Harold Jones of Bovina was recognized as the top sugarbeet producer for the 1979 crop year during the annual Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association banquet held at the Bull Barn Saturday night, while Carl Kleuskens of the Dawn area was honored as Deaf Smith County's "Man of the Year in Agriculture."

The awards presentations came as the high point of the banquet, which drew a crowd of approximately 200.

Grower association secretary James Witherspoon of Hereford announced the top grower awards and presented checks to the three winners.

Jones received a check for $500 for his first place finish, after producing 33.5 tons of beets per acre with a sugar content of 15.93 percent.

That translated into sugar production of 10,662 pounds per Melborn Jones of Bovina received the third place check for $200. He produced 32.43 tons of beets per acre with a sugar content of 13.64 percent for overall sugar production of 8,846 pounds per acre.

The Hereford State Bank, the First National Bank of Hereford and the First National Bank of Canyon donated funds for the cash presentations.

In a surprise awards ceremony, Dr. Steve Winter of the USDA research station at Bushland was honored by the SBGA for his services on the behalf of area beet growers.

Association president Bill Cleavinger of Wildorado cited Dr. Winter's efforts in sugar beet irrigation research as crucial to creating a new school of thought among beet growers who had long felt beets were a water intensive crop.

Winter's research revealed that beets are second only to cotton in their ability to go for long time periods without water and still produce when water becomes available.

Cleavinger presented Dr. Winter with a plaque on behalf of the grower's association.

DPS May Cut

Services over Gas

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Rising gasoline prices have forced the Department of Public Safety to use salary funds to buy fuel for its highway patrol cars and other vehicles, according to Col. Jim Adams.

The DPS director Monday told public safety commissioners that continued hikes in gasoline costs would lead to a cutback in DPS services.

Adams transferred $662,000 from the salary fund to the operating account to cover the fuel costs. He said the current DPS budget includes a gasoline appropriation based on 70 cents per MOSCOW (AP) - The Soviet government today stripped dissident leader and Nobel Peace Prize winner Andrei Sakharoy of a series of state awards. Dissidents said Sakharov had been arrested.

The Tasa news agency said Sakharov had been deprived of the awards and titles because of years of "subversive work against the Soviet state."

Shortly before the Tass announcement. an anonymous called telephoned The Associated Press to say Sakharov had been arrested.

The caller said Sakharov's wife, activist Yelena Bonner, soon would be taken into custody as well:

Reporters reaching the Sakharov apartment building reported finding two uniformed Soviet policemen at his door. The police escorted the reporters back to the elevator and said "everything will be explained.'

The reported arrest of Sakharov, a physicist once known as the father of the Soviet H-bomb, could not be independently confirmed, but shortly after the first call a second caller identifying herself as Irina Kaplun said Sakharov was arrested on a Moscow street.

It has become almost standard political practice for Congress to enact a tax cut in an election year, and Carter seemed to regard a congressionally mandated tax cut as a possibility this year.

When and if tax cuts are enacted, the president said Social Security payroll taxes should be at the top of the list. A big increase in Social Security taxes is scheduled in 1981. Carter predicted some sucdefense spending to ensure "a cess in controlling inflation, strong, unsurpassed defense saying. "Inflation will slow this year. In 1981 it should be even lower." Consumer prices innizes that many Americans' tax creased about 13 percent last year, and most economists pre-

When the cornerstone of our civilization is laid, my personal entry for inclusion will be the 1040-A form put out by the Internal Revenue Service.

Not only is it the only piece of mail to be sent third class bulk without a stamp that gets to your home in mint condition--within three hours after it is sent--but it is written in Taxese for an English-speaking population.

Every year someone says they are going to write it ir English so that the average person can understand it and make out his own form, but this never happens.

I don't pretent to speak Taxese, but I'll try to translate some of the simpler terms for you.

Spouse: This is a married person, for which you get one exemption, providing your spouse is neither blind nor over 65. If the spouse is either blind or over 65, take two exemptions. However, if the spouse is both blind and 65 or over, then you take three exemptions. This term has made 'fooling around' very popular.

Gains: An obscene word you do not use in front of the Gross income: A term borrowed from kids, previously used to describe their allowance.

Abandoned Spouses: Married persons who live apart can file separate returns. "Abandoned" does not include couples separated by NFL. AFL. NBA. ABA. NHL. Olympic Games, or Wide World of Sports.

Death: This is no excuse for not filing a 1040-A form. If it has not been filed, a personal representative or heir must do so. Remember, you don't get a refund unless you file.

"If Line 13 is larger than line 15, the difference will be refunded to you." This is the IRS's attempt at humor...like the old line where someone calls you and asks if the street light is burning and when you go out to check, they say, "Then try to blow it out." Actually, it's a funny line, I personally have never known anyone whose line 13 was larger than line 15.

Paid Preparer: This is someone who helps you prepare your return. Some of them will go with you to your IRS agent when you are summoned. None of them will remember who you Privacy Act: This is a comforting act passed in 1974. assuring you that your return will be kept secret and shared only by the U.S. Treasury, the Dept. of Justice, all federal agencies, all states including the District of Columbia, the U.S. commonwealths and possessions and all foreign governments who have tax treaties with the U.S.

Rev. George Belford. This marks the 72nd observance of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. It began in 1908 through the efforts of Father Paul James Francis, the first Father General of the Friars of Atonement in Graymoor, N.Y. Father Paul is attributed with the beginning of eight days of prayer "that all may be one."

The prayer program of Father Paul was spread throughout the Catholic world and in 1916, Pope Benedict XV extended the prayer program to assure its continuance. It was approved by all the bishops of the United States in 1921. It continued to expand until the death of Father Paul in 1940.

Father Paul Couturier of Lyons. France gave a different tone to the movement by asking Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants to take part in prayer for various churches. In 1941, the World Council of Churches agreed to adopt the time of Unity Octave of January as the period of prayer among themselves. In 1966, the Graymoor friars agreed to use the title "Week of Prayer for Unity" in place of the "Unity Octave" and have sought to promote it as widely as possible. In the United States, the project is sponsored by the Department of Faith and Order of the National Council of Churches and the Graymoor Ecumenical Institute. All Christians are invited to participate in the Week of Prayer for Unity and to attend the local been designed by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association to help the increasing numbers of American career women look more professional during Spring and Summer 1980. Career Cuts, featuring long lengths in the front of the head for a variety of styling possibilities, are adapatble for the office, entertaining or relaxing on weekends. They are created especially for the career women who are rapidly becoming an important and influential segment of the nation's working ferce.

Max Matteson of Grand rapids, Michigan, Styles Director for the 68,000 member association, explained, "Career Cuts are designed to complement the fashion world's interest in the business suit and skirt/blazer combinations for today's career woman."

Concerning the versatility of Career Cuts, Matteson said, relaxed, flexible styles that can fall easily into soft waves. The cuts are shorter in the nape area, becoming longer as they come forward. The shorter cut of the head for a classic, has a brief nape. On both the short and mid-lenght cuts, the top and bang areas are long. This allows the wearer to pull the hair off the face in many different ways.'

Additional options are available through waves, curls and coloring, all designed to add softness and femininity to the Career Cuts.

Body waves come to the forefront with subtle, soft waves and curls to give the career woman the control her hair needs to look its best between her cosmetology salon visits." Matteson explained.

"Softness is again the key word for Spring-Summer haircoloring, especially in light blonde and strawberry blonde tones," Matteson said.

The newest career coloring advent for Spring-Summer is a soft frame of light color around the face in just a couple of color shades lighter than the hair color. The long Career Cut length in the fron of the head offers a variety of ways to enhance facial features by combing the speical coloring areas both around and away from the face as well as to the techniques provide feminine touches necessary for Spring-Summer's soft and feminine fashions that include lace. school-girl collars, revealing necklines and a renewed emphasis on soft, white fabrics.

Career Cut hair has very light and spherical movements. When cut with a razor and tapering shears, the texture is changed from the blunt shear cuts of the past to moveable, arry hair with more length. The hair easily can be controlled by the use of a blow dryer.

Spring hats, hair ornamentation and accessories such as pearls work perfectly with Career Cuts. The bang area length allows for wave movements around the face that can add softness to hats, ornaments and accessories in addition to the face.

Rivals La Plata, Stanton Clash; LP Wins 46-44

By MAURI MONTGOMERY Brand Sports Editor

The past was revisited to some extent here Monday night as the La Plata Mavericks and the Stanton Dogies fought each other to the death in a Hereford civil war--and it was a nice little

The site of the battle wasn't Vicksburg, but rather the Stanton Gymnasium. The two enemies were from the East and West instead of from the North and South, and the issue of the conflict wasn't slavery, but for the grazing rights as the city champion.

And in this instance, the La Plata Maverick 9th grade basketball team shall rise and rule again--at least for another year--as they out flanked the Dogies 46-44 in a contest to end all others.

Yesuh!

Right from the very beginning, the Mavericks and the Dogies made sure the other one knew there would be no freebies in the game as both teams stayed never further than two quarter.

But it was the Mavericks who kept their heads above water for the longest period of time in that period as they took four leads while Stanton came back to tie it three times.

With 5:45 remaining in that first quarter and the score Stanton's. doubled-up 2-2, Steve Barrett dropped in a corner shot that gave La Plata its second lead early in the game 4-2, but Victor Soliz tied the match up for Stanton after he slipped in a , take advantage of.

Charles McDowell fast break

And there would be a retake of the lead-tie exchange before all was said and done as La Plata took an 8-6 margin over the Dogies going into the second round.

But the second quarter was all

Alfred Ball sunk a 20 foot jumper with less than a minute gone out of that period to tie the score once more at 8-8 and it was a tie that the Dogies would

Seven minutes of play remained in the second quarter when Victor Soliz (high scoreman for the Dogies in the contest with 10 total points) chipped in a shot from the middle of the lane to give Stanton freshmen their first lead of the ballgame.

Then after a successful Bryan Taylor free throw attempt, Dogie Jay Hodge drove into the Mayerick defense and gave an assist to Soliz who dropped in a 15 foot corner shot to bring Stanton out front 13-8 (the largest lead of the game at that point) with 4:28 showing on the clock.

And even though La Plata picked off some of that deficit before the end of the quarter, the Dogies still maintained the advantage of the ball game with a score of 19-16 going into halftime.

But that Dogies upper hand lasted only through the intermission and one minute into the third period, as the Mavericks came back to not only tie the score, but to extend their control over the contest by as much as eight points.

However, that lead dwindled as quickly as had all others in the match. A clearly defined champion at this point in the game was out of the question and more than anyone should ask for because neither team would permit a runaway game. Each team wasn't going to be the one to quit first and so no one quit

qualifying time on the nose

Two of Hereford's finest track stars David Bell and James Mays, competed in the West Texas State indoor track this past weekend and represented themselves very well as they both placed very high in the competition.

Bell placed third for the WTSU Buffs in the 330-yard dash as he ran a 32.4 in that event and later went on to take second place in the 60-yard dash after clocking a 6.3. That time in the 60-yard dash fell one-tenth of a second short behind the winning time of New Mexico Junior College's Marc Mial.

Mays, also a Hereford track when won in a time of 1:10.3 product and recently acclaimed which was considered by most star at Texas Tech University, as a remarkable achievement hit the national 660-yard dash this early in the track season.

Blair Rogers and Mike Scott racked up nine points apiece to share the high point honors for the 7th grade Maverick roundball squad as La Plata up rooted Stanton's team22-15.

Sammy Suarez netted six points for the contest to gain the high scoring berth for the Dogies in the Monday game.

In girl's Jr. High basketball action, there wasn't any doubt about it. The Mavericks (winning all three contests) were the undisputed city cnamps.

Stephanie Foster led the 9th grade cager squad to victory as she popped in 14points to earn the high scoring rights for the team, while Carri Walterscheid and April Melugin each tallied 10 points for the contest to follow in double figures. Mavericks Sherri Ellis had eight. and DeDe Dobbins took three to round out the La Plata scoring.

High scorers for the Stanton frosh team were Angela White with a tally of 13 points and Rosie Garza who netted an impressive score of 16 total points for the contest. The loss dropped the Stanton Dogies to 11-5 on the year and brought them to 5-2 in district play.

Vanessa Sims picked off 10 points to give the La Plata 8th grade girl's squad the upper hand in their 34:21 victory over the Dogies while Paula Masson and Angela Richburg assisted the team's scoring with seven points apiece. On Stanton's side of the scoreboard, Amy Noves added five total points to grasp the high point honors for the Dogies. Stanton now stands at 8-8 on the year and 4-4 in district after the loss.

Connie Zinser hit her mark for six total points to take the high scoring spot for the 7th grade squad as the Mavericks blasted Stanton 25-7 in their cross-town rivalry. Troyce Shudder and Lisa Perez followed in scoring for La Plata with a tally of four points apiece. Scoring high for Stanton's squad was Kristen Walterscheid who netted four notches for the game.

Faces Try For Next District Win

By MAURI MONTGOMERY Brand Sports Editor

The district 4-AAAA first half basketball crown will be up for grabs tonight as the Hereford Whitefaces and the Monterey Plainsmen (both unbeaten in district play 1-0) pair off against each other tonight in Lubbock at 7:30, and to hear the two teams coaches talk, the other team is going to have to be the one who makes all the changes in game plans because both are satisfied with the way their games are coming along.

"As far as any adjustments go in our game plan--we don't have any and won't be making any," said Monterey head coach Joe Michalka. "What we've been doing so far this year (a slow controlled-shot when you've got a shot plan) has paid off for us quite well so far and our win over the Lubbock Westerners is a testiment to that fact.'

The Plainsmen knocked off Lubbock High 70-50 in their first district opener a week ago.

"I won't deny that everybody down here was surprised that Hereford beat the Plainview Bulldogs last week because no one figured they would come on and do that well with their game so quick, in the season, but our kids have alot of pride too and they're not ready to lose their first district game," said Michalka. "What it will boil down to is who has the stronger defense, because we both have good offenses. And we feel like we'll beat the Whitefaces on the boards."

The Plainsmen have been grabbing 57 percent of their defensive rebounds this year largely due to the efforts of 6-6 post Trav Clardy with an average of 20 rebounds per outing.

"There's no doubt that we'll have to keep him (Clardy off the boards, but he's not the only one," said HHS coach Bob Decker. "Ian Hyslop (also a post at 6-6) has been doing real well for them too this year."

"They run a 2-3 zone defense just like we do and they run it very well so at least we know what will work against it and what

"On defense, our main objective is to make them shoot outside and to keep Clardy and Hyslop away from the bucket, but our hands are going to be full because they can shoot from outside too," he said. "I don't know how we'll stop the big guys and their guards at the same time, but we've done it before and we'll just have to do it again!

Decker said that the main concern for the Whitefaces this week however is to rid themselves of constant turnovers that have plagued them in the past.

"We haven't been consistent at all this year as far as turnovers are concerned," the coach said. "We averaged over 25 turnovers during our last game with Plainview and we're going to have to cut that at least in half to beat Monterey."

Duke Tops Tech In College Action

AP Sports Writer

The Georgia Tech Yellowjackets are one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's weakest basketball teams, but for a while there they were floating like a butterfly and stinging Duke like a bee.

"They play their game and don't make mistakes," said Duke Coach Bill Foster. "They are a tough team and they are going to win. They're coming so close, knocking on the door. One of these days, the door is going to open.

The Yellowjackets had their foot inside the door for a while Monday night with a slowdown game, before Duke finally closed it at the end with the help of Mike Gminski's touch. Gminski had 24 points, including five during a gamebreaking 11-2 spurt, to help the nation's No.4-ranked team whip Georgia Tech 56-49.

Playing against slowdown tactics "is one of my least favorite things to do," Gminski said. "It's frustrating. You know it's going to be a close game down the stretch so we just stuck to our game plan and played really well on defense (in tried to keep from getting erratic with the ball.

Bradshaw Wins Despite Losing Feeling

Oh, and the Steelers' Super Bowl victory was their fourth...a

"It was weird. It just wasn't like me, not being able to sleep before a big game," said Bradshaw, whose 309 yards passing (14 for 21) was within nine yards of the record he set a year

'Last year before Dallas (the Steelers beat the Cowboys 35-31) I didn't have any trouble. I never had any negative thoughts. I never think about losing. I had to say to myself, 'Stop that, now. Think positive.' Finally, it worked."

Then there was the small matter of asserting himself with his teammates. "I think I had more of a leadership role this time," Bradshaw said. "I really took charge and tried to juice 'em. I never do that. But I really took control of the team. Usually I just go out and play the game. But I felt I wasn't involved, and I thought 'If I'm not involved maybe they're not involved,' so I made a point of pumping 'em, getting them going, getting them

Stallworth gathering it in at the Rams' 32 as Thomas lunged in vain, then going the rest of the way to complete the 73-yard play that put Pittsburgh ahead to stay.

The Steelers wrapped it up when Harris, who had gotten their first touchdown on a 1yard sweep in the second period, bulled in from the 1 again with 1:52 to go. It came three plays after a pass interference penalty against Thomas for bumping Jim Smith in the end

It was the only controversial call, and the Rams really didn't argue too loudly. "He tried to take the position away from the receiver," referee Fred Silva said of Thomas' contact. "He was not playing the ball." And Charlie Musser, the field judge who threw the flag, added: "He (Thomas) had his hands all over

Harris' clinching touchdown came eight plays after Jack Lambert, the Steelers' middle linebacker, broke the Rams' backs by intercepting a Ferragamo pass at the Pittsburgh 14yard line.

The interception and touchdown finally allowed the Steelers to breathe easily against a team which most observers felt would be blown out of the Rose Bowl long before the extravagant halftime show - complete with a giant fireworks display blew smoke all over the San Gabriel Mountains.

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Bad breath is a symptom

DEAR DR. LAMB - My son is 14 years old and he has terrible breath. I took him to the family dentist for a check up to have his teeth cleaned. He has no cavities. However, his dentist said that his foul breath is due to gastric juices. This odor in his mouth is causing unpopularity in school. Is it true that the odor is caused by his stomach and, if so, how can it be corrected? If you have a Health Letter on bad breath, I'd sure like to have it. DEAR READER - Bad breath is a symptom. It was proper to take your son to a dentist. Frequently bad breath is caused by dental problems. That doesn't mean cavities. It means either accumulation of food particles around the teeth or an infection that involves the areas around the roots of the teeth and under the edges of the gums (gingiva). The latter requires treatment by a dentist and is not something that a person can correct himself just by improving his dental hygiene Then some cases of bad breath are caused by food accumulation on the tongue. That's because not everyone knows you need to brush the tongue regularly, just as you brush your teeth.

I am sending you The Health Letter that you asked for, number 9-4, Halitosis: The Breath Problem And What To Do About It. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station,

New York, NY 10019. As The Health Letter I'm sending you explains, you can have bad breath from many different causes other than the teeth. It can be but seldom is associated with bad tonsils. Much more often it's associated with sinus problems. If your son has an infection in the nose and throat area, such as a problem with the sinuses. that can be the source of the odor. So your next stop should be to see an ear, nose and throat specialist.

If the problem can't be solved there, you might want to talk to your son's physician (pediatrician or family doctor). You can have bad breath from any upset in body chemistry. The classic example here is the diabetic or the patient with liver disease. Abnormal chemicals are carried by the bloodstream and escape into the lungs to be exhaled. That's the same way that alcohol breath works.

everybody has bad breath The stomach is functionally closed at the top so its con-tents do not emit odors unless a person burps or belches and that's very transitory. A number of people also have the mistaken idea that colon problems will contribute to bad breath. There is no way that this can happen. But any of the digestive disturbances that result in an upset body chemistry can cause the problem through the bloodstream and lungs as I mentioned.

Realtors Head: No Deflation

NEW YORK (AP) - The real estate industry is changing: The commission structure is being reshaped, franchising is becoming popular, national firms are competing with local outlets, housing concepts are evolving, But one change that Ralph W.

Pritchard doesn't foresee is a very sharp deflation in singlefamily home prices. "No way in the world," he said the other day. "Too much of a demand, too much of a shortage."

Pritchard is this year's president of the National Association of Realtors, which claims 750,- 000 members and describes itself as the country's largest professional trade organization.

It may sound preposterous now, he states, but in 1990 a family might have to apply to a government agency for a license to sell its property. He even has a name for it: the Property Selling Bureau.

It does sound preposterous, a listener commented.

Pritchard, who heads a 31-office, metropolitan Chicago concern, Thorsen Realtors, part of the Coldwell Banker chain, was equal to the challenge. Realtor presidents generally are well

Paul Harvey News W.C. FIELDS ON A POSTAGE STAMP? We Must Be Hard Up For Heroes!

There will be a postage stamp honoring entertainer W.C.

It will show the comic in his distinctive top hat performing a juggling act.

It will be issued January 29 of this year (1980) which is the 100th anniversary of his birth.

It will first be issued in Beverly Hills, Calif., in ceremonies sponsored by the American Academy of Motion Pictures, Arts and Sciences in a ceremony at the Academy theater.

I'm having trouble believing what I just said. Are we really that hard up for heroes?

If I wanted purposely to dilute the historic image of the United States so that I might diminish its institutions and turn it into something which it is not I well might start by putting pictures of clowns on its postage stamps.

Houston Cops May Sue

HOUSTON (AP) - Houston Police Chief Harry Caldwell says he is tired of city policemen being used as whipping boys and has warned that officers may file suits against persons making irresponsible alle-

Caldwell also told reporters Monday that officers "are not targets to be shot at."

"It is perfectly appropriate that if somebody pulls a gun on a police officer that the next place you find that person should be in the morgue," said Caldwell.

The chief said it is hard enough for officers to fight crime without groups appearing before city council to accuse officers of being murderers and animals. Most of those making such accusations couldn't do one-tenth the work the officers do, Caldwell said.

"There will be some court action if I see a continuation of irresponsible complaints being made, often on the basis of absolutely no evidence whatsoever and some of them absolutely fabricated," Caldwell said.

Caldwell said the hoped to see some of the suits filed in the very near future. The chief said such suits would have the department's moral support although such support would not

President Takes Hard-Line Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter says Americans must pay whatever price is required to remain the strongest nation in the world."

In a written State of the Union message delivered to Congress Monday, the president took a hard line toward the Soviets and placed a U.S. military buildup first among American goals for the 1980s.

"The Soviet Union has built a war machine far beyond any reasonable requirements for their own defense and security," Carter said.

To counter it, he said, defense spending will be boosted 3 percent, after accounting for inflation, and alliances will be strengthened. Plans for an increase of that size had been announced previously. More measures will be outlined by Carter in his State of the Union speech Wednesday night. In another part of his speech. Carter appeared to be willing to extend an olive branch to Iran if the Americans hostages being held there are freed unharmed.

He said the administration was prepared to develop "a new and mutually beneficial relationship" with the regime of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini if the hostages are released.

"We have no basic quarrel with the nation, the revolution or the people of Iran," the president said. "The threat to them comes not from American policy but from Soviet actions in the region.'

At the same time, Carter reaffirmed his abhorrence at the Nov. 4 seizure of the U.S. Embassy in Tehran' and insisted that "our patience is not unlimited and our concern for the well-being of our fellow citizens grows every day."

Condemning the Soviets in Cold War terms, the president accused the Kremlin of "ruthgovernment in Afghanistan and said they were now within striking distance of the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf.

In response, Carter said, the United States is prepared to "confront the threats they may pose to our security.'

The president did not directly mention the prospect of going to war, but a senior administration official told reporters at the White House that "when we say we are prepared to use force to defend our interests in that part of the world, we mean it."

The official said U.S.-Soviet relations were in "a period of intensified tensions" and the American public "has got to understand this is a long-haul effort.'

At the same time, he said, the administration and the news media "should avoid an impression we are on the brink of some military confrontation."

Although more than 100 reporters - including some from China, West Germany, Great Britain and other countries attended the briefing, the official insisted he not be named.

Neither he nor Carter indicated the long-term cost of the U.S. military buildup, which includes new nuclear weapons, a bigger navy, and development of a rapid deployment force.
