Because the tougher they get the more likely they are to use Gifford-Hill's aluminum pipe.

First of all, it's clad. But that's not all. It's also roll formed. The walls are an even thickness so you don't have to worry about thin spots and cracking.

And the ends are reinforced so you don't have to worry about it getting out of round.

Whether you need a pivotal system, an underground PVC system, or an aluminum surface system, you just can't outdo us.

All you have to do is take a look at our past. That should give you a very good idea about what to expect in the future.

Second String

BY GARRY PEEBLES

The Brand received a very nice letter this week from one of Hereford's state qualifying tennis players, Steve Hoover thanking us for our coverage of the Whiteface net squad's activities this Spring.

Two Hereford students attending West Texas State University recently received honors from their fraternity, Phi Delta Theta. Cary Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschell Black was voted as the most outstanding softball player of the year in intramural competition and Craig Nieman, son of Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Nieman was awarded the award in track.

Received a press guide from the Amarillo Gold Sox this week and in addition to some good baseball this week they have a number of promotions planned.

If you haven't checked the Amarillo paper, Shreveport is in town today through Tuesday. Today's game is at 2 p.m. (hope you're reading this before then) and it is Big Mac Sunday, which means that if the Gold Sox win, everyone in attendance will be entitled to a free Big Mac at any area McDonalds.

Memorial services are planned at the stadium on Monday night, May 31 and Tuesday night is elementary school night. All youngsters with the special elementary school ID cards will be admitted to the ball park for $.50 and will receive a free Pepsi.

Lafayette is in town for a four game stand from Wed., June 2 to Sunday, June 6.

Wed. night is bike night. Drawings will be held during the game for 5 new bicycles. Tickets for the drawings are available at stores throughout Amarillo.

Thurs. night is Pancho's Honor Roll night. Pancho's Mexican Buffet is offering tickets to every student in the Panhandle make the Gold Sox Honor Roll (B average or better).

Saturday night is ladies night. All ladies accompanied by a man with a paid admission are admitted free.

Sunday is Big Mac Sunday again.

In case you don't know where Memorial Stadium is, the address is 330 E. 3rd Ave. I'm sure you can find it.

You may not have heard of Southland, it's a little town about six miles southeast of Slaton, in the northwest corner of Garza county. Anyway they're looking for a head football coach and since it's down in my part of the world I thought I would put in a plug. They play six man football. The number to call is 806/996-5339 and the coach must be able to teach social studies and P.E.

Kids Inc. Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Kids Inc. Board of Directors, Wed., June 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Building. The public is invited to the meeting.

Letter From A Hereford (England) Football Fan

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was received by Hereford City Manager, Dudley Bayne this week. If the unknown person for whom it is intended should read this, the return address given is Market Tavern, Hereford, England. The letter itself is self-explanatory as well as interesting.

Dear Sir,

At the Annual Hereford Bull Show and Sale, one of the buyers, who came from near Hereford, Texas showed great interest in our local football team being my guest at two matches. I promised to keep in touch with him and let him know how the team did but, unfortunately, he went, not leaving a forwarding address. I am hoping that you may be able to pass the information on to him and, at the same time, in writing to you, thought you may be interested in the enclosed literature showing how extremely well the team has done.

I am myself a vice-president of the football club and should anybody be interested in Hereford, please do not hesitate to visit me if they should ever come to our fair city.

Yours Sincerely,
K. J. Benjamin

Museum An Asset

Sometimes we tend to take for granted things in the community which are unique and outstanding. A case in point is the Deaf Smith County Museum. We're not an authority on museums, but comments from those who know reveal that Hereford has one of the finest museums for its size (or larger) than any town in the country. Our museum has won plaudits from museum people all over the state.

This week the museum observes its 10th anniversary, and citizens of Deaf Smith County can point with pride to the progress and service provided by members of the Deaf Smith County Historical Society.

The museum has registered 9,500 visitors representing 44 states and 14 foreign countries. If your name is not on the visitor list, it should be. And, after a visit, you may want to become a dues-paying member of the Historical Society!

Food Stamp Reform?

Some welcome reform of the food stamp program is scheduled to take effect Tuesday. You may have noticed, however, that the welfare lobby is seeking to get a restraining order against the new regulations.

Whether the new rules will straighten out the program, reduce the costly wastes and still meet the original goal remains to be seen. It is refreshing to see President Ford and the administration support the tougher eligibility rules, and during an election year, too.

The program has mushroomed into a monster in a few short years. When it started in 1964, the program helped feed 442,000 people at a cost of $36 million. About 18.8 million persons now get food stamps at a cost of $5.7 billion. Complaints were widespread over the inefficiency and fraud in the program. The new rules are supposed to eliminate about 5 million people and cut $1.2 billion from the program.

There was an attempt to seek out fraudulent cases in Deaf Smith County, only after County Commissioner Bruce Coleman insisted. Two women appeared at a commissioners' meeting, complaining that many local families were mad because people living alongside them were able to work but not hitting a lick and getting all sorts of welfare benefits.

Even as tougher eligibility rules are announced, The Brand carried an article last week announcing that more help is being offered persons to procure food stamps. An additional state worker was assigned to the local Community Action office to seek out people qualified for stamps in Deaf Smith, Oldham and Castro counties. The funding was for 12 part-time food stamp outreach workers in 26 counties of the Panhandle.

We're all for QUALIFIED people getting food stamps, but bureaucratic bungling has made a shambles of the eligibility rules under the present program. We hope the new rules help get the food stamps to the right people and eliminate the undeserving.

Talk of Texas

By Jack Maquire

RAILROAD TO NOWHERE—Houston's Ben Millam Hotel, across the street from Union Station, is headquarters for one of the world's most unusual railroads.

It is the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity and Sabine Railway. It maintains a board of directors room in the hotel, plus an office for the line's only executive.

The problem is that the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity and Sabine doesn't go to Waco and never did. Nor to Beaumont. And it never reached the Trinity River, either. In fact, it hasn't operated at all since it was placed in receivership in the mid-1950's.

This wasn't always so. The railroad was chartered in 1923 when two older short lines were merged. Headquartered in Trinity, it boasted 167 miles of track, owned seven locomotives and operated several trains each day. Its eastern terminal was Colmesneil, Tyler County.

When the railroad fell on hard times and finally stopped all operations, it was decided to keep the name alive anyway. That's why Ed Sandhop of Huntsville, the receiver, still maintains a "headquarters" in Houston. Like many another rail buff, he hopes the W.B.T. & S. will run trains again someday.

AT LAST—A few months back, voters in Newton County finally decided it should be against the law to let livestock run loose.

The county was one of the few left in Texas which had no restrictions against cattle grazing along, or on, roads and highways.

IT'S THE LAW—One of the most unique elected officials in Texas is the precinct constable.

It's an office that dates back to ancient England when a constable was an officer of high military rank. When the king was absent for any reason, the constable often was left in charge of the troops.

In Texas, the constable's office is empowered by the constitution. Like the sheriff, he is elected by the people. He answers to the county commissioners. They set his budget but can't fire him.

The constable's territory is an assigned precinct within a county. Within these confines, he can make arrests, serve warrants and legal papers and perform other law enforcement functions. He also acts as bailiff in justice of the peace courts.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS—Many large farm and ranch houses in early Texas had a "traveler's room" reserved for the wayfarer.

The room was built so that it had no access to the rest of the house. Any guest was welcome to use it with no questions asked. A visitor and his horse could expect a good meal and a bed.

The only requirement was that they clear out before sunrise.

WATER WORKS—In Adrian, Oldham County, nearby ranchers buy their water from a community-owned vending machine.

When 25 cents is inserted in the town's public water hydrant, the purchaser receives from 250 to 1,000 gallons. The amount delivered depends on the availability of the scarce stuff at the time of the purchase.

Summer College Orientations Offered High School Grads

To ease beginning freshmen qualms about the first days in college, West Texas State University is offering five summer orientation sessions on June 11 and 18 and July 2, 16 and 26.

The one-day sessions, open to all students who have been tentatively admitted to WTSU, will answer questions about degree and course selection, careers, student services, registration and financial aid. A student's parents are encouraged to attend.

"We already have a third more students registering for orientation than we did last year," says Dr. Kenneth Waugh, director of the Testing, Academic and Career Counseling Center. "We have had to turn down quite a few people for the final two sessions in past years, so we hope that people who are interested this year will get their registrations in soon." The freshmen will be able to pre-register for their fall classes, which will give them a greater course selection. They will be billed by mail later in the summer.

Students will also have the option of coming to WTSU the day before orientation to take advanced credit examinations which will allow them to earn college credit without attending classes. Dormitory space will be available, and activities have been planned by the student life staff for that evening.

Orientation will open with a general session at 8:30 a.m. in the WTSU Student Activities Center, which will be followed by four special sessions, lunch and the afternoon registration period. Session one will cover registration procedures and academic requirements. Session two will acquaint the freshmen with student services available on campus, identify academic problems they may encounter and offer suggestions as to how the student can deal with them. Sessions three and four will look at student life and activities, and college costs and financial aid.

The Lonely Heart

Bobby Templeton Speaking of Donkeys And Elephants

What's the winning ingredient for presidential candidates this year?

It's different depending on which political party a person is identified with in the election. For the Democrats, it seems to be a tactic of selling the man and not the issues.

Republicans, however, seem to concentrate on the issues. Ronald Reagan who now leads Gerald Ford in the Delegate count, promotes most of the subjects of debate and it is usually up to the President to respond.

Ford has been trying every possible way to promote his candidacy, but each has failed as of late. First it was a forum of optimism with his "Win" buttons, and then he concentrated on putting his successes as President, if indeed there are any, in the forefront of his campaign.

These didn't go over well, so his advisors reverted to a theme of showing Ford only his capacity as the chief executive pinning in their hopes of the significance of the office he holds. But the voters didn't fall for this as the president's respectability has dwindled due to his predecessor.

Finally, Ford decided no combat Reagan head on by attacking his statements.

Democrats, are a different breed altogether. The success of Jimmy Carter, as viewed by several Texas editors, is based on the fact that he gains the confidence of the people through his personality (whether it be his smile or religious beliefs). He hopes to use this support from the people to gain acceptance for his eventual stands on the issues.

It's not a unique tactic although it takes someone with charisma and not all candidates possess this so they have to bet all their marbles on the issues.

Jerry Brown of California has a combination of the above. He has a serious, conservative way of approaching people that has gained some late acceptance. At the same time, he is a fresh face in the crowd and his individualism in handling his home state's problems has won approval. I think he is a bit late to win the nomination, which has been hindered by support from Hubert Humphrey. However, he would make a good candidate although he lacks experience.

The Humphrey support hurts because the nation as a whole is swinging to the conservative side. George McGovern did much damage to the Liberal cause.

Carter still has the best chance for the nomination in my view although I hope it comes later than the first ballot so he won't have unqualified support of the party and a blank check in writing the party platform.

Mo Udall keeps plugging away but he is fairly well washed up. Frank Church, the senator whose only claim to glory is whipping the CIA and FBI in committee hearings, is full of bull. He's just trying to ride the crest of his wave of publicity.

I'm excited that the Republican convention will be worth watching this year. Ford doesn't have the nomination sewed up like most incumbents but neither does Reagan. It'll be a good floor fight and a dark horse just might emerge from the unknown.

While some say that the Republican convention is the one to watch, I feel the Democratic one will be more important. Both will have plenty of action for the viewers, but I feel the country is tired of Republicans in the White House.

The elephant may be bigger, but the donkey is going to a lot of kicking this year.

Texas voters should recognize the difference in candidates running for the Texas Railroad Commission in the June 5 runoff election.

Jon Newton of Beeville and Jerry Sadler of Palestine are pitted against each other. However, Sadler, former state land commissioner, is only in the runoff spot because of past name identification. He first won a state legislative seat in the 1930's by voters confusing him with a popular circus promoter of the same name but by no means a relative.

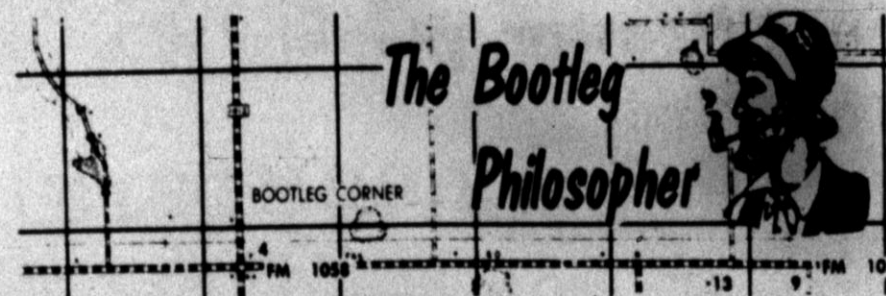

He naturally did nothing to stop this idea and therefore won the election. His public life has been filled with controversy. As land commissioner, he kept records secret from the legislature and public and was associated with choking a lawmaker in 1960 when some Spanish treasure was being inspected. It was in full view of reporters and other legislators.

Newton, although probably not as well qualified as Lane Denton, who came in third in the 9-man primary election, is committed to representing the consumer's point of view on the Railroad Commission. He has ample background concerning energy related problems and knows how to solve them. He has been a state legislator since 1970.

Sadler, over 70-years-old, reportedly worked three hours in his office as land commissioner, spending the rest of the time at his home of Palestine. Now, he wants to come out of retirement for the $42,500 a year job. That's a nice pension in the words of another Texas editor.

It's time voters made themselves aware of candidates and vote for the right person. Too often, the vote is decided by a slight recollection of a name, which they probably never heard before in the first place.

If you want your high utility bills lowered and a representative voice on the powerful Railroad Commission, then Newton is your man.

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Deaf Smith grass farm on Bootleg Corner comes to the defense of Washington this week, more or less.

Dear Editor:

The way the television analysts have it, the harder a candidate runs against Washington these days the more popular he is with the voters, but we don't want to over-do it and I hope Washington understands this is mostly just campaign talk.

For example, I doubt if there's a mayor or a county judge in the country who gets mad when Washington sends down another revenue-sharing check, unless it's smaller than the last one. Or show me a person over 65 who gets mad when Medicare pays his hospital bill. Where's the state highway department that gets mad because Washington is financing a large part of its roads? Where's the aircraft or railroad company mad because Washington is bailing it out? One way to make New York mad is to fail to renew its two billion dollar loan.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day began—as a national observance—during the Civil War, first in Mississippi (Columbus and Vicksburg), Virginia (Winchester) and other states, and by 1865 was observed nationally. That year the Adjutant General of the U.S. Army suggested graves be decorated throughout the country.

Although America is not engaged in an active war this Memorial Day, it is nevertheless true that defense will be necessary to preserve liberty.

Christianity, idealistic and moral principles and philosophers notwithstanding—unless a free nation contains men willing to fight and die, if necessary, for country and freedom, liberty cannot long survive.

These are the thoughts which should engage us on Memorial Day. And to all who responded to their duty when their country called, and who gave their lives, the nation is indebted. It is too much to

And if Washington really wants to invoke the voters' rage, just stop Social Security.

Don't misunderstand me, I'm with the rest of the voters, I get mad at Washington myself, especially when I figure the other fellow is getting more from there than I am.

Outside of all the above and a few others I've failed to mention, I join the rest of the voters in saying Washington has got to buckle down, throw out the red tape, and out all this wild spending. Why have 2,000 different bureaus all spending the tax payer's money when 100 could spend just as much?

Changing the subject, as I understand it, the government has charged that some big meat backers have been selling the army a cheap tough grade of beef, calling it a high grade with a high price, and cleaning up.

This sure relieves my mind. For a while there I thought maybe the army had got hold of one of my Jersey steers.

Yours faithfully,

fuel to the consumer, which of course - is a very fine idea. But when it was proven that investiture would not in any way reduce costs but rather increase them - they changed their tune. They said that we need to divest the major companies - just "because they're too big".

WELL, OF COURSE such "reasoning" is not acceptable to anyone who is capable of thinking and who is interested in the economy of our country - our economy is tied directly to energy - availability of energy and it's cost!

Either a vertical of a horizontal divestiture would spell disaster to business, agriculture, industry and John Q Consumer. (John Q is you and me and everyone).

THE FACTS AND FIGURES regarding petroleum do not support such an action and quite frankly the supporters of divestiture are basing their case on misconceptions and fallacies.

In the meantime we can do several meaningful things - First, reduce energy consumption in every possible way! Second, ask Senators Bentsen and Tower to oppose all proposed legislation which will reduce energy production and tend to increase the cost. Specifically ask them to oppose the Bayh - Hart Bill.

Both actions deserve your immediate attention, so don't delay - give it the old HUSTLE* HUSTLE* HUSTLE* HUSTLE!

Telephone Service Here Could Be Threatened, Patrick Says

Higher telephone rates and poorer service could be the result of "disturbing departures from established communications policies," Mike Patrick, Hereford manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone, told members of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday.

FERTILIZERS

Nitrogen is the component most essential to plant growth; it produces the most rapid and most noticeable effect. It motivates growth above-ground and enhances foliage color, in addition to regulating the plants' usage of phosphorus, potassium and other nutrients. Plants lacking in nitrogen are often stunted in growth, have undeveloped root systems, and lose their leaves. Dramatic changes occur when nitrogen is added to the soil of a plant which shows these ailing symptoms. Too much nitrogen, on the other hand, can produce undesirable effects on plant growth. Flowering and fruiting can be inhibited due to the excess of vegetative or foliage growth. Tomato plants are particularly susceptible to this. Excess nitrogen in the soil can also make plants less resistant to disease.

In another highlight of the club meeting, students from Hereford High and Stanton Junior High were recognized as the "student of the six weeks." High school students honored were Rhonda Thompson and Mike Hull, while the Stanton students were Malissa Morgan and Ruben Vargas. President Weldon Dickson presented pens to the students.

Patrick had made a similar talk before the Rotary Club here earlier in the week, as reported in Thursday's Brand. At issue are decisions made the FCC regarding two markets - intercity private line business service, and the communication equipment market.

"The competing suppliers of these private line services have been able to skim the cream by limiting their operations to the high-volume, low-cost calling routes," said Patrick. "As common carriers, we are required to serve all markets, despite the volume of business or profit."

"We do this by averaging rates. Since they are not required to serve the less lucrative routes, these unregulated competitors have undercut our prices," the telephone manager added.

The average monthly rate for basic home telephone service is about $8 nationally, according to Patrick, compared to $5.75 in Hereford. Investment in facilities behind this service is almost $14. "We make up the difference in premium and business services, and principally by interstate and long distance calls."

In an address before the Federal Communications Bar Association, FCC Commissioner Benjamin Hooks said: "I hope we have not unwittingly killed some of the benefits of a system which allows nationwide rate averaging and moderate rates to the consumers."

Discussing the introduction of competition into what had heretofore been strictly telephone company services, he added: "All I know is that the change is so monumental in terms of what we have grown accustomed to that we must examine carefully the full impact of our policies and seek the view of the American public and their leaders in this restructuring."

Referring to this statement, Patrick commented: "We couldn't agree more. Our concern is that the public and its elected representatives have not had a full opportunity to evaluate actions being taken, in their name, which may not be in their best interest."

Patrick pointed out the telephone industry is supporting legislation which reaffirms principles that have made it possible to provide our country with the finest telecommunications service in the world.

National Teacher Exam Given July 17 At WT

The National Teacher Examination will be given at West Texas State University on July 17.

Registrations for the examinations must reach the Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the tests, by June 24.

The examinations are designed to measure knowledge gained from professional and general education and in 22 subject-matter fields.

Scores from the examinations are used by many states for certification of teachers, by many school systems for selection, tenure status and identification of leadership qualities and by many colleges as part of their graduation requirements. About 100,000 candidates took the examinations last year.

Bulletins of information describing registration procedures and containing registration forms may be obtained from Dr. Kenneth Waugh, director of the WTSU Testing, Academic and Career Counseling Center.

Hereford Students To Attend Workshop

Audie Freeman and Chris Cabbiness, Hereford High School vocational agriculture students, will attend the 16th annual farm electrification workshop sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company. More than 100 Future Farmers of America members and vocational agriculture teachers will take part in the workshop to be held June 7, 8 and 9 at West Texas State University.

The FFA members, who come from Texas and New Mexico, will be competing for five trips to the National FFA convention at Kansas City.

Thirteen hours of instruction are offered in each of three subjects, farm motors, farm wiring and electric controls. Two students from the wiring and motor courses and one from the electric controls course are selected as outstanding and receive the trips to Kansas City for their accomplishment.

BY JOYCE SHIPP
Deaf Smith County Extension Agent

Deaf Smith County Senior-age 4-H members will be participating in activities at State 4-H Round-Up, Monday through Thursday.

Carla West and Rhonda Hagar will be competing in the State 4-H Food Show. Carla will bake Maple Walnut Tarts, while Versatile Potato Salad is the dish Rhonda has chosen to prepare. Carla will be competing in the Snack-Beverage division and Rhonda in the Side Dish Division. A winner in these two divisions, plus the Main Dish and Bread-Cereal division will be selected and awarded a $500 scholarship.

A livestock judging team consisting of: Britt Hicks, Randy and Rudy Coleman and Steve Douglas will be trying for state honors this year.

Micki Merritt, Sam and Sandee Finley and Randy Fellers are competing on the Grass Judging Team. Julie Chapman and Margaret Brumley will be competing in the Horticulture Preparation and Use contest, while Kevin Douglas and Terry Barrier will participate in the Natural Resources category.

Christie Beene and LeAnne Hughes will try to win with their Community Improvement Demonstration. Adult Leaders and Agents accompanying the group include: Mrs. G.C. Merritt, Mrs. Dick Fellers, Mrs. Donald Douglas, Mrs. Richard Hagar, Mrs. Bill West, Steve Olson, Sherry Harder, and Joyce Shipp.

Best of luck to all the State 4-H Round-Up participants.

TRAVELING THIS SUMMER

It only takes one time of losing luggage during air travel for consumers to seek "a better way".

Although there is no way to eliminate the possibility of mislaid suitcases, there are ways to lessen the chances.

The best precaution is to arrive at the airport well ahead of departure time. Almost half of all luggage problems are related to late check-ins. Similarly, the closer connections for changing planes are, the more likely luggage problems will occur.

And be sure to remove old destination tags from bags to prevent a bag handler being confused.

To help reduce the risk of accidental switches--or someone else claiming your bag as their own--be certain that each piece is readily identifiable. Brightly-colored tape is a good bag marker. And even if the luggage has attached tags, be sure to use the adhesive identification labels provided by the airlines so your name and address will remain with the bag.

Also, how you pack effects how inconvenienced you will be if problems do occur. Don't check indispensable items through--carry them with you. Don't pack such things as billfolds, prescriptions or keys to a car parked at the airport.

Airlines are not required to reimburse for cash that is packed in luggage. The value of expensive items such as jewelry or cameras can exceed the airline's liability for loss or damage. Valuables such as these should be packed in bags you carry with you.

Consumers spend over a million dollars every hour on scheduled passenger flights on American airplanes.

But there is often quite a variation in the fare paid by one person and what another person, sitting next to him, pays.

Consumers spend over a million dollars every hour on scheduled passenger flights on American airplanes.

But there is often quite a variation in the fare paid by one person and what another person, sitting next to him, pays. Consumers can follow these procedures to be sure they know what they are paying for and what they're going to get for money spent.

--Whenever possible, avoid busy airport ticket counters.

--Start planning the trip early.

--Consult at least two airlines or two travel agents, especially if planning a flight involving two or more airlines.

The more questions you ask, the more you can learn of new options and opportunities for saving on fares.

--Try to keep a flexible itinerary.

--Ask whether fares can be reduced by a slight change in travel dates or time or in itinerary. Often, stopovers can be arranged for only a few dollars more, and sometimes extending the duration of the trip can mean considerable savings.

--Ask the travel agent or airline ticket agent for information on individual tours and package plans.

Since airlines can offer these programs in bulk, large savings are frequently possible. Be sure to read all literature on a tour package to understand what is included. Check prices item by item to be sure the savings are real.

If you have any complaints on fares charged or on other aspect of air travel, write to Office of the Consumer Advocate, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428. For assistance in travel plans, contact our local Hereford Travel Center, located in the Mall.

Lawton Chiles, Senator (D-Fla), on Army beef payments:

"It's inconceivable to me that the military is paying $3.85 per pound (for beef)."

ON PROFITS

Federal regulations that once protected an infant airline industry are now reducing profits of grown-up airlines and forcing up the cost of air travel, two Cabinet officers said.

Miss Teen Bicentennial Contest Set For Nation

A search is being made throughout America to find a teen girl to become Miss Teen Bicentennial of America for 1976.

All girls between the ages of 13 and 17, regardless of race, creed or color, who are American citizens and have never been married, have the opportunity to win this coveted and historic title. This distinguished honor will not only lead her to excitement and fortune, but will symbolize the contribution of the young teens to the growth and prestige of this nation. The girl who becomes Miss Teen Bicentennial of America will have her name written in the pages of history along with the past, present, and future greats of this renowned country.

A program of extensive travel, entertainment, and recreation awaits the winner, in addition to many fine prizes. Miss Teen Bicentennial of America will travel abroad, where she will represent her community, her state, and her country in the furtherance of good will, supporting the upholding of the standards of the Constitution of the United States, and the advancing of the brotherhood and understanding of all people.

Every girl in America, within the age bracket and marital status stated above, has the opportunity to become Miss Teen Bicentennial of America; a title that will lead her to popularity, fame, and fortune, besides having her name written in the pages of history!

 At Kings Manor

BY FAY GAUGGEL

John Wesley and Pauline Polk from Paducah, Texas were Sunday night guests in the home of his sister, Lucile Naylor.

Mrs. Cal Wright had as guests May 23, her son William Wright and wife of Dallas. They lunched with us.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fly had three guests from Amarillo Monday. They were the Misses Alma Pollard and Mary Kate Campbell and Mrs. Agnes Brandon.

The Rev. Otha R. Clary and Mrs. Clary are interim pastor and wife at our First Christian Church. They had lunch at the Manor May 23, as the guests of the Virgil Dodsons. Rev. Clary is to preach at our fifth Sunday P.M. union service at the First Christian Church May 30th.

Mrs. Bernice Adamson is our latest new resident. She lives in Cottage 208 which was recently vacated by Mrs. Martha Shirkey who has moved into room 211 at the Manor. We all welcome Mrs. Adamson and Manor people are glad to have Martha here again.

Mrs. Adamson has one son Mr. Thomas Adamson who teaches in Shamrock.

ALICE WARD CIRCLE MEETS
 The Alice Ward Circle met in the Lamar Memorial Garden Room May 19, at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Troyce Hanna opened the session. She brought up the business of a special fund for Miss Juanelva Rose's work in Tiawan. A motion was made and carried that we help sponsor the fund.

Mrs. Bickley was leader of the program which was on Ecumenicity. She used a chart of questions to start our thinking on the subject. Several ladies read various verses from the Bible—all admonishing us to realize that we are all one in Christ.

Nora Gillis offered prayer; then she led us in the hymn "In Him there is no east or west" etc., etc., accompanied by Mrs. Flora Lee Fields.

Fay Gauggel spoke from our church discipline places calling for the breaking down of all barriers between denominations. Continuing this procedure were talks by Zona Smith, Alma Cross and Elizabeth Hicks.

An open discussion took place on how we have promoted unity in our town. Some details such as these were named. United Church Women, Ministerial Alliance, and others. Next Mrs. Bickley called for examples of unity here in the Manor. Six denominations live in our complex.

Our auxiliary board is composed of various denominations. Our vesper services are led by pastors of various denominations.

On the whole we concluded that we are obeying our Lord's pleas for unity in many ways.

Some added money to pledges. Twenty women attended.

The program we felt was quite comprehensive and helpful.

WESTGATE NEWS
 By Bea Noland

Wednesday and Thursday, Mrs. Don Davidson, Rev. Dewitt Seago, Ann Perrin and I traveled to Amarillo to attend the study of the Interdisciplinary approach to Social Planning at the Amarillo College.

We were thankful for the opportunity to be able to go to the seminar but we did miss some of the activities such as Bible Study that was given by Mrs. Virginia Yandell and assisted by Mrs. Carletta Harkins and Mrs. Jackie Edwards. Thank you ladies for having the Bible Study.

Friday was a routine day with reading of the newspaper, exercise, tri-Chem painting and just a good day for visiting.

We missed Mrs. Miller at newspaper reading Monday, but she is most faithful to come each Monday and Wednesday to read to the residents so even the most faithful are due a day off once in a while, but we really do miss you Mrs. Miller when you do not come to read.

The Messenger Home Demonstration Club was represented by Mrs. Robert Molies and Mrs. S.N. Thweatt that brought by two sacks of useful things such as double knit house shoes, lap spreads, and many useful things such as kleenex. We appreciate this Club remembering the residents of Westgate.

Tuesday afternoon a large group of residents gathered in the lobby to sing religious songs led by Homer Garrison with Mrs. Eunice Boyer at the piano then the group was privileged to hear J.B. Noland, Cecil Boyer, Homer Garrison and Eunice render several quartet numbers.

We are proud of the presentation that Mrs. Joyce Lyons made at the T.N.H.A. Meeting and of Speedy Nieman editor of the Hereford Brand. We appreciate the cooperation and the coverage that the staff members make of the happenings of Our Home.

Mrs. Gladys Lair a resident of the home has given 20 rose bushes in memory of her sons George and Stanley Lair, that were planted on the east side of the Wilder Wing. Mrs. Lair Likes to sit out in the Court Yard which is a beautiful place and now with these roses she will have a beautiful garden to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Morgan left Hereford May 12. After brief visits with relatives and friends in East Texas, they toured the Texas Hill Country with Mrs. Morgan's sister and husband, Mr. & Mrs. J.L. Miller of Kilgore, Texas.

They reported that a tour of the LBJ State Park was very interesting. On their return trip to Hereford they were guests at the 50th anniversary celebration of the 1926 graduating class of Mt. Vernon High School.

This was Morgan's first graduating class after he became Superintendent of Mt. Vernon Public Schools.

Brock To Coordinate
 TSTA Faculty Reps

Gene Y. Brock, vocational adjustment counselor for the Hereford Independent School District, will serve during the coming year as a coordinator of faculty representatives in the local unit of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Brock is President Elect of District XVI of TSTA, which includes Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher, and Wheeler counties.

Brock, of 537 Westhaven, was in Arlington recently to attend a two-day training session for TSTA leaders who will coordinate the work of faculty representatives in public schools throughout Texas.

The meeting was co-sponsored by TSTA and the National Education Association.

TSTA President Larry Yawn of Austin urged participants in the training session to rally behind the 1976-77 theme chosen by President Elect Grace Grimes of Marshall—"TSTA... Education's Strength for the Future."

Mrs. Grimes called TSTA membership "an avenue of service" to the education profession and Texas school children.

ROCK TRACKS

C.W. McCall's "Convoy" hit pure gold on the charts, but some transportation biggies think the singer has a lot of brass. The disc, about a convoy of 1,000 rebel trucks ripping up the highway at 98 mph and outfoxing the National Guard, has been characterized as a slap in the face of highway law enforcement by, among others, the Iowa Department of Public Safety and the truckers' union itself. Fortunately for McCall, the flack doesn't stop him from laughing it up all the way to the bank... New York's famed disc jockey COUSIN BRUCIE, getting a lot of static from infuriated pre-teens because of his attacks on the B A Y CITY ROLLERS. ### Beavers Attends Tech Banking School

Charles A. Beavers, Agriculture Representative, of First National Bank, Hereford, Texas, is attending the Third Annual Intermediate School of Banking sponsored by the College of Business Administration at Texas Tech University, May 23-28, 1976.

The major objective of the school is to develop knowledgeable and professional banking employees and acquaint newer bank employees with the scope of operations and problems in the banking industry. It will also serve as a review for employees who have served in one particular area of banking operations for several years and who need to be updated on recent developments.

Representatives of 72 banks from Texas and New Mexico are participating in the week-long program.

besides the College of Business Administration, Texas Tech has five other colleges—Agricultural sciences, Arts and Sciences, Education, Engineering and Home Economics. These colleges and the two schools, the Graduate School and school of Law, have a total enrollment of more than 22,000 students.

WTSU To Host Workshops

Three music workshops designed for teachers of piano, church music and choir will be available at West Texas State University the first summer term.

Opening the list is the Piano Workshop, which will be offered from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. June 7-11. The guest clinician will be Mrs. Virginia Elliott of El Paso, who has taught piano for more than 20 years. Mrs. Elliott has had a varied musical experience, including dance band work, arranging, accompanying, solo and ensemble work. She has developed ways of working with students of all levels with the aim of stimulating creativity in improvisation and composition.

On June 14-18, Dr. Austin Lovelace of Dallas will conduct a Church Music Workshop from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Dr. Lovelace, who is presently minister of music at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church in Dallas, will examine the wide spectrum of sacred music through lectures, demonstration, score reading and dialogue.

A Choral Conductors Workshop under the direction of Dr. Eph Ehly, chairman of the Choral Studies at the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music, will be June 21-25 from 11:20 a.m. to 2:20 p.m. Dr. Ehly, who is recognized as one of the outstanding conductor-clinicians in the country, will demonstrate choral development through choral literature.

Registration for these and other WTSU classes may be completed May 31 to June 4 through the WTSU registrar's office. Persons registering for only a music workshop may register on the first class day. Contact the WTSU Department of Music for more information.

Safety Stressed Through Summer

Each year during the months of May through September people will make their way to numerous pools, lakes and beaches around the country to spend a pleasant day in the water.

Some will go home having enjoyed the day, but some will meet with an untimely, unacceptable accident, resulting in a death or an unbelievable near-death.

Drowning is the second leading cause of death in the United States for persons from ages 4-44, exceeded only by motor vehicle accidents.

More than 7,000 persons drown annually, 4,700 of whom did not even intend to get in the water. Two-thirds of those who drown do not know how to swim, while half are alone at the time of the accident.

Many drownings could be avoided if someone would apply some basic rescue techniques that are within the capability of most persons to perform.

Aquatic emergencies are frequent in this country, yet rarely is the average person aware of ways in which he may safely assist in such a situation. These aquatic emergency practices are something that can and should be learned by everyone, swimmer or non-swimmer.

For years the American National Red Cross has provided to the public two phases of water safety instruction. One course, Junior Life Saving, is designed to attract youngsters of the ages of 11 to 14 with limited swimming endurance.

The course gives these children knowledge of shallow water assistance, a limited amount of deep water rescue and a large amount of stress in personal water safety.

The course teaches the children artificial respiration and an all-around common sense in the safe uses of water.

A high class is provided for the more advanced swimmers 15 and older. The advanced Life Saving class is restricted to those who have achieved swimming strength and endurance.

The course covers everything from land rescues to shallow water rescues, deep water rescues, various degrees of dangerous drowning situations in which a rescuer must think of the fastest possible procedure in recovering a victim.

He must break or release himself from any hold a victim might place on him, recover his victim in a specialized carry, return him to safety, remove him from the water and render first aid.

The course also covers boating safety, neck and back injuries, artificial respiration and personal water safety.

These first two phases of water safety are very important but they are limited to those who are swimmers or advanced swimmers.

As a special service to the community, a Basic Water Safety program will be offered to the public from the age of 8 to 80 free of charge.

The program is designed to instruct people of the many ways a rescue can be made from shore with the uses of a branch, pole, towel, stick or anything that can be extended to the victim.

It provides knowledge of wading assists and swimming assists for a novice swimmer. It covers rescues and the proper use of a personal flotation device.

There will also be a chapter devoted entirely to back and neck injuries and boating safety will also be covered from boarding to debarking to procedures for a capsized boat.

The most important aspect of the Basic Water Safety course concerns artificial respiration and supplementary care of an injured victim.

In concluding the course, the ABC's of family water safety will be presented. The basic Water Safety Course and an Advanced Life Saving Course will start June 21 and will conclude July 9 at the Hereford City Pool.

The basic water safety program is for adults who have little or no swimming abilities.

This course will be four hours long and will be held from 6:30-7:30 p.m. June 21 and June 24.

The advanced Life saving course will be taught by John Gilliland from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the city pool. Those interested must be 15 years or older and be able to achieve the swimmers course skills.

Registration time for the two courses will be from 9-11 a.m. Friday at the pool. There will be a pool maintenance fee of $2.25 and a book fee of $2.25 for the advanced life saving class.

Registration for the first session to begin June 7 will be held from 4-11 p.m. at the pool.

For children to participate in the Beginner I class, they must have completed the first grade and pay a pool maintenance fee of $2.25 per student.

To complete the course they must float face down and on their back for 10 seconds, be able to hold their breath underwater for 10 seconds, be able to propel themselves one-half the width of the pool face down and on their back and learn personal water safety.

In the Beginner II class, the student, who must have completed the first grade, must learn skills offered in the Beginner I course, learn the arm stroke and leg kick of the crawl and be able to swim the crawl one-half the width of the pool, jump in shallow and deep water and obtain more knowledge of personal water safety.

Requirements for the completion of Beginner III are that a child must have completed the first grade, learn all skills offered in Beginner II classes, control the crawl and swim the crawl the width of the pool in deep water, deep water jumping and diving, use of the personal flotation device and added personal water safety.

In the Beginner III and Beginner IV classes achievements will include executing the elementary back in good form, total control of the crawl stroke in deep water for 15 yards, diving and underwater swimming, use of personal flotation service and added information on personal water safety.

Intermediate achievements for Beginner IV skills will include executing the side stroke, breast stroke, crawl stroke and elementary back stroke in good form, swim for five minutes, execute a dive from the diving board, endurance, use of personal flotation and more knowledge of personal water safety.

Swimmers' intermediate skills will include the execution of the back crawl, crawl stroke, side stroke, breast stroke, elementary back stroke in good form, dive from the board in good form, disrobing in deep water, more endurance and personal water safety tips.

All of the above courses will be held for adults from the age of 13 from 9-11 a.m. Friday. Also, these courses will be offered in two other sessions at the same time from June 25 - July 9 and July 16 - July 30.

Instructors for the first session are Mmes. Danny Martin, Dwayne Cassels, Richard Zinser, C.E. Rush, Jim Clarke and Marsha Jones.

Bride-Elect Honored With Linen Shower

A bridal linen shower honoring Miss Kay McMenamy, June 5 bride-elect of Alexander Lindley, Jr., was held recently in the home of Mrs. Merlin Kaul. She is a music teacher at West Central Elementary and her fiancé is a pre-med student at the University of Texas Medical School at Dallas.

Approximately 30 guests were served spiced tea and coffee, along with fresh fruit and pastries from a table decorated with a white linen cloth overlay edged with white lace.

It was centered with an arrangement of red roses carrying out the brides colors of red and white.

Mrs. Steve Louder served the refreshments and Robin McMenamy of Shallowater, sister of the honoree, presided at the guest register.

Receiving guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. James M-Menamy of Shallowater and her grandmothers, Mrs. L.E. McMenamy and Mrs. A.P. Hamilton of Shallowater and Fairbury, Ill., respectively. All wore red rosebud corsages.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Kaul, Walter Kaul, Garland Solomon, Otis Lee, Benny Womble, Jarry Landers, Steve Louder, Dorman Duggan, Daniel Redd, Frank Zinser, Lester Wagner, and Maurice Means.

Nixon-Harder Marriage Vows Exchanged Saturday

Beverly McMeen Nixon and Gerald Ernest Harder were married Saturday evening in Frio Baptist Church with the Rev. Lon Conner, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMeen of Dalhart and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harder of Route 1.

Church decorations included an arrangement of apricot and candlelight colored daisies and three candles were placed at the main altar. Candles tied with candlelight colored bows were centered in each church window and ribbons marked the front pew.

Mrs. Lester Kirkland served as matron of honor and J.D.

Harder, the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

Escorting guests to their seats were the bridegroom's brother, Norman Harder, the bride's brother, Pat McMeen of Dalhart, and the bridegroom's cousin, David Schmidt of Vega.

Glen Thomas vocalized wedding selections. "Wedding Song", "We've Only Just Begun", and "One Hand, One Heart". He was accompanied by Mrs. Owen Andrews playing the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Quiana candlelight knit gown designed with a yoke front, softly gathered bodice and skirt and long full sleeves.

A long tie belt criss-crossed at the back of the gown and tied in a bow at the top stitched waistline. The softly gathered back extended from the gown's shoulders and the long tulle sleeves gathered at button cuffs.

She carried a white rose and daisy nosegay accented with English ivy and trimmed with candlelight streamers. As a good luck piece, she wore an heirloom ring belonging to her late grandmother, Mrs. B.W. McMeen.

The bridal attendant wore an apricot double knit floor-length dress fashioned with a tied bib front, full gathered sleeves and a round neckline.

She carried a nosegay of apricot and candlelight colored daisies.

Mrs. Norman Harder, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, invited guests to register at the reception held in the church Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. John Webb and Miss Celia Franks of Vega served the ivory colored tiered wedding cake which was topped with apricot sugar wedding bells and Mrs. Pat McMeen of Dalhart, the bride's sister-in-law, poured punch.

Other members of the houseparty included Misses Tara and Deb Younger, both of Vega, and Misses Robin Baldwin and Shelly Frye.

Leaving for a wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, the bride wore an apricot knit dress. The couple will make their home at 147 Kingwood.

The bride teaches home economics at Vega High School and graduated from Texas Tech University.

The bridegroom, who is engaged in farming west of Hereford, graduated from West Texas State University.

Out-of-town guests included Dr. and Mrs. Fred Janzen and family of Weatherford, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Pete Deorksen of Reedley, Calif., Mrs. Neal Vickers of Norman, Okla., Mrs. Agatha Krieger and Edgar Krieger, both of Lawrence, Kan.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Harder and family of Inman, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Schmidt of Clinton, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. John Ediger of Mead, Kan., the bride's grandfather, B.W. McMeen, Mrs. Judy Willingham, Mr. and Mrs. Galan Cooksey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Struve and family, all of Dalhart.

Others, Mrs. Lorene Proctor of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Owen and son Paul, of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Red Garrison of Channing.

Couple Exchanges Vows In Evening Ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Mary Gayle Gripp and Michael Adolph Probst Saturday evening at First Christian Church with the Rev. Terry White, pastor of First Christian Church in Canyon, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gripp of Star Route and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Probst Jr. of Brady.

A single bouquet of white gladiolus and white daisies and a candleabra were arranged at the main altar of the church.

Mrs. Mike Wilson served as matron of honor and Jerry Probst of Brady, the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

Escorting guests to their seats and also serving as candlelighters were the bride's brothers, Monte Gripp of Kent, Wash. and Dean Gripp.

"Whither Thou Goest" by Guy Singer was vocalized by Bobby Boyd who was accompanied by Mrs. Bill Bradley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Jersey floor-length dress designed with a Victorian neckline trimmed in Alencon lace and fashioned with a sheer inset.

Her long tapered sleeves were accented with scalloped lace at the wrists and a wide band inset formed the fitted waistline.

The circular skirt, falling unadorned to the hemline, extended to a Chapel train.

She wore three scalloped tiers of bridal illusion attached to a matching lace Juliet caplet and carried white and yellow daisies accented with blue babybreath.

As a good luck piece, she wore a gold bracelet belonging to her grandmother and worn by her mother when she married.

The bridal attendant wore a baby blue dotted Swiss gown with a blue picture hat. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

The bridegroom's sisters, Misses Julie and Debbie Probst of Brady, invited guests to sign the registry book at the reception held in the parlor of the church.

Mrs. Larry Lomas served the four-tiered wedding cake decorated with bells and daisies and topped with wedding bells.

Miss Jeannette Polk of Mason, the bridegroom's cousin, poured punch from the refreshment table centered with an arrangement of daisies and carnations.

Leaving for a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a peach colored suit and white accessories and a bridal corsage.

The couple will make their home at Mason Route in Brady.

The bride will be a junior student this fall at Tarleton State university in Stephenville and graduated from Hereford High School in 1974.

The bridegroom, who will also be a junior at the University, graduated from Brady High School in 1974.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. A.G. Gripp, Mr. and Mrs. John Stokes, Amy and Shelby, Dr. and Mrs. Monte Gripp, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Abernathy and Michelle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rose and Deborah and Miss Jaci Turner.

Couple To Marry

Miss Kima Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Marsh, and James E. Light, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Light of El Paso, plan to marry August 7 in First United Methodist Church. The bride-elect received her bachelor of science degree in micro-biology from Texas Tech in 1974 and is currently teaching biology classes at Hereford High School. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. Her fiancé is assistant manager of Montana Mining Co., at Midland and is a member of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity.

NUTTY SOLUTION --- Did you know furniture scratches can be covered up easily and inexpensively with NUTS? Simply take a fresh, unsalted pecan or walnut, break in half and rub the blemished area with the broken nutmeat. Watch the color return!

SUPER STRETCHER --- Make your ground beef go farther and improve the texture by adding one of the following to each pound: 1/2 cup cornmeal, 3/4 cup rolled oats, or 1/2 cup dry bread crumbs. You might also try 1/2 cup cooked rice if you like a fluffier texture. I find it delicious.

TV REPORT --- REDD FOXF seemed outfoxed himself when he decided to go AWOL from "Sanford and Son" last year because of a contract hassle. Redd left his sidekick in the show, WHITMAN MAYO, who played Grady. During Redd's absence from the show, Grady's part was expanded and Redd became so peeved that he refused to talk to Mayo for months. But now Mayo is after greener pastures and rumor has it that a reconciliation might be in the works now. SALLY STRUTHERS is reported to have backed out of having some exotic design tattooed on some hidden part of her body when her former boyfriend, ART FISHER, executive director of the "Cher" show, suggested they get mutual tattoos, something like butterflies or flowers.

GETTING THE BUGS OUT

No matter how carefully you buy your plants, insects which thrive on potted greenery show up unexpectedly in most indoor gardens. Sometimes their larva are carried in the soil and, after hatching, they spread to the top growth of the plant and on to neighboring plants so it's hard to tell where they came from.

Couple Marry In Garden Ceremony At Dimmitt

The Rev. Marvin Roack, pastor of First United Methodist Church at Dimmitt, officiated at the garden wedding of Miss Janie Sheffy and Johnny Lee Vick Saturday afternoon. The marriage was conducted at the home of the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sid Sheffy of Dimmitt.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Sheffy of 104 Aspen and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Vick of Dimmitt.

Miss Shelley Lupton served as maid of honor and James Michael Stidham, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was best man.

Escorting guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Joe Sheffy of San Marcos, and Perry Gipson of Dimmitt.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stidham, Jamie, was flower girl.

For the processional march, "Something" was played by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Michael Stidham, and Skip Skinner of Lubbock sang "Your Song" by Elton John and Perry Gipson vocalized "Color My World." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white crepe gown fashioned with an A-line skirt, long sleeves and an empire waistline.

The Victorian collar and sleeves were edged in white lace and the oval bibbed bodice was trimmed in matching lace.

She wore a white horse hair hat designed with a wide brim which was draped with a floor-length white silk illusion sash. It fastened at the hat with a spray of orange blossoms.

She carried a nosegay of white roses and blue-tinted daisies.

Bridal attendants wore gowns designed similar to the bride's dress. The bodices and skirt were of China blue silk taffeta and the long sleeves and oval bibs were of blue and white voile and were edged in blue lace.

They carried nosegays of blue and white daisies and wore daisy headpieces.

Miss Kelly Potts of Dimmitt invited guests to sign the registry book at the reception held in the Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church.

The bride's sister, Miss Cyd Sheffy, served the three-tiered columnade wedding cake. White daisies draped around each tier and Grecian columns and a bouquet of sugar icing daisies topped the cake.

Miss Robbie Sheffy, the bride's sister, served punch and coffee from the refreshment table covered with a white lace cloth. It was centered with a silver candelabra holding three blue tapers and was topped by arrangements of blue and white daisies.

Leaving for a wedding trip to Valcita, Colo., the bride wore a blue pantsuit.

The couple will make their home at 211 Broadway in Dimmitt.

The bride is employed by D and D Aerial Spray at Dimmitt

and graduated from Hereford High School in 1974.

The bridegroom attended West Texas State University and graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1970. He is owner of Poor Boy Mobile Homes at Dimmitt.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Bill Bond of Dallas, Mrs. Leonard Morris of Booker and Mrs. Pearl Wade of Temple.

Engagement Announced

Miss Cynthia Lucretia Crider and Bobby Edward Vandiver will exchange wedding vows July 24 at Temple Baptist Church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Patsey Crider and Richard A. Crider, both of Hereford, and the prospective bridegroom is the son of Claudette Vandiver of Carson City, Nev. and S.L. Vandiver of Canyon. Miss Crider is a 1976 graduate of Hereford High School and is employed at Panciera Tire and Supply Co. Vandiver, a 1974 graduate of Carson City High School, is employed at Basic Rock Construction of California.

Seaman - Oh, that's my nightcap.

Reading Program To Begin June 7

Pre-school children and children in grades 1-6 are invited to participate in the Summer Reading Program at Deaf Smith County Library.

The program is scheduled from June 7-August 7. Anyone interested is asked to obtain a library card and register at the library.

Children's films will be shown every Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the library and badges, stickers, award ribbons and certificates will be presented at the conclusion of the program.

Also, a party is scheduled at the end of the summer.

County librarian, Gwen London, announced that the library also offers a reciprocal borrowing service. Anyone eligible to check out books in the local library is also allowed to get books from Amarillo, Borger, Dumas, Dimmitt, Friona, Canadian, McLean, Pampa, Panhandle, Perryton, Shamrock and Spearman.

For further information concerning the service contact the library.

July Wedding Planned

Miss Teresa Joan Waters and Michael Robert Grimsley plan to marry July 31 at Temple Baptist Church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waters and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Grimsley. Miss Waters, a 1974 graduate of Hereford High School, is majoring in medical technology at West Texas State University. The prospective bridegroom graduated from Muleshoe High School in 1973 and from South Plains College at Levelland in 1975. He is employed at Jake Diehl Dirt and Paving.

Couple Are Wed

Miss Mary Lynn McCormick and Charles Richard Barnard were married this weekend in the Chapel of Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jordon Robert McCormick of Dallas and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Richard Barnard of Hereford.

The bride received her bachelor of science degree in primary education from Texas Tech University and the bridegroom also graduated from Tech with a bachelor of science degree in computer science.

The couple will make their home at Dallas where Barnard is employed with a data processing firm.

Designs Improve Housing

Human beings need more from a house than shelter to keep them happy, said a speaker at an International Housing Symposium in Atlanta, Ga.

"It has been assumed that the housing needs of people with low incomes are for shelter only," said Dr. Alice Stubbs, a researcher for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. "Low-income people have the same basic needs as middle-income and wealthy people, and their houses should be designed with the same considerations as houses for those in upper income brackets."

Houses should be designed with the total needs of a person in mind, Stubbs said. There should be separate places for playing, working, sleeping, eating and for privacy.

"Too often," she said, "things that make a house special, such as doors, partitions and windows, are left out in low-income housing to cut costs. Sometimes, storage, laundry and work areas are left out entirely."

The researcher contended that it is possible to include special features and essential need-fulfilling ingredients in a house and still come up with low cost housing.

"Meeting the housing needs of people helps these people become contributing members of society in schools, churches, businesses, community services and recreational activities."

The researcher added that most families prefer separate single residences but that duplex and multiple type apartments will become more important in the future.

"Duplexes and multiple housing units should be designed to give the effect of single-family residences," she said.

Public Invited To Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Deaf Smith County Historical Society will be held at 2 p.m. today in the basement of Deaf Smith County Historical Museum.

All interested persons and members of the organization are invited to attend. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Dwight McGee will play piano selections and Mrs. Sam Long will provide organ music.

The museum has grown in stature as a community service this past year. Open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., and on Sunday, from 2-5 p.m., it has welcomed 9,500 visitors representing 44 states, Washington D.C. and 14 foreign countries.

As the United States celebrates its Bicentennial, the museum also celebrates its tenth birthday. Plans are underway to complete a special exhibit in the back hall to honor the Texas Longhorn.

Museum directors and society members extend a special invitation to the public to come to see this newest exhibit that will further commemorate the history of the Staked Plains.

Other noted exhibits have included the Prince Albert suit belonging to the Rev. Thurston and the Indian princess Star Maiden and the exhibit honoring Mexican Independence.

In the future, the museum will feature exhibits commemorating the Fourth of July, Betsy Ross, Cowgirl Hall of Fame, Spanish Fiesta and other seasonal activities.

A new program, which has gained popularity in the past few years at the museum, includes giving special memorial contributions to the museum honoring loved ones in the community.

Society members have sent cards to the family acknowledging these gifts and try to use this money for special projects.

A docents program has also been organized. It offers the best opportunity to serve this community.

Another volunteer service at the museum is also needed.

Each Sunday from 2-5 p.m., the museum requests that couples serve as hosts and hostesses for person viewing exhibits.

Mrs. Jack Gilliland, museum director, has asked all interested persons to contact her for further information.

Historical society membership dues remain $2.50 per person. The non-profit charter number currently stands at 1,172,928.

WHO WAS THAT LADY?

A young colonial militia officer paid a visit to a Delaware Indian queen offering her a matchcoat and a bottle of rum as a gesture of friendship. 22 years before the battle of Lexington. Their diplomatic talks proved helpful to the colonists' relations with the Indians and established this tribe as allies against the French. Who was the young officer? George Washington. And who was the Indian woman? Queen Alaquippa of the Delawares.

After a romance that gave every indication of blossoming at the altar, CARY GRANT and magazine writer MAUREEN DONALDSON have called the whole thing off. I mean, they're not even speaking. As a sad ending to three years of togetherness, Maureen moved back into her old apartment and Cary's living alone again. I must say I'm secretly pleased. I would have hated to see Cary marry a girl 43 years younger than he. It is nearly a sure thing that BETTY FURNESS will replace BARBARA WALTERS on the very popular Today Show. It is definite that POLLY BERGEN will

Blue Bird Day Camp Scheduled To Begin

"Which Way America" is the theme of the Blue Bird Day Camp which is scheduled to begin Monday and will conclude Friday. The camp site will be located at Veterans Park.

Pony express riders will transport the American flag and a letter from the Hereford Bicentennial committee Monday designating the opening of the camp as a national Bicentennial project.

Buddy Peeler, president of the Hereford Camp Fire board of directors, and Mrs. Clint Formby, representing the Bicentennial committee, will present the flag and give to the pony express rider a letter to be delivered to the camp site.

First, second and third grade Blue Bird members will participate in activities which will include making butter, dressing raffia dolls and cooking outdoors.

Games, songs and refreshments will be included during the fun program which is designed to challenge the youth of today to make tomorrow better.

Also, Blue Birds will attend Indian Lore sessions each morning in preparation of the closing ceremonial at 1 p.m.

Friday. Everyone is invited to attend the closing ceremonial.

There will be adult supervision provided by Camp Fire Leaders and Horizon Club aides and the older girls in the Camp Fire program will assist in the program.

Directors of the camp are Mrs. Jimmy Dawson and Mrs. State Norvell.

Blue Bird members should meet at the Camp Fire Girl Lodge, located at 903 14th, at 9 a.m. each morning to ride buses to the camp site and parents are requested to pick their children up at 11:30 a.m. at the lodge.

Friday, the girls will remain at the camp site for a weiner roast followed by the ceremonial. Parents may pick up girls at the end of the ceremonial or at 2 p.m. at the lodge.

Members of Ma-Nu-Ka-Kani Adventure group, under the direction of Mrs. Albert Cherry, will provide babysitting services at the leaders who may need their services.

Discovery Club, new 7th and 8th graders, may attend outdoor training sessions each morning during Blue Bird Day Camp which will be directed by Mrs. Lois Turpen.

CALORIE COUNTDOWN

BY SUSAN DUFF MASTRO

ARTIFICIAL SWEETENERS

It seems almost impossible to believe that it's exactly one year since the National Academy of Sciences gave saccharin a clean bill of health and people are still suspicious of this substance. Last June at the Academy's national conference on artificial sweeteners, the chairman, Dr. Julius Coon, reported that the earlier experiments with animals which had suggested that there might be a link between bladder cancer and the use of saccharin had no bearing on human consumption of this sweetener. For one thing, most scientists agree that findings in animal experiments cannot be irrefutably applied to humans. Also, in the saccharin tests, many believe that it was the impurities in the saccharin fed to the animals, rather than the saccharin itself, which caused the tumors. The only research data concerning human consumption of commercially sold saccharin was done by Dr. Ernst Wynder, president of the American Health Foundation, who studied diabetics who were taking in much larger amounts of saccharin than the normal population. Over a 20-year period, Dr. Wynder found that there was no effect on the incidence of bladder cancer among the thousands of diabetics using large amounts of saccharin daily.

Now, health is of interest to everyone, but dieters have a particularly strong interest in the cold facts of mathematics, and saccharin is a winner in that category as well. One packet of commercially packaged saccharin has the sweetening power of 2 teaspoons of sugar.

HD Members Meet For Luncheon

Members of Cultural Extension Club met for a luncheon and final business meeting of the club year Friday in the home of Mrs. Ira Scott.

For the opening exercise, Mrs. Tom Hargrave read an article entitled "Modern Little Red Hen."

Roll call was answered with "How to Repair Broken Furniture" and Mrs. John Hunter, vice president, presided over the brief business session.

Recognized as visitors were Mrs. Fredrick Harman of Duncanville and Renee Inman.

Members present included Mmes. Burke Inman, John Hunter, Mins Mae Love, Ada

Houser, J.G. Gandy, Paul Corbett, Arthur Dettmann and M.H. Wiseman.

The next meeting was scheduled June 18 at which time members' families will be welcomed at a picnic in the home of Mrs. Hunter.

"That and more." "Well?" "Well what?" "Tell me about your stupid new house." "Suzie, it's fabulous." "Did you get the big back yard you wanted?" "Three acres with a pond." "Do you have a garden?" "We have a greenhouse!" "Do you have a nice kitchen?" "A huge kitchen with all new appliances!" "Do you have some aspirin?" "Aspirin?" "Yeah, you're making me sick." "You should complain. You're not exactly living in a dump." "How does Fred like his new job?" "Suzie, he's a new man." "He likes it?" "He loves it. Absolutely loves it." "That's good." "How is Jack?" "Fine. "When are you going to invite us?" "You know you have a standing invitation." "Yeah, but we'd rather sit." "I'm serious. When are you coming?" "Name a date." "How about in a few weeks... say the week of the 29th?" "Wait a minute, let me get my calendar... the 29th?" "That's a Saturday." "Yeah. Sounds good." "Okay, it's a deal. We'll be expecting you." "What do you want us to bring?" "Just your sense of humor." "No." "No?" "Just joking." "Funny." "You missed a great party at the Smiths' last night." "They had a party? They never have parties." "They've been waiting for you to move away." "What happened?" "Well, for starters, Jackie's dog ate the main course before any of the guests arrived." "You're kidding?" "No. Then the air conditioning went on the blink." "No wonder they never had any parties. What did everyone do?" "We starved and perspired a lot." "Sounds awful!" "See, that's not so bad." "That's terrible." "I know." "What's your excuse?" "A perfectly understandable insecurity resulting from having to adapt to new surroundings." "New surroundings. The only new surroundings you're gonna have to adapt to is the lard surrounding your midsection." "Hey, look. Go easy kid. I don't have you to nag me any more." "Well, it hasn't been easy for me either." "You wouldn't believe the food prices here." "Oh?" "Low." "Low?" "Low." "No wonder you're eating so much." "I'm not kidding..." "Neither am I." "...I'm saving about 15 dollars a week over what I used to pay." "You're kidding!" "I'm not kidding." "Sounds like you got a raise, too." "Right. 15 dollars to blow on anything... toilet paper, floor wax and soap." "Don't forget laundry detergent." "Right." "Hey, you took something of mine when you left." "Your yellow sweater?" "Did you take my sweater?" "Sorry, I wasn't going to tell you." "That's okay. You keep my sweater and I'll keep your skirt." "Skirt?" "You know, the one with all the animals on it?" "Oh, yeah. I'd forgotten about that." "Is it a deal?" "We'll trade when you come to visit." "Sour puss. I'm sorry I even brought the subject up." "What were you going to say?" "I was going to say that you took my Suzie Fu Yung recipe." "Did I?" "Yes." "I'll give you that too when you come." "Good." "See? Just think of all the nice things awaiting you when you come." "I can't wait. Hey, I have something for you." "What?" "A riddle." "Shoot." "What has four holder-uppers, four puller-downers, a pair of lookers, and a swishy-wishy?" "I don't know, what?" RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

The busy working wife can serve her family's favorite pie with little extra effort if she will keep a supply of ready prepared pie crusts in the freezer.

Lemon Cream Pie

4 eggs (separated)
2 heaping T flour
2 lemons (grated rind and juice)
1 c sugar
1 1/2 c boiling water

Beat yolks and whites, separately, using 2 Tablespoons sugar in whites. To the yolks add remaining sugar, flour, lemon juice, rind and boiling water. Cook in double-boiler. When it begins to thicken add one-half stiffly beaten egg whites, stir and cook until thick.

Pour in cooked pie shell, top with remaining egg whites, brown and chill before serving.

Pecan Pie

1/4 c butter
2/3 c brown sugar (packed)
1/4 t salt
3/4 c dark Karo syrup
3 eggs beaten
1 t vanilla
1 c pecans (chopped)

Cream butter and sugar until fluffy, add next four ingredients. Sprinkle pecans over uncooked crust and pour filling over pecans. Bake 45 degrees for ten minutes, reduce heat to 350 degrees and continue cooking for 35 minutes or until a knife blade comes out clean.

SOUND ADVICE

Home Safety Check

In-home safety to guard against fires and other sudden accidents is vitally important. However, a home safety program also should give attention to the threat of noise pollution that can be a hazard in the modern family residence.

This is the advice of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. The crusade, sponsored by Beltone Electronics Corporation, world leader in hearing aids and electronic hearing test instruments, is designed to build public awareness to the need for hearing conservation.

Crusade officials urge caution in the use of high intensity noise-producing home appliances that generate dangerous or potentially dangerous sound levels. While such noise is not confined to any specific location, the kitchen frequently is the noise center of the average home.

For example, sound is measured in decibels (dB) and prolonged exposure to sounds of 85 (dB) or greater can cause permanent hearing losses.

There's nothing sweeter than youth, nor anything as truthful.

Longhorn Drive To Open Ranching Center

LUBBOCK—Longhorn cattle which helped shape the destiny of western America and change the eating habits of the nation—will have their day in the nation's Bicentennial. There is to be a 500-mile Longhorn drive June 27-July 2 from San Antonio to Lubbock, to celebrate the opening of the Ranching Heritage Center at The Museum of Texas Tech University. Charles Schreiner III will be trail boss for the symbolic drive of 70 descendants of the incredible Longhorns, described by some as "wild as a tornado, stronger than a blue norther and as smart as an Apache."

Americans should be proud of their ancestors, proud of the people who built this country," he said.

Ramrods for the Texas Tech University Trail Drive are Ace Reid, cowboy cartoonist, and James DeLesdernier, inspector for the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

The trail drive will help people glimpse the heroes of the past.

Participating in the celebration will be the cities of San Antonio, where trail drives were originating as early as 1779, Kerrville, San Angelo, Stamford and Midland. The cattle will be trailed along thoroughfares in those cities to introduce many to the legendary breed that made men of greenhorns for more than a century.

Schreiner is one of the founders of the Texas Longhorn Breeders Association created in 1963. The Longhorns for the trail drive come from his YO Ranch at Mountain Home, near Kerrville, from the Wichita Falls area ranch of Carter McGregor and from a herd belonging to Don Harrison of Houston.

In each city, the drive is expected to be a part of America's 200th birthday celebration.

Their herds were started by surplus purchases from the Wichita Wildlife Refuge in Oklahoma, where 30 Longhorns were brought in 1927, at a time when they were an endangered species. There were estimated then to be only a few hundred left although 10 million of the wild cattle were gathered and trailed north after the Civil War to furnish beef for a hungry nation.

When the drive arrives at the Ranching Heritage Center July 2, there will be dedicatory ceremonies led by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson who, with the late President Johnson, owned a working Hereford ranch.

The trail drive, known to most Americans only through books, television and film, is symbolic of America's western history. The Spanish and Mexicans passed along ranching techniques to the Texans, and it was from the coastal plains of Texas that the great range cattle industry spread in an explosive boom throughout the American West after the Civil War.

The Mexican ambassador to the United States, Jose Juan de Ollouqui—representing a country which developed American cowboy techniques—will welcome the Longhorns' arrival as will representatives of four other of the nations which contributed to America's ranching heritage.

By 1890, Texas cows, Texas cowboys and cattlemen, and Texas methods of ranching were found in every state and territory west of the Mississippi River and in Canada.

Dale Robertson, who has depicted the American western in film and television, will be master of ceremonies for the dedication ceremonies and the Ranching Heritage Center's formal opening July 2-5.

History records three trail-driving booms in Texas. The first, from 1779 to 1803, saw about 15,000 head trailed annually from Spanish ranches in Texas to markets in Louisiana.

The 12-acre center is a collection of a score of authentically restored ranching structures depicting the history of America's ranching industry. Special tours have drawn more than 100,000 visitors to the unfinished site since the first building arrived in 1970.

The second began in the 1830s with drives from Texas into Louisiana, but later the drives moved to the north and even into California to satisfy the appetites of Gold Rush miners.

The opening is an official national Bicentennial event. "The trail drive," Schreiner said, "should cause Americans to look over their shoulders. If people don't think about their heritage and let their roots run deep, they can't progress."

These trailed Longhorns were descendants of Spanish herds which had multiplied and run wild. They developed into hard, wiry animals that could travel well and live longer on less care than any other breed of cattle before or since.

Longhorns In Training

Longhorn cattle, which will be trailed from San Antonio to Lubbock to celebrate the formal opening of the Ranching Heritage Center, are being trained at the YO Ranch now to accustom them to the noises and frustrations of traffic. The June 27-July 2 trail drive will herald the opening of the authentic exhibit of America's ranching heritage at The Museum of Texas Tech University. The opening will be July 2-5.

Longhorn boom exploded after the Civil War when men returned home, beaten financially but strong on imagination and courage. They found the rangy animals outnumbered people about six to one and were theirs for the taking. And the Texans took them, about 2,500 at a time, to meat-hungry northern markets.

Two cowboys rode and guided the movement of the herd. Swing men rode farther back. Toward the rear were flankers to prevent the herd from spreading or wandering. Cowboys riding drag at the back of the herd piked up strays and kept the animals moving at about 10 miles per day.

Each participant should furnish his own horse and trailer and will be asked to pay $175 per person or $300 per couple to help cover costs.

Schreiner, whose grandfather was one of the first to contract with ranchers to trail cattle to northern railheads, said that any who want to can join the Texas Tech Bicentennial Drive.

The Bicentennial cowboys will receive special recognition, will participate in all events along the trail and will have food for their mounts.

CowBelles Will Attend Roundup

A trail drive—a highly organized operation—had a trail boss in command and a ramrod as overseer. The cook, who was either competent or fired, supplied the meals. A swamper helped the cook and performed odd jobs. Cowboys, or drovers, herded the cattle.

Any who want to participate in the last of the Longhorn trail drives can obtain more information by writing Charles Schreiner, YO Ranch, Mountain Home, Texas 78058.

The CowBelles will sponsor a meat identification contest during the Roundup. An executive board meeting will also be held Tuesday, June 1, and a workshop on meat identification will be held Wednesday, June 2.

A tempting offer on a gas grill.

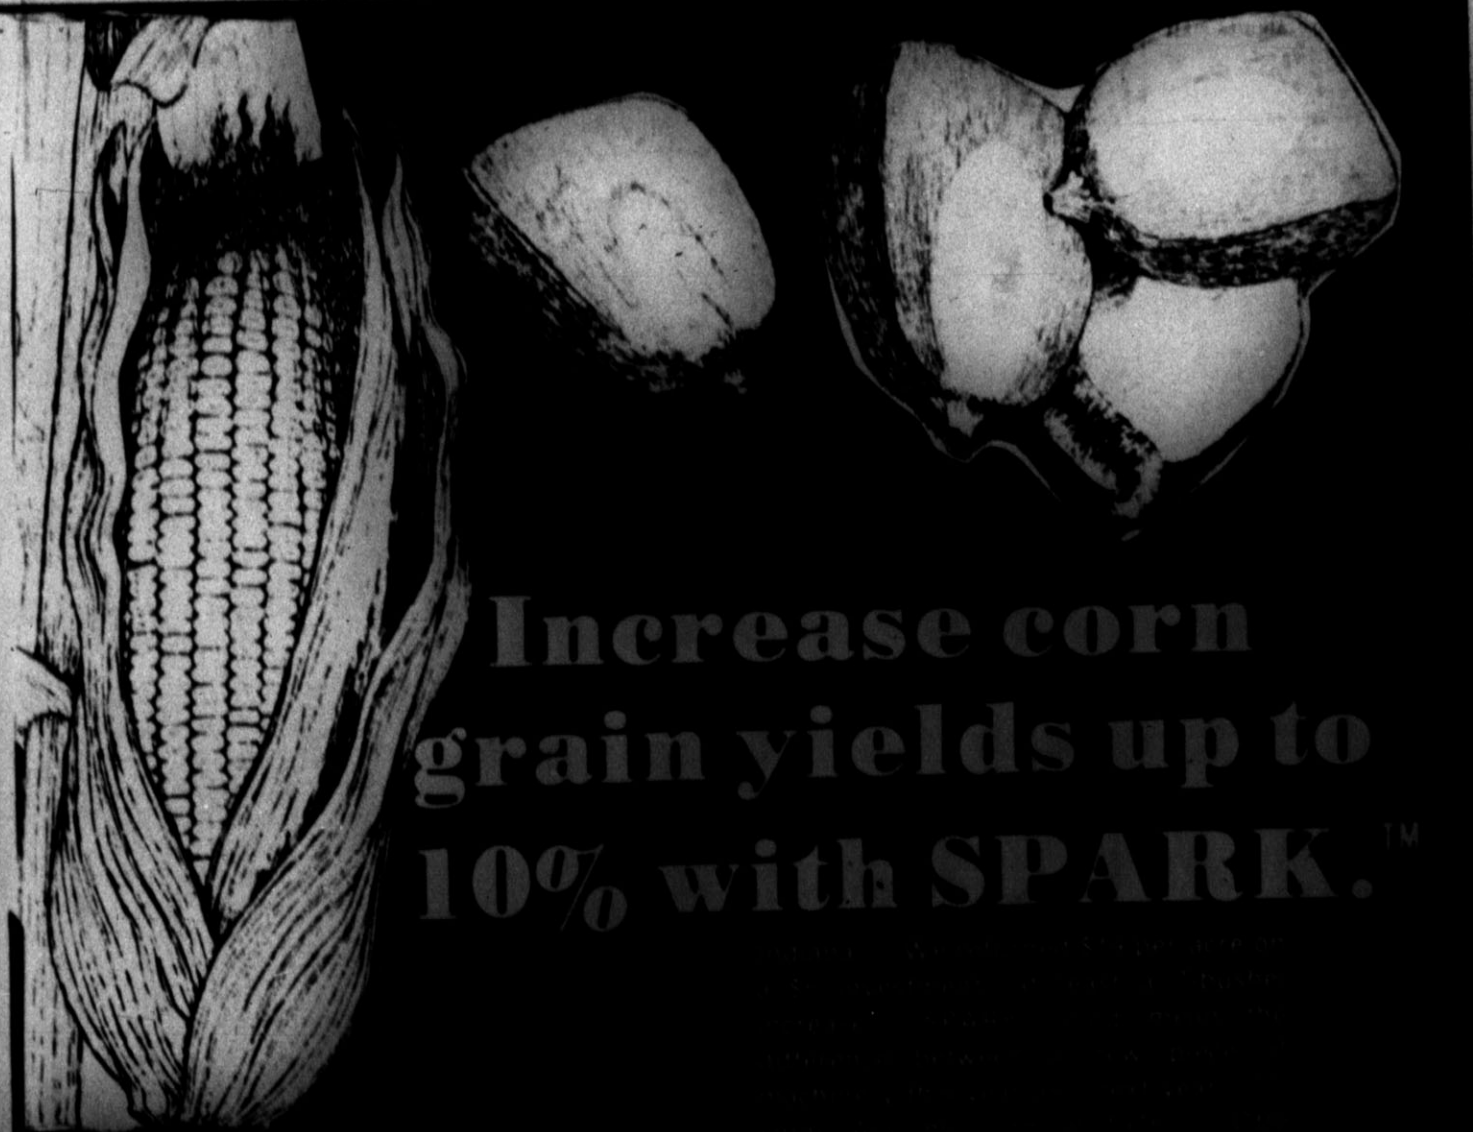

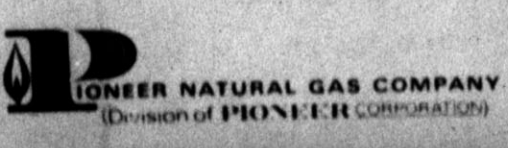

Right now, we're making you a tempting offer on gas grills with twin burners! Independently controlled twin burners never use more gas than you need. For big meals, use both burners. For smaller meals, save gas and money by using one burner and half the grill. A gas grill adds a new dimension to family meals and entertaining. It eliminates the fuss and bother of cooking outside while it keeps the flavor and the fun. And, because you take cooking heat out of the house and the burden off your air conditioning, you save energy, too.

By Jim Stelert

WITH CONTINUALLY growing concern over the increasing costs of fuel for irrigation, many farmers are wondering what, if anything, they can ever turn to when it becomes impractical to use natural gas as an irrigation fuel.

That's a perplexing question, and there may never be a good answer to it. However, a report from Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby indicates that work is underway on the development of a solar-powered pump for irrigation.

Research and development programs on such a pump are currently being conducted at the Sandia Laboratories in Albuquerque, N.M. and at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Gov. Hobby reports that both projects are in the concept study phase and the laboratories are in the process of preparing proposals for funding support from the solar energy division of the federal Energy Research and Development Administration.

NEW MEXICO STATE University is helping to develop the Sandia plan. Sandia and NMSU are proposing that ERDA fund the construction and operation of a model unit.

According to the design concept, solar energy will be collected and used to heat a working fluid, and the heated working fluid will be used to power an engine such as the Rankine, which, in turn, will drive a rotating positive displacement expander to move the water.

Initial estimates by Sandia and NMSU are that irrigating by this method might cost in the $200-$300 per acre range per season.

Texas Tech is working with the Energy Institute of the University of Houston and with the University of Arizona. This group is nearing the end of a study funded by the National Science Foundation and the program is being transferred from NSF to ERDA, with future support coming from ERDA.

UPON REALIZING the critical problem created for farmers by the natural gas shortage, Tech researchers decided that a scaled-down version (500 KW vs. 5 MW) of their feedlot solar power system would be well suited to irrigation pumping.

This has been added to the Tech NSF study.

The university of Houston is doing the solar collector design, and the University of Arizona will examine well characteristics, optimum pump schedules, irrigation pumping requirements and other data needed for plant design.

Texas Tech has the task of designing the power transducers, the engines, the pumps, and the water distributing system.

ACCORDING TO preliminary estimates by Tech, each pumping plant would require a

Cleaning Up Beetfield

Laborers find employment in a beetfield north of Hereford as they thin the crop and hoe out young weeds. Once the laborers complete their operation, the field is cultivated and a layby application of herbicide is put on prior to irrigation. Beet acreage across the county continues to show good progress, with no problems being encountered with diseases and insects as of yet. (Photo By Jim Stelert) capital investment of around $100,000. To try and soothe the shock of that figure, they add that there would be very few operating costs, although it isn't known what the cost would average out to in dollars per acre per season.

The Tech officials point out that utilizing the system to power another operation, such as drying, would help to make the high capital outlay required more acceptable.

So, one of these days we may see the farmer drive up to his pump and unfold the solar collector, rather than breaking out the booster cables and firing up the engine.

But, we probably won't see anything like such a scene for a long time, and if the costs of such a device don't come down, you'd probably see the bank's loan officer sitting right alongside the farmer in his pickup every time he drove out to the field to crank up one of those solar wells.

TURN

WE'RE NOT advocating one political candidate over another in this space, but since Jimmy Carter is about the closest thing to a farmer we've had running for President in a long time, we thought it might be interesting to review Mr. Carter's farm policy.

According to Progressive Farmer magazine, Carter bases his farm policy structure on price supports at cost of production.

Mr. Carter says he would review costs for major crops once every season and adjust price guarantees accordingly.

Quarterly adjustments would be made in the case of perishables such as milk.

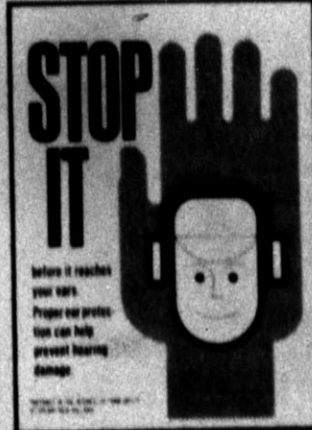

"The important thing is to calculate the costs of production and keep support at that standard," said Carter. "We want a predictable policy that farmers can depend on. Our policy will be for maximum production and maximum exports. We will carry a predictable, reasonably small, and stable reserve of agricultural products—with about half being held by farmers to prevent Government dumping during times of moderate price increases," Carter added.

TURN

MY DAD HAD RATHER an interesting comment the other day concerning Rep. Wayne Hays and his alleged $14,000-a-year "personal relationship" with one Elizabeth Ray.

"I'm not saying what the old boy did was right, but at least that was one politician who kept his money in the country, instead of stashing it away in a Swiss bank account," Dad opined.

The one time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down.

About the only time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down is when it leaves one of Lindsay's plants. Once assembled in your field, it seldom causes a problem. Those big, sure-footed towers power their way around the field, carrying water to crops.

Hour after hour, day after day. Until you decide to shut down. That kind of performance doesn't just happen. It's the result of constant testing — both in the plant and in the field. Lindsay puts these rigs through the most punishing conditions — loads on more stress in a week, usually, than they're likely to see in a lifetime of normal use.

But we know that no system is 100% perfect all the time. That's why we're ready to help with an extensive parts inventory and factory trained servicemen if you ever have a problem. Before you buy any center pivot irrigation system, be sure to let us tell you about all the advantages of owning a Lindsay Zimmatic.

Realtor Roundup

Presented by Hereford Board of Realtors
Jeane Coker, President

BY MARY K. DELAHANTY
Phil Howell Company
Houston

Dear Client,
Regard me as a person, for

that's what I am you know;
Don't make a date to meet
me, and then forget to show.
Don't give me information,
that you know is awfully wrong;
Don't say that you will contact me, I've heard that same old song.

Regard me as a friend, please do, And I will do my best for you;
I'm only human, don't you know, I am your friend, and not your foe.

If we can work together, your dreams will soon come true;
And I'll be very glad to have,
a client nice as you.
When we have looked and found that home, That takes you to its heart;
I'll take pride in knowing that,

I did a little part.
So dear Client, I must add,
with due respect, don't get mad;
Be true to the REALTOR you chance to call, We're only human, after all.

If your nails continue to chip and peel for several weeks after you carefully
groom them, see your doctor.
Your nails are sometimes called the mirror of your health.

Glorieta Training Conference Due

A week-long Church Training
Youth Conference is planned for Glorieta Baptist Conference
Center here, June 5-11.

Youth who have completed the seventh grade or above and leaders of youth are welcome to attend the conference, which will include Bible study,

doctrinal emphasis, recreation and youth leadership training.

Directed by Stanley Howell, interim supervisor of the church
training department's youth section, Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, the conference starts Saturday evening and concludes Friday with the noon meal.

Morning activities include doctrinal study for youth based on Lavonn D. Brown's "I Believe, Volume 2," and training sessions for leaders.
Afternoons will be free for recreation, while evening sessions offer worship and fellowship opportunities.

Program personalities for the week include Robert J. Norman, pastor of Belmont Heights
Baptist Church, Nashville,
Tenn., as worship leader; Lanny
Allen, minister of music at First Baptist Church, San Antonio,
Tex., as music leader; and Bob Oldenburg, minister of education at Leawood (Kan.) Baptist Church, as celebration leader.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS Sealed bids addressed to the City of Hereford, Texas, will be received at the City Hall, Hereford, until 2:00 p.m., June 21, 1976, and then publicly opened and read for furnishing all plant, labor, material and equipment, and performing all work required for heat, scurfy and 1 1/2" hot-mix overlay on 4,400 lineal feet of runway, parallel taxiway and apron, 1,000 lineal feet of new runway and taxiway paving, VASI lighting, fencing and miscellaneous items at the Hereford Municipal Airport located east of the city. Bids shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of the proposal attached hereto and marked in the upper left hand corner. All proposals shall be accompanied by a cashier's check or certified check upon a national or state bank in the amount of five (5) percent of the total maximum bid price payable without recourse to the City or a bid bond in the same amount from a reliable surety company, as a guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute performance bond within ten days after notice of award of contract to him. The bid security must be enclosed in the same envelope with the bid. Bids without check or bid bond will not be considered. The successful bidder must furnish performance and payment bonds upon the forms which are attached hereto in the amount of 100 percent of the contract price from an approved surety company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as surety or other surety or sureties acceptable to the Owner. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality in bids received. Plans, specifications and bidding documents may be secured from the office of the City Manager, or at the office of Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc., 6300 Canyon Dr., Amarillo Texas 79109, on deposit of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars per set which sum so deposited will be refunded, provided: (1) All documents are returned in good condition to Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc. not later than 48 hours prior to the time for receiving bids; or (2) The Contractor submits a bid and all documents are returned in good condition to Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc. not later than five days after the time that bids are received. City of Hereford, Texas By: James H. Sears, Mayor S-44-2c
